Single member district voting plan gets Post ISD attention

Trustees request additional plan for consideration

by Wes Burnett

The Post ISD board of trustees, meeting in regular session Tuesday, March 10, heard a report from attorney Don Dennis on a proposed redistricting plan which would establish five single member districts and two at-large trustees.

Following a careful study of the proposal, trustee Mark Kirkpatrick requested that a second proposal be presented, so that the public could have at least two options to choose from.

No decision was made by the trustees concerning the redistricting plan, but the item has been scheduled for next month's agenda, when Dennis is to present a second proposal. The trustees could then schedule public hearings to consider the two plans.

The board of trustees is preparing redistricting plans in an effort to change the voting from at-large places to single member districts in compliance with the U.S. Voting Rights Act.

The earliest a voting change could take place would be in the May 1993 election.

School engineer Bill Stracener reported to trustees on the various building projects and said the physical education facility at the middle school should be completed in June.

Trustees voted to continue the policy of providing bus service to students residing outside the two mile limit. The vote came on the heels of a discussion concerning a request from a parent to provide bus service inside the city limits. The extra operating expense and cost of purchasing new busses were primary factors in the decision.

The board approved an agreement with the City of Post for use of the baseball field, subject to future negotiations, with a stipulation that no sharing of costs for maintenance would be provided without specific and prior approval by the board.

Superintendent Bill Shiver pointed out a few potential problems, especially the traditional consumption of alcoholic beverages by fans at the baseball park. "This can be a problem, and we are enlisting the support of law enforcement to help us control the area during our games," Shiver said.

Trustees approved personnel recommendations following a discussion concerning the legal ramifications of board members becoming directly involved in employee decisions.

The textbook committee was approved and Dr. Larry Leininger was appointed as school physician.

Six candidates file for city council election

City Council member Jim Schooler, Jimmy Holleman and Harold Lucas have added their names to the list of candidates for the May 2 election. Others meeting the filing deadline in the city election are Marion Cruse, Jim Voss and Lewis Holly. The deadline for filing is Wednesday, March 18.

Those filing for the Post ISD trustee election include for Place Five incumbent Prudencio Basquez and Jeff Lott, in Place One unexpired two year term Royce Hart and for Place Four incumbent Ronnie Gradine and S. Rafe Foreman.

Garza Memorial Hospital board of directors David Tyler and Becky Warren have filed for the two positions they currently hold on the ballot for that election.

Southland ISD has three positions on the ballot with on candidates filing at this time. The three positions are currently held by Dennis McGehee, Joey Basinger and one that has not been filled since the last election.

Early voting in the elections begins April 13 and ends April 28.

Oops...

In our story last week about the visiting Salvadoran mayors, we failed to mention that the Women's Division of the Post Chamber of Commerce hosted the reception at the Post Community Center. These volunteers are involved in so many projects, and this is just one more example of their contributions to the community.

Two arrests reported...

A 16 year old male was arrested March 12 by Garza County deputies, charged with unauthorized use of a motor vehicle. The youth was transferred to Lubbock County where he remains in custody.

On March 15 a 23 year old man was arrested on a charge of failure to report an accident with a fixed object. The incident involved a one vehicle rollover on U.S. Hwy 84, causing damage to the highway guard rail. The man was released on a $1,500 bond.

PHS academic teams win first here

"The entire staff of Post High School took part in running this very successful meet," principal Joe Giddens says.

Others helping judge events included Marita Jackson, Maury Shiver, Tyra Raspberry, Tonya Dunn, Barbara Babb, Linda Wood, Julie Hudman, Alexa

The board approved a recommendation by kindergarten and first grade teachers, presented by Shiver, to provide an eight week summer school program for kindergarten and first grade students failing to meet minimum standards at the end of the regular school year. "This is a good example of teachers coming up with plans to help students," Shiver added.

Certificates of deposit were approved for renewal in the amounts of $1,457,816; $783,604; $1,486,589 and $597,546 at rates between 3.35 and 3.56 percent for 30 to 32 days.

Attending the meeting were trustees Kirkpatrick, Pru Basquez, Barbara Hardin, Gary Workman, Ronnie Gradine and Rex Cash.

Taba'na Yuan'e ceremony set for sunrise Sunday

The traditional Taba'na Yuan'e ceremony will be held Sunday, March 22 at the City Park on the south side of the lake beginning with the preparations of the plains Indian rituals at 6 a.m.

Sponsored by the Post Chamber of Commerce, the Taba'na Yuan'e ceremony will again be under the supervision of "Chief" Frank Runkles, who has faithfully performed the ceremony true to its original form since 1973. He is a long-time student of Indian lore.

The Taba'na Yuan'e tradition dates back to earliest memories of the plains Indians, and it began here in 1906 when early pioneers in Garza County recalled the legend as told by the Indians.

Taba'na Yuan'e translates to "The Sunrise Wind." Plains Indians used the dance to check the wind direction at the exact moment of sunrise, which would determine their success in the coming year.

According to the legend, the wind must be checked at sunrise on the day after the sun reaches the halfway point in its journey from the south to the north. Garza County farmers and ranchers have relied on the Taba'na Yuan'e for more than 80 years as an indicator as to their success in the coming year.

"Chief" Runkles begins the ceremony with the building of a small fire, using only natural materials. The fire is lighted by the friction of rubbing two sticks together.

Following the singing of a tribal prayer of thanks for the fire, the "Chief" performs a Four Winds dance where a pipe of peace is presented to the four directions, then to Mother Earth and to Wakantanka, the Great Spirit above, to seek their blessing.

A wad of grass is placed on the coals and as the smoke indicates the wind direction at the moment of sunrise, the Smoke Dance is ended by kneeling and pointing a feather in the direction from which the wind comes.

An east or northeast wind means a very good year, north or northwest an average year, west or southwest a poor year and south or southeast a very bad year.

Last year the wind at sunrise was from the northwest, indicating an average year.

Following the ceremony, the Chamber of Commerce will host a breakfast with sausage, bacon, gravy, biscuits and eggs for $2.50 per person.

1948 PHS baseball team may have been first...

by Wes Burnett

It's a history making event, but it's not the first baseball team to be fielded by PHS.

I should have known better than to say that this year's PHS baseball team is the first at the school... hardly had the ink dried on the newspaper when I heard from an "old-timer" who wondered how many calls I had received.

"None," I replied, "but tell me more." Bud Davis then told me about the 1948 team, although he couldn't remember the names of very many of those who played on that team, he did say he thought K.W. Kirkpatrick was one of them.

I looked in the April and May 1948 editions of The Post Dispatch and found stories about the team in four issues, but not a team roster.

The April 8, 1948 story mentioned coach Bing Bingham. The names listed in the various stories included Ray Wade, Billy Ramage, Jerry Odom, Junior Malouf, Shorty Hester, Charles King and Lonnie Walls.

And the April 8 story also said, prophetically, "this is the first baseball team in a number of years at the high school."

"Aha," I said to myself, "if only I had said that last week..." but then, Bud wouldn't have called me and I would never have known what history making event this really is.

Okay, so you members of the 1948 team get together sometime soon, and call me so I can get a photo of you guys, maybe at one of the home games coming up here... two good chances include games here March 31 with Slaton and April 14 with Tahoka.

Next time someone tells me "this is a first"... I guess I'll probably take their word for it and found out later the real story. Heck, it's a lot more fun this way.

Democrats hold convention March 28

The County Democratic Convention for Garza County will convene at 2 p.m., Saturday, March 28 in the second floor courtroom at the courthouse, according to county chairman Lewis Earl.

"The purpose of the convention is to select and instruct the Garza County delegation to the State Democratic Convention," Earl explained.

City crews work extra on weekends

Getting Post streets in shape the past two weekends has kept city employees busy Saturdays and Sundays, taking advantage of good weather conditions as they applied emulsion on unpaved and paved streets.

Putting in the extra effort on the weekend were Mike Sanchez, Jackie Blacklock, James Wise, Frank Flores, Paul Perez, Johnnie Torres, Owen Gilbert and Larry Haynes.

"We are indebted to these employees for their extra effort," city manager Bob Turner says, "we had to get this work done during times when the wind speed is low and with dry conditions."

profession around town, like the Elderly Care Centers, the Doctors, and the Hospital.

Here is a case that I know about. There are two people in an Elderly Care Unit in our city, they are critically ill and it was questionable if they would make it through the night, and a Doctor requested some lab work to see if there was a chance to make them more comfortable. The care center nurse made the request of the Hospital lab. This unfortunately was after hours and the lab technician called the care center and informed them that if there was to be any lab work done after hours that the patient would have to come into his lab.

Well here you have two elderly people that don't know where they are let alone how they got there, they are incapacitated and feeling bad and this lab tech says that they will have to be gotten out of bed put on a stretcher or wheel chair and wheeled to his lab. When he could have taken his little tray and walked from one building to another, took the blood as requested and at the same time, been a nice guy. It seemed to me as I listened to the situation that he could have been more courteous with the complete situation.

The wonderer,
Doyle W. Young
Editor's Note: Perhaps there are legal requirements on lab work. We have found in our experience that GMH personnel are cooperative and professional. We hope you can resolve this situation with the hospital administrator.

Spring break is here!! Students and teachers are enjoying a well deserved break from school work. Sometimes in the spring students think that they just can't stand school any longer and they decide to drop out or not return to school next year.

In 1990 the U.S. Bureau of the Census released figures which should give both parents and students something to think about before a student drops out of school. The chart below gives the median annual income for those 18 years of age and older working year round who have completed various levels of education.

Level of education and median income:
Less than 8th grade, $6,214; 8th grade, 7,183; high school dropout, 7,914; high school graduate, 12,040; some college, 14,554; college graduate, 22,381; college plus, 30,606.

Median income means that half of the workers earn less than that amount and half earn more. The figures make it clear that the more education a person has, the greater his or her earning capacity. Although there are likely to be exceptions, most high school dropouts cannot expect to earn what college graduates do.

Young people who are tired at the end of the school year and bored with school and wait impatiently for the day when they can drop out of school may think that the money they will earn will buy a fantastic lifestyle. That is because compared to zero earnings, anything sounds good. The fact is, meeting basic needs costs money. Financing an imagined lifestyle is even more costly.

If a person earns the median income for high school dropouts, he/she will earn $7,914 per year, or $659.50 a month before taxes. With apartment rentals and utilities to pay, car payments and insurance costs to cover, very little money will be left over for the essentials of living.

Before a student decides to drop out of school, both the student and the parent should take a close look at the young person's prospects for future earnings. Parents and friends can encourage the student to stay in school and learn the things he/she will need to know to land and hold a job which will provide the best earning capacity possible. Hopefully students will take the opportunity Spring Break offers to rest and take a renewed interest in school work and will decide to complete their formal education.

Woman's Culture Club News

by Doll Haire

The Woman's Culture Club met March 11th in the clubhouse with Buena Bouchier and Ruby Kirkpatrick serving as hostesses.

Donna Craig, president, called the meeting to order. Buena lead the roll call, by telling of her recent visit to Miami, Porto Rico and Panama. Each member answered with a place she had visited or would like to visit.

Donna reminded the members of the Caprock District Convention March 20-21.

The Easter greeting page was discussed. The names should be turned in by March 23rd.

The program of the day was a "Book Review" by Lillian Potts "The Eagle and the Raven" by James Michener. Sam Houston was known as the Raven and Santa Anna as the Eagle.

You could feel the excitement as Lillian described and compared the lives of these two men, the Eagle and the Raven, touching on the trials, hardships and battles.

Thank you Lillian for that most interesting book review.

Delicious refreshments were served from a table decorated in the St Patrick motif with the hostesses dressed in the traditional green.

Debra Jenkins receives RTT certificate

Dale K. Bean, Program Director at California College for Health Sciences (CCHS), is proud to announce that Debra Redman Jenkins has successfully completed the Entry-Level Respiratory Therapy Technician Program.

"To earn the certificate, Debra successfully completed 47 semester credit hours and was employed at Garza Memorial Hospital throughout the program. Debra is now eligible to be credentialed as a Certified Respiratory Technician through the National Board for Respiratory Care. This accomplishment required a positive balance of job responsibilities, personal obligations and study. Debra proved to the faculty of CCHS to be a serious, dedicated, and competent student," said Bean.

Debra joins over 14,000 successful healthcare professionals who have graduated from CCHS since 1979. CCHS assists those who are already employed in a healthcare setting by providing a more flexible alternative to traditional education.

Debra is the wife of Ron Jenkins and has two children, Bobby and LoriDon. Her parents are John and Jane Redman. Debra also serves the community as a volunteer EMT-Paramedic (TTUHS) with Post-Garza County EMS.

Garden Club members hear program on safety for travelling alone

by Margaret Barley

Don't know why, but every time the Garden Club meets, it seems more like party time than "meeting time." We were really an impressive group Thursday night, March 12th, at Shorty King's house. Spit and polish is probably not the way to describe ladies, but it really does seem to fit.

What a group! Jewel White, Gladys Blair, Marion Wheatley, Eloise Gordon, Carlene Kyle, Edna Owen, Alma Williams, Ida Jones, Sybil Cockrum, Thelma Epley, Annie Laura Francis, Maureen Hudman, Margaret Barley and Irene Mitchell who was co-hostess with Shorty. Need I even mention that the refreshments were super delicious. They always are.

Ida Jones gave us an excellent program on safety when you are traveling alone. One of the tips she gave concerned being followed.

Gamma Mu News

by Lisa Kirkpatrick

The Gamma Mu Sorority met on March 3, 1992 for a salad supper and recipe swap. Gena Lott was the hostess for the evening held in the Fellowship Hall of the Church of Christ.

With warm weather approaching, the members took the opportunity to sample and discuss low calorie and low fat salads and other recipes.

The members also discussed the next night out for members and their husbands. The Shogun Restaurant was discussed as a possibility. However, D'Linda Chapman was not able to make reservations with Shogun and made arrangement with Steak and Ale Restaurant instead.

The members plan to see a movie afterwards. The date for the night out is Friday, March 27.

The members attending the meeting were Metta Tyler, Sherri Williams, Leslie Tatum, Lisa Copeland, Penny Redman and Lisa Kirkpatrick.

Whether you are on the highway, or in town, honk your horn and turn on your emergency flashers and drive to the nearest lighted police station, fire department, McDonalds, Dairy Queen, or anywhere where there is light and people. If at all possible, get the license number of the car following you. (Hopefully, it won't be a friend trying to catch you!)

She also emphasized not only a first aid kit for you, but an emergency kit for your car, stressing that it should contain canned air that might just get you to a filling station or home.

During our business meeting, we spent a considerable length of time trying to decide on someplace to "pilgrimage" this year. Seems that every time a suggestion was made, "I've already been there," was heard. So if anyone knows someplace that would be interesting for a highly intellectual group of ladies to tour, not too far, and with a RESTAURANT in close proximity, (this is a must), any one of us would be delighted to share your information with the group.

ADA affects all government buildings

by Virginia Ellen Daugherty

On July 26, 1990, Congress enacted a landmark comprehensive civil rights act to protect individuals with disabilities in the areas of employment, public accommodations, State and Local Government services and telecommunications with the passage of the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA).

What follows is an introduction to the coverage of the Act and its application to counties in regard to program accessibility only.

Which entities are subject to Title II of the ADA?

Title II regulation covers "public entities." "Public entities" includes any State or local government (counties) and any of its departments, agencies, or other instrumentalities.

All activities, services and programs administered by public entities, including activities of the Commissioners Court and other courts, all open meetings, police and fire departments, motor vehicle licensing, and employment.

Title II extends to all activities of State and local governments (counties) whether or not they receive Federal funds. Public transportation services are covered by regulations of the Department of Transportation.

DOT's regulations establish a requirement that all new busses must be equipped to provide services to people who use wheelchairs.

What are the requirements?

State and local governments (counties) may not refuse to allow a person with a disability to participate in a service, program or activity simply because the person has a disability.

Programs and services must be provided in an integrated setting, unless separate or different measures are necessary to ensure equal opportunity.

Unnecessary eligibility standards or rules that deny individuals with disabilities an equal opportunity to enjoy their services, programs or activities must be eliminated, unless they are "necessary" for the provisions of the service, program or activity.

Requirements that would tend to screen out individuals with disabilities, such as requiring a drivers license as the only acceptable means of identification, are also prohibited.

Safety requirements that are necessary for the safe operation of a program in question, must be based on actual risks and not on mere speculation, stereotypes or generalizations about individuals with disabilities.

Reasonable modification must be made in policies, practices, and procedures that deny equal access to individuals with disabilities, unless a fundamental alteration in the program would result.

State and local governments (counties) must operate their programs so that, viewed in their entirety, they are readily accessible to and used by individuals with disabilities.

A county may be required to furnish auxiliary aids and services to ensure effective communication (i.e. the hearing or visually impaired).

Special charges to individuals with disabilities may not be made to cover the costs of measures necessary to ensure nondiscriminatory treatment, such as making modifications required to provide programs accessibility or providing qualified interpreters.

Who is a qualified individual with a disability?

An "individual with a disability" is a person who: (1) Has physical or mental impairment that substantially limits a "major life activity"; or (2) has a record of such an impairment; or (3) is regarded as having such an impairment.

Examples of physical or mental impairments include, but are not limited to, such contagious and noncontagious diseases and conditions as orthopedic, visual, speech, and hearing impairments; cerebral palsy, epilepsy, muscular dystrophy, multiple sclerosis, cancer, heart disease, diabetes, mental retardation, emotional illness, specific learning disabilities, HIV disease (whether symptomatic or asymptomatic), tuberculosis, drug addiction, and alcoholism.

Homosexuality and bisexuality are not physical or mental impairments under the ADA.

"Major life activities" include functions such as caring for oneself, performing manual tasks, walking, seeing, hearing, speaking, breathing, learning, and working.

Individuals who currently engage in the illegal use of drugs are not protected by the ADA when an action is taken on the basis of their current illegal use of drugs.

A "qualified" individual with a disability is one who meets the essential eligibility requirements for the program or activity offered by a public entity.

One of the fundamental purposes of the Act is the integration of individuals into the mainstream of society.

Even when separate programs are permitted, an individual with a disability still has the right to choose to participate in the regular program.

Public entities may not provide services or benefits to individuals with disabilities through programs that are separate or different, unless the separate programs are necessary to ensure that the benefits and services are equally effective.

Individuals with disabilities may not be excluded from services, programs and activities because buildings are inaccessible.

Physical barriers, such as stairs in existing buildings need not be removed so long as programs are made accessible to individuals who are unable to use an existing facility.

State and local governments can provide the services, programs, and activities offered in the facility to individuals with disabilities through alternative methods, if physical barriers are not removed, such as: (1) Relocating a service; (2) Providing an aide or personal assistant; (3) Providing benefits or services at an individual's home, or at an alternative accessible site.

Carrying an individual with a disability is not an acceptable method of providing program access, except in "manifestly exceptional" circumstances.

Public entities must ensure that newly constructed buildings and facilities are free of architectural and communication barriers that restrict access or use by individuals with disabilities.

When a public entity undertakes alterations to an existing building, it must also ensure that the altered portions are accessible.

The ADA does not require retrofitting of existing buildings to eliminate barriers, but does establish a high standard of accessibility for new buildings.

How does the ADA affect communication with the public?

State and local governments must ensure effective communication with individuals with disabilities.

Where necessary to ensure that communications with individuals with hearing, vision, or speech impairments are as effective as communications with others, the public entity must provide appropriate auxiliary aids.

"Auxiliary aids" include such services or devices as qualified interpreters, assistive listening headsets, television captioning and decoders, telecommunications devices for deaf persons (TDD's), Videotext displays, readers, taped texts, Brailled materials, and large print materials.

A public entity may not charge an individual with a disability for the use of an auxiliary aid.

Telephone emergency services, including 911 services, must provide direct access to individuals with speech or hearing impairments.

How is the ADA enforced?

Private parties may bring lawsuits to enforce their rights under Title II of the ADA.

The remedies available are the same as those provided under section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973.

A reasonable attorney's fee may be awarded to the prevailing party.

Individuals may also file complaints with appropriate administrative agencies.

The regulation designates eight Federal agencies to handle complaints filed under Title II.

They are: (1) Department of Agriculture, (2) Department of Education, (3) Department of Health and Human Services, (4) Department of Housing and Urban Development, (5) Department of Interior, (6) Department of Justice, (7) Department of Labor, (8) Department of Transportation.

Complaints may also be filed with any Federal agency that provides financial assistance to the program in question, or with the Department of Justice, which will refer the complaint to the appropriate agency.

Any individual who believes that he or she is a victim of discrimination prohibited by the regulation may file a complaint.

Complaints on behalf of classes or individuals are also permitted.

A complaint must be filed not later than 180 days from the date of the alleged discrimination, unless the time for filing is extended by the agency for good cause shown.

A complaint is deemed to be filed on the date it is first filed with any Federal agency.

The effective date of Title II of the Act as it applies to State and Local Governments (counties) was January 26, 1992.

The federal regulations implementing the act requires public entities to evaluate their "current policies and practices to identify and correct any that are not consistent" with the Act.

Those public entities that employ 50 or more persons are required to maintain the self evaluation on file and make it available for public inspection for three years.

Since an entity, depending on its size, may incur liability up to $300,000 for a single complaint in addition to attorneys fees and costs, it is imperative that a county act quickly to complete a self evaluation and take the necessary steps to come into compliance with the Act both in regard to employment practices and program accessibility.

Legal Notices

THE STATE OF TEXAS
To: L.H. BUTLER, HENRY Z. BUTLER, W.L. BUTLER, JR., and ERIC DOVRE

Defendants, Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to appear by filing a written answer to the Plaintiff's Petition at or before ten o'clock A.M. of the first Monday after the expiration of forty-two days from the date of the issuance of this citation, same being Monday the 4th day of May 1992, at or before ten o'clock A.M. before the Honorable George H. Hansard 106th District Court of Garza County, Texas, at the Court House of said County in Post, Texas.

Said Plaintiff's Petition was filed in said court, on the 17th day of February A.D. 1992, in this cause, numbered 4735 on the docket of said court, and styled, Brazos River Authority, acting for and on behalf of the City of Lubbock Plaintiff, vs L.H. BUTLER, HENRY Z. BUTLER, JR., ERIC DOVRE, EDMUND GOOLSBEE, PAUL THOMAS LAWLIS and LOUBIE BOYD WOODS TRUST Defendants.

The names of the parties to the cause are as follows:
BRAZOS RIVER AUTHORITY, ACTING FOR AND ON BEHALF OF THE CITY OF LUBBOCK are Plaintiffs and L.H. BUTLER, HENRY Z. BUTLER, JR., ERIC DOVRE, EDMUND GOOLSBEE, PAUL THOMAS LAWLIS AND LOUBIE BOYD WOODS TRUST are Defendants.

A brief statement of the nature of this suit is as follows, to wit:

This is a proceeding in eminent domain wherein the Plaintiff, Brazos River Authority, seeks condemnation of a property interest, involving subordination of all right, title and interest which Defendants have or may have to explore, drill, develop or produce oil, gas or other minerals from a tract of land out of the West One-half (W/2) of Section 94, Block 5, H&GN RR Co. Survey in Garza County, Texas, in which the Defendants are alleged to own undivided mineral interests to the rights, needs and requirements of the Plaintiff and the City of Lubbock in connection with the construction, operation, maintenance and use of a water impoundment project in Garza and Kent Counties, Texas, for the purpose of providing fresh water for the needs of the City of Lubbock in the future. All rights of the Defendants to explore, drill, develop or produce oil, gas or other minerals from their mineral ownership interest in the property described above are to be declared inferior to the rights and interests of the Plaintiff and the City of Lubbock to construct, operate and utilize the project for its intended purpose, as is more fully shown by Plaintiff's Petition on file in this suit.

If this citation is not served within ninety days after the date of its issuance, it shall be returned unserved.

The officer executing this process shall promptly execute the same according to law, and make due return as the law directs.

Issued and given under my hand and the Seal of said Court, at office in Post, Texas, this 16th day of March A.D. 1992.

Attest:
Sonny Gossett, Clerk, District Court, Garza County, Texas.
by Joy Browning, Deputy.

Living on the Edge of the Caprock

by John Senter
Garza County Extension Agent - Ag

If you followed last week's edition, and apparently a lot of folks did, then you may be one of the many who apparently have had questions on some of the material included in the column on early lawn care. It seems that many of the questions and responses have centered around lawn fertilization. If this is causing you to have some questions concerning proper type and rate of fertilizers, take heart, there is a simple solution to help you prepare for a lawn that will be the envy of the neighborhood (maybe).

This simple but most effective tool is a soil sample and can be obtained for as little as $10 per sample. There are of course many elements that can be reflected in any given soil sample but, the most important items for the average home owner is nitrogen, phosphorus and potassium. These are the three most important elements of any growing plant and all plants and grasses must have these in correct amounts to survive and flourish.

Poka-Lambro to host 41st annual meeting

The 41st Annual Membership Meeting of Poka-Lambro Telephone Cooperative, Inc is scheduled for Thursday, March 26, 1992.

The meeting will be held at Poka-Lambro's headquarters office located 11.5 miles north of Tahoka on US Highway 87.

A barbecue lunch will be served at 12:00 noon and member and guest registration will begin at 12:30 p.m.

The business meeting will begin at 1:15 p.m.

One important item to be brought before the membership is the election of two directors. The two Poka-Lambro scholarships will also be awarded.

All Poka-Lambro members are encouraged to attend.

Soil sample kits are available in our office at no charge. The basic information which must be included on the test sheets are: name, address etc., soil type, intended use and output desired. The basic test contains results including available nitrogen, phosphorus, potassium, salinity, Ph and a few basic trace elements. The cost for this test is $10 per sample. Other tests are more detailed in analysis and consequently more expensive for their analysis. Whichever test you prefer, take time now to properly take and submit soil samples. The results should be available in a couple of weeks and that will allow you to make proper applications prior to "real spring" and have the needed soil nutrients available at the proper time.

GRUB WORMS FOUND: we have had some reports of white Grub Worms appearing in garden sites when early garden tilling is done. These soil insects are readily identifiable by their white to creamish colored bodies and dark brown heads. Grub worms can range from 1/2 to one inch long and can reap havoc on your newly planted garden sets by feeding on young roots. If you discover grub worms beneath the soil your lawn or garden an even application of a soil insecticide, such as Diazinon or Dursban will help remedy the situation. The majority of soil insecticides will come in granular form so make certain to water these products well into the soil immediately after application. As with any insecticide, make certain to follow all label instructions, printed on the bag.

FREEZE DAMAGE CONCERNS: The early part of the week has seemed to bring about a number of questions concerning the amount of freeze damage caused by last week's freeze.

Assessing freeze damage is a very difficult thing that sometimes doesn't appear for some time. Hopefully, your lawn, trees and flowers were fortunate enough to miss severe damage. Keep in mind that this type of injury can vary from home to home, let's hope winter of this kind is gone for a few months and that spring is just around the corner.

Varsity girls win first at Antelope Relays

The PHS varsity girls' track team won an undisputed first place during last Saturday's Antelope Relays here with 168 points, compared to second place Shallowater's 106 points.

"We had a good meet in all areas," coach Bill Gordon comments. "and a super meet in certain areas. We did what we set out to do and that was to win the team championship in our own meet. I commend all of the girls for their efforts in obtaining our goal."

"Because of injuries," the coach explains, "our 1600 meter relay team did not compete and that was of course disappointing. Year in and year out, this relay has been the backbone of our team. We started a great 1600 meter relay several years ago when we set the state record in this event. We have a group of young ladies this year with similar abilities. If we dedicate ourselves, we could become very good," the coach added.
