VOLUME XXI POST, TEXAS "OUT WHERE THE WEST IS THE WEST" THURSDAY, APRIL 3, 1947 "THE GATEWAY TO THE PLAINS" NUMBER 16

BIGGEST VOTE IN HISTORY IS CAST—

Herd, Herring, Anderson Assume Commission Posts

Establishing an all-time record of a total of 302 votes cast, the citizens of Post swept in a new city commission Tuesday.

The new officials, John Herd as mayor and Clint Herring and Vachel Anderson as commissioners, met with the outgoing mayor, J. A. Stallings, and the retiring commissioners Wednesday afternoon to assume the duties of their offices.

The poll was almost twice as large as the last record voting, in 1945 when a total of 161 ballots were marked. The highest vote up to that time had been in 1941 when 152 voters participated. In 1935 107 citizens voted, and there have been years, such as 1933 when only 41 people voted and 1937 when only 36 ballots were marked in the city elections.

Tuesday's voting was tabulated with the following results: For Commissioner—Herring, 175; Anderson, 152; Incumbents Bennie Sargee and T. R. Greenfield, 93 and 71 respectively, and Ira Greenfield, candidate endorsed by the local firemen, 90 votes.

The first job of the new commission was to accept the resignation of W. F. Presson as City Secretary. The post was filled on a temporary basis by the appointment of Sherrill Boyd, who also will continue to serve as Post Chamber of Commerce secretary. The temporary appointment will become effective Monday.

Mayor Herd and Commissioners Anderson and Herring, contacted by a Dispatch reporter, each expressed their confidence in the new commission.

Common School Board Members To Be Elected

Saturday is election day for common school boards throughout Garza County and for two members of the Garza County Board of Education.

J. F. Maxey of Graham and Bailey Matsler of Grassburg are running without opposition for reelection to the county board of education posts, representing respectively Precincts 2 and 3. Voters in those precincts, except those living in southwest Post, will vote at their respective schools. The Post voters will poll at the City Hall, Garza County School Superintendent Dean A. Robinson announced last week.

Common school board elections will be held at their respective schools throughout the county except the Mason District which does not have an election this year, Robinson said. That only four of the school districts filed names of candidates with County Judge J. Lee Bowen indicates that the elections in the majority of the districts will not be hotly contested.

Authorization Is Granted For Flying Service

The Hundley Charter Service, for which a legal permit was granted this week by the Civil Aeronautics Administration, is Post's first authorized airline service.

For several months, since acquisition of their Cessna 140 plane, Jim Hundley and his son, Jimmy, have been operating the charter service on a temporary basis. Now that they are authorized to do business on a permanent basis, Pilot Jimmy can fly one passenger at a time to any point at any time, Jim announced yesterday.

In order to qualify for the permit, the Hundleys had to spend approximately $1,500 equipping their plane with two-way radio instrument flying and other required equipment.

W. O. Holly Is Commander of VFW Unit Here

W. O. Holly was elected commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars at a meeting last Thursday night in the Legion Hall. Other officers elected were D. B. Billings, senior vice commander; Clovis Tucker, junior vice commander; Lefty Davies, quartermaster; Allen Owens, adjutant; Raymond Gatzki, trustee; James Shelton, chaplain, and J. B. Ferguson, surgeon.

Appointive officers will be announced soon by commander Holly. Nine new members were initiated at the meeting.

The VFW meets the 2nd and 4th Thursday nights of each month.

Firemen Attend Midwest Session This Afternoon

Three fourths of the Post Volunteer Fire Department members are in Snyder today—or will be there tonight—for the semi-annual meeting of the Midwest Firemen's Association.

Two teams of the Post department planned to compete in the semi-annual races, this afternoon, beginning at 4 o'clock, as a part of the program. The association, in announcing the program, said this is the first time two teams from one town have entered the races. Olin Culberson will address the group this afternoon.

The visiting firemen and their ladies will be entertained at a supper tonight and a dance at the Snyder American Legion Hut.

Walter Crider is secretary of the Midwest Association.

Expenses of the trip to Snyder and of sending at least four firemen to the state firemen's convention in Amarillo June 10, 11 and 12 will be covered from proceeds of the annual Firemen's Ball for which the local firemen have been selling tickets since last week.

The ball will be held Thursday night, April 10, at the City Hall.

An out-of-town orchestra will be engaged for the event, to which the public is invited. Tickets are $1.50 a couple.

OVERCAST SKIES GIVE HOPE FOR APRIL RAIN

Post received overcast skies this morning, possibly as a result of widely-scattered sprinkles Wednesday afternoon and night over the South Plains.

The Lubbock Avalanche this morning said that areas to the south reported rains of one inch or more, and hailstones one inch in diameter fell at Childress. There were also reports of turbulence in the Abilene and Breckenridge vicinities.

The U. S. Weather Bureau Station at Lubbock predicted widely scattered showers or thunder showers for the plains area today.

MAIN STREET BUILDING WESTWARD—

Post Men Let Contract To Build Piggly-Wiggly Store

Contract for the construction of a 50 by 120 foot building to be occupied by the local Piggly Wiggly store has been let by Ira Lee Duckworth and O. L. Weakley to the Elbert Davies Construction Company.

Duckworth and Weakley, who will lease the new building to the Davis and Humphreys Company of Lubbock, owners and operators of 15 Piggly Wiggly franchises in this area, have announced that construction will begin this week end.

The new building will be on the south side of Main Street on the corner west of the postoffice, across Jefferson Avenue from the new Post Truck and Tractor Com-

Lively School Trustee Election Looms Saturday

With one election already marked off the calendar, residents of Post and the Post Independent School district, will turn their attention Saturday to the school board election in which two are to be named as members of the Post Board.

Following closely on the heels of Tuesday's city election, which drew a record vote when more than three hundred persons trekked to the polls, next Saturday's school election promises to be another lively affair with a big turnout of voters.

Unusual interest in the election has been provided by the large number of candidates placed on the ballot. Seven candidates, five of whom were submitted by petitions, and two upon recommendations of the present board, make up the ballot.

The candidates include John Lott, Dr. B. E. Young, Paul Jones, Willard Kirkpatrick, George Tillman, O. K. Bowen and A. B. Cassey. Kirkpatrick is running for reelection to succeed himself, and is president of the present board. Tillman was recommended with Kirkpatrick for a place on the ballot by the board, and the other five candidates were petitioned in the proper manner by various groups of school patrons.

The election will be held in the office of the city secretary at the city hall.

ONLY 29 MORE VEHICLES REGISTERED THIS SEASON

Only 29 more vehicles were registered by the April 1 deadline than were registered a year ago. T. H. Tipton of the sheriff's office said this week.

The total 1947 registrations were 1,359 vehicles, including 1,063 passenger cars, 153 farm trucks, 142 commercial trucks and 1 motorcycle.

By April 1 a year ago 1,054 passenger cars, 151 farm trucks and 125 commercial trucks were registered, totaling 1,330 vehicles.

C. Of C. Fact Finders Begin Investigation

Committee Will Seek Charter Information

Two committees, the civic improvement and the membership, met with the Post Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors at the City Hall Monday night in the second of a series of meetings designed to further launch the activities of the 1947 program.

Dr. D. C. Williams, chairman of the civic improvement committee, told the group of efforts in the past to have a charter properly recorded in Austin for the city of Post, explained that lack of funds and proper legal advice had in the past frustrated this and other projects for the good of the city. He advised that the city has now grown to the point that certain civic improvements must be made, regardless of reasons that have been deterrents in the past.

To Find Facts

Dr. Williams' committee, consisting of Claude Bailey, Mrs. John Lott, O. L. Weakley, and Mrs. A. C. Surman, was charged with finding facts pertinent to correcting whatever situations that have prevented getting the city incorporated in the past and to find out what legal steps are necessary in order to call a bond election for the purpose of acquiring a sewage system and other badly needed civic improvements.

The board, after accumulating the necessary facts, will present the project to the city commission and, thereafter, cooperate in every way possible to accomplish the improvements, President John Lane told the group.

Membership Drive Opens

The membership committee, consisting of Trust Fry, Lowell Short and J. E. Parker, reported plans for giving every non-member business man or woman in Post an opportunity to become an active member of commerce member. The three men, along with several board members, are calling on non-member merchants this week and next.

The board will meet at 7:30 o'clock next Monday night with the entertainment committee consisting of Shelley Cump, B. J. Edwards and J. C. Kendall.

At a called meeting of the board this morning, the directors voted unanimously to lend the services of its fulltime secretary to the city of Post, as a courtesy to the new commission, until such a time as permanent arrangements can be made for filling the city secretary vacancy.

No Solution Is Seen In Series Of Small Thefts

The brief crime wave which broke out last Friday night with the theft of a number of automobile wheels and tires in Post, and tools from the construction engineers with the Ballis highway, has subsided without a solution.

On its heels a new and different wave, possibly involving small youngsters, broke out this week with the theft of two automobiles for short rides.

Last Sunday while Victor Hadden was in Sunday School, his automobile disappeared from the church and was found abandoned on a downtown alley. By press time, Sheriff Means had no clues as to the culprits but was of the opinion that perhaps it was the same two youngsters who were seen hiding around Monday night in W. O. Holly's Hudson sedan.

Driver Was Shout

Holly's car disappeared from his home and was found hours later parked, and abandoned. On the driver's seat was a quilt, which the culprits had taken from the back seat, and folded under a pillow, indicating that the driver of the stolen vehicle was small of stature.

Sheriff Means said that Holly saw the car go by his house, during the search, with what appeared to be young boys as occupants. The theft was reported to Means, who was assisted in the search by Deputy Sheriff Fay Chaborn and Weldon Swanger, Holly and the Lubbock police department.

No Clues Found

No clues have been found in connection with the thefts of last Friday night, Sheriff Means said

New Rodeo Site Building Gets Well Under Way

Embry Williams has taken a month off from his ranching activities to don blue overalls and supervise and work with the builders of the corrals and fences on the 25-acre site of the Post Stampede and Rodeo Association, Inc., rodeo plant northwest of Post.

By Press time, the construction was well under way and the foundation for the grandstand had been staked. Contract for building the grandstand was let to Higginbotham-Bartlett Company and the materials were being furnished by the Post School board in exchange for the grandstand which the stampede association built on the high school grounds.

A 180 by 450-foot arena has been staked off, Williams said the ground would be leveled by a county maintainer in the near future.

All construction is to be completed in time for the May 18 calf roping match between Sonny Edwards of Big Spring and Latham Riley of Snyder.

Plans for the annual Post Stampede and Rodeo, June 11 to 14, are going forward as scheduled, according to President Walter Duckworth.

At the postoffice she saw Harold Voss and asked him if Arbeth had changed much since they were married and he said "Yeah, my habits."

Victor and Marvin Hadden showed her a letter from a grateful customer: "Since I bought your play pen for the children, it has been wonderful. Every afternoon I sit in it and read and they can't get at me."

Dan Cochrum doesn't think this one is so funny. He recently bought a piano so that his 7-year-

The evening service begins at 7:45 o'clock each night, the pastor, the Rev. Garland Miller, announced.

The public is welcome to attend, the minister said.

DISPATCH REPORTER "INTERVIEWS" POST FOLK FOR GAGS—

April Fool Came And Went But National Laugh Week Is Still Here

As April 1-8 is National Laugh Week, a Dispatch reporter spent Monday and Tuesday interviewing people for a special observance of the occasion.

Knowing that casual conversation frequently reveals humorous incidents, she talked with everyone she met asking them the first questions that popped into her mind.

At the postoffice she saw Harold Voss and asked him if Arbeth had changed much since they were married and he said "Yeah, my habits."

Victor and Marvin Hadden showed her a letter from a grateful customer: "Since I bought your play pen for the children, it has been wonderful. Every afternoon I sit in it and read and they can't get at me."

Dan Cochrum doesn't think this one is so funny. He recently bought a piano so that his 7-year-old son, Danny, could start taking music lessons. Danny had a different idea. He said: "Daddy, you bought that piano, you can just play it yourself."

The reporter asked N. C. Outlaw why it was that he enlarged his repair department and he said it was because business was increasing at such a rapid rate. "Why," he said, "it takes 1,000 nuts to make a car, but only one to wreck it."

Cardwell Does Favor

Yesterday O. D. Cardwell was reading a letter in the postoffice and chucking out loud. The reporter asked him what was so funny and he showed her the letter: "Sixty days ago my husband took out a life insurance policy with you. In less than a month he was drowned. I consider your insurance a good investment."

Until Sherrill Boyd got a new car the other day, he had been borrowing J. N. Power's car for all sorts of errands. So about the second day after Boyd's car came in, J. N. went over to the chamber of commerce office and said: "Uncle, how about letting me borrow your car for an errand out in the country. Joe's gone to a party in my car." "Sure," said Sherrill, "handing him the keys." J. N. said, "It will help me a lot. I sold Bryan J. Williams some appliances and he made me take an old sow and litter of pigs on the trade-in, and I have to go out and pick 'em up."

Some baseball player is still laughing at the boner Mrs. B. J. Edwards pulled years ago when her husband was playing with the Dallas City League. It was her habit to take the two small children to the games and watch them while sitting in the car. During the course of several seasons, her husband had introduced her to almost all the players in his league.

One day she was window shopping in downtown Dallas and a large, well-dressed man offered to buy her a Coca-Cola. She was indignant until he explained he was a ball player and had been introduced to her by B. J.

"Oh, I didn't recognize you with your clothes on," she apologized.

Flowers Are Buried

And Lee Wooten of Slaton still snickers once in awhile over a joke he pulled on Mrs. Bryan Williams and Mrs. Irene Rodgers some time ago.

He had them believing, in a telephone conversation, that he was a law enforcement officer and they had violated a law by picking some wild flowers.

Believing they had to appear in court at Lubbock the following morning, they took their wild flowers to the alley and buried them. Returning to the house, Mrs. Williams found one wild flower on the floor. She rushed to the alley and buried it.

About a month ago, Clint and Lois Herring drove up to Amarillo to hear Marion Anderson sing. About the time they got to Canyon, Clint said, "Gee, I wish we'd brought your piano along." Lois said "my piano, WHY?" "Well," Clint moaned, "the tickets are on it."

A man strolled into the Dispatch the other day with a paper shopping bag full of materials. "I want to leave these here," he said, putting the bag on Ganell Babb's desk. As the Dispatch occasionally buys rugs for use in cleaning press equipment, Ganell said "wait just a moment, I'll have to go weigh 'em." Then the man said, "can I have 'em back tomorrow?" and Ganell said "In that case

Angels are divine messengers to men, bearers of the Good News of God's presence and blessing. They sang at the birth of Jesus, assuring peace on the earth to men of goodwill. They spoke to the women at the tomb the word of liberty that had long been awaited by sorrowing woman hearts. And now they sing at every Christian grave around the world, assuring the bereaved that there is life beyond. Our loved ones do not come back to us in the flesh; they go on ahead of us into the Heavens, and there we shall find them in the household of God. To all who have eyes of faith and whose ears have become attuned to angelic speech the messengers of God announce Life Eternal. Because they have brought this good word of truth you may join the great Apostle in the exclamation of wondrous faith, "O Death, where is thy sting? O Grave where is thy victory?" TOMBS AND GRAVES CLOSE IN OVER ONLY THE DUST, WHILE THE SPIRITS OF THE CHILDREN OF GOD RISE INTO THE DIVINE PRESENCE THERE TO ABIDE. The angels are telling us that we are the eternal children of the eternal God; Heaven is our home and God is the Father of our Spirits; we are joint heirs with Jesus Christ. Attend Church this Easter Sunday.

YOU IN THE CHURCH
THE CHURCH IN YOU
 Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are showered with benedictions that fortify and influence for a better citizenship and a stronger democracy. In the church the ministerial are molding religious character. State-mentals today declare that the church alone can furnish leadership to handle the affairs of state in these perilous times. Then we with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. "You in the Church and the Church in you"—form a combination for good.

INTERNATIONAL HARVESTER says:

"Any price is too high if it can be reduced."

We second the motion We'll do our part!

International Harvester has reduced prices to save users of products $20,000,000 a year. The reductions apply to a selected list of various products made by the Company.

In making its announcement to the general public last week, International Harvester said:

"We believe there is nothing more important to this country than to lower the prices of goods people buy.

"The American people have insisted that the government refrain from its attempts to control prices in peacetime. It places the responsibility where it belongs—in the hands of business and industry.

"Because we believe price reduction is vital, we are willing to assume the risks involved."

International Dealers we will do our part. We will pass International Harvester's price reductions to our customers.

And now a word of gratitude to our friends who have patiently waited for the new machines they need. As most of our customers are aware, International Harvester has done everything possible—and some things that seemed impossible—to maintain and increase production.

The outlook is somewhat better. Soon we hope to supply equipment to all of those who have cooperated so faithfully with us.

Meanwhile, the same top-quality International Service and Parts that have kept equipment operating for our customers during the difficult years are available from us. We urge our friends to continue to use these facilities to obtain maximum operating economy.

International Harvester is doing its part with quality, increased production and reduced prices.

EASTER

Easter, a time of regeneration, when our contemplation of Christ risen reminds us that there must be some master-plan for all the complexities of existence.

Easter, time of planting, when the sight of growing things over all the earth assures us that God in his Kingdom is wise and bountiful.

Easter, time of church-going, when His words inspire us to assume our personal responsibilities and justify our existence by living lives of generosity, brotherliness and tolerance.

A BETTER BUY

A news story in the Wall Street Journal tells of a large retail organization which employs 300 men to operate a "torture chamber" where merchandise is tested to find out "if it is as good as manufacturers crack it up to be."

According to the account, "The snap in a pair of 25 cent garters, the warmth of a winter overcoat, and the life span of a $400 hay drier all come under the watchful eyes of these critical experts, whose occupational disease is pessimism."

The purpose, of course, is to see that customers get a better buy for their money. And the effects of this are felt in stores, down to very small ones, which have no research organizations of their own. Standards are established—faults are discovered and virtues proved—and quality goes up all along the line.

That is the typical of America's magnificent distribution machine.

WHAT OUR CONTEMPORARIES ARE SAYING

EASTER'S ORIGIN—It is interesting to note that while Easter is the greatest holiday in Christendom it was not thought of in Biblical times, or for many generations thereafter. Also, there is no reference to Easter in the Holy Writ.

Apparently, Easter originated with the Norse peoples in the era when they were among the most powerful and advanced of humans. The word itself stems from "Eostre," the old Norse Goddess of Spring, just as the names of our days of the week stem mostly from Norse gods.

Like Christmas, Easter did not occur to the Apostles, who were much more interested in promoting lives of blamelessness and piety than they were concerned with appointing festival days.

Bede, a seventh century Christian writer, apparently was the first to make any written record of Easter or, as it then was called, "Eostre." He and others who followed him in earlier times treat the holiday as man's universal celebration of the Rites of Spring and the release from rugged Winter weather.

But in recent generations, Easter has become more and more a Christian holiday; a time for observance of the Resurrection. Indications are that this trend will continue as time goes on. This, it seems to us, is fitting and proper, since Spring stands for new life, as does the Resurrection; and since the Easter period doubtless has a more profound influence upon Christians than any other period of the year. —The Lubbock Avalanche-Journal.

NOT SO SYSTEMATIC—Most women believe themselves to be very systematic; they are continually after the men about throwing clothes on the floor and brag considerably about how well they keep their houses. They moan and groan about the tedious house work and yell like a comanche when a little mud is tracked in, or a few ashes are dropped, but if one should open most closet doors without being prepared to dodge he would get knocked out by falling vases, discarded flower pots and broken pieces of electrical equipment, and just watch a woman when she decides to go after something in her purse, a fox terrier digging for a rat is slow compared to her frantic efforts to find a lip stick or a comb. —The Slaton Slatonite.

SAVING COTTON MARKETS—One cannot find a farmer today who is not vitally interested in the fight being put up by the congressional cotton bloc, backed by the department of agriculture, to override the State Department's efforts to junk the export subsidy on cotton. The farm bloc does not want to sacrifice the subsidy principle. The matter has been hushed, so far, but it may break out into the open any day. —The Scurry County Times.

A room-seeking young resident of St. Catherine's, Ont., speedily solved his problem with the following advertisement: "Having trouble buying soap flakes, lard or bacon? Young man working in large grocery establishment, requires room, breakfast and dinner six days a week, private home." —Christian Science Monitor.

CAPSULE COMMENT

We can't help the past, but we don't have to repeat it.

Nothing is easier than misunderstanding; or finding fault; or jumping to wrong conclusions; or putting the wrong interpretation on whatever is being said.

A Chinese proverb tells us to be sparing of speech and things will come right by themselves.

The Knutson Bill to provide a 20 per cent cut in Federal taxes on incomes up to $302,000 is now undergoing revision. Tendency is to give a somewhat larger reduction at low income levels, and to gradually reduce the cut in the higher brackets.

Before you flare up another's faults, take time to count to ten—ten of your own, that is.

One thing can be said for the road hog. He meets you more than half-way.

People who never do anymore than they are paid for, never get paid for any more than they do.

"Two-dollar bills have come into their own. They'll buy a dollar's worth of groceries anywhere."

We know no way to plot our future except by the experiences of the past.

Change is the very essence of life.

Have you seen Susie's new bathroom?

You never saw a bathroom like this in the home magazines—but it's a bathroom, just the same. It's an X-ray view of a modern bathroom—the skeleton upon which the various fixtures are hung.

Now, of course, the appealing thing about bathrooms is the attractive, gleaming chrome and enamel which you see on the fixtures. But, like the engine in your automobile, it's what's behind the polish that really counts.

This "engine" of the plumbing system, which lies behind the tile or plaster, is called "roughing" by plumbing-heating contractors. It is so important that your city officials require that it be installed in a certain way.

But there are short-cuts which irresponsible installers have been known to adopt in order to reduce material costs. Needless to say, a defect behind the walls, which is difficult and costly to correct, is even more annoying than a fixture defect, which is easily corrected. But above all, improper sizing and arrangement of "roughing" pipes can result in water pollution, plumbing noises and service breakdowns.

You should know these things because—

The most important thing you buy when you call a master plumber is reputable service.

This, and installation "know-how," are the most valuable things, we have to offer you, and they don't cost you a cent.

Correction On Teacher Story Of Last Week

We wish to make a correction on last week's teacher election story which appeared in the Post Dispatch. The quotation from Superintendent G. R. Day, "teachers not re-elected will be re-elected if they attend school this summer and complete the minimum requirements set up by the State Department of Education," should have read, "some of the others" will be re-elected if they meet the requirements.
