AGRICULTURAL AGENT SURVEYS PROSPECTS—

Cotton Looks Excellent, Wheat Is Average, Grasshoppers Threaten

Crops look good over most of Garza county. Cotton is growing by leaps and bounds. Most of the fields are clear of weeds and there is no report of current insect damage, other than that of scattered leaf hoppers. Garza County farmers are harvesting more than twice the normal amount of wheat. All of the county, except the south central portion, received from one to two inches of rain last weekend, with an average of one and one half inches over the county. The above is the report of Garza County Agricultural Agent D. F. Eaton who toured the entire county this week. He reported that a strip of land three miles wide and six miles long, on the Lynn County line around Grassland, suffered hail damage last weekend. The older cotton, although badly beat up, may come out again, the agent said, but the younger cotton was damaged beyond hope. Grasshoppers Threaten Except for the small hail-damaged strip, the prospects for good crops are excellent, but Eaton has been informed that the county is in danger of a grasshopper invasion and he is prepared to help farmers head it off. He said that a Mr. Spicer of the U. S. Bureau of Entomology was here Monday with the news that Scurry, Lynn, Stonewall and Kent Counties are suffering heavy, surprise infestations of grasshoppers and that poisoning projects are underway. Most of the invaders are jumbo grasshoppers, whose eggs were not detected by government entomologists during earlier surveys in the infested areas. The government has provided ample sodium arsenite and bran to poison grasshoppers in event of a heavy infestation in this county, Eaton said. The poison will be mixed under proper supervision in the basement at the court house and given to all farmers who need it. Depends On Moisture Each farmer who calls for the poison mixture should bring sacks and filler (cotton seed hulls, ground bundles or sawdust amounting to two-thirds of the amount of poison mixture desired.) The mixture should be spread 15 to 20 pounds to the acre around the borders of the fields. Its effectiveness should last three to five days. Whether or not Garza County fields have a grasshopper invasion will depend upon whether or not the pastures dry up. If plenty of moisture is in the pastures, the grasshoppers will stay off of the crops. The areas around Justiceburg, Verbena and Grass-burr are more vulnerable than other parts of the county for such an invasion. "We can head it off, though," Eaton explained, "if the farmers will come get this poison mixture as soon as they detect the grasshoppers and apply it properly."

Price Is Up Approximately 5,000 acres of wheat is being harvested in Garza County. The average wheat harvest here is about 1,500 acres, Eaton said. More farmers than usual planted wheat last year because of the drought which spoiled other crops and resulted in dry surface lakes which could be planted in wheat. W. F. Pierce and Sons estimated that a total of 30 carloads of wheat will be shipped from Garza County. The average yield is 12 bushels to an acre, which is the average for the United States, but as much as 20 bushels to the acre has been reported from some parts of the county. The price this week was $1.97, and the trend was upward.

TWELVE PAGES The Post Dispatch VOLUME XXI POST, TEXAS "OUT WHERE THE WEST IS THE WEST" THURSDAY, JUNE 26, 1947 "THE GATEWAY TO THE PLAINS" NUMBER 27

Plans Complete for Post's New, Modern 900 Seat Movie Theatre

Plans have been completed on the new Texas theatre which is to be built here on property purchased some time ago by Theatre Enterprises, Inc., owners of the Garza theatre, just as soon as the present building restrictions are relaxed to permit the construction of buildings for amusement purposes. Jack M. Corgan, nationally-known theatre architect, has made two trips to Post to survey the property, situated east of the city hall in block 90, and states that everything is now in readiness for actual construction to begin as soon as government restrictions are lifted. An application was made to the Civilian Production Administration last fall for permission to build this theatre and this was denied, but since that time the matter has been re-opened and another decision is now pending. The new theatre will seat approximately 900 persons and will have all modern accommodations. Mrs. B. J. Edwards, acting manager of the Garza theatre, has been advised. The theatre will be equipped with the latest type evaporative cooling system, air purifiers, lounge room, and a "cry room" for babies. A modern feature of the new structure, states Mrs. Edwards, will be a smoking lounge providing a clear view of the screen and constructed in such a way that smoke will be removed from the room without entering the main auditorium of the building. The lounge will be provided with sound equipment and air-conditioned. The front of the structure will be modernistic, and the foyer or inner lobby will be of a circular design, the very latest in theatre construction. The building will be of concrete, brick, and steel construction throughout... completely fire proof.

The projection and sound equipment will be of the very latest type, including many new developments perfected by engineers during and since the war. Seats will be of the new bodiform type, fully upholstered spring-type cushions and upholstered leather backs. When this new theatre is completed, it will give the people of Post, and others of this community, the very latest in theatre construction and facilities. SPACE MARKERS FOR PARKING EXPECTED TO FACILITATE SHOPPING To facilitate parking and allow more room for automobiles, the City Commission has had parking spaces marked in white on both sides of main street and in the center parking space. The Commission is requesting motorists to keep within the marked spaces when parking their vehicles so that a maximum number of cars and trucks can find parking space on busy days in Post. The city officials also are renewing their request that store owners and their employees park their cars on side streets for all-day periods, in order to give shoppers a chance to park in front of the various stores. CITY COMMISSION TO CONTINUE NUMBERING OF HOUSES FOR LIONS High Blevins, representing the Lions Club, met with the City Commission Monday night and requested that the city officials take over the completion of the house numbering and street marking project started by the Lions Club more than a year ago. In agreement with the commission, Blevins gave the city a check for $200, proceeds from the Lions Club-sponsored city directory, for use in completing the project. The City Commission is requesting persons whose houses have not been numbered to call at the City Hall, where the secretary will issue numbers.

Eight Mile Strip Of Post-Ralls Road Is Completed

Construction of the farm-to-market road from Post eight miles north along the route of the old Post-Ralls highway was completed last weekend when two courses of asphalt inverted penetration type topping was given the gravel base. The project, which was started late last fall, was let to Holland Page of Austin on a bid of $118,160.41. Specifications called for grading, drainage structures, flexible base and double asphalt treatment. The contractor met with many delays in completing the work, which were brought about by sub-let contracts, difficulties encountered in changing creek beds to provide drainage structure, and other constructional problems. The new road is described as the crown-flight route from Post via Ralls and Floydada to Silverton, and affords an all-weather road to Floydada, with exception of a 15-mile unpaved strip between here and Ralls, about half of which is in this county and half in Crosby County.

Money Payable For Upkeep Of Cemetery Lots

T. R. Greenfield, chairman of the Terrace Cemetery Association, has announced that many persons have paid for the care of their lots at the cemetery and that the association has had extra help in caring for the lots during the past two weeks. The president is urging those who haven't paid for upkeep of their lots to do so at their earliest convenience, and reminding those who care for their own lots that they owe a water fee. Cooperation in these matters is greatly needed and appreciated, Greenfield said. The association expressed its appreciation to Jake Webb of the State Highway Department for cutting the weeds on the north side of the cemetery and to the City Commission for dragging the driveways.

POST YOUTH ADMITTED TO SCOTTISH RITE HOSPITAL FOR CHILDREN

Master Jimmy Gist, 5-year-old son of Mrs. Helen Gist, of this city, was admitted to Texas Scottish Rite Hospital for Crippled Children in Dallas for treatment on Wednesday, June 18.

The Scottish Rite Hospital, which is supported by individual contributions, offers the best possible medical care and treatment at no cost to Texas crippled children whose parents are unable to provide for adequate medical services.

Commission Hears Three Consultants

The City Commission and a group of Post business men met with a group of visiting engineers Monday night at the City Hall to discuss sewage, water, paving and other matters pertaining to the future needs of Post. The guests were J. L. Robinson, district engineer of the State Health Department; H. R. Roberts of Lubbock, consulting engineer who has worked with many small town projects in this area in the past 25 years, and Steve Luce of Vernon, former Post man, who currently is the contractor for road construction work at Brownfield. Robinson told the group that Post is the largest town in West Texas not having a complete sewage system, and suggested that the city's present system, which serves only the business district and a small residential section, would be considered by the State Health Department as an "odor nuisance." He also said that the State Health Department does not accept cesspools as adequate and sanitary for a town the size of Post and that septic tanks are approved but not recommended by his department. Roberts explained problems involved in purchasing and extending the sewage system and emphasized the fact that it would not be practical for the city to own the sewage system without also owning the water system. He explained also that the only feasible way to buy the systems would be through revenue bonds rather than tax bonds, as bonding companies are not interested in buying tax bonds on such projects. The Commission discussed with Roberts the possibilities of having him serve as an appraiser and negotiator of any transactions that might be made in regard to the projects and to make a study of the future water supply for the city.

Ballew Charged In Smith Boy's Highway Death

R. E. Lee Ballew, charged with negligent homicide after the death of Billy Ray Smith, waived examining trial and will appear before the grand jury here at the next session, the first Monday in September. Ballew, who made bond, is at his home in Sweetwater, according to Justice of the Peace Jim King. Billy Ray is the 9-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Vester Smith, who was killed the night of June 17 when hit by a car driven by Ballew on Highway 84 near the Lakeview Service Station. Peace Justice King announced that Jessie Melvin Tucker of Seagraves recently was fined $100 and costs for speeding and that three negroes, Jasper Fields, Jesse Brown and Barney Fielder, were fined in his court for gambling. Fields and Brown were fined $5 each and costs. It having been Fielder's first offense, his fine was $1 and costs.

VFW DANCE ADVERTISED FOR SATURDAY CANCELED

A V.F.W. dance, advertised for Saturday night elsewhere in this issue, was canceled after the advertisement went to press. The dance, originally scheduled for Saturday night, will not be held. Officials of the local V.F.W. post said last night. Both the V.F.W. and Auxiliary Units will have regular meeting tonight. Several members of both units have been attending V.F.W. and Auxiliary Encampments in Abilene, since Saturday. They included Imogene Jewell, Mrs. John Rogers, W. O. Holly, Lloyd Shedd and others whose names were not available by press time.

POST STORES WILL BE CLOSED FOR JULY 4TH

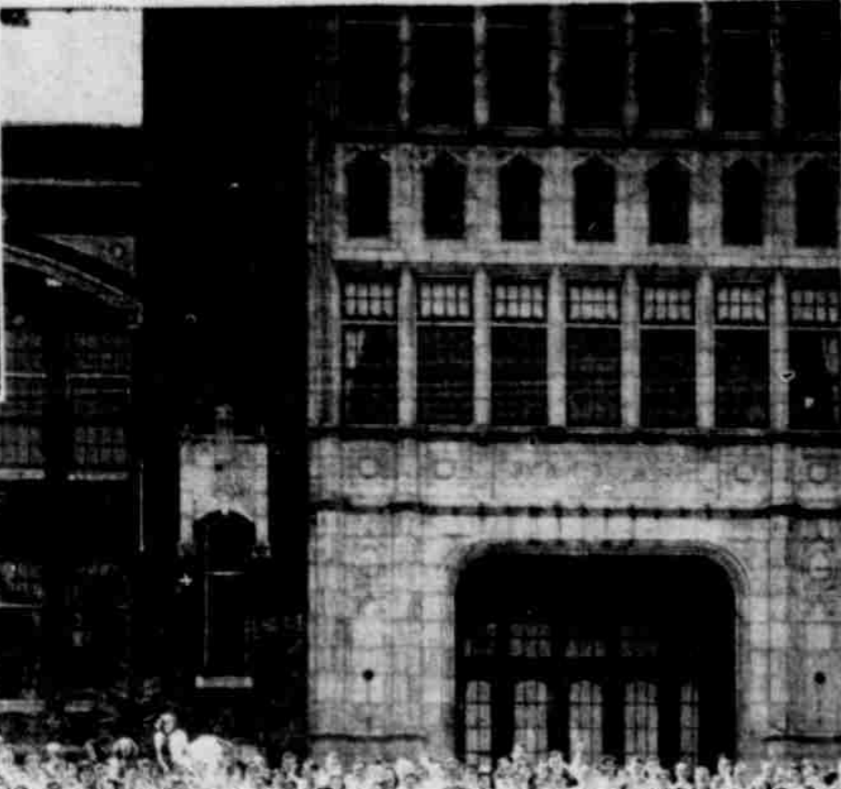

Post stores will close Friday, July 4, but will be open for the most part on Saturday, the Post Chamber of Commerce has announced this week. July 4 is one of the regular holidays declared by the board of directors for the year, 1947.

Rodeo Association Is In Red But Is Encouraged

The Post Stampede and Rodeo Association is something like $2,626.75 in the red, but practically all bills are paid except that owed for the acreage on which the new rodeo plant was built this spring. Walter S. Duckworth, president, said this week. It will be at least two months before a complete financial statement can be compiled, Duckworth said, as small bills pertinent to the 1947 Stampede and Rodeo are still coming in, as are donations toward the arena building fund. The incomplete financial statement, as of Tuesday of this week, follows: Disbursements— Franchise tax for 1947, $68; lumber, nails, wire, etc., $4,460.65; 448 posts, $375; carpenter contract on stands, $1,990; material and labor for lights, $1,854.97; labor for building the arena, $1,802.26; blacksmith labor, $39.20; sign painting, $74.20; May calf roping prizes, $500; advertising, office supplies and printing, $519.04; use of rodeo stock and freight cost, $2,045.45; trucking cost for May calf roping calves, $20; trucking cost for cutting horse contest cattle, $30; rent on seats from Snyder, freight cost and cost of erecting and tearing down the seats, $233.50; night and day labor during rodeo, $262.50; rodeo prize money, $2,072.55; cost of water, trucking of water and laying of pipes, $89.25; feed for stock, $58; pay for judges and pick-up men, $282; refunding of entry and stall fee, $9; tax on ticket sales, $647.85 and cost of 24.7 acres, $2,040.80. The receipts side of the ledger shows: Balance in bank, $2,400; sale of grandstands to the Post (Continued On Back Page, Col. 2)

YOUNG PEOPLE AND THE CHURCH

FIRST METHODIST CHURCH

Mrs. R. H. Collier is believed to be the only charter member of the First Methodist church who is still living in Post. Others she could recall who were here and were present along with her and Mr. Collier when organization of the church was undertaken in either 1908 or 1909, under the direction of Rev. T. C. Willett of Floydada, were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Bullock, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Morrow, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Boren, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Dent, Mr. and Mrs. Mann, Mr. and Mrs. Hartford, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Stevens, Mr. Rickey, and Mr. and Mrs. Ira Weakley. Some of this group were not members of the Methodist church and of course are not on the charter member roll but all met together in union services at that time.

Sunday School and church services were held in the old rock court house on Main Street that is now the site of the Gas Service Station.

Mr. Rickey was elected first Sunday School superintendent and the Rev. G. S. Hardy of Floydada was the first presiding elder.

Rev. Willett served as first pastor for several years and all the regular church activities that were possible were carried out by this small group.

Soon after the church was organized the Double U Company presented the church with lots in order that a building could be erected. A frame structure was built with a seating capacity of 250. This building burned in 1926 but immediately plans were set in motion for a new church and late in 1927 the new brick building which was under construction while Rev. S. E. McReynolds was pastor was dedicated with Bishop Moore of Dallas presiding over the dedication services.

The first parsonage was built before the first church and is still standing. It was the house just back of the present church and was sold about 1926 or 1927 to the Nazarene church for their parsonage.

The first missionary society of the town was organized by the Methodist women, however, it would be better to call it a union society. Mrs. Collier said, as women from all denominations were invited to join and did. The group had their first meeting in the home of Mrs. W. O. Stevens who then lived in the rock house now occupied by Dr. S. A. Andrews. Mrs. Stevens was elected the first president. There were twenty-two women present.

At one time Sunday school was held in the house which is now the home of Mrs. Jessie Voss and during the time the new church was under construction Sunday school and church were held in what was known as the old "mule barn." This building was located on the block which now houses the post office and new Piggly Wiggly store. Later the barn was torn down and moved to Two Draw Lake as the main building for the Baptist encampment which was held there for a number of years.

In 1910 Rev. J. E. Stephens was appointed presiding elder of this district which was then designated as the Plainview district.

Among a few of the pastors since 1926 who served and who have helped build the First Methodist Church into its leading position in the community today were Rev. McReynolds, Rev. E. Thorpe, Rev. Hanks, Rev. Stephens, Rev. Clarence Bounds, Rev. Marvin Boyd, Rev. O. B. Herring and Rev. I. A. Smith.

Rev. A. B. Cockrell is now serving as pastor.

(Records of the first organization meetings were not available and all information was graciously supplied from memory by members who have been active in the church since its organization. Any errors in presenting the facts are unintentional.)

Never in the history of civilization has the Church met with so much opposition as today. Whether this opposition be organized or otherwise, it comes in a multitude of ways. The tremendous increase in birth rate, the almost inconceivable advances in science (many of which lend little inducement to Church activities), and the numerous worldly interests which prey upon the young people of today, challenge the Church to a program of moral education at its best.

The public and parochial schools are workshops where the young learn to build words which are the vehicles of expression. In the Church School they learn to express themselves in the language of Jesus. These schools all are alert to their responsibility and are striving to be a light-house on the way to a fuller appreciation of the beautiful in the life of each youngster.

A few of the finer arts, wholesome recreation and an opportunity to participate in them, with the proper kind of trained leadership will go a long way in keeping the interest of our young folk more wholesome. Just so surely as fathers and mothers fail to lead their children to Church for its benedictions regular, will they fail as parents and the reapings of this neglect will be terrible.

Tubeless Tire Is Available To Motorists

A tubeless automobile tire now coming out in quantity and available to motorists for the first time was exhibited and explained to about 50 B. F. Goodrich tire dealers of this area in a meeting recently at the Hilton Hotel in Lubbock.

F. A. Meurin of Dallas, district manager of the Goodrich firm, had this to say about the company's new product:

"Our tubeless tire has been subjected to extreme driving conditions. Some of these test tires have been on wheels for as long as two years, and have held up remarkably well."

He explained that the tire had five advantages: More riding comfort, trouble-free service because of puncture sealing feature; maximum tread wear because of maintaining correct air pressure, eliminates hazard of tube failure caused by rim chafing and pinching while mounting and combines superior high speed performance with puncture sealing protection.

The tubeless tire differs from a regular tire in that it has specially designed concentric ridges molded on the beads which seal against the rim, preventing loss of air around the edges; a special valve with inner and outer rubber washers to seal against loss of air at the valve hole in the rim; an inner lining of special rubber compound having about 10 times the resistance to air diffusion of prewar compounds prevents diffusion of air through the tire body; and another layer of especially compounded rubber on the under side of the tread area furnishes the puncture-sealing qualities of the tire.

Milk Shortage Predicted For South Plains

Texas is apparently headed for another milk shortage this fall, L. G. Harmon, professor of dairy manufacturers at Texas Technological College, predicted after a meeting of dairymen from West Texas and other points over the state held at the college.

Worst shortages probably will be on the north and south plains areas and in south Texas along the coast, he said. The milk surplus which has been evident this summer in the area around Ft. Worth, Dallas, Brownwood and Eastland probably will be eliminated in the autumn months, according to the dairymen present.

One of the reasons for the shortage is that farmers tend to ease up somewhat on milk production efforts when field crops are excellent as they now are in the Panhandle. But the major cause is the common practice of dairymen of breeding most cows for spring freshening.

The breeding practice causes production to be heaviest in the summer when demand is lightest, and leaves the October to February period with low production.

The obvious solution is for more milk producers to breed for early fall calf crops, Harmon said. But he predicted that it will probably take at least four or five years to increase the percentage of cows freshening in the fall to the extent needed to eliminate annual winter milk shortages.

Some producers in the north and central part of the state are planning to build up grade A volume and ship milk into the Rio Grande Valley and along the coastal area, it was disclosed.

NO. 2 JENNIE BOREN IN POLAR FIELD ABANDONED

The Humble Oil and Refining Company has abandoned location for the No. 2 Jennie Boren, et al, stepout from the Polar Field, in southwest Kent County near the Garza line. It was 1,980 feet from south and 660 feet from the east line of section 48, block 5, H&GN Survey, and had been projected to around 7,900 feet to test the Ellen, burger.

The reason given for abandonment was the fact that the same company's No. 1 Boren, one quarter of a mile to the west, which was completed several weeks ago for a small pumping production of oil, along with some water, had almost stopped making oil, and is now making practically all water.

The Week's News in Brief

Sharon Brooks, daughter of Mrs. Margie Brooks, returned home Sunday from Morton where she spent five weeks with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McBee. She came home with a good suntan and a yen to stay home for a long, long time, her mother said.

Mrs. Arthur Talley and son, W. A., and Mrs. Talley's brother, M. T. Safford of Lueders, who has been visiting here, left Sunday to spend a week or two in Monahans with their sister and aunt, Mrs. John Laister, who is recuperating from major surgery.

The big ones didn't get away from Noah Stone on his recent week's trip to Arizona. He brought back a bunch of nice bass which he and his family and friends have been eating and enjoying. Mr. and Mrs. Stone were accompanied to Arizona by their son, N. W., Jr., and their daughters, Mrs. Bobby Collier of Austin, and Mrs. Malcolm Bull of Roosevelt, Ariz., who had been visiting here 10 days. Mrs. Collier has now returned to Austin where her husband is attending the University of Texas. Mrs. Bull remained at her home in Arizona.

Mrs. Lee Wooten of Slaton, mother of Mrs. Bryan J. Williams, underwent major surgery at the West Texas Hospital in Lubbock Friday. She was reported as "getting along fine" by press time.

Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Surman and their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Justice of Lubbock, returned Sunday night from Dallas where they attended the wedding of Miss Nita Karl Ott Harrison and Edgar Livingston Smith on Saturday night.

Mrs. Giles McCrary and daughters, Pamela and Mary Louise, returned Sunday night from Fort Worth where they visited for a week. Her mother-in-law, Mrs. I. N. McCrary of Fort Worth, accompanied them home for an extended visit here.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lewis Pickett and son, Charles Lewis, Jr., spent the weekend with Charles Lewis' sister, Mrs. Glenn Kahler, and family. They were en route from New Orleans, La., to their new home in Craig, Colo., where Charles Lewis is employed by the Standard Oil Company.

Mrs. Hayden Rogers and daughter, Mary Margaret, who have been visiting Mrs. Rogers' father, Roy Wilder, and Frank Rogers and family, the past three weeks, have returned to their home in Marfa.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Baker left Monday for a three-month vacation in Los Angeles. For the trip, they had their new Buick fitted out with an air conditioner and a neat-looking canvas-covered trailer.

Joe Moss has a new Ford.

Mr. and Mrs. Pokey Ammons and Mr. and Mrs. Billy Woods will leave Saturday on a vacation in California. Their itinerary will include San Diego, Los Angeles, Bakersfield and New Hall. The Ammonses are leaving their young son, Dennis Nolan, with his grandmother, Mrs. Ida Stewart.

The Post Dispatch had a visitor Saturday who said she was Edith Janice Wardlow, daughter of T. J. Wardlow, and that she was just killing time waiting for her aunt, Ruby Wardlow, to finish shopping. Her aunt was a Ptv, she said, before she married a Wardlow and her folks live down around San Antonio.

Edith thought the Post Dispatch headquarters was the Baptist Standard office, when she first came in, and she wanted to see how it was made. She said she was 8 years old and will be in the third grade next year. She was wearing a crisp white pinafore with music notes embroidered at the neckline.

She looked the place over thoroughly, but went away convinced that the Baptist Standard is a better newspaper.

State Helps In Supervision Of Business Firms

The Veterans Administration regional office at Lubbock announced this week that the State of Texas has assumed complete responsibility for inspection and approval of all facilities for on-the-job training of World War II veterans under Public Law 346 (GI Bill).

In addition, the State has taken over the supervision of 6,043 West Texas firms, establishments and shops presently conducting on-the-job training for veterans.

VA advised that all future requests for inspection and approval of concerns to train veterans on the job under the GI Bill should be addressed to: State Approving Agency for Veterans Education, Land Office Building, Austin.

The VA regional office emphasized that it had not relinquished supervision of some 4,000 veterans engaged in job training but that sufficient funds have been allocated to the State in order that it may inspect and supervise the facilities which provide the training.

This arrangement will enable the VA to intensify its efforts toward rehabilitating disabled or physically handicapped war veterans. Formerly, VA's own training facility officers made surveys and forwarded reports to Austin for approval or disapproval.

VA further pointed out that it would continue the inspection and approval of all educational institutions, as well as all facilities where veterans are being rehabilitated under Public Law 16. At present, more than 2,000 disabled veterans are pursuing courses of vocational rehabilitation under supervision of the West Texas VA regional office.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Clark and children, Jane, John and Bill, of Crane visited last week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Boren and family.

Equipment And Men Needed In Wheat Regions

"If you have any farmers with row-crop combines that need a little cash, send them this way and we will put them to work."

This is a typical quotation from the stacks of letters being received by D. F. Eaton, Garza County agricultural agent, who suggests that people wishing to help out with the bumper wheat harvest in North and West Texas please communicate with his office for information as to job prospects.

"We will even get them a job before they leave here, if they will come to see us," Eaton said. This service is available in an effort to prevent harvesters from wasting their time and money going places where they are not needed and to direct them more quickly to places where the labor problem is most critical.

Currently there is a need for the services of farmers with row crop combines north of Muleshoe and throughout the Texas Panhandle. In some places a surplus of labor has been reported, but investigation reveals that the surplus consists of youngsters who have had no harvesting experience. Experienced, reliable workers can find work readily, Eaton explained.

The agent receives a daily report as to where combines and other equipment and labor are needed or not needed. Yesterday's report showed that Childress had a surplus of combines, trucks and laborers and was routing them elsewhere; Floydada, which has 50 per cent of its wheat ready for harvest and only three per cent harvested, needed 25 combines; Farwell needed 40 combines; Silverton needed two combines but had a surplus of trucks; Dimmitt, which has 75 per cent of its wheat ready for harvesting, needed 50 combines but had a surplus of trucks and men; Hale County, where rain might have delayed the harvest a few days, needed 50 combines; Randall County needed 20 combines; Armstrong County needed 25 combines and 25 truck and tractor drivers; Stratford needed 50 combines; Channing needed 30 combines and some trucks and labor; Perryton had a surplus of labor but needed 40 combines; Dallam County was having ideal harvest weather, the report said, but had nothing ready for harvest.

This was yesterday's report. By today, the needs will have changed. So it is recommended that men desiring jobs communicate with Eaton and cinch a job before leaving Garza County.

BAKING SODA IS HANDY FOR HOUSEHOLD CHORES SUCH AS SILVER CARE

From the U. S. Department of Agriculture household specialists come some tips for homemakers on the use of baking soda for cleaning jobs around the house, according to Miss Jewell Hipp, Garza county home demonstration agent.

Soda can be used as a gentle scourer for stains on china, pottery, glass, or cooking utensils made of enamelware or glass that would be scratched by rougher scouring materials. For example, tea or coffee stains on china cups may be removed by rubbing with a damp cloth dipped in soda. Don't, however, rub soda on gilt decorations on china, the agent said.

Soda also will help soften food particles that have been scorched on enamelware or glass, and it also is good for washing the refrigerator or rinsing the vacuum bottles.

Brightening silver is another use to which soda can be put. Miss Hipp said. For a fast silver cleaning chore, fill an aluminum kettle with water containing salt and soda—one teaspoon of each to a quart of water. Bring the water to a boil, lay in the silver and continue boiling for just two or three minutes. Then remove and wash it. Some housewives keep an aluminum cup of hot soda water beside the dishpan when doing the breakfast dishes. Into this cup go spoons or forks discolored by breakfast eggs or any food. By the time the dishes are done, the soda has made the silver bright again.

Car-Jumping Bull Booked At Levelland

An outstanding feature this year will be acts of Cecil Cornish, of Waukomis, Okla., and his Golden Eagle Roman jumping team, his educated car-jumping Brahma bull, and high school horse and trick riding exhibition.

Honeydew Cure Available Now For Cucumbers

As many Garza County gardeners have known for years, it is almost impossible to raise cucumbers, cantalopes and certain types of flowers here because of the aphids which damage the plants with a secretion known as honeydew.

D. F. Eaton, Garza County agricultural agent, has at last learned of two cures for aphids. One is three per cent benzene hexachloride dust, an insecticide developed by the British during the war which just recently went on the market. The other is 75 of rotenone dust. Either insecticide will kill the aphids if used when the honeydew first appears and repeated at three to five-day intervals until it disappears.

Eaton also recently received information regarding the latest approved treatment of squash bugs. Apply 20 per cent sabadilla dust at seven to 10-day intervals.

Post Millers Will Go To Seminole Sunday For Second Game Of Series

Triumphant over three wins in a row on their victory march next Sunday when they go to Seminole for the second game of their two-game series with the Indians. Last Sunday the locals mopped up on the Seminole crew, 20 to 5.

The local club has shown considerable improvement in hitting the past several games and last Sunday ran wild with the stick to rack up 22 hits.

The Indians got off to a good start early in the season, but have in recent weeks tumbled to the bottom of the loop's cellar along with Slaton. The local club opened their season with the Indians and dropped the game 1 to 3.

Following next Sunday's away-from-home game, the Millers will take on Sundown at Postex Park.

An American, Eli Whitney, invented the cotton gin in 1793. Before this invention, it took a worker ten hours to pull the seeds from two pounds of cotton.

On the average, about 5 per cent of the wood cut in the world each year is for paper.

Post Millers Grab Third Win In Row From Seminole Last Sunday

Availing themselves of the opportunity of enjoying the cool and comfort provided by the new grandstand at Postex part, a fair sized fan crowd watched the Post Millers grab their third straight victory of the season last Sunday when they took Seminole, 20-5, in a nine-inning slugfest.

The Millers, after a bad early season start, have stepped up from the bottom of the Oil Belt league cellar, to a good position in percentage points. The locals now rate four wins and five losses. Levelland, through "pure nigger luck" stands as the only undefeated team of the loop. The Refiners, besides having a fast club and a good bunch of hitters, have been playing in luck the past several weeks. They were lucky in winning the two-game series from the Millers several Sundays ago. Both games were Post's all the way through until the eighth innings when the Refiners got off on last minute rallies to cut-score the locals 1 run in each performance. The Levelland crew carried luck into last Sunday's game with Sundown. After the Refiners got off to a seven-run lead in the first inning, Sundown overtook the handicap to lead two runs through to the ninth, before a base-cleaning triple in the final frame lucked them out, 15 to 14.

The Millers racked up 22 hits last Sunday, and for the first time since Postex park was put into use at the beginning of last season local fans saw home runs scored on the diamond. Deamos Altman pulled out the first homer, which was followed by a long hit by R. M. Thomas to bring him across the plate.

Walter B. Holland, on the mound for the locals, was never in danger, and struck out 12. He was relieved in the ninth by French, a new twirler, added to the Post crew last week.

PINEAPPLE AND TOMATOES CANNED AT JUSTICEBURG DEMONSTRATION MEETING

The Justiceburg Home Demonstration Club met recently in the home of Mrs. Less Davis, with Mrs. Billie Cantrell as assistant hostesses. Two demonstrations were given on canning.

Mrs. Vernon Lobban demonstrated the canning of pineapple, removing the top of the pineapple with a slight twist and cutting the pineapple in half. With one half she made sliced pineapple and she scraped the other half, leaving a clean rind and core. After canning the pineapple by the steam process, she took the peelings and core and made some delicious juice.

Mrs. R. A. McLaurin demonstrated the canning of tomatoes, using the hot water bath process. She said the most important thing in canning tomatoes is to remove all the core and not to add water. Ripe tomatoes should be mashed to make the juice. She also said the jar should be covered about an inch in water before processing.

A demonstration on salads will be given at the next meeting, which will be held at the school building. It was announced that the club will sponsor a Fun Night at the school tomorrow. Sandwiches will be served and cakes and coffee will be sold. The entire community is invited.

Attending the canning demonstrations were Mesdames Davis Bandy Cash, Billie Cantrell, McLaurin, Don Robinson, Jim Tidwell, Lobban and several children, Sydney Lee McLaurin, Jerry McLaurin and Johnny and Donna Jo Robinson.

Annette Seay And K. Nelson Are Wed Here

Miss Annette Seay, daughter of Mrs. and Mrs. N. B. Seay of Lubbock, formerly of Post, became the bride of Kenneth Nelson, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Nelson, son of Nocona, in a double ring ceremony read here Saturday evening at the home of the officiating minister, the Rev. Huron A. Polnac.

The bride chose for her wedding a white two-piece crepe dress with white accessories. Her corsage was of pink rosebuds. She observed the bridal tradition of "something old," etc., in her wedding ensemble.

Miss Ganel Babb, maid of honor, wore a pink dress with navy blue and white accessories and a white carnation corsage.

Ralph Seay of Lubbock, brother of the bride, served the bridegroom as best man.

Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Seay were the only wedding guests. The bride attended school here and was graduated from Nocona High School. The bridegroom, also a graduate of Nocona High School, served two years in the army.

After a short wedding trip, the couple will be at home in Lovington, N. M., where Mr. Nelson is employed with an oil company.

Bits Of News:

Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Scott and daughter, Tommy Lou, have returned from a two weeks vacation trip through Kansas, Missouri, Illinois and Oklahoma where they visited friends and relatives. Mr. Scott is with the Comanche Corporation.

Mrs. A. R. Tyson, mother of Mrs. E. A. Warren, is visiting here. She came to Post from Rotan, where she visited another daughter, Mrs. Rob Strayhorn.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar West of Bona Park, Calif., who had been visiting Mrs. West's aunt, Mrs. John Faulkner, since Sunday, left yesterday on a trip to Tennessee.

Mrs. George Samson is still tired from having tried to make her weekly Monday morning trip to Lubbock. Accompanied by her daughter, Jeanne, who is employed in the county agent's office there, and Mrs. W. E. Dent and Mrs. Vida Brant, she "stripped a gear or something" a mile the other side of Posey. Jeanne hitchhiked on to her office in Lubbock via truck and the other passengers also caught rides to Lubbock, transacted business and returned home by bus. Mrs. Samson spent all day getting the car repaired and finally made it home, where she noticed that the repairmen had sprung a door on the car and she has spent the remainder of the week getting that repaired.

Ye have heard that it hath been said, An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth:

But I say unto you, That ye resist not evil: but whosoever shall smite thee on thy right cheek, turn to him the other also.

And if any man shall sue thee at the law, and take away thy coat, let him have thy cloak also.

And whosoever shall compel thee to go a mile, go with him twain.

Give to him that asketh thee, and from him that would borrow of thee turn not thou away.

Ye have heard that it hath been said, Thou shalt love thy neighbour, and hate thine enemy.

But I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good for them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you.

—St. Matthew 5:38-44

Minute Prayer:

O God, of infinite patience, help us to follow in the footsteps of Thine Own Son, who bore with patience the sins of the world. Fill our hearts with His goodness. In all of life's journey may we possess our souls in patience. Amen.

Local Farmall Tractor Dealer Is Impressed With New Baby Tractor

"The new Cub tractor is everything it is advertised to be and more," Dowe Mayfield, manager of the Post Truck and Tractor Company, local International Harvester distributor, informed a Dispatch representative Tuesday after returning from Sweetwater where the baby tractor was demonstrated.

"Designed especially for operators of truck gardens, orchards, and small general farms, the new all-purpose Farmall Cub represents the latest step in the evolution of the Farmall system of farming," said Mayfield.

A full line of implements, including one and two-way moldboard plows, disk plow, disk harrow, mower, cotton and corn planters, vegetable planter, cotton and corn cultivator, and other special equipment are being produced for use with the small tractor; reports the local dealer.

Mr. Mayfield, while in Sweetwater Monday, saw the Cub put through all kinds of tests during an all-day field demonstration for area dealers. He was highly pleased over the way the special tools are designed for quick change and easy operation.

While only a small number of the baby tractors have been manufactured to date, Mayfield said he was assured he would have one here on display by July 18.

O'DONNELL BOOSTERS LET POST FOLK KNOW A RODEO IS OPENING

Boosters for the O'Donnell Rodeo, which begins tonight and lasts through Saturday, staged a parade in Post last Friday afternoon. Seven cars, filled with rodeo boosters and painted with conspicuous announcements regarding the place and the dates, made the drag, honking their horns and using a loudspeaker to tell of some of the unusual features.

Among the unusual features, the loud speaker said, would be the American Legion boys of O'Donnell riding the bucking

Across the Tracks

By H. H. H.

As the midsummer "dog days" season approaches, it becomes increasingly apparent that Post should do something about the stray dog problem; lest we someday have a first class epidemic of rabies on our hands. Perhaps we're prejudiced in our opinion; but it seems that our particular corner out here has become a sort of local dumping ground for every errant female canine who has been unfortunate enough to acquire a litter of unwanted pups.

These dogs, roaming about the streets and residential sections of Post, are a definite menace, because, once hydrophobia breaks out, it might be impossible to stop before human lives are lost or at least seriously endangered.

We saw this happen while we were living in Oklahoma—in fact, our own offspring was badly bitten—and we can testify to the fact that a series of rabies shots are in themselves no picnic.

Don't get us wrong. We're no dog poisoner. We like dogs—like 'em a dang sight better than we like some people we've met—but there's no denying that a stray, unvaccinated dog is a menace and a liability, and we believe that Post should take steps to control them before it's too late.

Sugar Supply Is Ample For Present Need

The abandonment of sugar rationing has cused no sugar shortage here to date, according to a Post Dispatch survey among local grocery dealers. All of the dealers questioned have an ample supply of sugar on hand and anticipate no immediate scarcity.

One dealer said that a temporary shortage might arise out of the fact that wholesalers in Lubbock may not be able to keep up with the increased demand for a short period.

Another dealer was of the opinion that a shortage of box cars this fall could result in a temporary scarcity.

The Lubbock Avalanche-Journal last week stated that Lubbock wholesalers claim the supply is ample in the area at present, even though the refining companies are limited as to shipping facilities until after the wheat harvest.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture, however, recently warned consumers that the boxcar shortage is as acute as rumored and that, although there is plenty of sugar in the refineries, facilities for shipping it to the wholesalers in the Middle West will be limited to the extent that a scarcity of sugar might develop.

GETTING OUT

On The LIMB By EDDIE the EDITOR

THE WOMEN—God love 'em! The difference between a man and a woman is that a man looks forward and a woman remembers.

Five million native-born New Yorkers are still crying because Representative Ed Gossett said they didn't speak English.

I left the little Mrs. at home last weekend, of course, when I went up to the State Press Convention in Amarillo.

But I had such a good time, I felt like I ought to bring her a present, and the only thing I could remember that she wanted was a girdle.

But a girdle is what she wanted and so I went into one of Amarillo's swanky department stores.

I said "I want a girdle, please" and Gorgeous says "It's Gerlaine (or something like that) you want."

We argued and I got right mad and said, "well are you going to show it to me or aren't you?"

After similar encounters in several other parts of the store, the floorwalker finally guided me to a counter where a clerk about twice the size of the little Mrs. agreed to take me in hand as a customer.

After she found out that I didn't know the difference between a panty girdle and several other kinds, some of which have stays (whatever they are) and some, I guess, have don't stays, she started showing me her wares.

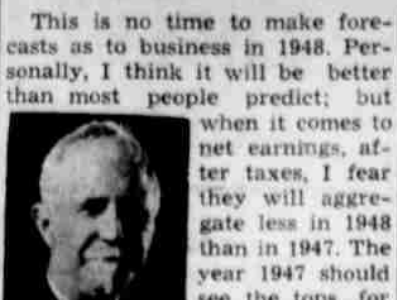

The first was what she called a panty girdle and it was about the size of the training pants you'd buy for a baby.

Before he kicked me out of the store, I got permission to buy that small girdle, for $20.

When I got home, the little Mrs. put it on and found she couldn't wear it without suspenders and, what's more, she said I'd love to wear it be-

ROGER W. BABSON WRITES THIS WEEK:

Small Businessmen Urged To Beware of Hard Times

This is no time to make forecasts to business in 1948. Personally, I think it will be better than most people predict; but when it comes to net earnings, after taxes, I fear they will aggregate less in 1948 than in 1947.

Even the farmers themselves know that their present honeymoon will someday be over. Moreover, WAGES have not yet stabilized. Certain groups are entitled to further increases and will get them; but workers' efficiency will soon begin to improve.

REAL ESTATE—with the exception of distressed sales—should remain at about present levels for some time further, although there has been a slowing up in real estate sales. INFLATION has always been in operation over long periods. The recent inflation epidemic has about reached its climax for the present.

by further inflation. The price breaks which started in with the fish industry a year ago, are now threatening real estate and commodities. STOCK MARKET—If wages, commodities, real estate, etc.—based upon the money in circulation—are entitled to stabilize at around 50-100% above 1932, as the fiscal authorities claim, the stock market is entitled to do likewise.

THE NEXT DEPRESSION will be brought about by one of the wheels of the business machine cracking. This will stop the entire machine for the time being. Perhaps the cracking wheel will be FARM PRICES; perhaps FOREIGN TRADE; perhaps LABOR UNIONS; and perhaps GOVERNMENT FINANCE. It seems too bad that a depression seems to be necessary once in a while, but such is required in order to awaken in people the desire to work and produce to their best ability.

SMALL BUSINESSMEN especially should beware of the squall ahead even although we may have one or more years of good business. In times of depression, the big squall unfortunately comes upon those least able to bear it. This especially applies to the 400,000 returning veterans who have recently started small businesses.

COMPETITION is bound to be very severe after the demand for goods has once been filled. Many concerns have gone into manufacturing new products which they have manufactured before. This glutted market, with autos, refrigerators, radios, vacuum cleaners, deep freezers, and products for which people are now clamoring. This production coupled with unemployment will surely result in lower earnings for most companies in 1948 even though gross business may still be high.

The average age of the Supreme Court has just turned a century from 48 to 54. Members of the Cabinet are to 60.

By EVELYN BOYD

Stuart Chase, whom we quoted last week regarding the dire necessity of removing the old-fashioned red flannel underwear from our brains, is described by '47 Magazine, as follows:

"Stuart Chase is a valuable citizen. There are some subjects so crucial—economics, labor and management, semantics (the sciences of meanings; classification of psychological and historical changes in words)—that our lives may depend on our understanding them. But they're usually so hard to read about that most of us refuse to do so, preferring to rest lumphishly on our prejudices.

Last week I promised a continuation of excerpts from his significant article, "Concepts for the Atomic Age," in the July issue of '47. He writes particularly of economics, in this portion:

"New concepts are urgently needed for useful thinking about a $260 billion national debt. A banker dying in 1938, when $40 billion was held intolerable, and raised up in 1947 would expire a second time after one glimpse at the present figures! The chief difficulty here seems to lie in identifying public debt with one's private debts, a semantic blockage.

"When one can separate them in his mind as two different events, the national debt becomes an interesting problem on a horizontal table, rather than a towering vertical menace.

"The war was financed on the assumption that what was physically possible was financially possible. Nobody stopped to ask where the money was coming from—the commercial banks coined all we wanted—if this principle was good in war, why cannot we use it in peace?—We can; the techniques and safeguards are available and ready. Only financial taboos stand in the way.

"The elder statesmen make one sound point, however, in their warning against using war finance methods in peace time. It requires good men and adequate government machinery to control the moving numbers. This is still to be achieved. The two cause $20 isn't hay.

It's the first $20 panties I ever owned, but it's a pretty good fit, considering how I've been growing every direction but up lately, and it just happens I've about worn out all my Navy shorts.

This, however, doesn't solve the problem of not having bought the Mrs. a present. Dog'd if I don't believe I'll just take her along to the next convention.

concepts are tied together—responsible government and a flexible financial system.

"Can we tolerate chronic unemployment and deep depression in the atomic age?—Another depression like 1932 would force us to repudiate our present national debt, in whole or in part—it would drag all the West down with us, so great is our economic leverage, and greatly increase the prestige of Russia.

"...The atomic age should make us realize that management is a highly skilled and specialized function of the first importance. Big corporations today are mostly run by a self-perpetuating group of managers rather than by their legal owners—Many, like the telephone companies, are technological monopolies, and could be broken up into small competing units only at a fearful cost in efficiency.

"...A big corporation today has four 'publics' to serve—its customers, its workers, its stockholders and the general public. The thing to do with most big corporations is not to waste time trying to break them up, but to see that they operate in the public interest.

"Profit and 'profiteer' are ceasing to be very useful concepts. On the one hand, large corporations often pay a conventional dividend which is practically indistinguishable from interest; on the other hand, the graduated income tax will get you in the end.

"The government, via the income tax, is already a silent partner in all big deals. Congress set up for us, apparently without realizing it, the greatest machine for redistributing the wealth the world has ever seen.

"The atomic age demands increasing teamwork between labor and management, with a cut for the consumer, when new blocks of cheap energy reduce costs of production.

"When telephone girls set up picket lines, when bank officials strike... with PWA pilots grounding their planes for higher salaries, and school teachers striking all over the map—it is time to realize that something far more profound than a 'class struggle' is loose in the world. People in all walks of life are looking for security in a period of unprecedented change. The 'labor problem' is only one aspect of this deeper human problem.

"We need knowledge about the behavior of men in groups, even more perhaps than about the behavior of groups of atoms.

"The bomb has also revived an old idea, quiescent for nearly 2,000 years: Ye are your brothers' keeper. Little more than lip service was ever paid to this idea as an ethical admonition. People found it more exciting to beat up their brothers. Now it becomes the most practical idea in the world. Violate it, and back we go to the paleolithic age.

Mr. Chase is shocking, but I'm afraid, worth heeding.

What Our Contemporaries Are Saying:

GIVE FIREMEN A CHANCE—The Spur Volunteer Fire department has established an enviable record for efficiency and dependability in combatting fires and the organization deserves the complete co-operation of every citizen.

SUMMER YOUTH PROGRAM—Sam Hawkes, Spur High School Athletic coach, is leading a program of activities and recreation for the youth of the Spur community that will continue through August 15. Coach Hawkes is contributing his time and efforts to help carry out a youth program for the city that is designed to give boys and girls of all ages a full program of activities that promises to be a youth program that will be established as a part of community activities every summer in the future.

FOR HUNGRY WORLD—The Panhandle stands ready to serve up its main dish! And the horn of plenty tips precariously—alert to tumble forth with the greatest harvest in history. With harvest comes wheat. Wheat for bread! Bread for a hungry world!

The entire Panhandle-South Plains wheat empire is ringed with steel of a combine army. And steadily—slowly the machines are eating into record crops. In the whole harvest belt—Portales, N.M. to Ponca City, Okla., more than five million bushels a day are being processed by greedy combines. That's what A. W. Erickson, operator of a private crop reporting service says. The same wheat belt—New Mexico, Texas and Oklahoma—will step up two million bushels a day until a peak of 25 million bushels is cut every 24 hours. This will be about July 2.

"Panhandle yields are running extremely heavy—25 to 30 bushels per acre," Mr. Erickson's report declared—Amarillo Daily News.

RABIES PREVENTION—The Bawson's campaign to license local dogs is bearing fruit! Clyde Kirkham took out a license for his mutt Monday, and city secretary Killian nearly dropped his teeth! This was the first dog registered this year—and the second time a dog has been registered in four years! If Kirkham has freed himself and his neighbors of the fear of rabies, he has earned the suspicion of all dog fanciers who are too proud to dispose of an itinerant cur or too danged 'onery to comply with the law. While some honest citizen is hanging around on a street corner telling his hard luck story to somebody, one of these pooches is going to tear some child to ribbons or pass around the rabies. When it happens, some unusually bright dog owner is going to quip: why doesn't somebody make dog owners vaccinate and license these stray dogs? Whereupon we are going to crown him king of the rabies with a wreath of beer cans.—The Ralls Banner.

The biggest Texas wheat crop in history, estimated to be more than 112,000,000 bushels by the Bureau of Agricultural Economics, is now being harvested.

Her husband, John Bunyan Slaughter, died in 1923 and two children, Louie and J. B., Jr., preceded their mother in death.

Born December 5, 1853, in Dallas as Isabella Mastin May, Mrs. Slaughter was educated at Dr. Scales School for Girls in Dallas. She was married in Dallas on May 11, 188, and the couple made their first home near Blanco Canyon, in Crosby County.

After their first child, Mamie, was born, the family moved to Colorado City and several years later moved to Fort Worth for better school facilities.

About 1905, the Slaughters started building a permanent home at their Garza County ranch headquarters, about 15 miles south of Post, and from that time on, the Slaughter family has been prominently identified with the progress of Post and the county.

Lived Zestful Life

Practically everyone in the county is familiar with their beautiful, large U lazy S Ranch, surrounded by spacious gardens and furnished with fine works of art, some of which were Mrs. Slaughter's own paintings, which were destroyed by fire in 1936. As a widely-known spot of beauty, it was commented on occasionally by magazine writers and was mentioned once in Eleanor Roosevelt's "My Day" column.

A modern type house was built on the same spot where much of the original beauty has been restored. Mrs. Slaughter, who lived there until she was admitted to West Texas Hospital on June 2, referred to it as "My Home on the Range."

An ardent believer in and contributor to almost all worthy causes, Mrs. Slaughter has been well-known in Red Cross, study club, church and other benevolent circles throughout West Texas. She organized the Culture Club here more than 35 years ago and the Luncheon Club more than 25 years ago. Her many interests included the writing of poetry and keeping about 50 scrapbooks in which the richness of her life is catalogued.

Those planning to attend the burial service in Fort Worth tomorrow, besides all of the survivors, include Mr. and Mrs. Tom Welborn of Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Morrell, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cravy, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Mason, Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Williams, Giles Connell and Allen Owen.

Mrs. G. W. Norris and two children will leave Saturday for Coleman where they will visit a week with relatives.

RODEO ASS'N REPORTS—

schools, $3,000; receipts from May calf roping, $739.09; receipts from rodeo tickets and concessions, $7,018.38; sale of leftover feed, $150, and donations, $3,940.

Total disbursements, insofar as was known this week, will amount to approximately $19,874.22. Total receipts by Tuesday were $17,247.47. Additional donations have been pledged and are being collected this week by a committee of directors. The additional donations should take care of the deficit, except for the cost of the arena acreage, and of the cost of painting the rodeo plant in the near future. The money needed to pay for the acreage probably will be borrowed and the amount repaid after next year's rodeo, Duckworth said.

On behalf of the association's directors, Duckworth expressed deep appreciation for everyone who had any part whatsoever in putting on the 1947 rodeo. "Because of their hard work and money contributions," the president said, "the association is better off financially than was expected in view of the competition with Gene Autry's Show in Lubbock."

The president also expressed a belief that a successful 1948 show can easily clear the association of debt and make additional money for the black side of the ledger.

'GROWING PAINS' MAY RESULT FROM RHEUMATIC FEVER AMONG CHILDREN

The "growing pains" suffered by many children may not amount to much, and at the same time they may be the first warning of the childhood disease, rheumatic fever, Mrs. Eloise T. Johnson, family life education specialist of the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service, has advised Miss Jewell Hipp, Garza County home demonstration agent.

Statistics show, says Mrs. Johnson, that rheumatic fever causes more deaths among school-age children than any other disease in the United States.

Apart from "growing pains," other symptoms of rheumatic fever are loss of appetite and failure to gain weight; pain and swelling of first one joint and then another, usually accompanied by fever, jerky movements of the face, arms, and legs, especially when the child tries to dress or feed himself; and unexplained crying spells.

Mrs. Johnson urges parents to guard against rheumatic fever. Although the "growing pains" may not mean anything serious, it is a good idea to take the child to a doctor and find out.

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Dennis and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Robinson of the Western Geophysical Company arrived here yesterday to make their home in Post for a while. The Dennises were here on business last summer.

FARM COUPLES PROVED HAPPIEST IN MARRIAGE

"Farm Couples Are Happiest," according to a report received this week by Miss Jewell Hipp, Garza county home demonstration agent, which is as follows:

Mrs. Eloise Johnson, family life education specialist of the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service, says she has received a report on a survey that was carried on at the University of Southern California. Three thousand five hundred marriages were investigated and rated as happy, doubtful or unhappy. Couples who were connected with agriculture proved to have the happiest marriages. Over 67 per cent of the farm marriages were classed as happy, and next in the running were professional marriages with 61 per cent rating.

Mrs. Johnson revealed that the findings in this survey are in line with common knowledge that the divorce rate is much lower in rural areas than in the cities.
