TRADE MARK

Motorists' Lesson I from World War II is that cars with OIL-PLATED engines don't quit easy. Though some are being traded for style's sake now, you can safely figure that the owners are repeating on OIL-PLATED engines! They make sure to get them—the same as you can do—by using Conoco Nth motor oil, with its added OIL-PLATING ingredient. This acts magnet-like, forcing engine parts to attract and hold a close-bonded surfacing of lubricant.

And that's protective OIL-PLATING—the wear-fighter!

Like a shield over the unfinished inner surfaces that you want preserved, OIL-PLATING is in position against wear... in position to discourage carbon, gum, and sludge—to encourage oil and gasoline economy. You want all that, and it's yours for the asking. Just ask for Conoco Nth oil in any car. In the case of an older car, you certainly need a Spring oil change now, so this is exactly your time to OIL-PLATE. Pay just a bit more for it! What about wages? Wages have risen steadily for five years. Before the strike which began on January 21 in ten of our plants and which has choked off nearly all farm machinery production, earnings of employees of those plants averaged $1.15 1/2 an hour, not including any overtime. The union demanded a 34 cents per hour increase and a Government award has now recommended a general increase of 15 cents an hour, which would make average earnings $1.31 1/2 an hour. Weekly average would be $53.40. What about materials? It is one thing to know how high materials costs will go. The Government has increased steel prices as much as $12.00 a ton, with an average increase for all grades of steel. Steel is the most important material we buy, but prices on other materials are also increasing. What about future prices on farm machinery? The judgment of Harvester's management now is that we cannot safely make the huge wage increase recommended by the Government until the Government authorizes adequate increases in the prices of farm machinery to cover the resulting increased costs. That is not a judgment that makes us happy. The Company does not want to raise prices. We prefer to lower prices, when possible, and we know our customers prefer to have us do that. We have produced at 1942 prices, and hoped we could continue to do so. We have delayed seeking general price relief in the hope that it could be avoided. Now we are convinced that it cannot be avoided any longer. The price question must be settled. Until it is settled we do not see how we can settle the wage question. Until the wage question is settled we do not see how we can resume production and begin turning out the farm machinery which we know our farmer customers need. Because of the important stake which both farmers and city dwellers have in this controversy, we are bringing these matters to your attention. Through the cross currents of today's conditions, we are trying to chart a course that is fair to our employees, to our former customers, and to our stockholders.

What about profits? Profit is part of the American profit of loss system, so we do not, of course, ask either our customers or the Government to guarantee us we can be certain of profits all year. The chart tells the story of our profits during the war, although Harvester produced our goods then ever before. It is no desire to get rich out of war, our rate of profit has steadily gone down. What our 1946 profit is is extremely uncertain. What is the next step? You can see, our present situation is that with rising prices in declining profits, we are asked to pay higher materials costs and make the biggest wage increase in the history of the Company. Wages and materials consume but a few cents of every dollar take in. If our prices continue to rise, and cost of wages and materials continues to rise, obviously our Company will begin to operate at a loss at some point. The exact point at which operating at a loss would start is a matter of judgment. Government agencies and union leaders may have opinions as to where that point is. But if they turn out to be wrong, they can shrug their shoulders and say: "Well, it wasn't my responsibility. I didn't make the decision."

MARGARET ANDERSON HOSTESS TO VICTORY SCHOOL CLASS

Margaret Anderson was hostess to the Victory School class of the Methodist church Thursday night, March 21, at the home of her parents, Mrs. Charlie Voss.

Mrs. Anderson was highly complimentary when she presented the summary of her life in Africa, Italy and Switzerland while serving with the Red Cross. She read a poem written in which she described the people, their customs and their struggle for existence. She also read the pages of a huge book and told of her war experiences.

It is interesting to learn that not only made an excellent hospital dietitian, but she has many historical places in Italy and in southern France. She sent home a selection of Italian and French lace, jewelry, glass and carved wooden music boxes and various other things which were seen and enjoyed by the guests.

Mrs. Anderson had a rosary that her mother had blessed for her. She had wild flowers which she had picked on the Alps. She had a shawl that fell during a storm on Naples while she was there. She had a wedding ring which was taken from the hand of a dead German. She had pictures of Mt. Vesuvius and other scenes.

Talking on Prejudice in School Mr. Weldon Skinner said if prejudice is allowed at home it will also enter church and school. Prejudice at home was discussed by Ganell Babay and she stressed the idea that small children notice remarks that cause prejudice. Any feeling of superiority will cause prejudice.

Mrs. A. W. Bouchier spoke on Prejudice in Church and defined prejudice as narrow-mindedness. To rid ones self of prejudice, a practice of being fair in decisions and balancing the personality should be developed. An applied practice of prayer is the best way to get rid of prejudice.

Mrs. B. M. Robinson read a poem written especially for the subject in which the point was emphasized that behind the teacher stands the school and behind the school stands the home.

Swing of Southwest Farm Markets

Except for livestock and grain, most Southwest farm products showed a downward trend last week, according to USDA's Production and Marketing Administration.

Cotton prices took a downward turn this past week and averaged a little under the 22-year high established earlier in March. Meager grain supplies failed to satisfy demand and prices remained firm at ceiling. No. 1 hard ordinary wheat brought $1.83 to $1.85 per bushel, bulk, in carlots at Fort Worth and Galveston; sorghum grains $2.70 per hundred, including all permissible mark-ups; and No. 3 white oats $9 to $1 cents a bushel in Fort Worth and $1 to $3 cents in Galveston. Warmer weather brought no let up in the strong demand for feed and hay. Supplies remained tight and prices at ceiling.

Southwest egg markets developed easiness on large production this past week. Current receipts brought 29 to 31 1-3 cents per dozen, New Orleans; and mostly 31 cents, Dallas, Fort Worth and Denver.

Light receipts of poultry moved at stronger prices as demand continued fair to good. Heavy hens brought 27 to 29 cents per pound, New Orleans; and 22 to 24 cents, Dallas, Fort Worth and Denver. Fryers were in extremely short supply at some markets, and sold mostly at 30 to 31 cents per pound with some producers asking 33 1-2 cents, the ceiling.

Southwest hog markets saw no change this past week. Prices held firm at ceiling with receipts well under trade needs. Top butchers brought $14.50 per hundred pounds, Wichita; $14.55, Oklahoma City; $14.63, Fort Worth and San Antonio and $14.80 Denver. Medium and good stocker pigs realized $12 to $13.50, San Antonio and Fort Worth; mostly $13, Oklahoma City; $13 to $14, Wichita and $14, Denver.

Cattle prices were fully steady to higher at most Southwest markets last week. Active trading cleaned up light receipts each day. Medium steers and yearlings brought $13.50 to $14.50, Houston and $14 and $15, Fort Worth. Medium and good light stock steers and yearlings realized $12.50 to $14, Wichita. Common to low medium steers sold at $12 to $15.25, Denver.

Reading exchange papers this week we see the weather made the front page news in most all of the papers. Seems the recent sandstorms revived memories of storms of earlier days and occasioned many tales of high winds.

Speaking of dust, Ralls will get some stirred up this summer. It seems definite that they will have a rodeo. The rodeo ground will be on land formerly occupied by the school in the city park. A county wide canvas is being taken to enroll members and raise funds for the Crosby County Rodeo Association.

Crosbyton hopes to have a new city hall and fire station. A proposed bond issue of $100,000 is to be voted on Saturday. Included in this will be the cost of a new 500 gallon pumper for the fire station. Reports also concerned arrests made in connection with a grain thieving set-up.

Haskell is to have a Junior Chamber of Commerce. Formative plans are being carried out and the new chamber will begin work soon. For those who wonder about Junior CC groups the purpose of such clubs is to train young men to assume responsibility for later business and civic life.

Jayton residents are mourning the passing of a pioneer physician, Dr. John Fowler, who died March 5. Dr. Fowler had lived in Jayton since 1907.

The Texas Spur, weekly publication at Spur is announcing a change of ownership. Managing editor will be Frank Gray, of Fayetteville, Arkansas, with 24 years experience in the newspaper field. The former owners, Mr. and Mrs. Wade Scott, will return to the hotel business and Mr. and Mrs. Reid will retire.

Levelland's Postmaster Harry Mann and his wife were hosts last week to 80 postmasters and wives from the 19th Congressional District.

Brownfield's State Bank is very proud of the fact they have made 50 loans amounting to $200,000 to returned service men, under the "G. I. Bill of Rights." Most of the loans are farm equipment loans. The State Veterans Administration reports this bank leads the state in such loans.

Tahoka and Lynn County will receive national publicity when The Country Gentleman, magazine published in Philadelphia, prints their account of the Flying Farmers Meeting last week. The managing editor and a photographer secured a series of special stories. Other visitors were from Aviation Cross Country News and the Avalanche-Journal as well as professional photographers and airplane dealers. The reason for so much notice was this Lynn County Chapter is the first to be organized in Texas. The National Headquarters is in Oklahoma, sponsored by A & M college.

Notices of city elections are being published, both for city officials and school trustees, in most all neighboring towns.

Renewed interest in athletic activities in various schools is noted with the return of many men teachers and employment of coaches who promptly announce plans for training.

Sales of U. S. cotton abroad, which reached a low level during the war, have been increasing steadily since the late summer of 1945.

ELECTRICITY FOR OUT-OF-WAY PLACES

There is more than a 50-50 chance that isolated farms and ranches, of which there are many thousands especially in the West and Southwest, will be given same opportunity to secure the advantages of electric current as farmers in more thickly settled communities. To make rural electrification self-liquidating, there should be at least three good paying customers per mile. This places thousands of farmers and ranchmen at a disadvantage, and there is no hope for improvement for many years, if ever. In order to overcome this disadvantage and place these homes in a better position to have electric power, it is proposed that an REA appropriation be made for loans to isolated farmers and ranchmen for the purpose of equipping their homes and barns with individual light plants, either wind driven, or from diesel or other power plants.

During the past several years manufacturers have made equipment of this kind practical in every way. The cost of operation is small and the service rendered equal in every respect to that secured from a power line. They are automatic and operate only when service is needed.

The need for this appropriation of $550,000,000 is apparent when it is known that in seventeen states west of the Mississippi river there are more than 1,000,000 farms and ranches that average only 1.1 homes per mile, of which 500,000 average less than 0.6 homes per mile. Individual systems, which it is proposed to finance, are capable of producing more electric energy per month than farmers and ranchers will use.

Now that large appropriations for rural electric lines are available and restrictions on construction removed, a rapid expansion of electric service in rural districts is expected. Texas has been allotted $4,000,000 as a starter, and new lines already planned will give service to 10,000 farms and rural homes. Up to July 1, 1945, Texas has been allotted $48,000,000 for rural lines with which 41,000 miles of line have been constructed, serving 100,000 farm families.

G. R. DAY NAMED STATE DELEGATE AT TEACHER'S MEETING LAST FRIDAY

G. R. Day, newly appointed superintendent of Post schools, was named to the house of delegates of the State Teachers Association last Friday at the annual conference of the West Texas Teachers Association.

Garza County was well represented at the meeting which was attended by approximately 2,000 teachers from 26 counties. Officers for next year were elected, 20 members to the state house of delegates were named, and various problems of teaching were discussed in sectional meetings.

First of the general sessions, held at the Senior High school, was opened at 9 o'clock with a band concert. After the invocation and announcements an address of welcome was given by Dean Gordon, O. C. Thomas, Ralls superintendent, gave the response.

Family relations and their influence on public schools and the future of life in America were stressed by three prominent speakers for the session: Dr. Robt. E. Goodrich, minister for the Trinity Methodist church in El Paso; Dr. Paul Popenoe of the American Institute of Family Relations in Los Angeles; and Mrs. Evelyn Duvall, secretary of the National Council of Family Relations.

Mrs. Duvall, speaking on New Skills in Family Relations outlined four problems which endanger present society.

Dr. Paul Popenoe, highly reputed in the field of family counsel and marriage problems, spoke on Partners in New Educational Methods—Parents and Teachers and asserted that the schools must accept a constantly rising responsibility in teaching to youth the complexities of modern life.

Dr. Goodrich addressed the group on Education for the Home of Tomorrow. Three attitudes must be developed: an attitude toward life itself which must have purposes outside and beyond self; attitude toward others; and the attitude of spiritual values.

On advice from the nominating committee the following officers were elected: Frank Monroe, superintendent at Midland, advanced to president; W. A. Miller, Odessa high school principal, vice president; Clarence Guffee, Floyd County superintendent, treasurer; and Miss Lucile Lucas of Odessa was re-elected secretary.

Besides Mr. Day and almost all the local teaching staff, the meeting was attended by County Superintendent Dean Robinson and teachers from Close City, Graham, Justiceburg and possibly others of the county schools.

$108 RETURNED TO LOCAL CHAPTER ON PARALYSIS DRIVE

B. J. Edwards, manager of the Garza theatre, announced this week that he had received a check for $108.29 from the State Headquarters in Dallas, representing 50% of the total March of Dimes collections at the Garza theatre, which will be used by the local chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

Edwards said this was in keeping with the policy of the National Foundation to return 50% of all local collections to the county in which they were made to carry on the fight against the dread polio. The other half of the collection has been forwarded to the National Foundation for education and research and to carry on the fight against this human blight on a national basis.

He further stated that the theatremen of Texas were grateful in their movie patrons and thank them. The theatres of Texas were able to collect approximately $225,000 for this worthy cause.

CARELESS TRAFFIC DANGER TO SCHOOL CHILDREN

Two recent automobile mishaps occurring near the Post High school should be a matter of alarm and concern for everyone, especially all parents of school children.

The last wreck happened a few minutes before the noon hour. Should the timing have been a little later possibly more injuries would have been sustained as about 300 high school youngsters pour out the doors each day for the noon hour.

While we are not expressing any opinion on the wrecks or their causes, we do say more thought and caution should be employed while driving by a school. If speed were not a contributing factor in these wrecks it might well be in another because too many people pay too little attention to the school as they proceed along the Post-Tahoka highway.

Some form of cautionary devices, either signs or automatic street signals, should be installed as reminders to motorists of the proximity of a school. All Garza county residents should realize the traffic danger to their children and their neighbors' children but unfortunately thinking comes after an accident many times instead of before. So a wise action would be to install some sort of effective curb on traffic near the school as a method of preventing future accidents.

These same words can apply to driving around grade school though the situation is somewhat different since there is no highway adjacent to grade school grounds.

SPRING IS OFFICIALLY HERE

Spring officially made its 1946 entrance here in West Texas yesterday, March 20. Some few days lately have given a good preview of the balmy days to come.

The few nice days so far have been doubly appreciated by the contrast of the dusters we have endured.

The warm weather has been most encouraging to trees and many spots of beauty are created by the flowering fruit trees just now. We vision fresh fruit next summer and it seems too good to be true. In fact, we'll stick our neck out and predict it will not be true, it is sure to freeze since Easter is late again this year.

However, if your fancy runs to weeding hoes and spading forks you can have lots of fun planting shrubs and cuttings and burying little seeds from beautifully colored packets.

Many people who are blessed with a Green Thumb are really taking advantage of the pretty days to improve conditions in the yard as well as provide a supplement to the grocery supply this summer.

CAMP FIRE GIRLS OBSERVE 34TH BIRTHDAY

The Camp Fire Girls Organization this week celebrates its 34th Birthday. The oldest organization for girls in the United States was founded in 1912 by a group of men and women interested in recreation for girls.

In celebration Blue Birds, Camp Fire Girls, and Horizon Clubbers will feature programs regarding aspects of family, friendship, and understanding. The general theme is At Home in the World.

Camp Fire Girls, Inc. provides a leisure time program for girls based on seven interests or crafts: home, hand, health, nature lore, camping, business, and citizenship. By awarding honors in these crafts the organization encourages members to develop natural aptitudes, to enjoy and be at home in the out-of-doors, and to meet cheerfully the responsibilities of home and community life.

Any group of girls ten years of age or older may form a Camp Fire under the leadership of an older friend. Interest is sponsored particularly in American Indian arts and crafts. Each girl chooses for herself an Indian name symbolic of her aspirations. Membership during these 34 years has grown to approximately a quarter of a million.

Wherever the organization has formed groups, it has become a constructive force in the community and enriched the lives of all people of the community.

NOW THAT WE HAVE IT... WHAT WILL WE DO WITH IT?

Like the blood on Lady Macbeth's hands the Atom bomb keeps cropping up in discussion of various groups. Everyone is concerned about the disposition of information regarding same, no one group wants the control, but is afraid to trust any other organization to determine its future.

After a proposal to set up a military committee to govern the future development of the bomb, immediately cries went up against military control for fear that the tendency would be toward promotion of another war.

The persons favoring civilian control argue that a control separate and apart from any section of the War or Navy Departments would be preferable in that the far reaching implications of the thing would be channeled into building for peace by encouragement of further research.

PUBLIC MONOPOLY

There is far more danger in public monopoly than there is in private monopoly, for when the government goes into business it can always shift its losses to the taxpayers. If it goes into the power business it can pretend to sell cheap power and then cover up its losses. The government never really goes into business, for it never makes ends meet, and that is the first requisite of business. It just mixes a little business with a lot of politics and no one ever gets a chance to find out what is actually going on.

After filling out one of those Federal income tax blanks, a fellow quickly concludes that Uncle Sam, also taxes the memory.

People kid us about being fat, but when the time comes, if it ever does, when we can have as much fun taking it off as we had putting it on, we'll realize.

Sidelights...

FROM WASHINGTON, D. C. By Congressman Geo. Mahon

Some real progress is being made toward reducing Government spending recapturing funds appropriated before V-J Day but not actually spent. This week the House passed a bill providing for the recovery of six and one-half billion dollars in unexpended Government funds in the hands of the Army and Navy and other Government agencies. This brings the total sum of money recovered since the end of hostilities to fifty-seven billion dollars, a sum greater by almost one-third than we have ever collected in Federal taxes in a single year.

We have not taken back from the Army and Navy certain unexpended funds required for rounding out the construction of bases in the far Pacific, but we have called for a clearer policy and no duplication of effort in the construction of these bases. After the peace treaty is officially agreed to, it might be difficult to complete fortifications without the charge being made by certain foreign powers that we were making aggressive threats against them.

There will be further recoveries of funds from the War and Navy Departments and other agencies following additional investigations which are now in progress.

The reports which Senator Connally and Senator Vandenberg have made to the Senate following their return from the first meeting of the United Nations Organization in London have been well received here. They talked not of war but of peace. Their emphasis was upon better understanding among the nations. They spoke of tolerance and mutual respect, while advocating a firm and definite American policy.

The Senate has not permitted partisan politics to play a part in efforts which are being made to promote the success of the U.N.O. This significant fact was made clear by the report of Senator Vandenberg, the Republican leader in the Senate in foreign affairs matters. We cannot afford to fritter away a victory which was won at so great a cost.

The question of whether to permit the Navy to use 90 American ships in an atomic bomb test in the Pacific was not an easy one for the House to decide. However, upon the insistence of the Navy, the House voted to permit the test. Undoubtedly, it is very important to our security to have accurate knowledge at an early date as to just what the atomic bomb will do to Naval ships. Naval officers point out that there is little comparison between the relatively fragile and inflammable Japanese cities and heavily armored ships of the Navy. The Navy insists also that a few modern ships be used in the test if necessary knowledge is to be gained. The argument was made that in the event of a future war the lessons learned from the tests might result in saving millions of dollars and thousands of American lives.

A bomb, other than atomic, will sink a single ship, but no one actually knows what an atomic bomb will do to a formation of Naval vessels. Before proceeding with post-war plans, the Navy wants to know if an atomic bomb will sink the Navy. Naval officers apparently do not think so.

Social Security Does Not Provide Disability Aid

John Palmer, manager of the Social Security Board in Lubbock, was in Post Wednesday for the purpose of assisting persons who had questions regarding Social Security, or who wished to file a claim for Social Security benefits, or who needed Social Security account number cards.

The old-age and survivors insurance provisions of the Social Security Act do not provide for payments in case of sickness or disability.

"Recently a number of persons have contacted this office, seeking information as to whether or not they could receive social security benefits during periods of illness or disability," Mr. Palmer said.
