BEST PROSPECTS IN HISTORY INDICATED—

Big Cotton Crop Will Pay Off This Year

Farmers of this area have their fingers crossed in a big way.

If the weather plays no tricks
this year, Garza County will produce 65,000 to 70,000 acres of cotton—or nearly twice the normal acreage—this year.

D. F. Eaton, county agricultural agent who is familiar with the activities on farms in every section of the county, says that since the rains came farmers are planting more cotton than usual and that 60 to 75 per cent of their total crops will be in cotton, if enough seed is available.

Most of the farmers had planted some cotton before the rains started and, of course, had to replant.

The replanting in most areas will be finished the latter part of this week, ahead of the usual deadline for cotton planting in this county.
The usual season for cotton planting here is May 20 to June 1, Eaton said.

Garza County's average for cotton in normal years is 30,000 to 35,- 000 acres.

This also will be a good season for grain sorghums and other row crops. The planting season for row crops in this area is June 15 to 25, Eaton said.

"Because of the rain," Eaton said, "we have the best prospects for a cotton crop since 1941 when the largest crop in the history of the county was made."

Eaton also pointed out that the price of cotton makes cotton raising most attractive to cotton growers this year.

This year's bumper crop will really pay off, the agent believes.

VOLUME XXI POST, TEXAS "OUT WHERE THE WEST IS THE WEST" THURSDAY, MAY 29, 1947 "THE GATEWAY TO THE PLAINS" NUMBER 23

J. LLOYD MOYER

D. F. Eaton To Be Permanent County Agent

County Judge J. Lee Bowen has announced that Homer Thompson has taken the job as Cochran County agricultural agent at Morton and will not return to his post here. As Thompson was Garza County agent at the time he went into service, the job of permanent agent has been held for his return until this week when Thompson accepted the Cochran offer because of higher pay, the judge explained.

At a meeting of the County Commissioners Court on Monday, D. F. Eaton, who has been acting county agricultural agent, will be named permanent agent, Judge Bowen said.

Eaton, who came here after being discharged from the army late in 1946, is a son of the fifth county agricultural agent ever employed in the United States. A 1939
graduate of Texas A & M College, Eaton first served as assistant county agent at Pampa; then went to Sherman County in 1941 as agent. Eleven months later, he moved to Stratford to serve as agent until August, 1945, when he was inducted into the army.

As acting county agent, he has lined up a thorough farm program for both adults and 4-H boys. He is also serving as scoutmaster for one of Post's two Boy Scout troops.

Eaton is married and has two children, Mike and Steve.

MRS. TRUETT FRY IS INJURED IN FIRE AT HER HOME ON FRIDAY

Mrs. Truett Fry suffered painful burns on her face and hands
last Friday morning at her home when a mop which she was cleaning with gasoline was ignited by the pilot light from a butane heater in the bathroom.

As the fire was quickly extinguished, little damage was done to the bathroom or the rest of the house.

Firemen brought Mrs. Fry from her home, which is on the Ralls highway about a mile and a half north of the city limits, to the Post Clinic for treatment. The burns were not serious.

SECOND 'UNAVOIDABLE DELAY' SUFFERED BY PIGGY WIGGLY STORE

"It was just another unavoidable delay," O. L. Weakley said of the new building which he and Ira Lee Duckworth are having constructed at the corner of Main and Jefferson last Friday morning when he learned that a strong wind the previous night had destroyed the east and west 12-foot walls.

Workmen, after a long technical delay, had been building on the tile walls about two weeks when the windstorm struck.

The building was insured and so the loss will amount to little more than postponement of the completion date, said Lefty Davies of the Elbert Davies Construction Company, which has the contract.

Tax Rendition Forms Sent To City Residents

For the convenience of city property owners, the office personnel of the City of Post has mailed tax rendition blanks to Post residents.

Sherrill Boyd, acting city secretary, says that property owners can sign the blanks and return them by mail, if the forms are up-to-date.

If, however, the property has been improved or changed hands since the last rendition, the owners should call at the City Hall to bring the records up-to-date.

Two Rationing Stamps Valid For Sugar Use

A third 1947 sugar rationing stamp, good for 10 pounds, will be validated "not later" than Aug.
1, the Associated Press quoted the U. S. Department of Agriculture as announcing Monday.

It also was announced that spare stamp No. 12 in consumer ration books may be used immediately, instead of June 1 as previously announced.

This action assures household consumers of the full 35 pounds of sugar promised under the sugar control extension act of 1947.

The USDA statement said that if improvement in sugar supplies continues, additional sugar above the 35 pounds will be made available to consumers.

Stamp No. 11, which was made valid on April 1, and Stamp No.
12 both will expire October 31.

on June 1. The company presented Mr. Dent with a 21-jewel Elgin wrist watch and gave a check for $400 to Mr. and Mrs. Dent.

POST MERCHANTS KEEP FAITH WITH THOSE WHO DIED IN BATTLE

As no special observance of Memorial Day has been planned for tomorrow, Post merchants have acknowledged the occasion in today's issue of the Post Dispatch with a full-page tribute to the Garza County heroes who gave their lives in World Wars I and II.

The local tribute will be further emphasized tomorrow
when the downtown business houses put out their U. S.

The Post Chamber of Commerce asked that this notice

Okla. Hearing To Be Attended By Garza Men

A delegation from Andrews, Kermit and Lamesa traveling in a chartered bus will pass through Post Tuesday morning, about 9:30 o'clock, to pick up local delegates to the Broadway To The Big Bend Highway Association hearing before the Oklahoma Highway Commission in Oklahoma City on Wednesday. The bus will pick up other West Texas delegates in towns between here and the Oklahoma line.

Post will be represented at the meeting by County Judge J. Lee Bowen, Commissioners W. C.
Quisenberry, W. T. Pehman, and Sherrill Boyd, secretary of the Post Chamber of Commerce.
Wright Henson of the Kalgary community also plans to make the trip.

The group will attempt to interest the Oklahoma Highway Commission in supporting the building of the proposed Broadway To The Big Bend international highway link from Oklahoma
City to the Texas line, above Quamah.

Noon Sell-Out On Poppies Is Reported Here

A sell-out of Buddy Poppies Saturday was reported by the local auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars. The members, assisted by girls of Post High School, could have sold twice as many,
they believe, had the poppies been available.

The day's sale netted $208.90.
Imogene Jewell was sales chairman and Mrs. John P. Rogers is president of the auxiliary.

The money will be used to aid needy veterans and their families.

Scout Camp Repairs Are Underway

Hundreds of Boys to Attend Camp in June

Repairmen are busy as bees at the Post Boy Scout Camp this week, putting the building and grounds in shape for the series of South Plains Boy Scout Encampments which get underway June 1. Al Smith of Lubbock, field executive for the South Plains Boy Scout Council is supervising the work.

Repairs and improvements include a new kitchen, interior,
a butane system, a large cook stove,
a canteen from which the boys can buy sodapops, candies and chewing gum, a large pantry for food supplies, office space for Boy Scout leaders, new showers and general repairs.

The camp schedule has been announced as follows:

June 1-7, troops from Bailey, Lamb, Cochran, Hockley and Lubbock Counties and the city of Abernathy.

June 8-14, troops from Swisher, Briscoe, Hale, Motley, Floyd, Crosby and Dickens Counties.

June 15-21, all troops from Gaines, Dawson, Yoakum, Terry,
Lynn, Garza and Borden Counties and the city of Slaton.

Visitors Are Invited

The Scouts will enter camp on Sunday afternoon of their respective weeks and leave after lunch the following Saturday. Sunday and Friday nights of each week have been designated as visitors' nights. There will be special campfire ceremonies on Friday nights.

A fee of $8 per Boy Scout is charged for attending the camp.
This covers all expenses except materials for various crafts and the sodapops and other items which the boys will buy at the canteen.

Program Is Varied

The program each week will include compass instruction and contests, day and night stalking (trail work), nature study, archery and marksmanship, star observation (including identification of major planets and constellations and direction finding by stars), rope work, axemanship, pioneering, museum hikes, songfests, campfires and any scout crafts and skills that individual troops or boys desire.

The Post Boy Scout Camp is picturesquely situated in the breaks of the Caprock to the left of the Tahoka Highway. It is ideally suited to the Boy Scout program, and it is enjoyed by hundreds of Boy Scouts from 19 or 20 South Plains Counties each summer.

Information On War Dead Comes To T. L. Jones

T. L. Jones, chairman of the Garza County Chapter of the American Red Cross, has received information regarding the disposition of World War II service and civilian bodies buried overseas. It will be of special interest to next of kin of Garza County boys who were killed in action.

Attached to a general information booklet are samples of letters of inquiry and information enlosures which the War Department will mail to next of kin within the next two years. As all next of kin will not receive letters of inquiry at the same time, the War Department asked Mr. Jones to discourage families from making any inquiries of the War and Navy Departments prior to receipt of their letters of inquiry.

Mr. Jones is preparing a letter explaining the procedure to all Garza County families of boys buried overseas. He said he and members of his committee are willing to help them in any way possible to interpret the War Department forms and facilitat-the reburial of the bodies according to the families' wishes.

James Minor, adjutant of the local American Legion post, will assist the Red Cross committee in completing arrangements for re-burial of the bodies here.

Willis Is Arrested

Buster Willis of Post, who was charged with forgery on complaint of L. M. Shipp in the Lubbock justice of the peace court on May 22 and with check law violation on May 22 in the Lubbock county court, was arrested in Lubbock Tuesday night by two members of the Lubbock sheriff's department.

ENTHUSIASM SEEN IN RODEO PARADES—

Street Dance Here Saturday Night To Open Costume Campaign

There'll be a hot time in the old town Saturday night.

Cowboys and cowgirls, real and synthetic, will be dancing in the streets.

The party will be free for everybody, as the only admission requirement will be the wearing of western clothes.

Downtown Post will be the scene of a good, old-fashioned street dance, with music by a string band from Lorenzo and Ralls. The public from Garza County and surrounding areas is invited.

The dancing will get under way
at 8:30 o'clock.

The street dance will be the lead-off of a campaign to put everybody in Garza County—men, women, grandparents and babies—in western clothes and keep them wearing them for advertising purposes until after the Post Stampede and Rodeo, June 11-14 inclusive.

The Post Stampede and Rodeo Association is making plans to organize a "kangaroo court" in which business men and women and their employees who "are on the streets of Post every day, will be "tried and convicted" for failure to wear western clothes.

The purpose is to inform every person who passes through Post on its two cross-state highways that there is a rodeo about to take place in Post and that enthusiasm is running high.

O. D. Cardwell, who is in charge of planning the parade for each day of the rodeo, says that enthusiasm really is running high.

Indications are that every community in Garza County will have an entry in the parade, as will all of the downtown merchants and,
of course, all the kids and any number of individuals and clubs
from over the county are planning entries.

Anything on wheels or feet is eligible for entry, Cardwell says.
Now that materials for decorating floats are again available, Cardwell expects a record entry of decorated floats.

He says that floats can be made of jeeps, truckbeds, automobiles, farm wagons, chuckwagons, buggies, tractors, etc. One local filling station operator is planning to enter a clown on a stocking-legged mule.

Many children will ride ponies,
horses and donkeys in the parade.
A feature, as usual, will be the cowgirls sponsored by the local merchants. The girls will vie with each other for cash prizes. A girl of any age is eligible to enter this contest in the parade, Cardwell says.

Know Your Churches...

SPEAKING OF MY RELIGION

JUSTICEBURG BAPTIST CHURCH

Long before this county was organized it was settled by ranchers and farmers who realized the potential qualifications for making this section their homes. The need for a church was felt as more families came into this section so on August 9, 1903, a Missionary Baptist Church was organized in the Lee-forest Community in the south eastern section of the county.

There were six charter members, three of whom are still living. They were Mrs. Ella Justice, now living in California, Mrs. J. P. Lester (deceased), Mrs. Mattie Justice (deceased), Mrs. Willie Marable, now living in Post, Mrs. Bettie Mason (deceased), Mrs. Nannie Boren, now living in Post.

At this first meeting the New Hampshire Articles of Faith and Church Covenant were used to form the basis of the adopted church program. Rev. Scott Cotten was appointed church clerk pro tem.

On August 29, 1903, the same group met in the arbor of the Lee-forest community for a week-end of church services with the Rev. Cotten preaching on Saturday night, Sunday morning and Sunday night. Eleven persons attended all services. At the time the church voted to call Rev. J. V. Bilberry to preach.

This small group formed the first church organization for the county and performed their duties diligently and well. There as families began to come into the Justiceburg area it was decided that a church was needed there so on July 3, 1910, six persons, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Hay, Mrs. W. G. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Boyton, along with the late Rev. A. R. Tyson and the Rev. J. M. Rankin of Stonewall put into motion the organization of the Justiceburg Baptist Church.

Church property listed as lots 17-18, block 88 of the Justiceburg landsite was purchased for the purpose of erecting a church building. In later years this property was disposed of and church meetings are now held in the school building.

At one of the earliest church meetings Mr. W. G. Williams and E. V. Boyton were named delegates to the Baptist General Convention.

Following those early days, the church developed into a union church pattern with pastors from all denominations helping in the church programs and organizations. About seven years ago, Rev. D. W. Reed was asked to fill the pastorate and he served there since that date.

Records on the church history are incomplete but the dates and charter members of the organizations were taken from the minutes.

A few of the pastors who have served there are Revs. Ella Tyson, Rankin, Charlie Jones, Ennis Hill, M. C. Bishop, J. B. Stephens, McReynolds, J. Kirchville and many others.

I have heard old people like me contribute their long lives to eating plenty of eels, lettuce and poke-salad. I contribute mine to the influence of my church. Through thick and thin she has stood there welcoming friend and foe, christian and non-christian. Of course what a fellow eats has to do with the length of his life but HOW HE LIVES has much more to do with it. That's why I'm so happy now, I suppose. My formula for living a long time is traceable to my church. Why, I was married there. I brought up my family with the blessings of my church to help. If you want to know something about this church business—I count myself a real citizen and it's because of my church. You know character is about all that's lasting and worthwhile and the church is where you mold it.

IF a lot of our DELINQUENT FATHERS and MOTHERS would shoulder their responsibilities like fathers and mothers should there would be little necessity for all this talk about JUVENILE DELINQUENCY. The parents miserably fail and what else can you expect?

IT would be your greatest decision—to resolve right now that you will support your church with your money, your presence and your prayers regularly.

Proposed Constitutional Amendment:

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION
NO. 4

Prairie View Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas 534416

proposing an amendment to Article VII of the Constitution of the State of Texas by the addition of two new sections to be known as Sections 17 and 18 providing a special fund for the payment of Confederate pensions and providing a method of payment for the construction and equipment of buildings and other permanent improvements at state institutions of higher learning; providing for a five-cent reduction in the maximum allowable state tax on property; providing for an election and the issuance of a proclamation therefor.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Article 7 of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended by adding thereto Sections 17 and 18 which shall read as follows:

"Section 17. In lieu of the state ad valorem tax on property of Seven (7c) Cents on the One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars valuation heretofore permitted to be levied by Section 51 of Article 3, as amended, there is hereby levied, in addition to all other taxes permitted by the Constitution of Texas, a state ad valorem tax on property of Two (2c) Cents on the One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars valuation for the purpose of creating a special fund for the payment of pensions for services in the Confederate army and navy, frontier organizations, and the militia of the State of Texas, and for the widows of such soldiers serving in said armies, navies, organizations or militia; providing that the Legislature may reduce the tax rate hereinabove levied.

"Also, there is hereby levied, in addition to all other taxes permitted by the constitution of Texas, a state ad valorem tax on property of Five (5c) Cents on the One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars valuation for the purpose of creating a special fund for the purpose of acquiring, constructing and initially equipping buildings, or other permanent improvements at the designated institutions of higher learning; and the governing board of each of such institutions of higher learning is fully authorized to pledge all or any part of said funds allotted to such institution as hereinafter provided, to secure bonds or notes issued for the purpose of acquiring, constructing and initially equipping such buildings or other permanent improvements at said respective institutions. Such bonds or notes shall be issued in such amounts as may be determined by the governing boards of said respective institutions, shall bear interest not to exceed three (3%) per cent per annum and shall mature serially or otherwise not to exceed ten (10) years from the first (1st) day of January of each year in which such funds are allocated or re-allocated to said respective institutions; provided, the power to issue bonds or notes hereunder is expressly limited to a period of thirty (30) years from the date of the adoption of this amendment; and provided further, that the Five (5c) Cent tax hereby levied shall expire finally upon payment of all bonds hereby authorized; provided further, that the state tax on property as heretofore permitted to be levied by Section 9 of Article VIII, as amended, exclusive of the tax necessary to pay the public debt, and of the taxes provided for the benefit of the public free schools, shall never exceed Thirty (30c) Cents on the One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars valuation. All bonds shall be examined and approved by the Attorney General of the State of Texas, and when so approved shall be incontestable; and all approved bonds shall be registered in the office of the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas. Said bonds shall be sold only through competitive bids and shall never be sold for less than their par value and accrued interest.

"Funds raised from said Five (5c) Cents tax levy for the ten (10) year period beginning January 1, 1948, are hereby allocated to the following institutions of higher learning, and in the following proportions, to wit:

FOUR-H CLUB CONTEST FOR IMPROVING FARM METHODS IS ANNOUNCED

Garza County 4-H members again have an opportunity this year to win special recognition for developing methods that will simplify their farm and home jobs. Recognition in the form of merit awards will be given on county, state and national levels in the 4-H Better Methods Electric Activity, the National Committee on Boys and Girls Club Work has announced.

Members need not have electricity on their farms to take part in this activity, which may be applied to all types of 4-H Club work.

State and national winner in 1946 was Harold Rampsy, 16, of Lakeview, who received a trip to the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago, and a $200 college scholarship, provided by Westinghouse Educational Foundation. Among his work simplification accomplishments on the farm was that of studying the job of unloading threshed sorghum into a granary. He proposed using a grain elevator powered with an electric motor. He recommends providing electricity on the farm and installing an electrically powered feed-grinder, electric brooder and other labor-saving farm and home appliances and machines.

Six state winners are selected for national honors, each receiving a $200 college scholarship.

The activity is conducted under the direction of the Extension Service of the State Agricultural College and USDA cooperating.

From where I sit... by Joe Marshall

Want to Run a "Collective" Farm?

Was reading the other day about the "collective" farms they have in certain countries. It seems the folks who run them have plenty of help... good hours... and the best equipment.

Sounds pretty nice—till you learn that the "farmer" doesn't own his land, or even farm it, in our sense. He takes orders from the state; produces whatever they want him to produce, at prices they set. Even his off-hours are spent according to state regulations.

No, that would never go here.

We're willing to work hard, but we like to farm the land our own way, put our own value on the crops, and relax as we like—if only with a temperate, companionable glass of beer.

From where I sit, collective farming may produce results. But the American way—freedom to work and relax as we see fit—is what makes this country a great place to live. So let's not change.

Ben L.'s Wife Slips Up On Tol Thomases

There's a lot of dishwashing going on these days in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tol Thomas.

It started when their son, A. C., arrived here from McMurry College in Abilene Saturday to spend the summer, and their daughter, Mrs. J. W. Floyd of Los Angeles, Calif., arrived Monday for a two weeks' visit.

Mrs. Thomas and Mrs. Floyd were washing dishes Tuesday morning when Mrs. Floyd thought she heard someone at the door. "No, it's the cat," Mrs. Thomas said, and they continued with their work.

"I'm certainly disappointed about Ben L.," Mrs. Floyd said. She had thought her brother and his bride would be here when she left California. Now, the latest news was that Ben L. and wife had been delayed in leaving Alaska and she might not get to see him during the trip.

Mrs. Floyd and her mother were discussing this unfortunate circumstance when a strange woman entered the house, and stood there grinning at them. It was Ben L.'s bride, the former Miss Dulcie Darlene Rabern of Anchorage, Alaska. Ben L. hid in another room until his bride established her identity.

Ben L. will receive his army discharge papers in the near future, by mail. He has no definite plans for the future, beyond staying here for awhile.

Across the Tracks

BY H. H. H.

While browsing through several current issues of popular magazines, we were confronted by the idea that perhaps we should gear our own advertising to the high pressure tempo of modern times. Thumbing further in search of ideas, we were appalled by the dire consequences that await the luckless individual who neglects to brush his teeth with "Stardust" Dental Cream; bathe daily with Sweet Bubble soap; or protect his (or her) dampness with "Prim" underarm deodorant. Upon reading the last one we were especially struck by the horrible thought of what our friends might be whispering behind our unsuspecting back; because having never used a grain of the stuff in our life, we probably go about exuding a fragrance that would shame a goat. (Come to think of it—we've wondered lately why we always seem to have so much unobstructed space around us in the movies.)

Anyhow, we discarded these advertising ideas as being impractical for the service station business, and searching further, we finally lit upon the free-promotion idea as a stunt to entice customers. So at present folks, we intend ordering a whole host of beautiful premiums; such as chromium egg crackers, lovely plate-glass fly swatters, etc., to be given absolutely free to our customers. Now all you'll have to do, folks, to qualify for one of these beautiful and useful prizes will be to tear a fender off your automobile and mail it, along with ten thousand dollars in coin or stamps (no personal checks) to help defray handling costs, to . . .

James Minors To Leave For San Francisco

Mr. and Mrs. James Minor are making plans to take a special Rotary train on June 5 to San Francisco, Calif., where James will represent the Post Rotary Club of which he is president-elect at the 38th Rotary International Convention June 8-12.

The train will leave Houston and travel across the state, stopping at various points en route to pick up all Texas delegates. The Minors will board the train at Amarillo.

During a two-hour stopover in Denver, the Texas party will be entertained by the Denver Rotarians, on June 6. The train will stop at Salt Lake City, Utah, on June 7 for a tour of the Mormon Temple, Brigham Young's home, his private burial ground and monument, homes of early Mormon pioneers, the state Capitol, Fort Douglas, the University of Utah and the famous organ recital in the Mormon Tabernacle.

The Texas Rotarians will arrive in Oakland, Calif., early Sunday afternoon, June 8, and take a ferry trip across San Francisco Bay, in view of Alcatraz and the Golden Gate Bridge. They will begin the return trip on June 12.

The Rev. Huron A. Polnac was wearing a sport shirt and turning an ice cream freezer when a Post Dispatch reporter found him last Friday morning in the kitchen of the First Baptist Church.

It was the last day of the first week of the church's annual Daily Vacation Bible School which will be closed with a commencement service tomorrow night beginning at 8 o'clock.

The ice cream, which was served during the Friday morning recess period, was a surprise to the youngsters. The Bible school faculty had been serving only milk and cookies each morning to the beginners and, occasionally, punch and cookies to the older students.

The reporter found 77 youngsters, in three departments, busily engrossed in handiwork. Some of the boys were doing woodwork, making kitchen match box holders in the shape of grinning black cats and other clever, useful objects for their homes. Both boys and girls were making scrapbooks for the Baptist hospital in Abilene. Biblical notebooks for themselves and other clever, useful objects.

Have Joint Worship

The Rev. Mr. Polnac looked up from his cream freezing to explain that the children—beginners, primary students and juniors—meet at the church every morning at 9 o'clock for a joint hour of worship, marching into the auditorium in a procession led by bearers of the U. S. and Christian flags and the Bible. The program of worship included group hymn singing, quiet music, greetings by the principal, Mrs. Ralph Carpenter; scripture readings; reading of the motto, "I will do all the good I can to all the people I can in all the ways I can at all the times I can as long as I ever can."

Pledge to the U. S. flag and singing of "My Country 'Tis of Thee"; pledge to the Christian flag and appropriate song; pledge to the Bible; prayers recessional for beginners and primaries; continued program of scriptures, hymns, prayer, musical meditation and a character story for the older students. An offering is taken each morning, with proceeds going into a fund for the Baptist Camp in Palo Duro Canyon in the Texas Panhandle. A number of Post boys and girls are planning to attend the camp the latter part of June, the Rev. Mr. Polnac said.

After the joint worship, each of the groups engaged in a program of Bible study, character study, notebook making, memory work, handicraft and recreation.

Social Program Planned

As tomorrow is the last day of school, a social program has been planned for the entire day. A picnic lunch will be served at noon on the church playground.

Diplomas will be awarded to students completing their assignments and perfect attendance awards will be given during the commencement program tomorrow night.

Officers of the school, besides Mrs. Carpenter, are Mrs. Charles Pierce, junior superintendent; Mrs. Carl Hughes, primary superintendent; Mrs. Lloyd Edwards and Mrs. Henry Bilberry, beginners superintendents, and Mary Nell Bowen, pianist.

Other teachers are Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Martin, Marvin Dunlap, Mesdames Ira Lee Duckworth, Dan Coekrum, Jess Wright, Misses Betty Kennedy, Ila Faye Bratcher, Billie Louise Nichols, Lorraine Baker, Anita Kennedy and the Rev. and Mrs. Polnac.

The reporter could tell from the happy expressions on the faces of the children that they were having the time of their lives. This impression was verified by the remark that the mother of a six-year-old student made, as the reporter was leaving the church:

"I meant to go to Lubbock today and had made an appointment up there for my mother, but I had to break it because Sonny was so heartbroken over the thoughts of missing one day of Bible school."

ROGER W. BABSON WRITES THIS WEEK:

Greece - Turkey Aid Should Help U. S. Tanker Fleet

New York City—Aid and loans abroad are being used to expand U. S. trade with most of the nations of the world. Therefore, our farmers and manufacturers will benefit. What about our merchant fleet? Are we to let other nations take away our war-built lead in maritime commerce as after World War I? Wall Street is trying to get small investors "to hold the bag."

Let us look upon our maritime fleet before and after World War II. In 1939 we had about 14 per cent of world shipping, today we have about 50 per cent. Great Britain today has about 22 per cent, nearly the same as in 1939, and is building more. Other nations are rapidly replacing their war-depleted fleets with the intention of bettering their pre-war status. Although U. S. ships were carrying about half of the world trade after World War I, they had lost 30 per cent of that trade up to World War II. By 1939 our merchant fleet had been reduced to only about 14 per cent of the world's shipping. It looks very much as if this peacetime reduction in our merchant fleet were to be repeated.

Ships Available
From the end of World War II to the present day the U. S. merchant fleet has been reduced in tonnage close to 55 per cent. When this program has been completed it is doubtful if we have more than 1500 ships in use. Today we have three main classes of dry cargo vessels. The first class includes long-range freight vessels with medium speeds, combined cargo-passenger ships with comparable speeds and other faster cargo-passenger ships. These three types are the most useful for post-war shipping.

Victories, the second class, have fair speed; their detriment is stowage factor. Thirdly are older vessels and Liberties forming the bulk of our dry cargo fleet. Most of these are not satisfactory for present needs. The stowage factor of the Liberty ships is fair. But their expensive power plants, their slow speed combined with the high cost of American labor, makes Liberties impractical for American operators.

Now we come to ships building throughout the world. The United States has practically ceased construction. We are in need of fast medium sized passenger ships as well as some refrigerator ships. We will need new dry cargo ships designed to meet the faster more economical foreign competition. The number of ships building today the U. S. falls into the same category as France, Norway and Sweden. Italy and Holland are quite a few ships ahead of us. Great Britain intends to outbuild all comers with more than seven times the present U. S. program.

We do not know what Russia is building but my guess is that Russia's program will fall between Britain and the others. With one exception only, under the present set up, are we likely to hold our own in post-war shipping. We have more than enough modern tankers of large capacity and competitive speed. The opening of new oil fields throughout the world, with the demand for petroleum and by-products, should enable our tanker fleet to lead in this field if we can protect our Arabian Oil Fields. This is one reason for our present interest in Greece and Turkey.

Subsidies Necessary
Loading constitutes one of the largest shipping costs. At present high priced labor makes loading and unloading expensive heavy. A new device, being tested on the Maritime Commission's S. S. Sea Hawk, cuts loading time by an estimated 15 per cent. Until such modern devices can be incorporated into new ships we shall need considerable subsidy to support shipping. For today loading and other labor costs make American shipping far from profitable. The present plan is to spend about $50,000,000 each year for the support of our merchant fleet. This amount maintains a skeleton fleet for no new developments. Needed types of ships to a progressive fleet.

In view of the above, now, recommend reasonable shipping securities as a Government is justly creating subsidies to shipping. This would provide ground where we can sign and test new, more economical ships. It might not hold the lead goods carried, we would fully abreast of the time, moreover, we would be able into any future emergency least be on an equal with any other power.

GETTING OUT
On The LIMB
By EDDIE the EDITOR

We asked last week: "WHERE are the parents?"

The answer came with a barrage of mail, telephone calls and personal visits to the office.

It seems we have plenty of parents, and those who spoke up gave various and sundry reasons—some of them good, as to why they haven't turned themselves into Boy Scout leaders, Youth Canteen chaperons, Boys' Club crusaders or playground supervisors.

We'll take the Youth Canteen question first. Here is the gist of what a couple of parents told me in my office the other day:

One woman said she was one of the original organizers of the Youth Canteen. "My husband and I went up there every Saturday night and played games with the youngsters and, believe it or not, we had a good time ourselves," she said.

"But," she went on, "we are in business here and it got to where our customers came in to complain and went away without buying when they learned we couldn't be prejudiced against the canteen. We bucked it for awhile, then finally my husband said 'it's not worth all the prestige I'm losing' and we broke away from the canteen."

The other parent said she had stayed with the canteen and was willing to stay with it, despite local criticism, but she was wondering whether or not the Post Dispatch could be talked into urging the men to take an interest. "Nearly all the chaperons are women," she said, "and the kids resent it. They would think a lot more of the canteen if the MEN parents would support it."

I quizzed the two visitors, in an effort to find out why there is local opposition to the Youth Canteen. All I could get out of them was that the adverse critics are opposed to dancing and the proponents of the Youth Canteen permit the 'teen-agers to dance.

Now this practically eliminates me from the controversy, because I have no intention of writing either for or against dancing. I am of the opinion that youngsters who want to dance are going to do it despite obstacles and that supervised dancing is better than dancing that is not supervised, when done by 12-to-16-year-olds.

But there are those who are sincere in their disagreement with this personal opinion of mine, and they are entitled to their beliefs, this being—thank goodness—a free country. So, I can only recommend that:

(1) Those who disapprove of the Youth Canteen go up and, as one of our reporters did some time ago, observe for themselves that the boys and girls don't dance to any noticeable extent. There is some dancing among the girls, but the boys seem too timid to dance. Most of the youngsters play ping-pong, Chinese checkers, etc.

(2) Those who approve of the Canteen, get behind it and put it across. This means that the parents, men as well as women, must participate in the activities and make it the sort of place that youngsters of all beliefs can attend and enjoy.

Now for Boy Scouting: Several fathers stopped me on the street to discuss this situation. They all said they thought Scout leadership should be in the hands of people professionally trained in the work and, besides, one of the things they liked the best about Scouting was that it relieved them of teaching that they didn't have time to do

By EVELYN BOYD

It isn't for every good Texan's tendency to brag about the wonders of his home state when away from home, we would be in a heck of a fix in the eyes of intelligent folk in Washington, on the East and West Coasts and abroad.

These bragging Texans—of whom yours truly is one whenever traveling around—succeeded in being the state's own propaganda machine, combatting the impressions from the screwball things that happen down in Austin and the petty stabbings of Pappy W Lee O'Daniel up in Washington, and so forth.

I can't remember when Texas has been without a screwball politician whose antics have amused the world and tended to hold back the state of Texas in affairs diplomatic.

Of all the places in the United States that the nation's Number 1 contemporary non-Texan screwball, Henry Wallace, visited on his U. S. lecture tour, he got the biggest welcome in Austin, Texas, and the second biggest in California where the world's themselves, in regard to their sons.

I pointed out that we do have Charles Moore, Frank Eaton, Jess Wright and others trained in scouting and willing to carry as much of the load as possible, but that of necessity their services are free will and that the parents must be counted on to provide automobiles, some expense money, their presence at boy-parent meetings, etc., in order to keep Boy Scout work alive in a small town.

In all the conversations, I didn't hear a single objection to Boy Scouting in general. It just seems that we're all living too fast, particularly the parents. It seems they want our Boy Scout troops to be a credit to the city and the boys, but they want somebody else to do the work that it takes.

One parent of a boy eligible for Scouting told me he would not permit his son to join the local troops until he could be assured that his boy would have adult supervision on overnight hikes and other activities that could result in trouble.

The only answer I could give was that there seems to be a dearth of supervisors around here, and that if I had a boy I would think of the overnight camping trips I used to take and would make an effort to take my boy and his friends on some more of the same.

But I don't have any boy and so I am not in a position to speak for the parents. I better get on the linotype and set this, rather than to write more about some other guy's kid.

biggest movie industry is now being investigated for un-American activities.

It wouldn't surprise me to see Wallace elected to the Texas Legislature. He qualifies from the point of view of 10,000 Austin people and he is just as eligible to serve as several native Texans who are now killing time at Austin in the name of the Texas Legislature.

There is no such a thing as fair representation in our hedge-podge Legislature. In Garza County, the rest of West Texas and the Panhandle, there is taxation without representation, a situation which has caused trouble in the past. An editorial in the Amarillo Daily News states the situation neatly, as follows:

"Some of the Texas legislators are pitching tents on the Capitol grounds down in Austin because they can't live on the $5 daily pay allowed by the constitution. When a session passes the 120-day limit, the representatives and senators must either end the session or suffer a pay cut from $10 to $5 a day.

"The present session could have been wound up in 60 days—Long sessions of petty wrangling by do-nothing legislators help the state none at all.

"The present Legislature has disobeyed the state constitution. It has declined to redistrict the state for legislative purposes. The constitution says plainly that this must be done on the basis of population after every federal census.

"Our districts are based on the census of 1920. Since that time (more than a quarter of a century) there has been a surge of population to the western part of the state and, to some major degree, away from some of the East Texas counties. The legislators in eastern Texas hold the balance of power. They refuse to yield any part of it. This would be all right in a fair fight according to rules, but they are not scrapping by the rules; they are disregarding the basic law of the state of Texas.

"Two years ago we voted on a proposal to pay legislators $3,600 a year instead of $10 a day during the time the Legislature is in session. This was snuffed under at the polls, because the Legislature is in ill repute. The people are always glad when a session ends. Legislators will never be voted more pay until they work progressively and soundly and obey the constitution and the laws.

"The present legislature has spent most of its time trying to pass tax bills, although Texans have been convinced that no new (state) taxes were necessary. The Legislature passed a law raising the pay of school teachers (but didn't set up a practical way of doing it on a statewide basis). There have been a few other constructive laws . . .

"If these poor $5-a-day lawmakers would get busy they could be out of Austin within a week . . . But they seem to prefer to wrangle at $5 a day. There is no doubt that many of them are on retainers, and they are not suffering too badly.

"The grass is soft on the Capitol grounds. The nights

What Our Contemporaries Are Saying:

THE PUBLIC'S BUSINESS—It is right that citizens and taxpayers should be kept informed about the condition of city finances. They are entitled to the information at frequent intervals. The city commission should be commended for their announced policy of keeping the people informed on all phases of the city's business.

Joe Simmons, president of the Seagraves school board, voiced a similar attitude this week when he remarked that the schools belonged to the citizens within the district and not to the school board. He went on to say that while the board is responsible for administering the schools, their actions are subject to the approval or disapproval of the people in the community.

The above concept of public affairs seems obvious, yet it is surprising how often it seems to be forgotten by elected officials—in state and national, as well as in local circles.—The Gaines County News.

LUCKY PINE TREE BOYS—Fresh from the heart of the sprawling East Texas oil field, Jack L. Ballard, principal of Pine Tree School in Gregg County, and a group of 17 students arrived here Wednesday afternoon for an overnight stop in Snyder.

Ballard is head of one of the most unusual groups of high school students in Texas—a group of students who formed the Pine Tree Travel Club at the beginning of the school term. Minimum dues for each enrollee was $20. The Pine Tree Travel Club was organized on a cooperative basis are warm and balmy. The night sounds are musical. The Capitol grounds ought to be good for a vacation. Not everybody gets $5 a day while on vacation."

Let us hope that our bragging native Texans on the West Coast by now have put out enough propaganda to offset, at least, the following item sent out by the Associated Press from Austin:

"Texas legislators have been accused of all sorts of misdeeds and nefarious ill-doings but until Monday nobody tried to blame them for the Texas City blast.

"Representatives received postcards Monday from a Portland, Ore., man who asked: 'Who are the ones responsible for Texas City explosions? Why, the Texas House of Representatives, of course. Because on April 15 by a vote of 73 to 20 they chose sin (Satan) and on the following day the state began to reap the fruit of their actions.'

The AP explained that the House, in a prankish mood on April 15, voted down a resolution condemning sin by Representatives Nokes and Blount, but that the resolution was stricken from the record shortly afterward.

It's time we West Texans woke up and demanded that we have full and proper representation in Austin. It's the only way we can get unity and common sense into our state government, and it might be a starting point to eliminate the ridicule that all of us have to face when we go away from home; the ridicule that has turned us into braggarts for self defense.

and in this, their first annual tour, they will travel approximately 2,000 miles by the time they get back to Gregg County.—The Scurry County Times.

June Home Demonstration Topic To Be Various Types Of Canning

The June program for Garza County home demonstration clubs will be highlighted by a demonstration by Miss Jewell Hipp, home demonstration agent, of canning under pressure at one meeting of each club and a demonstration by the club demonstrator of waterbath canning and fruit drinks and fruit salads at another meeting of each club. Also in June, the women of all clubs will have a joint meeting to hear Mrs. Homer Gordon of Gordon's Flower Shop discuss and demonstrate flower arrangement. The date is to be set later.

Mrs. Julius Fumagalli of Verbeno, county chairman for the Texas Home Demonstration Association, has provided the clubwomen with new reading lists of THDA-approved fiction, history and other books. Each woman who reads three of the books a year will receive a certificate and a star.

Duties Are Outlined
Nearly all the home demonstration clubs in the county were represented at an all-day training school and council meeting at the American Legion Hall Saturday. Mrs. Fumagalli presided for the training school, at which the program was as follows:

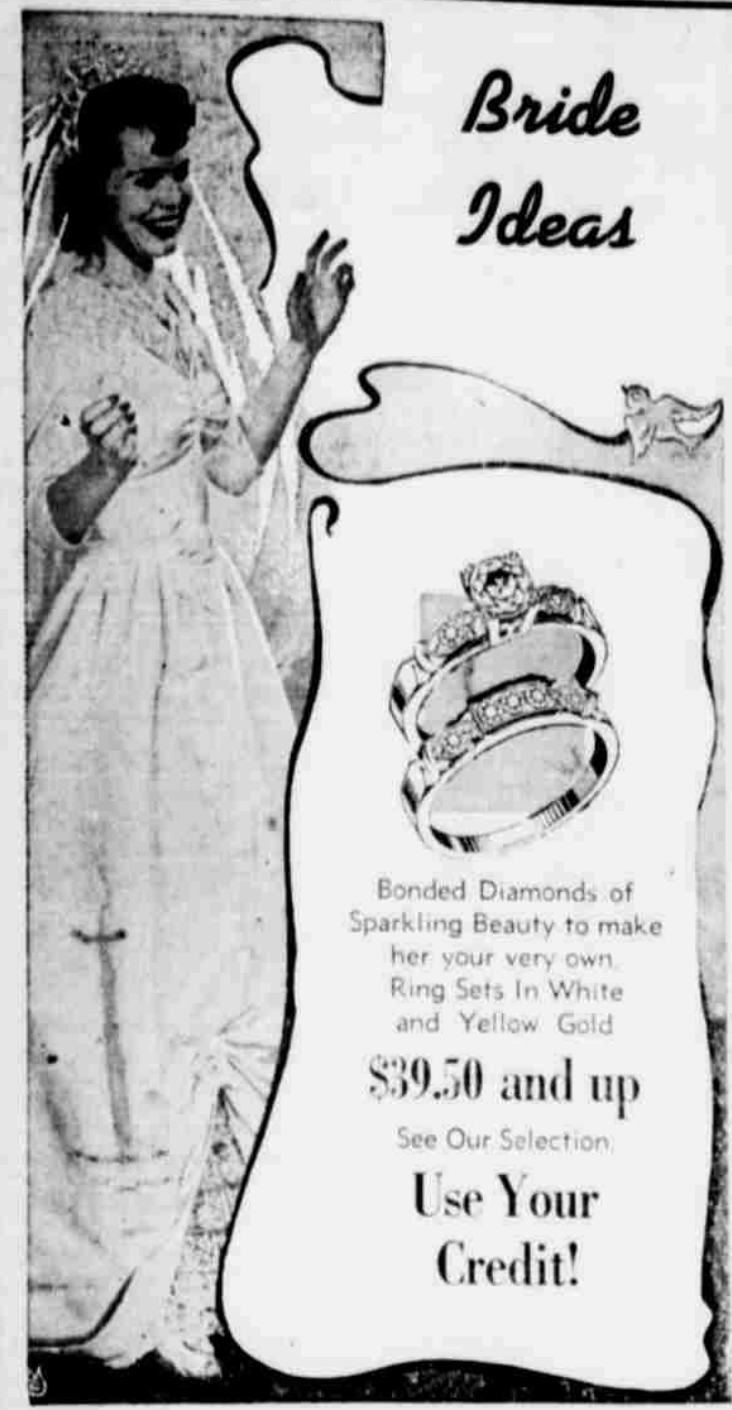

Registration, Mrs. W. A. Long; sing-song, led by Mrs. T. L. Jones; invocation, Mrs. Jessie Voss; "Duties of President and Vice President," Mrs. Lee Davis; "Duties of Secretary-Treasurer," Mrs. O. H. Hoover; "Duties of a Council Delegate," Miss Hipp; "Duties of a Reporter," Evelyn Boyd of the Post Dispatch; parliamentary drill, Mrs. Jones; "Social Security for Farm Families," discussion and film by Elliott W. Adams, manager of the Social Security Board at Lubbock; discussion of "Polio Awareness," by Mrs. Willard Kirkpatrick who also distributed educational literature on the subject; two motion pictures on nutrition, "The Man Who Missed His Breakfast" and "Something You Didn't Eat," shown by Mr. Adams.

A covered dish lunch was served at noon to 32 clubwomen and their families, county commissioners and their wives and County Judge and Mrs. J. Lee Bowen and the guest speakers on the day's program.

Council Reports Heard
The training school was followed with a council meeting, at which all committees gave reports. Mrs. George Evans of Justiceburg, council chairman, presided.

It was decided that the council budget for a year would be $200. Mrs. W. C. W. Morris is chairman of the finance committee.

Educational exhibits are being arranged, one from each club, for the harvest show which the clubs
