The young people making the trip were Madlyn Joyce Sanders,

Uncle Of Post Man Dies In Oklahoma

C. F. Howe of Sulphur, Okla., uncle of J. E. Parker, died at his home last Friday morning. The funeral was held Saturday afternoon at Sulphur.

Now Is Time To Check Stoves For Safety In Winter

"Don't wait any longer to check chimneys, furnaces and stoves for possible fire hazards," Mrs. Jewell H. Strasner, Garza County home demonstration agent, warns. "While careless use of matches and smoking materials continues as the leading cause of fires, winter months usually see a rise in the number of fires from defective or over-worked stoves and chimneys."

Here are some recommendations from Mrs. Strasner for checking the home against such hazards. Check the flues and chimneys carefully to be sure they are ready for winter fires. Chimneys should be free from cracks and loose bricks, and soot and trash should be cleaned out regularly. Place all wood and coal stoves on a metal floor covering which extends at least 18 inches in front of the stove door. If stoves and stovepipes are not at least 18 inches from woodwork, protect it by a metal cover. Cover unused flue openings with tightly fitting metal covers.

Replace rusty stovepipes, and if they pass through ceilings or walls, provide ventilators for protection.

Before using an oil stove, clean it and see that it is properly adjusted—and keep it that way. And always use a metal container to take out hot ashes.

"Rural families may find Extension Circular C-190 of help to them in checking the home out-buildings for fire hazards," Mrs. Strasner says. "It not only tells you how to check your buildings, but also how to fight grass and wood fires, burning grease, oil or gasoline, and gives home remedies for burns," she concludes.

Capitalism Subject For Rotary Meeting

W. S. Land, manager of Wacker's discussed capitalism at the regular meeting of the Post Rotary Club Tuesday noon, then he conducted a quiz on the subject of Rotary.

Worst Sandstorm In Years Illustrates Need For Protection Against Erosion

Operating under the 1939 Texas State Soil Conservation Law, the Duck Creek Soil Conservation District is organized by landowners to coordinate their attacks against soil erosion.

Saturday night's worst sandstorm in years brings out the need for increased vigilance in protecting the land against such damaging erosion.

Will Wright, district supervisor, says, last week's storm was equal to any since 1926. Herman Dabbs says, "Soil blew off of my cotton field as bad as any time since 1919."

Although farm land stood the brunt of damage from the wind, practically every person in the district was affected. Churches on Sunday morning had to be cleaned out before services. Housewives had to clean out before breakfast. Business houses and schools had to be cleaned out before they could open.

Truly, soil conservation is everybody's job. If every individual would spend as much time in cooperating with the Soil Conservation District movement as they spent "cleaning out," the District's program would be years ahead, local soil technicians believe.

Soil deterioration information showing the overall soil conservation job has been prepared for the district by the U. S. Conservation Service.

Soil deterioration or "soil life expectancy" has been estimated from past soil losses. The topsoil above the cap was estimated to have been an average of 9 inches deep. Soil losses have been 1/10 inch per year. At this rate of deterioration, these soils have a life expectancy of 90 years. Other soils in the district show a more rapid deterioration.

For the first time, the district has a scientific estimation of the overall soil conservation job to prevent continued soil waste.

This includes the need for contour farming on 342,620 acres, who recently returned here from Abilene, would again be an active member of the club and that Truett Fry and Alex Webb recently were received as new members.

The bulletin listed the following wedding anniversaries for December: December 1, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Land, December 19, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Warren; December 24, Dr. and Mrs. B. E. Young; December 25, Mr. and Mrs. Monta Moore, and December 28, Mr. and Mrs. John Lott.

cover cropping on 169,532 acres, crop residue management on 358,600 acres, range improvement on 1,095,600 acres, seeding of range 33,282 acres, 325 farm and ranch ponds, terraces 12,608 miles, field diversion channels 648 miles, and irrigation land preparation 1,200 acres.

Three Schools To Participate In Visitors' Week

Three schools in Garza County which are taking part in the community school program celebrate School Lunch Visitor's week December 13-17, reports Dean A. Robinson, county school superintendent.

More than two thousand schools throughout Texas are celebrating this week, proclaimed School Lunch Visitors' Week by Dr. L. A. Woods, superintendent of public instruction. Primary purpose of the special occasion is to acquaint parents and other civic and community leaders more fully with operation and importance of the program.

Sometime during the week, parents and others will be invited to join the school children at lunch.

"I hope every parent in the community makes it a point to keep this engagement," Robinson emphasized.

The community lunch room has two major purposes, providing wholesome foods to growing children daily and enlarging markets for farm products, he continued.

It is sponsored in the county by the Garza County School Board, the State Department of Education and U.S. Department of Agriculture's Production and Marketing Administration.

Antelopes Lose Regional Championship Twisting, Whirling Blackhawk Team

The Post Antelopes met their masters Saturday afternoon at the Field in Amarillo, when they lost the regional championship to the Phillips Blackhawks by a score of 41-0.

From the kick-off, it was obvious the game belonged to the twisting, whirling, slippery Blackhawks. To the bewildered Antelopes they were like greased pigs, who slipped through their arms every tackle and were never there when it was time to block.

Phillips got a touchdown in each of the first two quarters, permissioned with a 14-point lead, thanks to Jimmy Williams' kicking. The last half was Phillips riot, producing four touchdowns.

The Blackhawks cut down the Antelopes and moved the tackles almost like the Antelopes belonged to them. When a team can do that it is going to pile up yardage.

Post didn't have the ball enough for Junior Malouf to show anything. When he did try to run, he was a marked man. The Phillips line swarmed him repeatedly.

The day's only run of consequence by a Post back was turned in by quarterback Charles McGuire, who wheeled 40 yards off a spread formation, from his own 9 to the Antelope 49. Post got within 37 yards of the Phillips goal on that push before having to kick. It was the nearest approximation of a scoring chance for the Antelopes.

The first bolt of Phillips lightning struck in the opening period when Billy Braden pranced over from eight yards out after a 59-yard drive.

The Blackhawks negotiated 41 yards, plus an added 15 from a penalty, for a second-quarter touchdown, getting it in eight plays as Johnny Ussery bolted 6 yards on a cross buck from right halfback.

Some more fancy cruising by Ussery in the third quarter sprayed another six points on the battered climaxed scoreboard. His 26-yard run climaxed a drive of 58 which followed a 28-yard kickoff return by Melvin Eldridge.

The next touchdown parade measured 80 yards, required eight plays, and Ussery scampered 32 to set it up. He was spilled on the four-yard line by McGuire's horsecollar tackle but Eldridge gyrated across on the next play.

A pass interception by Bill Braden and 19-yard runback gave the lava-hot Hawks another chance in the fourth period. Five plays and Phillips counted on an eight-yard run by Tommy Moore, nullified by a mottled penalty. Post took the ball on downs, then gave it back on the one-yard line, when Billy Joe Snyder recovered a Post fumble. Braden sneaked across for the fifth counter.

Jimmy Williams' interception of a Post pass opened the gate for the final counter. He nabbed one of McGuire's heaves on the Post 25, barged 13 yards to the Antelope 12. Tommy Moore got eight on the first play, then went all way. Williams rammed through his fifth conversion.

Weak defensive end play was fatal to the Post team. R. E. Josey, halfback, came up fast a dozen times and spilled Phillips carriers on runs that looked promising. The Hawk blockers had better luck getting him down in the second half.

Post Antelopes' Conduct In Amarillo Is Credit To City, Booster Club, Coaches

By MONK GIBSON
Antelope Booster President

Leaving Post by way of a T. N. M. and O. bus last Friday morning was a group of 33 spirited football boys, two managers and two swell football coaches going to Amarillo to represent Post in the regional football playoff with Phillips. They arrived at the Herring Hotel in Amarillo at 2:30 p.m. Coach Bingham and Coach Ray appointed a room to each two boys at the hotel which was to be their headquarters. The boys immediately went to their rooms, suited out in their football gear, loaded back on their bus and traveled to Butler Field, the football field of the Golden Sandites, and after an hour of callisthenics and play executions they returned to the hotel. After taking their showers and a few minutes rest they ate a well-balanced meal prepared by the Herring Hotel and each boy was permitted to attend a movie but was asked to be in bed by 10 o'clock. Some of the boys did attend movies but others went to their rooms, thinking of the game Saturday. This was the boys' greatest thought from the time they left Post. They wanted to win this football game.

Breakfast was served Saturday morning at 8 o'clock in the hotel and every boy was there as well as the two coaches. Everyone was quiet, no jokes, no smiles, no grins, taking place. These boys were thinking of only one thing and that was a football game against Phillips. After breakfast the boys purchased newspapers and magazines and went back to their rooms with instructions to be at a group meeting at 10 o'clock with their coaches and be ready to have lunch at 11:00 o'clock.

The next time I saw the boys they were suited out in their football gear waiting to go to the game. At 1 o'clock they left for the field and played 60 minutes of hard football, returned to the hotel, had supper and started to Post.

Yes, these boys and coaches were defeated 41-0 in scores not by "poisoned food," lack of sleep, or referees, but by touchdowns. It was their first loss in starts, an excellent record in High School football and they lost to a team that they will go on to be champions. Our boys and a team of Post realize that the football fans that they couldn't represent our group of boys to town than this geographical error in 1948.

Yes, dressed like the fine men that they are, these boys respected Post in every manner from the time they left to the time they returned. It's time for everyone of us to tip our hats to these two fine coaches and this group of swell boys that have shown so much football this year before bowing to a fine team from Phillips. We hated to lose, but remember, "these boys and coaches hated to lose even more." Give them a pat on the back and let's start thinking of the 1949 season.

The reason I know so much about this regional trip is because I happened to be a guest on this bus.

Boys' Basketball Schedule Begins Here On Jan. 7

The Post Antelopes, still crippled and bruised from their prolonged strenuous football season, began working out for basketball Monday. This week was spent mostly in "trying to limber up and get the feel of the game," Coach V. F. Bingham said.

Assistant Coach Vernon Ray will coach the A team and Bingham will coach the B and Junior teams.

The first boys' basketball game of the season will be with Seagraves in the Post High School gymnasium January 7.

Basketball tournaments for the Post High boys and girls, scheduled for Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week, were postponed indefinitely because of the Antelopes' prolonged football season.

The Post girls, who started their basketball season several weeks ago, were invited to participate in a basketball tournament at Girard last week. Instructions indicated that they would meet Robertson there Friday night.

The players, accompanied by Coach N. E. King, arrived in Girard to learn there had been a geographical error in the Team Inventory Outlook Gloomy Coach Indicates

With the Post Antelopes' most successful football season in 20 years ended, Coach V. F. Bingham has been taking inventory of the prospects for next year and the outlook is discouraging.

Of the first string, only two players—Calvin Storie and Maurice Steizer—will be here to play next year. Only three members of the second eleven—Billy Lee Smith, Jack Kirkpatrick and Gordon Carey—will be eligible to play. The coach has discovered also that he will lose seven other squadmen.

Eight of the Antelopes will be graduated in May. The other players will be lost because of the eight-semester rule and age.

Storie, Malouf On State Teams

Calvin Storie and Junior Malouf were among 23 Class A football players on the Fort Worth Star-Telegram's three all-state football teams. Storie was selected as guard on the first team and Malouf was named for a back position on the second team. New Braunfels was the only team to place two boys on the No. 1 team, and no school earned more than one berth on the second mythical eleven. Winters won two berths on the third team. Afternoon, Evening Rodeo Events Listed

Directors of the Southwestern Junior Championship Rodeo, meeting with the Post Stampede directors at the City Hall last night, worked out final plans for two performances the afternoon and evening of September 18.

A long, interesting parade is being planned to launch the rodeo. It will begin at 1 o'clock. The afternoon performance is scheduled for 2 o'clock and the evening performance will begin at 7:30 o'clock. The program for each show will be as follows:

Bull riding (first section), calf roping, Boys Ranch stunts (first section), matched roping contest, Cowgirl Sponsor contest, ribbon roping, hat race, Boy's Ranch (second section) and bull riding (second section).

Both boys and girls will enter the contests. Inquiries or entries had been received from O'Donnell, Anson, Dickens, Sterling City, Stacy, Shallowater, Lubbock, Garden City, Jayton, Colorado City, Rotan, Big Spring, Eagle Pass, Amarillo, Matador, Tahoka, Crane, Fluvanna, Canyon and Snyder.

Judges Named
Field judges will be Ed Sims and Lewis Nance, and the barrier judge will be W. J. Tipton.

The books will be closed for entries at 12 o'clock noon, Saturday, September 18. The Post Chamber of Commerce office is rodeo headquarters.

Admission prices of $1.25 for adults and 75 cents for children will be charged at each performance. Proceeds will go into the building fund of the Garza County boys' and girls' 4-H clubs.

Goat Mayo of Petrolia will provide the stock. His son, Sonny Mayo, will be in charge of the stock while it is here, and he will also be a contestant in all the events, Alvin Davis, junior manager of the show said yesterday.

Floats Are Wanted
The parade will not be merely a junior parade. Everyone in Garza County who has a horse is urged to ride in the parade and the merchants are asked to enter floats. The Post School Band will march in the parade, and additional music will be provided by the Garza Rhythm Boys who will ride on a float. O. D. Cardwell is taking entries for the floats.

Cardwell, who is also senior director of the Cowgirl Sponsor Contest, said quite a few girls have entered.

Fewer Pupils Enrolled In Local School

All parents interested in sending their five and six-year-old children to kindergarten this year are asked to sign up in the principal's office at the grade school by Wednesday of next week, so that the school board can determine whether or not enough pupils are available to justify the project.

A tuition of $8 per month from 25 pupils will be needed to pay the salary of the teacher. All children who will be five years of age by January 1, 1949, will be eligible to enroll.

The classes cannot be opened until the construction of the school cafeteria is finished, because the kindergarten is to be conducted in one of the rooms now used for school lunches.

Approximately 285 high school children had registered in the two schools by press time. The figure was smaller than last year's when a record number of first graders required three first grade teachers. Two first grade teachers, Mrs. Callis and Miss Bonnie McMahon, are teaching this year's 51 first graders.

The Post School Band has 11 less players this fall than it had at the close of school last spring. Bandmaster Merle Jenkins said yesterday. Each of the 11 players moved away from Post, he said.

The Post Grade School had 460 pupils at the close of the 1947-48 year, Principal E. E. Pierce reported. The decrease was attributed largely to the slow-up in oil activities in the county. Approximately 12 Hartford pupils were lost to the Southland School when residents of the community voted not to consolidate their common school district with the Post District.

One hundred eighteen lunches were served in the school lunch room Monday. This was the average number of meals served daily last year, Pierce said.

Two teachers are needed in the Post Schools, Supt. G. R. Day said yesterday. Until they can be obtained, Mrs. Charles Daugherty is substituting in the high school vacancy and Mrs. W. F. Presson is substituting in the grade school.

Sixteen pupils had enrolled by press time in the negro school. Some prospective students are working on farms at present.

Jimmy Bird Loses Calf Roping With Jim Bob Altizer

With Jimmy Bird's loss to Jim Bob Altizer in the Frontier Round-Up matched roping contest at Colorado City Monday interest has sharpened in regard to his forthcoming match with the state high school champion, Scooter Fries of Bandera.

Bird will meet Fries in a matched contest here September 18 as a feature of the Southwestern Junior Championship Rodeo. Fries defeated Altizer early this summer in the state high school roping tournament at Hallettsville.

Altizer defeated Bird Monday by a total of 90.8 seconds on 12 calves, his total time being 269.9 and Bird's being 360.7.

Local spectators who saw the match say that Jimmy made a more spectacular showing than Altizer and that contributing to his defeat was a broken barrier penalty and a bit of tough luck in which five loops were required for a calf. The calf by calf time scores follow:

1. Altizer, one loop, 18.9; Bird, 1 loop and broken barrier, 25.6.
2. Altizer, one loop, 24.4; Bird, three loops, 44.3.
3. Altizer, three loops, 35.5; Bird, one loop, 16.2.
4. Altizer, one loop, 16.3; Bird, five loops, 89.5.
5. Altizer, one loop, 21.7; Bird, one loop, 15.2.
6. Altizer, two loops, 24.9; Bird, one loop, 36.
7. Altizer, one loop, 16.7; Bird, one loop, 22.6.
8. Altizer, two loops, 34.6; Bird, one loop, 17.9.
9. Altizer, one loop, 19; Bird, one loop, 13.1.
10. Altizer, one loop, 18.4; Bird, one loop, 13.5.
11. Altizer, one loop, 20.1; Bird, two loops, 42.4.
12. Altizer, one loop, 19.4; Bird, one loop, 24.4.

An average of 20 men a day has been registering since August 30 for Selective Service. County Judge J. Lee Bowen said yesterday.

The registration is being conducted by members of the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliaries in the Commissioners Court Room.

Men born in 1926 started registering yesterday and will continue registering through today. The remainder of the schedule follows:

Men born in 1928 will register September 13 and 14.

Men born in 1929 will register September 15 and 16.

Men born in 1930 before September 19 will register on September 17 and 18.

Men born on or after September 19, 1930, will register on the day they are 18 years old or within five days thereafter. This means that men will register with their local boards as they become 18. Registration hours are 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

County Fair Books Show Variety Of Exhibitions

With the issuance of the instruction books for the Annual Garza County 4-H and Home Demonstration Club Show, to be held here September 17 and 18, the forthcoming event has taken on the aspects of a county fair.

Interest in the various divisions of the show, along with the planned entertainment such as the Junior Rodeo, parade and dances, indicate a well-balanced fair program.

The fair books may be obtained at the Extension Service offices in the court house, the Junior Rodeo Headquarters and the City Hall. It was stenciled by Mrs. June Peel, Extension Service secretary, and assembled by Mrs. Wilburn Morris, Mrs. A. A. Ritchie, Alvin Davis, Wynne Morris, Lois, Doris and Norma Ritchie, Jeaneane Kiker and Charlotte Brown.

All prospective participants in the fair are urged to consult the entry rules in the book before their exhibits. One book to a family will be available. Following is a summary of some of the information contained in the book:

Fair officials, Sherrill Boyd, Robert H. Gibson and Mrs. Jewell H. Strasser; clerks, Mrs. Cecil Osborne, Jr., and Mrs. Peel; exhibits committee—Alvin Davis, general superintendent; Carter G. White, 4-H Boys Exhibits; George Samson, agricultural products; Lewis Nance, livestock; Lee Suther, poultry; Mrs. Morris, 4-H girls' exhibits; Mrs. Sid Cross, general superintendent of women's work.

Superintendents — Mrs. L. H. Peel, textiles; Mrs. W. H. Barton, culinary; Mrs. W. A. Long.

Welcome Banners Should Be Put Up For Junior Show

Merchants are urged to put up their Welcome Banners this week and let them fly until after the County Fair and Southwestern Championship Junior Rodeo September 17 and 18.

Travelers through Post are being reminded of the rodeo by means of a large sign on a U Lazy S Ranch chuckwagon which is parked on Main Street at the intersection of the two highways.

Mrs. W. A. Wilson Of Close City Is Victim Of Death

Funeral services for Mrs. W. A. Wilson, who died at 1:45 a.m. Wednesday of a heart attack at her home in the Close City community, are pending the arrival of relatives. She had been in ill health about a year.

Born Arminda Jane Floyd, on July 29, 1861, in Georgia, she came to Johnson County with her parents at the age of eight years. In 1881, she was married to William Albert Wilson and to this union were born eight children, three of whom preceded her in death. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson moved from Johnson County to Garza County in 1917. Mr. Wilson died two years later.

Mrs. Wilson had been a member of the Baptist Church since girlhood.

Survivors include her children, Miss Eeta Wilson and Berchard Wilson who live in the home. Mrs. Robert Gallehon of Hereford, Sam Wilson of Slaton and Cone S. Wilson of Mesa, Ariz.; five grandchildren and four great grandchildren; a brother, 96-year-old John Floyd of Lubbock, and a sister, Mrs. W. H. Jarrell of Vista, Calif., and a number of nieces and nephews. A grandchild preceded her in death.

Burial will be in the Terrace Cemetery with Hudman Funeral Home in charge.

Registration Of Men Continuing

With the return of the Morgan Drilling Company personnel for a series of deep tests, the oil business has been buzzing a bit more than usual during the past week.

The first Morgan rig went up last weekend on the third location of the Cox and Hammond-Santa Fe Railway operations in the Central Garza Field, and drilling was under way early this week.

The Comanche Oil Company set 2,852 feet of pipe in the Montgomery-Davies No. 8-B, two miles southeast of Post, Tuesday morning and started drilling yesterday at 2,895 feet with cable tools to about 2,970 feet. The operation should be finished by Monday.

The rotary tools were moved to the Montgomery-Davies No. 11-D.

The Postex Drilling Company by press time was finishing up the L. F. Long well on the K. Stoker lease. Casing was being set at about 2,900 feet.

In northeast Garza County, three miles southeast of Southland, the Honolulu Oil Corporation No. 1 Shelby County Fee had reached 3,214 feet in lime and was making more hole by last weekend.

This slated 5,400-foot wildcat is about 3 1/2 miles north of the nearest producing oil wells in the PHD Field.

Schools Acquire Four New Busses

Garza County's 12 school buses this year will include four and a half new busses. Of the new vehicles, only the one for the Graham School has arrived. New busses for Grassburr, Garnolia and Justiceburg Schools are expected within a few days, County School Superintendent Dean Robinson said yesterday.

The Close City bus is only half new. It has an overhauled body and a new chassis. The seven old busses in use have been put in good shape, and drivers have been acquired for all 12 vehicles.

The Southland School will operate four busses, and the Graham School will operate two. Close City, Garnolia, Justiceburg, Hartford, Grassburr and Post Schools will each operate one bus.

The Hartford school children will attend the Southland school this year, Robinson said yesterday.

Enrollment figures for the rural schools were not available by press time, but indications were that the total enrollment had increased. At least four schools needed more textbooks than were first allotted, Robinson said.

Pleasant Valley Likes Its Name Once Again Now

On Monday, the hottest day of the summer when the temperature was hovering at 105 degrees in the shade, V. H. Kuykendall said from the looks of the crops in his community, the name of Pleasant Valley should be changed to Sourpuss Gulch or something else expressive of the general mood.

Suffering from a long drought, cotton plants were drooping all over the county this week, and the crops in the Pleasant Valley, Close City, Hackberry and Southland areas seemed for the most part doomed.

Rains over the South Plains Tuesday night and scattered showers Wednesday failed to quench the thirst of the Garza Crops, but their accompanying cool breezes brought a vast improvement in the general mood. Tuesday night scattered showers Wednesday failed to quench the thirst of the Garza Crops, but their accompanying cool breezes brought a vast improvement in the general mood.

After yesterday's nice respite from the sizzling weather, the Pleasant Valley folk had decided to keep the community's original name.

Alvin Davis Named Class Officer At Camp In Michigan

Alvin Davis, who was Texas' 4-H representative to the American Youth Foundation's Camp Miniwanca in Michigan last month, was elected vice president of the first year class at the camp. The class had 245 men in it from 44 states, Canada and Korea.

According to J. W. Fotts 4-H Club specialist of College Station, this was the first time in the many years that 4-H boys have been attending the camp that a Texas boy has been elected to a position of leadership.

The entire camp had 409 boys in it and Texas A. and M. had two representatives there to make a total of three Texas boys. The instructors for the class work in the camp were from all over the United States and two of them were from Japan and China. Nearly every major university and college in the country was represented at the camp in addition to 4-H boys and church groups.

Den Mothers Are Needed For Cubs

Cub Pack 16 began a new year Tuesday with plans for increased activities and adding at least one more den. The pack now has three dens, and a fourth is desired for south Post.

Mrs. B. E. Young and Mrs. John Lott will continue as Mothers for two of the dens. Mrs. Raymond Redman submitted her resignation as Mother of the third den.

John Lott, who coordinates the den activities, is asking for volunteer den mothers. Any mother of a Cub Scout-age boy is eligible for the position.

Former Resident Of Post Dies Sunday

The Floyd Huber family attended funeral services in Jones County this week for Mr. Huber's mother, Mrs. Scott, former Garza County resident who died at her home in Jones County Sunday.

Mrs. Scott was a sister of the Rev. W. K. Horn of Anson, former Close City pastor.

Consolidation Asked By Two School Units

Having received petitions from the Justiceburg and Leforest Common School Districts asking for consolidation with each other, County Judge J. Lee Bowen has set Saturday, October 9, as the date of an election.

Details of the election notice will be published in the next four issues of the Post Dispatch.

What Is That Song About The Grass Is Greener Elsewhere?

The cotton grows much taller on the other side of the Garza County line.

Roy Mathis, who operates a farm belonging to Alvin Shamback, 8 miles southwest of Slaton in Lynn County, sent the Post Dispatch Tuesday a cotton stalk measuring more than five feet in height. His son said it was typical of the farm's 480 acres which Mathis believes will produce a yield of 3 1/2 bales to the acre.

The stalk bore 26 squares, eight blooms and 45 bolls, a total of 79 ultimate cotton bolls. The cotton is on irrigates.

New Switchboard Increases Local Phone Business

Victor Hudman, placing a telephone call to Lubbock, was told "Okay, if I can find it on this switchboard."

The voice was unmistakably that of Fritz Greenfield, local supervisor for the Southwestern Associated Telephone.

The long-awaited switchboard, which can accommodate 440 new subscribers, had just been installed and Fritz was "tryin' to figure it out." Hudman's call was the first to go through the new equipment.

Installation of the outside cables will be started the latter part of this week or early next week, then the 130 people who have had their orders in for telephones will begin to get some attention, the supervisor said.

Additional operators will be needed to take care of the increased business.

Ralls Jackrabbits Are Secretive About Power To Be Used Against Post Friday

Coach Bing Bingham and the Post Antelopes are going to Ralls tomorrow night prepared for the worst at the hands of the Jackrabbits.

Still nursing the wounds of a 20-0 defeat by the Antelopes last year, fortified by three husky first teamers back for the new season and encouraged by two new coaches from Texas Technological College, the Ralls Jackrabbits have been secretive about the tricks up their sleeves.

"We haven't been able to find out much about the Ralls boys, but one thing is certain: Anything can happen tomorrow night," Bingham told a Post Dispatch reporter yesterday.

The Antelopes will go into the game handicapped by shin splints and stone bruises suffered during workouts the past several days. One of the boys, Charles King, a left half hopeful, will be unable to play because of a shoulder injury.

The tentative Antelope lineup was announced yesterday as follows:

BEAT RALLS - ANTELOPES

ROGER W. BABSON WRITES THIS WEEK:

High Quality Teaching More Desirable Than Degree

Gloucester, Mass.—As this is the last column which I shall write in Gloucester this year, I want to relieve my mind on something that has troubled me all summer. It is concerning the utter lack of discipline and thoroughness I note amongst the young people of Gloucester today compared with that of my boyhood.

do not have sufficient time to drill. Drill and DRILL. They have too many interruptions and are obligated to teach too many subjects to do thorough work in any one. School committees are too much influenced by text book publishers. They should do less to amuse the kids and more to serve the taxpayers. In fact, I believe that we are making life too easy for our young people.

other words, young people do not need to be taught what is right and wrong so much as they need to learn to control and to discipline themselves. About Corporal Punishment For centuries the old-fashioned switch, cane or whip has been used to instill discipline. If it never had been in the past, I would not recommend its adoption today; but considering that human nature has been dependent for centuries on such for correction and punishment, experts on heredity say that it is absolutely foolish to try to get on today, in our public schools, without corporal punishment.

punishment may be against the law and, of course, any teacher is subject to being sued, if, in temper, he or she abuses a pupil. However, school committees can take out liability insurance to protect teachers against any such suits. Some few parents will complain at having their dear children "whipped;" but instead of being influenced by these few, why could not a school committee take a vote of all parents and see what the great majority would desire? When such a vote is taken in a community, I hope to be told the result. Longer Hours May Be Wise When I went to school we were in the building from nine to twelve in the morning and from two to four in the afternoon. We had very few books to take home. Our study hall was supervised and we learned there in one hour what would take two hours to learn at home. Moreover, in those days there was no radio at home to distract us, nor were there automobiles or movies to tempt us. Would it not be well to return to afternoon sessions and supervised study, especially in view of the coming television? A girl may be able to study while the old radio is going, but she certainly can't study while watching television!

Parents would like to have some of the "frill" studies omitted, but with the perfection stressed in a fewer important studies. As an employer of many people, I find that they have a smattering of a lot of subjects but are proficient in none. I am beginning even to question the value of vocational education as now set up. I believe in selected newspaper reading, radio talks, requiring the students to report thereon. The students were given when I was in school, would still be very useful. Most important of all, the high quality of teaching and the attainment of teaching college degrees. Achievement in producing good students through experience and love for the subject, is far more important than the ability to get an overrated academic degree.

GETTING OUT On The LIMB

By EDDIE the EDITOR

It was most commendable of J. E. Parker to take on the thankless, time-consuming headache of a job as Garza County's Selective Service representative.

Parker, like many another merchant, is busy with the worries of his own business, particularly here in the fall of the year. Added to this, his health is none too good and he has to watch his diet.

A man on a diet needs more cooperation than a man who can eat or drink anything he desires, or can afford to buy.

Anybody having anything at all to do with the "draft board" needs, but seldom gets, widespread cooperation.

I sincerely hope that Parker's efforts, his long hours and the difficult decisions he will have to make will draw only praise and absolutely no criticism.

Why our gold-plated Uncle Sam, whose bread and butter depends on the lush tax resources from the working folks like us, has to impose further on the civilians for unpaid jobs such as the above is more than I can understand.

I'm not an authority on the international situation to say whether or not Selective Service is necessary or even advisable.

But, inasmuch as we have it, there is nothing you and I can do about it but cooperate. Anything to the contrary would be un-American.

I suspect, however, that our armed forces and our government bureaus are filled to the brim with well-paid officers and men who have nothing to do but twiddle their thumbs during this lull between wars. Why can't some of these people, whose salaries our taxes are paying, be scattered around over the country to handle the draft situation?

As it is, the Selective Service job is going to be bungled all over the country just as it was here and in Lubbock last week. Non-government employees are just too busy to make enough money to meet the increasing cost of living to devote hours and hours a week to a thankless job that brings them only criticism.

The publicity job was badly bungled. Garza County draft-age men would never have gleaned the small bit they were able to find about where and when to register, had it not been for the diligent efforts of one of our reporters.

She started out about two weeks ago trying to contact the chairman of this area's four-county draft board. He is a Lubbock dentist and one of the busiest, most useful citizens Lubbock ever had. He is too busy to read his mail and one day, he was too busy to talk with our reporter on the telephone. She wanted to verify the rumor that Will Barton could not serve as Garza's representative on the board and arrange to be informed when his successor was appointed.

She was told, finally, that the doctor had no staff for handling publicity but that he would telephone important announcements to the Lubbock paper. We don't always get our Lubbock paper, so she wrote the State Selective Service Headquarters, and finally got some information.

Down in Austin, however, the state headquarters is operated by military personnel. The state publicity is handled by a captain in the army. He is paid to answer queries from news medi-

Garza and the World

By EVELYN BOYD

From H. I. Phillips' delightful column in the New York Sun: THE PRESS PHOTOGRAPHER He's where the action always is And where the subject's hot— The guy who cannot be too late— The Johnny-On-The-Spot: The sixth-sense lad who sort of feels Where things are gonna stir... That jet-propelled fast-movin' kid, The Press Photographer!

Lubbock should have a similar set-up of military or government employes who don't have to make a living on the side. The Selective Service job will not be expertly done until the workers are freed from the civilian jobs that keep them too busy to read their mail.

I may be wrong, but I suspect there were enough soldiers stationed here in West Texas, to have handled the registrations in all these West Texas towns. If they are like I was, at times in the navy, they would be thrilled to have something to do besides the same old monotonous military routine.

Anyway, the job is being handled here by J. E. Parker and the V.F.W. and American Legion Auxiliaries, all working without pay. So, a few months from now, when we get ready—as some of us surely will—to criticize the draft board, let's remember that they didn't want the job. They only took it because it had to be done and they were "drafted" to do it.

Speaking of criticizing—which is something most of us do a lot of the time—I noticed in the Post Dispatch a week or two ago that September 13 is the date that the public is invited to review the Garza County budget.

At this time last year, our reporter was shocked to learn that she was the only person who called to review the budget and that the only other person who has taken advantage of this privilege in years was the late Jay Slaughter.

The public in the past has shown no interest in reviewing the Garza County budget, yet it screams to high heaven, at times, about what the county ought to do with its money.

But screaming about a situation without being willing to lift a hand to remedy it is human nature. People everywhere have this trait.

I love people. If I didn't I would have given up being a public servant 20 years ago.

Which reminds me, the sweater season is just around the corner and people haven't changed any since during the war when I saw this sign in a war plant: "Girls, if your sweater is too large for you, look out for the machines; if you are too large for the sweater, look out for the machinists."

A blizzard never stymies him— Hot lava is his dish: This guy can walk on water if Needs be to get his wish; No cannon fire bothers him; Machine-guns do not scare; He walks thru hell—and with a grin— If there's a picture there.

A minefield he will saunter thru, And what is liquid fire When "Get the picture" is the word The boss has sent by wire. He'll walk a third-rail fancy free Into some tunnel dark; If there's a photo at the end He's always on the mark!

O'er swift Niagara Falls he'll go— No barrel will he ask— And he'll swim gayly back again And label it no task; Is there a picture to be had? That's all he wants to know, And if there is you betcha life He never answers "No."

Behold a lion has a tooth That's new and novel too! He'll go right in the critter's mouth To get a close-up view! A python gets loose at the zoo... The crowds flee as it squirms... He grabs it, makes it smile for him And chirps "Who's scared of worms?"

He isn't very much on sleep And seldom cares for rest; When he has been awake all week He's feeling at his best; He sometimes doesn't stop to dress And speedy is his mood; He seldom stops for idle chat And rarely stops for food!

He has to be where things occur Not where they've taken place; His feet are never on the ground— The guy just zooms thru space! Most other people have it soft— They sometimes pause for breath. But not the press photographer... With him it's life or death!

The laurel I place on his brow With sprays of other stuff (Or would do so if he'd agree To stand still long enough); I laud him to the highest skies With gusto and with vim... The hard-worked press photographer— I'M GLAD THAT I AIN'T HIM!

Personally, I feel sorry for Mr. Phillips for never having been the Press Photographer. He has missed a lot.

The highlights of my entire life are closely associated with my Speedgraphic. For every risk I have taken in order to fulfill a picture assignment, the faithful press camera has brought me hundreds of thrills that otherwise would not have come my way.

Risks have included everything from wading on the quicksand of the Canadian River bed, flying through a plane-ripping sandstorm over North Africa, suffering the indignities and discomfort of photographing the workings of a carbon black plant near Berger, wading through waist-high snowdrifts in the Channing area to photograph frozen cattle, freezing my fingers and toes while photographing ice-bound air transports at Amarillo, hanging to the rail of a storm-tossed Greek fisherman's cayque in the middle of the Aegean Sea, and so on ad infinitum.

The pleasures and delights of being a Press Photographer have included being unquestionably admitted, free of charge, to every thing from Grand Opera down

What Our Contemporaries Are Saying:

COUNTRY COMES FIRST—We know a few persons in Randall County who are Republicans, either by birth or by persuasion. But we have talked with a lot of folks who will vote the Republican ticket this fall. Those who feel that we have no time for Truman; have less time for the Dixiecrats; and their stomach turns the flip-flop when they think of Wallace. The only thing left for them is the Dewey ticket. They are led to this conclusion from the simple reason that Joe Stalin has made a monkey of the Roosevelt-Truman policy; Dewey is a sour-puss, and may drive a hard bargain with Russia; and besides this, Washington needs cleaning up, which they hope he will do. After all the Democratic pledges in the primaries of Texas are mere scraps of paper when it comes to the general election. The ballot in the hands of the voter signifies his right and his sacred duty toward his country, rather than the Democratic party.—Canyon News.

THE PLAINSMAN SAYS—We've no more respect for Henry Wallace and his tatterdemalion crew than the next fellow, but we can't endorse heckling him off the platform, or showing him with rotten eggs. In the first place, that sort of thing is not democratic, or in keeping with the Constitutional guarantee of free speech. And in the second place, mistreatment of Wallace is more likely to make a martyr out of him, and give him added support, because a lot of people are for the under dog, even if he happens to be a Red one. The very best way for proto The Walled Medina in Casablanca where Arab ladies of the street by law must practice their profession. It has permitted me to photograph and converse with interesting personalities of all nationalities and professions, from Alice Fay's colored maid to the Pope of Rome, to say nothing of Senator Pepper, Archbishop Damaskinos, and ten jillion movie stars that stopped at Amarillo during my long employment there.

The fellow who hasn't been a press photographer hasn't lived a full life. I'M TRULY THANKFUL THAT I AM "HIM."

ple to show their feelings toward Henry Wallace and all his tribe is to remain away from their rallies—remain away in large numbers. Nothing hurts a politician worse than being ignored. Nothing mirrors lack of public support more than empty seats at a political gathering. It isn't necessary to shout Wallace and Co. down; or to pelt them with eggs, fruit, or brickbats. All that is necessary to put and keep them in their proper place is avoid them as if they were diseased. Which, by the way, a great many people think they are!—Lubbock Journal.

EIGHT AMENDMENTS—The places of eight constitutional amendments will occupy on the Nov. 2 general election ballot were drawn from a hat recently in the secretary of state's office. The drawing is required by law when more than one amendment to the state constitution is submitted to popular vote.

Seven of the amendments to be voted by the people originated in the House and one in the Senate. The order of amendments drawn and in which they will appear on the ballot at the general election is:

1. To authorize counties to set up a system of workmen's compensation insurance.
2. To set up a redistricting board to reapportion the state's legislative districts if the legislature fails to do so following a federal census.
3. To permit husband and wife to partition their community property.
4. To authorize the next legislature to set up a succession to the governorship in the event of death of the governor-elect, avoiding occurrences in Texas of the Georgia case.
5. To preserve the $3,000 homestead exemption from ad valorem taxation.
6. To put county officers in counties under 20,000 population on a salary basis instead of their present fee basis, thus putting county officers, of all counties in the state on a salary.
7. To abolish the state ad valorem tax for state general revenue purposes after Jan. 1, 1951, and allow counties to levy up to 30 cents for $100 property valuation, and maintaining the $3,000 residential homestead ex-

"Farming" Versus "Ranching"

And from where I sit, that about sums it up. Ranchers may have different names for things or grow different crops. But all over America folks who work the land share those common traits of hard work, sober moderation, and good fellowship, whether they're growing cattle for beef, or barley for good American beer and ale.

Agricultural Support Prices Defended As Important To United States Budget

Do agricultural support prices cause high retail food prices? That question has been in the news lately. Some say yes and others say no. The Garza County PMA officers believe the public should have all the facts that are available on this subject.

First, they ask, at what levels are agricultural commodity prices supported? Under present legislation, the prices of corn, cotton, peanuts, rice, tobacco, wheat, chickens, eggs, hogs and milk and butterfat will be supported at 90 per cent of parity during 1948 and 1949.

Now, what is meant by parity? Parity prices represent a fair relationship between income of farmers and income of non-farmers. If farmers were getting full parity prices it would indicate their income was on a parity with other segments of the national economy. These agricultural price supports tend to assure farmers, not for their full share, but 90 per cent of their share of the national income.

When farmers get less than their share of the national income, they are immediately unable to buy the share of the national production that they must buy in order to keep labor and industry busy. As soon as this happens the chain of deflation is started, and once started, it is expected that it will engulf all segments of the national economy in a catastrophe.

Then, what would the consumer's gain if agricultural price supports were lifted? For instance, if a farmer gave a miller his wheat, the price of a loaf of bread would drop only about 4 cents as things are now. On the other hand if the support prices are removed and the farmer is given no assurance of fair prices for his commodities it is possible that production might drop sharply, thus reducing the amount of food and clothing available which would cause prices to rise. In the past, only two commodities have had to use the price support program. These commodities were potatoes and peanuts. All other agricultural commodities have been bringing prices above the low support levels. However, this year indications are that the program will be used on a number of other commodities.

An article appearing in the Congressional Record, written by Rep. John M. Coffee, says "Industry will get from the government a flat 10 per cent rebate on

Only JOHN DEERE offers you "Knee-Action" Comfort and Ease of Steering

with ROLL-O-MATIC Front Wheels

Driving a Roll-O-Matic-equipped John Deere "A" or "B" is an entirely new experience in tractor operation. There's no wheel tug... no creeping... less bouncing than ever before. You get smoother, safer, easier handling over rough ground... in furrows... on beds... along the contour... in almost any operating condition you can name.

Steering is much easier because the load is always balanced between the front wheels. Riding is greatly improved and safety increased because up-and-down movement of the front end is cut exactly in half as the tractor travels over rough ground. With just a guiding hand on the wheel, the tractor literally climbs out of furrows... walks over obstructions... operates over washboard roads with greater stability.

Only John Deere has Roll-O-Matic. It's just one of more than 90 advanced features which make the new John Deere "A" and "B" Tractors today's leaders in modern design. See us soon.
