President H. S. Truman stopped in the midst of plans to visit Texas and Mexico this week and issued the following message to all 4-H Club boys and girls who are observing National 4-H Club Week, March 1-9:

"We are proud of your 4-H Clubs which are spread across our great nation. Graveside Rites Held Sunday For Former Post Boy

A graveside funeral service for Johnnie Ross Casey Coleman, who died at 1:30 o'clock last Saturday afternoon at St. Paul's Hospital in Dallas, was conducted at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon at Terrace Cemetery, with Doyle Kelcy, Church of Christ minister, officiating.

Pallbearers were the 17-year-old boy's former classmates in the Post School, Junior Malouf, Hugh Ingram, Charles Ray Casey, Bud Everette, Neal Clary and Robert Hodges. Mason and Company was in charge of burial.

The body was accompanied from Dallas by Johnnie Ross' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Coleman, and his aunt, Mrs. O. D. Cardwell. Mr. and Mrs. Coleman returned to their home in Dallas Monday night.

Before becoming ill with leukemia, an incurable bloodstream infection, six months ago, Johnnie Ross was a junior student and football player at Tech High School in Dallas.

A funeral service was held at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the Oak Lawn Church of Christ, of which Johnnie Ross was a member, in Dallas.

The Coleman family moved away from Post 10 years ago.

Paul Jones Added To Candidates In School Board Race

A petition submitting Paul Jones as a candidate for one of two upcoming vacancies on the board of the Post Independent School District brings to three the number of candidates in the race to date. The names of John Loft and Dr. B. E. Young were filed in petitions last week.

April 5 has been set as the election date, and March 24 is the deadline set for filing petitions with the board secretary, Marvin Hudman.

Garza's Two Oil Fields Grow—Total Of 129 Oil Wells Are Listed As Garza Producers

With the rapid development of oil activities in Garza County, there has been much speculation as to the number of wells in production.

To get the authentic answers to this and other questions regarding the oil business here, the Post Dispatch wrote to Olin Culberson of the Texas Railroad Commission and received the following information:

Red Cross Drive Gets Off Here To Whirlwind Start

Well organized and well armed with facts about what the Red Cross is doing in Garza County and around the world, Lewis Nance and his corps of solicitors have made a whirlwind start on the 1947-48 drive to meet the county's quota of $1,250.

J. A. Stallings, chairman of publicity, said that the special gifts committee has completed its canvass of local merchants and that their efforts netted several hundred dollars.

Although the drive is less than a week old and has three more weeks to go, several of Nance's Post and rural committee chairmen have completed their assigned collections and reported a generous response.

A percentage of the money collected will be kept here for Red Cross work in this county, Stallings said.

Clyde R. Drake and Man From Amarillo Die From Asphyxiation in Cabin

Funeral services were held at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon at Griggs Chapel in Amarillo for Clyde Russell Drake, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Drake of Post, who died of asphyxiation in an Oklahoma City tourist cabin. Interment was in Memorial Park Cemetery at Amarillo.

Asphyxiated at the same time was Raymond L. Gill of Amarillo. He and Drake, both employes of the same company, had taken a truck load of fish from Amarillo to Oklahoma City for the Mid-Central Fish Company and had checked in at the tourist cabin at 5:30 o'clock last Friday morning. Their bodies were discovered 15 hours later.

It is believed that fumes from a butane gas stove in the room caused their death. Drake was employed as a school bus driver in Post before moving to Amarillo.

He is survived by his wife and two children, Clyde, Jr., and Christina; his parents, and two brothers, Hollis of Post and Pervin of Troy, Ill.

The new members were announced at the recent chamber of commerce banquet, a full report of which is published elsewhere in this issue.

Jess Wright Named Cubmaster At Pack Supper Given Here

Forty Cub Scout Pack boys and a few of their parents met at the Methodist Church last Thursday night for pot luck supper, presentation of awards and a program.

A table was decorated for each of the three Dens in the pack, the decorations having been arranged by the boys. Mrs. Raymond Redman's Den II table was in blue and gold, the Cub colors. Mrs. E. Young's Den III table was in the national patriotic colors, and the Indian motif was featured in Mrs. John Loft's Den I table.

Interest In City Election Continues To Mount

Interest in Post's biennial city election, slated to take place Tuesday, April 1, at which time a mayor and two commissioners will be elected, continues high this week as another candidate, Ira "Dad" Greenfield has tossed his hat into the commissioner's race.

Greenfield's entry into the political picture was drawn last Friday when his candidacy was submitted by members of the Post Volunteer Fire Department, of which he is a member, and made him the fifth candidate for one of the two commission posts.

Earlier in the week a petition bearing the names of two candidates for commissioners, Clint Herring and Vachel Anderson, and a candidate for mayor, John T. Herd, was presented for places on the ballot by a group of prominent Post business men.

The three present officials, J. A. Stallings, mayor; T. R. Greenfield and B. L. Sorege, commissioners, had earlier filed their intentions of being candidates for re-election.

The ballots will be printed within the next few days, said W. F. Presson, city secretary, this morning.

Garza Grand Jury Returns Indictment Against Post Man

Before being released shortly after noon Monday by Judge Lewis B. Reed, a Garza County grand jury returned an indictment against E. B. Hill, charging him with swindling by worthless check. Hill is charged with having given W. F. Pierce a worthless check in the amount of $470.25 for grain.

The grand jury was impaneled at the opening of 1947 district court Monday morning at 10 o'clock, and after Judge Reed selected Julius Fumagalli as foreman, the body was set to work investigating the case.

Members of the jury besides Fumagalli, included Wyatt Fry, Ray Hodge, Marvin Hudman, Earl Lancaster, H. V. Wheeler, Charlie Bird, D. R. Payton, Clay B. Johnson, George Ramage, E. W. Curry and Emmett Duncan.

THREE HANDSOME PRIZES TO BE OFFERED COWGIRLS

Directors of the Post Stampede, Inc., met Monday night at the City Hall to make specific plans for the annual Stampede and Rodeo to be held at the new arena, northwest of Post, four days, May 28-31.

Special emphasis will be put this year on the glamor angle, by way of inaugurating the new rodeo plant, construction of which is to be completed about May 1.

Cowgirl sponsors will be invited "from everywhere" to attend and compete for the three handsome prizes that will be given: First, a handmade saddle; second, a pair of shopmade boots, and third, a pair of spurs.

Four West Texas towns will be specifically honored during the four-day show, one day to be dedicated to each of the four towns selected. The towns will each send a Cowgirl Queen to be especially honored. Although the four towns were selected by the directors Monday night, announcement will be withheld until the towns have indicated they can cooperate.

The directors are Walter Duckworth, president; G. W. Connell, vice president; O. L. Wesley, treasurer; E. W. Williams, manager; Novis Rodgers, arena director, and Sherrill Boyd, secretary.

Post Escapes Old Man Flu, But Gets Plenty Bad Colds

Contrary to popular belief and despite the fact that absenteeism has run high in the Post Public School and the business district, there is not an influenza epidemic here and the prevalent epidemic of colds is milder than usually expected at this time of year.

Dr. D. C. Williams, Garza County health officer, says that the mild epidemic of severe colds seems to have reached its climax in the county and is in the tapering off stage. This is supported by the decrease in absenteeism the past two days in the public schools. Last Friday, 80 students were absent from Post High School; by Monday the situation had not improved to a noticeable extent. By Tuesday, Supt. G. R. Day said, absenteeism had fallen off noticeably and now a majority of the students are back in school.

During the peak of the colds epidemic, 115 children were absent from the Post Grade School on a single day. A similar percentage of absenteeism was noticeable in the rural schools. Only four teachers were absent from the Post School System in recent weeks, Day said.

There are a few cases of whooping cough in town and some scattered cases of chicken pox throughout the county. Neither has reached an epidemic stage, the health officer said. Aside from one of two cases of trench mouth in town, there are no other diseases running a course, the officer reported.

February is generally the low-ebb season in which colds and influenza are prevalent. Garza County escaped an influenza epidemic this season and is having a milder than usual year for severe colds, local physicians believe.

Well everyone had fun at the Sadie Hawkins Party last Thursday night. Mr. Bingham was in pigtail.

The Junior-Senior Banquet is eagerly anticipated by the socialites of the third and fourth classes.

Only fifty days of school are left, and swimming season will soon be here. If only the high schools in the vicinity of Post would install swimming pools and begin interscholastic competition.

The tournament which was going on in Mrs. Bingham's second period gym class came to a close as the Ghosts won the championship after defeating the Bullets. The Bullets won second place and the Blue Blazers third. They hope to begin playing volleyball and baseball as soon as the weather permits.

We are happy to welcome into our class Ruby Louise Prayton from Graham, Texas. Welcome to the eighth grade—we hope you like PHS.

Mr. and Mrs. Delmo Gossett kept the canteen Saturday and Monday nights. Many of the members were absent due to illness but the handful that was there made it a gay party. They left about 10:30.

Monday night a larger crowd was there and everyone was having fun. We seem to have some very talented people that we didn't know about. Junior Malouf has a wonderful piano version of "Boogie Woogie." He can also sing when he has such accompaniments as Helen Thaxton at the piano and Janet Stewart and Anita Kennedy to sing "Chloe."

Mrs. Jack Burress, Mrs. Hub Haire of Southland and Mrs. Glenn Root and daughter, Ramsey Joy of Cleveland, O., spent Saturday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Griston at Laguna. They were met there by L. B. Ramsay, Jr., of Austin.

Both Griston and Ramsay are paralyzed from the waist down as the result of World War II injuries. Ramsey drove the new automobile which the government recently gave him to James. The car is equipped with a compartment for his wheel chair.

Gle Debbil Insect Is Awaitin' For Vegetable Garden Plantin' Time

For the Post residents who are preparing to plant early vegetables, as well as to the rural folk who always make plans for fresh vegetable gardens at this time of the year, Miss Jewell Hipp, county home demonstration agent, offers some precautions against insects which can be depended upon to appear as soon as the weather becomes a bit warmer.

It is well for all the people to be getting their gardens ready and planting the early vegetables. The people in towns probably do not have a very large space, but a small space well cared for will provide fresh vegetables for the family and they can buy fresh vegetables for canning and freezing from their farmer friends. For the fresher vegetables are much more nutritious than those that travel a distance. Practicing a "Live-at-Home" program is just as important during peace times as war time. Here are some precautions to help overcome the old enemies of the garden you will have to contend with . . . the insects. Miss Jewell Hipp, county home demonstration agent, says in spite of all the care and attention we give to those young plants, the bugs are likely to start in on them as soon as the weather warms up a bit.

She mentions advice given by the entomologists of the Texas A & M College Extension Service, which states that one of the cheapest and best ways to prevent a lot of insect damage to garden products is rotation. Rotation also will reduce loss from certain plant diseases.

Planting time is another important factor. Usually the vegetables are safely planted, the less damage one can expect from insects. Destroying old vines and old plants just as soon as possible after harvest also is good practice.

Fertilization is another good measure. Well fertilized plants grow up more rapidly and have a better chance of getting ahead of the insects. Winter plowing also will keep down insects, as well as weeding. Then there are certain plant varieties that are resistant to certain insect damage.

When all these measures fail, it becomes necessary to use insecticides. Those wishing information on practices and, especially, for recommendations for use of insecticides are invited to call 30W, the County Extension Agents' office, or call at the office in the Court House.

Miss Hipp points out that fresh vegetables are more nutritious than those that travel a distance and that practicing a "live-at-home" program is just as important from a standpoint of health in peacetime as it is for economic reasons during war. She has in her office helpful information on vegetable gardening for both the inexperienced and the seasoned gardeners.

Bits Of News:

Word was received Tuesday morning of the death of Mr. C. C. Floyd of O'Donnell. He is a brother of Mrs. W. A. Wilson and a brother-in-law of Mrs. Lula Floyd both of Post.

Floyd and Ernest Tillman, Post brothers who are making good in Houston, flew to Post Sunday in Floyd's Ercoupe plane and spent several hours visiting friends and relatives before returning to their home. Floyd, who has a well-known dance band in Houston, will fly to Chicago Sunday to make eight Columbia recordings next week. His wife has been in Chicago this week completing arrangements. The band members planned to drive to Chicago this week. Ernest is in the real estate business in Houston.

Tom Henderson is home from the Lubbock Memorial Hospital and is improving nicely.

McCORMICK-DEERING

Tillage Tools

No. 9-A Tractor Disk Harrow

Tillage Tools must be plenty rugged to stand the tough job of preparing seed beds. They must also be soundly engineered to do the job right. You'll find both characteristics in McCormick-Deering Tillage Tools.

Take, for example, the rear gangs on the No. 9-A tractor disk harrow. Notice how they are "cross-draft" connected. That shows real engineering "know-how." The rear gangs can't skid in tough soils or when turning corners. They're always in position to split the ridges ahead and give you a 100 per cent job of disking.

It's that way all through the entire line of McCormick-Deering Tillage Tools. You'll find weight where weight is needed—quality construction and sound engineering. Each and every tool can be depended upon to do its job right.

Come in and see the long-lasting, good-working McCormick-Deering Tillage Tools we have on hand.

National Calamity May Result From Shortage Of Freight Cars

West Texas wheat and grain sorghum producers have long known of the critical box car shortage, but until very recently has the nation as a whole felt the full impact of the shortage, writes Congressman George Mahon. "Officials in Washington tell us that we are being threatened with a national calamity because of the shortage of box cars." He continues:

"It is claimed by Monroe Johnson, a member of the Interstate Commerce Commission who appeared before our Committee on Appropriations the other day, that many manufacturing concerns will have to slow down production or close entirely because goods are piling up and transportation is not available. He predicts that this sort of thing might easily precipitate widespread unemployment and economic chaos.

"Among shipments most seriously affected by the box car shortage are those of grain and newsprint, but nearly all items of commerce are now affected to some degree. A cut of approximately 40 per cent in the production of flour milling concerns has been necessary, and some daily papers foresee the possibility of having to temporarily suspend publication.

Have Twenty-Two Factories

"The railroads did a great job during the war, but the fact is that since V-J Day, box car loadings have increased each week over the corresponding week of the previous year, and loadings are now at an all-time high. In the face of this great transportation demand, the number of box cars is decreasing rather than increasing. Forty thousand new cars were built last year, but 59,000 became profit for further service. One-third of all box cars in service are over 26 years of age, despite the fact that the average life of a box car is supposed to be only 25 years. A single box car costs about $35,000. There are 22 factories in the United States which are engaged in the production of these cars.

"There is now a definite ray of hope that decisive action will be taken to meet the situation. Senator Reed, chairman of the Senate committee investigating the box car shortage, called a conference of railroad presidents, steel manufacturers and government officials last week in an effort to work out a plan for increasing the production of box cars. At this meeting, agreements were made between steel companies and manufacturers, and we are now promised box car production at the rate of 7,000 per month for the present, which should increase to 10,000 per month in the near future. Even so, it will take about a year for production to catch up with demand.

Investigating Newsprint

"Our Committee on Appropriations has approved a request for $130,000 for the Office of Defense Transportation, which will have a part in expediting the production program.

"The proposed box car program is important to West Texas. A portion of last season's grain sorghum crop is still lying on the ground deteriorating because of the unavailability of box cars. The accelerated program for box cars is going to help, but unfortunately, it appears that box car difficulties will continue to plague us through the 1947 crop year.

During the war, between 90 and 95 per cent of all meat sold in the U. S. was federally graded as "choice, good, commercial, or utility."

The Post High School senior girls, winners of the Garza County basketball championship, were edged out of the district 17 tournament last Saturday morning at Sylvester by Colorado City, champions of Mitchell county, and winner of the district tournament.

The local girls bowed to Colorado City, 33-35, after taking their first opponent, Jayton, 25-24 in a closely-contested game which resulted in a one period overtime playoff to determine the winner.

The tournament brought to a close basketball in Post High for the season, as the boys several weeks ago checked in their uniforms.

Cochran Day said this morning the girls would devote their play to volleyball and tennis for the next few months.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

A Definition of Our Town

Somebody defined our town just the other day as "A place where the people talk about you behind your back, and come to wait on you when you're sick."

I've got to admit there's something to it. A lot of our folks are inclined to be pretty outspoken and quick to criticize ... even about little things, like a woman's hat, or a man's preference for a glass of beer, or the color of Cy Hartman's new barn.

But when anyone's in trouble, those differences and points of criticism are forgotten ... and folks become neighborly and helpful, like they really are.

From where I sit, criticism never did much harm to anybody, so long as folks don't let it guide their actions ... so long as they respect our individual preferences, whether they apply to hats or beer. That's the way it is in our town, anyway, and I hope that it's the same in yours.

Tahoka To Furnish Opposition For Post's Improved Mitt Team

An improved Post High School fight team will take to the ring Friday (tomorrow) night against a Tahoka team, which all but "beat the ears off" the local scrappers one night last week.

Tomorrow night's card promises better matched fights, said Coach Bingham, this morning. Several boys who were out of the ring last week because of illness, will be slinging leather tomorrow night to make up for the beating the locals took when they journeyed to Tahoka.

The local scrappers, new at the fight business, showed considerable improvement Tuesday night over last week's efforts, and managed to even up the count against Slaton by taking six of the thirteen matches, and chalking up one draw, to even the count all the way round.

Results of Tuesday night's scraps were as follows:

Slaton chalked up one knockout, two technical knockouts, and won three bouts on points and evened the match by a draw. Post counted on technical knockout, won five bouts on points, and drew one draw.

In the first bout of the evening, Calvin Brown of Slaton knocked Junior Olson of Post in the third.

Wayne Thomas, Post, out-pointed Geo. Sambright of Slaton.

Don Brown, one of the classed little scrappers on the Post team, out-pointed Horace Cook, Slaton.

Cecil Dyke, Slaton, and Jimmy Moore, Post, fought to a draw.

J. Lovelady, Slaton, won a technical knockout over G. W. Lewis, Post.

Post To Enter Team In Area's Semi-Pro Oil Belt Baseball League

Post will send in an entry in the semi-pro Oil Belt Baseball League March 16 when final plans for the league are drawn-up, rules made, and a schedule of games worked out at a meeting in Brownfield, announced Polly Duren, one of the local promoters, Wednesday morning following a meeting of fans here Tuesday night.

The team will be sponsored by the Postex Cotton Mills and Post merchants, said Duren, and the local set-up has been formed with Claude Bailey and Oscar Garner as directors, and St. Thaxton as business manager - secretary. Duren has been named field manager, and Frits Hester field captain. Carl Adams will serve as official score-keeper.

Lennie Wall, Post, put up a good scrap to high-point Paul Mosier, Slaton.

Richard Barth, Slaton, won over Buddy Hays, Post, on points.

Cecil Mosier, Slaton, out-pointed H. E. Josey, Post.

Shorty Hester, whipped into his second round of fight with James Mosier, and battled the Slaton fighter to his knees before the Slaton coach tossed in the towel to give Hester a technical knockout.

thing over one hundred dollars in the bank, and that a campaign will be arranged to raise about five hundred more dollars. The club has good uniforms, and some other equipment, and if good attendance is given the home games the club can get on a self-supporting basis during the season.

Tentative plans call for approximately twenty-two games during the season, with all games scheduled on Sundays and at least half of the games will be played on home diamonds. Eight teams will comprise the loop, and will include besides Post, Seminole, Seagraves, sundown, Levelland and O'Donnell. Brownfield, Amerherst, and Plainview are dickering to enter the loop and two of the towns will be selected to make up the seventh and eighth teams.

Tryouts and practice will get underway here within the next two weeks, said Duren.

Church News

By BONNIE CEARLEY

Church attendance in Post was much smaller last Sunday than usual. There is much sickness, let us all pray that all who are sick may soon be well and aid our prayers by such assistance as we can to help those who are ill.

Rev. I. D. Walker of the Calvary Baptist Church has been quite ill with the flu and Mrs. Walker had to return to Lubbock hospital last week for surgery so it seems the path has been quite dark for them lately. They will indeed appreciate your prayers.

Attendance at Intermediate GA meeting at Mrs. Polnac's Monday was small because several of the girls were sick. A study of missions was made with special emphasis on home missions.

The WSCS of the Methodist church met Monday afternoon for their regular first Monday social. Mrs. Durrett, Jones and Collins were hostesses in the Durrett home.

During the business meeting it was voted to supervise the compiling and printing of a bulletin announcing the weekly church activities. This bulletin will be distributed to church attendees each Sunday.

Mrs. Surman Clark presorted the program based on Race Relations. In addition Mrs. Ralph Welch gave a topic entitled Adventuring in Brotherhood.

During the social hour Mrs. F. C. McAnally was honored, as she is moving to Big Spring the last of this week. Mrs. Durrett made a sweet little speech of appreciation for the help and friendship of the McAnallys and presented a lovely lamp table to them from the church as well as the WSCS ladies. The hostesses served delicious pie and coffee.

Next Monday the group will meet again at the church and continue lessons in their study course.

Mrs. A. A. Suits and Mrs. Dove Mayfield are mission study chairmen for the WMU meeting on Mondays. As such they were in charge for this week's joint session study of missionary work in this county. Fifteen ladies were present to hear the first of a series of special programs for this week. Several given parts were read, along with short prayers.

Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Suits presided for another prayer service.

Tomorrow, Friday, all ladies of the WMU as well as others interested, are asked to attend the all day session which begins at 10 a. m.

Mrs. Iven Clary, president of First Baptist WMU, accompanied by Mrs. Jim Williams, A. A. Suits, Carl Hughes, Jess Wright, H. F. Snowden, attended the 28th Annual Meeting of WMU District 9, at Littlefield.

At the business meeting Mrs. R. E. L. Patillo was elected president replacing Mrs. Lonnie Lunsden. A large mirror will be placed in the hall of the Bible Science building at Wayland College honoring Mrs. Lunsden. It will bear a plaque commemorating her eight years of work with the district WMU.

The featured speaker at the morning session was Miss Margaret Hutchinson of Atlanta, Georgia, who is a field worker with Home Mission Board.

Rev. Joe Hardscastle, special missionary, brought an inspirational devotional period during the afternoon.

Mrs. Clary reported that the highlight of the meeting was the awarding of a beautiful blue and white banner to the Lubbock Association, of which Post is a unit. Mrs. Terity received the banner, which is given each year to the most efficient association of the district, composed of eight associations.

The Couples Class of the First Baptist church meets the last Tuesday night of each month for a social meeting. Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Richardson, Jr., were hosts last week. Most of the members were sick so only a small crowd was present to enjoy games of "42" and refreshments of sandwiches, potato-chips, olives and cookies.

Six members were present. The next meeting will be at the school building.

SEWING CLUBS MEET WITH MMES. CLARK AND VOSS AS HOSTESSES

The Needlecraft and Priscilla Clubs met together last Thursday afternoon when Mrs. Carl Clark and Mrs. Jessie Voss were hostesses in the Voss home.

Mrs. Durrett and Mrs. Hibbs were in charge of the program for the special occasion. Members found a partner from the opposite club by matching parts of phrases and questions. After being introduced each couple then discussed their particular question. Mrs. Hibbs conducted a quiz to identify songs by hearing some of the words in the song.

In anticipation of Easter and Spring Mrs. Voss presented a preview of hat fashions with Opal Thaxton, Jo Webb, and Helen Welch as models. This show was introduced by the reading of an original poem written by Mrs. Ben Williams.

Mrs. Keith Kemp was given a farewell gift, a lovely hand-painted china vase, from the Priscilla Club. Many members, especially from the Priscilla, were absent from the party because of illness.

The hostesses served delicious apple cake and whipped cream with coffee to Mrs. Charlie Voss, L. W. Dalby, Minnie Gruber, Nettie Barrow, J. B. Faulkner, T. R. Hibbs, F. C. McAnally, Alex

Post To Be Shown Film That Largest Cities Have Enjoyed

A most unusual entertainment is coming to Post—somewhat by accident—at a popular price, 25 cents for students and $1.00 for adults.

It is "The Symphony of the Seasons," a 1800-foot kodachrome reel of animated flowers of the Southwest synchronized with their counterparts in the world's greatest symphony music.

The musical picture will be presented at 8 o'clock Tuesday night, March 25, at the Post High School auditorium under the auspices of the Senior Sunday School Class of the First Methodist Church. Proceeds will go into the class' youth overseas fund which provides the food necessary for a war devastated child abroad.

Dr. Herbert J. Rinkel of Kansas City, Mo., one of the Southwest's best known allergists who spent 10 years making the picture, will be in Post to show the film at the invitation of his good friend and fellow cinema photographer, John Lott.

Shown In Largest Cities

The picture has been shown nearly 300 times in the nation's largest cities without profit to the physician. It was possible to have the showing here because the physician-photographer was coming South, anyway, to show the film at a medical convention banquet in Shreveport and had a date for another showing, March 27, in Austin.

In order that the greatest number of flower-lovers possible in this area can see the film, the Sunday School Class is sending tickets and programs to the Lubbock Garden Club for distribution.

"But we are first interested in seeing a good turnout of Post people, Lott explains. "We feel that plenty of people will buy tickets because the proceeds go to a good cause, but we want them to see this most unusual picture, as well."

Doctor Rinkel, who is past president of the Kansas City Amateur Moviemakers, is a perfectionist when it comes to photography. His Kodachrome pictures are absolutely accurate as to color. To achieve this he has rephotographed any errors accidentally resulting in the course of filming.

Began With Research

The film, although having no reference to the medical profession, found its beginning in Rinkel's allergy research. During the course of his building up a reputation as an outstanding allergist, Rinkel put his cinema hobby to work making color pictures of all vegetation, particularly flowers, in various parts of the nation, putting special emphasis on the flowers of the Southwest.

He referred to these films in his interviews with hayfever and other allergy sufferers who came from their faraway homes for treatment. Although the patient didn't know the names of the flowers and plants in their own home regions, they were able to recognize them by sight and so give the doctor some valuable clues.

Realizing that "nature has given us two great symphonies—one in sound and one in color," Rinkel edited his films and set them to the music of Beethoven, Dvorak, Wagner and Handel. The showing lasts one hour.

National farm income for January and February of this year will be about one third higher than for those two months in 1946, the U. S. Department of Agriculture reports.

Capacity Crowd Attends Banquet; Hears of Bad and Good Qualities of Area

Chamber Of Commerce Recommends Buying Water Works And Extending Sewage System

Everything bad about Post and everything good about the South Plains in general, were reviewed before the capacity crowd at the Post Chamber of Commerce banquet Friday night at the Methodist Church.

To offset the undesirable aspects, President Joe S. Moss listed the following recommendations made by the chamber of commerce board to the citizens of Post:

1. Vote bonds to buy the water works and extend the sewer line.
 2. Hold an election to expand the city limits.
 3. Send a barrage of telephone calls to the City Hall until the garbage collection facilities are adequate for the city's needs.
 4. Provide a system for law enforcement so that existing city ordinances will be observed.
 5. Pass a zoning ordinance.
- Moss said the board had studied the financial problems of the county, the school system and the city and found the county in good shape and the schools with a good potentiality. The board found the city shackled to "bonds that are now impossible to pay up." Moss said the interest on these bonds was $5,000 last year.

Need Enforcement Personnel
The board also found that the city has plenty of worthwhile ordinances but needs personnel to enforce them, Moss explained.

Among the unenforced ordinances is one stating that parking lanes should be marked in the downtown area. This, if enforced, would help solve the traffic problem on Main Street, the president said.
Dr. Glenn E. Kahler, Clint Herring and James Minor were introduced as new board members, replacing L. A. Presson, who resigned because of ill health; Tom L. Power, who has moved to Houston, and Ted Hibbs, who resigned for business reasons. Hold-over board members are John Lane, Paul Jones, Robert Cox and Moss. The 1947 board will elect officers this month.

"This Wonderful Country in Which We Live" was subject of Bradley's address. The speaker began with a gentle ribbing of merchants for being "drunk on making money," then quoted facts and figures to support the fact that each is dependent on the other and that all are dependent on the farmers and ranchers of "the most wonderful area in the world."

"Blessings" Are Counted
Among the "blessings" he listed for this area, as outstanding not only in the United States but in the world, are:

- "Texas has more hard-surfaced roads than has the whole of Russia.
- "More than 97 per cent of the South Plains population is native born white. We have more than 200,000 of the finest people on earth living right here, and that's why we don't have labor troubles like they do everywhere else.
- "Three million pounds of dressed poultry are shipped from the South Plains each year. Four million, six hundred thirty-three thousand forty-two pounds of eggs are shipped out annually; 8,149,631 lb. of butter were produced in the area last year.
- "Five cheese plants on the South Plains consume 100,000 lb. of milk daily in making 11,000 lb. of cheese per day.
- "This area produces an average of 500,000 bales of cotton each year and it is the greatest sorghum grain producing section in the nation."

This Is Important Frontier
Bradley said the South Plains—the 15 counties, including Post, which surround Lubbock—is the nation's most important frontier. There are countless opportunities for expansion—among them are these which Bradley said Post might consider:

- Breeding for improved types in animal and vegetable products, such as Wisconsin breeders have done with the milk cow and this area has done with Martin Maize.
- Getting an oil refinery so that people around here can better benefit from some of the natural oil resources.
- Raising the salaries of the school teachers to combat the disgrace that low school standards brings to this otherwise wealthy area. In this connection, Bradley explained that the per capita retail sales on the South Plains in 1946 was nearly three times that of the per capita figure for the nation as a whole and that in recent years the South Plains has been pictured in white (top financial shape) on the U. S. Chamber of Commerce's monthly financial map more consistently than any other area the same size in the nation.
- Getting a carbon black plant and a packing plant. He called attention to the fact that there is not a packing plant within one hundred miles of this important meat producing section.

Getting a tannery for the processing of leather goods, rather than shipping huge supplies of leather elsewhere to make money for other areas.

He spoke of the future of this area as a possible cotton manufacturing center and said there was plenty of room for increased population. He said there are 600,000,000 acres of fertile land on the South Plains yet to be put into cultivation.

Music Is Enjoyed
Bill J. Davis, violinist, and Mrs. Ray N. Smith, pianist, provided a musical program while the banquet was served. Invocation was by Dr. David H. Templeton and the benediction was by Rev. Joe Norton.

Special recognition was given to out-of-town visitors, new merchants and Post clergymen and their wives. Bob Blon represented the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce.

Moss' report of chamber of commerce activities in 1946 included:

Improvements on the road from the highway to the Polar Community and the Polar Oil Field, which he said resulted in Post's selection as a residence place for additional oil field workers.

Supporting the Garza County Committee on the Broadway to the Big Bend Highway.

Cooperation with local Boy Scout workers in trying to get the Post Boy Scout camp designated as an area Scout Camp and getting a swimming pool built. Moss said both these projects probably will become realities in 1947.

Financing three Garza County boys to the annual meeting at Texas A & M College; providing money for the local 4-H show.

Sponsoring a cowgirl at the Stamford and Snyder rodeos, and assisting with the Post Stampede.

Suggestions To Be Discussed
Cooperation with the county farm agent in arranging a booth at the Panhandle-South Plains Fair and providing an official for the agricultural exhibits.

Representation at the West Texas Chamber of Commerce regional meeting at Lubbock; the WTCC meeting in Abilene, the Southwestern Institute at Dallas, and an airport meeting at Lubbock.

Opened an office in the City Hall.

At the invitation of the board, chamber of commerce members mailed suggestions for the 1947 program with their ballots in the recent election. These will be taken up at the board's next meeting, Sherrill Boyd, secretary, has announced this week.

In addition to the program to be formulated by the board, the local chamber will, in 1947:

Sponsor a 4-H Club show.
Cooperate with the county agent on a booth at the Panhandle-South Plains Fair.

Provide completely new Christmas decorations for 1947, of a type that will last at least five years.

Designate the following holidays, as agreed on by the merchant members: Memorial Day, July Fourth, Labor Day, Armistice Day, Thanksgiving, Christmas and January 1, 1948.

Continue to cooperate with the project to build a swimming pool at the Boy Scout camp, with the hope that the pool can be used by the community whenever not in use by the Boy Scouts.

March 1-9 has been designated as National 4-H Club Week.

"LET THE BUYER HAVE CONFIDENCE"

"High prices" and "low prices" are loosely used terms. To compare, for instance, the price structure of 1935, when the national debt was small and when wages and the national income were relatively low, with the price structure of 1947, a $280,000,000,000 debt, record wages, and an enormous national income, just doesn't make sense. Prices are sensitive to all the economic influences of the time.

The sensible thing to talk about is a "fair price." That, to define it briefly, is the lowest price at which any given commodity may be sold in the light of today's wages, debt, taxes, rents, material costs and everything else. And that kind of price is rapidly being established in all fields.

Increased production in manufacturing has injected new blood into the American competitive spirit—and that always helps to hold prices down as well as to force quality up. Consumer resistance against the shoddy and the over-priced article has been another salutary factor. Finally, on the retail level, the American distribution machine is again proving its metal.

No merchant who wants to stay in business will deliberately exploit the consumer. "Let the buyer beware" is the exact reverse of American retailing principles. "Let the buyer have confidence" is, in sense, the motto of modern retailers—and that goes for the small independent as well as the big chain or department store. The merchant's principal asset is consumer friendship and faith—and he stocks his shelves and prices his goods accordingly.

WHAT OUR CONTEMPORARIES ARE SAYING:

DECIDING FARM FACTOR—With pre-March trade winds drying out farm and rangeland at a rapid rate, the next two weeks can well become the deciding farm factor for Scurry County farmers in making a crop this year. In other words, land prepared before the moisture gets away and turned up to the sun before winter weeds get a head start may well determine whether we plant at the normal time in the spring.

Time for planting early corn is practically with us, and time for planting early feeds, patches of sudan and early hegar is less than 60 days distant. Farmers and gardeners have already planted Irish potatoes and the next few days—insofar as soil preparation is concerned—will be vitally important.

We need to prepare our farmland immediately. We need as a county to prepare and plan for a dry year; then if seasonal moisture exceeds our expectations, we will still come out ahead in agriculture.

The deciding farm factor in conserving moisture supplies is not only with us, but wise preparation of soil and keeping every ounce of our precious winter snow-moisture will tell the main part of the story when this year's harvest days roll around. —Scurry County Times.

A GOOD YARN—A local man told his wife he was going to "lodge" and wouldn't be home until about 11 p. m. The hours rolled on and so did the dice, and before hubby realized it, it was 3 a. m. He had reason to believe that an angry woman was waiting for him at home armed with a "numbing stick" of some kind. His one cell came out for air and gave birth to a bright idea. He hunted up a phone, called his wife and yelled with enthusiasm, "don't pay the ransom, mamma, they have turned me loose!" —Donley County Leader.

ANOTHER HEART ACHE OF THE WAR

A touching and heart-trying part of World War II will begin around March 10. Next of kin of our war dead will begin to receive inquiries from the Army Quartermaster General to determine their wish as to having bodies of loved ones brought back to the United States or consigned to military cemeteries abroad.

It is estimated that approximately 275,000 of our boys who lost their lives in the war can be returned.

A woman visitor to the Bronx Zoo kept pestering one of the keepers with questions. Finally his patience gave out. "Is that hippopotamus a male or female?" came the next question. "Madam," he replied, "what possible difference could that make to anybody except another hippopotamus?"

Many experts in the automobile industry are scaling down past estimates of potential consumer demand for cars. Reasons are: First, high prices are driving buyers out of the market; second, the estimates were probably excessively optimistic in the first place.

Some think you will be able to buy just about any new car you want by the end of the year, without waiting. Others place the return of the buyers' market a little later. The selling prices of used cars are shrinking, and overstocked dealers are definitely worried.

Use of an adding machine or comptometer instead of a stub pencil doesn't eliminate the need for a knowledge of arithmetic. Gaines County News.

If you're going to stir up a hornet's nest, better get a long pole.
