

Up And Down Main Street

Ride 'em cowboy! You'll really want to ride a roan when you see all the wonderful prizes on display at Maxine's. Alvin Davis, manager of the Junior Rodeo, put all the fancy gear for winners on display there this week. Go by and see them. You'll see a beautiful sight. Some of the kids we know are really going to be "ga-ga" come next Saturday night.

A new brown hits the high road of fashion for fall. It's called Sanka (brown of black intensity). Be watching for it when Post merchants receive all their fall merchandise.

Sealed like the finest foods are the milk and fruit juice products sold by Caprock Dairy. James and Louise Dietrich get fine reports from their customers about this air-tight seal top used on Caprock Dairy products.

A new medical preparation that promotes the growth of luxuriant hair and makes the scalp healthy is now being used by operators at Maggie's Beauty Shop. Ask Maggie or Jo about Fay's Professional Scalp Formula. You'll really like it, once you try it.

Do you have a nail to hang a hat on? Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Josey who operate a free rental service at their grocery store are urging all you Garza guys and gals to turn in your rental units to them. They not only are trying to find apartments, rooms, houses for folks who want to move to Post, but are anxious to find 200 rooms for folks who will be here next week to take in the Junior Rodeo.

Does your summer wardrobe need a pick-up? With lots of sizzling summer weather still in store, you'll be wise if you check the ads of all ready-to-wear stores that are offering specials for dollar day on Monday.

You'll find a real find at Norris Radio Service. G. W. is offering a special price on Motorolas through first Monday.

Bill Richardson and his wife are opening the Richardson Cleaning plant this week. You will find the new plant out on the Tahoka highway just across the street from the high school. Read their ad in this week's issue of the Post Dispatch.

New personality at Kirkpatrick Auto Electric is Harry Hoskins. He is an expert in the field of auto electric service. Ralph Kirkpatrick, owner of the plant, invites you to come by and get acquainted with Mr. Hoskins.

Keith Kemp and Robert Miller are announcing the opening of a new filling station out on the Clairemont highway. Both men have had lots of experience in this field of work and are well qualified to operate a "bang-up" good station. By the way, they will handle Cosden products.

Suited for Fall and in style, too, if you order your new suit from the National Tailoring Company's line of samples. See the new patterns at Thaxton Cleaners.

On the market is a wonderful slip for the little Miss who "grows over night." It is called a "Tuck-slip." Just cut a few threads at the waist line and down it comes. A one and one-half inch hem in the midriff explains the magic. The "Tuck Slip" is lengthened simply and immediately. The roving reporter hasn't seen this garment in any of the stores in Post yet but if she had a growing girl she would be asking local merchants about it.

A wise man Up and Down Main makes this remark about vacations—"It doesn't matter where we go for vacation—mountains, seashore, city, my wife is sure to go without her glasses and I without my removable bridge." (Ain't it the truth?)

A TIP TO THE KIDS—If you want to make a hit with Wild Bill Elliott "go western." Don your Levis, western shirt, boots and hats and wear them all next week. "Wild Bill" is coming to Post Monday to be here all week—he likes kids and likes them western. He will be happy to meet all the young cowboys and cowgirls—so get your shaking fist ready boys and gals—be sure to meet your favorite movie hero.

Why don't you put up your rodeo banners merchants? Let's do Post up right for the "all-sides show."

Two Draft Calls This Month To Be Filled by 175 Area Men

"The Post Dispatch serves Post's trade territory as well as it could be done by two or more newspapers and advertisers pay but one bill."

JUST A SNACK—Two-year-old Brenda Joyce Calvery (above) finally had to give up. She could not eat all of the watermelon she got at the Mineola Watermelon Festival. A crowd estimated at 8,000 turned out for the annual East Texas celebration. Brenda Joyce is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Calvery of Route 1, Mineola.

Men 19-26 To Be Taken In Draft Call

Two draft calls in this area will require 175 men this month. J. E. Parker, head of the local draft board, announced yesterday.

The 175 men will come from Lubbock, Crosby, Lynn and Garza counties, with the largest group likely coming from Lubbock and the smallest from Garza, Parker said.

"It is not necessary to ask for deferment until you get your call," Parker warned. "Each man drafted will be given 21 days to attend to such as that."

The first call will come Aug. 11, next Tuesday, Parker said, and the second Aug. 18. No local draft board will be set up at this time, he stated. The oldest men in the 19-26 age group will be called first. Cards will be sent from Lubbock.

Men in 1-A are urged to report any change in address or marital status immediately.

Southwestern Champion Junior Rodeo Begins with Parade Here on Wednesday

Next Wednesday is the big day for Junior rodeo fans and contestants with the parade rising the curtain on the four-day Southwestern Championship event beginning at 6 o'clock.

Alvin Davis was in Big Spring this week conferring with motion picture Star Bill Elliott who is appearing in a rodeo there. Elliott will be the star attraction of the rodeo here next week. He and Gov. Allan Shivers will lead the initial parade.

Elliott will also judge the Quarter Horse show the last two days of the rodeo. He is a director of the Pacific Coast Quarter Horse association and former director of the American Quarter Horse association.

Riding groups are expected from Lubbock, Amarillo, Graham, Midland, Seminole and Post. They will compete for four trophy awards. Parade awards will be given the best junior horseman not contestants in the rodeo, and to riders in the bicycle group.

Admission to rodeo performances will be 75 cents for children and $1.25 for adults. The Quarter Horse show will be free. After each night performance a dance is to be held on the concrete slab at the rodeo grounds.

A free dance, sponsored by the rodeo association will be held Saturday night on the concrete slab south of Connell Chevrolet company. Western regalia will be worn then and throughout next week.

Ted and Betty Lamb, Dallas, will give a trick riding act. Dale Winders of Earth will be the clown. Goat Mayo is furnishing the stock and Nat Fleming of Wichita Falls will be the announcer.

Elliott and Novis Rodgers will judge the cutting horse contest. Main show judges are LeDrew Arrott of Bronte, Bobby Gray of Fluvanna and Betty Rush of Leveland. Riders competing will select the riding judge.

Mrs. Jerry Dusek, top woman roper, of Van Court will be pitted against Helen Hightower of Garden City in a matched roping contest the first day. Friday afternoon, Bob Thompson of Stinnett, top boy roper, will meet Jack Lowe, Amarillo, Rodeo Cowboy association. Each will rope and tie the calves.

Contests include boys' calf roping, ribbon roping, hat race, bull riding, bareback bronc riding, girls' calf roping and girls' barrel race.

Opening day will be Ed Gossett day, honoring the United States.

Pat Walker, D. Willis Form New Law Firm

David C. Willis, local attorney, this week announced the formation of a partnership for general law practice with a former classmate, Pat M. Walker of Greggton.

Walker is a graduate of Baylor university law school. Since his graduation, he has practiced law in Greggton. Married, he has two children, Paul, 18 months, and Dianne, 4.

He will stay with Willis until suitable housing is found. Mr. and Mrs. Walker are members of the Methodist church.

The firm, to be known as Willis and Walker, will have offices in the Haws building.

New Band Director To Meet Students At HS Monday

W. R. Fifer, newly-hired band director here, announced that he will be at the high school all day Monday to meet band students and get acquainted.

Fifer prefers that band members come between 9 o'clock in the morning and noon and 1 o'clock and 4 in the afternoon. He wants to determine the instrumentation he has. He will be in town all week finding an apartment.

Kindergarten Talked Here

Parents interested in sending their children to kindergarten may contact G. R. Day, superintendent of schools, who will try to organize one.

Day made it clear that although some help might be expected from the state in the way of textbooks and a classroom, each child would have to pay a tuition fee to have a kindergarten. There must be at least 25 children enrolled to justify having such a class, he said.

During the past two years he has tried without success to organize a kindergarten here. Such a class would take care of those children not six years old by Sept. 1 and others who were eligible.

Bedrooms Wanted For Rodeo Visitors

Everyone with a spare bedroom or bed is urged to list it with C. J. Josey or the chamber of commerce office for rodeo visitors next week.

Josey has already had requests for more than 100 bedrooms or beds. Pat Ryan, chamber of commerce manager, said his office would be glad to take listings to ease Josey's job. He pointed out that it would make a better impression for Post if we could accommodate as many rodeo guests as possible.

Requests for 50 to 75 beds for Graham people and 40 for Stamford people were received early this week.

Cotton Insect Meeting Set At Davis Home Tomorrow

Guy Carpenter, extension entomologist from Texas A&M, will conduct a cotton insect meeting in the Glen Davis home tomorrow at 9:30 o'clock.

Carpenter will discuss or demonstrate insect identification, how to determine the extent of infestation requiring poisoning and recommended doses.

L. C. Herron, local county agent, urged all farmers interested to attend.

"Leafworms are fairly widespread in the South Plains and need controlling in some areas here," he said. "Bollworms have appeared in injurious numbers in some South Plains fields and if we get an infestation, they can be seen in local fields by the 10th of the month."

Where rains have occurred recently or where the cotton has particularly soft, juicy stems and leaves, growers should make careful inspections often, he said.

LAST MINUTE AP ... Korean Bulletins:

Combat-equipped U. S. Marines streamed ashore in Korea early Thursday and headed at once for critical battlefronts where fighting raged within 40 miles of the supply port of Pusan.

Marine equipment, including big Pershing tanks and flame throwers, unloaded from ship to shore throughout Wednesday night at an unspecified southern port.

The Marine pushoff came as U. S. tanks and Army troops were engaged in bloody fighting after throwing a counterattack that stopped a powerful Korean Red drive 40 miles west of Pusan.

Ten North Korean divisions, possibly 100,000 men, flung themselves with reckless abandon at U. S. and South Koreans trying to hold the line until U. S. Marine and Army reinforcements can reach the battlefields.

The new defense perimeter, shrunken now to 150 miles or less, was marked by flaming towns and villages, from Chinju on the south to Yongdok on the east coast 80 miles north of Pusan, field reports said.

Latest to fall was flaming Kunchon, 35 miles northwest of Taegu, South Korean provisional capital 60 miles northwest of Pusan.

Correspondent Hal Boyle, who witnessed the fighting from an observation plane, said "the Americans are going forward—but at a price."

LOCAL MARKETS

Only price advance in the local market was that of eggs. Two cents the dozen to 27 cents.

Quotations given a Dispatch reporter yesterday were:

No. 1 Kaffir, 100 lbs. $1.75
No. 1 Milo, 100 lbs. 1.75
Cream, lb. 50c
Eggs, dozen 27c
Heavy hens, lb. 12c & 13c

Accident Occurs Here On Clairemont Road

Two cars were damaged Sunday when a pickup driven by C. O. Price of Post was hit from the rear by a car driven by Dean McGuire Denton, jr., of Roswell, N. M.

The accident occurred about 3:30 Sunday afternoon east of the cemetery cutoff on the Clairemont highway. No one was injured seriously. City Policeman Bill Hall investigated. He could not estimate the damage.

Unit 12 City Well Waits Pump at 3100

The Unit 12, City of Post well, is awaiting the pump after being completed at 3100 feet and acidized with 10,000 gallons. The well was drilled by Morris G. Spencer, operator.

R. S. and P. W. Anderson No. 1 Stanolind-Stoker, a long north-west extension of the Rocker-A pool northwest of Justiceburg, has been completed at 2505 feet. It pumped 15 barrels daily from 2469-2505 feet. It was acidized in San Andres lime.

At last report, Houston Oil company of Texas and Seaboard Oil company No. 1 Howell, southeast Lynn county wildcat, was drilling ahead after encountering salt water in the lower Spraberry. It was below 7278 feet in lime and shale on an Ellenburger contract.

Magnolia Petroleum company No. 1 W. W. Caswell, offset to the discovery No. 1 Garza Land and Cattle company, is drilling below 6172 in lime and shale.

Absentee Balloting To Begin Sunday

Absentee balloting for the second primary, Aug. 26, begins Sunday with the deadline being August 22. Ray Smith, county and district clerk, announced.

T. R. Greenfield, county democratic chairman, said it would be Saturday or perhaps the middle of next week before the ballot arrived from state headquarters.

108 Transfers Asked in County

One hundred and eight applications for transfer were received in the office of the county superintendent of schools, Dean Robinson announced.

Tuesday was the deadline for transferring scholastics from one district to another.

Main Street Collision Results in Damages

A brand new Ford pickup was damaged to the extent of $50, just as it was being returned to the buyer, when it was in collision with a car driven by H. F. Anderson in front of Hundley's Cleaners Monday.

Tom Power was driving the pickup. Damages to the car amounted to about $35. Highway patrolmen, who were parked in the middle of the street at the time, investigated the accident.

Warning Issued Youngsters Playing In Airport Vicinity

Youngsters playing in the vicinity of the airport are warned to stay away from planes. Anyone caught on the premises will be prosecuted by law. Sheriff E. M. Bass announced this week.

The plane owned by Spencer Kuykendall was damaged considerably Tuesday by thoughtless boys who tore a hole in the wing. Deputy Sheriff D. L. Young said.

"Should the pilot not notice until too late that his plane had been tampered with, he would be in grave danger," Young said. "His life might be at stake."

He pointed out that boys could hurt themselves by falling when climbing around on the planes. Should they twist the propeller and ignite the engine, the force might cut them completely in two, he said.

The sheriff asked that anyone seeing boys playing around the airport report them to his office.

T. L. Jones Named New City Officer

T. L. Jones was chosen city commissioner when the group met last Thursday night in the city hall and accepted Dr. Glenn Kahler's resignation.

Jones will serve as an appointee until the election next April. All city officials will be up for election then. Mayor John Herd and Vachel Anderson are the other two officials.

Bill Elliott Arrives Monday for Visit

WILD BILL ELLIOTT

Bill Elliott, Hollywood star who will be a feature attraction at the Southwestern Junior Championship rodeo, will arrive in Post Monday shortly after noon.

Tuesday morning he will appear on radio programs from neighboring towns. At noon he will present a program at the local Rotary club. Tuesday afternoon he will go to Lubbock for radio and newspaper interviews and an appearance at the Dist. 2 4-H camp for boys. Alvin Davis will accompany him.

Davis, George Samson and Walter Duckworth were in Big Spring yesterday meeting Elliott and his wife. Mr. and Mrs. Elliott will be guests of the Duckworths during their stay here.

Elliott will bring two horses, Thunder and Stormy Night. Thunder is a trained horse. Elliott will present a specialty act with him.

Davis urged everyone in Post to make a special effort to meet the Elliotts before the rodeo performances here. Elliott is now appearing in a rodeo at Big Spring.

Billy Gerald Light Goes to Scottish Rite

Billy Gerald Light, 10, son of Mrs. Willie Light, was admitted to the Scottish Rite hospital in Dallas Friday.

He is to be fitted with braces and crutches. It is hoped he will be able to walk when he returns home. He is expected to remain in the hospital several weeks, Mrs. Light said.

The child was injured in June, 1949. A 22 rifle bullet through his neck injured his spinal cord.

Fifty-Three Couples Marry Here, 26 Get Divorces

Fifty-three marriage licenses were issued in Garza county during the past year and 26 divorces suits and two annulments were filed.

Twenty-one of the marriage licenses went to out-of-town applicants. Ray Smith, county and district clerk, reports that the percentage of out-of-town people applying for a license has decreased since the blood test and waiting requirements went into effect.

Of those who came from other towns to get their licenses here, nine of the women had been married previously. Ages ranged from 22 on up, with the majority of out-of-town women being around 30.

Eight men applying for licenses were underage and had a parent or guardian's consent while only nine women were underage. However, the legal age for women in Texas is 18 while men must be 21.

In Garza county, September is the month of brides—nine marriage licenses were issued last September. September is also the month of divorces here, five suits were filed during that month. Seven marriage licenses were issued in December last year; six in August and February, all leading June. Only five licenses were issued during the traditional wedding month.

Only one license was issued in November. Two applied in October. Three licenses were issued in July, May and January. March and April accounted for four each.

More people came from out of town to get marriage licenses in August than in any other month. A greater percentage of licenses was issued to local people in September and February. December was a good local month also. Garza countians get along with each other better during May and July than at any other time during the year. No divorces or annulments were filed then. People had more money to get rid of the old mate or to catch a new one last September than during any other month—a peak of five divorce suits was filed then. Four were filed in August and February.

Only annulments asked this year were one each in December and January. Three divorces were filed in each of the months of October, March, April and June. Two each were asked in December and January.

Five of the couples from out of town asking marriage licenses were from Snyder. Two were from Abilene. There was one each from Lamesa, Albany, Tahoka, Crowell, Lubbock, Henrietta, California, Borger, Denver City, Graham, Marton, Sterling City, Colorado City and Seguin.

Only one couple who got their marriage license here this year has already filed for divorce. All divorces filed are not granted.

GETTING OUT

On the LIMB

by EDDIE the EDITOR

I see that something definite is actually getting underway on the Post-to-Spur road.

That is one thing I am really for. People out in that section of the county really need a decent road. I don't know when the last improvements were made on the roads in that precinct.

It is only about 40 miles to Spur across that way. I think, but it is about 70 around by Claremont and Jayton, best I figure it. A lot of people who live near Kalgray go on to Spur who might come to Post if we had a better road—after all Post is nearer.

Charley Fox, the star route mail carrier, says that road is already pretty good for a county road, but going over that bridge one time is too often for me. It would be nice to have a safe bridge over the river.

This proposed highway will not only benefit the people surrounding Post and Supr but will be a connecting link in the Broadway to Big Bend highway. It would be a boon to more people than just those who live in this area.

I noticed in the Spur paper that the chamber of commerce had a form letter printed for citizens to type off, sign and send in.

With changes making it refer to Garza county, I am giving it to you, in case you want to push things along by sending one in.

Your Box, Post, Texas

The Date Texas State Highway Dept. Board of Highway Commission Austin, 26, Texas

I am a citizen of Garza county and I am extremely interested in the proposed state highway from Post to Spur, which is to be part of the Broadway to Big Bend highway.

We are, and have been, in need of this proposed highway, to serve the businesses and citizens of this territory. I would appreciate the use of this letter to voice my approval and desire for this highway at our public hearing, Aug. 22, in Austin.

Your attention and consideration along that route might be used to give auxiliary roads an all-weather topping.

Sincerely yours, Your Name Post, Texas

Of course, the county judge and some of the commissioners are going with Pat Ryan and some of our chamber of commerce boys to Austin for the hearing.

Your letter would show that the people here are behind them when they get up to ask for the road.

It is one road I would be glad to see.

One of my reporters has been trying to get out to Red Sims' for two weeks but I am afraid of the present road in the recent rainy weather. Pavement out that way would help that project some.

I haven't been out in that part of the county recently and I don't really know how the folks in that section into town. Maybe they ride horseback or in planes.

You don't hear too much about those deep oil wells being drilled out by the Garza, Kent, Dickens and Crosby lines, but we may have another field out there some day. This road would be a boon to the oilfield in that area.

Some places along that route the oilfield people have just had to make their own roads. I don't know how they even get in and

Special Tax Reduction Would Be Incentive for Advertising Plan

Babson Park, Mass., I have just been reading a most interesting advertisement of a great steel company.

In effect, it constitutes a report of the progress this company has made in its production of steel plates for ships, bombs, and other war materials. This company has nothing whatever to sell to the general public, but it chooses to buy considerable newspaper space to give the people some encouraging facts.

turally, there is some waste in advertising but 90 per cent of it is to the good. The merchant who pays a bill for advertising expects his ad to "pay its way".

The return in merchandise sales per dollar spent for space is carefully watched.

One Ad Increases Sales In certain types of copy featuring the sale of shoes, dresses, and various other articles of consumer goods, a merchant thinks he can determine an hour after his store opens for business whether or not the advertisement is a success. He fools himself by trying to do this.

Statistics show that money spent on one daily newspaper advertisement will be a factor in increasing sales for a period of some months ahead.

Many believe that the consumer goods industries must now fall off and are curtailing advertising. I cannot necessarily agree with this position. Whatever happens in Korea, the vast machinery of manufacturing and distributing which makes up our great retail trade must be kept running. Newspaper advertising is the best means of making this possible.

Besides, I am more optimistic on the international situation than I have been for years. The Koreans will get such a punishment that it may be a year before Russia gets some other satellite to try the same stunt.

Too many readers accept their newspapers as a matter of course. Newspapers are, however, as important to their communities as are municipal conventions and other services. Probably no single item would be missed more from our daily lives than our local newspaper.

A newspaper is the greatest buy in the world. All newspapers, regardless of size, are highly educational. Unlike other great institutions of learning, however, they are not endowed and must be self-supporting.

Naturally, what keeps a paper going is its advertising revenue. Everyone should help on this as a civic duty.

Service Rendered By Papers. Newspapers are vastly more important to retailers, manufacturers, and the city itself than merely increasing sales.

All kinds of civic and social organizations rely upon free notifications of their activities. We all have more of a stake in the business of advertising than we realize. Our papers not only give us the news each day but the growth of our cities depend upon the prosperity of our local newspapers.

Washington certainly owes a debt to all newspapers whether editorially they are "for" or "agin" the Administration.

Successful manufacturers are campaign of paid publicity with no chance of now getting their money back through immediate increased sales. I hope more local firms will take advantage of the opportunities to advertise which are offered today.

Yes, I am optimistic for advertising for those who will stick to it "rain or shine". Sensible continuous advertising is the best investment that there is.

Advertisers and Taxes. Merchants who cut down advertising appropriations at this time are making a great mistake. Not only do all merchants now need more sales, but those who advertise now get more attention when their competing merchants are not advertising.

Now is the time to advertise. One of the best ways to avoid the "boom or bust" policy would be for Congress to allow a special tax reduction as an incentive for five-year contracts for advertising expenditures. Then instead of merchants spending freely good years, with very little left for lean years, the advertising appropriations would be spent over a five-year period. This would do much to keep business on an even keel which is what we especially need today.

A total of 95 men have managed teams in the American league since it was formed in 1901.

Here's what usually goes into India relish—in case you're wondering! Sweet pickles are the main ingredient with red peppers, onions, cauliflower, and spices for seasoning.

TEXANS IN WASHINGTON By TEX EASLEY Associated Press Washington Service.

Oysters could put a rabbit's sex life to shame. Instead, they are putting Texas to shame.

The state Game, Fish and Oyster Commission vouches for it. One female oyster, the Commission says in a special bulletin just issued, emits as many as 100 million eggs in each spawning.

Another thing, those farmers out along Charlie Fox's mail route have a hard time to keep from miring up in the sand, it would appear. This spring the sand was deeper than snowdrifts in Montana over that way, and if you dropped anything smaller than an egg, it was lost for good.

The way that road runs out to Kalgray now, it has many a crook and turn. I wonder if the plans include straightening them out? Of course, blazing a new trail would be more expensive, I guess, but possibly less dangerous.

That part of the county is getting to look like a stepchild as far as some of the roads are concerned. Buck Gossett's precinct is really looking good—there is a lot of pavement out around Graham.

With electricity, butane and the REA lines, living in the country is just like living in town, except for the lack of nosy neighbors, in places where there is a paved road near.

A state highway wouldn't cost the county anything—I would think. Funds saved by the county on road improvements along that route might be used to give auxiliary roads an all-weather topping.

This is a plan that I would like to see go through, especially for the good of Post merchants. I think they would do well to push it all they could for selfish reasons.

One of our jailbreakers picked that area out there to hide out in, awhile back. I guess he thought it was so wild and woolly the officers couldn't get out there to track him down.

They did, though, searching for him about half a day in the rain. Maybe their job would have been a little easier if they had had some pavement to get out there on quickly.

Kids out in Grassburr and some of that area come a long way into Post to school. Pavement out there would be pretty big help to some of them.

In fact, it looks to me like it would be a good project all around—good roads always are. A couple of years ago, we had a surplus in the highway fund. I don't know that we still have it, but probably some of it is left.

I haven't noticed the gasoline tax going down. Anyway, I believe all of us should be behind this project for our own selfish good, as well as to complete a link in the Broadway to Big Bend highway.

Minute Editorial

We have noticed more double parking during the past month than we have seen in a long time. Of course there is a reason for that but explanation is not justification. Double parking is just as dangerous now as it always was—probably more so because cars are passing in both directions rather than from behind as in the past.

Another hazard is the light on Main and the Lubbock highway. Without a caution light, it is highly dangerous to the pedestrian. Cars speeding through town on the Lubbock highway often ignore the red light. Possibly it changes too quickly for them to stop.

But the luckless pedestrian who starts across the street there has no protection. A red light means no more to motorists than a green, seemingly the same. Courtesy and caution in driving is essential now to self-preservation.

Every motorist should scrupulously observe traffic laws in town and drive by the golden rule. This counts out double parking and running red lights.

What Our Contemporaries Are Saying:

Women's Shoe Styles. And while I am on the subject of women's styles, I might as well get in my gripe about the kind of shoes women are wearing.

The young women especially, seem to have lost all pride in their shoes. Most all of them I see these days wear dirty, lopsided moccasins to everything except formal affairs. They flip, flop around and sound like grandmothers used to sound in her house slippers. It just is not right.

Natural hazards and perils alone are terrific. Water temperature and salinity first must be just right. Then oyster eggs must be fertilized entirely by chance after they are emitted. More often than not, that change is too great.

A fertilized egg that grows into a tiny larva must find a clean surface on which to attach itself to begin building its permanent shell home. No clean surface, no oyster.

Even after shells are built, there still are enemies. Conchs, boring clams and boring sponges drill right into the shell to destroy the oyster or leave it vulnerable to other sea enemies. Muscles can starve oyster by latching onto their shells and funneling all the food out of the water right in front of the oyster's "mouth".

If any oyster overcomes all those perils and a lot of others for two years, it's then a full-grown oyster ready for a cocktail.

That's when one of the worst enemies shows up—the fisherman with time and thought only for today's catch and no regard for where his next oyster will come from. Oysters are frequently hauled out with shell returned to the water to provide the clean surfaces necessary for the little larvae. Private restocking of waters is rare.

With the oyster so badly in need of a friend, the Commission has come to its aid. Planned oyster farming was found probably the best solution. Therein, the Commission believes, is a lucrative venture for private enterprise. The field—introduced in China 2,000 years ago—is wide open in Texas today.

The bottom of any bay in the state may be privately leased for such farming providing it isn't a natural reef, won't hinder navigation or isn't already leased.

The bulletin offers instructions in accepted methods of oyster planting and cultivation for anyone interested in turning depleted reefs into paying oyster farms. Research is underway at experimental plots in and near Aransas Pass to secure additional helpful data on all phases of oyster life and cultivation.

Revised laws are also recommended to help both the oyster and the industry.

The commission hopes it will all add up to 200,000 barrels of oysters again some year.

The Lockney Beacon. Floyd Road Surplus.

Floyd County's part of the surplus in the state road bond assumption fund totals $33,455.61 this year, County Judge G. C. Tubbs has been informed. This is the most that the county has ever received from this fund, Mr. Tubbs said.

Rainfall in Tahoka during the past week has totaled 3.03 inches, two inches of which fell Saturday night and Sunday.

Friday night and Saturday morning, the rainfall amounted to 21 inches, Saturday night and Sunday 1.99, Monday 23, Monday night .10, and Tuesday night and Wednesday .40. No rain fell Wednesday night, but indications were Thursday morning that the rainy spell might not be over yet.

All of Lynn county now has received sufficient moisture, in fact, most of the county has received far more than the farmers desire, and some sections have been flooded by much more rainfall than Tahoka has received.

The Lyon County News. Chest X-Rays Set.

Members of study clubs, business men's organizations, school clubs and other civic and culture groups met Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in the Esquire restaurant at which time committees were appointed to assist with the mass chest X-ray survey that will be conducted here Aug. 30 through Sept. 2.

The purpose of this survey will be to locate cases of tuberculosis, lung cancer and heart trouble so further assistance may be given them. Statistics show that more people die from tuberculosis than any other communicable disease.

I help build Sub Stations? THAT'S RIGHT . . . many a housewife has a lot to say about building your Public Service Company.

How? Through her investments, of course. Whether it be a sub station or a service car, our company is truly "owned" by the stockholders—ministers, doctors, lawyers, teachers—yes, even you or your neighbor . . . and no one of them owns more than 2% of the total stock.

Perhaps you have a savings account—or a life insurance policy—it's pretty certain that some of those funds have been re-invested in your Public Service Company.

And so, you see, we really belong to the people. It's a working example of free enterprise . . . the system that has made America great and strong.

Mr., Mrs. A. P. Hedrick Live in New House on Tahoka Highway

Since about two months ago Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Hedrick have lived in their new home four miles out on the Tahoka highway.

It is on the same floor plan as the house in town belonging to their son, Paul Hedrick. The elder Mrs. Hedrick has made some modifications, including a smaller kitchen and a larger center bedroom.

Of white asbestos shingles, the house faces north, on the highway. A four-foot concrete porch runs across some 20 feet at the front of the living room, shading the picture window. The front door is a slab door with the three small glass panes that are now so popular.

Dimensions of the living-dining room are 12x25 feet. Pale green patterned paper is on the walls. The ceiling is papered white. Mrs. Hedrick's liking for growing plants is revealed throughout the house, with bowls and pots of ivy.

Crossed Priscilla Curtains

White, sheer priscilla crossed curtains are at the picture window. At the side are single narrow windows with venetian blinds and floral draperies. Ceilings and two shades of light green flowers on a darkest green background, the draperies give contrast to the room.

The double window in the dining area on the west of the living room is curtained identically to the picture window at the front. In front of the picture window is a tall occasional table with folding leaves at the sides and drawers in the center. A lamp with a wine base and wine-trimmed white shade adorns this clawfooted period table.

This table matches the glass-topped coffee table in front of the rosy beige two piece sectional sofa. A modified kidney-shaped, the table has shelves at the end and a storage drawer. Ivy is growing in a ceramic pot on this table. It is a Regency style table.

The sectional sofa has a slight curve. Matching it is a massive modern chair. An occasional table by the hall door holds pictures of the Hedrick grandchildren. A pink ceramic-base lamp is on the end table by the sofa.

Sliding Doors
All doors out of the living room are sliding doors. In the west end of the room, Mrs. Hedrick has her modern style limed oak dining suite. It includes an extension table, chairs with lime green seats and a glass-fronted china cabinet-buffet.

The china cabinet holds some of Mrs. Hedrick's treasured possessions. She has a painted cake plate given her the day her first child was born. Another prized item is the glass jelly stand with cover, given her when she was 16. She has a berry set of brown cut glass, in the shape of leaves. An old pitcher and other articles fill the shelves. The kitchen is behind the living-dining room on the southwest. Dimensions are 12x15 feet. Color scheme is bright blue and pale, butter yellow. Blue cabinets, painted yellow inside, go across the south wall and extend around the east side. The large butane range is at the end of the cabinet on the east.

A double sink is under the south window. Cabinets extend above the butane refrigerator on that same wall. Blue tile board wainscots the walls halfway up. Gold rubber tiling is on the floor. Ceiling and upper walls are pale butter yellow. Ivy is growing in hanging pots over the sink.

Storage Under Sink
Ample storage space under the sink is shut in with blue painted cabinet doors. Mrs. Hedrick has pots and pans in the cabinet next to the stove. Groceries are also in the bottom cabinets. Dishes and spices are in the upper shelves.

The dinette set is gray chrome and plastic. It is beside a window on the west. The screen door to the outside on the west is half screen and half wood, painted gray. The house is lighted with electricity.

The master bedroom, next to the kitchen, measures 12½x15 feet. Double windows on the south furnish a cool, pleasant breeze at all times. White priscilla cur-

MOTHER INSTINCT—Sissy, 3-year-old Pekingese, has gone to the cats. The dog, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Guy Bailey of Berger, now is mothering four small kittens. Tommie, the mother cat, isn't happy at all about the situation, but Sissy won't let her anywhere near the offspring. Sissy never has been a real mother, but seems to take to her duties in a maternal fashion.

tains are at the windows. A poster bed is blond, matching the waterfall vanity and chest of drawers. Mr. and Mrs. Hedrick spent a lot of time in their bedroom, sitting in two comfortable rockers. One is upholstered in red and one in blue.

Mrs. Hedrick plans to add a plastic covered divan to the furniture in this room this fall—so the grandchildren can be free to play here. A white chenille spread is on the bed, worked with peach, blue, yellow, lavender and green. Wall paper is somewhat conventionalized blue and pink.

Large Closet
Closet in the master bedroom is large. It contains shelves, storage for blankets and magazines. It is closed with a slab door. All doors in the house are slab. Ceiling fixture is white glass.

A small hall, 5x8 feet in measurements connects the master bedroom with the other bedrooms, living room and bath. It is papered like the living room. The bathroom is 5x10 feet in dimension. Ceiling and walls are painted mauve and blue tile board is used for wainscoting. Blue rubber sheeting is on the floor. Woodwork has a natural finish. Two closets are in the bathroom.

One holds the hot water heater, with storage space beneath. At the side of the tub is the linen closet with space for dirty clothes below. Fixtures are white. A light is over the mirror on the medicine chest.

Southeast Bedroom
The southeast bedroom is where the granddaughters sleep. Papered in blue striped wallpaper with roses, it is 9½x15 feet in dimension. There are two closets in here, one exceptionally wide. Mrs. Hedrick plans to store her machine there and use this room for a sewing room as well as a guest bedroom.

Furnishings include a modern style table, dresser and bed. A Chinese red chenille spread is on the bed. Double windows are on the east with a single window on the south. They are covered with white priscilla curtains.

The front bedroom has two doors on the north and two on the east. The blue light fixture picks up the accent given by the blue valence over the white figured nylon panels at the windows. Bed, chest of drawers and vanity are grayed oak in a modern style. A night table is beside the bed.

Blue Quilted Chintz
Bedspread is slate blue quilted chintz. Wallpaper is peach color, striped with blue and rose flowers. A large closet is in this room, also. Lamp on the night stand has a blue-trimmed white shade on a blue base.

The Hedrick house was built in Lubbock by Joe McLeon and moved down. Although only Mr. and Mrs. Hedrick are at home now, they have three daughters and a son, and they wanted a three-bedroom house to be comfortable when company came. Plans include a breezeway and connected garage on the west. Mrs. Hedrick wants a south door so she can attend to her chickens and outside work more easily.

Grass has been planted in the back and front yards. Mrs. Hedrick's plans include trees and shrubbery.

Duck Creek Board To Meet Thursday At Patton Springs

The Duck Creek Soil Conservation district board of directors will meet next Thursday in Patton Springs, according to members of the local work unit.

Main business on the agenda is the invitation of interested agencies to the September meeting. At that time a fall field tour will be planned. Giles McCrary is board member from this area.

Joint 4-H Rally Set for Aug. 30

A joint rally of 4-H boys and girls has been planned here for Aug. 30. Agents Mrs. Jewell Strasser and Lewis Herron announced this week.

Plans are not complete, but some type of craft will be taught during the first part of the rally. Recreation period will be after supper is served.

Leafworms and Lice Infest Local Crops

Leafworms in damaging numbers have been spotted around the county, L. C. Herron, county agriculture agent, reports. Some damage is being caused by lice.

There are very few bollworms, this far, he said. If there is any major infestation, it will show up about Aug. 10, he said. Then farmers should put out poison.

County Agent Goes To Lubbock Saturday

Mrs. Jewell Strasser, county home demonstration agent, will be in Lubbock Saturday conferring with Miss Kate Adele Hill, district agent.

A district meeting will be held there Aug. 17. Members of the marketing committee are expected to attend, Mrs. Strasser said.

Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Day and son, Victor, spent Sunday afternoon in Floydada with Mr. and Mrs. Glen Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Richardson and son, Ronnie Gil, of Idalou, have returned to Post to make their home. They plan to open a business here soon.

Mr. Link Robinson, 519 Lindsey, is the most content and satisfied man in Newport, Ky. In fact, he says there isn't a thing in the world that can irritate or upset him now that he is on the HADACOL band wagon. If there ever was a man who thought HADACOL is the most wonderful thing in the world, it is Link Robinson, since he learned that his system lacked Vitamins B₁, B₂, Iron, and Niacin.

Here is what Mr. Robinson has to say about HADACOL, which is now supplying liberal quantities of these essential elements: "I have been a steel worker for over twenty years. When you are a steel worker, you have to do plenty of good, hard work, and you need lots of good, substantial food. But when a stomach is in as bad a shape as mine was, I couldn't eat. I had gas pains, stomach bloating and nervousness; well, I just couldn't eat the proper foods I needed. My boss told me about HADACOL and I started taking it immediately. After the second bottle I could tell a definite improvement. Now I can eat the foods I need to eat to really be on the job. In fact, I can eat anything I want to. I am not nervous anymore, either. Best of all, I haven't got those terrific gas pains and no more stomach bloating. HADACOL is the best ever. I recommend HADACOL to everyone."

HADACOL is Different Countless thousands are benefiting from HADACOL... even hundreds of doctors are recommending HADACOL to their patients whose systems lack Vitamins B₁, B₂, Iron, and Niacin. HADACOL is so wonderful because HADACOL helps build up the hemoglobin content of your blood (when Iron is needed) to carry these precious Vitamins and Minerals to every organ, and every part of your body—to the heart, liver, kidneys and lungs, even to the eyes, hair and nails. Give remarkable HADACOL a chance and if you don't feel better with the first few bottles you take—you get your money back. It looks like the Armed Services are in for a big expansion and their sports programs probably will keep pace.

Talk about calling in the reserves, resumption of the draft, etc., recalls the circumstances under which probably the greatest football team ever to play in Texas—And maybe anywhere—was assembled.

This was the Randolph Field
Air Force election of 1944.

Randolph Field, the "West Point of the Air" in pre-war days, was always sports-minded. Still is.

During World War II a number of extremely fine football players showed up as flyers, crewmen and what have you at the big base just north of San Antonio. They fielded a fine football team in 1943—one good enough to tie Texas, 7-7, in the 1944 Cotton Bowl game in Dallas. But it was in 1944 that the Ramblers reached their peak.

If you'll recall, this is the team that had dozens of headline players. It was loaded with All-American talent and men who were veterans of the National Professional football league.

Pete Layden, Bill Dudley, Jack Russell, Jake Leicht, were just a few on the squad.

This was the team that bowed over every team it met—by topheavy scores in most instances. And it played such Southwest Conference teams as Rice and the University of Texas.

It was also the team that came off victorious in one of the greatest games ever played in the Southwest. That was the tilt with the Third Airforce at San Antonio.

Folks in San Antonio in 1944 figured the Third Airforce got all the good football players Randolph Field couldn't get.
Charley Trippi was one.

It's doubtful if another such team could be assembled by any branch of the Armed Forces unless there was general mobilization. But it would be wonderful to watch if it were.

Southwest Conference Teams To Top Nation If Victorious in Fall Schedule

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Editor

The Southwest Conference football schedule for this fall has been completed and there never was a tougher one.

The Southwest can rightfully lay claim to national leadership by winning a majority in the gaudy schedule of intersectional games.

Twenty-one teams from other sections will be played and conference members will meet top eleven from every area—
The Pacific coast, west, midwest, south and east.

Appearing on the intersectional card are Nevada, Oklahoma, Virginia Military Institute, Oklahoma A&M, Vanderbilt,
Tulsa, Wyoming, Mississippi
State, Pittsburgh, Georgia Tech,
Ohio State, Missouri, Kansas,
Mississippi and Purdue.

Conference teams will travel to California, Oklahoma, Wyoming, Louisiana, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Missouri, Kansas and Tennessee.

The composite schedule of the conference shows 49 games, 21 of them intersectional and 21 of conference, while Texas Tech will be played five times, North Texas State once and University of Houston, once.

For the first time in history
there will be a double-header.
It is probably the first time for major colleges anywhere to play two games on one date. Texas meets Oklahoma in the afternoon in the Cotton Bowl at Dallas Oct. 14. That night Southwestern Methodist plays Oklahoma
A&M.

First games are scheduled Sept. 23 with Texas A&M meeting Nevada at Sacramento, Calif., Arkansas tackling Oklahoma A&M at Little Rock in a night tilt. Baylor engaging Wyoming at Laramie, Wyo. Southwestern Methodist battling Georgia Tech at Dallas in a night game.
Texas Christian playing Kansas at Lawrence, Kans., and Texas taking on Texas Tech at Lubbock.

The remainder of the schedule:
Sept. 30—Texas A&M vs. Texas Tech at San Antonio (night), Arkansas vs. North Texas State at Fayetteville, Baylor vs. University of Houston at Waco, Rice vs. Santa Clara at Houston (night), Southern Methodist vs. Ohio State at Columbus, O.,
Texas Christian vs. Oklahoma
A&M at Stillwater, Okla., Purdue vs. Texas at Austin.

Oct. 7—Oklahoma vs. Texas
A&M at Norman, Okla., Arkansas vs. Texas Christian at Fort Worth (night), Baylor vs. Miss-sissippi State at Shreveport, La., (night), Rice vs. Louisiana State at Houston (night) Southwestern Methodist vs. Missouri at Columbia.

Oct. 14—Texas A&M vs. VMI at College Station (night), Arkansas vs. Baylor at Fayetteville, Rice vs. Pittsburgh at Pittsburgh, Southern Methodist vs.
Oklahoma A&M at Dallas (night), Texas Christian vs.
Texas Tech at Fort Worth (night), Texas vs. Oklahoma at Dallas.

Oct. 21—Texas A. and M. vs.
Texas Christian at College Station, Arkansas vs. Texas at Austin, Baylor vs. Texas Tech at

Babe Ruth's 60 RHs Came Off 32 Hurlers

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—Babe Ruth's home run total of 60 in 1927 was unusual in many respects. No one pitcher was his favorite pigeon.

The Babe garnered his total at the expense of 32 different hurlers. Babe Walberg at the Athletics and Milton Gaston of the Browns both served him four home run pitches.

Seven pitchers saw Ruth hit their tosses for homers on three occasions. They were Hollis Thurston, Tom Zachary, Joe Shaute, W. B. Harris, Al Thomas, Ken Holloway and Tony Welzer.

The Boston Red Sox pitchers led the gopher ball league as far as Ruth was concerned. He blasted 11 balls out of the park against five Boston pitchers.
Though the Athletics finished second to the Yankees, four A's hurlers were the victims of nine Ruthian wallops.

The local softball team, sponthe Floydada tourney, losing out to Lunchbox 7-5 in 10 innings.

Lunchbox scored on an error in the second inning and it was not until the fourth that Junior Malouf knocked a home run to tie the score. A Lunchbox man knocked another homer in the fifth to see his team forge ahead.

Roy Williams got a home run off a fluke hit over first in the seventh, tying the score once again. In the top of the tenth, Lunchbox got five runs across the plate and Post was able to get only three in the bottom.

Monk Gibson, manager, singled, Bo James doubled and Gene Hays tripled for the scores. Hugh Ingram pitched the first five innings and then was relieved by James. Williams caught.

Last night the locals played O'Donnell here. They go back to Floydada tonight to compete in the double elimination tourney.
Post will meet a team from Mc-Coy.

I like golf, too, but needle-point is fascinating," he commented.
"It helps with my surgery, too," he added. "For one thing, it keeps my fingers nimble."

One of Dr. Haley's completed

Miss Alma Floyd Marries Glenn Mauer Wednesday

Miss Alma Floyd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy T. Floyd, became the bride of Glenn R. Mauer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Mauer of Cuero, last evening in the Floyd home.

Mrs. Ray N. Smith, pianist, played a prelude of wedding music and accompanied Miss La-Rue Stevens who sang "All The Things You Are" and "Because." Mrs. Smith also played the traditional wedding marches.

The Rev. T. M. Gilliam, pastor of the First Baptist church, performed the double ring ceremony at 8:30 o'clock. The couple stood underneath an archway, placed before a picture window, decorated with yellow and white gladioli. Bridal aisles were marked with white satin ribbon.

Given By Father
The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white slipper satin gown fashioned with a chantilly lace-trimmed scalloped-edge yoke, a fitted bodice, long sleeves tapering to a point over the hands and a full skirt which extended into a long train. Her full length veil of imported illusion was trimmed with wide lace and was attached to a seed pearl tiara. She carried a bouquet of gladioli atop a white Bible.

Miss Nell Floyd attended her sister as maid of honor. She wore a chartruese satin gown fashioned with a scalloped neckline, fitted bodice and full skirt. She carried a bouquet of melon gladioli.

Giles Dalby attended the bridegroom as best man. Jerry Rainwater of Snyder, cousin of the bride was ring bearer.

A reception was held after the ceremony. The refreshment table was laid with an ecru lace cloth and centered with an arrangement of white and yellow gladioli and candelabra. Punch and cake were served to 30 guests by Misses Frances Benson and Martha Norman, of Rule, a former college roommate of the bride.

Wedding Trip
For a wedding trip to Ruidoso, N. M., the bride wore an ecru linen suit trimmed in brown with brown nylon blouse and gloves, ecru linen hat trimmed in brown and ecru bag. Her corsage was of white gladioli. Upon their return the couple will be at home in the Terry apartments.

Mrs. Mauer is a graduate of Post high school and attended West Texas State College in Canyon where she was a member of Kappa Tau Phi. The bridegroom is a graduate of Cuero high school and attended Texas A&M and Texas A&I where he was a member of Alpha Chi.

Out-of-town guests here for the wedding included Mrs. Charles F. Mauer and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Mauer of Cuero; Mrs. Haywood Mauer of Port Lavaca; Mrs. D. E. Pennington of San Antonio; Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Dalton of Gruver; Martha Norman; Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Rainwater and Mrs. R. B. Hester of Snyder.

Tea Shower
The bride was honored at a miscellaneous tea shower in the home of Mrs. C. W. Terry Monday of last week. Hostesses were Mrs. Terry were Mrs. Reece Bivens, Mrs. L. W. Dalby, Mrs. L. H. Ingram, Mrs. Jack Taylor and Mrs. R. B. Dodson.

The Terry home was attractively decorated with floral arrangements. A mirror decorated with wedding bells was lettered "Am and Glenn, August 2." Recorded selections were played throughout the afternoon by

Girl Scouts Name Janice Barrow, Linda Randolph

Janice Barrow was elected scribe and Linda Randolph was named secretary when a troop of girl scouts met last Wednesday night at the city hall.

CHURCH NEWS

By GANELL BABB

Scripture:

Brethren, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saved. For I bear them record that they have a zeal of God, but not according to knowledge. For they being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God. For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth. For Moses describeth the righteousness which is of the law, That the man which doeth those things shall live by them. But the righteousness which is of faith speaketh on this wise, Say not in thine heart, Who shall ascend into heaven? (that is, to bring Christ down from above;) Or, Who shall descend into the deep? (that is, to bring up Christ again from the dead.) But what saith it? The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith, which we preach; That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised from the dead, thou shalt be saved. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation. Romans 10:1-10

August 11-20 is the date set for the revival meeting at the Southland Baptist church. The Rev. Henry H. Gray, pastor, will conduct the services. Morning services will be at 10:30 o'clock and evening services at 8 o'clock.

The Louise Chapman chapter of the W.F.M.S. will present a program and special music at 7:30 o'clock at the Nazarene church Sunday evening.

Van Earl Hughes, a Missionary from Costa Rica, spoke at the evening worship hour at the First Baptist church Sunday evening. The RA's of the church recently named their chapter for the missionary.

The Calvary Baptist GA's were guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Norris and children and the Rev. and Mrs. O. L. Jones at a picnic in Mackenzie park in Lubbock last Thursday evening. Attending were Christine and Loretta Blodgett, Johnnie Fay Graham, Lottie May Mathis, Joyceelyn and Alice Fay Kiker, Joan Odom, Joy Evans, Nora Jones, LaJuan Davis, Kay Anthony, Rhea Hays and Glenda Pierce.

Forrest Moyer directed the singing for a revival at Carey last week. His brother, Otis, of Sunnyvale, Calif., preached for the services. Another brother, Loyd, of San Leandro, Calif., attended.

Good attendance is being reported at the revival in progress at the First Baptist church this week. Hoyt A. Mulkey of Amarillo is directing the musical program and Harold P. Reeves of Shreveport, La., is the evangelist. The public is cordially invited to attend daily at 7:30 a. m. and 8:00 p. m.

The Louise Chapman circle of the W.F.M.S. of the church of the Nazarene met for a picnic at the home of the pastor and his wife, the Rev. and Mrs. H. E. McClain, Monday evening. Gifts from secret pairs were opened. Ten members, six guests and five new members were present.

A progressive gospel meeting is being held at the Graham Church of Christ this week. Trine Starnes of Waco is conducting the services. J. O. Reed of the Gordon community is leading the song service.

The Rev. L. H. Newcomb of Vivian, La., is the evangelist for the revival meeting which began at the Grassland church of the Nazarene last evening. Music is under the direction of local talent. The Rev. William Dorrough is pastor.

Robert Dean and W. H. Carlton are visiting this week in Roby with their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Owens.

John Malouf Weds Eleanor E. Emmett

Saint Austin's chapel in Austin was the scene Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock when Miss Eleanor Elaine Emmett became the bride of John Bedder Malouf.

Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Malouf, sr., of Post are parents of the bridegroom. Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hobson Emmett of Dallas are parents of the bride.

Palms, candles and flowers decorated the chapel with the altar covered with white gladioli. Mitchell Malouf was his son's best man. Ushers were brothers of the bridegroom, Mitchell, Jr., and Tommy of Post, and Buddy Malouf of Borger.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a bridal gown of shell white nylon tulle over satin, designed with a heart-shaped neckline. The crushed tulle sleeves tapered to petal points over her hands. Tiny satin-covered buttons highlighted the shirred bodice and bouffant skirt which was worn over hoops.

Skirt Ends in Train
The skirt extended into a formal train. A crown of seed pearls held the fingertip veil of French illusion. She carried a bouquet of white calla lilies and a pearl rosary belonging to her mother.

The Rev. George W. Johnson read the single ring ceremony. The bride's cousin, Miss Janelle Joseph, was organist. Attendants wore yellow organdy eyelet dresses and lace Juliet caps. Their bouquets were green daisies.

Mrs. C. A. Norton of Austin, the bride's aunt, was matron of honor. Her sister, Miss Sybil Emmett, was maid of honor. Another sister, Mrs. James W. Brown, and a cousin, Miss Carola Joseph, of Austin, were bridesmaids.

Cousins of the bride, Carola Jo Norton and Suzanne Joseph, both of Austin, were flower girls.

Grandmother Entertains
Preceding the wedding, the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Emma Joseph, and her uncle, Cecil Joseph, entertained at their home with a luncheon for 85 people. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Malouf, sr., Mitchell Malouf, jr., Tommy Malouf of Post, Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Malouf of Borger and Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Lotief of Rotan, among others.

A reception was held immediately after the wedding at the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Joseph. The double ring wedding cake was connected with orange blossoms and iced in shell pink.

Miss Norma Joseph and Miss Shirley Emmett registered guests and served the cake. A buffet supper was served to 115 guests.

For a wedding trip to Grand Canyon and Yosemite National park, Mrs. Malouf chose a pale blue wool crepe suit, a velvet hat and matching alligator bag and shoes. After two weeks, the couple will live at Cheri Casa in Lubbock. He is owner of Malouf's store there.

Mrs. Malouf attended Brescia college and the University of Texas. Her husband is a graduate of Post high school and Texas Technological college. He served two years in the army.

Mollie Washburn Weds J. McAfee

Miss Mollie Washburn became the bride of Johnnie McAfee of Overton Saturday in Lovington, N. M.

Attendants of the couple were their sister and brother, Cedeella Washburn and Horace McAfee.

BITS OF NEWS—Gathered Over Town

Farmer Has Only 10 Days To File For Free Classing

Farmers have only 10 more days to file their applications for free government classing and market news services, Leil O. Buchanan said today.

Buchanan is in charge of the Lubbock cotton classing office, U. S. Department of Agriculture's Production and Marketing administration.

August 15 is the deadline for filing applications for these services due all farmers who belong to organized cotton improvement groups.

Last year, 98.6 per cent of the cotton ginnings in this area were classed by the Lubbock cotton office. This cotton was classed for farmers without cost under the Smith-Doxey Act, Mr. Buchanan reported.

Applications should be mailed to County Agent Lewis Herron or to Buchanan, 1701 Avenue H, Lubbock.

Preston Smith Says Thank You Voters

Preston Smith, candidate for lieutenant governor, asked the Post Dispatch to express his appreciation to Garza counties for their vote.

Smith, who carried West Texas, said, "I am most grateful for their (the voters) efforts and consideration in behalf of my candidacy for lieutenant governor."

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Welch and family spent Monday through Wednesday of last week in San Angelo. Mrs. Welch's mother, Mrs. Maggie Martin, returned home with them and stayed until Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Bull returned home Sunday after a week's vacation in New Mexico and Colorado.

Cotton Classing School in Lubbock Set Aug. 14-25

County Agent L. C. Herron, with the cooperation of the Cotton Branch of the Production and Marketing administration, announces the dates for the 2nd Annual Farmers' Cotton classing school.

The school will be held Aug. 14-Aug. 25 at the Government Classing office, 1701 Avenue H, Lubbock, under the direction of L. O. Buchanan.

The school is being conducted better acquaint themselves with for farmers who raise cotton to the classification of cotton as well as the marketing of their product. They will learn why there may be a variance in the classification of cotton even though the cotton comes off the same trailer. There are many other questions relative to cotton classing and the marketing of cotton that will be answered for you.

Any cotton farmer may attend the school free of charge. All farmers are urged to attend. Classes will be held daily from 9 o'clock in the morning to 4 o'clock in the afternoon Mondays through Fridays. You may attend one, two, five, or the entire ten days. A certificate of attendance will be given to all farmers who attend five or more days.

If you plan to attend, notify Herron or the Cotton Classing office, 1701 Avenue H, Lubbock, as soon as possible.

Sgt. Hazen Ricker Ends Band Course At Bolling Field

Sgt. Hazen R. Ricker, 26, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray W. Ricker of Post, was recently graduated from the advanced instrumental course at the USAF Bandsman school at Bolling Air Force Base, according to an announcement by Lt. Col. George S. Howard, director of the United States Air Force band. He has returned to his home base, Goodfellow AF Base. Sergeant Ricker, a veteran of more than eight years service in the Air Force, served 28 months overseas with the 8th AF and participated in 70 combat missions in the European Theater of Operations. Sergeant Ricker was a volunteer gunner in a B-17, heavy bomber. He will play a French horn with the 669th AF band at Goodfellow AF base.

Prior to his enlistment, Sergeant Ricker attended school in Slaton and graduated from high school in 1941 at Post. He was a contract worker for the Slaton steam laundry in Texas.

Mrs. Ricker, the former Joan Hazel Wyatt, an English war bride of Wembley in Middlesex, England, with her two sons, Allan David, 4, and Ian Frank, 1, are living at 408 Allen street, San Angelo, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Caffey, jr., and daughter, Sammie Kay, who have been living in Abilene the past several months, have returned here to make their home. He is employed by Mailard Supply company.

Mr. and Mrs. M. K. Bingham and daughter, Margaret, spent Wednesday through Sunday of last week in DeLeon with Mrs. Bingham's father, G. H. Moore.

Margie Brooks of Morton spent the weekend here in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Odean Cummings and daughter, Cheri.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Compton have returned from a two-week vacation. The first week was spent in Itasca and Waco. During the second week, they went to Ruidoso with Mrs. Compton's parents, the Dick Roaches.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Dye and children visited last week in Snyder, Merke, and Abilene.

No Damage Results From Fire Monday
No damage resulted from the fire at Norris Radiator shop Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock. A gas tank was being welded and caught fire. The Post Volunteer Fire department answered the call.

Arno Dalby Buys Arizona Truck Line--Plans to Extend to Coast-to-Coast Setup

Arno Dalby, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Dalby of Post, has taken over Southwestern Red Ball Freight Lines in Phoenix, Ariz.

According to a feature story in the Phoenix Gazette, Dalby started driving his own truck in Post in 1927. He hauled general merchandise in this area of West Texas. By December, 1938, his motor freight line was operating over 3500 miles in New Mexico and Colorado, as well as Texas. Then he incorporated it.

Dalby was commanding officer of the district transportation office in Denver from 1942 to 1944. He entered the transportation corps at the Army's request in 1942.

Early in the war, he sold his company, but bought it back in 1947. He consolidated it with another line the same year, calling his business The Intercity Motor Express, abbreviated to TIME. Headquarters were in Lubbock.

TIME'S connection west from El Paso was Southwestern, so Dalby bought half interest in it. He plans to expand the 1600-mile Los Angeles to Oklahoma City route to coast to coast coverage.

It is better not to freeze custard. Meringue toppings are apt to toughen, shrink, separate and to stick to the wrappers.

Freeze Successfully
Either baked or unbaked shells can be successfully frozen. Graham cracker shells are also suited to freezing. Meat pies are excellent subjects for the locker, says Mrs. Strasner.

It does not matter, the agent avers, whether the pies are cooked or not—both types freeze with good results. A coating of two parts shortening to one part of flour should be spread over the pie plate before the pastry is put in. This prevents a soggy bottom crust. After lining the pan with pastry, brush a film of melted fat over it. This acts as a sealer and further prevents the pastry from becoming soggy. When lining the pie with frozen fruit, Mrs. Strasner lets the fruit thaw just enough to handle. She pours off excess juice and thickens the remainder with cornstarch or tapioca. This is cooled and poured over the fruit. The pie is filled then and frozen immediately.

"If the pie is to be frozen unbaked," Mrs. Strasner warns, "do not stick or cut holes in the crust until you are actually ready to bake."

Cool Pie Rapidly
She says to cool a baked pie rapidly, then place it, unwrapped, in the freezer. Both types freeze faster unwrapped and they are easier to wrap after freezing. Before wrapping, place another pie plate over the top to protect the crust.

"When you are ready to use the pie," says Mrs. Strasner, "place the unbaked one in the oven while still frozen. Bake at 425 to 450 degrees Fahrenheit for about 15 or 20 minutes. Complete baking at 350 degrees. The baked fruit or vegetable pie should be heated in a 350-degree oven." Since frozen pies are bulky, Mrs. Strasner suggests freezing a package of pie mix in a container. A pint container holds enough to fill one pie of the 8-inch size.

Ingredients Frozen
Ingredients for squash, pumpkin and sweet potato pies which may be mixed together and frozen include milk, thickening agent, sweetening, eggs and spices, except cloves. When ready to use, partially thaw in the original container, then add all other ingredients, if necessary.

Mrs. Strasner warns against storing pies for more than eight weeks at zero unless the crust is made with shortening containing an antioxidant. An antioxidant, she points out, prevents it from becoming rancid. "Most cakes and cupcakes can be frozen satisfactorily," Mrs. Strasner says. "The cake can be baked on a slack day, then frozen and stored until needed. It the batter is frozen, results are quite uncertain because the batter may lose some of its rising capacity during freezing and thawing."

It is simpler to thaw out a baked cake than to thaw the batter, bake and cool it. Mrs. Strasner feels that baking before freezing is not practical from the standpoint of time, work and quality of the finished product.

To Freeze Baked Cake
To freeze a baked cake, cool completely before packaging. If it is to be eaten in a few days, the type of wrapping material

COURTHOUSE WINDMILL—This windmill on the lawn of the courthouse at Plainview is one of the few remaining from the early days of the South Plains city. An untold number of windmills, used by cattlemen and farmers to supply domestic water, have disappeared from the modern scene.

ANOTHER FROZEN FOOD SHOW SET

Another 16 is the tentative date set by Mrs. Wilma Keeney, Lubbock home economist, and Mrs. Jewell Strasner, local home demonstration agent, for another frozen food demonstration.

Mrs. Keeney will show the picture on freezing foods again and she and Mrs. Strasner will give a demonstration on putting baked goods in the locker, as well as putting an entire meal in front of an electric fan reduces thawing time about one-third. "When properly wrapped, baked cakes remain in top condition for three to four months," Mrs. Strasner reveals. "Fruit cakes may be stored much longer."

Cookies may be frozen either baked or unbaked with excellent results accruing from either method. Freezing the dough is the simplest method, Mrs. Strasner believes. It uses less space in the freezer but naturally requires more work before serving than the other way.

Shape Dough in Roll
"Shape dough for refrigerator cookies into a roll of the desired size," says the agent. "Wrap in locker paper and freeze. When ready to use, remove from freezer and slice with a sharp knife. Place on greased cookie sheet and bake in usual manner."

Mrs. Strasner lists an alternate method of chilling the dough in the refrigerator for several hours and slicing it into cookies before freezing. Unbaked cookies may be packaged in layers in frozen food containers, separated with two sheets of waxed paper. Mrs. Strasner suggests making as few layers as possible to avoid crushing. When ready to bake, place them on a greased cookie sheet and proceed.

Drop cookie dough must be packed in frozen food containers. It is thawed until soft enough to drop by spoonfuls onto greased sheets before baking. Cookie dough frozen in pans may be slipped into the oven without previous thawing. The layer of dough is shallow enough that it will thaw out rapidly in the oven. When dough is packaged in containers, it should be thawed until it can be transferred easily into the baking pan. Bread and rolls may be frozen unbaked—another boon to the housewife. When proper storage methods are followed, the baked rolls will be just as light and tender after freezing as they were before.

Effect of Freezing Yeast
"Results cannot always be predicted when unbaked rolls are put in the freezer," Mrs. Strasner warns. "There is still much to learn about the effect of freezing yeast. Unbaked dough sometimes loses its rising capacity after being frozen and thawed. Texture may be tougher and volume smaller."

She suggests using a favorite plain or sweet roll recipe and baking in the usual manner. After baking, take out of pans and cool to room temperature. Then wrap in moisture proof paper or package in regular frozen food containers.

Reheat baked rolls in their sealed wrappings after freezing. A 250 to 300 degree oven is best for about 15 minutes. The rolls can be removed to a paper bag or aluminum foil and heated in the oven in the same way as day old rolls, except for a longer time. This reheating freshens the rolls.

Thaw in Wrapper
"Thaw baked breads in original wrapper at room temperature," advises the agent. "It thaws quickly because it contains very little moisture. Slices of frozen bread can be put directly into the toaster."

Baked products such as bread and cookies should not be stored more than three months.

When freezing shaped or bulk dough, allow it to rise until double in bulk. Shape into rolls, rings or loaves, then freeze. Quicker freezing is accomplished when the dough is flat, about one or one and a half inches thick. All surfaces should be greased. Two sheets of locker paper should be placed between the layers which should then be packaged in moisture proof containers.

Quick breads such as baking powder biscuits, muffins and nut breads may be frozen baked or unbaked. Methods are similar to those used for yeast breads. They should not be stored longer than two to four weeks.

Male Death Rate Is High in Italy Today

ROME, Aug. 2. (P)—Although there are a million more women than men in Italy, the male death rate is higher than the female rate, the official Statistical Institute reports. In 1948, the report said, 247,469 males died compared with 238,060 female deaths. In the first nine months of 1949 the totals were: male deaths, 183,180; female deaths, 177,611.

'New Realism' Is Pushed by Reds In Hungary Now

VIENNA, Aug. 2. (P)—Realism is not realism if it portrays things as they really are. In that case it's naturalism which only reflects decadence.

That's the latest art lesson being taught in Hungary, according to reports reaching Vienna. Hungarian artists have been told to adopt "heroic realism" as practiced in the Soviet Union. "Heroic realism" shows things as they ought to be. For those artists who are in need of ideas, the Communist Party has issued the following "suggested" themes:

Border patrols arresting an imperialist spy. The state prosecutor demanding a heavy sentence for a traitor to the Hungarian People's Democracy. The minister of interior listening to a police choir singing Russian songs. Matys Rakosi, Communist boss in Hungary, cutting the first bread in the "Festival of the New Bread". Economic minister Ernoe Geroc offering the thanks of the Hungarian worker to Premier Stalin.

He Has No Excuse For Being Tardy

GLENDALE, Calif., Aug. 2. (P)—F. Greenwood is a clock maker and collector who has several rare models including:

A cuckoo clock from which pops a quail every 15 minutes and cuckoo every hour. A clock which is its own pendulum and ticks back and forth with each tick. A Japanese clock in a gilded cage, equipped with a canary which tries to escape every hour. A 1731 English model which has 14 bells and 28 hammers and can play six different tunes. A clock with a built-in thermometer and barometer.

Old Age Formula - Just Be a Teetotaler

BERKELEY, Calif., Aug. 2. (P)—A pocket mouse which never drank water or other liquid has died here at the age of six years.

That is a fabulous age for such a mouse which usually lives only about a year in its natural desert home.

Dr. Seth B. Benson, who caught the mouse near San Diego, says it consumed only small amounts of bird seed. Apparently it got all water it needed from the dry seed. He says many desert animals have body processes which use very small amounts of water.

Form Lips in Square Then Burst into Song

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 2. (P)—Want to learn to sing? Then be a "square lipper," says William Ernest Ross, associate professor of voice at Indiana university.

Form your lips into a square, throw back your shoulders and burst into song. And don't be afraid to show your upper and lower front teeth, either, he says.

Other pointers thrown out by the professor are: Don't smile when you sing. You're more likely to yell than sing if you do. Don't sing with "lazy lips." If your lips are relaxed, they will tend to muffle your voice.

Frogs Whoop It Up To Annoy Neighbors

PASADENA, Calif., Aug. 2. (P)—For weeks residents of Glen Summer Road complained of "loud and strange noises," which they attributed to power lines.

The light department sent out a trouble crew on a night when, one sleepless citizen said, "the noise vibrated the entire house." The crew's findings: a bunch of bullfrogs in a nearby swamp were whooping it up.

"This department has no remedy," a spokesman sadly announced.

India Needs Sugar - Domestic Crop Off

NEW DELHI, Aug. 2. (P)—India must import 100,000 tons of sugar to meet essential needs during the present year, the food ministry has announced.

Indian domestic sugar production was short of the target figure last year and this year's crop also appears likely to be less than hoped. The possibility of making up the shortage with purchases from Formosa or Cuba is being investigated.

Strong Backs Valued Above Weak Minds

INDORE, India, Aug. 2. (P)—The highest paid laborers at the Chambal Hydroelectric project in Madhya Bharat state are the donkeys.

The government hires them at the rate of two rupees (42 cents) a day to carry stones to the construction site. Men get one and one-half rupees and the women one rupee a day.

TV SET IS SHOT

CHICAGO, Aug. 2. (P)—Two robbers picked up a television set in Donald De Frain's store. They toted it out the door, put it on the running board of their car and drove away. De Frain snatched up a gun, ran out and fired a series of shots. He didn't hit the robbers but the last two bullets plunked into the TV set.

Israeli Union Acts Also as Employer

TEL AVIV, Israel, Aug. 2. (P)—Histadrut—the powerful Jewish General Federation of Labor—is setting up a big purchasing and marketing organization for industries in all villages and cities of Israel.

It is called "Hamshavek." Its objective are two-fold: to obtain raw materials for Histadrut industries in immigrants' settlements and towns and cities, and to handle the wholesale marketing of products of these industries.

Israel's federation of labor is unique in that it not only represents workers who are members of trade unions, but in many instances is itself their employer.

Workers in India May Take Over Mill

LUCKNOW, India, Aug. 2. (P)—Workers may take over administration of a cotton mill closed on the ground that production was uneconomic.

Officials of the Indian National Trade Union congress and of the Ramchandra Cotton mills of Hathras are working out an agreement which would give the workers the responsibility for running the mill.

Tahitian Deputy Gets Salary Staying Put

PARIS, Aug. 2. (P)—Poovaman Oopa has held a seat in the French National assembly as a deputy from Tahiti since his election last October, and has yet to make an appearance in Paris.

Instead, so far as is known here, he is still in Tahiti and intends to remain there. This has not interfered with his salary. A clerk said that Oopa is drawing roughly $3,000 a year as a deputy.

University Music Falls on Deaf Ears

SASKATOON, Aug. 2. (P)—The university summer school music class was moved to the school for the deaf because after numerous complaints of noise, university officials decided to shift the students to "where no one could hear them."

POLICE ON THE JUMP

CHICAGO, Aug. 2. (P)—The police received a telephone report that a nude woman was about to jump off the roof of a hotel on Michigan avenue.

A squad rushed to the scene and found a woman in a flesh colored bathing suit talking a sun bath.

"Somebody," the officers concluded, "jumped to the wrong conclusion."

Dr. and Mrs. Glenn Kahler attended a medical meeting in Lubbock Tuesday night. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Redman and sons, Jack and Dan, are vacationing in New Orleans.

Newberrys To Mark 70th Wedding Anniversary at Graham Home Monday

Monday, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Newberry will begin their 71st year together. Seventy years ago — Aug. 7, 1880 — they were married in a double wedding at the home of a neighbor. A Methodist minister performed the ceremony.

The wedding was held near Livingston, Tenn. Mrs. Newberry is the former Rinda Sells. Seventy years have dimmed the memory of some details, but she remembers that her wedding dress was a light-color, with flowers on it.

Mr. Newberry's cousin, John Fryer, and his bride stood up with them and were married in the same ceremony.

Mrs. Newberry says that in their married life they have never had any fusses, fights or separations. "Of course, we've had a few spat," she admits.

Each Blesses Himself
"He is deaf so he does as he pleases and I am blind so I do as I please and we don't bother each other," Mrs. Newberry elaborated.

The Newberrys retired from farming four or five years ago. Previously, Mrs. Newberry worked right beside her husband. She walked behind a single horse, plowing three times to the row, she says. On their first farm in Tennessee, they worked only one horse.

She has a picture made several years ago showing her riding a disc and driving four horses. Mr. Newberry is standing off to the side—returning to the car, according to unkind friends. Newberry says this is no joke.

At present, Newberry's nephew, Harrison Newberry, lives with them and does the farming. He and his wife are company to the elder Newberrys.

Only One Daughter
Their only daughter was born before they left Tennessee. They named her Mandy. The wife of Z. P. Lusk, she died here during the flu epidemic of 1918. They have two grandchildren, Mrs. Schuyler Boothe of Paducah and Bob Lusk of Graham. Their two great-grandchildren are Mandy and Lucy Nell Lusk.

Mr. and Mrs. Newberry plan no special commemoration of their anniversary Monday. They do expect the Bob Lusks to come over and perhaps the Boothes from Paducah. The first time the Newberrys came to Texas, in 1888, they settled at Weatherford and Arlington, staying a year. They went back to Tennessee and remained a month before returning to Texas.

Before coming to Post in 1914 from Sulfur, Okla., the Newberrys had lived in several other states. They included Kentucky, Missouri and California, according to Mr. Newberry. Hauled in Lumber
When they came here, they had to build a house on their farm near Graham. At that time, lumber had to be hauled by wagon from Colorado City. While their house was being built, they lived with the Clay Teague family in their son-in-law's house. Then their son-in-law and daughter came from Oklahoma that fall.

When Mrs. Lusk died, the Newberrys stayed with their son-in-law and grandchildren until planting time. Then when he started farming again, they moved back home. "I liked Oklahoma pretty well," Mrs. Newberry says. They lived in several different parts of Texas before settling at Graham to stay.

Mr. Newberry does most of the housework, since he can see the better of the two. Although she is blind, she is not in the least helpless. She gets around in the house as well as some women 30 years younger. The Newberrys are generous to friends and visitors, always having some small gift for those who call. Mrs. Newberry searches out the old flax wheel she used to spin with and demonstrates it for the visitor. She explains how in her younger days, all cloth was spun and woven at home. Parents Approved

Mrs. Newberry recalls that her parents were not at all opposed to her marriage. She and Mr. Newberry were married before

'charivaris' became popular, she says. She also remembers the Tennessee country as quite a contrast to bare West Texas. "There were trees, hills, rocks, branches in Tennessee," she says. "The country is a lot different than that here."

She was just past 17 when she was married and her husband was 19. They have always been companions, working together in everything. Before they married they lived only a half-mile apart and attended the same school and Sunday school.

In spite of her 87 years and lack of sight, Mrs. Newberry keeps up with new interests. Currently, she is raising baby guineas. She set the eggs, along with some hen eggs and eight little guineas hatched out of 12 eggs.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Newberry find it strange that one little black chicken hatched out with a flock — all their hens and roosters are red. Their nephew milks, but Mr. Newberry tends the chickens and gathers the eggs.

Cheerful and generous, their age and infirmities notwithstanding, perhaps their personalities are the secret of 70 years of successful marriage.

Malayan Coffee May Compete with Brazil

SINGAPORE, Aug. 2. (AP)—Malaya would readily grow coffee if assured of a market by the United States, says J. W. Ewart, acting agricultural officer, Singapore. He was commenting on a report that the U. S. Senate will shortly consider a bill designed to encourage coffee production in Southeast Asia to alleviate the world shortage and provide competition to Brazil. Ewart said coffee had been grown for some time in Malaya but the industry had been superseded by rubber.

Oriental Typhoons Start in Marshalls

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 2. (AP)—Typhoons which pound the Orient start in the Marshall Island area. This fact has been learned as part of the atom bomb tests during "Operation Crossroads." It is reported by University of California scientists who worked with the operation. They say also that it was found that typhoons which sweep the Orient and the hurricanes of the Caribbean start in the same way. This is contrary to some previous opinions.

School Starts in Less Than Six Weeks--Now is the Time To Buy and Make Dresses, Shirts, as well as See Doctor

With less than six weeks remaining until school starts, wise mothers are getting school clothes ready, as well as having vaccination and immunization shots given.

Each child planning to start to school should have a small pox vaccination, if he has not already been vaccinated recently. Some children need second vaccinations. It is wise at this time to give as many immunization shots as the doctor thinks good—it may mean fewer days lost in sickness during the school year.

During the next month, children should make a semi-annual trip to the dentist. Those whose vision was found defective or questionable in the eye tests given here last spring should be fitted for glasses. The annual physical checkup by the physician should be given during this month.

Clothes Important
Clothes, too, are tops in importance in getting the child ready for school. This year it has become more important than ever to buy early. Merchandise now in the local dry goods stores is not much higher than last year. It was bought before the Korean crisis and will sell for less than later shipments.

Local stores have a wide selection of piece goods for making clothes. Prices on one brand of nationally advertised light-weight corduroy expected to be exceptionally popular this year remain the same as last year.

The blouse and skirt set, from junior high through those going away to college, will go all out for corduroy this year. Skirts, jackets and weskets are expected to be even more popular than last year. Ingenious mothers make two suits of these do the work of three by buying them in colors to 'mix and match.'

Myriad Colors
Myriad colors may be bought in the practical, medium weight corduroy in Post stores. Most of the hues are vivid, ranging from bright deep colors to pastel shades. Dusty rose and rosy rust seem to be two colors popular this season. Allied shades of red make up the bulk of the selection from burnt orange through cerise to rose. Electric blue, Kelly green and gray will be stand-by colors, available here.

Another new material suited for the older girl, is known as "tweedery," a corduroy with a tweed finish, tweed colors and pattern. One high school girl has already bought some satin corduroy, which comes in rich, traditional autumn shades, to make a full skirt for school. Gingham and plaids in good quality materials have not increased in price yet. Sales may be expected on chambrays and some summer prints. Grays, blues and wines seem to dominate the palette in the plaid and gingham field. Darker, more brilliant colors are left for heavier materials.

Wool and rayon jersey can be bought in Post stores for dresses and skirts for older girls and blouses for all ages. This material is expected to be very fashionable this year among the college and high school set.

Halfbacks and tackles have not been forgotten by local department store buyers. One store has toweling material, popular with some teenagers for sports shirts. For the bicycle set, there is flannel shirting in a variety of western prints and plaids.

Pants and jeans right now are the same as last year. Buyers said they expected any new purchases to be higher. Ready-made flannel shirts have already arrived. A wide selection of sports shirts is reported by local merchants.

Shoes for school children will be from 35 to 50 cents the pair higher this year, according to one store owner. Local stores carry nationally advertised brands of children's shoes. Fall shipments have already been received. Sports clothes and shoes are not any higher right now, one merchant said, but definitely will be higher later.

Dresses Here Now
Dresses have already arrived for ready-made clothers for the younger school girl. One store is opening a new line of ready-made clothes for girls from teenage down. A wider selection will be available before school starts.

Some local stores do not stock little girls' coats because they are so expensive. Others have their fall shipments in already or on the way. Most dress shops carry only junior miss sizes, for high school and college girls. These include a new line of gingham.

Selection in ready-made garments for this group are complete here. One store has raincoats as well as topcoats. Others have only topcoats. Little girls' coats and even rubber boots may be bought at a department store here.

September 4 is drawing close. It is time to get out the sewing machine, the pins, and the hem marker. Patterns and materials are now available for all the new school dresses needed here.

Plans Made For Rodeo Concessions When HD Council Meets Saturday Here

Plans were completed for concessions at the junior rodeo when the county Home Demonstration council met Saturday at the courthouse.

Mrs. George Evans, parliamentarian presided. Twelve were present. Snowcones, drinks, hot dogs, coney barbecue, coffee and two kinds of sandwiches will be served.

Assisting County Agent L. C. Herron and 4-H boys with the drink concessions will be Mr. and Mrs. James Stone, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. McLaurin and Mr. and Mrs. Hardie Smith.

Mrs. Bernie Jones is chairman of the snowcone committee. Assisting her will be Mrs. Wesley Stephens and Mrs. Durward Bartlett. On the hot dog and coffee committee are Mrs. L. H. Peel, Mrs. Wayne Pennington, Mrs. W. H. Barton, Mrs. J. C. Fumagalli and Mrs. Byron Haynie. Snowcones will be served at the afternoon performances and the other food will be at night. Cakes and ice cream will be included.

The concessions committee asked that those who have not said which booth and which performance they will work to do so at once. No more concession stands are needed.

The council voted $15 toward the Dist. 2 HD and Farm Bu-
