TO OUR CUSTOMERS:

A Statement of Price Policy On PURINA CHOWS

It is true that our prices on Purina Chows have increased since the end of OPA ceilings on July 1...

BUT...

... These new higher prices are due entirely to the increase in the cost of feed ingredients. All ingredients have risen sharply... some as much as $37.50 a ton.

... This increase in the price of Purina Chows is not as large as the increase in ingredient costs. New prices reflect only a part of the out-of-pocket increase to Purina.

... The new prices on Purina Chows do not include a single cent per bag or per ton more profit for Purina. The profit margins on Purina Chows have never been up to the full amount allowed under OPA and will not be raised now to margins previously permitted.

WE ARE PROUD TO FOLLOW PURINA'S POLICY

As authorized Purina dealers we are pledging our selves to follow the manufacturer's lead. We know that our first responsibility is to our customers—we want to keep feed prices down as much as possible. We are not increasing our margins—we will not be short-sighted and take advantage of the present situation at your expense.

True, feed prices will go up or down as prices of ingredients vary—but we promise as always to do our best to supply all the Purina Chows we can get at the best price possible.

YOUR MERCHANT FRIEND

"A period of rising prices and rising cost of living is now to get underway," forecasts the United States News. "This is the period when the nation's 38,000,000 families will pay for the wage increases and for the strikes, among other things, that marked the first half of 1946."

As to just what tendencies the trend will take, is any man's guess. Some think the price rises will be relatively gradual. Others gloomily forecast a catastrophic inflation, ending in a crash. Details notwithstanding, practically everyone seems agreed that price boosts are necessary and unavoidable, and that all the talk about "holding the price line" in the face of the most extreme wage increases in history is just empty talk designed for naive ears.

The role of the nation's distribution system during this period will be an all-important one. Your merchant, be he large or small, can't prevent price increases caused by influences entirely beyond his control. He can't sell you something that costs him a dollar, for eighty-nine cents. What he can do—and what he will do—is to hold prices at the retail level to the minimum by efficient, economical operation of his store.

American merchandising is superbly geared to do this job. The basis of the system lies in competition—open, honest competition by all kinds of stores. The door is wide-open to the innovator, the man who has a new idea, who wants to do a little better job and get more customers by doing it. He will do all in his power to cushion whatever "price shocks" lie in store for us.

NEW LAW ON WEEKLIES

A new law for weekly newspapers which will be agreeable to all advertisers, chiefly merchants and wholesalers using space in their country weeklies, and which will be agreeable to the newspapers facing the legitimate circulation they claim, has just been signed by President Truman and will go into effect the first issues after October 1.

The Dispatch is proud of its circulation. The paper thoroughly covers statement of ownership, which is not new, a sworn statement of the number of papers printed each week.

The new law hits a lot of weekly papers as many make claims on circulation that the neighboring newspaper publishers know can't possibly be true.

The Dispatch is proud of its circulation. The paper thoroughly covers the county and has one of the best circulation lists in comparison to the population of any paper anywhere.

For per person rate on advertising it is one of the cheapest in the Southwest. There are no boosted claims on the number of subscribers in order that advertising rates can be boosted.

Again we emphasize that we are glad of the new law. Papers formerly claiming a large circulation, yet actually having a small list, can expect to change their methods after October 1.

You can always count on an O'Daniel. They know where the heavy sugar is, and are always poised to pounce on it. If Pappy isn't collecting nickels and dimes from farmers and old folk with a quaver in his voice and a New Testament in his hand, then Mike is busy raising his apartment house rents to further increase the family "take." This time Mike is evicting a veteran from his Dallas apartment through the simple expedient of raising rent from $70 to $140 per month. Pappy cooperated by getting rent controls taken off so unscrupulous rascals can gouge every dime a working man earns or borrows. Yes, these O'Daniels stick together. —The Balla Banner

STATE HEALTH OFFICER GIVES POINTERS ON HANDLING RABID PETS

With a sharp increase in the number of persons being bitten by rabid animals in East Texas, and similar occurrences reported in other sections of the state, Dr. Geo. D. Cox, State Health Officer, recently warned all Texans to be on the alert for symptoms of this disease when around domestic or wild animals.

The 2,108 animal heads received for examination by the State Health Department during the past year have shown 687 positives, including incidence among cats, dogs, horses, rabbits, rats, squirrels, skunks, guinea pigs, coyotes, gophers, raccoons, logs, sheep, and prairie dogs.

Rabies is transmitted to man through a bite or having a cut exposed to the saliva of a rabid animal. Bites through clothing are not as dangerous as bites on exposed surfaces, because the saliva is wiped off as the tooth passes through the cloth.

If a person is bitten, the offending animal should be penned, if possible, for a period of ten days-observation. If the animal is normal at the end of that time, the case can be dismissed. If it is necessary to kill the animal, this should be done in such a manner that the brain is not destroyed, otherwise, an examination to determine whether or not the animal had rabies will be impossible. If the head is sent to the State Health Department, care should be used in properly icing it to prevent decomposition.

CHURCH AND FARM LEADERS TO UNITE IN OBSERVANCE

Church and farm leaders of Texas unite Sunday, July 21 in observing "Soils and Souls Sunday," when the citizenship renews its vows for stewardship of the soil.

Governor Coke R. Stevenson spearheaded the program by making a proclamation setting aside the special Sunday which was sponsored by Farm and Ranch magazine under the direction of A. B. Kennerly, editor of the publication.

"It is fitting," stated the Governor in his proclamation, "that religious groups should assume the initiative in carrying the message of stewardship of the soil, and that all groups whether governmental or private, should assist in this observance."

Church leaders in various denominations over the state are cooperating in the program and services on the special Sunday will be devoted to man's responsibility to God for passing on to future generations a fertile and beautiful soil.

County Agent Warns Farmers On Flea Hoppers

While flea hoppers are doing considerable damage to crops in the areas south and east of Garza County, County Agent Frank Easton reports that his survey last week of cotton acreage in this county reveals no sign of the insects at this time.

The County Agent warns farmers who have cotton to be on the alert for the appearance of hoppers, and urges that regular inspections of plants be made. Should hoppers appear he advises the use of DDT-sulphur mixture for control of heavy infestation, pointing out that the mixture is more effective than sulphur alone.

He points out that recent experiments at the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station offered definite proof that the mixture is more effective for the control of heavy infestation, but that sulphur alone will give economical control of light to medium infestations.

DDT has proven toxic to adult hoppers as well as immature forms. Tests have shown that a mixture of five per cent DDT mixed with either sulphur or an inert diluent, also was effective in reducing the population of beneficial insects, thus causing aphids to become damaging. So caution should be exercised in applying DDT early in the season, in order not to build up injurious infestations of aphids.

The first application of sulphur should be applied when 15 to 25 hoppers are found on 100 cotton terminals. If the infestation rapidly increase due to the adults' migrating in, or if it reaches high numbers before being discovered, the DDT-sulphur mixture should be used to stop the damage as quickly as possible.

Otis Chaffin, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Chaffin, arrived home recently on a 10-day furlough. He will leave here today to report to the separation center at Ft. Sam Houston to receive his honorable discharge. Otis has been in the armed service 21 months.

Considerable interest is being shown by oil men of the area this week in developments at Humble Oil & Refining Company No. 1 Moore, southwest Kent county Ellenburger exploration which last week reached the Ellenburger at 7,840 feet.

The project is one half mile west of the discovery for production of Ellenburger in the Polar area, just over the south Garza county line. Location is in section 45, block 3, H&O-N survey.

At last reports the test was to drill to 7,903 feet. Last week a drill-stem test failed to show any signs of oil and gas in the forty feet of drilling mud recovered. The prospector, according to geologists, is said to be 63 feet low on the structure to the point at which Humble's No. 1 Vick, the discovery well, encountered the formation.

NEGRO COLLEGE ASKED FOR STATE

Establishment of two institutions of higher learning for Texas negroes, equivalent to the University of Texas and Texas A & M college, has been recommended by governing boards of the two schools.

The recommendations adopted called for:

1. Establishment at Prairie View of a college for negroes. It would offer instruction in agriculture and the mechanic arts, including engineering. It would provide for both undergraduate and graduate instruction, teacher training, and other vocational courses, conforming to requirements of the large grant college act.
2. Establishment of a first class university for negroes, preferably at Houston. It would offer graduate and undergraduate work and would be supervised by the University of Texas regents.

SCHOOL TRANSFERS BEING MADE NOW

School children who wish to transfer from one school district to another for the next school term must have their applications in the office of County Superintendent before August 1, reminds Superintendent Dean A. Robinson.

The transfers may be obtained by parents who call at Robinson's office during the remainder of the month.

Governor Coke R. Stevenson signs the proclamation setting aside Sunday, July 21 as "Soils and Souls Sunday." Left to right: A. B. USDA Sets July 15-22 As Home Canning Week

The Department of Agriculture announced today the designation of the week of July 15 to 22 as National Food Preservation Week. This week will focus attention on the necessity for home canning and preservation of food supplies for the coming winter months at a time when food supplies are badly needed throughout the world.

Home food preservation not only will increase supplies for American families, but it also will help release those foods that are particularly adapted for shipment to famine areas abroad.

During the war years Victory Gardens produced over 8 million tons of food annually and our housewives preserved 2 1/2 billion quarts of fruits and vegetables yearly during the same period. In view of the world-wide food shortage, the need for repeating and even exceeding these accomplishments is greater now than it was then. Record crops of home grown and commercially produced vegetables and fruits are available and everyone is urged to take advantage of these supplies. Peaches, especially, are plentiful throughout the country and easily adapted for "putting up."

Actively cooperating in this program will be various consumer and trade groups, the President's Famine Emergency Committee, the National Garden Institute, the National Red Cross, and various other interested public and private groups.

Commenting on the need for every type of home preservation by American home makers, Secretary Anderson said:

"The war years are behind. In front of us is the task of retooling for peace. The immediate problem that faces a war-torn world is food. Food spells peace and democracy. Food spells rest instead of fiction. It is the obligation of every American to conserve this precious food. In this way we assure our own people a better diet, as well as help the famine stricken of the world."

"That is why I am appealing to women of America for a repeat performance of their war food preservation record. This week from July 15 to 22 has been designated as Home Food Preservation Week to emphasize the importance of home canning and preservation of food this year. This week, of course, is only the inauguration of the real program ahead. For after this week of spare-work and education comes the constant performance through return that should result in making this year the greatest season of Home Food preservation in history."

POTATOES PLENTIFUL IN POST FOOD STORES

Abundant supplies of new potatoes head the list of fresh vegetables in local markets.

Pleasant supplies of early crop potatoes can replace bread in well-balanced meals. And generous use of this wholesome food, while it is abundant, will lessen demand for the more scarce foods needed for foreign shipment. New potatoes do not store for a long period of time and must be consumed rapidly in order to prevent waste.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture is pushing consumption of potatoes in a state-wide campaign and is asking well-fed civilians to add more of them to their diets, thereby easing local pressure on wheat and wheat products.

Bob Johnson arrived in Post Saturday from Ft. Sam Houston. He received his discharge from the army before arriving here. He, his wife and young son, plan to visit his parents in Dallas very soon.

Holland's Homer With Bases Loaded Gives Post Chance

The Post baseball team traveled to Levelland Sunday afternoon and won an exciting baseball game 10-12 before a crowded grandstand of baseball fans. It was the screaming home run by Walter B. Holland with the bases loaded that made possible for the local team to stay in the play off in the Oil Belt League by defeating Levelland.

Ed Altman started on the mound for the local team and did a swell job before weakening in the fourth inning. He gave up six hits, seven scores, and one walk. Walter Holland took the mound over in the fourth and finished the game for the local team, giving up eight hits, three scores and three walks.

Post batteries assisted by several new players drove four pitchers from the mound for Levelland while receiving 11 hits including a home run by Holland.

Levelland made two scores in the first inning, one in the second inning, five in the fourth inning, and two in the eighth inning. Post made two scores in the first inning, one in the second inning, one in the third inning, one in the fifth inning, four in the sixth inning, three in the seventh inning and two in the ninth inning.

INCREASE IN DRUNK DRIVING IN AREA POINTED TO BY LAW

Area law enforcement agencies called attention last week to a 400 per cent increase of drunk drivers in the Lubbock district during the past year and warned that the threat to life and limb on highways and streets is steadily growing in intensity.

Offenders are both men and women, both returning service men and civilians, and represents a cross section of the general public, officers point out.

The traffic accident fatality rate in the 21-county Lubbock district of the Texas Highway Patrol shows a 125 per cent increase over the last year rate. Cause of this increase is, to great degree attributed to the increase in drunk driving.

Arrests for drunk driving have increased month by month. In January this year, charges were filed against seven; in June 24 persons were named in drunk driving complaints.

Swing of Southwest Farm Markets

Except for sharp rises of cotton, hog and sheep prices last week, most other farm products edged slightly below the high peak reached immediately after the removal of price controls, according to USDA's Production and Marketing Administration.

Cotton prices jumped 3 cents a pound this past week to more than 34 cents for Middling 15-16 inch. Small 1946 acreage reported by the government plus less favorable weather were major market factors last week. Demand for spot cotton continued strong for limited offerings. Reported sales in 10 spot markets totaled 70,100 bales last week. This was more than 43,200 bales of the preceding week and the 67,900 bales reported the same week last year.

Cattle receipts were more than twice as large last week as the preceding week at western markets. Demand continued good but prices were steady to lower compared to the first week of July. Houston quoted common and medium steers and yearlings $11.50 to $14.50 per hundred lbs. San Antonio moved common and medium grass steers at $13.50 to $16.50. Common grass steers sold around $12.50 and beef cows mostly at $15 at Oklahoma City. Common and medium cows brought $10 to $13.50, Wichita and $11.50 to $15.50, Denver.

Despite increased receipts southwest hog markets reported gains of a dollar to $2.50 a hundred pounds higher last week compared to Friday's close of the previous week. Top butchers were quoted $17.50 a hundred, San Antonio $18, Wichita $18.50 Ft. Worth and Denver, and $19.50, Oklahoma City.

Several weeks ago the Dispatch was informed that Thompson had been discharged from the Army, but Mrs. Thompson writes that he will receive his discharge at Fort Sam Houston soon after his arrival in the states.

He has been serving with the Military Government in Chinju, Korea.

NEWS NOTES FROM . . . Duck Creek Soil— CONSERVATION DISTRICT OFFICE AT POST

A cooperative agreement between the Duck Creek Soil Conservation District and Garza County for the purpose of "coordinating the efforts of the District and the County in controlling erosion on the roads and lands of the County," was reached at the last session of the County Court. According to the agreement the District will prevent the emptying of water into the roadside ditches wherever practical. When this cannot be done, it will prepare plans and specifications for special roadside erosion control work.

Will Wright, supervisor of the District, represented the District at the Court.

President Truman has proclaimed the week of July 21st to 27th National Farm Safety Week. Conservation farming and ranching is safe farming and ranching. The effects of some of the recent floods which caused considerable property damage and even endangered the personal safety of some could be minimized by the installation of a consolidated conservation program. Such a program will include properly designed terraces and waterways, with good vegetative cover to increase absorption and slow run-off. Although it would be impractical to install a conservation system that would completely retain flood water, a good conservation program properly installed would direct the water to natural waterways where little damage could be done.

Mrs. Sidney John Paddock, the former Miss Lois Pickett, and young son, Johnny, arrived Wednesday for a visit with relatives. She flew from her home in Miami, Florida, to Houston and visited relatives there a few days before coming on to Post.

One man recently took INNER-AID three days and said afterward that he never would have believed his body contained so much filthy substance. He says his stomach, intestines, bowels and whole system were so thoroughly cleaned that his constant headaches came to an end, several pimply skin eruptions on his face dried up overnight, and even the rheumatic pains in his knee disappeared. At present he is altogether a different man, feeling fine in every way.
