VOLUME XX POST, TEXAS "OUT WHERE THE WEST IS THE WEST" THURSDAY, OCT. 24, 1946 "THE GATEWAY TO THE PLAINS" NUMBER 45

Ballots For General Election Nov. 5 Were Printed Monday

Ballots to be used in the general election, to be held throughout Texas November 5, were printed Monday by the Dispatch Publishing Company and were sent to the clerk's office Tuesday morning so that absentee voting might get underway. Garza residents who are to be away from the county election day have until three days before the election to vote in absentia.

The ballots list all of the Democratic nominees from United States Senator down to Justice of the Peace, and the Republican column is complete for state officers except for Commissioner of Agriculture. No name was listed against the Democratic nominees for that office. J. E. McDonald.

Three proposed constitutional amendments to be approved or rejected by voters in the general election appear across the bottom of the ballot. One of these would authorize the legislature to pay for a building constructed for John Tarleton Agricultural College; another would authorize the legislature to provide a retirement disability and death compensation system for officers and employees of the State of Texas and would also authorize counties to provide such a system. A third amendment would write into our constitution the law already on our statute books which levies a tax on gasoline and lubricating oil. The amendment, it is explained, would not change the present law in any particular except that by placing it in the constitution it would become more permanent, and the highway commission could better afford to project a policy of highway improvement which would cover a long period of years without the possibility of its being interrupted by a sudden change in the law.

There is another proposed amendment which was intended to be submitted to the voters at this election, but by an error it was submitted for a vote November 7, two days after the general election. This amendment, which has the endorsement of the legislature, and approval of the American Legion, the Veterans of Foreign Wars, and other veterans groups, would create a veterans land fund for the purchase of lands in Texas to be sold to Texas veterans of World War II.

Nineteen Veterans Participate In 3-Day Welding School

The three-day welding school which closed here last night turned out to be the most successful of the seven held in the district in recent weeks, declared Henry Howard, instructor, this morning. The school was conducted under the sponsorship of the Extension Service.

The nineteen men enrolled in the two classes have shown much enthusiasm in their work, and have learned the fundamentals of both electric and acetylene welding, said Howard. "Some of the boys had never had a welding torch in their hands before the school opened, and now they are able to do a fair job of welding."

The classes have been made up of veterans who are enrolled in vocational training, and include Howard Tefft, Clarence Floyd, Albert Stone, Billy Richardson, Duran White, Elvin Davis, Arlie Ramage, Joyce Steel, J. F. Brandon, E. J. Henderson, Wayne Stewart, Pete Cooper, Edward Neff, W. H. Chiles, Dew Caffey, Paul Webb, Charles Morrow, Billy Cook and Glenn Davis.

The trainees will be given credit in their vocational work for their participation in the welding school, asserted Stryker Nance, teacher-coordinator.

As projects the class Tuesday and Wednesday built cattle guards, hand-surfaced plow points and made propane storage tanks for tractor fuel. The school's welding machine was used in connection with the training to familiarize the students with the equipment.

Antelopes Shatter 18-Year Jinx With Slaton's Bengals

Backed by a fan following of between five and six hundred Postites, including several hundred who rode the special train, the Post Antelopes last Friday night at Slaton shattered an 18-year-old jinx. The Antelopes galloped over the Tigers, 13-6, after the Bengals took advantage of a break early in the game which gave them their lone counter.

The Antelopes, after accepting the bad break, a fumble deep in their own territory which gave the Tigers possession of the ball in good scoring position, played heads-up ball for the remainder of the game. Taking the Tiger kick on their own 20, the Antelopes opened an offensive that didn't slow down until they crossed the pay stripe to tie the score. Ingram's kick added the extra point to lead, 7-6.

The second touchdown came in the fourth quarter. The game was Slaton's first set back at the hands of the Antelopes since 1928.

Machinery Being Set Up For City-Wide Clean-Up Campaign

Machinery for a city-wide clean up campaign was set in motion Wednesday morning when a chamber of commerce committee, headed by Tom Power, met and discussed plans for conducting the project at an early date.

Meeting with the committee, W. F. Presson, city secretary, announced that plans were underway at this time to put the city dump grounds in better condition, and that a new system for handling disposal was being considered.

The committee will meet again Tuesday afternoon with the heads of various clubs of the town and complete plans for the clean-up. Plans call for the cleaning up of all vacant lots, lots behind store buildings, and residential property.

Members of the committee, besides Power, are Homer McCrary, Walter Crider, Paul Duren, B. J. Edwards, Cliff Clark and Frank Estor. The committee was named last Friday morning at the open meeting of the Post Chamber of Commerce by Joe S. Moss, president.

Forty Conservation Practices Listed For 1947 Farm Program

Approximately 19.3 million dollars will be available to help Texas farmers carry out the conservation practices during 1947, according to B. F. Vance, State PMA Director. The state conservation funds will be divided among the various counties on the basis of number and total acreage of farms and range land, conservation needs and past participation in the ACP, Vance said.

The forty conservation practices listed as approved practices for Texas for 1947 include a wide variety of soil and water conservation and improvement work, such as application of minerals where needed to increase productivity of the soil, use of winter and summer legumes to enrich the soil with nitrate and organic plant food; terracing, drainage, pasture planting and improvement, control of destructive pasture plants, harvesting of scarce grass and legume seeds, building stock water ponds and establishing and care of farm forests. In addition, there is an optional practice, this being some additional conservation practice which may be needed locally and may be added to the program by the various county committees and the state committee.

The county committee of farmers in each county will meet during the next few days, Vance said, to write a conservation program for use in each county, drawing from the forty practices. The county committees will administer the program and approve applications by farmers in the county for assistance in carrying out conservation work. The 1947 program year begins on January 1.

Vance declared that the 1947 program is the most complete and highly localized in the history of conservation work under the old Triple A and its successor, the PMA.

Enough Food is no Accident

It is no accident that the largest crops in our history are being harvested this year when we, and the rest of the world, need them most.

In spite of war, loss of labor and little new equipment, the American farmer has again taken care of us and provided a life-saving surplus for abroad.

How do our farmers do it? How is it that only sixteen per cent of our people can feed all of us and go on breaking records in the face of circumstances which slow up industry?

There are three reasons: First, farmers work harder and longer than most other Americans. Second, they know how to make the best use of tools. And, third, they have a long-standing partnership with industry seeking to satisfy their urge to get more out of the land for the same labor. Farmers are still practicing the kind of enterprise that built America.

National thanks are due the farmer for the job he has done in the last five years. Universal respect is due him for his foresight in helping industry equip farms to meet a whole series of emergencies.

BUT::: we should not crowd our luck, or the farmer's luck either. Too many farm tools are now worn out. Without new ones production may go down. Farmers need over eight hundred million dollars' worth of new implements and equipment. It is up to industry and labor to keep wheels turning to produce them, but any recurrence of strikes would prevent this.

America should see that the hard-working farmer gets what he needs.

LETTERS WE RECEIVE

In The MAIL

Editor's Note: Opinions expressed in this column are not necessarily those of The Post Dispatch publishers. All articles for the column must be signed by those submitting them, but under most circumstances the writer's name will not appear in the printed article. Dear Editor:

After reading the City Secretary's letter last week in the "Letters From Readers" column I believe you should have an "Amusement Page" in the good old Post Dispatch as his letter was very amusing.

He stated that it was natural for us to get peeved when we fail to get the services to which we feel we are entitled, whether it be from the City or from our merchants . . . Well, all I can say is that I am thankful that our merchants are not anything like the City when it comes to service and progressiveness because we do have a town full of progressive merchants. Merchants that are always "on the beam," giving full value and up-to-date merchandise and service to their customers for every dollar spent without an alibi. Can the City of Post say this?

Telling the citizens about the big flood we recently had—one month ago to be exact—that disrupted trash and garbage collections is also very funny. What was the alibi for not having the city clean during the long drought? As for the regular schedule for cleaning up Post it cannot possibly be anything but the months of March . . . with its high winds to blow all the loose trash and waste paper from the City and July with its flies and mosquitoes to devour garbage.

As for having to dispose of leftovers at our house—we are also like the "Reader" and the City Secretary . . . we have very little. We burn all the trash and paper and there remains only the tin cans and glass jars . . . and Editor, we mean REMAIN.

The hog story brings back recollection of the time that a pig got out of a farmer's trailer that was parked on Main Street . . . The problem was how to get the pig back into the trailer. But the pig after getting his feet on the filthy street promptly crawled back into the clean trailer—smart pig. If we have any Health and Sanitary Laws why aren't they enforced? Aren't open cesspools, filthy cow pens, waste water draining into our streets, dead chickens, cats and dogs lying in our alleys and on streets until they deteriorate unhealthy and in violation of Sanitary Laws? What are the Sanitary Laws of the City of Post? Are they enforced on any violation other than on the keeping of hogs in the town?

The wink the City Secretary promises the "Reader" on the violation of the law against keeping a hog in town is the same wink I have been employing each year when I pay City taxes.

I sincerely hope that the City Officials will find a way to keep everything Clean and Sanitary—City Government and all.

Here's hoping that this letter is sufficiently amusing to be published . . . I doubt that it will.

DR. L. W. KITCHEN HAS FINE PERSIMMONS

Dr. L. W. Kitchen, Post veterinarian, claims that he has a Japanese persimmon tree in his back yard that is loaded down with large golden persimmons. As proof to his claim he brought a branch from his tree and left it at the Dispatch office. The limb contains six large ripe persimmons, about the size of oranges.

The tree, according to Dr. Kitchen, is loaded with fruit.

From where I sit . . . by Joe Marsh

On Playing the Fiddle Badly

A favorite recreation in our town is getting together in one or another's home and making music. There's somebody at the piano; a guitar; a fiddle player; and Molly Birtles even has a harp!

What comes out isn't the best music in the whole world. In fact, a lot of it is downright bad. But nobody even thinks to question or to criticize.

Because the spirit of harmony is there—harmony between folks who like each other's company, who enjoy the simple, homey atmosphere —with nothing more exciting than old songs, and a glass of moderate beer or cider.

From where I sit, it's a heck more important to be a poor fiddle player, than not to play at all. More important to be a part of the American scene—with its community music, home entertainment, friendly glass of beer—than to hold out for professional perfection. (Besides, I like to play the fiddle—even badly!)

SANTA TO CARRY A FULL PACK THIS YEAR

Toy production for 1946 will reach 250 million dollars in retail sales despite the impact of strikes and material shortages, so said the president of the Toy Manufacturers association recently. Dolls will account for approximately 40 million dollars at retail value, stuffed toys for 16 million. Wheel toys and rubber toy production will be below normal due to shortages of materials, the extra volume of wood, plastic and paper toy categories will more than make up for the drop in dollar volume in those categories. Post stores are already showing toys and are advising purchasers to buy early even though stocks are more plentiful than in five years. The manufacturing spokesman admonished prospective buyers to shop early, stating that the birth of five million extra children during the war-shadowed years above the peace time average of the preceding decade is expected to create heavy buying demand.

Possibilities that Texas may be manufacturing dinner ware and pottery on a wide-scale basis was revealed recently when ceramic engineers of the state held a meeting in Austin. Conditions are excellent in Texas for such an industry. According to merchandising experts, utility ware will be the coming field for many years. Texas has the raw materials and the necessary fuel for a successful ceramic manufacturing industry. Ceramic industry is now in its infancy in this state but will within the very near future show a rapid growth. Scientifically trained engineers are being trained in Texas at this time in preparation for this forthcoming boom in ceramic industry. The field is unlimited for wide-scale production.

GOOD SOIL IS FIRST AID TO GOOD PLANTS

According to those who study soils, plants and associated subjects, poor growth of trees and shrubs is often caused by little or no preparation of the soil before planting time.

For winter planting of trees and shrubs, the early fall is the most suitable time to get the soil ready.

The ground should first be cleared of rubbish, loose stone and sticks. Then, in the case of tight soil, it should be spaded to a depth of eight or ten inches. On sandy soils, the spading can be more shallow.

Three or four inches of barnyard fertilizer, leaf mold or decayed hay will enrich the soil and increase its water-holding power. Fallen leaves and grass clippings run through a feed grinder also make good material to mix with the soil.

In soil preparation, it is often advisable to dig around the spots where the plants are to be located to see that no old concrete foundations or layers of bricks or stones are beneath the surface. These obstructions often dwarf a plant or make it suffer during the hot summer months.

"I will instruct thee and teach thee in the way that thou shalt go. I will guide thee with Mine eye." Psalms 32:8.

Minute Prayer

Father in Heaven, give us our daily fare today, teach us to love our fellow men as Thou dost love, forgiving those who treat us ill, and giving help and hope to those who need our aid. Let not temptation come too great to bear. Give us abundant grace to do the appointed task with cheerful heart and everready hand.

Sunday began National Bible week, founded in 1940 by the Laymen's National committee and "dedicated to the proposition that America was founded on man's consciousness of God, man's daily labor and the fruits hereof."

It is a known fact that the Bible is a supreme work of literature, a storehouse of human wisdom and a source of inner strength. In it can be found any kind of story one could wish for from the greatest of love stories to the most destructive of battles.

The Bible is also the most widely read book in the world, translated into every conceivable language in order that every living person may have the opportunity to read God's word. People everywhere turn to its many pages for daily guidance and find hidden there the secret of life itself.

There is nothing authoritarian or materially profitable in the support of Bible reading. It is purely a voluntary procedure for the enrichment of the individual, world and nation.

Read your Bible daily.

A SANER HALLOWE'EN

The witch who tradition tells us rode the broomstick was never credited with property damage and destruction that is practiced today by little witches and goblins with or without benefit of costume.

With Hallowe'en just seven days away communities over the area are perfecting plans for carnivals and other forms of entertainment on All Saints' Night. This community has been more fortunate than some yet it seems that a trend of vandalism is creeping in even here so it behooves mothers, fathers, interested patrons and officials to use influence in seeing that teen-agers are so entertained on that big fun night that thoughts of vandalism will hold no place in the minds of these youngsters.

There is no fun in damaging property or running a festive event into a destructive or dangerous event. In some towns the Eve of All Saints' Night has become something of an annual horror with kid' running rampart to deface property.

Let us all see that boys and girls of this town have so much fun and are so busy at the Hallowe'en Carnival at the High School next Thursday night that they will go home happy and tired after the festivities at the annual Carnival.

Not only will we have a saner Hallowe'en but a pleasant one. You adults, get out and have fun with the kids.

NEWSPRINT PINCH

Scarcity items may be loosening up somewhat in many lines, including meat, but not in newsprint. A recent hike of ten dollars a ton will cost the newspapers of America an extra 40 million dollars a year. There is no relief in sight for the current shortage.

Object of the ten dollar hike was to influence the Canadian mills to become more interested in supplying U. S. newspapers, since Argentina and other countries had been outbidding the American market because of the price ceiling.

The Dispatch shares with all others the inconveniences and disappointments of the newsprint scarcity. This paper practices economy throughout the war. If things get tighter we shall pull in the belt a bit tighter and give our readers the best paper possible under the circumstances. In doing so, we will do our best to maintain the quality of the product that reaches the subscriber.

WHAT OUR CONTEMPORARIES ARE SAYING:

GO AND DO LIKEWISE... Congratulations are in order to Midland, Odessa, Big Spring, Colorado City and Snyder for going after and getting state approval of a project to create a $10,000,000 lake on the upper reaches of the Colorado for municipal purposes.

Harrassed for years by inadequate water supplies, aggravated by steady growth and development, these five up-and-coming communities threw in together and went after the project in a big way.

In semi-arid West Texas, water for domestic purposes is paramount above all other considerations, and this newspaper would like to see a group of cities in this immediate territory band together for the purpose of joint development of the Clear Fork of the Brazos, along the line demonstrated successfully by the western group.

It is up to somebody to make the first move. First, an organization to make a survey of possibilities would be necessary. Communities in Nolan, Fisher, Jones, Shackelford, Taylor and Callahan counties—how about it?—The Abilene Reporter-News.

PERHAPS IT IS JUST A DIFFERENT VIEWPOINT—but it seems to me that the women are not near as good looking as they were when I was twenty years old. The young ones are dizzy and the older ones fat. The young ones seem to dress fancy from the hips up and wear shoes that look like they had stepped in a bog hole and had not gone to the trouble of diggin' off the mud. They either go bare legged or wear short socks and they look like grown women above and grade school ganglings below. And the boys if they don't take the prize for appearance they either wear no hat at all or wear one that they must sleep in if one is to judge by appearances and if they do not have on overalls, clod hopper shoes and skin tight sweaters they have on bilious green, London purple or egg yellow coats with pants not to match. In fact the more repellent the color combinations the better. How in the world any of them ever fall in love with the other is a mystery to me. However I suppose I should stop worrying about things like this.—The Slaton Slatonite.

A FARMER TOLD ME

"Electric Service is my BEST Hired Hand..."

It's no wonder that farmers praise the advantages of electric power. Electricity has scores of uses on a modern farm and provides reliable, efficient power at extremely low cost.

For milking, incubation and brooding light to work by, power for a workshop, there's nothing to match it. And today, electricity is cheaper than ever before. It's always ready 24 hours a day and doesn't register on the meter when not working for you.

We're proud that in our 22 years of service we've been a pioneer in building ahead for the future. Our 12 million dollar expansion program is bringing the advantages of dependable low-cost electric power to more and more farmers in the entire Panhandle-Plains Pecos Valley area.

A PIONEER IN BUILDING AHEAD FOR THE FUTURE!

The Railbird...

Jane Ann Turner

Well, Post started a new record with Slaton by earning a 13-6 victory over the Tigers. Strangely enough, the scoring was exactly the same back in '28 when the Antelopes last walloped Slaton. To this 1946 version of the Post football machine goes the credit for turning the tide of affairs. We are looking to you '47 Antelopes, and all the other Antelopes to come, to help us keep the greater score with the Slaton team, and to exceed the 19 consecutive game win record which they held over us.

But back to the present, didn't we have fun riding the train! A majority of the lively Pep Squad and a throng of Post touchdown addicts rode the special. At the Slaton depot we were courteously received by residents of the town who provided transportation to the football field.

Playing before an overflow crowd of 3,400 people the Antelopes were a smooth working ball club which showed plenty of class and power.

Post kicked off to Slaton with Byler, big 174 pound fullback running the ball back to the 33 yard line where he was knocked out of bounds by Everett, Smith and Ingram. There Slaton was held for three downs and was forced to kick. The kick was received by Young on the 7 who ran back to the 23. On the first play Malouf picked up 4 yds. at center, then Hester on a quick cut-back picked up 7 to the 34 yd line and a first down. On the next play Malouf made 6 at end, but was jarred loose from the ball and Schmidt of Slaton recovered.

Slaton surprised everybody on their first play when they came out in a wide spread formation to the left. The Antelopes just didn't know what to do and before Coach Bingham could send in information, the Tigers had scored the first touchdown of the game. Slaton's try for extra point was no good.

Slaton then kicked off to Post and Malouf returned the pig skin to the 19. The Antelopes opened up and proved they could go with the odds against them, by marching 81 yds. without losing possession of the ball.

It was the smart quarterbacking of Sonny McCrary with the hard running of Shorty Hester, Gaylon Young and Junior Malouf and the fine charging and blocking of the Antelope line that carried the Antelopes 81 yds. in six straight first downs and their first scoring of the game. Malouf was the one who plunged over the 2 yd. line after which Ingram made a perfect kick making the score 7-6 in favor of Post.

Slaton kicked off to Post to begin the second half and after an exchange of punts, Post made 4 more straight first downs to march 47 yds. for their second touchdown with Malouf again carrying over from the 4 yd. line. Ingram's try for extra point was low.

It was a sensational game from beginning to end and when the final whistle sounded, the Antelopes had carried from their own 27 down to the Tiger 32 and it was the 2nd down 2 to go when the game ended.

Coach Clarence Tillery, former schoolmate and roommate of Coach Bingham had his Tigers

Swing of Southwest Farm Markets

Livestock and feed went up as cotton, grain, eggs and poultry went down last week while most vegetables, rice, peanuts, butter and milk held steady at southwest markets USDA's Production and Marketing Administration reported today.

Cotton tumbled about $25 a bale last week. The trade associated this drop with speculation regarding decontrol of cotton textile prices and uncertainty as to outlook for sales of cotton textiles. Also, seasonal heavy movement of the crop into trade channels may partly explain the break.

Hog prices took one of the biggest jumps on record last week when ceilings came off and soared $8 to $10, but later declined $2 to $4 a cwt. as receipts increased. Friday's quotations for good and choice butchers stood at $22 a cwt., San Antonio; $22.25, Oklahoma City; $22.50 to $23, Ft. Worth; $23 to $23.50 Denver; and $23 Wichita. Higher prices brought out 16,050 hogs at six southwest markets compared to 7,545 for the corresponding week last year and 4,850 for the previous week.

Decontrol of meat brought a rush of cattle to market last week. Receipts at six southwest terminals totaled 90,400 compared to 82,000 for the corresponding week last year and 55,375 for the previous week. Cattle advanced $2 to $4 a cwt. at southwest markets in contrast to gains of $5 to $10 at midwest markets. Friday's prices quoted here were down from the week's peak. Houston sold common and medium steers and yearlings at $13 to $15 a cwt. and good beef cows $12 to $13.50. Medium and good cows brought $12 to $16, San Antonio and Ft. Worth; good cows $15 to $16.50, Wichita and $16.50, Denver. Oklahoma City quoted medium and good steers and yearlings $12 to $23 and top beef cows at $20.

Most grain prices started down grade last week. Sorghums and corn lost the most ground. However, feed markets were unsettled as a result of the end of price control and restrictions on the use of by-products and mixed feeds. No prices were quoted, but the trade expected urgent demand for tight supplies would push prices well above former OPA ceilings.

ready as Coach Bingham knew he would. But the Antelopes were ready too, and that made the difference. Tillery said his boys were a 10-1 better team Friday night than they had been at any game this year. He had this to say about the Antelopes: "They are a well coached team—the best team Slaton has played in our district this year and the cleanest ball club we've met."

The next grid fuss is to occur at home on Antelope field Oct. 25 and will concern Post and Andrews. All we ask of you home folks is to just keep up that splendid attendance.

INTRUDER AT LAKEVIEW SERVICE STATION TURNS OUT TO BE TREE LIZARD

There was a lot of excitement at the Lakeview Service Station Tuesday morning when Melvin Hill discovered a 10-inch "cantankerous looking" critter sneaking through the doorway.

He did not know what it was, but after picking up a suitable piece of timber he waded in for the attack on the intruder, which turned out to be a large tree lizard.

The animal, if he may be called an animal, has scales resembling those found on snakes, and body pattern similar to that of a rattlesnake. Webster says the tree lizard is one of the group Dendrosauria... if that means anything to you.

Hill has his captive on display in a glass container at his station.

FIVE PERSONS HURT IN WRECK ON PLAINS

Five persons were hurt in a two-car accident about seven miles northwest of Post on highway 84 about 7 o'clock Saturday night. The accident occurred when a car rammed into the rear of another car driven by A. J. Spence, 26, of Levelland. Lee suffered a dislocated vertebra. He was brought to Post for treatment and later sent to West Texas hospital at Lubbock.

Riding in the machine with Spence were three other passengers, two young women and another man. The four occupants of the Spence car were treated for bruises and lacerations at a Slaton hospital.

The Lee car was badly damaged in the mishap.
