THE ELECTION.

THIS ROOSTER CROWS FOR TEXAS DEMOCRACY.

Up to going to press yesterday evening the returns show that the Republicans are successful in the national election. They have elected the president and have a majority in the lower house of congress. They claim 263 electoral votes for McKinley; this is not conceded by the democrats, but is probably about the correct vote. The democrats lost California, Oregon North and South Dakota, in the west, and McKinley appears to have been successful in all of the middle western states. The south stood solid for Bryan with the exception of Maryland and perhaps Kentucky. Both parties claim Kentucky. The vote in that state is very close.

Texas, grand old Texas; is still democratic. Bryan and Sewall and the democratic state ticket carried the state ticket by a large majority, perhaps 100,000 majority. It was a regular land slide for Texas Democracy, state, congressional, legislative and county.

The populist party appears to have been wiped out in Texas. Thousands of populist voted the straight democratic ticket and a great many went for McKinley. The democrats claim 13 of the 13 congressmen. Conner for district Judge carried every county in the district, Warren District: At-ney is elected, Tucker Representative Tillet State Senator, all democrats, elected.

In the county the democrats made a clean sweep except County Judge and one Commissioner. Thomas claims to be elected by three or four votes. It will take the official count to decide the result. Some of the County democratic candidates have as high as 400 majority. It was a regular Waterloo for the pops.

The Commissioners elected are Hinds, Merchant, Sprawls, and Baum. Three democrats and one populist. This gives the Democrats complete control of the county again.

THE TOLEDO WEEKLY BLADE.

Every intelligent family needs in addition to their local paper, a good national weekly. The greatest and most widely known general family newspaper is the Toledo Weekly Blade. For thirty years in has been a regular visitor in every part of the Union, and is well known at almost every one of the 70,000 postoffices in the country. It is edited with reference to a national circulation. It is a Republican paper, but men of all politics take it, because of its honesty and fairness in the discussion of all public questions. It is the favorite family paper, with something for every member of the household. Serial stories, poetry, wit and humor; the Household department (best in the world), Young Folks Sunday School Lessons, Talmage's Sermons, the Farmstead, the Question Bureau (which answers questions for subscribers), the News of the Week in complete form, and other special features. Specimen copies gladly sent on application, and if you will send us a list of addresses, we will mail a copy to each. Only $1 a year. If you wish to raise a club write for terms.

When The Democratic Party Will Die.

When the lion eats grass like an ox,
 And the fishworm swallows the whale;
 When the terrapin knit woolen socks,
 And the hare is outrun by the snail;
 When serpents walk upright, like men,
 And bloodlebs travel like frogs;
 When the grasshopper feeds on the hen,
 And feathers are found on hogs.
 When Thomas cats swim in the air,
 And elephants roost upon trees;
 When insects in summer are rare,
 And snuff never makes people sneeze;
 When fish creep over dry land,
 And turtles on velocipedes ride;
 When foxes lay eggs in the sand,
 And women in dress take no pride;
 When the people no longer drink beer,
 And girls get to preaching on time;
 When billy goats butt from the rear,
 And murder no longer is crime;
 When humming birds lay like the ass,
 And limberger smells like cologne;
 When cookpots are made out of glass,
 And our meat and bread out of stone;
 When tops of trees downward grow,
 And their roots grow high in the air;
 When creeks and rivers upward do flow,
 And their heads are covered with hair;
 When pumpkins on apple trees grow,
 And apples on the pumpkin vine,
 When bees like roasters do grow,
 And bedbugs are as mellow as wine;
 When ideas grow in populist heads,
 And wool on the hydraulic ram;
 Then the democratic party will be dem.
 And this country not worth a d—n;
 But if the populist should get into power,
 Oh how they will holler and yell;
 For it will take them scarcely an hour,
 To carry this country to h—l.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT TO THE MEMORY OF MRS. MARY. M. EDWARDS.

At a regular meeting of the Woman's Parnsonage and Home Mission Society, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, held Nov. 2nd, 1896, the following Preamble and Resolutions were adopted:

Whereas as in the death of our sister, Mrs. Mary M. Edwards, which occurred Oct. 27th, ult., we feel that not only has our Society lost a useful member, but this community a friend, and the Church, an upright, exemplary, consecrated member. Her life so beautiful and useful was closed by death, calm and confident as the rectitude of well spent days can alone insure, and with the triumphant hope of the Christian beaming upon the portals of Eternity, her spirit left its frail tenement attenuated by long protracted disease, and entered upon the reward of the just made perfect.

1st. Resolved, that we deeply lament the loss of sister Edwards whose christian character presents many rare and bright examples of human excellence.

2nd. That sister Edward's walk was that of a true and faithful christian as well as a kind and thoughtful friend and neighbor, and is now with the sad memories of the past. That she has passed the way of all the earth, and that we will never behold her again in our midst; but we are hopefully reminded that there is a blessed immortality beyond grave, by the words of our Lord himself: "I am the resurrection and the life."

Resolved that we extend our heart felt sympathy to the bereaved family, and that a copy of this report and these resolutions be sent to them, and that a copy to THE BAIRD STAR, with request to publish the same. Resolved that these proceedings be spread upon a page of the Society book, by the Secretary.

Strictly pure ribbon cane syrup is offered a luxury and seldom procured at a reasonable price, but our accommodating groceryman, Mr. Julius Norton, was fortunate enough to obtain a car in barrels and half barrels, at a very close figure and those desiring the article may go and find them in Mr. Norton's stock. C. H. E. A. P.

When the report came in the day after the election that Wood was elected, Judge Thomas is reported to have stated publicly on the streets of Baird that there were three classes of people that he would never put any confidence in again, viz: the populist, Methodist and Portuguese. The question now is will the pops claim the Judge since he has publicly repudiated their party. Perhaps the Judge should be a little more liberal as he would be naturally a little excited at the close run though he had lost his piece of pie.

He (gloriously)—Yes I love you and were I not a poor man I should ask you to marry me, but I am not able to support a wife.

She (patiently)—Well, papa says if we went to get married he will pay half our expenses.

He (clasping her in his arms and dancing round for joy)—Hurray! that's good news, name the day and it shall be so. We will buy our groceries from Norton—his prices are only half those charged by others—and with my earnings and your father's help we can manage well. 47 1/2 ft.

Some miscreant on last Saturday night cut and disfigured the sign painted on the canvas of Julius Norton's delivery wagon. J. H. Hoffman, the sign painter, had only a few days previously painted the sign, and he was just proud of it. For it was a fine piece of artistic work, painted only as a first-class painter can wield the brush. Aside from the destruction of the beautiful painted canvas, this shows a spirit of lawlessness and a narrow-minded hatred extended in Baird. The man that will injure another in this way has a screw loose in his make up somewhere and would be a dangerous person if it were not for the terrors of the law. It was a warning to all that it is a crime that is all that can be said about it.

It is now reported that Actor Aubrey Boucault will quit the stage, having successfully married his million-dollar bride. This is more satisfactory to her friends than the original statement that he would remain on the stage and she would join him in artistic avocations. She will also be likely to hold on to her million somewhat longer this way.

A double golden wedding is certainly an unusual event. William R. Higbee of Bridgeport, Conn., and George R. Cornwall of Port Chester, N. Y., were old school friends and married on the same day, Sept. 22, 1846. Yesterday Mr. and Mrs. Cornwall went over to Bridgeport and celebrated a joint golden wedding with Mr. and Mrs. Higbee. All four are in excellent health and the two "young couples" enjoyed the festivities greatly.

An amusing coincidence has occurred in Passaic, N. J. Two brothers, Alfred and Radcliffe Wells, have been secretly wooing two maidens of that locality, and fearing opposition in each case, neither said a word to the other of their intentions, but both determined upon a runaway match and a secret wedding. Each carried out their intention on the same night, and meeting the same day each was moved to an avowal of what they had done, and their mutual astonishment can be better imagined than described.

Are we to actually have a duel between Logan Carlisle and Senator Blackburn? This is the burning question of the hour, and Washington social circles are wildly excited over the prospect. The calm critic, however, may well point out that while a duels scare comes from Washington every few weeks, none of the duels arranged in the national capital ever come off. The few gentlemen who actually fight duels nowadays arrange them in an absolutely impromptu fashion and without any preceding "Corbett-Pittsimeans" newspaper controversy.

THE STATE ELECTION.

THE DEMOCRATS WILL CARRY THE STATE.

There was a Heavy Increase in Votes. Culberson and Kearby Running Close. The Count is Very Slow and Reports are Very Meager.

Dallas, Tex., Nov. 4.—Owing to the length of the ticket in Texas the returns came in slowly. Only the smaller precincts return a complete vote. The indications are that Bryan and Sewall have carried the state by 50,000 and Culberson by much less. No definite returns have been received from the cities having the Australian system, but partial returns indicate that Bryan and Culberson have carried Fort Worth, Sherman and Denison, while McKinley and Kearby have carried Dallas. Partial reports from 227 towns give Bryan 40,316, McKinley 20,308, Bryan and Watson 8119, Palmer and Buckner 633, and Culberson 39,009, Kearby 26,760. These returns as a rule come from the heavy Democratic precincts in the black land section.

Fourth District. New Boston, Bowie Co., Tex., Nov. 4.—McKinley electors 60, Bryan and Sewall electors 70, Bryan and Watson electors 10. Governor, Culberson 98, Kearby 32. Congress, Cranford 109, Davis 21. This is the vote of Boston and New Boston.

Pittsburg, Camp Co., Tex., Nov. 4.—There was hard fight on county ticket, though the Democrats claim the victory. The county is given to Cranford by a small majority, though the Populists claim the county for Kearby and Davis.

Later returns show that Camp county gives McKinley electors 850, Bryan and Sewall 800, Palmer and Buckner 50. Governor, Culberson 900, Kearby 800. Congress, Cranford and Davis are about a tie. It is the largest vote ever polled in the county.

Fifth District. Sherman, Grayson Co., Tex., Nov. 4. It was storming over the county last night, and returns are delayed. Indications, based upon partial returns show that this county has given Bryan and Sewall a plurality of 3,500 over McKinley, and Culberson a majority of 3,000. The entire county Democratic ticket is elected.

Denison, Grayson Co., Tex., Nov. 4.—The count of the four Denison wards will not be complete till to-day. Indications from the vote counted are that Culberson and Bryan will have a small majority and Bailey for congress a majority over both Foster and Gordon. The total vote cast was 2,350.

Celeste, Hunt Co., Tex., Nov. 4.—Incomplete returns give McKinley electors 69, Bryan and Sewall electors 142, Bryan and Watson electors 11, Palmer and Buckner electors 1. Governor, Culberson 144, Kearby 81. Congress, Farmer 80, Degraffenreid 145.

Tyler, Smith Co., Tex., Nov. 4.—The largest vote ever polled here was polled yesterday, 2,139. Out of 820 votes counted in the two boxes there are not ten votes difference between the McKinley and the Bryan electors, and Kearby has three votes the better of Culberson.

Seventh District. Bruceville, McLennan Co., Tex., Nov. 4.—McKinley electors 45, Bryan and Sewall electors 66, Bryan and Watson electors 54, Palmer and Buckner electors 2. Governor, Culberson 66, Kearby 105. Congress, Henry 64, Pope 20, Douthitt 86.

Waco, McLennan Co., Tex., Nov. 4.—The returns as far as counted of Waco and McLennan county show that the county Democratic ticket is elected by majorities much reduced. Less than half the vote is in, but as far as it goes it looks as if Kearby has beaten Culberson in the county.

Sixth District. Burleson, Johnson Co., Tex., Nov. 4.—The vote as far as counted gives McKinley electors 40, Bryan and Sewall electors 72, Bryan and Watson electors 28. Governor, Culberson 64, Kearby 83. Congress, Burke 67, Gibbs 80. Alvarado, Johnson Co., Tex., Nov. 4.—Two voting precincts give McKinley electors 47, Bryan and Sewall 190, Bryan and Watson 56, Palmer and Buckner 3. Governor, Culberson 175, Kearby 120. Congress, Burke 173, Gibbs 115.

Twelfth District. Boerne, Kendall Co., Tex., Nov. 4.—McKinley electors 172, Bryan and Sewall electors 65, Bryan and Watson electors 15, Palmer and Buckner electors 5. Governor, Culberson 78, Kearby 162. Congress, Slayden 67, Noonan 178, McRae 11.

Thirteenth District. Gilmer, Upshur Co., Tex., Nov. 4.—Precinct No. 1 gives McKinley electors 40, Bryan and Sewall electors 80, Culberson 76, Kearby 44. Congress, Degraffenreid 6. Other precincts not heard from. Bryan carries the county.

Ninth District. McDade, Bastrop Co., Tex., Nov. 4.—Incomplete. McKinley electors 144, Bryan and Sewall electors 20, Bryan and Watson 65. Governor, Culberson 190, Kearby 260. Congress, sayers 215, Makemson 2, Andrews 93.

Tenth District. Kenny, Austin Co., Tex., Nov. 4.—McKinley electors 103, Bryan and Sewall electors 65, Bryan and Watson electors 2, Palmer and Buckner electors 2; governor, Culberson 80, Kearby 70; congress, Shelburne 71, Hawley 63, Allen 2.

A Train Held Up. Hillsboro, Tex., Nov. 3.—Three masked men held up the south-bound Katy passenger No. 1, one mile south of Alvarado, last night about 7 o'clock. They climbed over the tender, and, covering the engineer and fireman, made them stop the train.

They then made the porter cut the express car loose from the passenger cars and made the engineer pull out on the hill this side, where they made him uncouple the engine and move off some distance.

Going to the express car they ordered the messenger out. After he got out they made him get back in the car and told him to hand out the money quick. Instead of doing so he turned off the light and shut and fastened the door.

While this was transpiring the greatest excitement prevailed, and the robbers, who were doubtless novices, were disconcerted by the action of the messenger.

The engineer, realizing the situation, pulled the throttle open and ran into Grandview and wired Hillsboro.

The robbers became alarmed and fled when the messenger put out the lights. Sheriff Bell organized a posse and sent it with bloodhounds to the scene of the hold-up, but up to 11:30 they have not taken the track.

The passenger due here at 8:05 did not reach here till 10 o'clock.

The above facts were gleaned from the engineer, messenger and passengers.

The robbers are described as boys, about 17 to 20 years old. They did not get anything.

The officers are scouring the country, and are confident they will arrest the robbers.

Fort Worth, Tex., Nov. 3.—From those on the north-bound Katy, due here at 9:15, but which arrived one hour late, the details of the Katy hold-up at Alvarado are learned, and it was a comedy of errors. Nothing was secured by the would-be robbers, either from the United States mail, express or passengers.

Dallas, Tex., Nov. 3.—The news of the hold-up of Katy train No. 1 reached Dallas about 9 o'clock last night. A reporter met the north-bound Katy and Santa Fe trains to learn details of the robbery, but nobody had heard anything. The Katy officials had telegrams saying the train had been held up, but had no details.

Murder and Suicide. Corsicana, Tex., Nov. 3.—News was brought here yesterday from Blooming Grove that yesterday morning about 5 o'clock Peter Hanson, a Norwegian brick manufacturer, and his wife had both been killed.

At the inquest yesterday morning the 14-year-old daughter of the deceased swore that Sunday night her mother went to church, and was accompanied home by a young man, who remained until a late hour. After his departure her mother and father quarreled until about 1 o'clock. About daybreak she heard her father walk through the room, and immediately afterwards a pistol shot sounded in the vicinity of the barn. She rushed into her mother's room and found her unconscious and covered with blood. She hastened to arouse some of the neighbors, telling them that her mother had been killed.

Mr. Hanson's body was discovered lying in the barn with a pistol shot wound in the stomach, which had evidently caused his death. His hand still grasped the revolver with which he had put an end to his life.

Died Suddenly. Houston, Tex., Nov. 3.—Last night on Congress avenue, near the old Arlington hotel, Justice Mahoney, acting coroner, held an inquest on the body of Frank Howard, who died suddenly a short time before. From the evidence he concluded that death came from rheumatism.

Last night L. E. Brown was arrested on the charge of assault to murder by Deputy Sheriff Perkins. The assault was made upon a street car conductor.

At Portsmouth, O., two men were fatally cut in a political row a few days ago.

Good Cotton Country.

Emma, Tex., Nov. 3.—It has rained in Crosby and adjoining counties, with short intervals for a month. The ground is perfectly saturated and some farmers will sow some milo maize. Very fair crops are raised this year. Oliver Eddy raised his third crop of cotton in Crosby county this year, and made half a bale per acre each year. He says this is the best farming land for cotton in Texas. He has given it a fair test and says the plains is a cotton country.

Mysterious Murder. Ennis, Tex., Nov. 2.—A report came in here Saturday night that the dead body of a negro man had been found in the tall grass at the back of McClendon's field, near Leland, ten miles southeast of Ennis. The body was nearly dried up and had evidently been there for weeks. The idea was at once conceived that it is the body of Rube Washington.

About two months ago a negro named Henry Dunn was killed in a fight near that place, and Rube Washington is said to have been near by at the time, and afterward seen going in that direction, and has never been seen or heard of since.

Constable Jim Darden and an undertaker went out yesterday and brought the remains to Ennis to be inquested.

There is a hole in the skull like a pistol ball wound, and the supposition is that Washington fell and died in the grass from a shot received during the melee.

Memorial Services.

Austin, Tex., Nov. 1.—Memorial services, commemorative of the life and services of the late Dr. Leslie Waggener, were most appropriately, solemnly and eloquently conducted in the chapel of the University of Texas at 11 o'clock Friday. On account of the inclemency of the morning the audience was not as large as it would otherwise have been, but it was notably a very select audience, representative of the people of the city. The board of regents was voiced by a very appropriate paper, containing suitable resolutions of that body, read by Regent Prather, followed by the reading of the 24th Psalm by Mr. Lee, rector of St. David's church.

An earnest and eloquent prayer was then made by Dr. French, pastor of the Baptist church, of which Dr. Waggener was a member. The memorial oration was delivered by Judge Simkins. While the address was largely historical, treating of the difficulties encountered by the university and Dr. Waggener's splendid and efficient services through them all, it was also a very scholarly production of the gifted jurist and legislator.

At the close of the address Miss Jennie Odum, accompanied on the organ by Prof. Collins, rendered with great power and most effectively that magnificent hymn, "I Know That My Redeemer Liveth." The benediction was pronounced by Dr. Wright, of the First Presbyterian church. The platform was dressed with many flowers, roses and chrysanthemums predominating. The memorial tablet inscribed with Dr. Waggener's name, ordered by the regents to be imbedded in the walls of the chapel, was placed upon the platform and was wreathed with flowers.

Freight Wrecked and Burned. Houston, Tex., Nov. 2.—There was a bad wreck on the International and Great Northern a few miles south of Conroe Saturday night. A freight train was booming along when a car back of the middle of the train left the track. A coupling broke and the forward part of the train went on, but the cars piled up on the one that was derailed, and the smash-up was general. One of the wrecked cars contained oil, which immediately took fire, and as others were loaded with cotton seed meal and cotton, the conflagration soon became general. The amount of the loss could not be learned.

Drowned in a River. Thomaston, Tex., Nov. 2.—A man by the name of John Reagan was found dead in the river near here Saturday. He was partly crazy, and it is supposed that he jumped or fell in the river. He had been in this town just a few days before his death, praying on the streets, saying God had sent him around to pray for the wicked people.

Movement of Cattle. Terrell, Tex., Nov. 2.—Ten carloads of cattle have been shipped by J. B. Wilson from Duncan, I. T., to Terrell via the Texas and Pacific railway, to be fed here for market.

A Chattie Mortgage. Gatesville, Tex., Nov. 2.—A. L. Adams, dry goods merchant, filed a chattel mortgage at 5:05 o'clock Saturday night, naming W. B. Woodward trustee. Preferred creditors: White & Mings and J. E. Walker, $350; G. A. Ellis, $140; W. A. Johnson, $118; N. A. Seales, Mount Pleasant, $1,229; Sanger Bros., Waco, $830; William Cameron & Co., $134; City National bank, $2,400. Assets and liabilities unknown.

Dangerfield, Tex., Nov. 2.—French Charlton, colored, was shot and killed here Friday night. It is claimed that the killing was accidental.

Postmaster Appointment. Bailey, Tex., Nov. 2.—In the contest for the postmastership of this place, upon the resignation of the former postmaster, Mr. Alonzo S. Browning won the prize. His bond has been filed at Washington and approved. He received his commission Saturday evening and formally took charge of the office Sunday morning.

The greater part of Manila, Ind., was destroyed by fire a few days ago.

Albert D. Fowers has been found in Tennessee demented.

"Miss Yam isn't at all musical." "How do you know?" "I offered to sing 'Oh, Promise me,' last night, and she said she'd promise anything if I wouldn't."—Pittsburg Chronicle.

"Juggins called me a monkey." "How can you stand that?" "Dibbey—what would you advise me to do about that?" "Jahlin—'Make him prove it, course.'"—Roxbury Gazette.

"Yes, I do respect my wife is much like the lightning change artist." "Why?" "I have known her to change her hair six times in one minute."

Chronic Malaria.

There is no use in taking quinine for chronic malaria. This is the decision of the medical profession. Some other remedy is needed. In acute malaria quinine is all right, but in chronic malaria it fails. The remedy which exactly meets all the symptoms of chronic malaria is Pe-ru-na. It is a sure cure. Send for free book on malaria by Dr. Hartman. Address The Pe-ru-na Drug Manufacturing Company, Columbus, Ohio.

PILGRIMS

Now Go In Comfort to the Famous Shrine at Canterbury.

In the olden days pilgrims to Canterbury who could not afford to hire steeds tramped all the way, thus conducing to the prosperity of the hospitable country inns which are fast disappearing from the land for lack of support. Today those bent on a similar mission do the business in a much more comfortable manner. A pilgrimage a la mode consists of breakfast in the morning at home, a jaunt in a comfortable railway carriage, luncheon at Canterbury, return by train after prayers and sermon and dinner in London. Physical discomfort is thus completely obliterated, and the mind is consequently left free and undisturbed for the contemplation of the higher objects pilgrimages seek to obtain. It was in this way that a body of devout persons, intent on the reclamation of England to the Roman Catholic faith, and known as the Guild of Our Lady of Ransom, journeyed by train from Holborn, after attending service in St. Etheldreda's, Ely Place, to Canterbury, to pray at the shrine of the unfortunate Thomas a-Becket. There they were met by contingents of similarly minded people from the neighborhood, most of whom wore the robes of some religious order. The relics of the saint were venerated in due form, and prayers were recited for the restoration of our country to "the true religion." The London contingent then returned home by train.

I don't propose to be insulted in such a manner.' He then threw down the letter on my desk and stalked out."—Louisville Courier-Journal.
