A. Marks of Jack ed one of the first e when a group of boys formed the Corn Club.

"When the Extension Service of the U. S. Department of Agriculture took over the work, it spread the movement throughout the country and it still sponsors the work in cooperation with the state agricultural colleges. The four H's stand for four-fold develop- ment of the head, heart, health and hands, and the motto is "To Make the Best Better."

Kemp Was First Agent

"The first extension agent in Garza County was Z. D. Kemp. However, there were no 4-H clubs in the county at the time. Tom Wood of Lamesa, then district agent, came to Post and he and George Samson, for many years a staunch supporter of club work, explained club work to the Commissioners Court, with the result that 4-H work was begun in Garza County under W. F. Lockridge, county agricultural agent.

"This was in the early 20's and a little later, girls' club work was started in the county with Miss Maxwell as home demonstration agent. There are no records to show who was the first home demonstration agent in the county.

"Miss Lucille Robinson, now Mrs. Wilburn Morris, was one of the first 4-H girls and is now the county leader for girls' 4-H work. Miss Maxwell resigned in 1926 and from that time until 1940, there were no girls' clubs because there was not a home demon- stration agent in the county.

"The boys work progressed through the years under the lead- ership of several capable men. Following Lockridge was Knox Parr, who is now district agent with headquarters at Ama- rillo. He directed the first county calf show, which was held in the mule barn on the now vacant lots between the postoffice and Piggly Wiggly. The boys had bought the calves from the late John B. Slaughter. Judge of the show was D. F. Eaton, then Lubbock County agent and father of a re- cent Garza County agent.

Potts Succeeded Parr

"The next agricultural agent was J. W. Potts, now Extension 4-H specialist at College Station and director of all boys' 4-H work in Texas. Next came Homer E. Thompson, who is now Cochran County agent. Following him was Wallace Kimbrough, now agent for Brazos County which em- braces the Texas A. and M. Col- lege and Texas Extension Service headquarters. It was under Kim- brough's leadership that club boys of Garza County received recog- nition for club work in statewide competition for the first time since the beginning of 4-H work in the county.

Progress Made On Red Cross Campaign Here

"Steady progress" was the report yesterday from Lewis Nance, chairman of the 1948 Red Cross drive in Garza County.

The Greater Gifts committee, of which Ira Lee Duckworth is chairman, will complete its work this week.

Judge J. Lee Bowen, chairman of the residential district division of the drive, is being assisted by Mrs. Jessie Voss in the job of organizing residential solicitors. Their work will be well under way by next week, Bowen said yesterday.

Mrs. J. C. Fumagalli of Verbena, chairman of the general community committee, said that plans are underway in each community for either a house-to-house soliciting campaign or a benefit social.

MUMPS THIS YEAR ARE HITTING HAPPY MEDIUM

While a number of Garza County school children have mumps this week, the ailment is no more prevalent than usual at this time of year, the Garza County health officer said yesterday.

"We always have mumps at this time of year. Some years there are fewer cases than we have now, and other years there are more. I'd say it's average this year," he explained.

The mumps began showing up here several months ago and have been progressing at the rate of two or three—usually mild—cases a week.

POST FOLKS AT WORK:

L. L. "Blackie" Wright is shown arranging coffee in a neat display at the Pure Food Store. "Blackie" joined the Pure Food staff several months ago, when, Ira "Dad" Greenfield and Jack Kennedy became the owners. He takes as much pride as "Dad" and Jack in keeping neat and attractive displays in the spacious store.

Fair Association May Be Formed In County

Garza County 4-H leaders have proposed a plan whereby a fair association would be formed in Garza County and a building erected for use in county fairs, stock shows and other exhibitions.

The plan calls for the support of each citizen in the county. The fair association would be incorporated and each person contributing money to the project would become a stockholder.

Each stockholder would, in turn, have a vote in the election of directors governing the association.

Robert H. Gibson, Garza County agricultural agent, who is working on the plan, told the Post Dispatch this week that the Post Stampede and Rodeo Association officials have expressed interest in the project and have indicated they would support the project in order to gain use of the proposed building during the rodeo each year.

Information regarding the plan has been sent to each farmer and rancher in the county with the request that each return the questionnaire card inclosed, regardless of whether he is in favor of the plan. Business men of Post and Southland are to be contacted in the near future, Gibson says.

As is described in detail elsewhere in today's paper, Garza 4-H boys have been gaining both state

Fire Insurance Credit Rating Increased Here

Five per cent of the 25 per cent credit on fire insurance that Post lost last year because of the gasoline truck fire which damaged a large amount of business property went into effect here March 1, Fire Insurance Commissioner Marvin Hall of Austin wrote the Post Dispatch.

If the fire record of Post continues to improve, it is possible that the maximum credit of 25 per cent can be restored in future years, Hall's letter said.

The five per cent credit was due to the good fire record here in 1947 and the increased premiums, Emory Stewart of the Post Insurance Agency believes.

Much Interest Is Shown In Band Projects

Merle Jenkins, new bandmaster for the Post Schools, said yesterday that approximately 38 students reported for band classes this week and that indications are that 50 students will be enrolled within a week or two. Much interest in band work has been shown by both high school and grade school students.

Band classes started Monday. They are being held the last two periods of school. Rehearsals will get under way as soon as all the students get their instruments.

Jenkins said he still has a few after-school periods open for private instruction in piano, voice or instrumental music. A student taking private lesson from him, he explained, will be given one half credit in school. The credit will be recognized by the State Department of Education. Those interested may contact him at the high school or at his residence in the Colonial Apartments.

Air Scouts Are Organized Here By Senior Boys

Ten boys are enrolled in the Air Scout Squadron which was organized Tuesday night at the Scout Hut. The Squadron is affiliated with one of the three divisions of Senior Boy Scouting: Air, Sea and Explorer. It will concentrate attention on every phase of aeronautics, except flight instruction in the air.

Members are J. G. Cash, Ronnie Bouchier, Bob Pennington, Charles McGuire, Lornie Walls, Junior Odum, Bill Jones, Bill Holly, N. W. Stone, Jr., and Kay Kirkpatrick.

The squadron's adult committee consists of the following men who are qualified to instruct the boys in the various phases of air scouting: Jess Wright, private pilot; Monta Moore, meteorology and navigation expert; Alex Webb, model airplane expert; Clint Herring, pilot, and John Lott, pilot. Three of the commitmen have airplanes in which the Scouts, whose parents grant permission

Johnson Child Is Victim Of Car Accident

Funeral services were held at the Calvary Baptist Church at 3 o'clock Monday afternoon for three-year-old Clifford Richard Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas G. Johnson, who was killed by an automobile Saturday afternoon in front of his home in south Post.

Mr. Johnson, who was driving the automobile, had started to town, leaving the boy on the front porch. It is believed the child jumped on the running board of the car and was knocked off, under the wheel by a gas meter near the car. He died at the Post Clinic shortly afterward.

The boy is survived by his parents and five brothers, Thomas, Lathon, Norman, Irvin and Daniel.

Burial was in the Terrace Cemetery, with Mason and Company in charge. The Rev. I. D. Walker officiated for all the services.

Review Board Is Organized For Scouting

The board, which is to be made up of local business men, will meet the first Tuesday night of each month. They will pass on the candidates for honors at the Boy Scout Court of Honor, which is held each third month.

The list of members had not been completed by press time.

Current records of the Railroad Commission of Texas show that a total of 198 oil wells are producing in Garza County.

Railroad Commissioner Olin Culberson, in answer to a query from the Post Dispatch, wrote that 190 oil wells have been completed in the Garza Field and eight wells have been completed in the P.H.D. Field, west of Post. Of these, 188 wells are producing in the P.H.D. Field.

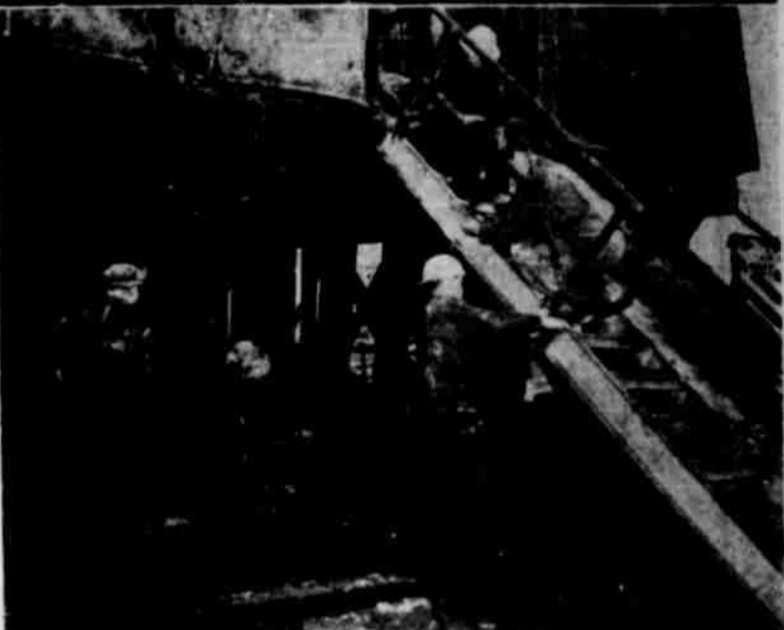

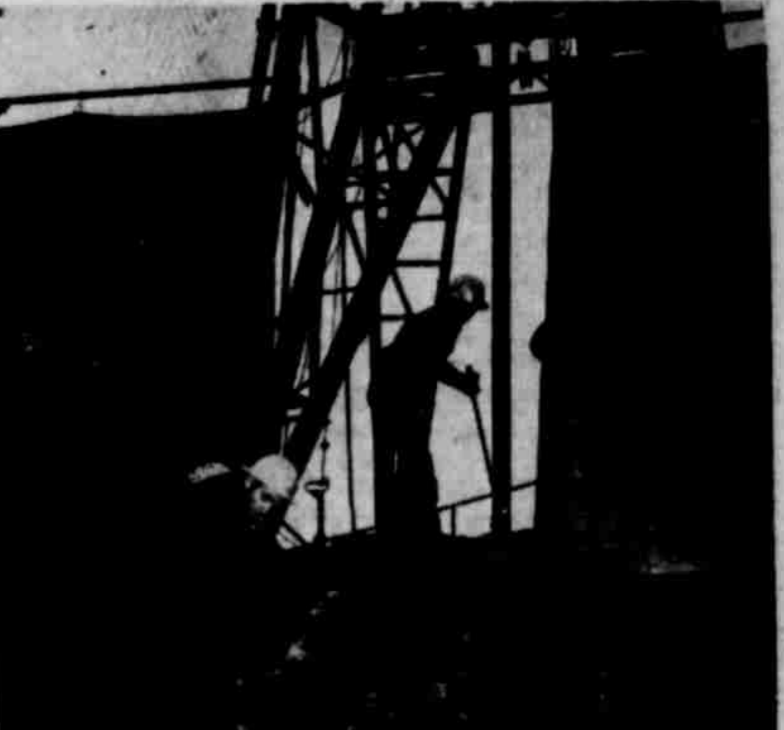

Regarding the P.H.D. Field, however, he said: "Since January 1, 1947, we have received only two Forms 1, Notice of Intention To Drill, so you can see that they

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Burnell Mueller of Southland on February 24. Mrs. Mueller is the former Dorothy Becker.

Scenes like these, long a common site in various parts of Garza County, have been moving closer to the Post city limits during the past several weeks. These pictures, showing preparations for drilling, were taken last week at the Comanche Oil Company's Montgomery-Davies A-32, just south of the city.

In the top picture, the man on the derrick floor is aligning a kelly for drilling the surface hole and the other two men are setting a short rail on the ramp.

The men in the middle picture are repairing the rig structure and installing the ramp.

In the bottom picture, Halliburton Cementing Company workers are cementing the surface pipe. This operation, which is scheduled to drill to 2,915 feet with rotary, had reached a depth of 2,823 feet yesterday.

Battleship Is Publisher Of Autobiography

John Hopkins, manager of the Garza Theatre, which is cooperating with the Motion Picture Industry of Texas and the Junior Chamber of Commerce of the state in the campaign to bring the retired battleship, Texas, back home as a state shrine has called attention to the fact that one of the historical battleship's more noteworthy accomplishments was strictly unilitary.

She published her own biography.

"It's the only time in American history that a battleship published a book," Paul Schubert, for four years an officer on the Texas, said.

Mr. Schubert wrote the Texas' history—or biography.

How the Texas herself eventually came to publish the book dates back in 1928.

Mr. Schubert had since resigned from the navy, but had always remembered the Texas with fondness.

When he heard in 1928 that the Texas had been modernized and made flagship of the United States fleet, Mr. Schubert, a writer, decided to do the ship's history.

He dug up the Texas' old logs to write it and named the informal history "C'mon, Texas," after the traditional battle cry of the Texas' crews.

The book sold well and eventually went out of print.

With the outbreak of World War II, there were only six copies of the book on board.

The books were battered beyond recognition, when the war ended, so the ship's chaplain set about trying to find the author, the publishing company and the copyright of the original book.

The company was out of business, but the chaplain finally located Mr. Schubert, wrote a new introduction, and the U. S. S. Texas published 3000 copies of the history to distribute to the crew. Gossett & Dunlap did the printing, but the ship was listed as the official publisher.

Water Hearing To Be Held In Plainview Soon

Mrs. W. C. W. Morris, secretary-treasurer of the Garza County Farm Bureau, and her husband will attend a water hearing at the City Auditorium in Plainview Monday, beginning at 10 a. m. The meeting, at which the Farm-To-Market Road Bill also will be discussed, will be the only one of its kind in this area before fall. It is open to all interested farmers.

The purpose of the water hearing is explained in the following statement from J. Walter Hammond of Waco, president of the Texas Farm Bureau Federation:

"In the last session of the legislature, there was an effort made to pass legislation to regulate the use of underground water. This action created considerable concern and we thought it unwise to pass such legislation because there was not sufficient information available to determine what, if any, legislation should be enacted.

"In the light of what transpired at the last legislature, the board of directors of the Texas Farm Bureau Federation decided that it would be advisable to hold a water hearing. In this hearing, information will be sought as to the available supply of surface and underground water, with an idea of approval of the present and potential water users.

"In attendance at the hearing will be engineers and geologists who can furnish you information with reference to surface and underground water. There will also be representatives of the legislature, farmers interested in water use, along with other interested groups.

"After the information is presented by the engineers, farmers will be given an opportunity in an open forum to make known their desires with reference to water control and development projects."

Mrs. Douglas Buchannon of Pecos, formerly of Post, underwent major surgery in the West Texas Hospital in Lubbock Monday morning. Her sister-in-law, Mrs. C. R. Rogers of Hot Springs, N. M., and Mrs. Rogers' son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Fumagalli of the Verbena Community, were with her at the time of the operation. Her condition was said to be satisfactory after the operation.

DON'T

... Put shades on lamps that "swallow" light. Use clear translucent shades that utilize every bit of light given by your bulbs.

... Sit under a light that does not throw sufficient illumination on the book or paper you are reading. Eye-strain is the result.

... Allow a child to read wrong type of lamp. Too much light on book and cause harsh reflection.

DO

... Clean lamp shades and bulbs frequently. Much light can be wasted in dust and grime.

... Place lamps so that equal and sufficient light is given for everyone who uses the lamp.

... Make sure that adequate proper type of shade is used. Clear warm light is the best thing to do.

Lubbock Attorney Announces His Candidacy For Senatorial Post

Dudley K. Brummett, Lubbock attorney and Army Air Corps combat veteran of World War II, announced Saturday that he is a candidate for State Senator from the 30th Senatorial District. Brummett is 28 years of age and married. He is a former member of the Attorney Generals Department of Texas under Gerald C. Mann. He served as an attorney for the Supreme Court of Texas following his release from military service in October, 1945. Since September, 1946, he has been actively engaged in the general practice of law at Lubbock and an instructor of government at Texas Tech. He is an ex-student of Texas Tech and the University of Texas Law School.

Brummett volunteered for the Army in May, 1942 as a private. After training at Mineral Wells, he was transferred to the Air Corps and trained as an aviation cadet. He later was commissioned a lieutenant. Brummett flew a bomber plane from the United States across the ocean to England. From there he participated in bombing raids over Germany. He piloted a B-17 Flying Fortress, and together with his eight crew members, was shot down on his sixth mission, over Hamburg, Germany. All crew members parachuted from the burning plane to safety from ten thousand feet, though one crew member was jerked unconscious when his parachute opened and when he struck the ground and broke one leg and seven ribs. All members on landing were scattered over a distance of about 20 miles.

Captured by Germans

When Brummett hit the ground he attempted to escape into a nearby forest. He was pursued and all crew members were gathered up and became Prisoners of War of the Germans until the end of hostilities. Brummett, together with several thousand other Air Corps Prisoners of War participated in the January sub-zero march on foot through deep snow from Sagan, in the east part of Germany to Spremberg, Germany. The Prisoners of War were being removed out of east Germany to prevent their liberation by the approaching Russian Army invading Germany from the east. They were there crowded into box cars and carried on to Mooseberg in southern Germany, a crowded, infamous and filthy Prisoner of War camp, without heat or fuel and there kept on a starvation diet.

Liberated By Third Army

They were there liberated by General Patton's Third Army on April 29, 1945. Brummett and his entire crew were immediately flown out of Germany and returned to the United States, which all agreed was the most blessed country on earth. Brummett was awarded the Air Medal for his bombing missions over Germany.

Brummett stated that in seeking the office of Texas Senator, "I desire to serve my fellow man in the Senate Hall of Texas. It has been my life ambition to serve in public life." Brummett stated further, "I have but one promise to make in offering myself as a candidate for State Senator, and that is, that when elected I will represent all the people of my district to the best of my ability on every legislative matter that shall come before the Senate of Texas."

Brummett was born and reared in Dickens County. He moved with his parents to Lubbock in 1932. He attended the Lubbock Public Schools and Texas Tech, working his way through school as a grocery clerk with Furr Food Stores for three years of this time. He later attended the University of Texas Law School.

Brummett is a vice-president of the Junior Bar of Texas, member of the State Bar of Texas, member Lions Club, member Junior Chamber of Commerce, member Methodist Church, member Texas Prisoner of War Club, member Caterpillar Club, and a Reserve Officer in the Air Corps of the United States Army.

Woodrow Wilson was the first president to leave the U. S. during his term of office.

W. E. Pierce Is Candidate For Sheriff's Post

W. E. Pierce this week becomes the sixth candidate in the upcoming race for Garza County sheriff and tax assessor-collector. He announced his candidacy with the following statement:

To the Citizens of Garza County: After mature consideration I have decided to enter the race for the office of Sheriff, Tax Assessor and Collector of this county in which I was born and reared and in which I have lived my entire life, except for an unpleasant period of time on Okinawa.

During my entire life time of dealing with people of Garza County you have been placed in a position to be proper judges of my qualifications for the office which is sought.

I feel that my 32 months of military service, most of which was in the Military Police Force of the United States Army, gave me training which would be highly beneficial in the performance of the duties of the office of sheriff.

I am seeking your support in the campaign for this office solely and alone upon my merits and qualifications.

Your influence and support will be sincerely appreciated.
W. E. Pierce

Verbena Bits

Please Send News Not Later Than MONDAY to HENRIETTA NICHOLS, Verbena Correspondent

News has reached here of the marriage of two former Verbena residents, Lois Bradley who has been living in Palestine and Floyd Davis of the Cross Roads Community. They were married in Palestine on February 18, and are at home at Cross Roads. Floyd is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Davis of Cross Roads.

Mr. Dunigan is seriously ill with flu at his home.

Al Bird has just completed the "rocking" of one of his farm homes. It is a real improvement in both comfort and looks.

C. F. Taylor is home from the hospital in Lubbock where he underwent major surgery. He is making satisfactory progress toward recovery.

Friends of C. H. Bradley of Palestine, formerly of Verbena, are happy to hear he is greatly improved after a long, serious illness and is now able to work.

Recent guests of the Bruce Tylors were his sister, Mrs. Hagen, and family of Spur.

Good Price In Calves

We are proud of Charles and Tommy Bird, our two 4-H boy whose calves placed in the Garza County Fat Stock Show. Though they were not top winners, each calf sold for over $240. This was their second year to participate in the show.

Despite rainy weather, several Verbena families attended the supper given in Post last Thursday night by the Eastern Star chapter for the Masons.

Mrs. R. C. Rogers of Hot Springs, N. M., arrived at her ranch Friday. She said the green pastures looked odd because she left a blanket of snow at Hot Springs.

In cooperation of the Garza County Red Cross Drive, for which Mrs. J. C. Fumagalli is general community chairman, the Verbena Home Demonstration Club will sponsor a pie supper and forty-two party at the Verbena school house Friday night. The public is invited and the ladies of the community are asked to each bring a pie to be sold. Tables for forty-two and coffee will be provided.

Shop In Lubbock

John and Henrietta Nichols and Mrs. Lester Nichols recently went shopping in Lubbock.

Local friend of Mr. and Mrs. Marion McGinty of Plains, formerly of Post, will be interested to know that they will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary Saturday at Plains. The McGintys have two sons who were known here during school days as "Rusty and Dusty." "Rusty" won fame when he later became world's champion bulldogger. He took first place in bulldogging at the Fat Stock Show in Fort Worth last year.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Wilks and son, Bennie, and granddaughter, Linda Wilks, of the Grassburrr Community were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Will Cravy Sunday.

IT'S TIME TO PLAN FOR 1949 CONSERVATION OF GARZA WATER AND SOIL

"It's about time to be thinking of plans for the 1949 Agricultural Conservation Program," Will Wright, chairman of the Garza County Agricultural Conservation Committee, advised farmers this week. He said that within the next few weeks the county committee will be asked for recommendations for the 1949 program.

These recommendations, he explained, are sent in to the State PMA Office where the State PMA Committee and the state technical committee go over them before transmittal to the national PMA office in Washington, D. C. From these recommendations, and within funds authorized by Congress, the 1949 program will be made up.

"Of-course," the county chairman said, "the recommendations must conform to the law under which the program operates—basically to conserve soil or water. The primary purpose of the program is to check the waste land and water and to make farmland, pastures and rangeland more productive."

The chairman explained that there is only so much money to be used to assist farmers in carrying out conservation practices. The national, state, county and community people who administer the program have an obligation to use these funds to get the most conservation possible for each dollar spent. Some practices, which are good conservation practices, are no longer on the list because they are not as urgent as other practices or have not been adopted generally by farmers.

Grassburrr Gems

Please Send News Not Later Than MONDAY to BILLIE SUE QUISENBERRY, Grassburrr Correspondent

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Nelson of Littlefield spent Monday night of last week in the J. G. Siewert home.

Dallas Sparlin, whose parent, recently moved away from the Grassburrr Community, has joined the army and is stationed at San Antonio.

Friday night guests in the J. G. Siewert home were Mrs. I. H. Buster, and Mr. and Mrs. Will Draper of Anton.

Miss Doris Jean Cross quit work at the Postex Cotton Mills Saturday and will stay at home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Cross, until her marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed L. Robertson, former Post residents, have moved to San Diego, Calif., where he was transferred from Corpus Christi by the U. S. Civil Service Commission. Their address is 2630 Front Street, San Diego 3.

A little care saves a lot of wear!

A Spring change from contaminated, old winter oil to Nth Motor Oil protects from grit and dust that can ruin the inside as well as the outside finish of your car!

Conoco Nth Motor Oil (Patented)* contains a special added ingredient that fastens an extra film of lubricant so closely to metal that metal surfaces are actually OIL-PLATED!

This OIL-PLATING stays up on cylinder walls while you're running hot and when you're not... won't all drain down into the crankcase even overnight! That's why Nth Oil extra-protects from "dry-friction" starts... from sludge and carbon caused by wear.

So, for extra-cool, extra-powerful, extra low-cost miles...

Make a date to OIL-PLATE!

SPORTS

FROM A STRICTLY LOCAL ANGLE

Last Night's Fight Card Drew Crowd, Fifteen Bouts Carded For To-night

Coach Bing Bingham's fight-program last night turned out to be one of the most pleasing athletic events of the year when a large crowd turned out to witness the eighteen bouts between Post school boys at the local gymnasium.

Without exception, the bouts were all snappy and spicy affairs, with the larger boys mixing it "kid style," and the smaller boys "slugging it out" as if their future depended upon their pugilistic ability. The bouts differed from most programs of the kind, in that each fight turned out to be a real scrap, and not a "waltz me around again Mary," as so many kid boxing matches prove to be.

Fifteen of the bouts were determined by points and there was one knockout and two technical knockouts. Charles Williams floored his opponent, W. O. Fluitt, Jr., for the count, and Herman James drew a technical knockout over Glendale Canterbury, as did Benny Huff over Gordon Cary.

Winning by decisions were: Jack Kirkpatrick over Rex King, Ray Dobbs over Pat Stephens, Charles Cooper over F. M. Reep, Danny Redman over Don Moore, Don Dale over Dun Morris, James Williams over Andy Schmidt, Bob Smith over Don Wheeler, John Schmidt over Randell Lawrence, Don Brown over Jack Schmidt, Buddy Hays over Bob Johnson, Don Tatum over Johnnie Matsler, Jimmy Smith over Maurice Stelzer, A. C. McAllister over Ronald Joe Babb, and Lonnie Walls over Jerry Odom.

The bout between Jimmy Smith, 170-pounder, paired with Maurice Stelzer, 221, drew the best hand from the crowd. All three rounds were filled with flying leather and both boys were about ready for the count shortly before the final gong. Declared the best scrapper of the evening was Bob Smith who out-pointed his opponent Don Wheeler. Both, promising 72-pounders, put up an exciting contest.

Tonight fifteen bouts will be unreeled at the gym. The fights begin at 7:30 o'clock sharp.

D. F. Smith Is Death Victim

A former Garza County resident, David Frank Smith of Slaton, was burned to death Saturday afternoon when the dump truck which he was driving overturned and burst into flames on a curve about 8 miles north of Lubbock, near the Monroe underpass.

Smith is survived by his wife; two sons, W. S., and E. T. Smith of Sacramento, Calif., and two daughters, Mrs. Otis Cannon of Lubbock and Mrs. D. A. Long of El Paso.

The funeral was held in Slaton Tuesday afternoon and burial was in the cemetery there.

MRS. M. B. SIMPSON AND MOTHER INJURED IN HIT-RUN MISHAP

Mrs. Marvin B. Simpson of Fort Worth, the former Ella Bridges of Post, and her mother, Mrs. Mary E. Goode, were injured late Tuesday afternoon when the late-model automobile in which they were riding, on the Levelland Highway just outside the Lubbock city limits, was hit by a passing truck.

The car, which was headed toward Lubbock, was knocked over on the south side of the road and left with the wheels spinning in the air, according to witnesses. The truck sped away.

Mrs. Simpson suffered two fractured left ribs and Mrs. Goode was treated for bruises and shock. Both were taken to the Lubbock Memorial Hospital.

The truck was hotly pursued by the highway patrol over country roads for several hours Tuesday night after a 17-year-old Lubbock youth had risked threats of the occupants in order to get the license number. The trail of the truck, however, was lost.

Anniversary Is To Be Observed By Herring's

In celebration of its tenth anniversary, Herring's department store will open a one-week sale, beginning tomorrow.

The store was established here 10 years ago by Clint Herring, who owns and operates the business today.

Although the store has done a brisk business with a generally fast-moving stock, a number of "white elephants" have accumulated. These will be sold at drastically reduced prices. Many other "red hot" specials also will be offered during the sale.

All friends and patrons of the store are invited to look over the bargains within the next few days, Herring said.

Veterans Can Receive Medal

Victory and campaign medals will be presented to all Garza County World War I veterans Friday night in the Jean Legion Hall, beginning at 7:30 o'clock.

Each enlisted man is asked to bring the original copy of charge papers and each asked to bring the record service, in order to receive medals for which he is eligible. The awards will be sent by the regular recruiting service of Lubbock.

The meeting was sponsored by James W. Henderson, who is the local Veterans of Foreign Post, and James Miner, American Legion commander. The meeting is open, however, to all affiliated with a veterans organization.

Thank you Folks

It is with genuine gratefulness that we thank you for the fine patronage you gave us on our formal opening. We made an effort to give you super values in your food buys. We expect to continue this policy every day in the week. We truly appreciate your business.

Church News

 was a man of the Pharisees, Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews. They came to Jesus at night, and said unto him, We know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except God be with him. Jesus answered and said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God. Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? Can he enter the second time into his mother's womb and be born? Jesus answered, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. Marth said unto thee, Ye born again.

EDDIE the EDITOR

THE WOMEN. God love 'em. They define a true music lover as one who, on hearing a blonde soprano singing in the bathtub, puts his ear to the keyhole.

I discovered this column had some readers the other day when someone called on me to voice objection to my using the word "damndest" in print.

He even told me that a little boy was reading my column out loud in the school room and when he failed to omit the word "damndest," the teacher sent him to the principal's office for punishment. I have checked on this story, and as nearly as I can find out, it is just a rumor. I don't believe there is a teacher in our schools who would do that.

The preachers talk about hellfire and damnation in the pulpit and the Bible speaks of the damned (he that believeth shall not be damned. Mark 16:16). They read the Bible aloud in school. Why can't I say damndest in the newspaper?

The ruckus is over my column of two weeks ago on Al Bird's porpoise which, incidentally, hasn't been seen since I last mentioned it. I said: "Nearly everybody in the county by now knows that Al raises the damndest creatures that anybody ever heard of outside of a circus."

The only thing I did wrong here was to use a form of the word not acknowledged by Webster's New Unabridged Twentieth Century Dictionary. I was grammatically wrong and I'm sorry. I should have said "the most damndest." The dictionary defines "damndest" as "cursed," "abominable," "detestable," etc., which is what I meant when I spoke of three-headed calves and other ugly freaks of nature.

The man who visited me was of the impression that "damn" and its varying forms are used only as swear words. It is true that "damn" has a profane connotation but, technically, it shouldn't have any more than some other words.

Lots of parents, for instance, do not flinch when they hear their children telling each other to "go jump in the lake." Yet they pull out the old razor strop when they hear the same children telling each other to "go to hell." What is the difference? If a child says "go jump in the lake" and means "go to hell," he is swearing just as much as if he used the "bad" word and meant it.

It isn't so much what you say as what you mean that counts with "The Man Upstairs."

The same goes for a lot of other actions.

Speaking of people hopping on me at times:

Every once in a while somebody or some group hops me out about not covering the oil news. I wish to plead both innocence and willingness.

This paper has made every possible effort to get authentic releases on oil developments and has published all that have been available. We cannot publish rumors and we cannot publish authentic information given to us by operators who are not authorized by their companies to give press releases. Often there is a reason—for the good of the community as well as the operator—for temporarily withholding information regarding tests and other developments.

Take this excitement about the oil well last week. We learned about it in time to insert what we had heard in last week's paper.

ROGER W. BABSON WRITES THIS WEEK:

People Must Be Reformed Before Peace Is Permanent

Babson Park, Fla.—Last summer newspapers and magazines were full of discussions on Universal Military Training. Unfortunately, most people then were more interested in baseball scores than in UMT, even though their lives and pocketbooks were far more dependent upon what is done about UMT.

With world conditions as they are, it is high time for us to think about how to save the peace; but is UMT necessary? President Truman says, "Yes." Many of our military leaders agree that the surest way to maintain peace is to prepare for war. But such a trained observer as Hanson Baldwin says, "No," to UMT. Senator Taft and Henry Wallace are this time. They both say, "No."

While opponents of UMT grant that we must maintain world leaders, they call UMT "undemocratic," "ineffective," "militaristic." It is pointed out that another war will be a war of the simultaneous explosion of pre-planted bombs in our large cities, the use of guided missiles and robot planes against which a partly trained, hastily mobilized, ground army would be helpless. Another point against UMT is that the program would take a year out of every young man's life. Then too, they feel that the plan is unnecessarily expensive, not only in time, but in dollars. Seventeen and a half billion dollars a year obviously means that taxes must be much higher rather than lower.

this question was a board of nine civilians. What the group had in common was an interest in finding the answer to a difficult problem—should the United States adopt UMT?

The President's Commission says, that, although the cost of training all our young men would be great, it would be less than the bill for two weeks of World War II. They say we would be spending to save, to save ourselves, and the world from destruction. They say the plan would give us 7,500,000 men who could be mobilized inside a year—and who would be vastly more effective than untrained men, even though against the kind of war which would be fought in the Atomic Age. They say, too, that we can educate and protect our youth while they are in training and that, far from being undemocratic, the experience would be a lesson in democracy.

Life Is Struggle I believe we ought not wait until the horse is stolen to lock the barn. Or course, I would prefer not even to have to close the barn door. But human nature has not changed much since 1938 or even since 1913. It makes more sense to lock the barn. But UMT will be frowned upon because it will not be politically expedient. Life, though, is real and life is earnest. Life itself is war, in the sense that success comes only through sacrifice. Struggle is the way by which life grows; but how best to struggle is a question I cannot yet answer. Saying democracy, however, is far more than a problem of UMT. It is a spiritual problem. Tanks and airplanes and atom bombs may win battles, but not wars. Nobody wins wars any more. Certainly we must appropriate money for defense, but our billions will be poured down the drain unless we struggle to change the motives and ambitions of people. What do you discuss at your dinner table? How often do you visit your school? Do you always vote in primaries? How often do you telegraph your representatives in Washington, where the struggle for peace begins? Irrespective of the "pros and cons" of UMT these things are of more importance. Preparedness like charity begins at home with you and me,— by how we use the powers we now have.

There are more than 100,000 Texas farmers and ranchmen operating with 145 soil conservation districts in the state, according to Paul H. Walser, state conservationist of SCS.

By EVELYN BOYD

The only person in the nation who has made as many enemies lately as President Truman is Governor Beauford Jester.

Poor Jester started in as governor in the doghouse of the state's alarming number of left-wingers who object to the oil monopolies. Last year he made all the thinking people of West Texas and some other areas hopping mad over his stand on the late lamented college fund bill.

Last week I commented on how he ripped his britches with all the Texas veterans for being against the state bonus.

And how he has got all the rural teachers—20,885 of them—all the rural bus drivers and janitors and lots of the mammas and papas of rural school children frothing at the mouth.

I don't object to Jester's placing the oil interests. In fact, I think monopolies are essential if our free enterprise system is to survive. And, as I said last week, I'm not in favor of a state bonus for veterans because that is a federal, rather than a state, affair.

But I do think West Texans got the raw end of the deal on the college fund question; and now if I were a rural school teacher or employee I would feel downright betrayed over the state's not coming through with the operating money it promised last year.

Last month Jester flatly denied a request by a group from the Texas State Teachers Association for a special session of the legislature but we were unable to get an authentic release. Now we learn from an authentic source that the rumor was unfounded.

Had Post been alert enough and wealthy enough and had building materials and labor been available when the oil business first started getting hot in this county, perhaps we could have had several district offices established here by now. In these district offices, there would have been some public relations men with the authority to tell us what is going on. As it is, we have to write or telephone Midland or some other far away point for our news and this frequently takes a long time.

Occasionally people get excited over the oil scouts that jam the Algerita Hotel at times. Oil scouts go with oil fields. The fact that they are here doesn't always mean that the test they are watching is going to be successful.

The most a newspaper can say is that such a company is testing the Ellenburger, etc., and that there is considerable interest shown in the operation. The Post Dispatch has been doing that right along, and occasionally has done better. We will keep trying.

lature on rural aid school funds.

Rural aid schools are approximately $3,000,000 short of enough money to finish the nine-month school year unless superintendents: (1) Choose to go in debt on current operating expenses, or (2) cut teachers salaries to pay such expenses.

Garza County has six schools—Southland, Close City, Graham, Grassbur, Cross Roads and Garzolia—facing this dilemma. The state of Texas has 3,000 such schools with a total of approximately 575,000 students.

These schools, all receiving state equalization aid, are operating on budgets set up after they had been assured they would receive definite amounts of assistance from the state. This aid, for schools which qualify, helps pay teachers, provide transportation and general operating expenses and for high school tuition.

There is no way for the state to discharge its contractual obligation to these schools except by an additional appropriation, which only the legislature has the power to make.

The deficit was brought about by several things. Several large districts were made eligible when the legislature last year permitted districts with 1,500 students to qualify for the equalization aid. A total of 259 districts qualified this year for the first time. These extra schools absorbed the fund set aside by last year's appropriation for a two year period.

The deficit for the year 1948-49 will be even greater because no surplus will accrue in the Available School Fund for distribution as happened last year when the State Board of Education distributed a surplus of six dollars per student to all schools of the state.

It looks like poor management in Austin to me.

This situation gives us a good idea of what Socialism will be like, if Wallace and Company should be fortunate enough to click by 1952. The above type of bungling is bound to handicap schools, businesses, individuals, etc., having to depend upon government for their existence.

What Our Contemporaries Are Saying:

SEWER EXTENSION—City Secretary J. J. Maxey reports that another major extension to Slaton's sewer system was completed Saturday. This line is 950 feet long, between 12th and 13th streets and serves blocks 61, 73 and 82 of south Slaton. The work was done entirely with local labor, supervision and engineering and was completed at a much smaller cost to the city than could have been contracted.

According to Mr. Maxey, about $575.00 was paid to local labor, all of which money remains in Slaton.—Slaton Slatonite.

WHAM! BLAM! — Woosh! 2100 feet reported Wednesday afternoon at the new oil patch north of town.

These new jack knife rigs can move in, dig a well, and be gone before you know what's going on.

Sort of a "wham! blam! Thankee maam," setup—Gaines County News.

KNOCKERS ARE BUSY— In spite of the fact that all four commissioners unanimously voted for extension of the lease contract on the Gaines County Hospital, gossip mongers are still knocking and trying to cause dissension.

Every town has that sort of an element, but in Seminole they seem to be more vicious and persistent. But the town will continue to grow and progress in spite of them and maybe someday they will become extinct from inhaling their own gas.

The hospital is the property of the taxpayers of Gaines county and is a fine asset to the community. Someday the sane and sensible citizens of the community will tire of wholly untruthful gossip which injures its best interests and it will be moving day for the uripe peddlers.—Seminole Sentinel.

BATTLESHIP TEXAS— If this state is ready to accept the battleship Texas on April 21, San Jacinto Day, the Navy will deliver it to a permanent berth at the foot of the San Jacinto monument.

But, to be ready for the glorious old vessel, Texas must raise $225,000 by March 15 to pay the cost of the berth.

The chances are that the money will be obtained. Gov. Jester has given the task of raising it to the motion picture industry of Texas, and the state Junior Chamber of Commerce. Each group is famous for achieving goals.

The Texas was launched in 1912. It is a scarred veteran of both World War I and World War II. Not until this month was it brought to Norfolk to be retired from service. Every Texan should have a part in making this great ship a state shrine. Karl Hoblitzelle of Dallas is state chairman of the drive to bring home the old battleship. Let's help him get the berth ready!—Dallas Times Herald.

DESTINY OF WHEAT—We see that Chicago man made more than $200,000 in a week, trading on the wheat market. Did he raise the wheat? No. Did he handle the wheat? No. Would he know what wheat looked like if he saw a bushel of wheat? Possibly not. He is a high powered speculator, one of the fellows who manipulates the grain market, which sets the price that the producers get for the grain. The producers run all the risk in producing the grain, yet the speculators set the price, and make the money from the grain. How would any business man like it if the price of goods was set by a gambler seated in his office a thousand miles away? He would resent such operations. Naturally all prices are set more or less by the fluctuation in the market, but the farmer must abide by the operations in one great center where the prices are made and unmade by the operations of a few big speculators. Of course some one lost while the big boy in Chicago was making $200,000 in a week's time. In this instance every farmer who produced wheat in 1947 and still had wheat on hand contributed to that little gain of $200,000.—Canyon News.

AIRPORT AID—Snyder's application for federal aid on a municipal airport, submitted to the Civil Aeronautics Authority more than two years ago, apparently is finally getting into the "mill" for action.

Announcement of the advance to stage of construction in Washington was contained in a news story that appeared in state papers last weekend.

Original application for the Snyder project was made by the Scurry County Chamber of Commerce in 1946, and no further word as to disposition of the application had been heard by the Chamber of Commerce until the newspaper story appeared.

The Snyder project is included in the project of 43 towns in this West Texas area if the Civil Aeronautics Authority carries out a three-year nation-wide planning program revealed at Washington last week.

The overall program includes installation or improvement of 352 Texas airports at a federal expense of $28,760,000.—Scurry County Times.

ARMY WANTS TO RECRUIT H. J. DIETRICH'S DOGS FOR DUTY IN K-9 CORPS

From the Plainsman's Column in the Lubbock Evening Journal Tuesday:

"A recent note from H. J. Dietrich of Post calls to mind the newly fanned interest in good dogs in these parts. A kennel club is going full blast, and the ladies and gents who raise fine canines of various breeds for money and hobbies are looking forward to shows and other activities thus connected."

"Mr. Dietrich, who raises German shepherds, says he recently received a query from the U. S. Army, seeking to buy all his dogs eligible for training in the Army's K-9 Corps. He adds that the dogs he has available now are too young for the Army's purposes, but he expects in the future to have some pooches for Uncle Sam's."

How to Put Up with Women's Styles

When Will Dudley's missus finally got in to the new-style longer skirts, Will was mighty critical at first. Allowed as how women were to fashion... ought to dress like their husbands and not designers.

He finally reminded Will of his own sitting by the radio Saturday afternoons in shirt sleeves and slippers, listening to the crooners with a mellow glass of beer. Suggested that maybe Will should be a slave to comfort.

Will admitted she was right.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

Special Drill Coming

A special drill to plant grass seed will be available to the local Soil Conservation Service Work Unit March 15, through 18. The drill is designed to plant small grass seed such as weeping lovegrass where only from one half to a pound of seed is used per acre. Since only one such drill will be available during this short time a day and night schedule is being made up by the Soil Conservation Service technicians so the drill can be used to plant as many acres as possible. District cooperators who have not been contacted and who want to plant grass should contact local soil technicians immediately.

Grass Needs Great

The need for grass planting in the Duck Creek Soil Conservation District is great. Soil deterioration surveys shows 130,000 acres of once cultivated land in the district needs to be planted to grass.

To ranch people who think in terms of grass in sections, that is more than 200 sections. The beef production loss from this land because it is not in grass exceeds the beef production on any ranch in the district.

District cooperators who plan to plant grass this spring include Truett Fry, W. F. Norman, Jim L. Williams, Lewis West, J. H. Eubanks, Ralph and Rex Welch, Tom Gilmore, and T. R. Greenfield.

USDA Yearbook

"It is just as big an accomplishment to introduce a new and suitable legume into any area as it is to build a highway or perfect a new kind of airplane." This quotation is from the Yearbook of Agriculture 1943-1947, "Science in Farming." This is the first yearbook published since 1942 by the United States Department of Agriculture. The book, nearly 1000 pages in length, answers questions as to what is the latest scientific developments in farming in a language a layman can understand.

The yearbook is rich in clear understandable pictures. Soil technicians especially recommend the pictures and story of raindrop erosion between pages 360 and 361. Soil fertility cannot be maintained until raindrop erosion is controlled. "Science in Farming" is available from the Superintendent of Documents, Washington 25, D. C. The price is $2. Farmers will not be disappointed in it.

Supervisors Meeting

At the last supervisors' meeting held in Spur, on February 19, they approved five conservation plans which included Jim L. Williams, Mrs. W. O. Davis, Glenn and C. M. Voss, J. R. Durrett, and Truett Fry. The supervisors also approved the following conservation applications, E. Henderson, 20 acres; Clark Barton, 167 acres; J. T. Sims, 5,709 acres, and P. E. Stevens, 320 acres. There were six conservation agreements cancelled because the farms were sold. They were those of S. C. Caldwell, Mike E. Custer, T. F. Ashley, M. C. Edwards, V. M. Stone and Mrs. Henry Pegues.

A covered dish lunch was served at noon. Mrs. Margie Redding was received as a member and two other members, who had not attended since the records were revised, were reinstated. Some officers and committees were elected and appointed. A complete list of the officials follows:

Top Pay Sought In Justiceburg Oil Operation

Oil scouts have been watching with interest the developments on the Proven Oil Company L. M. Glasco, et al, George W. Herd Trustee No. 1, operation three miles south of Justiceburg.

Last week the operator cut a core at 2,440 feet and got a fair showing of oil. Four other cores were cut later in the week and early this week at varying depths, with the result that several oil showings were discovered.

By yesterday afternoon, the drilling was at 3100 feet and the operator was preparing to go into core 18 feet. This strata seems to be the top Justiceburg pay.

Rotary equipment, which the Comanche Oil Company has been employing at the Montgomery-Davies A-32, south of the Post City limits, will be moved to the Montgomery-Davies B-16 as soon as the A-32 is drilled to 2915 feet, possibly tomorrow.

The Lynn Company's recently completed Pennington No. 1 is producing about 60 barrels a day. The Lynn Oil Company yesterday set the surface pipe on the Pennington No. 2, located just east of

COLLIER STORE BUILDING IS NEARING COMPLETION

The carpenter work on the building for the new Collier Drug Store was completed this week, and asphalt tile flooring and fluorescent lighting fixtures had arrived.

As soon as the flooring and fixtures can be installed, moving of stock from the old store will begin, the manager, Bob Collier, said yesterday.

The formal opening will be held in about three weeks, Collier believes.

WINDOW SHOPPING

Main streeters we've seen lately are all contest conscious. Everywhere we go we hear folks comparing notes on the "Walking Man" and also discussing the Soap contests. Entry blanks on the latter contest can be picked up in any of the grocery stores. There are 1643 prizes to be given away in the soap contests so surely someone we know in the county will get in on the winning side before many weeks go by. Lots of folks are running references in encyclopedias etc., in order to solve the riddle of the "Walking Man."

The awning at Parsons' Dress Shop is being given a coat of paint in a beautiful color to match the trimmings of the interior.

Those factory-built engines that Storie Motor Company features are really powerful looking things to us. With one of those, we feel that our car would get up and go.

200 OIL PRODUCERS

The letter continued in part: "The accumulated reported production for the Garza Field to January 1, 1948, was 3,131,739 barrels; while the accumulated reported production for the P.H.D. Field during the same period of time was 117,303 barrels.

The accumulated reported production for the Garza Field one year ago was 99,552 barrels, and for the P.H.D. Field was 4,654 barrels.

The Comanche Company on Tuesday completed the Montgomery-Davies A-16, south of Post. The project was drilled to 3,028 feet and acidized with 10,000 gallons. The operator is awaiting a pumping unit and potential test.

The operator said that the Montgomery-Davies A-25, near the south lake, tested 75 barrels in 20 hours.

It progressed under her leadership and that of her successor, Mrs. Wilma Keeney, but it was not until the present agent, Mrs. Jewell H. Strasner, came into office that the girls' work reached a stage of relative importance in the county. The girls are now ready to seek some state honors.

Samson Was Acting Agent
"Following Wallace Kimbrough as agricultural agent was R. K. McCoy, who is now assistant herdsman for a well-known registered Hereford ranch in Arkansas. After he left, George Samson was acting county agent, until D. F. Eaton, Jr., now Lamb County agricultural agent, took over.

"It was under Eaton that Garza boys again came out on top in state competition in 1947, when Alvin Davis was first in the state field crops contest and Carter White won the state Santa Fe trip to Chicago.

"Early this year Eaton was succeeded by Robert H. Gibson. Since then, Carter White has been awarded the Anderson-Clayton college scholarship.

Have Entered Many Shows

Also, for two years, Garza County boys had grain sorghum exhibits at the International Livestock Exposition, Chicago.

Garza County 4-H boys have shown livestock at the following shows: The Pan-American Hereford Show, Dallas; the South Plains Junior Fat Stock Show, Lubbock; the Panhandle-Plains Dairy Show, Plainview; the Amarillo Fat Stock Show, Amarillo; the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show, Fort Worth; and the Panhandle-South Plains Fair, Lubbock.

The Air Squadron will meet temporarily in the Scout Hut, behind the American Legion Hall, each Wednesday night at 7 o'clock. Membership is open to any boy who is 15 years old or older regardless of whether or not he has been a Boy Scout.

The course of study will cover meteorology, aerodynamics, navigation, aircraft design, aircraft engines and instruments, theory of flight, radio, health and crash survival. The course will include construction and use of model airplanes and dismantling and rebuilding of real airplane engines. For the purpose, two engines—a 300 h.p. Lycoming radio engine and a 65 h.p. four-cylinder Continental engine—have been ordered.

FAIR ASSOCIATION

(Continued From Front Page) and national acclaim for their accomplishments during the past two years. Yet when they have a local show, they either have to hold it on a vacant lot or in a building lent by a local merchant. They feel, Gibson believes, that the time has come for a building which they can use as their own. Such a building, if it belongs to the citizens of the community, can be used for a number of other projects, including a countywide fair.

The cards, although slow in returning, indicate that the farmers and ranchers are largely in favor of the plan, the agent said.

ROBINSON AND DAY GO TO LUBBOCK MEETING

Dean Robinson, Garza County school superintendent, and G. R. Day, superintendent of the Post Schools, are attending a district county school superintendents meeting at the Hilton Hotel today.
