DDT Solution Is Polio Preventative

With poliomyelitis occurring in some sections of the state, Post city officials have been ascertaining the causes and prevention of the dreaded disease, which each summer takes the lives of many victims and leaves those who live through it crippled.

While inquiring as to the advisability and possibility of obtaining use of Lubbock's "fog machine" for spraying the alleys in the city limits, City Secretary Sherrill Boyd was advised by Mr.

Cross of the Lubbock Department of Sanitation that the same purpose can be accomplished if: "People will take it upon themselves to use DDT spray in their own alleys, around their garbage cans and outdoor toilets."

Should Start Now
The city secretary was advised that NOW is the time to start spraying with a 5 per cent DDT solution which, with the spray guns, can be bought at local grocery and drug stores, feed stores, lumber yards and other places. Spraying should be done once a week or, at least, twice a month. If it should rain after the spraying, the process should be repeated as the water washes away the deadly crystals.

Cross said that his experiences in spraying indicated that a liquid is more effective than DDT powder, as the wind is likely to blow the powder away. The crystals from the liquid remain effective after the liquid has evaporated, he explained. Spraying often will keep down the fly population and control mosquitoes and other insects. Although the solution may not kill the flies instantly, it will cause their death soon after they are exposed.

The Post City officials will try, they said, to conform in every respect with the recommendations issued this week by Dr. George W. Cox of Austin, state health officer. (Continued On Back Page, Col 3)

Jimmy Bird As Mr. Post To Set Pace

The Cowgirl Sponsor Contest of the 1948 Post Stampede and Rodeo has an innovation in the form of Jimmy Bird who, as "Mr. Post," will set the pattern for the girls' performances each day.

As Post's traditional Cowgirl Sponsor, Bij Kennedy, is riding for Breckenridge this year, the Rodeo Association Tuesday night conducted a contest among members of the Garza County Calf Roping Club to select "Mr. Post." The best time in the events which the cowgirls will enter was made by Bird.

Claudia Ticer is Winner Of Rotary Club Scholarship

Claudia Ticer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oman Ticer, was winner of the 1948 Rotary Club scholarship which is awarded on a basis of ambition, scholarship, citizenship, deportment and amiability. The presentation was made by James Minor, Rotary president, at the high school commencement exercise last Friday night. The scholarship was for $50.

Miss Ticer plans to enter Wayland College in Plainview this fall.

Antelope Band To March And Play In All Rodeo Parades

The Post Antelope Band will make its first public appearance in the Post Stampede and Rodeo Parades this evening and Friday and Saturday.

Although the band members have new uniforms of red gabardine, which they will wear during the football season, they will wear cowboy regalia in the parades.

A feature of the band's first appearance this evening will be the Majorettes, consisting of Frances Benson, drum major, and Nelda Floyd, Barbara Norris, Glenda Young, Jeanette Stewart and Theona Beauchamp, baton twirlers. The girls will wear cowgirl costumes in the parade each day.

As the bandmaster, Merle Jenkins, has been ill, the recently organized band has missed two weeks of rehearsals and has been rehearsing overtime this week. (Continued On Back Page, Col. 2)

Marjorie Davies Heir To Fortune

The will of Carroll L. Post, brother of the late C. W. Post, founder of this city and of the Postum Cereal Company, was filed for probate last Friday. It bequeathed the bulk of his multi-million dollar estate to the Post founder's daughter, Mrs. Marjorie Post Davies of Palm Beach, Fla., wife of Joseph Davies, former ambassador to Soviet Russia.

Carroll L. Post, before his recent death, was president of the Postum Cereal Company.

Garza Represented At Abilene Session

Garza was represented at the annual convention of the West Texas County Judges and Commissioners Association in Abilene last weekend by Judge and Mrs. J. Lee Bowen, W. C. Quisenberry, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Parchman and Buck Gossett.

The Parchmans and Commissioner Gossett left Thursday morning and attended a pre-convention open house and noon barbecue given by the W. T. McClure Machinery Company in its new building there.

The others, who stayed here to see their daughters graduated from high school Friday night, attended the closing sessions of the convention Saturday.

Courthouse To Close Saturday Afternoons

All offices in the Garza County Court House will be closed Saturday afternoon during the summer months, beginning in June, Judge J. Lee Bowen said yesterday.

Fourteen Hundred Students Listed On 48-49 Census

Unofficial figures, based on the annual scholastic census made in Post and Garza School Districts in March, indicate a total of 1,486 school-age children in the county for the 1948-49 year.

This figure will make Post and Garza County Schools eligible for approximately $71,730 state aid on a per capita basis of $55.

Post Superintendent G. R. Day said this week that the census indicated there will be 753 white children and 26 negro children of school age in the Post Independent School District next season. This is an increase of three negro children and 52 white children over the number shown on the census taken in March, 1947.

The March, 1948, census taken in other school districts of the county indicated the following school-age children for next year: Southland, 237; Graham, 80; Grassburg, 49; Leforest, 11; Garndolia, 97; Verbena, 59; Barnum Springs, 21; Hartford, 11; Justiceburg, 31; Cross Roads, 23, and Close City, 89.

Union Controversy Is Heard By NLRB Examiner In Post

A hearing on the controversy between the Textile Workers Union of America, C.I.O., and the Postex Cotton Mills, Inc., was held last week at the court house before J. I. Fitzpatrick of Washington, D.C., trial examiner for the National Labor Relations Board.

The union was represented by Paul Schuler of New Orleans, La.; N.L.R.B. was represented by E. Don Wilson of Fort Worth, N.L.R.B. attorney, and the mills were represented by Joe S. Moss.

The issue was whether or not a majority of employees in an appropriate unit at the mills desire to have the union represent them in collective bargaining with the management. The mills contends that the majority do not want the union, and the union contends that the majority wants it. (Continued On Back Page Col. 2)

Four-Day Stampede To Get Under Way Tonight

The program for the 1948 Post Stampede and Rodeo, which will begin at 8 o'clock tonight, Friday and Saturday nights and 2:30 p.m. Sunday, has been planned tentatively, as follows, for each performance, Manager Phil Bouchier said yesterday.

Grand Entry, bareback bronco riding, calf roping, Cowgirl Sponsor Contest, saddle bronco riding, clown act by Lewis Blair and his educated mule, wild cow milking, bull riding and the cutting horse contest.

Bill Lyons rodeo stock, which will be used in all performances except the cutting horse contest, was brought here fresh from winter range near Petrolia yesterday by Goat Mayo, who said the stock is plenty wild and has not had a previous workout this season. The Double U. Company is providing calves for the cutting horse contest.

Stampede audiences this season will again be thrilled by some of Lyons' favorite brones. In the herd of 45 are such favorites as Pitchfork, Honest John, Wagon Wheel, Goin' Home, Comanche Babe and Rosebud. The Braunhull herd includes such well-known ones as No. 15, No. 43, No. 22, No. 5, No. 1 and No. 0.

There are 25 bulls in the Lyons' cattle herd, 50 whiteface cows for milking and 15 brahma calves for roping. The stock was brought here in seven large cattle trucks.

Nat Fleming, a bull rider and professional announcer, is here to announce the show. He travels with the Lyons' stock throughout the season, as does Blair who arrived here this morning with "Gunpowder," his favorite mule. A total of 105 contestants had registered for the seven major rodeo events by press time. Deadline for entering tonight's and Friday's performances was noon. (Continued On Back Page Col. 3)

Rodeo Dances To Follow Evening Stampede Shows

Rodeo time is dance time—and the dances for the 1948 Post Stampede and Rodeo have two successful, well-attended preludes. The first was last Saturday night when the four local musicians, who are playing for all the rodeo dances, showed practically everybody in Garza and surrounding counties what good entertainers they are. They are Mack Head, with the electric guitar; D. J. Atkinson, violinist; G. W. Martin, violinist and vocalist, and Rufus Gerner, guitar player.

The local musicians played to another capacity crowd last night in the new dance pavilion on the rodeo grounds. Similar dances will be given tonight and Friday nights, immediately after the rodeo performances.

The dances were arranged by a committee consisting of James Minor, Marshall Gibson and W. S. Land.

Garza Roper, Best Cowboy To Receive Merchant Prizes

Hays Department Store will give a Caxton Hat to the Garza County calf roper making the best average time during the four days of the rodeo. The best all-around cowboy, whether or not he is from Garza County, will receive a bridle from Vandell's Shoe Shop.

Careful Planning Of Landscape Is Most Worthwhile

Land is like money. No one feels he ever has enough of it. Plenty of land around your house insulates you from the neighbors and street traffic, let's you entertain in your garden in privacy and peace. Plenty of land makes your home truly your castle.

But land is expensive to buy, and expensive in terms of taxes and garden maintenance. So most of us cannot afford as much land around our house as we'd like. To get twice as much out of your land plan it with thoughtfulness.

The smaller the lot the less you can afford to let it go to waste and be used "just for looks." The space between the front of the house and the sidewalk is just about all you can afford to waste.

Fences, hedges, or stone walls cost money, too, so plan your house as part of the screening for privacy part. L-shaped or U-shaped floor plans give you a good start on a private enclosure, reduce the amount of landscaping needed to fill in the gaps.

Place your garage so it will work, too, to enclose your property and give you privacy.

Always orient your private outdoor areas toward your most favorable weather exposure for the season in which you live outdoors. Make your site-planning conform to these conditions. It is more important to pay attention to this than to the old-fashioned attitude of always orienting to the street.

Design the screening (whether it be fences, hedges or masonry walls) to be as good-looking from the outside as the inside. Then your neighbors will bless you. If you don't they'll call you an undesirable neighbor, a snob—or worse.

Put your foundation lines as close to the sidelines as the local restrictions will let you. That way you gain more space inside your lot for your own living use. This will cause you to plan your house around these favorable areas, too.

What "Hell Box" Means

To a printer the term "hell box" means a box or container for unwanted type, corresponding generally to waste baskets in an office. At Texas Technological College, Lubbock, a question in final examination for the class in journalism was to define "hell box." Here are some of the definitions given:

"The complaint department of a newspaper office."

"A file for feature articles to be used to fill space."

"Place where articles are thrown that aren't used."

"A container for all newsprint that has already been used."

"Where used or unused type is dumped for future reference."

"Boxes that contain type arranged to print. If dropped it causes profanity."

Dim lighting, slow heating appliances and poorly running motors may be the signal for the need of a new rewiring job on the farm.

Blackspot Can Be Controlled With Sulphur, Copper

Blackspot, the rose killer! This flower enemy number one may be attacking your garden right now. He comes in the form of black or dark brown spots on the leaves, and is sometimes found on the shoots. Look over the rose bush leaves very carefully. If these dark colored spots are present, then it's time to do something about it.

Mrs. Jewell H. Strasner, Garza County home demonstration agent, says that blackspot is responsible for killing more roses in Texas than any other leaf disease. It is active mainly in the spring and fall of the year. Dew, fog or rain are the allies of blackspot, and encourage its growth during the cool nights. On the other hand, hot dry weather checks it, but does not destroy it. These dark areas on the leaf may be less than 1-16 of an inch, but soon grow to 1-2 inch or larger, forming irregular splotches on the leaves.

As the spot grows, the leaf may turn yellow and fall off. On some rose varieties the leaves turn yellow and fall when they have only small spots. Others stay green with a large part of the leaves covered by blackspot. All ages of leaves may have blackspot, but it spreads faster on the young leaves, and will attack both the top and bottom of the leaf.

Badly infested roses shed most of their leaves. When a large number of the leaves have been lost, the shoots begin dying first at the top, then back down the stems toward the ground.

Now that's what the blackspot does. So here's what to do when your roses are attacked by this disease. Burn all the fallen leaves, and don't let irrigation water touch the leaves. Blackspot can be controlled by dusting the leaves each week with finely ground sulphur containing 10 per cent insoluble copper. Remember to dust the plants within 24 hours after a rain. Also keep in mind that the sulphur may burn the leaves if it is applied too heavily, and it should not be put on the roses in hot, dry weather.

Ask the nurseryman to supply varieties resistant to leaf spot. Although roses are badly affected by this disease, Polyanthas, tea roses and hybrid tea roses are even worse victims. Those varieties originating from Wichuraiana and rugosa types are resistant.

More information about blackspot and other rose diseases can be obtained from Mrs. Strasner.

Care Of Blankets Is Recommended

These warm spring days mean hot weather is not far away, and it's time to store the woolen articles for the summer. Most housewives are especially interested in taking the best possible care of their blankets.

Mrs. Jewell H. Strasner, Garza County home demonstration agent, says that blankets should be carefully cleaned so they will keep their light, soft fluffiness. And storing woolen blankets is an important job—it must be done correctly so there is no risk of moths and dust.

Good care of blankets means several things. Keep them clean, light and fluffy. Repair the frayed or ripped edges and darn the holes and thin spots. Protect them against moths, and wash and store them properly. They will give you extra years of service if treated gently.

Moths cannot live in freshly laundered blankets, so for that reason alone, it is important that they be clean before they are stored.

Lukewarm water, plenty of suds and three rinsings in clear water will lengthen the life of the blanket. Hang it in the shade to dry, and remember it will dry much more quickly if hung over two lines about a foot apart.

Leaflet L-53, "Care of Woolen Blankets" gives instructions on cleaning and storing blankets. This leaflet is put out by the Texas Extension Service, and can be found at the county home demonstration agent's office.

GOOD NEWS FOR SICK PEOPLE

STOMACH AILMENTS, WEAK KIDNEYS, RHEUMATIC PAINS, ARTHRITIS, NEURITIS

and such complaints as Headaches, Nervousness, Acids, Toxins, Bloating, Lack of Vitality, Poor Appetite, Underweight, Dizzy Spells.

Drugless Health

REGARDLESS of how long you have been a sufferer, and how many medicines you have tried before, you can now hope for relief if you try GEO-MINERAL, the wonderful mineral aid. Feel and enjoy the results one week after you start taking it. GEO-MINERAL comes from the earth—Nature's laboratory. Contains NO alcohol, NO preservatives, NO oil, NO harmful drugs, NO dope—is NOT habit forming. Contains ONLY Nature's minerals, the oldest, most reliable remedy for rheumatism, arthritis, kidney and stomach ailments—highly recommended by the medical profession.

FOR THOUSANDS of years ever since Hippocrates was the father of medicine, minerals and other natural medicines were a reliable remedy for most of our common ailments. GEO-MINERAL will enrich your blood, help to make you strong, full of pep, life and energy. If you suffer from nutritional anemia, nervousness, lack of vitality and energy see what GEO-MINERAL will do for you.

Rich Red Blood

MEDICAL records show 65% of men and women over 35 suffer from nutritional mineral-iron anemia. When you feel nervous, dull, tired, lazy, have dizzy spells, no ambition to work or play, a poor appetite, when your eyes lack that bright spark, and your mind brilliance, when headaches get the best of you, and you feel old before your time, and life seems not worth living, with worry wearing you down—it may be simply lack of minerals in your blood. GEO-MINERAL is then what you need.

RHEUMATISM, arthritis are dreadful diseases. Acid condition in the blood is often their cause. What could be the remedy? For thousands of years, minerals have been used to relieve the pain of these ills. Doctors send people to mineral springs to find cure or relief. The late President Roosevelt used to go to Warm Springs in Georgia. He was helped or would not have gone there twice a year.

Wonder Minerals

YEAR after year, people rush to mineral springs and spas, to drink and bathe in their miraculous water. We have all heard of the wonderful springs of Lourdes, France, and famous Thronion in ancient Greece where, according to legend, Hercules, the god of eternal youth and strength, drank its waters and bathed to be forever young.

GEO-MINERAL contains minerals found in the world's best springs. Watch the results a day or two after using it. The housecleaning it will do in your body, the poisons it will bring out. When you see this, do not get alarmed—thank Nature who created GEO-MINERAL as a sign that the medicine is working on you, and realize its value.

GEO-MINERAL is not a physic, and does not interfere with the foods in the stomach. It cleans and purifies the intestines thoroughly, relieving gas, toxins, acids, and bloating. After these poisons are out of the system, and the kidneys purified, we begin to feel the arthritis, rheumatism leaving as Nature starts to complete the recovery.

100% Guaranteed!

WE URGE everyone to try GEO-MINERAL. Do not hesitate one moment. Go to your drug store now. Get one bottle. Use it one week. If you are not 100 per cent satisfied, we will refund your money.

REGARDLESS of how long you have been suffering, and how many medicines you have tried before, GEO-MINERAL may be your remedy.

TRY it today! It may do wonders for you—and be the best investment for your health. Make you feel, eat, sleep, work and enjoy life better.

Read What They Say!

Pharmacists, like doctors, know medicine best. Thousands of druggists of high reputation, who now sell GEO-MINERAL, report amazing results by its users.

"We have sold GEO-MINERAL for the last six months and it has been one of the best selling drug items we have ever handled"—say Porter Bros., pharmacists of Concord, N. C. "Users report amazing results in many instances and we personally believe GEO-MINERAL is a good medicine for people as indicated, and recommend it to our customers who have tried other medicines with little if any results. They may discover that GEO-MINERAL is what they have probably been seeking and looking for.—we unhesitatingly recommend it."

"We wish to state that after selling GEO-MINERAL for eight months, this product has broken all sales records in the medicine line in our drug store"—reports Jack Wright, owner of Economy Drug Co., Anderson, S. C. "Users report almost miraculous results, helping sufferers with rheumatism, arthritis, weak kidneys, and various stomach ailments. We believe that there exist very few items on the druggists' shelf with the merit of this natural mineral medicine. Of thousands of bottles sold on guarantee basis, there have been very few refunds."

"We not only sell GEO-MINERAL," says G. A. Littlefield, Manager of Smith's Drug Store, Gastonia, N. C.—"but as pharmacists, we know good medicine, and we believe there is none better than GEO-MINERAL as a supplement for mineral deficiency. Doctors, hospitals, sanatoriums know the value of natural minerals. We are not surprised at the many users who come back to buy more and tell us stories of amazing benefit. We recommend it to our friends, relatives, and beloved ones, and to every one wishing for better health."

Winners Of Prizes In Conservation Will Be Honored

Taking care of the land is a lifetime job.

The men who are taking the lead in this lifetime job—real heroes of the land—are to be honored at Lubbock on May 25. They are the winners in the Panhandle and South Plains regions of Texas and in the "SAVE THE SOIL AND SAVE TEXAS" awards program—a campaign launched by the Fort Worth Press three years ago to bring long-looked recognition to the leaders of soil conservation in Texas. The winners in the Panhandle and South Plains regions are:

Hale County Soil Conservation District, first place; Crosby County Soil Conservation District, third place; Moore County Soil Conservation District, fourth place.

These soil conservation districts were among the 35 districts of the region which competed for the awards. The selection of winners for the awards and prizes, was based upon the percentage of accomplishments of the work outlined by the districts for 1947.

The Dougherty Group of Floydada, was the first winner in the region for its accomplishments of 1947 plans of soil conservation work in one community.

Perry H. Brouwer of Kress was the outstanding farmer within the region and was found to have accomplished more on his individual farm in 1947 than any other operator in the Panhandle section of Texas.

Marvin Carlile of Tulia was the individual not directly connected with soil conservation work but who contributed more of his time and services toward having such work done on the surrounding farms and ranches.

The program also provided for young people and attempted to emphasize the importance of soil conservation work to them by offering prizes for the best essay on soil conservation. Charles Hudgens of Crowell was the winner in this region. His essay was one of the 4,000 entered in the contest this year.

The awards, amounting to $12-00 cash prizes and 29 plaques are to be presented to the winners in the 51 county area at a meeting at the Hilton Hotel in Lubbock, at 1:30 p.m., May 25. Walter R. Humphrey and Bill Durham, editor and regional editor, respectively, of the Fort Worth Press are to present the awards. Other interesting speakers are to appear on the program and invitations are being extended to all bankers, implement dealers, farmers, ranchers and agricultural workers of the area to attend the meeting.

Mrs. M. C. Hodges left by train Tuesday night to visit her son, Clyde Hodges, in Compton, Calif. She planned to be gone at least 30 days. Her grandchildren, Wanda and Carolyn Cummings who spent the winter with her, left Sunday to join their mother, Mrs. Cloma Cummings, who is operating a beauty shop in Brownfield.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Porter and children, Jimmy and Sarah, of Lubbock visited here Saturday.

Greer Breezes
By Brownfield
3 To 2, Sunday

Wendell Greer threw a four-hitter at the Brownfield Cubs last Sunday for the Miller's third victory of the season, and racked up a second straight win for the locals, who the week before cleaned the Seagraves Oilers, 8 to 5 on the home diamond.

Greer, who fanned out eight and gave up only four scattered hits, found himself in trouble several times only to tighten up and keep the runners from scoring.

Post scored first in the sixth when Hester, hitting for Holland, took a walk. Thomas doubled to right field and Demos Altman singled to score both Hester and Thomas. The Millers scored again in the seventh inning when Threne walked and was sacrificed to second by Greer. Locke singled to right field to score Threne.

Brownfield scored one run in each the first and fifth inning.

The Millers garnered 10 hits off of Reeves who went the full nine for the Cubs. The locals had four errors counted against them while the Brownfield crew drew down only 2.

Officers named included Polly Duren, president; Carl Adams, secretary-treasurer and Monk Gibson, reporter.

According to plans, games will be played three nights each week, two on each Monday, Wednesday and Friday nights at the Postex lighted park. Gossip about Garza Guys And Gals

It seems I misplaced a Senior or two last week when I attempted to tell their plans for the future. For the sake of accuracy and making amends, I quote herewith the official class prophesy as written and orated by Billie Louise Nichols.

Flash China, May 13, 1960: The big torpedo boat, Zippit, reached here from America at exactly 9:36 center of the earth time. Crew reported nothing exciting on trip. Consumed one quart of milk, and three sandwiches on way. Distance between two countries cut many miles by new routing. Said to have cut through melted lava for 7,000 miles of trip.

Capitol City: Governor Noah Wilson Stone conferred with Speaker of the House Teddy E. Benson and President of the Senate Carl Adams today regarding the building of 30,000 miles of highway across the Atlantic Ocean in the near future. Chief Engineer, Billy Craig, and his assistant, Glenn Roberts, who will have charge of the construction of the watery highway, were also present at the conference.

Skunk Holler: Word has been received here that Miss Jeneice Propst, famed metropolitan opera star, who formerly lived here, will give a broadcast tonight over XYZ.

Hollywood, May 9, 1960: Fairmount Studios headed by Robert Johnson, announced today the find of a new star, Twila Welch. They discovered her making sauerkraut out of garlic in an east side apartment in the slum district of New York. She will co-star with Gene Rylant, in the picture release, Flames of Youth. Lorraine Baker is the author of the plot. Lighting effects by Gaylen Young.

Chicago: Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Maxcey announce the entrance of their daughter into Miss Jane Ann Turner's Select School for Girls at Sunny Slope on Chicken Creek. Mrs. Maxcey was formerly Miss Helen Thaxton.

Des Moines, Iowa: The annual convention of the Windy Liars Club is in session here this week. President Billy Bob Hoover presided over the opening session. Miss Melba McClellan, who won the prize last year for telling the biggest lie, was guest of honor at a banquet given at Duck-Inn Hotel last evening. The principal speaker of the evening was Homer: Jo Mason, past president of the club, and present international president.

Midway, Pacific Ocean: The Pacific Ocean swimmers passed this point early this morning. They seemed in the best of spirits. They lunched on popcorn and hot dogs here before continuing their swim across the ocean. Naomi Watson was first in elapsed swimming time. Jo Rita Ray was running a close second.

The All-American Football Team was announced today. Some of the outstanding members of the team were Stanley Benge, Hugh Ingram, and Roy Williams. All three are bachelors, still waiting for their girls to finish high school.

Scripture: 11 Kings 6: 14-17

Therefore sent he thither horses, and chariots, and a great host; and they came by night, and compassed the city about. And when the servant of the man of God was risen early, and gone forth, behold, an host compassed the city both with horses and chariots. And his servant said unto him, Alas, my master! How shall we go? And he answered, Fear not: for they that be with us are more than they that be with them. And Elisha prayed, and said, Lord, I pray thee, open his eyes, that he may see. And the Lord opened the eyes of the young man; and he saw: and, behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire round about Elisha.

Minute Prayer:

O Lord, help us to know that they that are for us are more than all that come against us. Amen.

GETTING OUT On The LIMB

By EDDIE the EDITOR

If our rodeo, which begins tonight, is as successful as last week's two booster trips, we will have the liveliest one in history.

Everywhere the boosters went, they received a big reception. Most of the towns visited sent their sheriff, police department and—in some instances—the mayor out to meet us and escort us into town with additional sirens.

Over at Spur, they had Welcome Post signs all over the place and Spur, like Snyder, Lubbock and some other towns, had arranged a special place for our entertainers to perform. At Spur, we had the use of a big flat-bed truck that had been brought there especially for the occasion. At Snyder, there was a big crowd waiting for us at the band stand, and in Lubbock they roped off a street in front of the Hilton Hotel.

Lubbock went all out to give us a big hand. Arthur B. Watkins, president of the A.-B.C. Club, and the Lubbock Police Department escorted us into town and around a long Broadway and Main Street loop, and in every block—from the Lubbock Memorial Hospital over to the Hilton—the sidewalks were lined solid with cheering Lubbockites.

We got just as big a reception at Levelland—where we all ate lunch. There—as well as several other places—the local folk joined our boosters in staging a lively street dance.

Forest Weimhold and his wife, Ruth, publisher and editor, respectively, of the Hockley County Herald, kidnapped the little woman and me and the six lovely high school girls who contributed so much to the success of the booster trips and took us to the beautiful new Country Club for a delicious lunch.

I hadn't intended to share the company of those girls with Forest when I beat the other eager boosters to the draw and asked them to lunch at 8:01 a.m. Friday, but there I was—trapped—and, well, Forest did pay the bill, and he showed us a wonderful time, besides.

I said it last week and I must say it again—those youngsters are really a credit to Post. Four of the girls—LaRue Stevens, Sue Bell Brister, Anita Kennedy and ElWanda Davies—thrilled the spectators in nine West Texas towns Thursday. The other two, Barbara Norris and Neida Floyd, couldn't join the group until the Friday trip because they were being graduated from the Eighth Grade on Thursday night. The six of them are the cutest, most talented, best mannered and sweetest 'teen-agers in all of West Texas. They demonstrated all of those virtues every place they went.

ROGER W. BABSON WRITES THIS WEEK:

American Youth Displays Healthy, Pioneering Spirit

Babson Park, Mass.—Recently, many young men about to graduate from colleges and several veterans have asked, "Should I go into business for myself this June?"

These boys, many of them veterans, are chips off the old block. From frontier days to present, pioneering has been an American tradition. It renews my faith in American youth to know that they still want to hoe their own row, regardless of huge corporations and governmental restrictions.

Setting up shop for oneself is not the easiest way to earn a living. I can tell from experience that it is much tougher today than it was in the fabulous days of the Edisons, Fords and Rockefeller. But the small businessman still symbolizes that which has made this country great—personal independence and freedom.

Times Have Changed
I can remember the days when a lad with $500 and the determination to succeed could, through sweat and toil, earn a fortune. But times have changed. The other day, Joe, an enterprising young man dropped in to see me. A year ago Joe went into business for himself—commercial soaps, window washes and the like. Yesterday, Joe went to work for a nationally-known soap company. Why did he give up his year-old business? Simply because he had limited capital. Today it takes more than $500, particularly if you want to get into production and distribution of some tangible items.

Joe met his Waterloo when he tried to market his products. He found that there were already many good soaps for sale and that most markets had been well exploited by large and long-established companies. He was also confronted with the problem of advertising, for which he needed not hundreds of dollars but hundreds of thousands. Had Joe been selling his own services, as for example, in advertising or personal counseling, his chance of success would have been greater. Then he would have needed little more than an office, a desk, a telephone and a secretary to get started.

Advantages, Disadvantages
The real pioneer is challenged by rough going. So, if you are a business frontiersman, remember there will always be opportunities in enterprises where machinery and volume are of maximum importance and in enterprises where personal care is of maximum importance. For example, there will always be a field for specialty stores, repair shops and restaurants with individuality.

Remember, as you dream, that big business has certain important advantages over small business—especially if much machinery or determination is needed. On the other hand, small business also has advantages where personal attention gets the trade. It can keep open longer hours and not be tied to iron rules. It can afford greater risks. Therefore, if you are on the fence vocationally ask yourself, "Can this business be operated more economically as part of a large chain?" If your honest answer is "yes," then aim at becoming an employee in top management. If your answer is "no," then pioneer!

Whatever your answer, found your plans on education. Go to a good business college and get some practical courses. These will give you the necessary principles and functions of business as accounting, distribution, economics, finance and production. You will get off to a faster start and a better finish.

The average housewife washes nine piles of dishes as high as the Empire State Building in her lifetime. Automatic gas water heaters simplify the task with plenty of hot water when it's needed.

By EVELYN BOYD
MAHON DESERVES UNOPPOSED CAMPAIGN.
The above is subject of an editorial written recently by my Simmons University chum of 1926-27, Bob Whipkey, for the Big Spring Herald of which he is editor.

While we recognize the sound right of any one to announce for the same office, we hope that the Congressman from this district will not be obliged to lay down his duties in Washington to face a campaign at home.

George Mahon has faced some campaigns at home since he first went to Congress in 1935, but even against formidable opposition his margin of victory was sufficiently strong to remove any doubt as to the fact that a big majority of the voters in the district approve of and appreciate his record.

Because he is quiet and unassuming, a type of man whose name may seldom be found quoted at length on this and that issue, his record is the one thing which has earned him the support of his district.

His chief assignment is that of member of the powerful appropriations committee in the House. Assigned to its military sub-committee, it fell Mahon's lot to handle the actual physical contact work for the committee in the days prior to and during the war. After the war had ended, Mahon's single-handed fight restored appropriations to the air force and kept it from being hamstringed worse than it was. Subsequent events certainly have proven his vision and wisdom on this point.

Hardly had he been oriented in Congress before he was chosen on a committee to visit the Orient. During the war he made flying junkets on inspection trips all over the U. S., to Alaska, again to the Orient. One of his most significant assignments came last summer when he was named a member of the hand-picked Herter committee to make an inspection of conditions in Europe. It will be remembered that Rep. Christian Herter, the chairman, selected the committee purely on a basis of merit, conscientiousness, and ability to work hard and long.

This trip afforded Mahon an opportunity to talk with common people, to visit in their homes and shops, to talk with officials and others in England, Germany, France, and Trieste. Thus, his background has given him some broad international understandings.

Ordinarily one might be impressed by the fact that Mahon is the fourth ranking democrat on the appropriations committee, and that the men above him are old and some in ill health; or that among Texans only Sam Rayburn, Wright Patman and Milton West have more seniority than he has in the House.

What Our Contemporaries Are Saying:

IT SEZ HERE—The Banner welcomes organization of a Republican Party in Crosby County. Not because we like Republican Party ideals, either, because just about everything we loath was born in a Republican camp. The difference in the parties is simple: Republicans believe that prosperity in upper income brackets will filter down to lower income groups and produce prosperity for all. Democrats believe that lifting the economic standards at the bottom will seep upward and make everybody prosperous. Neither theory has yet proved successful. Normally, what makes a Republican or a Democrat is the status of his bank account. When a Democrat labors to accumulate $50,000 in the bank, a new Republican is born. A short check-up of Republicans in your community will give some credence to that statement. Few men who try to survive on $50 a week are Republicans. And when income drops to $25 a week, you have a swell Communist budding in your midst. We welcome the Republican Party because it will cleanse the Democrats of the Texas Regulars, who are basically Republican but vote Democratically because their fathers did; and besides, there's no other party in Texas to vote with. Another reason we have Texas Regulars is because Republican-nurtured citizens live in a predominantly Democratic community and it would be a matter of caustic speculation if one openly went Republican. We don't like criticism. It's also bad for business. So Republicans have organized inside the Democratic Party and are doing a swell job of taking it over in Texas. Where a man would lose face by turning Republican, he can still preserve the respect of his neighbors by being a Texas Regular. The new party here will offer them a chance to come out openly and declare themselves. We hope to see many taking advantage of the opportunity to come out of the bushes and fight like men!—Ralla Banner.

ing he still has the support of the vast majority in his district, we hope that he will not be obliged to return home this summer for a needless campaign.

THE LOWDOWN—I've just been reading where a little factory—40 employees—in California, has pulled up stakes and headed for Texas. Too much bossism from the Labor Temple, the man said. It is only 40 workers moving out, but the folks there can take heed. The next outfit to move might take 800 people. They have a good man there in sunny Cal, who is doing his level best to change things so that a person is free to work where, at what, and when he chooses—and for how much. They should listen there, more attentive, to this gentleman. He is Cecil deMille—he is no single-tracker—he knows about more things than just shootin' pictures of pulchritudinous damsels poised on a springboard. Much more, I say. Freedom is fadin' out, he says.—Lorenzo Tribune.

TRENDS—An excellent opportunity for the Crosbyton school system to acquire buildings for which there is already a need and for which there will be a very definite need in the immediate future, will present itself this summer with the sale of surplus buildings at South Plains Army Air Field at Lubbock. These buildings can be purchased by the schools at the extremely low figure of only FIVE PERCENT of value, which make them a very attractive buy; in fact, one that in all probability can never be duplicated.—Crosbyton Review.

F. Y. I.—Just to keep the record straight. The Gaines County News subscribes at considerable cost to an advertising service which furnishes advertising illustrations and copy suggestions. This service is free to all advertisers and each is urged to use it. Smooth-talking salesmen often come to town and try to sell firms on special advertising campaigns for use in the local newspaper. Most of these campaigns are expensive and our experience has been that most firms which contract for them wish they had not taken them on long before the contracts are completed. This is just to remind our customers that mats and copy suggestions from The News are free and every advertiser is invited to use them.—Gaines County News.

Take Your Choice, Neighbor!

The missus—who writes our Woman's Column in the Clarion under the name of "Nancy Gale"—gets letters about recipes, advice on etiquette, home management, etc.

One letter she got last week was about a recipe she published for Welsh Rarebit—made with tart cheese, Worcestershire, and a cup of sparkling tangy beer. "Turned out great," says her correspondent. "But you didn't mention what beverage to serve with it. Should I serve beer? Cider? Iced tea?"

The missus' answer was simply:

"Any beverage your guests prefer. You don't have to serve cider—any more than you have to serve beer ... but it's often courteous to let guests have a choice."

From where I sit, that simple answer applies to more items than Welsh Rarebit. In a world where everyone has different tastes and ideas—we should recognize those differences—and never deny the right of choice to anyone!

Investment In ACP Measures Must Be Kept Up By Farmers

Farmers in Garza County should understand that when they carry out conservation practices under the Agricultural Program, they are expected to maintain, or keep up these practices. That is part of the responsibility accepted when assistance is received to help carry out the practice.

In explaining this provision of the ACP, Will Wright, chairman of the County Agricultural Conservation Committee, said that sometimes farmers get the idea that, after the work is done one year and the payment received, there is no further responsibility.

Mr. Wright pointed out that if, under the provisions of the program, the County Committee finds that any conservation practice carried out under a previous year's program has not been maintained in accordance with good farming practices, or if its effectiveness has been destroyed by neglect or failure to keep up the practice, deductions may be made from the current year's assistance earned under the program.

The purpose of the Agricultural Conservation Program is to conserve soil and water and not to make payments to farmers, the county committee emphatically stated. And while all farmers have a responsibility to the nation to conserve their farmland, farmers cooperating in the ACP have the additional responsibility of safeguarding the investment the nation has made in conservation through the program assistance.

Most farmers do maintain these practices, the chairman said, but for those few who do not the provision for deductions was set up.

A. and M. Sponsors Several Broadcasts

Will Wright, chairman of the Garza County Agricultural Conservation Association has called attention to the Texas Farm and Home Program, which originates at A. & M. College and may be heard each morning, Monday through Friday, from 6 to 6:15 over the following stations:

WFAA, 570 Dallas; KPRC, Houston; WOAI, San Antonio; KRIS, Corpus Christi, and KVAU, Brownsville.

Wright stated that farm and ranch operators also may hear the Texas A. & M. Farm Review on the air from 6:30 to 7 a.m., on the following stations:

KNOW, Austin; KCRS, Midland; KXYZ, Houton; KBST, Big Spring; KPLT, Paris; KBVL, Greenville; WACO, Waco; KTEM,

Grape Leaf Hopper Control Explained By Robert Gibson

In response to requests from several farmers, Robert H. Gibson, asked the Post Dispatch to publish the following instructions on the control of grape leaf hoppers:

Spray vines with nicotine sulphate (1/2 pt. to 50 gal. of water) as the hoppers appear and follow at intervals of 20 to 30 days apart. The spray will kill the nymph or immature leaf hopper but will not kill the adult.

It can be mixed in smaller quantities, with the same proportions.

Anyone having any special problems with the hoppers is invited to contact Gibson.

Weed Killing Is Simple Matter With Good Spray

The following notes on killing weeds recently were released by Robert H. Gibson, Garza County agricultural agent:

All bulb-leaf weeds can be killed with 2-4-D as a spray. The spray is recommended to kill vine weed, blue weed, rag weed and all other hard-to-kill weeds having broad leaves. It also kills goat-heads or sandburrs.

One should avoid getting 2-4-D on flowers, garden plants, shrubs and small trees, as it will kill them.

The solution will not kill grasses but will kill dandelions.

The mixture should be prepared according to directions on the container. The first spraying of hard-to-kill weeds should be followed with another spraying in 20 to 30 days. One application will kill ordinary annual broadleaf weeds.

Care should be taken that the 2-4-D does not get on the hands. If it does, it should be washed off immediately, as it will crack the skin.

Further information can be had from Gibson.

Dent Home Takes Lightning Shock

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Dent had a close call Sunday night when a bolt of lightning struck down a huge elm tree in their front yard and rammed part of the trunk through a screen door across their porch and up against their bedroom window.

Parts of the tree were thrown upon the roof of the porch and into the yards of the neighbors. One flying branch of the tree damaged the shingles on the front part of the house, above the roof of the porch.

Although the tree was scorched by the ball of fire which struck it, no damage from fire was done to the house.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

To Order Fish
 Cooperators of the Duck Creek Soil Conservation District who want fish to stock ponds, should leave their request at the Post Work Unit office. The final date to request fish is July 1. Requests for fish will be forwarded to the District Board of Supervisors who meet at Spur. The supervisors will assemble all requests and order the fish from the Texas Game, Fish and Oyster Commission.

Delivered In Fall
 This fall cooperators will be notified when the fish tank will be in Post to make delivery. Cooperators will be expected to furnish 16-gallon cream cans or other large containers and place their fish in their ponds.

Soil Conservation Service technicians discourage the indiscriminate stocking of ponds; instead they recommend fish management in small ponds. A small pond a half acre in size can provide an abundance of fish for a family and some for the neighbors.

One surface acre of water is capable of producing 150 pounds of table size bass and bream yearly. Besides furnishing stock water, a small pond can furnish more meat than a similar size area of grass.

How To Get 'Em
 One of the biggest misbeliefs on managing a fish pond is how much to fish it. To grow fish there must be a balance between the kinds of fish that eat mostly plant life and those that feed on other fish. Otherwise the pond becomes in a state of balance of a lot of little fish. Bream are plant life eaters. Bass feed on the young of bream. One pair of bream is capable of producing 3,500 young each year. For each 10 pair of bream it takes one pair bass to keep them in balance. After the fish in the pond get table size the pond should be fished heavily. All the kids in town fishing a pond will improve fishing in it.

Old ponds that are overstocked with fish should be cleaned out by poisoning and then restocked with bass and bream. Soil Conservation Service technicians can give technical assistance in poisoning a pond in preparation to restocking it. The water is not affected for stock use.

Supervisors Meet Today
 The Board of Directors of the Duck Creek Soil Conservation District meets this afternoon at Spur. As part of their business they have for approval a 44,000 acre range conservation plan on the Paddle Ranch. They will also take action on the C. R. Baldwin and A. R. Robinson farm conservation plans. Approximately $200 from the sale of grass and legume seed through the Fry Produce will be deposited in the District's fund.

R. R. Wooten is chairman; Will Wright is vice-chairman, Oscar McGinty is secretary and C. P. Witt and John Lewis are also officers. All landowners make up the board.

POLIO PREVENTIVE—

Strict sanitary measures should be observed in all communities. Eliminate rats, mosquitoes, and houseflies, and destroy their breeding places. Every effort should be made to secure approved garbage collection systems and safe water supplies. Where adequate municipal sewage disposal systems are not in operation, it is vitally important to maintain sanitary septic tanks and outdoor privies.

Only approved milk should be used, and raw foods and vegetables should be washed thoroughly before use, and protected from flies, filth, and insects. All food-handling establishments should adhere strictly to the State Law concerning the sterilization of dishes and utensils.

Over-exertion in children should be avoided, and they should not visit in homes where there is illness. It is advisable to reduce to a minimum all human contacts, especially in children during an outbreak of this disease. It is not advocated that schools, churches, and theatres be closed.

Early symptoms of infantile paralysis are headache, fever, vomiting, drowsiness, followed by stiffness in the neck and back. When suspicious symptoms appear, a physician should be called immediately.
