Monday Marks First Day For Absentee Vote

Absentee ballots for the July 24 Democratic primary may be cast at the office of County Clerk Ray N. Smith, beginning Monday.

The election calendar sets July 4 as the first day for absentee balloting, but since that date falls on Sunday, ballots will not be available until the following day.

The absentee voting will continue until three days prior to the election.

Ballots may be cast at the clerk's office or by mail, providing proper application or mail ballots is made.

This will be the second election year that absentee voting has been operated under the new State Election Code. It provides for an additional voting box for absentee ballots, and that the ballots remain in the clerk's office for counting and tallying on election day by a special canvassing board.

Returns from the absentee voting will be listed on one tally sheet by the canvassing board and the returns made direct to the county clerk, as are those from other polling places. The board is directed by the election law to perform its task by 1 p. m. election day.

This year's special canvassing board for absentee ballots is composed of Mrs. Florence Johnson, chairman; Paul Jones and Max Gordon.

Ninety-five absentee ballots were cast in the 1952 July primary election.

Farmers Making Headway In Fight Against Grasshoppers

Farmers appeared to be making headway this week in their fight against the worst infestation of grasshoppers in several years.

County Agent Lewis C. Heerron said Tuesday that the number of calls reaching his office asking assistance in the fight against the crop pests had been decreasing the past few days.

The infestation still is serious, however, and wide-scale poisoning is under way in every section of the county where cotton is growing.

The grasshoppers are described as the wingless jumbo type. They are reported making serious inroads on cotton throughout West Texas and in other sections of the state.

Farmers in this area are fighting them by putting out poisoned bait.

The county agent also reported that there is some promise of infestation in the northeastern part of the county around Crossburg.

Meanwhile, the growing cotton, as well as early corn, is in need of rain. Recent downpours which have drenched other sections of the South Plains have missed most of Garza County.

Heavy rains ranging up to an inch or more were reported Sunday and Monday in some sections of the county. There were heavy falls north, west and east of town, and from 75 of an inch to an inch east of Justiceburg.

The rains almost missed Post entirely. The county agent's rain gauge showed 96 of an inch Sunday evening, 61 of an inch Monday morning and the same amount Tuesday morning. Post's 1954 total is 8.21 inches.

Other activities on the crop front this week include cotton measuring by crewmen from the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office. Jess Cornwell is senior field officer in charge of the measuring. Assisting him are Darrell Stone, V. L. Paul, Jack Myers, Clay Johnston and Guy Nutt.

Mike E. Custer, county office manager in the ASC, said Wednesday that Garza County appears to be overflooded by about 70,000 acre on its 1954 average allotment of 45,433.6 acres.

Custer said that up to Wednesday morning about 80 farms have been measured and that most still are about 250 to 300 acres the best measuring. It is completed by each crew. The area is measured by the office in a preliminary manner, which allows at least three days to finish each of the farms.

Christopher Is To Teach Next Year At Hobbs

Johnny Christopher, who resigned earlier in the year as vocal music director at Post High School, has accepted a similar position in the high school at Hobbs, N. M., he announced Monday.

Christopher said Monday night that he and his family expect to move to Hobbs before the end of the week.

Hobbs, one of New Mexico's larger schools, has an enrollment of approximately 2,500, including about 800 in high school.

Christopher said he had secured the new teaching position solely on the basis of the splendid recommendations given him by D. C. Arthur, superintendent of the Post schools, members of the school board, and a number of other Post individuals. He expressed his thanks to each of them and said he was happy to have merited such confidence during the two years he was at the local high school.

"I never expect to work with a finer group of youngsters, and the same goes for faculty members and patrons of the school," Christopher said. "I shall always treasure the memories of seeing and meeting the people at Hobbs."

Prisoner's Rampage Is Costly—To Him

It cost a prisoner $47.60 to learn Saturday that even in jail it's against the law to destroy public property.

J. L. Fry, about 21, who had been arrested on a drunk charge, set fire to bed clothing in the county jail and tore up a car table before being slammed down by Deputy Sheriff J. W. (Red) Floyd.

The officer first learned that the prisoner was on a rampage when he smelled smoke from the burning bed clothing. He arrived on the scene to discover that Fry had also torn up a table and apparently was bent on wrecking the rest of the jail.

Fry paid a fine and costs totaling $47.60 after pleading guilty in county court to destroying public property. He also paid a fine and costs in justice of the peace court on the drunk charge.

Garbage Pits Being Built At City Park

Two garbage pits are under construction at the City Park this week and are expected to be ready for use by the weekend.

Plenitickers are asked to make use of the garbage pits in helping keep the park clean.

Three Are Taken To State Prison

Three prisoners, sentenced here recently by District Judge Louis B. Reed, were transported to the state prison at Huntsville Tuesday by Deputy Sheriff J. W. (Red) Floyd.

Two of the prisoners, R. B. Jones, 18, and Jack Shaw, 65, were sentenced Saturday following pleas of guilty on June 17.

The third, Leo Richards, 35-year-old Negro, was sentenced on June 17, the same day he entered a plea of guilty.

Jones received a five-year sentence after pleading guilty to a charge of robbery by assault in connection with an assault on Albert Darby here the night of May 8 and robbery of his American Grill Cafe.

Shaw was sentenced to one and one-half years after pleading guilty to two counts of a morals charge involving an eight-year-old girl. The counts on which the State had elected to try Shaw were enticing a female under 14 into a house for immoral purposes and aggravated assault.

Richards was sentenced to seven years after pleading guilty to a charge of assault with intent to rob. The charge grew out of an attack by Richards on a Mexican here last March 22.

FOUR-YEAR OLD BOY IN CRITICAL CONDITION AT GALVESTON

Gasoline Blast Injures Four

Suffering from burns covering 60 per cent of his body, four-year-old Paul Geffers, Jr., victim of a gasoline explosion at his home here last Thursday afternoon, was transferred Sunday to a Galveston hospital and the care of a specialist.

The youngster and three other members of his family were burned when gasoline being used by his father to clean an automobile radiator ignited from the hot water heater flame.

The boy and his father, who was cleaning the radiator in the bath tub, were the most seriously burned of the four. Mrs. Geffers and a two-year-old daughter, Vicki, were in the kitchen adjoining the bathroom and received only minor burns. Another daughter, three-year-old Melody, was playing in the yard when the explosion occurred.

Firemen quickly extinguished the flames before they spread from the small bathroom.

Neither Geffers nor his son, who was standing beside him, were hurt.

ESTABLISH FUND

had on their shirts when the gas fumes ignited and the rest of their clothing did not catch fire. From his hospital bed here Thursday evening, Geffers told a Post Dispatch reporter that the explosion occurred when the automatic hot water heater came on.

"I should have known better," Geffers said. "I first tried to clean the radiator out in the yard, but carried it in to the bathroom when I couldn't make it fit in a washtub."

The boy was severely burned on the front and back of the body and about the face and neck. His father was burned on the chest and about the arms.

The two were taken from Garza Memorial Hospital to Big Spring by ambulance Sunday.

Dog Tags Are On Sale This Week

Dog tags arrived this week and went on sale at the City Hall.

City Marshal F. M. Reed Sr. said Tuesday that dog owners will be given ten days to have their pets vaccinated against rabies and licensed before pick-up of stray dogs begins.

After that period, stray dogs will be taken to the pound, and if not claimed within 24 hours will be disposed of the marshal said.

L. W. Kitchen, veterinarian, will vaccinate dogs at his home office here.

Following vaccination, licenses and tags may be obtained at the City Hall. The fees are $2.50 for female dogs and $1 for males.

Strict enforcement of the dog ordinance will be made, as a safeguard against rabies outbreaks, city officials said.

New Election Box Sets Delivered

Ten sets of new election boxes purchased by the county arrived this week.

The new boxes, four to a set, comply with provisions of the State Election Code. They were purchased from a Dallas firm at a cost of approximately $300.

Mandate Received On Court Action

The county this week received a mandate on the Court of Criminal Appeals' action in affirming the county court's judgment in the case of Ethel Gray of Post, charged with sale of wine.

I join Harley's multitude of other friends in wishing for him a speedy and complete recovery.

THE CURRENT jumbo grasshopper infestation in those parts has taken on major proportions—big enough that it has every one worried. Cotton farmers are after the "hoppers," but at last reports seem to be fighting a losing battle.

The situation is by no means confined to this immediate area. Mrs. G. W. Greer was in Thursday and said she and her family had just returned from a week's visit in Hamilton County, and that cotton farmers are having the same type of crop-pest trouble there.

A Good Question The Communist meeting was a huge success. Speaker after speaker told the proletariat present that the time was drawing nigh to strike off their shackles, to overthrow the government.

It is now an ideal place for picnicking. There's a barbecue pit and tables and some shade. Already during the past few weeks, we have had a few items in the paper about groups making use of the park for outings. By CHARLES DIDWAY

Sunday is July the Fourth, set aside to commemorate the signing of the Declaration of Independence 178 years ago. The priceless heritage of every American family is the Declaration of Independence. Guaranteeing to all the right to Life, Liberty and the Pursuit of Happiness, it imposes upon each the responsibility of preserving that freedom for generations of Americans yet unborn.

Most business places are expected to be closed Monday in conformance with an agreement reached at a Chamber of Commerce meeting earlier in the year—to close on Monday when one of the designated holidays falls on Sunday. There was the same situation on Memorial Day and the town was closed about as tight on Monday, May 31, as it's ever been.

In the June issue of the Southwestern Public Service Co. magazine, "The Southwesterner," there are pictures on page 14 of 18 senior students from Post High School touring Plant X, in Lamb County. The tour was arranged by Ted Hibbs, local manager, who accompanied the seniors.

NINE LESSONS IN LIVING

- Learn to laugh—a laugh is better than medicine. Learn to attend to your own business. Few men can handle their own will. Learn to tell a story. A well-told story is like a sunbeam in a sick room. Learn to say kind things—nobody ever regrets them. Learn to avoid nasty remarks—they give neither the hearer nor the speaker any lasting satisfaction. Learn to stop grumbling. If you can't see any good in the world, keep the bad to yourself. Learn to hide aches with a smile—nobody is interested anyway. Learn to keep troubles to yourself—nobody wants to take them from you. Above all, learn to smile. It pays.

Post Rotary Club attendance during MAY was 50.71 per cent, up from 49.92 per cent during the month of APRIL.

Roger W. Babson's Forecast For Second Half Of 1954

Sees Many Business Crosscurrents In Year's Last Half; Building Holds Ups

BARBON PARK, Mass.—While most of the columnists and business counselors last December forecast a depression for 1954, I constantly insisted that 1954 would be a "fair business year."

General Business (1) Despite my general optimism with regard to prospects for business during the last half-year, there will be many crosscurrents. The improvement over the first six months will lag, or fall far behind. Others are slated for betterment. Building has held up well and was the backbone of business in the first half of 1954. The momentum generated should carry through the balance of the year.

(2) Also deserving of attention as in line for continued high activity, or for improvement, are the following industries: Electric power output, aircraft production, rubber manufacturing, household equipment, electrical equipment, petroleum, natural gas, shoes and textiles. Even the sick coal industry will enjoy some pickup from the very depressed levels experienced during the first six months of 1954.

(3) Due to slip further down, or slated to show the least improvement, are the following industries: Machinery, machine tools, railroad equipment, metal fabricating, steel and iron, and autos and auto parts. In particular, auto output will not match the first half, with competition keener in the last half than at any time since the 1930's.

Sales And Inventories (4) As in the case of general business discussed above, sales prospects will rule selective. With purchasing power holding well, demand for food products and soft goods will remain at a brisk pace. The public, however, have learned something about watching their pennies. They have become more price-conscious. For this reason, I predict that the mass distributors, such as the grocery and variety chains, will run ahead of the others saleswise, during the last half-year.

(5) Retail sales in general, although about 4 per cent lower dollarwise, have held up during the first half in terms of physical volume as discounts and other concessions reduced the actual receipts. This is encouraging since it shows that consumers are still willing to spend if the price is reasonable. In terms of units, retail sales will hold up through 1954. Inventories will constantly be reduced during 1954. THE RETAILERS WHO DO BEST IN 1954 WILL BE THOSE WITH THE BEST PARKING FACILITIES FOR THEIR CUSTOMERS.

Political Outlook (6) I forecast that the more liberal attitude on the part of the Eisenhower Administration will surely continue through Novem-

A NOTE OF PROGRESS

Appointment by the Mayor of a city development board sounds a real note of progress—one which can hardly miss. Recent accomplishments indicate that the City is going through one of the most progressive periods in its 47-year history and creation of such a board as the one now in operation is assurance that the train of progress is not likely to come to an abrupt halt.

Acting in an investigative and advisory capacity, the board will work closely with the Mayor and City Commission, and its activities will not overlap those of other groups, such as the Chamber of Commerce. In fact, members of the board are also members of the Chamber of Commerce and other civic groups, and in a position to do a world of good by correlating the respective efforts of all organizations toward the good of the community.

Post is fortunate in acquiring such an organization as the one recently formed by the Mayor. Its members probably will find it necessary to meet only on rare occasions, but civic-minded citizens can look ahead more optimistically in the knowledge that the board is ready to meet and act when those occasions arise.

- (1) do not punish him in anger; (2) do not ridicule his conceits, but rather talk frankly on matters in which he is interested; (3) let him invite his friends to your home and table; (4) be careful to impress upon his mind that making character is more important than making money; (5) live uprightly before him at all times; then you will be able to talk to him with power; (6) be much in prayer for his spiritual growth.

Big news to television viewers on the South Plains is the announcement that both Lubbock stations are hooking onto the "live" cable this week—thereby assuring better TV programming for the area. Advance news of the hook-up wasn't interesting us much until we heard one of the announcers say there is a possibility that one of the Lubbock stations will be able to televise the major league's all-star baseball game along about July 12. That made our ears perk up!

The housing situation is getting tight again in Post. During the past several weeks, the number of seekers for houses and apartments has been steadily increasing. They are reading the classified columns of the Dispatch and are checking with the Chamber of Commerce in their search for living quarters. Agencies at rental property are asked to make use of these two mediums in making their houses and apartments available to new-comers, most of whom are here because of the stepped up oil activity.

her and perhaps until the 1956 elections. During the past six months rumors have been spreading to the effect that President Eisenhower will not run again, but there is no agreement as to whether by either party as to who the next candidates will be.

The President has won his conflict with Senator Bricker, the House approved his Tax Bill, the Taft-Hartley Labor Bill has been shelved to the relief of all, and he has so far kept out of the McCarthy-Army row. I forecast that for the balance of the year he will leave domestic affairs to his associates and devote most of his time to helping Mr. Dulles ward off trouble with Russia and China, and avoid another "Korea."

During the first six months of the year a "New Look" has developed in connection with defense expenditures. Appropriations for foot soldiers and certain classes of airplanes have been cut in favor of items for atomic warfare and guided missiles. Best authorities agree that we will get more protection and fighting strength from this change with less cost. As a promise "to get our boys out of Korea" was a great factor in helping elect Dwight Eisenhower as President, he naturally will hesitate to send U. S. foot soldiers into Indo-China at least before the coming November elections.

There will be no World War in 1954 started by Russia or the U. S. A. In the last half of 1954, however, the United States will move closer and closer to the position occupied by Great Britain during the 19th Century. The United States will prepare to engage in small wars anywhere in order to prevent outbreak of a world conflagration.

I predict that the United States in the last six months of 1954 may by-pass the United Nations and try to form a "defensive" league of nations interested in Southeast Asia. The purpose: To keep the rice, tin, and rubber of that area from falling into Communist hands. Most of the arms and military know how needed by such an alliance of anti-Communist nations in the Far East will be furnished by Uncle Sam. This means that cuts in arms expenditures, already scheduled for the last half of 1954 by the Administration, may not be put into effect. The Korean situation will remain about as is—"much talk, no shooting"; but Indo-China will constantly become a greater threat.

Do not forget Europe and the Middle East. France is torn by internal dissension and a blow off could come there any time. West Germany is growing more impatient with French bickering over the Saar and over the formation of a Western European army including German participation. Russia will strive mightily to widen the split between France and Western Germany by holding out the "bait" of reunification between East and West Germany.

(12) Friction between the Jews and Arabs in the Middle East is being encouraged by Communist agents. The smoldering fires there could break into flame at any time, requiring a hurry-up call for Uncle Sam's fire department.

Stock Market Outlook
(13) Of course, some day the market (especially the Dow-Jones Industrials) will get a bad wallop with very much lower prices. On the other hand, this may not come during the next few months. Up to this time the high yields of stocks have not appealed so much to investors, owing to the personal tax on both dividends and on income in general. Although stock yields compared with those of twenty years ago are higher if personal taxes are not considered, yet when these personal taxes are deducted, today's yields have not been attractive.

(14) The new Tax Bill and the increased buying for pension funds and investment trusts have, however, increased the demand for common stocks and could hold the market up for some months to come. I forecast that it will be very important to make careful selections of stocks. Don't buy stocks just because they have gone off heavily in price and appear cheap.

(15) Unfortunately, many of the small concerns will find it more and more difficult to compete with their big competitors. Not only can these big corporations make goods cheaper and have better means of distribution, but they can spend huge sums on advertising, which a smaller concern cannot do. This will be especially evident during the next six months. The companies which will prosper most are those which have inaugurated effective labor-saving programs. Manufacturers will win only as they purchase new labor-saving machinery, spend more money on research and on well-directed advertising.

(16) Automobiles will continue to be hard to sell and easier to buy during the last half of 1954. Both the automobile stocks and the cars will be in less demand. There will be more bargains in used cars, discounts on new cars, especially cars of the "independent" manufacturers.

(17) Canada will continue to boom during the second half of 1954, but this may be a good time to take profits on Canadian investments.

Money, Inflation, And Interest Rates

(18) When Mr. Eisenhower assumed the Presidency with his Cabinet of "9 millionaires," they proclaimed a new monetary policy which would increase the value of the dollar and raise interest rates. Either fortunately or unfortunately, the economic situation caused a reversal of this policy. The value of the dollar shows no increase over Jan. 1 and this has been hailed by Wall Street as a sign of further inflation. Wall Street has boomed certain common stocks accordingly. Interest rates during the second six months of 1954 should average about as at present.

(19) The fear of involvement in Indo-China is strengthening the commodity markets. This takes some of the pressure off of Secretary Benson and those who have been resisting increased tariffs. I forecast an upward movement in many commodity prices—other than farm prices—during the balance of 1954.

(20) Money supplies are on the rise again now. They will continue to expand during the last half. Inflationary effects on the price level will be limited as our capacity to produce is now large. Remember, the surest way to squelch an inflationary fire is with a flood of goods. Inflationary effects of the expanded money supply could also be nullified by the change in the Government's method of collecting the corporate income tax. The new tax law may put the large corporations on a pay-as-you-go basis, squeezing their cash holdings, and of collecting the corporate income tax. The new tax law may put the large corporations on a pay-as-you-go basis, squeezing their cash holdings.

(21) Any psychological inflationary flare-ups that may take place as a result of war scares, big or little, will not be long-lived. They will definitely be dangerous to follow up. A word of warning: Don't get drawn into any speculative moves in commodities or stocks based on the outbreak of a small war. If the need arises, our Government will move with lightning swiftness to put controls into effect. They are already "triggered." The only real danger of any federal tax increases will come with the outbreak of another war.

Labor, Building, And Real Estate

(22) As to unemployment, I will say that this has increased some over last year, but if considered on a per capita basis, it is even less than that of five years ago. Look for a moderate reduction in the ranks of the unemployed during the last six months of 1954.

(23) The improvement which I expect in employment should not, however, be sufficient to make union leaders careless. Jobs will still be very much in demand. This should mean that the last half will see no prolonged strikes.

(24) Most union management settlements will be made with a moderate amount of give and take. Any wage advances will be limited to the neighborhood of a reasonable hourly figure, plus some additional fringe benefits. The Administration and the Labor Leaders will not try to revamp the Taft-Hartley Bill during the last six months of 1954.

(25) My forecast as to the various classes of real estate is as follows:

(a) Large commercial farms will experience a further sag in their land values during the last half-year as farmers' gross income dip lower.

(b) Small farms on the fringes of big city suburbs should hold or rise in price as people get further away from city centers. This move could become an avalanche in the event of really serious war scares.

(c) I look for vacant land in the suburbs to hold its value well. In the big cities it may be another story, unless the land is suitable for parking purposes.

(d) Business properties in the big cities may ease somewhat in price during the last six months of this year. Suburban business properties can be expected to hold up. Demand for more shopping centers will be noticeable during the months to come.

(e) Home property (especially the older houses, particularly in the cities) will continue sagging in price. In the suburbs, the bigger houses, even of recent vintage, will be harder to sell. Most salable home properties will be the newer houses in the middle and lower price brackets with emphasis on the "ranch houses" so-called.

(f) In the last half-year, construction will still be a powerful support to our economy as it has been for so long. Seasonally building will hold well, strengthened by continued liberal credit terms. Some boost to building could come in the second half if civilian defense measures create a "dispersal scare." If this happens, look for a rush by many factories to move operations into areas far from bomb-vulnerable cities.

CONCLUSION: I cannot end this Forecast without reminding readers that we are living in a truly New Era, comparable only with the year A. D. 1954 years ago, or the invention of printing 500 years ago. The H Bomb, in the hands of any ambitious dictator, could bring about unparalleled conditions. These changes could make the things, about which I have written above, of little value or consequence. Only a great spiritual awakening can save us.

'Mother Goose' In Texas' Makes First Appearance In This Week's Dispatch

"Mother Goose in Texas," a series of articles on Texas children by Ray Wood, whose column, "That Ain't the Way I Heard It," appears regularly in the Houston Chronicle, will appear weekly in the Post Dispatch. The first in the series of articles appears on page 2 of this issue.

Ray Wood, who calls Raywood, Tex. home, is an ex-Marine, author, artist, and folk singer, as well as a newspaper columnist. He has been called one of America's most distinguished folklorists. Among his previously published books are "Peckerwood Bimes," "Mother Goose in the Ozarks," "What Happened to Mother Goose," "American Mother Goose," and "Fun in American Folk Rhythms." In addition to serious studies in law and languages.

According to Mr. Wood, American child rhymes are a continuation of the Mother Goose tradition, which, coming from the old world, has served for the amusement and entertainment of children for hundreds of years. But, says Mr. Wood, until children's books were available generally in this country—actually a little more than 75 years ago—only a few of the Mother Goose rhymes of the old world were known, particularly in the West and the South. Those that were known were often changed to conform to American conditions, and literally hundreds of rhymes had been invented about peckerwoods, jaybirds, possums, houn' dogs, skunks, and even rattlesnakes and dog ticks. And many of these, he asserts, are superior in wit, fantasy, and sheer good humor to the rhymes in the classic Mother Goose, some of which were not originally child rhymes at all, but political satire. They became child rhymes only after the events which inspired them had been obscured by time.

LETTERS To The EDITOR

Dear Editor:
It seems only yesterday that the idea of a local hospital originated. As you know, this was given much thought and study by the local and county people before it became a reality. We all remember the untiring efforts of the hospital committee and the local doctors in gathering the necessary information so this project could be brought before the voters of the county after the decision had been reached that we should have a local hospital.

We also remember the visit and show by Edgar Bergen, the proceeds of which were used in maintenance of the hospital. Many people gave funds for furniture and did it because they wanted to help establish a Memorial Hospital.

Many of us fail to realize what this hospital means to the people of Post and Garza County. It is as modern as could possibly be for a small hospital. There is a staff of nurses that is the best to be had at the price the hospital can afford to pay. These girls work long and hard and let me say right here that they surely appreciate a "thank you" from their patients and will do their best to make your stay in the hospital as comfortable as possible.

Many of us have made trips to out-of-town hospitals and know the trouble and expense of such trips. This will be necessary in many more cases, as it isn't possible for a little hospital like ours to compete with specialists and high-priced equipment used by them in large hospitals.

We have four good doctors here and any one of them is happy to help you with your health problems. If they are unable to render the service you need, they are always glad to recommend a specialist for your case, and, if requested, these men will come to Post and work with your local doctor in case you require hospital attention.

Like many small businesses that start, our hospital has had a little trouble paying its own way. Once they prove themselves equal to the task they set out to do, the financial worries are usually over. With all of us using the local hospital as much as we can, when it is necessary to have hospital care, we believe that our hospital will soon be on a paying basis and well enough known to draw much of the trade that is now going to other hospitals.

We speak with experience concerning the doctors and the hospital staff, as Mrs. Hibbs has undergone major surgery in our hospital twice within the past sixty days.

In closing, we suggest that a special invitation be given Edgar Bergen to visit Post again at his earliest convenience, not for the purpose of another show, but for us to prove to him that his trip to Post two years ago last January was a great help in starting off what is now our Garza Memorial Hospital.

Robert A. Peary unfurled five flags on his first trip to the North Pole—that of Delta Kappa Epsilon, his college fraternity, that of the Navy League, a "World's Ensign of Liberty and Peace," a U. S. flag and what he described as a "Red Cross flag," a white maltese cross on a red background.

FORT BENNING, Ga. (SpI)—Cadet Don E. Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eulas Brown of Post, and a student at Texas Technological College, Lubbock, has arrived at Fort Benning to attend a 1954 General Military Science Reserve Officers' Training Corps Summer Camp.

S. Army.

The more than 1,400 cadets represent 37 colleges and universities of the Third and Fourth

Now you can protect your car against both friction and acid—the two major causes of engine wear

NEW CONOCO Super MOTOR OIL

America's First Double-Duty Oil!

Protection 1

OIL-PLATING*

conquers friction wear... because this exclusive discovery actually fastens a thin film of lubricant to moving engine parts for full-time protection.

Protection 2

conquers corrosive wear... because this exclusive new discovery gives Conoco Super up to twice the cleansing power of other premium oils!

Automotive engineers have long known that friction and corrosion are the two major causes of engine wear. Now, from the laboratories of Continental Oil, comes America's first Double-Duty motor oil. It combines two exclusive discoveries (Oil-Plating and Acid-Proofing)* to conquer both major causes of engine wear.

The unique Oil-Plating additive conquers friction wear by actually fastening a thin film of protective oil to engine parts. Unlike ordinary motor oil, this film won't drain down even when your engine has been stopped overnight. Thus you get full-time protection against damaging wear due to friction.

Exclusive Acid-Proofing additive conquers corrosive wear three ways—it neutralizes acids, prevents rust, and gobbles up tiny particles of dust, dirt, and water and seals them safely in spheres of oil until the oil is drained. ACID-PROOFING actually gives new Conoco Super twice the cleansing power of other premium oils!

New Conoco Super Motor Oil is on sale at Conoco dealers everywhere. Drive in and ask for it today!

Your Conoco dealer will recommend the right grade of new Conoco Super Motor Oil for your car, your climate, your driving conditions.

Irrigation Is Big Business In 43-County High Plains Area

Garza County has approximately 210 of the almost 28,000 irrigation water wells in the High Plains area of Texas, according to a recent survey. Most of this county's wells have been drilled within the past five years.

The Texas A&M College Extension Service says in a news release that if the irrigation water pumped onto fields in the High Plains area last year were diverted to the Brazos River it would have been enough to fill Big Possum Kingdom reservoir six times.

"That's proof plenty," continues the release, "that irrigation has become big business in that section of the state. And it's getting bigger all the time. Possum Kingdom holds 750,000 acre feet of water."

Since the first irrigation water well was put into operation about 1911 near Painview the number has increased to almost 28,000 that now supply the "lifeline" to 3,627,165 acres on 15,868 farms in the 43-county area.

There was little development until the late thirties, and by 1940 there were just slightly more than 2,000 wells in the entire area. Many of the early-day wells were in the "shallow water belt" in the Muleshoe, Plainview and Herford section. An average rainfall of 18 or 19 inches makes supplemental irrigation necessary in most years.

"As late as 1945 there were only 4,500 wells. But a combination of high priced crops, limited production due to insufficient rainfall emphasized the value of irrigation, and the number of wells drilled increased in great proportion," says Robert V. Thurmond, irrigation specialist, Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Most of the 4,500,000 acre feet of water which irrigated fields in 1953 was used on 1,703,923 acres of cotton and 860,625 acres of grain sorghum. This year as irrigated cotton acreage was reduced to 1,306,000 acres farmers have almost doubled their plantings of irrigated grain sorghum—1,479,060 acres.

What has irrigation meant to yield of cotton per acre? Old-timers relate that over a period of several years the average yield on dry land is a quarter to a third. Now, with irrigation, the cotton yield is a little less than a bale an acre.

Irrigated acreage of most every other major crop has also increased this year over the 1953 acreage. Thurmond points out. Wheat irrigation increased from 239,500 acres in 1953 to 371,760 in 1954; alfalfa acreage is 96,313 this year compared with 94,035 acres last year.

However, pasture irrigation acreage showed a decrease from 63,851 acres in 1953 to 55,600 acres. That is no doubt due to rainfall received earlier. There's also about 100 acres of sugar beets under irrigation this year, 14,520 acres of barley, 13,645 acres of corn, 7,820 acres of castor beans and 18,512 acres of vegetables.

In the 43-county area Hockley, Hale and Lubbock counties top the list with an estimated 3,200 wells each.

Power supplies show that butane is by far the most widely used for pumping water, with almost 16,000 wells using it. Natural gas supplies fuel for over 6,600 wells, electricity for about 4,700 wells, gasoline for almost 1,100, and 460 are diesel powered.

Grass has been planted by J. E. Blakely, Giles McCrary, Eubanks Bros., C. R. Thaxton, O. B. Franklin, Jimmy Bird, Charlie Bird and Floyd Hodges. Several other cooperators have made plans to plant grasses.

Terraces, diversion terraces and farm and ranch pond construction has been below normal. Wayne Williams and Wilson Connell have constructed terraces. Mason Justice, Rex Welch, John Lott, Hinton Fluit, Dudley Coleman, Weldon Johnson, Ray Blair and Dr. Grady Wallace have constructed stock ponds. Diversion terraces have been built by Justice, Coleman, Dr. Wallace, Johnson, Blair and Charlie Witt.

Several ranchers have made outstanding fair attractions and will also be available for stock shows, rodeos, ice shows and other off-season entertainment.

The agriculture and women's buildings, which will cost $38,048, will replace old wooden buildings used by these departments for many years. Both of the new structures will provide much more space than was previously available. The agriculture building will be 70 by 160 feet and the women's building will be 60 by 160 feet.

Construction work is progressing rapidly on the show building and a large agriculture building. Contracts for the three cement structures total $326,722. Fair officials are confident that the buildings will be ready for use at this year's fair which will run from Sept. 27 through Oct. 2.

For the gala opening of the show building, officials expect to present a Western "name" show during fair week. This will be the first such indoor attraction ever presented at the fair. Charles L. Adams, Jr., fair president, said.

In addition to the new construction, the midway will be rearranged to allow additional expansion and outdoor commercial exhibit space.

Within the huge show building will be housed an arena 75 by 147 feet, dressing rooms, ticket offices, concession stands and 4,000 square feet of commercial exhibit space. The overall size of the structure will be 177 by 194 feet.

The building will be used for former resident is visiting in county.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Stewart and children of Compton, Calif., are spending two weeks visiting his sister, Mrs. Leonard Anderson, at Southland, and other relatives in the area.

Stewart, a former resident of Post, is a son of Ben Stewart, who was Garza County sheriff in the mid 1920s. The family moved away from Post in 1929.

Other relatives the California family are visiting include Stewart's brother, Ernest Stewart, of Levelland.

Dry Weather, Short Crops Fail To Halt Conservation Practices Here

Conservation practices applied by district cooperators in the Post work unit area since Jan. 1 are encouraging in view of the dry weather and short crops, supervisors of the Duck Creek Soil Conservation District report.

Seventeen cooperators have installed 25,222 feet of concrete irrigation pipe. These cooperators are: James R. Woods, Claude Spence, V. C. Wheeler, F. D. Wheeler, George Leggett, J. O. Roberts, Virgil Smith, Horace Wheeler, H. D. Hallman, S. C. Storie, Neil Crosby, Jess Probst, Will N. Williams, Ben Altman, Henry Edwards, C. R. Lancaster and P. E. Stevens.

A number of other irrigation farmers have made improvements to their systems by lessening row and ditch grade and by improved water application.

Approximately 1,700 acres of guar and 500 acres of grass plantings have been made by district cooperators. Those who planted guar were: Dillard Thompson, Glen Davis, Mrs. Albert McBride, Grover Mason, Wagoner Johnson, Fred Babb, Carter White, A. O. Parrish, Ray McClellan, Maurice Fluit, Harley Wallace, James Doggett, Melvin Stewart, R. N. Lusk, H. L. Mason, Mack Ledbetter, R. T. Mason, Ted Aten and W. D. Livingston.

Several farmers have made plans to stubble mulch their feed land to help cut down on the lowering hazard.

Garza County's cash farm income for 1953 totaled $2,999,815, according to the Bureau of Business Research of the University of Texas.

Figures released by the Bureau showed that the county had 444 farms last year, with an average acreage per farm of 1,139. Average income per farm was $6,756.

The South Plains area reached a new record total of $254,537,795 in farm income during the year ranking second to the rich Blacklands area of Central Texas, which reported $349,256,000 in farm income.

The South Plains area, which has 18,893 farms averaging 1,030 acres, had an average income per farm of $12,228.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Clayton spent the weekend in Lubbock with their son, Gerald, and family.

Grim Forecast Is Made For Fourth

NEW YORK (Spl.)—A total of 370 Americans will die in high-way accidents during the coming three-day July Fourth weekend, according to a prediction released today by the Association of Casualty and Surety Companies. The Association's estimate, based upon "a conservative expansion of the accident rates of three-day Independence Day holidays in the past," breaks down the causes of the fatal accidents into six principal categories. Speeding is expected to kill 123 persons; excessive use of alcohol will account for 82 more, both motorists and pedestrians; failure to keep to the right of the centerline, 37 deaths; failure to yield the right-of-way, 26 deaths; over-fatigued drivers or drivers actually asleep at the wheel, 23 deaths; miscellaneous causes, 79 deaths. In releasing the estimate, Thomas N. Boate, Accident Prevention Department manager of the Association, pointed out that the Association's figures for the recent Memorial Day weekend were "grimly close to reality." The national highway death toll for that holiday, not counting those who were injured but didn't die until sometime after the weekend was over, was 362. The Association had predicted 380 deaths.

Father's Signature Required In Most Cases For Minor To Take Driving Test

Under-age applicants for driver's licenses must have their application signed by their father, if he is living and the applicant is in his custody, County Judge Oscar Graham was informed by license examiners this week. This means, said Judge Graham, that if the applicant for a driver's license is living with both his father and mother, the father's signature is required on the application. If the applicant's father is dead or if he is living and does not have custody of the minor, the application may be signed by the mother or legal guardian. When a need for driver's license is proved, the judge can order examinations for those under 16, but only under the above provisions—that the application be signed by the minor's father. The only time the signature will be accepted when the father is not living or does not have custody of the applicant.

Four Are Injured In Car Collision

Four persons were injured, one seriously, in an automobile collision at 9:30 a. m. last Thursday at the intersection of U. S. Highway 380 and Avenue F. Just east of the Main Street railroad crossing.

Gaydene Roper, 15, most seriously injured of the four was dismissed Sunday from Garza Memorial Hospital, where she had received treatment for a fractured left kneecap and other injuries.

William Sheffield, Jr., 25 year-old Negro of Oton, driver of one of the cars involved in the accident, pleaded guilty to assault with a motor vehicle and was fined $200 and costs.

The accident occurred when Sheffield's 1941 Ford sedan collided at the intersection with a 1953 Chevrolet driven by Mrs. Johnny Roper of Wichita Falls. Sheffield was driving north on Avenue F and the Roper automobile was traveling east on Highway 380.

The Roper car flipped over into a ditch on the north side of the highway, then landed upright. Mrs. Roper and her daughter, Gaydene, were thrown from the car. The woman's three-year-old son, Eddie Joe, who was not thrown from the car, escaped injury.

Mrs. Roper was treated at the hospital for minor bruises.

Neither Sheffield nor his wife, who was riding with him, was seriously injured. Their automobile was knocked onto an embankment on the east side of the avenue and came to a stop headed in the opposite direction from which it has been going at the time of the crash. Both cars were heavily damaged.

Mrs. Roper and her children were en route to Haskell. They are temporarily residing at Brownfield, where Roper is employed as an oil field driller.

Screen Thrillers Showing At Tower Weekend, Monday

Two outstanding movies, "The Long Wait," and "Ride Clear of Diablo," are on the Tower Theatre program for this weekend and Monday.

"The Long Wait," the second of Mickey Spillane's bucket-of-blood, barrel-of-sex thrillers to be brought to the screen, shows Friday and Saturday. "Ride Clear of Diablo" is booked for Sunday and Monday.

Anthony Quinn, Charles Coburn, Gene Evans and Peggie Castle are co-starred in the Spillane thriller. Quinn, whose screen portrayals have hardly been of the pantywaist variety, nevertheless plays his roughest and toughest role as the protagonist of "The Long Wait," slugging and shooting his way merrily through a colorful assortment of villainous thugs.

Co-starred in "Ride Clear of Diablo" are Audie Murphy, Abbe Lane, Dan Duryea and Susan Cabot. While the action of Universal-International's "Technical" or adventure is dominated by a relentless gun-blazing manhunt, it is the explosive payoff between the personalities of Murphy and Duryea that provides this ever-popular type of entertainment with a great change of pace.

Mr. and Mrs. Temple Lee and children of Post, Mr. and Mrs. Bus Pennell and children and Mr. and Mrs. Byron Haynie and Lana were Sunday night visitors of the Tom Hendersons.
