March Of Dimes Program Gains Head Way In Post

Post's 1952 March of Dimes fund raising campaign will take another step forward Tuesday afternoon when approximately 20 women will meet in the home of Mrs. John Lott for a tea.
The tea, according to Mrs. Lott, will serve to get the organization of the Women's Division of the drive, of which she is chairman, started.
These 20 women will each be assigned a certain section of town on which to concentrate. They will each select six other women to the sides of the south Snyder highway.

The project was first to have been started on November 1, 1951. But bad weather, previous engagements and legal questions prevented the company from beginning the work.

Phillips says, barring any unforeseen difficulties, the job on the curb and gutters will be completed in at least two weeks. He also made an announcement that should appeal to some of the people in Post.

While he is here Phillips will do work for private citizens. This includes the laying of the curb and gutters on at least two lots, laying sidewalks, chimneys, swimming pools or what have you. Anyone interested in having any such work done should contact the City office and leave their money and work orders.

Mrs. L. Albright Dies Here Monday

Graveside services for Mrs. Laurencene Albright, 76, were conducted at Dundee, at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Hudson Funeral home directed burial.
Rosary was said at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening in Hudson Funeral chapel.
Mrs. Albright died Monday at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Jake Webb, with whom she had made her home for the past two years. She had been ill for five years.
A native of France, Mrs. Albright came to America when she was 18 years of age. She spent the first two years in Fort Worth visiting her uncles, the late John and Frank Capera, pioneer Fort Worth businessmen.

She and Mr. Albright moved to Dundee soon after their marriage, where they owned the Elm Lodge ranch. They pioneered in raising Karakul sheep. They imported sheep from Germany to begin this business.
Mrs. Albright was educated in France and also taught in the schools there.
Survivors are two daughters, Mrs. Webb and Mrs. Esther Baxter, of Jackson, Mich.; three grandchildren; and two brothers, Leon and Victor Sahores, of Orin, France.

Earnest Walker Rites Are Held In Grassland

Last rites for Earnest M. (Pete) Walker, Grassland grocer, were conducted in the Methodist church there at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The Rev. J. E. Peters, of Jayton, officiated. He was assisted by the Rev. W. M. Dorough, pastor of the Grassland Church of the Nazarene, and the Rev. A. N. Motes, pastor.

Mason Funeral home directed burial in Grassland cemetery.
Mr. Walker died Tuesday in Scott and White hospital, in Temple, where he had been a patient since Friday. He had been in ill health for several weeks and became seriously ill Thursday.

He was born June 25, 1901, at Center, in Shelby county. He moved with his parents to Grassland in 1918.
On July 18, 1923, at San Augustine, he was married to Miss Mittie Davis. To this union was born a son.

Mr. Walker had been a member of the Methodist church for 37 years, and was a member of the Post Masonic lodge.
Survivors are his wife and son, James Davis, and his parents, Mrs. and Mrs. J. C. Walker.

Funeral services were held at 2 p. m. Monday at the home of Mrs. Sam Edwards, R. M. Thomas, A. L. Norman, Carl Jones, Roy LeMond, W. L. Gribble and W. F. Cates.

Good Neighbor Project Helps Local Farmer

The once chivalrous act of giving without expecting anything in return is not gone completely as the action of several Close City farmers will attest.

This morning at least 11 farmers were to have converged on the Aubrey Ritchie farm in the Close City community with a bevy of tractors to put his 160 acres by.

Irvin Chandler began this "good neighbor" move and by Wednesday had 12 other neighbors ready for the job, weather permitting.

Ritchie, who is in the hospital at the present time with rheumatism, has been unable to care for his land the past week or so. But he need not worry about it as long as he has neighbors like he has now.

Working with Chandler on the project are L. G. Thuet, Jr., Bill Woods, Junior Morris, Virgil Stone, Emmett Ducean, Alvin Young, Arthur Crockett, Barrie Jones, George Carpenter, Durwood Bartlett, Roy Pennington and Bon Longshore.

More People Pour Into City Of Post

An influx of new people to Post has created somewhat of a housing problem and a small crisis at the local schools.

Monday 18 new children enrolled in the Grade school and one in the High school. Ten Tuesday seven more entered Grade school. All available apartments and houses are hung with "no vacancy" signs.

This increase can be explained partially by the arrival of several drilling and seismograph crews of various companies. Superior, Northwestern and Stanolind all have crews here. With a definite report from Stanolind, the Dispatch knows the company has at least 15 workers in here. No definite reports have been received from the other companies.
A new construction company, which is building a new refinery 10 miles this side of Clairemont, is also operating out of Post.

Proposed Visit of Bergen And McCarthy To Occur In Spring

Edgar Bergen, Charlie McCarthy and Mortimer Snerd are coming to Post!
This is the latest information received from this famous radio, stage and screen trio. Bergen made the announcement over his nation-wide radio program last Sunday night after thanking the citizens of Post for their generous support in his recent Operations Santa Claus project.

On his program Bergen said, "Charlie and I want to pay special thanks to the people of Post, Texas, for their gifts. This small American city donated enough presents to supply an entire hospital. We also wish to inform the people of Post, Texas, that we will be through there to thank them personally soon."

This projected visit and profuse gratitude stems from the locally sponsored gift drive in conjunction with Bergen's. Originated by Burnis Lawrence, the drive was sponsored by the Dispatch and received overwhelming response from the citizens of the town. Results of the drive and its consequences were described by Mayor T. L. Jones as "one of the best things that ever happened to Post."
The city has possibly enjoyed more national publicity than this. See EDGAR BERGEN Page 8

Haden Johnson Killed In Oil Field Mishap Friday

House or Furnishings Go In Classified Ad

Piece by piece, or by bulk lots, including an entire house full, furniture sells better and faster through the classified ad department.

Verification can be found at the Aubrey Ritchie home these days. Last week Mrs. Ritchie placed a classified ad with the Dispatch for the sale of household furniture (an entire house full). She reported Monday it was all sold.
So go houses, apartments, odds and ends, lots, farms, or just anything which a person has to trade, sell, buy or give away.

Take Lee Bowen, for example. He ran an ad for a four-room house two weeks ago. It rented. He ran an ad for an apartment last week. It rented.

So instead of not having something in the classified department, he placed an ad this week on gas and oil royalties and leases.

You'll like the fast results of a classified.

RICHARDSON PROMOTED

L. J. Richardson, Jr., has been advanced to assistant cashier at the First National Bank in Post according to an announcement. The decision was made at the regular annual meeting of the Board of Directors. Richardson has been with the bank since 1941 with the exception of 33 months spent with the U. S. Air Force during World War II.

Jack Kirkpatrick Only South Plains Gridster To Make All-State Teams

Jack Kirkpatrick, Post's outstanding quarterback, was officially named to the All-State second team this past week by sports writers over Texas.

The official announcement followed by a couple of weeks the committee report which had placed Kirkpatrick on the first team, but which was changed at a last minute meeting of several of the committee members in Dallas.

Kirkpatrick also received nomination to the All-State first team picked by the Fort Worth Star Telegram published in that paper earlier.
In making the all-state teams and all-district teams Kirkpatrick compiled the following record with a team that won 4 and lost 5 games during the season. He carried the ball 75 times, gained 636 yards, passed 133 passes, completed 63 for 893 yards, kicked off 16 times for 769 yards, punted 20 times for 674 yards, returned five punts for 236 yards, scored 11 touchdowns, and seven extra points for a total of 73 points and passed for six more touchdowns.

The teams were selected by a committee from the Sports Writers association, headed by Bob Mundella of the Texarkana Gazette.

All-State team:
First team:
Ends — Van Pennington, Shamrock, and Bobby Dodd, Atlanta.
Tackles — Kenneth Ives, Killebrew, and Bill Williams, Lawton.

Getting Out On the LIMB . . .

By EDDIE the editor

An automobile is a luxury. An expensive one, but still a luxury. In this day and time the car is also steadily increasing as a necessity. Yet no matter by what excuse a person owns a car — under the heading of a necessity or a pleasure — it is a KILLER. Statistics prove beyond a doubt that the automobile outpaces even war as a mass killer of human beings. Granted, the people who drive the cars are usually to blame, but the car is the instrument of death.

Experts believe — and have statistics to prove it — that sometime in February the automobile will have killed more people than all United States wars since 1775. A staggering figure.

And a sobering one if drivers would let the truth soak in. Just think — on December 22, the millionth traffic fatality occurred since the first known traffic death occurred in New York City in September, 1899. That means that war had a head start of 125 years on the automobile. Yet, on December 25 military deaths in all U. S. wars since the Revolution started had reached approximately 1,004,000. On that same day traffic deaths totaled more than 500 over the million mark.

What can we do about it? People ask. Accidents just happen. Not always. Many "so-called accidents" are direct results of sheer stupidity and negligence. A large percent could be prevented.

Automobile drivers need only to pay more attention to traffic safety rules. Despite the fact that most people think otherwise, these rules were passed to protect automobile drivers and passengers.

Some of the most common causes of accidents include: speeding — reckless driving — driving while drinking and failing to heed road signs.

This later one can be serious. Stop signs are put up so that people may know they are to stop. Yet, how many drivers do you know who blow up to a stop sign, maybe hit the brake one time (and sometimes not even this much) and blast across? How many do you know that turn right into an intersection without ever glancing to see if another car is coming? You and I both can probably think of plenty, including ourselves.

Texas has a new law which its planners claim will decrease the number of accidents on the highway, thereby cutting down on the always gruesome total of traffic deaths in the state. Figures on 1951 traffic fatalities run closer than 2,000.

Hitting closer home is the total number of deaths recorded on the South Plains, with at least four of them being in Garza county. 1951 set a new fatality record on the South Plains as 124 people lost their lives in car wrecks. Last year only 116 died in wrecks.

The new motor responsibility law which caused the majority of Texans to buy liability insurance before the first of the year is supposed to help the traffic fatality situation. Let's hope it does. For something is certainly needed to cut down on the increasing number of accidents, deaths and life injuries piling up on our highways.

Many states have laws similar to the one passed in Texas and which took effect January 1. Yet no statistics have been shown from any of these states to prove the assertion that the new law actually helps eliminate traffic accidents. Writers of the new Texas law, claim (and they are backed up by statistics) that at least 15 percent of the people cause about 85 percent of the wrecks.

This law is to remove these chronic accident causers off the highways by making them put up $15,000 bond, money, or insurance policy or lose their license to drive. This, the bill writers claim, will finally rid the state of the killers. That remains to be seen!

One part of the law, is commendable. Before a person can register his car this year, he must have it checked at a certified checking station where it is supposed to undergo a rigid inspection. No registrations are supposed to be sold if the car doesn't meet the specifications.

Now this should take a few of the death traps off the highways — or make them safer at any rate. Several of these stations will be set up in Post and all car owners are urged to have their automobiles checked before the deadline rush.

The question of traffic deaths is not one to be taken lightly (despite the fact that most people firmly believe that "it won't happen to me."). Life is a precious thing, but people carelessly expose it to the dangers of the highways needlessly.

Let's don't be a traffic statistic in 1952.

Our Contemporaries Are Saying:

Can't Figure It Out

Police Chief Ray Hardin ripped the sheet marked "December" off the 1951 calendar posted beside the huge auto - accident board in his office and heaved a sigh of relief. "Well," the chief remarked, "we've just completed our second consecutive year without a traffic fatality in the City of Levelland. But how we did it," he added, "is more than I can figure out." A quick rundown over the traffic chart for 1951 shows 150 total accidents with 19 of these accidents resulting in injury requiring hospitalization. In other words, in 19 cases someone came very close to becoming Levelland's first traffic fatality in two years. The board recorded two accidents involving a pedestrian.

—The Hockley County Herald

County Court Fines

Cases filed in county court during the year ending December 21 totaled 112, of which only seven were dismissed. Nine cases are still pending, and verdicts of guilty have been rendered in 96 cases. Fines assessed by these county court cases have totaled $13,386.00. There have been only three jail sentences, one for three days, one for 30 days, and one for two years.

—The Lynn County News

Views and Comments

A law that is going to be irksome and, to many more people than you think of average or less than average income, unfair and unworkable is the new inspection law. If, as the law appears to say, all the things have to be done to an automobile to make it safe for operating on the highway then there is not one owner in a dozen that is ready to turn in his application for a license. There are not and won't be enough service stations in Texas to service all of the automobiles and trucks that will have to apply for a license on or before April first. Which makes us think there is going to have to be some winking done by somebody somewhere somehow. And besides that there are a lot of people, believe it or not, who can not afford to do all the things to the kind of automobile they are able to afford. This is not to say that any of these people are against safety on the highway or that they ought not to obey the law. It is simply that the law is too big for our britches, in much the same manner that the highway drivers' responsibility law is more than many Texas people can chin.

—The Floyd County Hesperian

Hard To Believe

The other day we were talking to a merchant about the evils of returned merchandise. The idea was presented by big town merchants who urged people not to try to trade back used goods. We have heard so many tales about what has happened in other towns that we little realized what might happen in Canyon. But we find that there are actually men and women in Canyon who will take out clothing for special events, and then bring back the wearing apparel when the big show is over. The clothes may have a few holes in them as the result of careless cigarette burns; and the shoes may have been worn to a dance and come back badly scuffed; or even furniture may be taken out and then sent back damaged after the big party. We could hardly believe it—yes, but this exchange habit exists right here in Canyon, and customers — some of them at least — get pretty mad when they are called as to the damage which they have incurred against merchandise. Who wants, or will buy, stuff which YOU have damaged? —The Canyon News

POLL TAX . . .

WANTED: Approximately 2,000 Garza county residents who have enough interest in the United States to want it to remain a free, democratic nation! This interest must be active, not passive. And must be strong enough to prompt the residents into a certain amount of sacrifices. However, these sacrifices will only involve time and an insignificant amount of money. Perhaps two hours will be the maximum on time and $1.75 is absolutely the limit on the money. Interested persons should not delay. Only 21 days remain in which this interest can be expressed in the manner fitting its importance. DON'T DELAY! The above notice or ad should be placed in every available spot in the county. For approximately 2,000 Garza county residents are eligible to pay their poll tax before January 31. By last week only 666 had expressed enough interest in their country to take the time and money to pay their poll tax. Elections are coming up this year and all the people who have griped all year about this and that in the government have an opportunity to get in a solid punch instead of just hot air. Apathy on the part of the citizens of any country can produce disastrous results. And the American people are becoming the most apathetic people in the world. Residents of Garza county can stamp out any such local apathy by paying their poll tax. The deadline is January 31.

TRAFFIC LAW . . .

Whether we like it or not, the new Texas Motor Vehicle Safety Responsibility Law is in effect. It has been in effect for 10 days. Naturally it's too early to see any results of this law. But its writers claim that it will result in less traffic accidents in the state of Texas. That remains to be seen. Perhaps in a psychological way it will. For if a person knows that an accident might cost him $15,000 he just might possibly attempt to drive more carefully. Our opinion of the law in itself is very high. We think that something is definitely needed in this state to curtail the increasing number of accidents and deaths on our highways. However, we still cannot see how anyone could classify the new law anything except a help to the insurance companies. Yet this seemingly has nothing to do with the results of the law. If it can prove as effective as its writers claim, then good. Highway deaths this past year soared way over the 2,500 mark in Texas. A total of 124 of those were on the South Plains and at least four occurred in Garza county. They were all near and dear to someone. But now they are gone. Would any of them still be alive had they exercised more caution concerning driving safety? A good question. And there is an obvious answer. Yes, many accidents are caused by negligence. Perhaps when the people fully realize the potency of the new motor law, this negligence will be reduced and less accidents will occur. Let us hope so.

Texans In WASHINGTON

By TEX EASLEY, Associated Press Washington Service

WASHINGTON, P — Texas and the Southwest have more than kept pace with the nation's expanding economy, according to a Commerce Department study of trends from 1929 to 1950.

Industrial construction marked the development in the four-state area, which also includes Oklahoma, New Mexico and Arizona. Texas boomed the most.

The per capita income in the region increased at a higher rate than the national average during the two decades, although it still was less than the 48-state average at the close of the period. The figure was $1,116 for the region in 1949 compared with $1,330 for the country as a whole.

These figures represented a 151 percent regional increase compared with a national average increase of only 96 percent. The per capita income in Texas for 1949 was $1,205, up 159 percent.

With 6.6 percent of the total U. S. income, the Southwest had about 10 percent of the total new construction. Big industrial and other expansion has been a major factor in its advance from 4 billion dollars in 1929 to 13 billion in 1949.

The Southwestern region, the Commerce study disclosed, increased 27 percent in population during the 20 years ending in 1950 notwithstanding the fact that Oklahoma showed a 6 percent decline. The national average population increase for the period was 24 percent. Arizona's population soared 74 percent, New Mexico's 62 percent and Texas 34 percent.

Texas and New Mexico experienced only "nominal inflows of people by migration" during the 1940-1950 decade, the report noted, while Oklahoma lost a number equal to one-fifth of its population by out-migration. "It is clear, therefore," the report added, "that the region's above-average rate of population increase was entirely due to its unusually high rate of natural increase, half again for than the national average rate."

Manufacturing now constitutes the Southwest's fourth largest industry, the government survey revealed, and has been increasing in the region faster than the national average.

"Most of the industrial growth of the region in these two decades was concentrated in Texas," the report continued.

"Wages paid in the region's factories were 10 percent below the national average in 1939.

People Needing New Homes Should Build Or Buy If The Location And Prices Are Right

BARSON PARK, Mass. — Most people are bearish on the building outlook for 1952. Naturally, fewer houses will be built; but it would be a great mistake to think that the demand for new houses is over. The demand for houses, although less, will continue heavy in 1952. Those who need a new home to live in should build or buy whenever the right location is available at the right price.

Letters come to me from cities in the Central West, stating that good citizens, employing many people, are forced to move away because of lack of housing. If these communities have truly patriotic citizens, they will get together and start a campaign to get new houses built.

It is true that the price of new houses has gone up considerably during the past few years; but have they gone up in price more than almost everything else? It is unreasonable for wageworkers, manufacturers and even shopkeepers to complain about the increase in building costs when they are getting similar increases for labor, agricultural products, manufactured goods and merchandise. Of course, building will fall off; but when that time comes, and prices are lower, most people won't have the money to take advantage of the bargains!

Also remember that our population is rapidly increasing. There are around 155,000,000 people in the U. S. today. The total annual production of cement is about 125,000,000 barrels. The total annual production of steel is about 50,000,000 tons.

come only twenty years ago. We also must realize that a well-built and well-located house is one of the best hedges against inflation, continuing to hold its own, or increase, as the dollar declines in value. For those who own a good home and do not care to build another for rental, here is a suggestion for use of your money.

Consider Building Stocks

Seventy-five percent of the cost of materials in a home is spent on four things: (1) Cement; (2) lumber and shingles; (3) wall board and plaster; and (4) paint. By buying stocks in one of the leading companies manufacturing these four basic products, it is possible to profit with the building industry. When the next depression comes, the price of these stocks will go down with everything else; but they should come back again in price quickly. The following suggests four such companies:

CEMENT: A cement company which I like is the Lehigh Portland. It has raw material to last for many years. It is located in growing sections of the country. The common stock sells at about $24 and yields about five percent. The first thing that one must buy when building a house is cement, but cement has many other uses. When a depression comes and the building of homes declines, the Federal Government and the States will start road building projects, and all these will require cement. Therefore, the cement industry to that extent may be called a depression-proof investment.

Ordinary blankets — piles of ordinary blankets — wear you out with their weight — make you feel like you hadn't slept at all. And then, if that pile slips off — and that often happens when blankets are piled on — Brrrrrrr.

Don't be overcome with blanket weight, be overcome with blanket joy. Use electric blankets — single or double bed models — for your home. Automatically controlled, they keep you warm all night long — with a single setting — no matter how the room temperature or the outside temperature change. ONE blanket — of course, it's electric — will keep you warm on any winter night. See your appliance dealer now.

Monta Moore Family Receives Two Letters In Response To Packages

It seems that the Dispatch was not the only one to sponsor a gift to hospitalized veterans. Mr. and Mrs. Monta Moore this year continued an annual plan of sending gifts to hospitals. They too have received answers to their packages. These are printed below.

Hot Springs, S. D.
December 16, 1951

Dear Folks:

Hello, Texas! Shake hands with Montana in South Dakota. Where else in the wide world could they match America where the resident of one state receives Xmas gifts from an unknown and kindly resident of another state in still a third state. I can thank you by saying I wish you a very Merry Xmas and many of them. I was badly frozen in Sunburst, Mont. three years ago next month and losing one leg above and one below the knee as well as the right hand at the wrist, and I have no fingers on the left hand and but half a thumb. Yet within six months I was shaving and as the snap will show writing as well.

I am very well equipped with artificial hands and do a very creditable job of walking with the aid of custom made metal adjustable canes.

I have a little three wheel Electric Autoette and the batteries can be charged every night by plugging in anywhere as it has its own charger, and I have already arranged for a cabin on a little lake on edge of town with plenty of Bass pike and catfish. I do not aim to want for recreation this summer and my regional Vets office has approved me for a raise to $120 per month upon discharge.

Oil workers are not strangers to me for while I was born in Banff, Alberta, I claim Great Falls, Mont. as home, though I have operated in and around Cut Bank and Sunburst oil fields and refineries for years. The northern plant of the Texas company is in Sunburst and practically all those men are known to me and many are dear friends of mine. I served in 2nd Mont(163)Inf on Mexican border in 1916 backing up General "Black Jack" Pershing. And later I went overseas on the Kaiser Wilhelm II and was with headquarters of the 50th Engrs with the rank of Master Engineer and serving in France in 1918 and 1919.

Again friends I thank you, not so much for the little Xmas tokens, as for the spirit that animates the kindly good will behind good kindly people.

Alex A. McInnes
Vets B. M. S. 2-1

Another letter from the same place was sent to the Moores in the form of a card. It went:

TRUE FRIENDS

Thanks to my friends that gave me cheer.

Who shared my sympathy throughout the year.

They're proven friends I've always sought.

And all because they were not bought.

Friends like these, one must admit,

Are the kind I can't forget.

As I reminisce I see them all.

Though far away I still recall their friendship and kindness I hold so dear.

Let my wish be your happiness throughout the year.

Remember this, and bear in mind,

TRUE FRIENDS like you are hard to find.

M. M. Peterson

P. S. This is the sentiment of all the boys who received gifts from Post, Texas. "THANKS."

Americans bought a greater number of Series E Defense Savings Bonds in 1951 than in any since 1946. In the first eleven months of 1951 they purchased 18 percent more $25 and 5 1-2 percent more $50 E Bonds than in the corresponding period of 1950, due chiefly to the expansion of the Payroll Savings Plan as part of our defense program. For all denominations combined, the gain was 9 percent. Incomplete figures for December indicate further gains.

Federal Jobs Require No Honesty Pledge From Employees Who Assume Positions

By ROBERT E. GEIGER

WASHINGTON, P — You don't have to swear to be honest if you take a federal civilian job, but the government wrote the word

"honest" into the military oath of allegiance this year.

Senator J. William Fulbright (D-Ark.), who has been fighting to establish a commission on ethics in government, says he sees no reason why this difference should exist.

"Inclusion of language in the civilian oath similar to that in the military oath would seem to be appropriate," Fulbright says.

"A stronger oath might be a method of impressing the seriousness of the situation upon the people.

"But there are many aspects to present conditions. Inserting the word 'honest' in the oath might turn out to be, after study, far too little a move to do any good. If we can get a commission appointed to study government ethics, the oath of office certainly is a subject that these people should consider."

The oath of office taken by most civilian employees of the government says:

"I — (Name of employee) — do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support and defend the constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that I take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion, and that I will well and faithfully discharge the duties of the office on which I am about to enter, so help me God."

The military oath is similar but the word "honesty" was inserted this year when a standard oath was adopted for all of the military services.

Here is the new military oath: "I — (Name of the person taking oath) — do solemnly swear that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the United States of America; that I will serve them honestly and faithfully against all their enemies whomsoever; that I will obey the orders of the President of the United States and the orders of the officers appointed over me according to the regulations and the uniform code of military justice."

Fulbright says that undoubtedly the people who devised the civilian oath many years ago certainly believed that it implied that the employee was swearing himself to be honest.

He says he is uncertain whether insertion of the word "honest" in an oath, or tightening of the wording of the oath to make it more inclusive, would cause employees to be more conscious of the need for honesty.

The Britannica encyclopedia contains a Russian military oath which pledges the soldier or officer of the "workers - peasant" army to be "honest, brave, disciplined and vigilant fighter" willing to defend the Soviet motherland to "the last breath" and not sparing "my blood and my life itself."

"If by evil design I betray this solemn oath let me suffer the severe punishment of Soviet law and the universal hatred and contempt of the workers," this Russian pledge says.

Government experts on Russia said Stalin took this oath in February, 1939, shortly before World War II.

The world supply of platinum group metals is obtained from such widely scattered locations as Canada, South Africa, Russia, Alaska and Columbia.

MIDSHIPMEN GIVE BLOOD — About 90 percent of the midshipmen in the Naval ROTC unit at the University of Texas pledged blood to the Red Cross. Charles E. Bludworth, center, of San Angelo, midshipman commander of the Texas unit in Austin, was the first to present his pledge to Miss Sidney Siegel of Paris, Tex., student worker in the campaign. Next was Midshipman Captain Stephen Albrecht, left, of Edinburg.

Bruin Players Set New Grid Records

LOS ANGELES P — UCLA's footballers set eight individual and team records as well as tying two other marks during the recently concluded 1951 season.

Paul Cameron, sophomore half-back, was the chief record holder. His total offense record of 1481 yards in nine games broke Kenny Washington's 1939 record of 1394 in 10 games. His 66 completed passes obliterated Ray Nagel's 1948 mark of 59 completions.

Paul set a new record in the Santa Clara game by tossing four TD passes, thus topping Bob Waterfield's three TD mark. He also tied Waterfield's one game total offense record of 306 yards.

End Ernie Stockert established two new pass catching records. He caught 30 passes to better Bob Wilkinson's previous Bruin season high of 27. His seven passes caught against Illinois set another mark.

MINIATURE RADIO

NEW YORK, P — Radio sets are getting smaller and smaller. One of the latest designs, fitting the palm of the hand, weighs but eight ounces. Its case measures only 2 1/2 by 5 3/4 by 3 1/4 inches. The "Loudspeaker" is a small earpiece, while the antenna, 18 inches long, collapses into the set and at the same time turns it off. Batteries are of the small hearing - aid type. Two tubes and a crystal detector are used.

The set is declared to have a broadcast range of around 50 miles.

Mrs. Tom Anderson, formerly of Post, underwent an operation in the Seminole hospital Tuesday. Her sister, Mrs. Nola Brister, reported she was recovering nicely.

Card of Thanks

We take this means of thanking our many friends for their every kindness and sympathy so wonderfully bestowed upon us during the illness and passing of our loving wife, mother and grandmother. Especially do we thank Dr. Williams, those who furnished such an abundance of food and such a beautiful collection of flowers. We appreciate, more than words express, any and all who had any part in making our sorrow a bit more bearable. May God's richest blessings be upon each of you.

The family of Mrs. Hal Jones, sr.

We wish to express our sincere thanks and appreciation for the many kindnesses and thoughtfulness shown us during the loss of our dear loved one. May God's richest blessings rest upon all of you that might have helped in any way.

Miss El Frieda Pagel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Pagel, of Hallettsville, became bride of Donald Shirley, son of Mrs. M. H. Hamilton, of San Antonio, Calif., in San Antonio, Jan. 11.

The Rev. Perry F. Webb, pastor of the San Antonio First Baptist church, officiated for the double ceremony in the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Dr. Mrs. A. E. Wangemann.

The bride wore a gown of white tulle lace and blush tulle. Her fitted bodice had a low and décolletage accented with points of lace, and long sleeves. The petals of the bouquet of white lilies of the valley and white Fleur d'Amour.

Mrs. Stewart V. Boney, of Nacogdoches, attended her sister as a member of honor. She wore a white tulle gown with shaded on paillettes embroidered on the bodice, with matching stole and a bouffant, ankle-length skirt.

The reception was held after the ceremony. Mrs. Jack Farquhar, Hallettsville, registered guests; Mrs. Bill Gaines and Miss Mary Skelton, of Hallettsville, of Creston King, Mrs. Maurice King and Miss Margaret King, of San Antonio, assisted with hostesses.

Dr. and Mrs. Wangemann were present for a buffet supper for members of the wedding party, relatives of the couple and out-of-town guests.

Mr. Shirley is a graduate of Ft. High school and Texas Tech.

nological college, Lubbock. He has made his home with his paternal grandparents, Mrs. George Shirley, and the late Mr. Shirley, for the past 11 years. Mrs. E. J. Robinson is maternal grandmother of the bridegroom.

After a trip in New Orleans, La., the couple will be at home in Huntsville, Ala., where Mr. Shirley is employed by the Otto Geodecke Cotton Export company.

Scripture

But a certain man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession, and kept back part of the price, his wife also being privy to it, and brought a certain part, and laid it at the apostles' feet. But Peter said, Ananias, why hath Satan filled thine heart to lie to the Holy Ghost, and to keep back part of the price of the land? Whiles it remained, was it not thine own? And after it was sold, was it not in thine own power? why hast thou conceived this thing in thine heart? thou hast not lied unto men, but unto God. And Ananias hearing these words fell down, and gave up the ghost; and great fear came on all them that heard these things. And the young men arose, and carried him out, and buried him. And it was about the space of three hours after, when his wife, not knowing what was done, came in. And Peter answered unto her, Tell me whether ye sold the land for so much? And she said, Yea, for so much. Then Peter said unto her, how is it that ye have agreed together to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? behold, the feet of them which have buried thy husband are at the door, and shall carry thee out. Then fell she down straightway at his feet, and yielded up the ghost; and the young men came in, and found her dead, and carrying her forth, buried her by her husband. Acts 5:1-10

The Rev. T. L. Denton, First Baptist pastor, and Mrs. Denton will leave Sunday afternoon to join Texas Baptist pastors, evangelists, singers and lay people, who will gather in Fort Worth for their sixth annual statewide evangelistic conference Jan. 14-16.

Ten thousand Baptists are expected to attend the meeting, according to Dr. C. B. Jackson, associate secretary of evangelism for the Baptist General Convention of Texas. Headquarters will be the Will Rogers Coliseum in Fort Worth.

Denominational leaders from Texas and three other states will address the conference crowds on some phase of the general theme, "The Bible Speaks."

Among speakers are Dr. Robert G. Lee, Memphis, Tenn.; Dr. J. D. Grey, New Orleans, La.; Dr. Forrest C. Freezor, Waco, and Angel Martinez, Fort Smith, Ark.

Dr. Lee, past president of the Southern Baptist Convention, will bring messages Monday and Tuesday evenings and Wednesday morning. His Tuesday evening address will be his famous sermon, "Pay Day - Someday," which he has preached in 40 of the 48 states.

President of the SEC, Dr. Grey will speak Wednesday morning. Martinez, youthful Southwest evangelist, will be among speakers Tuesday evening.

Dr. Freezor, Monday evening speaker, is president of the BGCT and pastor of Waco's First Baptist church.

Other speakers include Dr. J. Howard Williams, Dallas, executive secretary BGCT; Dr. E. S. James, Vernon, executive board president, BGCT, and Dr. T. L. Holcomb, Nashville, executive secretary, SBC Sunday School Board.

Laymen will be in charge of the opening session of the conference Monday evening, January 14. L. H. Tapscott, Brotherhood secretary, and William Fleming, 1951 president of the BGCT, will be among laymen on the program.

Seven seminars will be conducted during a conference period Tuesday afternoon on phases of evangelism including prayer, praise, program, pastors, prospects, publicity, and evangelists.

W. P. Martin of New Orleans Baptist Seminary will be song leader.

The conference will close on Wednesday night with simultaneous evangelistic services in Tarrant County Baptist churches.

Dr. C. Wade Freeman, evangelism secretary; Dr. Jackson, and the evangelism department are in charge of arrangements for the meeting.

Do-Re-Mi's Of Living Listed Will Help You Keep New Resolutions

The chances are that those resolutions you are trying so hard to carry out were all aimed at making your life and the lives of those around you a bit more pleasant during the coming year. You may have resolved not to worry so much, not to yell at the children, to really stay within a budget, to try to find more things to laugh at, to do little helpful things for people — in some way or other your resolutions are designed to make life a song instead of an offkey existence. A song is made up of seven tones, those old familiar do, re, mi, fa, so, la ti's. Whatever key you live in, you still use those do-re-mi's for your living. And one of the best ways to keep in key, in proper tone, to make your life a song, is the eating of the essential foods.

It seems a far cry from food to resolutions but without the proper instruments you can't have any kind of a song. You know that if you don't eat enough food, you get dizzy, weak, and your thoughts get rather flighty. You know that when you eat too much food, you get headache, stuffy, heavy, and your poor old mind seems not to function too well.

Eating improper foods does not create as obvious symptoms as undereating or overeating but sooner or later the effects will show up someplace in your system. You yell at the kids, you get highly nervous and worry about yourself and world situations, you take a dim view of things, you don't feel good enough to want to help yourself or others — in fact, you make resolutions with the turn of the year to try to overcome your shortcomings.

A proper diet is not a cure-all. It is the first essential in helping you to help yourself, however, mentally and physically. And the first resolution you should go to work on this year is the establishment of a proper diet; your other resolutions might fall into place automatically if you're feeding yourself the instruments which enable your body to tune up in key.

Those seven basic foods fit right into those seven basic tones that make up music. Anything else you add to your diet may offer variation in your song of life, but you have to start with the basic seven.

First you have "do," the musical equivalent of bread and cereals which are the first requirement in a diet. You need dough, whole grain cereals, in some quantity every day, no matter whether you're drastically overweight or not. If for some reason of health these "do" ingredients must be eliminated from your diet, your doctor will substitute a food which contains the same substances in a manner in which your body can use properly.

The agent, Miss Dorothy Harbin, will present plans for the year and the group will have a

There's hearty eating for the family when you serve a savory meat pie such as this. It's made of tender cubes of meat joined with vegetables, then served in its savory gravy and topped with hot flaky biscuits.

Tech's student center in Lubbock will present a program for the service at the First Baptist church Sunday evening.

The Methodist Youth Fellowship will meet in Tahoka Saturday for a district meeting from 4:30 until 9:30 o'clock. A group from the local church plans to attend.

At 6:15 o'clock Sunday evening at the First Baptist church a movie "Training Union is A Family Affair" will be shown for the opening exercise of the regular training union meeting. "Everyone is urged to see this film" the pastor, the Rev. Mr. Denton said.

A Town and Country church meeting will be conducted at the Methodist church in Tahoka Monday night. The Methodist men of that church will serve supper at 6:30 o'clock. The local pastor and a group of laymen will attend.

The film "The Raising of Lazarus" will be shown after Bible study tonight at the First Baptist church. Tomorrow night, "Dust or Destiny" will be shown immediately after the study period. The public is invited.

"The new year is starting off in a very fine way and you are especially urged to attend church whoever you are. Find the church of your choice and become a regular attendant" the Rev. Mr. Boyd, pastor, urges. He will speak at Verbena church Sunday as well as at both services of the local church. Special music has been planned for each of these services.

The Rev. Joe E. Boyd, Methodist pastor, was in Lubbock Monday and Tuesday for an advance meeting. Purpose of the meeting was to set up the program "Family Life in the Church."

The Local Presbyterian church is host for a meeting of the Abilene Presbytery today.

The WSCS met Monday afternoon in the home of Mrs. John Lott with Mrs. O. G. Murphy as cohostess. Mrs. N. W. Stone, president, was in charge of the meeting. Mrs. J. E. Parker directed the program. She was assisted by Mrs. J. R. Durrett, Mrs. Ellis Mills, Mrs. Stone, Mrs. Lott and Mrs. Joe E. Boyd. Miss Patty Lott presented two organ selections. Fruit cake topped with whipped cream nuts and coffee were served from a beautifully appointed table. Other members attending were Mrs. Carl Clark, Mrs. R. H. Collier, Mrs. T. R. Greenfield, Mrs. T. R. Hibbs, Mrs. T. L. Jones, Mrs. Jessie Voss, Mrs. J. A. Rogers, Mrs. O. G. Hamilton, Mrs. A. D. Pruet, and a guest, Mrs. Tizard, mother of Mrs. Lott.

Monday and Tuesday nights reports at the Bible study now in progress at the First Baptist church revealed an average attendance of 89 persons.

The Rev. and Mrs. Douglas W. Gossett, who live near Dallas, are announcing the arrival of a baby daughter, born Dec. 21, 1951. Her name is Linda Gayle and she weighed seven pounds and 12 1/2 ounces at birth. The grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Cummings and Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Gossett.

Mr. and Mrs. John Booth, of San Pedro, Calif., became the parents of a son, Michael John, Dec. 6. Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Maxey are the maternal grandparents.

The next note of the scale is "re," which might be translated into food as the fruits, tomatoes or raw cabbage that belong in your daily diet. All fruits are included in this bracket and since there is always some fruit on the market, it shouldn't be a hard spot to fill. When you get tired of fruits, you can always switch to tomatoes or an occasional serving of cole slaw or some other raw cabbage dish; but you need some of this "re" group everyday, and it wouldn't hurt to include two servings of "re."

Milk could be the "mi" in the musical scale of living and potatoes might fit into "fa." You have meat as "so," leafy green and yellow vegetables as "la" and fats as "si". All of these notes have to be sung daily, just like a singer will run through the scales to exercise her voice before she starts her song. These seven basic foods start your body functioning properly, exercising all the parts of your body, and you can then go into your song and dance with the additions of other foods which you may cherish.

It's not too late to make a resolution to eat a portion of each of these foods every day. It's a safe bet that they will make you feel better, act better, and look better as you go about trying to fulfill those other resolutions you have made.

Statistics Prove Automobiles Bigger Mass Killer Than Wars Experts Say

The automobile will outpace war as a mass killer of Americans sometime in February, when its fatality toll will exceed for the first time in history the total of the nation's military dead since 1775, unless the new year starts with a marked decline in traffic deaths and Korean casualties increase greatly in the meantime, the Association of Casualty and Surety Companies said today.

At the end of the first year and a half of the Korean conflict on December 25, military deaths in all U. S. wars since the Revolution started had reached approximately 1,004,000, according to the Association's comparative study of war and traffic fatalities. The automobile killed its millionth victim on December 22. Its toll on Christmas Day, when the Korean war was 18 months old, was approximately 500 over that historic mark, 3,500 below the all-time total of war deaths but 56,500 higher than the tally of 944,000 motor vehicle fatalities at the start of the Korean war on June 25, 1950. In the same 18 months the Department of Defense has reported about 17,800 U. S. military deaths in Korea.

Barring resumption of full-scale war and far greater American casualties in Korea or a huge reduction in the motor vehicle toll during the next few weeks, the automobile will soon overcome war's head start of 125 years in which 530,000 military deaths had occurred before the motor age claimed its first victim just before the twentieth century began, the Association declared. At the 18-month mark of Korean hostilities, traffic fatalities were occurring seven times faster than those of war, claiming in one day as many American lives as the total lost in one week's fighting in Korea.

The historic death race between these two mass killers toward their respective million marks ended with war claiming the life of a new unknown soldier, "GI-X," in Korea last September 3 or 4, according to the Association's study. His civilian counterpart in traffic accidents, "Victim X," died about 110 days later. Both "GI-X" and "Victim X" will remain unknown, it added, although some attempts have been made to establish the identity of the millionth traffic victim, of which no one can be certain because of incomplete early statistics. However, the deaths of these historic victims of war and the automobile a little more than three and a half months apart have centered attention on the relative deadliness of occasional American wars and daily traffic accidents, the Association said in pointing out that within two months the automobile will take a commanding lead as the dealer of the two wholesale destroyers of American lives.

"Americans must face the fact that the automobile is a bigger killer of their sons and daughters than our wars," said Thomas N. Boate, public safety director of the Association and acting manager of its accident prevention department, in commenting on the study. "The new year should witness the most determined effort ever made by the nation to reduce the tremendous loss of life in highway accidents."

"An even greater highway safety movement than that which sought to delay the death of 'Victim X,' the millionth traffic fatality, must be launched immediately to save lives that otherwise will be lost because of carelessness and law violations by drivers during 1952. During the Christmas holidays, just after the millionth automobile death occurred, traffic fatalities dropped about one-third compared with the previous year. While the most intensive traffic safety drive in history did not prevent the death of 'Victim X' in 1951, it probably delayed it and also has provided the foundation for a bigger, stronger campaign by all states and communities this year in a nation which is more fully conscious of the menace of traffic accidents than ever before. The encouraging drop in traffic fatalities which followed the death of the millionth automobile victim must be continued throughout 1952."

Automobile deaths climbed rapidly to the million mark in the 52 years, three months and one week after the first known traffic fatality occurred in New York City in September, 1899, just before the present century dawned. War deaths in the same period totaled about 474,000, the Association said.

In the first decade of the present century, 1900 through 1909, automobiles killed about 5,000 men, women and children, the Association has estimated. From 1900 to the end of 1906, deaths from the new horseless carriages averaged about 320 a year, it said. In 1907, according to the best records available, the motor vehicle death toll was 666. The following year 834 fatalities occurred and by 1909 there were 1,254 persons killed in a single year. In this first decade motor vehicle registrations had climbed from 8,000 in 1900 to 312,000 at the end of 1909.

By 1913, when registrations for the first time exceeded the million mark and stood at 1,258,000 passenger cars and trucks, the 1907 motor vehicle fatality rate of 0.8 deaths per 100,000 population was more than five times greater. It reached 4.4 deaths per 100,000 Americans in 1913. For the first six months of last year it was 24.8 deaths per 100,000 persons in the nation. This compares with 30.8 in 1937, highest point of motor vehicle deaths computed on a population basis. In that year 39,643 traffic deaths occurred, the second highest toll in history and only several hundred below the peak of 39,969 fatalities in 1941, when the motor vehicle death rate was 30.0 per 100,000 population.

In the second decade, 1910-19, there were 62,969 automobile fatalities. They climbed to 209,894 in the twenties, and in the following years, 1930-39, reached the peak of any decade to date, with 342,588 traffic deaths recorded. Travel restrictions of the war years lowered to 308,827 the toll of the 1940-49 decade, but as the second half of the century started, fatalities in 1950 rose 3,500 over the previous year and for 1951 were estimated at 37,500, some 2,500 higher than in 1950. These big increases in deaths have given an ominous start to the second half of the century with respect to motor vehicle fatalities, the Association said.

This decade's fatalities so far total about 72,500 for the first two years, compared with 66,600 for the first two years of the "terrible thirties," it said, or some 6,000 higher.

American war casualties during the first 18 months in Korea averaged 33 deaths per day, the same toll that prevailed in the first year of the war to last June 25. On U. S. highways the automobile fatality toll for the identical 18 months since the start of the Korean war has been computed by the Association at 103 deaths per day, four higher than the daily average for traffic deaths during the first year of the war.

The Defense Department total of 17,800 American military fatalities in Korea in 18 months excludes any of the 10,650 currently listed as missing, 3,200 of whom have been listed by Communist negotiators at Panmunjom as prisoners of the Red forces.

The Association's study showed that while U. S. military deaths climbed from 986,247 at the start of the Korean war to approximately 1,004,000 as of Christmas Day, in the same 18-month period traffic fatalities rose at a three times swifter pace, from 944,000 to the 1,000,000 mark reached on December 22.

During January of last year 2,840 deaths occurred on the highways, a 20 percent increase over the previous January, and 2,260 persons died in accidents in February. If these tolls are exceeded in the weeks just ahead, the Association said, by mid-February or soon afterwards the all-time total of automobile deaths will exceed the aggregate of the nation's military deaths for the first time.

IN KOREA

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Wade, formerly of Post and now of Dallas, received word on Christmas Day that their son, Roy, had landed in Japan on the 19th of December. He also informed them he was leaving that afternoon for South Korea where his unit would guard an airfield.

The broad objectives of the U. S. Defense Bond program for 1952 are: to widen the ownership of the national debt, further mobilize the power of regular saving behind our defense effort and thus help check inflation as the defense program expands.

January Designated As "Hand Signal Month" In Texas For Better Safety

AUSTIN, — This is "hand signal month" in Texas and you, Mr. and Mrs. and Miss Automobile Driver, are urged to apply the "signs of life", not only in January but the rest of your days. In fact, you will be a law violator if you fail, but if you comply, you might save a life.

Traffic safety exponents are convinced that death and injury on streets and highways can be lowered greatly if motorists practice the "common courtesy of applying hand signals." That's why January has been designated as "hand signal month" in the Lone Star State.

"Participation in this traffic safety educational program requires only minimum effort on the part of drivers," said A. W. Breeland of Dallas, President of the Texas Safety Association, Inc., which is sponsoring the campaign. "All a driver needs to do is learn, then apply the signals. It is easy if you remember the slogan: Right turn — hand up. Left turn — hand out. Slow or stop — hand down. A hand signal could be the means of averting a death dealing accident."

Breeland stated that need for courtesy in driving is accentuated by the fact that the traffic death list for Texas in 1951 will show in excess of 2,500 persons when final figures are compiled.

"That's an unprecedented highway death rate for our state," he said. "Traffic safety education is a fine thing, but we must have the cooperation of motorists if needless slaughter is to be averted. More drivers must practice the precepts of traffic safety education. Applying hand signals lends that opportunity. We remind drivers that failure to give hand signals is a violation of law. By obeying the law you might save a life — and that life could be your own."

The state-wide hand signal campaign was begun on January 3 when Governor Allen Shivers issued an official memorandum calling all motorists to "learn proper hand signals and apply them as a means of lowering the death and injury toll on our streets and highways." The project, promoted by press and radio facilities of the state, is directed by J. O. Musick, General Manager of the Texas Safety Association, and Weldon Hart.

Movie of the Week

Did you ever know a cat that inherited $30,000,000 and a baseball team?

No. And you probably won't either. That is personally.

But if you can't imagine what happens in a situation like that then don't miss the feline comedy of the year — "RHUBARB".

"RHUBARB" is the story of a cat that inherits that much money and also a ball team. And what happens to the poor press agent and guardian who has to take care of Rhubarb shouldn't happen to a press agent.

Ray Milland plays the part of the harassed press agent on whose shoulders it falls to see that the new four-footed owner of the baseball team is happy (not to say anything about the players' feelings toward their feline boss).

To make the story even better, Rhubarb really wasn't born to riches. He came from a long line of alley cats and loved it, but when adopted by the eccentric old magnate, Gen. Lockhart, Rhubarb begins eating high on the hog. He certainly becomes an uppercrust cat fast.

Jan Sterling, that blonde bombshell destined to go places in Hollywood, plays opposite Milland in this.

"RHUBARB" shows at the TOWER THEATRE Sunday and Monday. WARNING! When you go to see RHUBARB wear your tightest girdle, because if you don't you might break a rib laughing.

Manager Johnny Hopkins has also lined up some other fine ENTERTAINMENT for your movie pleasure this week. Friday and Saturday the TOWER gives you the tough, slam-bang battle story of "THE TANKS ARE COMING". This picture teams Steve Cochran and Mari Aldon (the screen's new blonde spark of life) in a story of the Yanks in the Tanks as they blast their way across France to defeat the Germans at their own game of war. It is a story of the magnificent 3rd Armored Division that spearheaded the Americans through Normandy, France and Germany.

Tuesday: John Garfield and Shelly Winters in "HE RAN ALL THE WAY".

Wednesday and Thursday: Louis Jordan, Jean Peters and Debra Paget in "ANNE OF THE INDIES".

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Long might enjoy seeing "RHUBARB" Sunday or Monday. If so two tickets are yours through the courtesy of the management. They are good for any performance.

COFFEE DAY SET

Hugh Blevins, chairman of the regular Coffee Day in connection with the annual March of Dimes, has set the date for Post Coffee Day.
 Next Wednesday — all day — is COFFEE DAY. On that day, instead of paying for the coffee, people will place their dimes in the convenient containers at all places where coffee is sold. Owners of these places will donate the time, coffee, service and everything. Nothing will be taken from the March of Dimes funds. Drink a lot of coffee.
 Iron lungs have been distributed to all available places in town by Shelley Camp. Willis urges everyone to drop their loose pennies, dimes and nickles in these containers as they pass them.
 D. C. Arthur has accepted chairmanship of the Post Independent School district drive.
 The March of Dimes program has been extended to include all of January this year because of the increasingly large number of polio cases. Willis urges everyone in Garza county to GIVE. You might be helping your own child.

 Shytles extends a cordial invitation to all its friends to attend the BIG JOHN DEERE DAY.

Edgar Bergen—

 one event than it has in many a moon. Servicemen were the first to acknowledge the generosity of the citizens. They responded with letters. Then Bergen mentioned the fact to Hedda Hopper, Hollywood columnist, that he was coming to Post personally. She put this quote in her nationally syndicated column. Then Bergen made the broadcast.
 And as a climax the First National Bank received the following letter.

Dear Sir:
 This letter is being written at the request of our client Edgar Bergen and I am forwarding it to you because the people of Post, Texas, did not feel inclined to individually give us their names when they so magnificently contributed gifts to Operations Santa Claus. I can assure you that these gifts brought great happiness to several hundred Korean wounded patients at Battle Creek Army hospital and Great Lakes, Illinois, Naval Hospital. I am sure that the recipients of these gifts have by now written their thank-yous to the individuals who provided them with much happiness at Christmas.

The action of your townspeople and yourself has so deeply touched Mr. Bergen that he has advised me that when he travels East in late spring 1952 he would like to visit Post, Texas, with Charlie McCarthy and Mortimer Snerd and if your city has any philanthropic drive at that time he will be pleased to give a complete show gratis for the benefit of this cause. If this is acceptable to you I will keep in touch with you and advise well in advance at what time he will reach Post, Texas.
 Meanwhile with every good wish for the New Year from Edgar Bergen, Charlie McCarthy, Mortimer Snerd and myself to you and all the wonderful people of Post, Texas, believe, me,
 Sincerely yours,
 Irwin R. Franklin

Letters of acknowledgment and appreciation have already been sent to both Mr. Franklin and Mr. Bergen with special invitations for Bergen to visit the city.
 Special plans to welcome him to the city have already gotten underway. Benefits from his show in Post will go toward some phase of the new county hospital now under construction, thanks to a wonderful idea first suggested to the Dispatch by Mrs. Nellie K. Babb. The specific purpose of the allocation of this money will be determined Monday at a joint meeting of the County Commissioners and the Board of Managers of the new hospital.

A special telegram showing appreciation from the people of Post was sent Monday by Mayor T. L. Jones in which the invitation to Post by these celebrities was made official.
 Announcements of where the show will be staged, the admission arrangements and all pertinent details will be given later.
 This is an opportunity of a life-time for a small town like Post. Bergen's talent brings him a fabulous sum each week over his nation-wide radio hook up. And it is doubtful that any city, even larger than Post, could obtain his talent for many thousands of dollars.
 As the letter above stated, Mr. Bergen was touched at the generosity of the citizens of Post. And now he wants to do something for them in return. This honor should not be overlooked by the city. And every citizen of the city and county should take an active part in making certain that everyone knows of the plans of Bergen.

Bergen has added life to our hospital plan. It is direly in need of funds to operate. And nowhere could a city find a finer attraction for a fund raising campaign than Edgar Bergen, Charlie McCarthy and Mortimer Snerd.
 Let's take advantage of this great opportunity!
 The changing appearance of want ads in the Dispatch is due to quick results.

A letter to this roving reporter from former Postite Peggy Kelly Lackler of Ontario, Calif., says Post's part in "Operations Santa Claus" made Hedda Hopper's column in the Los Angeles Inquirer and she sent a clipping to prove it. In another portion of the Dispatch you will find news from the column about Charlie McCarthy and his boss Edgar Bergen and their proposed visit to Post. Thanks Peg!  out of a possible 2,000 have been recorded at the courthouse. This theme of citizenship urges all persons to pay their poll tax and take a voice in their government. Only 21 days remain in which to pay poll tax.
 "Sometime during this month, or next week," Mayor Jones says, "I hope the idea of American Citizenship Week will prompt every organization in the county to present a program stressing the needs of active citizenship in preserving our democratic way of life."
 The suggestion was also made that some of the local lawyers might be persuaded to give a talk on citizenship to some of the organizations, since the lawyers of Texas are sponsoring the American Citizenship Week.
 At the Rotary club Tuesday, Dean Robinson is to present a program based around the theme. And Elmer Long says the Lions club will present a similar program before the month is over.

Michigan Family Visits In Post

To one Michigan family, a tour of Post Saturday proved more than a mere visit. It was a study of history pertaining to the company that literally and figuratively provides "the cereal for their table."
When Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Kayser and three sons, of Battle Creek, Mich. planned their vacation to California this year, they never dreamed of including Post on their sight seeing agenda.
To be truthful, the family had probably only read of Post maybe once in a lifetime and that was when the history of C. W. Post was written in the company bulletin where Kayser works — Post Cereal Division of General Foods.
However, on their return trip, the family stopped in Carlsbad, N. M. to eat. The conversation with the cafe proprietor turned to where Kayser worked and the man asked if Kayser had ever seen Post, Texas, the town founded by C. W. Post.

"Naturally, we had not, but decided then and there to change our route to take it in," Kayser told the Dispatch reporter Saturday morning. "We spent more time away from our driving in Post than we did on the entire trip," he said.
The family spent a couple of hours in Post, viewing and taking pictures of the Cotton mill, the old C. W. Post home and the town in general. "It is surely an interesting highlight to the vacation," Kayser said.
Some Christmas presents presented children by their parents are likely to get the children in trouble — and cost the parents some money.
The principal trouble causing presents at this time are BB guns. A complaint has been turned in by Mrs. B. E. Young that some BB experimenters have shot two window panes out of the back of their house and fired several shots into their air conditioners.
Reports have also been received from other sources indicating that BB guns are not being used correctly by children. Several light meters have been destroyed, and street lights shot out, and light bulbs at the Camp Hut destroyed.
Parents whose children have BB guns should make certain they are not committing such acts of vandalism — or it might cause them a pain in their pocketbook.

BB Guns Being Used Incorrectly In Post

Several private citizens became concerned after reading an Associated Press article published recently in daily papers. Written by Mac Roy Razor, the story was datelined Austin and went as follows:
"Two diseases that plagued Texas through 1951 threaten a major calamity this year unless Texas cities clean up their filth. State Health Officer George W. Cox warns.
The diseases are dysentery and polio.
Polio incidence for last year dropped under the record shattering 1950 record but it took a grim and unprecedented winter hold on the state that is still unbroken.
Continuance of the high winter incidence into the new year

Snowden Asks For Second Office Term

County Judge H. M. Snowden has authorized the Post Dispatch to announce his candidacy for reelection to the office.
Judge Snowden is serving his first term in that capacity. He will make a statement at a later date.
Mr. and Mrs. Robert Miller and son were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Jones. Mr. Jones who has been quite ill is same better this week.

Observation Practice Revived By Offices

E. Custer, Secretary, Gar County FMA Committee, has announced that the local FMA offices have received approval of the State FMA committees on the following conservation practices for the county for the 1952 program:
Constructing Terraces, Controlling Diversion Terraces, Subsoiling, Leaving stalks or stubble on the land to prevent wind erosion, Leveling Land for Irrigation, Reorganization of a Permanent Irrigation System, Controlling Erosion, Dams, Application of Potash and Phosphate, Using a Green manure or Cover Crop, Summer Legumes, Establishing a Satisfactory Cover Crop, Summer Legumes, Deferred Grazing of Range Land, Constructing Windbreaks, Establishing or maintaining permanent pasture by chemical and chemical control of weeds by Airplane Spraying.
It is stated that operators should have a list of these practices immediately indicate on their plans for 1952 and submit the list to the county FMA office. No approval for the 1952 practices can be given unless the operator has a list of these practices executed and filed with the office.

He wanted to remind his backs not to fumble the ball. Kentucky won 20-7.

Post Citizens Alarmed Over Apparent Filth Allowed To Collect In Town

What is Post doing about a cleanup campaign which might prevent a polio epidemic? If there is to be a campaign when will it be? What is needed to put the city in tip-top shape?
These and many other questions are being brought up by citizens who feel that Post should do everything in its power to prevent any such outbreak as the one which occurred at Odessa recently.
Citizens are duly worried about polio and other diseases which can possibly be aggravated by filth. Many Post alleys and back streets are lined with outhouses, outdoor cess pools, cow lots, horse lots and chicken lots.
However, citizens are not the only ones who are thinking along these lines. City commissioners are also concerned about the decided filth in which the majority of Post residents seem content to live.
So a campaign will be started to get the city cleaned before the fly breeding season swarms the town with a million more pests. Actions and plans along this idea will be announced later.
Several private citizens became concerned after reading an Associated Press article published recently in daily papers. Written by Mac Roy Razor, the story was datelined Austin and went as follows:
"Two diseases that plagued Texas through 1951 threaten a major calamity this year unless Texas cities clean up their filth. State Health Officer George W. Cox warns.
The diseases are dysentery and polio.
Polio incidence for last year dropped under the record shattering 1950 record but it took a grim and unprecedented winter hold on the state that is still unbroken.
Continuance of the high winter incidence into the new year could give the state a last push-off toward what might become the worst polio year in Texas history, the health officer believes.

He cited Odessa's recent polio upsurge as a warning to other communities. He recommended Odessa's plan for combatting the disease as "an excellent example" for "every city in Texas."
A city-county-state survey of Odessa turned up numerous troubles from a sanitation and health standpoint. Included in the study were housing facilities, water supplies, sewage facilities, garbage and refuse disposal, insect and rat control and the like.
It spotlighted what Dr. Cox termed the "real troubles" at Odessa.
"Too many communities think a clean-up campaign involves raking up leaves and tin cans," he said. "That's a fine thing to do, but it's primarily beautification. It's these open toilets and open garbage cans that are the real trouble makers."
The state's health officer urged communities not to wait for needless illness, disability and even deaths to start their health surveys and intensive cleanups.
He offered the facilities of the State Health department to assist in immediate work.
Dysentery and polio keep close company, Dr. Cox observed. A fight to get rid of one will also combat the other, he said.
With the last week of the year still uncounted, Texas polio cases for 1951 had already reached 2,006 compared to last year's high of 2,770 for the comparable period. Dysentery cases totaled 28,971, compared to 1950's 19,057.
Notable increases were also counted in 1951 over 1950 for two other major diseases — 65,764 cases of measles, up from 14,290 and 28,593 cases of chickenpox, up from 18,413.
Diphtheria dropped to 485, compared to 885 a year ago. Malaria was down to 516, compared to 1,586. Mumps dropped to 20,983. Pneumonia dropped to 14,231 from 19,007.

An article which could alarm anyone if they let it soak in. People of Post are urged to watch for the details and dates on the cleanup campaign. And during the meantime they are urged to clean up around their individual homes and alleys.
SLATER RETURNS
Vic Slater, of Fairhaven, Mass., and former manager of Postex Cotton Mills, Inc., is in town on business for a couple of months. Slater served several months as manager at the mills and during the time he was in Post made many lasting friends. He is back at the mill studying the installation of the new Singer sewing machines and their effects in the sewing department at the mill.
Ray N. Smith Seeks Reelection To Office
The Post Dispatch has been authorized to announce the candidacy of Ray N. Smith for reelection to the office of county and district clerk.
Mr. Smith will make a public statement later he said.
Everybody reads and hears Dispatch want ads. That's why they get such quick results.

Post Landowners Receive Magazine

Landowners around Post are getting their first copies this week of the landowners' magazine of Texas, a sort of grassroots proposition undertaken by the men and women who own and operate the millions of acres of land in the state.
The magazine, called "Soil and Water," contains 40 pages of information on conservation in all the major sections of Texas, plus a cover printed in color.
Established by the District Supervisors of the 164 Soil Conservation Districts representing over 142 million acres of Texas land, the magazine, to be issued monthly, points out in its first issue that "conservation isn't something you achieve and then sit back and admire, like a twelve-point buck over the mantle, it's a continuing job and will never be finished as long as man makes a living off the soil."

Achieving conservation through Soil Conservation Districts, it adds, is "the very essence of democracy." The nation's Soil Conservation Districts, operated by the landowners themselves, constitute a new nationwide declaration of faith in democracy at a time when the fainthearted fear the breakdown of our type government.
Contents of the magazine, which is printed on glossy paper, includes numerous pictures of soil conservation results throughout the state, articles by experts on conservation, a statement of purposes of the President of the Association of Texas Soil Conservation District Supervisors, M. C. Puckett of Fort Stockton, a short history of soil conservation in Texas by Louis P. Merrill, Regional Director of the Soil Conservation Service, an announcement of the annual meeting of the Supervisors in Brownwood January 23-24, 1952, and numerous feature articles on soil conservation accomplishments in all its phases throughout the state. Publication offices of the magazine are in Temple.

Final Insurance Article Explains Permanent Plan And Waiver Policies

(Editor's Note: This is the last of a series of four special articles prepared by Veterans Administration explaining the rights of newly discharged veterans to government life insurance.)

Recently discharged veterans who were granted a waiver of only a part of their premiums on their permanent plans of Government life insurance while they were in active service must act immediately after their release or separation to keep this insurance in force under full premium-paying conditions.

If the veterans surrendered their permanent plans of Government life insurance for their cash value on or after April 25, 1951, while they were in active service so as to take advantage of the free indemnity protection, they must act within 120 days of their release or separation to reinstate their policies or to apply for new permanent plan insurance.

As used in this article, permanent plans of Government life insurance mean any of the permanent plans issued under National Service Life Insurance or U. S. Government Life Insurance, such as ordinary life, 20-pay life, 30-pay life, and the various endowment plans.

Under the Serviceman's Indemnity and Insurance Acts of 1951 that became law April 25, 1951, persons in active military service on and after that date could take any one of three courses with their permanent NSLI or USGLI policies.

They could: (1) continue to pay the full premium as in the past; (2) apply for waiver or a part of their premium, or (3) surrender their policies for the cash value and be covered by the free indemnity protection.

Those who elected to pay the full premium must continue to do so immediately after release or separation from active service if they wish to keep their policies in force thereafter.

Those who were granted a waiver of part of their permanent plan premium (under Section 622 of the NSLI Act) were instructed to pay the full premium while they were in active service and VA would refund the waived portion.

When these persons are released or separated from active service, they should continue to pay the full premium, when due, directly to Veterans Administration, Washington 25, D. C. That portion of the waived premium which is paid under this arrangement will be refunded, with interest, for the period that the waiver is in force.

Those who surrendered their permanent plan policies for cash may adopt one of two courses of action if they wish to replace or restore the surrendered permanent plan of insurance. In either of these two courses, the requirements for reinstatement or issuance of new insurance must be met within 120 days following release or separation from active service. The two courses of action are:

1. They may apply to Veterans Administration, Washington 25, D. C., in writing, without a physical examination, for the issuance of a new permanent policy on the same plan and not in excess of the amount of the policy surrendered for cash, and pay the required premium, or

2. They may reinstate their surrendered permanent plan of insurance, without a physical examination, by paying the required reserve and the premium for the current month. Applications for reinstatement should be mailed to Veterans Administration, Washington 25, D. C.

For further information, veterans should contact their nearest VA office as soon after separation or release from service as possible.

Bits of News

Recent visitors of the E. E. Pierces were Mr. and Mrs. Joe E. Pierce and daughters, Jo Carol, Beth Ann and Cynthia, of Coulee City, Wash.; Cpl. Eldon W. Pierce, Fairchild Air Force base radio operator; Mrs. Nettie Scott, of San Saba; Miss Gladys Pierce, of Temple; and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Wilcox, of Lamesa.

Many friends of Mrs. Ed Gossett of May, Texas, were happy to see the former Garza county resident when she was here at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Carl Webb, during her short Christmas visit. She visited all of her children during the holidays and was accompanied on the trip by her son Ralph.

Dispatch Makes Error in Story

Monta Moore on January 1st assumed active management of Double U Company. Mr. Sam Bardwell, who has been with the Double U Organization since 1907, and for the past several years General Manager, continues his association with the company in a supervisory capacity.

Report in earlier edition that Mr. Bardwell had resigned was erroneous.

J. C. Harris fell during the icy weather last week and broke his foot. He was carried to the Slaton Mercy hospital when the accident happened but has returned home.

L. B. Hambright received a broken foot in a fall while at work at the gin this week.

Residents receiving minor injuries during the icy weather last week were Mrs. Nellie Mathis and A. F. Davies.

Raymon Cisneras and Mike and Mrs. Harry King were enroute to Slaton Wednesday morning when their car went out of control and overturned. Mike received a broken collar bone.

The Rev. Mr. Dameron and family visited his daughter at Wellington Monday. The daughter fell Saturday and broke her shoulder.

Mrs. C. E. Cox has returned home from Slaton Mercy hospital. The Clarence Terry family, of Lubbock, visited the S. M. Truelocks Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Myers attended the funeral of his aunt, Mrs. Wilbur Patterson, at Peacock Friday.

Mrs. Boles, of Lubbock, spent the week with Mrs. G. D. Ellis. Mrs. John Baker is back home after spending a week with her daughter, Mrs. Outlaw, and family in Lubbock.

Lieut. and Mrs. D. S. Hill of Lubbock are parents of a daughter born Jan. 1 in Lubbock Memorial hospital. Mrs. Hill is the former Miss Wilma Wheeler.

Baylor Students Receive News Hot

WACO, P — Baylor University students read the day's news hot off the wires of Associated Press when they come to lunch in Baylor's Union Building cafeteria.

Journalism students, who subscribe to AP wire service for laboratory use in their classes and for publication in the Daily Lariat, also sponsor a three by four foot bulletin board in the Union building—just across the hall from the cafeteria.

They pick the top news of the day from the thousands of words coming in on their teletype. Students in Prof. William J. Thomas' editing class write headlines on the stories, and a specially appointed committee races the fresh news from journalism building to the Union for immediate posting.

It is one of the most crowded halls of the campus, as students crane their necks to see if Larry Isbell made another All-American team, if peace moves are progressing in Korea, or whether the sun will shine tomorrow.

Galveston Mardi Gras To Be Reinstated

GALVESTON, P — Galveston's historic Mardi Gras celebration which dates back to 1867 will be revived in 1952.

The festivities will start with a welcoming dance on Saturday, Feb. 23. They will end Tuesday, Feb. 26, with the coronation pageant at the city auditorium and the coronation ball at the Galveston pleasure pier.

The coronation and ball will be the only events open to the public. Profits will be given to Galveston charities.

Mrs. Bryan F. Williams of Galveston has been appointed general chairman. W. L. Moddy, Jr. is sponsor.

Invitations have been sent to 70 debutantes in other Texas cities and 12 Galvestonians to participate in the four days' program.

The queen of Texas debutantes will be crowned.

Mrs. Williams said that it is planned to make the Galveston Mardi Gras an event where the debutantes of Texas can be introduced in a round of festivities.

The Duke's Association, she said, is being organized with this in mind. The Duke's ball will be held at the Hotel Galvez Jan. 25.

WHAT NOW?

WELLINGTON, N. S., P.—Percy Brittain figures Lady Luck deserted him. He fell off a load of grain and injured his shoulder. Next day he discovered a fox had killed 45 of his best pullets. The third day his pet dog was killed by an automobile.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Roach, Jr., Houston Ford dealer, will fly to Post tomorrow to visit Mr. and Mrs. Tom Power and daughters over the weekend. Tom and Jack attended A&M college together and Tom was associated with Jack Roach, Inc. before buying the local Ford agency.

The dollar value of Series E Bonds, all owned by individuals, continued to increase in 1951. By December 1, it had reached an all-time high of $34.7 billion, or 15 percent more than on VJ-Day in August, 1945. That's a lot of reserve buying power.

Benjamin Franklin said: "A penny saved is a penny got"—though it is usually misquoted: "... a penny earned." Either way, the regular buyer of U. S. Defense Bonds can make, for himself, his family, their freedom and prosperity.
