$125,000 Building Project Nearing Completion At Mill

Completion date for the approximately $125,000 construction program now underway at Postex Cotton Mills, Inc., has been set for Dec. 27, according to O. G. Murphy, manager.

Announcement of the projected expansion program was made last summer and construction on the extensions to the weave shop and bleaching departments was begun in August.

George A. Fields, Lubbock contractor, received the work contract and is employing approximately 35 men to complete the work. Most of these workers are hired locally. The expansion program calls for a 70 by 135 foot extension to the weave shop and a 60 by 140 foot extension to the bleaching department.

When the weave shop extension is completed, 72 looms (36 pillow case and 36 sheet) will be moved from the old weave shop and installed alongside the 180 looms already operating there. The old weave shop will then be converted into warehouse space, Murphy pointed out.

Completion of the bleaching extension will afford the company additional sewing room space so that their capacity can be almost doubled. At present the mill is supposed to be producing 7,000 dozen sheets each week.

Additional space in the bleaching will also give longer range for the processing of the material, Murphy pointed out. It will allow for the installation of a 60-foot tenter frame to replace the present 16-foot one. This addition alone will improve the quality of the material, the manager said.

The company village, as well as the roads in the mill yard, have been topped with a layer of caliche to prevent the winter weather from making them impassable.

Purchase of 10 homes in recent weeks has run the total of company owned rent houses for personnel to 48, the manager explained. Ten more houses are on the planning boards and repairs are being made on some of the older houses.

The company is also planning a new warehouse to be 75 by 100 feet. Construction is to begin immediately, Murphy pointed out. This space will be added to that afforded by the present five warehouses.

Wednesday the company tied into their new power system, a 30,000 KVA unit system built by the Southwestern Public Service. This new system was needed because of the overload placed on the old system.

Company officials are highly elated over the beginning of the new safety program at the mill. Lee Ward is in charge of the program and holds safety meetings twice monthly. This program is held for the foremen who comprise the safety committee.

At the meetings these men are taken on a tour of the plant and safety hazards are pointed out so they can be corrected. Lee said he also shows safety films every two months.

Silver Beaver Award Is Presented To John Lott

For the second time since the Boy Scout movement has been carried on in Post a local scout leader has been honored with the Silver Beaver award, highest council-level scouting honor.

John Lott, Garza rancher, who has been actively engaged in scouting the past several years, Monday night at the 27th annual Boy Scout banquet was presented the award.

The first Silver Beaver award to be bestowed on a local Scoutmaster was presented to Marshall Mason, who for many years campaigned almost alone in promoting scouting. Mr. Mason not only organized the first troop here but for years served as its Scoutmaster. He received his award about twelve years ago.

Gene Quest of Lubbock also received the Silver Beaver award, presented by K. N. Clapp, Lubbock, council commissioner, who himself was the recipient of a 25-year veteran award given by Lott.

Besides the Silver Beaver award, Lott was presented a special award, for developing the Post Camp.

Johnson Funeral Rites Incomplete

Cliff Johnson, longtime resident of the Southland community, died at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Aubrey McNeely, Tuesday night.

Funeral arrangements were still incomplete yesterday afternoon relatives reported. Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. McNeely and Mrs. Wayne Pharr, of Lubbock; four grandchildren; a brother, Kit Johnson, of McAllen and a sister, Mrs. W. I. Smith of Post.

Shortage Of Classrooms At Critical Point

Shortage of classroom space—which was acute at the beginning of school—is beginning to cramp the teaching activities at Post Grade and High school to a critical point, school officials announced.

Grade school teachers have felt the brunt of increased enrollment since the first of the year much more than high school teachers, figures reveal. The first week in September 530 students enrolled in grade school. At the end of last week, this figure had increased to 585, Principal Ellis M. Mills explained.

Before this increase in students, teachers were already overloaded and classroom space was at a premium. In fact, only 18 classrooms are included in the grade school building and 19 sections are being taught. One section has to use the library as a homeroom.

Overloading of the two third grade teachers became so bad last week that a split section was set up to alleviate the pressure. Both third grade teachers, Mrs. Maurine Lackey and Burnis Lawrence, had 40 students. Five students from each class were put into a new section and given to Miss Jean Jepson, fourth grade teacher. She will teach a fourth grade section also.

Such rapid increase of enrollment is in keeping with the trend of the last several years in the Post system. Superintendent D. C. Arthur said that in the past eight years—since 1944—enrollment in the Post system has increased 32 percent and, as the new figures reveal, is still on the upward trend.

He also estimated that if the increase continued the enrollment will be 1,300 by 1960. This is based on the increase of the past eight years. On the basis of the national average, Arthur pointed out, Post will have more than 1,300 by that year.

"Right now we have room for 800 students in the school building. See CLASSROOMS Page 8

Ranch Employee Dies Of Injuries

Darrell Sullins, 20, died in Garza Memorial hospital at 7:30 o'clock last night from head injuries he received when a horse fell on him at the U Lazy S Ranch some five hours earlier.

His local physician called in Dr. Victor Ellis, neurosurgeon, of Amarillo.

Sullins horse stumbled as he and a co-worker were attempting to corral some calves. It was reported to the Dispatch.

Hudman Funeral home announced this morning that funeral rites are incomplete.

Survivors include the parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Sullins, of Caprock, N. M., and two brothers.

The added attraction will be cash and certificate drawings, held on Saturday, Dec. 13, and Wednesday (Christmas eve), Dec. 24.

Union Thanksgiving service is to be held at 7:30 p. m. on Thanksgiving Eve, November 26, at the First Christian church, according to an announcement by the Rev. Almon Martin, pastor.

It is fitting that such a service should be held and all church leaders, members and townspeople are invited to meet together for an hour of thanksgiving and in prayerful unity. The program is under the sponsorship of the Ministerial Alliance.

ed attraction for December shoppers.

Gerald Blackburn of the First Presbyterian church; Benediction by the Rev. F. M. Wiley of the Calvary Baptist church; solo by John Christopher, music instructor in Post High school.

Water Association Holds Meeting Tuesday In Post

Permain Basin section of Texas Water and Sewerage Works Association held its monthly meeting in Post City Hall Tuesday night. This was the first meeting of Permain Basin Association to be held in Post.

R. H. Tate, Post city superintendent and president of the association, introduced Joe Moss, attorney, who extended a welcome to all visitors following the meal served by Post Water department.

Bill Peabworth, salesman for Hersey Meter Company of Dallas, was principal speaker and was introduced by Tate. Peabworth explained the function of water meters. He told how meter companies must take care and precautions in using proper metals and equipment in making up a meter.

"Certain types of meters are needed in businesses, schools and homes," Peabworth said. "Amount of water to flow through a meter determines the make or style needed in different places."

The speaker gave further explanation of all models and makes of water meters. He told approximately 100 water men present to consider carefully all types of meters before buying one.

Ralph Campbell, assistant water superintendent of Lubbock, showed a film on "Laying and Installation of Cast Iron Pipes" following Peabworth's speech.

This film demonstrated the proper manner in which pipe lines should be laid, installed and checked. Three different ways of joining pipe joints together were the highlights of the movie.

After the film, a report was given by the nominating committee on election of officers for 1953. G. H. Hines, Tahoka, was elected president; J. E. Herring, Denver City, vice president; and Ray Ireton, Lamesa, was chosen secretary. Out-going officers are Tate, president; Bill Oiler, Colorado City, vice president; and Hilton Stewart, Odessa, secretary.

West Texas cities represented at the meeting were Snyder, Big Spring, Midland, Lubbock, Colorado City, Slaton, Lamesa, Brownfield, Tahoka, Denver City, Seagraves, Sundown, Odessa, Andrews, Amarillo, Morton, Levelland, O'Donnell, Dallas, and Post.

Next meeting will be held in Denver City on December 2. Tate stated that everyone interested in West Texas' water situation is invited to attend this meeting.

24. All persons who hold tickets, which will be given by merchants participating in the event, will be eligible to share in the prizes by being in attendance at the drawings and holding lucky tickets.

Every business place in Post can participate in the program. According to the plan, the business places in town have been divided into five categories. Chamber of Commerce board members will personally contact each of these business places and explain the plan and give them the opportunity to participate in the program.

Money to sponsor the project will be raised by the various business houses buying the tickets, which they in turn will give to their patrons. The money collected, after cost of advertising and tickets are deducted, will provide the fund for the prizes.

Formulation of this plan was made by the board of directors as another step in their betterment of inter-community relations. Complete details and later developments on the plan are to be announced at the next meeting of the directors on Nov. 24.

The other phase of the program will be the Christmas lights and decorations. In the past several years the City and Chamber of Commerce have combined to purchase street light strings. These strings will be installed Dec. 1, Mrs. Lawrence, secretary said. Henry Tate and Phil Trammell are in charge of installation of the lights.

Board members also voted to sponsor the house decoration phase of the Christmas program again. Prizes for the best decorated homes in one or two divisions will be given, with the divisions and amount of prizes to be decided at the next meeting.

Claudia Ticer Is Maid Of Cotton Entry From Post

A young lady from Post was one of the first 15 entrants in the South Plains Maid of Cotton Contest, scheduled next Monday.

She is Claudia Ticer, 21, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Ticer, of this city. A senior elementary education major at Texas Tech, Miss Ticer attended Wayland College for two years before coming to the Lubbock school. She is a graduate of Post High School.

Miss Ticer weighs 130 pounds and stands 5 ft. 8 in. tall. She has blonde hair and blue eyes. Her measurements are: bust 36, waist 26, hips 38.

The Post girl took part in numerous plays at Post High School and while at Wayland College she was a member of the Future Teachers of America, the Festival Chorus, the Life Service Band and the Harvest Queen basketball team. She is now a member of the Tech Choir.

Contest officials hope that a large delegation of Post residents will attend the program Monday at 7:30 p. m. in the O. L. Slaton Junior High School auditorium, Lubbock, to see the local young lady in competition with other attractive young women from Littlefield, Plainview, Sudan, Lubbock and other South Plains communities.

Edgar Bergen Asks County To Provide Gifts For Korean War Veterans

Almost simultaneously with Edgar Bergen's Sunday night radio announcement of his second annual "Operations Santa Claus" project, was the telegram received by the Dispatch requesting this newspaper's participation in the Christmas plan for Korean hospitalized veterans.

The telegram, from Mr. Bergen's personal representative, Irwin R. Franklin, read as follows: "E. A. Warren, Publisher, Post Dispatch, Post, Texas. Edgar Bergen launches second annual Operation Santa Claus on his CBS radio show November 16. Bergen will tour, commencing December 12, twenty-seven Army and Navy hospitals across nation delivering gifts and providing entertainment for Korean war wounded. Would appreciate cooperation of your newspaper in procuring gifts again from people of Post. Packages should be sent to Edgar Bergen's Operation Santa Claus, care of CBS, Hollywood, 28, Calif."

A reply letter was immediately sent to Franklin by the Dispatch publisher, advising that the newspaper staff would enthusiastically take part again this year in spearheading the movement in Post and Garza County.

"We feel sure that every person in Garza County will want to have part in providing a bit of Christmas cheer for our boys in the hospitals," declared Warren. "The gifts, we and other towns and counties provide, will be presented to the veterans in person by Mr. Bergen and his little boy, Charlie McCarthy, when the two, and a troupe of selected entertainers visit hospitals beginning Dec. 12."

Post and Garza County won nation-wide recognition last year for their tremendous response to the Bergen sponsored Christmas gesture. As a reward for the County's participation in the program, Mr. Bergen and his troupe visited Post for three memorable days, giving while they were here a benefit show for Garza Memorial Hospital which netted approximately $5,000. "We can not expect such a visit this year," the publisher explained, "but we can expect to feel proud to have had a part in a most unselfish and most worthwhile Christmas idea." And as McCarthy said Sunday night on the radio program, "The gifts we give will increase the size of our hearts."

The Dispatch solicits the cooperation of all service clubs of Post, church and Sunday School class organizations, public school classes, women's clubs and all individuals to help make this year's "Operations Santa Claus" a success. One of the first to offer his assistance in helping with the program, after hearing the Bergen program Sunday night, was Burnis Lawrence, who is now on the Post school faculty, and who last year was editor of the Dispatch and spearheaded the local campaign. Mr. Lawrence said, "count on me to help in every way possible."

Individual gifts need not be expensive and it has been suggested that cards, giving the names of senders, be enclosed. Last year a number of boys who received gifts with cards in them wrote letters to local people and thanked them for their generosity.

There were a number of persons and business firms who chose to donate cash to the project. The money was used to buy smoking materials, razor blades, candy, handkerchiefs and men's toiletries. These items were purchased at wholesale and the Dispatch office staff wrapped them into individual packages, each containing 2 packages of cigarettes, 2 packages of gum, 2 candy bars, pocket edition book, razor blades, shaving cream, tooth paste, kleenex and a handkerchief. The packages were all gift wrapped with Christmas paper and seals and arrangements are being made by the staff to do the gift wrapping again this year.

A number of women's clubs came through one hundred per cent in membership gifts, all individually wrapped. Several stores fixed up packages. Postex Cotton Mills handled the crating of 144 packages which were sent direct to Mr. Bergen and Post Chamber of Commerce picked up the shipping charge. The past year the Korean casualties have been extremely heavy with thousands of boys in hospitals throughout the nation. "The least we can do is to see that they are remembered on Christmas," Warren said. "Garza County's participation in last year's 'Operations Santa Claus' was a huge success. Let's make it even greater this year."

NOVEMBER A Good Month

November is a month of thanksgiving. A month when we take stock of things that are to happen and things that have already happened.

We have the highest standard of living in the world. We owe that partly to the kindness of nature in bestowing upon the land vast and rich resources.

Texans In WASHINGTON

By TEX EASLEY, Associated Press Washington Service

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—The Texas congressional delegation will find itself in a strange position next January—in the role of the minority party with the opposition party also controlling the White House.

Only two of the solidly Democratic Texas 24-man delegation will be able to recall service under similar circumstances—present Speaker of the House Sam Rayburn of Bonham and Rep. Wright Patman of Texarkana.

Rep-elect Martin Dies of Lufkin served in Congress under the Hoover Republican regime, but Texas' John Nance Garner was leading a Democratic House at the time.

For one thing, as minority members the Texans can and probably will become vigorous critics of a Republican administration, just their GOP colleagues have been critical of things in general the past two decades.

It is the accepted custom that those who don't have to share in responsibility can loudly criticize.

Rayburn will yield the reins of the House to the present House Minority Leader Joe Martin (R-Mass.) on next Jan. 3.

The veteran Bonham legislator, incidentally, will become the Dean of the House with the opening of the next session.

Dies hasn't been away so long but what he still knows his way about and may have some influence on the strength of his reputation.

But the Texans coming to Congress for the first time will find their influence small and their voice faint.

The reelected Texas legislators should be able to retain their present committee assignments because they are in the upper two-thirds of their respective groups.

With all Texans in Congress being Democrats, Gull and the Texas Republican National Committeeman Jack Porter of Houston will have much to do with the naming of Texans to various federal jobs.

Getting Out On The Limb

by EDDIE the editor

SUDDEN THOUGHT: Have you ever noticed that the people who get you into trouble seldom ever get you out.

This Indian summer we're having makes me wonder if a certain old crony of mine (who wouldn't like to see his name in print if I used it here, and who'll probably raise hell with me for using his sayings and not mentioning his name) is right on his prediction of several weeks ago that we're in for a ruff, tuff and long winter.

"Have you inspected any horses' ears lately, noting the copious growth of hair therein?" he asked. And I had to admit that I had not.

"Does your cat have her new and thicker winter coat, although the January fur sales are months away?" I was asked, and before I had time to answer came, "Have you put on your winter drawers yet?"

"IT'S GOING TO BE a booger-roo of a winter," I was told.

Not being a teller-of-things-to-come myself, I always find time to listen to an interesting old-timer, like my friend herein not named, who makes predictions which some times possibly may come true.

My little bald-headed, fat friend became more serious in his reasoning, after cracking his yawns, by pointing out that, for one thing, the killing frost came earlier this year than ever before.

Another thing which could point to one of those old-time winters is that when long droughts are broken the following winters are those with low temperatures and snow piled everywhere.

Following the 1917-18 drouth it got pretty cold that winter, my informer said. "In the early thirties, when the area suffered a drouth, temperatures in February 1933, dropped to 10 to 12 degrees below zero on several days, and we all dern near froze to death that winter," he concluded.

Now that I know that it's going to get as cold as a well digger's ear in Montana when the drouth ends, I'd like to know when it is going to rain so that I can pull my long-handles out of the moth balls.

THE WOMEN. God Love 'Em—A woman driver who smacked into another car was being lectured on hand signals by a patrolman. "But it isn't really my fault," she wailed. "There isn't a hand signal for what I want to do."

Commenting on the prison riots that have figured prominently in the news of late, R. B. Lockhart in the Pittsburg Gazette offers this constructive suggestion: "The best way to avert so many prison riots is to send better men there."

Post election jokes are still in the air. We continue to hear about the rabbits installing bverdrives, the softshelled armadillo banquets, et cetera, but the best one reported yet was the one C. Applegate of the Hamilton News-Herald had in his column "Pen Feathers."

My chubby little seventy-eight-year old mother says she didn't vote for Ike because he is a Republican. She says she never did vote for a Republican and, what's more she never will, and argues to high heaven with me that she did not vote for Herbert Hoover and did not wear one of those blue and white "I'm A Hoover Democrat" buttons which I remember her showing to everyone who came into the Dispatch office for months before the Hoover-Smith presidential election.

New Books Reveal Early Life On Texas Ranges And Homesteads

By DAVE CHEAVENS
Associated Press Writer

The University of Texas Press is diligently rolling along in the pleasant task of providing a plentiful supply of indigenous Texas as Jim Hogg or Santa Helena Canyon. Two recent products are "Life on the Texas Range", which has been available to the public for several weeks, and "Big Bend, a Homesteader's Story", less momentous but likewise an amusing bit of interesting Texana. The "Texas Range" re-creates a fine selection of prints by Erwin Smith, known as the greatest of all the cowboy photographers it makes them available in a king-sized nine by 12 inch volume printed on very fine paper, the whole found in a pleasing outdoorish yellow-tan and peddled in a slipcase for protection and display. It is a fine job of printing, a job that the University or any other press would be proud of, and one that Texans used to doing things in a big way may brag about.

J. Evetts Haley furnishes a commentary and life sketch of the man whose artistry with a camera caught the flavor of the open range when cowboys rode horses and not jeeps. It is good solid reading, but the photographs are what will bring you back again and again to this volume. Pictures, just pictures, but they suggest the tangy flavor of burning mesquite wood; they are cow-country action, drama, grandeur — and everyday work.

Erwin Smith was a fast and handy man with a shutter. He caught flying clods of dirt from a bucking bronc's hooves in "Sunning His Sides", and cowboys scooting for the fence for safety from the horns of a snuffy cow in a picket corral. It's good reading, better looking.

"Big Bend" is the story of a homesteader in that wildest and most scenic section, told by J. O. Langford, now of Kerrville, with the able assistance of "Hound Dog Man" Fred Gipson of Mason.

Langford was the homesteader who went into the wilderness, ill deaf to cries that he was foolhardy, with his wife and 18-month-old daughter, to establish a health resort at the hot springs of the Rio Grande canyon country. He made it go, regained his health and didn't leave until bandit uprisings across the border and departure of United States soldiers made it the only prudent course.

For those who know the fabulous Big Bend country, a reading of this book will stir memories of the land before it was overgrazed, when grass grew belly-deep to a horse and blue quail flew in clouds.

Langford writes plainly and simply of his good neighbor, Cleof Natividad in a day when good neighborliness was not regimented into commissions; of Boomer, the gentle and sure-footed burro that only lost his footing once on the steep canyon trails bearing his burden of children and mesquite roots and "dobe bricks. Boomer knew his way around in the Big Bend, and swam the Rio Grande hobbled to get back home.

85 Year Old Bee Keeper Gives His Secret On How To Avoid Stinging

CENTERVILLE, Tex., Nov. (AP)—A. F. Wingfield of Centerville is 85 years, but he's as busy as a bee.

Busier, in fact, for he's a bee-keeper and has to keep one jump ahead of the busy little bees.

"Bees won't sting—and will sting," he says. "It is all in knowing how to approach a colony of bees.

"The bee-hat and the smoker are my two essential weapons I

IT'S THE LAW in Texas

Selection Of Jury Panels Explained

To many people, the call for jury service always seems to come at the wrong time. Just when plans for that hunting trip are complete, an inventory or other business problem is demanding special attention, or the best Jersey comes down with a serious ailment, a jury summons is sure to arrive.

In spite of the regularity with which such unhappy coincidences occur to some individuals, no gremlin is watching to see when you can least afford to be away from home and business. Being chosen for jury service at any particular time is largely a matter of chance.

Under Texas laws jury panels for District Courts are selected by one of two methods—the Jury Wheel or the Jury Commission. The jury wheel is a hollow metal wheel or container, so erected that it will freely revolve on its axle.

In counties using a jury wheel, a list of all qualified jurors is prepared from the official tax lists in August of each year. Taking part in the ceremony are the County Tax Assessor, the District Clerk, the County Sheriff, and the County Clerk. Each prospective juror's name is written on a card of uniform size and placed in the metal container.

Then the wheel is locked with two separate locks, the key to one lock being kept by the District Clerk and the other key being kept by the Sheriff. As jurors are needed, the wheel is revolved to mix the names and the required number drawn for preparation of jury lists.

Three persons must be present when the wheel is unlocked and the names drawn therefrom—the Sheriff (or one of his deputies), the District Clerk (or one of his deputies), and the District Judge. Upon completion of currently required jury lists, all names are returned to the container, which is again double locked.

Later, when the time comes around to prepare a new set of lists, some of the same names will very likely be drawn again. Others may never be drawn.

In counties not operating under the jury wheel system, the District Judge at each term of his court appoints from three to five persons from different sections of the county to act as Jury Commissioners.

Using the county tax assessment roll, these men follow the Judge's instructions as to the number of jurors to be selected for various weeks of the court term. The lists of names prepared by them are sealed in separate envelopes and delivered to the Judge. He, in turn, turns them over to the District Clerk or one of his deputies in open court, who immediately files the envelopes away in a safe place in the Clerk's office.

Although ordinary inconveniences are not usually sufficient to gain an excuse from jury service, emergency or hardship is a different matter. If you face such extreme circumstances in your business or personal affairs that your mind cannot freely reflect and meditate upon the important issues to be tried, call this to the attention of the judge. Courts try to be reasonable in granting excuses. The judge will consider your situation carefully and thoughtfully, and may determine that your service should be deferred.

Superstition Aids In Capture Of Monarch

KAKACHI, Pakistan (AP)—Superstition has cost Pakistan's outlaw king his liberty.

Mohammad Rahim, captured without a fight in his hideout, confessed to police they caught him only because the hooting of an owl caused him to abandon a projected trip the night of their raid. "Everyone knows you should not carry on with your plans if you hear the sound of an owl," he told his captors.

Mohammad Rahim, who claims to be king of the Hurs, a Sind provincial tribe which began an anti-British movement in 1912, had a reward of $7,500 on his head.

Post Boy Will Go To California For National Jamboree

Winner of Post's VFW trip to the National Scout Jamboree will attend the meeting July 17 through 23. Dr. C. C. Schmidt, South Plains chairman of the council's camping and activities committee announced that the Third National Scout Jamboree will be held at Irvine Ranch near Santa Anna, Calif.

Scouts and leaders from all sections of the United States plus representative Scouts from some 15 countries in the world will camp together in demonstration of National Brotherhood. Schmidt expressed a desire for 175 Scouts and Explorers and 15 leaders from the South Plains to attend.

South Plains Council's delegates will travel by chartered Texas, New Mexico and Oklahoma buses, Schmidt said. Special tours will be made through Royal Gorge in Colorado, Salt Lake City, Sequoia National Park, Catalina Island, Boulder Dam and Grand Canyon.

Any Scout in the South Plains Council, who will be 12 years of age by January 1, 1953, who has had at least a week in camp and who can present evidence of physical fitness is eligible to attend.

John Miller VFW Post No. 6797 members will send one Scout to represent Post and Garza County at the Jamboree. The VFW members will defray at least $200 of the expenses for the trip, Post Commander Waggoner Johnson recently announced. "Scouting is one of the most beneficial youth movements now going on in the country. At the jamboree, the Post Scout will meet boys and leaders from over the entire nation and should return from the trip with a closer feeling toward the boys of other states," he continued.

Schmidt estimated the total cost of the trip per boy at $195. Reservations should be made immediately with the Council Headquarters Office, 2109 Avenue X in Lubbock. A payment of $25 reservation fee must be made with all reservations for the trip.

They blew up the important Sinho Dam close by the Manchurian border, were the first to attack through the heavy flak at Pyongyang, at Kowon, and at vital power plants just south of the Yalu River.

They gave close air support to UN troops at White Horse Mountain, Chorwon and Sniper Ridge. The ship received high praise from Commander Naval Forces Far East.

Garza County School Students Travel 172,348 Miles For Their Education

More than one-third of Garza county school students—508 to be exact—will travel a total of 172,348 miles going to and from school in buses this school year, figures released this week by County Superintendent Dean Robinson, show.

Riding 15 different buses, these students will ride a total of 40.5 hours per day in covering their daily average of 947.3 miles in search of an education. By the time school ends in May they will have ridden for 7,087.5 hours or the equivalent of 29.5 days.

Portions of the daily mileage will not be too hard on the students, while other portions will tend to upset their equilibrium somewhat. For throughout the county many miles of the bus routes follow dirt roads. In fact 218.1 miles of the bus route mileage is on dirt roads while 290.8 miles gives students the easy ride of surfaced roads. Naturally, they double each one of the figures on their two-a-day rides. Longest single route in the county, Robinson's figures reveal, is that covered by the privately owned bus gathering colored students. The complete route covers 61.4 miles and takes some four hours to cover. Lonnie Johnson is the driver of this bus.

Grassbur a close second with the 57.9 miles Mrs. Basil Pucwett has to cover each run. Royce Josey, of Garnolia, noses out the Justiceburg driver, Mrs. William S. Bevers, by the close margin of 49.2 miles to 48.7 miles. Other routes and their drivers and mileage include: Graham, W. O. Fluitt, Jr., 28.8 miles; Graham, Mrs. Lucille Bush, 18.8 miles; Southland, Alva Albright, 20.4; Southland, Edgar Mosely, 23.3; Southland, Wilbur Fields, 14.9; Southland, Lucille Myers, 32.8; Close City, Mrs. Veima Furr, 37.3; Post Independent, F. F. Keeton, 41.4; Post Independent, W. C. Ryan, 35.3; Post Independent, M. C. Pennington, 15 miles.

Many of the Garza school buses are filled above capacity each day according to the reports of the drivers.

No new bus routes have been added in the county this year.

Robinson pointed out. Based on last year's figures the operation cost of Garza's 15 buses averaged $1,367 per bus, Robinson said. The total cost of actually operating all the buses was $20,517.87. And four of the school buses did not have to make payments on buses last year, the superintendent explained.

Of the 508 total students who ride school buses in the county Post Independent school gets 28 of them. Southland bus riding students total 172 and Graham has 52 that ride the bus.

One Big Week Of November Savings!

Movies Of The Week

A change of schedule will be effected at the Tower Theatre next week. Johnny Hopkins, manager, stated. Instead of the regular Tuesday only feature, a movie for that day will run Wednesday, November 26th, also. Movies for Thursday and Friday, November 27th and 28th will be the same instead of a change on Thursday.

In the review for this week, a thrilling outdoor story set on a small ranch and a love of Friday and Saturday movie, "THE LION AND THE HORSE". Steve Cochran is the star of this action packed tale of a cowboy and his horse. Animals in the cast are Wildfire, a black stallion, and someone who wrestled Victor Mature in "Samson and Delilah". Sherry Jackson is featured in an appealing role of the granddaughter of a rancher. Miss Dallas is a nine year old sweet that will capture the hearts of movie goers.

Everyone, and kids especially, will enjoy "THE LION AND THE HORSE". Don't miss it at the Tower, Friday and Saturday.

Everyone remembers the lovable chimpanzee, Bonzo, and he will be seen again at the Tower, Friday and Monday, in "BONZO GOES TO COLLEGE". This is an interesting sequel to Bonzo's first movie and in this one the chimp is a star quarterback for a college football team.

The "grand old man of show business", Edmund Gwenn, enters the role of Bonzo's coach, Mr. Perreau, 11 year old veteran actress, insists that Bonzo is a member of her movie family rather than a pet. This feeling helps into a troubled condition for her parents, played by Charles Drake and Maureen O'Sullivan. Gene Lockhart is featured in this movie as a grand-uncle, who has a dubious opinion about being grandpa to a chimpanzee.

You will always regret it, if you miss "BONZO GOES TO COLLEGE". See it Sunday and Monday at the Tower.

Gene Kelly, master of movie dance numbers, will star in Tuesday and Wednesday's feature, "DEVIL MAKES THREE". This is a delightful musical comedy full of peppy dance routines and spell-binding song hits.

"DEVIL MAKES THREE" is one of the best and latest releases from Movieland and will delight young and old alike. Make plans now to see "DEVIL MAKES THREE" Tuesday and Wednesday at your Tower Theatre.

Movie of the week in Thursday and Friday's offering, "WHERE'S CHARLEY?". This delightful comedy was a smash stage hit on Broadway for two and one-half years before being made into a movie. Ray Bolger and Allyn McLerie are stars in the movie enacting the same roles they played in the stage version of a young Oxford College man's troubles.

Bolger is forced to impersonate his wealthy aunt to add the comical touch to the picture. His aunt is late arriving at Oxford and Charley sees that she get there one way or another. His deception leads to a series of amusing complications, climaxed when the real aunt shows up and sees him in costume. Highlights of the picture are colorful song and dance sequences, the exotic "Pernambuco", and many other popular song hits of today and yesteryears.

For laughs galore and sparkling entertainment be sure to see "WHERE'S CHARLEY?", next Thursday and Friday.

Two free tickets for any performance of "WHERE'S CHARLEY?" are waiting for Mrs. I. D. Poole at the boxoffice.

MACHINE TO SEED CLOUDS—An attendant checks a ground generator of the type used by the Water Resources Development Corporation of Denver in efforts to increase rainfall from clouds. The generator projects silver iodide particles into the atmosphere at a rate of one quadrillion per minute. The company has signed a contract with the City of Dallas to try to increase rainfall to fill the city's water reservoir.

Ruthell Martin Was Named Winner In Traffic Commission's Contest

Winner of last week's Jingle Contest sponsored by Garza County Citizens' Traffic Commission was Ruthell Martin, third grade pupil in Post grade school.

Miss Martin's prize winning jingle was "Stop, Look and Listen before you cross the Street. Stop, Look and Listen or you might be under a Sheet."

Free movie passes for one week were given to Ruthell by Johnny Hopkins, manager of Post's theatres. Hopkins volunteered to give free passes for each week of the month long contest ending December 5th.

Buddy Ussery's entry deserves an honorable mention, the judges stated. This jingle is "Why Speed? Your Life is what You Need."

Officials stated that all entries must be turned in to E. E. Pierce each Friday and the winner will be announced the following Monday.

Jingles are judged on originality as well as content. If duplications of jingles are turned in, they are all disqualified, the judges said.

Richardson Named Garza Chairman For U. S. O. Fund

L. J. Richardson, Jr. has been named chairman of Garza County for the forthcoming fund appeal in Texas for the U. S. O.

Richardson's appointment as head of Garza County's appeal was announced by R. R. Gilbert of Dallas, Campaign Chairman of the Texas United Defense Fund Committee and R. E. (Red) Brown, District 11 chairman of the U. S. O. fund campaign.

A total of 103 Garza County men are serving in the armed forces, Richardson pointed out in accepting the appointment as county chairman. More young people will be called and inducted from time to time as America's defense program expands.

Gilbert said that "One of our most important civic, patriotic and personal responsibilities is to these young people in uniform." Richardson added that "Through the U. S. O. we have a means by which we can assist in keeping up the morale of these young men and women who are giving up so much to protect our freedom."

"Let's make certain that the fund appeal for $534 in Garza County is a success," the chairman said.

Loss Of Soil Can Be Stopped By Plowing

COLUMBUS, O. (AP)—Although farmers can not expect to increase the percentage of organic matter in a soil, they can offset the destructive bacterial action of nature to some extent by regularly plowing under corn stalks, straw and green manure, says an extension agronomist at Ohio State University.

George Gist says, by way of illustrating the soil problem, that by adding 2 tons of raw organic material per acre every year a farmer could only increase the organic matter content in his soil by 2 per cent in 100 years.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Going ... Going ... Almost Gone

Granny Robinson put on quite a show the other night at the annual White Elephant auction held at the Women's Club.

Towards the end of the evening, she had the ladies battling for anything she put up. "What am I bid for this woman's lovely black coat here—good as new? Who'll say ten dollars?" she asked.

Granny held the coat up, and commenced describing the coat's lining, sleeves, buttons—really "selling hard." Then, suddenly, she took a close look and blurted out "Land sakes, no more bidding please—this is my own coat!"

From where I sit, what almost happened to Granny was good for a laugh, but sometimes when people "get carried away" with their own talk it's not so funny. I prefer a glass of temperate beer while listening to my favorite radio program—you may like soda pop—or cider. I suggest we hold on to our personal opinions—and believe in them—but take a good close look at them before we try to "sell" them to our neighbor!

Post School Cafeteria To Sponsor Community Party

Scheduling of a Community Party in the school cafeteria at 7:30 p. m., Thursday, Dec. 4, has been announced by E. E. Pierce, manager.

Post and Garza county residents are invited to attend the party to enjoy the companionship and games. Pierce said dominoes and "42" will be available for those who like games. No admission will be charged for the party, but Pierce said that the game tables will cost 25 cents per person for the night. Proceeds of these games and money taken from the sale of coffee and cookies will go to the lunchroom.

Present tentative plans call for members of the Brownie scout troops to serve as hostesses. The Troop leaders feel this could give the young girls some invaluable experience. However, it has not been definitely decided they will do so.

Pierce explained that he would like to establish a custom of holding a "community party" once each month. He believes that the people would like to attend possibly an adult night one month and a children's night the next month. The permanency of such an idea, however, will depend on the attendance at the parties.

"There will be an excellent opportunity for people to gather for awhile with their friends and enjoy a few friendly games," the manager said. "And, too, it will help our lunchroom."

Scheduling such a party each month is definitely in keeping with the recent trend of the caf-

New 1953 Plymouth Is Being Shown Today By Post Dealer

THE DISTINCTIVE GRILLE of the 1953 Plymouth keynotes the new styling which carries through from bumper to bumper. Two of these beautiful new cars are on display today at Post Auto Supply.

The 1953 Plymouth is being presented to the public through the United States today, and along with the national showing is that of the local dealer, Post Auto Supply Co. The local firm is showing both the Cranbrook and Cambridge models.

"Advanced engineering and styling make the new Plymouth more than ever before the outstanding car of the low-priced field," said N. W. Stone, manager of the Post Auto Supply.

Mr. Stone said he is showing a 4-door green Cranbrook sedan and a 4-door grey Cambridge sedan.

The 1953 Plymouth is the most completely new Plymouth to be presented to the public in the quarter-century since the original model rolled off the assembly line.

"This year Plymouth is introducing a new concept of automobile design in the low priced field," Stone declared in describing the 1953 models. "Superb styling is co-ordinated with radical engineering developments to produce the truly balanced car for easier, safer and more comfortable driving."

Height of the new Plymouth has been reduced for improved appearance. Yet engineers have designed even more room into the car's interior and luggage compartment. The 1953 model has more headroom, greater legroom and more hip and shoulder space than ever before.

The lively and dependable Plymouth engine has been given even greater power. For 1953 the horsepower has been increased to 100 and the compression ratio stepped up to 7 to 1.

Interior styling of the 1953 Plymouth is entirely new. Box type seat trim gives both front and rear seat backs a smart appearance. Cushions are divided into thirds. The triple division adds a new style note with its more pleasing proportions.

Upholstery, interior molding and trim are available in a wide variety of harmonizing hues to blend with the buyer's choice of exterior body colors. Sparkling chrome hardware and bright plastic accessories set off the luxurious tailoring.

"I just can't begin to describe these lovely new cars to you," declared the manager. "You'll have to see them for yourselves. Mr. Stone has been provided with official entry blanks for all who visit his dealership, and each person will be given one to participate in the 'Meet the New 1953 Plymouth' contest. Six new Plymouths are being given away free along with hundreds of dollars in cash prizes. The entry blanks give full details on the contest and those who participate in the event have only until November 20 to enter, and must have their entry blanks post-marked not later than midnight Monday, November 24, to be eligible.

County's Returns In Mails On Time

County Judge H. M. Snowden was among the sixty-three judges to receive telegrams last week-end from Secretary of State Jack Ross, advising that he would invoke the new law empowering him to send a messenger, at the County's expense, to gather the general election returns if they were not sent in, but Judge Snowden did not seem perturbed about the matter.

Garza County's return were placed in the mail here Wednesday of last week, and he figured two day's time was enough to allow for the package to reach Austin. The returns were canvassed by the Commissioners' Court on Monday following the election, which was right and proper, and since last Tuesday was Armistice Day, a holiday, the returns were put in the mails the following day.

Under the new law, the county judge is required to file the returns with the Secretary of State within ten days after the general election. If he fails, then it becomes the duty of the county clerk to do so.

If both fail, then Ross may send special messengers to the counties to get the returns. And the counties must foot the bill.

(Continued From Front Page) ings and we are taking care of 975," Arthur pointed out. "Which means if the increase continues—and there is no doubt but what it will—something is going to have to be done to provide more space."

When asked about the possibility of a junior high school building being erected, Arthur answered that was up to the people of the district. Such a project would take a lot of backing and the people must be wholly in favor before it could go over.

In speaking of the heavy loads on teachers, Arthur pointed out that next year the school might possibly be justified in having two more teachers. "Up through October," the superintendent explained, "our average daily attendance was 840. If we can maintain this figure, and actually we can drop to 838, throughout the year, we will be justified by state rules to hire two more teachers next year."

Arthur pointed out that when the state Legislature convenes next January the Texas State Teachers Association has a valuable legislative program which they are going to push. Twelve points comprise the program and they will all benefit the Post system one way or another.

The first point on the program is to push for an increase the minimum salary to $3,000 per year. This point cannot affect the Post school, for last spring board members voted to increase the minimum salary of Post teachers to this figure. This one factor probably attributed to the fact that the Post system has not experienced any difficulty in obtaining and keeping teachers for this year's term, school officials say. They had to have one change when third grade teacher Mrs. Robert Hunt resigned and Burnis Lawrence filled the vacancy. There is a possibility that one more will resign but another is available.

"Schools all over the United States are experiencing the same trouble," Arthur pointed out. "But now is the time to do something to solve our problem. It is ours and no one else can solve it for us. And it is a certain fact that in the next several years our enrollment situation will get worse instead of better."

Basketball Workouts For Boys And Girls Begin At Post High

Antelopes closed out football season last Friday night by beating Slaton, but Monday afternoon's basketball practice was a different phase of sports was taken up. Following the season, approximately 30 boys and girls will be practicing basketball after school, Vernon Ray, basketball coach reported.

Three of the returning players are A team boys from last season, while 12 other members of last year's squad will be seen in action this season. The team of 1951 and '52 tied for second place in District 6-AA with the Ralls Jackrabbits.

Conference games will be played against the same teams with which Post football squad competed for the football crown. These teams are Spur, Tahoka, and Slaton. Elimination will be on round robin procedure with games played on a home and home basis. Top teams will meet in a district tournament with winners from neighboring districts for bi-district play offs.

Tahoka Is Champ In District 6-AA Meet Stamford For Play-offs

Bulldog packs met in Tahoka Friday night, to fight out title for District 6-AA championship. This game ended with the Bulldogs taking the crown from the 14-7 tilt. Tahoka's victory will represent this district in Bi-District play-offs against Stamford from District 6-AA.

Tahoka was undefeated in conference games to win the title, but their powerful opponents last week, rated a close second with one loss and two wins. Slaton defeated Stamford to place in District 6-AA with one win and two losses and Slaton the cellar rating with no conference wins.

Another championship game will be played Friday night at Brownfield when the Cubs meet Levelland. An upset took place in District 7-AA, last weekend Brownfield romped over Littlefield in a 27 to 0 game.

Littlefield was predicted pre-season favorite for this district crown, but the Cubs have improved considerably since this season started. Friday's game is predicted to be a toss up between the Lobos and Cubs and will prove worth watching.

Six VFW Members Go To Big Spring Meeting Sunday

Six members of the John Miller VFW Post and auxiliary attended the District Seven convention in Lamesa Sunday. Some 160 persons were present for the meeting.

Principal speaker was State Senator Harley Sadler. Also on program was Justin Morrow, senior vice-chairman of the Texas Department, VFW.

Mrs. Louise Liebfried of Crosbyton presided for an auxiliary gathering.

Sunday's business discussion was highlighted by a decision to ask the Legislature to make changes in the veteran land law whereby veterans can buy land through state aid without having to obtain half the mineral rights, as mineral rights in this area are so hard to obtain.

The convention opened Saturday with a dance that night and a luncheon was held at noon Sunday.

Attending Sunday from here were Commander Wagoner Johnson, Bob Poole, John Shedd, W. O. Holly district vice-commander, and Mr. and Mrs. John Rogers.

Antelopes Close Out Season By Defeating Slaton Tigers, 26-19

Antelope hair and Tiger fur flew, Friday night as the age old rivals fought out the annual football duel. The Antelopes drove, plunged, and battled to a 26-19 victory over their arch-rivals in a nip and tuck game in Tiger Stadium at Slaton. This game placed Slaton last in District 6-AA with no wins in their credit. Post placed third with one district win in their favor.

N. R. King, girls basketball coach, reported that a majority of the girls in high school are taking basketball as physical education courses, but the three teams that will be competing in scheduled games consist of 18 players. Fifteen of these girls played last year on the team that was defeated for district title by one point in a game against Peacock.

Boys and girls will play in conference games, which will start January 30 in Tahoka, B team boys' game will start at 6:30, girls will play at 7:30 and A team boys at 8:30. Other conference games will be February 3, Slaton here, B team at 6 o'clock and girls at 7:15; February 6, Spur there, B team at 6:30 and girls at 7:30; February 10, Tahoka here, B team at 6 o'clock and girls at 7:15; February 13, Slaton there, 6 o'clock is game time for the B team, and girls' A team will play at 7:15; and February 17, Spur journeys here for final game, B team at 6:30 and girls at 7:30. A team boys will play following each girls' game.

Both coaches reported that their teams would enter the New Deal tournament on December 18, 19 and 20 and Meadow's tournament on January 11, 12 and 13. Ray stated that the boys will also enter the Floydada tournament on January 22, 23 and 24.

Coach Ray said that a schedule for non-conference games has not been completed. Following games will be played and others will be added later: O'Donnell, there on December 9; Snyder B team, there on December 11; O'Donnell, here on December 12 and January 6. Snyder B team will play here.

Coach King reported that a non-conference schedule for the girls teams was not available at present. King said that he and several team members are planning to attend the basketball clinic at Texas Tech, Saturday.

Coaches, officials and players will hold a one-day session in Tech Gym's. The meeting will be under the sponsorship of Tech Women's Physical Education department.

Rule changes in the University Interscholastic league for girls basketball will be explained, interpreted and demonstrated during the clinic. Tech officials stated.

Highlight of the afternoon sessions will be a demonstration game between Muleshoe and New Deal.

ter the ball had changed from one team to another for a number of times. Evans ran 28 yards to score after Stone had completed an eight yard pass to Nolan Williams. Two driving runs by Darrell Bruton had helped to set up this tally. Stone converted for the extra point.

Post's line held the Tigers to a standstill for the remainder of this period of play, but Slaton came back to drive from their own 15 yard line and a score in the second quarter.

Sooter raced around right end for 47 yards on this scoring play. The conversion attempt failed, giving Post a one point margin.

Bruton led another touchdown march which ended with Evans carrying from the nine yard line. This drive started on Slaton's 46 yard line with Bruton carrying for 51 of the 54 yards gained.

Penalties had slowed the Antelopes down and made the gain equal a total of 84 yards. After a rash of off-sides penalties against the Antelopes, the conversion attempt failed.

Slaton took the ball, after it was kicked by Hays following the preceding tally, and drove from the mid-field stripe to Post's 18 yard line before losing it on downs. Bruton carried the ball for a long run before being stopped by a Tigerman. A 15 yard penalty against the Tigers placed the ball in Post's territory. Pass combination of Stone and Williams moved the ball up to Post's 22. Evans sprinted around right end for 22 yards in the last few minutes of the first half. Stone made a near perfect kick for extra point. Score readings stood at 20 to 6, Post, when the first half ended.

Winning touchdown was made early in the third quarter by Stone after a drive from Post's 40 yard line. Charles Chandler and Bruton were the principal carriers on this drive, which ended with Stone plunging over the middle of Slaton's line from the one yard marker. The kick for extra point fell short, but Post still had a three touchdown lead.

Slaton came back to drive 21 yards for a TD, with Sooter carrying over the middle from the one yard line. A completed pass from Sooter to Bourn marked up the extra point.

Post took over after the kickoff with Bruton, Chandler and Randall Lawrence making outstanding runs, but they failed for a first down gain and Stone punted.

Slaton scored their final touchdown in the fourth quarter after Sooter had completed two passes to Bill Butler. Sparkman raked up the touchdown by making a shifty run of 30 yards. Conversion attempt failed leaving Post in the lead by seven points.

Remainder of the game was a process of the ball changing hands between the teams on downs. A number of penalties against both teams keynoted the final period of play, which ended with Post in possession of the ball.

Bruton played his best game of the season with his long driving runs. This speedy fullback raked up 103 of the 322 yards gained rushing. Chandler, Stone, Evans and Lawrence turned out a good game for Post in the backfield. Williams, Caylor, and Hays played terrific ball on the Antelopes' line. To choose specific outstanding players would be impossible, because of notable playing done by the entire squad.

Sooter won the title of outstanding backfield man for the host team with Bourn and Chester Fondy turning out notable work on Slaton's line.

THE POST DISPATCH SPORTS

Abernathy And Floydada Added To District 6-AA For 1953 Season

Post Antelopes of 1953 will be short seven members of the present season's squad. These seven boys have played their last high school game and will be graduating in the spring. Among them are two ends, one guard, one tackle and three backs.

Buddy Caylor and David Pennington have seen action for the last time as ends on Post line. Pete Hays, an asset on defense for the Antelopes during 1952 games, will be the missing guard next year. Quarterback Darrell Stone; L. W. Evans and Randall Lawrence, halfbacks, are the retiring backfield men. Bernie Welch will also receive his sheepskin in May of next year and be among the missing in '53. Welch was injured one week before the season started in September, but remained an inactive member of the squad.

Two teams have been added to District 6-AA for next year's season. These teams are Floydada and Abernathy. Floydada was added to this district by the Interscholastic League, because of the redistricting done throughout the state. Bing Bingham, Post head coach stated.

Abernathy moved up because of increased enrollment. Bingham said "They would probably have been forced in double A next year, anyway," he added. Abernathy is District 3-A champion for this season and Floydada won District 2-AA. The Whirlwinds are undefeated, so far in 1952.

School additions and schedules for District 6-AA were announced at the district meeting in Slaton, last Thursday.

Schedule for Post Antelopes in 1953 is:

|----------|-------------------|-------|
| Sept. 11 | Open | Here |
| Sept. 18 | O'Donnell | There |
| Sept. 25 | Sundown | There |

Bingham stated that a game was a not matched with Tullia, because of the financial circumstances. "Our best game this year, which was with Tullia, brought in the smallest gate fee," he said. "It is too far to Tullia, not enough fans are able to make the long drive."

Post school officials are planning now to fill the open date of September 11th and made a full 10 game schedule. Announcement will be made later on this matter.
