FOUR-DAY SCHOOL BEGINS HERE MONDAY NIGHT

60 Enroll For Retail Course

S. F. WOMACK

More than 60 Post businessmen and employees had indicated this week that they would enroll for the retail sales training course beginning here Monday night. Mrs. Fritz Greenfield, Chamber of Commerce secretary, reports. The course, which is designed for people employed in selling and management, is to continue through Thursday, July 2. The first class will be held at 7:30 o'clock Monday night, at the City Hall, with S. H. Womack, retail training specialist of the University of Texas, Division of Extension, as instructor.

Sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce, it is a 10 to 12-hour basic course for persons employed in stores and other similar fields of selling. The course develops with salespeople the fundamentals of good selling and teaches them how to use such.

In the sales training course, Womack will emphasize the importance of merchandise information as an aid in helping customers to buy. He will also present a plan which is designed to help salespeople become better acquainted with the products they sell.

Other points which will be covered during the course are personality development, determining customer needs, bringing

Names Committees For Mass Chest X-Ray Here

Committee chairmen to assist in plans for the State Health Department's chest x-ray survey here Aug. 8 were appointed by E. R. "Buster" Moreland, general chairman, Friday night at a steering committee meeting in the City Hall.

Earlier, Moreland had been elected as general chairman after being named by a nominating committee of Monta Moore, Dean A. Robinson and Giles Mc-

Crory. It was also announced at the meeting that the Double U building would be the location of the mobile x-ray unit while it is in Post from 8:30 a. m. to 5:30 p. m. Aug. 8. Offer of the building for that purpose was made by Moore, Double U Company manager.

The committee chairmen named by Moreland are: T. R. Hibbs, location; Mrs. Leo Acker, clerical assistance; Mrs. John Lott, hostess; Charles Didway, publicity; the Rev. Roy Shahan, ministerial; Powell Shyrites, loading; R. P. Snider, telephone, and Lee Bowen, transportation.

Friday night's meeting followed by only three days a preliminary organization meeting called by Dr. D. C. Williams of the Garza County Medical Society, which had requested the Department to place the county on its mobile x-ray unit's itinerary.

At the organization meeting, Philip W. Gauss of the Health Department outlined the program for the survey, which is part of the Department's long-range campaign to eliminate tuberculosis.

Immediately following the survey here, cards and films on each individual x-rayed will be sent to Austin for readings. If the film shows negative, the individual will be notified in the case of a report other than negative, the individual's family

Lions To Install At Ladies Night

New officers of the Post Lions Club will be installed Tuesday night at a ladies night banquet in the school lunch room.

Walter L. Crider is in charge of the program and was making arrangements this week to have an out-of-town speaker and installing officer for the program, which is to begin at 8 o'clock.

New officers to be installed are: Virgil L. Short, president; Phil Trammell, first vice president; Jess Rogers, second vice president; Hiram W. Schmidt, third vice president; E. E. Pierce, lion tamer; Ben Owen, tall-talker; Weaver Moreman, re-elected secretary-treasurer, and Crider and Walter Johnson, directors.

As Lions Club president, Short will succeed Victor Hudman.

RETIREES FROM SCHOOL BOARD—J. E. Thomas, who has retired from the board of trustees of the Garnolia Common School District, is shown receiving a certificate for a $15 hat from Burney Francis, secretary of the board. The hat was a gift of other board members in appreciation of Thomas' long years of service to the school district. The presentation was made at a surprise party held recently at Thomas' home.—(Post Dispatch Photo).

New Water Pump Is Expected Today

The City of Post's new high-lift booster pump, capable of pumping 575 gallons of water a minute is expected to arrive this afternoon, according to R. H. Tate, city utilities superintendent.

The pump will be unloaded Friday morning and installation, expected to take about a week, will get under way at once, Tate said.

Meanwhile, Post residents are requested to continue conserving water by not using it on lawns and shrubbery between 5 p. m. and 9 p. m. This will enable pressure to build up in the north and northwest sections, where residents have been "hard hit" by low pressure during the past few weeks.

"We hope to be able to turn everyone else on unrestricted use of water by July 6," Tate said. This will be made possible, he explained, through installation of the new pump, which will greatly increase the amount of water in the city reservoir.

With a daily average of more than 900,000 gallons of water being used during the past few weeks, the present pump has not been adequate to meet the rate of consumption, it was explained. The new pump has been on order since Jan. 21, but numerous delays have occurred at the factory. The Post utilities superintendent has been informed

In a telephone conversation with a factory representative last week, Tate was told that every effort was being made at the factory to expedite delivery of the new pump, which is being

Drouth Aid Is Asked For West Texas Area

Drouth-stricken Garza is one of the 128 West Texas counties for which Gov. Allan Shivers has asked emergency aid from the federal government in a telegram to President Eisenhower.

Meanwhile, Garza County, like the 127 others, continues to bask in 100-degree plus weather, while its residents scan the skies for some signs of a "drouth-breaker" to end one of the worst dry spells in the area's history.

Last Thursday's moisture, the first in over a month, ranged from sprinkles in some sections of the county to approximately an inch a few miles northeast of Post.

The precipitation in Post measured .22 of an inch, according to the Double U Company gauge. Grassbur, northeast of town, was one of the communities reporting a much heavier fall than that received in Post.

What little good Thursday's rain might have accomplished was more than offset by Friday's blowing, County Agent Lewis Herron believes. He said he considered it the most soil-damaging "blow" of the year in the county.

Irrigated cotton shows considerable improvement over a week ago, the agent said. Dry-land planting is under way on the Caprock, but in most sections there isn't enough moisture to germinate the seed.

Stiff Penalties Are Given Bootleggers

Following two convictions in which heavy penalties were imposed, a county court jury in the case of Ernest Stephens, being tried on a charge of illegal possession of whiskey, beer and wine, was dismissed by Judge Oscar Graham late Wednesday morning after reporting that it was "hopelessly deadlocked."

In Tuesday's opening session of county court, Raymond Letson and Cecil Foster were found guilty on possession charges.

Foster, charged with possession of 25 cases of beer, was fined $1,000 and sentenced to 365 days in jail. This is the maximum penalty on a possession charge, although the State had asked for an enhanced penalty in the case, according to County Attorney Pat. N. Walker.

Foster was charged following his arrest Aug. 5, 1952, by Sheriff Carl Rains and Deputy Fay Claborn.

Members of the jury in the Foster case were: W. C. Caffey, M. L. Dunlap, R. S. Boyd, Dale Cravy, Francis Shannon and H. C. Dunn.

Letson, charged with possession of four one-fifths of wine, was fined $200 and sentenced to 60 days in jail after being found guilty by a jury composed of A. B. Casey, L. E. Carlton, Henry Key, Jimmy Bird, Ira L. Duckworth and Mike Custer.

The charge was filed against Letson following his arrest Feb. 5, 1953, by Deputy Claborn.

Stephens, charged with possession of five cases of beer, six pints of whiskey and a quantity of wine, was fined on after being arrested March 28, 1953, by Constable L. E. Claborn, Sr.

Members of the jury hearing the Stephens case were: Robert Cox, Kenneth Barnard, Jimmy Bird, W. C. Caffey, D. D. Pennell and Henry Key.

Court was continuing Wednesday.

Hospital Adds New Physician To Its Staff

Dr. John R. Rountree will arrive in Post between July 1-15 to assume his new duties as a staff member of the Garza Memorial Hospital. It was announced this week.

Until the new clinic is built, across the street from the hospital, Dr. Rountree will maintain offices in a house across the street from the American Legion Hall, near the downtown business section.

The new hospital staff member is 36 years old and a native of Texarkana, Ark. He attended North Dallas High School, Texas A. & M. College and Southern Methodist University. Following his graduation from Southwestern Medical School of the University of Texas in June, 1952, he interned at the City-County Hospital of Dallas.

Dr. Rountree is married and has three children. During World War II, he volunteered for the Air Force in June, 1942, and after graduating as a navigator in October, 1943, at San Marcos, served as instructor at San Marcos and at Ellington Field, Houston.

During his Air Force service, he was attached to the 45th Troop Carrier Squadron and served eight months in the Pacific Theater of Operations. Returning to inactive duty in May, 1946, he returned to school the following year.

Legal Holiday Falls On Saturday Again

This is one of those rare years when more than one legal holiday falls on Saturday. Indications are, however, that more places of business will be closed Saturday, July 4, than were closed Memorial Day, which was Saturday, May 31.

Both Memorial Day and July Fourth are two of the holidays on which a group of Chamber of Commerce members voted to close at an open meeting held last year by the organization. In the case of Memorial Day, however, very few business places were closed.

Since July Fourth is a holiday of much longer standing and more significance, closing is expected to be more general than was the case on Memorial Day.

ASKS REPORT AT LUBBOCK COTTON CONGRESS

In view of the fact that Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson is anxious to get a firsthand report on the Texas drought situation when he visits Lubbock Saturday, County Agent Lewis Herron, joins Cong. George Mahon and others in urging that as many Garza county farmers, ranchers and businessmen as find it possible to attend the American Cotton Congress, at which Benson is to speak.

In summarizing the situation, Mahon, who has been working with the Secretary on plans for the Lubbock meeting, said: "The Secretary, through various agencies which is already in operation in all farm areas, I have joined with other congressmen in asking Secretary Benson to try to work out a system of making available to farmers and ranchers on some practical basis some of the government-held stocks of grain and cottonseed meal. This would have to be done in a manner that would avoid further depressing the price of farm crops.

"The Secretary plans to be in Lubbock throughout the day on June 27, and he assures me that he will be available to receive reports and recommendations from representative farm and ranch groups at some time during the day. A suggestion was sent early this week that farm and ranch groups select a small

Customer He Can 'Count On'

During the four years he has been a Post Dispatch newboy, 12-year-old Herbie Hays has seen customers come and go, but among those he lists as "regular customers" is Mrs. Clara Hunton of 203 South Washington.

When Herbie began selling the Dispatch four years ago, Mrs. Hunton was one of his first customers and there hasn't been a week since that time that she hasn't bought a copy of the paper. The only time she hasn't bought her Dispatch from Herbie was when he was on his vacation.

Mrs. Hunton, a widow, has lived in Post since 1920, and says she guesses she has read the Dispatch ever since there has been such a publication.

"Oh, I don't know what I like best about the paper," she said in response to a reporter's question. "I reckon I like everything in it, since there isn't much of it I don't read every week."

Mrs. Hunton's husband, a World War I veteran, was killed in 1935 in an accident in Mexico. She has two daughters living in Post, Mrs. Estelle Barker and Mrs. Pauline Carlton. She also proudly mentioned her three grandchildren, Robert Gene, W. H., and Tony Carlton.

Herbie, Mrs. Hunton's favorite newboy, is one of nine sons of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hays of 14 South Washington. His younger brother, Jerry, also sells the Dispatch.

Herbie, who will be in the 7th grade next year, says football is his favorite sport. He played on last year's Post Grade School team. See POST NEWSBOY, Page 8

There's a first time for everything, and the visit of the State Health Department's mobile chest X-ray unit Aug. 8 will be another first for Garza County. Plans already are shaping up to make the unit's one-day stop a successful one. E. R. "Buster" Moreland, who accepted the general chairmanship following his selection by a nominating committee, held a meeting Friday night to appoint committees, with the result that the program is off to a good start.

The final degree of success will not be determined, however, until 5:30 p. m. Aug. 8, after the unit has X-rayed its last individual. By that time, if as many as 1,500 persons have had chest X-rays made, the program can be termed a highly successful one.

With an eye to comfort, the Post City Commission has had the upstairs of the City Hall air-conditioned for the first time. Since this upstairs location is the meeting place for most everything that goes on community-wise, the City is being thanked on every hand for their foresight in the matter.

Some men don't create any vacancies when they leave a town, others do. One of the latter is L. J. Richardson, Jr., who recently moved to Brownfield to accept a position in the First National Bank. When L. J. moved, it left James C. Cole Post of the American Legion without a commander, and the new Post Junior Chamber of Commerce without a vice-president.

Two of Post's distinguished citizens, Mayor T. L. Jones and City Attorney Joe S. Moss, received prominent mention in last week's Lynn County News on the occasion of a visit to Tahoka. The mayor was there to take a look at Tahoka's new swimming pool, and both he and Joe attended the Tahoka Rotary Club luncheon, where the Post attorney discussed the new Revised Version of the Bible.

Mayor Jones' look at the new Tahoka swimming pool is one of a series of visits to be made by city officials to neighboring towns which have park and swimming pool projects. The purpose is to obtain pointers which might prove helpful in our own park and pool project. Visiting these towns which already have parks and pools isn't a very complicated matter—one can go in most any direction and find one. In fact, Post is one of the few cities in this area of the state which has neither.

Tuesday night of last week, we attended an enjoyable surprise party for J. E. Mr. Thomas jokingly remarked that he "didn't get rich" as far as money is concerned, but that he feels he has gained something he'll never lose from having served his community to the best of his ability on the school board.

The party itself and the gift of a $15 Stetson hat attest to the high esteem in which Mr. Thomas is held by the other six members of the Garnolia School Board. Tribute also was paid the retiring member by County Supt. Dean A. Robinson, who remarked in

Watch Over-Expansion! Following The Crowd May Lead To Period Of Depression, Failures

BAIBSON PARK, Mass.—It is time for both businessmen and educators to put an end to the reckless overexpansion in the field of engineering education. Many educators and their young student constituents are being misled by the current strong demand and high wages for "physicists, engineers and draftsmen." I predict a lot of disappointments. In just a few years many of these hopeful engineering students may well become more technicians simply because the supply will far outrun the demand.

Business Depends On What People Do
The economic welfare of any nation depends upon two general factors: (1) the development of its material, educational and spiritual resources; and (2) the efficiency and fairness of its distribution methods. In a free economy this is the way the real, lasting welfare of a people is improved—by producing more and distributing same at less cost with less waste. My years of studying business conditions have forced me to conclude that reckless overexpansion in any field can never become permanent.

Our economic history has usually consisted of distinct movements, and these movements have usually consisted of four periods: (1) a period of overexpansion; (2) a period of decline; (3) a period of depression; and (4) a period of improvement. Our history clearly outlines periods of intense activity, high prices, speculation, and borrowing, followed by periods of falling prices, periods of depression and failure. The movement which business follows depends on what people think and do. When people get careless and fail to heed the danger signs—when people become greedy and try to get more than they give—overexpansion usually follows. Following the crowd is usually followed by panic, contraction and readjustment. Remember 1929!

Realistic Planning Needed
The trouble with most of our high school and college youths is that they don't remember 1929. I'm glad they don't. But they should know the lesson that 1929 taught. And then teachers—and business—should try to help prevent another such period by avoiding the

LET'S WAIT - - - AND HOPE

This area's prolonged drought, which shows little signs of getting better, is "throwing a monkey wrench" into a number of plans, but hasn't yet messed up the machinery beyond repair. The West Texan's indomitable spirit is one of his most admirable traits and will overcome the drought, just as it has any number of other adversities.

Right here at home, progress on at least a half dozen proposed projects is hanging fire because of the drought. One of these is the annual Southwestern Championship Junior Rodeo scheduled for August. There is talk of reducing the number of performances from five to three, as well as talk of outright cancellation of plans for a junior rodeo this year.

Another project is the proposed new junior high school building for which plans are being drawn up. No one is overly anxious to discuss the school expansion program, since a bond issue will be necessary, and such a thing seems out of the question if submitted in the near future.

Time, however, will be the contributing factor in these two projects, as well as if others affected by weather conditions. A bad situation rarely remains static—it either gets worse or better. We believe it's going to get better and that it won't be necessary to pull our horns all the way in on the junior rodeo, the new school building project, nor any other program designed for the good of the community.

The City of Post's extensive re-mapping project is in the news again this week, with word that maps of the proposed changes have been completed, but are subject to checking and approval from a legal standpoint before becoming official. The re-mapping project includes re-naming of city streets and re-numbering of blocks, lots and houses.

In answer to a query in last week's edition, a reader informs us that Close City was named for a man who was associated with C. W. Post, founder of the City of Post. With the exception of Verbena, that brings us up to date on the origin of Garza County community names.

Getting Out On The Limb

by EDDIE the editor

Most people who marry for money find out they could have borrowed it cheaper.

Women have many faults, but men have only two—everything they say and everything they do.

One of the greatest dangers facing members of the human race today is that of becoming a statistic. Do you know what a statistic is? Well, it could be any number of things, but from what I have been able to learn since becoming interested in them, a statistic is one of those guys or gals who lie down to be counted when the experts start figuring out how many people were killed in traffic accidents, drowned while on picnics or other outings, or otherwise contributed to the mortality rate. They're usually referred to as "cold" statistics, and that's just what they are.

Just as there are good bacteria and harmful bacteria, so are there good and bad statistics. Now the way I've got it figured with my eight-calibered super-some compass, my square crystal ball and humanized adding machine, a "good" statistic is one of those people who is included in population figures, one of the four out of five who have it, or the one out of five who doesn't have it. The "bad" statistics are the other kind—the kind that are counted by the safety councils and similar statistics.

So, if you're going to be a statistic, try to be a good one.

It's kinda tough going nowadays when we have to do without so many things that our parents never had.

The way to make your dreams come true is to wake up and get busy.

Did you know that the world's two deepest oil wells were dry holes? I'm not enough of a petroleum expert to hazard a guess as to whether or not that proves the deeper you go the less likely you are to strike oil, but I'm just passing the information along because it proved interesting to me and it might to you.

The deepest well ever drilled was Superior's Pacific Creek well in Sublette County, Wyoming. Setting the world mark in 1950 at 20,521 feet, it later was abandoned as a dry hole.

The second deepest well was a 25,450-foot "duster" drilled several years ago in Mississippi.

Already, a California driller (they don't do things halfway out there, you know) apparently is out after the world's record for deep wells. This Sunshine State well is down 18,781 feet, or more than three and one-half miles. A spokesman for the Ohio Oil Company, which is drilling the well, did not say how much deeper the California record-breaker would be sunk, but that only two wells (those mentioned above) have gone deeper.

THE WOMEN. God Love 'Em—I've made them the butt of so many jokes in this column that now I'm going to devote a paragraph or two to something dear to their hearts—women's clubs.

Mrs. Mildred White Wells, former editor of the General Federation of Women's Clubs magazine, the "Clubwoman," is writing the history of the woman's club in this country, and in it she brings out that a man—of all people—has been given the credit for starting the woman's club movement in the United States.

That man was Charles Dickens, the English author, and all he had to do with starting the woman's club movement was to make a speech in New York before a group of newspapermen who barred a woman journalist from attending on the grounds that the affair was "stag." The newswoman, Jennie June Croly, and four other women, in protest, formed the Sorosis Club which is generally accredited with being the first organization to set the trend.

It appears that ever since the incident of Adam's rib, women haven't had any luck of grabbing credit for coming up with something first. Honestly, though, I thought they were the first to start their women's clubs until I read what Mrs. Wells had to say about Dickens being the boy.

During the past several months I have been receiving fairly regularly a news release from Facts Forum, which describes itself as a "non-partisan public affairs organization whose purpose is to stimulate interest in vital issues of the day, inspiring expression of informed and enlightened public opinion."

In my opinion, if the average reader would take each question in Facts Forum's monthly poll and read up on it pro and con, he would be pretty well informed on vital issues of the day, whether or not he came up with good answers to the questions. There would be no better method of learning what is going on in the world today.

Need For New Jail

One of the subjects that has been discussed about the square during the past few weeks is the need for a new jail for Canyon. Even a prisoner needs a bath every now and then, but if one of the prisoners of the local calaboose takes one some member of the sheriff's office must take him to Amarillo or some other place. Then, too, there are no facilities here for women prisoners and as distasteful as it sounds, every now and then a woman has to be locked up. That's about all there is to the subject at the time being, but that's enough for most people to make a decision in favor of a new jail.—The Canyon News.

Crosby County Crackdown

A total of $6,800 in fines, probably the greatest amount ever assessed in Crosby County in one week's time, was meted out by County Judge J. M. Rankin during the past week to six persons, all of whom pleaded guilty on liquor violation charges. In addition, jail sentences ranging from 60 days to six months were chalked up against the defendants. The group, including four white men, a Negro man, and a white woman, were convicted on one to seven charges. Five of them also face federal court charges growing out of the same cases.—The Crosbyton Review.

Should Congress keep appropriations within the present national debt limit? Should the U. S. withdraw if Communist China is admitted to the U. N.? Post Man Helping Plan For Reunion

J. A. Stallings of Post is a committee member for the annual reunion of former residents of Red River County and their families, to be held Sunday, July 5, at Mackenzie State Park in Lubbock.

NEW HEAD OF PIPELINE—Tom P. Walker (above), vice president of the Irving Trust Company of New York, was elected president of the $264,000,000 Transcontinental Gas Pipe Line Corporation in Houston. He succeeds Claude Williams who resigned. Walker formerly headed a Beaumont

Plans for the annual reunion were made recently at a meeting of officers and committees. All former residents of Red River County and their families are invited. A large crowd is expected, including some present residents of Red River County.

Those attending are urged to bring basket lunches for a noon dinner to be served picnic style. Arrangements have been made for water, ice, picnic tables, etc. While most of the day will be spent in visiting, a program has been arranged, with music, and with Andrew B. Riddle, prominent attorney of Ardmore, Okla., and a native of Red River County, as the featured speaker.

Officers of the association are District Judge Louis B. Reed of Lamesa, president; W. D. T. Storey, Littlefield postmaster, vice-president; James Geer of Vernon, vice-president, and Mrs. Vivian Watson of Lorenzo, secretary. Others serving on committees are: Barney Alford, Frank Rainey and Henry Hunke, all of Lubbock; L. L. Cruse of Brownfield, Robert Marr of Lockney, Mrs. Irvin Kidd of Denver City, and B. J. Bales of Lamesa.

Mrs. Lorene Benson of Lubbock was a weekend guest of Mrs. Gertrude Ward and Miss Ganell Babb.

Linda Lynch and Carolyn Hulbert of Fort Worth are visiting Anne Standifer.

L. B. Whitaker is spending the week in Carlisbad, N. M.

Ranch House Ramblings
 by United Salt Corporation's Range Reporter

Feed, once more, becomes the pivot in Southwestern livestock economy, as the drought continues to sear range and crops.

Bright note in the face of burning ranges and a yet-to-be-made Texas feed crop, says L. F. Van Stone, immediate past president of the Texas Feed Manufacturers Association, is the large feed carry-over from last year. Feed prices have not increased despite drought and growing demand, he said.

Short-term loans are declining and long-term loans are increasing as stockmen retrench to cope with the drought. Vice President Sam N. Hardy of the State's Production Credit Corporation, 36 association offices over Texas, reports to Ranch House Ramblings that the Production Credit loans (which are short-term) dropped from $11,700,000 in Texas in May after long-range financing to beat the drought.

While Texas crops and ranges deteriorate daily, stockmen are awaiting results that may come from a meeting held a few days ago in Washington. Congressmen from the distress areas met with CCC, Farm Home Administration and Bureau of the Budget officials to see if aid may be available from the President's "Disaster Relief Fund."

FROM THE TOP OF THE RAIL—Secretary Ernest Williams of the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers Association tells us that 5 million to 8 million pounds of spring 12-month wool yet was unsold in Texas in mid-June. Texas fine-wools have moved mostly at good prices, he reports. Critically dry area of the sheep and goat belt of Texas is west of a line running from Ballinger, Eden, Junction and Kerrville, he reports.

The Texas turkey crop is reported 11 to 18 per cent lower, with lots of broilers having sold, and thus diminishing prospects for fall and winter supplies, and pointing toward higher prices for holiday sales. Leases on land must come down if cattle prices continue to slide, say ranchmen in the parched West Texas region. County agents from throughout Southwest Texas in chorus say, "If we could just get a good rain now" the crop and grass prospects would improve materially. Waning days of June appear to be the breaking point.

Choice fat lambs still bringing up to 22 cents. Range rams down $10 or so a head from last year. Editor Paul Horn of "The Texas Hereford" says purebred cattlemen are still making money by having culled their herds and reduced labor and feed costs to cope with the drought and smaller demand for bulls. Secretary Glenn L. Tole of Cleburne, who moved the Texas Aberdeen Angus Breeders Assn. offices to the Livestock Exchange Bldg. in Fort Worth on July 1, says his association has grown from 413 members in 1939 to 1,072 today. Henry Bell, secretary of the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association, says his association is urging the government to sell cottonseed meal to cattlemen at the same price it is exporting the meal, $52 a ton. The government has been asking cattlemen $64 a ton.

Metaphors Fly Thick, Fast At Luncheon

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—The difference between "laughter" and "slaughter," a speaker told junior chamber of commerce members at a luncheon here, is the letter "S"—which, he added, "stands for selfishness." Louis E. Throgmort, vice-president of Republic National Life Insurance Company was the speaker.

He described America as "a nation built on moonbeams—voluntary desires to create—and not bound by chains of force."

"Break a chain and there's nothing left, but cut a moon beam and it still remains," he said. Four-fifths of British Guiana is forest.

Two From Here On Honor Roll At Tech

Two Post students, Betty Jean Mills and Travis Francis, are among the 226 listed on the Texas Technological honor roll for the spring semester.

Miss Mills, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Mills, is a junior student, and Francis, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Francis is a sophomore.

The honor roll comprises those students enrolled for at least 12 semester hours of college work and ranking in the upper five per cent of the student body.

Card of Thanks

I wish to express my sincere appreciation to my friends for the many cards, letters, gifts and flowers I received while in the hospital. Such kindnesses and neighborly thoughtfulness can never be forgotten. Marvin Hudman

We wish to thank everyone who offered so freely of their kindness and sympathy at the death of our beloved, Barbara Wylene Hill. We especially thank those who brought food and sent flowers. Your many kind acts did much to lighten our burden.

Mr. and Mrs. Wylie Hill and Billye Ruth Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Hill and family Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Windham and family.

May we take this means to express our deep appreciation to Dr. Tubbs and Dr. Williams and Mr. Rex for their kindness shown during the illness of my wife, Mrs. Lucille Brewer. Again, we are grateful to the nurses' staff. We are grateful for the wonderful cooks. We appreciate the maid and the janitors. Also to our friends who have been so helpful in every way. We are especially grateful to the Garza Memorial Hospital staff. Again, my wife joins me in thanking you for everything. Mr. and Mrs. Andy Brewer REUNITED AFTER 29 YEARS—Mrs. Alfred Romero (left) of Port Arthur, Tex., and Mrs. William H. Colligan of Pittsburgh, Pa. are shown as they met in Port Arthur for the first time in 29 years. The sisters were separated after their mother, Mrs. Mabel McGregor, placed them in a Tulsa, Okla., orphanage. Mrs. Colligan was 5 and Mrs. Romero was three at the time. Soon after they were adopted by different families.

Reptile Is No Proper Toy, Parents Decide

Not only are infants trusting souls, but they're apt to come up with most anything for a toy. Take the case of Tyra Jan Martin, four-and-a-half month daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harley Martin of Southland. She recently numbered a foot-and-a-half-long snake among her playthings.

Tyra Jan found the "toy" one day last week while playing on a pallet in her bedroom, but her mother wouldn't let her keep it. In fact, Mrs. Martin was so uncooperative that she chased the snake behind a hassock and then summoned her husband from a nearby field.

Stampede Cowboys Parade At Graham

The Post Stampede Cowboys left early Wednesday morning for Graham to ride in the parade opening the Possum Kingdom Roundup and to take part in the grand entry at Wednesday night's opening rodeo performance.

Approximately 20 riders loaded out their horses here at 5:30 a. m. Wednesday. On the day's schedule at Graham was a barbecue at noon with parade formation set for 2 p. m., and the parade itself slated to get under way at 3.

Tom Power, secretary of the Post riding group, announced Tuesday that the organization voted at a meeting last Thursday night to accept three invitations for July.

On Thursday, July 2, they will ride in a parade opening the Levelland Jaycee Rodeo. On July 23, they will ride at Lamesa, and on July 29 at Spur to help open the annual Spur Cowboy Jubilee Rodeo.

The secretary said other invitations are being considered and that action on them will be taken by the riders within the next few weeks.

TIPS FROM YOUR COUNTY AGENT

By JESSIE PEARCE

Specialists with the Extension Service are always on the alert to pass on the results of research that makes home preservation of food easier. Recently I received directions for a "one step method of canning snap beans and white potatoes."

The directions for canning snap beans are as follows: first, wash beans, trim the ends and cut beans in one-inch pieces. Pack the raw beans tightly in glass jars to within one-half inch of the top and cover with boiling water. Leave one-half inch space at the top of the jar and add salt, using one-half teaspoon to the pint or one teaspoon per quart jar.

Then, adjust the lid and place containers of beans in the pressure canner. Process at 10 lbs.
pressure for 20 minutes if they are pints and 25 minutes for quarts. As soon as you remove the jars from the canner, complete the seals if closures are not of the self-sealing type.

Directions for canning white potatoes are: choose potatoes approximately one to two and one-half inches in diameter, Wash, peel and cook potatoes in boiling water for 10 minutes, drain and pack while hot into glass jars, cover with boiling water and leave one-half inch space at the top. Add one-half teaspoon salt to each pint or a teaspoon to the quart and adjust jar lids. Process in the pressure canner at 10 lbs. pressure for 30 minutes if using pint jars or 40 minutes for quarts. As soon as you remove jars from the canner, complete sealing.

If you use tin cans, pack hot potatoes to within one-half inch of the top, fill with boiling water, add salt, exhaust and seal cans. Use one-half teaspoon salt to each no. two can and one teaspoon to each no. two and one-half can. Process no. two cans 35 minutes and no. two and one-half cans for 40 minutes at 10 lbs. pressure.

If you have a copy of bulletin
no. 194, "Home Canning of Fruit and Vegetables" clip these new directions for beans and potatoes and paste them in the bulletin.
Your bulletin will then be up-to-date with the latest information. If you do not have one of these bulletins, come by my office in the courthouse for your copy.

Post Youths To Be Honored At Banquet In Fort Worth July 23

Welch and Kenneth Ro- High School students, among the more than Star Farmers to be at a banquet during the annual convention of Tex- Farmers of America Worth on July 22-24. two Post FFA members, whose records were approved for Lone Star Farmer degrees in Austin recently, are expected to attend the banquet, which is to be held in the exhibit building at Will Rogers Memorial Center. The building will accommodate several thousand people and plenty of room will be available for all wishing to attend. Three thousand farm boys are expected to swarm into Fort Worth for the three-day convention, and they'll find a full program arranged for their entertainment and diversion. Full convention sessions already have been set up by the State FFA officers headed by President Joe Dan Boyd of Winnsboro so official delegates to the session July 22-24 will find their schedules full. But fun won't be forgotten at this FFA Silver Jubilee session as all the boys attending the convention will be guests at a Fun Night session at Hotel Texas on July 22. A Fort Worth committee headed by Dr. C. R. Lees has arranged for a full evening of entertainment and plenty of refreshments for the boys who will attend. Seven winners of scholarships presented by various Texas firms and organizations will be announced during the meeting. The Fort Worth Farm and Ranch Club, which is serving as official convention sponsor, will present a special $300 scholarship to one of the outstanding Future Farmers. Jimmy Dillon of Jones, La. national FFA president, will attend the convention and will be a speaker at the annual banquet. New state officers, from which the state president will be chosen, are Raymond Hinders of Canyon, Derrell Rogers of Lamesa, Jon Hagler of LaGrange, Damon Campbell of Hamilton, Ardis Barnes of Commerce, Kenneth Reynolds of Pittsburg, Hugh Spring of Luling, Kenneth Richardson of LaPorte, Bobby Beardard of Kirbyville and John Posz of Alamo. There are 36,000 Texas FFA boys from more than 800 Texas schools. Most schools are expected to be represented at the convention.

Garza Countians To Be Among Those At Cotton Conference

Several Garza County farmers, ginners and businessmen are expected to be among the thousands attending a field day June 27 on the Texas Tech campus in connection with the 14th annual session of the American Cotton Congress scheduled for Lub- bock June 25-27.

Theme of the 1953 meeting, which is expected to be attended by at least 400 industrial leaders, is "Cotton's New Frontiers."

Morning sessions June 25 and 26 will be devoted to technical meetings in which experts will bring the top men in the industry up to date on foreign markets, new problems in crushing industry, trends in cotton consumption, the world cotton situation, new developments in research and education and opportunities in farm research.

Tours will be conducted each afternoon to acquaint leaders with Lubbock and Texas Tech. The main feature of the three-day Congress will be a field day, open to the public, scheduled for June 27 on the Tech campus. On the schedule is a principal address by Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson. Besides, a special program and an implementation show have been planned for the day.

The Congress is scheduled to begin at 9:30 a. m. June 25. Technical meetings will be held in the Caprock Hotel, headquarters for the annual meeting. June 25 speakers include Burris C. Jackson of Hillsboro, who will give the opening address, Jackson, general chairman of the 14th annual congress, will speak on "Cotton's New Frontiers."

Other speakers June 25 will be Dr. D. T. Shaw, administrator, Agricultural Research Administration, U. S. Department of Agriculture, who will talk on "Opportunities in Farm Research"; William Rhea Blake, executive vice president, National Cotton Congress, who will address the group on "New Developments in Research and Education"; and Lamar Fleming, Jr., president of the Anderson, Clayton & Company, who is scheduled to speak on "The World Cotton Situation."

A panel discussion headed by Don L. Jones of the Lubbock Experiment Station, also will be conducted the morning of June 25.

A bus tour of Lubbock, Texas Tech and cotton oil mills has been planned for the afternoon of June 25. A tour of the South Plains production area and a barbecue at the Plains Co-Op Oil Mill are on tap for the afternoon and evening of June 26.

June 26 morning speakers will be Dr. M. K. Horne, chief economist, National Cotton Council, who will speak on "Trends in Cotton Consumption"; A. L. Durand, president, Chickasha Cotton Oil Company and past president of the National Cotton Products Association, who will speak on "New Problems in the Crushing Industry"; Dr. Laconia Han- sen, president of the Institute of Textile Technology; and E. D. White, deputy director of the Mutual Security Administration, who plans to speak on "Foreign Markets for American Cotton."

C. N. Shephardson, dean of the School of Agriculture at Texas A&M, will preside at the session. Backed by cotton organizations representing every phase of the industry from cotton seed to cotton shirts, the American Cotton Congress is a research and educational organization devoted to the exchange of ideas and to the spreading of new information concerning the industry.

The program, outlined above, is tentative. Congress officials revealed tentative time for Benson's address is 11 a. m. June 27 at the Texas Tech Student Union Building.

CREAMY ACCIDENT
SUPERIOR APRIL 25—With brakes burned out a truck carrying a load of 2,000 gallons of cream struck a curve entering this mountain mining town at 80 miles an hour and overturned, spilling the cream down the main street and crushing the truck into sheet metal. The driver, Thomas Brooks of Dallas, Tex., was treated in the hospital for slight facial scratches and released.

COTTON CONGRESS SPEAKER—Dr. B. T. Shaw, administrator of the Agricultural Research Administration, will be one of the more prominent speakers at the American Cotton Congress in Lubbock June 25-27. Dr. Shaw, in charge of all agricultural research of the federal government, will talk on "Opportunities in Farm Research" Thursday, June 25.

Farm Cash Income Shows Huge Drop

AUSTIN—Farm cash income in Texas for the first four months of 1953 totaled $431,994,000, about $123,000,000 less than the same 1952 period, the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research reports. Six commodities brought income increases this year. Wheat income was up 144 per cent, and oats, 75 per cent. Income from sheep and lambs, eggs, poultry and mohair gained from 25 to 3 per cent.

Producers of cottonseed, wool, grain sorghum, cotton, corn, and cattle took the heaviest relative losses. Cotton and cattle producers suffered most in actual dollar losses. Cotton income was down $57,600,000, and cattle, $42,500,000.

Mrs. Glen Day and Debra of Plainview spent part of last week in the home of Mrs. W. J. Shepherd and Gertrude and Linda Ward, Sunday visitors included Mr. and Mrs. Wilton Payne and Paula of Tahoka.

HAMILTON DRUG

Plenty of HUSTLE from the instant you START

(Have you tried T.T. Dynaflow?)

THE automobile pictured here is a 1953 Buick SPECIAL with Twin-Turbine Dynaflow.* And it's a sizzler in supple satin. You discover that truth when you take its wheel—when you try it for getaway—when you head it up tall hills—when you guide it by a truck on a safe-passing stretch. The instant you want to move, you move. You can swoop from standstill to a legal 30 mph quicker than quick. Fact is, this spectacular new TT Dynaflow gives you swift getaway, plus silence, plus smoothness, in a combination no other automotive transmission in the world can equal. The instant you want a lightning burst for passing, it's there—velvet-ing forth from a Fireball 8 Engine with the highest horsepower and compression ratio ever to power a Buick SPECIAL. The truth is, the instant you feel this big, broad, thrill-charged beauty in motion, you'll know it for a performance automobile—nimble and eager, responsive as quick-silver. But exhilarating action is just part of the story here. There's spacious roominess. There's a magnificent ride. There's superb handling ease. And to cap it all, this Buick delivers for little more than the "low-priced" cars. Why not drop in on us this week? We'll be mighty proud to have you try the greatest Buick SPECIAL yet built. *Standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series.

Wheat Acreage Allotments Marketing Quotas Foreseen

Wheat acreage allotments and marketing quotas are almost certain this year, Henry Marshall of College Station, state Production and Marketing Administration statistician, told the approximately 60 PMA officials from 19 counties meeting Monday in Lubbock.

Representing Garza County at the meeting were Mike Custer, PMA officer, and the PMA committee of Claude E. Spence, chairman; Julius Fumagalli, vice-chairman, and Glenn M. Davis, member.

Marshall also said that indications are that it will be necessary to measure all cotton planted in 1953. PMA representatives are now being briefed on this task.

At the time of measuring, cotton farmers will report on acreage in 1951 and '52 if they have not already done so. Measuring will probably begin after July 1, following appropriation by Congress of funds necessary for the project.

The procedure to be followed for both crops if controls are renewed is as follows:

1. The Secretary of Agriculture will announce allotments and penalties.
2. Individual farmers concerned with the particular crop will be told their allotments for the coming season.
3. A referendum will be held to decide on penalties. A two-third majority on a national basis is required for penalties to be effective.
4. If penalties are approved, any farmer planting in excess of his allotment can be penalized by one-half of the market price on all produce grown on surplus acreage.

If penalties are not approved, only farmers planting within their quotas are guaranteed price supports. Without penalties, farmers planting surpluses must take their own risks with the market without any assistance of the price control.

Marshall was assisted at Monday's meeting by Dale Carter, Plainview, district field manager, and Walter Y. Wells, secretary of the Lubbock County PMA office.

Post Fiddler One Of Early Entries In Hale Center's Annual Contest

Visits City For First Time In Forty Years

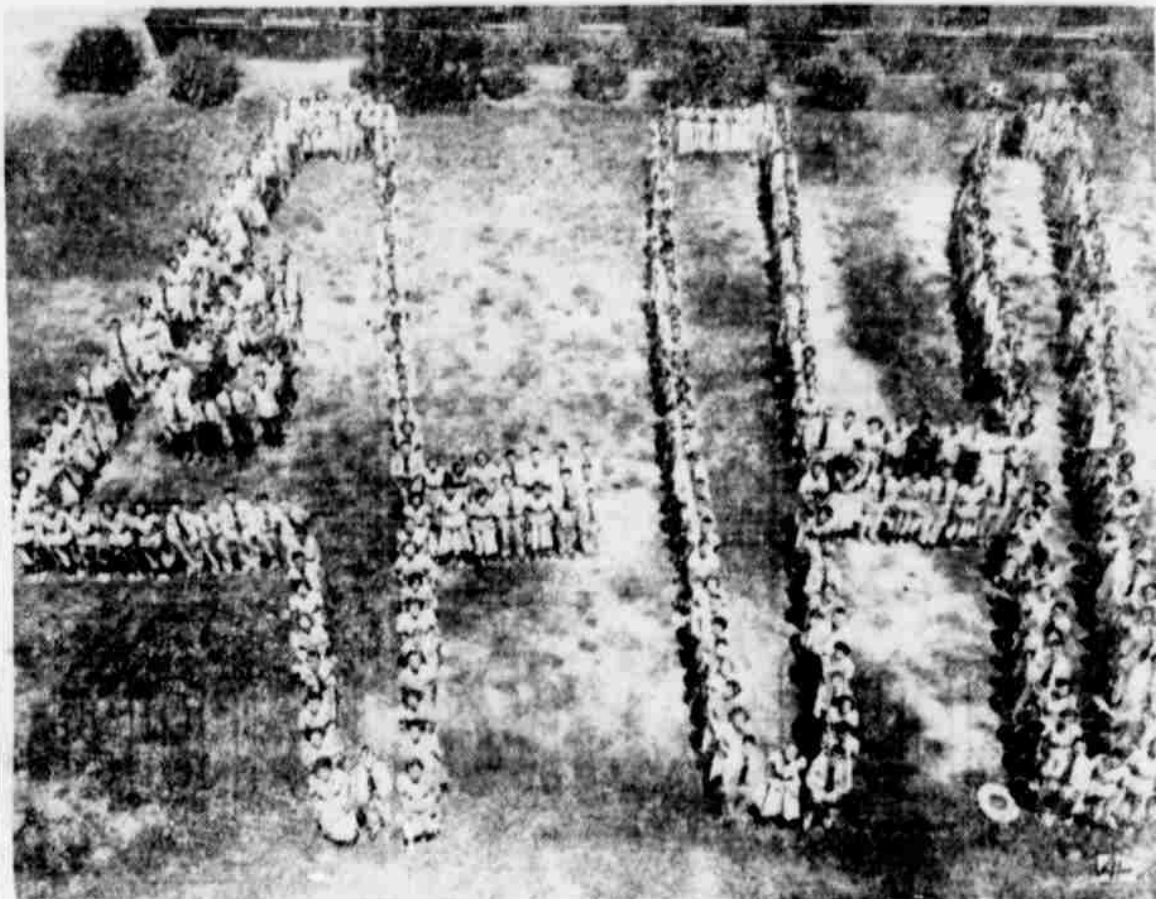

W. G. Hooper, retired railroad worker of Jacksonville, Fla., was back in Post Monday for the first time in more than forty years. Hooper, who was a member of the Santa Fe construction crew that built the railroad through here in 1910, was a visitor at the Post Dispatch office, where he said he was "just spending some time visiting in the places he had worked during his lifetime." Hooper said the town had changed to where he wouldn't have known it, except for a few old landmarks. He said there were only six or eight buildings here at the time the railroad was being built, among them a hotel, furniture store and feed store. "I also remember a 20-acre experimental patch of cotton north of town, and recall being told at the time that they were trying to determine if cotton would grow here," he said. Traveling with Hooper were his wife and their daughter.

W. M. Wells of Post is one of the early entries in the second annual fiddlers' contest to be held July 4 at Hale Center in connection with that town's homecoming celebration. Hundreds of invitations to enter the contest have been mailed out to fiddlers in New Mexico, Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas and Missouri. The tournament is open to all fiddlers, men and women, all ages. Hale Center is backing up the fiddling tournament with prizes that outshine awards offered at many of the big time attractions. A total of $350 in cash prizes will be awarded champions and runners-up in three divisions. A $150 cash prize and handsome trophy will be awarded to the winner of the open division compared to $125 awarded to the world champion fiddler at Crockett recently. A $50 cash award will go to the runner-up in the open division. In the ladies' division, $50 will be awarded the winner with the runner-up making $25. To the winner of the division for fiddlers 75 years of age or older will go prizes of $50 for first place and $25 for second place. Other early entries besides the Post man include Eck Robertson of Amarillo, undefeated world champion and early-day recording star; Cal Brown, winner of Hale Center's first annual fiddlers' contest; Bobby Rhodes, San Jon, N. M.; Mrs. J. L. Davis, Ralls; Lewis Franklin, Vernon; J. M. "Pop" Lee, Hereford; Sonny Curtis, Meadow; Tom Mitchell, Sweetwater; Bob Zellner, Hereford; and Wallace Waldrip, Chillicothe.

Post Wood Bee Nine To Play At Seagraves Friday Night

The Post Wood Bees, winners of seven out of nine games this season, go to Seagraves Friday night to meet that city's strong independent team, Oscar Garner, manager of the Post team, has announced. It will be the first out-of-town game for the Wood Bees, a schedule of Dallas, state Lions secretary; S. A. Dodge of Detroit, first vice-president of Lions International; Herbert C. Petry, Jr., of Carrizo Springs, past president of Lions International; and Joe J. Fisher of Jasper, director of Lions International.

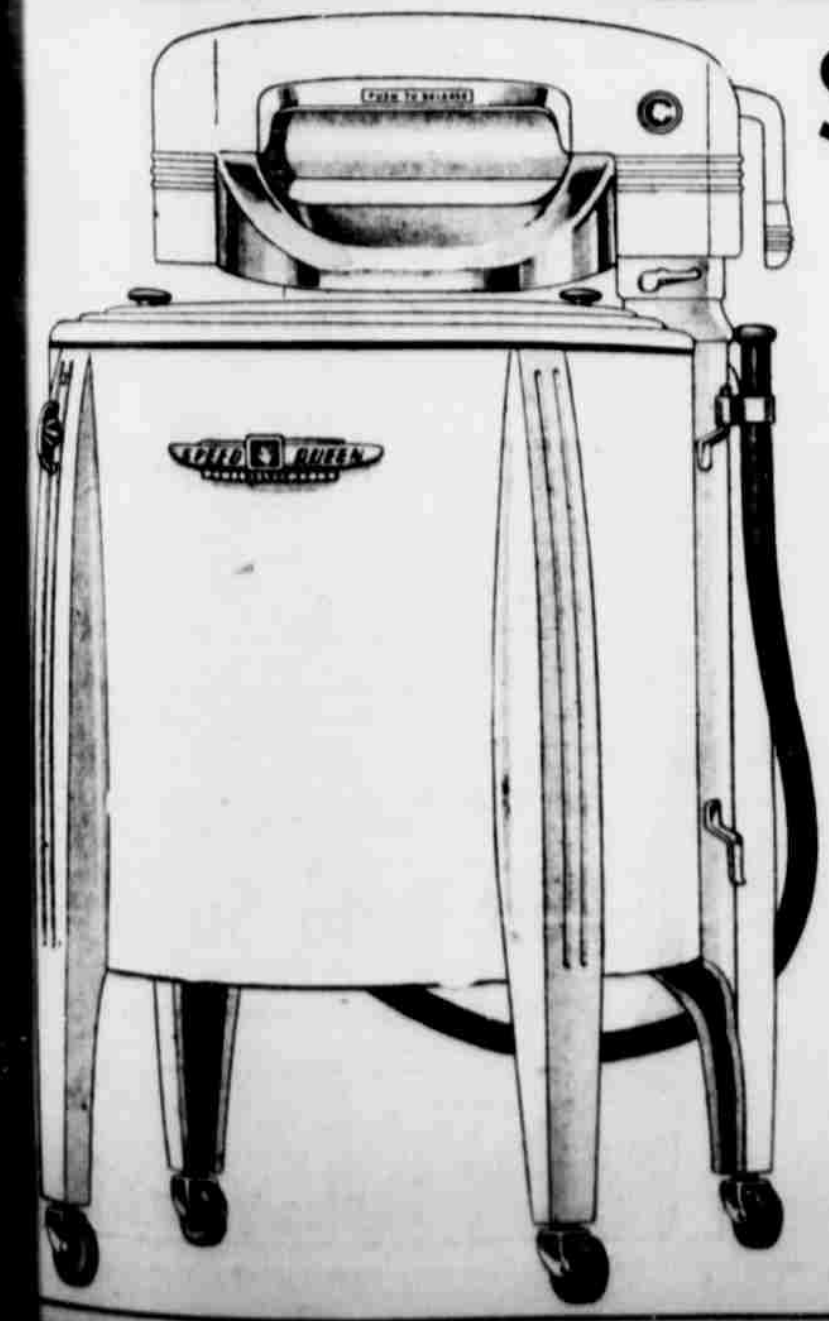

ded contest last Tuesday night at Odum Field in Lubbock having been cancelled when the Lubbock nine failed to make an appearance. The Wood Bees continued their winning streak here Sunday afternoon by downing the Lubbock Boosters, 9-7, on the Postex Mill diamond. Leftfielder Bill Holly was the big gun in the Post attack, garnering a homerun, triple and single in four times at bat. Billy Ramage was the winning pitcher and fanned six Lubbock batters in the five innings he pitched. Holland pitched the sixth and seventh innings for the Wood Bees, and Garner, the eighth and ninth frames. Carroll Walker was the losing pitcher. Post scored three runs in the bottom half of the first to take an early lead over the visitors. Holly's circuit blow in that frame scored Williams and Holland ahead of him. The Boosters scored two in the second and two more in the third to take a 4-3 lead, but the Wood Bees went ahead again, 6-4, by scoring three times in their half of the third. Louis Mills, who was hit by the pitcher, scored on Holland's single after B. Hays had drawn a base on balls. Holly then tripled to drive home Holland and Hays. After the Boosters had scored another run in the fifth inning, the Wood Bees came back in their half of that frame to chase three more tallies across the plate. Singles by Holland and Holly following a walk by Hays after Williams had been hit by the pitcher produced the three runs. The Boosters scored another run in the seventh, but couldn't close the gap. Holland struck out three Lubbock batters during his two-inning stint, and Garner, finishing the game for the Post nine, fanned another.

Garner said Monday morning that no game had yet been scheduled for next Sunday.

Results Of 'Phone Survey Reported

The Poka-Lambo Rural Telephone Cooperative engineers have completed a survey of the western part of Garza County in regard to furnishing telephone service to this area.

The General Telephone Co. serves part of this area and the survey shows that it would not be feasible for another telephone company to attempt to serve the remaining part.

If an agreement can be reached with the General Telephone Company to purchase these lines, and the people being served by these lines wish the better service of modern dial telephones and also connection with their neighbors who are not being served by the present set-up, the Poka-Lambo engineers can start to work at once.

Texans Gave More Than $2,577,000 To March Of Dimes, Report Shows

DALLAS — Texans contributed more than $2,577,000 to the total of $51,500,000 raised in the 1953 March of Dimes, it was announced this week by Basil O'Connor, president of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. Corroborating the Lone Star totals was Robert J. Smith, volunteer chairman of the annual polio fund raising drive in Texas.

Garza County's total in the 1953 March of Dimes drive was approximately $1,800. Pat Henderson served as county drive chairman. Walter Crider is county chairman for the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

The national total, based on reports from 3,000 volunteer campaign chairmen, represents a new record, being 24 per cent higher than the previous total raised in 1952. O'Connor said. Last year, when 66,605 was contributed, the figure of 27 1/2 cents per capita donation for the United States raised more than $25 million for a per capita showing slightly higher than 20 per cent. The 1953 figure, however, shows an average of 24 cents per person.

"The new record shows millions of parents and children who fight against polio in the crucial stage of this war has been reached," said O'Connor. "They know that progress in scientific research, the continuing increase in the number of polio cases and the responsibilities greater than before."

Dairy Foods Demonstration Team Competing In Contest

Garza County's District 2 championship dairy foods demonstration team of Wynne Morris and Jennie Lou Redman left Tuesday for College Station to compete in the state 4-H Club contests.

The two team members were accompanied by Miss Jessie Pearce, county home demonstration agent, and Sue Stephens, a member of the Post Senior 4-H Club.

They plan to visit briefly with Miss Pearce's parents in Lampasas County before going on to College Station, where the contests are scheduled for today.

Some 1,200 boys and girls from every section of Texas are on the campus of Texas A. & M. College to participate in the contests. The day will be a tough one. Nerves will be taut, for the goal of every contestant will be to come through with the highest possible score. There will be opportunities in several of the programs for further competition on a national basis and still larger awards.

The 18 contests include dairy cattle judging; dairy demonstration; dairy foods demonstration; dress revue; electric demonstration; entomology; farm and home safety; field crops; grass judging; livestock judging; poultry judging; public speaking; rifle; share the fun; shrub identification; soil and water conservation demonstration; tractor operators and vegetable demonstration.

Results will be announced at the Awards Dinner scheduled for Smiss Hall at 6:30 P. M. The Agricultural Extension Service will present medals to the members of the three high teams and three high individuals in each contest and other donors will present special awards in several of the contests.

Area Cotton Acreage Would Gain By Passage Of New Allotment Measures

Cotton acreage under crop control allotments for most West Texas counties will be increased if a three-year average on cotton acres in cultivation is substituted for the present formula which is based on a five-year average.

Hearings are due to start in Washington before congressional committees during the coming week on House Bill 5655 and Senate Bill 2106, which propose the substitution widely supported by many western cotton growers. Information developed by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce from records published by the U. S. Department of Agriculture show that all but 20 of 117 cotton-growing counties in West Texas would gain acreage by passage of these bills, largely because of new acreage put into cotton production during recent years.

The law now provides that allotments be based on an average acreage of five crop years—1947, 1948, 1950, 1951 and 1952. The year of 1949 was specifically omitted.

The new proposal would change the basis to the three years of 1951, 1952 and 1953.

West Texas as a whole would gain 688,900 acres for 1954 if the new formula is approved by Congress. The WTCC urges every grower to give his Congressman his opinion of the more desirable formula.

Garza County would be allotted 49,600 acres on the proposed three-year basis and 49,700 acres on the present five-year basis.

This is the 1953 Chevrolet Bel Air 4-Door Sedan. It's one of 16 Chevrolet models in 3 series, which add up to the widest choice in the low-price field.

Some Chevrolet advantages worth considering when you're ready to choose a car...

Next to a new house, a car is probably your most important purchase. Here are some facts to help you make up your mind about which make to buy.

Do you agree that it's well worth the time to weigh all the factors carefully before you buy any new car? Let's consider the major reasons why people who make one over another and see the 1953 Chevrolet stands in the respects.

Why You Can Be Proud Of

Of course, is a matter of personal taste. Because we think Chevrolet is the best-looking car in its class, so, too. But we can tell you that the majority of our showroom visitors prefer Chevrolet styling and compare appearance most favorably with other cars costing a great deal more. So you might consider this: Chevrolet styling is the newest in its field. It's the kind of styling that stays new. For it is based, not on fads or whims, but on the fundamentals of modern design.

One Automobile Body Most Everybody Knows

It's not really surprising that so many people prefer Chevrolet's appearance. Chevrolet is the only low-priced car with Body by Fisher. And Fisher, you know, is the only automobile body manufacturer with a world-wide reputation for styling, craftsmanship and quality.

The Many Benefits of High-Compression Power

When you drive a new Chevrolet (and we hope you'll do that soon), you'll notice these things: faster acceleration from a standing start; greater passing ability in traffic and on the highway; the new ease with which you climb steep hills.

The First Power Steering in a Low-Priced Car

This year's Chevrolet is the only car in its field to offer you the extra ease and convenience of Power Steering, optional at extra cost. With it, you can spin the wheel with the strength of one finger. You can see-saw in and out of tight parking places without the slightest strain. You get an additional cushion against road shocks and jars. Driving is easier, safer.

A Smoother and a Safer Ride

Chevrolet is the heaviest low-priced car. Model for model, a Chevrolet will weigh as much as 200 pounds more than the other makes. You often hear people say they buy high-priced cars because they're heavier, hold the road better and ride better. Well, isn't it logical, then, that Chevrolet's extra weight (which comes from extra strength of body and frame) would result in a better ride?

Chevrolet is the Lowest-Priced Line

Certainly, price is one of the most important factors of all. We're glad to be able to tell you that Chevrolet is the lowest-priced line in its field.

Now, you might well ask, "How can Chevrolet offer me more and still cost less?" There is a simple, logical answer to that.

Remember that Chevrolet builds more cars than any other manufacturer. Chevrolet, along with General Motors, has greater facilities for research, for engineering and production. So, isn't it reasonable that these greater facilities bring manufacturing advantages and economies which Chevrolet can pass on to you in terms of higher quality at lower price?

An Endorsement Given No Other Car

Again this year, more people are buying Chevrolets than any other car. Obviously that wouldn't be true unless people liked Chevrolet better. Unless Chevrolet offered more things people want—more value.

So, when you're ready to choose your new car, wouldn't you agree that Chevrolet merits your careful consideration? We welcome your visit at any time, so that you can look the car over yourself and try it out on the road.

*Combination of 115-h.p. "Blue-Flame" engine and Powerglide automatic transmission optional on "Two-Ten" and Bel Air models at extra cost.
