Miss Maxine Baylis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Baylis, was selected as "Miss Post" Saturday afternoon in a bathing beauty contest held at the new city swimming pool.

Miss Baylis, who won over 10 other contestants, will be hostess Saturday, June 12, at dedication of the pool. At that time, an area-wide bathing beauty contest will be held.

New Deadline For Entries In Pool Contest

Entry deadline for the area-wide bathing beauty contest to be held June 12, in conjunction with dedication of the new swimming pool, was extended to Saturday, June 5, at a meeting of directors of the Post Chamber of Commerce Tuesday afternoon.

Three entries in the contest had been received up to Wednesday noon by Mrs. Ira Greenfield, Chamber of Commerce secretary. They are Miss Dean Reagan of Spur, Miss Ella Jo Covington of Crosbyton and Miss Carolyn True Rosser of Petersburg.

Slaton's entry will be announced following an elimination contest there Saturday.

The contestants will be competing for $125 in cash prizes. Miss Maxine Baylis, who was selected as "Miss Post" in a contest here Saturday, will be hostess for the June 12 event.

Additional plans for the dedication program were made at the directors' meeting. R. J. (Rube) Jennings is chairman for the program, which will be held at 5 p. m.

In addition to the beauty contest, there will be an address by A. C. Hamilton, superintendent of the City of Lubbock parks and recreation department, a swimming and diving demonstration, and music.

Child Is Bitten By Stray Dog
 Scharlene Holland, four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Holland, was bitten on the forehead and cheek Tuesday by a stray dog, which Sheriff Carl Rains is keeping under observation for signs of rabies.

The sheriff said he had received reports of other children being bitten by dogs within recent weeks and that he wishes to warn all pet owners to have their animals vaccinated.

"We're going to clean up on stray dogs here and it would be a good idea for pet owners to have their animals vaccinated and properly identified by a collar or tag," the sheriff said.

There is no city ordinance against stray dogs or requiring anti-rabies vaccination, a city official said Wednesday.

The dog which bit the little Holland girl came to their house about two weeks ago and they had been trying unsuccessfully to run it off, Mrs. Holland said.

Sheriff Rains also issued a warning against putting out poison for dogs in candy or other foodstuffs. He said there is danger, in such instances, of small children getting hold of the poison.

Children To Leave Sunday For Camp
 Lawrence Eldridge (Sonny) Gossett, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. (Buck) Gossett, and Cheryl Dodson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Dodson, will leave Sunday for a free two-weeks at the Texas Lions Club camp for handicapped children near Kerrville.

The Post youngsters, both polo victims, will be at the camp for the opening period, June 7-19.

Camp directors have said that they hope more than 450 handicapped children will attend the camp this year. In 1953, first year of the camp, 240 children were guests. It is the largest camp of its type in the United States.

The Post children's attendance at the camp is being sponsored by the Lions Club here.

16 Liquor Law Charges Filed Following Series Of Raids

A near record breaking number of liquor law violation charges were filed in county court Tuesday afternoon following a series of raids Saturday.

The 16 charges filed by County Attorney Pat N. Walker are the most filed in a single day in recent years. On one occasion, about six years ago, 17 or 18 charges were filed in one day, County Clerk Ray N. Smith recalled.

Three of the five persons against whom the charges are filed are Negro women and the other two are Mexican men. Identity of a sixth person, charged with four sales of beer, had not been made by county officials late Wednesday.

The raids were made by Liquor Control Board agents, County Sheriff Carl Rains, Deputy J. W. (Red) Floyd, two special sheriff's deputies and City Marshal F. M. Reep, Sr.

With the exception of two houses in the south part of town, all the raids were made in the colored section of town, the officers reported.

Only two of the six charged were arrested at the time of the raids, the other arrests coming Tuesday afternoon. Joe Rosas, one of those arrested Saturday, is charged with four sales of beer and one possession of beer for purpose of sale. Raymond Rivers, also arrested Saturday, faces two charges—sale of beer and possession of beer. Rosas made bond of $750 and Rivera, $500.

Tuesday afternoon, sheriff's officers arrested L. C. Frazier, Elsie Wilkerson and Helen Doris Milo, all Negroes. The Frazier woman was charged with two sales of whiskey, the Wilkerson woman with one sale of whiskey, and the Milo woman with two sales of whiskey.

The defendant whose name was not announced is charged with four sales of beer.

Bonds for the three Negro women had not been set late Wednesday, Walker said.

Bearing search warrants issued by Justice of the Peace D. C. Roberts, Sr., the officers staged the raids at about 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

The officers reported finding beer, most of it in, in automobiles parked at the houses where the raids were made and in refrigerators.

CASES ARE SET FOR TRIAL JUNE 17

Grand Jury Brings Three Indictments

A 196th District Court grand jury returned indictments in the only three cases it investigated here last Thursday in a three and one-half hour session.

The true bills were returned in the cases of E. B. Jones, charged with robbery by assault; Lee Richards, charged with assault with intent to rob; and Jack Shaw, charged with entering a female under 14 into a house for immoral purposes.

Five counts were returned by the grand jury in the morals charge against Shaw, 45-year-old restaurant cook. He is accused of enticing an eight-year-old girl away from her home while her mother was away at work. The charge was filed March 22.

Jones, 18, is accused of assault on Albert Darby and robbery of Darby's American Grill Cafe here the night of May 8.

Richards, a 35-year-old Negro is accused of beating Emilio Zambano, a Mexican, with sticks and a rock on March 21. The alleged assault occurred at the airport here.

The defendants' cases are set for trial June 17. All three are being held in lieu of bond, according to County Attorney Pat N. Walker.

Members of the grand jury were: G. F. Carpenter, Bill DeWalt, Ira Farmer, W. S. Johnson, J. J. R. Boach, William F. Robinson, Ralph Welch, Jimmy Bird, R. H. Tate, W. D. Livingston, T. H. Tipton and Elmer Cowdrey.

Charles Gates Is Renamed To Pastor's Post

The Rev. Charles R. Gates was renamed for a second year as pastor of the First Methodist Church. It was announced Sunday afternoon at the Northwest Texas Methodist Conference meeting at Amarillo.

Rev. Gates came here last year from Idaho, following his appointment as pastor. He succeeded the Rev. Joe Boyd, who was reappointed as conference treasurer at the conference in Amarillo.

The Post church has made steady progress, including membership gains, under Rev. Gates' ministry. During his year here, a new organ has been added, and property just east of the church building has been purchased. An unusually good year was shown in a church report at the fourth quarterly conference held here May 16.

Rev. Gates was at Idaho for five years before coming to Post and has also been pastor at Pampa and Dalhart.

Attending the Amarillo conference as delegates from the Post church were Carl Cederholm and Ellis M. Mills.

Other appointments of interest here include reappointment of J. E. Shewbert as superintendent of the Lubbock District, and reappointment of the Rev. J. E. Peters as pastor of the Southland Methodist Church.

Rev. Gates was also reappointed secretary of temperance for the Lubbock District.

WELL, ANOTHER RODEO has come and gone. While the four nights of action, plus extra time in the roping events and cutting horse contest, might not have been too much rodeo for dyed-in-the-wool fans of such events, it was too much for most of us. Those who haven't had enough to do them, can get more of the same this weekend without having to travel too far from home: there's one scheduled at Midland, another at Crosbyton and a third at Plainview. Since we've had enough to do us for awhile, we can wait for the Junior Rodeo in August. . . . two of the ropers in the rodeo here, JIMMY BIRD of Post and JOHN BURRIS of Goldthwaite took time off Friday afternoon to go to Floydada and stage a matched roping contest at the Floyd County Pioneer's Reunion. Jimmy won the match.

SINCE THIS IS BEING written on Saturday morning there's no way of telling whether or not all business places will be closed Monday the day following Memorial Day. That was the agreement reached at a recent Chamber of Commerce meeting, but in the past such agreements haven't been 100 per cent adhered to. Come July 4, there'll be the same situation again, since the holiday falls on Sunday. . . . now that the new swimming pool is officially opened (as of 5 p. m. Friday), we wish to join other citizens in commending city officials, members of the park board and all others who helped make the pool a reality instead of a dream.

WHILE TAKING TIME OUT for a drink (soft) the other day, we got to talking to a drug store clerk about the sale of chewing tobacco and he said there's still a lot of it sold. We've never chewed much tobacco, but years and years ago, we were one of a group of youngsters who collected tobacco tags. During the pursuit of this hobby we became more or less familiar with the different brands of chewing tobacco. After finishing our drink, we took a squint at the tobacco counter and found that some of the tags with which we were familiar still adorn plugs and twists—among them Tinsley's, Day's Work, Brown Mule, etc.

IN OUR TOBACCO TAG collecting days, Star seemed to be the favorite chewing tobacco and those kind of tags didn't have much value on the market, the market in this case being our tag-swapping activities. If used to take 10 or 15 Star tags to swap another collector out of a Top or some other less well known tag. One who has never collected tobacco tags as a hobby can't imagine the pleasure a collector derived in coming across a new tag. Another popular old timer was Cotton Ball, and another, Peachy Plug. We can conservatively say that at the height of our tobacco tag collecting activities we've owned as many as 2,000 tags, and in the entire group of collectors, there probably were as many as 10,000 tags.

IN NAMING OVER SOME of the chewing tobacco sold nowadays the clerk with whom we were talking mentioned "Ball of the Woods." We don't recall ever having run across one of those kind of tags, but if we had we'd have been the envy of our fellow collectors. Our pet peeve was directed at tobacco chompers who chewed Beech Nut. It came in a package and didn't have a tag. We always respected the opinion of an old

Roger W. Babson Writes This Week:

Pulling Bright Child Downward, Dragging Dull Child Upward School System Fault

BABSON PARK, Mass.—Schools and colleges cannot be divorced from business in the long run, business has only the kind of leaders and workers that the schools produce. Today, many business and educational leaders are expressing concern about the educational product. Free public education appears to be watering down our great tradition of discipline and struggle.

Yet, others say that while we have taught people how to make money, we have failed to teach them how to use it properly. The most damning criticism is that our system is one of education for mediocrity; we pull the bright child downward as we try to drag the dull child upward. This results in a mediocrity of conformity.

Army-McCarthy Hearings

President Eisenhower said only last December that he has been "appalled" at the lack of our youth's understanding of "what America is, what are the conditions that could make her fight, and therefore, what are the underlying reasons that could lead that boy finally on the battlefield to risk his life, not just for property, not just for even what you might call national rights, but for some fundamental values in life."

As businessmen and as educators, we have been unwilling to be clear and coherent about what we want the United States to be. Consequently, the confusion in the schools and among businessmen is getting worse and worse. The Army-McCarthy hearings in Washington are an illustration of this useless confusion.

Since businessmen say our youth are coming to know less and less about less and less, perhaps a research project to determine exactly what our schools do teach might be a starting point. This might be followed by a movement to overhaul courses of study in the light of what research may reveal would best serve the interests of all.

What About Discipline?

Discipline is a major national need. Gen. S. L. A. Marshall, of the Detroit News, intimates that our soldiers on the Korean battlefield lacked discipline—which had something to

DON'T BE A LITTERBUG . . .

A new word—and a good one—"litterbug" has been coined to describe people who are careless about cluttering up their own premises or other areas of the town in which they live.

With spring almost gone, Post still hasn't staged any sort of a clean-up, fix-up, paint-up campaign, but Mayor T. L. Jones is asking citizens to take it upon themselves to conduct personal campaigns for the beautification of the city. At the same time, he calls upon the litterbugs to help out, by overcoming their obnoxious habit of cluttering up things in general.

"Generally speaking," said the mayor, "Post is in pretty good shape from the standpoint of cleanliness, but there remains a great deal to be done in regard to vacant lots and other eyesores. The City is making a personal appeal to the owners of these lots to clean them up within the next few weeks, and is also urging everyone to show their pride in their property and their city by cleaning, fixing and painting up, where necessary."

The mayor points out that a clean city not only is an attractive one to residents and visitors, but also is a more healthful one. "Let's make Post that kind of a city," appeals the mayor.

In the meantime, the litterbugs are asked to refrain from promiscuous cluttering up of streets, alleys and yards. The most obnoxious among the litterbugs are those who toss empty beer cans or whiskey bottles from automobiles with no regard to where they land.

Responsibility's like a string we can only see the middle of. Both ends are out of sight.—William McFee.

timer who scoffed at Beech Nut users. "Why, you could eat that stuff between crackers," he said. Cotton Ball, and some of the other twist tobaccos, was smoked in pipes, as well as chewed. The nearest the top of our head ever came to parting company with the rest of our body was the time we crumbled some Cotton Ball into our dad's (God rest his soul) pipe and set it afire.

ALONG ABOUT THIS TIME of year we always begin wondering if all the seniors get back from their trips. As many as there are going—thousands upon thousands—you'd think at least one or two would get lost. Like the time we belonged to a civic club which staged an Easter egg hunt for the kiddies. One thousand eggs were hidden and only a few more than 700 were found. For months afterwards kids playing in the park where the eggs were hidden occasionally would come up with one which hadn't been found in the original search. That was several years ago, but we'll bet a few dozen of those eggs still are in their hiding place. How come us to think of senior trips in the first place was that we saw a bus load of Abernathy seniors stopped here the other day en route home. Also, we just got a card from our daughter saying that the Leveland seniors were having a "wonderful time wish you were here" in cool Colorado. We won't try to explain though how we ever came to connect senior trips with hidden Easter eggs.

Getting Out On The Limb

by EDDIE the editor

SUDDEN THOUGHT: Most of today's adult education comes from the younger generation.

Along with the old shoes tied on the back of the newlyweds' car was a sign which read: "A-mateur Night."

Satan's Kingdom, a town in Connecticut, froze over. So now everybody can stop doing whatever it was they were going to keep on doing until it did.

I ALWAYS ADMIRE the efficient manner in which law enforcement officers, especially the Texas Highway Patrolmen, handle traffic at the roadshows. Near the show's end, there's always a couple of them at the entrance gate waving flash lights to direct traffic. I've never been one of those who "had it in" for highway patrolmen just over getting stopped for a traffic infraction. That's their job and in doing it they're helping make the highways safe for all of us.

A press release from the Texas Department of Public Safety says if you were stopped by a Texas Highway Patrolman during the month of April for an infraction of the traffic laws—you had a lot of company. As a matter of fact you had exactly 34,686 other folks in the same boat with you.

You could have been "lucky" though. You might have been one of nearly half the total who got a warning ticket instead of an arrest ticket. And you might not have been involved in one of the 13,496 accidents during the month. Better than that . . . you might not have been one of the 6,840 persons injured in traffic accidents in April. And one thing is sure . . . if you're reading this you're really fortunate because you weren't among the 168 killed in Texas traffic during the thirty-day period.

Walter J. Elliott, chief of the Texas Highway Patrol, has just released a comprehensive breakdown of the activities of 444 patrolmen who were on duty during the month. It shows that the men comprising the 16 Texas Highway Patrol districts worked a total of 108,922 hours during April at duties ranging from the gamut from giving road information to tourists to making 11,850 arrests and passing out 16,926 warning tickets. Thirty-seven per cent, or 40,239, of those hours were turned in on night duty. The 444 patrolmen operated in 317 cars for the incredible distance of 1,082,617 miles. It was not all riding and writing tickets, however. Accident investigations took up 3,353 hours of the time; another 2,151 hours were devoted to safety work other than enforcement, and the men spent 3,612 hours on court duty.

According to Chief Elliott's figures, 8,544 of the arrests made were for hazardous traffic violations—the sort that cause accidents. Speeding, as usual, led the field with 4,803. Next in order was "improper passing" with 801, and drunk driving accounted for 554 of the apprehensions.

Speeding was also the leader in the "warning tickets" category, with 7,438. The nearly 17,000 motorists who received warnings, however, didn't get off entirely "free." A copy of the warning ticket was filed in their permanent driving record at the headquarters of the Driver's License Division of the Texas Department of Public Safety, where enough of them, just like a small collection of arrest notations or accident experiences, will automatically bring the errant driver up for suspension or revocation action on his license.

"Our men always give two or three times as many warnings as they do arrest tickets," Elliott explained. "But sometimes we wonder if we're really doing the motorist a favor when he is released with merely a warning. We always hope the warning will work, that is, that it will keep the driver from repeating his error, but many times a patrolman is called to investigate a fatal traffic accident and the driver of one of the cars is a fellow to whom he gave a warning a couple of hours earlier. Maybe an arrest would have saved a life. Maybe I don't know."

THE WOMEN, GOD LOVE 'EM: Don't keep telling her you are unworthy of her. Better let it come as a surprise.

As we view them in the showrooms, these new automobiles look too nice to take outdoors.

Fun is like insurance—the older you get the more it costs you.

According to firemen, a good home is one you can get out of. Judging by the weekend traffic, guess a lot of folks can qualify.

I READ A DAY or two ago of a man released from prison, after serving 55 years, whose first question was "Who is this fellow McCarthy I hear so much about?" That's a good question. Most of us on the "outside" know who McCarthy is and what he's

Our Contemporaries Are Saying

Good Old Summertime The end of school and vacation for the youngsters impresses upon us that summer is here.

Summer is a happy time. It means a few days off for a fishing trip or a trip to the Gulf. It means summer camps for the kids. It means picnics and steaks in the yard.

Sun-tan lotion companies get rich on blistered backs and shoulders. Bottled drink sales soar. Ice cream cones are sold by the billions.

Swimming pools are crowded. Golfers dig out the old clubs and try their hands on the links. The ice companies find business good again, and candidates start passing out cards.

Flies and ants and mosquitoes pester humans, and thrips, weevils, boll worms and grasshoppers give the farmers a battle-royal.

It's all a part of the good old summertime. The mercury soars and folks complain about the heat . . . but all in all it's a fine season. Have fun!—The Kaufman Herald.

May Work Itself Out I suppose Stamford citizens did the same amount of speculation about what is going to happen now that the U. S. Supreme Court has outlawed racial segregation in the schools. Just about every thinking educator has seen the decision as inevitable, but no answer presented itself—at least not immediately.

It is my opinion that little or no difference will be experienced in Stamford. The Negro citizens of this town are good citizens. They have a good school. Supt. L. W. Johnson has been insistent that every possible improvement be made at Washington school commensurate with scholastics and money available.

I attended high school in Indianapolis, Ind., along with colored boys and girls. There was doing to keep in the news, but how many of us know just when and how McCarthyism started?

McCarthyism was born in Wheeling, W. Va., sometime between 8 and 9 p. m. Feb. 9, 1950. It was christened in 110 words.

In that hour Joseph R. McCarthy, junior Republican senator from Wisconsin, delivered a Lincoln Day speech before the Ohio Women's Republican Club of Wheeling.

The meeting was described in a 110-word story which began: "Sen. McCarthy charged in an address here tonight that 205 Communist party members are working and shaping the policy in the State Department."

There's been a lot of water under the bridge since that time, but that 110-word story is what started the ball rolling.

little friction. Later, however, a separate school was built and with little exception, the Negro children were better satisfied, their opportunities were greater.

I expect this segregation problem will work itself out if those responsible for solving the problem keep their feet on the floor and aren't victims of too much outside influence.—Stamford American.

We Resist Change Why in an ever-changing world it is human to resist change is a question that mortal man has studied many centuries and still is no nearer understanding. Whatever the idea or practice may be, if it is new or different from our accustomed ways, the first reaction is to battle it.

To illustrate, first we knew that power farming would bankrupt the country, then it was automobiles. Next it was the "crase" for highways. Anything that makes radical change makes radical believers in the fast arrival of Doomsday. It has been that way since mankind began. And in the future the same will be true. Inertia of the human mind.—The Floyd County Hesperian.

Commencement Speech Our thanks to Bob Work for the "Complete Commencement Speech," condensed to a very few words. "There are nine requisites for contented living. Health enough to make work a pleasure; wealth enough to support your needs; strength to battle with difficulties and overcome them; grace enough to confess your sins and forsake them; patience enough to toil until some good is accomplished; charity enough to see some good in your neighbor; love enough to move you to be useful and helpful to others; faith enough to make real things of God; hope enough to remove all anxious fears concerning the future."—The Crosbyton Review.

A Community Project Our park, incidentally, is getting better all the time. Few of us realize how many out-of-town groups use it for picnics and family get-togethers. Last Friday, for example, large groups from Post, Graham and Close City had picnics in the park. And so did several of our elementary school classes. Tommy Davis and the members of the Chamber of Commerce parks and recreation committee are to be commended on their zeal in undertaking so many fine park improvements. Funds for park improvements come from the Chamber, the city, the county, and various local organizations and individuals. It's a community project of which we can all be proud.—The Slaton Statuette.

Sentell In Race For Re-Election
 C. F. Sentell of Snyder, state representative of the 90th District, was in Post Thursday and authorized The Post Dispatch to announce his candidacy for a second term in the office. His statement follows:
 "To the people of the 90th Representative District:
 "In announcing for a second term for representative, first, I want to thank the people of this district for the support given me during this first term, including your votes when I was elected two years ago. I appreciate your votes and support and will appreciate your votes and support for a second term.
 "I stayed with my platform and the principles and will continue to fight for those principles and for the people of my district at all times. I have a good record in the Legislature, working for the best interests of the people, and believe it is fair and right to ask for a second term. Your vote and influence in the coming primary election will be greatly appreciated. I am going to see as many of you as possible during the campaign.
 "As you know, there are many controversial questions that arise in the Legislature. I always oppose any matter which violates a fundamental principle of right. I always oppose any matter which is against the welfare of my district. I supported the pay raise for our teachers. Some argued that they didn't want to let the teachers have their way. My position has been that it is not a question as to whether or not the teachers were to have their way, but rather, whether or not we are going to afford sufficient inducement to secure proper and efficient teachers to teach and train our children. Our children are our greatest asset. They are our future citizens and we must do our best for them.
 "There are several important problems I am interested in and which I want to work on in the next Legislature. I am better acquainted with these problems than I was before the recent ...

U. S. Farm Exports Higher In March

COLLEGE STATION (Spl.) — Farm exports from the United States were 3 per cent higher in March than in the preceding month. Shipments during the month totaled $244,000,000, the U. S. Department of Agriculture reports.
 For the nine-month July-March period, shipments abroad totaled $2,148,000,000, or 1 per cent less than the corresponding 1952-53 period. March 1954 exports approximated those of the corresponding month a year ago.
 The upward trend in cotton exports continued, with shipments remaining above the previous year and shipments of vegetable oils and peanuts were above March 1953.
 Tobacco shipments were seasonally small, but oranges reached an unusually high level.
 Foreign demands for United States wheat has declined principally because of smaller world needs, greater world production and keener international trade competition. The USDA says.
 Other grains, including barley, corn and grain sorghums, were affected by the same factors and showed reduced exports compared to the previous year.

Completion Of San Andres Discovery Well Highlights County Oil Activity

Lubbock operators have taken potential and completed a small pumping discovery well from the San Andres in the central part of Garza County.

The R. L. Turley et al No. 1 Charles A Bird pumped 10.5 barrels of oil plus 65 per cent water in 24 hours. Gravity of the oil was 37 degrees and gas-oil ratio was too small to measure.

The well was drilled to a total depth of 2,668 feet and has 5 1/2 inch casing set at 2,658 feet. Top of the pay was picked at 2,584 feet and the oil came from perforations at 2,614-2,626 feet. The exposed interval had been treated with 2,000 gallons of regular acid and 4,000 gallons of fracture material.

Exact location is 2,970 feet from south and 360 feet from east lines of Section 3, Block 8, H&H Survey, 12 miles northeast of Post.

Other recent completions include the following:

Garza—Alamo Corp. No. 2 Leila Hammons, 330 from north and 1,263 from east lines of Section 1235, AB&M Survey, pumped 40-12 barrels of 37.1-gravity oil plus 40 per cent water daily. Gas-oil ratio was nil. Perforations from 3,397-3,405 feet were acidized with 3,500 gallons.

Wood Bees, Booster '9' Meet Here Sunday

Wood Bees, who lost 18-15 game to the Hubbers at Lubbock Sunday afternoon when they defeated the Boosters at Lubbock on the Post-Tex Mill.

feated the Boosters three times, each game being a hard-fought, well-played contest.

Floyd Walker, manager of the Lubbock team, told Louis Mills, Wood Bee manager, by telephone Monday that he has a better team this season and is coming to Post with the intention of winning Sunday's game. The Wood Bees, on the other hand, are just as determined to prolong their winning streak over the Boosters, Mills said.

Walker is a former catcher for the Lubbock Hubbers of the West Texas-New Mexico League and was one of the loop's better long ball hitters. Other members of the Booster team have had previous experience playing for Texas Tech and Lubbock High School.

Walker indicated that he would start either Charlie Wright or Carroll Walker on the mound for the Boosters in Sunday's game. Wright was the ace of this season's Texas Tech hurling staff. Walker is a former Lubbock Westerner star and had a brief trial with the Hubbers early in the season.

Billy Ramage probably will start on the mound for Post, Mills said Tuesday. The loss at Lubbock Sunday, in which they blew an eight-run first inning lead, was the first of the season for the Wood Bees, who had opened by defeating the Black Hubbers here, 4-3, in a 14-inning game.

The Lubbock nine scored seven runs in the bottom of the eighth to overcome a four-run deficit, at which time Post was leading, 15-11. Catcher Warren Brown's three-run homer drove in the winning runs.

Every man except Pitcher Ramage scored for Post in the first inning outburst which produced eight runs. The barrage of safeties included a home run by Shorty Hester, shortstop. Although he struck out nine batters, Ramage was pounded for 24 hits. Post collected a total of 15 off Alexander Johns and D. C. Kinner, the winning pitcher.

Lester Buford, area supervisor from Big Spring, was in charge of the convention, assisted by teachers from the 72 high schools represented.

Sonny Curtis, area FFA president from Meadow, was in charge of the boys' activities. Registration was held at Lamesa High School Tuesday and was followed at 1:30 p. m. by the first of four general sessions, at which time Bob Crawley, mayor of Lamesa, welcomed the group.

Memorial Service Is Held Sunday

Tribute was paid Garza County's war dead Sunday afternoon in a brief, but impressive, Memorial Day service at Terrace Cemetery.

N. C. Outlaw, Post attorney, was the principal speaker and told those gathered at the cemetery that such services on an international level would do more to bring world peace than all the atomic cannons and atomic bombs.

The speaker told of the origin of Decoration Day and how it has grown in scope until today it is being observed in many foreign countries.

The service was jointly sponsored by James Cole Post of the American Legion and John Miller Post 6797 of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. James Minor presided.

Following the invocation by the Rev. Almon Martin, First Christian Church pastor, and Outlaw's address, a roll call of the county's war dead was read by Robert Russell, VFW post commander. The benediction was pronounced by the Rev. Gerald Blackburn, First Presbyterian Church pastor.

A volley was fired by a VFW firing squad and there was a color guard and color bearers. Members of Boy Scout Troop 16 attended in a body, with one of its members, Leonard Short, blowing taps.

Service was held Thursday morning before the convention was adjourned at 10:30 a. m.

'Greatest Show On Earth' Is Jubilee Feature At Tower

"The Greatest Show on Earth," a Paramount picture opening Friday at the Tower Theatre, combines two of America's most popular entertainments—a Cecil B. DeMille Technicolor spectacle and a big-time Big Top show.

Showing Friday, Saturday, Sunday and Monday, it is one of the top pictures to be at the Tower Theatre during the June "Good-times Jubilee." The picture is an Academy Award winner.

This panoramic melodrama of the circus and circus life is supervised by DeMille's biggest most lavish and costliest production. Advance reports indicate without exception that it is also his best. More than $4,000,000 and almost three years of planning, research, training and actual production went into "The Greatest Show On Earth." A record 1,500 people were actively engaged in the mammoth project and almost 80,000 crowd extras were recruited for the parade sequences.

DeMille's greatest film achievement is noteworthy for more than its size and scope. It is the first picture to deal authentically with the circus and the performers and workers who keep it rolling. It is also the first Big Top spectacle in which Hollywood stars perform their own circus stunts. Among those who flouted the laws of gravity in the interests of exciting realism are Betty Hutton, who soars daringly above the tanbark as Holly, the trapeze beauty; and Cornell Wilde, who stunts precariously on the flying bar as Sebastian, the dashing aerialist.

Trim Gloria Grahame also displayed a jaunty disregard for the frailties of the human body by supporting an elephant's foot on her face in the role of Angel, the elephant girl. Other stars in less dangerous, but equally authentic, roles are Charlton Heston as Brad, the circus manager, and James Stewart as Burton, the clown.

Made with the cooperation of the Ringling Bros. Barnum & Bailey circus, the DeMille epic features hundreds of Ringling's famed attractions—circus "fliers," acrobats, tightrope walkers and horses, as well as the entire menagerie of animals gathering demonstration and were judged on maintenance, operation and plowing.

ered from the four corners of the world. DeMille's color cameras also captured intimate behind-the-scenes glimpses of the circus at work and at play.
