Board awards building pact

Higginbotham-Bartlett Co. began work yesterday on construction of two new classrooms for the Post High School.

The local building materials firm was awarded the construction contract by the Post Independent School District Monday night at a special session of school trustees after a low bid of $5,935.

THE TWO classrooms, designed as temporary construction, are being erected in a 32 by 42 foot building directly behind the pre-

Faculty nears completion for 1958-59 term

The 1958-59 faculty for the Post Independent School District is virtually complete with Supt. R. T. Smith now seeking only a first grade teacher.

The Post school trustees at a special meeting Monday night, called to let the contract for new temporary high school construction, approved employment of three more new teachers.

Since that session, Supt. Smith has several additional teacher appointments which await approval of the trustees.

GEORGE L. Patterson, who has taught the last two years in Slaton, is one of the three new teachers approved Monday night. He will teach sixth grade mathematics and physical education.

The other two new teachers are Mr. and Mrs. Bob Rhyne of Friendship (Wolforth). He will teach science and she will teach junior and senior English in high school.

Supt. Smith reported to the board that he can't find a qualified teacher to continue the exceptional children's class in the Post schools and that he has practically no hope of finding one at this late date.

THE CLASS for handicapped children has been taught here for several years by Mrs. Herman F. Raphael, who has requested another teaching assignment this year.

The administrator told trustees that while the class had eight students last year, it already has lost four and possibly five for the new year. Eight students are the minimum for full state aid. Four are required if the state aid pays half the teacher's salary. Smith said it looks as if the class were continued the school district would have to pay half if not all of the teacher's salary. He explained students to be accepted by the state for the class have to qualify through a clinical examination at

The school structure will be built so that it can be sold later for remodeling into a home, thus enabling the trustees to realize a partial return on the temporary investment.

Target date for completion is before the opening of the school term in September.

PLANS CALL for frame construction, asbestos shingle siding, composition roof, hardwood floors, and sheetrock interior. It will contain two 32 by 21 foot classrooms.

There were four bidders on the project. Besides the low Higginbotham-Bartlett bid others bidding on the project were Forrest Lumber Co. Horace Henley, Lubbock contractor, and the Parks Construction Co. of Snyder which would be supplied by the R. E. Cox Lumber Co.

The other bids ranged to a high of $7,510.

Bootlegger 'hit' by law forces

Sheriff officers from three counties swooped down at dusk Saturday night on a White River shack and arrested Raymond Vargas of Spur on charges of possession of intoxicants for sale.

The shack, well hidden, was located inside Garza County just across the line from Dickens County.

Sheriff Carl Rains, who got the search warrant, said some ten persons were on the premises but that "we had to come down a long hill and they spotted us so they broke up their card and dice games."

Rains said they netted six sets of "crooked dice" as well as 16 cases of beer and several pints of whisky and beer.

Participating in the raid were Sheriff Rains, Deputy Sheriff J. W. (Red) Floyd and City Marshal Otis G. Shepherd, Jr., of Garza County, Sheriff Cleo Rogers and his deputy of Dickens County, and Sheriff Robert Koonce and his deputy of Kent County.

Vargas pleaded guilty before County Judge Pat N. Walker Tuesday. He was fined $100 and costs.

Postal rates are to go up Aug. 1

A reminder that new postage rates will go into effect Friday, Aug. 1, was issued today by Postmaster Harold Voss.

The postmaster cautioned that regular first-class letters will require four cents postage an ounce; air mail postal cards five cents each, and regular postal cards three cents each.

Where mail users still have on hand supplies of three cent stamps, two cent postal cards, and six cent air mail stamps, they may be used by the addition of an ordinary one cent stamp.

Plenty of these are on hand at the local post office, Voss said, plus large supplies of new four cent stamps, seven cent air mail stamps, five cent air mail postal cards and three cent regular postal cards.

Stamped envelopes are also in good supply in the needed denominations of four cents for regular first-class letters and seven cent air mail letters, the postmaster said.

WR directors hopeful of early loan action

White River water district directors are hopeful that final legal difficulties will be ironed out so that the district's application for a federal loan can clear the Fort Worth office next week for Washington.

White River directors met for their monthly meeting at Ralls last Thursday night.

With interest in Saturday's Democratic primary election steadily mounting after having been at a low ebb since the political campaigns began, County Democratic Chairman N. C. Outlaw today predicted a heavier-than-expected turn-out of voters.

"My prediction is that at least 1,300 votes will be cast," Outlaw said.

Candidates this week are engaged in a last-minute vote appeal to the public for offices ranging from precinct to state levels.

The polls at Garza County's nine voting places will open at 8 a. m. and close at 7 p. m. Ballot boxes and other election supplies will be delivered to all election judges tomorrow, the county Democratic chairman said.

The only change in voting places from those announced in last week's Dispatch is at Justiceburg, where voting will be in the school lunchroom instead of the school auditorium.

The other voting places are as follows: North Post, old band hall; Southland, school auditorium; Verbena, church building; Close City, school lunchroom; Graham Chapel, Church of Christ; Pleasant Valley, church building; South Post, high school library; Two Draw, Negro school auditorium.

Outlaw said the precinct chairman will be the election judge at each voting place. The only change in this line-up is in the Two Draw precinct, where Charles Ray Casey will serve as election judge instead of Roy Brown Jr.

Of interest to voters living west of Post but voting in Lynn County is the announcement that voters in the Garnolia community, which comprises part of Precinct 9 in Lynn County, will vote at the Calloway Huffaker house.

Officials for the absentee vote box are Mrs. N. R. King, chairman; Agnes Windham, Gladys Pennell and Irene Rodgers. County Clerk Carl Cederholm (BIG VOTE—See Page 8)

Charges filed against six after chase

Liquor law violations charges were filed here Monday against six Lubbock Negroes following a 50-mile automobile chase on back roads in a three-county area Saturday morning.

Five of the men were lodged in jail here and charged with possession of intoxicants for the purpose of sale. The sixth man, driver of the automobile which led at least 11 law enforcement cruisers on a wild chase, has been filed on in Lubbock, Lynn and Garza counties for traffic violations in addition to a liquor charge. He was taken to a Lubbock hospital after being slightly injured when the 1958 sedan he was driving "rolled" after failing to make a turn on Farm Road 41 about 14 miles south of Lubbock.

The chase started in the "flats" section here after Sheriff Carl Rains had been alerted that a "liquor haul" was under way in that part of town. He arrived at the scene to find "beer being exchanged from one car into another." Six suspects and three cars were involved.

Leaving the intoxicants at the scene, the suspects jumped into the 1958 sedan and fled at a high rate of speed, the sheriff said. Rains gave chase and radioed for assistance.

The sheriff was joined by an (CHARGES—See Page 8)

Rites pending for Mrs. Farr

Mrs. Virginia Lee Farr, 31, a former Post resident, died Tuesday in a St. Louis, Mo., hospital. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Thomas of the Garnolia community.

Mrs. Farr, who was a graduate of Post High School, lived in Wentzville, Mo., near St. Louis, with her husband, W. H. Farr, and their three children, Judy, 10, Tommy, 8, and Clay, 3.

Funeral arrangements are pending at Hudman Funeral Home, but burial will be in Grassland Cemetery.

Besides her husband and children, Mrs. Farr is survived by her parents, Mrs. Martha Jean Smith of Albuquerque, N. M., and Mrs. Hazel Ray of Lubbock; five brothers, W. L. Thomas of Kansas City, Kan., Oscar Ray Thomas of Post, J. E. Thomas Jr. of Springfield, Mo., Frank Thomas of Tahoka, and Vandon Thomas of Lamesa, and her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Clevenger of Hurlwood.

Burglar breaks into laundry

The Ideal Laundry at Tenth Street and Avenue I was broken into early Sunday morning by a burglar who fled just as an officer arrived at the scene.

A man who lives near the laundry called Deputy Sheriff J. W. (Red) Floyd after hearing sounds which indicated a break-in.

The deputy said he saw a man with a flashlight inside the building as he pulled up, but that the intruder fled through a side door before he (the officer) could get in the front door.

Operators of the laundry said, after a check, that nothing was missing, but that the burglar "sort of messed things up."

Sheriff Carl Rains said today that officers believe they know the identity of the burglar and that they expect to make an arrest soon.

Parsons family is moving to Olton

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Parsons and sons, Mike and Dale, are moving to Olton, where Parsons is to open a funeral home.

Hudman Funeral Home, by whom Parsons has been employed since 1948, has announced the employment of David Morrison of Littlefield as mortician to replace Parsons. He is already on the job.

Parsons is a 1946 graduate of Post High School and entered the employment of the funeral home here following his graduation from a mortuary science school. He and his family are members of the Methodist Church, and Parsons is a member of the Post Volunteer Fire Department and the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Morrison, the new man at Hudman's, has a wife and three children, all under school age. He recently graduated from Dallas Institute of Mortuary Science.

Prisoners transported to pen at Huntsville

Sheriff Carl Rains and Byron Haynie returned Tuesday night from Huntsville where they had transported Buren Curb and Cleveland Waters to the state prison.

Both Curb and Waters were sentenced to prison after pleading guilty in district court to burglary charges. Curb was sentenced to two years for the burglary of Wilson Bros. Service Station, and Waters to three years for breaking into the courthouse and stealing three cases of beer.

Nine enter race for rodeo queen

Up to Wednesday noon, with the entry deadline still a few days away, nine girls had entered the queen contest for the annual Southwestern Championship Juvenile Rodeo to be held here Aug. 6, 7, 8, and 9.

Entrants announced Wednesday by Leslie Nichols, chairman of the rodeo queen committee, are: Billie Lou Hill, Anne Morris, Sharon Woods, Kay Martin, Ruth Miller, Ruthell Martin, Melanie Thompson, Kay Gordon and Jane Maxey.

The contestants will sell rodeo tickets with the one making the most sales being named queen of the rodeo. The winner's identity will be kept secret until at Wednesday night's opening rodeo performance, at which time the top three contestants will be presented.

Now Monday, July 28, is the deadline for entering the contest. Money from the ticket sales and tickets not sold are to be turned in by the contestants by 5 p. m. Tuesday, Aug. 5.

Other girls wishing to enter the contest are asked to contact Miss Nichols or Ruth Ann Long before the Monday noon deadline.

Reports of progress were heard from the various committee chairmen at a rodeo meeting Tuesday night. The next meeting of rodeo officials and directors will be at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday in the district courtroom.

Decision now in hands of voters

The Dispatch has been sitting on the political sidelines in the current primary campaign for a reason. It is our first close look at Post and Texas politics.

We think it is essential that we become acclimated to the political pulse of West Texas before making what we might consider pertinent—and some candidates would consider "impertinent"—observations.

The campaign here and generally over the state has been a quiet one. The people haven't been too stirred over any personality or any issue, but the rather heavy early absentee voting indicates a good interest here in the various races.

On the local political scene, the campaigns to this writing have been strictly of the hand-shaking, card-passing, and support-asking variety.

Except in one rural community or two, the old-time flavor of the political rally appears dead. You don't have to be a speech maker to run for office today because there aren't many who stop to listen to speeches anymore.

Local candidates have been busy, but conservative.

The whole campaign comes to the election day climax Saturday. Then the candidates will have done their part and the decision will be in the hands of the voters. We can only hope that it is decided by a large majority of eligible voters and that people will take what little time and trouble is involved to vote.

Minority rule in a nation such as ours comes only when the majority is too indisinterested to stir itself. Let's go vote Saturday.—JC

Full-time needed on police radios

The two-way radios installed a few months ago in peace officers' automobiles and on the city fire truck proved their worth a few nights ago by making possible the apprehension of two suspected arsonists. By being put on a 24-hour around-the-clock basis, the radios would be even more valuable for law enforcement and other purposes.

Firemen used the radio on the fire truck to summon the city marshal and a deputy sheriff when they learned that arson was suspected in a fire they were fighting in the northwest part of town. This quick work, which would not have been possible without the two-way radios, led to the arrest of the suspected arsonists a short time later.

For several hours every night, however, the radio system is useless to a certain extent because of the courthouse, where the base station is located, being closed. People wishing to contact the officer on duty at night usually are unable to do so. If a remote control station could be set up in some all-night place, as has been suggested, this hindrance could be overcome. The way it would work would be for anyone wanting a peace officer to telephone the remote control station, from where the officer could be contacted by radio.

It has been pointed out that this could be done at very little expense to the city and county. On the other hand, it could do a great deal of good in bringing about more efficient law enforcement. A two-way radio system such as the one installed here should be put to its maximum use and not made use of on a half-way or so basis. Neither the city nor the county are receiving full value from their investment in the equipment if there are long hours every night in which the radio system can't be put to the use for which it was intended.

Along the same line, the Post man who tipped off firemen and officers that there was a possibility of the shack having been set on fire did his part to help law enforcement. He had seen the two suspects driving about in the vicinity of the building which later burned and had the presence of mind to copy down their automobile tag number. The best police force in the country isn't worth much without the cooperation of the public it serves.—CD

Oil industry outlook is brighter

With the third consecutive monthly increase in the Texas oil allowable set for August, the state's big oil industry appears headed for more productive and thus more profitable times.

Some of the major crude purchasers in the state testified last week in Austin that they needed more than the 11 production days which were finally designated by the Railroad Commission. Humble, largest crude buyer in the state, wanted 12 and said it needed them to meet its requirements. Texaco also "urgently requested" the 12-day pattern.

Reserve crude stocks, which have been too high in recent months for the industry's own good, have now been cut back to more reasonable levels.

Nobody in the industry wants to rush back into the same predicament of big storage stocks.

That's why the climb back has been gradual and steady.

Actually the boost to 11 production days for next month did not take into account the crisis-packed Mideast situation which is eventually going to figure into the Texas oil picture. At this writing, unless the flames of Arab revolt against the West spread beyond oil-rich Iraq, no real oil crisis appears probable.

But any appreciable change in world oil stocks between the Red world and the Free world should eventually give Texas production another boost.

All of which is good economic news for this area which probably can expect stepped-up drilling activity to march abreast of future production day hikes.—JC

Taking a look at brighter side

Postal receipts and bank deposits are regarded as two of the best economic barometers of community growth.

Post's present situation and future outlook is unusually bright. The community is busy setting records in both deposits and postal receipts.

On the heels of a recent First National Bank report that deposits were a great deal higher than a year ago came Postmaster Harold Voss's announcement last week that postal receipts had marked up a seven per cent gain in the second quarter.

Voss says the big increases rung up at postal windows in the first two quarters indicates that postal receipts in 1958 will set a new all-time record high without figuring in postal boosts due to take effect Aug. 1.

There is often too much said about economic setbacks—such as the national recession "back East" or the recent Garza hailstorm—simply because it is on the public's mind. So The Dispatch thinks it only fitting that some of the brighter economic aspects be given the emphasis they are due.—JC

Junior Rodeo is good for Post

Almost lost sight of in the excitement of the upcoming election is the fact that adult and junior directors of the Junior Rodeo are hard at work on plans for the annual event, which is to be unreeled here the nights of Aug. 6, 7, 8 and 9.

It's the Southwestern Championship Rodeo, known throughout the nation as the "world's original junior rodeo." Every other junior rodeo in the nation owes much of the credit for its origin to the Post event.

The Southwestern Championship Junior Rodeo had its beginning as a 4-H Club sponsored event and it still is. Proceeds from the rodeos have made it possible for the 4-H clubbers to get their new building under way, not forgetting, of course, the assistance they have received from other sources.

Like all such events, the Junior Rodeo has had its ups and downs, its good years and its lean years. But it continues to rank as one of the most outstanding and most colorful shows of its kind in the nation.

Many graduates from the ranks of Junior rodeo performers here are now appearing in adult shows, both amateur and professional, throughout the country. Some of the top stars have performed at one time or another in the Southwestern Championship Junior Rodeo.

For these reasons and numerous others, the Junior Rodeo deserves our support. Anything that favorably advertises Post is good for all of us who live here, and there's little doubt that the Southwestern Championship Junior Rodeo does just that.—CD

What our contemporaries are saying

Although we know cotton is well rooted and has good season in the soil and the subsoil and know also that cotton likes hot weather and lots of it, we are not so sure that the searing wind that prevailed Sunday and Monday was too beneficial. This southwest "hot wind" is one that blows down off the mountain in Old Mexico, we have been told. As it moves across the country it drops into the lower altitude and expands, drying out in the process. The expansion progress also results in heat. We'd like heat on the cotton but hardly in such concentrated and mobile form.—Floyd County Hesperian.

You have a dollar, we have a dollar, we swap; now you have our dollar, we have yours, and we are no better off.
You have an idea, we have an idea, we swap;

now you have two ideas, and we have two ideas, and that's the difference.

There's another difference: A dollar does only so much; it buys so many potatoes and no more. An idea that fits your purpose may keep you in potatoes all your life, and it may incidentally build you a place to eat them in.—The Hamlin Herald.

THURSDAY to THURSDAY

By CHARLES DIDWAY

WILL THE VOTE in Saturday's Democratic Primary election be as light as the lack of interest in the campaigns indicates it will be? That remains to be seen.

It's a pretty safe bet that 1948's record turnout of 1,704 voters won't be beat in this year's election. This year's poll tax payments totaled 1,241, and the exemptions won't be enough to bring the figure of eligible voters up to the 1,704 record posted 10 years ago.

THE 1956 VOTE in Garza County was 1,562, and that was the lowest for any election year since 1946. In 1954, the voting total was 1,610, in 1952 it was 1,668, and in 1950 it was 1,654.

More poll taxes — 1,454 — were paid in 1956 than in any other year in the county's history, yet the voting turnout was the lowest in 10 years. One reason, of course, was that only half the county officials were up for election because of the four-year term constitutional amendment which went into effect in 1954.

THIS YEAR there is no sheriff's race, which is usually the biggest vote getter, and there are contests in only two county and two precinct races. So it all adds up to the fact that this year's turnout at the polls might be the lightest since the early 1940's. We could be fooled, and hope we are. It's a cinch that if every eligible voter goes to the polls Saturday, there'll be a better-than-average total vote figure.

Regardless of the size of the vote, some of the candidates are going to taste defeat in Saturday's election. Even so, however, the modern-day political candidate who loses a race isn't as bad off as the candidate who ran for sheriff in Arkansas. Here is his story:

"Lost four months and 20 days canvassing; lost 1,360 hours of sleep thinking about the election; lost 40 acres of corn and a crop of sweet potatoes; lost two front teeth and a lot of hair in a personal combat with an opponent; donated one beef, four shoats and five sheep to barbecue; gave away two pairs of suspenders, five calico dresses, five dolls, and 13 baby rattles, kissed 126 babies, kindled 14 kitchen fires, put up eight stoves, cut 14 cords of wood, carried 24 buckets of water, gathered seven wagon loads of corn, pulled 437 bushels of fodder, walked 4,000 miles, shook hands 9,080 times, told 10,001 jokes, and talked enough to make 1,000 volumes; attended 26 revival meetings, was baptized four times by immersion and twice by sprinkling, contributed 1500 to foreign missions, got dog bit nine times — and then got defeated!"

THE ELECTION isn't the only thing that will come off Saturday — if you'll pardon the expression. The second annual "Miss Post" contest is to be held at the swimming pool Saturday night, and we're wondering how we can get down there to take pictures of the beauties and at the same time do as we promised and help N. C. Outlaw and some of the others tabulate the election returns. Another case of where a fellow needs to be triplets — or at least twins.

There probably isn't much of a chance of getting N. C. to move the election returns party down to the swimming pool, and it just wouldn't work to try to hold a bathing beauty contest at the courthouse. But we'll think of something between now and Saturday evening.

ONE ADVANTAGE of being poor is that it doesn't take much to improve your situation.

Some seem to think that the Junior Rodeo bunch is off to too late a start on their rodeo plans, but they made things move pretty fast at the meeting we attended Tuesday night of last week. They'll come up with another good rodeo, we think. Those juniors, with the assistance of rodeo-seasoned adults, have an admirable habit of making things fit into place without having to take too much time on it.

THINGS STARTED going down hill when men stopped measuring time by the moon and started counting the hours between pills.

Some time during the next few months four large signs, each listing the Biblical Ten Commandments, will be erected on the courthouse square at Center, Tex. There will be one facing each approach to the courthouse. The size: Approximately four by eight feet. It is a Chamber of Commerce project.

WHY HAS THE Chamber of Commerce at Center gone into the field of religion? Kenneth Hoover Jr., chamber manager, explains it this way: "Our directors feel that knowledge and observance of the Ten Commandments has a direct bearing on the healthful growth of any community. Think how many cooked in aluminum foil on labor

STATION — For a picnic, or a meal in the backyard, food cooked in foil is delicious and easy. You can bake and broil in foil and save on dishes.

Meats and fruits can be "pre-cooked" in their own juices, with only a bit of shortening, butter or oil for flavor and moisture. Extension foods specialists offer these recipes.

—piece of foil large enough to allow space for food. Place food on foil. Add butter or fat and fold edges until tight. Double the layer around the food by repeating the process.

—package directly on a bed of coals. Never use a flame-protectant when using a receptacle.

—time will vary with type of food, wind strength and other factors. Recipes can give only approximate time. Turn food approximately half its cooking time.

—contents directly from the package away with a dish or platter.

—on foil cookery are given in a bulletin on "Food for the Future" from your extension agent's office.

Q. I'm a Korea veteran and my deadline for starting school under the GI Bill will come next summer, August 1959. Can I make application as late as next August for going to school, and then start class in September?

A. No. You must actually be in school, within three years from the date of your discharge. It is not enough to apply on time, with the intention of beginning after your deadline.

Q. The doctor tells me my present climate is bad for me and that I should move. Suppose I sell my GI house, and move. Can I have my GI home loan rights restored so I can buy a house in the new locality?

A. Yes. If your doctor says your move is necessary, your rights to a GI home loan may be restored. However, the VA must first be relieved from liability on its guaranty of your old loan.

Q. In computing my yearly income for VA pension purposes, do I put down my take-home salary after deductions, or my gross salary before all deductions?

A. You must list your gross salary, rather than your net take-home salary after deductions.

Q. I'm intending to go to college this fall, under the Korean GI Bill. Will it be possible for me to get any part of my GI allowance pay in advance, before I start classes?

A. No. Under the law, allowances are paid some time after the end of each month of training completed, and not before. After the end of the month, you and your school will have to sign a certificate stating you were in class all month. VA is allowed up to 20 days, after receipt of certificate to send your

Santa Fe building 'piggy back' cars

The Santa Fe Railway today announced completion of the first of 25 of the longest flat cars ever to be built for trailer-on-flat car (piggy-back) freight service. They are being built in the Santa Fe shops at Topeka, Kans. Completion of all 25 cars is expected by Aug. 1. The new flat cars have a loading surface length of 88 feet, and an overall width of 9 feet 6 inches. They will accommodate two 40 foot trailers with refrigerator units attached to the front end, or any combination of two smaller trailers in present day use.

E. S. Marsh, Santa Fe president, said, "Use of this revolutionary equipment will enable the Santa Fe to offer a more efficient piggy-back service to the shipper than the use of flat cars which handle only one trailer."

CONFESSING JESUS

By RONNIE PARKER

Hear the words of Jesus as He says "Whosoever therefore shall confess me before men, him will I confess also before my Father which is in heaven. But whosoever shall deny me before men, him will I also deny before my Father which is in heaven." (Matt. 10:32-33).

Paul says "That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation." (Rom. 10:9-10).

Denial of the master is a pitiful thing. All one has to do in order to deny Jesus is simply fail to confess Him. Have you been willing to confess your faith in Jesus as the Son of God? If not, you will be denied before God himself. After confessing Him, follow and obey Him in all things. Your salvation will be the result.

We've had it now for over a year and a half. The freezer has our blessing on both counts — it does save work and it does save money. It's wonderful for making use of extra food. That's why I'll cook more than we'll eat at one sitting — I freeze the 'extra' food for later use — you can freeze it and know that the original tasty flavor will remain."

DOCUMENTARY PROOF

Big Unions Give Generous Funds To Yarborough!

By SAM WOOD Capitol Correspondent WASHINGTON - Ralph W. Yarborough's 1957 election to the United States Senate was financed in part by money from six of the most powerful labor union organizations in America. Affidavits on file here with the clerk of the US House of Representatives, in compliance with the federal corrupt practices act, show that Yarborough's campaign in the special race for the US Senate last spring drew $28,143 from labor groups headquartered in Detroit, New York, Cleveland, Washington and Pittsburgh. The federal records are the first documentary proof of a charge heaped on Yarborough in past and present statewide political races that he had the financial backing of the nation's biggest labor bosses. The US House clerk's records show that his labor's help to Yarborough is part of a nationwide pattern of union contributions to selected candidates. Among those listed in the 1957 expenditure reports from major labor organizations are Senator William Proxmire of Wisconsin and Senator Wayne Morse of Oregon. The latter received big labor help on a "Morse deficit fund" apparently from a previous campaign. The big labor money sent to Texas was in addition to the contributions which Ralph Yarborough reported receiving from Texas supporters. Yarborough's own expense report is on file with the secretary of the US Senate. It shows $56,312 contributed to him and $54,328 expended by him in the period Oct. 8, 1956 through April 13, 1957. The election was on April 2, 1957. The $28,143, sent to Texas last spring in amounts ranging up to $5,000, did not go to Yarborough personally, according to the sworn statements on file in the House clerk's office here. The money, earmarked for Yarborough's campaign, was sent to Texas labor leaders and to one liberal Democrat group in Harris County (Houston). Texas law does not require any reporting or accounting by recipients of such funds and there is no public record in Austin to show what the Texas labor leaders did with the $28,143 sent to them by the United Auto Workers, United Steel Workers of America, the AFL-CIO Committee on Political Education, the Railway Labor's Political League, Amalgamated Political Education Committee, and the Textile Workers Union of America, designated for Yarborough's Senate campaign. The Texans who received the national labor money for the Yarborough campaign are well-known in Lone Star state political circles. They are leaders of the splinter Democratic group wearing the label "Democrats of Texas," which is admittedly driving for control of the Democratic Party in the state. Coincidentally, the Congressional Record on June 16 carried a discussion of how organized labor operates in the political arena supporting candidates and taking over what possible the state party machinery. The Congressional Record discussion showed a plain parallel between activities of the DOT in Texas and a similar labor group in Michigan, both designed to capture Democratic Party control in the respective states. Yarborough's opponents, past and present, have often charged him with accepting important financial support from national labor leaders. Allan Shivers defeated Yarborough for governor twice and Price Daniel nixed him out for the same office in 1956. In such races, the pro-big-labor tag was hung on Yarborough but without documented proof. Former Senator William Blakely, campaigning against Yarborough this summer, has made the same charge. The documentation, direct from the office of the clerk of the US House of Representatives, shows: UAW-CIO (Walter Reuther, president) Political Action Committee, 2000 East Jefferson Ave., Detroit, Michigan, on March 8, 1957, to "Yarborough Senatorial Campaign," recipient not recorded, $5,000. (On the same series of reports UAW-CIO noted contributions of $5,000 to a Senator Wayne Morse "deficit fund" and $2,000 to the "Wisconsin Proxmire for Senate" campaign). The reports were signed by Emil Mazey, Sec. Texas, and notarized by Louise Sarafian, notary public, Michigan. Committee on Political Education (AFL-CIO) 815 16th St. N.W., Washington, D.C., two $5,000 contributions, both made on March 8, 1957, to "Texas AFL-CIO Joint Committee, Texas, R. Yarborough," a total of $10,000. The reports were signed by James L. McDevitt, co-director and notarized by Robert J. McKenna, notary public, District of Columbia. Feb. 28, 1957; Railway Labor's Political League, Washington, D.C. to Robert Bryant, 109 West 15th St., Austin, Texas, $2,000 contributed for "General Activity." Railway Labor's Political League reports were signed by C. T. Anderson, Secretary-Treasurer, before notary public Margaret E. Murphy. March 15, 1957, United Steel Workers, 1509 Commonwealth Building, Pittsburgh 22, Pennsylvania, $5,000 "to Harris County Democrats." The report did not show the name of the individual receiving the money for the "Harris County Democrats." The report was signed by I. W. Abel, Secretary-Treasurer, before notary public Edward G. Nassar, Allegheny County, Pennsylvania. March 5, 1957; Amalgamated Political Education Committee, 16 Union Square, New York 5, N.Y., to Fred Schmidt, Secretary, 1011 San Jacenta (spelling not corrected) Austin, Texas, as "Campaign Contribution, Ralph Yarborough for US Senate," $1,000. The report was signed by Frank Rosenblum, Treasurer, before notary Valentin J. T. Wertheimer, New York. March 19, 1957; Textile Workers Union of America, New York, to Texas State Industrial Council, 310 East 14th Street, Austin, Texas, "Contributed to Senatorial Campaign in Texas for Ralph Yarborough," $1,000. Report signed by John Chupka, Secretary-Treasurer, notarized by Wilbur B. Samuella, notary public. Records of the Trainmen's Political League of Cleveland, Ohio, dated February 18, 1957, show a notation: "$250 to W. P. Kennedy, 1870 Ontario Street, Cleveland (official address of the organization) as reimbursement for donation in behalf of Judge Ralph Yarborough, Austin, Texas, candidate for US Senate." The report was signed by W. K. Sullivan, Secretary-Treasurer, and notarized by Roy H. Neville, notary public. Texas Fund a Record March 21, 1957 committee on

C. T. ANDERSON Railway Labor's Political League secretary-treasurer, C. T. Anderson, in a sworn statement to Congress, listed two contributions of $2,000 each to Robert Bryant of Austin, who is on the railway legislative board, "for general activity" in Texas.

I. W. ABEL United Steel Workers secretary-treasurer, I. W. Abel, acknowledged a contribution of $5,000 to the Harris County Democrats. The liberal organization in Houston backed Yarborough in his special campaign that sent him to the U. S. Senate.

whenever practicable the party machinery." A long discussion in the Congressional Record includes an analysis of Michigan PAC activity. (As noted earlier in this article, Michigan PAC and Texas AFL-CIO joint committee each received $10,000 in 1956 from COPE, the two largest single political contributions from national COPE to local groups.) The Michigan PAC analysis is from an article written by Miss Fay Calkins of the University of Chicago on a research project on the political activities of labor organizations. She said "in Michigan PAC formed a liberal coalition with the Michigan Democratic Club, reform Democrats, A.F. and L., and a few patronage interest groups. By entering precinct captains in the primaries, especially in Wayne County, the coalition was able to control a number of district Democratic conventions and send a majority of delegates to the state convention. From this position the liberal coalition was able to determine the composition of the Democratic state executive committee, PAC was the strongest single interest group in the coalition." The contributions from national labor organizations to state labor leaders in Texas for political activity, and the coalition between the "Democrats of Texas" liberal group headed by Mrs. Randolph, follows exactly the Michigan pattern. Texas labor leaders, Holleman, Schmidt and Bryant, to whom the contributions for political activity were sent, hold executive positions with DOT. They represent the strongest single interest group in the DOT coalition. In Texas, Harris County and its strong liberal organization, is the counterpart of the key Wayne County organization in Michigan. In Texas, as in Michigan, the avowed purpose of DOT is the same - to capture the precinct conventions and control the State Democratic Executive Committee. Second quarter (1958 reports) of the national labor organizations, when they are filed with Congress in compliance with the Federal Corrupt Practices Act, will reflect their contributions, if any, to current political campaigns and political activity in Texas. Quoted from the Congressional Record, Senate, June 16, 1958, Page 10214: "COPE-While it is by far the most highly organized and most richly endowed political machine controlled exclusively by the labor bosses-is not the only political action group of organized labor. Actually, there are some 40 separate outfits which, under federal law, have reported spending millions of dollars for direct political action. "Besides COPE some of the larger ones are: United Auto Workers PAC, International Ladies Garment Workers Campaign Committee, Machinists Non-Partisan Political League, Amalgamated Clothing Workers PAC, Railway Labor's Political League and Trainmen's Political Education League, United Steel Worker PAC. Six of the above were sources of what appears to be a separate fund sent into Texas to back Ralph Yarborough's special Senate campaign in April 1957-The national labor contribution for that campaign, as shown by their sworn reports to Congress, totaling approximately one half of the amount of contributions from individual Texas backers of the candidate, as shown by his personal campaign contribution list. National labor organizations backed Yarborough with $28,143 clearly earmarked, plus other funds which could have been used in the campaign. For these there is no public accounting at state level. Texas individual supporters of Yarborough contributed in his behalf a total of $56,312.58.

EMIL MAZEY UAW International's secretary treasurer, Emil Mazey, a star witness before the McClellan subcommittee labor hearings, certified that UAW-CIO Political Action Committee contributed $5,000 to the "Yarborough Senatorial race" in the special election.

JAMES L. McDEVITT A co-director of Committee on Political Education (AFL-CIO), James L. McDevitt, certified two contributions of $5,000 each were forwarded to Texas AFL-CIO for "R. Yarborough" campaign. Another $663 was sent to the Texas Industrial Council.

FRANK ROSENBLUM The treasurer of Amalgamated Political Education Committee, Frank Rosenblum, signed a report that his organization sent $1,000 to Fred Schmidt of Austin, secretary of the Texas AFL-CIO joint committee and a DOT official, for Yarborough's campaign.

political education, Washington, D.C. to Texas State Industrial Council "R. Yarborough," $500. June 18, 1957; Texas COPE "refund of expenses" by committee on political education, Washington, D. C., $1,230.06. (Other refunds by COPE to Texas COPE totaling $3,986.46 are not counted in the total of funds clearly earmarked for the Yarborough special Senate election campaign.) Sworn reports of the national labor organizations on file in the clerk's office of the House of Representatives show numerous contributions in other sections of the nation for political campaigns, including members of legislatures, and in some instances candidates for city offices. Large contributions were made to the "Wayne Morse deficit" and to "Proxmire (Wisconsin) senator" fund. An accounting of COPE political contributions for the year 1956, preceding the 1957 special Senate election in Texas, shows the Texas AFL-CIO joint committee received $10,000 earmarked for "congressional campaigns." Of 339 separate listings of political contributions by COPE in 1956, except for one donation, the $10,000 fund sent to Texas AFL-CIO joint committee was the largest. One other $10,000 contribution that year went to Michigan political action committee. Labor funds sent to Texas for use in the 1957 special Senate election in behalf of Yarborough, as shown by the sworn reports, were directed to principal leaders of the splinter "Democrats of Texas" organization. Bryant, who received the money from the railroad labor's league, is legislative representative in Austin of the railroad firemen and engineers, and is a member of the executive committee of DOT. Schmidt is state executive secretary of AFL-CIO and is a member of the DOT executive committee. Jerry Holleman of Austin is AFL-CIO president, and heads the joint AFL-CIO committee which received the political money from JOHN CHUPKA The Textile Workers Union of America official, John Chupka, signed an affidavit that his union sent $1,000 to Texas in 1957 as a contribution to the "Senatorial campaign in Texas" for Ralph Yarborough. The money was sent to the Texas State Industrial Council.

Danger spots on the farm!

Here Are The 21 Dangerous Practices We Saw In The Pictures Appearing On Page 3. Did You Find Them All?

PHOTOGRAPH A: (1) A barnyard with any kind of livestock is no place for children to play. (2) Many children, just like this one, are drowned each year in water tanks, farm ponds, and streams. (3) Farmer is leading the bull without a staff, using only a rope snapped into the nose ring. (4) With his back to the animal, farmer would have little warning should the bull suddenly become mad. (5) Ax with cracked handle is unsafe for use anywhere. Here it leans dangerously against the water tank. (6) Manure forks with tines up and lying on the ground threaten injury to both people and animals.

PHOTOGRAPH B: (1) Unsupervised swimming in deep and treacherous gravel pits or quarries is very dangerous. (2) No light or reflector on bicycle. (3) Careless handling of firearm by boy on abandoned pier. (4) With two boys and one bicycle, it is fair to assume that the bicycle, built for one, carried both boys to the swimming hole.

PHOTOGRAPH C: (1) Every Monday and sometimes in between, someone comes in close contact with electricity by screwing out the bulb and connecting the washing machine to the drop cord in the basement of this house. (2) Sooner or later, using a stand like this, instead of a stepladder, is certain to bring a fall. (3) Light wires are wrapped around nails and water pipe overhead. (4) Glass jars, overshans, and other items on the cellar steps are sure to cause a tumble for someone. (5) There are better places for the little girl to play with her toys than on the cellar steps. (6) Hand-rats on steps will keep you from taking a bad fall someday.

PHOTOGRAPH D: (1) Farmer is refueling tractor with engine running. Fuel spilled on a hot manifold could cause a fire. (2) Smoking while refueling your tractor is a sure invitation to a violent explosion and fire. (3) Uncovered power take-off can catch sleeve or pants leg. (4) Children and pets should not play near machinery, especially mowers in the hayfield. (5) Driver's loose sleeve could catch in tractor engine or power take-off. The big four-day program is estimated by association officials to attract an attendance of 1,400 or more pharmacists from every section of Texas.

Tapping impressive drug industry and governmental sources from throughout the nation, TPA has commitments from 25 guest speakers to perform on the elaborate business program. Panel discussion forums, workshops, and visual presentations take the spotlight when the latest practices and developments in professional pharmacy, public relations, drug store economics, and sundry merchandising will be revealed to the pharmacists operating Texas' most progressive drug stores.

His First Steps...

He stands with his legs quivering ever so slightly, ready to put forth first one foot... and then the other.

This is a great moment, and it might be frightening if it were not for the strong, steady clasp of his mother's hand. She is there to guide him... to catch him if he falls.

But the time will come when he'll have to let go of his mother's hand, and go forth on his own. Even then, he will need guidance. His mother is taking care of that, too. Already, he attends church with his parents on Sundays and slowly but surely he will begin to learn the meaning of faith. Children must be taught to take spiritual as well as physical steps. The Church stands ready to teach them.

Judge candidate makes statement to Garza voters

County Judge Pat N. Walker, a candidate for re-election, today issued the following formal statement of his candidacy to the voters:

"In behalf of my candidacy for the office of County Judge I would like to state that I am a Democrat. I am a Democrat seeking nomination on the Democratic ticket because I believe in the principles of the Democratic Party.

"If I am elected County Judge for a second term I shall advocate that the County continue its policy of cooperation with all levels of local government and in such advocacy I shall be guided by what is best for Garza County as a whole. Coordination of efforts between County, City and School Governments has saved the taxpayers many hundreds of dollars and has made the 4-H Building, the park, paved streets and improved school bus routes realities rather than future hopes. All these improvements have been on a pay-as-you-go basis and within the framework of a balanced budget. Future plans provide for an enlarged program of County Agent and Home Demonstration activities by providing additional facilities for agricultural demonstration plots and home demonstration activities.

"If you honor me by selecting me as your County Judge for another term, I, and I alone will be your County Judge. Just as I have done my own campaigning, I will accept full responsibility for the operations of the office of County Judge and will be answerable only to the people of Garza County.

"The office of County Judge involves a larger question than simply whom shall have a job for the next few years. During the next four years your County Judge will preside over a board of directors that will spend in excess of one million dollars of your money. What you get for that money and whether or not you will be asked to provide additional money will depend in a large measure upon the planning, leadership and business ability of the person you hire for County Judge."

Changes-

As the suspects entered New Home, in Lynn County, the car in which they were riding stopped long enough for five of them to unload. The Negroes scattered in all directions before being picked up by Lynn County officers, while the Garza County units continued in search of the fleeing car.

The chase abruptly ended when the fleeing auto turned over at an intersection with a dead-end road. Highway Patrolman Bo Melton pulled up to the wrecked vehicle, after the dust cleared, and found the driver standing beside the crumpled automobile.

The Garza County auto occupied by Floyd and Shepherd was momentarily put out of action by a blow-out.

Four of the five men brought here were released under bonds of $500 each. The other was turned out under a $1,000 bond.

SURGERY PERFORMED

Tom Power, local car dealer, underwent surgery Wednesday in Garza Memorial Hospital and is reported doing fine.

Big vote-

(Continued From Page One) announced this morning that 89 absentee votes were cast in person before the Tuesday midnight deadline and that 22 absentee ballots had been requested by mail for a total of 111.

Contested races in Garza County are those for county judge, county treasurer, Precinct 2 commissioner and Democratic chairman of Precinct 1.

These races, along with contested district and state races to be voted on in the county, are responsible, of course, for the newly-generated interest in Saturday's election.

In the race for county judge, Pat N. Walker, seeking re-election, is opposed by J. E. Parker, Walker, former county attorney, was pointed county judge three years ago following the death of Judge Oscar Graham. Parker, bakery owner and longtime resident of Post, is making his first race for public office.

Mrs. Ruth Lee, county treasurer, is seeking her first elective term after having been appointed treasurer last year following the death of Miss Vera Gollehon. Her opponent, Harry Howell, lives near Post. Although handicapped and confined to a wheel chair as the result of an automobile accident, he has announced that, if elected, he will be able to get to the office to carry out his duties.

Five candidates are in the race for Precinct 2 commissioner. They include the incumbent, E. E. (Eiva) Peel, who is seeking his second elective term. He was appointed commissioner a little over four years ago to replace Buck Gossett who had been named administrator at Garza Memorial Hospital.

One of the other candidates is C. R. (Si) Thaxton, who has announced he will resign his present city councilman's post if elected commissioner. The other three candidates are Bryan Maxey and R. A. (Roy) Ethridge of the Graham community and Oscar Gray of Post. All three are well known to the voters of the precinct and have been actively campaigning the last few weeks.

Sid Cross, seeking re-election as Precinct 4 commissioner, is opposed by Mason Justice. Both men live at Justiceburg, where the voting strength in Precinct 4 is centered.

The only race for Democratic precinct chairman is in voting Precinct 1 between Homer McCrary, the present chairman, and Irene Rodgers.

Unopposed county and precinct candidates are Carl Cederholm for county and district clerk; Dean A. Robinson for county school superintendent, and D. C. Roberts for Precinct 1 justice of the peace.

There is also considerable interest here in all state races, particularly those for governor and U. S. senator. While none of the candidates for these two offices have visited Post, their supporters here have been working in their interest.

The gubernatorial candidates are Price Daniel, who is asking re-election; Henry Gonzalez, W. Lee O'Daniel and Joe Irwin.

It looks like a vote battle right down to the wire between Ralph Yarborough, seeking re-election as U. S. Senator, and William A. Blakley.

Also in the interest spotlight in Garza County are the races for state senator, 24th District, and state representative, 90th Legislative District.

In the senatorial race, David W. Ratliff of Stamford is a candidate for re-election after having won the seat in a special election following the death of State Sen. Harley Sadler. Ratliff's opponent is Robert R. Patterson of Snyder, who gave up the office of state representative to seek the Senate post.

In the race for the representa-

Faculty-

(Continued From Page One) Lubbock and it is difficult to get parents of many handicapped children to take them for the qualifying clinical examination. This has held down the number taking the course.

THE BOARD told Supt. Smith to advise parents of such children that due to the lack of a qualified instructor, the class probably won't be taught here this year.

Supt. Smith also told the board he "questioned the value of teaching artcraft" in junior high. He explained he doesn't have a qualified teacher for the elective course and he feels the students could be learning something of greater value by taking other subjects, since artcraft is offered through 4-H work, Scout training, and the local vacation Bible schools.

Board members agreed with the administrator. So artcraft will come off the list of elective junior high subjects this fall.

ON THE superintendent's recommendation, trustees decided to advertise the abandoned Grassburr school and teacherage for sale to the highest bidder. Bids are to be in by Aug. 11, the day of the trustees' regular August meeting and should be taken or mailed to Supt. Smith's office. An ad asking for such bids appears on page 13 of today's Dispatch.

Smith told trustees the district might as well realize what value is left from the old buildings before they become worthless through deterioration. He said it would cost $3,000 to move them in to Post and put them on foundation and would cost "thousands more" to put into shape for classroom use again.

TRUSTEES VOTED to reemploy Mrs. Nell Compton as the superintendent's secretary with a $15 monthly raise for the new school year, and Mrs. Helen Livingston as high school secretary with a $5 a month pay boost.

The board received a request from Dennis Guichard for janitor service at the colored school for the new school year. Trustees decided to have Supt. Smith look into the proposition of providing part-time janitorial help.

Automobile strikes, injures child here

Ronald Ammons, two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. James Ammons, was treated and released at Garza Memorial Hospital Saturday evening after being struck by an automobile near his home on 14th Street.

Sheriff Carl Rains said C. W. Blacklock, driver of the automobile, told him he did not see the child, who apparently darted into the street. He was struck by a rear fender of the automobile.

vacative office being vacated by Patterson are Ray Houpt and Renal B. Rossion, both of Snyder, and Cliff Payne of Lorenzo. All three candidates have made several visits to Post in the interest of their candidacy.

George Mahon of Lubbock, veteran U. S. representative from the 19th Congressional District, is unopposed in his race for re-election.

Also without an opponent is Truett Smith of Tahoka, who is making the race for district judge, 106th Judicial District. The office is being vacated by the retirement of Judge Louis B. Reed of Lamesa.

Election returns will be posted Saturday night on a board at the courthouse as they are received, the county Democratic chairman has announced.

JACK E. BLAKE, Rm. 29, Petroleum Life Bldg., MIDLAND

The Rev. C. B. Hogue and Jimmy Short are spending the week at camp near Floydada, with members of the First Baptist Church's junior RA boys. They will return Friday.

'Family Night' was observed at the First Methodist Church Sunday evening following the worship service. Refreshments of doughnuts, coffee and cold drinks were enjoyed.

Ten members of the Royal Ambassador boy's organization at the Calvary Baptist Church attended the Baptist camp, near Floydada, this week. The boys, accompanied by their sponsors, Jake Bleeker and Rev. Graydon Howell, returned home Wednesday afternoon.

Plans are getting underway for a "preaching mission" or revival to be held at the First Methodist Church, Aug. 10-17, the Rev. Eugene Matthews announced this week. The Rev. Matthews will be in charge of the evening services and also will teach a preparatory class for youngsters each morning at 10 o'clock. An early morning breakfast will be held for the men of the church each day. Harold Lucas has been chosen as chairman of the arrangement committee. His five assistants are: Andy Schmidt, youth; Mrs. Ralph Welch, visitation; A. Lee Ward, publicity; Lynn Duncan, men's breakfasts, and Malcolm Bull, financing.

Guest speaker at the Church of the Nazarene last Sunday was the Rev. Randall Rogers, pastor of a Nazarene church in Houston. He is the brother of Earl Rogers, who lives here.

Girls representing the Watson Baptist Church of Calgary at the Plains Assembly, near Floydada, were Kay Havens, Freda Parsons, Faye, Linda and Ann Messer. Mrs. Bud Harris accompanied the girls to camp.

Jake Bleeker preached at the Bryce Baptist Church last Sunday. Dalton Coppel was in charge of the services at the Mexican Baptist Church. Both are members of the Calvary Baptist Church.

The Rev. Graydon Howell, pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church, was principle of the Vacation Bible School at the Mexican Baptist Church recently. Other workers in the school were Mrs. Tommy Sepeda, Mrs. Margaret Martinez, Mrs. Lillian Saldivar, Mrs. Lola Hays, Mrs. Helen Roy, Mrs. Graydon Howell, Mrs. Red Sloan, Margie Harrison, Jake Bleeker and Mrs. W. C. Kiker. There were 72 enrolled in the school, with an average attendance of 62.

RETURNS HOME

Mrs. L. P. Hancock of Midland, who has been visiting her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Davies, returned home Sunday. Weekend guests of the Davies were their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Culvahouse of Snyder. Mrs. Culvahouse remained for a few days visit with her parents.

Conner funeral is held here Monday

Funeral services for Johnny Conner, Jr., 49, who died Sunday at his home in the northeast part of town, were conducted at 5 p. m. Monday at Pleasant Home Baptist Church.

The Rev. J. D. Blaylock and Deacon Robert Conner officiated. Burial was in Terrace Cemetery under direction of Hudman Funeral Home.

Palbearers were Sol Collins, Solomon Bennett, Lence Ewers, James Smith, Johnny Johnson and John Beverly.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Johnson and family are in Ruidoso, N. M., this week on their vacation. They are expected to return Sunday.

Postings-

(Continued From Front Page) voters make their selections. "Politicking" here has been on the quiet side without any mud-slinging or "rabble rousing" as the candidates call it. Today's Dispatch is pretty well chucked full of political appeals for this candidate or that. The problem in any campaign is to reach the voters. In the next few minutes, Mr., Mrs. or Miss Reader, a lot of candidate will be trying to "reach" you.

HOME FROM HOSPITAL

Mrs. G. C. Clary of Slaton, who was injured in a car wreck recently, has been released from the hospital. A former resident of Post, Mrs. Clary is reported improved.

Liquor offenses bring charges

Charges of liquor law violation were filed in county court over the weekend against Danny Price and Charlie Goss, following their arrest here Friday night by City Marshal Otis G. Shepherd Jr. and Deputy Sheriff J. W. (Red) Floyd.

Price, charged with transportation of liquor, paid a $100 fine and costs. Goss, charged with possession, made $500 bond.

The officers said they confiscated 28 cases of beer in making the arrest.

Mrs. R. B. Dodson of Dodson's Jewelry, attended the "Gift Show" at the Herring Hotel in Amarillo Saturday.

Softball tournament being planned

Plans are being completed for a softball tournament at the Little League ball field the first week of August. Any softball team interested in entering the tournament contact Emmitt Goode by 366 or Jackie Hays at 366 to help defray expenses will be awarded. The tournament will be an elimination affair.

UNDERGOES SURGERY Miss Jesse France, who is recuperating nicely after going major surgery at Garza Memorial Hospital.

Slaton All-Stars beat Tahoka in LL playoff

Yankees trounce Tigers, 20-16

Yankees, after overcoming a three-run Tiger lead in the eighth, repulsed a sixth rally after eight runs were down Coach Jess Corbett, 20 to 16, in a slugfest.

Yankees' 10-run fourth inning shattered the Tiger lead for their initial win.

Landroop went the distance to register the victory. Mitchell, who came to Jackie's relief in the second, was charged with the loss.

Cornell and Vargas also pitched for the Tigers in the Yankees onslaught.

Black homered for the Tigers in the sixth inning.

The Slaton All-Stars, behind the four-hit pitching and four-for-four batting of Jimmy Townsend, defeated the Tahoka All-Stars, 9 to 4, here Tuesday night to win the championship in the area Little League playoffs.

Slaton had advanced to the finals by beating the Kent-Stonewall County All-Stars, 16 to 10, Monday night, and Tahoka had won its way into the championship game by edging the Post All-Stars, 2 to 0.

Slaton scored single runs in the tops of the first and second Tuesday night to take an early two-run lead, one of them coming on a bases-empty homer by Townsend. Tahoka tied it up in the bottom of the second when pitcher Elton George hit for the circuit with Allen Salisbury on base.

Slaton scored two more runs in the third on Townsend's two-run homer to make it 4-2, then counted four tallies on four hits in the fourth to increase their margin to 8-2. Tahoka came back with two runs in the bottom of the fourth to make it 8-4.

The winners added their final run in the sixth inning.

Following the game, Mayor James L. Minor presented the championship and runner-up trophies to the teams in a ceremony at home plate.

By winning the area playoff here, Slaton advanced to the district playoffs starting today in Brownfield.

Post loses to Tahoka

The Tahoka All-Stars scored single runs in the second and third innings here Monday night to defeat the Post All-Stars, 2 to 0, in the area Little League playoffs.

The game was a tight pitchers' battle between Terry Harvick of Tahoka and Wally Shumate of Post. Harvick gave up only three hits, while Shumate yielded four.

Sparkling plays afield marked the contest, with the Little Leaguers on both teams performing like big leaguers.

After a scoreless first inning, Tahoka pushed across a run in the second when George singled, stole second, went to third on a fielder's choice, and scored on a wild pitch.

The Tahokans scored again in the third on back-to-back doubles by Clinton and Greer.

The Post team, coached by Walter B. Holland and Punk Peel, had scoring opportunities in the first, third, fourth and fifth innings, but bear-down pitching by Harvick and good fielding support from his teammates kept the opposition scoreless.

Antelope crop in Panhandle heavy

AUSTIN — The Texas Panhandle antelope crop this year is exceptionally good, according to reports of the executive secretary of the Game and Fish Commission.

An aerial census just completed indicated a good fawn crop of approximately one and a third fawns per doe. The count showed a total of 1,619 antelope, according to Warden Pilot Frank Hamer, Jr. There were 353 bucks, 773 does, and 493 fawns.

First piece of pottery manufactured in Ohio was produced at Zanesville in 1898.

Game warden tells Rotarians

State urges farmers to let public fish

The state of Texas which gives small fish to farmers to stock their ponds urges land owners to let the public fish their stocked ponds.

That was just one of the many interesting things Victor Lowrie of Jayton, state game warden, told Rotarians in a luncheon talk Tuesday.

Lowrie said some 1,500 persons have requested free fish this year from his district alone and that 70 per cent already have received them.

AN ACRE FOOT of water will produce 100 pounds of fish a year, the game warden said. He termed fishing one of the "biggest businesses in Texas today." He estimated three out of every four Texans fish.

The speaker explained that landowners can order fish from the state hatcheries to stock their tanks at the rate of 200 fish for every five acre feet of water.

"Once you are given fish, they are yours," Lowrie said. He explained the state has no control over private waters and that the farmers can dynamite them if they want to.

THE STATE also provides bobwhite quail to farmers who want to stock their farms, but the quail aren't free. The charge is 50 cents per young bird. Lowrie said this charge is just about half of the cost of raising them.

Applications for the purchase of quail should be made by letter to the fish and game commission at Austin. Lowrie said he would be sent out to inspect farms of applicants to determine suitability.

The game warden said some 255 quail have been released in Garza County this year. Quail are on the increase in the county, he said in answer to a question, but commented they average less than one to each 25 acres.

Cornell's single wins contest for Post-Tahoka '9'

Mike Cornell's single scored Bobby Beard from second to give the Post-Tahoka All-Stars a 3 to 2 victory over Floydada Monday night in the area Pony League playoffs at Slaton.

After trailing Floydada, 2-0, from the third inning, Post scored a single run in the fifth before going ahead in the sixth frame.

The first of the two runs in the sixth inning was scored when Robert Hood, who had singled, scored from first on Bobby Beard's one-base blow. Beard advanced to second when the play was made on Hood at the plate, then came home on Cornell's hit.

Beard was the winning pitcher Valdez in the fourth inning.

Dodgers rack up 15-11 victory over Red Sox

First National Bank's Dodgers trimmed Brown Bros.' Red Sox, 15 to 11, Thursday night in the final game of the season for both teams.

Both pitchers, Daniel Johnson for the Dodgers and Wally Shumate for the Red Sox, went the distance, with Johnson giving up ten hits and Shumate nine.

The Red Sox, coached by Walter B. Holland, led 4-2 at the end of the first inning, but Punk Peel's Dodgers racked up five runs in the second and five in the third to put the game beyond reach.

Shumate hit a two-run homer for the losers in the second inning.

Two home runs figure in Denver City victory

The power-hden bat of Denver City first baseman Faulkner led his teammates to a 4 to 3 victory over the Post-Tahoka All-Stars here Friday night in a Pony League exhibition game.

Faulkner got three hits in four trips to the plate, two of them one-run homers.

The big first baseman's first circuit smash came in the top of the second off starting pitcher Leslie Acker. Post-Tahoka tied it up in the bottom of the second when Acker drew his first of four walks and scored on singles by Mike Cornell and Charles Burleson.

Denver City made it 2 to 1 in the top of the fourth on another prodigious 4-base clout by Faulkner. Post went ahead, 3-2, in the bottom of the fifth. John Valdez doubled and scored on Robert Hood's single. Hood stole second and then made it to third base and home on a passed ball and a wild pitch.

Denver City knotted the count in the seventh when Faulkner singled and scored on Hooper's double. They added the winning run in the eighth on King's double and singles by Trout and Esparza.

Bobby Beard, who had relieved Acker in the sixth, was the losing pitcher. Esparza, who had relieved Hendricks in the third, was the winner.

The classy Denver City nine came up with three double plays and one pick-off in notching the victory.

State Capital NEWS

By Vern Sanford

AUSTIN — Focus of interest in Texas this week is not on the State Capitol.

It's all over Texas, in a school building or a fire station or a church house — wherever a man stands in a little pastboard booth with a piece of paper and a blunt pencil.

In the booth is a man who looks like an average, unimportant sort of guy. Chances are he's not very rich, not very interested in politics, as a rule. But John Q. Poll-Tax-Payer is the most important man in Texas this week. With a few strokes of his pencil Saturday, he'll decide who'll be who in Texas for the next two years or more.

When John Q. glances down the ballot, he may see a number of names he's never heard of. He'll pause, scratch his head, wonder which name "sounds best," finally shrug, make a mark and go on. Such a possibility gives office-seekers the cold shivers. For fear their names may yet be unknown to some, they'll try to be everywhere at once this week.

In addition, a lot of people will be pleading with John Q. to come back to the polling place Saturday evening for his Democratic precinct convention. Gov. Price Daniel, supported by moderate-conservative party officials, is asking him to come and vote for "majority rule." Opposing the governor are the liberal Democrats of Texas who want John to join their drive to assure that "only real Democrats shall participate in Democratic party affairs."

Nobody can positively predict what John will do. Past records show that some years he feels liberal; some years, conservative. And some years, both ways at the same time.

TEXAS OIL allowable for August will be 328,185 barrels a day more than for July—a hopeful sign for an industry that's been "in the dumps" for more than a year.

Railroad Commission set next month's allowable at 2,978,058 barrels daily. Number of producing days will be increased from 9 to 11. Last month production rose from its all time low of 8 days.

Reason for the increase was not so much the disturbance in the oil-producing Middle East, said one commissioner, as the fact that Texas had finally reduced its excess oil stocks to correct levels.

STATE INSURANCE Board finally scored a technical knock-out in its prolonged bout with an Austin district judge.

Texas Supreme Court ruled that Judge Charles O. Betts did not have authority to name V. F. Taylor receiver for insurance cases in his court. High court says the receiver must be the state liquidator appointed by the Insurance Board.

Board had appointed C. H. Langdeau as state liquidator. Judge Betts said he did not regard Langdeau as acceptable. He named Taylor receiver for cases in his court.

Supreme Court also ruled void Betts' action in raising salaries of liquidation attorneys working on cases in his court.

Division of authority between the courts and Insurance Department over insurance company liquidation has been a source of dissension for years.

State Highway Department will reimburse cities and counties half the court costs of securing land for state and U. S. highway building.

Up until last year costs of obtaining right of way were borne solely by local governments. Last Legislature passed a law authorizing the state to share the cost 50-50 with cities and counties.

At first this was construed to mean the state would pay half the cost of purchasing the land. Now it has been expanded to include half of court costs and appraisers' fees.

An increase of 10.88 per cent has been ordered in the Texas Prison System's cotton acreage allotment.

Officials of the Texas system had been actively dissatisfied, contending the prison farms had been dealt a bigger-than-average cut. Less production means less money for operating the prisons, they pointed out, and hence, greater cost to Texas taxpayers.

On their behalf, the Texas Attorney General's Department appealed to the Agricultural Stabilization Committee and, finally, to federal court.

Adjustment obtained will mean 384 more acres of prison cotton can be harvested. It'll save $100,000 in tax money, prison officials estimate.

CITY OFFICIALS are laying plans to ask the next Legislature to extend and adjust city taxing powers.

Legislative committee of the League of Texas Municipalities has drawn up a two-pronged proposal to:

1. Allow cities to broaden their tax base and lighten the burden on property owners.
2. Substitute another tax to be collected at time of auto registration for the present "unworkable" property tax on cars.

A rough-and-tumble time can be expected next year when lawmakers consider just how permanent the permanent school fund should be.

Rep. Louis Dugas of Orange has announced he will introduce a bill which would allow the state to use part of the revenue from school lands for current expenses instead of putting it all into the permanent fund.

DUGAS WAS author of a bill last session to divert 1 per cent of the permanent fund each year to the available fund.

State School Board and numerous other school officials have come out strongly against a 111 move to tap the schools' multi-million-dollar endowment. They compare it to "eating the seed corn."

Texas Employment Commission report for the first half of this year showed that 185,000 Texans received jobless benefits.

Payments totaled $38,164,378 for this period.

Average claimant was eligible for 19.8 weeks of assistance, but drew for only 12.7 weeks. "This proves that unemployment compensation serves as a rainy day tideover between jobs," commented TEC Chairman Maurice Acers, "and not as a prolonged dole."

Unemployment picture was still "rainy" in TEC's latest weekly report. Total of 14,734 persons, more than twice as many as a year ago, were receiving benefits.

WTCC directors are to meet in Lubbock July 29

Irby Metcalf, Jr., local member of the board of directors of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce announced today that board members living in this area will meet in Lubbock on Tuesday, July 29, 2 p. m., in the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce offices.

He said the meeting was one of a series of district meetings being held for WTCC directors in which the program of work for the coming year will be outlined for board approval.

Plans call for WTCC president B. E. Godfrey of Fort Worth and the regional chambers executive vice president, Fred H. Husbands of Abilene, to present the tentative program of work for the directors' suggestions, additions and approval, he stated.

The work program, which was developed in recent sub-committee meetings, includes the West Texas Chamber's activities in the fields of agriculture and livestock, public information, industrial development, state affairs, water resources, national affairs, community services and member relations.

In addition to planning next year's work, Metcalf said the board would be given a brief review of last year's activities. He stated that particular emphasis has been placed, in recent months, on national affairs, including taxation and legislation.

The WTCC's activities in national affairs won a national merit award from the Chamber of Commerce of the United States recently for "outstanding achievement in stimulating congressional action." The award was one of only three given state or regional chambers.

The counties to be represented in the district meeting for this area include Bailey, Briscoe, Castro, Cochran, Crosby, Dickens, Floyd, Garza, Hale, Hockley, Kent, Lamb, Lubbock, Lynn, Motley, Parmer, Swisher, Terry and Yoakum.

 Editor: I want to congratulate your editorial in the July issue of your good paper, under the subject of "Law Enforcement Teaches Respect." We turn around this time, we hear something about juvenile delinquency, which is, in my way of thinking, an exaggerated situation. The term should be changed to "Adult Delinquency." I believe if the citizens of Post City sit down and analyze the situation, the majority of them will come to the conclusion that we expect the children of our community to respect the law. The grown people show no respect for it. I think the majority agree that the reason we have law and order in the Post, is that a large percentage do not want the other percentage do not. We have it or not.

town to handle, but it will never be handled until the majority of the people make up their minds that some action should be taken. I personally do not condemn the teenagers for their actions. I honestly feel sorry for them because of the complacency on the part of the parents. In many instances throughout the country the poor kids are being taught socialism, instead of the fundamental rules of reading, writing, and arithmetic. I am going to list below a number of traffic violations which one of these days may cause a tragedy among our young people. I hope something is done before it is too late.

1. Illegal parking.
2. Speeding, can be seen almost anytime, on any street in the city, and sometimes on the main street or the business section.
3. Disregard for all phases of traffic rules and regulations, by grown people as well as by teenagers.
4. Lack of respect for present law enforcement officers.
5. Illegal mufflers on some cars are a public nuisance, and should be done away with.
6. Indifference on the part of most citizens as to whether any laws are to be enforced or not.
7. Complacency on the part of the average citizen, as to their own responsibilities for law enforcement.
8. Lack of a city police force.
9. Grown boys riding up and down main street in town, getting in and out of cars and going into business houses without shirts on.
10. Two cars driving double down the street and occupants talking back and forth, no respect for pedestrians.
11. Cutting in and out of traffic, whether at a street intersection or not, mainly on Saturday and Sunday afternoon.

These are just a few of the reasons why the City of Post should have the backing of the grown people of the community for better and adequate law enforcement.

Gas tax refund forms are being mailed to some Form 2240 will be mailed directly by the Internal Revenue Service to all farm and ranch operators who filed a refund claim for gasoline last year. County Agent Lewis C. Herron announces. New users and those who did not claim a refund last year may obtain forms at the agent's office or at the First National Bank.

Points emphasized in the instructions include the following:
 1. The period covered for the 1958 claims is July 1, 1957, to June 30, 1958. Amount of tax refund is 3 cents per gallon.
 2. The taxpayer—farmer or rancher—"may claim a refund of the tax on any gasoline which is used on a farm for farming purposes." This means that the person having custom plowing or combining done on his place should claim the tax refund on the gasoline used for these operations. Check on the simple estimate needed for this. For such things as terracing, making irrigation ditches and similar jobs by a contractor, no refund can be claimed.
 3. The claims for the past 12 months for gasoline used in farming should be made before Sept. 30, 1958.
 4. Proper records should be kept for substantiating all claims.

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS"

By C. WILSON HARDER

Obviously, it is not in the best interests or fitting to the dignity of the United States of America for the nation's vice president to get roughed up.

Yet, the recent unfortunate experience by Richard Nixon may bear beneficial fruit, provided that even the leaders of the executive branch of the government can overcome the somewhat fussy machinations of the State Dept.

What it was officially announced that the violent demonstrations against Nixon were communist inspired in the Latin American Nations he was visiting, there were also reports the people were mad in one instance because we had curtailed imports from the nation, other reports were to the effect they were not satisfied with the extent of American give-aways to them.

But it probably remained for the Vice President to state what he felt was wrong with the American policies which have resulted in digging deep into every cash register along Main Street.

He said quite plainly and simply, that the United States should re-evaluate its relations with dictator led nations.

This could be one of the most important utterances of modern times, if government acts upon this observation.

Or, as Sen. Joseph O'Mahoney has long held, as and he reiterated in Washington during hearings on the extension of the foreign give away bill, there should be more judicious determination of just who gets what. The Wyoming Senator, for example, would

Neither was Imperial Tokyo and the Kremlin on exactly a buddy-buddy basis.

Thus, the Vice President of the United States made a very apropos comment on this matter of foreign aid.

Elimination of gifts of tax money to foreign dictators could make it possible for a very tidy tax cut.

without foreign aid from any nation lacking anti-trust laws on the basis that building up monopoly systems is not doing the world any good.

And perhaps he is well supported by current events in France which next to the United Kingdom has received the biggest chunk of foreign give-away money. Despite all this outpouring of American dollars, largely to French cartel interests, it does not appear that France has been one whit stabilized.

It has always been claimed that the idea behind the huge give away programs is to build up the "free" nations. This definition of "free" has always appeared to be most peculiar.

If a nation's government is against Russia, that in the minds of the State Dept. immediately makes it a "free" nation. There is no weighing whether or not the nation is only "free" of Russia because it's run by a dictator who doesn't want to let the Kremlin spoil the good thing he has.

Thus, by this same specious reasoning, the U. S. had no business fighting Germany in World War II. Nobody hated Russia worse than Hitler.

Neither was Imperial Tokyo and the Kremlin on exactly a buddy-buddy basis.

Thus, the Vice President of the United States made a very apropos comment on this matter of foreign aid.

It will be interesting to see if there is a continuation of month give away to dictator led nations such as was being harped out to communist Russia before Sen. Wm. Knowland exposed the situation. Elimination of gifts of tax money to foreign dictators could make it possible for a very tidy tax cut.

"Raintree County," which shows at the Tower Theatre on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, is M-G-M's filmization of the prize-winning novel by Ross Lockridge Jr. It stars Montgomery Clift, Elizabeth Taylor and Eva Marie Saint, with Nigel Patrick and Lee Marvin in co-starring roles and with a cast of 119 players in speaking parts and thousands of extras.

Producer David Lewis and Director Edward Dmytryk took their army of players and technicians to location sites in Kentucky, Tennessee, Louisiana and Mississippi to capture in color the true backgrounds of the story of America in the period before, during and after the Civil War, in action which brings to the screen stirring and spectacular entertainment.

Not only is this epic drama of America, covering a six-year period from 1859 to 1865, the most expensive production in M-G-M's domestic history, it is also the first picture to utilize the vast dimensions of the studio's new Camera 65, dubbed "The Window of the World." This revolutionary process brings to any theatre screen, regardless of size or shape, a remarkably improved image unequalled for clarity, depth perception and lack of distortion.

BUILD THREE-WAY PROTECTION

Many workers don't know three main reasons for SS deductions

When asked why social security taxes were taken out of their pay envelopes, many workers recently queried could not come up with the three main reasons, John G. Hutton, district manager of the Lubbock social security office said today.

Most of them knew about old-age benefits, but fewer were aware of survivors' benefits—payments to a worker's dependents in case of his death. Some did not know about disability insurance protection for the worker, and for disabled children.

"Every working person and his family should know that, through his social security tax payments, he is building three-way protection. He should realize that the modest deductions from his pay envelope can provide a monthly income if his earnings are cut off either by old-age, disability, or death," Hutton pointed out.

Social security insurance payments are only a partial replacement of lost earnings. Because most working people are compelled by law to pay social security taxes the measure of protection afforded is greater than it would be if the system was on a voluntary basis—that is, a system in which the worker could "join up" and pay the tax, or stay out and pass up protection.

By joining with other workers in the social security insurance program and paying social security taxes, all workers share the risk and receive a greater measure of personal and family protection at less cost, Hutton declared.

A representative of the Lubbock social security office will be in Post on July 29, 1958 at 9:30 a. m. at the district courtroom and will be glad to assist in all matters pertaining to Social Security.

'Perri' weekend Tower feature

Moviegoers are promised the most unusual entertainment in years when Walt Disney's innovative True-Life Fantasy, "Perri," shows at the Tower Theatre tomorrow and Saturday.

The gorgeous Technicolor production is, in form, a wild animal operetta, featuring the life and loves of a fascinating pair of western pine squirrels, along with a troupe of their forest companions on nature's most evergreen stage in the Utah wilderness.

The particular appeal of "Perri"—the romantic charm—lies in the fact that here for the first

Post teacher to receive McMurray degree at 63

The following article by Joe Callis, Post second page writer, appeared in Sunday's Morning News. (Picture in the Morning News.)

Patience, knowledge, a good school record, a student of all three. To receive her bachelor's degree this summer at McMurray College this young teacher, said she was a 63-year-old youngster in the eyes of her students.

Joe Callis, Post second page writer, said she was a 63-year-old youngster in the eyes of her students.

VETERAN TEACHER

Mrs. Joe Callis of Post began teaching as a 15-year-old youngster in 1910. She is now 63 and will complete work on a bachelor of science degree in education this summer at McMurray College in Abilene. (Picture courtesy Abilene Reporter-News.)

mother ran the first hotel in Snyder several years before the turn of the century.

Mrs. Callis' father was a Methodist minister, Gervas W. Smith. Although she doesn't exactly call him a "circuit rider," Mrs. Callis does recall that he used his horse and buggy to preach in Tuxedo, Fairview and Anderson Chapel.

"My father received a bachelor of arts degree—back in the days when it was very rare — from Sulphur College in Sulphur, Texas. The college no longer is in existence. He obtained his degree in 1892. He also was president of Stawn College at one time, another school that closed its doors many years ago."

Mrs. Callis isn't alone at McMurray this summer. A sister, Mrs. Ross Smith, also will receive her BS degree in education. Mrs. Smith is a teacher in Tahoka.

Mrs. Callis spent the earliest part of her married life in ranching, when the closest neighbor was "miles away." She considered shooting rattlesnakes a part of her daily chores.

She said she never has had any disciplinary problems with her students.

Legume value is bulletin topic

COLLEGE STATION — What is the relative value of legumes as soil-improving crops. Will legumes furnish enough nitrogen for corn? Is there any differential response of spacing of corn plants to green manure and fertilizers?

The Department of Agronomy at Texas A&M College has done much work and experimentation to find the answers to these questions. Experiments were conducted with Hairy vetch, Williamette vetch and Dixie Wonder peas as soil-improving crops for corn during 1949-55. The legumes were grown during the fall and winter between annual corn crops.

A bulletin reporting the results of these experiments has been released by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station. It is entitled "Legumes for Soil Improvement for Cotton and Corn." It discusses such topics as legumes and fertility treatments; effect of legumes and fertilizer; effect of spacing; effect of irrigation and many other related subjects.

This helpful bulletin may be obtained from the Agricultural Information Office, College Station, Texas. Ask for Bulletin 901.

Seek federal control poultry shipments

COLLEGE STATION — Representatives from 47 states went on record asking for Federal regulations of interstate and export shipments of poultry breeding stock, hatching eggs, chicks, poult and other domestic fowl at the bi-annual meeting of the National Poultry Conference in Louisville, Ky., June 24-27.

The National Poultry Conference is the governing body for the National Poultry and Turkey Improvement Plans, according to Joe Wakefield of the Poultry Science Department, Texas A&M College. It is made up of two delegates from each state, one representing the Poultry Plan and the other representing the Turkey Plan.

192 neglect to buy license for fishing
AUSTIN — Texas fishing during June must have been very good, according to the arrest reports from the director of law enforcement of the Game and Fish Commission. Only one fish was reported taken that fell below the seven-inch minimum requirement.

Further support of good fishing conditions lies in the fact that 192 arrests were made for wetting a hook without a license. One person tried to get around this by using someone else's license.

Total hunting, fishing, and pollution violations for the month was 285, netting $4,557.95 in fines and court costs.

Texans like a public official who is independent in his thinking and doesn't have to account for his actions to anyone except the voters themselves.

William A. Blakley is such a man. Of his race for U. S. Senate, the Port Arthur News says: "He entered this race by his own decision. He is beholden to nobody. He doesn't have to promise special interest groups anything and he wants to represent all of Texas, not any political splinter or fragment or faction above the rest..."

A vote for Bill Blakley on July 26 is a vote for returning to Washington a man who will truly represent Texas.

'1958 Agricade' to be highlight of State Fair agriculture show

The astounding transformation of the Texas farm during one brief generation from a sleepy almanac existence into a dynamic mechanized activity will be the dramatic theme of the State Fair of Texas 1958 Agriculture Show in Dallas, Oct. 4-19.

"Title of the 1958 farm show will be 'Agricade — A Generation of Farm Progress,'" Ray W. Wilson, State Fair's agriculture manager, announced this week.

"THE 1958 Agricade will portray the vast changes that have swept through Texas agriculture during the last 33 years, specifically since the industrial awakening after World War I."

He pinpointed mechanization as the key to all the drastic farm changes, "the galvanizing force that has during a single lifetime jerked agriculture from the practices of the Medieval Ages."

"Utilizing models and antiques in colorful contrast, the central exhibit will run the full agricultural scale from preparation and cultivation of the land through harvesting and transportation, improved crops and livestock, to the farm and the farm home, itself."

WILSON SAID that the central exhibit faithfully would depict the tremendous changes in farm size, population, tenancy, tractors and horses and mules. "During the last generation the number of farms in Texas has dropped almost one-half — from approximately 2,340,000 to 1,250,000," he continued. "And the size of the farm has doubled, from 251 to 498 acres."

He said the number of farms has dropped from almost 500,000 to fewer than 300,000. Tenancy has declined 75 per cent from 300,000. Tractors have increased almost 850 per cent—from 37,000 to 277,000; and horses and mules have declined from 1,800,000 head to 300,000.

"The 1958 Agricade will depict faithfully the social conditions resulting from the full impact of these changes. In addition, the Agricade also will present the colorful, 3-dimensional story of the 12 Texas Agricultural Extension Service Districts in the state," Mr. Wilson concluded.

Safety in use of lawn mowers is being urged

COLLEGE STATION — A lawn mower can be a helpful and faithful servant. But it may turn into a dangerous machine unless a few safety precautions are observed, warns W. L. Ulich, extension agricultural engineer.

Several injuries have occurred recently from objects being thrown by the mower, points out Ulich. Nails, wire, rocks and other objects can be picked up by the mower and thrown at tremendous speeds, causing serious bodily injury. To reduce the possibility of such injury, he advises going over the lawn before mowing to remove foreign matter and debris.

Start the mower on level ground, making sure your feet are away from the cutter blade or bar, cautions Ulich. Keep the machine firmly on the ground when starting by placing one foot on the deck and holding the handle with one hand. Don't leave the mower running unattended where it might be a temptation to children and others who don't know how to handle it, he adds.

Be sure children and pets stay away from the machine when you're mowing, says the engineer. Keep a steady footing and balance when mowing on inclines. Don't make adjustments, remove clogging grass or sticks, or reach in front of the mower when the engine is running. Always disconnect the spark plug wire when making adjustments. Keep hands, feet and loose clothing away from moving blades, reels, motor belts and exposed chains.

When storing the mower, remove the spark plug or spark plug wire to prevent inquisitive youngsters from starting the machine.

Observance of these simple rules can greatly reduce the hazard of injury involved in the task of lawn-mowing, says Ulich.

History modern man dates back 37,000 years

AUSTIN — Texas now can boast evidence of the longest history of modern man in the world dating over 37,000 years ago. In the July issue of "Texas Game and Fish," Bob Slaughter of the Dallas Pre-historical Society shows evidence that for hundreds of years men made annual hunting trips to the Trinity River Valley north of Dallas.

The article, "Probe Into the Past," relates work of archeological teams from Dallas and Fort Worth in finding the earliest carbon-dated evidence of man in America. Carbon-dating devices can indicate the age of objects up to 37,000 years, and the Texas findings go past this limit.

Remains of 20 hearth fires and many animals furnished enough information to determine the size of hunting parties, the luck they had, and what they ate. Flint weapons found indicate the presence of the Clovis culture that dates back 15,000 years.

All this points up the fact that some form of modern man existed in America at the time of the Neanderthal man in Europe, he said.

Besides Slaughter's article, the July Texas Game and Fish will include other interesting features on the fire ant, boating safety, hawks, the state bass tournament, and the shrimp industry.

Farm compensations necessary in these times, Blakley says

William A. Blakley, Democratic candidate for U. S. Senator believes that farmers want a and should have the right to make a living without government control, but until the time comes when a proper solution to the farm situation can be found the farmer must have compensations.

Blakley said: "I would like for the farmer to be relieved of restrictions put upon him by the government. He is the greatest example of what is meant by free enterprise. Until the time comes when the proper answer can be found, the farmer must have compensations."

"My position with the relation to the farm situation has been, is and always will be this: People on the land are the basic integral part of the development of our society. Our rights and freedoms are linked with the land and the people who live on the land."

"Our government is morally obligated to the farmer — the producer of food and fiber for our people as well as the rest of the world — to protect his purchasing power and thereby give him a chance to earn a decent living without government control."

"This can best be accomplished through price supports until such time as the government can set up a system whereby farmers can be offered adequate financing to set up production and marketing corporations of their own, controlled solely by them, thereby producing and marketing their products in a manner conducive to good business principles. Such corporations can be set up on the same plans which other successful agencies of government have been set up. This could be done by agencies similar to the intermediate credit bank, the bank for co-ops, and the federal land bank, where he can be financed at reasonable rates.

"The cattle industry, one in which I am engaged, is one of the last of the great free industries. I want some day to see the farmer in the position where he can be free of government restrictions and controls as the cattleman now is. In the cattle business you can buy whatever type of cow you want, pasture it on whatever land you own or control, and sell it whenever you like. And we might add that the cattle business is in good shape. I want to help hurry the day when the farmer can derive good income from his own production of whatever crop he wants to plant on whatever acreage he wants to plant it on. He wants and should have the right to make his living without government controls."

Public support is sought for safety program

AUSTIN — "Safety is here to stay — are you?"

This question was put to Texans, today, by J. O. Musick, general manager of the Texas Safety Association, as he sought public support for the Association's current Slow Down and Live campaign.

Musick reminded drivers that 451 persons were killed in Texas traffic crashes during July and August last year, two of the peak vacation months.

"Everyone can give the Slow Down and Live program a boost by simply becoming safety conscious. Most people are familiar with the laws, rules and courtesies of the road, but all too often there is a tendency to forget them — then is when the accident occurs," Musick said.

He reminded motorists that the Texas Department of Public Safety and other traffic officials are doing all they can in Texas to protect summer travelers by maintaining a firm enforcement policy.

"Highways are loaded with people who want to get away from it all and if they are not careful they won't live to get back from it all," the safety expert said. "Every driver must appreciate the fact that accidents don't always happen to the 'other guy,' if he is to survive in today's volume of traffic."
