15 Ways To Boost Cotton Profits Are Listed In Article

Fifteen practices to "Boost Cotton Profits" are listed in the March issue of The Progressive Farmer magazine.

Fred C. Elliott, Cotton Work Specialist of Texas Agricultural Extension Service, gives these pointers to cut costs and increase profits:

1. Bed and plant on 40-inch rows as machinery operates better on this row width.
2. Prepare a firm seedbed.
3. Use right kind and amount of fertilizer after having your soil tested.
4. Irrigate if possible.
5. Plant adapted varieties of good-quality seed.
6. Plant properly treated seed.
7. Plant to obtain three to four plants per foot of row.
8. Control grass and weeds.
9. Control insects, follow early season control.
10. Do a good job of defoliation.
11. Keep pickers or strippers clean, repaired, and in top condition.
12. Train good operators so they can handle the machinery well.
13. Have enough trailers, large enough to handle the crop without tramping.
14. Work with your ginner on a program for better ginning.
15. Destroy stalks early in areas where recommended for pink boll-worm control.

and execute policy decisions of the directors.

Texas Department Of Agriculture Owes Its Existence To Lawmakers

By JOHN C. WHITE
Commissioner of Agriculture

The Texas Department of Agriculture owes its existence and operation to members of the Texas Legislature, past and present.

The only major state agency created by statute, the department's every function has been directly dependent on the state's lawmakers from its earliest beginnings.

This year with the meeting of the 55th Legislature, important agricultural legislation has been set before the lawmakers either for passage, amendment and passage, or rejection.

The men whose direct responsibility is the consideration of these measures, which include a proposed egg grading and standards law, strengthening of seed controls and other regulatory measures, are the standing committees on agriculture in the House of Representatives and the Senate.

Agriculture committee members are in most instances legislators representing areas where agriculture is an important industry. They are directly concerned with helping the economy of their constituents and are vitally interested in and well-informed on Texas agriculture and its problems.

A cross-section of these legislators shows representatives from every section of the state. We are fortunate in the 55th Legislature to have the experienced and cautious as well as the young and aggressive on our agriculture committee.

Chairman of the Senate Committee on Agriculture is Sen. George Moffett of Chillicothe, senior member of the upper chamber whose record stands out as one of hard work and honesty.

Assisting him as vice-chairman is Sen. Culp Krueger of El Campo in the heart of Texas' vital rice belt. Other agriculture committee members include Sens. Carl Ashley of Llano, Neveille H. Colson of Navasota, Frank Owen III of El Paso, Andy Rogers of Childress, Jarrard Secrest of Temple, Preston Smith of Lubbock and

Winter's The Time To Kill Worthless Brush In Pastures

A dead mesquite tree is worth more in economic value than a live one, declares G. O. Hoffman, Extension range specialist.

A live one, 10 inches in diameter, will use a ton of water to produce a pound of beans. That same ton of water could produce four pounds of good grass! For five cents the tree can be killed and if it isn't, says Hoffman, it could represent a yearly loss approximating $9.

The not-so-busy, not-so-hot winter months are ideal for getting rid of brush and undesirable trees in pastures. Percentage of kill from the 2, 4, 5-T and diesel oil chemicals is better in the winter and, too, no crops which are harmed by them are growing then, says Hoffman. It's also a lot easier to get close to the brush and give it a better treatment during this time of year, he adds.

Trees over four inches in diameter should be frilled or cut off and treatment applied to the cut surface. After making a frill, spray solution in the ax surface until it bubbles out of the frill. When spraying freshly-cut stumps, let some of the solution run down the bark channels to the ground line, advises Hoffman.

Hoffman says kerosene or coal oil is another good oil to use in brush control. For mesquite eradication, mix one gallon of 2, 4, 5-T to 40 gallons of oil and for oaks use one gallon of 4, 5-T to 24 gallons of oil. Rate of application per acre will depend on the tree size. Cost of application for a four-inch diameter mesquite is 1 1/2 cents, and 3 cents for an oak. All you need to work with is an ax, a knapsack sprayer, and chemical solution, he concludes.

DOBBIIN STAYED HOME

APPLETON, Ont. — When the weather hit a record of 40 below zero in this Ottawa Valley village irate car-drivers repeated the old saw about cold never stopping the horse and buggy. But James Dowdall, 71-year-old postmaster, drove to Carleton Place in his son's new car instead of using the horse he has driven for 21 years. "Too cold today for old Daisy, and for me," he said.

Draft Registration 6,596 In January

A total of 6,596 Texans registered with the state's draft boards in January, according to a consolidation of local board reports at state Selective Service headquarters in Austin.

Col. Morris S. Schwartz, state Selective Service director, said the month's registration total exceeded "normal monthly registration over a period of several months."

The January registration brings the total number of living males on the draft board records to above 995,000. The initial registration under the present law was 424,000, consisting of males between the ages of 18 and 26.

The growth in the draft board rolls has been caused principally by the continuing registration of males as they reach age 18.

Home Agent Lists Seven Factors For Healthier Living

Every family can take steps to insure better physical and mental health in 1957, according to Miss Jessie Pearce, Garza County home demonstration agent. It will mean financial savings as well as happier living.

The agent suggests seven important factors to check: good nutrition, sanitation, regular health examinations, immunization, exercise, rest and recreation, an adequate home health center, and a means of achieving the state of radiant health which is the result of complete physical, social and mental well being.

An accepted guide for good nutrition is the Texas Food Standard. Family attitudes toward food and pleasant meal-time atmosphere are as important as kind and amount of food eaten.

Sanitation includes a healthful water supply, safe sewage, and garbage disposal, cleanliness around the barn and home, as well as clean milk free from bacteria.

Regular health examinations for mother and father as well as the children are one of the most important steps in improving family health. The family physician can advise about immunization against contagious and infectious diseases.

Exercise, rest and recreation is a fifth step. The important thing, is to build toward a family attitude which considers rest and recreation as essential to good health and not a waste of time or evidence of laziness.

The sixth step is the maintenance of an adequate home health center. Every family should have supplies, equipment and medicine for the minor illnesses and emergencies that must be cared for at home.

Many physical and mental ailments are rooted in worry, fear and concern. The seventh step toward achieving a state of radiant health involved "talking out" problems as a family to give assurance and a sense of security to each family member.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. McAllister announce the birth of a daughter, Tina Jalane, born Feb. 12 at 2:26 p. m. She weighed seven pounds, two and one-fourth ounces. The grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Livingston and Mrs. S. W. McAllister.

'How Does Your Soil Rate?' Is New Bulletin Available At Agent's Office

A farmer has to "know his soil" as well as a politician "knows his voters" if he expects profitable response from management principles. No one can hope to stay in business very long if he mistreats or neglects the basis for his existence, whether it's votes or soil. As the farm's most basic commodity, soil will "support" its tillers only when proper improvement, conditioning, and conservation measures are practiced. But, mere recognition of a soil's limitations as well as its potential is an often-overlooked yet essential factor in securing a farm's maximum production.

Photographs aid in the bulletin's treatment and explanation of soil texture, permeability, condition, and slope. The effects and characteristics of depth, wetness, erosion and other production-influencing factors are also adequately covered.

A description of land capability classes and a detailed section on recommended land treatments make this bulletin an extremely practical guide for teaching land evaluation principles. Barton expresses hope that it will result in a more uniform method of evaluation throughout the state.

Copies are available from the office of County Agent Lewis C. Herron or the Agricultural Information Office, College Station. Ask for Bulletin B-836.

Hog Prices Up In 1957, Little Change For Cattle, Sheep

Hog prices in 1957 will be well above early 1956 lows and will probably continue higher than last year's prices, except for seasonal fluctuations, predicts John G. McHaney, extension economist. Little hope is held for any major upturn in either cattle or sheep prices.

Swine prices for the first half of 1957 will get their biggest boost from decreased slaughter because a smaller 1956 pig crop will supply slaughter animals until August of this year. It looks like the 1957 spring pig crop might equal that of 1956, due to lower corn prices and improved profit opportunities, McHaney says.

Total cattle numbers and prices will depend largely on 1957 moisture conditions. Although prices will probably be above the depressed figures of early 1956 no real gain is forecast for 1957, declares McHaney, because indications for cattle and calf slaughter in 1957 appear as large as 1956.

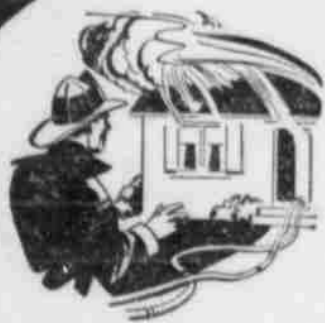

Sheep and lamb prices after the middle of 1957 may be below 1956 figures, while prices during the first half of the year will tend to be above those of a year ago, McHaney explains. Prolonged Southwestern drought is the main drawback against expansion in sheep production although encouragement comes from the wool incentive program and currently higher lamb prices. No reduction in sheep slaughter and no great increase in prices is likely until farmers and ranchers hold back more ewes for breeding.

Summarizing the meat animal outlook, McHaney predicts a year of large meat supplies only slightly under the 1956 record volume.

Installation Humidifying Equipment Approved For Cotton Classing Office

The go-ahead signal for installation of humidifying equipment in the Lubbock Cotton Classing Office was given by the U. S. Department of Agriculture in Washington, D. C., recently to the four representatives of the Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., and other agricultural groups who presented the plans.

L. G. Thuet Jr. and Irby G. Metcalf Jr., Garza County directors of the PCG, explained the representatives were selected from various agricultural organizations which met last November to discuss the classing situation and make plans.

George Pfeiffenberger, executive vice-president of the FCG; Curtis Boyd, Lubbock; Kenneth Partell, Brownfield, and John I. Bowlin, Hale Center, went to Washington with the recommendations for cotton classing improvements drawn up at the November meeting.

Pfeiffenberger, who served as chairman of the meeting, said the USDA agreed installation of such humidifying equipment would improve classing conditions.

The owner of the new classing building also has agreed to such changes and plans are now underway to provide the additional room.

Present plans call for cotton to be allowed to humidify 12 to 24 hours before classing. The work will be done this year prior to classing of any of the 1957 crop, officials said.

Pfeiffenberger also said the USDA officials were favorable to the plan that cotton from different areas on the South Plains be classed by the same classers and would not be shifted about to different classers, if the group desired it this way.

Also the Washington officials said establishment of a classing review board consisting of a government classer, a Plains Cotton Growers classer and a cotton trade classer is acceptable. Details of this program remain to be worked out.

DEPRECIATED DONKEY

STERLING, Colo.—Automobiles and donkeys have at least one thing in common. Both depreciate in value from year to year. Alton Yost purchased a donkey at an annual auction sale here early in 1956 for $85. A year later the donkey was auctioned off to Ralph Runge for $50. The latter price even included $2.50 for a new halter.

IN STATES SERVED BY THE RAILROAD

Santa Fe Railway Is To Continue Financial Support To The FFA

The Santa Fe Railway has announced it will continue to give financial support to the Future Farmers of America program in 1957 in states served by the railroad.

A contribution of $2,125 will be made to the Texas Educational Agency at Austin for the furtherance of vocational education and FFA work in Texas during 1957.

In addition to the annual allotment to the state organization, the Santa Fe for the third year will award a $250 college scholarship to an active member of the Future Farmers of America in Texas.

The national FFA program will be aided by the continuance of a $2,000 grant to the National FFA foundation.

The selection of the scholarship winner will be in the hands of the Texas Educational Agency. Provision is made for them to select an alternate. The winner must meet certain qualifications of scholarship, leadership, and FFA membership, and in addition, enroll for courses in agriculture, agricultural journalism, forestry or veterinary medicine. He must attend a school in Texas.

The full scholarship is to be used during the academic year 1957-58. The Santa Fe will arrange with the Texas Educational Agency to reimburse the college chosen by the applicant for his tuition or fees, not to exceed the scholarship, and any possible unexpended balance will be used by the college to defray the winner's other legitimate expenses incidental to college attendance.

ANSWER THIS QUESTION

Am I My Brother's Keeper?

Those words do come from the Bible. And they have sometimes been quoted to justify a man's lack of concern for the welfare of others.

When we quote Scripture we must be careful WHOM we are quoting!

It was Cain, the first murderer, who asked that biting question. God had said, "Where is Abel, thy brother?" And Cain was trying to escape the consequences of his crime.

Each of us is responsible for his brother's welfare. That is the very reason this feature is appearing in your newspaper.

You and your family need the spiritual resources our churches offer. In whichever Christian congregation you select there are waiting to welcome you many men and women and young people whose faith has taught them a deep concern for their brothers.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

VA Questions And Answers

Q. I am a Korea veteran. Would I be permitted to study dressmaking in France under the Korean GI Bill?

A. The law prohibits it. The only foreign training allowed is college-level work, approved by VA, offered by accredited institutions of higher learning.

Q. I was injured on the job, and doctors tell me I am totally disabled. I hold a World War II GI insurance policy. May I stop paying premiums and retain my coverage?

A. No. You should continue paying your premiums. After you have been totally disabled for six months, apply to VA for a waiver of premiums. Continue to pay until VA informs you your waiver has been granted. VA will refund all premiums paid during the period of your total disability, but for not more than one year prior to filing your claim.

Q. I am a disabled Korea veteran and I have received vocational rehabilitation training under Public Law 894. Would I now be eligible for further training under the Korean GI Bill?

A. You may be. Subtract the amount of vocational rehabilitation training received from 48 months. If there is a balance left over, that is the amount of training to which you might be entitled under the Korean GI Bill.

Q. Am I supposed to notify my GI insurance beneficiaries if I want to make a change in my beneficiary list?

A. No. You need merely notify VA of your new list of beneficiaries. You need not notify the beneficiaries themselves.

Former Resident Of Post Is Made Member Truckers' 'Hall Of Fame'

Arno Dalby of Lubbock, a former resident of the Close City community and Post, was named to the "Hall of Fame" of the California Trucking Association at a meeting of that group in San Francisco. He is president of T.I.M.E., Inc.

Dalby was one of eight truckers with more than 25 years in the trucking business who were honored.

At 47, Dalby, owner and president of T.I.M.E., Inc., has developed an original 38-mile run from Post to Lubbock into a 3,006 transcontinental-mile trucking system. The line now represents more than a $13 million business, operating 18 terminals in 13 states with general offices and headquarters in Lubbock.

Dalby has purchased 23 truck lines in the 27 years he has been building up his present business. A native of Abilene, Dalby is the son of Mrs. L. W. Dalby of Post. He attended elementary and high school at Close City and later attended an Abilene business college for two years before going into the trucking business here.

In 1929 he started a truckline from Post to Lubbock and his first cargo was a load of cow hides to Lubbock and one crate of lettuce on the return trip. By 1932 he was operating north to Amarillo and later his operations were extended to Denver, Clovis, N. M., and El Paso.

His operations now extend from Los Angeles to Memphis and to other points in Ohio, Georgia, Kentucky, Illinois and Indiana.

Dalby's organization employs more than 1,000 persons and more than 500 pieces of equipment are operated by employees. These range from city pick-up trucks to over-the-road units used in inter-city runs.

Dalby is married and has one son, Giles, who is terminal manager at the Lubbock office.

(Continued From Front Page) The mayor explained that both the 30 and 40-cent rates are subject to additional increases if the water shortage and supply costs warrant them. He said the city already is under way with plans to seek new water supply sources before summer, either through the drilling of new wells or the purchase of existing wells.

13 Charged Following Raid On Gamecock Pit

Eleven men paid fines and costs totaling $491.15 Sunday after pleading guilty to charges of "contributing to rooster fighting."

The 11 who paid fines and two others who posted $250 bonds were charged in the court of Justice of the Peace D. C. Roberts following a raid on a game pit about 10 miles north of town by Sheriff Carl Rains and Texas Rangers W. E. "Razz" Renfro and Jim Paulk of Lubbock.

The sheriff said more than 75 spectators from as far away as New Mexico and Central Texas were warned and released after the officers descended on the game pit. Rains said about 15 roosters already had been killed in the matches when he and the Rangers arrived at the pit at 12:45 p. m. Sunday.

Three of the 11 men charged are residents of Post and vicinity, the sheriff said. Each defendant was fined $25 and costs, amounting to $44.65 in each instance.

16 Teams To Play In TAAF Tourney Beginning Monday

Sixteen teams will compete in the District 2 TAAF Basketball Tournament to be held here beginning Monday under the sponsorship of VFW Post 6797. Tournament finals will be held Saturday night, March 2.

With Wednesday of this week as the deadline, 10 teams had entered the tournament up to noon Tuesday, according to Buddy Hays, tournament director.

Entries which had been received by Dick Walker, director of athletics in Lubbock, included K&K Food Mart and Brown Bros., both of Post; the Three Way Sandhill Cranes, Anton Acrobats, Crosbyton Independents, Primm Drug of Brownfield, Hearne Independents of Seagraves, Muleshoe Independents, Klondike, and Plainview Independents.

Post took a 20-17 first quarter lead and had a 39-30 bulge at half-time.

The tournament director said the brackets will be drawn here Saturday afternoon.

Three trophies will be awarded—winner, runner-up and consolation winner, and an all-tournament team probably will be named following the March 2 finals, the tournament director said.

All games will be played in the Post High School gymnasium, with admission charges of 25 cents for children and 50 cents for adults.

The winning team is guaranteed a $200 cash prize, to be used as expense money to the state TAAF tournament in Lubbock.

Since both Post independent teams will compete in the tournament, the meet is expected to prove especially attractive to Post fans. Every team entered will have its following, with the result that large crowds are expected for all sessions of the tournament.

Antelopes Stage Fourth Period Rally To Defeat Tahoka Bulldogs, 66 To 64

With guard Jerry Hays sparking the rally, the Post Antelopes staged a gallant fourth-quarter comeback to defeat the Tahoka Bulldogs, 66 to 64, Friday night on the Tahoka court. It was the final game of the season for Coach Burt McCoy's Antelopes, who finished second to Floydada in District 2-AA standings.

Post took a 20-17 first quarter lead and had a 39-30 bulge at half-time. But the Bulldogs rallied to outscore the Antelopes, 24-11, in the third quarter for a 54-50 lead. Post racked up 16 points to Tahoka's 10 in the final period to emerge with the two-point victory.

Jerry Brown of Tahoka took game scoring honors with 26 points. Daymon Ethridge had 21 points for Post, followed by Noel White with 14 and Hays with 13. The Post girls also won, 42 to 32, with Marie Howard hitting 23 points and Louise Gerner, 12, for Post.

Freshmen Continue Mastery Over Spur

Post scored eight points to Spur's seven in the third period to lead, 21-20, going into the fourth quarter. They held Spur to one field goal in the final stanza while racking up eight to gain the seven-point victory margin.

Curtis Didway, with 10 points, was high scorer for Post. Ralph Carlisle of Spur took game honors with 12 points.

In their triumph, Coach Herman F. Raphael's 8th grade team avenged a 39-21 loss to the Spur 8th graders here Feb. 7.

Bobby Beard scored 10 points in the 7th grade team's win. Other scorers were Leslie Acker, eight, and Joe Cook and Clarence Ivie, two each. Tommy Bouchier, one of the team's high scorers, was well-guarded, but turned in a good floor game, according to the coach.

DESIGNATES FFA WEEK IN TEXAS—Gov. Price Daniel has designated the week of Feb. 16-23 as National Future Farmers of America Week in Texas. ### Production Concentration In Limited Areas Big Need Of Poultry Industry

Many of today's poultry marketing and distribution problems can be traced to a definite need for concentration of the industry's production in limited areas, according to Extension Poultry Marketing Specialist Kermit Schlamb. He says this would result in a superior product for the consumer with more of it available at lower costs.

Per-man-output in all phases of the poultry industry is increasing rapidly, he adds, but even greater specialization and more concentration is needed for more efficient production. For instance, Schlamb points out that the average broiler farm in Texas turned out about 25,000 birds last year or enough to feed 3,000 people.

Problems and costs of assembling and marketing eggs under scattered population conditions must be remedied if the Texas egg industry is to keep pace with that of other areas, Schlamb warns. Not one Texas county has a sufficient concentration of layers to rank in the nation's top 100 counties, and production per hen is about 19 eggs a year lower in Texas than the national average, continues the specialist. This situation, he adds, results in the production of only 85 per cent of the all the broilers they would normally consume in a year. Two 3,000 bird houses filled 4 times a year—enough for a half-time operation—can just about produce that 25,000 broilers. Texas' 103,000,000 broilers last year were produced on less than 4,000 farms and amounted to 40 per cent of the state's total poultry income, the specialist says.

Evangelistic Party Australia To Be In

The Wakeman Evangelistic Party, here from Australia, will appear at the high school auditorium Thursday night, March 7, in a special program sponsored by the Church of God of Prophecy.

The Rev. A. W. West, pastor of the Post church, said the Wakemans' program will include special singing, prayers for the sick, anointed preaching and illustrated sermons.

This is the first visit to America of this family of four evangelists. Tim Wakeman, a former advertising executive, editor and business consultant, is now Australian overseer for the Church of God of Prophecy. Helen Ann Wakeman, a commercial artist, will do sermon sketches. John Wakeman ministers to youth and Mark Wakeman is a good singer and musician.

Currently, the Wakeman party are giving lectures about the "Land Down Under" at the Church of God of Prophecy in Fresno, Calif. Their appearance in Post will be the only one in this immediate vicinity. From here, they will go to Broken Arrow, Okla., and then to Cleveland, Tenn., for similar appearances.

At the meeting here, Tim Wakeman, in addition to regular sermons, will tell about the animals and birds peculiar to Australia—the kangaroo, the laughing kookaburra, the duck-billed platypus. He will also speak about the boomerang and show how these things the state's shell egg needs.

More concentration is also needed in the turkey industry of the state. Texas production is small from the standpoint of average flock size although the state ranks 6th in total production, Schlamb declares. He says the average flock in 1954 was about 119 birds as compared with 2,100 for Iowa and adds that Texas has only one county ranking in the nation's top 100 turkey-producing counties. Texas does export a large number of turkey hatching eggs to other states, however, and last year this business brought over two million dollars to producers, Schlamb says.

Grazing Is Seen As Most Effective Range Recovery Method

Hoffman. He says the pasture improved in range condition and boosted beef production 17 pounds an acre above a neighboring brush pasture average.

Flexible stocking cut out any need for supplemental feeding on a McMullen County pasture. It was stocked at 75 per cent of normal carrying capacity with mother cows, Hoffman explains, then during good years calves were retained to eat the excess grass and marketed heavier. In dry years, calves were sold early to conserve grass for the mother cows.

A Duval County stockman combined all range management practices and in a sense licked the drought, Hoffman declares. The stockman used brush control, deferred and rotation grazing, proper stocking, good fencing, water conservation, and range reseeding. Hoffman says the resulting calf crop has averaged 98 per cent over the past nine years with weights at about 535 pounds. Beef production per acre has registered 23 pounds, adds the specialist.

Use range practices which will give your pasture the fastest range recovery with the most economical livestock gains, advises Hoffman. Stock pastures on the basis of actual forage production, not on a long time stocking average and your range will recover even in a drought year, the specialist says. See your local county agent for help in determining the best-suited range practices for your area.

Two Million Bales Cotton Is Disease Toll In Five Years

Estimates place the loss to Texas cotton producers during the past five years from diseases at more than 2,000,000 bales. About 20 per cent of the total is charged to seedling diseases. Angular leaf spot or bacterial blight, root rot, boll rots, fusarium wilt, verticillium wilt, root knot, nematodes and rust, says Dr. Harlan Smith, extension plant pathologist, are other diseases of great economic importance.

The loss during the last five years amounts to about 10 per cent of the total yield but last year's loss was 11.5 per cent, the highest on record for the state. The increase last year is attributed to the widespread appearance of verticillium wilt in the High Plains and Pecos areas and (apparent) increases in cotton root rot in the Lower Rio Grande Valley and in the Pecos, Fort Stockton, Bakersfield areas of West Texas. Too, rust was found in South Texas for the first time since 1943 and fusarium wilt in West Texas for the first time ever. Losses to root rot in the Central Blackland area last year were less than usual. This loss normally ranges from 10 to 25 per cent annually, says Smith.

In addition to the direct loss of stands and plants, cotton quality is often lowered because of disease damage. Angular leaf spot and boll rots each are often cited as the reason for lowered cotton grades.

Smith urges cotton growers to give more attention to practices which can be used in cutting these losses. These include seed treatment, planting disease resistant varieties, crop rotation and the use of chemicals. Local county agents, he adds, can supply information on the control practices.

"QUEEN OF HEARTS" IN THE HEART OF—Dinah Shore, chosen "Queen of Hearts" by the nation's disc jockeys for the 1957 Heart Fund now in progress across the country, is shown being welcomed to Texas and Dallas by Mayor R. L. Thornton, Sr., of Dallas. Miss Shore made her only Texas stop in Dallas on a 10-city tour, appearing in behalf of the 1957 Heart Fund of the American and Texas Heart Associations. In urging generous support of the annual drive for funds with which to fight the nation's Number One Killer-disease, the songstress pointed out that "heart disease has touched every one of us in some way." Miss Shore's mother died of coronary thrombosis, one of the forms of heart disease for which medical science still seeks a cure. Funds contributed to the annual Texas and American Heart Funds are used to further research into the causes and cures of heart disease, for medical and lay educational work and for community heart service programs.

Texas Farm Income Sags To Its Lowest Point Since 1946

Texas farm income has sagged to its lowest point since 1946, and without rain the "sick man" of Texas' economy is not likely to recover much in 1957, the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research reports.

"While there were declines in some other areas of the state's economy during the past year (notably residential construction and sales of durable goods), agriculture was the only seriously unfavorable part of the total business picture," Staff Writer James H. Keahey says in Texas Business Review.

Keahey surveys the state's major commodities—cotton, livestock, grain sorghum, rice and citrus fruit—and notes the drought's effect on each. He points out that wheat, once one of the mainstays of the state's agriculture, can no longer be classed as a major Texas commodity.

"While the cost of living showed signs of another upward spiral, prices Texas farmers received for their products decreased 3 per cent in 1956 from the year before," Keahey reports. "Crop prices during 1956 declined 2 per cent, and prices for livestock and related products dropped 5 per cent."

Farm income was 9 per cent less in 1956 than in 1955, reflecting the decline in prices, as well as acreage decreases in many commodities and the cumulative effects of another year of drought, the writer says. Total income for the year was $1.7 billion, compared with $1.9 billion in 1955.

SPUR STATION ANNOUNCES TEST RESULTS

Land Leveling Pays Off For Dryland Cotton Farmers, Experiments Show

Dryland cotton lint yields have been stepped up 59 per cent by land leveling clay loam soils on terraced land having less than one per cent slope and receiving supplemental runoff water, says C. E. Fisher, Spur substation superintendent.

It's an economical investment too, according to Fisher who says land at Spur was leveled for $17.88 an acre and will be effective for several more years. He says annual gross return per acre was increased $23.76 on leveled land with supplemental runoff water and $8.10 on leveled land without supplemental runoff.

Fisher believes a more uniform distribution of moisture increases uniformity of yields on leveled lands. He says land leveling increased the average yield of cotton 30 pounds per acre in Spur tests without supplemental runoff. Greatest benefits, however, occur from leveling the land between terraces on relatively flat areas of fine textured soils receiving supplemental runoff, he adds.

Work for the Spur tests was done with a 4-plow tractor and a combination hydraulic scraper and land leveler.

Fisher urges farmers to use special precautions in land leveling since it has a tendency to pulverize topsoil and can result in a serious wind erosion hazard if done incorrectly. Technical assistance from Texas Agricultural Extension Service and Soil Conservation Service personnel is available, and should be sought says Fisher, especially if water spreading is to be undertaken.

More details on the work are available in Progress Report 1914 which is available from the Agricultural Information Office, College Station, Texas.

Herman Tanner, Joann Odem and Peggy Butler were Sunday afternoon visitors in the home of Jerry Hitt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hitt of Southland. The previous Saturday evening the group went to Lubbock for a show and dinner.

By A. LEE WARD

Well, it's Tuesday again and it did rain.

We would like to congratulate the Sewing Room on our production last week. The number of dozens hemmed on sheets and pillow cases set an all-time high. We had several people out sick last week, and if they had all been at work, we would have done even better.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kirkland and children of Haskell spent Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Johnson.

Diane Brandon of Tahoka spent Sunday with Carol Hodges.

Frances Buchanan spent the weekend in Lubbock visiting her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jackson.

Sunday guests in the Lee Long home were Mr. and Mrs. Billy Long and son of Turkey, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Long. Charles is home on a 30-day leave.

Margaret Thompson, Freda Kennedy, Betty Sue Thompson, Dixie Felder, Reba Hays and Mozelle Edwards were shopping in Lubbock Thursday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Gage and Nancy of Dickens were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Maddux.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Thomas and family of Lubbock and Granny Martin were weekend visitors in the home of Mrs. Innis Thomas.

Mrs. Ed Mitchell and baby have returned to their home in Garden City. They have been visiting two weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Dan Mitchell and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Haire.

Sunday guests in the Doyle Nelson home were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Nelson and Betty, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nelson and Mike of Abernathy and Sherrell Wilson of Slaton.

The people of the Postex Sewing Room were very sorry to learn that our Inez Ritchie had to take her husband to Temple Tuesday night. Mr. Ritchie has been ill for some time. We were informed that he had a heart attack.

Mrs. H. F. Giles has been visiting her daughter and family in Tahoka.

Garrison Predicts Last Minute Rush For Auto Stickers

Col. Homer Garrison, Jr., director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, prevailed upon Texas automobile owners to "do their shopping early" this year in an effort to reduce the last minute rush for inspection stickers at the close of the 1957 motor vehicle inspection period. The deadline is April 15.

On information received from George W. Busby, chief of the department's Motor Vehicle Inspection Division, the state police director said only one-third of the state's four million vehicle owners have obtained their 1957 inspection stickers to date. He urged motorists to have their cars and trucks inspected now, as a means of saving time for themselves and to avoid a last minute congestion at inspection stations throughout Texas.

Last year, as was true in most preceding years, vehicles overcrowded inspection stations during the last week of the inspection period. More than a million automobiles were caught in the last minute rush, resulting in a loss of even more millions of manhours for the owners of those vehicles.

Garrison called upon the motoring public to adopt a "shop early" policy in this year's inspection program as a means of saving time and to afford better convenience for the vehicle owners involved.

Dual Oiler Finaled Near Justiceburg

Neville G. Penrose and R. S. Anderson No. 2-GX Miller has been dually completed from San Andres and Glorieta pays two and one-quarter miles southwest of Justiceburg in the South Rucker "A" field.

Glorieta production is from pay topped at 3,005 feet, with perforations between 3,005-09, 3,014-18 and 3,072-82 feet. The well pumped 60.5 barrels of oil per day plus 31.6 per cent water on 24-hour potential. Gravity figured 37 degrees and gas-oil ratio was too small to measure. Treatment was with 2,500 gallons of regular acid.

From San Andres perforations ranging from 2,402 to 2,638 feet, the dual oiler made 36.17 barrels of oil plus 57.6 per cent water per day. Top of the San Andres was called at 2,402 feet. Oil gravity tested 37 degrees with a gas-oil ratio that was too small to measure. Operator used 2,000 gallons of acid.

Total depth was reached at 3,134 feet and 5½-inch long string was cemented on the bottom.

Well-site spots 990 feet from north and west lines of Section 39, Block 5, H&GN Survey.

Miss El Wanda Davies and Wayne Culvahouse of Snyder spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Davies. Sunday the group spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stevens where Mrs. Davies was honored with a birthday dinner.

Tech Enrolls 7,380 For Spring Term

LUBBOCK (Spl.)—Texas Tech has a new all-time record enrollment for the Spring semester—7,380 students.

The total, compiled by the registrar's office at the official close of registration, includes 5,515 men and 1,865 women.

Arts and Sciences upholds its tradition as the largest of Tech's six schools with 2,277 enrolled. Close behind is Engineering with 2,165. Business Administration has 1,377. Agriculture, 741; Graduate, 434; and Home Economics, 386.

The old Spring semester record of 6,430—set last year—was broken before official registration days arrived. A total of 6,471 had pre-registered before that time. That is, they had already taken the first steps in enrollment.

Tech's Fall semester enrollment was 8,955, making it the second largest state-supported educational institution in Texas. At all colleges and universities, Spring semester enrollment traditionally is lower than that in the fall.

Tech is now a state-wide institution, with students from 222 of Texas 254 counties.

Beef And Eggs At Top Of Plentiful Food List

Beef and eggs top the U. S. Department of Agriculture's plentiful foods list for March, according to Miss Jessie Pearce, Garza County home demonstration agent. These two popular and nutritious food items got the top spot after the regular monthly check on food stocks in local trade areas revealed that supplies of both were much heavier than usual for this season.

In addition to beef, good supplies of lambs and hens as well as frozen fillets of perch and halibut are also available.

The only vegetables on the March list are potatoes, canned sweet corn and pinto beans.

Rice, peanuts, peanut butter, dried prunes, milk and other dairy products round out the plentiful list for this area.

Booklets Available On Insect Control

Entomologists of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service have prepared informational guides covering control measures for the worst offenders in the insect world.

The recently released series includes L-217, Stored Grain Insects; L-218, 1957 Texas Guide for Controlling Cotton Insects; L-219, Ways to Fight the Pink Bollworm and L-245, Texas Guide for Controlling Insects and Diseases on Fruits and Nuts.

The publications are available through the offices of local county extension agents or from the Agricultural Information Office, College Station, Texas. All have been prepared to save time for those needing information on control programs or practices for combating the losses which insects cause each year. The control measures are listed in chart form along with the recommended chemicals for dusting and spraying.

The entomologists point out the great need for careful handling of insecticides as well as using control measures before insect infestations become so heavy that control is made difficult and expensive. Too, the entomologists point out that the recommendations given in the new publications are based on research and field findings which not only cover the insect-killing power of the chemical but also such items as residues, safe handling practices and methods and rate of application.

COMMITTEE WORK PRINCIPAL ACTIVITY
90th District State Representative Summarizes Some Of House Action

By ROBERT R. PATTERSON

Committee consideration of proposed legislation continued as the principal activity of most of the members of the Legislature as the sixth week of the session comes to an end.

This week the House Committee on Constitutional Amendments, of which I am a member, completed two weeks work on an amendment to set up a revolving fund to finance water projects in the State, and sent the resolution back to the floor of the House for consideration there. The resolution provides for the appointment by the governor of a three-member board to handle the administration of a $100,000,000 water development fund. The fund will be available to political subdivisions of the state in accordance with the terms of an enabling act which has already been passed out of committee in both the House and the Senate. Originally prepared and offered by representatives of the Texas Water Resources Committee, the proposed amendment was altered by the House Committee by the elimination of a provision appropriating funds from the first money received by the State Treasury during the life of the bonds, to pay delinquency in the revolving fund. Proponents of the resolution explained that this feature would make the water bonds more attractive to bond purchasers, while members of the committee felt that future Legislatures could better work out the problem, rather than have it written into the Constitution.

In the Judiciary Committee members were taking a long, hard look at a proposal to make substantial changes in the law with reference to the acquisition of private property for public use. Introduced at the request of the state Highway Department, in connection with the Federal Highway program, the bill, if passed by the Legislature, would permit the State Highway Department to take immediate possession of lands necessary for right-of-way for the program. Proponents of the measure said that the bill was necessary in order to expedite the program, and to assure the state of the federal funds to be made available by Congress for this purpose. Opponents of the bill insisted that the present statute covering condemnation of private property for public use is adequate, and that the proposed changes were both arbitrary and discriminatory. The bill was sent to a subcommittee of the Judiciary Committee for further study. It promises to be one of the controversial subjects confronting this session of the Legislature.

Considerable interest was being expressed in the House this week in a proposal to adopt flexible rating law for automobile and casualty insurance rates. The bill, now in committee, would permit each individual insurance company to set its own rates, subject to approval of the State Board of Insurance Commissioners. Those for the legislation say that it would benefit the public by making the insurance business more competitive, and thus resulting in cheaper rates. Opponents of the measure say that the coverage afforded by the insurance would be weakened, and that the insurance buying public would suffer accordingly.

Also receiving attention was Gov. Price Daniel's proposal to reorganize the Insurance Commission along the lines of the Railroad Commission and Highway Department. The governor has pointed out in his message that this system worked out by Gov. Jim Hogg has been highly successful.

Visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Brown Saturday were Mrs. Brown's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Barnes of Raton, N. M. The Barnes brought her mother, Mrs. J. W. Franklin, back to her home after a visit with them.

Children Should Learn About Money Matters With Other Education

When children beg and tease for nickels, dimes and quarters, parents may use the wrong approach to the problem. Money management has to be learned as does reading, writing or arithmetic, according to Miss Jessie Pearce, Garza County home demonstration agent. Learning this job, one step at a time, is part of a child's education.

Parents who have tried allowances for children report that usually less money is required than by the unplanned "hand-out" method. Even more important, the child gets valuable training and satisfaction from learning how to get the most for his money. A personal allowance increases a child's pride and interest in cooperating with the family group.

A child needs opportunities to practice making decisions — to weigh wants and needs in terms of what he has to spend. This helps him to develop self-control and respect for the value of money.

He needs to learn the value of savings. The practice of saving a part of his allowance for his larger wants and needs will help him in the future to save for a home, car, furniture, education and emergencies. A plan achieved is encouragement for other plans.

Early training in record-keeping will be helpful throughout life. A simple record of expenditures can be kept by the older child, who earns some of his money or has a larger allowance.

A FADING OCCUPATION
PASADENA, Calif.—Pasadena is one of just a few cities in the nation that still has a movie theater organist. Bill Wright is on duty for most of the shows. He reports that 30 years ago there were more than 5,000 organists playing in movie theaters of the United States. Today, he says, there are not more than 20 theaters throughout the nation using live pipe organ music to supplement sound films.
