

Name Chairman For Emergency March Of Dimes Here Aug. 18-31

Walter Crider, Garza County chairman for the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, this week announced the appointment of Bob Poole as chairman for an Emergency March of Dimes scheduled for Aug. 18-31.

Basel O'Connor, president of the NFIP, has reported that Americans contributed nearly $55,000,000 to the March of Dimes last January—more than in any previous year—yet the sum fell short by $20,000,000 of meeting the current year's needs.

As a result, O'Connor said, it will be necessary to seek the additional amount through an Emergency March of Dimes. The decision to hold the emergency appeal for polio-fighting funds was made at a recent meeting of the NFIP's board of trustees.

Assistance rendered by the Garza County NFIP chapter has increased right along with the rest of the nation, Crider pointed out.

"The local chapter at present," Crider said, "is providing funds, in whole or in part, for the care of two patients stricken this year. In addition to three who contracted polio in previous years."

"This year," the NFIP president said, "confronts us with the greatest challenge of any in the history of the fight against polio, with commitments for a polio prevention program of staggering size and the necessity of providing aid to a record number of polio patients."

O'Connor said estimates last fall were that $75,000,000 would be needed to finance the polio vaccine trials, the purchases of increased quantities of gamma globulin, the search for improved preventive and treatment techniques, the support of professional education, and the provision of financial assistance for polio patients who need it.

"This is still a very realistic figure in terms of our obligations and commitments," O'Connor explained. "It was certainly not because of any lack of effort by our volunteers that we failed to meet it. March of Dimes workers did a remarkable job. Receipts went ahead more than six and one-half per cent. However, the $55,000,000 raised will not carry the program through 1954."

"I know the American public does not want to see the vital programs it has supported through 16 March of Dimes divisions jeopardized in this year of challenge. I feel certain they will support the Emergency March of Dimes to make sure that the prevention program, rehabilitation and aid for patients, research and professional education continue for as long as necessary.

O'Connor explained that $26,500,000 was needed for the vaccine and GG programs alone, plus $29,000,000 for patient aid if 1954 polio incidence is comparable to 1953, when almost 36,000 cases were reported. There are signs, however, that 1954 may be an even higher incidence year. The number of new cases reported by the U. S. Public Health Service during the first 23 weeks of this year is the largest reported for any similar period in recorded history, he said.

In addition, there are 67,000 holdover cases from previous years, who still require help from the National Foundation and its chapters.

Beyond all these costs, another $19,500,000 is needed for continued research into polio prevention and treatment, for professional education for medical and community services and for administration.

O'Connor expressed gratitude to the millions of volunteers who raised the $55,000,000 in January, and to the 80,000,000 Americans who contributed.

"When they realize that more money is needed to insure completion of the vaccine evaluation, provision of gamma globulin, medical care and research and for the care and rehabilitation of thousands of current and future polio patients, they will want to add their little bit more," he said. "We must not fail to meet any of these obligations. If every man, woman and child in the United States gives a little more in August, our promises to patients and the public can be kept."

"I invite all Americans to look at the problem from the point of view of one of the 2,000 patients See DIMES MARCH, Page 8

The ministers also decided to find another location for the sign on North Broadway, which is situated too far from the highway for it to be easily seen by motorists.

TWO ELECTIONS IN ONE WEEK are not unusual in the spring of the year when city and school district elections often are held within the same seven-day period. In the summertime, however, very few of these two-in-a-week elections occur. This year is an exception, with the wheat quota referendum scheduled for July 23 and the first Democratic primary for July 24. There's a whole of a difference, of course, but they're both elections.

NEW POST RESIDENTS include Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Billings and their five daughters, who recently moved here from Albuquerque, N. M. Four of the daughters—Cheryl Ann, 10; Carol, 8; Michelle, 3½, and Janice Melle, 3½—were the subjects of a feature story in The Post Dispatch about a year ago. The occasion was their return from Germany, where their father had been in the armed services. The four girls called at The Dispatch office in company with their uncle, O. D. Cardwell, and were promptly interviewed and photographed.

MISSING THE PICTURE and story because she hadn't yet been born was Anne Elizabeth, now eight months old. Cheryl Ann, the oldest of the five girls, was in the office again Saturday with her uncle, this time to use our pencil sharpener on a handful of pencils. When we told Cheryl Ann we'd write something about their returning to Post to live, she wanted to know in which part of the paper it would be. Sensing an opportunity to gain a new reader for our column, we told her to look for it in "Thursday to Thursday."

Invest Pension Funds In Merchandising Stocks As Hedge Against Rising Prices

NEW BOSTON, N. H.—During a visit here I have had an opportunity to talk with various retired workers now living on pensions. One thing that interests them most is the future cost of living. They are grateful to their employers for their pension, but they wonder just how much it may always be able to buy. You cannot blame them for worrying, considering that a $1,000 pension received in 1900 will today buy only about $300 worth of food, clothing, and shelter.

Money Versus Goods

Too many of my readers are thinking only of dollars, rather than of what these dollars will buy in the years ahead. Of course, the ideal thing would be for employers to promise their retired people a certain number of bushels of potatoes, pounds of meat, pairs of shoes, etc., in the form of a pension. Corporations, however, cannot do this unless they can be reimbursed by the Government. As our politicians are the ones who mainly determine the cost of living, would it be unfair to ask their Government to "give these pensioners 'insurance' against such unnecessary inflation?"

Another possible answer would be to have pension funds invested in merchandising stocks. I have in mind super markets such as A & P, Kroger, American Stores, First National, Stop & Shop, etc., and the Variety Chains. These stocks could partly serve as a hedge against rising food prices and the cost of necessities. The latter could always be purchased from Chain Stores, such as Sears Roebuck, Montgomery Ward, Penney's—especially from the modern Variety Stores, which now carry nearly everything necessary to living, other than food. The buyers for these Variety Chains hunt all over the world for the best merchandise at the lowest prices and sell it at the least profit, while the value of their inventories increases along with the cost of living. Thus, if pension funds were invested more in such stocks, the pensioners should be much better off if the cost of living should increase—especially in view of the "self-service" feature which was promoted by Herbert A. Hills, Jr., of Wellesley, Mass.

Ten Big Variety Chains

Working people should also put a fair proportion of their own savings in these stocks, possibly an equal proportion of money into each of the ten. Knowing, however, that two of these, the McLellan Chain and the McCrory Chain, are largely owned by the United Stores Corporation, I can "catch two birds with one stone" by buying the stocks of United Stores Corporation which are listed on the New York and American Stock Exchanges. The Second

PRECINCT CONVENTIONS

The status of the Democratic Precinct Convention is just about nil if we take into consideration the interest shown in them for the last few years. A better representation was evident two years ago than for some time previous. This was because of the unusual issues involved.

We heartily endorse the plea of T. R. Greenfield, county Democratic chairman, made to the precinct chairmen, in which he asks that they hold a convention on election day according to law and choose delegates to the county convention as the principal item of business and to take any other action they see fit.

Since the adoption of the primary election as the method of choosing party nominees, the precinct convention has lost its hold upon the electorate to a great extent, since up to then, the convention had chosen the nominees of the party.

Party policy is determined by the action of the precinct, county and state conventions. Of these, the precinct convention is the only one not bound by the decisions of preceding groups. It is the ground floor, so to speak.

The Dispatch trusts that all precinct chairmen will heed Mr. Greenfield's request and that a precinct convention will be held at each voting place in the county. If each precinct convention sends to the county convention the number of delegates it is entitled to send, there will be 45 authorized members of the county group acting for Garza County instead of the usual 10 or 12. This county's part in formulating the policies of the party will stem from these conventions. The voter, if he is interested in his party, should attend.

Public officials in Oklahoma are being asked just what it is they do to earn their money. To the new style politician this must sound like inquisitive insolence.

Long parade chairman Scheduled for 6 p. m. on Wednesday, Aug. 11, it will form between the two school buildings, come north to Main Street in front of the courthouse, east down Main to the tracks, then turn west and go back up Main. Don is being assisted in parade plans by George "Scotty" Samson, one of the rodeo's adult advisers.

SIZE CONSIDERED. The greatest Texas scholastic football campaign is less than two months away. Eight hundred and ninety-four teams in the six classifications will swing into practice in late August. This is four more than last year's record-shattering total. Class AA, in which the Post Antelopes will compete, has 184 teams, a gain of 10 over last year. Topping 180 other Class AA teams will be a man-sized job for Coach Bing Bingham. He'll be trying it again this year with his Antelopes. This isn't to be construed as a prediction that the Antelopes will do it, or even come close—our just prefer they'll be out there trying to do it.

Preferred sells around $9.75 a share and yields over 8%; and the Common sells around $2.75 a share. When working people come to us and want stocks to lay away for their children and grandchildren, not for speculation, I recommend these United Stores stocks at the rate of one share of Common for protection with each two shares of Second Preferred for dividends. Note the following figures:

- F. W. Woolworth—1953 sales, $713,870,378; current market price, 42; 1953 dividend, $2.90; and yield, 6.9%.
- S. S. Kresge—1953 sales, $337,296,131; current market price, 33; 1953 dividend, $2.00; and yield, 6.1%.
- W. T. Grant—1953 sales, $299,767,731; current market price, 37; 1953 dividend, $1.90; and yield, 4.4%.
- G. C. Murphy—1953 sales, $187,163,824; current market price, 40; 1953 dividend, $2.00; and yield, 5.0%.
- S. H. Kress—1953 sales, $172,979,646; current market price, 49; 1953 dividend, $3.00; and yield, 6.1%.
- J. J. Newberry—1953 sales, $171,163,900; current market price, 34; 1953 dividend, $2.00; and yield, 5.9%.
- H. L. Green—1953 sales, $108,683,918; current market price, 29; 1953 dividend, $2.25; and yield, 7.8%.
- McCrory Stores—1953 sales, $104,787,106; current market price, 33; 1953 dividend, $1.10; and yield, 8.5%.
- Neisner Brothers—1953 sales, $66,742,811; current market price, 14; 1953 dividend, $1.00; and yield, 7.1%.
- McLellan Stores—1953 sales, $50,672,811; current market price, 24; 1953 dividend, $2.00; and yield, 8.3%.

Warlike Protection

There are several reasons why I like the above ten Variety Chains. In addition to their being a hedge against inflation and against a rising cost of living, they provide a geographical protection in case of World War III which big city stores cannot offer. All the above ten chains have their assets scattered throughout the United States. The United Stores (McCrory and McLellan) have stores in over 440 cities scattered in 37 states, while Woolworth has 1,973 stores in the United States and Canada alone. Woolworth, however, has a large investment in England and Germany which World War III would probably wipe out. Although we may not now fear such a war, no student of history can believe that wars are ever forever. Only a great spiritual awakening, of which I see no signs at present, can prevent the onslaught of such a war before long.

TELEVISION ENTHUSIASTS of the Post area may or may not be interested in the fact that the test pattern of a TV station which has been off the air for some time can still appear on screens. This is what a Kentucky newspaperman declared in his newspaper after visiting with a television man in his city.

After explaining that the station had been off the air for four years, the Kentuckian went on: "Cecil didn't get it himself, but he told us that the electronics industry has a verified, authentic group that DID, and has been puzzling over the thing ever since."

"Evidently the signals went out into outer space, and must have bounced around from planet to planet for that length of time, finally returning back to earth, we presume."

"With light (and TV waves) traveling at the rate of 186,000 miles a second, it would take only eight minutes for a TV station located on the sun to be received on earth."

"If it's possible for a wave to bounce around for four years, it would therefore travel the astronomical distance of 23 trillion miles which, by way of comparison, is seven trillion less than the 30 trillion pennies in the National debt."

Our Contemporaries Are Saying

Big Week For Watson
Last week was a big week for Pappy Watson over at Denver City. Pappy was defendant in a $100,000 libel suit brought by the city attorney over there. The attorney withdrew the suit, and Pappy says that for one whole week he was the only publisher in West Texas rated at $100,000.

Pappy also withdrew from the county judge's race in Yorkum County a couple of weeks ago. The only political race we would ever enter would be for city alderman or mayor. Those boys have an easy time and everybody loves them. Of course they get accused of everything under the sun, but one has got to have something to occupy one's mind, doesn't one?—The Seminole Sentinel.

Stage a fight over a crap game and you land in jail. Put on a million-dollar fight in Madison Square Garden and you become a celebrity.—The Pishsburg Gazette.

Mother Goose In Texas
By RAY WOOD
This little pig went to market; This little pig stayed at home; This little pig had a roast of food; This little pig had none; This little pig cried, "wee-wee-wee," all the way home.

Capsule Course
Here's a capsule course in human relations from the Harter Lecture Chair Company's monthly bulletin:
Five most important words: "I am proud of you."
Four most important words: "What is your opinion?"
Three most important words: "If you please."
Two most important words: "Thank you."
Least important word: "I"—The Station Stationite.

Probably Wouldn't Work
We have been trying to figure out how we could sneak in a vacation this summer but haven't had any luck so far until we picked up an idea from the TV folks. Now we are thinking of reprinting a couple of our best issues from last winter and letting the mailmen deliver them on the proper day, while we relax in the mountains. But we're afraid of the howl some of the paying customers would put up if we billed them for a long-handled underswear ad here in the middle of July.—County Wide News, Littlefield.

Ropes Of Wool
Miles of black paving rolled under the spinning car wheels like a moving endless belt and the night traffic drove its glaring lights into the spongy walls of darkness. Appearing suddenly like tombstones on the rolling hills, the sheep continued their wandering without alarm. Near the fence an infant Collie dog walked slowly to and fro until the herd was forced back toward the range. New Mexico's economy is held together with ropes of wool.—Matador Tribune.

Unexpected Ending
Ever since O. Henry made the unexpected ending to the short story popular, writers have striven to achieve this touch of the master storyteller. I ran across the ultimate in this department recently when I found this example from a contribution in a class in short story writing: "Will you marry me?" he asked.

"No," she replied.
"And they lived happily ever after.—The Hamilton Herald-News.

However, it was inevitable that similar rhymes should be invented by the curious and resourceful folk who settled this land, and the following rhyme seems more in keeping with the conditions of pioneer days:
This little pig says: "I'm gonna steal some corn."
This little pig says: "Where you gonna get it?"
This little pig says: "Out of grampa's barn."
This little pig says: "I'm gonna tell on you."
This little pig says: "Wee-wee-wee, I can't get over the door sill."

When Mother Goose came to Texas, with the earliest immigrants, it was logical that she should designate the baby's toes as crows instead of pigs, as in the following recital:
This little cow drinks water; This little cow eats hay; This little cow gives plenty of milk; This little cow stands in the shade all day; This little cow does nothing at all—let's whip her.

Next Week: "The Frog Went a-Courtin'."
Variants of these or similar rhymes will be recorded in the permanent collection of Mother Goose in Texas, if sent to Ray Wood at Raywood, Texas. Copyright 1954, by Ray Wood.

Awards Go To Truck Transport Owner For High Rating In Safety Contest

The W. S. Duckworth Transport of Post has received special awards after being designated as one of the 27 winners in the annual-truck safety contest sponsored jointly by the American Trucking Association and the Spark Plug Division of The Electric Auto-Lite Co.

Jack Snyder, representing the Auto-Lite company, was in Post over the weekend to present Duckworth two electric blankets for his personal use and an Auto-Lite plaque. Five of the transport company's drivers will receive individual cards as their awards in helping compile the safety record.

The local transport company, which hauls petroleum products, classified first in the up to 500,000-mile group in the Tank Division, over the road.

Although this is the first year the transport company has won first in the contest, it placed second in 1949, 1950, 1951 and 1952, winning an honor award in 1952 and merit awards the

Quota Boost Cuts Navy Waiting List

The "waiting list" of applicants for enlistment in the U. S. Navy has been practically eliminated due to the recent quota increases, it was announced today by Chief E. H. Linenbroker, recruiter in charge of the U. S. Navy Recruiting Sub-Station at Lubbock.

He said: "The Navy has drastically increased its requirements for new recruits during the fiscal year 1955."

For the past year and a half, the recruiter said, Navy applicants have had to wait several months before they were able to enlist. With the quota doubled this month and further increases expected during the coming fiscal year, most applicants and particularly those making top qualifying scores, can be enlisted without waiting beyond the processing period.

MORE MONEY for SCHOOLS

During Governor Allan Shivers' administration more money has been spent for schools than ever before.

The result?—better schools, more and higher paid teachers, and better guidance for your children.

Since Allan Shivers became your governor, school funds have increased from 145 million to 211 million dollars per year. Teachers get $1,000 a year more. Your child receives individual attention from 15,000 more teachers.

This educational climb is your child's guarantee of a profitable and happy future. For you it means assurance about his growing-up years. It means a better Texas for everyone.

IN GARZA COUNTY

$104,869.99 was spent for your child's education during the last fiscal year. He got better teachers with higher salaries and an administration that had more money to spend for its needs. Texas veterans received more educational aid.

The money went for other—but mighty important—things too, like school buses and cafeterias with hot room-temperature lunches. It meant more vocational help for your child. It went for many things all necessary for a better educational for him.

County's Wheat Acreage Allotment Set At 2,352; Referendum July 23

On Friday, July 23, at the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office here, wheat growers of Garza County will vote for or against marketing quotas for the 1955 crop.

The referendum will be conducted by the county ASC committee, with voting from 8 a. m. until 7 p. m. Garza County's 1955 wheat acreage allotment has been set at 2,352 acres, and even if marketing quotas are voted down, the acreage allotments as established for each county will still apply.

The referendum, according to Mike E. Custer, county ASC office manager, will determine whether or not the quota program now in effect will continue for next year's crop.

Two-thirds of those who vote must approve quotas before they can be put into operation. The current program, which was voted on a year ago, was approved by 87 per cent of the voters—390,221 to 57,536.

Custer urges every eligible wheat grower in Garza County to vote. A producer is eligible to vote if he will have more than 15 acres of wheat on his farm for harvest in 1955. In other words, he can vote if he would be affected directly by quotas, which apply only to farms with more than 15 acres of wheat.

If quotas are approved, there will be marketing penalties on any "excess" wheat—produced outside the acreage allotment—and the full level of price support authorized for 1955 will be available for those who comply with their allotments. If quotas are not approved, there will be no quotas or marketing penalties, and price support for those who stay within their allotments will be at 50 per cent of parity.

AUSTIN (Sp.)—Garza County school children are among those over the state sharing the most impressive period of Texas Public Education in state history, a compilation of figures from 1949-1953 released in Austin this week shows.

The county received $154,369.99 for public education during the last fiscal year as its share of the giant 211 million total spent over the state, The Texas Education Agency report said. It also showed that money for the state's school children had increased from 145 million in 1949 to the present figure.

Interviewed this week, Gov. Allan Shivers noted that education funds were distributed through the Gilmer-Alken formula to a wide variety of uses.

Largest amounts went for salary and operations. Fifteen thousand more teachers with average salary increases of $1,000 in the last few years took a large percentage.

LETTERS To The EDITOR

Dear Editor:
The people of Texas, during the past several years, have impressed the nation with their intelligent attitude toward the most serious issue confronting the world today; COMMUNISM! Texas, under the able guidance of Governor Allan Shivers, was the first state in the union to OUTLAW COMMUNISM, on the grounds that it is pledged to overthrow our form of government.

Texas tops the list of anti-Communist states. There is some Communism in Texas, just as there is in every spot on the globe, but the thinking Texans are not to them and have not allowed them to take charge of or get by with sabotage in our labor unions, our industries, our communications system, our schools, our churches and ourselves as they have in so many other areas of the United States, particularly the eastern states.

Those who heard the Monday night telecast by gubernatorial candidate Ralph W. Yarborough and Governor Shivers got a clear picture of how Texas stands to lose all the ground it has gained in its fight against Communism, if Shivers is not re-elected.

Yarborough who, with a panel of colorless yes men, spoke first, kept on his face a forced "Liberace" smile and while he talked in a soothing East Texas "Piney Woods" accent, his snarling tongue kept darting out of his mouth like the fangs of an adder. While he was promising welfare and relief, greater pensions, more benefits and everything else that the Communists want Texas to do to deplete their resources in an effort "to achieve," this adrenergic tongue kept slipping in deceptive and snide remarks about his opponent.

One of these was the statement that Governor Shivers should receive no credit for retrieving Texas' valuable Tidelands. He said he knew Shivers had not even attended the meeting in Washington in which this important issue was decided because he happened to come home with him on the same public conveyance, and Shivers had not even mentioned it.

Later, when Shivers' talk was telecast it was instantly obvious to me why Shivers didn't mention his work in Washington on the train or plane home: he is not a boastful man. He is digni-

44 Absentee Votes Cast For Primary

Twenty-eight absentee votes for the July 24 Democratic primary had been cast through Tuesday at the office of County Clerk Ray N. Smith. Absentee voting began July 6 and is to continue through July 20.

In addition to the 28 ballots cast at the office, 16 other ballots had been mailed in, making a total absentee vote of 44 through July 13. Ninety-five absentee votes were cast in the 1952 July primary.

Absentee ballots had not yet fied, hard-working and intelligent in appearance. In sharp contrast to Yarborough, who promised the voters that Texas would take care of their every need, Shivers promised only that he would carry on in the same constructive manner that has made his administration noteworthy. He showed films of his administration's accomplishments in practically every field that Yarborough made a promise, from increased pay for our teachers to the actual collecting of countless millions of dollars from the Tidelands leases for our public schools.

All of my life I have heard candidates promising bigger pensions to the old folk... just as all of my life we have heard that we would starve each year because it didn't rain at the right time. Surely, the old folk have figured out by now that the candidate who makes such big promises of more money is the one who can't produce. This is the Communist line, and it is working in lots of places.

The people of Garza County have shown in past elections that they don't want any more of this Socialism and its sinister partner, Communism, and I don't believe they will fall for Yarborough's vague promises. For one thing, the people of Garza County do not want to pay the bill. Many of our most progressive business men in Post are veterans. They, for instance, will not vote for a $1,000 bonus for every Texas veteran, because the money will have to come out of their own pockets.

West Texas, which is a safe distance from the industrial areas where the Communists have cut the deepest inroads, will vote right. Let's hope that even the people in the Piney Woods know by now that it takes more than a soft voice, smiling eyes and a sharp tongue to cope with today's critical issues.

Sincerely,
Evelyn Boyd

Lubbock To Stage Amateur Rodeo

LUBBOCK (Sp.)—The Lubbock Rodeo Association is making plans for its first annual rodeo to be held Aug. 6, 7 and 8 at the arena three miles south of Lubbock at Avenue P.

Bronc riding, roping, pee-wee roping, girls' barrel races, steer riding, bull riding, bulldogging and other events are being planned.

Night performances will be presented Aug. 6 and 7 and an afternoon performance on Aug. 8.

NOT CITY BRED

FREEPORT, Ill.—A 120-pound buck deer wandered into town, leaped over autos, crashed through windows and even poked its nose into a tavern. It was so badly injured from collisions with buildings and store windows that it had to be destroyed.

Post Auto Supply Is New Dealer For Dodge 'Job-Rated' Trucks

N. W. (Noah) Stone of Post Auto Supply today announced the firm's appointment as a factory-authorized dealer to sell and service Dodge "Job-Rated" trucks.

Stone said that Dodge trucks meet approximately 98 per cent of all hauling needs in a wide range of horsepower and capacities. Seven engines ranging from 100 to 172 gross horsepower are offered in the present C-1 series of Dodge trucks. Gross vehicle weight capacities range from 4,250 to 40,000 pounds, and gross combination weight capacities range up to 60,000 pounds.

Both V-8 and 6-cylinder engines are offered in the conventional series of Dodge trucks. A wide range of panel, pick-up, express and stake bodies are available. Likewise, special bodies and many items of special equipment for use in many industries, businesses and agricultural uses are available on special order.

One of the new Dodge pick-up trucks is now on display at Post Auto Supply, and others in the line of new trucks are scheduled to arrive and go on display in the near future, Stone said.

Wood Bees Win Game From Smyer Nine, 12-5

Scoring ten runs in two innings—five in the sixth and five in the seventh—the Post Wood Bees downed Smyer, 12 to 5, here Sunday afternoon to remain undefeated on their home diamond.

The visitors had broken a 2-2 tie in the top half of the sixth inning by scoring two runs and taking a 4-2 lead.

The Wood Bees collected six of their eight hits in the sixth and seventh frames, and a flock of Smyer errors also helped the locals in chasing across their ten runs in those two innings.

Smyer got off to an early lead by scoring a single run in the first inning, but Post tied it up in the same stanza when Nolan Williams, who had singled, scored on Buddy Hays' double.

The visitors scored another run in the second inning and held a 2-1 lead until the fourth inning when two errors produced the tying run for Post.

Following the Wood Bees' two big innings, the visitors scored another tally in the eighth inning, but went down in order in the final frame.

The box score:

Nearing New Record

A new major league record for home runs hit by pinch-hitters probably will be set this year by the New York Giants. Through June 29, the Giants called from the bench had hit an even half dozen. They need only one more to tie and two to break the old mark, set by the Dodgers in 1932. Three of the pinch-homers by the 1954 Giants were hit by Bobby Hofman.

Joins Select Group

First Baseman Mickey Vernon of the Washington Senators has joined an extremely select group, so far as the Senators are concerned. When Mickey hit his thirteenth homer of the season against the Tigers, June 27, it was the one-hundredth of his career with Washington. Only one other player, says The Sporting News, had ever hit 100 homers as a Senator. That was Goose Goslin, who had a total of 127.

Kinder Still Strong

Although 33½ Kinder is 40 years old, the Red Sox pitcher will be around for a long time. His batterymate, Mickey Owens, told The Sporting News. According to Mickey, Kinder's best weapon is his reflexes. "He throws quickly," says Owens. "There is no wasted motions. He gets set and fires."

Amateur Philosopher

Carl Erskine, the Dodger pitcher, is also an amateur philosopher. Recently, Erskine said, "I don't worry over things I can not do anything about—like the weather and growing old. I worry about keeping my curve low and my fast ball high. I can do something about that."

Heads May Roll

If the Red Sox fail to show improvement during the second half of the season, some heads are bound to roll. Oscar Ruhl predicts in The Sporting News. Owner Tom Yawkey, it is said, will make a choice between General Manager Joe Cronin and Manager Lou Boudreau, the two most responsible for the Red Sox' poor showing.

All Things Must End

Good or bad, all things must end. Both Roy Campanella of the Dodgers and Al Brazie of the Cardinals learned that on June 26. For Brazie, the turning was for the good, and for Campanella it was the end of a good thing. With Brazie pitching in the eighth inning, says The Sporting News, Campanella hit into a force play. It was the first time that Brazie had retired the Dodger catcher since 1950. In seven times up, Campanella had walked twice, doubled and hit four home runs.

Burdette Doing Better

With the major league season not yet half over, Lew Burdette of the Milwaukee Braves has already tripled last year's output of whitewashings. He had only one shutout last year, but when he beat the Phils 7 to 0, June 25, it was his third this year. Oddly enough, in each whitewashing he gave up exactly five hits.

No Security

Although Irv Noren is enjoying one of his better years with the Yankees, the outfielder is not completely content. "It isn't like being with Washington," says Noren, "where you get up in the morning and knew you were playing center field that night."

Furillo Hits No. 100

When Carl Furillo hit the 100th home run of his career, recently, he became the sixth Dodger player to pass the century mark in roundtrippers, according to The Sporting News. Previously, Gil Hodges, Duke Snider, Roy Campanella, Jackie Robinson and Pee Wee Reese had performed the feat.

VA Questions And Answers

Q. I am still in school under the World War II GI Bill. I want to know whether I will be allowed to change my course, even though my cut-off date has passed. I've been doing well in my studies, but I feel I am in the wrong field.

A. Under law, it is possible for you to change your course if the new course would be more in keeping with your aptitudes, previous training and experience. You will need VA's approval before you make the change.

Q. I am the widow of a World War I veteran and I am supporting a child under 18 years of age. My salary has just been raised to the point where I no longer will be eligible for a VA pension. Could a pension be paid in behalf of my child?

A. Yes, so long as your child's annual income does not exceed the legal maximum, he will be eligible for pension payments in his own right. The payments will begin as of the day following the date of your last pay check.

Q. Is there any time limit on filing a claim for reimbursement of burial expenses of a veteran?

A. Yes. The claim must be filed within two years after the date the veteran was buried.

Allocation Made For Road Upkeep

The State Highway Commission has allocated $31,487,970 to cover the cost of light maintenance of state roads during the fiscal year beginning Sept. 1.

This is an increase of $2,937,970 over the present fiscal year, because of new mileage, the increased age of present highways and miscellaneous items.

E. H. Thornton, Jr., chairman of the commission, said that in addition to light maintenance, the commission will be called upon to spend at least another $30,000,000 on heavy maintenance such as straightening alignment, lowering grades on hills and widening bridges during the next year.

He said approximately $19,000,000 of this allocation is designated for use on the state highway system, and nearly $10,000,000 is allocated for maintenance of farm-to-market roads.

There are 46,322 miles of state roads and 25,000 miles of farm-to-market roads under state maintenance.

HUDMAN'S

Mrs. O. S. Waggoner OF ROSWELL, NEW MEXICO, SAYS—

"MY HOME FREEZER GIVES ME Convenience Plus!"

"Right at my fingertips, I have extra food for unexpected guests, an after school snack for my two boys and their friends, or an out-of-season food that can be served when it tastes best, and costs the least.

"I cook electrically, too, and the freezer and the electric range are perfect companions. I bake ahead, and freeze cakes or pies for use whenever I need them. I know they'll taste just as good, after they have been in the freezer, as they do the minute they came out of my electric range.

"Convenience puts the pleasure in electric living, and my freezer does its share—and then some."

Standing Entertainment Booked Tower Theatre Next Four Days

Standing entertainment during the next four days is offered by the Tower Theatre on Friday and Saturday. The Rocky Marciano Charles heavyweight title will be shown in addition to the regular feature, "Jesse vs. the Daltons," and Sunday it will be Jane and Marilyn Monroe in "Prefer Blondes."

Men's action is expected to be the most outstanding feature of the most outstanding events ever brought to the movie screen, according to John N. Hopkins, Tower Theatre manager.

The action will highlight the round, with the climax in slow motion. Hop's deadliest gunslings of the past battle it out in Columbia's "Jesse James vs. Sam Houston" filmed in color by color. Brett King and Lawrence are starred.

"Antia Look story," "Gentle Prefer Blondes," which has set up quite a record since when it was first published, is brought up to date and in color by Technicolor. It is to Russell and Monroe—two of Hollywood's most fabulous figures—the cast includes Charles Coburn, Elliott Reed, Tommy Noonan, and many others.
