

Community Easter Sunrise Service Is Scheduled For Antelope Stadium

Wednesday's clear skies and comfortable temperature held a promise of weather conditions being ideal for holding the annual Community-wide Easter sunrise service in Antelope Stadium, as planned. If, however, the weather changes, the service will be held at the Assembly of God Church, 316 North Avenue I.

Sponsored by the Post Ministerial Alliance, the sunrise service is scheduled to begin at 6 o'clock, with the Easter message being brought by the Rev. Almon Martin, pastor of the First Christian Church.

The Rev. Graydon Howell, Calvary Baptist Church pastor, who is general chairman for the service, has announced the following program: Call to worship—The Rev. Clinton Edwards, First Presbyterian Church. Invocation—The Rev. Raul Solis, Mexican Baptist Church. "The Old Rugged Cross"—Congregation.

Scripture—The Rev. W. L. Porterfield, First Methodist Church. "Christ Arose"—Choir made up of singers from all participating churches. Easter message. "He Lives"—Congregation. Benediction—The Rev. Roy Shahan, First Baptist Church. "Everyone is invited to enter into the glorious spirit of Easter by attending this special community service," said a member of the Ministerial Alliance. Meanwhile, simultaneous revivals are under way this week in nine churches of the city. More than 80 business and professional firms and public offices are making it possible for owners and employees to attend most of the morning services by closing from 9:45 until 11 a. m. Monday through Friday.

All pastors report good attendance at the revival meetings, which began Monday. At the First Baptist Church, where services are being held daily at 10 a. m. and 8 p. m., the Rev. Bob Mitchell of Georgetown is doing the preaching and Euell Porter of Waco is leading the singing. George L. Micheal, layman of Bartlesville, Okla., is the speaker at the First Methodist Church, where revival services are being held at 10 a. m. and 8 p. m., and "coffee time" from 8:15 until 9:30 a. m.

At the First Presbyterian Church, where the Rev. Clinton Edwards is pastor, services are being held at 7 a. m. and 8 p. m., with no services scheduled for Saturday. The speaker is the Rev. Dawson Tunnell of Denton. The Rev. J. O. McElyea of Spur is preaching at the Assembly of God, whose pastor is the Rev. J. R. Brincefield. Services are being held at 10 a. m. and 8 p. m. The Rev. Almon Martin, pastor, is the speaker at the First Christian Church, where services are being held at 10 a. m. and 8 p. m., with none scheduled for Saturday. No Saturday services is also the only departure from the schedule at the Church of the Nazarene, where the Rev. Lyman P. Wood of Petersburg is doing the preaching. The Rev. Cecil Stowe is pastor.

Speaker at the Calvary Baptist Church, where services are being held at 10 a. m. and 8 p. m., is the Rev. Glenn Roenfelt of Lubbock. The Rev. A. W. West, pastor, is speaker at the Church of God of Prophecy, where services are scheduled for every day of the week except Saturday. At the Friendship Baptist Church in the Close City community, Dr. W. M. Turner is the speaker. Pastor of the church is the Rev. C. D. Nowell.

10 Members Of Spanish Class Attend Fiesta

Ten members of the Post High School Spanish class—in its first year here—attended the 10th annual Fiesta Pan-Americana held Saturday at Clovis, N. M.

Since the local students' visit to the Fiesta was of an experimental nature, the showings they made in the seven contests in which they participated were commendable, according to their instructor, Raul Solis.

Dan Cockrum received third place in the poster and display contest; Butch Wilson and Barbara Wheatley received "excellent" ratings in pronunciation, and honorable mentions went to Leslie Nichols and Frances Bird in cooking tacos and pralines.

Other students from here and the contests in which they participated were: Patsy Rogers, poetry; Jim Shultz, vocabulary; Frances Barron, creative writing; Alton Spinks and Glenn Wheatley, photography, and Sammy Sanders and Benny Clary, poster and display.

The Fiesta was in observance of Pan-American Week and was sponsored by the Llano Estacado Chapter of the American Association of Teachers of Spanish. Dr. John C. Dowling, head of Texas Tech's foreign languages department, is president of the Chapter and acted as master of ceremonies.

"The Fiesta was an unusual experience for all those who represented Post High School," Solis said. "We feel that next year our Spanish group will be better represented and will be able to participate in more activities."

Other adults accompanying the group of Post students were Mrs. Solis, Mrs. Lester Nichols and Mrs. Garland Davies.

Senator Yarborough Named As One Of Jubilee Speakers

Ralph W. Yarborough, newly-elected United States Senator, Tuesday became the first major speaker to accept an engagement for Post's Golden Jubilee Celebration Sept. 14-17.

A delegation from Post called on Senator Yarborough in Lubbock Tuesday and received his assurance that he would speak here on the day of the celebration.

"Our success in securing the nation's newest U. S. Senator as one of the speakers for our celebration makes us feel that our efforts in securing other outstanding speakers will be just as rewarding," said Bryan J. Williams, co-chairman of the Jubilee organization.

Williams said that other speakers being sought include Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson, Gov. Price Daniel, Rep. George Mahon and Evangelist Billy Graham, who would be invited to speak at the community-wide religious services on Sunday evening, Sept. 15, the second day of the celebration.

Williams also announced that engineers for the City of Post have completed a scale drawing for the memorial circle which would enclose a life-size statue of C. W. Post, the town's founder. He said this drawing has been forwarded to Post's daughter, Mrs. Marjorie M. Post, at Washington, D. C., for her approval.

"Present plans," Williams said, "are to locate the statue, which will be on a marble pedestal, and the memorial circle on the east side of the courthouse lawn."

Williams said a special committee is preparing background material which will be used by the John B. Rodgers Producing Co. of Forstoria, O., in preparing the script for the historical pageant to be presented during three nights of the celebration.

Carl A. Scott, field supervisor for the producing company, will be here May 1 to assist in advancing plans for the four-day observance of the city's 50th birthday. "By the time of Scott's arrival,"

Williams said, "we expect to have all committee appointments completed." Divisional chairmen met Monday afternoon at the First National Bank to discuss celebration plans and are to meet again at 4 o'clock Friday afternoon to complete committee appointments.

The divisional chairmen include R. J. Jennings, hospitality; O. L. Weakley and Ira L. Duckworth, finance; Mrs. Irene Rodgers and W. S. Duckworth, promotion; Ed Warren, publicity; E. R. (Buster) Moreland, spectacle; Harold Voss, tickets, and Irby G. Metcalf Jr., special events.

The celebration's steering committee is composed of Mayor James L. Minor, general chairman; Williams, co-chairman; Mrs. Madge Webb, secretary, and Lynn (Dunc) Duncan, treasurer.

Normal Service Is Seen By Saturday

Postal service is expected to be returned to a normal basis here Saturday, according to Assistant Postmaster O. V. McMahon.

McMahon said Wednesday afternoon that no word to restore normal service had been received, but that it was expected before Saturday.

With 41 million dollars of additional funds in the Post Office Department's tills, most of the cutbacks ordered 11 days ago by Postmaster General Summerfield are expected to be called off within the next few days.

The first pinch felt here was last Saturday when the post office windows remained closed and no rural mail delivery was made. On Monday morning, the 8½-hour window service went into effect, but the local post office tacked on an additional half-hour, staying open from 8 a. m. until 5 p. m. Normally, the post office windows are open from 8 a. m. until 6 p. m.

The assistant postmaster said the effects of the Saturday cutback were very much in evidence Monday morning when rural carriers began assembling mail for their first "run" since the previous Friday, and post office clerks began processing stacked-up parcel post.

"It was just like the Christmas rush," McMahon said.

Star Oil Co. No. 1-A Swenson Ranch, 15 miles east of Post, was preparing to straddle-packer test a Penn formation after failing to find pay in the Mississippian.

Packers were being set at 6,450 and 6,470 feet for the straddle test. Previously, hole was bottomed at 7,519 feet and a drillstem test conducted with packer at 7,461 feet. Tool was open 45 minutes to recover 95 feet of mud. Flow pressure was nil and 28-minute shut-in was 1,775 pounds.

Box was notified of the extension by Walter T. McKay of Dallas, state director of the Farmers Home Administration.

Half-Miler Ray Gary Loses Coin Toss After Tie For Second Spot

By the flip of a coin Saturday, following the Conference A half-mile run, Ray Gary of Post High School lost the right to be one of the region's two representatives in that event at the state Interscholastic League track meet in Austin.

Gary and Neely Wolfarth of Seminole finished in a dead heat for second place at the regional meet in Lubbock, and the Seminole distance man correctly called the toss of a coin to qualify for the Austin trip.

The event was won by Harlie Adams of Canyon in the time of 2:09.8. It was a new regional Conference A record for the 880-yard run.

Also barely missing to qualify for the state meet was Ronnie Morris, who finished third in the 440-yard dash behind Jimmy Roberts of Denver City and Teddy Estes of Olton.

Failing to place in the regional after winning first place in the district meet was the Antelope mile relay team of Ronnie Morris, Charles Morris, Jack Rains and Gary.

District 2-AA athletes qualifying for the state meet were Jerry Williams of Lockney, 100-yard dash; Nelson Wofford of Lockney, 220-yard dash; Denver Ford of Tahoka, mile run; Charles Ogden of Floydada, high jump, and Lockney's 440-yard relay team.

H-SU Choir Presents High School Program

Special Trustee Election Scheduled For May 25

Saturday, May 25, has been set as the date of a special election to elect a seventh trustee to the board of the Post Consolidated Independent County Line School District.

The special election became necessary after a canvass of votes in the April 6 trustee election showed Bill Edwards and J. E. Birdwell to be tied for seventh place in the field of 14 candidates. Edwards and Birdwell received 184 votes each.

Following a special board meeting Friday night at which the date of the special election was set, it was announced that April 24 is the filing deadline for candidates. Those seeking the trustee post are required to file with Robert Cato, newly-elected secretary of the board.

Other members of the present board are Clint Herring, who was elected president; Quanaq Maxey, Burney Francis, Buster Moreland and Bobby Pierce.

Voting in the special election will be at Post High School (in the study hall) and at the Graham and Garnolia schoolhouse. Election judges named by the board are: Mrs. Irene Rodgers, Post; James Stone, Graham, and J. W. Young, Garnolia.

In other action at the special meeting, the board voted approval of payment of $4,062 for a new 48-passenger school bus to be delivered this summer.

Southland Sprinter Qualifies For Meet

Ronnie Dunn of Southland High School qualified for the state Interscholastic League track meet in Austin by winning second place Saturday in the regional meet at Lubbock.

Dunn ran second to Gary Poage of Happy, whose time for the distance was 22.9 seconds. Only first and second place winners in the regional meet qualified for the state finals.

Fred Myers and Harold Donahoo, two other members of the Southland team, barely missed qualifying for the state finals. Myers placed third in the 880-yard run and Donahoo was third in the broad jump with a leap of 19 feet, 10 inches.

Student Speaker Is Second At Lubbock

Lexa Acker, Post High School senior, won second place in Conference A extemporaneous speech at the regional Interscholastic League meet held Saturday in Lubbock. First place winner was Willard Pittman of Seminole, with Carl Ward of Dalhart placing third.

Lexa, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo M. Acker, had qualified for the regional meet by winning first place in the district contest at Floydada. His high school speech instructor is Mrs. Betty Scott.

The extemporaneous speaker was Post High School's only representative in the regional speech and literary contests. The high school speech instructor is Mrs. Betty Scott. See POST SPEAKER, Page 8

REP. GEORGE MAHON OF 19TH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT Sees $3 Billion Budget Cut

Rep. George Mahon of the 19th Congressional District said in Washington this week he is confident Congress will cut a minimum of three billion dollars from President Eisenhower's budget.

The Congressman, in his capacity as chairman of the House Subcommittee on Military Appropriations, has been conducting hearings on the President's request for 30 billion for the Army, Navy, and Air Force since late in January.

Mahon said that "we will reduce the defense budget as far as this can safely be done. Of course, we must proceed with caution and no reduction can be permitted to imperil the security of the United States."

Defense officials have declined to recommend any cuts in the defense budget, but they are preparing at Mahon's request a statement showing how a three and a half billion dollar reduction would be applied if made by Congress.

The House Appropriations Committee of which Mahon is a member, has upon his motion approved bills at this session reducing the President's overall budget in the sum of one billion dollars.

The West Texan noted that he had been "much encouraged over the widespread demand among the people generally for reduced spending and more efficiency and economy in government. This is a good sign and if the people will remain on the warpath their efforts will prove very helpful" Mahon said that "we will reduce the defense budget as far as this can safely be done. Of course, we must proceed with caution and no reduction can be permitted to imperil the security of the United States."

Getting Out On The Limb

By EDDIE the editor

SUDDEN THOUGHT: A lot of dirty work at the crosswords is done in the name of "facing realities."

Speaking of the major give-away programs, Ike has just asked the American people the $72 billion question. Got an answer?

Joe was having trouble getting up in the morning so his doctor prescribed some pills. Joe took them, slept well, and was awake before he heard the alarm.

"I didn't have a bit of trouble getting up this morning."

"That's fine," replied the boss, "but where were you yesterday?"

AWAY FROM OUR nonsense for a moment. Tornado season is here! Tornadoes, the most violent and spectacular storms produced by nature, are a menace to the life and property of almost everyone living between the Rockies and the Atlantic.

But in knowing what to do when a tornado is observed may mean the difference between life and death even though there is no universal protection against them except in caves or underground excavations, such as the so-called "cyclone cellar."

1. Move at right angles to the tornado's path. Tornadoes usually move ahead at about 25 to 40 miles per hour.

2. In homes: Usually the safest part of the house is in the corner of the basement toward that from which the storm is coming.

3. In schools: If school building is of strongly reinforced construction, stay inside, away from windows, remain near an inside wall on the lower floors when possible.

4. In factories and industrial plants: On receiving a tornado warning, a lookout should be posted to keep safety officials advised of the tornado's approach.

5. In rural schools that do not have strongly reinforced construction, remove children and teachers to a ravine or ditch if storm shelter is not available.

A LETTER WRITER to the Wall Street Journal says: "The new Horatio Alger stories will read like this: 'So Tom Fairweather answered all the quiz questions correctly, collected $100-000 and gave $65,000 of it to his Uncle Sam."

THIS IS THE glorious Easter season, which, in our humble opinion, is even better than New Year's Day for turning over a new leaf and getting a fresh start in the right direction.

IT HAPPENED IN the Post voting box during the school trustee election, we are told: The small daughter watched her mother soberly while she marked her ballot at the polls, then remarked, "You voted for the men you love best, didn't you, mother?" "Gracious, child!" exclaimed the mother, "why do you ask that?" "You put kisses by their names."

Although citrus fruits can be safely raised in only a small part of Florida and the United States, yet there is competition between Florida, Texas, Arizona, and especially California. The latter state, however, is growing so fast that orange groves are becoming more valuable as home sites and citrus production is decreasing.

Keeping Up To Date All of this competition results in constantly improved quality and in keeping the price within the reach of all families. Hence, with the constant growth in population, demand will continue to increase. But North America is not the only market for citrus juices. Foreign governments are also recognizing their great health value.

The English government is buying the juice in a super-concentrated non-refrigerated form, like molasses, and distributing it to its babies to supplement a small supply received from Spain, Italy, and other Mediterranean sources. To get good products, however, these countries must import phosphate and other fertilizer chemicals, most of which come from Florida close by the center of the Florida citrus industry. This gives Florida an advantage over all the world.

Great Opportunities Are Elsewhere I, however, am not telling this story about the citrus industry just to boom Florida. I am telling it to show what a group of farmers can do by uniting in co-operatives and getting the help of research and advertising. The citrus industry has never had subsidies or price guarantees. It has fought its own battles without any limiting of acreage or government loans on surplus crops.

Why cannot the farmers of our Central West and South do the same thing with their surplus corn, wheat, cotton, and other products? Henry Ford once said to me: "When the farmers wake up and quit crying on Uncle Sam's shoulders they can find a great use and market for their products as raw materials in industry." Agriculture needs a great leader like Henry Ford and the national advertising which the humble citrus growers of Florida are giving their products.

The American Habit Most orange juice is drunk just before breakfast. This means that the frozen concentrate must be mixed with water and thoroughly melted some ten minutes before serving. This has caused a growing demand for a new product known as "chilled" orange juice. As soon as this juice is squeezed from the oranges it is stored and transported to the large cities of the North in refrigerated trucks at about 40 degrees temperature, so that the juice holds its perfect flavor. It is then put in paper cartons and delivered by the dairy companies along with the morning milk. As a result, the housewife can lie in bed ten minutes longer! This is taking like wild fire.

Roger W. Babson Writes This Week: Nothing Can Stop Demand For Orange Juice, Recent Improvements, Developments Indicate

BABSON PARK, Mass.—When a very small boy I remember my father driving his horse and buggy to Salem, 15 miles away, to get an orange for his very sick aunt. Those were the days when no Christmas was complete unless we found an orange in the toe of the stocking which we hung by the fireside before going to bed on Christmas Eve. I remember later one orange was given by the public school principal as a reward for having perfect attendance for the entire school year.

How The Orange Industry Has Grown In 1900 the entire State of Florida produced only 1,000,000 boxes of oranges. In 1923, when I first came to Florida, production was only 10,000,000 boxes. This year it will be 95,000,000 or 100,000,000 boxes. With babies continuing to be given orange juice as their first food and with continued heavy advertising, nothing can stop the demand for orange juice. Furthermore, there have been great improvements and developments in the industry.

When I first came to Florida winters only, "whole fruit" was shipped out of the state and sold. Then, about 25 years ago, the co-operatives were developed and some orange juice was then canned. This, however, always had a little bitter taste. Some 10 years ago the "frozen concentrate" was invented. This gives exactly the same taste as the fresh juice and has greatly increased the consumption of orange juice as well as the health of the entire nation.

Post Group Attends Wayland Senior Day

High school seniors from Texas, eastern New Mexico and western Oklahoma attended the Senior Roundup Day at Wayland Baptist College in Plainview Friday.

The Wayland students presented a program of music, drama, devotionals, championship basketball demonstrations, and a talent show.

The halls of the buildings were decorated with sprayed tumbleweeds and wagon wheels.

Approximately 600 students and their sponsors attended this event. Attending from Post were: The Rev. Graydon Howell and Mrs. W. C. Kiker, sponsors; Alice Faye Kiker, Lucy Ann Howell, Daphne Barrett, Joyce Lynn Kiker and Georgia Ann Smith.

The group came home by way of Lubbock where they stopped to view the Post ministers who appeared on channel 11, KCBD, television. Mr. Howell was one of the ministers appearing on the show.

The first pure nickel coin was a 20-centime piece issued by Switzerland in 1881.

TYPICAL EXAMPLE—Flood victims are rescued from the Napa River at Napa, Calif., by civil defense workers, a typical example of the role of local CD rescue units in natural disaster. Some 800 "Calamity Jane" rescue trucks such as this are now in use in the United States.

Reclaimed Sewer Water For Domestic Purposes Is Seen

LAS CRUCES, N. M. (Sp.)—An engineering professor says the time may come when Americans will use reclaimed sewer water for domestic purposes.

"Water is neither created nor destroyed, nor is it changed in form; it merely becomes dirty and all we have to do is wash it," says John Clark.

The New Mexico A&M professor, a specialist in sanitary engineering, says industry "has proved that it is economical in certain instances" to use treated sewer water, and only psycholgical barriers keep it from being a source of water for ordinary home use.

"It seems improbable that we will be able to carry along the huge amounts of water necessary for our persons on a trip lasting days, months or even years.

"In the absence of other available supplies, it might be necessary to treat and re-use the same water many times."

Industry does not have the psychological barrier, however, and Clark says it "will readily take" the reclaimed water.

As for domestic use, he says one thing that would help knock down the psychological barrier would be a time lag.

"Then a person wouldn't have the feeling of drinking the same water for dinner that he had for breakfast.

"One method for providing a time lag would be lagooming for a month or so. The lagoon could be a natural lake or reservoir or series of park ponds. These bodies of water should have a maximum of beauty and recreational use. Public contact with this water would go a long way to prove that it is just like any other water and maybe a lot cleaner than some."

As long as it is properly washed between each use, Clark maintains the same water can be used over and over again.

Although admitting that the psychological barrier to using "washed" sewage water for drinking purposes is so high the system is not likely to be adopted in the near future, Clark nevertheless points out the barrier is illogical.

"After all," he says, the water that you drank today may have once been in Cleopatra's swimming pool."

LONE STAR AGRICULTURE

Cottonseed Today Plays Highly Significant Role In Our Life

By JOHN C. WHITE
Commissioner of Agriculture

Many old-timers in Texas can recall the days when cottonseed was dumped away as waste.

But cottonseed today plays a highly significant role in our every day life.

The ingenious skills of American scientists and research specialists have taken this once-discarded agricultural commodity and put it into consumer channels throughout the world.

Cotton producers have benefitted greatly from development of seed uses. A market for the seed means some $100,000,000 annually to Texas farmers, or one-sixth of the lint's value. About 900 pounds of seed are in the average bale that goes to the gin.

Cottonseed crushing began 90 years ago at High Hill in Fayette County. Since then, this vital industry has expanded into every major cotton producing area. Lubbock, Tex., today has the world's greatest concentration of cottonseed crushing.

Among the many consumer goods made possible by the former "waste" product are salad dressing, shortening, mayonnaise, margarine and a synthetic ice cream, known as mellorine.

Besides foodstuffs, cottonseed is made into feeds for animals and a variety of plastic products. Cottonseed meal is a popular fertilizer of high nitrogen content.

The story of the cottonseed industry fits well into the picture of American progress—a perpetual progress based on the technological skills of a free and independent Democracy.

Research's role in past progress offers optimism for the future.

New crop uses, new markets, new products from the farm, will be marvelled at by the old-timers of tomorrow.

The waste of today might well be the necessity of tomorrow.

REUNION DATE SET

Floyd County's oldtimers will hold their annual reunion May 28, according to Buck Sams, president of the Floyd County Pioneers' Association. Former Floyd County residents now living in the Post vicinity are invited to attend.

There are several individuals and organizations who are doing worthwhile things for the patients in Garza Memorial Hospital. Willard Kirkpatrick goes to the city-school library periodically, personally selects several books and takes them to the hospital; Mrs. Clint Herring's Girl Scout Troop 5 and Mrs. Tom Power's Brownies make tray favors for the holiday meals; Amity Study Club subscribes to the Reader's Digest for them and several individuals take magazines occasionally. Mrs. C. E. Scott of the hospital business office states that their supply of good reading material is very low now. It seems a shame to throw away good magazines and higher type pocket books when it would take only a few minutes to take them to the hospital where there is a need for them.

Texas Methodists now have an opportunity to make use of a new booklet on public relations. This booklet, which has just come from the press, deals in the main with newspaper relations, but makes definite suggestions which are designed for adaptation to any type of publicity or public relations. It is now available to any Texas Methodist who has responsibility for publicizing a local church or any organization within a church. It is also for those who handle publicity on sub-district, conference and state levels. Texas Methodist Information, which is located at 504 Cokesbury Building, 1910 Main, Dallas, and is the official press relations office for the Methodist Church in Texas, has published the booklet as a public service. There is no charge. Booklets may be ordered in any quantity. Only request is that they be put to immediate use. Entitled "How to Tell Your Story," the booklet is written by Mildred Young, associate director of Texas Methodist Information. It has been evaluated and endorsed by news reporters, editors, publishers and church leaders throughout the state. In its present form, it contains many suggestions made in the evaluations and the answers to questions asked most often in public relations seminars conducted by Texas Methodist Information. Miss Young, a native of Plainview, is a journalism graduate of Texas Technological College, Lubbock, and has served on the editorial staffs of the Vernon Daily Record and the Big Spring Herald. Since leaving the daily newspaper field, she has directed public relations and edited a weekly newspaper for First Methodist Church, Lubbock, and has been assistant editor of the Texas Christian Advocate, weekly newspaper for Texas Methodists, and assistant director of Texas Methodist Information. She has been with the Advocate-Information staff for approximately four years.

Meetings with the Archbishop of Canterbury and Dr. Martin Neimoller of Germany have been arranged for members of the Texas Christian University study group that will tour Europe this summer. Dr. A. T. DeGroot, distinguished professor of church history in TCU's Brite College of the Bible, will direct the party. The Rt. Rev. Geoffrey Fisher, Archbishop of Canterbury, has invited the group to an afternoon reception in Lambeth Palace in London on June 27. As first president of the British Council of Churches, he has expressed deep interest in the tour's study theme—"Church Cooperation in Europe." Dr. Neimoller will lecture for the tour party in Frankfurt on July 7. It will be his fifth lecture for the TCU group since the program began in 1951. He is one of the foremost leaders of the Evangelische Kirche in Deutschland, the union of Protestant forces which resisted Hitler. Dr. Neimoller was imprisoned for seven years. The TCU group will leave New York June 19 and return Aug. 13. Information about the travel and study, which provides regular graduate university credit if desired, may be obtained by contacting Dr. DeGroot, TCU, Fort Worth, Tex.

Officials Launch Traffic Program

"Too many motorists play the game of Cops and Drivers!" So said Sheriff Carl Rains, in connection with the Know and Obey Traffic Laws program launched this month by the Texas Safety Association.

The sheriff asserted that drivers and pedestrians who are always cheating in traffic are the real accident makers.

"Fortunately," he said, "most motorists and pedestrians obey traffic laws and regulations most of the time. If they didn't, our accident rates would soar to even greater heights."

"Statistics show that traffic law violators figure largely in traffic fatalities. In four out of five fatal accidents one or more driver violations are reported."

"Many of these violators feel that only suckers obey the laws. They know all the angles and short cuts. You know these characters—the ones who always overdrive the posted speed limits. They jump the red lights at intersections. They weave from lane to lane and sneak by on your right if you slow down at an intersection. They never really stop at stop signs.

Citing the record, Rains said the most frequently violations reported in fatal traffic accidents are excessive speed, failure to yield the right of way, failure to keep to the right of the center line and disregard of an officer or traffic control device.

Modernization Is Need Of Post Office System, Magazine Article Points Out

The Post Office system "needs mechanizing and streamlining all the way through," a Reader's Digest article, titled "Our Horse and Buggy Mails," will say in the May issue of the magazine.

This will not appear until April 23. But the publication released a summary of the 3,000-word article by Wolfgang Langewiesche when the magazine learned that someone in Washington without authority from Reader's Digest had made the article available to certain members of Congress prior to the normal publication date.

"The present administration has begun some mechanization but we are years behind Europe," says the article which concludes with the appeal: "Let's create a modern mail system."

According to the article, which discusses Post Office methods, buildings and policies, the service "uses the same method of gathering, sorting and delivering the mail that it did 100 years ago" and mail is now "slower than it was before World War II."

The Post Office is one of the country's top 12 enterprises in volume of business, and third in number of employees. But it steadily violates the business principle of "stay ahead of the times—or die," the article states.

"The Post Office needs money for research and development. It's asking for four million dollars this year. That's chicken feed! Especially when, for lack of research, it spends—beyond its income—half that much a day!"

Wages take 75 per cent of postal costs. Mechanization would cut the costs, says the article, and enable the Post Office to stay on top of the mail flood. But instead of machines, men are used in "primitive procedures" that waste time, effort and money. "In other industries, the bigger the volume, the lower the cost," the article says. "But it's a technological law; you're supposed to work with machines—bigger, faster, more efficient machines."

Most mail sorting in this country is done by hand, but the article suggests that much of it could be mechanized. It states that Holland began experimenting with letter sorting machines in 1928, and the Dutch Post Office now has 11 such machines each sorting 50 letters per minute to 300 or more destinations as opposed to 25 per minute to 50 destinations by hand.

New buildings in new locations, on the outskirts, near airports, are needed, with midtown buildings concentrated on local mail moving only a few blocks between sender and addresses. Helicopters could lift whole trailers full of mail between sorting plants and downtown locations.

Whether mechanized or not, the article says, a post office building should be "a sort of factory." It should be tall, so the mail can flow down from floor to floor, or else, it should be flat with a floor plan in which conveyor belts can fan out like railroad tracks in a freight yard.

Instead, the article points out, we have "a Greek temple, or at best a First National Bank" and many post offices date from the last century. Many were built during the depression "when the idea was to make more work" and designed "mostly to express the majesty of the federal gov-

The article ends by stating that "in the 20th century even this wealthy country can't subsidize 19th-century mail systems indefinitely."

When Irving Berlin's song, "God Bless America," was published 30 years after he wrote it, he assigned all royalties to the Brey and Gilt erica. Their income has passed the $100,000 mark.

Four Post Pastors Appear On Program Telephone Workers Get Wage Increase

Four Post ministers, representing the Post Ministerial Alliance, appeared on KCBD television's Hospitality Time Friday afternoon to discuss Post's simultaneous revival services which began here Monday. They were the Rev. Messrs. Clinton Edwards, First Presbyterian Church; W. L. Porterfield, Methodist Church and Graydon Howell of the Calvary Baptist Church.

The group discussed the names of the churches taking part, the visiting evangelists and the more than 80 business places which are closing in cooperation with the alliance.

Bud Thompson of the television station brought out the fact, and the ministers agreed, that this is a very unusual and worthwhile undertaking.

The Rev. Almon Martin of the First Christian Church accompanied the group to Lubbock but did not appear on the show.

PRISON PIPELINE

IONIA, Mich.—Inmates of the Ionia State Reformatory gave 1,024 pints of blood to the Red Cross in two days to bolster their claim of being "world champion blood donors." The prison has 1,500 inmates.

General Telephone Company of the Southwest and the Communications Workers of America, Local 6180, have signed a 12-month contract after 31 days of negotiating, according to F. W. Hamper, Industrial Relations Director for the Company.

Highlights of the new contract include increased wages and benefits which amount to nearly one-half million dollars and a provision which will allow the company to schedule plant craft employees on other than five consecutive work week.

Wage increases up to 12c an hour were granted depending upon the group and classification of the employee.

Some employees of the former Texas and Oklahoma Telephone Companies will receive additional wage increases in order to place them on the General Telephone Company wage schedules.

The new work schedule feature will give the company an opportunity to provide a more effective and efficient method of scheduling work forces.

Other provisions under the new contract will make changes in termination allowances, military leave, town reclassification, and double time on certain Sunday work schedules. A new agreement was also reached on a plan for employee disability benefits.

More Children Being Killed By Home Accidents Than By Disease

Mothers sacrifice their children on the altar of carelessness every day. Home accidents kill more children 1 to 14 years of age than any disease, statisticians on safety tell us. One reads of a toddler strangled by a tight cap fastening on his play pen. Another child gets twisted in a venetian blind cord that has been permitted to dangle into the sleeping child's crib. Still another chokes on a ridiculously small rattle.

Most accidents to children may be controlled by exercising common sense. Why leave a hot iron where a playing child may reach it? Or why leave an iron cord dangling so that in pulling it a child may fracture his skull? Only a mother can answer these questions—putting the iron out of reach when it is unattended could spare the child a serious burn.

Put yourself in a child's place for a minute. What does he see when he creeps or toddles around the floor? Articles that members of the family drop no doubt, to be "picked up later"—collar buttons, nails, pins, matches, cigarettes, forks. These are items that are dangerous in the hands of a crawler who is at the tasting stage.

What does he see when he stands up to try his legs? What can he reach? Knives, scissors, safety pins left too near counters may cause serious injury. Many a child has been scalded reaching up to a stove curiously, grasping the handle of a steaming pot. Stoves are dangerous enough even with nothing on them—many electric models take a long while to cool off, showing no evidence of heat long after burners are turned off.

When Junior begins to clutch at tables to propel himself around the room, be sure his underfooting is safe. Area rugs and highly polished floors can cause serious injury to the baby who is going through the "testing" stage. All rugs should be safely anchored. Rugs that may be tubbed are favorites these days especially to protect creepers from excess dust and germs. Area rugs of the new synthetic fabrics such as acrilan may be machine washed and dried. Newer ones have a deep caresse pile that is long staple and soft on baby's bare feet. Ideal for nursery, boudoir and bath.

Other ways to preserve baby include:

1. Be sure cellar doors that lead into the house are kept latched.
2. Avoid leaving heavy objects on tables within a child's reach.
3. Keep baby out of the kitchen when preparing meals (or put him safely in a play pen.)
4. Be sure he has a sturdy high chair and the tray is locked when he is in it.
5. Soft toys are the safest playmates—avoid rattles containing stones or buckshot. Remove shoe-button eyes from dolls and other animals.
6. Keep disinfectants, poisonous cleaning fluids used in kitchen and bathroom on the highest shelf, a good place too to keep medicine chest items.
7. Teach a child the dangers of bonfires and matches. One out of five deaths due to burns is to a child under 5.

AND THEN...IT'S EASTER!

Yesterday, these four were their Mothers' despair. Their faces were grimy, their playclothes spattered with mud. They were even ready to put up their fists and fight when the rivalry between spacemen and cowboys became a little too keen.

Today, they are immaculate. They sing like young angels. They even look like angels... because today is Easter! And these boys are proclaiming the glorious message that Christ Is Risen.

Easter is the time of promise, beauty, awe at the miracle of birth and rebirth. Easter is the time to let the joy of living seep into you. It is the time to tell yourself that you believe... and, if there's been any doubt about it, to start believing again.

Spend part of your Easter in Church. Spend the rest of it looking, with new eyes, at the wonderland God has created around you.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

In 1945, it cost THIS MUCH

Today, it costs THIS MUCH

You would pay almost twice as much today to buy or build your home as you paid 12 years ago. To put it another way, you can build only half a house in 1957 with the money it took for a whole house in 1945.

How about your fire insurance? Have you enough today—on house and contents—to meet any loss?

We are qualified to help you determine just what insurance, and how much, you need on your home and furnishings. Phone us right now—we'll be glad to discuss your insurance problems with you.

And remember, if you're not fully insured—it's not enough!

the river that flows on wheels

More petroleum moves over Santa Fe than over any other railroad in the country

The 2,384,000,000 gallons of petroleum that Santa Fe moves every year is the river that flows on wheels.

It's so large that it makes Santa Fe the No. 1 petroleum railroad in the country.

This flood tide of oil gives heat and power to farms, factories, military installations and homes all over the nation.

The tremendous demand for petroleum, in all its forms, poses special problems for Santa Fe. For it requires speed and service to keep that river flowing full force. Here are a few of the ways we get the job done:

We move empty tankers just as fast as full ones, so no vehicle will stand idle.

As new oil fields are opened up, we stand ready to serve them. And when new developments take place within the industry, we adapt ourselves to take care of them.

As an example, take liquefied petroleum gas. The demand for it has skyrocketed in the last 10 years, because with this "bottled gas" rural families can cook and heat with gas just like city people. And the railroads have made it possible for them to get it.

Santa Fe runs special LPG trains when the demand for this product requires it. In a year, these trains carry enough LPG to heat over 500,000 homes from November through April.

This is just a part of the story of the dependable transportation service Santa Fe is providing to essential industries that contribute so much to the welfare of our country.

Post Scouters Are Named To Offices At Recent Meeting

Two Post men, John Lott and Chant Lee figured prominently in the election of new officers when the South Plains Council of the Boy Scouts of America met in the Lubbock Public Library Building Monday night. An election of new officers was held and the approval of the 1957-58 budget was the highlight of the meeting.

About 90 representatives from the 20 county area comprising the South Plains Council attended the session. An institutional representative and an elected member-at-large from each sponsoring institution make up the governing body.

Dr. Davis Armistead, Lubbock, was elected president of the Council for the next year. Vice presidents named are Ralph Krebs, Lubbock, public relations; H. P. Clifton, Lubbock, C. H. Cummings, Lubbock; Dr. Dale Rhoades, Crosbyton; Rev. Harry Vanderpool, Littlefield; Tut Tarwater, Plainview; and C. W. Tarter, Lamesa.

J. Ed Waller, Lubbock, will be Council treasurer and Guy Eagen, Lubbock, will be assistant treasurer.

The Council Commissioner the next year is Charles Alexander, Lubbock.

The new National Councilmen are Joe T. Salem, Sudan; K. N. Clapp, Lubbock; Dr. F. B. Malone, Lubbock; J. Ed McLaughlin, Rails; John F. Lott, Post; and J. M. Willson, Sr., Floydada.

A great deal of interest was taken in the proposed budget by every representative present. The budget proposed for the South Plains area was set at $105,000 for the 1957-58 activities.

The South Plains Council consists of 247 units of Boy Scouts, Cub Scouts and Explorer Scouts. At present about 6,733 boys aged 8-17 years participate in Scout activities on the South Plains. The Council set a goal to increase this number to 8,170 boys by the end of the year.

Dr. Armistead pointed out to the Council "for each boy now participating in scouting on the South Plains there are four more boys that would welcome the opportunity to enjoy Scout work."

Activities of the scouting will be under the direction of Council operating committees. These committees will be under the direction of the following: Jim Lumas, camping and activities; Dr. Wallace Hess, health and safety; Phil Carter, organization and extension; Howard Schmidt, advancement; Frank McLaughlin, finance; and John Lott, leadership and training. Elected as a member of the executive board to serve during the next year was Chant Lee of Post.

H. J. Dietrich, James Dietrich and his daughter, Frances, spent three days in Alvarado last week visiting Mrs. H. J. Dietrich who is ill and staying with her daughters, Mrs. Joe Hopper and Mrs. Arvel McBride.

Euell Porter is directing the music and will be in both services the closing Sunday. Under his direction the choir will give special music at the morning service on Easter Sunday. The Rev. Bob Mitchell is bringing gospel messages twice daily. He is last services will be Friday evening. The pastor will bring the closing messages on Saturday and Sunday. The attendance is growing daily and we are looking for a good attendance in all the services on Sunday, April 21. The ordinance of baptism will be observed at the close of the Sunday evening service.

The Mexican Baptist Church was unable to participate in the Simultaneous Revival now being held by the Ministerial Alliance because of previous commitments of their evangelist, the Rev. Lazaro Garcia of the Mexican Baptist Church in Plainview. However, Mr. Garcia will be here next week and the revival at the church will begin Monday, April 22, and last through April 28. The pastor, the Rev. Raul Solis, says that his congregation has been preparing for this revival for some time with prayer meetings in different homes each Friday evening. He wishes to invite everyone to attend this meeting.

The Rev. Cecil Stowe of the Church of the Nazarene says, "The revival at the Church of the Nazarene has been very well attended. The 10 a. m. services have been justifiable in every sense. The Rev. Lyman P. Wood is dealing with the personalities around the Cross, as: the Lord Jesus-Christ, Peter, Judas, Barabbas, Dismas, Pilate, etc. Five persons were administered the rite of baptism Sunday. Mr. Wood will preach through Saturday night and will return Sunday night to close the revival. He has been blessing the congregation each night with a special song and also leads the congregational singing."

Dress Revue Plans Under Way By 4-H

An estimated 350,000 teen-agers are cutting, fitting and sewing outfits which they hope will be in the spotlight at their local, county, and state 4-H dress revues this summer. Their ultimate goal is to model the clothes in the national dress revue at the 4-H Club Congress in Chicago next December.

The 4-H dress revue program, directed by the State Extension Service, is designed to teach 4-H girls the highly important art of selecting styles, colors, and fabrics suited to their individual personalities and wardrobe needs. Poise, self-confidence, and good grooming habits also are developed along with leadership qualities and learning to work with others.

Merited awards will be supplied for the 11th consecutive year by the Simplicity Pattern Company. The state winner will receive an all-expense trip to the Chicago Club Congress, and a special gift of a leather encased scissors set. Blue award county winners will get handsome medals of honor.

Girls between the ages of 10 and 21 are eligible to enroll in the dress revue. Detailed information may be obtained from local 4-H Club leaders or the county Extension office.

Post Men Attend Oil Short Course

Former Post man, Ray J. Diekemper, of Lubbock, will serve as chairman for next year's oil short course sponsored jointly by the West Texas oil industry and Texas Technological College. Diekemper, vice president of the Alamo Oil Corporation, was named chairman during the Fourth Annual West Texas Oil Lifting Short Course which closed its second and final day Friday at 3 p. m.

In excess of 500 participants registered for the event, many of whom were from this area. Five states were represented in the assembled personnel.

Thursday, the first day of the course, was highlighted by an address by J. H. Dunn, president of Shamrock Oil and Gas Corporation, Amarillo. Speaking on the subject "A Good Job in Production Is Not Enough," Dunn stressed that the average citizen should come to realize his personal stake in the industry—how it benefits him and how he loses if the industry is unnecessarily hampered by "big government."

"We must seek public understanding and support with the same vigor that has served us so well in seeking oil and developing and supplying markets," the oil firm executive said. He did emphasize the continued importance of research and improvement of production, but stated only a combined effort of technology and public relations is enough to assure proper progress.

A discussion panel on the selection of proper types of artificial equipment was led by Joseph Zaba with Pan American Petroleum Corporation, to highlight Friday's session. Other panelists were: Jerry F. Boutwell, Bartlesville, Okla.; Douglas O. Johnson, Tulsa, Okla.; R. G. Ralph, Huntington Park, Calif.; C. D. Richards, Lufkin; R. W. Reekstin, Los Angeles, Calif.; and H. W. Winker, Houston.

Those attending from Post were Bob Bocell, Bill Hall and Martin Nichols all of the Alamo Oil Corporation.
