Wets may carry the Castro liquor case to the United States Supreme Court if a state return a final ruling in favor of the wets.

As indicated at Amarillo when the Texas Seventh Civil Appeals heard arguments on the Castro County appeal in Amarillo.

Attorney Carleton P. attended court session at the arguments were heard in the case also will apply to the court in district court here recently to declare Garza's Precinct 3 liquor election "null and void."

Jim Witherspoon, Hereford attorney representing liquor dealers in Castro County, told the court that if Texas courts ruled in favor of the wets the wets would have the right to appeal the case to the U. S. Supreme Court in Washington for denying citizens of dry counties equal protection of the law as guaranteed in the federal constitution.

The wets hold, Witherspoon said, that precincts or other political sub-divisions do not have the right under the Texas liquor law to local option in the 103 dry counties of the state, but only in the 192 wet counties.

Witherspoon, who argued his case for an hour and was questioned closely on various points by the court, held that local option should apply equally to all counties.

Observers predict that the Amarillo civil appeals court will hand down its decision by June 20—but that the case will be carried on to the Texas Supreme Court no matter what that decision is.

Roy Bass, of Lubbock, attorney for the dry forces, based his brief argument Tuesday on the wording of the state supreme court decision in the Dimmitt County case last summer.

He said the decision meant that justice precincts, towns and cities can vote "wet" only if the county in which they are located has voted "dry" since a 1935 constitutional amendment to the state constitution allowing political subdivisions to do so.

Witherspoon argued that Dimmitt (See CASTRO, page 8)

Utilities pact made for new housing addition

City council reached a ver- agreement Monday night with Robinson and Horace Henley pending water and sewer utility in the Fred Robinson addition clearing the way for the construction of the first in the new residential area in the next 30 days.

A compromise agreement after 90 minutes of discussion, and counter-pro- and Henley and Robinson a proposal by Mayor Shtyles that the city extend eight-inch water main in heart of the new residential at the city's expense and return the developers agree in all two-inch water lines to new homes at their own

A month time limit was agreed which the developers must develop the residential area in the proportionate share of er costs put up for the un- portion of the addition the time limit expires.

Attorney Carleton P. Webb at present at the session. Shtyles said he would have draw up the written con- with the developers on the same meeting, the coun-city council unanimously accepted a plat for development of the second portion of the Fred Robinson addition which contains a shopping center area and 13 building lots.

A plat of the first portion of the addition containing 47 building lots had been accepted by the city some months ago. A third portion of the development has yet to have its plat presented for the city's consideration.

Henley and Robinson told the city they planned first to develop the 47 building lots in the first portion platted and would proceed with paving and curb and guttering of this area, with the develop- ers hiring the city's engineer for the required engineering work and paying him for the work.

The first portion of the new division to be developed extends north from West 15th Street between Avenues O and Q.

All three portions of the new sub-division, besides the shopping center area on highway US-84 contains 108 building lots.

In response to a question, Mayor Shtyles said "I don't think we're setting a precedent" on the water utilities agreement "as this is an orderly development of the city's residential area and does not cross barren ground."

Before the two developers ac- cepted the city's comprise water offer, the negotiations as in months past appeared to be at an impasse.

Shtyles told the pair that "the council has already been talked a about six additional residential sub-divisions" and "we can't do any more for you than we've already offered."

Garza county woman bitten by Snake at back door

Mrs. Douglas Buchanan is doing satisfactorily today at Garza Memorial Hospital after suffering a rattlesnake bite Monday morning about 9 o'clock at her home, 16 miles northeast of Post near the Verbena community.

Mrs. Buchanan was going out the back door to empty a trash can and was struck on the left foot by the snake. The snake struck completely through the shoe. She ran to the field where her husband was working, and he applied to tourniquet. They then started to the hospital in the car but got stuck in the mud and had to go back and get the pick-up.

Mrs. Buchanan is a first grade teacher in the Post Elementary School.

132 Vote Margin over Robinson— Myers runoff winner in commission race

Jack Myers, Southland area rancher, defeated incumbent Racy Robinson by a 132 vote margin in the runoff Democratic primary Saturday to win his party's nomination for the Precinct 1 County Commissioner post.

The unofficial final returns gave Myers 404 votes to 272 for Robinson.

Myers' victory was a reversal of the May 7 primary result in which Robinson defeated Myers 424 to 404 in a four-man race which also included Victor Kuykendoll and Clay B. Johnson.

Myers piled up handy margins at three of the precincts four voting boxes, including a 79 vote edge in the big North Post box. Robinson led only in the Pleasant Valley box and in the absentee balloting.

This was the only county race in the runoff primary.

Most of the county's other voters stayed home as W. T. McDonald of Bryan defeated incumbent Lloyd Davidson in his state-wide race for judge of the Criminal Appeals Court in the only county-wide runoff.

Davidson got the Garza voters' decision 359 to 288, but McDonald won in the Texas balloting as a whole, 280,687 to 346,413 for Davidson.

Only 727 votes—676 of them in Precinct 1—were cast in the county Saturday, as compared to 1,838 votes in the May 7 primary.

Myers, who stopped in at The Dispatch office Monday, said he wanted to thank Precinct 1 voters. (See MYERS, page 8)

Dan Rankin injures hand in oil field

Dan Rankin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rankin, was injured Tuesday morning in an oil field accident in Plains. His right hand was crushed when caught in some of the machinery.

Dan was first taken to the hospital in Plains and later flown by a charter plane to a hand specialist in Oklahoma City, Okla. He underwent surgery Tuesday afternoon to graft skin and set a bone in his hand. Friday he is to undergo further surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. Rankin flew from Lubbock to Oklahoma City Tuesday morning to be with their son, who is a spring graduate of Post High School.

12 new homes to start in Westgate Terrace

12 new home starts are expected to get underway here in the next two weeks as a FHA-approved residential subdivision—Westgate Terrace.

Patterson, who will be in Post as quickly as he can, announced today the formation of Tex-Sun Homes, with himself as president to develop Westgate Terrace.

The original announcement of the development of Westgate Terrace had Commuter Homes, Inc., as the builder with Bryan Williams & Son as developer.

Patterson, who was an officer of Commuter Homes and its project supervisor, has now formed Tex-Sun Homes, Inc., to handle both construction and development of the new addition.

Patterson will build a new home for himself in the new addition and will move his family here from Abernathy.

Hailstorm losses now estimated up to $100,000

Estimated losses in the May 28 hail storms here continued to jump this week with one local insurance man estimating insurance settlements probably will total between $80,000 and $100,000.

Roof losses were much heavier than first realized.

Some homeowners were amazed to have their insurance men tell them they needed a completely new roof when they did not think they had suffered any damage.

Claims continued to pour into local insurance offices this week and adjusters are still busy trying to clean them up.

Roofing crews meanwhile are busy getting on the roofs.

Dewitt Caylors set open house Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. Dewitt Caylor are going to hold open house Sunday for their new Twin Cedar Apartments for the Aged.

The apartments are located at 107 West Seventh and will accommodate 12 people. The concrete tie building was recently completed by Lefty Davies, contractor, and features a large lobby and entertaining room.

Recreational facilities, including an organ, are to be provided, Mrs. Caylor said today.

Mrs. Iva Sanders, licensed vocational nurse, will be in charge of the apartments.

Applications are now being accepted for the new apartments.

HOME FROM HOSPITAL

Pete Morgan, who suffered a heart attack several days ago, is at home now and reported to be doing as well as can be expected. He has been in Garza Memorial Hospital.

Electronics firm would spend $75,000 to $100,000 here—

A new kind of public utility firm—the Great States Electronics, Inc., of Lubbock—has asked the city council for a franchise in Post to offer clear picture television of all three national networks without the necessity of antennae on local rooftops.

Tom Ireland, representing the Lubbock firm, gave the City Council a proposed ordinance on this kind of a utility for its study and future action at the council's June meeting Monday night in City Hall.

He explained his firm would spend $75,000 to $100,000 here and would erect a TV receiving tower 400 to 500 feet high to permit "guaranteed" reception of not only Lubbock's two stations but also of Midland, Big Spring, and Odessa, if necessary so the ABC network shows could be viewed here as well as NBC and CBS.

This also would permit good color television reception here, Ireland declared.

Lubbock firm low bidder at $22,690

Post's City Council Monday night accepted the low bid by Knox and Gailey of Lubbock of $22,690 for the remodeling and expansion of City Hall and the addition of central heating and refrigerated air conditioning.

Work is expected to get under way here next week and be completed in between 60 and 90 days.

Plans drawn by the Lubbock architectural firm of Cantrell and Burns call for a modern front on the entire building which will be expanded to include the former filling station on the corner.

Five bids for the work were received here Friday afternoon at the bid opening.

Others were: Parks Construction Co. of Snyder, $33,000; Dipple & Montgomery of Lubbock, $24,595; Pharr Construction Co. of Lubbock, $25,744; and the Riviere Construction Co. of Lubbock, $27,000.

Rains bring more moisture to county

Rains Saturday night, Tuesday night and Wednesday afternoon gave much of the county more moisture needed.

A total of .23 of an inch of moisture was reported here in the Saturday night thunderstorm. The measurement here Tuesday night was 4 of an inch.

Much heavier rainfall was received north and east of Post Tuesday night with an inch and a half of moisture being received six miles north of town. An inch fell in the Grassburg community.

Some reported washing out of newly planted cotton, but others reported no damage.

A sand storm Sunday night, hitting in ahead of a thunderstorm front which brought rain to Slaton and Lubbock, damaged cotton in the Close City and Gordon areas.

Some replanting was reported necessary there.

Most of the irrigated cotton is now up. Dryland cotton plantings are now being completed in the area.

Pierce is manager of merchants group

E. E. Pierce has been named acting manager of the Post Retail Merchants Association while Dr. A. B. Carter, the association manager, is recuperating from a recent operation.

Pierce was selected Monday at a meeting of officers and directors of the credit organization.

Pierce plans to establish his office in his residence and members can obtain 24 hour service by phoning Pierce at 2963. Pierce urged members to use the service. He said credit files are now almost complete.

Directors also elected Robert Cox as a director to fill the vacancy left on the board by the moving of Dowe H. Mayfield Sr., to Lubbock.

Truck turns over, 3 brothers hurt

A whiskey distributor's truck from Odessa turned over twice four miles out of Post on the Spur highway about 5:30 p. m. yesterday cutting and bruising the three brothers who were riding in the cab.

Bobby and Tommy Ned, 10 and 11, of Odessa, were treated at Garza Memorial Hospital here and released. Their older brother, driver of the truck, was only bruised.

City Marshal Otis G. Shepherd who investigated the crash with two other local officers said the truck driver was passing a car when one wheel of the truck got off the highway onto the soft shoulder and the driver lost control.

New city TV utility plan proposed

A new kind of public utility firm—the Great States Electronics, Inc., of Lubbock—has asked the city council for a franchise in Post to offer clear picture television of all three national networks without the necessity of antennae on local rooftops.

Tom Ireland, representing the Lubbock firm, gave the City Council a proposed ordinance on this kind of a utility for its study and future action at the council's June meeting Monday night in City Hall.

This also would permit good color television reception here, Ireland declared.

Many local sets in various parts of town now have difficulty in receiving a clear picture on Channel 13 from Lubbock, possibly due to power used by the station, interference, and the Caprock.

Ireland explained his company would secure alley right of way and put cables into homes buying the service. He said no installation charge is planned, as in some cities, and added they expected the monthly charge for such service would be no more than "$5 or $6 monthly."

The Lubbock electronics firm would open an office here, station servicemen here, and guarantee their service into homes, he told the councilmen.

The city would be paid 2 percent of gross receipts by the firm as its franchise tax under the company's proffered ordinance.

The Spur city council is in the process of adopting such a new utility ordinance and franchising the Lubbock firm. Others are being sought at Dimmitt, Colorado City, and Ballinger.

County Library issue far from dead

A couple of months have rolled by since the study group named by the Garza County Commissioners' Court to look into the proposition of a county library completed its work and made its report.

The waiting has been to determine where the county is going to stand next year on property valuations—especially those of the oil companies, which pay such a big percentage of the entire county tax load.

If the oil valuations dropped considerably, obviously there would be no chance to consider a county library start, except by a tax levy boost. That answer should be forthcoming now.

Those who want a county library feel they have a good case for one.

They think it would be well worth the cost and a big stride forward here.

These folks are willing to seek support for a library by petition, an acceptable method according to the county library law of Texas.

They also point out that the court is not in the habit of asking everybody to vote on all money expenditures. They didn't wait to hear from the people before air-conditioning the courtroom or starting a remodeling there.

The commissioners deemed it advisable to get those jobs done and they did them. It is within the court's power to act in the same way on the county library proposition.

Outside of an election, there is no satisfactory way to get an expression from the people, other than a petition method.

For those who have been wondering what's happened to the county library proposition, this is the answer. The group has been waiting until after the board of equalization hearings to go into the matter further with the court.

It is to be hoped that when they do, the commissioners in the interim will have given sufficient thought to the proposition to be willing to move on the project.—JC.

Park effort showing results

Thanks to the long-range cooperative park program of Garza County and the City of Post and to an enterprising park board, we have an inviting recreation spot here for use this summer by the citizens of Post and Garza County and to all others who wish to use it.

The swimming pool, of course, is the only park feature that has been fully developed, but the others are coming along.

Dozens of trees have been planted and the park is being watered daily to keep the grass green and growing. The water is being pumped from South Lake, which divides the park, thus making it unnecessary to use city water, which might well be at a premium before the hot weather season ends.

There are some playground facilities at the park, a barbecue pit and a picnic table. These facilities, too, need to be improved and expanded, all of which is included in the long-range program drawn up by the County and the City on a cooperative basis.

South of the lake is the Garza County 4-H Building, which has been put to considerable use since it was completed a year or so ago.

Roads have been improved at the park, giving convenient, all-weather entrances and exits for picnickers.

The improvements at the swimming pool have been many since the pool was first opened some five years ago, but at the rate things are going, it won't be long until improvement of other park facilities will catch up with the pool.

All in all, the City-County Park is growing into quite a recreation area—one of which we all can be proud, considering the shape it was in two or three years ago.—CD.

United effort for children

We've just received a booklet entitled "Texas Children," which is a report of the Governor's Committee 1960 White House Conference on Children and Youth. The 96-page booklet is filled on every page with pertinent findings growing out of the tremendous response throughout the State in the program of the Governor's Conference on Children and Youth, leading up to the White House Conference held this spring.

Thousands of Texans in every walk of life contributed their time and energies to this statewide program. The statewide surveys and the discussions and reports made at the Governor's Conference on Children and Youth will have a lasting effect on efforts by private citizens and State and local governments in Texas to resolve specific problems brought to light.

It would be necessary for one to read the entire booklet to get the most out of it, but one page, whose heading is "Recommendations on Values and Ideals," tells a lot. The seven recommendations listed on that single page are as follows:

That the public upgrade instead of downgrade parents, since parents and the home carry the greatest responsibility for exemplifying and teaching values and ideals of our society.

That other institutions of society, such as the church and the schools, recognize they are not in competition with parents, and for the sake of youth, look carefully at their programs with a view to helping fathers and mothers do their job well.

That parents, other adults, and youth explore together the possibilities for establishing codes or setting goals of conduct and values.

That the state re-examine its laws relating to marriage and divorce.

That family and marriage counseling services have a more specific place in our communities.

That community discussion groups on family living be organized through already existing services and professional organizations and groups.

That the public schools of Texas find new and more effective ways of communicating values and ideals to pupils in view of the large percentage of the child's life which is spent in school.—CD.

Here's tip on happier vacationing

Now that the children are out of school, many Post families will soon be starting off across the country on summer vacation trips.

Postmaster Harold Voss has these bits of special advice for those who want their vacations to be as pleasant as possible.

1. Don't let a stuffed mail box advertise your absence. Ask a neighbor to take the mail from your box and hold it until you return, or make written request to your postmaster to hold your mail at the post office while you are away.

2. File a forwarding order at the local post office if you want to receive mail while you're away. Forwarding first-class mail does not require additional postage. Other classes of mail will need more postage, but you can guarantee payment of this postage by so indicating on the forwarding order which you fill out.

3. Give your full and complete vacation address to people who may write you.

4. Use enough postage. Remember that regular size post cards take 3 cents, jumbo size take 4 cents, and first-class letters take 4 cents an ounce. Post cards with appendages—bags of salt, bags of ore, national park mementos—require the first-class rate of postage.

5. Don't send cash in letters. Use postal orders to transmit money, and register letters containing other valuable items.

6. Prepare packages carefully, and address them on one side only.

7. Buy books of stamps for convenience.

"If people don't make proper arrangements for their mail, an otherwise pleasant vacation can be a mighty frustrating experience," the postmaster said. "The careless preparation or handling of vacation mail can easily result in the traveler's having fewer friends when he returns than he had when he left."

What our contemporaries are saying

Suggestion to safety minded residents of Rails—There are a few teenage and older drivers that are raising the roof with cars and an apparent license to fly on our city streets. I would suggest if one of them runs into you because of his speed and recklessness, which is likely, that instead of reporting him to your law enforcement officers you simply get out of your car and proceed to stomp him in the pavement. It might cost you 20 bucks for fighting, but I think it would be worth it. There is no cause to let these overgrown kids drive 55 and 60 miles an hour up and down Main Street, paying no attention to the traffic lights or people in other cars. It is time something was done and a sound trashing probably would be best, especially since it would be a surprise move. Most of these kids show by their actions they don't know what a good tanning means.—Marvin Tomme in The Rails Banner.

that they smothered Senator Humphrey's poor man campaign. Thus they turned what appeared to be certain defeat into a pronounced victory. Senator Kennedy's advantage in the national campaign for the Democratic nomination was thus greatly augmented. Once more the old adage that money is a curse is disproved. We had a friend once who said that the curse of riches is only exceeded by the curse of poverty.—The Floyd County Hesperian.

Had you heard that the filler (we've forgotten who he is, and guess that doesn't matter) who predicted Pearl Harbor has also predicted that the third World War will start by June 19? This was noised about at the newspaper office, and one of the girls says she had a sinking feeling. Her first thought: "Oh, shoot, that's before my vacation starts."—Orlin Brewer in The Hockley County Herald.

Sen. Jack Kennedy's family and friends poured their talent and money into the West Virginia primary campaign in such large portions

LAST WEEK'S COLUMN, written on Friday, dealt to some extent with our crying need for rain. Then, after the first press run was off Saturday and it was too late to change the column, the rain came down in buckets full. Next time, I think I'll leave it to Publisher Jim Cornish, who doesn't write his "Postings" column until Wednesday, to comment on the weather.

This week—here I go predicting again—the wife and I will be on the first of a series of one-week vacations coming up here at The Dispatch office. We'll be visiting "long lost" relatives in Burnet County and coming back by Grand Prairie for a visit with our daughter and son-in-law and grandson.

ON THE SUBJECT OF VACATIONS, I came upon something a day or two ago that applies to vacations of two weeks' duration, but not to those of one week. Since it all works out about the same anyway—one week or two weeks—here it is:

VACATION—
—it consists of 2 weeks
—which are 2 short
after which you're 2 tired
—2 return
—2 work
—and 2 broke

D. C. (Billy) Hill and his wife, Jo, of 711 West 11th are as good as neighbors as you'll find anywhere when it comes to throwing open the doors of their up-to-date storm cellar to all who want to enter and to as many as it will hold. Post, thank goodness, has a number of people like the Hills who own storm cellars and who don't mind putting up with "company" when the storm warnings are out. It gives those of us who don't have storm cellars a feeling of security to know that we have such neighbors.

WELL, TOM DRAKE didn't get to join the graduating class on his trip, after all. That made disappointments come in bunches for Tom, who came down with pneumonia less than 12 hours before the baccalaureate service opened the graduation programs. All during the school year, Tom had worked hard with other members of his class to raise money for the senior trip. Just after the graduates had taken off for Panama City, Fla., High School Principal Glenn Whittenberg talked it over with Tom's doctor and was told by the doctor that Tom more than likely would be well enough to join the seniors at New Orleans Friday night on their return trip. So, Glenn got busy and contacted a number of business men who "chipped in" with enough money for Tom to fly to New Orleans Friday to join his classmates on their return trip. But, it didn't work out. The youngster's condition didn't improve as rapidly as expected, and the doctor told Whittenberg that it wouldn't be wise for Tom to make the trip. The seniors were disappointed, too. The first thing one of them said to us when he got off the train Sunday morning was, "We're sure sorry Tom didn't get to make it."

My friend up the street says a small town is where you never know what you've been up to until the gossip gets back to you.

UNTIL WE RECEIVED the Texas Liquor Control Board's current monthly bulletin, we didn't realize that so many elections to legalize liquor were held on April 9, the date Garza County's Precinct 3 went "wet" by 10 votes.

Seven local option elections were held that day and another one of the seven was also in Garza County, where Precinct 4 voted to remain "dry".

THE SCORE WAS 4 to 3—four of the Justice Precincts voting to remain "dry" and the other three voting to become "wet". Besides Justice Precinct 3 in Garza County, where the vote was 133 to 123 for Justice Precinct 7 of Willacy County also went "wet" by a vote of 33 to 8, and Justice Precinct 3 (Navasota) of Grimes County went over to the "wet" side by a vote of 833 for and 724 against.

Besides Justice Precinct 4 of Garza County, others voting to remain "dry" were Precinct 5 of Liberty County, the Incorporated City of Coleman in Coleman County, and Precinct 3 of Ellis County.

RALLYING TO THE call for help from the Little League and the Babe Ruth League, the Post Chamber of Commerce has donated a public address system for use at all this season's games. On top of that, some topflight announcers have been working the games, one of the most entertaining of whom is L. W. (Lynn) Duncan. We'd never heard Lynn announce until the other night when we kept scores while he was at the "mike". He not only kept the fans up with the game, but outdid Dizzy Dean on his between-innings patter.

Parting Thought: Why hoard your troubles? They have no market value, so just throw them away.

Very few elective officials have come out strongly for any kind of broad-based sales tax. Some are bound to look longingly at this avenue, however, since the amount that will have to be raised next year will, if teachers get any sort of raise, be almost as much as a retail sales tax would net.

"LAME DUCK" OPINIONS

Atty. Gen. Will Wilson has been asked for opinions on whether retiring lawmakers should continue to serve on two important interim committees.

Four members of the Commission on State and Local Tax Policy are "lame ducks." They are the chairman, Sen. Bill Fly of Victoria, and Rep. Frates Seeligson of San Antonio, who were defeated for re-election; Rep. V. L. Ramsey of Beckville, who ran for comptroller and lost; and Rep. Obie Bristow of Big Spring who didn't run this year.

Three of the five members of the House General Investigating Committee also did not run for new terms. They are Rep. H. J. Blanchard, chairman, and Reps. Joe Burkett of Kerrville and Carl Conley of Raymondville.

If the Attorney General rules these men should be replaced, most of the new appointments will be made by retiring House Speaker Waggoner Carr.

GAS TAX ARGUED

Court action has begun on what will undoubtedly be a long legal battle over whether the natural gas severance beneficiary tax passed last year is constitutional.

An estimated $15,000,000 a year in state revenue is at stake.

Tennessee Gas Transmission Co., which filed a separate suit, was the first to begin argument in the Austin district court. A consolidated suit, involving 80 other companies, will be heard by the same court on June 16.

Tennessee Co. spokesmen argued that the pipelines are in the business of transporting only and should not be subject to a tax based on the value of the gas.

Case is not expected to be decided finally for many months when it has gone through all the lower courts and finally to the U. S. Supreme Court.

SHORT SNORTS

Corporation tax payments have reduced the general revenue fund deficit to $45,736,868, according to State Treasurer Jesse James . . . Forty per cent of Texas boat owners still have not registered their craft under the new boat licensing law . . . Texas traffic deaths for the first 20 weeks of this year are down by 13 per cent from what they were a year ago, reports the Department of Public Safety.

Legislature appropriated $23,750 for the Commission, about 10 per cent of what was asked.

Between now and Sept. 1, 1961, the Commission proposes to spend about $50,000 on printing, mailing and advertising. Remainder would be spent on salaries and office expenses.

Commission's goal is to attract 254 new industries to Texas in the next year.

Former Attorney General John Ben Sheppard of Odessa has been named chairman of a 400-member citizens advisory committee which will assist the committee by gathering information on local conditions.

JOHNSON DINNER PLANNED

A $30-a-plate dinner by the Lyndon Johnson For President dinner committee will be held in Austin's Municipal Auditorium on June 13. The dinner will honor Senate Majority Leader Lyndon B. Johnson, Speaker Sam Rayburn, and Gov. Price Daniel.

Honorary chairman is Former Vice President John Nance Garner of Uvalde. Co-chairmaning the event will be Austin's Mayor Tom Miller and Congressman Homer Thornberry.

Economy!

To begin with, Falcon is America's very lowest-priced 6-passenger car* . . . $64 to $154 less than the other compacts.

"Falcon delivers the best fuel economy of the three new compact cars," says Motor Trend magazine. Owner reports and fleet operator logs consistently show Falcon mileage figures of up to 30 miles per gallon with regular gas.

Falcon goes 4,000 miles between oil changes, costs less to service, less to license and in most places, less to insure.

Falcon saves you more and still gives you full room for 6 big people and all their luggage. Small wonder Falcon has become first so fast!

Ruth Miller, Dean Huddleston wed in double ring ceremony

standing before an altar flanked by candelabra, fern and white and blue carnations. Miss Ruth Miller and Dean Huddleston pledged double ring wedding vows Friday evening at the First Baptist Church. The bride and groom were Mr. and Mrs. Leo Wisley, 707 West 11th, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Huddleston, Star Route, Post.

The Rev. Bill Hogue, pastor, performed the ceremony at 7 o'clock. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white tulle with a long train and a long-fitted bodice with applique designs highlighting the skirt. The floor-length skirt flared from the waist-length veil of silk illusion held in place with a crown of pearls, and she carried a colorful bouquet of white carnations and a white Bible.

Miss Kay Helen Ford, cousin of the bridegroom, was maid of honor. She wore a dress of white pima cotton with a net overlay, designed with a sweetheart neckline and a full skirt. Her bouquet was white and blue carnations.

Miss Karen Potts and Miss Lois Adams were bridesmaids. Their dresses were styled similar to the maid of honor's and were blue polka-dot. They carried blue and white carnations.

Candlelighters were Misses Kay Lacey and Peggy Butler, and Miss Linda Kay Webb of Sweetwater, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. Mike Huddleston of Snyder, nephew of the bridegroom, was ring bearer.

Kenneth Huddleston attended his mother as best man, and ushers were Larry Don Richardson and Ray Davis.

Wedding music was by Bob Miller who sang "I Love You Truly", "The Lord's Prayer", and "Benedictus", accompanied by George L. Wilson at the organ.

Mr. and Mrs. Wisley were hosts of a reception at the Community room of the First National Bank following the ceremony. Decorations carried out a white and blue theme.

The serving table was laid with white lace over blue, with floral centerpieces. Mrs. Roy Josey registered guests, and Mrs. Pete Maddox and Miss Linda Wilks served.

For a wedding trip to Colorado Springs, Colo., Mrs. Huddleston chose a blue sheath with corresponding accessories. Upon their return they will be at home at 1101 Apartment B East 30th Street, Snyder, where he is employed.

The bride is a spring graduate of Post High School, and her husband also attended Post schools.

New record set in Texas deaths

Cancer and heart diseases set a new record of last year, accounting for almost half the 73,444 total deaths in Texas during 1959.

Final tabulation of State Department of Health death statistics shows 34,629 deaths from heart diseases and 11,996 from cancer. The cancer death rate in Texas is still well below the rate for the United States as a whole. Texas registered 117 deaths from the disease for each 100,000 population compared to the national cancer death rate of close to 150 per 100,000 population.

Texas has a younger population, which probably accounts for the disparity between the Texas and national cancer death rates. Cancer strikes most frequently at people past 45 years of age. Of the 1,000 cancer deaths last year, 900 were past 45.

Heart diseases are demonstrating a significant increase. Three years ago there were 22,888 deaths from heart diseases—a rise of 1,741 for 1959 over the number registered in 1956.

Most of the increase is in the older age groups. Of the total heart disease deaths, 23,519 were past 45 years of age. The heart disease rate for all ages during 1959 was 201 per 100,000 population.

As life expectancy increases, there are more people are going full victim to heart diseases and stroke by virtue of living into the years when they are more vulnerable to the ravages of the twin diseases.

Here is a simple four-point program for general good health:

1. Eliminate excessive weight and take your heart. Do not overeat.
2. Ask your family physician for a plan of exercise suitable for you. A non-strenuous hobby is beneficial.
3. If you must smoke, do it in moderation. There is strong evidence linking excessive smoking to increases in lung cancer.
4. Above all, see your family physician at least once annually for a thorough physical examination.

SIGNS LEAD AND PROTECT

Curve ahead... the highway is marked and you slow to the proper speed to take the curve safely. You drive on, assured that the next turn will be marked. Confidence and trust are placed in our nation's highway departments. Trust in the Lord, for His love is clearly defined and His ways are well marked. Depend on the Lord to direct you each day. Attend church each Sunday and seek the Lord's will for your life.

"Teach me thy way, O LORD, and lead me in a plain path..."

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Good records help farm operations

COLLEGE STATION — Profitable farm and ranch operations developed through alert, aggressive management. Adequate records are an essential part of that management, points out C. H. Bates, extension farm management specialist.

Business records can serve as a constant review and analysis needed to make them more effective. Over-all record keeping is stressed by Bates, but enterprise records really show where the profits and losses are originating and why.

In most cases, points out the specialist, the over-all farm or ranch business is made up of several segments or enterprises. A complete summary of the business usually does not reveal the relative profitability of the different enterprises or parts of the whole business. Enterprise records call for a bit more understanding of accounting since they involve some additional breakdown of cash account items.

Work now underway by the extension farm management specialists and field personnel is aimed at assisting a limited number of farm and ranch operations with enterprise records in each county. As resources permit, this work will be expanded, according to Bates.

He adds that farmers and ranchmen, like other businessmen, must use every available means to maintain satisfactory returns on their investment, labor and managerial ability. If enterprise records will improve the efficiency of the business, and Bates believes they will, then they should be kept.

He says that local county extension agents can supply additional information on enterprise record keeping and assistance if it is desired.

Shortly after its discovery by the French in 1605 Nova Scotia had its first social club. It was founded by Champlain to relieve "the boredom of wilderness life." It was called "The Order of the Good Time".

I Give You Texas . . .

By BOYCE HOUSE

Newspaper reporters aren't like they used to be. (Who or what is?)

I remember, in my "cub" days as a member of the staff of a Southern newspaper where I specialized in writing obituaries and minor fires, one day there walked into the office a short, chunky individual, with a rolling gait. He wore glasses and had a serious way of speaking. He informed the city editor that he had just landed—and that was the correct word—in town as (he said) he and his wife had floated down the Mississippi on a raft.

He had (he said) visited the leper island and had talked with Father Dutton, who had succeeded in the Far East, or maybe it was the South Seas, he had been in a shipwreck, had washed ashore on an island and had been captured by natives who tortured him by pulling out his toe-nails. I do not recall how he escaped as the adventures by that time had my head whirling but I seem vaguely to remember that (he said) he made a speech and became their chief.

Of course, a man with such an exotic career was hired on the spot. Soon he was star of the staff, his name signed to more stories than all the rest of us combined. In fact, he became so well-established in our city that he married a prominent lady. What became of the wife who had floated down the Mississippi on a raft was never exactly clear. Come to think of it, none of us ever did actually see her.

It was not to be expected that our paper could hope to keep the services of so remarkable a journalist permanently. One day, he solemnly shook the hand of each of us and told us that the great open spaces were calling.

When next we heard of him, he was on a Pacific Coast newspaper—as financial editor. The next we heard after that, the financial editor was gone but, so as not to be forgotten, he had left, not footprints on the sands of time, but a bevy of "hot" checks. Possibly he drifted on to the Mayan ruins of Yucatan or journeyed to Egypt to capture crocodiles.

My point is, reporters aren't what they used to be. I reckon it's the standardizing influence of schools of journalism—or maybe the more efficient exchange of information between credit bureaus.

Vet's Forum

Q. When I come out of service next month I will be eligible as a Korea veteran for a GI home loan. Will I lose this eligibility if I sign up for re-enlistment?

A. No, you would not lose eligibility for a GI home loan by re-enlisting. However, you would be bound by the deadline of Feb. 1, 1965, like any Korea veteran.

Q. If I should add the total disability income rider to my World War Two GI insurance policy, and become disabled, would the amount my beneficiaries would receive from the policy in case of my death be reduced in any way?

A. No. Disability payments made under the rider in no way decrease payments made to beneficiaries of your GI insurance policy.

Q. Is a "peacetime" veteran with a disability rated 50 per cent entitled to more compensation for dependents?

A. Yes. Peacetime veterans rated 50 per cent or more disabled may be entitled to additional compensation for a wife, minor children, or dependent parents.

Q. I was in a Japanese prison camp during the fighting in Korea. I have a dental condition traceable to my service, but for which I do not receive compensation from VA. Is there a deadline in my case for applying for VA outpatient dental treatment?

A. No. You may apply at any time, and receive as many treatments as needed.

The Texian Editor's Frontier News Flashes

Department of Journalism & Graphic Arts
University of Houston

May 9-14, 1960

The West:—
The Gonzales Inquirer says that the prospects for good crops were never better in Western Texas than now. Cotton has already begun to form squares, and will doubtless bloom in a week or two more. Corn is beginning to silk and tasse.

Upper Country:—
The Sherman North Texian mentions the finding of the dead body of a man in the Chickasaw nation, who had evidently been murdered for his money. He appeared as though he would weigh 160 lbs, had dark hair and was well dressed. The name Joseph Snope was found on a paper in one of his pockets.

The East:—
The Rusk Enquirer of the fifth, complains of the weather there but says that the crops look quite thrifty. The Enquirer on entering upon its fifth volume reviews its history and promises to do what it thinks is right for the future.

Except its original "know nothingism" and its occasional opposition to the democracy, it is a first rate paper and we shall always rejoice in its success.

LETTER FROM NEW YORK
Dear Editor:— Before this reaches you the action of the Charleston Convention will be known in Texas, thanks to the telegraphic wires. What a show everybody's been in for the past week! I have been amused at the difference of opinion expressed in every little knot of men you might chance to see relative to the two absorbing topics of the day, viz: "who will the Charleston Convention nominate" and "which of the two will be conqueror in the great international pugilistic encounter, Heenan or Sayers."

These two great questions, New York expects to be settled by tomorrow's telegraphic dispatches and I expect there will be no little excitement in the city when the news reaches here.

The dispatches from the Charleston Convention have been somewhat contradictory thus far, but I

New high school should be ready in 7 more weeks

Supt. R. T. Smith in a talk to Rotarians at their Tuesday luncheon in City Hall said the new high school building is 75 per cent completed and should be finished by July 15.

Going back over bids to date and anticipated bids on the school's $710,000 plant expansion program, Smith pointed out that in building the new high school for $336,207 instead of the architect's estimate of $450,000 the school trustees were able to construct the new gymnasium for $124,664 without needing additional funds.

Counting the $13,487.25 already received in interest on the bonds, the school district is obtaining the new high school, the complete remodeling of the old high school building into a junior high building, the football field house and bleachers, purchase of the building site and paying architect fees and legal expenses and still have a $2,648.25 balance in the building fund created by the $710,000 bond issue.

FUNDS FOR REMODELING

He said while the remodeling of the old high school can't be undertaken this summer enough funds—or $84,584—will remain to complete it at a later date.

In his talk, Smith also touched upon the establishment of a curriculum coordinator in the local school system, adoption of a new purchasing order system which will permit closer budgeting of future school funds, building by building, the development of dual high school courses of study for students not planning to go on to college and those who do plan to do so, and a new rating system for local teachers. He also touched upon improvement in the school's reading program and the extending of graduation requirements in the high school to 20 credits.

Addition--

Henley, after a conference with Robinson, declared: "We can live with that."

Approximately 1,700 feet of sewer line and 800 feet of water main will be required to reach the new addition, City Superintendent Henry Tate estimated.

The city's utility policy has been to require the developers to put up funds for all water and sewer extensions with the city going only 100 feet for a new residential tie-in.

PROPOSAL BY HENLEY

Earlier Henley had proposed that if the city brought the sewer and water lines to the edge of the addition then the developers would put up the necessary funds to lay the sewer and water lines in the addition to the city's specifications, reimbursement one-half the first year after the second year and the other half the second year.

Shytle pointed out this would be giving the developers something not offered other developers — a block of water line and 1700 feet of sewer line at the city's expense to reach the edge of the addition.

The entire proposed addition comprises some 10,288 acres from Avenue M west to Avenue Q and north from West 15th Street to the US-84 highway which cuts diagonally to the northwest.

Henley said after the meeting that the FHA already has approved the new sub-division for loans pending meeting requirements for paving and utilities which were agreed to at the council meeting.

He said all houses must be brick-trimmed, of new construction, with either carport or garage, restricted to one-family residences, and of 900 square feet living space or more per home.

Henley, a Lubbock contractor, will be the builder.

Four home from Rotary conclave

Two members of the Post Rotary Club, President-elect Ronnie Parker and Marvin Hudman, and their wives, met last week in Miami and Miami Beach, Fla., with more than 15,000 Rotarians from most of the 116 countries of the world in which there are Rotary Clubs for the 51st annual convention of Rotary International.

Mr. and Mrs. Parker returned to Post Saturday and the Hudmans Sunday.

During the week they heard numerous distinguished speakers, participated in discussion forums on their various businesses and professions and on the service activities of Rotary clubs around the world. They also considered proposed legislation and enjoyed special entertainment features.

Among the speakers they heard were Dr. Victor A. Belaunde of Lima, Peru, president of the General Assembly of the United Nations; James P. Mitchell, U. S. Secretary of Labor, Captain Eddie Rickenbacker of New York City, chairman of the board of directors of Eastern Airlines, and Ben C. McGahey, chairman of the board of commissioners of Metropolitan Dade County, Florida.

Rotary International's 1961 convention will be held in Tokyo, Japan, the first Rotary convention to be held in Asia.

Postings--

window I thought it hit me right on the nose but I wasn't hurt."

Two or three more business starts and remodelings are now in the wind to add to our forecast a while back that this was Post's "business building year." But it's going to be a home building year too judging by what we learned at the city council session Monday night. Not only has the council recently cleared plans for two new residential additions which eventually could include over 150 homes, but it has "six more" already in the talking stage for utilities. Even though the oil drilling business is in an all-over-Texas slump, Post continues a quickening building pace which promises a great deal for the community's future.

City Hall--

Heard Mayor Powell Shytle report part of the lighting equipment for additional street lights has arrived.

Heard Mayor Shytle report that the city equalization board may hold an additional hearing. A notice of such a hearing appears in today's Dispatch. This will have to do principally with the final determination of oil evaluations within the city for tax purposes. Equalization hearings were conducted for three days last week.

Named Gene Moore assistant city fire marshal.

Heard Mayor Shytle report that the four blocks of paving asked by the school district around the new high school is "touch and go" as not all other property owners involved are willing, especially since it involves half a block of paving for each of the avenues down the sides of the corner properties.

SMALL BUSINESS

If the just released annual report of the Senate Small Business Committee is any criterion of legislative scheduling, it now appears certain before this session of Congress adjourns, the Federal Trade Commission will be put very squarely on the hot seat.

Some time ago a member of this committee, Sen. Hubert Humphrey was quite explicit in an exchange of words with Earl Kintner, FTC chairman. Through his fearless foray into the world of the disco Jockey Chairman Kintner now shares top billing with Elvis Presley in matters of rock 'n' roll. Sen. Humphrey inquired why FTC did not get off time on vital small business matters.

This line of reasoning is taken up in the report of the full committee submitted by Sen. John Sparkman, chairman. In addition, the committee includes the following other Senators: Geo. Smathers, Alan Bible, Jennings Randolph, Clair Engle, E. L. Bartlett, Harrison Williams, Jr., Frank Moss, Everett Salloway, Andrew Schoeppel, Jacob Javits, John Cooper, Hugh Scott and Winston Prouty.

The report goes into some length on the situation in the food marketing industry.

By 1957 the Senate committee found, 20 of the nation's largest food chains account for 33% of the nation's food sales. In some markets, four chains account for 60% of food sales.

The report also called attention to the growing trend of the big chains to enter into the manufacturing end of the food business stating that the 30 big chains operated 99 of these captive manufacturing plants which accounted for over a billion dollars in sales last year, with 83% of the products of these plants sold through the chains' outlets.

The report also indicated by strongly worded language that when a few firms account for a relatively large share of sales, there seems to be quite a relation between competitors. Then the report says:

"Contrary to its resolution directing the current study of concentration in food marketing, and in spite of the ample evidence available, the FTC appears reluctant to extend its inquiry into matters relating to collusive pricing and unfair competitive methods. Your committee expects to see increased interest along this line during the second session of the 86th Congress. It plans to conduct a full study of the final FTC report."

It appears quite vital that the Senate Small Business not be diverted in its announced aim to investigate FTC actions in field of food marketing to find out why police sleep while depredations in the market place go on.

Thus it would seem quite important that anyone concerned with the growing, processing or handling of food support their Congressman in a real fact finding probe, because as one observer put it in just "Food is rapidly becoming too expensive to eat."

Oil flows in new Koonsman test

Oil flowed Monday on an additional test of the Strawn formation between 7,811 and 8,065 feet at General American Oil Company's No. 1-63-A Koonsman.

The test is located in Section 63, Block 5, H&GN Survey, one and one-half miles northeast of the Cain Sprberry and Strawn pools in Garza County.

In a two-hour test the flow rated at 15 barrels of oil per hour through quarter-inch choke. Reversed out was 7,650 feet of oil, 270 feet of heavy oil and gas-cut mud and no water.

In a previous 2 1/2 hour test at 7,946 to 8,065 feet gas surfaced in 10 minutes with 4,376 feet of oil recovered together with 200 feet of heavy oil and gas-cut mud and 300 feet of salt water.

Initial test of the Strawn at 7,751 to 7,810 surfaced gas and returned oil, plus mud-cut oil.

Deepening was continuing after the tests below 8,124 feet in lime and shale.

County was, in fact, dry before 1935 and that the election after 1935 merely continued prohibition.

He asserted the meaning of the amendment and of the state supreme court's earlier decision was to allow "true local option". Unless the smallest political subdivision can decide either way on the question, he argued, it is not true local option.

He added if dry forces are correct in their stand, then a county would have to hold an election and vote dry and then a political subdivision could "turn around and vote wet but by no other method."

This would be absurd. Witherpoon said.

Since the court goes on vacation later this month, observers are predicting a decision in the case before the vacation begins.

Vet's Forum

Q. I'm going to take evening college courses under the Korean GI Bill, and I realize I'll have to spread out the school work over quite a period, since I have a full-time job. How much time do I have to complete training? I was discharged in mid-1958.

A. Korea veterans have eight years from discharge or until Jan. 31, 1965, whichever comes earlier, to complete training. In no event may a veteran take training after Jan. 31, 1965.

Q. I understand that no new GI insurance is being issued except to Korea veterans who have some service-connected disabilities, but what other conditions must be met for a veteran to be eligible?

A. To be eligible for new GI insurance, a Korea veteran must have a service-connected disability so rated by the VA, and must apply within one year from the date VA rates him service-connected.

Q. Who gets the money allowance from VA where a child is taking courses under the War Orphans Education program, the student or the parent or guardian?

A. Usually the allowance is paid to the parent or guardian of the young man or woman going to school. There are, however, cases where the money may be paid to the young person directly.

Q. My wife and I both signed the note for my GI loan. Can we both be released from liability to VA, if we sell our house? The buyer we have in mind will take over the unpaid balance of the loan.

A. You may both be released, as long as the legal conditions for release are met. The new buyer must put in writing that he will buy your property and assume the balance of your loan. He must also satisfy VA that he is a good credit risk.

Tigers take Little League lead with 3 wins in row

Red Sox don't have chance to fight back

The Multiple Well Service Tigers charged back into first place in Post's Little League play during the past week with straight victories as the Brown Brothers' Red Sox waited on the weather and schedule for more action.

The winning streak put the Tigers in front of the Red Sox in the win column.

The Tigers outscored the Westerners 13 to 13 in a wild slugfest Thursday night, edged the Caprock Chevrons 4-3 in a tight one, and then got their day again to pound out a 14 to 0 decision over the First National Bank Dodgers Monday night.

That gave them a total winning streak for the three games of five.

THE HOMERS IN VICTORIES

Five homers came in the victories—three of them in five-run third inning against the Dodgers when Shortstop Corcoran, Centerfielder Dean, and Third Baseman Hutto all hit for the circuit.

Centerfielder Vargas slammed a home run for the deciding run in the fifth inning of the Tigers' triumph over the Westerners, and Centerfielder Hutto slugged the lead-runtripper in the fourth and the Corvairs when runs really scarce.

Against the Westerners, the Tigers sent 11 men to bat in the first frame and hammered them nine runs and then hung on the victory. Five doubles helped the big inning.

The Westerners held to two runs in the first three frames by Vargas, but five runs in the fourth, four more in the fifth and six in the sixth but couldn't catch up.

Centerfielder Dean drove in Rightfielder Walker who had walked in second for the first out.

Centerfielder Bilberry bunted safely home on a double by Hutto in the third. Hutto's homer came in the fourth with winning run coming in the fifth when First Sacker Vargas hit by the pitcher and moved

OUTDOORS IN TEXAS

There are plenty of miles in Texas, and plenty of coons. But a coon hunter would have to use seven league boots were he to run the varmints as they do in the forests and swamps of the Deep South.

So, resourceful Texans have come up with their own version of this classic night-time sport.

Almost any moonlit fall or winter night you can hear the hounds running hot on the trail of some wily coon. And you may be sure, hard behind the hounds, rocketing up and down the dry washes, and flattening the scrub growth, will come a jeoploard of excited hunters.

"JEERING FOR COONS"

Texas call this "jeeping for coons." It's more like a round-up. In one night you can cover five times the distance possible for a man on foot, or twice the territory that even a good horse could hope to navigate.

Men who never has hunted the raccoon, or even if you are a veteran of the orthodox coon hunt, you will get a big kick out of a night spent in the brush, jeeping your way down the ringtail trails.

Ranch families in South Texas, down Westhoff way, have turned this jeeping for coons into an exact science. They each have a pack of four or five good hounds, and a rugged jeep that goes anywhere. They study coon signs by day so they know where to hunt at night.

INVESTMENT LIKELY

All of us cannot be so exact, but you can scout around among the coon-hunting families in your neighborhood and almost surely in the process of getting acquainted, at least one family will invite you to go along on a hunt. If there doesn't happen to be such a hospitable family nearby—and you don't own any land of your own—your next best bet is to interest a landowner in this new sport.

Even if you have to "lease" hunting privileges it is money well spent.

Most likely though, friendly as these country folk generally are, the landowner, though he may not hunt himself, will welcome any responsible sportsman who wants to trim down the coon population on his place.

And you will find coons almost anywhere in Texas. There are more of them in South Texas than

LOCATE DIRECTION

Locate the direction carefully. Turn off the road, step on the gas, and head across country toward the action. Keep driving until you spot your hounds, or find that they have lost that particular trail. If the latter, then beep your horn button for them to come back and start all over. (When jeeping coons the car horn replaces the old cow-horn of a former day.)

Right here it might be well to mention that there are two ways to kill a coon, after the dogs have treed him.

Some coon hunters, once they have their varmint treed and spotted, bring him down with a well-placed slug. Other hunters "jump" their coon out of the tree and let the dogs finish him off. They claim this method is more sporting.

Those who choose shooting should use nothing larger than a .22 rifle, or pistol. This caliber is amply large, and the smaller gun is safer and more easily carried. All you do is spotlight the coon in the tree and shoot him. It is that simple.

COON CAN BE TOUGH
 "Jumping" your coon is somewhat more difficult. Here, one member of the party must climb the tree in which your coon has taken refuge and dislodge him. For

Robert W. West, 407 South Avenue P, has been certified as an instructor for the Hunter Safety Course sponsored by the National Rifle Association of America it was announced here today.

The new instructor will conduct the four-hour course in gun operation, safe gun-handling, techniques of shooting in the field and the safety responsibilities of all hunters.

The Hunter Safety Course is part of a nation-wide education program now available to the outdoor sportsmen of the United States through the facilities of the National Rifle Association. The course was designed to allow all communities in the country to educate their young and inexperienced hunters on a volunteer basis.

the climber uses a long stick, for an angry coon can be a tough customer at close quarters.

When the coon jumps, the waiting dogs pounce on him, triggering off a fierce, roaring battle. Sometimes the coon escapes, which provides the sporting chance mentioned.

This little drama is repeated over and over again, as often as you wish, only limited by the territory you can cover and the eagerness of your dog and companions . . . or your own physical ability to take it.

If, after reading this column you have formed the idea this is a cushy way to hunt coons, revise your notions.

"Jeeping for coons" is plenty rough, but you will enjoy it lots. When dawn lightens the sky, after clinging to the seat of a rocking, jarring, swaying jeep all night, you'll return to the ranch house craving plenty of rest to ease your weary, aching bones. And you will admit you've really had a hunt.

Robert West Hunter Safety Instructor

The hustling Cubs handed the Babe Ruth League leading Indians a double jolt Tuesday night—their first loss of the season 9 to 5, as well as a dazzling triple play that choked off an Indian uprising in the second when the game was scoreless.

The triple-killing, a play very unusual even in the major leagues, came in the top of the second with Sullivan and Mindieta, who had both walked on first and second.

Baldree slashed a sharp grounder to Third Sacker J. Sepeda. Sepeda tagged Sullivan going past him on the baseline into third for the first out when he fielded the ball. He snapped a throw to Second Sacker Blutch Cross at second in time to force Mindieta there. Cross relayed the ball to First Baseman Wayne Gamblin just in time to get the batter at first by a step.

The Cubs managed only four hits off Cornell and Pierce, the Indian hurlers, but didn't need a one of them in tallying eight times in the third and fourth frames.

Two hit batters, two walks, and two Indian errors accounted for three runs in the third, and one hit batsman, three walks and two more errors led to five big tallies in the fourth.

DEMING HITS HOMER
 Starting Pitcher J. Deming homered for the winners in the sixth with none on and Third Sacker Baldree hit a three-run homer for the Indians in the fourth, driving in Sullivan who had walked and Mindieta who had singled.

That blow tied the score at 3-3 until the Cubs five run fourth.

Deming went the route for the winners, effectively scattering seven hits. Mindieta and Pierce each got a pair of hits for the losers.

In the only other game of the week in the Babe Ruth circuit, the Braves edged the White Sox 15-14 Tuesday night to give the Sox their fifth consecutive loss and keep the Braves in a tie with the Cubs for second place.

The Sox outfit the Braves 13 to 11 and Pitcher R. Reed hit the game's only homer for the losers in the fifth with none aboard, but that wasn't enough.

For a while it looked as if the Sox might come up with victory No. 1. They scored a pair in the first, four in the second and another in the third to take a 7-2 lead.

BRAVES RALLY IN FOURTH
 But the Braves rallied for three in the fourth while the Indians were getting a pair to cut the margin to 9-5 and then exploded for seven runs in the "big inning" fifth.

In that frame, the winners sent nine batsmen to the plate, mixing

Cubs dazzle Indians with triple play and first loss

That put the Braves ahead 12 to 9 for the first time since the first inning and the White Sox couldn't catch up although they got one more in the fifth and four tallies in a final rally in the sixth which fell one run short. Two were on base when Winning Pitcher Perez got Hays on a pop to the catcher to end the game.

Reed and T. Scott with three hits in four trips led the White Sox attack while C. Johnson, J. Burk, Moreau and Solis all got a pair of hits for the winners. Soto was the losing pitcher.

The twin bill last Friday night was blown away with wind and a pair of singles by Centerfielder R. Solis with one base blows by David Perez and Moreau with four walks and a hit batsman for the tallies.

The twin bill last Friday night was blown away with wind and sand in the bottom of the second inning of the first game between the Braves and Indians with the Indians leading 7 to 1, two out and the bases loaded. The Indians had already gotten all their runs with five hits in this frame to take the lead from the Braves who had tallied once in the first on a single by Burk after two walks.

The second game between the White Sox and Cubs also was blown away.

This afternoon the Cubs will play the White Sox in a makeup game at 5:15 p. m. on the new Babe Ruth field and another makeup game is scheduled for the same time Monday afternoon between the Indians and the Braves.

These have been added to the regular Friday and Tuesday night twin bills in the Little League park to catch up the schedule.

WANTED BY THE FBI

JOSEPH CORBETT, JR.
Corbett, one of the FBI's "Ten Most Wanted Fugitives," is wanted for escape from the California Institution for Men, Chino, Calif., where he was serving a 5 year to life sentence for murdering an Air Force sergeant. A Federal warrant was issued at Los Angeles, Calif., on March 21, 1960, charging him with unlawful interstate flight to avoid confinement for murder.

A white American, born on October 25, 1928, at Seattle, Wash., Corbett is 6 feet 1 inch tall, 165 to 170 pounds, has light brown hair, hazel eyes, a fair complexion, a medium build, and has worked as a clerk-typist, laborer, warehouseman, laboratory technician, and alkyl-resin cooker for a paint manufacturer. His two upper front teeth slant inward and he wears glasses, reportedly being extremely nearsighted and capable of seeing only close objects without them. He has a mole under his chin and a C shaped scar on his right thumb.

Corbett, once a premedical student, is interested in scientific matters, avidly reads technical and travel books, and is intensely interested in firearms and target practice. He reportedly has a superior general intelligence and generally lives quietly and neatly but becomes erratic when drinking alcoholic beverages.

Convicted of second-degree murder, he is considered armed and dangerous.

Anyone having information concerning him should immediately notify the nearest office of the FBI, the telephone number of which can be found on the first page of local telephone directories. 4-2-60 541200-4

Most road deaths occur in country

Little-known facts about traffic safety: Three times as many traffic deaths occur in rural areas (including towns with less than 2,500 people) than in urban areas.

Reason for this according to the Texas Safety Association: the abundance of driving done on open roads, which most often are in rural areas, and increased speed.

In many fatal auto accidents, only one car is involved. Expressways have fewer traffic fatalities, based on number of miles driven, than rural roads. The average mileage death rate recently was a third as high as the rate for rural roads.

Males are involved in almost eight times as many fatal auto accidents as females. Naturally, they drive a lot more than the girls do.

Driving too fast for conditions accounts for more than half of the rural, fatal traffic accidents in Texas.

Saturday — not Sunday — is the most dangerous day of the week for drivers. About one out of every five traffic fatalities occurs that day. Sunday is second most hazardous.

Safety men say the new interstate highway system can save as many as 3,500 lives a year, and that use of seat belts could save an additional 5,000 lives annually.

While few slow drivers ever run afoul of the law, they're still a highway hazard. Driving too slow can cost a life — your life, or the life of a motorist who takes a chance and passes you when he shouldn't. Keep pace with traffic. Odds are that if your car isn't up to snuff, safetywise, the fault will lie with the rear lights, brakes, front lights or exhaust system. When a hazard is found at vehicle safety checks, those four problems are the ones that crop up most often.

HOME FOR SUMMER
Pat Stephens, student at West Texas State College, arrived Friday to spend the summer vacation here.

SALINITY CONFERENCE SET

Salinity problems, as they relate to agriculture, will be discussed at a Salinity Conference scheduled for June 22-23 at College Station. All meetings will be held in the Memorial Student Center on the campus of the A&M College of Texas. Persons interested in the problems to be discussed are invited to attend. ### 34 per cent increase in cotton research

Dr. T. C. Longnecker, director of the High Plains Research Foundation announced that the Foundation is increasing its cotton research 34 per cent over previous years.

Dr. Longnecker said that the Foundation has 20 more acres of plot research with cotton this year than in 1959. This accelerated program in cotton research is a result of a cooperative research agreement that has been worked out between the High Plains Research Foundation and the Texas Agriculture Experiment Station, No. 5 at Lubbock and College Station.

This cooperative arrangement in research will enable the Foundation to better serve the High Plains area. Personnel from the Agricultural Research Service of the U. S. # FARM PROFIT

Cut Your Farm Gasoline Bills This Year

Gasoline thieves aren't always human. On many farms the worst culprits are the hot summer sun and poorly-tuned engines.

Massey-Ferguson researchers found that six 50-gallon drums standing in the sun lost 30 gallons by evaporation in a month. A vented 290-gallon tank lost 11 gallons.

But, when they put a pressure cap on the 290-gallon tank it lost only three gallons in a month. An underground tank, same size, lost seven gallons, four gallons less than above ground.

The researchers learned that the best place of all for a gas tank is under a tree away from buildings.

Poorly-tuned tractor engines use 10% to 20% more gas than necessary, they found. University of Nebraska tests showed that a simple tune-up delivered up to 3 more horsepower at the belt and 1 to 2 more horsepower per gallon of gas.

Seniors ride river boat, visit Gulfarium, fancy cafes on trip

By Melanie Thompson
We left Post at 8:07 p. m. Tuesday, May 25, and arrived in Houston the next morning, where we ate breakfast and changed trains.

We went on to New Orleans and ate dinner at Arnauds, a fancy French restaurant on Canal Street. After eating, we went to an amusement park located around Lake Ponchartrain, everybody had loads of fun there. We then boarded two buses and proceeded on to Panama City, Fla. We got there early the next morning, ate breakfast, and went swimming. We had lunch at a seafood restaurant, and went for a ride on a pleasure ship, and then visited all the gift shops around town. We ate supper at the motel and I think everybody was tired enough to sleep that night.

The next morning we ate breakfast at Panama City and went on to New Orleans. We stopped at the Gulfarium at Port Walton, where trained porpoises and fish performed. They had a beautiful gift shop in the Gulfarium, and different shell exhibits. We stopped at Pensacola at the naval base, and from there went to New Orleans.

At New Orleans, we rode down the Mississippi River on the S. S. President, a four-deck boat with a jazz band, a large dance floor, a dining room and loads of other things. After we left the ship, we went to our motel rooms, and got up early the next morning and went swimming in the pool. We took a bus to the train station, boarded the train after eating breakfast, changed trains at Houston and arrived at Post Sunday morning at about 7 a. m.

We had a wonderful time with wonderful sponsors, and I don't think we'll ever forget it.

Post cowboys place in rodeo finals

Several Post cowboys entered the Brownfield Rodeo over the weekend, but only one placed in the finals. R. E. Josey won second in a go-round of the double-mugging. Ed Kelly Sims, another Post cowboy, won first in both go-rounds of calf roping at the Happy Rodeo Sunday.

Almost all of the local cowboys are making plans to enter the Dumas and O'Donnell rodeos scheduled for this weekend.

"Have I Ever Seen One?"

By RONNIE PARKER

Christianity is rightly divided into two parts. Obedience to the gospel and living the Christian life. If one comes into the kingdom he is to obey the laws that govern that kingdom. We have in the New Testament a perfect system of religion. The practice should also be perfect. Our short-coming is that perhaps we believe the theory while we have had too little experience in trying to live the principles. The proof of Christianity is Christianity.

A little boy once asked his dad what a Christian was. The father replied, that a Christian was a person who loved and obeyed God. He loved his friends and neighbors. He even loved his enemies and prayed for them. He prayed often and blessed God's holy name in reverent worship. He is kind, considerate, gentle, and courteous in his speech and in his attitude toward others. He lives a life that is pure and holy and all people around him know that he is a Christian through and through.

The little boy thought for a brief moment and then asked another question of his father. "Daddy, have I ever seen one?"

What a heart rending and sobering question! Has your child ever seen one?

About Your HEALTH

A weekly public service feature from the Texas State Department of Health. HENRY A. HOLLE, D. D., Commissioner of Health.

The under five and over 15 age groups are polio vaccination "soft spots" in Texas.

A recent State Health Department check of polio immunization levels in several typical Texas communities shows school age children are well protected but that vaccinations are lagging among youngsters under five and persons over 15.

"Immunizations must continue without letup if the disease is ever to be really conquered," State Health Commissioner J.E. Peavy says.

"The record shows that persons who have not taken the series of three protective shots are 90 percent more vulnerable to paralytic polio than their neighbors who have completed the series."

Dr. Peavy's note of caution comes just in advance of the Texas polio season. According to the pattern of past years, the season is due to get underway about the middle of April.

Medical authorities agree that the most beneficial time to begin the shots is in advance of the annual rise in polio case rates.

Persons who have not yet begun the shots should start them immediately, the health commissioner emphasized. Persons now due for their third shot should take it without fail.

A booster shot a year or so after the third shot has been recommended by leading specialists. It should be administered at the discretion

We have got the bred Spotted Poland China gilt which we bought two months ago from Jack Campbell of Canyon. David Lee is to take care of the gilt, for which he will receive one of the pigs of his choice.

There were six entries in our tractor driving contest this year. The boys studied maintenance in class and were required to recite the various lubrication steps necessary. Little grade was counted on the plowing because of the poor soil condition for preparation. Mr. Keoninger served as judge. Ford did not sponsor the contest as they have in previous years, but Mr. Earl Rogers was kind enough to allow us the use of a tractor and the local chapter bought the medal.

Jimmy Hodges and Joe Bob Trammell attended the Area II FFA convention at Midland Thursday and Friday. Purpose of the convention was to select winners of various awards offered in the vocational agriculture program. Jimmy Hodges represented the chapter as voting delegate and Joe Bob attended as a member. The boys selected an area sweetheart, new area officers, a state officer nominee and various other awards.

Jimmy Hodges' application for the State Farmer Degree was approved. This degree application will be checked again at the state meeting in Austin next week. Final approval will mean that Jimmy will receive the highest degree offered by the state organization.

The ag department has been notified that they will receive $150 from Southwestern Public Service Co. and Mr. Koeninger will receive $50 in electrical merchandise from the company at a later date.

of the family's physician. "Community campaigns should be aimed at known 'soft spots'—the age groups under five and over 15," Dr. Peavy stresses.

Statistics are available to show that almost twice as many cases of polio occurred in the United States during 1959 as during 1958. Health and medical officials have made it clear that the increase did not indicate a failure of the vaccine, but rather indicated a failure on the part of people to get their shots.

Of the 526 cases diagnosed in Texas last year, nine out of 10 had not had the basic three shots recommended for maximum protection. More than half of last year's victims were under five. Three-fourths of them had not had a single dose of vaccine.

"The higher the level of polio protection through vaccination in a given community, the better chance that community has of escaping a polio outbreak," Dr. Peavy asserts.

More and more people are enjoying the fine sport and the great fun of fishing in Texas . . . and savoring their delicious catches at their dinner tables.

Texas' gulf coast is a fabulous "dream come true" for anglers. Many return home with ice chests full of such tasty salt water fish as speckled trout, red snapper, flounder, and many, many others. The big ones are there too! Fact of the matter is the world's record catch in a giant sea bass was made in Galveston Bay. It weighed a mighty 351 pounds.

Everyone, young and old, has read about "Old Rip." He has traveled as a dignitary all over the USA and even visited Pres. Calvin Coolidge in the White House. (Which, incidentally, is pretty good for a little old "Horny Toad.") What made Old Rip famous? This little horned frog slept for 31 years in a dehydrated state in a little tin box in the cornerstone of the courthouse in Eastland, Texas. You can see him today in his plush casket at the Eastland Courthouse and read his fabulous story again.

In the days of the old west, you were a big man if you were quick on the draw with your Colt single-six. Men died with their boots on and were buried the same way at the famous Boothill Cemetery in Tascosa, Texas.

To relive the old west, visit Tascosa, some 25 miles northwest of Amarillo and present site of Cal Farley's Boys Ranch.

An old railroad touring car belonging to Jay Gould, the railroad magnate, now stands as a museum in Jefferson, Texas, in the northeast corner of the state.

When the town council refused him a right-of-way for his railroad through the city, in the mid-1900's, Gould noted in the hotel register, "This is the end of Jefferson." But Jefferson still stands, and so does the railroad car!

Northeast of Crowell, Texas, at the cradle of the Panhandle, is the Pease River Battlefield. It is best known as the spot where a band of Texas Rangers recaptured Cynthia Ann Parker twenty five years after she was kidnapped by the Comanche Indians in 1836.

Holland Coffee's Trading Post was established in 1836 to barter with the Indians. One of the frequent items the Indians brought in to trade was a white man captive. The site of this early-day trading post is just 12 miles northwest of Denison, Texas, near the Red River and the Texas-Oklahoma border.

A huge, sprawling oak tree stands proudly in the middle of a street in Columbus, Texas, west of Houston. It was beneath this tree that Judge Robert M. Williamson (Three-Legged Willie) held court in the Third Judicial District of the Republic of Texas, in 1837.

It is related that on one occasion an irate lawyer, who was commanded by Judge Willie to "pro-

Texas oyster crop is one of best

AUSTIN — A look at reports from various fish wholesalers along the Texas coast indicates that Texas has just ended one of the most successful oyster seasons in years. This is reported by Howard Lee, director of marine fisheries of the Game and Fish Commission.

Production records indicate the oyster fishermen harvested 1,358,894 pounds of oyster meats in the season just closed.

Additional records still outstanding may raise this figure even higher. This figure does not include oysters harvested in Texas by fishermen from out of the State, and transported out of the State for first sale. They did not include sales made by small producers.

Only twice in the past 25 years has the production exceeded the one million pound mark. In 1938 the total was 1,240,000 pounds and in 1957 a high of 1,170,000 pounds was reported. Ten years ago the total was less than 90,000 pounds.

Milk is real food bargain

COLLEGE STATION — Nutritionists agree, says J. M. Meekma, nutrition dairy husbandman, that you were to duplicate the food benefits in a quart of milk by purchasing other products, it would cost you about 43 cents.

Dr. Charles H. Mayo, late distinguished surgeon at the famous Mayo Clinic said, "Considering its cost per pound, milk offers more value for the money than any other material available."

Meekma points out that studies of consumer food expenditures show that 18 to 20 per cent of the family food budget is spent on milk and milk products. However, he states, the American families 23-28 per cent of their
