

Calf roping event to be July 29-30

One of the biggest, if not the biggest, roping events ever held in the state will take place Friday and Saturday, July 29 - 30, when 10 teams of three ropers each compete for eight trophy buckles at the Stampede Rodeo Arena. The event is being sponsored by the West Texas Team Roping Association, of which Billy Wallace is president and Fred Dalby and Bill Flowers are directors.

There will be day and night roping, with the night admission charge set at 75 cents.

The 10 teams competing, with the team captain first named, will be as follows:

T. W. Flenniken, Crosbyton; Eli Wallace, Quanah; Buck Craft, Post.

Fred Dalby, Aspermont; Bill Flowers, Aspermont; James Taylor, Rotan.

Bill James, Lubbock; Lester Forrest, Maryneal; Bruce Baker, Lubbock.

Rusty Bradley, Electra; Don Mitchell, Lubbock; Harold Felts, Claremont.

Odell Blackwell, McAdoo; Bill Morrow, Jayton; Peck Thompson, Matador.

John Wallace, Haskell; Jay Oxford, Haskell; Jess Eversett, Snyder.

Billy Wallace, Claremont; Murray Rogers, Claremont; Bob Byrd, Claremont.

J. T. Huey, Electra; Shep Morrow, Claremont; Manuel Davis, Claremont.

R. E. Josey, Post; Ed Sims, Post; N. A. Pitcock, Aspermont; B. F. Yates, Plainview; Royce McLowery, Guthrie; Jack Harris, Crystal City.

The eight trophy buckles will be awarded as follows: One, fastest calf; one, best average on eight head; three, first place winner; three, second place winner.

Lions chairmen are appointed

Jack Alexander, who took office early this month as president of the Post Lions Club, appointed 17 committee chairmen and members at Tuesday night's meeting.

Chairmen appointed were as follows: Travis Thomas, attendance; Jess Rogers, finance; Arthur Jackson, membership; Jim Jackson, program; L. W. Duncan, constitution and by-laws; Walter Lee Johnson, convention; Victor Hudman, Lions information; R. G. Wilkerson, public relations and bulletin editor.

Lewis C. Herron Jr., agriculture; Claud Collier Jr., boys and girls; Robert Meisch, citizenship and patriotism, education and safety; Ralph Welch, community betterment and civic improvement; Dr. John E. Carter, health, welfare, sight conservation and blind; R. G. Wilkerson, fair and carnival; Jess Rogers, Jim Jackson and Robert Meisch, greeters.

Garza directors PCG re-elected

Powell Shytlies of Post and W. C. Bush of Route 3, Post, were re-elected as Garza County directors for Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., at a meeting Monday night in the Community Room at the First National Bank.

Shytlies is businessman director and Bush is farmer director on the board.

Approximately 25 farmers and businessmen attended the meeting. They heard reports on PCG activities for 1959-60, reviews on projects under way, and a discussion of cotton legislation.

The reports were presented by Conrad L. Lohoefer and Donald Johnson of Lubbock, PCG staff members.

Shytlies and Bush will be installed as directors at the annual PCG meeting in Lubbock's Fair Park Coliseum at 10:30 a.m. Sept. 2. All cotton producers, businessmen and others connected with the cotton industry are invited to attend the meeting.

Members of Post's Cub Scout Pack 16 will be given the opportunity of earning an Eisenhower badge at a camp out here Saturday, July 23, in conjunction with the 50th anniversary of the Boy Scout program and the National Jamboree being held at Colorado Springs, Colo.

Malcolm T. Bull, Cubmaster for Pack 16, said all boys in Scouting who sleep out that night will earn the Eisenhower badge for their uniform.

LYNX KILLED IN PASTURE

This 21-pound lynx was killed by M. E. Edmunds last Thursday morning in the Stanley Sims pasture northwest of town. Edmunds and Ed Cummings killed the big cat while hunting in a canyon southeast of Black Tank. It is the second lynx killed by Edmunds this year in that vicinity.—(Staff Photo.)

Classification talk heard by Rotarians

Dr. B. E. Young was program chairman for Tuesday's luncheon of the Post Rotary Club at the city hall.

Dr. Young talked on classifications open in Rotary, in connection with the club's project of increasing membership 10 per cent during the 1960-61 club year. Following his address, five committee chairmen were named to head groups working for the project.

Cub Scout camp out slated for Saturday

Members of Post's Cub Scout Pack 16 will be given the opportunity of earning an Eisenhower badge at a camp out here Saturday, July 23, in conjunction with the 50th anniversary of the Boy Scout program and the National Jamboree being held at Colorado Springs, Colo.

Malcolm T. Bull, Cubmaster for Pack 16, said all boys in Scouting who sleep out that night will earn the Eisenhower badge for their uniform.

The camp out, which is to be held at Post Antelope Stadium, is also for fathers of Cub Scouts and for adult workers, with the registered Scouters eligible to earn the Eisenhower badge right along with the boys.

All Cub Scouts, their fathers, and adult Scout workers are asked to meet at the high school building not later than 5 p. m. Saturday. They will go from there to the Scout Camp for a swim and then return to the football field to cook supper and camp out for the night.

Cub Pack 16 is sponsored by the Post Parent-Teacher Association.

Rural Civil Defense plans announced by county judge

County Judge J. E. Parker said today that he will call a meeting early in August for the purpose of organizing a Rural Civil Defense Program in Garza County.

"This program," Judge Parker said, "will emphasize self-sufficiency in the rural areas of our county, recognizing that there must be rural readiness, and furthering the concept that civil defense is government acting in emergency." The Rural Civil Defense Program, developed by the Office of Civil and Defense Mobilization with the assistance of the National Association of County Officials, is under way throughout the nation.

The program has two main objectives, Judge Parker pointed out. The first is to inform rural families about the threat of radioactive fallout, and the second is to induce them to build family shelters and take measures to protect their livestock and crops.

Judge Parker said a county committee composed of rural leaders will be formed at the meeting to help carry out the program.

Subjects to be discussed at the meeting will include: "Why We Are Here"; "How to Stay Alive in a Fallout Area"; "What Do We Do Next?"; "The Family Fallout Shelter"; "The Threat—Livestock, Crops, Soil," and "Rural Family and Community Civil Defense Cooperation." In stating that he believes this program is vital to the security of the rural population and the nation, Judge Parker said he is going to make every effort to see that the program is carried out as effectively as possible in Garza County.

He said that the county farm agent, home demonstration agent, commissioners, and other county and local officials will be urged to attend the meeting.

Postings

With Publisher Jim Cornish and family enjoying a vacation in cool Colorado, we here at The Dispatch are "taking the bull by the horns" and writing his Postings column—partly so you won't miss it, but mainly because the editor needs it to help fill up.

Rome wasn't built in a day, and that fact has covered up for a lot of delays. We wouldn't bring it up, except that Johnny Hopkins, Tower Theatre manager, told us today that the late Mike Todd's big production, "Around the World in 80 Days," will show here soon. Better late than never is all we've got to say for this great picture. If you're like us and haven't seen it, what's the difference? After all, Jules Verne's character didn't get around the world in one day—it took him eighty!

It should help you cool off, as well as prove entertaining, to attend the annual Swim Meet at the City-County Pool on Saturday afternoon. Managers Wayne and Linda Runkles are anticipating a big meet. Just this morning—too late to make the sports page along with the rest of the swim meet story—we were handed a list of towns invited to send swimmers to the meet. They are: Slaton, Tahoka, Ralls, Crosbyton, O'Donnell and Spur.

CANDIDATES NAMED
The three queen contest entries, announced yesterday by Lester Nichols, are: Susie Jo Schmidt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Schmidt; Nita Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Wilson, and Marilyn Minor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Minor.

The winning candidate in this year's queen contest will be determined on the basis of rodeo ticket sales. Girls 19 years old and under who wish to enter the queen contest may register at Lester Nichols' office at Main and Broadway and at the same time pick up the rodeo tickets they are to sell.

PARADE JUDGE NAMED
Bill Carlisle, calf chute judge, Mason & Co. and Hudman Furniture Co.; ambulance; Ed Dye, barrier equipment, horn, etc.; Jack Myers, taking off bucking rigging; Robbie King and James Dye, calf ribbons; George Samson, parade judge; Clarky Cowdrey, sheriff's posse invitations; Boy Hart, ground and arena clean-up.

Howard Ferguson, east side contestants' gate; Boy Hart and Jack Myers, trophy saddles; Jerry Morris, untie calves; Bill Mears, kids' events; Pat Sullivan, line and flags; Carol Davis and Clarky Cowdrey, publications; Carol Davis, trophies and buckles.

HERRON ON LEAVE
County Agent Lewis C. Herron Jr. and family will return Monday from Houston. The county agent is on a 10-day leave of absence.

White River water contract election dates are pending

The election date for the four city elections on their White River Municipal Water district water contracts is still to be set.

At a special dinner meeting, called in Crosbyton's Memorial Auditorium last Thursday night for that purpose, the White River district directors voted to ask the federal loaning agency to approve two more changes in the water contracts.

Spur sought, and was granted one change last week. Officials hope the changes can be approved by the regional FH-FA office in Fort Worth and the four towns of Post, Crosbyton, Spur and Ralls within two weeks, permitting the setting of the water contract elections for around Aug. 20.

TIMETABLE DEPENDS
Whether that timetable can be kept depends upon whether other hitches develop.

None of the four cities are reported to be seeking any other changes.

The White River directors in voting the changes last Thursday night went on record as approving the water contract as changed—meaning no more changes will be coming up from that quarter.

The two changes in the water contract sought by the directors were proposed by the district's attorney, Lloyd Wicks of Ralls and the district's financial chairman, Marvin McLaughlin, Ralls banker.

While directors hated to have any further delays in the elections, they voted to go along with the changes. Actually the changes favor the cities in setting forth more explicitly how the annual minimum rates for each city will work on an annual basis.

6,000 copies of a question and answer brochure for the election to give all information concerning the water contract proposition to the voters.

This brochure has been approved by the federal loan agency, although the agency is not officially entering into the brochure presentation.

Printing of the brochures will be divided between the Crosbyton Review and the Post Dispatch. They will be similar to the ones printed before the 1957 $4,000,000 White River water bond election in the four towns.

Driftwood swept by fire

Two taverns, one of which was swept by fire less than four days before the closing order was to have gone into effect, have been ordered closed for 10 days by the Lubbock office of the Liquor Control Board.

The Driftwood Tavern, formerly the Veterans of Foreign Wars hall, was gutted by fire early Thursday evening after Liquor Board agents had ordered it closed.

Yanks beat Sox to win title in Little League

Postex Mills' Yankees won the Little League championship last night by lambasting the second place Brown Bros. Red Sox, 18 to 1, in a make-up game.

The First National Bank Dodgers won over Western Construction Co.'s Westerners, 10 to 9, in another make-up game to end the season for both clubs.

The Yankees have one more make-up game to play—against Caprock Chevrolet Co.'s Corvairs—but since the game would not change the final standings, it may not be played, a league official said today.

Printing of the brochures will be divided between the Crosbyton Review and the Post Dispatch. They will be similar to the ones printed before the 1957 $4,000,000 White River water bond election in the four towns.

MAJORITY VOTE
The water contract election (See WATER VOTE, page 8)

Both closing orders were effective Monday, July 18, Bowman said.

Two taverns are closed; 1 burns

Last Thursday night's fire at the Driftwood Tavern is believed to have caught from a gas flame being used for heating purposes, firemen said.

Except for the roof on the north side, the building's exterior was not greatly damaged by the fire, but the interior, including fixtures, was almost a total loss.

Fire Chief Robert Cato said firemen were hampered in fighting the blaze because of no water connections at the place.

"All the water we had was what we took with us on the fire truck," Cato said.

Yesterday, County Judge J. E. Parker approved a permit for Jim's Place, owned by Jimmy McArthur and located near the White River bridge in the northeast part of Garza County. The permit calls for a beer retailer's off-premises license.

Two other applications, both for on-premise licenses, have been applied for this week. One is listed as Leonard's, owned by L. D. Stewart and located 3 of a mile south of the Crosbyton 112a on the east side of F-M Road 651.

Early entries indicate successful Horse Show

Entries are coming in from far and wide for the 12th annual Garza County Quarter Horse Show to be held here Saturday, Aug. 13, Mrs. Ruth Ann Young, secretary, said today.

The horse show is to be held at Post Stampede Arena, with judging of halter classes to begin at 9 a.m.

This year's show is approved by the American Quarter Horse Association of West Texas, Golden Spread and National Cutting Horse Association.

and reserve champions and to all first place winners in the halter class. Ribbons will be awarded through sixth place in the various classes.

Business firms donating trophies for the show include Post-Montgomery, First National Bank, Piggly Wiggly, Higginbotham-Bartlett, Postex Cotton Mills, Mason & Co., Tower Theatre and Multiple Well Service.

Donors of buckles are First National Bank, The Post Dispatch, Post Stampede, Inc., Planter's Gin Co., Bryan J. Williams & Son, and Caprock Liquor Store.

Baptist pastor heads assembly

The Rev. C. B. (Bill) Hogue, pastor of the First Baptist Church, has been elected president of the Plains Baptist Assembly, District 9, which has its camp near Floydada.

As president, the Rev. Mr. Hogue will speak at the various associational meetings, direct program activities for both the youth and family camps, and assist in the Baptist Brotherhood camp.

He is also chairman of the board of camp directors.

State Farmer's Degree coming to Post youth

Jimmy Hodges, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd H. Hodges of Star Post, is to receive his State Farmer Degree at the Future Farmers of America convention in Houston this week.

The award is made annually to 2 per cent of the FFA members in each state, and has been earned by only six other Post members in the history of FFA chapter here.

Jimmy Hodges, who is president of the local chapter, also won this tractor driving contest.

Three building permits issued

Construction in Post this week total $8,995, upping the 1960 construction total to $569,230 for buildings permits issued during the first three months of the year.

The largest permit went to H. J. Curry for moving in a 1,084 square foot house, with carport, at South Avenue P. The house is of frame construction, asbestos siding, and have composition roof, at an estimated cost of $8,995.

Only one rodeo this year

Plans for the 13th annual Southwestern Championship Junior Rodeo, the only rodeo scheduled for Post this year, are rapidly taking shape . . . which they should be, since the rodeo is only a few weeks away—Aug. 3, 4, 5 and 6.

It remains to be seen now whether the predictions of those who have argued that one rodeo would "go over big" in Post will bear fruit. The lack of success of the rodeos here the last few years has been blamed by many on their contention that two rodeos are one too many for a town the size of Post.

This year, Post Stampede, Inc.—the sponsors of the senior rodeo—have decided to step aside and leave the field, and their arena, to the juniors. This does not mean, Post Stampede officials have explained, that their rodeo is being abandoned altogether. There is a good chance, we are told, that it will be resumed next year.

In the meantime, the juniors and their board of adult directors are completing plans for what they hope will be the most successful Junior Rodeo ever held here. The vast of us can help mightily by our support. This is especially true in the case of floats and other parade entries. Each and everyone of us will also be given the opportunity of supporting the Rodeo Queen candidate of our choice through the purchase of rodeo admission tickets in an advance sale to be made by the queen hopefuls.

In addition to the Junior Rodeo, August dates will bring two horse shows. One is the Appaloosa Horse Show to be held on the final day of the rodeo. The other is the ever-growing Garza County Quarter Horse Show, which is scheduled for the weekend following the rodeo.—CD.

What's to be done about it?

Post didn't have a clean-up campaign this spring and, except for the vacant lots, perhaps one on the same scale as those of previous years wasn't necessary. The alleys in both the business and residential districts are in much better shape than they've ever been, thanks to the city's new garbage collection and disposal program.

But those vacant lots are something else—an eyesore, to be exact.

The heavy rains week before last gave the weeds and grass on these unattended lots new life they didn't need, and many people have told us they've never seen them in worse shape.

It doesn't take much imagination to picture how much better the town would look if all those vacant lots were cleaned up.

It apparently is a problem for which there is no solution—at least not locally, since no steps have been taken to correct it. The city has equipment with which to cut the grass and weeds on the vacant lots, but they can't be expected to go onto the lots and remove all the rocks, cans, bottles, etc., which would wreck their weed and grass-cutting equipment.

That the city clean off these vacant lots and assess the cost to the owners of the properties has been suggested, but never has got past the talking stage. It has been done in other cities and towns after every other attempt to get the vacant lots cleaned off had failed.

This newspaper has been taken to task so many times for "taking the bull by the horns" and telling the city, county or school district what should be done, that this time—in the case of the vacant lots—we're going to do what most everybody else is doing . . . just point out the problem, and wonder what is going to be done—if anything—to correct it.—CD.

'Under Favorable Conditions'

Hooray for the Army!

We have it on good authority, from a Post boy just out of the Army, that the Engineer Research Laboratory at Ft. Belvoir, Va., has announced completion of another step toward preparedness for World War III.

This is the development of a 26,000-pound machine, powered with a 130-horsepower motor mounted on rubber tires, which can do many things "under favorable conditions."

In one minute, it can dig a trench two feet wide, four feet deep and 20 feet long "under favorable conditions." It can excavate six cubic yards of earth a minute "under favorable conditions." (There was no timing for soil full of rocks and roots.)

We were also told: "The new machine is capable of performing all types of Army excavation work. It can dig one-man and two-man foxholes in a minute under favorable conditions. It can dig heavy machine-gun emplacements in a little over three minutes and large horseshoe-type emplacements in five minutes."

We can now feel assured we will win the next war "under favorable conditions." That is, if the next one is to be of trench warfare-type, as World War I was. Or is the Army getting back to boobydugging with a new zest?—CD.

What our contemporaries are saying

You don't need a garage for those little foreign cars . . . just the box they came in.—James Roberts in The Andrews County News.

Although Chile is a long ways from here, still it is not so far as are some of the other countries for whose inhabitants the American heart bleeds, so one arrives at the conclusion that Chileans are the victims of bad geography on top of their suffering from quake and cold. Story we have is that Floyd County Red Cross Chapter asked for volunteer aid for the Chilean sufferers. So far as we know, the chapter got less than half a hundred dollars in this manner. The need is in the millions. Perhaps had the sufferers been in some other part of the globe, India, possibly, or Hong Kong, they would have fared better. China and India have had billions poured into them from our bleeding hearts. But, Chile, somehow or other, just doesn't rate. Their geography is bad.—The Floyd County Hesperian.

Young Senator Frank Church (he's 35) from Idaho, who gave the keynote address at the Democratic convention, will do to watch. Whether you agree with him or not, you'll have to admit he is the freshest, cleverest speaker on the national scene. We'll bet his speech won't have more votes for the Democratic party than any speech that will ever be made by the nominee.—Frank Hill in The Lyon County News.

WELL, THE LAST word in South Plains newspapers on the big snake story making the rounds of the Southwest a few weeks ago appeared in last week's issue of the Morton Tribune, with whose editor, Eddie Irwin, I once teamed on news at Levelland.

Eddie, in passing on the word that the story was a hoax, writes as follows in the Tribune:

"Recall the 'Big Rattlesnake Story' that went the rounds of TV recently?—well, according to the Portales Valley News, it was just a story, after all.

"The newspaper reports the two Lincoln County residents, Mike Gonzales and Juan Baca, have 'apologized' for the great hoax of the '18-foot rattlesnake,' which turned out to be a python or boa constrictor.

"The two men told Vic Lamb, publisher of a Ruidoso, N. M., newspaper, they swapped 10 chickens for the dried snake skin."

"They said, reports the News, they sincerely believed the skin to have been from a rattler when they traded chickens to an unidentified person for it.

"Experts, recalling eight-foot records for rattlers, checked the skin and immediately identified the remains as being from South America, and not a rattler.

"The story of the big rattler had the snake as big around as a utility pole. His head was claimed to be as big as a steering wheel, his rattlers were as big as a man's fist, his fangs were as long as a man's finger, and his tongue as long as a yardstick—a 36-inch yardstick.

"Pictures of the snake's skin, which was reported to have shrunk to 15 feet and 7 inches, were seen on TV after the reported shooting.

"For awhile, New Mexico was abuzz with stories of the 18-foot monster.

"And, to think, someone was reported to have offered $750 for the monster's hide . . . not bad for an original investment of 10 chickens."

So, it seems that the snake story to end all snake stories finally has itself been ended.

MY FRIEND UP the street says his idea of hospitality is a little fire, a little food, and a whole lot of quiet.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Flynn of Edwardsville, Ill., dropped in the Dispatch office Monday morning looking for a place to buy a copy of the book, "Post City, Texas." Before the Flyns left, I had quite an interesting story from them.

The Flyns were en route to Huntsville, but stopped in Post for Mrs. Flynn to get a copy of her birth certificate. She was born here—the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Dickhut—but this was the first time she had been in Post since 1918, when she was two years old.

She said a copy of her original birth certificate was not available at the courthouse here because of some early county records having been accidentally destroyed, but that Dr. A. C. Surman, the attending physician at her birth, told her another birth certificate could be arranged for.

The Flyns took pictures of the house at 112 East 10th Street, in which Mrs. Flynn was born. The house is now occupied by the Garland Davies family. They also took pictures of the White Auto Store, 723 East Main, at which site Mrs. Flynn's father owned and operated a pool hall while in Post.

The Flyns are a nice couple and I enjoyed my brief visit with them. He is employed in the steel industry.

THOSE OF YOU who were watching the Ed Sullivan Show Sunday night and are wondering how come the young comedian who opened the show to get cut off the air right in the middle of his monologue, might be interested in my version. I think he was cut off because he was belittling the state of Arkansas in his "cute" little monologue on party conventions. Let that be a lesson to those city slickers!

One thing that struck us in watching telecasts of the Democratic convention is how nominees for national offices exude confidence by saying, "When I am President" or "When I am elected." Confidence is nice to have, but you rarely find it in such abundance in lower-level political campaigns. We've helped dozens of candidates for precinct and county offices write statements to the voters and never yet have we come across one who makes the statement, "When I am elected." They always preface their promises with the term, "If I am elected."

BEWARE OF BALLYHOO VITAMINS

"Vitamin deficiency" has become a kind of catch phrase. Yet it relates to health, the province of your physician.

Should you suspect that you need vitamins, consult your doctor. Let him decide what vitamins, if any, are required.

How much more sensible a procedure than to succumb impetuously to nonprofessional ballyhoo for all-purpose, bargain vitamins.

Rely on your physician's advice. When he writes a prescription, we are prepared to fill it promptly.

I Give You Texas . . .

By BOYCE HOUSE

Bill King is manager of the agriculture department of the Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce, assistant manager of the Fat Stock Show in Fort Worth, secretary of the Fort Worth Farm and Ranch Club, past Kiwanis Club president and a raiser of miniature pinchers—or maybe it's boxers; anyhow, they're dogs and one costs a good deal of money.

All of this is so you'll know who Bill King is.

He has advanced a suggestion that a book ought to be written on "How It Started", to explain the origin of expressions that we use every day.

For instance, everybody has said, "Jack has more of this-or-that than Carter had oats." Who was Carter? He was a farmer in the Old South a long time ago who was asked how his crop was coming along and he declared that his oats were so abundant they were breaking down the fences.

"HOBSON'S CHOICE"

Then everybody has spoken of such-and-such a situation as being "Hobson's choice." Hobson ran a livery stable in England a long time ago and he rotated the use of his horses. The animal whose turn was next, he placed in the first stall and a customer could select any horse he wanted provided he took the one in the first stall.

And then there is "a Garrison finish." As a boy, I got the idea that it meant the garrison of a besieged fort sallied forth and gave the besiegers hail Columbia. But there was, many years ago, a great jockey by the name of Garrison and he always put on a rousing finish to a race.

However there was also a boxer named Garrison a long time ago who was a favorite with the fans. No matter how badly he had been outpointed in the preceding round, he came rushing out of his corner for the final three minutes and hit his opponent from all directions. Usually the decision went to the other man, whereupon the crowd boomed: They had forgotten the first nine rounds and remembered only that "Garrison finish."

"THE REAL MCCOY"

Then there is the expression, "the real McCoy." Kid McCoy was a fighter in middleweight and light heavyweight circles rather early in the century. He was the very unusual combination of a superb boxer and heavy hitter.

There were fighters who used his name to get matches in smaller cities and on one occasion a local man was matched with an opponent who claimed to be Kid McCoy. The local boy took a lot of punishment the first round. In his corner at the end of the round, his manager asked, "Is he a phony?" The fighter replied, "No—he's the real McCoy."

Well, I've made a start toward writing that book that Bill King suggested. He has generously offered to give me half of whatever I can make from it.

Mother of Post man buried at O'Donnell

Funeral and burial services were conducted in O'Donnell recently for Mrs. Annie Jackson, 65, mother of Doss Jackson of Post.

Mrs. Jackson, who had been a resident of the O'Donnell vicinity for 40 years, died in a Lamesa hospital.

Besides the son of Post, she is survived by four other sons, one daughter, three half-sisters, one brother, 13 grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

VISITS PARENTS

Mrs. Sexton Huntley visited Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Leonard, in Levelland.

TOUR CAVERNS

Graydon Jr. and Timmy Howell accompanied their aunt, Mrs. Dell Nairn and sons, and Melvin McLaughlin of Kerrville to Carlsbad, N. M., last Wednesday where they toured the Carlsbad Caverns.

TO HOUSTON SATURDAY

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Pierce went to Houston Saturday to spend a week with their daughter, Mrs. C. A. Wilcox. Accompanying them on the trip were Mrs. W. C. Kiker who went to visit her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Dalton Copple, and Graydon Howell Jr., who returned to Camp Hood at Waco.

WEEKEND VISITORS

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charley Williams during the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Masters and children of Abilene and Mrs. Mary Owings of Baytown. Mrs. Owings remained for an extended visit in the Williams home and with her mother, Mrs. H. C. Thompson, and other relatives.

RETURN FROM VACATION

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Caylor returned home last week from their vacation at Lake Texoma and Denison where they visited his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Maddox.

In 1874, Chief Quanah Parker, son of the famous Cynthia Ann Parker, led some 700 picked Comanche, Cheyenne, and Kiowa warriors in battle against 25 brave frontiersmen and buffalo hunters in the Texas Panhandle. He was defeated in this attempted "Alamo" style massacre by the small band of men that included the famous Bat Masterson and Bermuda Charlie. This "Battleground of Adobe Walls" now rests peacefully just thirty miles north of Borger.

There are no dinosaurs in Texas, but we do have proof that the prehistoric nomasters were here at one time.

Just travel twenty miles west of Cleburne to the town of Glen Rose, and you can see for yourself. There you will find fossilized dinosaur tracks along the beautiful Paluxy River. They have a fine specimen on exhibit downtown too. You'll enjoy staying in Glen Rose, as it is a well-known vacation and health resort... famous for its mineral water.

At Texarkana, Texas, one of the major gateways into the Lone Star State, stands an impressive statue of James Bowie, one of the great men in Texas history.

On the monument are the words, "They never fail who die in a just cause." Jim Bowie, for whom the Bowie Knife is named, was one of the most famous of the valiant defenders of the Alamo who fought to make Texas free.

LaFitte's Grove is just 4 miles west of Galveston, Texas. Established in 1817, this fort was the headquarters of the freebooter Jean LaFitte while he was pirating ships in the Gulf of Mexico. This also was the site of the "Battle of Three Trees" between LaFitte's men and the fierce Karankawa Indians.

One of the world's largest meteorites lies about two miles west and six miles south of Odessa, in the far western portion of Texas.

The great meteor, a mass of iron, nickel and various other metals, rests 170 feet deep in a 10-acre pit. This great visitor from outer space is estimated to have fallen to earth thousands of years ago.

Interested in architecture or in fine homes?

Across from the Courthouse in the town of Corsicana stands the Victorian Mansion of the great evangelist, Abe Mulkey. This well known show place amazes all its viewers with its preserved youthful appearance.

Corsicana is a famous oil center and is located approximately 50 miles south of Dallas.

Texas has been the home of many great and courageous men. A few words describing their feats often can imply the magnitude of their character.

Such are the words on a marker on the highway southwest of Llano, in Central Texas, which reads: "Enchanted Rock. From its summit, in the fall of 1841, Captain John C. Hays, while surrounded by Comanche Indians who cut him off from his ranging company, repulsed the whole band and inflicted upon them such heavy losses that they fled."

Sam Houston was converted and baptised in Rocky Creek in 1854, 18 years before they built the Old Baptist Church that now stands at Independence, in Central Texas.

A monument stone on the bell tower by the church reads, "She sleeps within its sound." Reference is to Mrs. Nancy Lea, mother of Houston's wife. She donated her silver service to be melted into the bell.

The tower was erected with stones from the ruins of the original Baylor building. Judge Baylor's hearthstone is said to be included in the tower.

Post student included on spring honor roll

PLAINVIEW — Alice Frances Barron, Post, with a 2.40 grade point average, is among students listed on the 1960 Spring Honor Roll recently released by Dean Cecil Cosper at Wayland Baptist College.

A 1959 graduate of Post High School, where she was a member of Who's Who and Senior Class favorite, Miss Barron recently completed her freshman year at Wayland. In addition to maintaining a high scholastic average she served as publicity chairman of the Speech Club and played with the Queen Bees Basketball team.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Barron, Route 2, Post, she is seeking the B. A. degree in Speech at Wayland.

Remember not the sins of your youth, nor my transgressions; according to Thy mercy, remember Thou me for Thy goodness' sake, O Lord. —(Psalm 25:7)

Some of us find it difficult to forgive ourselves for the thoughtless or willful sins of our younger days, and a feeling of guilt lies like a stone on our hearts through the long years. But Our Father, through Christ Jesus, forgives us when we are truly repentant; we should then forgive ourselves.

Carolyn Ward's engagement to Stanley Smith announced

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse A. Ward of Route 2 announce the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Carolyn, to Stanley Smith. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Smith of Levelland. The couple will be married in September. Miss Ward is a graduate of Southland High School and attended Plains College at Levelland. Her fiancé, a graduate of Levelland High School, also attended SPC.

Florida visitor honored at Wednesday morning coffee

Arrangements of geraniums were placed at vantage points throughout the Community Room of the National Bank Wednesday morning for a coffee in honor of Mrs. Glenn E. Roof of Miami, Fla.

Mrs. Roof, her husband and son, are here visiting her mother, Mrs. Bess Ramsay Thompson, and other relatives and friends.

Mrs. Hub Haire and Mrs. Jack Burress, aunts of Mrs. Roof, were hostesses for the affair, held from 10 until 11 o'clock.

Assisting with hospitalities were: Mrs. Bryan J. Williams, Miss Maxine Durrett, Mrs. Doyle Justice of Lubbock, Mrs. E. A. Warren, Mrs. Willard Kirkpatrick, Mrs. Jess Cornell, Mrs. Charley Luttrell, Miss Lucille Collier.

The Florida visitors were also entertained with a dinner at the W. K. Kirkpatrick home Wednesday night, with several other courtesies planned during their stay here.

Tacky party honors Janette Peden, 13

Mrs. A. C. Cooke entertained last Wednesday with a tacky party on the occasion of her granddaughter, Janette Peden's 13th birthday.

Guests for the event were: Birch Lobban, Everette Peden, Peggy Claborn, Scharlene Holland, Judy Poole, Wynana Windham, Lynn Jacobson, and Paula Hedrick of Lubbock.

Pink daisies background for Truelock and Watson wedding

Arrangements of pink daisies and white stock formed the background for the marriage of Miss Oma Jane Truelock and Jack D. Watson Sunday, July 10. The Rev. Eddie Fortson, pastor, performed the wedding at 3 p. m. in the Southland Baptist Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Truelock of Southland, and Mr. and Mrs. Arville Watson of Albuquerque, N. M., are parents of the bridegroom.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, James Elton Truelock of Albuquerque. She wore a dress of white embroidered silk, styled with a fitted bodice and shallow scooped neckline. A bouffant skirt was street-length. A crowns of orange blossoms and seed pearls held her veil of silk illusion. Her bouquet was of white carnations trimmed with ropes of pearls.

Miss Hazel Bean of Lubbock was maid of honor. She wore a dress of blue, fashioned with a full line.

A reception followed the ceremony in Fellowship Hall. The bridegroom's sister, Miss Jane Watson, registered guests. Miss Kelly Myers poured punch and Mrs. Kenneth Callaway served the three-tiered cake. Others assisting with hospitalities were Mrs. Donald Pennell, Mrs. Jack Myers, and Mrs. Jack Hargrove.

For a wedding trip to New Mexico, Mrs. Watson chose a white cotton dress with a full skirt, and white accessories. Mrs. Watson is a spring graduate of Southland High School. The couple will reside in Albuquerque, where he is employed as an electrician.

Ice cream supper for church group

The Intermediate Sunday School Department of the Calvary Baptist Church was entertained with an ice cream supper and social recently in the home of Mrs. Mary Kelly.

Outdoor games of croquet, ping pong and other table games were played.

Refreshments of ice cream, cake and Cokes were served to the following: Graydon Howell Jr., Peggy Butler, Lenny Howell, Diana Bias, Wayne Kiker, Margie Harrison, Alton Spinks, Lorene Hall, Betty Redman, Diane Kiker, Barbara Britton, Linda Bias, Mrs. Kelly, Mrs. W. C. Kiker, and Rev. and Mrs. Graydon Howell, Sandra and Timmy.

DETROIT VISITOR

Mrs. R. P. Stallings of Detroit, Tex., is a guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Lew Baker.

Postscripts

Over 50 guests were present Friday night at the State of Texas Highway Department for a buffet supper in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Webb. Webb has retired from the highway department after 34 1/2 years of service. Guests were Post and Tahoka employees of the State Highway Department, and their families. The buffet dinner was arranged around a large cake in the shape of the State of Texas.

Mrs. Wilma F. Hill, homemaking instructor at Post High School, was one of ten women to complete a workshop in methods of teaching nutrition at Texas Tech recently. Various methods of solving problems that individual class members have in presenting nutrition to groups with whom each works were also stressed in the workshop, sponsored by the School of Home Economics.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Collier, Don and DiAnna, accompanied by Dr. and Mrs. Noah Stone of Brownfield, have returned from a 10-day vacation trip to Colorado. They visited Colorado Springs, Pike's Peak, Estes Park, and the Rocky Mountain National Park.

Mrs. Mae Voss had as guests Sunday afternoon Mrs. J. F. Brown and children, Ann and Jimmy, of Whitney. Mrs. Brown is a teacher in the Whitney school system and is taking a speech course at Texas Tech in Lubbock this summer.

Church-wide picnic planned for Aug. 21

Plans for a church-wide picnic and homecoming are underway at the First Baptist Church.

Date for the event has been set for Aug. 21. The picnic and homecoming events are for old friends past church years, and invitations have been mailed to those who live out-of-town.

The planning committee consists of Mrs. Henry Tate, Mrs. Floyd Edges, Mrs. Bob Baker, Mrs. Joyce Hart, and Mrs. E. R. Moreland.

About your health

Recent State Board of Health action is expected to be a strong factor in assuring Texas of adequate Grade A milk supplies, despite seasons of short milk production.

The board last week adopted specifications which will permit the reconstitution of Grade A dry milk solids into Grade A fluid milk. The specifications are contained in a supplement to the standard milk ordinance and code which some 150 Texas cities—including all major population centers—have adopted.

When the new specifications are assembled in printed form they will become formal regulations and will have the full weight of the Texas milk grading and labeling law behind them.

In effect, the Board of Health action says to the milk processing industry:

"Now you can dehydrate your surplus Grade A fluid milk as prescribed by these new regulations and store it. Then, in those seasons when milk production is low, you can add fluids to those dried solids and offer it for sale as Grade A fluid milk, provided each container is clearly labeled as being reconstituted."

Excepted from the "reconstituted" label is cultured buttermilk which by definition consists of soured skim or reconstituted milk, and fortified milk which must be labeled with the percentage of solids added to the original fluid product.

Prior to adoption of the specifications, milk processors had to dispose of surplus by turning it into by-products. The practice was unavoidable wasteful, particularly when viewed during later seasons when whole fresh milk production dropped off for one reason or another and supplies had to be shipped in from out-of-state.

Refinements and standardization of the milk drying process now makes dehydration and storage without refrigeration practical.

Three major dry milk processing plants now operate in Texas—at Rusk, La Grange, and Muenster.

Only Grade A milk can be sold in communities which have adopted the standard milk ordinance and code. The new specifications will permit importation of Grade A dry milk products into these communities after city councils pass them as ordinances.

Progress...

More people, more jobs, more buildings, more cars, better and faster ways of doing things. Style and the general appearance of cities change, this is progress and as it should be, but with all this it is good to know that one thing never changes, and that is God's love.

"O give thanks unto the Lord, for he is good: for his mercy endureth forever."

For all these marvels of progress, and for all of God's goodness, we should... "exalt him also in the congregation of the people."

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

FAMILY PUTS 2,000 MILES A MONTH ON CORVAIR THINKS IT'S MARVELOUS GAS MILEAGE "OUT OF THIS WORLD"

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kahelin of Plant City, Florida, couldn't be happier with the way their new Corvair has worked out as a combination family and business car. On their newspaper distribution route alone they travel more than 400 miles a week over all kinds of roads. Little wonder they're so pleased with the gas mileage they've been getting — "at least twenty-three miles to the gallon with an automatic transmission . . . and we've had no trouble with our Corvair." The Kahelins have equally good things to say about Corvair's easy-going comfort and unique convenience features. They especially like the way the fold-down seat doubles as a built-in baby sitter.

State Capital NEWS

By Vern Sanford

AUSTIN — Although budget balancing is the most discussed of the problems facing the next Legislature, many lawmakers expect redistricting wrangles may raise more blood pressures.

Legislature is required by the Constitution to re-define legislative districts after each federal census. It used to put off this troublesome task, but a 1948 law provides that if it fails to act in the first session after a census, a Legislative Redistricting Board shall take over.

This insures, as it did in 1951, that the Legislature will redistrict—somehow, some way.

Battle will be between big city delegations who will demand more representation in line with their swelling populations and rural members who will try to hold on to as much as they can.

In their election campaigns, many representatives promised their constituents they'd be in there pitching for the home area. Members from growth areas said they'd go after extra representatives, state senators and congressmen.

A rural legislator told his people, "At least twelve rural districts will disappear in the next redistricting. I certainly do not want this district included in that twelve."

Incumbents cited their experience as an asset. Personal feeling often enters into redistricting, and lawmakers are notably reluctant to "squeeze out" a popular and respected senior colleague by erasing his district.

HOME INSURANCE CUT

Beginning August 1, premium rates on certain types of homeowner's insurance policies will be cut 10 per cent.

State Insurance Board announced the new lower rates would apply to the "homeowner's package" policies which account for about 80 per cent of the home coverage sold in Texas.

Reductions were made possible because insurance companies have had a relatively low loss ratio on the package policies, first introduced about three years ago.

CREDIT RATE EYED

Board of Insurance also is considering a further lowering of credit insurance rates.

Many loan companies require borrowers to take out insurance payable to the loan company in case something happens to the borrower before he repays.

Two years ago the Board cut in half the rates that could be charged for credit insurance. It was charged that loan companies were making excessive profits on loans through the insurance.

Board says that even now rates seem high, with losses running 27 per cent of premiums paid in. If losses run less than 50 per cent of the premiums, rates are considered too high.

NO ROAD PROBLEM

Stiffened federal road inspections pose no problem in Texas, says State Highway Engineer DeWitt C. Greer.

New federal standards are no tougher than those Texas has insisted on all along.

Scandals stemming from misuse of federal road building money in other states has caused the Bureau of Public Roads to tighten its inspection requirements. Greer said the new federal approach will necessitate no change in Texas procedures.

Texasans who have been motoring cross-country during their summer vacations will not find this hard to believe. So noticeably superior are Texas roads to those of surrounding states that returning Texasans usually give a sign of relief when they cross the state line.

SPEAKERS' BATTLE BOILS

Candidates for Speaker of the House continue their month-long battle of "claimsmanship."

Rep. Wade Spilman added five to his list of House members pledged to support him and said this gave him a "rather conclusive" lead. Rep. James Turman of Gobeer claims a definite majority of 79.

Votes of 76 of the 150 House members are needed to elect.

Spilman also has invited the House General Investigating Committee to look into charges that members were being subjected to improper pressure on how to vote.

COLLEGE FUNDS SOUGHT

Texas Commission on Higher Education will ask the next Legislature for an appropriation of $3,082,183 for the 1961-63 biennium.

Bulk of the increase asked is for meeting expected enrollment increases in the 18 state-supported colleges and universities.

In a discussion with members of the State Finance Advisory Committee, the Commission considered recommending an increase in state college tuition charges—now $100 for a nine-months term. Dr. Ralph Green suggested raising this by $50. It would bring the state an extra $5,000,000 a year in new revenue, he said.

PRISON NEEDS CITED

Texas Board of Corrections also wants more money—a $2,654,846 increase over their present allocation for the next two years.

"If the amount is granted, Texas prisoners will cost the state $1.89 per day per man," said State Prison Director O. B. Ellis. "This is just a little more than half the national average."

Ellis and Corrections Board members regard prison needs as critical. Board Chairman H. H. Coffield of Rockdale reported that "the prison population trends indicate it will keep on multiplying."

Atty. Gen. Will Wilson has been named by the National Association of Attorneys General as the recipient of that association's award for outstanding service in 1960. He was cited as being the most outstanding Attorney General in the nation when he received the Wyman Award at the Annual Meeting of the National Association of Attorneys General recently in San Francisco.

Award is given to the Attorney General who "has done the most to advance the objectives of the association to help make the United States a better place in which to live for all." Wilson won the honor on the basis of his contribution in strengthening state anti-trust programs and in the field of interstate commerce, as well as through his service on the habeas corpus committee of the association. He also was chairman of the association's Antitrust Committee during 1960.

Q. I am the widow of a World War II veteran, eligible under the new pension law to collect pension for myself and daughter. She is unmarried but over 18, although she is going to college. I understand this makes a difference in the age limit and that I can continue receiving pension on her behalf until she is 21, because of her school attendance. Is this so?

A. Yes, but the school must, of course, be one satisfactory to VA, for instance a college or high school where regular educational objectives are offered and regular periods of attendance maintained. While the unmarried child is attending such an approved school, pension payments may be made for the child until age 21.

must carry by a majority vote in each of the four towns to make the project financially feasible.

If all four city elections carry on the water contracts it will be the last major step toward qualifying for state and federal loans of $4,000,000.

McLaughlin told White River directors last Thursday night that plans and specifications for the White River dam will be completed by Oct. 1.

White River directors also approved the settlement of $1,269.20 which the district will pay to Mrs. Lee Walker, owner of the ranch property on which the proposed damsite is located, for damages incurred in the drilling of test holes in the last few months for the engineering work on the dam.

INCURS OBLIGATIONS

McLaughlin explained to directors that whether or not the White River dam ever becomes actually constituted and already has incurred obligations which must be paid. The $1,269.20 in damages to the ranch property is only one of such obligations, he pointed out.

Directors will meet again in special session to set the water contract election as soon as federal agency approval is obtained in the proposed water contract changes.

Attending the session from Post were R. J. (Rube) Jennings and Dr. A. C. Surman, White River directors, Mayor Powell Shytle and Publisher Jim Cornish.

Many Texans head for Mexico for a hunting or fishing trip. But not many go in for manta ray harpooning.

An Oklahoma friend of mine, Range Cluyd Jr., now a Mexico City businessman, recently told me of his adventures in this exciting sport.

Although you may never participate in manta ray harpooning, as an outdoorsman, you may, nevertheless, be interested in what Range had to say about his experience.

Anyway, here is an interesting, true story to add to your collection.

Strangely enough, Range happened to be on his honeymoon when his opportunity for manta ray harpooning appeared. So he and his wife both participated in the manta ray hunt. She is a former Olympic swimming champion from Mexico City.

On arriving at Papanoa, Mexico, located on the Pacific Coast between Acapulco and Zihuatenejo, they found the fishermen engaged over the arrival in their waters of hundreds of giant manta rays. The huge mantas were scarcing away all the fish which provide their livelihood.

When the Cluyds heard the details of the natives' plans for driving off the mantas, they couldn't resist joining in the hunt.

Here's how the fishermen went about it.

First they made harpoons, using a broomstick handle for the shaft. To this shaft, they attached their harpoon point by binding it tautly with wire. The harpoon point was made from steel rods, such as those used in reinforcing concrete, and were about as big around as your little finger. These rods were bent back double, to the shape of a hook, and filed down at the end to an effective sharp-barbed point.

Second, they attached a light line to the handle end of the harpoon. The boats these fishermen used were old, primitive dugout canoe-type craft, made by the natives from trunks of trees.

At first Range was wary about going out in this small, crude craft, especially after hearing the tales of the huge manta rays, weighing several tons, were known to jump as high as 15 feet out of the water during the mating season.

Nevertheless, the Cluyds proceeded to join the group and here is how the sport was enacted.

RAYS NEAR SHORE

As the manta rays were close in, the natives did not have far to go from shore before encountering them. They paddled their way out until they could see a dark cast or shaded area in the water, indicating a sleeping manta.

As the manta takes his rest by floating just a few inches below the surface of the water, the hunters would move along quietly until their boat was right on top of a big ray. Standing in the boat, the harpoonist would hurl his harpoon into the back of the manta and then hold on to the line and hope, or pray.

LITTLE LEAGUERS HAVE END-OF-SEASON PARTY

The more than 60 members of Post's six Little League baseball clubs and most of the coaches and managers gathered at the City-County Swimming Pool last Friday morning for a watermelon feast and a swimming party. Right after the picture was taken, the Little Leaguers changed into bathing trunks for a dip in the pool, after which they "polished off" the watermelons.—(Staff Photo.)

Junior High gridders to start workouts

About 20 boys showed up last Friday for the first meeting of the team for 8th and 9th graders who are to play football, Coach Glynn reports.

Coach Gregg said a few more boys would have attended the meeting, except for the fact that some of them were scheduled to play in the Babe Ruth League baseball game last evening.

He said Monday plans are to start calisthenics and other light workouts this week in preparation for the coming football season.

Cornell and Minor are co-captains

Mike Cornell and Jimmy Minor have been elected co-captains of the 1960 Post Antelope football team, Coach Vernard Alexander announced Tuesday.

The co-captains were elected at a letterman's meeting Monday night.

Cornell, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Cornell, has lettered at center and tackle the last two seasons. Minor, the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Minor, also is a two-year letterman. He has played at guard position the last two seasons.

Both co-captains are senior students.

Red Sox pushing Yankees

Little Loop 'making up'

Make-up games were continuing this week in Post Little League play with Postex Mills' Yankees grimly hazarding on to their championship chances.

The Yankees, who overtook the Multiple Well Service Tigers as league leaders late in the season, knocked the Tigers out of contention for the title Saturday night by scoring an 11-0 shutout victory.

Right on the Yankees' heels are Brown Bros.' Red Sox, who have had a win streak going for the last few weeks.

The Yankees and Red Sox played Wednesday night with the Yankees needing a win to clinch the championship. If the Red Sox win, the Yankees still must get by the Corvairs in the only make-up game left before they can claim the crown.

Also scheduled for Wednesday night was a make-up game between Western Construction Co.'s Westerners and First National Bank Dodgers, who have been battling for fourth place for the last few weeks.

Occupying the cellar are the Caprock Chevrolet Co. Corvairs.

Three make-up games were played Monday night, with the Tigers getting a measure of revenge on the Yankees by scoring a 6 to 2 win.

The Red Sox downed the Dodgers, 9 to 6, and the Westerners eked out a 12-11 win over the Corvairs in the other games.

In the Tigers' 6-2 win over the Yanks, Filemon Vargas held the losers to five hits, three of them by Ronnie Pierce, one by Ricky Welch and one by Ronnie Mayberry.

The Tigers collected eight hits off starter Mayberry, who went four innings, and reliever Charles Landroop. Johnnie Bilberry, with a double and a triple, and Vargas, with two doubles, led the Tiger assault.

In the Red Sox' 9-6 win over the Dodgers, starter Roy Long pitched shutout ball for five innings, but Doyle Nichols had to come on to preserve the victory after the Dodgers scored two runs in the fifth and staged a sixth inning rally that netted four more tallies.

Jimmy Bartlett was the starter and loser, with Ramon Luna relieving him after three innings.

EXTRA INNINGS
It took an extra inning, in which the Sox scored three runs, to decide the winner.

The Westerners and Corvairs went at it nip and tuck in the Westerners' 12-11 win, after the Corvairs had blasted off for six runs in the first frame. The winners scored four runs in the bottom of the fifth to go ahead, 12-9, then fought off a Corvair rally that produced two runs in the top of the sixth.

Starter Ronnie Mayberry and Charles Landroop allowed only three hits in pitching the Yanks to their 11-0 shutout win over the Tigers Saturday night. Larry Johnson, the Tiger starter, was the losing hurler.

PIERCE HOMERS
Ronnie Pierce's three-run homer in the first inning gave the Yankees all the runs they needed. Pierce also had a double and a single for a perfect night at the plate.

Clyde Cash pitched the Dodgers to a 12-8 win over the Westerners in Saturday night's opener, allowing 10 hits, but receiving big help through his teammates' 16-hit attack on Westerner pitchers Bobby Beavers and Tommy Rivera.

Sappington had three hits in four at-bats to lead the Dodger hitters, with Linford Warren getting three for five. Jerry Don Sullivan, John Perez and Rivera each got two hits for the losers.

In games last Thursday night, the Yankees swamped the Corvairs, 10 to 1, and the Red Sox outlasted the Westerners, 12 to 11.

In Babe Ruth playoffs

Lamesans outscore Post All-Star '9'

Post's Babe Ruth League All-Stars should swear out a warrant against the Lamesa team following Monday evening's game in the regional Babe Ruth League playoffs at Leveland.

The Lamesans stole the Post team "blind" in racking up a 6 to 1 win in what otherwise was a good game.

After a scoreless first and second inning, the Lamesans scored two runs with two out in the top of the third to take a 2-0 lead.

Beatty walked to open the inning and Burleson singled to left. Post pitcher David Nichols struck out the next two batters, but an error at first base loaded the bases. One run scored on an error by the pitcher and another was rucked up when the base runner stole home.

Another steal from home to third in the top of the fourth made it 3-0 for Lamesa, and another trio of tallies in the fifth, including another steal home, gave the Lamesa team all the margin it needed.

Post's only run was scored in the bottom of the fifth when Chunky

Cash's homer is

Grand slam

Norm Cash's grand slam homer helped power the Detroit Tigers to a 12 to 2 victory over the league-leading New York Yankees Sunday in the first game of a doubleheader at Detroit.

The Tigers also won the second game, 3 to 2, before 42,596 fans. The former Post High School athlete's homer with the bases loaded came in the second inning, in which the Tigers scored seven runs.

It was Cash's seventh home run of the season.

He is currently leading the front-line Detroit players in batting with an average of around .290.

In a game last week, Cash drove in three runs with a pinch-hit double to help the Tigers defeat the Kansas City Athletics.

From the beginning of 1948 to the beginning of 1953, civilian hospital beds increased 30 per cent while the population rose 29 per cent, according to Health Insurance Institute.

Swimmers to compete here

The City-County pool here will be the scene of a swim meet beginning at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon, July 23, pool manager Wayne Runkles has announced.

There will be four age divisions for males and four age divisions for females. Ribbons will go to first, second and third place winners in each event. There will also be individual ribbons for the boy and girl accumulating the most points in each age group. Rosettes will be given first, second and third place team winners in total points. Individual events will be 25-yard breast stroke, 25-yard back stroke, 25-yard free style, 50-yard breast stroke, 50-yard back stroke, 50-yard free style, 100-yard free style relay, underwater race and a thumb race.

Any person entered in the meet is eligible for the thumb race. Entrants must travel the length of the pool, keeping both thumbs above the water.

The four age divisions for both boys and girls are: Juniors, 11 years and under; intermediates, 12, 13 and 14; seniors, 15, 16 and 17; adults, 18 and over.

Harold Voss, A. J. McAllister and Dan Rankin have been named as time judges for the meet. Disqualifying judges will be Bob West and Herbie Hays, and Wayne Runkles will be the official starter.

White Sox nip Cubs to win Babe Ruth honors

Manager Ben Howell's White Sox, sponsored by Edwards Appliances, won the Babe Ruth League title Tuesday by defeating Manager Wayne Baldwin's Cubs, 3 to 1, in a playoff game to determine the championship.

The White Sox had pulled into a tie with the Cubs by defeating them 4 to 2 last Friday.

David Lee spun a five-hitter in Tuesday night's White Sox win. He also tripled in the third inning to drive in two runs and give the Sox their margin of victory.

J. C. Demming, the Cubs' starting hurler, and John Sepeda, who relieved him in the fifth, allowed only six hits, but the three-bagger by Lee proved the difference.

The Sox got off to an early lead in the top of the first when Wendell Johnson and Ronnie Reed hit back-to-back singles, and Johnson scored on Lee's grounder. They added two more in the fifth when Teddy Scott and Johnson scored on Lee's triple.

The Cubs scored their lone run in the fifth with two out. Butch Cross and Sepeda walked, advanced on steals and scored on Danny Odom's single. Demming popped out to third base to end the rally.

Scott got two of the winners' six hits—a triple and a single. Odom with a double and a single for two out of three led the Cub batters.

Lee was also the winning hurler in Friday night's 4-2 win which pulled the Sox up into a tie with the Cubs and made the playoff game necessary. John Sepeda was the loser.

In another game Friday night, the Braves and Indians closed out their season with the Braves taking a 14 to 6 victory. Jack Burk was the winning pitcher and Eddie Valdez was the loser. Burk held the losers to three hits.

Lubbock Rebels nip Would-Bes

The Lubbock Rebels came from behind to defeat the Post Would-Bes, 8 to 6, Sunday afternoon in a semi-pro baseball game at Babe Ruth League Park.

Catcher Nolan Williams was the local nine's outstanding hitter with a home run and two singles.

Billy Jones started on the mound for the Would-Bes, but was relieved by Alton Taylor, who was tagged with the loss.

The Would-Bes, managed by Walter B. Holland, will play in the district National Baseball Congress playoffs starting Aug. 4 in Lubbock. Emmett Goode is assistant manager and coach of the Post team.

Girls' basketball coach hired here

Donald Watkins of Friona has been named as girls' basketball coach at Post High School, Athletic Director Vernard Alexander announced Monday.

Watkins has been assistant girls' coach at Friona for four years. They have won the district championship each of those years and have gone to the state tournament the last two years, winning runner-up honors at the 1960 tourney.

The new coach is married and has a daughter.

Watkins has called a meeting of girls from the 9th through the 12th grade, who are interested in playing basketball, for Wednesday morning. The meeting will be held at 10:30 o'clock in the junior high gym.

The new coach replaces Billy E. Wood, who resigned, after being hired in June, to accept the head coaching post at Cotton Center.

Lynn County to build new jail

TAHOCA—The Lynn County commissioners' court has announced a plan to finance erection of a new $125,000 jail building on the southeast corner of the court yard.

The present jail on the top floor of the courthouse has been threatened with condemnation for years and new state law requirements will soon force its abandonment.

Under a law passed in 1957, which has a deadline in May, 1961, the county must meet requirements of the law in housing of prisoners.

A plan has been worked out with a fiscal agent whereby the county may issue up to $125,000 in warrants for a period not to exceed 20 years to draw interest at a rate not higher than 5 per cent.

These warrants would be paid off from the county's permanent fund, for which a levy now is being made of 10 cents on the $100 valuation.

Graham community landmark is gone with sale of Davis home

By MRS. DILLARD THOMPSON

Mrs. Bryan Maxey seems to have a new "house pet". As she was doing her dishes recently a snake came through the air conditioner, which is over her sink, and fell into the dish water. It came out of the sink and disappeared after several licks from a fly swatter.

Light showers fell Monday afternoon in this community.

Another of the Graham community's old landmarks is gone. Mrs. Jewel Graham sold her house and it was moved off her farm north of Graham this week. It was the home of her parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. Moody Davis, and was built in 1915.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Cowdrey and grandsons, James and David Sparlin, Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Peel and Gene, and Clark Cowdrey.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Hoover are spending the week at Stamford Lake fishing.

Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Bush were Mr. and Mrs. Hinton Fluitt and Mrs. Fluitt's niece and husband of Lubbock.

Mr. and Mrs. Elvus Davis, Stephanie and Patricia, were Sunday evening visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Ray McClellan and Kim.

Mr. and Mrs. Michie Robinson and Micky Sue accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Fluitt and Mark to Causey, N. M., for a weekend visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Robinson.

Mrs. Jewell Graham visited a short while Tuesday with her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Davis.

VISIT MRS. MAUD THOMAS

Visiting recently in the home of Mrs. Maud Thomas were Mrs. B. C. Childs and Mrs. Tommy Markham. Visiting Friday were Mrs. Chester Morris and Judy of the Close City community, and little Miss Cynthia White visited Saturday morning.

Patry Thompson and Jane Maxey visited Monday evening in the John Wallace home with their granddaughter, Janice Tucker of Wichita, Kans.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Dee Jones were Sunday afternoon guests in Post of his aunt, Mrs. W. O. Fluitt Sr. Also visiting were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Fluitt.

Rev. Elbert Nelson and Mrs. Maud Thomas were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Bill McMahon.

At Howard Payne College

Post student is in training program

Wendell Floyd Duncan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Duncan of 1009 Sunset Drive, Post, is one of 24 Texas students participating in the second annual summer science and mathematics training program at Howard Payne College, Brownwood, for exceptional high school students.

The institute, which opened Monday, is being financed with a grant of $7,350 from the National Science Foundation. The Howard Payne Division of Science and Mathematics has received grants totaling $165,655 in the last three years from the National Science Foundation, to conduct three summer institutes for high school teachers, two summer training programs for secondary students and an in-service training program to be held during the 1960-61 school year for high school teachers.

Fred Inman, physics; Dr. Chris Jordan, biology, and Dale Maness, mathematics.

Charles Brewster, HPC senior from Blanket, will serve as head counselor and recreation director for the participating students. Also serving as counselors will be Frances Lamb of Brownwood, who graduated at HPC in May, and Robert Liu, junior from Hong Kong.

Each morning, the participating students will have two hours of classwork in physical science and one hour of work in either biology or modern concepts in mathematics. During the afternoons, they will work on individual research projects in biology, chemistry or physics or participate in a group of research problems in mathematics.

Also included in the five-week program will be two two-day field trips—one to the Fort Worth-Dallas area and another to the Austin-San Antonio area.

Students who will participate are exceptional science and mathematics students who are between their junior and senior years in high school of AA classification or lower.

The Cherokees, we learn, are in arms. It is said that Evan Jones, the abolitionist, and his son, have enlisted 2500 full bloods for a raid. We hear that a requisition will be made upon the State of Arkansas to aid in quelling the insurrection. If a requisition is made upon the Choctaws and Chickasaws it will be responded to very promptly by the young men of the two nations.

Q. I have a service-connected disability. Can my family doctor treat my disability and send his bill to the VA?

A. If he has prior approval from VA, yes. Under law, that is necessary before he may treat your service-connected condition at Government expense.

Q. I am over 18 and eligible to go to school under the War Orphans Education Act. If I do go to school, I understand I cannot continue receiving the death compensation checks I now get from VA. Would these checks stop automatically as soon as I filed application for War Orphans schooling and before my first school check came?

A. No. Your election of benefits would not be considered final until after your first War Orphans school allowance had been paid to you, or an administrative allowance had been paid to your school.

Q. I can't find my discharge paper and I want to apply for a VA benefit. How do I go about getting another discharge?

A. Write to the Department of Defense, Military Personnel Records Center, 9700 Page Blvd., St. Louis, Mo. Tell them your branch of service and your service number. There is no charge for replacements.

Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Dodson and son were Sunday guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ehrig.

Tuesday dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lee Mason were Mr. and Mrs. Gene Mason and children.

Mrs. J. C. Howard, Kenneth and Keith, and Carolyn Moore were in Wichita Falls Sunday where they visited the Howards' daughter and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Davis.

Farm accidents are on increase

COLLEGE STATION — Farm people have a slightly higher percentage of fatal accidents than do other population groups, reports the Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Council. The rate of accidental deaths from work and recreational activities on farms is increasing slightly each year, as is the death rates associated with machinery, drownings, firearms and electricity. Accidental deaths due to animals, falls, lightning and burns are decreasing, however.

According to a recent survey made by the National Safety Council, Texas ranks in the top ten states in the number of deaths caused from drownings, firearms, burns and electricity. The Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Council points out that a little care and caution on the part of rural dwellers could help remove Texas from these unpopular lists.

During the week of July 24, an intensive safety campaign will be conducted in Texas, and all over the nation. The Texas Council urges all rural residents to participate in the activities of National Farm Safety Week — not only for that week, but for the entire year.

"A little bit of caution could prevent a lot of grief," reminds the Texas Council.

Turkeys and peaches included on August's plentiful food list

COLLEGE STATION — Turkeys and peaches will get feature support in all of the promotion efforts of the U. S. Department of Agriculture during August.
 Here's why. Head-count marketings of turkeys during August are expected to run about a sixth larger than last year but tonnage will run even higher because of the increased proportion of heavy breed birds.
 Also, cold storage holdings of turkeys are higher than average and last summer.
 More states harvest peaches in August than in any other month, so supplies will run heavy as the largest crop since 1946 moves to market—78.8 million bushels.
 Both watermelons and cantaloupes remain on USDA's plentiful foods list for this region with retail prices low enough to attract heavy volume sales.
 Onions and tomatoes are in the best supply of summer vegetables.
 Broilers and fryers return to USDA's plentiful list as August marketings promise to run 12 per cent above a year ago.
 Other August plentiful foods include scallops and peanut butter. This USDA list is based on a survey of local and national food stocks readily available for the retail trade.

Apply early for retirement benefits, advises official for Social Security Retiring workers were advised to call on the Social Security Administration one or two months before the date of retirement by John G. Hutton, district manager of the Lubbock, Texas, office.

 "Early application for the social security benefits will enable us to attend to the necessary details and avoid a delay in the payment of the first check," he said.
 "Claims for the retirement and family insurance payments require some action before they can be certified to the Treasury Department for payment," Hutton stated. "By filing early, payment can be made soon after retirement."
 An applicant should bring some evidence of his age and an earnings statement showing the amount of wages in the last year. The self-employed person should furnish a copy of his latest income tax return.
 No appointment is necessary to file a claim. The Lubbock office of the Social Security Administration is located in the Federal Office Building, 1616 19th Street, Lubbock. The office is open Monday through Friday (except for holidays) from 8:30 a. m. to 5 p. m.
 A representative of the Lubbock Social Security Office will be in Post on Tuesday, July 26, at 9:30

a. m. in the district courtroom and will be glad to assist in all matters pertaining to social security.
SANTA FE CARLOADINGS
 Santa Fe carloadings for week ending July 16 were 26,276 compared with 23,123 for the same week a year ago. Cars received from connections totaled 8,881 compared with 10,490 for the same week a year ago. Total cars moved were 35,157 compared with 33,613 for the same week a year ago. Santa Fe handled a total of 35,665 cars in the preceding week this year.

Ferrell rites are held at Southland

Funeral and burial services were conducted last Thursday at Southland for Miss Minnie Lee Ferrell of Sapulpa, Okla., who died July 11 in the home of her niece, Mrs. Eula Arnold.
 Miss Ferrell, who had reached the age of 75, was born in Dallas.
 The funeral services were held at Southland Methodist Church, with the Rev. William Yeats officiating.
 Miss Ferrell is survived by a sister, Mrs. Kellum of Southland; two other nieces, Mrs. L. B. Mathis of Southland and Mrs. Annice Taylor of Sapulpa, and an uncle, Walter Kellum, of Slaton.

Bible Thoughts
"He Chewed Up His Tag"
 By RONNIE PARKER

The Bible bridges the chasm between God and man. It is reasonable that the creator would attempt to make contact with his creation. This he does in the Bible.
 At a railway station, the stationmaster was seen with a little dog in his arms. He was asked by a man waiting for the train: "Where is that little dog going and where did he come from?" The stationmaster replied, "I don't know, he don't know, nobody don't know—he's done gone and chewed up his tag!"
 The Bible is man's tag. We had better not "chew" it up by failure to read it and respect it. The value of the scriptures is taught by Paul in 2 Tim. 3:16. "Every scripture inspired of God is also profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, for instruction which is in righteousness: That the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works." Paul charged Timothy to "study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed." (2 Tim. 2:15.)
 The honest investigation of God's scriptures is a must for every man who would walk with God. To neglect it is to neglect his soul. Study your Bible daily and live according to its teachings and all will be well with your soul.

BROILED TUNA AND CHEESE SANDWICHES

1 7 oz. can Starkist tuna, drained, flaked
1/3 cup chopped celery
1 tbsp. chopped green pepper
1 tbsp. minced onion
2 tsp. lemon juice
Salt, pepper
1/3 cup Miracle Whip Salad Dressing
4 slices white bread, crusts trimmed
4 peeled tomato slices
4 Slices Old English Pasteurized Cheddar Cheese

Combine the tuna, celery, onion, green peppers, lemon juice, seasonings, and salad dressing. Toss lightly. For each sandwich, toast a slice of bread on one side. Spread the untoasted side with the tuna mixture; cover with a slice of tomato and top with a slice of cheese. Place the sandwiches under the broiler or in a moderate oven, 350°, until the cheese is melted. Serve with tall frosty glasses of iced tea.
