White River dam, pipeline plans officially approved

Plans and specifications for the $4,000,000 White River dam and pipeline to the four member towns of the district have been formally approved by the State Board of Water Engineers.

The fact that the Texas Water Development Board, meeting in Austin today, is expected to approve the White River Municipal Water District's application for a $4,000,000 loan to finance the project—were the top developments to come out of the June meeting of the White River directors in Spur last Thursday night.

Approval by the state board of water engineers of the plans has cleared up formal approval of the $4,000,000 loan by the state since early March.

Plans and specifications were submitted to the state water engineers March 4 and were approved by resolution of that board June 13.

CLEARING THE WAY for the formal approval of the $4,000,000 loan, the White River directors last Thursday night approved an amended application to the water development board setting up the 40-year amortization schedule for the bonds.

The $4,000,000 loan application includes $2,700,000 in first lien tax and revenue bonds and $1,300,000 in junior lien tax and revenue bonds.

Originally the White River district had sought the $2,700,000 loan from a federal agency and only $1,300,000 from the state water resources board. A change by the last legislature made it possible for the state to advance the full $4,000,000 on the project.

Marvin McLaughlin, Ralls banker and chairman of the White River Municipal Water District's finance committee, will appear before the state water resources board in Austin today when the board takes up the loan application.

In another action last Thursday night, the White River directors passed a resolution authorizing the execution and delivery of a trust indenture. This resolution set up a trust for the White River district's water fund to mutually protect both the district and the bond holders. The bond payments will be made from the trust fund.

NEXT STEP IN THE legal steps necessary to secure the first loan funds for purchase of dam site and right-of-way for the water pipelines to Post, Spur, Ralls, and Crosbyton is the approval of the bond issue by the state attorney general.

He cannot act until the White River Municipal Water District's tax rolls are completed, however. Progress is reported toward completion of the tax rolls in the four member towns.

Tax rolls could be completed within the next three to four weeks directors were told. To speed up the Post tax roll preparation an oil company attorney Tuesday promised to furnish the district with a division of ownership of the mineral values in the city of Post at a 100 per cent value and a total value for the minerals.

The district's tax equalization board must meet before the rolls can be completed and no date has yet been set for these sessions.

They are expected to be scheduled for late July or early August. Directors voted last Thursday night at Spur not to give discounts.

Record-setting 49 ballots are cast in hurry

The biggest rush of absentee voters in Post's history had flocked into County Clerk Carl Cederholm's office up to noon yesterday to cast absentee ballots in the liquor option election scheduled for Saturday, July 8, in Precinct 3.

With absentee voting in the election having opened only Monday, the 49 Precinct 3 residents who had voted absentee up to noon Wednesday had personnel in the clerk's office wondering not only what had brought on the sudden onrush, but also how many more would vote absentee before absentee voting closes at midnight the Tuesday preceding the election.

"It is undoubtedly the largest number of absentee voters we've ever had in here this early in an absentee voting period," the county clerk said.

A deputy in the clerk's office told The Dispatch that all 49 votes up to noon yesterday had been cast by Negroes or Spanish-Americans. All the voters were from the Two Draw voting precinct, with no absentee votes having been cast at that time from Verbena, the precinct's only other voting box.

The early absentee voting rush indicates considerably more interest in the coming election than there was in the April 9, 1960, election, when the precinct went wet by 10 votes—133 to 123.

The July 8 election was called by the Garza County commissioners' court at its June session last week. The commissioners ordered the election after being presented a petition signed by 57 qualified voters of Precinct 3. This was 17 more than the required number of 40 signatures.

Outside of the early rush of absentee voting, about the only new pre-election development is the posting of signs at some places in the precinct by "wet" forces. These signs urge voters to be sure to vote in the July 8 election and to vote absentee by Monday, July 3, if they won't be able to go to the polls and vote on election day.

Post's 14th Junior Rodeo plans fast taking shape

Negotiations for two championship saddles and trophies were completed, a dance band announced, queen contest rules tentatively set, and a number of other details for this year's Southwestern Championship Junior Rodeo worked out at a three-hour session of officers and directors Monday night in the district courtroom.

The signed contract for production of this year's rodeo had not been received from the Ratjen Rodeo Co. of Happy at the time of the meeting, but Lester Nichols, president of the adult board of directors, learned in a long distance telephone call that the rodeo dates were satisfactory to the producers and that the signed contract was "on its way".

This year's rodeo—the 14th annual one—is scheduled for July 26, 27, 28 and 29 at Post Stampede Arena.

IT WAS ANNOUNCED at the meeting that the Junior Rodeo Association has started getting the arena and grounds in shape after being told Friday that Post Stampede, Inc., had decided not to remodel the arena this year. Under this new provision—that the juniors get the arena in shape for their rodeo—they will not be charged the $750 lease fee for their four-night rodeo.

Junior Rodeo Association officials had already signed the contract to lease the arena for $750 and had returned it to Post Stampede, Inc., officials for their signatures when the change in plans was decided on by the latter.

Carol Davis and Eddie Courtney were present from the Cowboy Store in Levelland and negotiated with the committee in charge for the purchase of the saddles to be awarded the best all-around cowboy and cowgirl, 14 event trophy buckles and three sheriff's posse parade trophies.

The representatives of the Cowboy Store, which formerly was located in Post, agreed to give one trophy buckle free with the purchase of the other 13.

THE JUNIOR RODEO group agreed to book Jimmy Mackey's dance band of Brownfield for the dances to be held following each night's performance. Mackey, who sent word to the meeting that he would do his own advertising for the dances, has played at 14 area rodeos already this season.

The group voted to again select a rodeo queen on the basis of ticket sales, as they have been doing for the last few years. Nita Wilson, last year's rodeo queen, is chairman, and girls wishing to enter the queen contest are asked to contact her or Wayne McFadin, president of the association's junior board of directors.

The queen contest is open to Garza County girls 19 years of age and under.

Again this year, Dorace Wilson will be parade chairman, it was announced. Invitation of sheriff's posses for the parade is to begin soon, and merchants, clubs and other organizations planning to sponsor floats are asked to contact Mrs. Wilson.

SHERIFF L. E. (Fay) Claborn Jr. met briefly with the group and assured them that there would be ample law enforcement for this application today.

The job of site procurement can't be begun until some purchase funds are in the hands of White River directors but this should come before the summer is out, maybe much sooner.

Next legal step is approval of the bonds by the state attorney-general, but first the district's first tax roll must be completed. This should be accomplished in three or four weeks.

With lots of water in the new Caprock golf course tank, all interested golfers are being called together Friday night to see how much interest there is in going ahead with plans for a grass greens golf course. Caprock has a sporty layout. Grass greens would make it a humdinger. What is needed is the approval by all local golfers and their agreement to some kind of a realistic financing plan. Don't miss the Friday night meeting in the Community Room at 7:30—if you're a golfer. Here at last is the long-sought opportunity for a grass greens course for Post.

Garza County Sheriff L. E. (Fay) Claborn Jr. was in Little Rock, Ark., last week to attend the annual convention of the National Sheriffs Association. En route, he visited with a grandmother and uncle in Allen, Okla., and on the way home stopped off in Mansfield, Ark., to visit his other grandmother and an aunt. Fay told Editor Charlie Didway yesterday that while in Arkansas he telephoned the sheriff's office here from the main street of Charlie's birthplace, Hartford, Ark. Charlie said he didn't correct Fay, but that actually he was born at Montreal, Ark.—no longer on the map—just a few miles from Hartford and in the same county. Fay also contacted the sheriff's office here by radio from Mansfield.

1,200 pounds beef donated for barbecue; more needed

Some 1,200 pounds of Garza County-wide Fourth of July barbecue being sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce.

The goal is 2,000 pounds and we are hopeful of other donations," E. R. (Buster) Moreland, who is in charge of obtaining the beef for the event, told The Dispatch yesterday afternoon.

Anyone wanting to donate beef should contact Moreland.

Some of the other necessary food items "all the trimmings" for the barbecue also has been donated according to Chamber officials.

Amounting up to 2,500 is expected with everyone in the county invited. No tickets are required.

RONNIE TURNER

Hunting mishap victim's rites conducted here

Last rites for Ronald Leon Turner, 15, who was shot and accidentally killed about 11 a. m. Saturday while hunting rabbits near Snyder, were conducted at 2:30 p. m. Monday at the Assembly of God Church.

Ronnie, as the youth was known to his family and friends, was shot in the back of the head when the Rev. Roy E. Lee, 22, of California fired at a rabbit across the top of the hunting party's automobile.

The youth and the Rev. Mr. Lee, who was conducting a revival meeting here, were hunting with Ronnie's father, John H. Turner of 110 East 13th St., and Wayne Brincefield, 14, son of the Rev. J. R. Brincefield, pastor of the A. S. (See HUNTING MISHAP, page 8)

Close City man dies suddenly Tuesday morning

Funeral services were to be held at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon for R. B. (Berchard) Wilson, 72, a resident of the Close City community, who died suddenly late Tuesday morning, apparently of a heart attack.

Mr. Wilson was stricken after getting out of his pick-up truck to close a pasture gate near the farm home where he resided with his sister, Miss Bera Wilson.

A neighbor, Virgil Stone, had been in the pasture with Mr. Wilson and drove away ahead of him. A few minutes later, he noticed that Mr. Wilson's pick-up was still at the pasture gate. He returned to investigate and found Mr. Wilson lying near the gate. He apparently had died instantly.

Mr. Wilson, who was born near Cleburne, had lived on the same place in the Close City community since 1917. He and his sister had continued living there after the death of their mother, Mrs. W. A. Wilson, in 1948.

Mr. Wilson had retired from full-time farming about a year ago, but was still active in part-time farming.

He was a member of the Friendship Baptist Church in the Close City community.

The funeral services are to be held at the First Baptist Church here. The Rev. E. R. Stiles of Fort Worth, a former pastor of the church, will officiate, assisted by (See CLOSE CITY, page 8)

Southland youth gets pastorate

Mr. and Mrs. Dillard Dunn of Southland and Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Livingston were in Lubbock Sunday night to hear the Dunns' son, the Rev. Ross Dunn, preach his first sermon as associate pastor at St. John's Methodist Church.

The Rev. Mr. Dunn was graduated from the Divinity School of Duke University at Durham, N. C., on May 28. The Dunns and Mrs. Livingston attended the graduation ceremonies, and were also in Fort Worth June 8 and 9 at ordination services for Ross during the Methodist Conference there.

The new minister is a graduate of Southland High School.

Wagon Wheel Tavern gutted by fire Friday

An early morning fire last Friday literally gutted the interior of the Wagon Wheel Tavern on the Clairmont highway.

The fire had a good start by the time the fire alarm was turned in.

Damage was estimated in the hundreds of dollars. The loss was not covered by insurance.

Cause of the fire is unknown but is believed probably due to electrical wiring. The fire apparently started in the area of the juke box, but the juke box was unplugged.

Robert Shrimpton is the proprietor of the Wagon Wheel.

The tavern has been closed and rebuilding plans probably will be determined at least in part by the outcome of the Precinct 3 wet-dry election July 8.

The fire was reported about 4 a. m.

The Post volunteer fire department had two other calls this week, one to a car which caught fire Sunday afternoon and the other a false alarm Tuesday.

Team roping set for August date

The 11th annual tournament of the West Texas Team Roping Association will be held early in August at the Post Stampede Arena, Harold Voss, secretary of Post Stampede, Inc., said today.

This will be the second consecutive year that the team roping tournament has been held in Post. Ten teams of ropers were entered last year when Aspermont defeated Post for the team championship.

Officials of the association were so well pleased with the tournament's reception here that they requested use of the Post arena again for this year's event.

Voss said he understands that plans are to move in the roping stock after the final show of the Southwestern Championship Junior Rodeo, which is to be held July 26-29.

The calves will be kept here the following week for practice, with the two-day team roping tournament tentatively scheduled for Friday and Saturday, Aug. 4-5.

There will be both day and night roping, and in addition in the team matches, there will be jackpot roping.

Troop 16 Scouts to summer camp

Eighteen members of Post Boy Scout Troop 16 and two Scout leaders will leave early Sunday for a week's summer camp at the Tres Ritos Boy Scout Camp at Tres Ritos, N. M.

Departure time for the 376 mile trip, which will be made in a cattle truck owned and made available for troop use by Ed Sims, will be 4:30 a. m. Sunday.

The troop will return to Post about 4 p. m. Saturday, July 1.

Making the trip will be Scoutmaster Bob West, Assistant Scoutmaster Kenith Smith, and the following Scouts:

Grassland resident dies this morning

J. T. Cunningham, 73, longtime resident of the Grassland community, died at his home there about 2 a. m. today.

Funeral arrangements were pending this morning at the Mason Funeral Home.

$750 damage suit filed in accident

A suit for damages seeking $750 has been filed in district court as the result of a traffic accident here last Sept. 10 at Cecil's Liquor Store.

Philip J. Corna and wife, Mary, are suing Donald McNalley and the Art Terrazo & Tile Co. of Lubbock.

The plaintiffs' petition alleges that one of the company's trucks was backed into their parked automobile by McNalley after Corona had left the car to go into the liquor store. McNalley was named as the driver of the truck.

In charging four counts of negligence, the Corona's suit asks $500 for "damage to Mrs. Corona's nervous system" and $250 for damage to the couple's automobile.

Truck driver charged

Not only was Sheriff L. E. (Fay) Claborn Jr. on the scene when an accident happened Tuesday morning, but he was also "part" of the accident.

A sheriff's department automobile driven by Claborn and a 1959 Ford driven by N. H. (Nahum) Sullivan were struck from the rear at the intersection of Broadway and 8th Street by a truck-tractor and semi-trailer rig and knocked across the intersection.

Sullivan, who owns an upholstery shop here, was taken to Garza Memorial Hospital with a back injury. Examinations were being continued yesterday to determine the full extent of the injury.

Highway Patrolman Max Knox, who investigated, said the collision occurred about 7:45 o'clock after the sheriff and Sullivan had stopped for the red light at the intersection, which is just a block south of the Main and Broadway intersection.

The highway patrolman said Claborn was waiting in the inside (See SHERIFF'S CAR, page 8)

Suit asks payment on crop damages

Three farmers of the Graham community have filed suit in district court here for $13,000 they say is due them for crop damages from wayward mesquite spray and for an additional $2,000 in attorney's fees and court costs.

The suit is titled W. A. Morris et al vs. John Lott et al.

Named as plaintiffs in the petition are W. A. Morris, W. C. W. Morris and Joe Taylor and their attorney, W. C. Huffaker Jr., of Tahoka. The defendants are listed as John Lott, Mrs. I. H. Macy and Doyle Justice, all of Lubbock and Gardner Flyers, Inc., of Crystal City.

The petition charges that mesquite spraying at the U Lazy S Ranch was applied by the flying company in a careless and negligent manner on or about June 1, 1960, and that as a result the plaintiffs sustained damage to their cotton crops.

The suit further sets forth that prior to the spraying operations both the ranch and the flying service had obtained from Loyds of London Insurance Co. an indemnity insurance policy which would pay damages to any landowner whose crops were damaged by the poison.

The petition says a settlement was reached Jan. 6, 1961, wherein Taylor was to receive $7,000 for damage to his cotton crop and the Morrises $6,000 for damage to their cotton.

The plaintiffs' suit alleges that repeated demands have failed to obtain payment of the settlement.

School aid begins at home

This newspaper is of the opinion that the board of trustees of the Post Independent School District acted wisely in passing and adopting a resolution taking a stand against federal money for financing education.

There may be a need for "aid" to education, but, as we see it, there is no need for federal aid to education—particularly in the usual sense of "federal," starting something that never ends. Congress is now considering federal aid to education, and it may well be snowballed through this session unless more people become concerned now about the consequences, such as, "we'll give you this — if you match it," or "we'll give you this, but . . . Why give the federal government a start at instituting school restrictions? Let's simplify this aid to education. Let's keep Uncle Sam's hands off it entirely. "How?"

Year-around job that works

A local businessman stopped us on the street the other day because he recalled we had something to do with the Garza Community Chest. He told the story of a stranded itinerant family with car trouble, no funds, and a job awaiting them in Plainview—if they could get there. What about the Chest? he asked. We told him. The Chest has an organization which receives Chest funds to take care of cases like that. It's the Salvation Army with a local committee of three business men. They have funds in the bank to help such people. That's a part of the good work the Army does across the land—and right here in Post. But to expand on the subject further. Your community chest gives money to all kinds of organizations here to do a host of specific jobs. The Chest investigates those or-

You can't win them all

Front paged in the Olney Enterprise was a picture of a movie theater marquee with a sign across it reading: "You can't win them all. Thanks, Chamber of Commerce." This was the clever way the Chamber at Olney announced the bad news that Olney's efforts to obtain a new garment plant being located by the Haggard Company of Dallas had failed. Bowie, Texas, was the winner. Olney lost not because of what Olney didn't do. Civic leaders had worked hard in that community for six weeks in efforts to bring the new industry with a fine payroll of 250 persons into Olney. Olney lost because of certain industrial considerations—such as the distance Olney was from other Haggard plants and the extra transportation costs this would entail. Bowie won because it was closer to these other plants.

Why not see Texas first?

The coming of July will see the vacation season get in full swing, and the Texas Highway Department sends word that if you want to see Texas first this summer, it will help you plan a good time. "Many Texans have never seen their own state through a tourist's eyes," says State Highway Engineer D. C. Greer. "They are unaware of the pleasures immediately available to them via Texas' excellent highway system." For example, Greer noted, Texas has: 1. One National Park (Big Bend). 2. Four National Forests. 3. More than 600 miles of coastline. 4. More than 50 mountains over 6,000 feet high.

Let's not assist Communism

The "tractors to Cuba" topic has reached the level of the man on the street and we've yet to hear any one express himself as being in favor of the idea. What it amounts to is appeasement of a bare-brained revolutionary who has chosen the Communists as bedfellows. If Communism poses as serious a threat to these shores as we're told it does—and we have no reason to doubt it—then why feed its flames by giving in to Fidel Castro's offer for a prisoner exchange. It is on such things that Communism thrives. Those several hundred prisoners captured in Cuba are no different than millions of others who have been incarcerated in the cause of

Sad story of a stray bullet

Stray bullets cause an awful lot of damage sometimes—even when they don't hit cows or humans. Take last Thursday for example. The local radio station was knocked off the air for 12 hours, the Postex Mills switchboard—a mighty busy one—was dead for the same half day, and some 30 other phone subscribers were without service all for the same period. Think of what inconvenience was caused to

What our contemporaries are saying

Since the astronauts have been in the air there is a new version of the old song, "Yankee Doodle." It goes this way: "Yankee Doodle went to town a-ridin' on a rocket—crashed into the Alamo and shook up Davy Crockett!"—Neal Estes in The Stanton Reporter.

you ask. Instead of giving our money to the federal government for re-distribution through federal aid to education, let's keep it on the state and local level.

A simple piece of legislation designating that a certain percentage of federal income tax collections in Texas shall remain within the state for school purposes would do the job. A simple formula of so much per school student could be devised for Texas and every state in the nation.

We, the people, are government—the Local government, the State government, the Federal government. Let's, for a change, assert our right as citizens and retain our school financing and control on the state and local level. Why let the social planners in far-off Washington, D. C., get a real hold on our schools here in Garza County? —CD ganizations, asks for a report on how much is spent, how much in funds remain unspent. The Chest's budget committee sets up a realistic budget on its findings.

And the Chest is successful in two ways. It has successfully raised the money each year for all these organizations in one drive which saves a lot of time and effort for the many volunteers who help to do the fund raising. But it also protects the community from contributing funds to causes not completely deserving. The Chest tries to see that Garza dollars given to the Chest are spent for the right purposes, and no more is given than is needed.

It's a year-around job and it works. It's the best way we know for a community to give wisely and well to all the "causes" it needs to support.—JC

Olney had its Chamber of Commerce and its Olney Industrial Foundation working hard to win. But even in defeat Olney saw some good. Said its Chamber president: "This shows that there is a great deal of vision and spirit in the town. We must not quit. We must keep on trying."

Post is getting organized for just such competition. Post won't win them all either. Industry-hunting is no easy job. It requires the cooperation of everybody and every organization in the community.

Let us hope that all local organizations and individuals give solid support to Post's search for new industry which will be starting this fall. And let's remember about Olney too. We won't win them all and we must not quit, but keep on trying.—JC freedom. There was no "tractor exchange" for the heroes of the Alamo, for the valiant men of Bataan, nor for thousands upon thousands of others who have been killed or captured in fighting for what they believed to be right.

A few days ago, on the same page with the latest in the "tractors for Cuba" developments was a brief item telling of Cuba sending 1,000 young men to Russia to study farming methods under the Soviets. This brings up a pertinent question. Are we going to send American tractors to Cuba for Communist-trained farmers to use in tilling Communist soil? We hope not—Eleanor Roosevelt, Walter Reuther and Milton Eisenhower notwithstanding.—CD.

many people. And what had happened?

When telephone repairmen tracked down the trouble they found a .22 bullet lodged in the big phone cable and that the rains had soaked through the hole made by the bullet and shorted out the entire cable.

We think the story carries enough editorial punch in its telling. It doesn't need any more spelling out.—JC

THURSDAY to THURSDAY

By CHARLES DIDWAY

THERE'S A LOT to be said for such days as Mother's Day and Father's Day. They're occasions when parents are made to feel that perhaps they haven't done too badly after all. In the cases of mothers, of course, it's generally taken for granted that they're beyond compare. Fathers, though, sometimes have their doubts about whether they've been the kind of father they should have been. Then—in cases like my own—a long come gifts from a wife and three grown children and you begin to feel before the day is over that perhaps you're not low man on the totem pole after all. It isn't altogether the gifts that make you feel that way, but also the verses on the Father's Day cards that come with the gifts.

I've just returned from a week's visit with relatives in Oklahoma. Over there, in the Bow and Arrow state, the sales tax is also a big topic of discussion: not a proposed sales tax such as is being talked in Texas, but a 1-cent increase in Oklahoma's present 2 per cent state sales tax. The Sooner State's Governor Edmondson is the principal banner-carrier for the proposed sales tax increase, which would produce $34 million in the two-year period for which the legislature must appropriate. Some lawmakers, arguing against the sales tax increase, say only $14 million is needed to balance the budget and provide adequate appropriations for the "Big Three"—common schools, highways and colleges. Wouldn't it be nice if the State of Texas needed only $14 million with which to balance its budget?

SOME OF THE Oklahoma newspapers and many of the people refer to their Governor Edmondson as "Big E," which more than likely was started by copy desk men who couldn't make "Edmondson" fit in their newspapers' headlines. In Texas, we could call Governor Daniel "Big D," except that the term might be confused with the "Big D" tax already pinned on Dallas. And if there is anything a Dallasite doesn't want, it's something which might confuse anything else with his home town.

After traveling more than 100 miles on U. S. Highway 66 on my trip to Oklahoma, I remarked at a family gathering that I felt cheated at not having run into any of the situations that those two fellows who do the "Route 66" show on TV bump up against. "Oh," responded one of my TV-addicted sisters, "you have to get a little ways off the highway to run into things like that."

I ENJOYED the trip and the visit, but, as usual, was glad to get back to Texas. The sublime feeling I had in crossing the Red River on my return trip more than made up for the ribbing a Texan usually takes when he finds himself hopelessly outnumbered by Oklahomans.

Incidentally, I was presented my first Father's Day gift while on the Oklahoma visit. My two older sisters presented me with a copy of—you guessed it—the 1961 Oklahoma Almanac! I'm going to see if I can dig up an extra copy for the Texas Almanac to send them for Christmas.

SHORT AND SWEET: Huntington Town, N. V., no longer has a dog catcher—it's now the "Canine Control Service" . . . Federal travel regulations for employees still allow expenses for "feeding and stabling horses" . . . Sign in the Mesquite (Stanton, Mo.) Caverns: "You'll get a refund if you don't get out of here alive" . . . Five thousand persons live at 4129 St. Des Moines, Ia.—Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Thousand and their three children . . . Any day now we can look for some dancer to call herself Busy Body.

Don't make the mistake of being afraid you'll make one. Theories are worthless until they are harnessed to industry. A good look at the family budget reduces the vacation fever. Pessimists are just average people who can't kid themselves. There are substitutes in some lines, but none for practice. He's a miracle man if he can take the limp out of a lame excuse. Kind words never die — they just become victims of ingratitude.

"Hey! . . . Why don't you watch where I'm going?"

Experiment set up to save lake water for ground recharge

Runoff that collects in weather lakes is the only known source of surface water for use in replenishing the ground-water supply in the south. High Plains of Texas.

Attempts have been made for many years, by the High Plains Groundwater Conservation District and others, to reclaim a portion of this runoff water by draining it through wells into the fresh-water bearing underground formations. These attempts have been partly successful. Complete success has been deterred primarily due to clogging of the water-bearing sand.

The recharge well, usually a non-production well with minor modifications, clogs and eventually will neither take recharge water nor give up production water. Clogging results as the lake water, laden with suspended solid particles of silt and clay, drains the underground formation through the well. The formation acts as a filter and extracts the silt from the lake water. Over a period of time, the formation adheres to the recharge well filters such a tremendous amount of silt and clay that it becomes overladen and ceases to function in an efficient manner necessary to charge an appreciable quantity of lake water.

An effort to overcome this problem, it was suggested that perhaps an irrigation pump should be installed in the recharge well and operated at intervals to recover the particles causing the clogging. This helped to prolong the useful life of the recharge well.

Tests have shown that not all the solids drained into the well during recharge can ever be pumped back out that same well. It can, therefore, be assumed that even a well that apparently functions trouble-free will in time become inefficient.

The High Plains Water District has recently installed a combination recharge well and filter system near the Allmon Gin in southwest Floyd County. This project is an experiment to determine whether the major portion of silt and clay can economically be filtered from the lake water before using it for recharge.

The filter system consists of 500 feet of 16-inch steel shutter screen laid horizontally in a ditch cut in the lake bed, and backfilled with pea gravel.

When the lake fills with runoff water the gravel-covered pipeline will be submerged. The lake water will filter through the gravel into the shutter screen and ultimately drain by gravity into the recharge well.

According to the High Plains Water District, the question to be answered is, "will the gravel filter extract enough silt and clay from the lake water to add appreciably to the trouble-free life of the recharge system and still allow a sufficient quantity of water for recharge."

About Your HEALTH

AUSTIN — If you suffer from "ten o'clock hunger", better revise your breakfast habits, State Health Department nutritionists advise.

More and more people are falling into the habit of skimpy breakfasting. Surveys show that two out of every nine children leave for school without breakfast, and four out of ten workers leave for work with nothing to eat.

"Ten o'clock hunger" is the expression nutritionists use to describe the body condition which comes with an inadequate breakfast. Victims usually feel weak and giddy by midmorning. They may be hungry, yet have no taste for lunch. Or, if they are able to eat a big lunch, they will become unbearably sleepy by early afternoon.

Studies with volunteers of all ages have proved conclusively that poor breakfast habits are directly responsible for fatigue, dullness, irritability, and a general feeling of cussedness. Volunteers fed a good breakfast were more productive and alert, easier to get along with than their hungry counterparts.

Ten o'clock hunger therapy, nutritionists say, calls for the "patient" to eat a solid breakfast. What it should consist of is dependent on physical activity, age, sex, weight and other factors about which a physician can readily advise.

THE DAILY DIETARY needs of the average man can vary, depending on how active he is, from 2400 to 4500 calories, according to findings of the National Research Council.

Here are some suggestions to meet minimum breakfast requirements for the average adult of relatively sedentary habits:

Fruit or fruit juice for vitamin C, required for normal wound healing and to prevent scurvy; cereal for vitamin A which is essential in resisting infections, and vitamin B, insufficient quantities of which are responsible for the irritability and fatigue occasioned by ten o'clock hunger; bread or grain derivative such as rolls or pancakes for its mineral content; an egg or meat for protein; and a beverage.

It is a false idea that skipping breakfast is a good way to reduce. If anything, this highly injurious practice adds pounds. It works like this:

Skip breakfast and by noon you have lost your appetite or else are afraid to eat for fear of being groggy all afternoon. Then for supper you eat the food your body has been demanding all day. Now you go to bed and your supper is converted into fat rather than energy as would have been the case had you eaten properly during hours of greatest activity.

By BOYCE HOUSE

When I was a young reporter in Memphis, Tenn., Ralph Millett started an afternoon newspaper there—the Penny Bee. That's right, it sold for a cent a copy. His editor was going to resign and so the publisher of the struggling paper was looking for a successor.

He offered the job to me. I said, "I don't know whether I could edit a newspaper." He replied, "You have been highly recommended."

"By whom?"

"Mr. Mooney," (C. P. J. Mooney was the editor of the Commercial Appeal, the paper on which I was working.)

Millett chuckled, "Of course, he didn't know that he was recommending an editor to me. We were just conversing and he called you 'The most promising young newspaperman in the South.'"

That was truly praise, coming from the greatest Southern editor of his day.

That was long ago and I am no longer young—but I am still promising.

Little stories about famous members of the United States Senate of long ago:

Sen. William B. Bate of Tennessee served in two wars. He was a veteran of the Civil War, with the rank of major general but the war of his youth—with Mexico—was the one which was most vivid in his memory.

Bate was not an orator and seldom spoke but one day a bill to increase the pensions of those who had served in the Mexican war was being considered and he thrilled the Senate with an address in which he described scaling Chalultepec and other experiences in that conflict. It was remarkable to hear a Senator tell of battles in which he had taken part almost 60 years before.

Sen. "Pitchfork" Tillman of South Carolina in a speech in the Senate gave a picturesque description of a colleague, William (Gum Shoe Bill) Stone of Missouri: "He can dance the Highland fling on top of a 10-rail fence and never touch the ground, but his greatest feat is walking on eggs without breaking the shells."

A new Senator wanted to be named to the judiciary committee. The majority leader, a rock-ribbed conservative, Sen. Nelson Aldrich, of Rhode Island, approved, saying,

WESTERN PACIFIC — Serving aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS Midway operating with the powerful Seventh Fleet in the Western Pacific is Don R. McDonel, radarman third class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. McDonel of 109 S. Avenue 1, Post, Tex.

The Midway, with her crew of 3,700, serves as flagship for Commander Carrier Division Three. Aircraft aboard the large vessel includes the Skyhawk jet, the Demon all-weather jet fighter, the Skywarrior jet bomber and the supersonic Crusader fighter.

The carrier left Alameda, Calif., in February and since has visited Hawaii, Guam, Hong Kong, the Philippines, Okinawa and Japan. She is scheduled to return to the U.S. in the fall.

As a unit of the Seventh Fleet, the Midway is among the many ships conducting intensive exercises and controlling the vital sea lanes of the Far East. The Fleet is a force-in-readiness, offering a strong deterrent to aggression.

EVENING VISITORS
Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hughes of Lubbock, visited the Howard McCampbells last Thursday night.

ANOTHER BIG REASON BEHIND THE BIG BOOM IN FORD SALES:

Galaxie styling is inspiring more admiration (and imitation) than any other car on the road!

This is the look that started with Thunderbird—sleek and quickly became the styling success of the Sixties.

Many cars have tried to copy it. No car has succeeded. Incomparably beautiful, the 1961 Galaxie maintains its distinction—as originals always do.

Styling is only part of Galaxie's distinction: this is the car that's beautifully built to take care of itself. The '61 Ford goes 30,000 miles between chassis lubrications... 4,000 miles between oil changes. Brakes adjust automatically. The muffler is built to last three times as long as ordinary ones. The body is specially treated to resist rust and corrosion. The finish never needs waxing.

Wouldn't it make sense to STOP spending money on an old car that can never do for you what a new Ford can do?

SWAP right now while your Ford Dealer's sales are booming—and the swapping is easier than it's ever been before.

W. W. MOLESWORTH
One-Man Expeditionary Force
"...no official report..."

Ordinarily quiet and even-tempered, Ranger W. W. Molesworth, at Palfox on the Rio Grande, was considerably riled. It was during the border bandit troubles, about 10 years ago. Across the river at Hidalgo some young hotshots were having fun with bank-to-bank pot shots. Finally, early on a Christmas morning, Molesworth got good and tired of it. He undertook a unique bit of unilateral action. He located the head man and suggested a border-style summit. Sometime later, and no agreement on river bank etiquette in sight, Molesworth's careful patience ran out. Locking the jeffs in a canteen, he proceeded to demonstrate excellent marksmanship with all the skoon signs and buzzards in sight at targets. Hidalgo was quiet as a well-fed kitten when Molesworth calmly hoisted him. Hidalgo stayed quiet, but Molesworth made no official report. He left it to legend that he is the only man, Texan or otherwise, to subdue a foreign city absolutely single handed.

While Texas lawmen were making this a better place to live, industry and commerce played their part. And our industry, brewing, has provided enjoyment as well as employment, the pleasures of moderate beverages as well as revenue for the community. In Texas, "Beer Belongs." Brewers, wholesalers, retailers and the United States Brewers Association are working consistently in cooperation with today's lawmen, to assure the sale of beer and ale under pleasant, orderly conditions.

Jane Maxey, Lewis Mason to marry in Sunday ceremony

Mr. and Mrs. Quannah R. Maxey, Route 3, announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Jane Ellen, to Lewis Arnold Mason, son of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Mason. The couple will be married Sunday, June 25, at 3 o'clock, at the home of her parents.

Gloria McWhorter, Jerry Key wed in Throckmorton church

THROCKMORTON—The Church of Christ in Throckmorton was the setting for the Saturday evening wedding of Miss Gloria Kay McWhorter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Huston of Throckmorton and Jerry Ray Key, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ramon Key of Justiceburg. Will Scott, minister of the church, officiated at the 6:30 o'clock double ring ceremony.

The nuptial space was centered with an arch of greenery sprinkled with small white carnations. Pew markers were white satin bows and a white isle runner was used on the main isle.

Walter Merriman and Miss Jeanette Merriman sang "Always" and "Whether Thou Goest".

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a chapel length gown of Chantilly lace and nylon tulle. The soft scalloped neckline was delicately accentuated in tiny sequins and seed pearls. A soft billowy skirt enhanced the fitted waistline. Her veil of illusion fell from a tiny crown set in Aurora borealis stones and her bouquet was a white orchid surrounded by feathered carnations and blue stock flowers.

Miss Georgia London of Throckmorton was maid of honor and Mrs. Peggy Shankle of Abilene, sister of the bride was bridesmaid. They wore blue embroidered cotton satin sheath dresses, with silk organza over-skirts. They wore picture hats of blue net and carried cascade bouquets of feathered carnations and blue stock flowers.

Lynette Lunsford was flower girl and ring bearer was Guy Shankle, nephew of the bride.

Attending the bridegroom as best man was Jimmy Redman of Post, Groomsman was H. E. Shankle of Abilene, brother-in-law of the bride. Ushers were Jack McWhorter, Throckmorton; Pat Blakeley, Seagraves; Don Faulkenberry, Loop, and Ronnie Morris, Post.

Candlelighters were Bob McWhorter, a nephew, and Bruce Richardson, a cousin of the bride, both of Throckmorton. Jack McWhorter and Ronnie Morris rolled out the white isle runner. Immediately following the wedding a reception was held in the home of the bride's parents. Included in the house party were Rebecca Spain, Ladelle Liles, Brenda Roberts, and Beth Key, all of Throckmorton.

For going away the bride chose a beige sheath of linen and lace with matching jacket and beige accessories. She wore the orchid from her bouquet.

The couple plan to make their home in Post until fall then return to Ranger Junior College.

The bride is a graduate of Throckmorton High and attended ACC Abilene and Ranger Jr. College. She has been employed at Jack McNutt Gas Co. in Throckmorton.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Post High School and attended Howard County Junior College and Ranger Junior College, where he has an athletic scholarship.

The rehearsal dinner was hosted by the bride's parents in their home Friday evening.

Speech student workshop set

CANYON—Second annual High School Speech Workshop, conducted by the speech department at West Texas State College, has been set July 2-14, with the two weeks featuring practical experience in dramatics and all forensics activities.

Enrollment fee, due by June 20, will be $35, and a limit of about 40 students will be made for the workshop, according to William A. Moore, associate professor of speech who is director of dramatics at WT.

The workshop is open to students who will be attending high schools of the area next fall. Participation in the workshop will be designed to assist students for work in high school dramatics and play contests, as well as other speech activities, such as prose and poetry reading and extemporaneous speaking.

West Texas Music Camp starts at Canyon July 16

CANYON—Featuring two new visiting band directors, the West Texas Music Camp will open for its ninth annual two-week session here at West Texas State College July 16.

Joining an already distinguished instructional staff will be Randall Spicer, director of bands at Washington State University, and Gene A. Braught, director of bands at Del Mar College. Spicer will direct the camp's toy Symphonic Band, while Braught will conduct the Red Concert Band and marching classes.

Expected for WT's highly ranked band and choral camp, will be about 300 junior and senior high school musicians from the Tri-State area. The musicians will follow an intensive daily schedule of practice sessions, rehearsals, concerts and recreation for the two weeks.

ENDURING VALUES THEME

"The Enduring Values of Town and Country Life" is the theme for the 16th annual Town and Country Church Conference scheduled for Texas A&M College, June 19-21.

SWING LOW high

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Day	Book	Chapter	Verses
Sunday	Isaiah	55	6-13
Monday	1 Kings	19	9-18
Tuesday	Psalms	37	23-29
Wednesday	Psalms	37	34-40
Thursday	1 Peter	1	3-9
Friday	1 Peter	1	13-21
Saturday	Ephesians	6	10-18

This is life! On top of the world... then lost in the depths.

For a child it can be exciting sport. For a grownup it is bitter reality.

No other resource in life is better geared to this frightening swing than religion. For centuries it has provided purpose for our summits, and courage for our valleys.

Don't let some imagined sense of the inevitable chain you to the pendulum of fate. The Church, its message rooted in the life of Jesus Christ, offers all men a Faith for climax... and for crisis.

Attend church next Sunday. Let the love of God invade your defeats... add opportunity to your victories.

Retired preacher is father of year

DALLAS — A 90-year-old retired preacher from Grand Saline, Tex., who has led more than 100 persons to make "decisions for Christ" has been named 1961 Baptist Father of the Year. The Rev. W. W. Parker, who has served 18 Texas and Louisiana churches during his 50 years in the ministry, was named to the award here by a special joint committee of the Baptist General Convention of Texas and the Baptist Standard, state weekly newspaper.

The committee cited Rev. Mr. Parker for "his contribution to Christianity through his family, church and community."

Special Father's Day services at Main Street Baptist Church in Grand Saline where Rev. Mr. Parker is a member will honor the Father of the Year. He will receive a portrait and an engraved plaque during the services.

The father of six, Rev. Mr. Parker says that his most cherished memory is overbearing one of his sons told a friend, "I've got a greatest dad in the world."

State Capital NEWS

By Vern Sanford

AUSTIN, — Texas' tax debate continues! Not as lively now as during the legislative session — but many voices are being heard.

It's sort of a "speak now or forever hold your peace" period. Some type of tax bill, undoubtedly the biggest in Texas history, will have to be passed in July or August, and those with something to say are rushing to get in their links.

Legislators report that the small-scale "great debate" is proving very helpful in stirring up opinions from previously silent constituents. They're hoping to discover enough home district reaction to guide them to a swift, sure solution when they return for the special session July 10.

Eight Central Texas lawmakers, in a reply to Gov. Price Daniel's report to the people, say that raising $341,000,000 in new revenue will require a "broad coverage tax."

Although five of the eight voted with the governor during the session, several objected to a "hit and miss" tax approach.

Some say that people in their districts object to selective taxes on grounds that "it's not fair to tax my product and not my neighbor's."

A NUMBER OF new approaches to tax plans already batted around during the regular session are being worked on by lawmakers during this interim. Among plans being considered are these:

1. By Rep. Charles N. Wilson of Trinity (sponsor of the 2 per cent sales tax passed by the House last session) — a new sales tax that would be linked, Siamese-twin fashion with a corporation income tax.

2. By Rep. George T. Hinson of Mineola (a frequent sponsor of legislation favored by the governor) — a 2 per cent tax on everything selling for $5 or more, with the usual food and drug exemptions.

3. By Rep. Ben Atwell of Dallas — selective excise taxes of 2 per cent on a long list of items, but generally exempting the bed rock necessities of life.

GOVERNOR DANIEL'S new tax study committee, made up mostly of the board chairmen of various state agencies, got off to a diplomatic, soft-voiced start.

Several lawmakers took a dim view of having "another study group," recalling that the last one had come up with a payroll tax plan that never caught fire. Texas voters, they pointed out, selected their legislators to write the tax laws and will hold the legislators responsible for the outcome.

Members of the committee made it clear that they don't intend to dictate to the Legislature. But they do hope to be able to indicate some possible paths of compromise among the various plans for which the legislators have shown favor.

SOME LEGISLATORS are fretting over the loss in state revenue resulting from the Legislature's failure to pass a tax plan during the regular session.

Committee is to meet July 6 to write its report for the special session.

Here is the way they see it: 1. Bills passed by a simple majority vote take effect 90 days after the close of the session. If a tax bill had been passed in the regular session, it would have taken effect the last of August and money from it would be accruing Sept. 1 when the new fiscal year begins.

2. If a bill is passed by a simple majority in the special session — say about Aug. 10 — it will not take effect until Nov. 10.

3. A $340,000,000 tax bill covering the 24-month period would raise money at the rate of about $14,000,000 a month. But between Sept. 1 and Nov. 10, nothing would come in from the new bill. This waiting period of two months, would mean the loss of some $35,000,000 in state revenue which would have been raised if the same bill had been passed earlier.

Question that immediately arises is: Can the Legislature pass a tax bill by a two-thirds vote of both houses so that it will go into effect immediately? (As done in 1959).

Today legislators are dubious. As the new tax bill is expected to affect more items, many legislators feel that it would be unfair to expect businessmen and storekeepers to get ready overnight to charge all sorts of new taxes.

WITH THE ELECTION of John Tower as U. S. Senator, exultant leaders of the Texas Republican Party feel they have a foot solidly in the door.

Beyond the door, that they hope to swing wide, is a two-party Texas with the GOP sharing political power in Texas on a roughly equal basis.

New goals are being carefully considered. All but one (Travis) of Texas' big metropolitan counties went for Tower, as well as large sections of West Texas. In these areas, except where a very popular Democrat is entrenched, the Republicans can be expected to bid for places in Congress, the Legislature and even county jobs.

First test is due in Bexar County where Congressman Paul Kilday is due to resign to become judge of the Court of Military Appeals. Bexar County went for Tower last month.

Under the present law, Kilday's successor will be determined in a one-shot, high-man-wins special election, probably next fall. There is some talk of trying to get the Legislature, during its special session, to pass a law which would require a run-off in special congressional elections. This would reduce Republican chances.

COURT OF CRIMINAL Appeals ruled that a person cannot be held in contempt of court for an act committed outside the court room.

In the case in point, a district judge had held a man in contempt of court for assaulting him (the judge) at a filling station. Judge sentenced his assailant to 72 hours imprisonment and a $100 fine.

Nope, said the appeals court. Contempt of court has to take place in the court room.

11,000 students toured Tech museum last school year

LUBBOCK — South Plains history comes alive for area fourth and seventh grade students through tours of the West Texas Museum on the Texas Tech campus.

Seeing life-like cowboys and real arrowheads supplemented textbook material of 11,208 students from Lubbock and surrounding towns who visited the museum during the past school year.

Classes come from as near as Idalou and New Deal and from as far as Sweetwater, Plainview, Silverton and LeFors. This school year 104 groups from 29 towns brought 3,357 children and teachers to participate in the tours.

Students from 172 fourth grade classes in Lubbock and 98 seventh grade classes also participated in the program.

Graphs, maps and dramatic drawings and exhibits are all used to illustrate the importance of agriculture to South Plains economy. Also explained are the source and the conservation of the underground water, its significance to the future of the area, and its influence in the past.

Two scheduled tours, "Pioneer Lubbock" and "Trailing Cowboys and Cattle," are given fourth graders. "Spanish Heritage" and "Agriculture and Water" are tours given seventh graders.

The tours are high points of the year for both students and teachers and are invaluable in teaching certain units, reports Reuby Rhodes, Lubbock's elementary school supervisor.

Volunteer guides for the museum-school program are from the Lubbock Junior League and the community. This year 37 participated in the program. As part of their training, they receive a guide book, hear an authority discuss relevant topics, go through a model tour and give a practice tour themselves.

Visitation at the museum's planetarium totaled 5,396 area students in 193 groups.

David D. Beck is aboard carrier

WESTERN PACIFIC—The 41,000-ton anti-submarine warfare support aircraft carrier USS Kearsarge is operating as the basic anti-submarine unit of the mobile Seventh Fleet in the Western Pacific.

Serving aboard the carrier is David D. Beck, boatswain's mate second class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar L. Beck of Post, Tex.

The Kearsarge can best be compared to a "floating city", having a population of more than 1,800 men. It has a chapel, dining halls, clothing stores, cobbler shop, tailor shop, library, power plants, a modern, fully equipped hospital, printing plant and all other facilities necessary to efficiently operate a city of its size.

Part of the Kearsarge's aerial arsenal, which includes many types of modern jet aircraft, is the small, propeller-driven, twin-engine Grumman "Tracker", used to skim over the waves searching for submarines with advanced electronic gear.

DAIRYING BIG PRODUCER

The dairy industry is big: it's essential, modern, diversified and has stability, said A. M. Meekma, extension dairy husbandman, as June Dairy Month gets underway. Dairying, he added, is the greatest single source of farm income in the nation. One out of every five dollars in cash receipts from farm products comes from dairying.

FILL SOIL HURTS TREES

Man-made situations can cause shade tree troubles. Soil added or moved by bulldozers or graders may be responsible for the death of many shade trees. Too much fill soil around new homes may cause trees to die after three to five years or even longer, says Harlan Smith, extension plant pathologist.

John Douglas Hawkins, 30, driver of the truck, was given a traffic ticket for failure to control speed to avoid a collision. The truck, owned by Shop Rite Foods, Inc., of Lubbock, was returning empty after delivering merchandise to Snyder.

The highway patrolman's report showed extensive damage to all three vehicles, probably totaling $1,500.

Sullivan was the only one of the three injured in the crash.

Hearing set on warrants

City paving bids are to be opened Monday

The City of Post will receive bids Monday for the paving of 11 blocks of city streets, including curbing and guttering.

City Supt. Henry Tate said today that from three to five additional blocks probably will be included in the new paving program, which would up the total to from 14 to 16 blocks.

The City has also given notice that it intends to issue time warrants not to exceed a $50,000 total to cover the costs of construction of the paving project. A hearing on issuance of the warrants will be held at the City Hall at 7 p. m. Monday.

Blocks already included in the paving project are as follows:

West 15th Street from the west side of Avenue Q to the east side of Avenue O.

North Avenue O, between West 14th Street and West 15th Street.

North Avenue K, between West 14th Street and West 15th Street.

Youngsters favor Saturday opening of Youth Center

Thirty-five teenagers attended a called meeting at the Garza County Youth Center Tuesday night.

Purpose of the meeting was to decide whether or not to keep the center open every Saturday night during the remainder of the summer. Attendance has been poor, so Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hatler, youth directors from Lubbock, asked for the meeting to see what the youngsters thought should be done.

All present agreed that the center should remain open as planned. A new Teen-Council was elected. Officers are: Dean Johnston, president; Harold Wayne Mason, vice president; Chris Cornish, secretary-treasurer. The following three were elected as board members: Glenda Hutto, Glen Polk and Dee Ann Walker. The officers and board members will meet with the adult board at called meetings.

Refreshments of Cokes and cookies were served, after which dancing was enjoyed.

Glenda Hutto was in charge of arranging the meeting and the refreshments.

Howard Jones accepts position with Convoir
Howard Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jones, will graduate from Texas Tech in August with a degree in Mechanical Engineering.

He has accepted a position with Convoir of San Diego in the Missile Division and following graduation he will attend a six-weeks training school there. After the six-weeks period, Jones will be stationed in Cheyenne, Wyo. He is a Post High School graduate.

Legion's magazine drive is concluded

The recent magazine subscription sales campaign, sponsored by Post's American Legion post met with reasonably good success throughout the county, J. M. Baylis, post adjutant, reported today.

The subscription drive was undertaken to purchase wheel chairs and other sickroom equipment, which will be loaned free of charge to any resident of Garza County.

When purchased this equipment may be obtained through the Legion post for necessary use.

Neal Clary, Legion commander, and other post officers wish to thank residents of the county for their cooperation in the drive and support of this program.

The annual subscription drive will be sponsored again next year for the same cause, Clary indicated.

Junior rodeo--

Also discussed at the meeting was the printing of entry blanks, rule books and advertising posters and auto bumpers for the rodeo, with all the orders scheduled to be placed this week.

Again this year, Post's Appaloosa Horse Show will be held in conjunction with the rodeo. The horse show, with Riley Miller of Justiceburg in charge, will be held Saturday, July 29, with judging beginning at 11 a. m.

The biggest item of remodeling being undertaken by the Junior Rodeo Association in its rodeo arena improvement that got under way this week is the repairing of the bucking chutes, officials said.

Picnic rained out still success for local Scout troops

Naturally it rained again last Thursday because that was the day that Girl Scout Troop 352 had planned to have a picnic with Explorer Post 316 at the City - County Park. Since it was still damp out and the picnic tables were nearly under water, the picnic site was moved to Teen Town.

Our "picnic" began at 8:30 and the food came first. The girls all "pitched" in and came up with hamburgers, potato salad, relishes, deviled eggs, lemonade and cookies.

Limbo was played after a few other games. Emmett Shedd is certainly a real good player. We danced, sat around and talked, and listened to records until 9:30 when our "picnic" was over.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Clint Herring and Ronnie Bouchier.

Explorer Post 316 is under the leadership of Emmett Shedd and Bill Bennett. The boys attending were: Richard Cook, Ronnie Cook, Gene Dawson, Ralph Ardis, Harold Wayne Mason, Billy Shumard, Ken Rankin, Bobby Hudman and Dean Johnston.

Girl Scout Troop 352 is under the leadership of Mrs. Ronnie Bouchier. Girls attending were: Marsha Smith, Jan Herring, Glenda Hutto, Pat Odam, Mindy Newby and Chris Cornish.

White River--

(Continued from page 1) for early payment of White River taxes. It was pointed out during early payment, which would amount only to some $1 to $2,000 total, would mean a decrease in the tax rates. $1 bond payments of the district will not come each year until early or July there is no need for a quick payment as is the case with school districts which need a proportion of their funds at start of the school term in fall.

ATTENDING THE BOARD
ing at Spur were Joe Carter, Austin, executive secretary of Texas Water Development; Marvin Sherbert of Petersburg, member of the five-man board; Millard Parkhurst of Dallas, member of the district's bond trustee firm; Gene Vinyard of Las, representing the district's fiscal agents; Jim Nichols of Worth, the engineer in charge of the project; and Ransom Galt of Lubbock, also representing district's fiscal agents.

In attendance from Post Directors Tom Bouchier, Dr. Surman, and James Minor; Powell Shytles, and Louie Powell of the Postex Cotton Mill.

The directors' next meeting will be held in Cross July 20.

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS" BY C. WILSON HARDER

By the time this appears, U. S. may, or may not, have a man orbiting in outer space. An scientist says that instruments put into orbit gather much more information than a man can, it probably does not make much difference if a man orbits or not, except for some propaganda value, which is dubious.

Russians have done very well heating the tub for their not inconsiderable scientific achievements, and in doing so, have created in certain quarters of nation a dangerous trend of thought.

These apologists for America being second in some of these areas about loud and clearly that "of course in a dictator system things can be accomplished more efficiently than in a free society."

The fallacy of this thinking rests on the fact that in many fields at present, there is not a free economic order. The indictment returned against General Motors by a federal grand jury charging the firm with violations of the antitrust laws to monopolize the diesel locomotive industry could well be used as a case in point.

The diesel principle of internal combustion engines is so far most efficient way yet devised to turn petroleum into motive power. In industrialized nations of Europe great strides have been made in this field.

But Department of Justice charges that General Motors has monopolized the electric locomotive building field to the extent that last year it sold 84.1% of all diesel locomotives sold, increasing this share from 47.1% in 1948.

Justice Dept. charges that inasmuch as General Motors is possibly the largest shipper of freight in the U. S., it has informed railroads that unless they bought their locomotives, competing lines would get their share of GM freight business.

It is also charged that Baldwin-Lima-Hamilton, a famous old locomotive builder, has dropped out of the field. Also Fairbanks-Morse & Company has dropped out.

This despite the fact that Fairbanks-Morse developed for railroad use the opposed piston diesel engine which leading engineers throughout the world acclaimed as one of the greatest developments ever made in diesel engine design.

Only one other builder remains in the field, Alco Products, which only gets the business General Motors does not have. According to the Justice Dept. it would appear profits of monopoly are vast. Also, it is claimed, makes only an average profit of 1.5%, the GM diesel division makes 26.2% profit.

Thus, it is quite erroneous to say that a dictatorship can make scientific advances faster than a free society.

But by the same token, it is not erroneous to claim that a dictatorship can make faster developments and improvements in a monopoly. Trying to progress through monopoly is like an ant trying to move forward through a stone wall.

Westerners, Dodgers win Monday contests

The Westerners and the Dodgers won Little League games Monday night to stay hot on the heels of the league-leading Red Sox.

In the first Little League action since Tuesday night of last week, the Westerners defeated the Yankees, 6 to 4; and the Dodgers outlasted the Tigers, 16 to 12, in seven innings.

Heavy rains and wet grounds prevented the games scheduled for Thursday and Saturday nights.

The Dodgers put together two big innings—the sixth and the seventh, in which they scored five runs each—to down the Tigers after the latter had knotted the score at 11-11 with a six-run sixth inning.

AFTER THE DODGERS scored five runs in the top of the seventh to go ahead 16 to 11, the Tigers were held hitless in the bottom of the seventh by relief pitcher Bartlett, but he walked in one run.

Bartlett's two-run homer helped account for the Dodgers' five clinching runs in the seventh. Bartlett also had a double to his credit.

Dodd was the starting pitcher for the Dodgers, giving way to Warren after three innings. Warren also hurled three frames before being relieved by Bartlett, who received credit for the win.

Sappington, Dodger shortstop, collected four hits in five trips to the plate.

Larry Johnson started for the Tigers and after six innings was relieved by Hall, with Bilberry coming on later.

Pat Walker did most of the Tiger stick work with three singles in four official at-bats.

THE WESTERNERS came from behind with four runs in the third inning in their 6-4 victory over the Yankees.

The Yankees scored three of their four tallies in the first inning and added another in the second. Starting pitcher Leroy Saldívar, who hurled six innings, and reliefer Joe Reno shut the Yanks out the rest of the way.

Freddie Collazo smacked a lead-off roundtripper for the Westerners in the fifth inning and also had a single and a double to his credit.

Doubles by Jackson and Richard Scott and a single by Michael Horton accounted for the Yankees' three runs in the first inning. Their second inning tally came on singles by Horton and Scott after Jackson had doubled.

Ronnie Pierce went all the way on the mound for the losers.

The victory kept the Tigers a game and a half ahead of the New York Yankees and Cleveland Indians in the torrid American League race.

The former Post High School athlete banged out his 20th home run and tripled in four tries in Detroit's win over the Senators.

Cash received a foot injury late last week and it was thought at first that the injury would keep him out of the Yankee series, but he played all three games, with the Tigers winning two of them.

Cash's .364 batting average is tops in both major leagues. In addition to leading in the RBI department, he is second in the AL home run derby.

The consensus among sports fans is that Cash is a clinch to be selected for the two major league all-star games to be played in July.

Texas man named 'Driver of Year'

WASHINGTON, D. C.—A Texas truck driver who preaches what he practices has been named 1961 "Driver of the Year" by the American Trucking Association for his exceptional safety record and lifesaving feats.

He is Melvin O. "Jack" Griffith of Big Spring, who received the award for his record of more than two million accident-free miles during his 28-year career as a truck driver. He also was cited for his quick thinking in helping seriously injured victims of a two-car collision near Sterling, Tex.

In addition to his own alertness on the highway, Griffith has been active in encouraging traffic safety among young people. Preaching what he practices, he frequently has appeared before youth groups in churches, high schools and civic organizations to speak on safety, good citizenship and general compliance with laws.

The 48-year-old tank truck driver, an employee of the Eagle Transport Co., of Big Spring, also earned the state of Texas the distinction of being the first state ever to have two men named National Driver of the Year in consecutive years. The 1960 Driver of the Year was Russell R. Brown, of Mt. Pleasant. Both men were nominated by the Texas Motor Transport Association.

Exciting final weekend is forecast in bowling meet

The last weekend is always the big one in invitational bowling tournaments—and this one is expected to be no exception at the Post Bowling Center's first annual invitational.

Approximately 200 more area bowlers, including 15 teams, are expected to roll in the various tournament events Saturday and Sunday, the last weekend of the three weekend meet.

To date some 300 area bowlers have gotten into tournament action.

To plan membership drive

Golfers meeting set for Friday evening

The first membership drive ever held by the Caprock Golf Course will be kicked off at 7:30 p. m. Friday at a meeting in the First National Bank's Community Room.

D. H. Bartlett, golf course owner and manager, said efforts will be made to secure as many members as possible, since the amount of the membership fee will depend on the number of members.

"The more members we have, the less the annual dues will be," Bartlett said.

The recent rains have filled the pond constructed at the course for watering of the greens, and the installation of pumps and pipes for the watering will be among the items discussed at Friday night's meeting, Bartlett said.

"Following the rains, the water in the pond is up to within three and a half or four feet of the spillway," the manager said.

All golfers and everyone interested in golfing is urged to attend Friday night's meeting, Bartlett said.

Hunting Indian style described in article

AUSTIN—Hunting Indian style is described in an article in the June issue of Texas Game and Fish magazine, telling how Dr. Curtis LeDoux, Fort Worth dentist, got his deer with a bow and arrow.

The article was written by Mary K. Sloan of Breckenridge.

Dr. LeDoux, wearing a camouflage suit, perched high in the top of an oak tree, to get a good view of his hunting range.

When two deer approached he drew down on the 15-point buck. The shaft went through the kidney section and the deer only ran 25 yards before falling.

Two days later he shot a doe through the heart, filling his bag limit for the season with bow and arrow.

He was hunting on the Pete Kelley's Walking Cane Ranch, south of Possum Kingdom Lake.

Most farmers and ranchers against omnibus farm bill

WACO—The president of the largest farm organization in the state declared this week that most farmers and ranchers in Texas reject the Administration's omnibus farm bill which Agriculture Secretary Freeman promoted during his visit to central Texas last weekend.

J. H. West, president of the 81,000-member Texas Farm Bureau, said that organizations representing only a small minority of Texas farmers and ranchers had actually endorsed the Cochrane-Freeman farm bill.

"According to reports we have received," West stated, "many people over the state and nation were given the false impression that Texas farmers and ranchers were united behind the Administration's bill."

A meeting of farm organizations over the state was called for Waco on the eve of Freeman's visit Saturday. Purpose of the meeting, according to Alex Dickie Jr., of Denton, president of the Texas Farmers Union, was to endorse the Kenney farm program. Dickie exhorted "all" farm groups to attend and sign a resolution of endorsement. Only three organizations signed the resolution which was presented to Freeman Saturday in Rosebud. Agriculture Commissioner John C. White stated that he had received six other "proxies" which were added to the resolution.

White, who helped promote the meeting, said organizations which formally endorsed the Administration's farm bill are: Texas Turkey Growers, Texas Sesame Producers, Texas Federation of Cooperatives, Texas Grange, Texas Farmers Union, Oil Cottonbelt Association, Southwestern Peanut Growers, Grain Sorghum Producers and Texas Wheat Producers.

"The Texas Farm Bureau, largest general farm organization in the state by at least ten times, was not invited to this meeting," West said. "Even if we had been invited, our policies which are diametrically opposed to the principles behind the Cochrane-Freeman bill, would not have permitted our endorsing such a bid to concentrate

Garza bond sales total is $40,853

"Savings Bonds sales through May, 1961, totaled $40,853," Irby G. Metcalf Jr., chairman of the Garza County Savings Bonds Committee, reported today.

"Our county has now reached 34 per cent of its 1961 goal of $120,000," the chairman said. May sales were $1,968.

Sales in Texas for the first five months of 1961 were $64,395,836, which is 39 per cent of the state goal.

"Never before have United States Savings Bonds been so attractive to investors and small savers alike," Metcalf said.

"It's a tough campaign problem—I can't think of anything to promise the voters."

By VERN SANFORD

Your local newspaper, a flip of the radio dial, or a call to the local weather station may be sufficient to get weather conditions of a local nature.

But in this day of modern travel, when outboarders think nothing of trailing their rigs 300 to 400 miles for a weekend on a major lake or the Gulf Coast, one needs more than just local predictions.

Weather conditions at home and 300 miles away can be quite the opposite on any given day.

The wise outboarder will plan for his weekend by reading the signs, properly using the barometer, and by learning to visualize water conditions in terms of wind velocity.

SUPPOSE AN outboarder in Dallas decides to weekend at Port Aransas. He can get an idea of the weather for the weekend by getting a barometric reading and tendency, wind velocity and cloud conditions. But he should obtain that information from the place where he plans to fish, not his point of departure.

When you purchase a barometer, you'll get a chart with it. Use it—don't put the chart in file 13.

You can also obtain from the United States Weather Bureau a barometer-wind chart that is quite accurate in the forecasting of weather. Finally, learn to visualize water conditions in relation to wind speed.

A 25-mile-per-hour wind may sound slow in this jet speed age, but it can make open water much too rough for the average size outboard rig.

NOW, GETTING back to the barometer and wind, there are some broad and general rules that will hold true. Here are some of the main ones:

1. A wind out of the easterly quadrant coupled with a falling barometer means foul weather is approaching.
2. A wind shift to the westward accompanied by a rising barometer means fair weather.
3. A steady, slowing rising barometer means settled weather.
4. A steady, slowing falling barometer means wet or unsettled weather.
5. A rapidly rising barometer indicates clear weather with wind.
6. A rapidly falling barometer means an approaching storm.

AN OUTBOARDER, minus a barometer isn't a lost soul. He can look to the skies and the clouds for general weather hints. Here are a few of the more easily recognized ones:

- Bright blue sky: fair weather.
- Vivid red sunset: fair tomorrow.
- Vivid red sunrise: likely foul weather later in the day.
- Cloudless sunset: fair tomorrow.
- Dull gray sunset: foul tomorrow.
- Weak sun: probable rain, especially if wind is out of the east.
- Moon with halo: approaching foul weather.
- Diffused sunset: approaching foul weather.
- Sunrise from gray horizon: fair today.
- Cirrostratus clouds: rain.
- Fleecy, light-textured clouds: fair.
- Dark, oily clouds: rain.
- High and low clouds traveling in opposite directions: unsettled weather.

AN OUTBOARDER who plans to navigate open waters never should pass a Coast Guard station without casting a glance at the flag signals.

Several years ago official storm warning flags and lights were reduced in number—and simplified—to cover the following types of warnings: small craft, gale, whole gale and hurricane.

The day flag signals are as follows:

- Small craft: red pennant.
- Gale: two red pennants.
- Whole gale: red flag with black

Enthusiasm runs high Pep squad plans for active year

By CHRIS CORNISH
 The Post Antelope Pep Squad is really going to help boost team spirit next year and it's all being organized this summer.
 Officers for the pep squad were elected while school was still going on. They are Marianne Jones, Janith Short, and Mary Beth Ford. Mrs. Fleming is the pep squad sponsor.
 Uniforms consisting of white long-sleeved blouses, black shaggy vests, white socks, black shoes, white gloves, black box-pleated skirts, and white ear muffs were chosen by the girls.
 To earn money, the pep squad will have cake bakes, sell tags, and as something new they will sell black and gold ball point pens with the football schedule on them.
 There will also be poster, pom-pom and confetti parties. New and different pep rallies will be planned. Some will be held down town and everyone will be welcome to come. Something else that will be new this year is a welcoming car decked out in black and gold, which will meet the visiting buses and lead them to the football stadium.
 Cheerleaders who were elected earlier are: David Lee, head cheerleader; Danila Bateman, senior; Sharon Isaacs, junior; Linda McMahon, sophomore; Pamela Stewart, freshman.

TOOLS OF SURVIVAL are checked over by Robert S. Ritz, new training officer for the Illinois Civil Defense Agency, who joined the staff under a new law permitting the State and the Federal Government to share equally the cost of additional civil defense staff employees. Purpose of the law is to build up undermanned State and local civil defense units to meet their responsibility in preparing the public for survival from nuclear attack. One of Ritz's duties is to develop new training courses in cooperation with specialists in the various civil defense fields to indoctrinate CD workers and the public on survival measures. Santa Fe orders 250 new cars

Santa Fe Railway has ordered one hundred 85-foot flat cars from the General American Transportation Corp., Chicago, according to an announcement made by Ernest S. Marsh, President.
 Marsh also announced that the Santa Fe Trail Transportation Company, a wholly-owned subsidiary, has ordered 150 forty-foot refrigerator trailers from the Fruehauf Trailer Co., Kansas City, Mo.
 Delivery on the equipment is expected to begin in July and be completed by about Sept. 1.
 The trailers and 75 of the roller-bearing equipped flat cars will be used in the transportation of fresh fruits and vegetables from California and Arizona points to midwest locations, a new service announced by the railroad in May. The balance of the flat cars will be equipped with racks for the transportation of automobiles, Marsh said.
 Refrigeration units on the trailers maintain temperatures from 70 degrees Fahrenheit to 10 below zero, and automatically heat or cool as climatic conditions and preset controls dictate. Manufactured by the Worthington Corp., of Harrison, N. J., the self-defrosting units operate satisfactorily with outside temperatures as high as 120 degrees.

Q. More than 20 years ago, I was rated totally disabled for pensions benefits. Can my disability be now ruled as not permanent and total?
 A. No, your present rating will last your lifetime.
 Q. Is it possible for a man to have first priority for VA hospitalization without actually serving on active military duty? I have heard of such a case.
 A. Yes. Certain very few inductees or enlistees of World War I, World War II, and the Korean Conflict who did not enter active duty may be entitled to hospitalization under the first priority group. To be eligible, they must have incurred disabilities not the result of their own misconduct while en route under orders to report to a place for final acceptance, inductance, or entry upon active duty, or while at such place or en route home.

Dairy projects enable 4-Hers to learn, earn

CHICAGO—June is just about as synonymous with milk as it is with moon because for the last 25 years June has been observed as Dairy Month in recognition of the dairy industry's important contribution to the health and welfare of the American people.
 Progress of the industry during those years has been of particular value to thousands of 4-H Club members, points out the National 4-H Service Committee. Many former 4-Hers are now among the nation's leading dairy farmers who credit their success to early training received in a 4-H dairy project, the committee reports.
 Today an estimated 3,300 boys and girls throughout the state are engaged in dairy projects which range from a single heifer to a registered purebred herd, a committee spokesman said.
 Under supervision of the Cooperative Extension Service, Texas A&M College, in a national 4-H dairy awards program arranged by the committee and supported by the Oliver Corporation, young dairy farmers are learning how to care for their animals, improve the herd and use modern production and marketing methods.
 Club members who have been enrolled in the project for several years have money in the bank as a result of their hard work, according to the 4-H committee. Scores have put themselves through college with their dairy earnings.
ATTEND CAMP

Growth
 Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.
 Matthew 4:4

Bread, and all of the food of this earth, nourishes the body. But the soul grows by the strength it receives from the Word of God. On bread, man lives until he dies. On the Word of God, he grows by faith to receive God's offer of eternal life through Christ Jesus. The Lutheran Church preaches Jesus Christ as the Bread of Life. Through human instruments God speaks his enlivening Word to dying men. In the Holy Sacraments, God makes the Word local to the human heart.
 The Lutheran Church invites you to feed your soul on the Word in scripture, sermon and Sacrament.

'The Alamo,' $12 million spectacle, opens at Tower Theatre here June 29

"The Alamo," a United Artists release, will open at the Tower Theatre here Thursday, June 29, and continue through the following Monday.

This is the dramatic story on which the all-time box-office favorite, John Wayne, spent more than $2,000,000 and nearly 14 years of research and planning to bring to the screen.

The sweeping Technicolor production is said to be the most expensive and most spectacular motion picture ever produced in the United States.

Wayne, who directed as well as produced "The Alamo," also stars as the Tennessee backwoods congressman, Col. David Crockett, who rode 1,500 miles on horseback to join Texas' bitter fight for independence.

Richard Widmark, versatile star of many top Hollywood productions, plays the leather-tough Jim Bowie, and talented young British actor, Laurence Harvey, is starred as Col. William Barrett Travis, who commanded the forces at the Alamo.

Co-starred in this epic story of the battle for Texas independence are Frankie Avalon, the young singing sensation, who plays "Smitty," a teen-aged Tennessee boy who grows to manhood on the firing line and Linda Cristal, who gives a few moments of love and tenderness to Colonel Crockett.

Visiting over the weekend with Mrs. Johnnie Rogers was her sister, Mrs. George Spires, of Lovington, N. M.

Mr. and Mrs. Delmer Cowdrey were hosts last Tuesday night for an ice cream birthday supper in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Cowdrey and Donald Windham. Senior Assembly set by college Around 250 Methodist high school youths from the entire Northwest Texas Conference area will be on the McMurry College campus June 26-30 for the annual Senior Assembly, featuring as speaker the Rev. Bill Kent of Abilene, former missionary to Bolivia.

Kent, associate pastor of St. Paul Methodist Church in Abilene, and his wife spent nine years in Bolivia as missionaries.

The Assembly, held each summer on the McMurry College campus, opens with registration Monday, June 26, at 1:30 p. m. It will close on Friday, June 30, at lunch.

Theme of the assembly this year is "My Living Bible." It is designed to help youth appreciate the Bible as a resource for living the Christian life in their day.

Times Are Changing

Some of us OLD TIMERS are bad about making remarks about the clothes some folks wear around town BUT DID YOU KNOW that we have changed a lot the last FIFTEEN YEARS since we put in a HARDWARE STORE in Post.

Why ?? Just this week several prominent citizens have been seen down town in 'SHORTS.' What's more we not only DID NOT censor but instead we HEARTILY APPROVED of this.

Now for groceries, drugs or dry goods WE might not approve always but for HARDWARE be sure you always appear in SHORTS.

Whether the weather is steaming HOT or freezing COLD or WET or DRY you should ALWAYS go in SHORTS to get your HARDWARE.

THE TWO OLDER members of the firm will probably be gone NEXT WEEK FOR A FEW HOURS of relaxation but who-ever pinch hits for us will be pleased if you are in SHORTS.

SHORT HARDWARE

SUNDAY DINNER guests in the Bobby Cowdrey home at Post were Mr. and Mrs. Delmer Cowdrey, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Cowdrey and Donnie, Karon and Sharon Windham.

This iron lung is now empty—for a change. How long it and thousands of others remain empty depends upon how soon the entire nation is fully vaccinated against polio.

Almost half the U. S. population is unguarded against crippling polio.

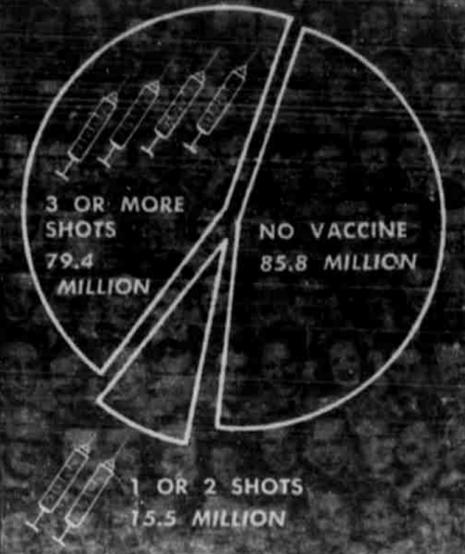

Basil O'Connor, president of The National Foundation, has described the vulnerability of some 85 million Americans to paralytic polio as "a national disgrace."

There is no scarcity of the Salk vaccine, he pointed out, and two inoculations now, within a month's time, would provide at least some measure of protection against polio outbreaks and epidemics in the summer.

In thousands of cities, villages and hamlets across the nation, Salk polio vaccination is available at little cost, and in some communities the prescribed series of at least three shots is free. A fourth "booster" shot is now recommended.

"The individual's common sense and will to survive should dictate immediate vaccination," Mr. O'Connor said. "If he or she has a family, all the more urgent ground for polio protection."

The National Foundation has been joined in its nationwide appeal to the unvaccinated by the American Medical Association and the U.S. Public Health Service.

Illustrating vaccination status of the American public, chart shows almost half the population is totally unvaccinated.

Shafter ghost mining town

PRESIDIO—Head for them that hills, men, they've found silver. Matter of fact, they're mining it at Shafter, Tex., right now.

Most interesting, however, is the ghost town of Shafter itself. It's located in Presidio County in far West Texas, near the Mexican border.

You can wander along the river gulch and find old mining machinery in the deserted homes of the former silver miners. Seeing it is just like reading an historical book or western novel.

How you can receive a check signed by Uncle Sam twice a year

When you buy an H Bond you can be sure of receiving your first interest check in six months—and every six months till maturity. Every year the U.S. Treasury mails out more than 3 1/2 million interest checks worth $149 million to the folks holding Series H Bonds.

Why buy Series H Bonds?
H Bonds are especially good if you're living on a retirement income or want to invest for current income.

If you own E Bonds you can trade them for H Bonds at anytime. (A nice feature of trading is you don't have to pay tax on the accumulated E Bond interest until your new H Bonds mature or are cashed.)

Guaranteed growth.
Your Bond money now earns 3 3/4% interest held to maturity. Your money can't be lost because Uncle Sam replaces destroyed Bonds. And you can get your money with interest anytime you want it. Every Savings Bond you buy is a share in a stronger America. Why not ask your banker for all the details?

Cattlemen Organized
 Fifty men organized the Cattle Association of Texas in 1882 under an oak tree that still stands in Graham, Texas, north of Fort Worth.
 The monument now stands at Young County tree, commemorating the site as the beginning of this great organization. On the monument are the names of the organization's first officers.

Ye Ole Franklin
 Mr. and Mrs. Franklin, Texas, at the tip of the state? No, they don't have our directions confused. We mean west, not east.
 Franklin of West Texas is a beautiful town with most everything that a town of over 130,000 people should have.
 It is on the Mexican border too, and an added attraction.
 Have you heard of this Franklin? That's probably because they call it El Paso! But it was Franklin way back when it first settled.

Flaky But True
 For native Texans and thousands of visitors to the lone star state, the advantage of Texas' vast resources, both salt and fresh water, is the restful, yet exciting, fishing.
 Texas fishing rivers are a great many sportsmen to the state by proving we grow them big in Texas.
 For instance, the 279 lb. Alligator caught by Bill Valverde in the Grande River; or the 30 lb. Langnese Gar hauled out of the Trinity River by Townsend.
 They aren't just fish stories. They are officially recorded world records.

Texas Molehills
 Many often are accused of making mountains out of molehills. But, to admit, we have some big molehills in Texas.
 There are 15 mountain-molehills over 7,000 feet above sea level. All of these are in our western tip of Texas.
 The tallest molehill is Guadalupe Peak. It is 8,751 feet high and stands near the New Mexico border in Culberson County.
 Texas mountain-molehills served as guideposts for early explorers—somewhat like a landmark.

RADIOLOGICAL MONITORING is one of the principal courses stressed today by most civil defense organizations as a preparation for saving life from radioactive fallout which could follow a nuclear attack. A corps of citizen specialists is being trained to measure fallout and forewarn the public. New laws allowing the Federal Government to assume half the costs of hiring more State and local civil defense workers are now speeding this and other CD programs. In the top picture, Robert S. Rits (far right in audience), new Illinois Civil Defense Agency training officer under the shared-cost program, sits in on a monitoring course in Evanston taught by Mrs. Laura Nissen, the city's training, information and radiological defense officer. She also has recently become a paid employee, selected to devote full time to civil defense under the financial aid program. Rits later worked the material obtained at Evanston into a similar course at the underground Du Page County Civil Defense control center near Wheaton, Ill. (bottom). (OCDM Photo)

Blow Me Down
 You may think of Texas as a country of cowboys and ranches but you'd better add big ships and sailors to your thoughts too.
 Our great Gulf Coast is one of the busiest segments of coastline in the world.
 Texas has important deep water ports located at Houston, Galveston, Corpus Christi, Freeport, Port Aransas, Orange, Brownsville, Port Arthur and Sabine Pass.
 Houston is the largest of all the Texas ports and you'll see a United Nations array of ships when you visit this colossal gateway of our land.
 One of the most impressive trips in Texas is that taken down the Houston ship channel to the great San Jacinto Battleground.

Huntsville Honors Houston
 The gravestone monument of Sam Houston stands silent but proud in the Memorial Cemetery at Huntsville, Texas, in East Texas' Walker County.
 Houston was a giant in history, a great statesman, and an unforgettable military hero and commander.
 He held many political positions. He was Governor of Tennessee, twice President of the Republic of Texas, and Governor of Texas.
 His monument at Huntsville reads, "The world will take care of Houston's fame."
 With this monument, Huntsville has helped the world do just that.

Only One Lighthouse
 Many tourists each year visit the Sabine Bank Lighthouse.
 This guidepost for the ships at sea is still in use today. It lies 16 miles out in the Gulf of Mexico from Sabine Pass on Texas' eastern Gulf Coast.
 This old lighthouse isn't a "one and only" but it still has distinction in the "only one" class. This is because there is only one other lighthouse located in open water in the United States.
Colonizing Daily
 Stephen F. Austin settled his colony near Sealy, Texas, but on the same location you can now settle and rest with a quiet day of fishing, boating, camping and picnicking.
 You can also play golf. The kids will love the playground—and the confection stand.
 This original site of the Austin Colony is now converted into a beautiful 664 acre park for your enjoyment.
 It is located just 3 miles east of Sealy, Texas, in Austin County due west of Houston.
 Don't miss this historical Stephen F. Austin Park on your next trip through Central South Texas.

Rain described as 'worth a million'

By MRS. O. H. HOOVER

Well, this was really a million dollar rain! About three inches, and it all fell so nice.

Mr. and Mrs. Mac Ritchey visited Wednesday evening in the home of Mrs. C. C. Jones.

Clarence and Joel Inklebarger are spending the week with their parents, Mrs. Jim McGrew of Welch and Mrs. Doyle Terry of Lamesa.

The T. J. Murray, Bert McDonnell, Philip Murray and Howard Conrad families were guests of the James Murrays at an outdoor supper Monday night, June 12.

The Conrads left Wednesday by plane from Lubbock for missionary work in Peru. About 40 people from Lubbock and Grassland were at the airport to wish them Godspeed on their journey.

MR. AND MRS. C. A. Walker were guests in the Jim McGrew home at Welch, Thursday.

Guests in the O. H. Hoover home Monday morning were Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Gourley and mother.

Tahoka Rotarians to sponsor Dutch visitor

TAHOKA—For the seven consecutive year, the Tahoka Rotary Club this summer will sponsor the visit of a young college graduate from Europe.

This year's guest will be Arendse Hendrik, 25, a school teacher from Middleburg, The Netherlands. He will arrive here late this month and live in homes of local Rotarians until the latter part of August.

Mrs. Scarborough, from Grandfield, Okla., Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gourley of Dallas, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Love, Mrs. Cecil Love and daughters, Ruth and Margaret, of Lovington, N. M., and Mrs. Frances Schreuter of Erlanger, Ky.

Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Turner went to Buchanan Lake last week for a reunion of Mrs. Turner's family. Attending were H. L. Crawford and family of Houston and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Russell and family.

O. H. Hoover and son, Herbert, went down to Stamford Lake fishing. They report the fish are biting good and took nine off a trotline, weighing from four to 10 pounds each, Thursday morning. However, the other fellow is catching the big ones.

MR. AND MRS. E. B. Gregg visited in Hollis, Okla., Friday and Saturday with Mrs. Gregg's aunt, Mrs. C. J. Parr, and then went to Abernathy Sunday to visit Mr. Gregg's nephew, Jack Gregg, and family. Jack, who is stationed at Wichita Falls in the Air Force, was visiting in Abernathy over the weekend.

Mrs. E. A. Thomas is taking her mother and father to Elk City, Okla., to visit his brother, Bob Fox, who will celebrate his 90th birthday this week.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Thomas are in Ruidoso, N. M., vacationing. Mrs. A. L. Shepherd of Tahoka is staying with the children while they are gone.

NEW SUPERINTENDET

WILSON—Leroy Scott, superintendent of schools at Quitaque for the last five years, has been named superintendent here. He replaces Johnny Clark, who resigned to become superintendent at Olton.

KINGS ARE PLAYING King fishing on the Texas coast is picking up. Several large catches have been reported all along the coast. Most of them are being caught around oil wells out in the Gulf.

VISIT RELATIVES Mrs. W. E. Cox of Natchez, Miss., spent a ten-day visit with her mother, Mrs. Alice Parsons, and her sister, Jewel. Mrs. Cox and Mrs. Parsons spent a day in Olton, visiting the Connor and Percy Parsons families.

PLentiful foods provide tasty eating in July COLLEGE STATION—Food buyers who shop the Plentiful Foods Route have delectable July eating in store for them, reports the Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M College. The eight foods on the USDA's Plentiful Foods List are right in spirit with the month—July 4th, summer picnics and Midsummer Turkey Time.

Turkeys and fresh peaches are the featured items. They are supported by a refreshing array of summer vegetables, fresh plums, watermelons, cantaloupes, eggs and shrimp. All will be plentiful throughout July.

These items have been selected by the USDA's Agricultural Marketing Service because supplies at Texas markets are expected to exceed normal demands. The list provides a good shopping guide, and consumers who buy and serve these items often stand to eat better and save more.

Turkeys of all sizes are plentiful. July marketings are expected to be 35 or 40 per cent larger than a year ago. Storage stocks on May 1 were a record high. Liberal peach supplies from many Southern States and California will hit markets in July. Southeastern growers expect the largest crop since 1947.

The shrimp industry faces large inventories and depressed prices as the new shrimping season opens. That's your cue to serve shrimp often. It will be readily available in fresh, frozen and canned forms in many markets.

In former years, while things were flourishing, we have been in the habit of furnishing our patrons with such quantities of the Almanac as they might order on credit. But the present condition of affairs renders it impossible for us to comply with the same, as we have no idea at the present where we are to get a fresh supply of paper, except at a ruinous price, and the paper on which our Almanac is printed is that intended for our newspaper, consequently we can only afford to sell them for cash.—The Weekly Telegraph, Houston.

Certified birth and death certificate fees up Sept. 1

Beginning Sept. 1, Texans will begin paying a higher fee for certified birth and death certificates according to Senate Bill 69 passed by the 57th Legislature.

The law raises the fee for a certified copy from $1 to $1.50, to cover the increased cost for issuing such certificates.

The new law does not affect birth certificate copies requested before Sept. 1.

The Records and Statistics Section of the State Health Department — the State agency responsible for Texas' birth and death record keeping — also made its annual summer plea for parents of children entering school for the first time to make application for certified birth copies as soon as possible to avoid the last minute rush.

There is an added incentive this year, explained State Health authorities, because of the expected extra rush of requests seeking to beat the September fee increase.

Certified copies may be obtained from county clerks and local registrars.

If not procured locally, a copy may be obtained for $1 from the Records and Statistics Section of the Texas State Department of Health in Austin until Sept. 1, 1961 — $1.50 after that date. The fee must accompany the certificate request.

Needed for a quick and positive search of records are the name of the child, both parents' names, place of birth and date of birth. This information should be included with the request.

Past experience proves the earlier requests get quicker response. Another hint for parents with children beginning school, is to provide each child with a thorough physical check-up from a physician.

Also, it is wise to check school regulations concerning vaccinations. (A weekly feature from Public Health Education, Texas State Department of Health.)

Bill Stephens on WT honor roll

CANYON — Bill E. Stephens of Post was one of 108 students named to the spring semester honor roll at West Texas State College.

The dean's honor list is composed of the upper five per cent of the undergraduate student body. Stephens, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Stephens, completed his freshman year in May at WT, where he is majoring in economics. He is a 1957 graduate of Post High School.

SMALL BUSINESS

By C. WILSON HARDER

One wag claims that the greatest hidden force behind government today is the organized horse farmer. His contention is they are striving to eliminate the automobile to bring back the horse and buggy.

Many politicians and bureaucrats have not understood that for millions of people, and thousands of businesses and enterprises, the motor vehicle is as necessary as air to breathe.

In fact, there have been times when some of the nation's bureaucrats have publicly been quite apologetic over fact there are many automobiles in U. S. while the poor people of lower latitudes have so few.

Of course, they either ignore, or are ignorant, of the fact that the automobile is a prime employer of jobs and that many independent businesses are engaged in the selling or servicing of motor vehicles.

As you drive through the Main Streets of America will readily show, a major backbone of the community's business life are the independent car dealers who are also in many cases community leaders for civic betterment.

It is interesting to see Congressman Stan Tupper come out opposed to any continuation of the extra cent tax on gasoline put through to finance the so-called super highway program.

He points out the fallacy of the National Federation of Independent Business

It's the Law in TEXAS

LAWS OF THE SEA
Sea law is one of the oldest branches of law. Venturing seamen have needed recorded rules to govern their affairs. For it's lonely out at sea with no one around to hear your complaints.

This law became "admiralty" law, and it goes back to about 900 B. C. One of the early rules of the sea—dealing with jettison—is still part of today's laws: If one needs to save a ship in a storm by casting your cargo overboard, the ship and the remaining cargo owners all must chip in to pay the loss incurred for the common safety.

Nations needed uniformity in sea law since commerce is international. Seamen's customs from all the nations became written into laws. Nations have agreed to make the laws largely uniform.

Only the federal courts can hear admiralty cases. Many American court decisions refer to sea law as the law of all nations. In this, admiralty differs from the land-lubber laws. For example:

When two ships collide both owners could be negligent and, if so, the damages will be apportioned depending on the degree of blame. But not on land. Here if you are even slightly negligent you lose your right to damages.

On the high seas seamen have long been subject to strict powers by the captain. An employer on land has far less power over his workers. In the early days employers often abused seamen until federal laws were passed to protect seamen's wages, set standards for their employment, and to pay them if they were injured at sea.

Admiralty law also gives the ship its own personality. It becomes a legal entity something like a corporation. A ship has rights. It takes with it the law of the flag it sails under.

Persons who go out to save a ship from peril are entitled to a "salvage" award for their efforts. A special federal court sits for admiralty cases and has power over civil and criminal cases arising out of activities connected with the high seas. An admiralty court settles the disputes over contracts as well as personal injury cases that arise on the high seas, and on navigable inland waters, lakes and rivers, if connected with navigation.

(This newsfeature, prepared by the State Bar of Texas, is written to inform—not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who is fully advised concerning the facts involved, because a slight variance in facts may change the application of the law.)

Dry weather after deep plowing will help eliminate root rot

COLLEGE STATION—To reduce "dying-off" or root rot, a cotton farmer needs to know when dry weather is expected for 10 days to two weeks. When dry weather follows deep plowing, root rot will be reduced, says Harlan E. Smith, extension plant pathologist.

Soil should be plowed six to 18 inches with a disk or moldboard type. The drying of the soil that follows help to kill the root rot fungus. Deep plowing and drying helps to kill old cotton roots and roots of susceptible weeds that harbor the root rot fungus.

Pioneer Reunion set at Tahoka

TAHOKA—Lynn County's annual Pioneer Reunion will be held here Saturday with registration getting under way at 10 a. m.

Lunch will be served at noon in the old City Park at the rear of the New City Hall.

The program will be held at 2:30 p. m. in the air-conditioned City-Legion building.

The program will include an old fiddlers contest, in charge of Ruby Wells.

The old-timers dance—for old-timers only and their families and friends—will start at 9:30 p. m. in the City-Legion building.

Elmer Spores is president of the pioneer organization this year.

VACATION TRIP

Catholic Church has new pastor

The Rev. Edward Clinton is new assistant pastor at Holy Cross Catholic Church, the Rev. James Erickson, pastor, announced this week.

Father Clinton will conduct services at the church for the first time Sunday, with Mass scheduled for 10 a. m.

During the last several months, the church has been without an assistant pastor, and Father Erickson has been holding services here as well as at Our Lady of Guadalupe Church in Slaton, of which he is also pastor.

Father Erickson said that in the near future Father Clinton probably will become a resident priest here, but that for the present he will commute between Slaton and Post.

FATHER'S DAY VISIT
Mr. and Mrs. A. Lee Ward and children, Mrs. Walter Holland and children visited Mrs. Ward's and Mrs. Holland's father, Cecil Fitzgerald, and a brother, Billy Frank, of Munday, at the Pitchfork Ranch, Sunday.

WORKING IN OFFICE
Mrs. W. D. Livingston has been working the past two weeks for Dr. A. C. Surman. She is filling in while Mrs. Homer McCrary is on vacation.

TRIP TO NEW YORK
Mrs. Evelyn Gurley and Paula, accompanied her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pittman, of Lamesa, on a two-week trip to New York. They expect to return this week.

RELATIVES VISIT
Mr. and Mrs. Tom Gamblin had as their guests last week, Lee, Cathy and Carol Sue Thaxton of Pecos. Mrs. Gamblin's sister-in-law had undergone surgery and recuperated while the children were visiting here.
