Garza commits 71 persons to pen in 40-year period

HUNTSVILLE — During the 40 year period from 1920 through 1959 a total of 109,949 individuals were committed to the Texas Prison System, according to a study of crime in Texas, recently completed by Dr. R. C. Koeninger, director of the Department of Sociology, Sam Houston State Teachers College, Huntsville.

Koeninger, a sociologist and criminologist, to show the trends in prison commitments for the State and for each county in Texas. Garza county committed 71 persons to the prison during the period studied, and ranks 202 in the state for the number of persons committed during the 40 year period.

The study was made by Dr. Koeninger, a sociologist and criminologist, to show the trends in prison commitments for the State and for each county in Texas. "I've washed and dried this dress at least 25 times in my electric clothes washer and dryer — the white background is still white and the color portions have not faded," says Mrs. Bill Smith of Guymon, Oklahoma.

Mrs. Bill Smith is well pleased with her electric washer and clothes dryer. She says, "I save on the children's clothes because it's so easy to wash and dry that I need fewer clothes for them to grow out of. I just won't buy anything for them that cannot be washed and dried."

Deese, 5; Kelly, 4; Todd, 1½; and Paul, 7, enjoy television on stools especially for them. All of the children's clothes sparkle even though they've been washed and dried many, many times in Mrs. Smith's electric clothes washer and dryer.

105 per cent. Koeninger attributes this commitment increase to many factors. "Attitudes toward certain types of crime, increase in law enforcement facilities, and an increase in the prison system's efforts at rehabilitation are important reasons, particularly the latter," Koeninger said. "With a modern penal system judges are not as reluctant to commit men to prison." He also noted that Texas did not have a state-wide parole system in operation until September 1957 and that the absence of a state system of supervised probation further contributes to sending larger numbers to prison.

The study reveals some erratic commitment trends. For example, 34 counties in the state show a decrease in commitment ratios for each of the four decades while 30 counties show an increase for the same period. During the decade 1920 through 1929, the average population of the state was slightly less than 6 million, and a total of 18,824 persons were committed to prison. From 1930 to 1939, the depression years, the population averaged 6.5 million and 30,436 persons were sent to prison. From 1940 to 1949, the war and reconversion years, the population averaged 7.7 million, but the number committed to prison was only 22,060. From 1950 to 1959, the years of relative prosperity and international turmoil, the population averaged 9.5 million and some 38,527 persons were committed to prison.

Koeninger points out that the most significant change in commitment rates took place during the depression and war years. "The population increase for 1940 was 10 per cent over the previous decade, but the rate of commitment increased 61 per cent." And for 1950 population had gained 32 per cent but the commitment to prison was up only 17 per cent. CURRENT PRISON population figures show the inmate population is increasing at the rate of about 306 each year. Since there are nearly 12,000 persons in prison now the current annual increase will result in a prison population of 18,000 by 1970.

The Koeninger crime study indi-

SHORT COURSE SET
The 11th annual Swine Short Course will be held at Texas A&M College, April 2-3. T. D. Tanksley Jr., extension swine specialist, says the program will be the kind that swine producers just can't afford to miss. A breeding and selection program will be explained which could mean more pigs per litter; more pork produced on less feed and a still higher quality carcass at slaughter time. Local county agents have copies of the program.

The fact that Kenedy county has never committed anyone to prison does not necessarily make the county a mecca for criminals," Koeninger said. "Kenedy county just does not have a criminal court, and law violators are tried in the adjoining counties."

Population figures for the Koeninger study were taken from local and federal census, and commitment data was obtained from the Bureau of Records of the Department of Corrections in Huntsville. "The study will be published and will be available to criminal districts attorneys, judges, and others who are interested in the data," Koeninger said.

Soldier training at Fort Carson
FORT CARSON, Colo. — Army Pvt. Howard K. Bullard, 22, whose wife, Sharron, lives at 509 W. 14th, Post, Tex., is receiving eight weeks of advanced individual infantry training at Fort Carson. The training is scheduled to end March 16.

Bullard is receiving instruction in the handling and firing of light infantry weapons including the M-1 rifle, Browning automatic rifle, flame thrower, 3.5-inch rocket launcher and the new M-14 rifle and M-60 machinegun. He is being trained in squad tactics, communications, field fortifications, first aid, survival training, map reading and chemical, biological and radiological warfare.

Bullard entered the Army last October and completed basic training at Fort Carson. A 1958 graduate of Post High School, he was a mechanic with Post Auto Supply prior to entering the Army. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wes T. Bullard, live at 609 W. 14th, Post.

Jack Dempsey was called the Manassa Mauler because he was born in Manassa, Colo.

Ford salesman here will receive award
Larry R. Waldrip of Tom Power, Inc., Post, will be presented Ford Motor Company's 300-500 Club award at a banquet Friday in Dallas at the Adolphus Hotel honoring high-ranking Ford dealership car and truck salesmen of 1961 in the Dallas District. J. W. Mendel, district sales manager, said 300-500 Club membership awards are presented for excellent retail sales performance. The Ford 300-500 Club was founded in 1950 to recognize the performance of outstanding Ford salesmen throughout the country. Mr. Mendel added that the average 300-500 Club member sold over $400,000 worth of automobiles and merchandise in qualifying for national honors.

Double feature is on Tower screen

The spectacular life of John Wesley Hardin, one of the old West's most notorious gunfighters, has been brought to the screen in "The Lawless Breed," with Rock Hudson starring in his portrayal of the brawling, history-famed outlaw.

Filmed in Technicolor, this Western adventure opens today at the Tower Theatre and continues through Saturday in a double-bill program with "To Hell and Back," which dramatically stars Audie Murphy as he plays his own real-life role as America's most decorated hero of World War II.

The two films make up one of the most action-packed double features ever shown here, says Johnny Hopkins, theatre manager.

Coach Teal named Teacher of Week

By Cecelia Bland and Leatrice Justice
Our teacher of the week is Coach Harold Teal.
He attended the following colleges: Hardin-Simmons, San Angelo, and North Texas State. He has a degree in BBA. His major is in business.
He is married and has two girls. Their names are Amy and Linda. His favorite food is steak, and color is green. His favorite car is the Chevrolet and his favorite sport is football. His hobby is golf.
He teaches five classes which are two typing classes, two American history classes, and one P. E. class. He has approximately 118 students.
He is 28 years old and attends the Presbyterian Church. His favorite music is popular.
Congratulations, Coach Teal for being chosen teacher of the week.

Have You Heard??

Now is your chance girls, this is your week. In some cases the boys should ask the girls. Just for a change.

Danella Bateman had a date with Dwayne Capps last Thursday night. Had a heart-to-heart talk, or something like that.

Buddy Moreland, Billy Shumard, Larry Guy, Kent Wheatley, Paul Wheatley, and Mike Ray spent the weekend in Ruidoso, N. M. They were going skiing, but got snowed out. Still had fun, though.

Richard Cook was home for spring recess. Sure was nice seeing him again.

Congratulations to James Mitchell and Stanna Butler. They are

Most teachers at convention

The Junior High Teachers were well represented at the District XIII Teacher's Convention held in Lubbock Municipal Auditorium last Friday. Only two teachers did not attend and both of them were engaged in other school activities.

Mrs. Mary Lee Wristen, a Junior High teacher of social studies, is the new district president. She introduced the first speaker, Dr. Vernon Sisney of Oklahoma City, Okla.

After the first general session, teachers attended various luncheons and sectional meetings before returning to the Municipal Auditorium for the second general session. Mrs. Wristen presided at this session. Cayce Moore of Hearne, Texas, was the principal speaker.

Clever displays in showcase at PHS

By Leatrice Justice and Cecelia Bland
Agricultural displays consist of all types of jobs in the field of agriculture. Anyone interested in the agricultural profession, go by the Post High School showcase and find what you are looking for.
The math display consists of two cartoons showing the way students view math sometimes, but discover that it is worthwhile.
The English display consists of punctuating sentences and the artistic drawings of stories.
The library display consists of a "Seniors USA Map," with colorful flags posted where the seniors were born. Books of occupation were the highlight of this display.

Junior High students hear minister's talk

By Carol Camp
For our weekly activity period Friday, the Junior High students were addressed by the Rev. Bernard S. Ramsey, minister of the First Christian Church.

His subject was "Be True to Yourself." It was a very inspiring talk.
He brought out the point that "as a man thinketh in his heart, so is he," and that one never gets into trouble unless he first thinks about it.

We appreciated his taking his time to talk to us.

Two Lincoln teachers present at convention

Miss Minnie Sayles and Mrs. Zeta R. Pennie motored to Big Spring last Friday to attend the convention of the West Texas District Teachers' Association. The general theme of the meeting was "New Directions to Quality Education."

We were happy to have Mrs. Hulene Dunn and daughter, Glenda, visit us during Public Schools Week.

Mystery Teacher clues are listed by writer

By Sherry Woods
This week's mystery teacher is a lot of fun.
This teacher is really a coach and is a good loser. This person has blue eyes and isn't very tall. The mystery teacher likes athletics.
The teacher's name is German. Everyone likes this coach and thinks he is great.

Junior High students dance is held Friday

Last Friday night the 7th and 8th grade girls and boys had a dance.
There were about 64 kids there. I think they all had a good time.
We surely thank Bill and Melinda Hatler for coming and all our parents who made it possible.

Screwworm fund one-third short goal in county

Garza County has reached only two-thirds of its goal in the screwworm eradication program, according to Arnold Sanderson, chairman of the county's committee on the program.

Sanderson urges all stockmen and others concerned who have not yet made their contributions to leave them with him or with Lewis C. Herron at the First National Bank. "You are urged to do so at your earliest convenience," Sanderson added.

The county chairman said Texas stockmen and others have contributed over $1,533,000 to the screwworm eradication program. The goal for the state is $3,000,000.

The federal government has pledged to match the producer-raised funds in this all-important program.

Sanderson said that on behalf of the committee he wishes to thank all workers who have helped in the fund solicitation campaign and those who have made their contributions.

Post soldier is at Fort Chaffee

FORT CHAFFEE, Ark. — Army Pvt. Kenneth D. Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Pat O. Martin, 511 W. 12th St., Post, Tex., is receiving eight weeks of advanced individual infantry training with the 100th Division at Fort Chaffee. The training is scheduled to end March 30.

Martin is receiving instruction in infantry unit combat tactics and the handling and firing of both light and heavy infantry weapons.

The 100th Division, a Kentucky Army Reserve unit, was recalled to active duty and assigned to the reopened Army Training Center at Fort Chaffee. More than 1,000 officers and enlisted men have been assigned to the center which is now giving basic, advanced individual and special training to both Regular Army and Army Reserve personnel.

Martin entered the Army last November and received basic training at Fort Carson, Colo.

The 23-year-old soldier is a 1957 graduate of Post High School and attended West Texas State College in Canyon. He was employed by the U. S. Post Office Department in Post before entering the Army.

"U. S. giveaway, graft and corruption is covered up by our spending of over 53 cents of every budget dollar for national defense," he declared.

He said the citizen's confidence in his government has dwindled badly since World War II.

"Our country's independence was sold down the river with the conception of a U. N. in which one nation holds the veto power over the entire community of nations," he said.

Of the U. S. Supreme Court's 24 decisions on Communism in the last few years, all have favored Communism, he said.

'Bachelor in Paradise' stars Hope and Turner

Bob Hope and Lana Turner co-star for the first time in the new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer comedy, "Bachelor in Paradise," which shows Sunday, Monday and Tuesday at the Tower Theatre.

Hope is seen as a writer exploring the manners and mores of American marital life in the midst of a modern California housing development, surrounded by a group of wives who are domestically discontented.

Lana is the development's interior decorator and the only other "bachelor" in the community. When Hope rents her house, the fun begins.

Pre-Easter series of messages begin Sunday

Bernard S. Ramsey, First Christian Church pastor, will begin a pre-Easter series of messages Sunday at the 11 a. m. worship centered around individuals present at the Crucifixion and the theme: "They Were There." The first message will be entitled "To the Unknown Soldier."

At the 7 p. m. Sunday worship, Mr. Ramsey will begin a series of messages on the theme: "The Faces of Eve," and dealing with various women of the Bible. The first topic will be entitled "The Frozen Face."

School board--

(Continued from page 1) ers in question and to make recommendations as to whether or not they should be retained in the system.

Dr. Carter also contended that in his opinion the superintendent's approach in talking to the teachers and in making his recommendations to the board was "not right."

He said that in the case of Smith and the band director he considered it more of a clash of personalities than anything else.

The vote, however, in acting on the superintendent's recommendations was unanimous.

Dr. Carter told The Dispatch yesterday that he "went along" with the rest of the board because of the manner in which the candidates for re-election were presented.

They were presented one school at a time with the board voting to re-hire only those recommended by the superintendent.

Mrs. Bingham, who is resigning as a primary teacher, is the wife of V. F. "Bing" Bingham, who has accepted the position of athletic director at Slaton High School.

Baker, resigning as a teacher at Lincoln Elementary School, has been there eight months.

In re-hiring Mrs. Zeta Pennie, present principal, and Matt Reece, teacher, at the Lincoln Elementary School, the board hired them subject to placement.

In electing high school teachers for next year, the board did not consider Mrs. Patricia Alexander, who was employed only to complete the second semester of the school year after Mrs. S. E. Camp resigned as head of the homemaking department.

As pointed out by Supt. Smith, Mrs. Alexander voluntarily offered her services in the position when no other homemaking teacher was immediately available.

"She is an excellent teacher and we'd like to keep her," the superintendent said.

Preceding the teacher election, the board voted to support the high school architects on whatever course they pursue in trying to get the general contractors to correct a ceiling defect in the high school library.

One of the two architects at the board meeting told the trustees they'd make every effort to get the contractor to repair the defect, but if they failed the board would be left with only the legalities of its contract to resort to.

The letter to delinquent taxpayers approved by the board seeks to collect approximately $40,000 in delinquent taxes.

Board President E. R. Moreland named trustees Pierce and J. E. Birdwell to work with Supt. Smith on making water available for the proposed new vocational agriculture stock pens to be constructed on newly-acquired City of Post property at the south edge of the city limits.

Dames--

(Continued from page 1) every time the Dames scored a basket, a Rotary player would grab the ball, take it out of bounds and throw it in again to another Rotarian.

Eight points went up on the board mighty quick to make it 38-35 before the Dames got the ball again.

Then a free throw and the "goal tending" ruling knotted the game. Offensive standout for the Dames was Bill Hogue who drove in crisply—crisply that is for a Rotarian—for several setups.

The Dames had trouble getting the ball through the hoops and the girls had trouble trying to rebound with the taller Dames.

A total of 24 Rotarians "suited out" in a wide variety of feminine apparel for the game.

Playing with the Dames were Leo Acker, Louise Burkes, Noel Clemmons, Bob Collier, Jim Cornish, Ed Herring, Hogue, Walter Johnson, Paul Jones, Spencer Kuykendall, Dr. James Matthews, Irby G. Metcalf Jr., Jack Gray, Harold Teal, Frank Blanton, Tom Greenwood, Bob Macy, Lester Nichols, Tom Power, Lowell Short, R. T. Smith, Lee Ward, Glenn Whittenberg, and Dr. B. E. Young.

Student Council's officers elected

Jimmy Mitchell and Stanna Butler, who will be seniors next year, were elected president and vice president, respectively, of the Post High School Student Council in an election last Thursday.

Other candidates were Marianne Jones and Buddy Moreland for president and Jackey Fluit and Susie Jo Schmidt for vice president.

The two new officers, elected by the student body, will succeed Judy Clary and Marianne Jones, this year's Student Council president and vice president.

The officers-elect will attend the annual state Student Council convention at San Antonio later this month.

Dwayne Capps named to 3AA second team

Dwayne Capps, senior center on the Post Antelope basketball team, was named to the 3AA all-district second team at a coaches' meeting in Tahoka Tuesday night.

Three other Post cagers, Jackie Fluit, Pat Cornell and Leslie Acker, received honorable mention. The champion Denver City Mustangs and the Stanton Buffaloes placed two men each on the first team, with Tahoka and Slaton placing one each.

46-56 CLUB TO MEET

The 46-56 Club, composed of Post high athletes who lettered in those years, will meet at 7:30 p. m. Friday, March 23, in the Community Room for an important meeting. All members, or eligible members, are urged to attend.

Babe Ruth League expanded

Post's Babe Ruth League has been expanded from four teams to five for the coming season, league officials announce. The league charter will include all eligible boys within the school districts of Garza County.

The new team, the Colts, is sponsored by Jackson Bros. Food Locker and Post Pharmacy. John Schmidt has been named manager of the team, with the coach to be named later.

The Babe Ruth League got its start here with two teams, the White Sox and the Indians, with the Braves and the Cubs being added two years later.

The Indians, sponsored by Levi's Restaurant, will be managed by A. W. Bratcher and coached by Hal Jones.

Sponsor of the Braves is Max Gordon's Tire Shop, with Rex King the manager and Pete Hays the coach.

The White Sox, sponsored by Bill Edwards, will be managed by Ben Howell and coached by Bobby Pierce.

Cockrum Printing Co. and White's Electric are sponsors of the Cubs, who will be managed by A. J. Howell. The team's coach is to be named later.

League officials said the expansion was made because there are too many 15-year-old boys for four teams. The boys will be bought, sold and traded to help the new Colt team get started.

"Some of the 15-year-old boys won't get to play on the team they've been playing with, but we hope we don't lose any of them for that reason," a league spokesman said.

Score six points at Lubbock

Trackmen to Denver City

The Post Antelope track and field team, which scored six points in the wind-blown Whirlwind Relays at Lubbock Saturday, will compete this Saturday in the Denver City Invitational Meet.

Post's points in the Whirlwind Relays, their first competition of the season, came on a fourth place by Tommy Bouchier in the 880-yard run and sixth places by Nuel Landreth in the high and low hurdles.

A number of other boys, including Danny Pierce and Mike Ayala, made good showings, although failing to score points, Coach Glynn Gregg said.

Pierce, lead-off man on the mile relay team, finished first, running an under-57 quarter mile, which was good, considering the adverse weather conditions.

Ayala, finished ninth in a field of 18 in the mile run.

Coach Gregg's tentative line-up for Saturday's meet at Denver City is as follows:

100-yard dash—Butch Cross, Landreth, Ken Rankin.

220-yard dash—Rankin, John Valdez, Benny Owen.

440-yard dash—Pierce, Neal Francis, Kent Wheatley.

880-yard run—Bouchier, Laylan Bratcher.

Mile run—Ayala, Jerry Nutt.

High hurdles—Landreth, Owen, Danny Odum.

Low hurdles—Landreth, Owen, Odum.

440-yard relay—Jackey Fluitt, Valdez, Cross, Rankin.

Mile relay—Frankie Gary, John L. Sutter, Glenn Polk, Odum.

Broad jump—Landreth, Fluitt, Valdez.

High jump—Pierce, Pat Cornell, Gary.

Shot put—Jerry Bush, Charlie Brown, Bill Mitchell.

Discus throw—Cross, Pierce, Owen.

Library Week to be April 8-14

AUSTIN — Governor Price Daniel today designated the week April 8-14 as "Library Week" in Texas and urged Texans to make full use of their public libraries. He pointed out "our democratic way of life can best be protected through an enlightened and educated public."

Daniel's official memorandum coincided with the dedication ceremony for the new $2,500,000 Texas Archives and Library Building slated for April 10.

"Our State government considers libraries as vital public facilities. The new Texas Archives and Library Building stands in recognition of this fact. Never before has knowledge been so important to the progress of the free world," the Governor said.

Library development in Texas is progressing at a faster clip than at any time in the past 30 years according to an informal survey of Dr. Dorman H. Winfrey.

CAPITAL GAINS AND LOSSES

Gain from the sale of a capital asset is given preferential tax treatment on your income tax return. In general, this capital asset treatment applies to any property held by a taxpayer except property which the taxpayer is engaged in the business of selling.

Normally, when you sell a capital asset you either sell it at a gain or you sustain a loss, both computations being based upon the difference between the cost you paid for the item being sold and the selling price.

Generally, capital assets sold by you at a loss, which are in the nature of personal, non-business property used by you for your own benefit do not result in a loss deduction.

On the other hand, all items sold by you at a gain do result in gross income to the extent of the gain. An exception to this rule regarding gain is in the case of the sale of a personal residence. This will be the subject of a later article in this series.

The profit on the sale of a capital asset is includable in gross income in its entirety. Where, however, you have held the asset for more than six months, you are entitled to a deduction of 50 per cent of the gain. Gain from the sale of a capital asset held more than six months is known as long-term capital gain.

A popular misconception is that long-term capital gains are taxable at a flat 25 per cent rate. Actually, this is the maximum rate. After the 50 per cent deduction mentioned above, the balance of the long term capital gain is added to other income and the tax rate applied to the total. Unless this total, after other deductions and exemptions, exceeds $36,000 in the case of a married taxpayer filing a joint return, the rate is less than 25 per cent.

Losses from the sale of capital assets, except again those held for your personal benefit such as a residence or a car, are deductible in the year you sell the capital asset, but only to the extent of your capital gains. However, if your losses exceed capital gains, you are allowed to deduct an additional $1,000 against other income. Any balance of the loss remaining will be carried over to the five succeeding years and deducted, subject to the same rules.

Property used in your business, but not held for sale to customers, receives a hybrid treatment upon sale. If a profit is made on the sale, it is treated as capital gain. However, if a loss results, the loss is deductible in full in the year of sale to the extent of any income received. Items in this category include: rental property, store buildings and fixtures and farm machinery.

in management set

LUBBOCK — A special short-course in management for owners and operators of small business will be conducted this spring by the Texas Tech School of Business Administration.

A similar course was offered last fall with 37 area men and women participating.

Dr. George Heather, Tech business administration dean, said a series of eight meetings began March 13. The sessions will be conducted each Tuesday night from 7:30-10 p. m., ending on May 1.

"Purpose of the short course is to help businessmen learn practical modern management principles and how to operate their businesses more effectively by applying those principles," Dean Heather said.

NEWS NOTE
WARNING: U.S. INVADED

More than 4 1/4 million invade United States in past year!

Now scattered throughout every city, village, and farm. Totally dependent on others for every need.

None can read, write, or speak our language. They know nothing about any religion.

Similar invasion expected this year — and next. Immediate action imperative! PARENTS, you are helping feed, clothe, and shelter these newcomers — the 4 1/4 million babies born last year. You will teach them to walk and talk, and how to live. Teach them, too, about God... give them a faith to live by.

Trained workers at your church are ready to help.

The future of your country — and your children — rests with you.

Join hands with your church to give them a faith, and a future — TODAY.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL...
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

I Give You Texas ...

By BOYCE HOUSE

I like "corn."
Most people do.
What is "corn"? It's just sentiment and humor that are based on fundamental ideals, memories and hopes.
Liking what a few condescendingly call "corn" means that you are genuine.
Breakfast, dinner and supper are "corny" but nobody has been able to devise a satisfactory substitute for them.
When Italy was under the dictatorship of black-shirted, black-hearted Mussolini, Il Duce was in Naples one day, incognito, and he attended a picture show. A news reel was flashed on the screen and there was Mussolini reviewing the troops. Everyone else in the theater was to show disrespect to the ruler of Italy; to arise would be the height of egotism. His better nature, for once, triumphed; he remained seated. The scene changed and all took their seats. The man next to Mussolini leaned over in the darkness and said, "That's the way we all feel about the blank-city-blank but we don't have the courage that you have!"

I like "corn" and have the nerve to say so. Nearly everybody else likes it too, if they would just own up.
Should some Pharisee happen to read this and feel inclined to jeer from the heights of his intellectual superiority, let him remember the first night of one of Shaw's plays. At the final curtain, the audience cheered and cheered; then shouted, "Author! Author!" The pink-whiskered playwright appeared and was given an ovation. Just as the applause subsided, however, someone gave a lusty "Boo!" Shaw smiled and said, "I agree with you; but who are you and I to hold out against all these other people?"
According to the Ph. D.'s, anything that the plain folks like is "corny." By that standard, Dickens was corny; so were Mark Twain, Will Rogers and Abraham Lincoln—yes, and Homer chanting the Iliad to a crowd on the street and Shakespeare writing plays for working people to watch in the yards of inns.
Just enroll me with Twain and Rogers, Lincoln and Homer and Shakespeare; I'm not proud.
We folks who like genuine sentiment and homespun humor are like that troupe of strolling players who arrived, broke, in a West Texas town and, just before curtain time, the leading man peeped out at the audience. "How is it?" another actor asked. The star replied, "It's the biggest crowd we've had yet—but we've got 'em outnumbered."

Bible Thoughts
Contents of Our Bible
By HERB SMITH
The Bible is God's Revelation to man. This revelation can be divided into history, poetry, prophecy, biography, fables, and one apocalyptic book, The Revelations. Although each of the sixty-six books can be classified as one of these, there is some history, poetry, prophecy and biography in almost every book. There are three divisions of time recorded in the Bible. These divisions are sometimes called dispensations. They are the Patriarchal, Mosaic, and Christian dispensations.
Most important however is that the Bible contains the guide that points the way to salvation for man. There are two major ways this is done (1) The record of how God dealt with man in times past. Romans 15:4. This record points out the kind of relationship man is to have with God; and (2) The direct commands given in the New Testament telling what man must do to be saved. 1 Cor. 15:1-3; Gal. 3:1-3. This is why it is so important for us to study, and obey, the words of God. Rom. 10:17, John 1:11-12.

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS"

By C. WILSON HARDER

Many very fine people live in Mount Olive, Mississippi. And it is not their fault that they live in a town in a state where the per capita income is about the lowest in the United States.

and by the time the 1961 figures are computed this will undoubtedly be well over $2,300, or almost three times what it is hoped average European will have eight years hence.

Economically, the entire south is on the move, and it is the hope and desire of every thinking American that in the near future the economy of Mississippi will be such that the per capita income is on a par with the highest in the nation.

But right now, no big Fifth Avenue furrier in New York is opening a big new store in Mount Olive, stocking it with the finest of mink and chinchilla. Neither is he laying off people in New York, to finance his Mount Olives venture.

However, far-fetched as this seems, this is the basis for a lot of the argument being used to eliminate U. S. tariffs. If this is not done, the cry is, this nation will not be able to sell anything to the nations in the European Common Market.

There is a fundamental law of business involved here. That is you cannot sell people unless they have the money to buy.

At the present time, the people of these European nations have only $642 per capita per year to spend. It is optimistically expected that the common market will "boom" this to $844 by 1970. By 1959 the American people had an annual per capita to spend of $2,166.

Thus the concept that everybody will live happily ever after with American incomes buying cheap labor imported products, and European incomes somehow buying expensive American products is somewhat akin to the recipe for ox-rabbit stew. Put one ox and one rabbit in the pot.

At the present time it is asserted that Europe buys $6 billion from the U.S. while the U.S. only buys $4 billion from Europe. But $6 billion of U.S. products at U.S. costs is far less volume than $4 billion of European products at foreign costs.

In addition, there are other factors. Tobacco is a major U.S. export to Europe. A package of English cigarettes, for example, that sells for 20 cents on the high seas when tax free, costs 66 cents in England when the British purchase tax must be paid at the retail counter. Thus, on the British income level, there is little hope of increasing tobacco consumption, because how many more packs of cigarettes at 66 cents each can the average Englishman hope to buy.

Thus, this whole question gets down to one of common sense. As any merchant, on any Main Street in the land knows when people lack money, they do not buy. An Italian, living on $650 a year, is not a prime prospect for goods produced in America at a labor cost of around $2 per hour. Business still depends on money.

Bees have four wings.

Salvation Army unit expanded
Garza County's service unit committee of the Salvation Army was expanded by four members at a meeting here recently of the committee with Gilbert Muddell, West Texas field representative.
The new members of the committee are Sheriff L. E. (Fay) Claborn, County Supt. Dean A. Robinson, the Rev. C. B. Hogue, pastor of the First Baptist Church, and the Rev. Oscar Bruce, pastor of the First Methodist Church.

Other members of the committee are Bob Collier, chairman; Clint Herring, treasurer; Mrs. Marvin Hudman and George Barker.
At the recent meeting, the Salvation Army's welfare work for the past year was reviewed and plans made for the ensuing year.
The committee's reports showed that approximately 350 people received aid here last year through the Salvation Army. This aid included groceries, medicine, lodging and transportation.
The plans for this year include the attendance of six Garza County boys at the Salvation Army's summer camp at Midlothian, Herman F. Raphael, principal of the Post Elementary School, is the county's camp chairman.
The committee also expressed its appreciation of Ted R. Hibbs, who is retiring after three years as a member of the county committee.
The Salvation Army is a participating member of the Garza County Community Chest.

Percy Parsons, outgoing president of the Olton Chamber of Commerce, was awarded a plaque for outstanding leadership at last Thursday night's annual banquet of the organization. Parsons, a graduate of Post High School, has been in business in Olton for the past three years.

"Hi!"
Why do you read ads like this this anyway?
We both know. Your eye was attracted by the pretty gal and you were curious as to what she had to say, weren't you?
Mr. Merchant, thousands of Dispatch readers each week are attracted to your advertisement in The Dispatch.
Advertising art and layout are important. To make your ads more attractive The Dispatch offers you an advertising layout service which contains thousands and thousands of illustrations of products, eye-catching art heads, and other such aids to give your ads the attractive eye appeal which drew your eye to this.
This little gal was offered as an attraction to a boat show ad in our advertising service this month, but we figured we didn't need a boat show to put her to good use.
REMEMBER: "Advertising doesn't cost, it pays!"

DWI charge filed after collision here

Juan Rodriguez has been charged in county court here with driving while intoxicated after a 1947 pickup truck he was driving crashed into a 1958 Pontiac driven by Howard Lee Teaff about midnight Saturday night at the FM 122 and US-380 intersection in east Post.

No one was injured. The Teaff car sustained an estimated $300 in damages, Deputy Sheriff Lloyd Merritt said.

Legion plans for 1962 Boys State

James C. Cole Post No. 270 of the American Legion has voted to sponsor a Post High School boy to the American Legion's Boys State in Austin again this June.

The local post pays the boy's travel expenses to and from Austin and his expenses for the six days he is there.

While at Boys State, the boy will be elected or appointed to some state office such as governor, lieutenant governor, attorney general, land commissioner, etc., and will assume those duties along with the corresponding state official. This is in conjunction with his social and athletic activities at Boys State.

Girl Scouts' Golden Anniversary

Special weeks saluting youth organizations of the nation have come thick and fast here of late, and by no means the least of these is this week's Girl Scouts' Golden Anniversary Week.

We've had Boy Scout Week, Future Farmers of America Week and 4-H Club Week, but we believe a very special salute is due the Girl Scouts of America on the celebration of the 50th anniversary of their organization.

Post, which has eight troops of Brownies and Girl Scouts comprising about 75 girls, is joining with hundreds of other communities throughout the nation in this week's observance.

Among other things, they have the annual Girl Scout cookie sale under way.

Looking backward, Juliette Low established the first troop of 12 girls on March 12, 1912, in Savannah, Ga. She brought from England the principles of Scouting as set forth by Lord Baden-Powell, founder of the Scouting movement, and adapted them to the needs of girls in the United States.

Since 1912, almost 18 1/2 million girls, women and men have belonged to the Girl Scouts. They carry on their program in every state in the Union, in its possessions and in 49 other countries where American families live.

The program itself has expanded and changed to keep pace with our changing times. The basic purpose of Girl Scouting, however, has remained the same. It is to inspire girls with the highest ideals of character, conduct, patriotism, and service that they may become happy and resourceful citizens.

Girl Scouting is open to all girls seven through 17 years of age, regardless of race, creed or nationality. They are united by the Girl Scout Promise in which each girl pledges: "On my honor, I will try to do my duty to God and my country; to help other people at all times; to obey the Girl Scout Laws."

The Girl Scout Laws require members to be trustworthy, loyal, useful, friendly, courteous, kind to animals, obedient, cheerful, thrifty and clean in thought, word and deed.

There is a single overall program of activities graded according to three age levels: Brownies, seven through nine years; Intermediate Scouts, 10 through 13 years; Senior Scouts, 14 through 17 years.

The Girl Scout program includes activities in 11 fields: arts and crafts, literature and dramatics, music and dancing, community life, international friendship, nature, out-of-doors, sports and games, agriculture, health and safety, and homemaking.

Brownies explore the world of nature, make bird feeding stations, learn to care for pets and collect pebbles, shells, leaves and other natural treasures. Like older Scouts, they serve others, especially at home, where they perform simple household tasks and learn to care for younger children.

Intermediate Girl Scouts earn badges for proficiency in the activities of their choice. These activities range from running a puppet show to studying modern radio and television operations to beekeeping.

In addition to earning badges, the girls carry out service projects in the community, such as assisting at the polls as aides to voters. They enjoy the out-of-doors in day camps, established camp and troop camping excursions.

Senior Girl Scouts—and Post has long prided itself on having one of the most active troops of this kind in the area—enjoy camping of a more advanced nature. Like all Girl Scouts, they give much of their time to serving others. Through their aide programs, they have the opportunity of exploring vocational possibilities, and they also participate in career conferences designed to aid them in the selection of their future life work.

Girl Scouting richly deserves the place it has taken high on the list of the nation's youth programs, and is deserving of the support of all adults, particularly those who find it possible to actively assist as adult leaders—of which there is always a need.—CD.

First taste of success

Announcement this week that the Farmers Machinery Corporation will start around the first of the month building a manufacturing plant in Post to produce farm machinery is good news indeed in this community.

William W. Young, president of the new concern who invented the four-row shredder, is to be congratulated for the development and perfection of his invention and for bringing the new plant to Post.

The payroll of course will be small at first, but as the firm grows, as it now appears it has the chance to grow, it will mean an ever increasing payroll.

Small industry is what a small community such as ours is best equipped to handle.

In seeking the development of industrial payrolls, towns are cautioned to help expand what they have and to encourage home area folks who have something to manufacture. It is these sources which are oftentimes overlooked.

Post, now beginning to organize its abilities and its energies to go after new industry, has its first success from a "home area man."

Mr. Young, the manager of the Close City Co-Op Gin, built his first machine some eight years ago in neighboring Tahoka. The years since have been spent perfecting it.

The first taste of success in "industry hunting" should spur us to even greater and more cooperative efforts. The future is bright for the towns that hustle.—JC.

Hats off to a new president

The Post school system along with Mrs. Mary Lee Wristen are to be congratulated upon her election Thursday as new president of District 13, Texas State Teachers Association, at the annual district teachers convention in Lubbock.

Mrs. Wristen, who has long been active in teachers' groups, including the Classroom Teachers Association, is a school teacher who is thoroughly dedicated to the profession.

She comes from a "teaching family," with her mother and two of her sisters having been members of the profession.

Mrs. Wristen has taught in the Post schools since the beginning of the 1954-55 term, and prior to that taught six years at the Graham community school, which was consolidated with the Post Independent School District in 1957.

Mrs. Wristen is loved and respected by her Junior High School students, as well as by her fellow teachers. Her elevation from vice president to president of District 13, TSTA, is a well-deserved honor.

The Dispatch hereby adds its congratulations to all the others that Mrs. Wristen will receive upon the new honor bestowed upon her.—CD.

What our contemporaries are saying

Last fall, The Printer was carrying a local Latin-American football player home after a workout. He was pretty upset because some other member of the team had had a word to say about his brogue. We told him, "Next time somebody makes fun of your broken English, why don't you tell him, 'Well, I can speak English a danged sight better than you can speak Spanish.'" And, the youth gleefully saw the light and replied, "I hadn't thought of that. Next time, I'll do that very thing." We need to encourage these Latin-American young people in every way we can to stay in school and get an education. If America is to survive, we've got to get along with other nationalities.—Frank Hill in The Lynn County News.

The happiest people are those who are too busy to notice whether they are or not.—Neal Estes in The Stanton Reporter.

Discussion is an exchange of knowledge... argument is an exchange of ignorance.—James Roberts in The Andrews County News.

I'm a little ashamed to send my papers to the editors on my exchange list this week. After bragging on the town, its citizens and their interest in our city, there appears a story on the front page of this week's Banner stating there is only one candidate coming up for voting this year. Some interest. Everyone sits back and raises Old Billy about what is going on because of the city council and the men on it, but when the chips are down there still isn't a doggone thing done about it. So if you people were dissatisfied with the council, you had a chance to do something about it and you were warned in plenty of time about the deadline for filing for election. Melvin McLaugh is the only new name appearing on the ballot this year, and my hat's off to Melvin. He had enough civic pride to file for alderman and offer his services for the thankless job of trying to satisfy the complaining citizens of Ralls. To you people who have screamed until you are beyond the point—Shud-dup! You had your chance.—Marvin Tomme in The Ralls Banner.

Most of my antipathy for chickens in general originated as a youth on the farm, when crowing roosters long before the first streak of dawn broke the chain of my dreams. They had no proof that the sun would not be delayed a couple of hours. Certainly there would be enough of the hot summer day without tearing part of the cool night away to patch it out.—Douglas Meador in Matador Tribune.

The difference between a statesman and a politician is that the first is working for the public while the second has the public working for him.—James Roberts in The Andrews County News.

THURSDAY to THURSDAY

By CHARLES DIDWAY

SATURDAY WAS a typical West Texas day for stock shows and track meets, of which there were a number held throughout the area on this blustery day that brought the season's worst duster.

I didn't attend any of the track meets, but I did go out to the 4-H and FFA annual spring project show, where the stiff west wind and blowing dust were rattling the 4-H building and harassing the livestock, their owners and the handful of spectators.

THE WEATHER conditions cut down on the size of the show, but that made it a little easier for picture-taking and tabulating the results. Since only two calves were shown, I was able to get them and their owners lined up for a picture in a hurry—with the help of County Agent Syd Conner and Floy Richardson. But it wasn't as easy to get a picture of FFA member Curtis Hudman and his champion barrow. Nothing that walks on four legs is more difficult than a hog to get settled down for a picture.

A small pile of grain on the ground held the attention of Curtis' Spotted Poland China for a moment, but by the time I had my camera ready to go, he was a tired of the grain and milling around again inside the show pen. Ike Trimble, Vocational Ag teacher, suggested a trough of water, but that, too, backfired when every other hog in the show decided they wanted a drink of water, too. Ike and Curtis finally got the other hogs slapped away from the water trough, and I got my picture.

WHICH REMINDS me that there is always another story, most of the time an amusing one, behind every picture you see in the paper.

The track meets, too, must have been dillies, with all that blowing dust. I doubt though if any of them were as bad as one at Hale Center a few years ago, in which the Antelopes participated. I heard about it first-hand from my No. 2 son, who was a member of the Post 440-yard relay team. He said the sand was so thick when they ran the relay, that he couldn't see his teammate bringing him the baton until he was right up to him and that then he had to look twice to make sure that he wasn't taking the handoff from the member of some other team. That might have been the reason Post didn't win the relay that day. The winners probably just took whatever was handed them whether they could see who was handing off or not. It doesn't pay to be too particular.

I'm looking forward to Friday afternoon's county Spelling Bee, which bad weather won't affect too much, since it is to be held in the district courtroom. Bee Chairman Dean A. Robinson reminds everyone that the public is cordially invited to attend the Bee.

CURRENTLY MAKING the rounds of Hawaii is the story of a new laundromat whose owner ordered the following spot announcement broadcast over several local radio stations: "Ladies who drive in and drop off their clothing will receive prompt attention."

The airplane pilot addressed his passengers over the intercom system to tell them he had lost his way. He explained that the radar was not working, his radio beam could not be picked up and that the compass was broken. "But," he added encouragingly, "you'll be glad to know we're making very good time."

MY FRIEND UP the street says that at last he has solved the problem of relatives coming and staying. He borrows money from the rich ones and lends it to the poor ones, and none of them ever come back.

A news item tells of Texas House and Senate candidates from the 28th Senatorial District meeting in Lubbock recently with funeral directors of the district for a political question-and-answer session. What do you suppose the candidates are up to? Getting pointers, perhaps, on how to plow under their opponents?

State Capital NEWS

By Vern Stanford

AUSTIN — Although the Texas Youth Council lost its fight for a legislative appropriation of $100,000 to add more officers to its Juvenile Parole System, it just won a battle for the benefit of orphans in state institutions.

Attorney General Will Wilson turned over the deed to a $200,000 Bell County ranch along with a check for $12,446 to Dr. James A. Turman, Youth Council director. Presentation represented the outcome of a four-year court battle. Heirs of the late Mrs. Parrie Haynes contested her passing the property to the state.

Dr. Turman said the orphans of Texas will receive all benefits from the 4,160-acre ranch on the Lampasas River. It will be used as a summer camp and activity center for orphan's homes. Youth Council will raise cattle, pigs and sheep there to help feed the thousands of children in its care.

SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE James A. Turman, candidate for lieutenant governor and former educator, expressed concern about the House Textbook committee, which he appointed.

Turman was shocked when he heard that a witness in an Amarillo textbook hearing alleged that Rep. Ronald Roberts of the committee was a "communist."

"I am afraid the committee members have been too nice and open about letting anyone appear to talk about any sort of censorship."

IN KEEPING WITH its claim that Texas leads the nation in highway building, the State Highway Commission issued orders to proceed with $18,000,000 worth of road building, planning and repairs throughout the state.

Biggest assignment was an okay to purchase right-of-way on three projects on Interstate Loop 635 in Dallas County at a cost of about $6,410,000. The Commission also authorized right-of-way on a 1.4 mile section of Interstate Highway 10 in Harris County for $2,500,000. Original estimate was only $600,000.

Other expensive items included: Purchase of $1,900,000 worth of right-of-way on US 90 in Bexar County; plans for development of US 290 out of Houston at a starting cost of $2,810,000; $797,000 to repair freeze damage in the Abilene district; a $650,000 right-of-way okay for a two-mile segment in San Antonio and $477,800 for relocation of US 59 around Wharton and El Campo.

Less costly projects are set for Fort Bend, Angelina, Brazoria, Gillespie, Hudspeth, Martin, El Paso and Nolan counties.

Judge Zolie Steakley of the Texas Supreme Court hosted a similar event in the governor's mansion while he was gone.

SEN. GEORGE Parkhouse of Dallas, chairman of the Texas Commission on State and Local Tax Policy, invited anyone interested in changing the sales tax structure to attend a public hearing on suggested changes in Dallas on March 30.

Parkhouse asked that anyone who wants to appear at the hearing advise the commission by sending a letter to Drawer C, Capitol Station, Austin, 11.

The commission was authorized to study proposed changes in the new sales tax during the recent special session of the legislature.

Members include Senators Jap S. Fuller of Port Arthur and Louis Crump of San Saba; Representatives Charles Ballman of Borger, Charles Sandahl Jr. of Austin and Charles Wilson of Trinity; Dr. John R. ELIGIBLE MEN 22 years old and older will make up the April army draft quota of 244, says Col. Morris S. Schwartz, state selective service director.

Number of inductees is up from March quota of 228. Schwartz said local quotas already have been sent to the 137 local boards in the state.

Exceptions to the 22-year-old rule will include volunteers and official delinquents.

Trustees vote not to renew 2 pacts; 4 teachers resign

The board of trustees of Post Independent School District accepted teacher resignations, voted against renewing the contracts of others and re-hired 57 others at a meeting Monday night.

The teacher election was the most important item on the agenda and took up most of the board's time, but in other action the board discussed high school building details with the architects, approved letters to delinquent taxpayers, and discussed the proposed new lock pens for the vocational agriculture department.

On the recommendation of Supt. T. Smith, the board voted not to renew the contracts of Bob Meisch, school band director, and Mrs. Minnie Styles, a teacher in Lincoln Elementary School.

The board heard and accepted letters of resignation from Richard Luter, head basketball coach; James W. Mallard Jr., teacher of English in Post High School; Mrs. Bingham, primary school teacher, and Robert Baker, teacher in Lincoln Elementary school.

The special meeting, which some board members contended was not a bona fide board meeting and which other members contended was, also resulted in the trustees meeting the previous Monday night.

night's session as a "kitchen cabinet" meeting.

Dr. Carter admitted going along at the meeting with the board's agreement to authorize the superintendent to talk to the "border line" cases and make recommendations, but that in the week he had had to think it over, he had changed his mind.

He pointed out that no minutes of the meeting were kept and that no motions were made.

Tornado siren system ordered

Post soon will have a new tornado warning siren system—and it's hoped it will be installed and ready before the spring "twister season" arrives.

The city and county each will pay 30 per cent of the total cost of $1,625 with the federal government paying the remaining 40 per cent.

The fire chief said the system will be located in the county courthouse yard and has maximum coverage for more than the entire city.

Kick-off meeting set for Tuesday

Post one of 8 pilot areas in disaster medical plans

Post is one of eight Texas communities chosen to participate as pilot areas in a national study of the Medical Self-Help Training Program, the Division of Defense and Disaster Relief of the Governor's Office announced today.

A kick-off meeting for the program here is to be held at 9:30 a. m. Tuesday in the Community Room, with civil defense representatives of the State Health Department in attendance.

Local physicians, Bob Poole, Garza County civil defense chairman, County Judge J. E. Parker and others have been working the last several weeks to gain designation for Post as one of the communities selected for the study.

The Post Rotary Club will spearhead a public educational program in connection with the study, with Dr. Harry A. Tubbs as chairman of the club's committee.

It has been announced that representatives of civic clubs, women's clubs and other organizations are invited to attend Tuesday morning's kick-off meeting.

The Medical Self-Help Training Program, sponsored by the Office of Civil Defense of the Department of Defense and the U. S. Health Department, is designed to provide the knowledge and to teach the skills whereby families will be able to take care of their own health needs, if necessary, in a national emergency.

The program is divided into 12 lessons to be taught in a 16-hour period.

While the course will include the standard techniques of first aid, it will be predicated on the assumption that no doctor is or will be available for an indefinite period of time in a national emergency.

Local physicians, as well as members of allied medical and professional groups, will serve as instructors for the course.

At the meeting here Tuesday morning, the program will be described in detail to civil defense directors and community leaders.

Driver sets new violation record

A wild auto chase through Post city streets and on out onto US-84 to the southeast Tuesday afternoon resulted in a record number of 11 traffic violations being filed against the driver in JP court here.

Ray D. Redman of Post, driver of the car, is in the county jail charged eight times with running stop signs, driving 75 miles an hour in a 30 mile an hour zone, having a loud and excessive muffler, and having no driver's license.

Deputy Sheriff Lloyd Merritt spotted Redman and tried to stop him on a Post street in mid-afternoon for questioning on a call which had been made to the sheriff's office.

Redman stepped on the gas. According to the deputy, Redman sped at a high rate of speed around through Post and finally out across the railroad on East Fifth and via the mill cutoff out onto US-84.

Merritt radioed to the state highway patrol who were farther south on US-84. They cut off Redman.

Redman recently was paroled from the state penitentiary.

Justice of the Peace D. C. Roberts said ten charges were the previous record against one individual in his busy court.

Jury deliberates three hours

$48,662 in damages are awarded Morris in suit

A Garza County district court jury returned a verdict of $48,662-45 in damages to Dillard C. Morris and his son, Jerry Morris, here last Thursday afternoon in their damage suit against Jeff Graham, doing business as the Jeff Graham Trucking Co., and Luther Bourns.

They had asked $65,600 for damages as a result of a highway accident Nov. 17, 1960, six miles northwest of Post on US-84 when a Graham Company truck driven by Bourns hit a tractor driven by Jerry Morris which was pulling a cotton trailer and boll puller.

The jury awarded $287.45 for medical, doctor and hospital bills incurred by Jerry's injuries, $2,500 for medical, doctor and hospital bills present and future, $42,500 for Jerry's injuries caused by the accident, $1,525 for damage to the tractor, $1,450 for damage to the boll puller, and $400 for damage to the cotton trailer.

The jury deliberated about three hours in reaching their decision.

Jury members were Ted L. Aten, Thurman Maddox, Lowell Scribner, T. B. Harmon, Ray Young, J. P. Ray, S. C. Human, Billy Greene, James M. Mason, Don Tatum, Wilbur Williams, and Glen Shelton.

Hospital to get new x-ray here

The Garza County commissioners court this week authorized the purchase of a General Electric x-ray machine for Garza Memorial Hospital at a cost of $13,350 plus the trade-in of present x-ray equipment.

Curl said shipment of the new machine is expected in about 30 days.

Minor urges 'at home start' on federal problems

James Minor, speaking before Post Rotarians Tuesday noon at City Hall, struck hard at today's "socialized America," "four national spending into bankruptcy," "the federal government's "brainwashing" of taxpayers, "and our governments "playing into Communist hands."

He recommended new election laws as part of the solution which would limit an office holder to two terms "from school board right on up to president of the United States."

Farm machinery factory to start operations here

Area man invents brand-new type of stalk shredder

William W. Young, Close City Co-op Gin manager, has invented and patented a new type four-row stalk shredder and announced the formation of a new corporation to manufacture the shredder and other farm machinery here in Post.

The new corporation is the Farmers Machinery Corporation, chartered by the state of Texas Feb. 27, with a capital stock of $200,000.

Young is president of the corporation. John A. Carter of Fort Worth, former Tahoka resident, is vice president of the corporation.

Young and Carter announced this week that the firm has purchased a factory site just west of the Butler Butane Company on the Tahoka highway from R. E. Josey and will begin construction of an office and a metal-type assembly line building about April 1.

Carter said the firm would employ from five to ten persons at the start and that the payroll would grow as the firm expanded.

Carter said the new four-row stalk shredder will be distributed nationwide through farm machinery firms.

Plans for the separate office and the assembly line building are now being drawn by an architect.

The new stalk shredder already has been shown in Mississippi, Arizona and California and has met with an enthusiastic reception, according to Carter.

He said it will be "competitively priced" with other shredders now on the market.

The major selling point of the new shredder, Carter said, is that "it requires only about one-fourth of the horsepower to pull of any other shredder on the market, including two row types."

Carter said the new shredder can be pulled by the smallest field tractor.

Young said he built his first model of the shredder in Tahoka in 1954 "because I needed it and couldn't buy one." Barrels were used as shields on the first model.

Several models have been built in the last eight years until the shredder was finally perfected last year.

The shredder has a gear-driven blade with approximately 1,750 revolutions per minute. It weighs only about 550 pounds. It can be adjusted for alternate rows, two rows, or even one-row usage.

The patent for the shredder was issued June 6, 1961.

Directors for the new corporation will be elected here at the corporation's first stockholders meeting within the next 90 days, Carter said.

He announced also that stock in the new corporation is now being sold local investors at $1 per share. Only a minor portion of the stock will be offered for sale in Post, he said.

Officers of the new firm will meet with the Post Chamber of Commerce directors this afternoon to explain their plans and to arrange for a meeting at which they can explain their proposal to all interested Post businessmen.

City absentee voting begins

Stage is set for April elections

Speculation last week at the time The Dispatch went to press that at least two more candidates might file failed to materialize.

The school board elections will be Saturday, April 7.

Another early April election will be Tuesday, April 3, when voters will choose from among six candidates for three places on the city council.

The candidates are incumbents Harold Lucas, C. R. Thaxton and W. S. Duckworth, and Walter Lee Johnson, Wesley Scott and Ed Sawyers.

Absentee voting for the city election started yesterday at the city hall and will continue until three days before the election.

Lions conclave plans are told

J. D. McAmes of Lamesa, the Lions district convention chairman, told Post Lions at Levi's Restaurant Tuesday night about plans for the May 4-5 district Lion convention at Lamesa.

Golfing and bowling contests are planned along with a Lions' queen contest in which Stanna Butler will represent the Post club.

Club members balloted for club president to take office June 1 with results to be announced at next week's meeting. Eddie Shaw was elected tailtwister for the next club year.

Shaw retained possession of the club's "attendance lamb" for another week as again all members were present or excused.

Charles Collins and Don Morris were introduced as new members.

Minor urges 'at home start' on federal problems

James Minor, speaking before Post Rotarians Tuesday noon at City Hall, struck hard at today's "socialized America," "four national spending into bankruptcy," "the federal government's "brainwashing" of taxpayers, "and our governments "playing into Communist hands."

He recommended new election laws as part of the solution which would limit an office holder to two terms "from school board right on up to president of the United States."
