Brucellosis tests near completion

Testing of Garza County cattle herds for brucellosis is continuing this week after being slowed a few days because of rainy weather. County Agent Syd Conner said the first of the week that 126 herds had been tested with an estimated 50 herds still to be checked. Results continue good, the county agent said, with only one reactor having been found in Garza County. There are approximately 4,000 cattle in the 126 herds that have been checked, Conner said. The testing lab force here expects to complete its work in Garza County by next week, after which it will move on to Jones County.

Rotarians praised for fine program

Floyd Stark of Seminole, Rotary district governor, praised the Post Rotary Club in a talk at the club's Tuesday luncheon in city hall for such a fine program planned for the 1962-63 club year. Stark addressed the club at the luncheon, pointing to the one object of Rotary—service above self. He emphasized that such service can come in four avenues—community service, vocational service, club service, and international service. Pointing to Rotary's amazing growth since its beginning in 1905, he said a new Rotary club is organized every 44 hours somewhere in the world. Stark met with club officers, directors, and committee chairmen at a club assembly Monday night in the former Postex Mill offices.

It's rodeo time again—Junior Rodeo time, that is, with the annual Southwestern Championship four-night event getting off to a rousing start last night. Have some fun—go redoing!

To wind up the column, we want to add The Dispatch's congratulations to the Farmer's Machinery Corporation and William Young for getting into production with his invention. He told us the Monday when we were out there for the story that there certainly are a lot of angles to setting up such a manufacturing operation. Headaches sure, said Young, but the enjoyment of working them all out adds so much. We would remind Post folks who are industry conscious that the success stories of a great number of manufacturing plants can be traced back to a small beginning in the hometown of the man with the idea. Good luck, William!

McLaughlin explained that the land was not needed for construction and the money to purchase it is now invested and drawing interest to the district at the rate of 3.06 per cent until Jan. 1. With the letting of all six construction contracts tonight, actual work is expected to get under way within a few weeks.

Rodeo gets credit for rain's return

The Junior Rodeo gets all the credit for the return of the wet weather which brought almost an additional half inch of moisture to Post yesterday afternoon and last night. This does not include the rain which began again about 8 a. m. today and was continuing through press time. First reports today were that the rain which began falling last night within 30 minutes of the completion of the first rodeo performance was rather general over the area.

Charge is filed after collision near Post

Jim Stewart of Lubbock was charged with driving on the wrong side of the road after his pickup collided yesterday morning with an automobile on U. S. Highway 81 about 11 miles northwest of Post. Ernest Schilling of Dublin was a driver of the automobile. Both vehicles were heavily damaged, according to Highway Patrolman Max Knox, who investigated the accident.

Stalk Cutter—

(Continued from Page 1) dustrial corporation officers emphasized. Steel and gear boxes for the new stalk cutter have already been received and a new shipment is awaited before moving into full production, Carter said. Young added that all possible components of the machine will be made here in the Post plant and all will be assembled here.

NORMA KNIFFEN DOZIER

Twirling course set Aug. 13-17

Norma Kniffen Dozier, former national Veterans of Foreign Wars, twirling champion, will conduct a week's intensive training course in baton twirling and strutting in Post Aug. 13-17.

Enrollment in all classes will be limited. Pre-registration will be conducted by Band Director Bruce Evans, Thursday, Aug. 9, from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. at the high school band hall.

Besides working with the Post High School majorettes, instruction will be offered in beginning, intermediate and advanced twirling for students of the second grade through high school. A special class for five and six-year-olds will be organized if the demand is sufficient.

Mrs. Dozier is a 1951 graduate of Hardin - Simmons University, where she attended school on a four-year scholarship awarded on her twirling ability. She served as the first featured twirler with the famous Cowboy Band. In this capacity she traveled and performed from coast to coast.

A native of Chicago, Ill., where she learned the art of twirling, she competed in the major twirling events before her college entrance and won many national honors. In 1947 she won the senior girls' national VFW championship in Cleveland, Ohio. She retained her title in competition in St. Louis, Mo., in 1948.

Upon graduation, she taught twirling schools and clinics in Texas, California, Indiana and Illinois. While enrolled in Hardin - Simmons, Mrs. Dozier taught summer school in Lubbock in 1951-52 and in Anson in 1952-53. Since that time, she has taught twirling, judged University Interscholastic League and National Baton Twirling Association contests, and has been a contest director. She resides in Anson with her husband, J. F. Dozier, vocational agriculture teacher, and their four children.

HENDERSON FANS 18 BATTERS IN LL NO-HIT GEM

Jim Henderson, 12-year-old grandson of Mrs. Winnie Henderson of Post, pitched a no-hit game for Roswell Lions-Hondo in the first round of play in the area Little League tournament at Hobbs, N. M.

Two "poor" pitches is all that deprived the youngster of a perfect game in his team's 4-0 win over the Carlsbad Short-horns.

Henderson fanned 18 men in his six innings on the mound. The Roswell newspaper, reporting the game, said the fielders playing with him might as well watched from the stands.

The fire-balling right hander allowed the bad pitches on full counts that walked two runners. Otherwise he hurled a pitching dream, throwing nothing but strikeout pitches.

The Lions-Hondo team is defending state champion in New Mexico.

Jim is the son of Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Henderson Sr.

Former Postite's team is winner

Louis Mills, formerly of Post, whose McCullar Cement team won the championship of the Pee Wee American League in Lubbock this season, has been selected to manage the league's all-star team.

Mills' team, after winning the championship in its league, defeated the Reeves Camera team in a two out of three games series for the championship of Lubbock's Southwest Pee Wee League, which is comprised of 12 teams.

Before moving to Lubbock three years ago, Mills coached the Levi's Ranch Cafe Indians here to two consecutive championships in the Post-Taboka Pony League.

Mills is a graduate of Post High School, where he participated in sports and later played independent baseball here.

It is 3,961 air miles from Berlin to New York City.

Little League's All Stars lose

The end of the playoff trail came for Post's Little League All-Stars at Slaton Sunday afternoon when they were defeated by the Western Little League All-Stars of Lubbock, 6 to 0, in the championship game of the district tournament.

The Post team had advanced to the finals by drubbing the North Lynn All-Stars, 13 to 2, Friday night.

Sunday's game marked the farthest a Post Little League team has ever advanced in the playoffs, and with a few breaks they might have won it.

Four home runs, which in any other park with a more distant outfield fence would have been easy

Relay team wins second in meet

Post's 440-yard relay team won second place in the intermediate division Saturday at the West Texas Junior Olympic Track and Field Meet in Odessa.

The Post sprinters ran second to Abilene, which annually has some of the best relay teams in Texas.

Members of the Post team were Luis Ayala, Ronald Simpson, Danny Pierce and Butch Cross. Ayala will be a freshman in Post High School this coming school year and the other three boys will be sophomores.

46-56 members are continuing project

Members of the Post 46-56 Club this week are well under way with their major project—selling advertising space on the 1962 Post Antelope football program.

The club, composed of athletic lettermen at Post High School from 1946 through 1956, voted at a recent meeting to sell advertising for the program and also to sell the programs at this season's football games.

Proceeds above expenses will be used by the club for the benefit of the high school athletic fund. One of the benefits now being planned is purchase of a washer and dryer for the athletic department.

THE OLD ADAGE

An old adage, indeed, that "all work and no play makes Jack a dull boy." The "kids" on the farm are models of youthful efficiency. But they go a-fishin' whenever they can.

The business men, the housewives, the schoolchildren — they need their fishin' too!

But there is another way in which the old adage is true: ALL WORKING and no PRAYING leaves man a dull soul!

The God who created us never intended us to be able to get along without Him.

Our hands may sow seed, but they can't make it grow. Our minds may work out problems, but they can't solve the world's chaos. All of our efficiency hasn't brought us lasting happiness or firm hope.

But when we turn to our Christian faith, and seek its power through regular worship in our Churches — then we find the things we need and want most!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

It's a good idea to give written consent for necessary medical care if your child leaves home for a visit or a camping trip, or if you plan to be away for any length of time.

For example, a summer camp nurse may bring a boy into a hospital with an acute case of appendicitis. But the doctor may well hesitate to go ahead and operate without the parent's consent.

Is the doctor arbitrary, and is such permission just a legal technicality? No, he is well within his rights, though he may give first aid—not only for emergency treatment where a child's health or life may be at stake. He is likely to put off follow-up care until he can reach the child's parents. A relative or baby sitter generally cannot grant consent for a child's treatment.

Even an adult must request treatment and grant consent to medical care on his own before a doctor can give it to him. Children cannot do this.

By going to your doctor you show your willingness and consent to accept his treatment. Your consent is assumed also when you ask for a house call by the doctor, or if as a result of an accident you come to a hospital for emergency treatment. If you are unconscious, the doctor may well give you emergency care, yet later he should get your consent to further treatment.

Minors cannot consent to medical treatment, and except in dire emergencies their parents or guardians must give it for them.

The consent should not be broadly or loosely phrased, but should be as specific as circumstances permit.

The principal reason for having the consent in writing is to avoid later misunderstandings. It is a protection both to the patient and physician.

Two not guilty pleas entered

Buster Brown entered a not guilty plea on the theft charge and his bond also was set at $500. He is accused of using another's credit card without permission.

Two others, Alvin Locker and Charles Foster, have been filed on in county court on charges of defrauding by worthless check.

ACCIDENT ON RAILROAD

The hither-bound train on the H. T. and B. R. ran off the track just this side of the Oyster Creek timber yesterday afternoon, tearing up several lengths of rails, but not materially injuring the cars. No person on board was hurt. The passenger car was not thrown from the track. A locomotive has gone down this morning to the assistance of the train. It may be expected back this evening.—THE TYLER REPORTER

FEDERALS NEAR CORPUS

We learn that about last Thursday the Federals came inside with a light draft schooner, carrying three guns, and landed on Shell Bank, between Corpus Christi and Aransas Bay. One account states that they threw up a battery there, and another that they took a battery already thrown up by our men. Be that as it may, they have a battery on the bank, that commands the line of communication with the boys and Aransas Pass. They then captured the Reindeer, and one or two other lighters loaded with cotton.

Mr. J. W. Jockush, who has just returned from the West, informs us that he learned that the Federals were making a demonstration on Corpus, and that it was the intention to surrender the town without resistance, should the demand be made.—THE AUSTIN INTELLIGENCER

Juvenile case is heard Wednesday

A juvenile court hearing for two 13-year-old boys who admitted stealing a motor scooter from the yard at the Bobby Pierce home here was held yesterday morning before Judge J. E. Parker.

A court decision following the hearing has been postponed for two weeks, Judge Parker said. In the meantime, one of the boys has been remanded to the custody of his mother and the other to the custody of a grandmother.

The judge, who was assisted in the hearing by the Garza County Juvenile Board, said that efforts will be made to have the two juveniles admitted to a boys' ranch. One of the boys was apprehended while riding the scooter by Highway Patrolman Henry Hardin and the other one was taken into custody later.

Participating statewide poultry organizations, Texas Poultry Improvement Association, Texas Turkey Federation and Texas Broiler and Egg Councils, will hold their annual meetings during the same period. Most woman's granddaughter is married July 28 in Kinder, La.

Connie Marie King and Roy Augustine were joined in matrimony, July 28, at 10 o'clock in the morning at St. Philip Catholic Church in Kinder, La. The double ring ceremony was held before an altar flanked by two white gladioli by the Rev. S. Robichaud, rector of the church.

The bride and groom entered the church together. The bride chose a white gown with a long cotton lace street-length train and a full skirt with double buttons. Her hat was of white silk organza interwoven with tulle. Her gloves were of white. She wore a string of pearls which were a gift of the groom and carried a white bouquet belonging to her great-aunt, the late Mrs. Irene Margaret Kosh of Lake Charles, La. She was wearing a matching dress of white with an embroidered collar and a white sash. Her hair was styled in a white pompadour.

Augustine served his best man. Reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.

Guests were greeted by Mrs. Nichols, Mrs. Don Windham and the honoree.

It's My Turn ...

—By MRS. C.

"You know, Mr. C", I said last Thursday night after the big rain, "I'd enjoy this feud I'm having with the city a lot more if I thought the city knew I was feuding with them."

I've decided I have suffered in silence long enough, so I will let the city in on my big secret.

The feud has come about because of our alley entrance. It is one unholy mess but I refuse to give it up as a lost cause.

Now this is where the feuding comes in. I take our hoe in hand and pull all the mud I can (depending on my mood) out into the street. I think to myself that this surely can't be very good on the paving, so someone from the city will come out and complain about me doing this. So far, no one in the city seems to mind so that's why I thought I would call it to their attention via this column.

Mr. C has had several conversations with the city on this little affair so I know that they have been forewarned that we aren't to be happy with the situation. He, Mr. C, stands amusedly by while I do the dirt work. He is a more law-abiding citizen than Mrs. C.

There is a hole about a foot and one-half deep just inside the alley entrance now, so I'm expecting the city dump truck to break an axle just trying to get in.

Our across-the-street neighbors really suffer more than we do from the appearance of the entrance. They just have to look out their front doors and there it is. I've even taken a survey from the appearance angle and it is one of the nastiest, if not the nastiest, alley entrances in town.

Well, on to more pleasant things. Only that's a mistake to say right here. We're minus two country correspondents as of next week and that's downright unpleasant. Mrs. Bill Long resigned from writing the Barnum Spring news some time ago and now we're losing Mrs. Vernon Scott out Pleasant Valley way.

We're hoping we'll have volunteers real soon from both communities to take over these highly important jobs. We have one subscriber that lives in California that is mighty complimentary about our country correspondents. Being from Grassland, he turns to Mrs. O. H. Hoover's news before reading anything else.

Anyone interested, just drop in and we'll explain. The main qualifications are a good telephone ear and being nosy but nice.

Our thanks to Mrs. Long and Mrs. Scott for being so faithful for so long. We'll miss them.

I don't suppose if I left my job the city would miss me.

The theme for the coming year will be: "Called, Confronted, and Compelled."

PUBLIC NOTICE Proposed CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NUMBER THREE ON THE BALLOT

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO BE VOTED ON AT AN ELECTION TO BE HELD ON NOVEMBER 6, 1962.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 22 proposing an amendment to Article IX of the Constitution of the State of Texas, by adding a new Section thereto to be known and described as Section 11, providing for the creation of hospital districts in Ochiltree, Castro, Hansford and Hopkins Counties, each district to be coextensive with the limits of such county, authorizing the levying and rates of taxes providing for the acquisition of land and properties for hospital uses, as well as the maintenance and operation of the same; and authorizing the issuance of tax bonds for the purpose of the purchase, construction, acquisition, repair or renovation of improvements; and further providing that any enabling Act shall not be invalid because of their anticipatory character.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. Article IX of the Constitution of the State of Texas is amended by adding thereto a new Section to read as follows:

"Section 11. The Legislature may by law authorize the creation of hospital districts in Ochiltree, Castro, Hansford and Hopkins Counties, each district to be coextensive with the limits of such county.

"If any such district is created, it may be authorized to levy a tax not to exceed Seventy-five Cents (75¢) on the One Hundred Dollar ($100) valuation of taxable property within the district; provided, however, no tax may be levied until approved by a majority vote of the participating resident qualified property-tax-paying voters who have duly rendered their property for taxation.

The maximum rate of tax may be changed at subsequent elections as long as obligations are not impaired, and not to exceed the maximum limit of Seventy-five Cents (75¢) per One Hundred Dollar ($100) valuation.

"If such tax is authorized, no political subdivision or municipality within or having the same boundaries as the district may levy a tax for medical or hospital care for needy individuals, nor shall they maintain or erect hospital facilities, but the district shall by resolution assume all such responsibilities and shall assume all of the liabilities and obligations (including bonds and warrants) of such subdivisions or municipalities or both. The maximum tax rate submitted shall be sufficient to discharge obligations, liabilities, and responsibilities, and to maintain and operate the hospital system, and the Legislature may authorize the district to issue tax bonds for the purpose of the purchase, construction, acquisition, repair or renovation of improvements and initially equipping the same, and such bonds shall be payable from said Seventy-five Cent (75¢) tax. The Legislature shall provide for transfer of title to properties to the district.

"Should the Legislature enact enabling laws in anticipation of this Article IX of the amendment, such Acts shall not be invalid because of their anticipatory character.

Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this state on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1962, at which election all ballots shall have printed thereon the following: "FOR the Amendment to Article IX of the Constitution permitting the creation of hospital districts in Ochiltree, Castro, Hansford and Hopkins Counties, each district to be coextensive with the limits of such county."

"AGAINST the Amendment to Article IX of the Constitution permitting the creation of hospital districts in Ochiltree, Castro, Hansford and Hopkins Counties, each district to be coextensive with the limits of such county."

Sec. 3. The Governor shall issue the necessary proclamation for said election and this Amendment shall be published in the manner and for the length of time required by the Constitution and laws of this state.

Guild presents Mrs. Lovell as August 'Artist of Month'

By JUANICE ROBINSON

The Post Art Guild, in association with the Texas Fine Arts Association, presents Mrs. Laverta Lovell as "Artist of the Month", exhibiting at Tom Power, Ford, all the month of August.

Mrs. Lovell was born in Snyder and lived there all her life on a farm until she moved to Post four years ago. She was married to Derl Lovell in Snyder in 1951 and now has two sons.

The artist has been interested in drawing and painting since early childhood. Her first painting was a landscape in oils which she painted in 1955. Since that time, Mrs. Lovell has sold paintings in Snyder and California. She was program chairman of the Post Art Guild for two years; taught art lessons, and held a number of work sessions for the guild in her home. Oils, pastels, charcoal and tempera are the media she prefers.

"I feel that if people would train themselves to find the beauty of life and learn to appreciate the finer things, there wouldn't be so much trouble in the world," said Mrs. Lovell as she expressed her philosophy about art.

School plant topnotch, complete

In another week the "Back to School" movement will be on full blast in Post with local merchants getting together for a big "Back to School" Howdy Days affair on Friday and Saturday.

As the youngsters and their parents prepare for the annual fall trek back to the classrooms, it is a good time for Post Independent School District patrons to assess the situation.

It is one which should make us all feel mighty proud.

The Post district school plant is topnotch and complete. The recent expansion program, completed last summer, has done the job. Post schools now lack nothing in the way of physical facilities.

From top to bottom our school plant is modern and up to date.

What's more, the school planners were far-sighted enough to build for tomorrow, not just for today, when the expansion plans of the last few years were carried through.

Post has the classroom to grow. No space shortage looms in the foreseeable future—and by the foreseeable future we mean a good many years.

Not only does Post have the physical educational facilities to do a good job, but the quality of local education has vastly improved over the last few years.

High school courses have been toughened up and our science and math programs, particularly, have been beefed up. The big jump from high school to college is no longer a dangerous chasm to the local high school graduate.

What's more your administration and district trustees are busy with plans for additional improvements. There is noticeable determination on everybody's part to continue to improve curriculum quality. There are several proposals in the offing.

Education rightfully can be said to be this community's most important "industry." And as another school year prepares to start, it is gratifying to see that its product semester by semester, and school year by school year, is improving.

Local educational opportunities are the best ever here — still going up. We as parents and school district patrons can help by showing our close interest and appreciation for all these efforts.—JC

New group of Antelope boosters

Post's 46-56 Club, composed of athletic letter-winners at Post High School from 1946 to 1956, may be the answer to the pressing problem of an effective Antelope booster organization.

Quarterback clubs and other organizations have been organized here the last few years only to "fritter" out—usually right at the time when they were needed most. The members of these organizations, who banded together in all good faith, are not entirely to be blamed for not carrying through with their goals. Lack of cooperation on the part of the general public and a lackadaisical attitude on the part of the coaching set-up of the last few years must come in for their share of the blame.

The 46-56 Club has shown its willingness to help boost the Post Antelope football team by taking on the project of selling advertising on the 1962 football program and then selling the programs at the games. All proceeds will be used by the club on Post High School athletic fund projects.

The general public is urged to help the members of the 46-56 Club in boosting the Post Antelope teams—not only the football team, but the basketball and track teams and any other athletic group competing in interscholastic sports. One trouble with Antelope booster groups in the past has been that they've boosted football and let the other programs rock along on their own momentum.

Former Antelope coach V. F. "Bing" Bingham, who is new head coach at Slaton High School, organized the Post 46-56 Club at a recent homecoming activity here. The fact that the club has stayed "pat" and still is very much "on the ball" is proof that Bing did a good organization job. Membership in the club is restricted, of course, to those who lettered in some sport at Post High School from 1946 through 1956. But that doesn't mean that those of us who do not qualify for membership can't help the organization boost the Post Antelopes to the hilt, not only during the upcoming school year, but for many years to come—we hope.—CD

The 14 proposed amendments

Appearing elsewhere in today's Post Dispatch is the full text of the 14 Constitutional Amendments to be voted on at the upcoming General Election Nov. 6.

The text of these proposed amendments will appear in The Dispatch four weeks, including this week. So that you may be fully informed, we urge that you read each proposed measure in its entirety, and study all of them carefully before you go to the polls to cast your vote.

It would be a good idea to clip and save copies of the amendments to review right before election time. True, they make for rather dry reading, but they will inform us fully on just what is proposed by each amendment.—CD

THURSDAY to THURSDAY

By CHARLES DIDWAY

HELPING BRING the new month of August in with a bang is the 15th annual Southwestern Championship Junior Rodeo that got under way Wednesday, the very first day of the month.

Other August events will include "Howdy Days" on the 10th and 11th, with a Back-to-School theme, and the opening of football practice on the 20th. Something else to look for during the month is that first bale of 1962 cotton.

THE MAN UP the street says he doesn't think people will get worked up over fall-out until it begins to interfere with TV reception.

The true cost of landing a man on the moon is estimated at 20 to 40 billion dollars. Just how we get the money or the man back has never been explained. A purely secondary matter.

JUST IN CASE it makes a difference to the average rodeo parade viewer, a local fan has filled us in on judging rules as set up by the National Association of Sheriff's Poses. The horse's grooming, conformation and behavior count 50 per cent. The rider's horsemanship counts 20 per cent. The general appearance of the riding group, such as uniformity of color of horses and arrangement in the parade, spacing and behavior of both men and horses, count another 20 per cent. The number of riders participating will count 10 per cent, with the club having the largest number counting the full 10 per cent.

Some teen-agers think that their family circle is composed of squares.

ONE OF OUR readers passes along a tip on a new government publication, priced at only 70 cents, which he feels that many will be eager to buy: "Radiation Patterns in the Lower Ionosphere and Fresnel Zones for Elevated Antennas Over a Spherical Earth."

Buying a 5-cent package of peanut butter crackers the other day, Robert W. Harrison of Houston chanced to read the wrapper while eating the crackers. He found that he ate:

- Peanut butter
 - Flour
 - Shortening
 - Sugar
 - Cheddar cheese
 - Malt
 - Soda
 - Spices
 - Coconut oil
 - Artificial color
 - Preservative
 - Butylated hydroxytoluene
 - Anisole
 - Propyl gallate
 - Citric acid in propylene glycol
- "Surely," Mr. H. says, "there must be an easier way to fix peanut butter and crackers."

THIS WEEKEND will be a good time to visit Camp Post if you haven't yet done so during this annual camp season for Boy Scouts. The Friday night ceremony, to which the Order of the Arrow Order.

There was more excitement here one night last week when the new fire and weather alarm stuck than there has been in a long time. Some folks got so excited, in fact, that their excitement turned to indignation.

THIS BELONGS perhaps, on the woman's page, but since I'm short on column material, I'll take a chance on our women readers seeing it here. It is the method of Lucille Daems of Brussels, Belgium, who has been voted the loveliest grandmother of 1962. A grandmother five times and great-grandmother twice. Mme. Daems won her first beauty accolade 50 years ago. And now, her method:

- Never stand when you can sit.
- Never sit when you can lie.
- Never stay awake when you can sleep.
- Never run when you can walk.
- Never walk when you can ride.
- Never swim when you can float.
- Never work when you can loaf.
- Never talk when you can be silent.
- Never say no when you can say

Q. Can an eligible U. S. veteran get medical care at Veterans Administration expense while he is temporarily living in a foreign country? If so, where would the treatment be given?

A. He might receive outpatient treatment of hospitalization at VA expense by applying at the nearest American embassy or consulate. The medical care might be from physicians of the foreign country or at the nearest United States overseas military hospital.

Q. My NSLI term insurance policy is becoming much more expensive because of periodic increases in premiums. I would like to convert to permanent plan insurance but cannot afford to convert the entire policy. Can I convert part of it and keep the rest as term insurance?

A. Yes. You may convert as little (but no less than) $1,000 at a time to a plan with fixed premium amounts in order to avoid the periodic increases of the term insurance.

Rodeo opening, parade squeezed between rains

Shower threats reduce size of crowd to 1,000

The first performance of the 15th annual Southwestern Championship Rodeo and the traditional parade were squeezed in between rains here yesterday afternoon and last night.

About 1,000 fans braved threatening skies to attend the opening rodeo performance, which was completed just before the rains started again. The showers forced the western dance inside—to the American Legion Hall—after it had been under way on the dance floor at the rodeo grounds.

Many of the some 170 contestants entered in the rodeo competed last night, with others scheduled for appearances tonight, tomorrow night and Saturday night.

The street parade, delayed about 15 minutes by rain, failed to live up to advance predictions, but was an interesting and colorful one nevertheless. Its principal shortcoming was the absence of riding groups. Here, too, the rain was blamed for some of the riding organizations scheduled to be here today.

Three out-of-town groups that did make it here for the parade were the Amarillo Air Force Band, Khiva Temple motorcycle from Lubbock and a color guard representing the armed forces recruiting services, also from Lubbock.

All those groups apparently made a big hit with the several hundred people lining Main Street for the parade. The band's rendition of "When the Saints Go Marching In" probably was the most stirring band music ever heard in a parade here.

Another feature of the parade was this year's rodeo queen, Carolyn Carlisle, accompanied by runners Sherry Bevers and Susie Schmidt.

First prize in the float division went to the Girls' Auxiliary of the First Baptist Church, second prize to Brown Bros. Et Al for its model of an operating oil rig, and third prize to Ruth's Beauty Bar.

The riding group trophy went to the colorful Aull's Rough Riders from Lubbock.

Receiving trophies as the most popular young cowboy and cowgirl of the parade were Nancy Harts and Butch Hubble. This year's rodeo is dedicated to the memory of the late Edd Dye, who for many years was one of the most dedicated adult workers in promoting the rodeo and helping it along. In an impressive ceremony following the grand entry at the rodeo arena, a riderless horse was led around the arena while the song, "Empty Saddles," was played at the sound truck furnished by Baldrige's Bakery.

Halfway through last night's rodeo performance, the weather-ry crowd was entertained by the Dust Bowl Quadrille of Lubbock. The 170 cowboys and cowgirls competing in this year's rodeo range in age from under 12 to 19, which is the age limit for American Junior Rodeo Association contestants. The youngest—and tiniest—contestant last night was Jennifer Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Riley Miller of Justiceburg.

Jennifer, who doesn't appear to be over four years old, competed in the barrel race and the pole bending. Her times in the two events didn't break any records, but she made a big hit with the crowd.

There is a total of 355 entries from among the approximately 170 contestants, according to Loyce Josey and Kelly Jo Myers of the rodeo office staff.

Results of the opening show were as follows:

Bareback Bronc Riding —Keith Streater, Hamilton, 161 points; Judge Sims, Lubbock, 159 points. (Only two of eight riders qualify.)

At Farmer's Machinery Corp. plant

First stalk cutter off the line here

The first four-row stalk shredder, invented and patented by William W. Young of Post, came off the production line of the Farmer's Machinery Corporation plant here last Thursday.

The new shredder—known as the "Original Young Rotary Stalk Cutter"—already has been demonstrated throughout this West Texas area with very satisfactory results, Young said.

The plant of the Farmer's Machinery Corporation is located on the west edge of Post on the Tahoka highway. The firm was incorporated last Feb. 17. Many local people are stockholders in the firm.

YOUNG who is president of the corporation, said his firm will be in full production in the next 30 days to six weeks.

At the same time production of the first unit was announced, John A. Carter, vice president in charge of sales, announced that the Shyties Implement Co. of Post will be the Post area distributor for the new farm implement. An announcement advertisement of the dealership appears on page 10 of today's Dispatch.

The Post Chamber of Commerce on page 3 of today's Dispatch has taken a quarter page ad to congratulate Post's newest industry on completion of its first stalk cutter.

Carter, who has just returned from an extensive sales trip into Iowa, Nebraska, Illinois, and up in Canada, reported to The Dispatch that a number of the stalk cutters already have been ordered. In the last three months, he has logged some 18,000 miles introducing and demonstrating the stalk cutter, including the entire Mississippi Valley region.

"There's not a machine on the American market which can touch it," he said. CARTER EXPLAINED that the new stalk cutter can be hooked up under the belly of the John Deere 30-10 and 40-10 model tractors and attached to the front power take-off, enabling a farmer to attach a disc harrow to the back of the tractor and shred and plow in a single operation.

He said the firm also will manufacture a six-row stalk cutter for the 40-10 model tractor. The four-row cutter can be used on either tractor model, he pointed out, via the front power takeoff.

Malcolm Young, son of William W. Young, is the plant engineer in charge of the plant's operations here and is credited by Carter "through his planning and hard work in perfecting and producing the first stalk cutter unit."

The firm now has six employees, including sales personnel, and will add to its payroll when the plant gets into full production. CARTER INVITED all those who want to see the new stalk cutter to visit the local plant and look it over. He said the firm wants to thank Powell Shyties for providing a John Deere tractor for demonstrations of the new farm implement.

"We also want to thank all those who have purchased stock or who by other means have helped us get into production," Young and Carter told The Dispatch.

All sales of the implement in this area will be handled through Shyties Implement Co., the new in-

Postings

By JIM CORNISH

It's a small world—and The Post Dispatch really gets around it.

Dr. E. E. Young recently received a letter from Ronnie Parker, former Church of Christ minister who is now in Denmark, to the Post Rotary Club of which Parker was a member while here.

"Two weeks ago I read in The Post Dispatch that the Rotary Club had made it possible for a Danish girl to be an exchange student in Post High School," Parker wrote in his letter dated July 21. "Will you accept this word of praise and appreciation for your support of such a fine program."

Parker disclosed that the Danish student, Susanne Krause, who is due to arrive here in Post later this month, lives in the same community as the Parkers—Lyngby, Denmark. "I called her by phone," wrote Parker. "We will visit in her home next Monday and June and I plan to have her visit in our home shortly."

"Needless to say, Susanne is anxious about coming to Post and looks forward to her year of school here. We know that she will love it because of the rich experience of attending school in Post and because of the very fine people who live there. The best people on earth are still to be found in West Texas."

"You Rotarians are all to be commended for the exchange project," Parker wrote in closing. "We look forward to seeing you ourselves before long since we plan

Loss runs into thousands of dollars

Early-morning fire roars through apartment house

Post's most disastrous fire in several months roared through the Baker Apartments at 115 North Broadway about 5 o'clock Monday morning, almost completely destroying the two-story wooden building that was one of the town's oldest residences.

Firemen, using all available equipment, fought the blaze for nearly three hours and then were called back twice during the day when flames broke out anew in smoldering upholstered furniture. Cause of the fire, which did most of its damage in the unoccupied upstairs part of the house, has not been determined. Fire Chief Robert Cato said yesterday.

Mrs. Roy J. Baker, who with her late husband purchased the apartments in 1947, has estimated the loss at "several thousand dollars."

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Ritter, who occupy the downstairs apartment, lost nearly everything they had in the blaze and in smoke and water damage, Mrs. Ritter said.

The alarm was turned in by Mrs. Ritter, who awoke to discover the fire.

Fire Chief Cato said that when firemen arrived the entire upstairs and the staircase connecting the two floors were engulfed by flames and that the fire had burned through the roof.

The unoccupied upstairs apartment was being refurbished, Mrs. Ritter said.

Firemen were called back to the scene of the fire about noon when the flames broke out in two smoldering divans, and again about 5:30 p. m. when one of the divans caught fire again.

The early-morning flames attracted a large number of early risers.

Mrs. Baker said today that she had not yet made any plans for rebuilding the apartment house.

Until new one is fixed

Old fire siren is ready to go again

Lightning is to blame for Post's civil defense alarm signal failing to work properly last Thursday night during a fire at Charlie's Liquor Store. Fire Chief Robert Cato said today.

The signal, with the contacts that operate it "shorted out" by lightning, sounded the customary fire alarm, then instead of automatically stopping—as it was supposed to do—switched over to the storm alert signal, then back to the fire alarm sound.

Scores of Post residents, after anxiously scanning the skies and seeing no signs of a storm, drove downtown from their homes to determine the cause of the "mixed-up" signals.

The fire chief said that a lightning bolt earlier in the week apparently shorted out the contacts, but that the system's trouble indicator had not shown anything out of order.

The lightning bolt believed to have struck the signal system was followed by one of the loudest claps of thunder ever heard here and, according to reports received at The Dispatch office last week, was heard throughout the city.

Adding to the confusion last Thursday night was the inability to reach Fireman Travis Thomas of Southwestern Public Service Company and have him disconnect the signal's operating apparatus. Thomas was at the liquor store blaze on the Clairemont Highway, and Cato said that traffic was so heavy that way "we just couldn't reach him."

Until the new civil defense warning system is repaired, the old fire siren will be used in case of fire, as well as in the case of a tornado.

6 WR contracts to be awarded

Contracts for the construction of the White River dam and water pipelines to the four member towns will be let tonight at a meeting of the White River Municipal Water District directors at Spur, following a commitment given Friday by the Texas Water Development Board in Austin for an additional loan of up to $450,000 to the district to cover all other necessary costs of construction.

The White River district had no difficulty securing the additional $450,000 commitment from the state board which already had loaned the district $4,000,000 to finance the project.

Marvin McLaughlin, Ralls banker who is chairman of the White River district's finance committee, told The Dispatch that the district under terms of the state commitment can take any amount up to $450,000 that is needed and has agreed to notify the state agency in January, 1964, of the exact amount of additional loan funds needed.

The added money will not be needed until completion of the project in the spring of that year. It will not draw interest until the actual funds are taken early in 1964. Interest rate on the additional loan money was not set. It will be determined by the going interest rate on the state's bonds at the time the money is taken.

The deadline passed at midnight last night for appeals of the recent condemnation award on some 1,900 acres of land the district secured from Mrs. Lee Walker's ranch in Crosby County for the actual damsite without Mrs. Walker appealing the verdict.

THERE WAS AN appeal filed, however, on behalf of those holding one half the minerals of the land secured by condemnation. The condemnation commission allowed $10 an acre for these minerals. McLaughlin said no action will be taken until after the first of the

The Post Lions Club's annual broom sale will be held here next Wednesday, Aug. 8.

Brooms and mops and many other such cleaning items, which will be sold, have been made by the Texas Blind at the Lighthouse for the Blind in Fort Worth. Dr. John E. Carter announced the sales truck will arrive at 8 a. m. and will be located throughout the sales day near the intersection of Main and Broadway.

Lions asked that local people needing such items make their purchases during next Wednesday's sale. All the money will go to good causes.

The local club retains 26 per cent of the gross sales for local club projects and the larger portion goes to help the Texas Blind. Prices of the more popular items in the sale will be found in a Lions ad on the sale on page 5.

Lions' governor addresses club

Lions District Governor Wayne D. Richardson of Wolforth told a ladies night crowd at the Post Lions' dinner meeting in Levi's Restaurant Tuesday night that today there are more than 650,480 members of the Lions International organization.

He explained there are over 16,407 Lions clubs in 117 nations and geographical locations in the world. "Every day more than two new clubs are organized somewhere in the world," Richardson said. "We have grown at the rate of more than 800 new clubs per year for the past seven years."

In Texas today, according to the district governor, there are over 37,000 Lion members in 15 districts of the state.

District 2T-2 of which the Post club is a part comprises a total of 57 clubs with a membership of over 2,600 Lions in 21 West Texas counties, Governor Richardson declared.

New bicycle to be 'Howdy Days' prize

What boy or girl wouldn't want to win the shiny new bicycle—"loaded with extras" as a car dealer would say—which will be the grand prize of Post's "Back to School" Howdy Days Friday and Saturday, Aug. 10 and 11?

Purchased locally and soon to be on display for a week downtown, the prize bike for a boy winner will be a Western Flyer 26 inch "Strato Flyer", which sparkles like a satellite in four-coat gleaming chrome.

It has jeweled ball-bearing pedals, nylon whitewall tires, a four-bar tubular steel frame, a chrome crash rail on saddle and safety-approved coaster brake. Its equipment includes headlights, taillight and horn. If a girl is the lucky winner of the big Howdy Days drawing, her prize will be a Western Flyer "Cosmic Flyer" with lavish chrome from tip to tail, stylish ball-bearing pedals, metallic sheen saddle top, crash rail on saddle, and imperial whitewalls. Equipment includes headlights, a rear view mirror, and handy saddle bags.

The bike will be given away at 6:30 p. m. Saturday, Aug. 11, in a drawing in the middle of Main Street downtown.

There is no obligation to get your chances on the grand prize. Just sign up in any or all of the stores of the 30 participating merchants during Howdy Days, Aug. 10 and 11. You do not even have to be present at the drawing to win. But the deluxe bike isn't the only prize attraction for shoppers during Howdy Days by any means.

Some 23 Post merchants will be offering attractive door prizes in their own stores. Each prize will be advertised in next week's Howdy Days edition of The Dispatch.

Again there is no obligation on anybody's part. To be eligible for the door prize of any merchant, all the shopper has to do is to sign up for the door prize drawing in that merchant's store anytime during the two-day Howdy Days.

Individual merchants will conduct their own store prize drawings Saturday afternoon, Aug. 11 and then put all sign up tickets into the Chamber of Commerce "wheel cage" for the grand prize drawing which is the big finale.
