Mrs. Sterling appreciates drying her clothes inside, out of the weather, and with Carla, age 2½, and the baby, Bliss, barely 8 months old, Mrs. Sterling really enjoys the time her electric clothes dryer saves her. Postex has new personnel head

James Poer is the new personnel director of the Postex Cotton Mills here.

He replaces Chant Lee, who resigned some months ago to return to his flower business when a suitable replacement could be secured.

Poer, who started at his new position Monday, comes to Post from Lubbock but is a former Tahoka resident.

He plans to move his wife and three children to Post from Lubbock in the near future.

Lee had served as personnel director at the mill for the last two years.

Tests continued on re-entry try

Shell Oil Company recovered 56.7 barrels of fresh water in two and one-half hours on a swabbing test of the Ellenburger in No. 1 K. Stoker, a re-entered former 8,450-foot failure one and one-half miles northeast of Post.

Tests continued through perforations at 8,016 to 8,124 feet. Location is on Section 71, Block 5, GH&H Survey.

It originally was drilled by Cities Service Petroleum Company and plugged Oct. 12, 1950. C. T. Robertson, Wichita Falls, recently filed application for a permit to re-enter the wildcat, which later was taken over by Shell.

West Texas' surprising "spring" even came complete yesterday with a light spring shower. It's a step in the right direction. West Texas right now could use some of that rain that those California folks are all excited about. Rain is so foreign to California that a good week's storm leaves them in an uproar. It would leave us delighted.

Post upset district champions, 40-33

Post basketball team won its biggest rally of the season last night to hand the Tahoka team its first district 3A championship, 40-33, on Tahoka's court. Post was the last one of four teams to play for the Post team, but

Tahoka, which had already won the district championship, will go into the bi-district playoffs against the District 4AA champion. The Post Antelopes closed out their season by losing to Tahoka, 34 to 37, but the Post "B" team eked out a 37 to 35 victory in its final game.

Trailing by four points, 26-22, going into the fourth quarter, the Does scored 18 points while holding the district champions to seven points to stage their upset victory.

Nita Wilson, who scored 27 points, hit five field goals and Janith Short sank five from the free throw line to spark the Does' fourth quarter surge.

Post played a delay game in the first half, but the hot-shooting Tahoka team hit eight field goals in eight attempts to trail by 18-17 at the half, after having been behind 7-6 at the end of the first quarter.

The Does opened it up in the third quarter and Tahoka went into the lead by scoring nine points to Post's four, but were not hitting as high a percentage of their shots as in the first half.

In addition to Wilson's 27 points, Short scored nine and Craig Gray for Post, with Vivian McWhirt also seeing action at forward. Loretta Short led the Tahoka scoring with 13 and Kay Halamicek hit 12.

The Doe guards did an excellent job in the Post victory with Janie Carradine grabbing off most of the rebounds and getting big help from Judy Clary, Marianne Jones and Cheryl Martin.

The victory brought the Does' season mark to 18 wins against 13 losses and their district record to two victories against four setbacks.

In the "A" boys' game, Dwayne Capps led the Post scoring with 13 points, and Ronald Simpson was high scorer in the "B" team's win with 12.

Fights at Fort Worth for state crown

Gary Welch Golden Gloves area heavyweight titlist

Gary Welch of Post and Texas Tech is the Amarillo region's heavyweight representative in the state Golden Gloves tournament, which opens tonight in Fort Worth.

The 22-year-old Welch, a Post High School graduate, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Welch. The following article on the Post boy appeared in last Thursday's Amarillo Daily News following the Golden Gloves tournament there:

"Whether Gary Welch, Amarillo's heavyweight representative in the state Golden Gloves tournament wins or loses, he has already compiled an admirable record.

"The amazing thing about Welch is that this is his first year to box in the Golden Gloves program. He'll be going into the Fort Worth ring with only the experience of five fights under his belt. He's won four and lost one. Jerry Reid of Levelland handed him his only set-

FRANCES GRAVES, HIGH-SCORING STANTON FORWARD, MADE A SET SHOT FROM ABOUT EIGHT FEET OUT FRIDAY NIGHT TO GIVE THE STANTON GIRLS A 43 TO 42 VICTORY OVER THE POST DOES, WHO HAD HELD SLIM LEADS MOST OF THE WAY THROUGHOUT THE SECOND HALF.

The Stanton star's field goal came with only about 14 seconds remaining, and the Does were unable to work the ball down court for a desperation shot after calling time out.

The Stanton cagers went home with a clean sweep of the three games, the Buffaloes downing the Antelopes, 59 to 46, and the Stanton "B" team boys defeating the Post "B" team, 42 to 30.

In the girls' game, Coach Van Kountz' Does held a 12-10 lead at the end of the first quarter, but the score was deadlocked at 22-all at halftime. The Does were ahead again by two points, 28-26, at the end of the third period.

Stanton cagers win three here

Post's Nita Wilson copped scoring honors with 28 points, one more than the total chalked up by Stanton's Graves. Janith Short scored seven points for the Does, Vivian McWhirt, four points, and Barbara Craig, three points.

The Post guards, who included Janie Carradine, Danella Bateman, Marianne Jones, Judy Clary and Cheryl Martin, did a good job of holding Graves and Stanton's most forwards in check throughout most of the hard-fought contest. At the other end of the court, the Stanton guards were doing equally well guarding Wilson and her forward teammates.

In the boys' game, Coach Richard Souter's Antelopes just couldn't get close enough to threaten an early Stanton lead which amounted to 16-10 at the end of the first quarter. The Antelopes' short-manned squad was hurt by the fouling out of three players, two of them starters.

Danny Pierce, with 16 points, led the Post scoring in the "B" team's loss. Other scorers for Post were Roger Anderson and Ronald Storie, four points each; Charlie Brown, three; Butch Cross, two, and Benny Owen, one.

Tid-bits about the Freshmen

Jackie Beavers is new secretary of the Freshman class. He replaces Carolyn Matsler, who was elected treasurer in Danny Pierce's place. Congratulations, Jackie, and welcome to the happy little group of Freshman class officers!

Ode to Upper Classmen: You can tell a Freshman by his silly, eager look; you can tell a Sophomore, cause he carries one less book; you can tell a Junior by his rushing air and such; you can tell a Senior, but, boy, you can't tell him much!

Couples seen around PHS: Becky Thompson and Danny Pierce, Mary Ann Stone and G. T. Mason, Pamela Stewart and Pat Cornell, Carolyn Matsler and Jackie Beavers, Benny Owen and Shirley Isaacs.

Becky, why are you grounded? Is it because you stayed out all day Sunday with Danny?

Why does Yvonne Moreland do her homemaking sewing in the principal's office?

How Ya Feelin'?
"This afternoon we shall take Mr. Frog apart and see what makes him croak," said Mr. May to his biology class. "I have a frog in my pocket to be used as a specimen."

He reached into his pocket and drew out a paper bag, the contents of which he emptied on the table. Out rolled a badly squashed ham sandwich.

Mr. May mopped his brow. "My goodness," he stammered, "I distinctly remember eating my lunch."

Essay contest for 'parent haters'

A fabulous new essay contest for parent haters is under way!

The name of the contest is "Why I Would Like to Send My Parents to Siberia."

Turn in your entries to any member of the paper staff or leave them with Mrs. Fleming.

The winner gets two one-way tickets to Siberia.

Some of the essays showing the most need will be published, and the contest winner will be announced in the paper.

the Church Family Robinson

Symbolic—
that's what I call this picture!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

The Robinsons don't go to my church — they belong to another.

But I'll tell you there are no finer people in our town than Cliff and Berta, and their kids, Polly and Joe. They're good neighbors . . . friends who'd stick by you in trouble . . . people with standards, ideals.

And other folks around town feel the same way about the Robinsons. Tradepeople say it's a pleasure to do business with them. Community leaders admire the way they pitch in and help.

So I say this picture is symbolic. For if we'd stop and figure WHAT MAKES FINE PEOPLE LIKE THE ROBINSONS . . . why this whole town would be in church next Sunday!

Jerry Thuet FHA Beau

52 attend annual FHA, FFA party

Thursday night, the Future Homemakers of America and Future Farmers of America party was held in the homemaking foods lab. Fifty-two students attended. The sponsors and other guests were: Mrs. Lee Davis, the guest speaker; Miss Collins, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander, Miss Sessums and her fiancé, Mike Stretch, and Miss Barnett and her fiancé, Mike Davis.

Say, can you imagine as many girls as there are in FHA keeping a secret? Well, it seems that Jerry Thuet was very surprised when he was presented with the gift and crowned FHA Beau.

Everyone had a real nice time playing games and eating. In fact, they had a ball in general!

Junior High reader gives book review

By Julie Clark

HEADS UP: By Patsy Gray.

This book deals with such people as Peggy Evans, who owned a horse named Chief, and Mr. Mac, owner of the Horse Stables.

This book tells of a little girl who works in the stables and has many hardships. Finally, some people take her in and treat her very nicely.

"Heads Up" is a very interesting book. The events could have happened. Some of the happenings are funny, while others are very sad. This book will give you something to think about. When through with the book, I felt very good. The characters sometimes didn't use very good English.

I think "Heads Up" is fine for

Who is this week's 'Mystery Teacher'?

By Danny Markham

When it comes to science, you cannot fool this week's "Mystery Teacher" in Post Junior High.

There was once an age like the Ice Age which has his name in it. He is dazzling in a white shirt and gray slacks. He drives School Bus 17 and is a careful driver. His favorite car is a gray 1958 Plymouth.

Who is he?

Final pictures made for 1962 Caprock

The last pictures were made for the annual Tuesday.

The pictures were for class favorites, who's who, Spanish king and queen, basketball sweethearts, senior superlatives, Mr. and Miss PHS, cheerleaders, golf team, scholastic awards, drum majors, Letterman's Club officers.

A "closet drama" is one to be read, and not to be acted.

Have You Heard??

Who got unanimously voted out of 6th period Typing 1 class, could it be none other than Harold Wayne Mason (Mr. Touchdown)?

Sharon Isaacs, Marianne Jones and Ann Pennington, when are you going to learn you can't start a car in reverse?

Sharon Isaacs got some Valentine candy, Melinda Newby, Lynda Taylor, Barbara Craig, Ann Pennington and Janith Short still haven't gotten any!

Janith Short and Sharon Isaacs sure can make up some good show titles—"Curse of the Boy"?

Larry Williams is going steady again but with a different girl, Barbara Hahn.

Saw a few corsages at the Valentine Dance, a very, very few... two I think. Hub, Sandra Stewart and Chris Cornish.

Seems like all the couples that don't enjoy dancing, all went to Lubbock Saturday night. Buddy Moreland and Judy Clary, Dwayne Capps and Janith Short, Royce Hart and Marianne Jones, Ronnie Henderson and Sharon Isaacs, and Jerry Thuet and Lynette Potts.

Mrs. Fleming has a new '58 Ford. Just pray that it remains in one piece.

Couples Seen Around: Chris Cornish and Larry Williams, Sharon Isaacs and Ronnie Henderson, Melinda Newby and Curtis Didway, Shearon Meisch and Jerry Ligon, Judy Clary and Buddy Moreland, Sandy Irons and Harold Mason, Sandra Stewart and Nuel Landreth, Lynda Taylor and Fuddy Cook.

Leatrice's boyfriend is finally home from Colorado! Hooray!

Ruthell Martin talked to Kenneth Martin for 25 minutes Saturday night from Fort Chaffee, Ark. Happy Valentine!

Hey, Delton Robinson, is one of your legs shorter than the other?

Who were those six Seniors seen in the office Friday? What were they doing? Just ask Lynda Taylor, Judy Clary, Melinda Newby, Wayne McFadin, Dean Johnston, and Nuel Landreth. Long water line, or was there some other reason you were all late?

Hey Sonny Gossett, what was that piece of paper the State Boys (alias the Fuzz) gave you Sunday night?

Melinda Newby and Lynda Taylor almost had to walk back from the Osage district when taking their Economic survey Monday, thanks to Lee Williams, Wayne Gamblin and Leslie Acker.

Ann Pennington has a new chewing gum disposal—it goes by the name of Lynda Taylor.

green. Everyone is beginning to get the summer time blues.

Soon school will be out and everyone will be glad to relax for awhile. The graduating senior class will scatter to all parts of the world never to be the close bunch of clowning kids again. They will go out into the world to take their place in life. The upcoming Juniors will then be the "big dogs" of the school.

All of this might seem to be rushing the time and season just a little bit but with weather like we have been having, it really makes a person feel that it isn't long.

Situation called 'unhealthy one'

"An unhealthy situation for the community" is the way one city councilman described the City of Post's law enforcement set-up at the city council's regular February meeting Monday night of last week.

That particular councilman was referring to the fact that the city council was taking no action at that time on hiring of a second city police officer to assist City Marshal Junior Shepherd.

In view of the fact that the city council placed enough importance early last month on the need of a second city police officer to hire a man who didn't last out the week before resigning, we're inclined to go along with the city councilman who spoke his mind at last week's meeting.

Added to that is the fact that the city council has even discussed a police force of as many as three police officers. It stands to reason that if they deem three officers as ultimately necessary, then surely as many as two officers are not out of line at this time.

Another thing that struck us as peculiar at last week's council meeting was the fact that 12 bona fide applications and perhaps as many more not so bona fide was not acted on by the council. Some of these applicants undoubtedly are good men. You can't expect them to wait forever to have their application acted on.

We'll go solidly along with the city council in wanting to hire the right man for the job. But, if they can't hire him from among some 24 applicants, what is it going to take?

If the City of Post needs two police officers, then another one should be hired—as early as possible. If, in the future, it takes as many as three, that many should be hired.

The only thing is, let's not keep "an unhealthy situation" going. It isn't good for any of us.—CD

No flying saucers, AF contends

The U. S. Air Force is still telling us folks here in Post, and elsewhere throughout the land, that we just aren't supposed to see any unidentified flying objects floating around or zooming through and that if we do, they are nothing more than balloons, airplanes, birds or searchlights.

In its 15th annual report on unidentified flying objects, the Air Force's "Project Blue Book," which investigated such things, stated these conclusions:

(1) To date, no unidentified flying object has given any indication of threat to the national security.

(2) There has been no evidence submitted to or discovered by the Air Force that unidentified sightings represented technological developments or principles beyond the range of our present day scientific knowledge.

(3) There has been nothing in the way of evidence or other data to indicate that these unidentified sightings were extra-terrestrial (from out of this world) vehicles under intelligent control.

In other words, no flying saucers. The Air Force report covered 488 UFO sightings reported in 1961. Five cases are still pending and 10 remain unidentified. The rest were identified as 175 stars and planets, 55 airplanes, 33 balloons, 55 satellites, 99 insufficient data, and 56 "other," which included birds, searchlights, fireworks displays, kites, and similar easily explained phenomena.

Okay. We'll go along with the Air Force on the UFO's on which they have "sufficient data." But, how about the 99 on which they themselves admit they have "insufficient data?"

We're not carrying the banner for flying saucers. Like the proverbial purple cow, we hope we never see one. But, neither are we taking as firm a stand as the Air Force against those people who say they have seen one—or some sort of UFO. At least, we're not until the Air Force clears up those 99 cases on which there is insufficient data.

It all boils down to this: If some UFO alights in your front yard some night and some inhuman looking creature alights and asks you to take him to your leader, just rear back and tell him the U. S. Air Force says he doesn't even exist. If he argues about it, tell him to take it up with the Air Force—or with Jack Paar.—CD

Old question crops up again

Sports page news of Friday morning that seven freshmen and a varsity tackle at Texas Tech had flunked out, brings up again the oft-repeated question, "Do athletics and scholarship mix?"

The answer, of course, is that they do, but the question is always a good one, particularly when you read about outstanding athletes who made all-state in high school flunking out after they get in college. It makes one wonder if all high schools are adequately preparing their top athletes for college, or if some of them are placing more importance on winning district, regional and even state championships.

Two of the boys who were scholastic victims at Tech, Marcel Dorethy of Denver City and Jerry Polson of Stanton, are well known to local sports fans since their teams were in the same Interscholastic League district as Post. Dorethy helped lead the Denver City eleven to its first state championship and both he and Polson, the big Stanton lineman, were considered prize "catches" by the Tech coaching staff.

These two boys are just two of the seven freshmen gridders who have flunked out and thereby considerably lowered the prospects of what was considered by many as the best flock of Red Raider freshmen in years. There is no doubt that both were outstanding athletes in high school, but were they being adequately prepared for college while they were helping win laurels for their schools on the gridiron?

One of the two area boys—the Denver City griddler—has re-enrolled in Tech. We hope he makes it scholastically and lives up to expectations athletically. There is no argument, of course, that without one there should not be the other.—CD

Congratulations, poll tax payers!

The more than 1,500 Garza County citizens who purchased poll taxes before the Jan. 31 deadline and thereby became eligible to vote in this year's elections are to be congratulated.

The question might be asked, perhaps, "Why should they be congratulated for buying poll taxes. Isn't voting in our country's free elections a privilege; a constitutional right; a luxury?"

The answer is that it is true that voting is a privilege and a luxury in this country, but what some folks seem to forget is that voting is not only a right, but is also a serious responsibility. The people who vote in this year's elections are going to help keep the sands of the various "isms," including Communism, from fouling our wells of freedom. That is why The Dispatch feels that those who paid their poll taxes are to be commended, providing they exercise the privilege they have acquired and vote in the 1962 elections.

On the other hand, those who failed to qualify to vote have no valid right to complain about the actions of the various elected officials, nor of the collective efforts of our nation's leaders.—CD

What our contemporaries are saying

Most candidates used to wait until Wednesdays to make their political intentions known. Some now jump the gun and wait until the deadline for weeklies is past before announcing their candidacies on weekends. We resent this type announcement. Texans resent it. Weekly newspapers never collected a thin dime to make announcements for candidates on a statewide level. Now some candidates pay more than $10,000 to get on TV. Well, we have news for some of the weekend candidates—and this story illustrates the point. At a community-sponsored revival held in Hunt County a number of years ago one of the church leaders objected to music and one evening when he was called upon to offer prayer he remarked: "You have let your organ do your singing—now let your organ do your praying."

That's our position and we intend to make the part of the Western plains we circulate in ring with an editorial in denunciation of the weekend politicians.—Neal Estes in The Stanton Reporter.

The modern home is run by switches. There's a switch for everything but the children.—The Hamilton Herald-News.

In a January magazine article, I noticed that well known journalist Harry Golden is in favor of the new project to build fall-out shelters in church basements. Golden says our emergency slogan will be: "Go to the church of your choice—as fast as you can."—Pat Bennett in The Crosbyton Review.

Middle-age is that difficult time between juvenile delinquency and senior citizenship when you have to take care of yourself.—James Roberts in The Andrews County News.

With most people worrying about their income tax about this time, it might be a good time to mail your congressman and senators a letter the same time you mail your check to the Internal Revenue, asking that the government stop spending more money than they have.—Bob Craig in The Hamlin Herald.

Sometime ago, I read where the "animal husbandry expert" from the Agricultural Department discovered that pigs have ulcers. The report said this is the first time this ailment has shown up in pigs, and that it's getting worse. It is now listed officially as a farm problem. Eddie Carr theorized that pigs, like humans, are suffering from world tension. If Eddie is right, there isn't much the folks in the Agricultural Department can do about it. So far they haven't been able to get rid of the tension in the Farm Program, much less in the world.—James Hill in The Knox County Herald.

THURSDAY THURSDAY

By CHARLES DIDWAY

THE REASON the bank was closed Monday was that it was Abraham Lincoln's birthday. The bank isn't making things easier for busy people by just hanging a sign on its door saying, "Bank will be closed Monday because of legal holiday." My high school history teacher probably would do a flip-flop—wherever she is, bless her—if she knew this, but I had to come back over to the office from the bank and look at a calendar before learning that it was Honest Abe's birthday coming up. Not that I didn't know that Lincoln's birthday was on Feb. 12, but I'd forgotten it was that time of the month.

That's how confused you can get nowadays without even half trying.

FOLKS AT THE bank, of course, aren't going to make things easier for busy people by identifying holidays on door signs until people who think they're busy start making things easier for the folks at the bank. It's a sort of a round-robin deal.

I checked on it so I wouldn't get all mixed up again and learned that there will be another bank holiday next Thursday, Feb. 22, which is—guess who's—George Washington's birthday.

I ALSO LEARNED by checking this week's Happy Birthday column, which appears on another page, that George Washington isn't the only one whose birthday is on Feb. 22. No less than 15 Post people, or former Post people, also have a birthday on the 22nd. I didn't have time to go through the entire birthday book, but I doubt if any other day of the year lists as many local birthdays.

Adding to my confusion was the fact that the wife left Friday for Dallas to help out with our new granddaughter, Lisa Diane Feris. Our No. 2 son was home from college, for the weekend, but after he went back Sunday afternoon, it got mighty lonesome around the home place. In fact, if it hadn't been for our two tom cats, Blondie and Blackie—also known as Huntley and Brinkley—I think the place would have gotten too lonesome to stay around.

WE DON'T USUALLY print dirty stories in The Dispatch. But here's one I heard the other day. A survey shows there are more TV sets than bathtubs in the United States.

The man up the street says it's a good idea to always put off until tomorrow what you shouldn't do at all.

THE STATE RACE for Congressman-at-Large is creating considerable interest in the early stages of the campaign, with the field of candidates already getting crowded. The first candidate for the office to visit Post was Giles Miller of Dallas, who is running as a Republican. Miller was here Friday with Tom Shaw of Amarillo, who is directing the Dallas candidate's advertising campaign. Miller, who is related to Giles C. McCrary, spent a half an hour visiting his Post relative. Miller's mother is the former Esther Connell, daughter of the late Giles H. Connell, Texas cattleman, who was a grandson of Sampson Connell, veteran of the Battle of San Jacinto and the Texas Revolution.

Ordinarily, I don't devote that much space to a Republican candidate in this column.

A NUMBER OF Post baseball fans already are talking up the fact that Texas will have its first major league baseball team this season in the Houston Colts of the National League. Texas being as big as it is, Houston's still a "fur piece" from Post, but it'll be the closest we've ever been to major league baseball, and there no doubt will be a number of Post fans at some of this season's Houston games. And, if the Colts should win the pennant, we'd have some World's Series games in our own backyard—comparatively speaking. There'd be the matter of train fare, of course, but to see a day game in Houston, a fan could get on the 8-15 p. m. passenger train here, sleep most of the night, get in Houston a little after 6 a. m., see the ball game and leave Houston early that night on a train that would get him here before 7 a. m.

Short and Sweet: The latest census figures show the age of our average farmer is 50. . . . The so-called free lunch program for school children, according to Agriculture Department figures, costs $1 billion a year. . . . Our weekly "originality" award goes to the Philadelphia furniture store for its slogan: "Feather your nest with a little down." . . . An estimated 12,253,000 U. S. wives hold jobs.

Dr. Sam G. Dunn, Lubbock, completed three wells in the Sims (Glorieta) pool that extended production three-fourths of a mile north and east in the north Garza County field, six miles east of Southland.

All three wells are in Section 23, Block D-19, D&SE Survey.

The No. 1 Rains, 330 feet from south and 400 feet from west lines of Section 23, potential pumping for 16.2 barrels of 32.2 gravity oil plus 20 per cent water. Unreported perforations were acidized with 500 gallons. Total depth is 3,706 feet with 4 1/2-inch casing set at the bottom.

The No. 2-A Rains, 330 feet from south and 1,100 feet from west lines of Section 23, pumped 18.9 barrels of 32 gravity oil plus 25 per cent water from unreported interval, which was acidized with 500 gallons on potential test bottomed at 3,693 feet, with 4 1/2-inch casing set on the bottom.

The No. 2 Rains, 330 feet from south and 1,390 feet from east lines of Section 23, was completed pumping from hole section 3,694-98 feet, after acidizing with 500 gallons, for 17.55 barrels of 32 gravity oil plus 25 per cent water. Casing of 4 1/2-inch was set at 3,694 feet in a 3,698-foot hole.

Eight miles east of Post, Union

Texas Natural Gas Corp., Midland, will re-enter the No. 9 Connell Estate on the edge of the Ariene (San Andres Glorieta) field and deepen to 3,770 feet to test the Clear Fork as a wildcat.

It was originally dug to 3,250 feet and is depleted. Location is 1,240 feet from south and 1,750 feet from west lines of Section 65, Block 5, H&N Survey.

Mallard Petroleum, Inc., Midland, has staked location for a wildcat, No. 1 Griffiths, seven miles north of Fluvanna on a 160-acre lease in the southern part of the county. Total projected depth is 8,161 feet.

Location is 330 feet from south and east lines of Section 16, Block 6, H&GN Survey, and one and one-half miles north of the Fluvanna field.

Shopping is a lot more convenient, more pleasant, if you have a good credit record. If you have the reputation of paying your bills promptly, all you have to say is "Charge It."

Retail Merchants Association here in Post does not make your credit record. It merely makes it for the use of all the merchants. Guard your credit as a sacred trust.

If you buy more than you can pay for any month, you'll agree a minimum service charge is fair for the extra bookkeeping and postage necessary by the merchant.

ANNOUNCING A Monthly Service Charge On All PAST DUE Accounts

This is the Ford Fairlane's new Challenger "260" V-8.

There's no other V-8 like it. It's the latest in a series of Ford V-8 triumphs that started back in 1932 when Ford introduced the world's first popular-priced V-8. Today—30 years and 30 million V-8's later—the Challenger "260" adds new fuel to the hottest performance record in V-8 history. It gives you all the time-tested toughness of iron—with a lightness and compactness iron never had before. A muscular 164 hp, this new Challenger "260" V-8 is all snap, sparkle and smoothness. It runs on regular, yet gives you better gas mileage than any standard-size 6-cylinder car. Price it and you're in for a surprise—a Fairlane V-8 carries a smaller price tag than some compact Sixes. And, of course, a Fairlane gives you big-car room and fine-car quality you'll find in no other car anywhere near Fairlane's amazing low price. There's never been a buy like Fairlane because there's never been a car like Fairlane; that's why this all-new car from Ford is now out-selling every other "new-size" car!

Burglars hit 5 places
Post and Southland

Local taverns, the Post Lanes and the Southland were burglarized last night with the pay telephones at each of the taverns and the Post Lanes taken.

Five men were charged in county court during the past week for driving while intoxicated and two others pleaded guilty to charges of carrying a pistol.

Herman Knox and Melvin Johnson Jr., pleaded guilty Monday before Judge J. E. Parker to carrying pistols. Each was fined $100 and costs.

Antonio Espetia pleaded guilty Monday before Judge Parker to a DWI charge and was fined $50 and costs, sentenced to three days in jail and had his driver's license suspended for six months.

Manuel Espoza pleaded guilty to the same charge Saturday and drew the same fine and sentence. Also charged with DWI were O. L. (Jack) Worthen, Feb. 13, with bond set at $500; Fred Jean Deatherage, Feb. 12, bond set at $500; and Charles King, Feb. 10, pleaded not guilty, bond set at $500.

J. D. Williams pleaded guilty Saturday to a charge of unlawfully transporting beer and was fined $100 and costs by Judge Parker.

Board changes policy on administrator contracts

The board of trustees of Post Independent School District Monday night adopted a new policy on principals' and superintendent's contracts, voting unanimously to reduce them from two and three years, respectively, to one and two years.

In other action the board: (1) Approved the recommendation of Supt. R. T. Smith that Miss Sandra Feather be elected as a primary teacher.

(2) Voted not to pay Atcheson, Atkinson & Cartwright, architects on the new high school building $184.00 due them until building faults are corrected.

(3) Accepted final title clearance procedures on sale of the Garnolia school land.

(4) Decided to take action toward the collection of $40,000 in delinquent taxes owed the school district.

(5) Voted to approve the proposed TB skin-testing program in the Post schools.

(6) Approved Supt. Smith's recommendations for appointment of a textbook committee.

(7) Agreed to accept the City of Post's offer to use newly-acquired city land for location of Vocational Agricultural facilities.

In adopting the new contract policies for principals and the superintendent, the trustees explained that they were not being critical of the administrators' work, but simply were changing the policy because they felt it to be in the best interest of the schools.

What it amounted to was that the principals of the four Post schools did not get an extension of contract, as would have been the case under the previous policy, but have only the remaining year of their two-year contract to go on.

The board agreed with Supt. Smith that all principals are "doing an excellent job" and emphasized that the change in contract procedure amounts to no more than a change in board policy.

The change was made over the verbal objection of the superintendent, who told the board he'd rather his contract would be cut a year than to see his principals' contract time cut.

"As long as they're doing a good job, they have nothing to fear from a one-year contract," said board member Russell Wilks Jr.

The trustees authorized Smith to have school tax assessor-collector Ira (Dad) Greenfield write letters to property owners in the matter of delinquent taxes. They indicated, in their discussion, that stiffer measures might be taken, if necessary, in the matter of delinquent taxes.

The board voted to approve the TB skin-testing program in the Post schools, providing the program meets the approval of all local physicians, which board member Dr. John E. Carter assured them it did.

The school election called by the board is to be held the first Saturday in April. Trustees whose terms are expiring are Quannah Maxey and J. E. Birdwell.

The textbook committee appointed by the board on Supt. Smith's recommendation is composed of Wilbert Bigott, Mrs. Minnie Williams, George M. Willson, Glenn Whittenberg, Herman F. Raphael, Mrs. Betty Yancey, A. T. Nixon, Glynn Gregg, William St. John, John May, Kerwin Baxter and Harold Teal.

The trustees accepted, and expressed their appreciation of, the City of Post's offer to let them use any part of more than five acres of land recently purchased by the city for Future Farmers of American stock pens.

The site offered by the city was purchased for possible future expansion of the city dump grounds, but will not be used for that purpose in the near future. The site adjoins the city limits on the north.

Two road tax changes made

The Garza County commissioners court this week discontinued Precinct No. 4's road tax of 45 cents per $100 valuation and cut Precinct No. 2's road tax from 60 cents to 50 cents.

Both are effective for the 1962 tax year.

The court then voted to maintain all other county levies at their 1961 levels.

The Precinct 4 tax was voted out of existence as all road bonds for that precinct have been retired.

The second precinct's levy was reduced because of the increase in values in the precinct has brought in more funds than necessary at the 60-cent rate to retire the bonds as they come due.

The court at its February session also reappointed all judges and assistant judges for regular and special elections for 1962 with the exception of two assistant judges for the absentee box. They will be Mrs. O. L. Weakley and Mrs. A. B. Carter.

In another action, the court authorized the allowing of $30 per month to Mrs. Lola Roach for indigent care.

Funeral for former Garnolia resident

W. D. Fleming of Mangum, Okla., a former resident of the Garnolia community, died last Friday. He was the father of Guy Fleming of Post.

Mr. Fleming was a resident of the Garnolia community, west of Post, for 32 years.

He is also survived by four other children and one stepson. They are Mrs. Tiny Daugherty of Grandfield, Okla., Carl Fleming of Grandfield, Homer Fleming of Mangum, Lawrence Fleming of Idalou and Narb Zimmerman of Burkburnett.

Among those attending the funeral were Mrs. G. E. Fleming, Mrs. Dan Yandell, James Fleming, Joanne and Dana Sue of Odessa.

BAD SITUATION ON FIRE CALLS

Fire truck chasers aren't the only ones who hinder firemen. Radio dispatchers said today that unauthorized persons calling the police station to ask, "Where's the fire?" are slowing down operations.

These callers, the dispatchers said, have been using the special code telephone number assigned to volunteer firemen. When this happens, the volunteer firemen can't get their calls through to get the location of a fire.

"The phone line just won't take care of that many calls," is the word from the dispatchers. They urge that no one except the firemen call in to find out "where's the fire?"

Jail break points up lock-up problems here

Fay Claborn had his jail break this week—the principal finding Tony Gomez Jr., 40, out of the courthouse's floor jail early yesterday with outside help.

Today are holding a lock-up under 16 who has admitted driving Gomez out of Sheriff Claborn said he charge the youth today both in Gomez' escape and in the sheriff's office.

Claborn, who had been in the state jail twice, is 25, from Post, and was being held on a forgery charge.

The jail break, second in the last 40 nights, was discovered by Sheriff Claborn at 3 a. m. when he was "tipped" to the break by a phone call.

Upon arrival at the jail, he found Gomez gone, but the seven other prisoners waiting patiently for someone to come and lock them up again.

THE SHERIFF ESTIMATED the break occurred about 2:30 a. m. A search by the sheriff's force and the state highway patrol failed to find Gomez.

Claborn said an accomplice of Gomez broke into the sheriff's office by breaking the glass out of the door, getting the jail keys, and passing them up to the second floor jail via a torn-up blanket Gomez had used to make a rope for this purpose.

What Sheriff Claborn couldn't figure out was why the accomplice didn't go up the stairs and unlock the jail himself—but he didn't.

The last jail break here occurred last Christmas eve, but the escapees were rounded up within a few hours.

BUT THE JAIL BREAK WASN'T the only jail problem this week. Bur Powell, 44-year-old Snyder man, who was being held in the auxiliary jail on the courthouse parking lot, suffered a heart attack Monday night and luckily Sheriff Claborn was on hand to call a physician and have the prisoner rushed to the hospital here.

Powell was being held on a pair of traffic violations. Claborn said he had returned to the jail office to get his gun after supper Monday night between 8 and 9 p. m. prior to starting a night patrol when Powell's brother-in-law rushed into his office to report that Powell had just suffered a heart attack.

If the heart attack had come when the jail was unattended, as both are through the night, Powell possibly could have died.

The county doesn't employ a night jailer. Sheriff officers "look in" on things ever so often.

A THIRD JAIL problem this past week were "overcrowded conditions."

Some 21 prisoners were in jail Saturday morning and 19 or 20 were crowded in Sunday morning.

"We aren't equipped to handle that many," Sheriff Claborn said. A small jail item also was noted on the county commissioners' court monthly meeting agenda this week. The court unanimously authorized the sheriff to have the leaky shower in the jail fixed.

Credit is both a lifeblood and a problem to almost every retail business, although a very few are conducted on a strictly cash and carry basis. Good credit is the lifeblood and poor credit is the problem. They are very opposite sides of the same coin.

Here in Post for the first time in many years, merchants are taking a good collective look at their credit problems through the Retail Merchants Association which has a membership of some 29 local firms.

A series of weekly credit luncheons each Thursday was inaugurated three weeks ago and are proving highly successful. The merchants are working together on the credit problem.

From these luncheons has come one effort which makes its bow today on page 3—the first of a series of credit advertisements aimed at helping educate their customers on the importance of good credit.

As a result of action taken at last Thursday's luncheon, some 23 of the members are announcing in the same ad that beginning March 1 past due accounts will become subject to a monthly service charge.

Most department stores have installed such service charges long ago. Some local stores have been following the practice for months.

Healthy credit is what makes communities grow and business thrive. Unhealthy credit undermines your merchants and your Main street. If local merchants can work together and promote a healthy credit situation for this area, it will make for a more stable area economy.

Over on page 9, you'll find an announcement from Business Men's Assurance Co. of America which honors a former Post young business man, Dowe H. Mayfield. Dowe (See POSTINGS, page 8)

11 repeaters at Post High School

Twenty-nine students, including 13 freshmen, have been named as 1961-62 academic award winners at Post High School and will receive academic letter sweaters.

The 29 students are the second group named since the program was instituted here in the summer of 1960 by the Post School Board.

The awards go to the top 10 per cent of the high school student body of 290 students.

The student's grades for the last semester of the previous school year and the first semester of this one are used in determining the letter winners.

The list of award winners was released Monday from the office of Principal T. C. Clark. The students have been fitted for their letter sweaters, which will be awarded in about six weeks. The sweaters will be of the same type as those awarded last year—white, coat-type, with gold letters.

Those winning the academic award for the second time are Tommy Boucher, Jean Johnston, Roger Camp and Leslie Acker, seniors; Marianne Jones, Janith Short and Ann Pennington, juniors, and Susie Jo Schmidt, Linda Pennell, Wayne Brincefield and Curtis Hudson, sophomores.

Receiving the award for the first time this year are Beverly Young, senior; Glenn Polk and Lin Alyn Cox, juniors; Marilyn Minor and Kenneth Barnes, sophomores, and Elisabeth Tubbs, Teddy Scott, Barbara Hahn, Carolyn Matsler, Gary Hays, Meredith Newby, Dee Ann Walker, John Sutter, Vivian McWhirt, Susan Cornish, Lewis Heron, Neal Barnes and Mary Grace Hodges, freshmen.

Tickets selling fast for Feb. 23 C. of C. banquet

The big event of the year for the Post Chamber of Commerce, the annual membership banquet, will be held at 7:15 p. m. Friday, Feb. 23, at the school cafeteria with Leon Hill of Amarillo as principal speaker.

Chamber officers and directors said today that ticket sales are "going good" and that a capacity crowd is expected for the banquet.

Hill, who is widely known as a humorist, traveler, philosopher and author, will be introduced by Phil Crenshaw.

The program will also include presentation of plaques for outstanding community service in 1961 to a Post man and woman selected by a special Chamber committee.

The Rev. C. B. (Bill) Hogue, pastor of the First Baptist Church, will open the program with the invocation. Wilf Scarborough, outgoing president, will introduce guests.

Following Hill's address, J. B. Potts, incoming president, will conduct a business session, which will include the organization's financial report for 1961.

Organ music will be by George M. Wilson, director of choral music in the Post Public Schools. The meal will be served by Van's Catering Service of Lubbock.

Post man's father dies in Lubbock

W. D. Herring, 83, of Plainview, father of Clint Herring of Post, died at 5 a. m. Monday in Lubbock after being in ill health for the past year.

Funeral services were at 2:30 p. m. Tuesday at the First Baptist Church in Plainview, with burial in Plainview Memorial Park Cemetery.

Mr. Herring, a native of McLennan County, moved to Plainview in 1926 from Matador. He had served as a deacon in the Baptist Church for more than 50 years.

He is survived by his wife; the son of Post; another son, Clyde Herring of Plainview; a brother, Ernest Herring of Lubbock; two grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Besides Mr. and Mrs. Clint Herring and daughter, Jan, a number of the family's friends were among those from Post attending the funeral.

Scoutmaster award goes to Bob West

The Post Rotary Club at its Tuesday luncheon presented a Boy Scout "Oscar" to Robert West, who served as scoutmaster of the club-sponsored Troop 316 for five years before resigning recently.

Presentation was made by Harold Lucas who praised West for his contributions of time and ability. Lucas also introduced Marshall Ticer, the new scoutmaster, who literally "grew up" in the troop, and Joe Hare, assistant scoutmaster.

The club also told two high school student representatives, Marianne Jones and Judy Clary, that the club will pay half of the estimated $650 to $750 expenses to bring a foreign student to study at Post High School for a year.

Miss Jones said the student council has about $200 available and that the Post Lions Club also will help sponsor the student, who the council hopes to bring to Post for the next school year.

Speaker for the luncheon, a Boy Scout Week observance, was Jim Cox of Ralls, assistant district chairman of the Comanche Trail district who spoke on the scouts' cubbing program.

Dr. B. E. Young was in charge of the program.

Grass fires keep fire fighters busy

Firemen here have made four grass fire runs since Sunday, with nothing but frustration meeting their last two efforts.

At 7:45 p. m. Tuesday, two trucks and 19 firemen sped to a grass fire on the Tillman Brooks place, 13 miles northwest of Post. They found the fire, but the report shows that the landowners "didn't want it put out."

At 11:20 p. m. Monday, 24 firemen on two trucks raced to a grass fire on Santa Fe right-of-way between Buenos Switch and Slaton, but couldn't get to the fire. Anyway, a section crew out of Slaton already had things under control.

UNDERGOES SURGERY

County Tax Assessor-Collector T. H. Tipton underwent major surgery in West Texas Hospital in Lubbock Thursday. He is reported to be doing nicely. He is in room 416 and is hopeful of being released to his home soon.

PLAINVIEW MAN FINED

Charles E. Robertson of Plainview was fined $5 Tuesday in city police court after pleading guilty to throwing beer cans from a car.
