Peace officers slate meeting

SPUR—May 10 has been set as the date of the annual meeting of the Caprock Peace Officers Association.

The meeting will be held at Claremont again this year. Until last year, the event was held on the Wood Ranch in Kent County. Features of the peace officers' meeting will include a rattlesnake shoot and a barbecue.

Cecil Fox, state game warden, is president of the association.

THE HARD WAY

Rising winds spread scurrying leaves past Julie's feet. At the corner, waiting for a car to pass, she dimly heard the chime of the clock by the bank. Seven o'clock. That meant there was still time if she hurried.

Across the corner, the sidewalk looked shadowy and deserted. Tucking the package more tightly under her arm, she stepped forward just as a hand gripped her shoulder. She whirled to see who was there.

"Oh, Timothy, why did you follow me?" Julie asked in a frightened voice.

"I just wanted to try to persuade you to stay and convince you that you're all wrong," answered Timothy.

"I don't think I am wrong. I have tried to get along with mother but her nagging gets worse every day. She said she didn't want me to go but I really think she did. I think it is best to get out of her life now, at least for a while."

"Oh, no Julie, you mustn't think that. She loves you and is just trying to help you. She doesn't want you to go but thinks maybe it is best for you to leave for a while. I used to hate my mother when I was your age but now I think she is the grandest person on earth."

"Your mother is different from mine. I like your mother, too, but I don't think my opinion about my mother will change. My mind is made up and I'm not going to change it."

"Okay, Julie, if that's the way you want it. At least you can't say I didn't try. I only wish you liked me as much as I like you, then I might have some influence."

"I do like you Tim, really I do —only—well in this case that has nothing to do with it. There is nothing more to be said so I'll go. I only want to ask you to talk to Kit and try to make her understand. Tell her I'll write."

"Sure I'll talk to her but I may not be able to make her understand you are her idol."

"I know I am. I don't want to leave her but I must go."

"Well, before you go I want to know if I can help you. Give me money or just anything."

"No, Tim, thanks anyway. I have enough money to get me to Denver and to Mrs. Clara Lockwood's where I'll be staying. I met her last summer and we became friends. I wrote her and made arrangements when I decided to leave. She is going to let me help her and pay me for it."

"Okay, Julie, I guess you'll be all right."

"Tim, I really must go."

"Sure, Okay. Uh—will you write me, Julie?"

"Of course, just as soon as I get settled. Bye."

"Bye, Julie."

Walking on down the street, tears stinging her eyes, Julie put her hand to her forehead. She remembered all the good times that she and Timothy had had and wondered if maybe what she was doing was wrong. She then thought of her mother and of the hate and rebellion she had for her and knew she couldn't back down now. She thought of her sister, Kit, and how it would be for her to be alone now, for she had experienced the same thing once. Then came the thoughts of her mother again, crowding out all the good thoughts. She knew if she went back now her rebellion would make her and everyone else miserable, so she kept on going.

She was now at the station and had ten minutes in which to buy a ticket and get settled on the train.

"May I have a ticket to Denver?" she asked in a quivering voice.

"Just for one, little lady?" he questioned.

"Yes, please."

"Visiting someone in Denver?"

"Yes," she lied, "my aunt." She hadn't wanted to lie but the way she felt now she couldn't answer any more questions. She bit her lip in trying to forget the unpleasant past.

In three hours she arrived in Denver. She went straight to Mrs. Lockwood's where she was very cordially greeted.

Mrs. Lockwood was very nice the first few weeks but then she really buckled down on Julie and made her work. Julie didn't mind at first because she was paid well. She wrote to Kit and Timothy and let them know how she was doing. They wrote back for a while and then they just quit. She guessed that they got too busy but still it worried her very much.

After two more months of hard work and no letters from home, Julie realized that she had been all wrong. Her mother hadn't really nagged; she had just been trying to help as Timothy said. Mrs. Lockwood was very demanding and gave her no help with her problems as her mother had. She finally swallowed her pride and wrote to her mother asking forgiveness. She admitted after finding out the hard way that no amount of money and independence would ever take the place of love and understanding.

Her mother went right to Denver to take Julie home. After that the Saunder's home was much happier. The Trumbull home was changed too, because Timothy now had his girl back and could live again.

VALUABLE INFORMATION ON PLANTING SEED TAG

Top crop yields are dependent upon several factors but among the most important is the selection of planting seed. L. C. Coffey, extension agronomist who specializes in seed, places major emphasis on the selection of an adaptable variety or hybrid of the best possible quality.

He points out the Texas Seed Act requires that all seed sold in Texas must meet certain standards. The one exemption is the farmer who sells seed to his neighbor; hence, the seed does not enter the channels of trade. All other sellers of seed must have a Texas Tested Seed Label attached to the seed container.

This seed label must list the kind of crop, the variety if it is known, germination, number of noxious weed seed per pound, percentage of pure seed, inert matter and weed seed.

The information carried on the seed analysis tag is important. No farmer, Coffey believes, would knowingly buy weed seed, especially the noxious kinds, in planting seed. Neither would he buy seed containing other crop seed and inert matter when high-germinating, weed-free seed of high purity are available at very little extra cost.

The percentage of weed seed shown is frequently important, points out Coffey, but the farmer may not realize it from reading the tag. For example, if the tag states there is .11 per cent (eleven hundredths) weed seed in some grass or forage crop, this could mean several thousand seed being weed seed and weigh very little, says Coffey.

Coffey not only suggests that farmers read the analysis tag but that they understand the information on the adaptability of both varieties and hybrids.

SUMMER TEMPORARY PASTURES GOOD BET

Summer temporary pastures are a good bet for anyone owning beef or dairy cattle, says E. M. Trew, extension pasture specialist. These pastures produce better quality forage than permanent pastures and this results in more beef or milk per acre.

In addition, they permit resting of permanent pastures and ranges, and they often provide a source of hay. Best quality Sudangrass is an excellent grass for temporary pastures, says Trew. A slightly less desirable plant is a Sudan-Johnsongrass hybrid. These grasses are coarser and of lower quality than Sudan, but they often produce higher yields. Sudan-grain sorghum hybrids can also be used. These are coarser still, but they produce good yields and appear palatable.

Pearl millet is suggested for use on poor, acid soils, on severely eroded heavy soils and on soils where Sudan "yellows out," he says.

Summer temporary pastures can be planted any time after danger of frost is past, explains the specialist. If the pasture is to be used for grazing, the seed should be planted in 36-42 inch rows. For hay production the seed can be broadcast or close drilled.

Correct fertilizer recommendations should be obtained by soil testing, emphasizes Trew. Application should be in bands 2-3 inches below and to the side of the seed at planting. If additional growth is needed after each grazing down or cutting, topdress with 30-50 pounds of nitrogen, providing adequate moisture is available.

For local recommendations and publications on summer grazing crops, see your local county agent suggests Trew.

CLASSING SERVICE AGAIN AVAILABLE

Growers who wish to have their cotton classed by the U. S. Department of Agriculture under provisions of the Smith - Dooxey Act should apply for these services as soon as their cotton is planted, says Fred Elliott, extension cotton specialist.

The Smith - Dooxey Act provides for one free classification for each eligible bale of cotton. Samples must be submitted by a bonded sampler or by a public warehouse which issues negotiable receipts, explains Elliott.

Each cotton improvement group, except those in southern Texas, must file an application with the cotton classing office serving its territory not later than Aug. 1. Those in counties south of a line from Dimmit to Karnes to Matagorda must file an application by June 1.

Prompt application filing is necessary because time is needed for

ABOUT YOUR HEALTH

Mankind wages running grudge fight with hordes of insects

AUSTIN —Mankind is poised to begin the annual grudge fight with insect hordes that flourish in the warmth of spring and summer. Inevitably the insect will lose as mankind — armed with noxious sprays and dusts and aerosol mists — seeks to ward off the bites and stings and the destruction of his food and clothing and home.

Only by constant fighting has humanity been able to hold its precarious own against more than one million different insect species which inhabit the world. Some 6000-7000 new species are identified each year to lengthen the list of known kinds. The United States is inhabited by approximately 600 injurious species, some of them vectors of human disease.

The vast majority of insects are neutral or indifferent where man is concerned, apparently content to let humanity go its way and demanding the same privilege. Others are highly beneficial, feeding on noxious weeds or troublesome insects, or pollinating crops. At least 50 different seed and fruit crops would be barren without insect pollinizers.

On the other hand, to fix a price on depredations of harmful insect varieties, you have to re-gear your thinking or get lost in a maze of zeros. Just counting field crops and stored grains, the wreak a yearly havoc of $4 billion in the U. S. alone.

Flies, fleas and mosquitos were and still are behind some of the most calamitous scourges the huddling plague, malaria, yellow fever and others.

The fact that most insecticides are toxic for humans as well as insects has caused some apprehension. It is true that people who use them carelessly do run real risks. But there is no evidence to suggest the general population is being insidiously poisoned.

A detailed study into the extent to which widespread use of agricultural insecticides might adversely affect the health of humans and domestic animals is scheduled to begin in coming weeks, under auspices of the Texas State Department of Health and Texas A&M College.

Insecticides, despite their great value as weapons against insects, are only supplements to other control activities, the most important of which is proper personal and community sanitation.

BOLL WEEVIL CONTROL

New research facilities to be used for developing better methods of boll weevil control were dedicated at Mississippi State University on March 22. The laboratory will be the center for a concerted effort against the cotton pest by U. S. Department of Agriculture and cooperating state experiment stations.

The Loire is the longest river in France.

Tahoka to name queen of rodeo

TAHOKA — Six Lynn County girls are candidates for queen of the Tahoka Rodeo to be staged April 25-28.

The candidates and their sponsors are: Betty Kuwaski, Tahoka Jaycees; Nancy Inman, Lynn County Sheriff's Posse; Linda Thomas, Tahoka Chamber of Commerce; Linda Driver, Grassland community; Jane Stoker, Wilson community, and Tanya Unfred, New Home community.

The winner will be determined on the basis of rodeo ticket sales. Mary Jane McCord, now a freshman student at Texas Tech, was last year's rodeo queen.

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS"

By C. WILSON HARDER

Probably no sincere person opposes basic principle upon which United Nations was founded—preserving peace.

Many people even today think that is the sole effort of the UN. Few people realize that when the United Nations was set up, the internationalistic "do-gooders," the home grown starry eyed theorists, working as termites in the foundation of a building, got incorporated into the UN, a host of socialistic activities totally unrelated to preservation of peace.

One of these operations was setting up of UNESCO, formally known as United Nations Educational, Scientific, and Cultural Organization.

In a recent meeting in Paris, where the current educational, scientific and cultural activity seems to be setting off plastic bombs, UNESCO drafted a treaty which would put all education under U.N. jurisdiction.

The New Orleans Chamber of Commerce, in a strongly worded resolution, has called upon the U. S. States government to take immediate and positive action to stop any American participation, or discussion, in the schemes hatched in the Paris meeting of UNESCO.

Under the plan set up by UNESCO, it would control all types and levels of education in all nations of the world, and would be given the authority to select "competent authorities" who would in turn lay down standards of education to which all public, private and religious schools would have to conform to be permitted to operate.

Thus, Russia, for example, would have a major part in saying what should be taught in the public schools of the United States, and even more ludicrous is the idea that Russia would also have a voice in saying what is taught in the religious schools. While perchance Harvard might be able to "co-exist" under such a system, it is quite doubtful that Notre Dame could.

In addition, since the UN was founded, 41 new nations have joined up. In some of these, cannibalism is still being practiced. It is difficult to predict what high school home economics courses would teach if some of these nations had a say.

One of the newest nations to join the UN, the Congo, only had seven university graduates in the entire country. Yet this nation could under UNESCO also have a voice in saying what should be taught in the public schools of Iowa.

Generations of dedicated Americans have worked to develop in U.S. a system of universal free education, and speedily investigate these off shoots of the United Nations such as UNESCO which have as their sole aim internal control of the United States.

But it is certain the system will not be perfected by turning the peace, Congress duplicated any other place in the world. The system probably still has some imperfections.

While every member of Congress believes in preserving the peace, Congress duplicated any other place in the world. The system probably still has some imperfections.

But it is certain the system will not be perfected by turning the peace, Congress duplicated any other place in the world. The system probably still has some imperfections.

5 of 6 Close City girls win 4-H blue ribbons

By MRS. DURWARD BARTLETT

Close City had six girls enter the 4-H Food Demonstration Saturday. Five of the girls received first place blue ribbons and the other received a second place ribbon. Marsha Tipton and Barbara Bartlett, working as a team, are runners-up to go to district.

The first place girls to go to district are Judy Hitt and Teresa Sims working as a team. The girls from Close City who received blue ribbons were Barbara Bartlett and Marsha Tipton, Anita Prullt and Elaine Pate, and Miriam Smith. Second place winner was Charlene Nelson. Accompanying them were Mrs. Marietta Pruitt and Mrs. Durward Bartlett, sponsors, and Mrs. Marshall Tipton and Mrs. Ruth Pate. Also Mrs. Vivian Nelson was present for her daughter's demonstration. We are proud of our girls.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Dale Wheatley and daughter spent Sunday with the Durward Bartletts.

MR. AND MRS. DAN CARPENTER were visitors of the Boe Wheatleys. Mrs. Durward Bartlett and Barbara Beth were visitors in the Marshall Tipton home Thursday.

Weekend guests of the Will Teaffs were Mrs. N. B. Teaff and children of Roscoe and Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Cockrell and Freddie of Abernathy. Sunday visitors also were Mrs. Georgia Stotts and sons of Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Roberts and Sue of Lockney, Mr. and Mrs. Rhodes Arnold and son of Roscoe, and Roy Teaff and sons of Post.

I wish to make a correction. It was Mr. Riley's room which went on the hike and wiener roast, instead of Mrs. Riley's room as was printed last week.

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Ryan of Anson spent Saturday night with Mrs. Ivy Young.

SANDRA, Pamela, Donna and Melvina Stewart are spending the week with their grandmother, Mrs. Ivy Young, while their parents are in Arizona with a sick sister of Mr. Stewart. Accompanying the Stewarts to Arizona were Mr. and Mrs. Sonny Huffaker.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Tipton and daughters have been visiting their father and grandfather, Talmage H. Tipton at West Texas Hospital in Lubbock where he is a surgery patient.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Justice and daughters visited Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bostick.

Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Peel were in Lubbock Sunday afternoon visiting their son, Delmo Gossett, who was ill.

The Rev. Irving Bratton became worse this week and was taken to Snyder to Cogdell Memorial Hospital. He was somewhat improved, it was reported Sunday. He is suffering from a heart ailment.

SANTA FE CARLOADINGS

Total carloads moved over Santa Fe System Lines for the week ending April 7 were 35,569 compared with 33,697 for the same week a year ago. On-line loadings were 22,954 compared with 22,981 for the corresponding week last year. Cars received from connections totaled 12,615 compared with 10,716 for the same week a year ago. Santa Fe handled a total of 34,399 carloads in the preceding week of this year.

VISIT PARENTS HERE
The Wesley Stephens' children and grandchildren were guests in their home Sunday. They were Mrs. Bob Lovinggood and son, Stormy, and Mrs. Lucille Queen of Odessa, Mrs. Mansell Richardson and four children and Mr. and Mrs. Bowen Stephens and daughter, Kay, of Lubbock.

SATURDAY VISITORS
Saturday afternoon guests in the Wesley Stephens home were Mrs. Lee Bowen and Mrs. DeWitt Caylor and Mrs. Buster Brown and children, Mike and Nita, of San Angelo.

RETURN FROM LAKE
Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Cummings returned Sunday after spending a week at their place at Lake Talmage. Cecil reports it rained so much that they had good luck fishing their catch including 15 nice bass. Cecil also reports seeing a number of deer and that they're going down there.

VISIT IN LUBBOCK
Mrs. Janie Bias and Diana returned Sunday with Linda Bias in Lubbock.

Grassland Nazarenes in pre-Easter revival meet

By MRS. O. H. HOOVER

The Nazarenes at Grassland are having a pre-Easter revival. It will continue through Easter Sunday. The speaker is a gospel song writer. He visited M. C. Richey Sunday afternoon and they had a songfest.

Visitors in the O. H. Hoover home for dinner Monday were Mr. and Mrs. Houston and son, Bob, of Littlefield. Bob will leave April 13 for Kingsport, Tenn., to take a job there in a plastic factory.

The Methodist pastor's son, Calvin, has been sick the past two weeks with the measles. Sammy Leach also has the measles.

Mrs. L. S. Turner has had a siege of flu. She has been real sick and is some better at this writing.

Mrs. Hoover visited Mrs. C. A. Walker Thursday afternoon.

Visitors in the Glen Norman home recently were Mrs. Norman's father, Ira Lee Duckworth, Mr. and Mrs. George Duckworth and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Duckworth and a granddaughter.

Mrs. Roy LeMond has been ill with a throat ailment.

Mrs. H. D. Gartman went to Odessa last Tuesday to see her mother and to hear about her sister who is very ill in California.

MR. AND MRS. C. O. McCleskey had lunch Sunday with their son and family, the Carlos McCleskeys.

Mrs. Lucy Cunningham has been sick with a virus but is better now.

Mrs. C. C. Jones and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Jones spent the day Sunday in Lovington with their son and brother.

Mrs. J. M. Inklebarger visited Mrs. W. G. McCleskey Friday morning.

Mrs. Ted McDonald of Post and Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Laws visited the James Murray family Sunday.

The 4-H Club met Friday in the home of Mrs. Glen Norman, their sponsor. They made individual pizza pies and it is reported they were very good. Attending were Kim McClellan, Beth Peel, Sue Parrish, Helen Ruth Hodges, and Judy and Nancy Norman.

Misses Mary C. and Adeline Bellingier of Dallas and Mrs. Rhoda Tiller of Midland visited Gladys Fox over the weekend.

Mrs. G. W. Cockran of Lubbock spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Thomas.

Mrs. Lina Short's mother, Mrs. H. B. McCord Sr., of Tahoka has been ill the past week. She has improved some now.

MR. AND MRS. J. W. Fox have been ailing also.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Thomas and Mrs. Hoover visited Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Thomas and Miss Gladys Fox Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Walker and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Moore attended the wedding of Jerry Adams and Sue Coleman Saturday night. They were married in the Methodist Church in Wilson. Crysta Lynn Moore, the Walkers' granddaughter, was flower girl.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Gartman and Mr. and Mrs. W. G. McCleskey attended a singing in Slaton Sunday afternoon in the Assembly of God Church.

Mrs. C. C. Jones spent Thursday with her sister, Mrs. Iva Young.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Greer went to their cabin on the lake at Colorado Springs again this week for a few days.

Tommy, Dan and Kent Stone have been staying with their grandparents, the Gus Porterfield, while their parents, the L. A. Stones, are in Houston. Their mother had ear surgery Friday and is doing fine. She reports her hearing is much improved.

THANKS, FOLKS!

I wish there were time available so that I could personally thank each one of you for the votes that I received as a write-in candidate in the School Trustee election on April 7 1962. Since time will not permit this, I wish to take this opportunity to express my personal appreciation for each vote.

I was very happy to see that this election brought forth a record number of voters for a local school election in our area, for this, to me, is an indication that more and more of our citizens are becoming concerned with our children's education. Certainly the education of the children of our community is of the utmost importance to all the citizens, and it is only as all citizens evidence their concern, that we can hope to achieve the best in education for our youth.

Education today is more costly than ever before. We cannot afford to economize to the detriment of our educational facilities, but at the same time we have an enormous responsibility to see that our youngsters get a real dollar's worth of education for every dollar spent.

I am grateful for the opportunity to serve as a School Trustee and I will do everything that I possibly can to fulfill the trust and responsibility which you as voters of this community have placed in me.

Sincerely,
A. LEE WARD

Bible Thoughts "God"

By HERB SMITH

To get acquainted with God we study from two sources which are The Bible and God's Creation. God is author of both. Last time we listed a few things about God that the Bible reveals to us. A glance at God's creation can reveal much to us.

His creation includes the physical universe and the laws of nature. These two creations work together in perfect harmony. Notice this in the law of gravity and the physical creation of the earth. The first thing we are impressed with is God's intelligence. Then we are made breathless at His glory as David said, "The heavens declare the glory of God."

Because of God's intelligence, He created these to fulfill the needs of man. He knew what was good for man. The beauty of topography, the freshness of the changing seasons, the sweetness and purity of infancy, and many more things that make life possible and worth living.

BLESSED IS THE MAN THAT KNOWS GOD.

Richard Williams participating in SEATO exercise

PHILIPPINES (PHTC)—Richard Williams, radioman second class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Williams of 312 Ave. N, Post, is serving aboard the attack transport USS Washburn, a unit part in the Southeast Asia Command's Exercise Tanager, sponsored jointly by the Republic of the Philippines and the United States, from March 2 through April 2.

The exercise, whose name means assistance, is the 20th undertaken by SEATO nations and the first in the 1962 series. It simulates a situation in which a member nation seeks assistance from SEATO against aggression committed by a group.

Part of the exercise, assembly and movement of forces and amphibious landings by "vertical employment" helicopters and beach assault are features of the exercise. Side from observers from eight member nations, Tulunga is using 30,000 men and 60 ships from the U. S. Navy, Marine Corps and the Philippine Navy and the Royal Australian Force.

YOUTH REVIVAL SERVICES

are conducted here

Weekend youth revival services were conducted at the Calvary Baptist Church by members of the Wayland College Mission Band of Plainview.

Dickie Hammonds preached Friday night. Alton Spinks preached Saturday night and Ben McPherson brought the Sunday morning message.

Don Brashear directed singing through each service. Pat Lusk, Dorothy Barnett, Lilly Ross, and Barbara Kratzer were other members of the band who gave personal testimonials and led in fellowship activities Friday and Saturday night as well as a singspiration Sunday afternoon.

The group rendered the religious drama, "The Challenge of the Cross" at the Sunday night service.

'Roman' seniors make will

Friends, Romans, and countrymen. Since I am a scribe and versed in the art of writing, I have been instructed to inscribe the last will and testament of the Patricians now leaving the forum for other conquests. Friends, Romans and countrymen, will you hear the will? Under Caesar's seal, we the Patricians of Post High School forum in the Roman year 1962, do bequeath to those who follow us these temples halls, completely equipped with erudite pedagogues—teachers to you.

We leave you the Arena in which we strove so valiantly these past years—complete with the holes we kicked in it during our last desperate contest for the honor of the forum, that being to defeat our ancient foe, Denver City.

Our class emperor, Leslie Acker, bequeaths to Charles Hawkins his basketball sweetheart olive wreath. To Howard Lee Teaff, Ralph Ardis wills his graceful stride and flashy smile.

Danella Bateman bequeaths to Janie Carradine her ability to wrap boys around her little finger.

Cecelia Bland leaves to you, Jan Herring and Glenda Hutto, the scrolls in the library from which you may in your turn gain knowledge to guide you as you drive your chariots down the road to new worlds.

Tommy Bouchier leaves his rare-earths, titrations, and sodium phosphate to Melvin Byrd.

Butch Bowen leaves all his old Rebel flags to Kent Wheatley.

To Ken Rankin, Roger Camp leaves his ability to apple-polish.

Judy Clary leaves her quiet, feminine giggle to Lin Alyn Cox.

To Wanda Williams and Ann Long, Charlotte Covey leaves her tear-stained Betty Crocker award. Neal Francis leaves his masculine charm and personality to Tom Campbell.

Buddy Moreland is to receive and use in good faith all of Wayne Gambelin's gambling money.

Jerry Gerner leaves his great imagination and original alibis to Sonny Gossett.

Dwayne Capps leaves all his popularity to Dennis Payne.

Archie Gill leaves his tobacco and tobacco spittoon to Lenny Howell.

Sue Howell leaves her bookkeeping ability to Ronald Tallant.

Bobby Hudman leaves his collection of nasty jokes and pictures to James Mitchell.

Rosie Jackson leaves her outgoing, uninhibited personality to Janith Short.

Dean Johnston leaves his twisting ability to Jerry Bush and Sammie Kay Caffey.

Jean Johnston leaves her catty and forward personality to Sharon Isaacs.

To Dianna Bias, Leatrice Justice leaves her singing talents.

Cherry Irwin leaves her ability to make friends to Sandy Irons.

Harold Wayne Mason leaves his toothpick arms and scrawny build to Delton Robinson.

Wayne Kiker leaves all his love letters to Buddy Ussery and Robert Sanchez.

David Lee leaves all his beautiful pigs to Jo Ann Chilcoat and Elaine Wheatley.

Wayne McFadin leaves his bachelor apartment to Freddie Simmons.

Ruthell Martin wills her bouffant hair-do to Kay Murray.

Jerry Thue tt leaves to Chris Cornish his unfinished experiments in the chemistry lab—maybe she can discover the relationship of high blood pressure to a full moon. Anyway, my countrymen, carry on!

Shelia Morris leaves her chubby figure to petite Rheba Shepherd.

Melinda Newby leaves her outstanding athletic ability, especially in volleyball, to Barbara Craig.

Marianne Jones has the honor of receiving Lynda Taylor's fabulous modeling ability and radiating charm. Lynda hopes Marianne won't waste all of this valuable talent.

Jerry Nutt leaves all of his knowledge of Shakespeare to Glenn Polk and Raymond Shaw.

Margaret Ritchie leaves her speed typing to Ann Pennington.

Donna Robison leaves her chariot to Stanna Butler.

Benny Stanley leaves his love for his school and his intelligence to Jimmy Wells.

Sandra Stewart leaves her beauty school diploma to Edna Redman and Gayle Heaton.

Jerry Stone leaves his loud personality to Vonda Howell.

Charlotte Taylor wills her trumpet and Sousa Award to Gary Brewer.

Larry Williams leaves his honesty, truthfulness, and the ability to be a true Roman friend to Pete Dodson.

Lee Williams leaves his clown shoes to Edward Byrd.

Beverly Young leaves her many togas to Norma Julian and Sharon Blackwell.

Sandra Lobban leaves her multitudes of letter-sweaters to Mary Ann Williams.

Darrel Young leaves his citizenship to David Nichols.

The Senior girls bequeath to the Junior girls the deep scratches in the desks in Coach Souter's class, which we absent-mindedly dug while gazing at our teacher. Please don't efface them—they may turn out to be the best marks we shall ever make in the world.

As much as they hate to, the Senior boys leave to the Junior hoodlums Buffalo Point, Mesquite Tank, and the good ole Senior Hide-away. They ask you not to abuse them and not to clutter them up with anything you might toss out the window.

We bequeath you the moon over South Lake, with the express injunction that you not let it shine unnoticed. But be careful to watch where you walk as you moon-gaze. Just last week Lee Williams stepped off the bank and was half-way down an aqueduct before he was fished out.

Mrs. Fleming, Coach Souter, Mr. King leave to Mr. May, Mr. St. John and Coach Teal all the headaches of trying to guide the Seniors safely through their last year.

The Seniors all leave to the Juniors the slavish devotion and respect from underclassmen, especially the Freshmen.

We ask you to keep carrying the torch in the everlasting war against unfair library fines of which we are all victims. We also ask you to try and preserve the 11½ minute lunch hour—and plead with you not let them cut it shorter!

But we want you to remember all the fun and exciting times too. We leave to you the warmth and excitement of the football bonfires, and the suspense of those over-time basketball games. We hope you can do better than we did at those serious assemblies when the grade school auditorium was nearly blasted off its foundation by the roars of laughter. We give you all the old alibis thought up after a day or two of playing hooky, and ask you to remember that it's hard enough to get an excuse when you don't play hooky.

And, last of all, we bequeath you the good name of our Forum, and all the fun and good times we had there, with the opportunity to profit by our mistakes and to add to whatever we have done well. May it mean as much to you as it has to us!

THROWBACKS TO TIME OF CAESARS

Let's Be Thankful For Teachers

We should be thankful for the wonderful people that we have for teachers.

We never stop to think how many times a day these teachers help us in one way or another. They are the ones that help us shape our lives each day.

We just take it for granted that they are supposed to help us and to take an interest in our problems. I know that I don't stop to think that they get tired of hearing us gripe about this and that.

Pete Dodson is FFA president

By Jerry Gerner

Pete Dodson was elected president of the Future Farmers of America chapter at the election of new officers Thursday, April 5.

Other officers elected were: Richard Hart, vice president; Danny Richardson, secretary; John Blend, treasurer; Danny Stone, reporter; Johnny Bilberry, sentinel, and Lewis Herron, historian.

something that doesn't really amount to anything.

Do we ever stop to think that they are human just as we are, that they have feelings too? If it wasn't for these people that take their time and a cut in income to try and teach us a little something we would all be a bunch of morons.

We should be thankful that we have these grand people to teach us and not have someone like they have in Russia where they decide whether or not you spend the rest of your life working on a rock pile.

I would like to make this suggestion that we all be a lot more considerate of our teachers. After all they are the ones that have to suffer with us all day long, nine months out of the year. They really deserve a "Thank You" from all us.

SIXTH GRADE STUDIES

In History we are studying about Lewis and Clark and Daniel Boone. In Math we are studying decimals. In Language we are studying the present, past and future tenses of verbs. In Science we are studying earthquakes and volcanoes.

Spring concert by band Friday

The Post High School Concert Band will give its final spring concert Friday, April 13, in the Junior High gym.

There will be a very enjoyable program filled with highlights of spring melodies.

"Mexican Overture", "Funicula Funicula", "Spiritual", some madrigals and many other arrangements will be played.

There will be a spotlight on the Seniors in the band, so be sure and don't miss it.

Post seniors' class prophecy

Traveler finds grads all over the world

As I was strolling through the streets of Rome, I came upon a shop. In the window was advertised a magic chariot. I rushed in and bought it. I was very anxious to try out my new chariot. I decided to take it for a spin to the Roman Coliseum. The chariot was old and I couldn't stop it, so with no other alternative I decided to continue around the world.

While cruising over Spain, I see a fleet of the Spanish armada. There upon the decks stands sea-serpent first class Butch Bowen. Leaving this classmate behind, I journey to the Belgian Congo. There I find Wayne Gambin, a twisting instructor to the Pygmies.

Traveling on, I see the continent of South America. While passing over Rio de Janeiro, I find a crowd of bullfighting arena, featuring the great matador Dean Johnston.

Just as he is chased out of the arena, my chariot lurches forward and the arena is soon out of sight. Making a sharp turn northward to Trinidad, I behold the famous calypso team, Danella Bateman and Leslie Acker, performing in front of a vast audience.

The vibrating air currents rocket my chariot onward. Traveling over the jungles of Brazil, I have to make a quick detour to avoid hitting a huge skyscraper with the names, Hudman, Landreth, Lee, and Billy Sol, Inc. on a sign. Seems they've made a killing selling anhydrous ammonia tanks to the natives.

Making a quick left turn, I pass over Jamaica. Here I find Lee Williams in a night club playing bongos for his wife, Candy Barr.

Chuckling to myself at the thought of Lee getting a girl, I sail over the Virgin Islands. Slowing down a little, I see an old maid's colony, the co-owners and only members being Melinda Newby and Lynda Taylor, still together after all these years.

Flying westward, I soon came to Cuba, where I find Sandra Lobban as an upstairs maid to Castro.

I take a short jog upward to my old hometown, Post, Texas. As I go past the high school, I see Benny Stanley and Jerry Gerner still in third period typing class and 4th period bookkeeping, trying hard as ever to pass.

My horses, eager to leave for cooler weather, gallop onward to Alaska. Here I find Charlotte Taylor directing the only live polar bear band in captivity in a new number, "Fever". On the next corner, I noticed an Eskimo Pie stand under the management of Rosie Jackson.

As soon as my chariot thaws out, I travel on to Hawaii, where I find Judy Clary, swaying in her grass skirt to the music of Archie Gill's ukelele.

Loaded down with pineapples and leis, I travel on to Australia. Here is Ralph Ardis sitting on a stump in the middle of the desert, waiting for his boomerang to come back.

My next layover is Hong Kong. Here I see Susie Wong Stewart and X Yung Fook Camp riding in a rickshaw pulled by Darrel Chiang-Ki-Shek Young.

Recognizing the Taj Mahal in the horizon, I speed on to India. Here I find Maharajah Thuet quite contented with his harem of 10,000. His ever-faithful servant, Sahib Stone, is putting the elephants to bed.

From here I travel on to Outer Mongolia, where I see Jerry Nutt and Carrol Pate as commanding officers in Genghis Khan's army.

Next I go to Russia, where I find Larry Williams as one of Kruschev's secret agents. Best break the U. S. could get.

Happily thinking this over, I fly on to Siberia, where I find Tommy Bouchier imprisoned in a concentration camp trying very hard to work out a minor detail in Einstein's Theory of Relativity.

Traveling southward, I soon come to Bagdad, where I find Charlotte Covey working in the oilfields while Wayne McFadin is at home baby-sitting.

Next I speed on to Czechoslovakia, where I see Sue Howell and Margaret Ritchie in a partnership in the glass-blowing industry. Seems they spend most of their time breaking the glass instead of blowing it.

Flying onward, I happen to pass over Berlin. Here I find Ruthell Martin, who still hasn't changed her name, living in a home which seems to be divided down the middle. Looking closer, I see she and Kenneth are still fighting about a long past Junior-Senior banquet date. Hope Kenneth gets back on the West side soon.

Hit by a blast of hot wind, I retrace my steps to Poland. Here I see Neal Francis playing his favorite rendition of the ever popular rock n' roll ballad, the Warsaw Concerto, while Cherry Irwin, pirouettes daintily around the piano.

Leaving here in a hurry, I move onward to Paris, France. I hear a great roar of cheering and clapping and upon looking closer I see a chorus line in the Paris Folies, led by Jean Johnston and Shelia Morris. Seems they've gained a little weight since last I saw them.

Sailing over the main street of Paris, I see a beauty salon with the name Madame Donna Robison, Inc. over the door. Going on a little farther, I spot a sidewalk cafe. Here, playing the piano and singing songs of her own composition, I find my former classmate, Leatrice Justice.

My horses, making a sharp left turn, go on to the Sahara Desert. I see with my first glance Dwayne Capps, madly carrying his camel to a nearby mirage. Looking over this situation more closely, I notice the camel has run out of water after exhausting his year's supply. Looks like Dwayne has given up on cars.

Now expecting the worst, I look down over Egypt to find Wayne Kiker, who hasn't been able to sit down since his fatal Coke break in Economics, standing atop a pyramid bird-watching. Seems Wayne has followed this particular bird all the way around the world, trying to make a sound track of his beep beep for the new stand-up operated car he just designed.

As my horses were giving out, I decided to return to Rome. Giving them their head, they immediately return to the Pawn Shop, whereupon I tell the pawnbroker there is a slight defect in the chariot and I want a refund.

Since I am tired of riding, I decide to take a stroll home. Passing by a pizza house, I think I recognize under a twirling mass of dough my old classmate, Cecelia Bland. After chatting with Cecelia a short time, I go on my way to the Roman Festival grounds. They have just crowned Beverly Young Ro-

'Mystery Teacher' clues numerous

By Danny Markham
When I hear the name of this week's Junior High "Mystery Teacher," I think of the song, "Five Foot Two."

Her husband is the 6th grade football and track coach. She is a fine substitute teacher and looks good in any color.

She is a very mild-serious teacher in math and language. Her hair is dark black and her skin looks like she had a good sun-tan.

One thing that is really good about her is that she doesn't give much homework.

Post second in contests

Post High School scored 94 and two-thirds points Friday and Saturday in District 3A literary contests to finish second to over-all winner Denver City, which compiled 206 points.

Slaton was third with 89½ points; Tahoka fourth with 89, and Stanton fifth with 25.

Included in the point totals were points in the volleyball and golf contests.

Post won first in the golf matches, and also had the golf medalist, Leslie Acker.

The girls' volleyball team placed third at Denver City Friday, with Denver City winning the title and Tahoka the runner-up position.

Also counting in the points total was Post's second place finish in the one-act play contest.

Winners in the literary events at Slaton Saturday included the following:

Tommy Bouchier—3rd, science.

Junior High Band to Abernathy Saturday

Saturday, April 14, the Junior High Band will go to Abernathy for band contest.

We plan to play "Creole Suite", "Activity" and "Song of Victory". All parents are invited to come. We are working hard to make a good rating.

Palm Sunday is to be observed

Palm Sunday will be observed this coming Sunday at the First Christian Church with the minister, Bernard S. Ramsey, preaching on "Palm Leaves and White Feathers" at the 11 a. m. worship.

Sunday will also be Decision Day for some of the children who have been attending the pastor's class for the past five weeks and which will conclude Sunday.

At the evening worship at 7, the minister will continue the series on Women of the Bible. The topic will be "The Guilty Face."

Father of Post woman buried

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Williams and other members of their family were in Big Spring Saturday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Williams' father, R. M. Alvis.

Mr. Alvis, who was 73, died last Thursday at his home in Big Spring after a lengthy illness. He was born in Winnsboro and lived in Lubbock for seven years before moving to Big Spring in 1925.

The funeral services were held at 3 p. m. at the Nalley-Pickle Chapel with the Rev. Jack Stricklen, pastor of the East 4th Street Baptist Church, officiating.

Besides the daughter of Post, Mr. Alvis is survived by two other daughters, one son, three sisters, two brothers, 12 grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Accompanying the Williams to Big Spring for the funeral were their daughters, Mary Ann, Mrs. Jack Coulter, who was visiting here from Waco, Mrs. Jodie Mason and Mr. Mason.

Credit course set to begin April 30

A ten-hour course for Post credit and collection management and personnel will be held at the Red-Tv Room beginning Monday, April 30. E. E. Pierce, manager of the Retail Merchants' Association of Post, announced today.

He said that classes will be conducted at night to permit maximum attendance. This course in Retail Credit and Collection Procedures will be of great importance to all personnel dealing with credit and collections, whether they are owners, managers, or employees of department stores, banks, furniture stores, grocery stores, automobile dealerships, drug stores, or other types of retail service, wholesale and professional organizations.

Classes will be conducted by Lowry M. Carpenter, retail credit training specialist from the University of Texas, who has conducted similar courses in many other Texas towns.

Classes will run for approximately two and a half hours each night, beginning at 7:30, April 30 through May 3.

A registration fee of $3.50 is the only expense involved for those attending. Further information about the classes can be obtained by contacting E. E. Pierce, telephone 30-26.

Erroneous entries mix up two pleas

Due to an erroneous entry in the county court docket, David Charles Rogers was reported in The Dispatch last week to have pleaded guilty to driving while intoxicated.

Actually, Rogers pleaded not guilty and was released on $500 bond.

Billy Joe Brown, who reportedly pleaded not guilty in The Dispatch last week, actually pleaded guilty and was fined $50 and costs, sentenced to three days in jail and had his driver's license suspended for six months.

County Judge J. E. Parker said he made the two entries on the wrong pages, putting Brown's guilty plea on Rogers' docket page, and Rogers' release on bond on Brown's docket page.

Post Lions to meet in Lubbock Tuesday

The Post Lions Club will hold next Tuesday night's meeting in Lubbock.

Induction of new members into the club will be the purpose of the out-of-town meeting.

All members and newly-elected members to be inducted are urged to attend. Since the meeting will count as a regular one, those missing are in danger of becoming custodians of the club's attendance lamb.

The Lions will meet on the parking lot at the rear of Levi's Restaurant at 8:45 p. m. for the trip to Lubbock.

Sermon topics named for Assembly of God

"Who Will Be Saved?" is the subject for the sermon at the 11 a. m. Sunday service of the Assembly of God Church, Rev. J. R. Brincefield announced today.

Text is found in Matthew 24:13. "But he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved."

"Sustaining Power" will be the topic for the 7 p. m. service. The text is found in Ephesians 3:16.

tax collector's office to delinquent tax payers seeking collection of back due taxes.

Trustees without a vote decided not to accept an offer from Attorney Pat N. Walker, who volunteered to collect $7,000 in delinquent taxes this year and another $7,000 before another year if the trustees would restore the reductions voted last month in teacher bonuses to be paid during the next two school years.

Supt. Smith presented to trustees a summary of reported figures received from 198 out of the 199 schools in Texas with an enrollment between 1,000 and 2,500 students on their salary schedules.

It revealed 105 out of the 198 school districts (Class 2A and 3A in size) reporting, paid state minimum, 15 paid from $1 to $100 above state minimum, 31 from $101 to $200 above, 15 from $201 to $300 above, 13 from $301 to $400 above, 11 from 401 to $500 above, 3 from $501 to $600 above, 3 from $601 to $700 above, 1 from $701 to $800 above, and 1 from $801 to 1,000 above.

It was pointed out that out of the 198 districts of comparable size reporting only 8 paid more to teachers than the local district this year and that next only 19 would be paying more.

Trustees agreed the Post district's salary schedule compared very favorably with districts of similar size.

Supt. Smith also told the board that local principals have voluntarily offered not to take their experience increments here next year which will mean a voluntarily reduction of $158 in T. C. Clark's salary and $131 reduction in the salaries of the other principals.

The local superintendent turned down the increase in his salary last year when the state boosted state salary minimums for teachers by $810. This included percentage boosts to administrators. He told the board he felt this to be in the best interests of the schools, the school board, and the community.

Trustees voted to grant William St. John, high school physical science instructor, a year's leave of absence subject to an opening when he returns. St. John has accepted a grant from the National Science Foundation to take advanced science studies next year at the University of Texas.

Trustees voted to send the 46-56 club of former Post High lettermen a letter of appreciation for their announced intentions to granting a $150 scholarship in the spring of 1963 to the outstanding Post High athlete next year. The club told the board via letter it is now working on qualifications for this scholarship. The club was formed last October.

Good Friday rite plans completed

Plans for the Union Good Friday service to be held at 12:30 p. m. Friday, April 29, at the First Methodist Church were completed by the Post Ministerial Alliance at its regular monthly meeting Tuesday.

The service is to last for one hour—from 12:30 until 1:30 p. m. The Alliance, working through the Chamber of Commerce, is requesting the cooperation of local merchants so that they and their employees might attend the service.

Bernard S. Ramsey, secretary and treasurer of the Alliance, said the program is to be centered about the Seven Last Words, with variations of scriptural readings, meditations, anthems, solos and prayers.

The high school band will open with "Dem Basses" and will follow with "Mexican Overture," "Second Puccinian Fantasy," "Funiculi, Funicula," "Spiritual From Symphony No. 5 1/2" (a symphony for fun); "Lasses Trombone," "Shortin' Lika Trombone," "Blue Fantasy" and "Washington Post March."

Vandals go on antennae spree

Vandals "hit" the lighted back car lot of Tom Power Ford Monday night breaking off the antennae of all cars and trucks on lot and laying the broken antennae in front of the vehicles.

Power called it "about the worst thing done on the lot in a long time."

City Marshal Otis G. Stegman Jr. investigated the vandals.

Two Post teams finish 2nd, others 4th and 6th in meet

The Post Antelopes scored 36 1/2 points for a last-place finish Friday in the five-school District 3AA track and field meet at Denver.

The freshman, 8th grade and 7th grade teams did better, the freshmen finishing second in their divisions and the 7th graders fourth in theirs.

Tommy Bouchier, with a second place finish in the 880-yard run, was the only Antelope to qualify for the regional track and field meet this weekend at Lubbock. On first and second place winners in the high school division qualify for regional competition.

Tommy Bouchier, the only returning letterman on this season's squad, finished behind Brown of Slaton, who ran the half-mile in 2:11.3, and the 440-yard and mile relay teams finished fourth, with both being won by Denver City.

Rankin placed sixth in the 220-yard dash; Nuel Landreth sixth in the 100-yard low hurdles and fifth in the 120-yard high hurdles; Neal finished fifth in the 440-yard dash; Danny Pierce and Frankie were in a four-way tie with others for third in the high school division.

Denver City won the team championship with 206 points. Stanton second, Tahoka third and Slaton fourth.

The Post freshman team scored 145 points for its second place finish behind Denver City's 145 1/2. Stanton was third with 85 1/2, Slaton fourth and Slaton fifth.

The 440-yard relay team of Ronnie Pierce, Ed Kelly Sims, Mike Simpson, and Butch Cross placed second. Other second places were won by Simpson in the 75-yard dash and in the 100; third places were won by Cross in the 75, Simpson in the 100 and high jump; Ayala in the 440 and broad jump, and Owen in the 70-yard high jump; winning fourth places were won by Sims in the 120-yard low hurdles, John L. Sutter in the 440, and Brown in the shot put and in the discus. Sixth places were won by Scott in the 440, and Ayala in the 440. Dick Wilbert Bigott's 8th grade scored 75 points for its second place finish behind Denver.

44-yard relay team of Ayala, Manuel Mindieta, Solis and Bob Sneed won second. Other second place winners were Ayala, 50-yard dash, Sneed, 100-yard dash. Winners of third places were Sneed, 50-yard dash; Solis, 100, and Sammy Sims, discus. Fifth place winners were Mindieta, low hurdles; Solis, high jump, and Ayala, broad jump. Sixth places were won by Rickey Welch in the low hurdles and Solis in the broad jump.

Ronnie Pierce scored 34 of Post's

48 points in the 7th grade team's fourth place finish.

Pierce won the high jump, second places in the broad jump and low hurdles, third in the 100-yard dash and ran on the 440-yard relay team, which placed fourth.

Other members of the relay team were Roy Long, Jerry Sullivan and Steve Stone. Long won fourth place in the 440-yard dash and Paul Walker was fourth in the shot put for Coach Van Kountz' 7th grade team.

In District 7-B meet Southland qualifies 2 men for regional

The Southland Eagles qualified two men for the regional track meet at Lubbock this weekend in the District 7-B track and field meet held last week.

John Haire won first place in the 220-yard dash and second place in the 100-yard dash to qualify for the regional in both those events. Crawford of Southland finished second in the 880-yard run to also qualify for the regional.

Haire won the 220 in 24.8. In the 100-yard dash, he finished second to Charles Walton of Wilson. Crawford finished behind B. Rhew of Lorenzo in the 880.

Southland scored a total of 51 points for fifth place in team standings in the district meet.

Besides the places won by Haire and Crawford, the 440-yard relay team won fourth; the mile relay team, fifth; Haire was fifth in the broad jump; Sammy Ellis and J. Lancaster were fifth and sixth in the shot put; Lancaster was fifth in the discus and sixth in the 100-yard dash.

At Crosbyton, Aspermont Post ropers win in area events

R. E. Josey and Ed Kelly Sims, Post ropers each won a first and a second place in two-calf averages in a roping at Crosbyton Sunday.

In one of the two-calf average events, Josey was first and Sims second, and in the other Sims was first and Josey second.

Jack Kirkpatrick of Post also competed at Crosbyton.

In a roping March 31-April 1 at Aspermont, Kirkpatrick won the five-calf average with a total time of 65 seconds. He placed in each go-round, winning two.

Josey placed third in the five-calf average, placing in two go-rounds, with Sims winning the final go-round.

Kirkpatrick also defeated Bill Flowers of Aspermont in an eight-calf match. The Post roper's total time was 165.2 seconds to Flowers' 176.4.

Calf roping and team tying was also held at the Aspermont amateur roping event. There were 19 calf ropers and 36 teams competing.

Winners named here in archery tournament

Club members from Lubbock, Tahoka and Ralls, along with local members, participated Sunday in the Post Archery Club's annual monthly tournament.

"Sunday was a beautiful day, competition was good and we all had a grand time," said a club officer.

First place awards went to Allan Hampton in the 250 class with a score of 324, his highest yet; Dick McClain in the 175 class with a score of 237; Wayne Baldwin in the 100 class with a score of 228, which shot him into the 175 class and perhaps to even steeper competition, and to Gene Medlar in the intermediate class with a score of 72.

First place winners in the women's division were: Mabel Garrison, 125 class, score 153, T. V. Hampton, 75 class, score 113, and Dean Hampton, open class, score 47.

The West Texas League tournament will be held on the Canyon Reef Archery Club range at Snyder on Sunday, April 15, beginning at 9 a. m.

The following Sunday, the Post Archery Club will be host to the league tournament, with a 9 a. m. starting time.

Trophies will be awarded first place winners in each class. Visitors are welcome at all tournaments.

"Sports and recreation enthusiasts have no idea of the fun they are missing in not becoming acquainted with the sport of archery," a local club officer said.

"You are invited to visit our range and experience a wonderful sport that the entire family can enjoy together," he continued.

"After a few rounds on the target range, you will be ready to hunt all kinds of game."

"Shooting is free and we will see that you get the proper equipment and instructions to get you started in the fastest growing sport in America. If you are interested in trying your skill, call T. V. Hampton at 3292.

Taking office in the Post Archery Club this Saturday will be: Charles Morrow president; Wayne Baldwin, vice president; T. V. Hampton, secretary-treasurer; Hollis Branson and Roy Holly, directors, and Floyd Hampton, club reporter and publicity chairman by appointment.

Post golfers repeat as district winners

Coach Charles Hopkins' five-man Post High School golf team won the District 3AA title last Thursday at Lubbock for the third straight spring and will compete in the regional this weekend.

Playing over the Meadowbrook course, the Antelope golfers came up with a 359 team score for the 18 holes of medal play.

Slaton was the only other district member to enter a golf team in the competition.

Leslie Acker won medalist honors for the day with an 82-stroke total.

Roger Camp and Lee Williams each carded 87's and Tommy Bouchier had a 103. Teddy Scott was the fifth player with 114.

Each team competes with five players and uses the four lowest scores in team totals.

"The team played very well under the course conditions—wet and soggy," Coach Hopkins said.

While winning district honors for three straight years, the team has yet to capture regional honors, but are hopeful this weekend.

DEDUCTIONS FOR TAXES AND MEDICAL EXPENSE

Most state and local taxes are deductible on your income tax return, but Federal taxes, such as income, Social Security, estate and excise taxes are not. The taxes most commonly deducted on your return are state sales taxes, real estate taxes, personal property taxes, automobile license taxes, state gasoline taxes, driver's license fees and city income taxes.

While the ordinary real estate tax is deductible, special tax assessments which are levied against your property are not deductible if they are for improvements, such as streets, sewers or sidewalks which increase the value of your property.

The Texas tax on gasoline is 5 cents per gallon. Gasoline taxes imposed vary from state to state. Deduction for gasoline taxes should, of course, be based upon the specific number of gallons purchased in Texas and other states.

However, where this computation is impossible due to inadequate records, you can often arrive at a reasonable approximation of your gasoline taxes paid by determining the number of miles you drove your car in each state, dividing this figure by the number of miles you receive per gallon, and then multiplying the number of gallons used by the tax per gallon in the various states where you used your car.

In the case of the Texas sales tax, the Internal Revenue Service has issued a schedule of what it considers a reasonable estimate of sales tax based upon your income. If you do not have specific records this schedule should be used. Otherwise, you may be called upon to substantiate your deduction.

Medical and dental expense incurred by you and your dependents are deductible as itemized personal deductions in the year you pay your medical or dental bill.

Generally, these expenses include fees of doctors, dentists and nurses, hospital expense, eye glasses, false teeth, hearing aids and premiums paid on hospital and medical insurance. Medicines and drugs are "medical expenses" only to the extent that they exceed 1 per cent of your adjusted gross income.

You also are entitled to deduct the cost of transportation primarily for and essential to the rendition of medical care. Medical expenses for which you receive reimbursements through hospital and medical insurance are deductible only to the extent that they exceed the amount received.

If you are under 65 years of age, your deduction for medical expenses is limited to those expenses for yourself, your wife and your dependents which exceed 3 per cent of your adjusted gross income. This limitation does not apply to expenses for yourself or your wife. If either of you are over 65, it also does not apply to medical expenses in the care of your or your wife's mother or father if the parent receiving medical care is your dependent and is over 65. A "dependent" for the purpose of the medical expense deduction is the same as in the case of exemptions, except the $600 limitation on gross income does not apply.

The deduction for medical expenses cannot exceed $2,500 for each exemption you claim (except the exemptions for over 65 and blindness) with an overall maximum of $5,000 on a separate return and $10,000, joint return.

There were hundreds of trees along the Bethany Road. But no one noticed them. People were hastening over those last few miles, bound for Jerusalem to celebrate the feast.

Then the King passed by. A gentle Galilean with kind, sorrowful eyes — riding to His coronation.

People cheered and shouted Hosanna. Some laid cloaks on the dusty roadway. And then, someone discovered the trees... beautiful palms that had stood unnoticed. Their graceful branches became the carpet of the King!

And when men sought a name for that triumphal Sunday, they named it for the palms. It is a day for discovering the spiritual beauty God has planted along the road of life — a day to worship Our King.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Spring is Garden Time for 4-H'ers

Well-thumbed pages of the seed catalog are among the first signs of spring in 4-H homes across the state where young gardeners abound. Whether it's cabbages or roses they hope to grow, the budding horticulturists all share the same enthusiasm.

The number of ambitious gardeners this year should reach well over 261,000, predicts the National 4-H Service Committee. The estimate is based on 1961 figures supplied by the state 4-H Club offices.

The 4-H garden award program, supervised by the Cooperative Extension Service and supported for the last 17 years by the Farm Equipment Division of Allis-Chalmers, is open to boys and girls from 10 to 21 years old enrolled in a 4-H Club.

Gain Know-How and Cash

Experience gained in the project adds to the business know-how of the "learner" and in many cases adds to the bank account as well, it was pointed out. Profits from roadside stands, selling directly to the local grocer or door-to-door customers have aided countless youngsters in a variety of endeavors.

Vegetables grown for the dinner table or flowers raised to beautify the home have added immeasurably to mutual family benefit and enjoyment, according to the 4-H garden records.

Future careers often open up to the young people who have worked with garden projects over a long period. For example, Jerry Unruh, who will enter

They Grow 'em and Sell 'em

Pictured here (from left) are 4-H'ers Donald Weeks, 20, of Terre Haute, Ind., Carolyn Garrison, 18, of Silverton, Tex., and Jerry Unruh, 17, of Galva, Kans. This trio can't be fooled when it comes to quality and freshness because they are 1961 national 4-H garden champions and recipients of Allis-Chalmers 4-H garden scholarships. They have a combined total of 28 years of 4-H membership.

Kansas State University next fall, plans to major in horticulture. He not only has raised prize-winning vegetables, but has put aside earnings to help meet college expenses.

Gardening Is Popular

National champions Carolyn Garrison, who was among the 9,000 Lone Star Staters carrying a garden project last year, and Donald Weeks, a Purdue University junior, one of more than 9,400 Hoosier gardeners, are typical of top-notch producers in the state.

Gardening, it seems, is the ideal project for 4-H'ers no matter where they live. Weeks lives just outside Terre Haute on a 3 1/2 acre farm, while Miss Garrison lives on a sprawling 850 acre Texas ranch.

Again, this year, Allis-Chalmers will provide up to four garden medals for first place county winners; a state winner all-expense trip to the week-long National 4-H Club Congress held in Chicago right after Thanksgiving; and eight $400 college scholarships.

Winners will be named by the Cooperative Extension Service, and awards distributed through the National 4-H Service Committee.

Rep. Renal B. Rosson is chairman of new committee on study of divorce

Speaker James A. Turman today announced the appointment of Rep. Renal B. Rosson of Snyder as chairman of the Interim Committee to Make a Comprehensive Study of Divorce. Other members of the committee are Reps. David Crews of Conroe, Henry Fletcher of Luling, Paul Haring of Goliad, and Charles Whitfield of Houston.

Representative Rosson is serving his second term in the House. He is a member of the Standing Committee on Aeronautics, Agriculture, Constitutional Amendments, Criminal Jurisprudence, and Military and Veterans' Affairs.

Authorized by resolution of the 57th Legislature, this committee will examine the laws of the State relating to divorce and study the resulting problems whose impact on the need for governmental services is increasingly important. Their findings and recommendations will be reported by the committee to the Regular Session of the 58th Legislature.

Speaker Turman said, "With Texas having the 5th highest divorce rate in the nation, we Texans must recognize and face the fact that we have a tremendous responsibility to do all we can to promote the public welfare by preserving and protecting family life and the institution of matrimony. We must seek all possible methods to encourage reconciliation of spouses and the amicable settlement of domestic and family controversies."

But it turned down bids on a Grayson County tract which drew 33 bidders. Board tried, but failed, to put a block deal back together by advertising for bids on an 860 acre farm in Zavala County. Board had set the minimum bid at $150,000 but nobody bid.

Only qualified veterans who have not made GI land loans were eligible to bid on the tracts.

PROFESSORS' PAY — Two University of Texas department heads told their troubles as they moved into a new $4,000,000 business and economics building.

Dr. Carey C. Thompson, chairman of the economics department, said he recently lost a good faculty member to the University of Rochester which bid up his salary from $7,800 to $13,000 a year.

Dr. John Arch White of the College of Business Administration said his college had not had a full staff since the end of World War II. Last year he needed to hire 12 young instructors but could only find eight and then lost four of them. Other employers outbid his salary limits.

The two departments have a fine new building but are hard-pressed for professors for their growing number of students.

SUNDAY SALES — Atty. Gen. Will Wilson has held that the new law which prohibits car-house sales on Sunday or Saturday does not prohibit the sale of mobile homes.

Homestead exemption deadline is April 30

April 30 is the deadline for property owners to render their property at the county tax assessor-collector's office and claim the homestead exemption from state taxes.

Under provisions of the state constitution, a property owner may claim up to $3,000 of the valuation for tax purposes of a residence homestead as an exemption from state property taxes. The exemption does not apply to county or special district taxes, said T. H. Tipton, Garza County tax assessor-collector.

The rendition for taxation and the application for the homestead exemption must be made each year by the property owner, Tipton said. "Banks or loan agencies can pay the taxes on a piece of property on which they hold a mortgage and add the taxes to the monthly payments, but they cannot make the application for a homestead or render the property for taxation. Only the property owner can do that."

Bacterial blight in recent years has cost Texas cotton growers up to $37 million annually by reducing yields and lowering grades. It occurs throughout the world wherever cotton is grown. A new publication, MP-534, "Bacterial Blight of Cotton," is now available from the offices of county agents or by mail from the Agricultural Information Office, College Station, Texas. It is a joint publication by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, Texas.

School singers held by Lions

With 56 students performing during the evening, special groups of the Post High School vocal department presented the program at Tuesday night's Lions Club meeting.

Jim Jackson was program chairman. "The Teentones," a 12-girl group, sang "Hey, Look Me Over." Members of the group are Marcia Newby, Jackie Wilson, Cheryl Pennell, Paula Baldrée, Diane Pruitt, Sherry Gist, Mary Eubank, Theresa Salazar, Edith Johnson, Sandra Holleman and Linda Byrd.

"The Dizzy Doren," a group of 12, seventh grade boys, sang "Elmer and the Bear" and "The Battle of New Orleans." The group consists of J. O. Smith, Gregg Jones, Roy Long, Roger North, Johnny Jones, Paul Harmon, Davis Heaton, Ronald Thuet, Clyde Cash, Harold Barner, Dick Kennedy and Walter Johnson.

A girls' sextet, "The Lemon Drops," sang "My Little Corner of the World." Members are Vicki Wilks, Cheryl Martin, Faye Crawford, Laura Gerner, Linda Gist and Carolyn Carlisle.

Another girls' sextet, "The Dreamtones," sang "Only You." Members are Sammie Kaye Caffrey, Judy Cook, Cheri Moore, Linda Rogers, Jan Herring and Susie Jo Schmidt.

A boys' quartet, "The Loafers," sang "The Old Oaken Bucket." The quartet is composed of Daniel Johnson, Robert Johnson, G. T. Mason and Laylan Bratcher.

"The Lighthouse," a girls' sextet, sang two numbers, "Born to Be With You" and "Blue Tango." Members are Gayla Johnson, Dee Ann Walker, Meredith Newby, Karen Haley, Carolyn Matsler and Gayle Tittle.

Still another girls' sextet, "The Orchettes," sang "Can't Help Falling in Love." Members are Janith Short, Margie Harrison, Shirley Isaacs, Stanna Butler, Cerretha Jones and Linda McHamon.

The final group was a boys' quartet, "The Jokers Four," composed of Glenn Poik, Dwayne Capps, Teddy Scott and Jimmy Wells. They sang "Wedding Bells" and "Why?"

The singing groups were under the direction of Georgie M. Willson.

The six visitors at the Lions meeting included four from Seagraves who were here in the interest of the candidacy of John Belcher of Seagraves for governor of District 2T2, Lions International. They were Bob Ellis, Travis Bagley, Jack Patterson and Vernon Clem. Other visitors were Gene Gandy and Ronald Joe Babb, both of Post.

Plans under way for Girl Scout Day Camp here

Post will hold its first Girl Scout Day Camp this summer for scouts in the second grade on through the Intermediates.

A good crowd was on hand Monday night in the Reddy Room to formulate the plans for the camp to be held June 4, 5 and 6 in the City-County Park.

Co-directors in charge of the Day Camp are Mrs. Ronnie Bouchard and Mrs. Howard Sprayberry.

A fee of $1.50 will be charged to defray expenses for refreshments, insurance, program costs and lunch for one day.

Mrs. D. D. Cooper announced there will be a nursery for children of adult workers and anyone interested in helping should contact her or one of the co-directors.

Freshman class sets party for Saturday

The Freshman class of Post High School will have their second semester class party this Saturday.

Students are to meet at 2 o'clock at the parking lot at the high school gym. They will be taken by car or truck to the home of the Douglas McWhirts for hiking and exploring the countryside.

Mothers are furnished fried chicken, potato salad and baked beans for the evening meal. Class dues will be used to buy the soft drinks, dessert, paper plates etc.

Around 100 students are expected to attend and should return to their homes by 8 o'clock.

The party will be chaperoned by sponsors and parents.

Trammell-Nicks wedding vows spoken at church in Snyder

Marjorie Ann Nicks became the bride of Joe Bob Trammell in the East Side Church of Christ in Snyder, March 31 at 7 o'clock.

MRS. JOE BOB TRAMMELL (Marjorie Ann Nicks)

The double ring ceremony was performed by Richard Wilson, pastor of the church, before an archdiaphanous inset with a candelabra on each side banked with Boston and baskets of yellow glass and white daisies.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a traditional wedding gown of Chantilly lace over taffeta and long sleeves ending in lace over the hands. The yoke and sleeves were edged with Chantilly lace accented the back. Her finger tip veil was in two tiers and was caught to a tiara in princess style. She carried a cascading bouquet of feathery white flowers with a focal point of white and yellow.

The bridesmaids wore a green linen sheath and a green matching hat. The matron of honor, Mrs. Wayne Jarvis, sister of the bride, wore an identical dress in yellow polished cotton. The bridesmaids, Misses Carol Shoemaker, Barbara Floyd and Janet all of Snyder and Beth Hodges of Post, were attired in green sheaths. They all carried trimmed yellow roses.

The flower girls, Vicki Land and Brown, wore yellow polka-dot full skirted dresses with sleeves and headbands of roses. Candelighters were Ekols, niece of the groom, Licky Land, nephew of the Weddon Nicks, nephew of the groom, served as ring bearer.

Mr. Hodges of Post was best man. Ushers were Wayne Jarvis, son-in-law of the bride, Tommie Ekols, brother of the bride, and Royce Hart.

The reception was provided by a group of appella singers under the direction of Roger Gee.

The reception was held after the ceremony. The serving table was a white cloth and centered with a bouquet of yellow roses. Wedding cake was served by Mrs. Ramona Anthony and Juanita Land, both sisters of the bride. Miss Anita Lou Nicks, of the bride, was in charge of the guest book.

The bride wore a white dress with black accessories for a wedding to New Mexico.

The couple are at home at 122 Street in Snyder. Mrs. Nicks is employed at the East Side Church of Christ and Mr. Trammell is employed at Snyder High School and Air Conditioning.

Guests attending the wedding were Mrs. Katharine Trammell, Mrs. Joe Callis, Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Ekols and Mr. Jimmy Hodges.

First Baptist sanctuary choir to present cantata on Sunday

The sanctuary choir of the First Baptist Church will present an Easter cantata entitled "No Greater Love", written by John Peterson, music editor and publisher of Singpiration, Inc., Sunday night at 7:30.

Cantata slated by junior and adult Methodist choirs

The junior and adult choirs of the First Methodist Church will present an Easter cantata Sunday at 7:30 p. m. at the church.

Both choirs are under the direction of Mrs. Ronald Babb and will be accompanied by Mrs. Kay Kirkpatrick, organist.

The junior choir will open the cantata with "Into the Woods" and will sing "Christ Arose" as the professional for the adult choir.

Music sung by the adult choir is from "Victorious King" with solo parts taken by Dee Ann Walker, Mrs. Gordon Willson and Bob Meisch.

The public is invited to attend.

His subject was "Art of Living". Refreshments of chocolate pie and coffee were served to the following members: Bernice Eubank, Frances Clemmons, Sherry Josey, Jenece Reno, Margaret King, Ella Norene Ryder, Twilight Dudley, Wynelle Holland, Joan Stewart, Burna May, Shirley Moore and the hostess, Flute King.

It's My Turn

BY MRS. C.

The perfect caption for the front page picture on The Dispatch last week of the sculptor and our town's statue: "Well, how's everything going, C. W.?"

I answered a call at the office one day last week and was asked by a female voice how one should send typewritten news or a story in to a newspaper or magazine. I answered right away that it should be double spaced and not to write on the back of the paper. She said, "Thank you very much, I'm writing my life story for True Confessions and wanted to send it in properly." Now, here we have a budding author in our town and I've no idea who. She hung up before I could curiously inquire.

I think the town owes a vote of thanks to three gals that went out on the town here about ten days ago and collected money to defray medical expenses for the little Gonzales baby who was badly burned in a fire. The important thing about this to me is that they not only had the thought but did something about it. Most of us have the thoughts but that's usually about as far as we go. These gals followed through and if I wore a hat while writing my column I'd tip it to Margaret King, Lorrie Lou McAlister and Shirley Moore.

Sitting across the table Saturday night from the Didways at the Junior-Senior banquet, I commented to Charlie that this was where I had been spending my time lately instead of being at the office where Mr. C. and Mr. D. had been doing my work. Charlie looked all around at the Roman setting and remarked: "Well, Helen, Rome wasn't built in a day."

I committed the cardinal sin in the story about the banquet and I got the wrong Bush listed as a Junior class mother. Inexcusably I put the initials W. C. in front of Bush instead of Elmo. Mrs. Elmo was quite nice about it and before all the decorating was over probably wished it had been Mrs. W. C. instead of Mrs. Elmo.

All of the girls looked so pretty at the banquet with their formal dresses and corsages. The boys looked real elegant in their suits or white coats. It's a shame we just get to see them all that way just once a year.

If I hadn't been one of the mothers helping I could say that the class mothers looked pretty good too considering how beat-up, down-trodden, exhausted and haggard we all looked as we staggered out the door (late) to hope we had time for hot baths and a little beauty treatment on top of helping our sons or daughters be ready for the big night of the year. I looked around at the banquet and decided we'd all succeeded.

Miss Williams betrothal to Frank Hadderton Jr. is told

Mr. and Mrs. Ozell Williams, Star Route, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Marilyn Lea, to Frank Hadderton Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hadderton Sr., Star Route.

Miss Williams is attending Post High School and Mr. Hadderton is a graduate of the Crosbyton High School.

The wedding and reception will take place in the home of the bride-elect's grandmother, Mrs. Jesse L. Williams, Star Route, May 26.

Reports made on convention at Amity's meeting

The Amity Study Club met Tuesday night in the home of Mrs. Billy J. Carlisle with Mrs. Pat Walker as co-hostess.

After Mrs. Russell Wilks Jr. read the club collect and roll call was taken, Mrs. Malcolm Bull, president, conducted the business meeting.

Mrs. Leo Cobb gave the current report as chairman of Americanism.

Reports on the District Texas Texas Federation of Woman's Club convention were made by Mrs. Bull, Mrs. Jack Burress and Mrs. Conrad Hartel. The convention was held Monday and Tuesday in Plainview. The Amity Club yearbook received honorable mention.

The president read a letter of resignation from Mrs. Powell Shytle, which the club accepted with regret.

The program, with the theme "Foreign Threats", was presented by Mrs. Irvin Scarbrough and Mrs. W. C. Bush. They gave life sketches on Nikita Krushchev and Fidel Castro, respectively.

Refreshments were served to the following: Mmes. Ronald Babb, Bull, Burress, Bush, W. C. Caffey Jr., Carl-

Most-wanted paintings designated by voting

Guests were asked to vote for the picture they would most like to have when the Woman's Culture Club sponsored the Fine Arts Festival last Wednesday in the Community Room.

First place went to Elmer Aley for his painting, "Mt. Margaret" near Bronte, Texas. There was a three-way tie for second place; Mrs. Iris Power with a still life, "Bread," Mrs. Gladys Presson, "Indian Madonna," and Mrs. Mildred Outlaw, "Chardin Copy." Mrs. Evelyn Neff was third place winner with "Snow Scene."

Interest grows in planning survey

The turnout was good last Thursday afternoon at a meeting here on Post's urban planning project, and a good turnout is just what the planning engineers had been urging, but hadn't been getting.

Twenty-six local citizens, representing a good cross-section of the community, were present to hear Daniel Carr of the Fowler and Grafe planning engineers explain the program into which the City of Post entered several months ago through its zoning and planning commission.

Also present at the meeting were W. R. Walker of the State Health Department, Austin, which is paying for part of the cost of the planning, and Troy Lowery of Lubbock, also of the State Health Department.

As far along as the planning engineers are in their work—they've already prepared two study publications, Population and Land Use — they should have been getting as good turn-outs all along as the one that greeted them last Thursday. But they haven't.

The City of Post, particularly Mayor Powell Shytles and City Supt. Henry Tate, is to be congratulated for seeing to it that a representative and a tolerably satisfying turnout was present for the last meeting.

Heretofore, the planning engineers had found only a handful, mostly city councilmen and members of the zoning and planning commission, present when they came here to make reports on the progress of the survey.

While last Thursday's meeting was much better attended than any of the previous one, there's still plenty of room for an increase in the number sitting in on these important meetings. We say important, because the planning survey is looking ahead in a systematic manner to Post's growth and development between now and 1980.

The planning survey is something the citizens of Post indicated they wanted, by a topheavy margin, in a straw vote held some four years ago during a municipal election.

The planning engineer and State Health Department representatives expressed themselves as well pleased at the bigger turnout at last week's meeting, but indicated that they would like to see even more citizens at the next one.

The city planning survey is everybody's business and the engineers will welcome suggestions from one and all at future meetings here. If the City of Post and the taxpayers are to get their money's worth for what they are putting into the survey, they need to hear from anyone who has a suggestion for the development of the planning project. And the proper place to make these suggestions is at the meetings to be held here by the planning engineers. There'll be a number of these meetings within the next few months.—CD

Time for politics to warm up

The Texas voter hasn't yet grown used to the early spring primary. For that matter, nobody has—including the candidates.

Probably that's why primary politics haven't really warmed up as yet, either here or over the state generally. And this despite the fact that a record field of candidates is making a tremendous effort to stir up some emotional enthusiasm.

Now that city and school board elections are behind us, political interest should shift quickly to the state and county races.

It had better. There are but three weeks left before primary election day.

We heard somebody theorize the other day that the lack of political excitement probably is due to the fact that the Texan is used to mixing his politics with hot summer weather and concentrating upon it while waiting for the cotton to grow.

Library Week... pang of regret

This is National Library Week. It never rolls around but what we feel a pang of regret that Garza County missed the boat on organizing a county library when real help was at hand.

After the year's demonstration by the Texas Library's bookmobile, the state had 1,000 new books purchased for Garza County's new library. But the library never got off the ground—despite real citizen interest.

We doubt if we will ever have such a fine educational opportunity again—although the possibility remains.

Today's economics being what they are libraries these days are hard "to come by." Library authorities have pointed out to us more than once that one of the best ways to obtain a good library beginning is to "inherit" them from some substantial community citizen who wants to leave a beneficial heritage behind when he or she dies.

May, the whole political pattern has changed. The candidates are being mighty vocal—but few voters are paying much attention. They're busy with other things.

This is to alert the voter to perk up—and pay some attention. It won't be long before he will have to make up his mind. He can vote for candidates representing almost any political shade of opinion this year he likes the best.

Here in Garza County, we have some contested races which are sure to become pretty spirited before the votes go into the box on May 5.

In fact two or three of those races may go into a primary runoff for decision.

So give your candidates a chance. If you want to know how they stand on this or that, ask them. After all, these aren't popularity contests. The idea is to put the man or woman into office you feel will best represent you.—JC

Dog ordinance protects everyone

Announcement last week that the new dog license tags have been placed on sale at the City Hall points up once again how wise it is to take steps to protect the citizenry from dogs—pedigreed and otherwise.

Enforcement of the city dog ordinance, while none too strict here in the past, actually is for the protection of dog owners, too, since far fewer dogs undoubtedly will be killed or injured by disease or automobiles if vaccinated, licensed and kept up.

It is reported that 600,000 people were bitten by dogs in this country last year. Some of the biters were strays, some were members of ravaging packs and some were pets that for some reason got out of hand.

For protection against the pet dogs, the American Medical Association's magazine, "Today's Health" provides a few simple precautionary rules:

1. Don't give a dog to a small child—under six—unless you are prepared to be constantly on the scene when the two are together.

2. Never allow a child to tease or abuse a dog, and see that he learns about training and care.

3. Let the dog alone while he is eating.

4. Remember that a dog, stimulated by running and playing, may bite from sheer excitement.

5. Never awaken a sleeping dog abruptly.

6. Be careful in trying to separate fighting dogs—one or both may turn on you.

The summary of it all would seem to be: Love that dog, if you insist—but love that child much, much more.—CD

What our contemporaries are saying

Government statisticians report that 25 per cent of American families live beyond their income. Look who's talking!—Marvin Tomme in The Ralls Banner.

Speaking of Billie Sol Estes' affairs, as who is not at this time, he had spread himself out into many unrelated lines of business. Grain, cotton, fertilizers, and others down to and including a funeral parlor and a country newspaper. It was this last venture that proved disastrous. The story may not be true, but it is said he wanted an interest in the Pecos newspaper. The man didn't want to sell an interest. Then Estes said, "Well, I'll just buy you out." Still no soap. The man would not sell. So Billie Sol decided to put in a competitive outfit. Moral: Don't ever venture into the publishing business.—The Floyd County Hesperian.

Rattlesnake hunting is getting to be popular. Almost every weekend we read where somebody killed 50 or more. I'm glad someone is killing them. I also like a thrill as much as anybody, but when I hear that familiar buzzing-whistling noise, that's a little too thrilling for my timid nerves.—Troy Simpson in The Ballinger Ledger.

Never miss an opportunity to make others happier... even if you have to let them alone in order to do it.—James Roberts in The Andrews County News.

Most horses are solvent because they don't bet on men and their luck is reasonably good without nailing a man's shoe over the stable door.—Douglas Meador in Matador Tribune.

THURSDAY to THURSDAY

By CHARLES DIDWAY

NEWSPAPERMEN — the weekly variety—in this area greeted last week's rains in typical fashion by splashing news of the precipitation in prominent positions on their front pages.

"General Rains Dent 4-Month Dry Spell" was the three-line, two-column head on the front page of The Post Dispatch, but we'd planned for something bigger when we went home late Wednesday afternoon before putting the paper on the press Thursday morning.

WE'D DUMMIED up two front pages, one with an 8-column banner if the rainfall had exceeded one inch by Thursday morning. Since it didn't, we went to press with the smaller "splash" on the .35 of an inch of rain we did get.

The rain apparently didn't amount to much at Matador either, where Editor Doug Meador ran a one-column head, "Showers Falling," over a two-paragraph story. The story mentioned that rain "was still falling when the Tribune went to press about 2 a. m. this morning." I didn't know newspaper people still worked that late getting their paper to press, but I have done it—and even later—in years gone by.

THE RALLS Banner, edited by Marvin Tomme, had a banner, "And the Rains Came." The story under the headline started out: "It Can! It Did! Not much, but it helped."

"Dry Earth Gulps Water," was the one-line, two-column head over the rain story in The Brownfield News, with Editor Don Bynum referring to the rain as "multimillion dollar moisture."

EDITOR FRANK Hill of the Lynn County News at Tahoka made the rain the top story in his paper, under a one-line, three-column head: "Rain Finally Comes." Of course, Frank had more to "crow" about than we did, since Tahoka got 1.24 inches to our .35.

Since neither the Crosbyton Review nor the Texas Spur at Spur had anything about the rain on their front pages, I gather that they hadn't received much, if any, at the time they went to press.

MY FRIEND UP the street says his wife does bird imitations—watches him like a hawk.

We've had lots of "goofs" explained to us here at The Dispatch office—and have had to explain about as many ourselves. But, for frankness in apologizing for a goof, we nominate the following letter received last week from Marshall Lynam of Texas Congressman Jim Wright's office in Washington, D. C.

"Dear Newspapermen: At times, I suppose, almost everybody gets caught in a situation so embarrassing he would like to crawl under the rug and hide. That's the way I feel now.

"All of you, I feel sure, were somewhat startled when you received anywhere from six to a dozen copies of Congressman Jim Wright's March 14 newsletter.

"As a new member of Congressman Wright's staff, I have the job of seeing that the newsletter gets properly printed and distributed. So I think I owe you an apology and an explanation. Here's what happened:

"The envelopes in which we mail newsletters are addressed several weeks in advance and stored in large cartons.

"When the time came to mail out the March 14 newsletter, I failed to give the mailing room specific instructions on which cartons of the pre-addressed envelopes to use.

"As a result, the mailers picked up ALL the cartons of envelopes which had been prepared for future mailings to newspapers, radios and TV stations. So instead of getting just one copy, you received one copy for each advance envelope we had prepared in your name.

"It was a terrible goof, and I offer my sincerest apologies. I'll try to see that it never happens again." Sheepishly yours, etc.

THINK NO MORE of it Marshall, old boy. If no bigger goof than that ever took place in Washington, we'd feel more secure than we do now.

Two of Post's senior citizens have moved to new living quarters in recent weeks. Bob Warren, retired pharmacist and named Pioneer of the Year at the 1962 Chamber of Commerce banquet, recently moved into his new house adjacent to the home of his son-in-law and daughter. Mr. and Mrs. Tom Gates at 112 South Avenue N. Mr. Bob sold the house in which he had been living at 114 North Avenue L, to Mrs. Lee Byrd, who also has finished moving into her newly acquired house. Mrs. Byrd sold the home in which she and her late husband had lived for years, at 503 North Avenue S, to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Myers.

A GALLANT DEED
A few days ago a number of men from the blockading squad in the Sound succeeded in capturing several fishing banks. One of these smacks happened to be the property of an honest German, after surrendering his vessel, he proceeded to entertain very hospitably the two Yankee soldiers or men who were left aboard to guard the prize. In the midst of the celebration, the German got possession of the musket of one of the Yankees, suddenly brought it to bear on the top of his head and blew the top of his head off. He then charged bayonet on the other Yankee, who surrendered and permitted himself to be tied up with a rope. The German then waited until it was dark, then slipped off from the deck, and sailing up the river, reached Fort Pike in safety, and from there he made his way to the Stars and Stripes Union from his masthead. He reported to the commandant of the fort one dead and one live Yankee. The former was brought by his captor and delivered to Lovell. All honor to the brave

SUICIDE OF SLAVERY
The meeting at Cooper Institute last evening was very large and very much in earnest. Whatever in the remarks of the speakers was trenchant upon Slavery as the source of all our national tribulations, found a vigorous response. While any palliative, or measure short of compulsory emancipation, more or less gradual, were either received in silence, or vehemently scouted. In the latter category was Mr. Lincoln's recent Message. The meeting certainly proved that the war has not diminished the Anti-Slavery sentiment of New York, where Anti-Slavery sentiment has not been used to flourish hardly.—THE NEW YORK TIMES (Reprinted in Texas newspapers)

Farmer Proven
New From P. A. G.

P-A-G 34 . . . A Sorghum-Sudangrass Hybrid with rapid recovery after grazing or mechanical harvest — allowing continuous grazing or several cuttings of hay, silage, or green chop. Its red seed looks like grain sorghum. Plant it for top grazing potential.

P-A-G 35 . . . Another Sorghum-Sudangrass Hybrid. Similar to P-A-G 34 but with a sweet stalk and very juicy stemmed. This variety's red seed looks like Grain Sorghum. Plant it for high quality grazing.

P-A-G 1 . . . A semi-sweet, medium maturing forage Hybrid widely adapted to a variety of soil types. Non-grain producing unless blended with a pollinator — it produces exceptionally high tonnage in a shorter period of time than most standard varieties.

Corrugated steel basement fallout shelter shielded from radiation by sandbags is available in a kit for about $125, offers moderate fallout protection, and may be easily transported and put up. Details on this and other shelters are in the Defense Department's "Family Shelter Designs" booklet now at local civil defense offices.

New symbols featured on '62 Highway Travel Map

AUSTIN—The pioneering Texas Highway Department — originator of a proposal to standardize symbols on state maps for easier understanding by motorists—features some of the new symbols on its 1962 Official Highway Travel Map. A four-color beauty with "See Texas" as its theme, the new map is now available free to the public. In 1956, Texas recommended that a standard set of symbols be adopted for use on all state maps—to make the maps easier to read for motorists crossing from one state into another. This proposal was eventually adopted by the American Association of State Highway Officials and within the next few years all official state highways maps will be using these accepted standard symbols. When this standardization is effected, none of the road symbols should be "foreign" to a motorist traveling anywhere in the United States—provided the map he consults utilizes AASHO symbols.

SUCH UNIFORM symbols will make the nation's travel maps easier to read and understand—whether in New York or New Mexico, South Dakota or South Carolina. A quick look at the standard symbols, and the motorist immediately knows what type of highways are available in a given area, as well as many types of other special travel information required by the modern motorist. Texas Highway Department officials said they plan to adopt all the AASHO highway symbols when the basic travel map is rescribed. They said the basic map probably will be completely redrawn within the next two years.

Chances are the Lone Star State will be the first of The Forty and Ten whose highway department turns out a travel map incorporating all the AASHO symbols.

Use of the AASHO color symbols indicating the network of Interstate, U. S. and State highways, and Farm to Market roads in Texas keynotes the major changes in the latest edition of the popular travel map.

On the new map, U. S. highways and Farm to Market roads—both formerly indicated in black—are now shown in a red band and a blue band respectively. Shields for U. S. highways remain red; but Farm to Market road shields, which were black, now are "boxes" in blue, too.

OFFICIALS OF THE Texas Highway Department said that markings for the State highways will remain a black band. Also, Interstate Highways will retain their two narrow black bands with a red center. This is the standard symbol for showing the Interstate Highway System.

Multilane-divided highway miles now completed and shown on the new map total 2,131 miles. They include the finished sections of the seven National Systems of Interstate and Defense Highways throughout Texas.

This year's map has more than 698 Farm to Market and Ranch to Market road miles added. Approximately 29,848 miles of the state's more than 33,000 mile Farm to Market road system now under maintenance are shown on the map. So are the 26,921 miles of Interstate, U. S. and State highways.

The '62 map has a map-on-a-map

Congress hopeful raps waste in government

CROSBYTON — Dennis Taylor, Republican candidate for U. S. Congressman, 19th District, launched his campaign recently at a barbecue in Crosbyton.

Taylor, a candidate for the congressional seat now held by Rep. George Mahon, Democrat, condemned wastefulness in government.

"Get the government out of your business and your pocketbook" was the theme of Taylor's campaign speech.

Approximately 250 persons attended the barbecue rally.

OLD MR. BOSTON

YOU'RE MAKING A BIG MISTAKE IF YOU'RE NOT DRINKING 80 PROOF GIN!

If you think higher proof means higher quality — that's a mistake.

If you think you have to pay more money to get a better gin — that's a mistake.

If you think the gin the English drink is more than 80 proof — that's a mistake.

You should know, to begin with, that America is the only civilized country in the world that drinks high-proof gin. The British, who perfected gin, wouldn't think of it! They know that gin has an ideal taste and flavor balance at a milder, smoother 80 proof. Here's the whole story:

80 PROOF GIN TASTES BETTER
"Proof" is no measure of quality. It's a measure of alcohol content alone. (100 proof means 50% alcohol.) Alcohol itself has no flavor. The pleasant taste of gin comes entirely from the herbs with which it's distilled.

The best test of gin is to drink it straight or on-the-rocks. You'll find 80 proof gin has the big taste advantage of 80 proof mildness — with the same full flavor of higher proof gins.

80 PROOF GIN COSTS LESS
Gins are taxed by the U.S. on their proof or alcohol content, only. The lower the proof — the lower the taxes, and the lower the cost to you. When you buy an imported label, you add the cost of shipping and duties. That pushes the price even higher, without giving you 80 proof quality.

80 PROOF GIN MAKES BETTER MARTINIS
It makes them extra dry, as you like them, but not extra strong. Twenty years ago, the 3-to-1 Martini was standard. Today, with the trend to dryer Martinis, they're made 6-, 7-, even 8-to-1. As a result the modern Martini has climbed from a smooth 75.5 proof to an overwhelming 84 proof! Solution? Mix with 80 proof gin. It gives you the same full, dry gin flavor, but it returns the Martini to its original, more moderate proof.

80 PROOF GIN MAKES BETTER TALL DRINKS
When you mix a tall drink, like a Collins or a gin 'n tonic, you dilute the strength of the gin "to taste." You also mix for balance of flavor. 80 proof gin will give you better balance. You don't have to drown it to drink it.

HOW TO MAKE DRY MARTINIS MAKE MORE SENSE

Using Standard 40 Proof Dry Vermouth	Using 80 Proof Dry Gin	Using 80 Proof Dry Gin (or Vodka)
3 — to — 1 (Traditional)	76.5 Proof	69.0 Proof
5 — to — 1 (Dry)	81.0 Proof	72.6 Proof
8 — to — 1 (Extra Dry)	84.0 Proof	75.1 Proof

(The "standard" proof for today's bottled Martinis is a moderate 67.5 proof!)

OLD MR. BOSTON IS THE FINEST GIN YOU CAN BUY

It's vacuum distilled at an unusually low temperature in special glass-lined stills. Only at such a low temperature, is it possible to capture the most delicate essence of the herbs. This is one reason for Old Mr. Boston's flavor distinction. It is America's first and largest-selling 80 proof Dry Gin!

City law enforcement stepped up with employment of police chief

Elton Corley is hired by council

The Post city council voted unanimously Monday night to step up its law enforcement by employing Elton Corley, former deputy sheriff here, as chief of police and to employ a third policeman in the near future to give around-the-clock police protection.

The city council voted to hire Corley as chief of police at a salary of $425 a month after Mayor Powell Shytle told them Corley was available and could begin his duties here Monday, April 16.

The city council's plans call for the present city marshal, Otis G. Shepherd Jr., to serve as assistant chief of police and for Corley to name a third man to the force later.

After serving as deputy sheriff here throughout 1961, Corley resigned the first of the year, served a few days on the city police force and then went to Lamesa as a member of the Dawson County sheriff's department.

Mayor Powell Shytle pointed out to the city council that expansion of the city police force to a three-man around-the-clock job would depend on the county's contribution to expenses.

Mayor Shytle said the county had indicated that it would pay $300 a month on city police department salaries. Also, required, the mayor said, will be more help from the county on fire department expenses.

Rotary check for foreign student presented school

Post Rotarians Tuesday presented a check for $478.50 to Judy Clary, Post High School student council president, to be used to help finance a foreign student in Post High School for the 1962-63 school year.

The presentation was made before all the members of the Post High School girls' basketball squad who were luncheon guests of the club in City hall.

The $478.50 was raised via a benefit game in which the Post Rotary Dames "tied" the Post High School Does in a benefit cage contest here early in March.

Frank Blanton, chairman of Rotary's benefit game committee, handed the check to Miss Clary after Judy had introduced all the members of the Does cage squad.

Noel Clemmons, Post primary school principal, gave a very interesting program on the differences between "a graded and an ungraded primary school."

Clemmons explained in the ungraded primary school students in the three years advance through eight reading levels, as rapidly as their individual abilities permit. Thus no student fails, but is moved forward at his individual learning rate.

Law is cited on precinct voting

"All voters are required to vote in the election precinct in which they reside," said N. C. Outlaw, chairman of the county Democratic committee, this week in pointing up past violations.

Article 2-06 of the Election Code, Outlaw said, provides that "voters shall vote in the election precinct in which they reside."

Outlaw cited Texas court rulings in which the judgments were to the effect that any vote cast by a voter outside the precinct in which he resides is illegal.

One of the rulings cited by the Democratic chairman was that "even though certain voters had voted in one location for years and honestly believed that was the place where they should vote because they did not know where the dividing line was, they voted in the wrong precinct and their votes were illegal."

Outlaw pointed out that by voting outside their home precinct, voters are not only breaking the law, but are also asking the election judge to do the same by allowing them to vote.

TO CONFER HERE

Allen Seairight, community coordinator for the Texas Industrial Commission from Austin, will be in Post Tuesday to confer with members of the Post Chamber of Commerce's industrial committee on the local industrial program.

penses and city-county radio operation.

Since the resignation of Deputy Sheriff Oscar Gray on April 1, more financial help is believed forthcoming from the county toward police protection.

The county commissioners' court has not authorized salary for a deputy sheriff to replace Gray.

Following the council's action

Monday night in employing Corley as chief of police, Councilman James R. Matthews said that he believed the city council should "take the bull by the horns" and keep close tab on the operations of the city police department.

"We shouldn't just say 'this is yours' and hand it to them," Matthews said.

He suggested a periodical reporting system, keeping of files, briefing on juvenile cases, etc.

Mayor Shytle said he had discussed such reporting procedures with Corley and that the newly-elected police chief had agreed they were necessary.

In other action Monday night, the city council administered the oaths of office to new councilman Wesley Scott and to incumbents W.

S. Duckworth and Harold Lucas, who were re-elected April 3. The oaths of office were administered by Mayor Shytle.

The swearing-in ceremonies followed the council's canvass of the city election.

The city council also named Mrs. Wynelle Holland as city secretary. She has been serving as acting secretary for the past year or so.

MORE HELP NEEDED BY LITTLE LEAGUE

The Little League is limping. And it will remain crippled throughout the summer youth baseball program unless more adults volunteer to help.

That is the word from E. L. (Bud) Avant Jr., league president.

This year's Little League program, with six teams lined up, needs more help than has been volunteered to date, Avant says.

The success of this season's Little League program might well depend on the turn-out at a meeting scheduled for 7:30 p. m. Tuesday, April 17, at the Community Room of the First National Bank.

The evening's agenda will include election of officers, Avant said.

At school trustee meeting

Moreland re-elected president of board

The Post Independent School District trustees Monday night re-elected E. R. (Buster) Moreland president of the board for the fifth consecutive year, discussed the collection of delinquent taxes at some length, and re-hired all of the school district's auxiliary employees on the recommendation of Supt. R. T. Smith.

Malcolm Bull was renamed secretary of the board and A. Lee Ward, one of the two new trustees elected Saturday, was elected vice president of the board for the next 12 months.

Auxiliary employees employed for the next school year by a unanimous vote of the board included:

Ira (Dad) Greenfield, district tax collector-assessor.

Mrs. Nell Compton, Mrs. Helen Livingston and Mrs. Roberta Herron, secretaries.

F. E. Keeton, Dick Allen, Raul Barreda, Alfredo Garza, S. A. Nutt and Ben Howell, custodians.

Mrs. Junaetta Malsler, Mrs. Myrtle Carradine, Mrs. Ann Gray, Mrs. Cleo Hahn, Mrs. Myrtle Peel and Mrs. Bobbie Vardiman, lunchroom workers.

N. R. King, Leonard Tittle, Lee Davis Jr., Mrs. Ruby Ray, Mrs. Jettie Puckett, Darrell Stone and Dick Allen, school bus drivers.

The trustees, after hearing City Attorney Carl Webb explain the legalities involved, voted for the school district to join both city and county in a suit against lot 16, block 142 in the City of Post, located in the 500 block South Broadway for the collection of delinquent taxes which have run since 1926.

Webb explained the city is interested in getting joint suits against other properties for payment of old delinquent taxes. He pointed out that if such properties, many of which ownership is unknown, were sold for payment of taxes they would be returned to the paying tax rolls and thus be of benefit.

It was also pointed out that oil royalties on many of these lots—royalties which have been accruing since 1950—would almost pay for such tax delinquencies.

The trustees decided to ask Dad Greenfield for a complete listing of delinquent school district taxes "to see what the problem is" before considering other joint collection suits.

Supt. Smith said he would have a report next month from Greenfield for the board on the results obtained from letters mailed recently from the school district's

Bouchier, Ward are elected as trustees

Post Independent School District voters turned out in record numbers Saturday to elect two new school district trustees—A. Lee Ward and Ronnie Bouchier.

Ward, a write-in candidate and superintendent of Postex Cotton Mills here, led the way with 389 votes.

Bouchier, construction superintendent for the Manhattan Construction Co. here, was close behind with 358.

Incumbents Quanah Maxey and J. E. Birdwell, running for reelection, had 192 and 178 votes respectively. Dennis Eubank, a secretary, was unopposed.

Sam Ellis was elected county school trustee from precinct 1, receiving 96 votes. He was unopposed.

Pearl Nance, unopposed, was elected county school trustee from precinct 4 with 57 votes.

In the Justiceburg common school district trustee election at Justiceburg Saturday, Weldon Reed and Sid Cross were elected to that board of trustees.

Reed received 48 votes and Cross 37.

On rail crossing accident

$241,340 damage suit is filed here

One of the largest damage suits in recent years—for a total of $241,340—was filed in district court here Tuesday by Joyce Kyle Hildebrand, former Post resident, against the band and Santa Fe Railway company.

The suit is based on a Main Street rail crossing accident here shortly after midnight Jan. 3, 1961, when the pickup truck Hildebrand was driving crashed into the engine of a 117-car freight train.

Hildebrand, now a resident of Big Spring, alleges in the suit that the crossing's signal lights were defective and not operating and that the railroad company is guilty of ten acts of negligence.

The petition filed in the suit asks $75,000 for compensation of pain suffered and pain which Hildebrand will suffer; $164,840 damages for lost earning capacity, and $1,000 for doctor bills.

The petition alleges that Hildebrand suffered a severe brain concussion and brain damage to the extent that he is not capable of gainful employment and that his reasoning power has been impaired.

The petition further states that Hildebrand is 36 years of age, he has a life expectancy of 31.07 years and asks the $164,840 damages to replace lost earning capacity. It alleges he has been totally and permanently disabled.

The deadline was scheduled to pass at 1:30 p. m. today for that "two inch rain" the First National Bank advertised for two weeks ago. Actual rainfall was approximately .65 of an inch here in Post—the first measurable amount of 1962. Burney Francis reported 1.8 inches of moisture during the same period at his place west of Post.

So we wouldn't say the ad didn't draw pretty well at that. We might point out that advertising is aimed at getting the customers to the stores and it's up to the merchants to "take it from there." In the case of the rain ad, there were plenty of rain clouds over Garza county for at least 72 hours. It was sort of like a customer who went to see but didn't buy.

At special meeting Monday in Spur

First portion of White River dams site purchased

The White River Municipal Water District at a special meeting Monday morning in Spur of its directors completed a 404-acre tract on the White River dam site for a basic price of $36 per acre.

The purchase was made from Arnold and Betsy Sanderson who several weeks ago agreed to the sale.

The district's land committee met at Ralls Monday morning and when all contract details had been agreed with Sanderson and his attorney, the directors were called to a special meeting at Spur, a more central meeting point.

Attending the sessions from Post were Tom Bouchier, Dr. A. C. Sur-man and James Minor, Post's three White River directors, and Mayor Powell Shytle, who is Post's representative on the district's land committee.

Negotiations are reportedly continuing on the purchase of the Walker estate land on which the dam itself would be built.

Three land parcels are involved in the dam site.

Only securing the site is holding up the contract letting for actual dam and pipeline construction.

While these negotiations have been going on, the district also has been busy acquiring necessary easements for the water pipelines to the four cities.

'Audience Appeal' featured

Band's spring concert is slated for Friday night

With an "audience appeal" program arranged, the three bands of Post schools will present their annual spring concert this Friday night in the junior high school gym. The concert will feature the old high school gym director, Bob Meisch, said the concert, beginning at 7:45 o'clock, will provide an hour and a half of entertainment.

There will be admission charges of 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for high school and junior high students, with children from the fifth grade down being admitted free. The admission proceeds will be used to help defray the junior high school band's trip to Abernathy Saturday to the Interscholastic League's junior high band event.

A total of 168 students will be heard in the three bands, the director said.

Opening the concert will be the beginners' band, which will play four numbers — "Easy Steps March," "Shadowland Waltz," "Sunset Meditations" and "Junior Band March."

The junior high band's four numbers will be "Activity March," "Creole Suite," "Little Irish Suite" and "On the Street March."

Variety ranging from stirring Mexican numbers to the humorous will be heard in the high school band's presentations. An added at-
