Ranch girl to represent Post, Garza at big show

Kelly Jo Myers, typical ranch girl, will represent Post and Garza County in the big Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show opening Friday at Fort Worth and will ride Ed Sims' world champion halter horse, Honeycomb.

Kelly Jo, who is 17, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Myers and is a junior in Southland High School. She has lived all her life on the Star Ranch in Garza County.

When Kelly Jo was five years old she was chosen Most Typical Little Cowgirl in the 1950 Southwestern Championship Junior Rodeo here. Nine years later, when she was 14, she was elected queen of the Junior Rodeo. She has competed in various rodeo events here and elsewhere in the Southwest and says she plans to continue in the sport.

For two-year terms

Historical group reappointed here

The Garza County Historical Survey Committee held its first meeting of the year Tuesday, on Texas Historical Preservation Day, with County Judge J. E. Parker appointing members of the committee to two-year terms ending Jan. 1, 1965.

The meeting and re-appointments were in response to a request from the president of the State Historical Survey Committee asking that all county committees in the state begin their terms of office simultaneously.

Those appointed here were: Mrs. A. C. Surman, chairman; Walter Duckworth and George Samson, historical marking; Frank A. Runkles, publicity and museum; Harold Lucas, archives; Ozell Williams, legislative; J. B. Potts, treasurer, and Monta Moore, director of finance.

The Garza County Historical Survey Committee was originally organized by Judge Parker last August.

In his statement to the county committee members Tuesday, Judge Parker said: "This is an assignment for active, willing workers who have an interest in preserving and developing the historic resources of this county."

"Every county has a unique history and ours is no exception. You, as representatives of the county committee, will be concerned with historic buildings, markers, museum pieces and records of this county. In this connection, I would ask the committee to consider our attractiveness for the tourist business."

The regular meeting time for the Garza County Historical Committee is the first Tuesday of each month at 10 a. m. in the First National Bank's Community Room. The meetings are open to any person interested in the county's historical heritage.

Speed-up sought on White River land litigation

White River Municipal Water District directors have instructed their attorney, Lloyd Wicks of Ralls, to request the Civil Court of Appeals at Amarillo to move up for hearing as quickly as possible the district's appeal from Crosby County District Court on its land condemnation case against Mrs. Alleta Walker.

The board's action came at its January dinner meeting at City Hall last Thursday night.

The board wants the case completed before proceeding with negotiations for the purchase of the remainder of the dam site land, some 2,500 acres, from the Morgan Jones estate of Abilene.

Marvin McLaughlin, chairman of the land committee, explained the district has not proceeded with these negotiations for the final parcel of dam site land because the land will not be needed until the dam "is closed" in October and the money to purchase the land now is drawing an interest return for the district.

White River directors heard a full three-page-long financial report from Robert Work of Crosbyton, secretary of the district, and approved all the bills for payment. Work said construction money will be paid at a rather rapid rate from Feb. 1 on, as big pipe line payments begin. The pipe lines are the largest single item of the water project's cost.

Directors voted to accept condemnation awards made for pipe line right of way and heard a report that all pipe line right-of-way now has been secured.

They also heard a report that the special White River district property taxes for 1962 were approximately 50 per cent paid Jan. 1. Since the district legally cannot offer any discount for early tax payment many taxpayers have been waiting until this month to make their district tax payments.

Such payments will begin drawing penalty Feb. 1, it was pointed out.

Between 91 and 92 per cent tax collections were reported for the district for 1961 taxes, just about the average tax collections for the four member cities.

1962 White River district tax collections in Post, as of Jan. 1, were $21,786 out of $43,882 taxes levied.

Attending from Post were the three White River directors, Tom Bouchier, Dr. A. C. Surman, and James Minor; Mayor Powell Shydes, City Councilmen Walter Duckworth and J. B. Potts, and Dispatch Publisher Jim Cornish.

Criteria is set by trustees for new school head

That the members of the Post school board won't be satisfied with a new high school superintendent who isn't well qualified was indicated at a special meeting Monday night when they drew up a tentative criteria for considering applications for the job.

Before an applicant is considered for the superintendent's position, the board decided that he must be now employed by a Class A school or larger and that he must have served at least four years as a superintendent in a Class A school or larger or as a high school principal in a Class AAA school or larger.

A number of prospective applicants have already made inquiries about the position to be vacated July 1 by the present superintendent, R. T. Smith.

The board also decided Monday night to postpone the hiring of school principals until after the new superintendent has been employed.

In the only other action at the special meeting, the trustees voted to accept the superintendent's recommendation that Mrs. Oscar Bruce be employed as a junior high school teacher for the second semester to replace Mrs. Bryan J. Williams, who is resigning. Mrs. Bruce is the wife of the First Methodist Church pastor.

The present high school academic program, registration system and discipline all came in for discussion at the meeting. Participating in the discussion was High School Principal T. C. Clark, who was present to give a brief review of the high school's policies and progress in registration and discipline.

Rotarians hear talk on pharmacy

Frank Blanton spoke to Post Rotarians at their Tuesday luncheon in City Hall on the subject of pharmacy.

He explained that today it requires five years of study and a license from the state to become a registered pharmacist. He reviewed the history of pharmacy in this country, reporting the first school of pharmacy was organized in 1900.

In the 1920s, a two year course of study was adopted as a requirement. This was increased to four years of study in 1932 and in 1958 upped to five years.

"In the next few years the study requirements probably will be increased to six," he added.

Dr. B. E. Young appealed to the club to suggest names of those who might be interested in becoming scoutmaster of the Rotary sponsored troop.

Louie Burkes, club president, named Blanton to again organize a Rotary basketball team to challenge the Post High School Does to an after-season benefit game to raise funds for Post High's foreign student.

Deadline Jan. 31 for poll taxes

Unless there's a big last week's rush for 1963 poll taxes, few Garza Countyans are going to vote on anything this year.

Only 587 poll taxes had been sold in the county tax assessor-collector's office up to mid-afternoon Wednesday as compared with 1,734 poll taxes for 1962.

The deadline for paying poll taxes is next Thursday afternoon, Jan. 31.

Garza's cotton harvest to finish near 23,000

Garza County's 1962 cotton harvest today stood at 22,588 bales ginned to date and predictions are that what little is left will lift the final count a few bales above the 23,000 mark.

Less than 1,000 bales have been ginned by the county's seven gins during the past week.

The gins reported 212 bales on the yard and not over 270 bales still in the field before it's all over.

The Close City Co-op Gin with 2,980 bales ginned reported only four bales in the yard to finish and that would be it. "None left in the area," the gin office man reported.

Reports by the other six gins: Planter's Gin: 3,536 bales ginned, 20 on yard, and about 150 more bales expected from area.

Storie Gin: 1,564 bales ginned, yard clean, 25 to 50 bales left in area.

Hackberry Gin: 5,400 bales ginned of which only 2,700 or half is included in Garza total as Garza cotton, 50 bales on yard (half Garza) and 50 bales in area (also half Garza).

Novis N. Rodgers rites conducted Sunday in Snyder

Funeral services for Novis Norman Rodgers, 52, widely known rancher, who was found dead on a ranch road in Kent County about 2:30 a. m. Saturday, were conducted at 3 p. m. Sunday at the First Christian Church in Snyder, with burial in Hillside Memorial Gardens, Snyder.

Peace Justice Earl Hall of Jayton, in ruling accidental death, said Rodgers apparently froze to death after getting wet in a small creek in which his pickup truck was stuck.

His body was found by a search party about a quarter of a mile from the stalled pickup and a short distance from a ranch house.

Rodgers, who apparently left his home in Snyder to visit his ranch in the Polar community, was dressed in light clothing and it was presumed he left home Friday before a cold wave struck.

He was found on the Wayne Williams ranch. The pickup was found stalled in Grane Creek. Its front wheels were in the creek with the back wheels off the ground, according to Sheriff Bob Koonce of Kent County. There is a concrete slab across the creek at the place where the pickup was found. The pickup had plunged off the slab, officers said.

Rodgers apparently fell into the creek when he stepped from the stalled pickup. He got up and started walking in the near zero weather into the cold wind and blowing snow, it was believed.

Rodgers was a well-known horse show and rodeo judge and was a former director of Post Stampede Rodeo, Inc.

He had served as a judge for all types of events for years in horses in the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show and Rodeo in Fort Worth and at other events throughout the country. He was to have served as a flagman for this barrel racing in the Fort Worth show's rodeo beginning this weekend.

The Rev. Allan Lynch, pastor of the Snyder First Christian Church, officiated at the funeral services Sunday.

Pallbearers were Phil Bouchier, Bryan J. Williams and Jack Burruss, all of Post; Weldon Johnson, B. L. McKinley, Billy Wayne Williams and Aubrey Stokes, all of Snyder, and Jimmy Randal of Tucumcari, N. M.

Mr. Rodgers is survived by his wife, a daughter, Mrs. John Ward of Alpine; his mother, Mrs. Irene Rodgers of Lubbock; a sister, Mrs. H. E. Griffith of Lubbock, and a brother, Dan Rodgers of Midland.

11th charter date observed by Lions

A report on the projects account for 1962 showed a net income of $794, plus an $1,100 investment in rodeo flags.

Project disbursements, the report showed, totaled $871, including: Merchant's dinner, $73; Texas Crippled Children's Camp, $240; eye care (15 children), $312; Boy's Ranch, $50; repairs to Junior High gym, $95.

We're for the road bond issue

The Dispatch is FOR the $85,000 road bond issue to be voted on Feb. 16 by qualified voters in Commissioners' Precinct 1.

We feel that our county will drop far behind other area counties in highway development if this bond issue for purchase of right-of-way for the four-lane widening of U. S. Highway 84 is not approved.

As of now, the segment of the heavily traveled highway from a few miles northwest of Post to the Lynn County line just northwest of Southland is the only segment not now divided into a four-lane highway. To allow it to remain as it is by voting down the proposed bond issue on Feb. 16 would be standing stockstill in the matter of highway development.

U. S. Highway 84 is one of the most heavily travelled routes in this area of the state, and the present two-lane road between where the divided highway ends northwest of Post and the Lubbock County line is one of the most dangerous stretches on the entire highway.

Widening of the gap into a divided, four-lane highway would help eliminate this peril to the motorist.

Lynn County is well along with plans for the four-lane widening of the three and one-half mile gap between the Garza and Lubbock County lines and will either have it completed or well under way by the time Garza County is ready to go on its widening project—if the right-of-way purchase bond is approved on Feb. 16.

Present plans of the State Highway Department are to four-lane the highway from the state line all the way to Roscoe, adding likelihood to the prospects of U. S. 84 becoming an interstate highway within the next few years.

Another reason we are for the bond issue is because not all the $85,000 asked for will be used for right-of-way purchase unless that amount is needed. That means any amount of the bond issue not used to acquire right-of-way would revert to retirement of the bond issue. Actually, then, we'll be voting only on the amount of money needed as the county's part of the right-of-way purchase. The State of Texas will furnish the funds for one-half of the purchase.

Incidentally, all property-rendering taxpayers of Precinct 1 who have not yet paid their poll tax are urged to do so by the Jan. 31 deadline in order to qualify for a vote in this important special election.

It is important that everyone interested—and who shouldn't be?—get out to vote in the Feb. 16 election. As in the case of all bond elections, it will necessary for two-thirds of those voting to approve the bond issue for it to carry.

Approval of the $85,000 bond issue on Feb. 16 will mean the four-laning of U. S. Highway 84 the rest of the way across Garza County. Defeat of the bond issue will mean leaving a 15-mile gap in Garza County that more than likely would be the only two-lane gap left in several hundred miles of the highway.—CD

Dan 'Hoss' Blocker typical Texan

The small town of O'Donnell, which straddles the Lynn-Dawson County line, has just had its most famous ex-resident named 1963 "Texan of the Year" by the Texas Press Association.

The recipient of the award is Dan Blocker, better known as Hoss Cartwright to millions of TV viewers who tune in the "Bonanza" show.

Dan Blocker lived in O'Donnell from the time he was five years old until he went off to the Texas Military Institute at San Antonio after attending O'Donnell High School, where he was a tower of strength at tackle for the O'Donnell Eagle football team.

After Texas Military Institute, Blocker attended Hardin-Simmons University and Sul Ross

State College, where he wisely made the decision to change his major from physical education to drama.

After college, he played summer stock in Boston, served in the Korean war with the 15th Oklahoma Division, returned to Sul Ross to work on his master's degree, taught school in Sonora, and Carlsbad, N. M., and then went to Los Angeles, Calif., to work toward his Ph. D. degree at UCLA. Soon afterward, he was rapidly on his way to the top in the acting profession.

The entire South Plains and State of Texas join O'Donnell in feeling pride at Dan Blocker's selection as 1963 "Texan of the Year." It couldn't have happened to a more typical Texan.—CD

The New York newspaper strike

A newspaper is a newspaper, regardless of size, and those who think they could get along just as well without their home town paper are asked to look at what is happening in New York after nearly two months without a local newspaper.

New Yorkers, after such a long time without a newspaper, have discovered some aspects of the power of the press beyond those usually attributed to it, according to Truman Temple, staff writer of The Washington Evening Star, after a survey of our largest city.

The leading dealer in luxury cars told Mr. Temple: "Our sales are off 75 per cent. If you can't tell the people what you have, you can't sell."

A few blocks away in the famed clothing district, he noticed the padlocked newsstand of a blind couple. Normally, he was told, they averaged $30 to $40 a week, but had not worked since Dec. 7.

These two extremes in the merchandising scale, says Mr. Temple, "illustrate the way the current newspaper strike has cut across all walks of life here.

"It is creeping disaster. Nothing dramatic happens in any one day or week. But it shows in a hundred ways how daily journalism is woven into the fabric of a city's spending and eating and working and even dying."

Business in downtown stores, he learned, has slipped from four to 20 per cent, with the large department stores the hardest hit. Florists are hurt by the lack of obituary columns, since people cannot read of the demise of friends. "If you die in New York nowadays, it's likely to be a lonely trip to the grave."

As of the 41st day, says The Star's man, the strike had cost the newspaper industry over $60 million in lost wages, advertising and circulation. Some 20,000 employees at nine New York dailies have lost their jobs. Many are unable to find temporary work."

That the strikers will lose also, in the long run, should be obvious. Thus, all are losing, there are no winners. And the growing uneasiness of New Yorkers at being out of touch with the world and their own community threatens not only morale but the city government and the public safety.

The newspaper is indispensable to order and progress—as well as enlightenment—in any town or city, regardless of size.—CD

An address keyed to the future

Whatever else can be said of the inaugural address of Texas' new governor, John B. Connally, it was keyed to the future rather than the past, which, for all its achievements, is still past.

The new governor sounded a keynote in harmony with the vast promise and challenging opportunities, as well as the realities, of the period of development which the state is now entering.

What Texas needs above all else in the years immediately ahead is firm, positive, aggressive, wise, constructive and farsighted leadership that will galvanize the energies of all the state's people and inspire the efforts that the times demand.

We believe that Governor Connally understands the state's needs and that he is signally qualified to provide the kind and quality of leadership required. His inaugural address certainly indicates as much.

To Governor Connally, Lt. Gov. Preston Smith, Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr and all the other installed officials of the state government, The Dispatch extends its warmest congratulations and best wishes for success in the endeavors, so vital to us all, that they are undertaking.—CD

What our contemporaries are saying

It's not uncommon at sporting events to see fans carry transistor radios so that they can monitor other games in other parts of the country, but this past Sunday was my first time to see a member of the congregation have in his possession a transistor radio in church.—John H. King II in The Slaton Slatonite.

This third week in January '63 is proving to be significant, solemn and distinguished. Or what NBC's Hazel calls "Ain't it a doozy." First off, we entered this week with weather fit only for hibernatin' creatures. Then, Monday, there came the matchless "State of the Union" message of our President, Mr. Kennedy. Talk of tax reductions alone was enough to warm the cockles of the coldest heart.—Ruth Coffey in Colorado City Record.

You can't write 10,000 to 20,000 words a week, in between working in the back shop, answering the telephone, waiting on customers, and figuring out income tax papers without making a few mistakes. In fact, we make 'em every week.—Frank Hill in The Lynn County News.

If wives only knew what secretaries think of their husbands they wouldn't worry.— Marvin Tomme in The Rails Banner.

WHATEVER ELSE might be said about this season's cold spells, none of us can say we weren't warned...not if we know how to read or are able to listen to the weather forecasts.

Pecos is a town that probably has made the front pages more in the last year or so than any other town its size in the U. S. I went through Pecos once several years ago en route to Van Horn, but never heard much about the town until the Billy Sol Estes case hit the headlines. I'd always thought of Pecos as being an isolated town down in the greasewood country, which it is, and of supposedly being the place where the first rodeo was held. In the early years of World War II, I answered a "blind" classified ad in the Dallas News of someone wanting an editor. A few days later, came a letter from the publisher of the Pecos newspaper with a fairly attractive offer for my services. As I said, it was during the war when help was hard to get, and, after giving the offer considerable thought, I decided to stay with my employer in Brownfield rather than leave him in the lurch. I don't know what went on in Pecos to make news up until 1962, but there has been plenty going on there ever since.

THE MAN UP the street says he isn't certain who thought up that $600 tax deduction for a wife, but that he must have been a bachelor.

Something new is being tried out at Crosbyton in the staging of high school class plays, and it appears to be working, too. Ramrodding the new system of play production is English teacher Stanley Nixon, who graduated from Post High School in 1954 as salutatorian, and married the class valedictorian, Junelle Ticer, about a month later.

ACCORDING TO The Crosbyton Review, Nixon's innovation in play production has done away with the tradition of junior and senior class plays, with the plays being produced by the speech class, but the proceeds going into the junior and senior class funds just as they did when the classes themselves produced the plays.

"Always before," Nixon explained, "the junior and senior sponsors were responsible for the plays. All rehearsals were done at night and it often took two or three weeks of these. There were a lot of rehearsals missed by individual actors because of basketball games, FFA and similar activities. Since students were not receiving grades, there was no way to make them feel responsible."

NIXON AND Principal Wayne Hill went to work on the problem and decided the speech class was the proper place to produce a play. Their change produced one result almost immediately... enrollment in second year speech class is at an all-time high of 25 students. In the case of the junior play, which was presented in December, the playgoers also responded well. They bought $100 worth of advance tickets, $90 in tickets for the matinee and $56 admission for the night performance. The juniors made more money on the play than when they produced one themselves. Only three night rehearsals were necessary, with most of the work done in class.

Stanley Nixon is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Nixon, who are teaching in the Post schools after having taught at Garnolia, Southland and Close City, all in Garza County.

25 miles of terraces are already planned

Now that crops are off the land, Garza Soil Conservation District cooperators are making plans to install terraces for soil and water conservation.

Most of the terraces in the District will be large ridge-type terraces with the ends closed to hold water on the land where it falls. Other types, such as diversion terraces, are designed by Soil Conservation Service personnel to meet water control problems in cases where level terraces cannot be used.

About 25 miles of terraces are already planned. C. P. Witt plans to build 12 miles, H. V. Wheeler, five miles, and N. C. Outlaw and Wilburn Morris, eight miles.

Old terraces should be maintained now before land preparation for the next crop. A good job of maintaining the height and width of terraces will extend their useful life by several years, SCS technicians point out.

Assistance in building terraces is provided through the Great Plains Conservation Program as a part of a complete conservation program. The rate of assistance is $121 a mile through this program.

Other farmers and ranchers who need technical help with conservation practices should contact the Soil Conservation Service office or their Soil Conservation District supervisor.

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

By KATHARINE TRAMMELL

Where are the flags that belong at the Girl Scout Little House? This question has been asked of your columnist since she became Neighborhood Chairman in October. We have several troops who are preparing for Fly Up and need to practice the flag ceremony. Anyone knowing the whereabouts of these flags, please call me at 3216 or 2886 and I will be glad to come pick them up and return them to the Little House.

Brownie Troop No. 49 met Friday, Jan. 11, at the Little House, with only two members absent. Quay Williams was elected as troop scribe. Each girl was assigned a home duty to carry out during the week. Dawn Tucker and Pam Connelly served refreshments to the members present and to the troop leaders, Mmes. Garland Davies and W. D. Williams.

Brownie Troop No. 200 met Tuesday, Jan. 15 at the Little House. This troop is beginning to prepare for Fly Up. Refreshments were served to Vicki Krueger, D'Juana Hays, Sue Parrish, Joan Minor, Ann Aten, Patti Nelson, Donna Kolb, Janie Menchaca, Debra Ward, Annette Holland, and Carol Compton and to leaders Mmes. Ted Aten and James Minor.

Intermediate Troop No. 390 met Wednesday, Jan. 16, at the Little House with 10 members and one visitor present. Demonstrations in table setting were made and rules of hospitality were discussed. Refreshments were served by Brenda Warren to troop members and to leaders, Mmes. James Ed Poer and Charles King.

Brownie Troop No. 61 met Monday, Jan. 21. They decided to meet on Thursday instead of Monday. These girls made coasters of cork and copper. Connie Cockrell served refreshments to the following members: Diane Blacklock, Pamela Gray, Ester Guajardo, Debbie Hood, Pamela Littrell, Debbie Moore, Linda Osman, Terry Shedd, Janis Smith, and Della Witcher and to leaders Mmes. R. J. Blacklock and Ralph Cockrell.

WANTED: Ladies interested in GIRLS and willing to spend some time each week in a very rewarding and challenging endeavor. We are desperately in need of leaders for Brownie, Intermediate and Junior High troops. If you are not experienced, think nothing of it as the Caprock Council and your local Neighborhood provide the necessary training. Learn while you lead!

It's My Turn ...

made a list over the weekend of items—something I don't do very often. At first glance my list is blank as to why I wrote the words down, so I'll re-write it and see if anything comes coming back: Dinner-fire, Billie screwworm, beetle, stamp, at.

day. Want me to take it to the bank? Now, either our employes are used to me rattling on and don't listen or they were completely unaware that Robert E. Lee was having a birthday cause I didn't get a rise out of anyone.

ands like interesting stuff, doesn't? The dinner-fire has me speed. Whoops, now I know I'm sitting in church Sunday and listening to the fire siren (that is a siren or whistle—maybe siren is best) I wondered how many men with panic in their hearts worrying about their dinners and what might be burn-along with it.

When we first moved to Post, I really primed the Misses C's on all these anniversaries so they could not be embarrassed when asked at school about the heroes or days being celebrated. They finally told me I needn't bother, no one ever mentioned them. And I think it is a shame, I love holidays and think we ought to celebrate them all. (With a day off, of course.)

rescrewworm one is easy. Since eradication of the screwworms is to be grinding to a halt I had to ask: "Are you Garza trying to men doing your part?" Now all those females (fly females, is) are fooled, I think it's a time to jolt them back into the city of motherhood.

While you are all suffering from the blue norther that was due yesterday I'll be on my way to San Antonio where the sun better be shining. Usually these storms blow in a day late so we (Mr. C is going, too) hope to miss this one completely. I'm sure it will be over by Sunday when we roll back into Town. Thank heavens for newspaper meetings.

inking of the screwworms fight the beetle to mind. I can't remember its fancy name but I do assuredly do, remember that supposed to do away with goats. I can't imagine anyone being against this and I'm sure they don't cost expensive—the beetles, that don't know whose jurisdiction comes under but I'd be glad to first some and share on a first E. first served basis.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Claud Roper, Route 2, Wilson, and Mr. and Mrs. David Stell, Route 1, Slaton. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a full-length gown of white silk-faced bridal taffeta fashioned with a portrait neckline, fitted bodice, and long tapered sleeves coming to petal points over the wrists. The skirt featured a sheath front accented by deep side pleats and gathered fullness at the back. Re-embroidered Alencon lace trimmed the gown which extended into a chapel train. From her crown of pearls and aurora borealis crystals flowed a three-tiered bouffant veil of English silk illusion. She carried a bouquet of white roses centered with a white orchid atop a white Bible.

Miss Linda Kay Roper and Tommy David Stell exchanged wedding vows Jan. 19 at 7 o'clock in the evening in the Slaton Church of Christ with Cline Drake of Gordon officiating at the double ring ceremony.

Robert E. Lee is responsible for Grant entry on the list. The joyes of the Post Dispatch re- salary checks once a week as a little extra service I run checks to the bank on Saturday ash them. Remembering that bank was to be closed last Sat- y for Robert E. Lee's birthday ate the checks on Friday.

"AND THEN PRINCE CHARMING"

PRINCE CHARMING

Do you remember the undivided attention you gave to a story-teller ... when you first heard Cinderella, Snow White, or some gallant warrior bold? It seems so long ago. And yet, that attention reveals within ourselves more than dreams; it reveals a secret longing after mysteries, after the things we do not understand, but somehow love.

Religion, in a way, is somewhat like that. Everybody is religious! But, of course, everybody doesn't call it that! Nevertheless, there is in the heart of man a secret yearning, a wish, a hope for things eternal. We express those wishes in church.

And somehow God hears our wishes and consoles and explains. That is a very important part of the Church; for it is a place of consolation and understanding, a place where wishes (prayers) are heard, where the mysteries of life gain new meaning.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

The Library showcase told everyone "By All Means Do It Yourself but Read 'How' First". There is a man with six arms and a tool in each hand. The books that can be read in order to "do it yourself" were in the bottom of the case.

Junior High's crystal ball is gazed into

By Jackie Wilson
 Our special crystal ball in Junior High says that in the near future the annual yearbooks will be here. They are predicted to be here sometime in March. The favorite boy and girl will be (well, I guess we'd better wait to let out that news).

There will be a reception for the 8th grade, given by the teachers, sometime just before 8th grade graduation, which I am sure all are looking forward to.

After graduation, there will be, of course, the reception given by the parents of the pupils.

The 8th grade students will probably write their wills to the lower classmen, among other things.

There will be a few activities which our crystal ball will not allow us to reveal at this time.

The most important part of all is the graduation itself, in which the 8th graders have one of the precious moments in their life which they will remember.

Ah! How sad! The crystal ball is dimming out on us. What else will happen in the future we do not know and will just have to wait and see.

 The SHS basketball teams didn't do too well in the Gail Tournament, but the boys played a fine game against Cooper Friday night, and won it, too. Johnny, I was really hoping that you would score a couple of points more, though.

The proofs of the Mr. and Miss SHS, Miss Flame, and Pep squad Beau-Football Sweetheart pictures are really good. They will really dress up our annual. Very good, Patsy, Jackie, Sharla, Robert Lee, and Cindy.

Rod, you and Johnny make quite a team out on the basketball court, and I hope ya'll and the rest of the team, beat Shallowater all to pieces.

Linda, congratulations on your engagement. That's a beautiful ring.

The Seniors have ordered their playbooks, and the play sounds hilarious! The date of the play has been set for March 1. Good luck at play practice, Seniors.

"The Fall of a World Power"

Gibbon, the noted British Historian, who wrote, "The Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire," gave ten reasons for the fall of this great, world, power. Five are listed here, and the others will follow. They are:

1. Greater accumulation of wealth.
2. The increase of insanity.
3. Increase in homicides and crimes.
4. Rapid increase of divorce, with the undermining of sanctity of the home, which is the basis of society.
5. Extravagance in luxury.

No one can deny that these are characteristic of the American situation. AMERICA BEWARE! The nation that will serve God shall be utterly destroyed. Isaiah 60:12.

State Capital NEWS

By Vern Stanford

AUSTIN—Serving as Governor of Texas should be a snap for John Connally.

Any man who can wage a rigorous, 12 months campaign for Governor, such as he has done, reorganize the state government, plan and participate in all the ceremonies he has been through since his election and inauguration, and assume all the allied responsibilities related thereto... should find the task of being governor a cinch.

It seemed like half of Texas was in Austin to see the first mass turnover in state government since Jimmy Allred took over from "Ma" Ferguson in 1935.

Man of the hour was, of course, John Connally! Bus loads of people, both from his old hometown of Floresville and his latest hometown of Fort Worth, come to Austin for the festivities that surrounded his inauguration as governor.

Most of them were here by inauguration eve when nearly 3,000 people packed Austin's Municipal Auditorium for the Democrat's "Victory Dinner," rated as the biggest seated dinner in the state's history. It was sponsored by the State Democratic Executive Committee. At $25 a plate, it netted the party $100,000 and put it on its feet, well-heeled.

When Governor Connally presented his plan for progress to a joint meeting of Senate and House members, on the following day, he was met with applause that many legislators felt never had been equalled.

Majority of the legislators said that they felt they could support him "most of the way." All praised his "tremendous grasp of state government," and said if there were differences between the governor and the legislature, such differences could be worked out.

Many were pleased to see Connally urge the strengthening of family sanctity laws. He recommended: An end to common-law marriages; a 90-day waiting period for divorces, prohibiting remarriages until six months after a divorce; and requiring both parents to appear in court when a divorce involves children.

His views on upgrading higher education were approved almost unanimously. But there was quite a bit of disapproval of his proposal to combine the Game and Fish Commission and the State Parks Board. Opposition was based largely on the idea that the Game and Fish Commission would suffer.

EQUAL RIGHTS—The perennial battle for women's equal rights will hit the limelight in the Texas Senate early in the 58th Legislative session.

Senate constitutional amendments committee set public hearing for 7 p. m., Jan. 30, on a proposal to give women equal rights. Proposed

Quietest weekend for JP in 6 years

Justice of the Peace D. C. Roberts set some sort of a "weekend record" here this past weekend. "It was the first time in six years I left the courthouse at the close of regular business Friday afternoon and didn't have to come back until Monday morning," Justice Roberts explained.

Charges filed in his court during the last seven days, with fines and costs if paid, are as follows:

- Jessie Hilburn, Jan. 22, drunk in public place, $24.70.
- H. G. Anderson, Jan. 22, drunk and disturbance, $24.70.
- Vernon Farrar, Jan. 20, speeding.
- Charles Houden, Jan. 18, no registration plate on car.
- Cleve Cox, Jan. 19, speeding.
- Pedro Sixtos, Jan. 18, no driver's license, $16.50.
- Fred Owings, Jan. 17, no driver's license.
- Charles D. Sutton, Jan. 17, swindling by worthless check.

constitutional amendment was submitted by Sens. W. T. Moore of Bryan and Bill Patman of Ganado.

VOTE AGE TARGET—Rep. V. E. "Red" Barry of San Antonio wants the minimum voting age in Texas lowered to 18 years.

Barry has filed a bill which would propose a constitutional amendment allowing the Legislature to make the change.

Present law requires voters to be 21 years of age.

COST CUTTING BILL—A bill to create a commission to study ways to cut costs of Texas' government is on file in the House of Representatives.

Rep. R. H. Cory of Victoria said his bill would create a "little Hoover" commission composed of 12 members. Three members would come from the House, three from the Senate, and six would be appointed by Governor Connally, who also has recommended formation of the commission.

Cory said his bill has been passed by the House on five different occasions but never passed the Senate.

STOCKMEN RAISING FUNDS—Texas Livestock Auction Association is sponsoring a drive to help raise the $1,000,000 still needed to meet the Southwest Animal Health Research Foundation's $3,000,000 goal to stamp out the screwworm.

Texas' screwworm eradication program will come to a halt in March unless the million is raised.

Governor Connally recommended that the legislature quickly determine whether the screwworm eradication program is in trouble. Result was a hurriedly called hearing, attended by about 30 legislators and as many livestock producers and animal health officials.

Eradication supporters told legislators that the program reduced screwworms by 70 to 90 per cent its very first year, but the $5,000,000 spent to date will be wasted unless the job is finished. It is viewed as a three-year program.

Three-fifths of the money spent so far has come from federal funds, and two-fifths from the livestock producers.

The $12,000,000 program is a true, matching one: Uncle Sam will continue his payments toward the $6,000,000 he promised, so long as the producers and the state combined are matching his payments.

So far, the state has paid nothing into the program. But the Texas Animal Health Commission has urged an immediate appropriation of $1,400,000.

Governor Connally has stated that he would ask for an emergency appropriation if the legislature learns that the program is in danger.

MARCH DRAFT 404 — Texas' March quota for draftees is 404 men.

"This is more than double the calls of recent months," says State Selective Service Director Col. Morris S. Schwartz.

February quota was 173 and the January call was for 163 men.

OATH TAKEN — Crawford C. Martin of Hillsboro has been sworn in as Texas' Secretary of State. Ceremonies were held in the Texas Senate where he served for 14 years.

He took the oath as the first constitutional state official appointed by Governor Connally.

Oath was administered by Chief Justice Robert W. Calvert of the Supreme Court.

Several hundred persons were present, including legislators, appellate judges and friends, with a delegation of more than 100 on hand from his home city and county.

Tax table tells school costs

During the 1961-62 school year, it cost $376.54 in state and local taxes to educate each scholastic in the Post Independent School District, according to a survey prepared and released by the Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association.

Total taxes from state and local sources for the school district during 1961-62 were $555,019. Of this amount, $333,308 was levied locally (ad valorem), $112,016 were from state taxes for per capita apportionment, and $109,695 was from the state's Minimum Foundation Aid.

The local tax levy per scholastic was $226.12. The survey also discloses that the petroleum industry paid a total of $181,234 or 34.4 per cent, of local school taxes. Of this amount, $178,833 was paid by producing properties and $2,401 by other segments of the oil industry, including pipe lines.

The survey also contains figures for the Southland and Close City Independent school districts.

It shows that the total cost in the Close City district per scholastic was $698; that taxes levied locally totaled $16,841 and that the total from state and local sources amounted to $23,034. The oil industry paid $11,821 of the local taxes—70.2 per cent. The table shows the Close City district with a tax rate of $1 and a total of 33 scholastics.

The total cost per scholastic in the Southland school district is $334.50. Total school taxes levied locally are $35,113, with state tax money raising the total to $65,897. The oil industry in the Southland district paid $15,129 of local taxes, or 43.1 per cent.

The survey lists 197 scholastics for Southland and a tax rate of $1.20.

Post teams win conference lidlifters; Slaton is next

Post Antelopes and Does with the boys' contest to follow with victories at Spur Friday night.

The Does led all the way to win, 60-45, registering their 22nd victory of the season against only two defeats.

The Antelopes snapped out of it in the second quarter, however, to score 13 points while holding Spur to six, and held a 13-9 halftime lead. They were still out in front at the end of the third quarter, 20-14.

David Nichols was high scorer for Post with 11 points, while Joe Howell topped the Spur scoring with 9.

Post jumped into a 21-8 first quarter lead in the girls game, increased it to 43-21 at the half, and were still out in front, 48-32, at the end of the third period.

Nita Wilson's 45 points for Post equaled the entire Spur output. Barbara Carig scored 8; Vivian McWhirt, 5, and Pam Stewart, 2.

Following is the scoring summary of the boys' game:
POST — Odom 2 0 4 4, Polk 0 4 0 4, Pierce 3 1 4 7, Nichols 4 3 2 1, Fluitt 0 2 0 2, Simpson 0 0 3 0, Scott 0 1 3 1, Owen 0 0 0 0.

By VERN SANFORD
Many elements are involved in getting a good lake. By good we mean one that will stand up under any fishing.

Lake Whitney, on the Brazos in central Texas, seems to have the attributes.

This lake, now a dozen years old, withstood such heavy pressure. Located almost midway between Waco and the Fort Worth area, this means that it is a good fishing day of the and still it produces fish. Lake Whitney Dam backs water the Brazos to cover almost 50,000 surface acres when it is filled. Construction started in 1947 and completed by the U. S. Corps of Engineers in 1953 at a cost of over $40,000,000.

THE DAM ITSELF IS 17,695 FEET long and 159 feet high. It is wide enough to carry highway traffic as it is between Whitney and Cliff points east and west.

Although rainfall fluctuates its level, perhaps the secret of good fishing in Whitney is the fact that it is filled from an effective water source of more than 17,000 square miles.

Because of the rich food qualities fed into the lake with each flood, fish grow big and fast.

Principal sport enjoyed by Lake Whitney fishermen is catching smooth black bass, white crappie, crappie and catfish. The lake is loaded with bream, but unfortunately Whitney is underfished by this wonderful little creature.

Fishing is easy to reach. Good access to the lake from every direction with many access points.

HERE IS A spacious state park which permits public camping. The lake is heavily trafficked by weekend campers from many parts of the state.

The Corps of Engineers has developed recreational areas. They include such names as Lofers Bend, Wash, Cedar Creek, Kimball and Verdale.

People of Whitney have had a large part in making this an all-around lake. They have developed many types of water sports, including speed boat races, water skiing, boating and swimming. One of the annual features of Whitney is a bathing beauty contest, which attracts a heavy contingent of girls from contests over the nation.

PIERCE HITS 38 AS WTSC WINS

Scottie Pierce, a 6-7 junior from Post, had one of the best nights of his college career Jan. 12 when he scored 38 points to lead West Texas State College past the New Mexico State Aggies, 75-64.

Pierce hit 12 of 23 field goal attempts and 14 of 20 free shots for his 38-point total. In addition, the ex-Antelope blocked four shots in a fine defensive effort and handled the lion's share of the game's rebounds. His 13 take-downs were tops for the game.

Pierce also starred in the Buffaloes' upset victory over highly-favored New Mexico University, which earlier in the season beat Texas Tech by 24 points.

Sundown Roughettes win, 65-55

State champions halt Post Does win streak

Coach Van Kountz' high school Does, who had their 11-game win streak shattered here Tuesday night by the defending state Class A champions, the Sundown Roughettes, 65-55, clash with the Slaton Tigerettes at 6:30 p. m. here Friday for the 2-AA district lead.

After the all-important Slaton district clash, the Does will journey to Tahoka Tuesday night to play the Tahoka girls in a non-league outing while the Post Antelopes are entertaining Denver City here. Denver City does not have a girls' team.

The 65-55 loss to Sundown was not unexpected, although the Does had hoped to add the state champs to their victory string.

It was simply a case of too much Sue Jones, the all-state forward for the last two seasons, who whipped the nets for a total of 44 points and dribbled through and around the Does for a flock of easy layups.

Post's scoring star, Nita Wilson, however gave the pert Sundown ace a real run for individual honors, totaling 40 for the night.

Sundown broke in front and led all the way, but the Does rallied determinedly midway in the second period to close within 4 points before Sundown pulled away again to a 37-27 intermission lead.

In the first period, the locals failed to score a field goal and fell behind 23-12.

Nita scored 11 of those 12 free throws and all but one of Post's 27 points in the first half. She failed to tally a point in the third period, but bounced back in the final canto with 14 more to lead a Doe surge that brought the Post team to within six points, 49-55, with 3:15 left on the clock.

Sundown went into a dribbling stall in the forecourt after that and pulled away on free throws or break-away baskets as Doe guards fought for the ball.

In all Nita netted 22 out of 25 free throws for the night.

The Roughettes used a fast rolling offense, copied from the Hank Iba style of play at Oklahoma State. The difference between the two clubs was in the visitors' forecourt speed.

Other points for the Does came from Barbara Craig and Vivian McWhirt, with 5 each, Janith Short 2, and Pam Stewart 1.

Dee Ann Walker, Cheryl Martin, and Marianne Jones were the starting guards, with Janie Caradine seeing a lot of action too in the back court.

The defeat put the Does' current cage record at 22-3 for the season.

The Does' scheduled game here last Saturday night with Sands was called off Saturday morning due to bad weather at that time. Coach Kountz isn't sure whether or not it can be rescheduled.

Sundown won the 'B' team preliminary, 51-44, leading all the way with the Post cagers trailing six to eight points most of the way.

Freshman cagers score victories

Coach Charles Black's Post freshmen boys defeated Slaton here Monday night by one point, 25-24. The Post team scored 14 points in the first quarter then fought off a Slaton rally that almost spelled victory for the visitors.

Post was still out in front, 18-7, at halftime, but led by only 22-15 at the end of the third quarter and were outscored, 9-3, in the final period.

Alvin Harper's 7 points was tops for Post. J. C. Demming scored 6, Birch Lobban, 4 and Luis Ayala, Sammy Sims, Ruben Solis and Freddie Cockrell, 2 each.

The Post team got off to a good start in Snyder's Junior High Tournament last Friday by defeating Runnels Junior High of Big Spring, 56-49, but the remainder of the tournament was cancelled because of cold weather.

Coach Black's freshmen, who pinned only the second defeat of the season on Runnels Junior High, were to have played Goliad Junior High of Big Spring in a second round game.

Against Runnels, Harper was the big gun for Post with 16 points. Lobban hit 13; Ayala, 11; Sims, 10, and Solis, 6.

The Post freshman boys and girls teams are to play Frenship here tonight with the girls game starting at 6 o'clock.

With James Dye firing in 21 points and Dwain Robertson 18, Texaco retained its second half lead in the City Basketball League last Thursday night by defeating United, 50 to 44.

Post Pharmacy moved into a second place tie with Gulf by defeating that team, 45 to 25.

In tonight's games, Post Pharmacy plays United and Foremost takes on Gulf, which has yet to win a game in second half play.

Bartlett buys partner's golf course interest

Durward Bartlett announced this week he has purchased the interest of his partner, Spencer Kuykendall, in the privately owned Caprock Golf Course.

He also announced he is planning an expansion of the club house to include a locker room.

Grass greens were built on the sports nine hole course, nestled under the rim of the Caprock northwest of Post, in the summer of 1961.

Bartlett says the greens are coming along nicely, although hurt by the severe winter cold.

Annual memberships for the course are offered at $100 with a monthly membership of $10.

THE COURT OF VERSAILLES CENTER OF MOST EUROPEAN SOCIAL LIFE BEFORE THE FRENCH REVOLUTION, WAS A CONSTANT FASHION PRISON.

Press group names Dan Blocker of 'Bonanza' as '63 Texan of Year'

AUSTIN—Dan Blocker, a really "big" man and a former resident of O'Donnell, will be the recipient of the Texas Press Association's 1963 "Texan-of-the-Year" award.

Announcement of his selection has been made by George Baker, president of the newspaper association and publisher of the Fort Stockton Pioneer.

The presentation to Dan Blocker, 300-pound co-star of the NBC-TV show "Bonanza," will be made at TPA's Mid-Winter Meeting in San Antonio on Saturday evening, Jan. 26.

Blocker, known on TV as Hoss Cartwright, was born in Bowie County, Texas, on Dec. 10, 1929. The family moved to O'Donnell in 1934, where Dan's father, Shack Blocker, went into the grocery and general mercantile business.

"My main juvenile pastime was fighting," Dan says. "They called me 'The Big' and the citizens of O'Donnell roped off a part of Main Street every Saturday night and pitted all the local toughs against me."

"The Big'n'" says he never lost a fight, although he was fighting 19 and 20-year-olds when only 13. Finally, the little Saturday night get-togethers fizzled out for lack of competition.

Despite his extraordinary strength, Dan Blocker had other ideas than pushing his weight around as a strong man. He attended Texas Military Institute, Hardin-Simmons University and Sul Ross State College, where he changed his major from physical education to drama before he was graduated in 1950.

From Alpine he went to Boston for summer stock. Then, as did most young men of his time, Dan Blocker received greetings from The President and went overseas for whirl at Korea.

When he finished his army hitch, he came home with the stripes of a first sergeant, to further impress Dolphie Parker, his college sweetheart. They were married on Aug. 25, 1952. They now have four children, twin girls and two boys.

Blocker returned to Sul Ross shortly after his marriage to work on his master's degree. He left classes for one year to teach in the high school at Sonora. Upon receiving his master's degree in drama and English, he taught school at Carlsbad, N. M.

In 1956, he went to Los Angeles for graduate work at UCLA. Almost immediately he was chosen for a feature role in a Gunsmoke episode, where he made more money in four days than in a month of teaching.

Since that time his rise to stardom has been rapid. He has played in many significant TV roles and today has top billing with Bonanza.

The Texas Press Association, on behalf of its 76 members dailies and 43 weeklies, has presented "Top Texan" awards on two previous occasions. In 1961 the honor went to Paul Richards of baseball fame, a native of Waxahachie, who at the time was manager of the top-ranking Baltimore Orioles. Last year the "Texan of the Year" award went to Van Cliburn, world renowned pianist from Kilgore. Selection of the "Texan of the Year" is made from nominations by Texas editors and publishers. Nominees must be well known Texans, outside the field of politics, now residing beyond the borders of the state, but bringing fame to the state by outstanding accomplishments in their chosen fields of endeavor.

LEGAL CHECKUP A SAFETY MEASURE

Legal trouble is easier and cheaper to prevent than to cure.

Most wage earning, childbearing, home-buying, installment paying families don't see much need for a family lawyer.

Often only under prodding, one may have his lawyers prepare a will.

But can you tell a big legal risk from a small one? Can you spot the signs of legal trouble?

Check with your family lawyer when:

1. Your status changes: upon coming of age, marriage, the birth of your children, buying a house, divorce or death. For you may then need to draft or revise your will, change your insurance, or re-figure your taxes.

2. You buy or sell. Look out for flaws in the papers before you go into debt, part with money, or sign anything involving big expenditures or long term obligations.

3. You enter into other contracts. Promises, spoken or written, bind you if they call for a "consideration", something of value in return.

4. Someone threatens your rights. The law exists to defend them but with some rights you must take action yourself for them to work for you.

When you can bring your lawyer "live" facts (e. g. unsigned contracts, vague tax returns you haven't filed), he can do much more for you, and at a smaller cost than when you bring him "cold" facts (mistakes you have made which threaten trouble).

Put above all, get both live and cold facts to him at once. For time may run out in many such situations. Your lawyer may be able to do something for you today, which he cannot do tomorrow.

Tell him all the facts, good or bad, and then keep him informed all along. He is sworn to keep what you tell in confidence, and he cannot serve you well without full knowledge.

Them Good Old Days

On the 10th of each month when we scan our utility bills, we call to mind the Old coal-oil lamps the Old pot bellied heater or the Old fire place, the Old wood range and the PATH—Then we grab up the bills GO BY THE FIRST NATIONAL and head for the THREE where we make arrangements for another THIRTY DAYS, of Electric lights and appliances, Gas heaters or furnaces, Modern plumbing facilities and ALL INSIDE and convenient.

IT COSTS MORE but it's worth MUCH MORE—Don't you agree?

Selling HARDWARE is much the same way—although you can still get OLD TIME articles at SHORT HARDWARE store or you can get MODERN things as well.

We have been keeping STORE on the same old corner and either WAITING ON or WAITING FOR you for nearly seventeen years now.
