

Search on for new physicians, Dr. Tubbs off hospital staff

The search was on in earnest this week for new physicians to man Garza Memorial Hospital's staff after the hospital board voted 5 to 1 last Thursday night not to reappoint Dr. Harry A. Tubbs to its staff, of which he was a charter member.

The vote came at the board's regular January meeting, at which staff appointments are made every year, and left the local hospital with Dr. A. C. Surman as the only active physician-member on its medical staff. The only other active member of the staff is Dr. B. E. Young, local dentist, who along with Dr. Surman was reappointed by the board.

DR. SURMAN, who told The Dispatch yesterday that he still intends to retire from the practice of medicine on Jan. 21, as he previously had announced, was reappointed by the hospital board to an active status for 1964 and to an honorary life membership after that.

The board also voted at the meeting to appoint Dr. J. C. Day of Lubbock to the hospital's courtesy staff for 1964 and to appoint Dr. Noble E. Price of Lamesa as a courtesy member of the staff for a six-month period.

The board members voted 4 to 1 not to accept the hospital staff's recommendation that Dr. Leland E. George of Post be restored to his former capacity as a courtesy member of the staff.

The active membership of the hospital staff had been reduced by one last November when Dr. John E. Carter resigned and the hospital board accepted his resignation.

MEANWHILE, EXTENSIVE efforts are being made to interest more physicians in moving to Post. Two experienced physicians visited in Post over the weekend and are said to be considering moving here.

To help attract physicians to Post, the directors of the First National Bank have offered to provide space for medical offices, rent-free for up to a year's time. The office space would be in the new annex of the bank building between the bank and the post office building. The quarters would be offered until the incoming physicians could find or build suitable medical facilities themselves.

A group of interested local businessmen, including Hospital Administrator J. R. Rickels, spent the better part of three days this week visiting with interns in Texas medical schools who soon will be looking for a town in which to set up practice. A similar tour of medical schools was made in December.

A STATEMENT FROM the hospital in regard to admissions following last Thursday's board action was issued yesterday. It read as follows:

"The Garza Memorial Hospital Medical Staff at this time consists of only two doctors, A. C. Surman, M. D., and Noble E. Price, M. D. Any person who comes to the hospital wanting a doctor or wanting to be admitted by a doctor who is not a staff member should be determined an emergency or non-emergency. Emergency, in this respect, does not mean an illness that could be treated at a physician's office or at the patient's residence. Any person who may be an emergency if their doctor deems the case an emergency and the only active staff member in Post,

Dr. Surman, also determines the case of emergency.

"A number of doctors have been contacted in the past few weeks and the prospects of having our staff enlarged are very good."

DR. TUBBS TOLD The Dispatch yesterday that he is hospitalizing any patient that will be admitted to Garza Memorial Hospital and is sending others who need hospitalization to larger institutions. An open letter from Dr. Tubbs to his patients in regard to the situation appears on page 8 of today's Dispatch.

Dr. Tubbs declined to comment on the hospital situation as it now stands. He said he felt any comment at this time should come from the Lubbock-Crosby-Garza Medical Society.

DR. T. H. HOLMES JR. of Lubbock, who is president of the Lubbock-Crosby-Garza Medical Society, told The Dispatch yesterday that the Society has been asked questions about the local hospital situation, but has not been asked to offer any assistance in working it out.

Dr. Holmes said, "If we are asked to help, we will appoint an advisory committee from within our organization to assist the hospital board in any way we are able. Otherwise, we cannot become in any way involved in the situation."

The SCS has the major responsibility among federal agencies for providing radiological monitoring service within counties, explains Doug Cunningham, work unit conservator at the Garza County office of the SCS. State Conservator H. N. Smith of the U. S. Soil Conservation Service has ordered a checkup on the readiness of SCS' 1,100 trained radiological monitors.

"We've learned here from the state conservator," Cunningham said, "that new procedures are in the making with the Atomic Energy Commission whereby SCS monitoring capabilities such as ours will be immediately available in the event of the accidental discharge of a nuclear device. In such emergency the SCS will be alerted promptly to potential contamination of agricultural areas."

Arrangements are being made with the Offices of Civil Defense, Cunningham said, to check calibration of monitoring instruments.

"We have the needed equipment for checking for possible contamination," Cunningham said.

No traces found of jail escapee or stolen truck

No trace had been found up to late yesterday afternoon of a 35-year-old Negro who broke out of the county jail late Friday night or early Saturday morning.

The escapee is Sylvester Bruner, who was being held in lieu of bond awaiting grand jury action on theft of a saddle from Carl Rains, ex-Garza County sheriff.

Bruner had been held since his arrest last November by Deputy Sheriff Lloyd H. Merritt at Red Oak, in Ellis County.

Sheriff L. E. Claborn Jr. said Bruner escaped from the jail run-around into a space between the ceiling and the courthouse roof after twisting a metal strip off an opening in the jail roof.

Bruner dropped from the ceiling through a skylight opening onto the third floor and escaped down the stairs after throwing a night-latch on a third floor door.

The escape was discovered by morning. There were three other prisoners, all held on misdemeanor charges, in the run-around with Bruner when he escaped, the sheriff said.

The same night or morning that Bruner escaped, the Post Pharmacy's pickup delivery truck was stolen from the rear of the store, Sheriff Claborn said.

Frank Blanton, owner of the pharmacy, said yesterday afternoon that no trace of the pickup had been found, as far as he knew. (See No traces, Page 8)

4-H, FFA exhibitors

Swine, steers and lambs will be judged here Saturday at the annual Garza County 4-H and FFA Livestock Show, with prize money contributed by Post business people going to the winners.

The show, sponsored for the second year by the county's Young Farmer organization, is to be held at the 4-H Building. Weighing-in will be at 9:30 a. m., with judging scheduled to get under way at 1:30 p. m.

Sid Long, vocational agriculture teacher at Gail, will judge the animals, most of which will be shown at Fort Worth and El Paso stock shows later in the month.

Members of 4-H clubs will show all except one of the calves entered, while Future Farmers of America members will show all the swine and lambs.

In addition to the prize money, trophies will be awarded grand champions, sponsors of the show said.

Saturday's show will be bigger, both from the standpoint of the number of stock entered and the amount of prize money contributed by merchants, it was indicated today. Late Tuesday afternoon, Young Farmers members had secured donations of prize money from more than 30 business and professional firms and were still making contacts.

Young Farmers superintendents for the livestock show are Darrell Jones, swine; Jerry Thuet, beef, and Ronnie Morris, sheep.

5 new Chamber directors named

The new board of directors of the Post Chamber of Commerce will meet at 2 p. m. Friday in the city council room to elect the organization's new 1964 officers.

The five new directors selected through mail ballots from the membership, are Dave Sanford, Buster Moreland, Barry Thompson, Jack Lott and Bryan J. Williams.

The 1963 directors met Monday afternoon to count the ballots returned by the membership.

The five hold-over directors are Frank Blanton, current president, S. E. Camp, Iry G. Metcalf, Mike Mitchell and Jim Cornish.

Salary boosts given Thompson and Shiver

The board of trustees of the Post Independent School District voted Monday night to extend the contracts and raise the salaries of Supt. of Schools Barry B. Thompson and Director of Instruction William F. Shiver.

Along with the extension and salary boost for Shiver, the board voted to change his title from director of instruction to assistant superintendent in charge of instructional services.

Thompson's salary was raised $50 a month and his expense account was increased from $100 to $150 a month, both effective July 1, 1964. The superintendent's present two-year contract, which expires June 30, 1965, was extended three years from July 1, 1964.

The $50 a month increase brings Thompson's salary from $10,600 a year up to $11,400 a year.

Shiver's salary was increased from $8,200 a year to $9,825 a year, effective Sept. 1, 1964. His change in title from director of instruction to assistant superintendent in charge of instructional services became effective with the board's action Monday night. Shiver's new three-year contract becomes effective Aug. 15, 1964.

Board President E. R. (Buster) Moreland explained that Supt. Thompson had not asked for a raise, but that the board had promised to raise his salary to that paid his predecessor after he (Thompson) had "proved himself."

"There isn't a doubt in my mind and I don't think there is in any of your minds that Mr. Thompson has proved himself," Moreland said to the board.

The trustees, with all present except Malcolm T. Bull, voted unanimously to extend Thompson's contract and raise his salary after the motion had been made by Dr. John E. Carter and seconded by Virgil Bilbo.

The recommendation that Shiver's title be changed and his salary increased was made to the board by Supt. Thompson. The superintendent's recommendation was that Shiver's salary be raised $50 a month with an additional $20 a month expense allowance.

The trustees went above the superintendent's recommendation, however, in order to make Shiver's salary commensurate with his new position as assistant superintendent. They did so after conferring with the superintendent, who agreed with the trustees that (See Salary, Page 8)

Irvin Cross in race for Commissioner 3

Irvin Cross became the fourth candidate to enter the race for Precinct 3 county commissioner of Garza County today when he authorized The Dispatch to announce his candidacy for the office.

Cross, who has lived in the precinct all his life, said he will issue a formal statement later in regard to his candidacy.

With the filing deadline of Feb. 3 less than three weeks away, four more candidates are Jack Myers for re-election as Precinct 1 commissioner, A. L. (Al) Norris for Precinct 1 commissioner, John C. Harrison for Precinct 1 constable, and Irvin Cross for Precinct 3 commissioner.

Two other candidates who this week announced they will be candidates for re-election are David W. Ratliff of Stamford for State Senator, 25th District, and Renal B. Rosson of Snyder for State Representative, 85th District.

Even earlier than the filing deadline is the Jan. 31 deadline for payment of poll taxes as a requirement for voting in this year's elections.

Up to 3 p. m. Wednesday, only 595 poll tax receipts had been issued at the county tax office. Last year, which was an "off" election year, more than 1,200 poll taxes were paid, so this year's total thus far is less than half last year's final figure.

Nearly 1,800 poll tax receipts were issued in 1962, which was an "on" election year—as is 1964.

Over 200 bales away from finish

Garza crop now 22,353 bales

Garza County's "surprise" cotton crop is in the final "dribble-in" stage today with 22,353 bales ginned to date, only 35 still on the seven gin yards, and not over 164 more bales expected.

Thanks to almost perfect fall growing weather, what at first looked like a very average 15,000 bale crop turned out to be a whole lot better.

It didn't quite compare but 1962's over 27,000 bale county output, but the grade held up well throughout

Tickets moving for big banquet

Arrangements are being made for a crowd of between 250 and 300 at the annual Chamber of Commerce banquet to be held Friday night, Jan. 24, in the Junior High Gym.

Ticket sales were reporting moving briskly with the deadline for ticket sales being Monday, Jan. 20.

Tickets may be obtained for $2-50 each from any director or from the Chamber of Commerce office.

Lt. Gov. Preston Smith will be the banquet speaker.

Frank Blanton, retiring president, will be master of ceremonies for the affair.

S. E. Camp, who is in charge of the banquet program, said Georgie Willson will provide dinner music and the Rev. Edgar H. Graham will give the invocation.

Subject for Lt. Gov. Smith's address has not been announced, but Camp said it would be on a topic of real interest to Texas and this area.

Bryan J. Williams will introduce the lieutenant-governor.

Good news! The 1964 Garza County Community Chest campaign now has its goal "in sight". Tom Power, campaign chairman, announced today. He said the total amount of cash and pledges received to date total $12,076.75.

The 1964 drive goal is $12,331. Power said there are still some cards out and that campaign workers now have "high hopes" of reaching their $12,331 goal in the next few weeks.

Over $1,000 has been raised in the last few weeks, much of it coming from farmers after they got their "cotton in."

Power urged everyone who has not made his or her Chest donation and wants to do so to turn it into the bank as soon as possible.

The Hackberry gin, reported its second best production year on record—6,140 bales. Half of this is counted as Garza cotton. It's top year was slightly better than 6,200 bales ginned.

The gin-by-gin survey of The Dispatch yesterday also brought these totals:

Planter's Gin, Post: 3,466 bales ginned, 19 bales on yard, 50 to 80 bales still expected.

Storie Gin: 1,460 bales ginned, yard clean, 40 bales expected, should be through tomorrow or the next day "if it doesn't snow."

Graham Gin: 4,482 bales ginned, 6 on yard, 25 to 30 bales expected to wind up.

Close City Gin: 3,215 bales ginned, yard clean, only 2 or 3 more bales expected.

Pleasant Valley Gin: 2,350 bales ginned, none on yard, six to eight bales expected.

Basiner Gin, Southland: 4,310 bales ginned, 10 on yard, and 30 bales expected.

Ginners reported that the late snows didn't hurt the cotton grade any and all agreed the grades have held up well all season.

Plans for reorganization of the Post Junior Chamber of Commerce were completed Monday night at a meeting in the Community Room attended by over 15 young men.

Following a vote to reorganize the Jaycees here, it was decided to complete plans for the new group immediately and start arrangements for affiliation with the state and U. S. Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Temporary officers elected were Don Marth, chairman, and Jack Alexander, secretary. They will serve until formal elections take place in the near future.

The new Jaycee group will hold its next meeting Monday, Jan. 27, at the Community Room. Temporary Chairman Marth issued an open invitation to all young men to attend the Jan. 27 meeting.

"We feel that every Post young man can benefit from membership with the Jaycees," Marth said. "It gives us a means of improving our community and ourselves."

THURSDAY, JANUARY 16, 1964

1964—'Opportunities Unlimited'

There are so many opportunities for community-wide effort in Post during this first part of 1964, that slow starters might find themselves wondering what it was that just went around them.

To list a few of the major projects offering real challenges for study and work even this early in the New Year, there are the school study survey; Chamber of Commerce reorganization; continuation of efforts toward getting a suitable community center; White River Dam project; proposed widening of U. S. Hwy. 84; Community Chest wrap-up, and early plans for the spring and summer Youth Baseball Program.

Each of the above projects looms large and important on the local scene. Each of them will require continued close and spirited cooperation to move forward.

The groundwork for the long-range survey to determine the needs of the Post Public Schools has been well laid, with a committee of 20 citizens already appointed and at work. Despite the fact that this committee, representing a cross-section of the community, is spearheading the school survey, it still is a community-wide project, with any and all suggestions welcomed by the committee.

Reorganization of the Chamber of Commerce, with employment of an experienced, full-time manager as one of the goals, is scheduled to make big headway this month. The extent of the reorganization will depend, of course, upon the amount of interest shown by the membership, without which not much can be accomplished.

The proposed community center, which is another Chamber of Commerce project, made more headway in 1963 than might appear on the surface. Practically all local civic clubs and other organizations were told of plans for the center at one or more of their meetings. This is another project that can become more than just a dream if the right amount of effort is put into it in 1964.

The White River Dam project is completed as far as actual construction is concerned. There remains the mapping of a suitable dedication program, in which Post can expect three-pronged assistance from its sister member cities of Spur, Crosbyton and Rails. The White River dedication could well be one of the most memorable occasions of 1964, and it isn't too early to start planning for it.

Transportation-wise, the four-lane widening of U. S. Hwy. 84 from where the present four-lane ends a few miles northwest of town, on through Southland to the county line, should get a start in 1964 as the most beneficial road project since the same highway was widened between here and the Scurry County line.

Something else that shouldn't be overlooked as 1964 gets well under way is the wrap-up, or completion of the Community Chest fund drive. Year after year, Garza is well up among the leaders of counties staging Chest or United Fund campaigns, and this year will be no exception if all pledges are met to go with the contributions already in.

It is a little early yet, but not much, for everyone interested in the Summer Baseball Program, which provides vacation-time recreation for nearly 300 boys, to start thinking about organization for the season. At such a time, the first thought is, "Will there be enough volunteer workers to keep the program going?" Each of us can help answer that question affirmatively by offering our services in the program.

All these and a number of others we haven't touched on constitute a fair-sized community job this early in the year. "Opportunities Unlimited" is the best term we could possibly think of if someone were to ask us what to call the new year besides 1964.—CD

A clear-cut case of survival

More people, especially those who look upon a nuclear attack as something that will never happen outside the covers of a science-fiction book, should have heard the talk given by Emmarhe I. Hartel on Jan. 6 at the January meeting of the city council.

Mrs. Hartel, as office manager of the Garza County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service, heads the civil defense set-up of the various agricultural agencies located here. Her talk, though necessarily brief on account of a crowded city council agenda, reflected the thoroughness with which the agricultural agencies have set up their civil defense program.

It is too bad that the same planning and coordination has not gone into the same operations—what few of them there have been—of other civil defense groups in Garza County.

"We no longer live in an age in which we can keep war from our soil," Mrs. Hartel said. "If our country is attacked, we need to be prepared."

In urging the construction of fallout shelters by families, Mrs. Hartel said, "This is survival."

The discussion among councilmen and others present at the meeting following Mrs. Hartel's talk brought out the main obstacle standing in the way of every family building a fallout shelter—the cost.

That obstacle is not, of course, confined to Garza County. It faces low-income families in every county in the United States. It leaves as the only alternative some form of community shelters and the much bigger problem of how to finance them.

All these points were discussed during that part of the council meeting taken up by the civil defense program. The end result was that everyone agreed there should be more concern on the part of the general public and more coordination in civil defense organization on a community and a county-wide basis.

The ideal solution, of course, would be for no nuclear war ever to break out. Even so, there is always the danger of the accidental discharge of a nuclear device. There is also the constant danger of natural disasters, such as tornadoes, floods, fires, etc., with which civil defense also concerns itself.

The grimmest note of the evening came when one of those taking part in the discussion said, "Now this is atomic bomb fallout we are talking about. If a hydrogen bomb is dropped anywhere near us, we don't have to worry about fallout nor anything else. It'll all be over."

And, in case of a nuclear war, none of us have the assurance that the first bombs dropped won't be hydrogen bombs. There is the "optimistic" viewpoint to go on that no nation would drop a hydrogen bomb on a nation it thought it could conquer, because after the hydrogen bomb hit, the conquering nation would not be able to go in and occupy the vanquished nation. That isn't much to go on, but it beats nothing.—CD

WHEN THE WEATHER gets as cold as it has been the last week or two, it is hard to remember how warm it was last summer.

Presidential election years find a small segment of the population concerning themselves with thinking up slogans to fit the candidates, such as "I Like Ike." So far, I haven't been able to think of any, mainly because the candidates have not been nominated yet. But I have been playing around with the words "cold water" and "Gold-water."

HAVE YOU HEARD about the Texan who needed a blood transfusion, but couldn't find anyone with Type 5 blood?

The Man Up the Street says we are lucky to be citizens of a country where we can say what we think without thinking.

ABOVE IS A picture of our cat, Blackie, looking over travel advertisements one cold day when we wouldn't let him in the house.

By now I've learned never to underestimate the ability of The Dispatch's puzzle fans. When I ran the puzzle, "The Case of the Colored Clothing," in last Thursday's column, it was with some misgiving. I doubted if any of our readers would be able to solve it. But, less than three hours after the paper came out, John Schmidt had the correct answer, which was that Bella wore green on June 11 (and Babs white, Betty blue, and Barbara red). John had used a mathematical formula to work the problem and showed us his work sheet. Then, Thursday night, Mrs. Vernon Lobban telephoned us at home and she, too, had correctly solved the puzzle. I've heard of others who either are still working on it or have given up, and there no doubt are others who have solved it, but just haven't called in yet. At Thursday night's hospital board meeting, one of the members said to me, "I wish you'd quit running those puzzles in the paper. They take up too much of my time."

AS IF SOME of us didn't have troubles enough, now we've got to make up our minds whether or not to quit smoking.

"Gift of the Pineliners" is the title of an article in the December issue of "The Connecting Rod," and the article tells all about the cross made from scrap pipe that towers above the new First Presbyterian Church building, and about the men who built the cross. "The Connecting Rod" magazine is published by and for employees of Service Pipe Line Company, and it was local employes of SPLCo who built the cross.

THE MAGAZINE article quotes Douglas K. Hill, district mechanic for SPLCo as saying, "You might call this a pipeline to God," in referring to the cross, which towers 48 feet into the air above the new church. More than 2,000 pounds of scrap pipe and steel tank plates make up the cross. The tower is divided into five pieces: three of them 2-inch pipe, and the other two, 3-inch pipe. Throughout, there is steel plate (about 3-16ths of an inch thick) welded between.

The article in "The Connecting Rod" goes on to say that there is only one other cross like it in the country: at Houston, Tex. Both were created by Henry Steinbomer, noted San Antonio architect who has designed more than 500 churches in the Southwest.

ALONG WITH THE magazine article, there are pictures of the cross and also of the men who built it—Doug Hill, Robert B. Compton, Lanham Johnson, Lloyd Ritter, A. R. North and Andrew J. Mann.

Post business man is on sugar beet tour

Mike Mitchell of Post was among a group of West Texans who left Amarillo at 9 p. m. Sunday by rail for a tour of Colorado to study the sugar beet industry.

About 75 farmers, ranchers and business men are on the trip, which they feel will bolster efforts to increase production of sugar beets on the Plains.

Loyan Walker of Abilene, who heads the tour, said it will be an opportunity for prospective beet growers and others to learn firsthand about the industry and its potential for boosting the agricultural economy in Texas.

Sugar beet production in Texas has been limited, primarily due to a lack of processing plants. Acreage is allotted by the Department of Agriculture to sugar mills. The mills, in turn, allow acreage to farmers, limiting it to old growers.

Extensive research has proved that many areas of West Texas are suitable for sugar beet production. Agricultural leaders on the Plains sought additional sugar beets, and were successful in convincing Holly Sugar Corp. to build a plant at Hereford. It is scheduled to the 1964 crop.

Holly allotted 26,000 acres as growers. Great Western Refinery of Mont, Colo., allotted 1,000 a trial basis in 1963 to farm the Plainview area. Agricultural leaders are urging Great to build a plant near Plainview.

The West Texas tour is scheduled to return Wednesday.

BAD NEWS FOR COTTON BOLLWORMS, CABBAGE LOOPERS— Two of the country's most destructive insects, the cabbage looper and cotton bollworm, have been successfully controlled by mass-produced insect viruses that are harmless to man.

Both insects are well known pests in Texas and as John Thomas, entomologist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service puts it, just ask any Texas cotton producer about their resistance to chemical controls.

Tests conducted by the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Agricultural Research Service, much of the work was done at the research center at Brownsville, indicate that early-season spray applications of virus will artificially induce epidemics and control the insects before they can damage crops, explains Thomas.

Work is now underway to determine timing, rates and frequency of application of the viruses. Studies indicate only a small amount of insect virus material is needed for effective control. The scientists believe a man probably could hold enough powdered cabbage looper virus concentrate on the nail of his small finger to treat five acres. They also believe the looper and bollworm viruses can be produced at prices farmers can afford. But, adds Thomas, artificially produced viruses for insect control are still experimental materials and none are available for use by the public.

Research has established these points: both viruses are highly specific. One infects only the cabbage looper. The other bollworms and the closely related tobacco budworm. Both viruses are harmless to man, animals and plants. Fungi, bacteria, insect parasites or predators, and other natural enemies of the looper and bollworm are not harmed. Objectionable residues do not occur on treated crops; in fact, ineffective forms of the viruses occur naturally on crops attacked by these two insects.

NEW PUBLICATION
 "Adapting Leases for Successful Farming", a new Extension publication just off the press, will answer many questions of both landowners and tenants. In addition, the publication will assist both parties in arriving at a mutually beneficial lease arrangement.

John Seibert, Area Extension Farm Management Specialist, says the authors point out a lease should serve two requirements of major importance. The first is to assure that total income is shared by landlord and tenant in the same proportion as total expenses of production, harvest and sale.

Secondly, a functional lease promotes farming efficiency by guarding against conflicting interest between landlord and tenant in the day-to-day farm operation. Also, it provides the economic incentives to operate the farm in the most profitable way.

The publication emphasizes these three points are required for efficiency:

(1) Every cash operating expense must be shared in the same proportion that income is shared. Otherwise, both parties will not have an incentive to operate in the most profitable manner for the farm;

(2) Income from all production must be shared in the same proportion as the expenses of production, harvest and sale were shared. Otherwise, the enterprise most profitable for the tenant may not be the most profitable for the whole farm.

(3) The length of the lease must not reduce return on investments. For example, a tenant with a one-year lease will overemphasize short-term investments for conservation, land reclamation, facilities, fertilizer, etc., may be the most profitable investment. A longer lease, or the landlord paying the outgoing tenant for his share of unused resources, can avoid this handicap.

In addition to discussions on the above topics, the publication also goes into detail on how to improve the traditional lease, shifting from an old to a new lease, plus a table for estimating rent. Copies are available at the office of the local county agent. Ask for MP-677.

Phony Tree Doctors

PHONY TREE DOCTORS
 Questionable tree doctors, who not only take citizens for tremendous amounts of money but may harm trees, are being reported from across the state, says Wendell Horne, plant pathologist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Unfortunately these so-called tree doctors also give reputable silviculturists a bad name, says the specialist. These operators usually claim that they have secret formulas that will cure ailing trees of all problems. He may drive nails into the tree or spread some "re-vegetator" around them. When asked about his cure-all, he usually explains that it is so new that research has not heard about it as yet.

Horne recommends that an unbiased authority, such as the local county agricultural agent, be consulted to diagnose the tree's ailment before bargaining with people that make such claims. It is also advisable for the home-owner to inquire about the operator's qualifications to work on trees. Most of the questionable operators usually have no formal training in tree care or plant pathology. The reputable ones are always glad to give their background and qualifications and are willing to back-up their claims with scientific data, points out the specialist.

Home-owners are reminded by Horne that there are no miracle cures for tree ailments, and when new treatments are found, research and educational organizations immediately make the information available to the public without charge.

Lone Star State Teen-agers Claim 4-H Club Honors For '63 Efforts

Three Win Trip To Windy City

Four Lone Star State 4-H'ers won best-in-state awards in 1963 because of their effective leadership, excellent beef cattle and automotive work.

The boy and girl state leadership winners are Arlon Baese, 17, of New Braunfels, and Joanne Shriver, 17, of Alice. Lynn Harruff, 17, of Dalhart, is the beef expert, and Peggy Dittmar, 16, of Lometa, won her state award in the 4-H automotive program.

The Sears-Roebuck Foundation presented a special certificate of recognition to Baese and Harruff.

Baese has appeared on several radio programs with reports on major district and state 4-H activities. He was also high individual in the state in soil evaluation and was on the team that won third place in soil evaluation.

Harruff, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Harruff, who operate a 5,636-acre ranch, has devoted eight years to his beef project. For several years he has been on state award-winning livestock and dairy judging teams and has been one of the top-ranking individuals. He also won top awards in dairy judging.

Gold Star Boy

For three years Harruff has been a junior leader in beef, assisting the cattle club leader. He is vice president of Dallam County 4-H junior leaders organization and a member of The XIT Hereford Breeders Association. Last year he was named 4-H Gold Star boy.

Six-year 4-H'er Miss Dittmar has taken the automotive project since it started in Lampasas County two years ago. She is now expert at changing tires, checking gas and oil and cleaning cars.

Rodeo Queen

Miss Shriver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Shriver, is a freshman at Southwest Texas State College. She has served as co-chairman of Jim Wells County 4-H Council and Tri-County Council and as vice-president of District 12 Council. She represented District 12 at 4-H State Council. She was a 1963 Rural Youth honoree, twice Rodeo Queen at Premont, Jim Wells County Fair Queen and also 4-H Rodeo Queen in Edinburg, Tex.

Miss Shriver has served as clothing leader, and has led recreation and discussion groups at district leadership labs and other events.

Baese, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Baese, has served on District 10 and the State 4-H Council.

"SIMPLE" LEGAL FORMS
 Some "simple" legal forms available at stationery stores the expression "simple legal form" is often a contradiction in terms, since that which seems simple may not be. Persons not familiar with the law often create problems that they solve with "simple" forms.

In one state, Mr. Abercrombie purchased a "simple" will for 10 cents. His estate was split, only his home and some money in a bank account. He had provided for his wife, Mrs. Abercrombie, over the years by placing money in a separate account which she maintained which he had no interest. He thought there was no need to provide for her by will and wanted to be his two sons.

Mr. Fitch, his neighbor of 40 years, had prepared his will "simple" will for her before his death and their circumstances were identical. They each had a will which they wanted to be equally between their children.

After Mr. Abercrombie died, his sons presented their father's will for probate, believing the will would soon be theirs. However, "simple" legal form which was not all right for Mr. Abercrombie. Mr. Fitch was a widow whose wife had died years before. Mr. Abercrombie's wife survived him.

Because he did not know the law required, Mr. Abercrombie provided for his wife's being after his death by depositing sums of money in her account which would not contain any provision for her.

The Probate Court, by law, to rule that the "simple" will not prevent Mrs. Abercrombie from taking care of her husband, from taking her share of her husband's estate.

The sons got much less of estate than they expected or father intended. They found what the father never discovered, namely, it is hard to know if legal problem is a "simple" when you do not know the rule solving the problem.

Early-day women's clubs are described at Matron meeting

Presenting the first part of the program, Mrs. Billie Johnson, told of the earliest woman's club, organized in London in 1725, which was connected with the coffee houses and taverns. New members were voted in as they are in some clubs today by the black-ball system. Some of the early clubs were, "The Shakespeare Club", "The Kit Kat Club" and the "Lying Club" in which no member could tell the truth unless given permission by the chairman.

Mrs. Will Wright told of the history of "The Graham Club". It was organized in 1930 with Mrs. Bud Stevens being the first president, and Mrs. Wright, the first secretary-treasurer. Dues were five cents a month. At the first meeting, there were 30 members present, not counting all the many children. Five quilts were quilted that day.

Miss Henrietta Nichols, president of the club, talked on federated clubs, pointing out that the Woman's Culture Club was organized in 1913 and federated in 1914. Mrs. Dickinson and Mrs. Haire, have both served as president of the Woman's Culture Club, and are both present members, with Mrs. Dickinson being a charter member.

Miss Nichols also mentioned the other two federated clubs in Post, The Amity Study Club, and the Post Music Club. She reported that the Amity Study Club and the Woman's Culture Club were both organized in the "Speck House" although 23 years apart. Miss Nichols pointed out that all these clubs have worthwhile projects including improvement of self and others.

Refreshments of congealed chicken salad, wafers, fruit cake and coffee were served to Mmes. Kenneth Davies, Haire, Johnson, Don Pennell, Thaxton, Wright, and Miss Nichols.

The club will meet Feb. 10 in the newly-decorated home of Mrs. Jay Oats in Southland with Mrs. Davies as co-hostess. The program will be on "Friendship" with Mmes. Pennell, Alice Martin and Nellie Mathis in charge.

Charles Dickens, Homemaker's Counselor

Charles Dickens is much better known for fiction than fact. Most people know his authorship of "Oliver Twist" but few moderns know he was editor of "Household Words", a factual weekly. In 1856, Dickens wrote in this periodical on the subject of a new metal that "Henceforth, respectable babies will be born with aluminum spoons in their mouths."

He also wrote that aluminum would be applied to the "fabrication of vessels and instruments of all kinds in which resistance to the action of the air and to the chemical agents is indispensable... for traveling purposes, for which its lightness is no small merit."

In 1856, only 60 pounds of aluminum had been produced and the cost was about $100 per pound. It was difficult for Dickens to foresee that it would be produced in such quantity as to make it the most economical metal for many purposes.

Half a century ahead of commercial accomplishment, Dickens failed to predict the first widespread use of aluminum—in cooking utensils. The quality he did not know or foresee was its high heat conductivity which made it ideal for cookware.

19th Century theme carried out at Culture Club meeting

The 19th century was re-created in decorations, appointments and food when Mrs. E. A. Warren and Mrs. C. R. Thaxton entertained the Woman's Culture Club in the Warren home Jan. 8.

Heirloom pieces of jewelry, lacework, books, legal document, and china were brought to the meeting by different members and interesting bits of information were told to give emphasis on the 1800-1870 period. The club study for the year is American Literature during this time.

Among some of the cherished heirlooms were a McDuff Reader, a china hair receiver, hairpin box, Battenburg lace, linens, imported china and a 200 year old key winding watch.

Brass and glass candle and flower holders added to the period theme. Red carnations and fern and red-glow candles were used throughout the entertaining rooms.

Refreshments, popular in the chosen period, consisted of Wassel punch, Lady Baltimore cake, glazed fruits and cheese balls.

Mrs. Ira Lee Duckworth presided at the business session. A nominating committee was elected and includes Mrs. Lew Marks, Mrs. C. I. Dickinson and Mrs. Louie Burkes. Mrs. Lee Davis conducted a constructive parliamentary drill. Mrs. Marks, federation chairman, reported on state and general federation highlights.

Recorded selections were provided by Mrs. Julius Tanner.

Attending the meeting were: Mmes. Virgil Bilbo, Burkes, J. H. Haire, Davis, Dickinson, Duckworth, Marks, Homer J. Irons, M. J. Malouf, Tillman Jones, J. F. Storie, Tanner, A. Lee Ward, D. C. Williams and J. R. Rickel.

THEY! MY PICTURE'S IN THE PAPER

Sure it is! And you're looking at it right now.

Most people get their pictures in the paper because they've done something. But not I!

I haven't done anything. Not yet, that is . . .

But one of these days I'm going to do lots of things. Big things. Great things. Why, I might even be President of the United States some day.

Want to know why my picture's in the paper?

Because I'm one of millions of youngsters who needs to grow up with faith, fortitude, character.

And we boys and girls want you to come to Church next Sunday — and to bring us with you.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Car catches fire on Tahoka highway

The fire department was called Thursday night to put out a fire in a car on the top of the Cap on the Tahoka highway.

The car was a 1960 Ford two-door belonging to Bart Finney. He is the son of Sol Finney, new Dunlap's manager here.

Mr. Finney and his son, Bart, who lives in Portales, N. M., had driven up an top of the Cap to see the lights of Post below when the engine of Bart's car caught fire.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Sneed returning to their home on the Tahoka highway from Post stopped and returned to town to notify the fire department.

Damage was confined basically to the engine's wiring and paint on the hood.

OUR READERS Write

ONLY BY EDUCATION

Dear Editor:

May we invite your cooperation in a project which, if successful, will save lives and prevent injuries from traffic accidents.

The physicians of Texas have been gravely concerned about the large loss of life and the high incidence of severe injuries due to automobile accidents. We believe that one of the factors responsible for this epidemic of traffic deaths and injuries is that many people do not use seat belts.

The American automobile industry, aware of this problem and of the importance of seat belts, will make seat belts standard equipment in all automobiles manufactured after Jan. 1, 1964. Neither the availability of seat belts nor any law, however, will induce the regular use of seat belts. This can be brought about only by education.

The Texas Medical Association has initiated a program of education on the importance of seat belts. In this program, we are dependent on the understanding and cooperation by news media and law enforcement agencies. This is the project: All news media, whenever they report a serious traffic accident, should mention whether the victims used seat belts. The law enforcement agencies should include this information when they furnish news to the news media. Unfortunately, for the time being, the news on a traffic accident will mostly end in the phrase, "The victims in this accident wore no seat belts." Conversely, in accidents where the victims used seat belts, this information should be added to the report.

We realize that seat belts are no cure-all. Some people will die in traffic accidents even while they use seat belts, but in many instances the news of a non-fatal accident will hopefully be concluded with the phrase, "The investigating officers state that the victims owe their survival of their using seat belts."

Col. Homer Garrison Jr., the director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, has approved this project in principle, and has instructed his officers to cooperate in it. He, however, has cautioned all concerned that it might be unwise to mention the seat belts under circumstances that might imply the chiding of an owner for negligence.

It should go without saying that all concerned will show human kindness and understanding. Police officers and news media will have to weigh the benefit to the community as a whole of education toward the universal use of seat belts against the possible harm to individuals done by "adding insult to injury." Newspapers for years have reported new cases of polio with remarks such as, "This child had not received either Salk or Sabin vaccine." Such remarks obviously are considered proper even though they may make the parents of the stricken child remorseful.

We have brought this matter to the attention of the members of the Texas Medical Association in an editorial in the Texas State Journal of Medicine, a copy of which is enclosed.

Please give this matter your serious consideration. We want your cooperation in order to carry out this proposal.

We welcome your immediate comments on this plan as well as reports at a later date when you have had an opportunity to observe the plan in operation.

Sincerely,

Robert Mayo Tenery, M. D.
President
Texas Medical Assn.

FARM EMPLOYMENT HIGH

Farming employs seven million workers, more than the combined employment in transportation, public utilities, the steel industry, and the automobile industry.

NOT JUST MILKERS

The dairy industry involves people other than those who milk the cows. Figures show that 292,000 people are employed in manufacturing dairy products in this country.

Applications are being taken by Post Lions for Crippled Child Camp

Applications for a summer full of fun for handicapped children in Garza County are now being accepted by members of the Post Lions Club.

The unique Texas Lions Camp for Crippled Children at Kerrville will open its first two-weeks session Sunday, June 7, 1964. Five such sessions will be held this summer for youngsters 7 through 16.

The Camp is free to eligible deaf, blind, mute or crippled children. Transportation to and from the Camp is supplied by the local Lions. All requests for summer camp are handled locally by Lions.

For more detailed information about the Camp, you are urged to contact Dr. J. E. Carter of the Post Lions Club.

In the past years, Lions have sent over 7,000 youngsters to camp.

ANTICIPATE PURCHASES

A recent survey by the Census Bureau shows that 16.8 per cent of the families in the nation plan to purchase one major household appliance during the next few months, reports Mrs. Eula J. Newman, home management specialist with the Agricultural Extension Service at Texas A&M University. Washing machines apparently top the list of anticipated purchases.

Post Does win tournament title at Slaton Saturday

The Post Antelopes won their third championship of the season at Slaton over the Shallowater girls in a round-robin affair. Both the Does and Shallowater finished with 2-1 marks, but Coach Mary Lee Stockton's Post team was awarded the championship on the basis of total points scored.

The Does received a handsome championship trophy to add to their growing collection in the high school trophy case.

Post opened tournament play with a 29-17 win over Tahoka last Thursday, then defeated Shallowater, 55-34, Saturday morning before losing to Slaton, 54-52, Saturday night.

The loss was only the second of the season for the Does, whose only other defeat was at the hands of Idalou in their first game.

The Slaton girls held Post's Nita Wilson to only four field goals in their two-point victory, but the Post, senior forward and team captain tossed in 18 free throws to come up with 26 points and lead the scoring. Williams paced the Slaton scoring with 21 points.

The Does led 18-15 at the end of the first quarter and 32-23 at the half, but scored only five points in the third period while Slaton was racking up 11 to make the score 37-34 in Post's favor. The Tigerettes outscored the Does, 21-15, in the final period.

Marilyn Jones scored 13 points for Post; Vivian McWhirt, 9, and Pam Stewart and Cheryl Martin, 2 points apiece.

In the win over Shallowater, Wilson scored 37 points; Jones, 12; Shirley Sappington, 4, and Stewart, 2.

In the low-scoring victory over Tahoka, Wilson got 22 points; McWhirt, Stewart and Martin, 2 each, and Jones, 1.

Marilyn Jones and Cheryl Martin went out on fouls in the Shallowater game, and Martin and Dee Ann Walker fouled out in the Slaton game. Post's other starting guard was Darla Pierce.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Morris, former residents now living in Slaton, returned home last week after spending two weeks with their two daughters and families, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Lyman, Mark and Leslie of Dallas and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Maeker, Marilyn and Pam of Richardson. Mrs. Johnnie Hamilton, who teaches in Garland and was a roommate of Mrs. Lyman when they attended Texas Tech, visited the group while they were in Dallas. The Morrises' son, Maurice, and his wife spent Christmas with them in Slaton.

CHEVY-VAN!

Chevrolet's new low-cost quality delivery truck!

This introduces you to Chevy-Van—our new economy delivery truck. It has a low price tag, over 40 sq. ft. of completely usable flat floor 7 1/4 ft. long, the engine up front, and a lot of quality features which make it a better buy. The body and frame-floor are welded together. The truck is strong, rigid, stable. Doors are double-wall construction. Chevy-Van has unusual resistance to rust and corrosion. Especially vulnerable areas such as front stepwells are galvanized. Sealers are used at all critical joints inside and out. Certain sections are treated with high-zinc-content primers; others with an aluminum-wax preservative. The windshield is a big flat practical one-piece unit. The big 90-hp 4-cylinder standard engine is more powerful than some 6s, yet is remarkably economical. If you need more power, Chevy-Van offers a 120-hp six at extra cost. Side doors and rear windows also cost extra. Last but not least, it's a Chevrolet. Which means that it is built to work for you a long time at minimum cost.

Three films on golf lessons by Tommy Armour and Mickey Wright were shown following the business session.

Coffee and cookies were served to the following members present: Mr. and Mrs. Howard Carlyle, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Greenwood, Paul Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lucas, Jimmy Hundley, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hopkins, Byron Havnice, Mr. and Mrs. Claud Collier, Jack Moore, D. H. Bartlett, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Acker and Lonnie Welborn.

Trustees—

(Continued from Page 1) Athletics are not a part of the formal curriculum and participation in competitive sports is not required, the school should remove itself from the purchasing of athletic insurance.

"A number of area schools have previously taken this action," Spitt Thompson told the board.

In other action at Monday night's meeting, the board voted to employ Mrs. Dave Sanford as first grade teacher. Mrs. Sanford has been teaching the first Bettye Scott to helping teacher in the elementary school. Mrs. Sanford attended Stephens College, Columbia, Mo., and is a graduate of Southern Methodist University.

The board also Monday night, at its regular January session, voted to transfer $4,000 from the operating fund to the cafeteria fund. Due to the slowness of state reimbursements to the cafeteria fund, the transfer was necessary to meet the current bills and payroll.

No traces—

(Continued from Page 1) The key to the pickup, he said, was not in the ignition switch, but was hidden over the door.

Blanton said the dark green pickup had "Post Pharmacy" lettering on the sideboards to the truck bed, but that these sideboards could easily be removed.

A warrant charging Bruner with theft of the pharmacy's truck was filed Tuesday in Justice of the Peace court.

RMA founder tells of start

Dr. A. B. Carter, founder of the Retail Merchants Association of Post, spoke before the RMA last Thursday at its first weekly luncheon meeting of the year in Levi's Restaurant.

He told of the problems encountered in the beginning and how the organization came into being.

His son, Dr. John E. Carter, also spoke briefly on the history of the organization.

Mrs. A. B. Carter also was a guest at the luncheon.

Claud Collier, new RMA president, presided.

After the talks members present discussed a variety of ways the organization could help in the coming year.

Youth center program explained to Lions

Harold Teal, president of the board of directors of the Garza County Youth Center, explained the youth program Tuesday night to Post Lions at their dinner meeting in Levi's Restaurant banquet room. He explained the purpose, function and activities of the youth center.

We think we have the best hamburgers in town. Let us prove it to you. We sell loaves too.

Hospital—

(Continued from Page 1) County Attorney Carleton P. Webb, at the request of the commissioners' court and the hospital board, has asked for, but not received, a ruling from the Texas attorney-general as to the county's rights under the law concerning the county's future choices on the hospital.

Webb explained that under state law, counties have the authority only to do what the state law gives them the right to do.

Preceding the vote on Dr. Tubbs' reappointment at last Thursday night's meeting, two members of the county commissioners' court, which attended the meeting in a body, spoke out as being opposed to Dr. Tubbs' reappointment to the medical staff.

The two were A. P. (Chunk) Gurley, Precinct 2 commissioner, and Ozell Williams, Precinct 3 commissioner. Neither of the other two commissioners, Jack Myers, of Precinct 1 and Mason Justice of Precinct 4, made any statement, but both responded in the affirmative when asked by Commissioner Williams if they felt as he and Commissioner Gurley did about Dr. Tubbs' reappointment.

Also preceding the vote on Dr. Tubbs, which was by secret ballot, Administrator Ricketts read off a list of grievances against Dr. Tubbs for the preceding month at the hospital, which he reminded the hospital board they had asked him to compile.

Members of the hospital board are Walter Duckworth, chairman; O. L. (Ollie) Weakley, Henry Wheatley, Mrs. Lee W. Davis, Mrs. R. L. Marks and Mrs. Malcolm T. Bull.

Salary—

Five of the six trustees present at Monday night's meeting voted in favor of the contract extension and salary raise for Shiver after the motion had been made by Dr. Carter and seconded by Ronnie Bouchier.

The other trustee present, Russell Wilks Jr., did not vote on the motion. He said he was not opposed to extending Shiver's contract and raising his salary, but that he felt it would be wiser "to go ahead and decide to do so tonight, but not take any action on it until our next meeting."

Wilks said he felt the public should know what the school board proposed to do in regard to extending Shiver's contract and raising his salary, and the board's justification in doing so. "The press and the radio can let the public know in the meantime what the board's justifications are," Wilks said.

In recommending that Shiver's contract be extended and his salary increased, Supt. Thompson told the board, "Bill Shiver is doing a most outstanding job as we strive to have the outstanding AA school system in the state of Texas. I am convinced he is an excellent asset to the Post Independent School District."

Fallout—

"We have the necessary equipment to move into action immediately in the case of an emergency and our people are trained to use it competently. We expect to be ready for whatever action the occasion demands," he concluded.

Noah is said to have been the first weather forecaster that did anything about it.

Surrender of 12,500 Union troops to Stonewall Jackson at Harper's Ferry was the largest in U. S. history prior to Corregidor.

In Our Time

AMERICANS USE ABOUT 65 BILLION GALLONS OF GASOLINE A YEAR. TO MEET THIS CONSTANTLY GROWING DEMAND, OIL SCIENTISTS HAVE LEARNED TO "SQUEEZE" MORE AND MORE GASOLINE FROM CRUDE OIL.

FOR EXAMPLE, IN 1920 WHEN A BARREL OF OIL WENT INTO A REFINERY, ONLY 26 PERCENT OF IT CAME OUT AS GASOLINE.

TODAY THE AVERAGE GASOLINE YIELD IS UP TO NEARLY 45 PERCENT, WITH ONE MODERN REFINERY REPORTING A YIELD OF 50 PERCENT.

WITHOUT THESE TECHNOLOGICAL ADVANCES, THE NATION WOULD NEED 2.5 BILLION MORE BARRELS OF OIL PER YEAR TO MEET TODAY'S DEMAND FOR GASOLINE.

Mother's March chairman named

Mrs. LaVerta Lovell has been appointed chairman of the Mothers' March by campaign chairman C. H. Hartel for the March of Dimes under way this month.

The Mothers' March, which usually winds up the campaign's activities, will be held Thursday evening, Jan. 30.

March of Dimes campaign posters and coin containers have been put out in business places and coin cards distributed at the schools by the MOD chairman.

Postings—

(Continued from Page 1) public light on the matter. And much of it is for understandable reasons. The hospital administrator has been out of town for the past three days with a group seeking to interest young doctors in moving to Post as they finish internship. This has complicated the news gathering too.

In our hospital story, Editor Charlie has included all the information on the situation available from all news sources. It is not as concise and complete as we experienced newsmen would prefer. But it should help to inform the public on many of the facts.

This newspaper's second concern in the hospital situation is in finding a solution in the public's best interest. This is going to take some time. That is about the only conclusion one can draw at this moment.

Blaylock funeral will be Sunday

Funeral services for Mrs. Dora Ann Blaylock, 63, who died Monday in Garza Memorial Hospital after a long illness, will be conducted at 2 p. m. Sunday at the Pleasant Home Baptist Church here.

Mrs. Blaylock, the wife of Jerry Blaylock, had lived in Post for 25 years.

She is also survived by a daughter of Los Angeles, Calif.; a son, who is in the Veterans' Hospital at Temple; three step-daughters and two step-sons.

Burial will be in Terrace Cemetery under the direction of Hudson Funeral Home.

That's when Rotarians decided to challenge the Does again to another night of basketball.

Post has not had a Junior Chamber of Commerce organization since 1958.

$95,000 damage suit filed here

A $95,000 damage suit was filed in Garza County district court here Monday by Zelma Lee Dykes guardian of the person of Henrie Jean Wade, against Boyd Belcher of Lubbock.

The suit is an outgrowth of an accident Jan. 30 in which a 1 1/2 ton truck driven by Belcher and a car driven by Henrie Jean Wade collided at an intersection of a dirt road with FM-211, four miles south and one mile east of Southland.

The suit alleges that Henrie Jean Wade sustained permanent brain injuries from the accident which resulted in her being declared incompetent and Zelma Lee Dykes named as her guardian by the County Court of Milam County, Tex., on Aug. 7, 1963.

The guardian is asking $75,000 damages for injuries sustained and $20,000 for past and future medical bills.

Four dogs get mouths full from porcupine

Don't try to tell Junior Gray there aren't any porcupines in this country. Junior's four Bluetick hounds tangled with a porcupine sometime Thursday night near the Gray home on US-84 partway up the Cap. Each of the four hounds had a whole mouth full of quills, including some on the backs of their tongues. With one person holding and Junior working with pliers he spent nine hours pulling out the quills ending up about 1 a. m. Saturday.

ROMANTIC PRINCIPALS

Noted English screen star Michael Craig and Academy Award-winner Susan Hayward are the romantic principals in the presentation, "Stolen Hours," about the international jet set, which opens Sunday at the Tower Theatre.

Every outdoorsman is interested in the pollution problem.

That is the reason the recently released 1962 report of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, covering fish kills, should bring us to our feet.

Texas with a total of 68 reports last year was exceeded only by Pennsylvania, which had 86 fish kills reported.

Oil well and industrial waste was responsible for most of the cases reported in Texas. Agricultural and domestic pollution also was blamed in several of the reports.

Some of these cases were accidental, where bad situations got out of control. Others were from careless management.

AS CITIES GROW larger and more complex, pollution problems increase. Excessive uses of detergents through the sewer systems also are adding to the problem. Some locations now are banning the use of certain detergents, used for cleaning clothes.

Fortunately health agencies are working hard to prevent pollution, but it takes closest cooperation on the part of industries and even municipalities.

Oil operators, paper mills and other large industries, such as chemical plants, are facing the constant problem. Now most of them care. Teher was a time when the majority didn't.

According to the report more than 7,000,000 fish were killed last year by water pollution. This does not take in consideration the massive kill of 37,800,000 which took place in the San Diego harbor in August, 1962. Nor does it include several states which made no reports.

Nationwide domestic sewage was the principal killer, accounting for nearly half the total amount.

THE BIG KILL in San Diego was the result of the dumping of a large quantity of oil in the coastal waters. Oil is toxic to fish.

Another big kill was reported in the Anacostia river near Washington, D. C. last September, where 3,100,000 fish were killed by the dumping of raw sewage.

The river mileage involved last year was 1500, with 25 miles of shoreline and 2600 acres of lakes.

Many Texas municipalities, particularly the smaller ones, face a problem in private dumping of waste. It is pathetic to cross many of the smaller streams of Texas in the vicinity of small towns and take a look at the creek beds. Many of them are filled with old automobile tires and bodies, refrigerators or

High Plains area is biggest user of ground water

The Texas Water Commission's new report describing the ground water resources of the Brazos River Basin shows that the most intensive use of ground water is in the northwest part of the basin, the High Plains.

The Ogallala Formation, in which Garza County is included, supplied about 2.2 million acre-feet of water in 1959, or 90 per cent of the Brazos River Basin total pumpage, mostly for irrigation purposes.

"The amount of water withdrawn from the Ogallala Formation in the High Plains each year exceeds even the most optimistic estimates of recharge, and the ground water supply is being depleted," the report states.

It was estimated that as of 1958 the Ogallala had on the order of 89 million acre-feet of water remaining in storage that would be available to wells in the Brazos Basin portion.

The Ogallala Formation in the Brazos Basin covers all or parts of the following counties: Farmer, Castro, Swisher, Bailey, Lamb, Hale, Floyd, Cochran, Hockley, Lubbock, Crosby, Lynn, Terry and Garza.

just plain garbage refuse. Perhaps city officials could pay more attention to such disposal. Or the individual himself can be more careful where he dumps his refuse.

Some towns solve this problem with a public dump ground. Here individuals may dispose of their litter, where it is later covered over with dozers.

SPORTSMEN CAN give a big assist in stopping this pollution in a fight against litter and by giving support to their city and county government.

But the greatest good can be done by individuals, who persist in littering the highways and open spots with beverage bottles and cans.

The state spends many millions of dollars each year on the care and development of roadside parks. Yet many people will drive into these parks, make use of them and leave litter scattered around.

A landowner who has a nice stream on his place told me he would be glad to take the lock off his gate.

"But I can't stand the litter," he says. "Every time someone uses the picnic grounds I have to go down there and do a cleanup job."

This same attitude is found on the part of many individuals fishing off T-heads on the coast or around the jetties. They'll leave their old waste fish around to rot and stink.

As outdoorsmen, we must do our part to stop this pollution that is costing us millions of fish each year. It is important both at a local and national level.

Old Masters Creative Finishes

CHANGES THIS - TO THIS!

WITHOUT Removing The Old Finish

for only $2.58

Anything that can be painted can be changed to take on the appearance of rich wood grain, of age-old antique or beautiful marble. The process is so simple a child could do it. Yet the realism you can achieve with Old Masters will amaze and delight you. The grand part about achieving these effects is that you don't have to remove the old finish. This means no scraping, no bleaching, no staining, and no special tools are required to obtain any of these effects. Any piece of furniture that doesn't fit its surroundings or woodwork that doesn't fit the decor can be easily changed to complement its setting. The oddest assortment of furniture and finishes can be made to look as though they belonged to each other. Regardless of how dark or light the item is, Old Masters can completely change its appearance without removing the old finish. See how. See it demonstrated. And see how little it costs to make these amazing changes.

And without removing the old finish!
You just paint it on!
