Captain Blood to be shown at State Theatre

In keeping with his policy of showing the best of moving pictures, Mr. Sanders, the owner of the State Theatre, has secured for his patrons one of the most beautiful and spectacular pictures of the year entitled "Captain Blood." It is the story of Peter Blood, a young physician, who, because he gives medical aid to a follower of the Duke of Monmouth in his rebellion against King James is condemned as a slave to the West Indies. During an attack on the colony by the Spaniards, Blood and his fellow convicts capture the Spanish galleon and sail for Tortugo, rendezvous of the pirates. Blood leaves behind the girl he loves, Arabella, niece of the governor. The rebel convicts organize and Blood becomes the leader and his name is a terror to all who sail the West Indies seas. He joins the French flag and is tricked by the admiral of the fleet. His persecutor, King James, is dethroned and Blood enlists under the English flag. He pursues the French and in a terrific sea fight saves Port Royal for England.

The picture is full of thrills such as is seldom seen on the screen today. One of the big scenes is the sea fight, in which several ships are destroyed. The hand-to-hand battle with the pirates has never had an equal before and it is doubtful if there will ever be another scene filmed in the future that will equal it.

J. Warren Kerrigan, the hero, of "The Covered Wagon," plays the part of Captain Blood. He is supported by such stars as Jean Paige, Charlette Merriam, James Morrison and others.

The program for the rest of the week is composed of high class pictures. On Monday Johnny Hines will be seen in his latest picture "Conductor 1492;" Thursday night "His Children's Children," a Paramount special will be shown, on Friday, a new western star, Buddy Roosevelt will be seen in "Rough Ridin'" and on Saturday, Fred Thompson and his horse, Silver King, will be seen in "Thundering Hoofs."

"Suddown," the story of the last stand of the cattle men, will be shown here at an early date in May.

Doc. Aldridge Wins

Doc. Aldridge proved the champion in the boxing match with Ed Woods, the Oklahoma champion, at Lubbock Monday night. Aldridge states that he knocked Woods out in the fifth round. Another match has been made for next Thursday night at Newmoore, the about to be held in the big barn at the old Slash L ranch. Aldridge weighs 170 and Woods 171.

Boys' Calf and Pig Clubs To Be Organized

C. T. Watson, County Agent of Dawson county, visited O'Donnell last Friday to interest the boys of the town's trade territory in dairy calf and pig clubs. In company with Ben T. Brown and H. L. Hohn, Mr. Watson visited the school and explained the requirements an applicant before he could enter the club, and the boys seemed interested to the extent that he believes a club will be organized in the near future.

Mr. Watson believes boys' club work to be effective in promoting agricultural efficiency and prosperity and is willing to co-operate with them and their parents in starting them off and giving all the help possible.

The Santa Fe railway is offering fifty-nine trips with all expenses paid to the Fourth National Boys and Girls Club Congress in Chicago this fall to the club winners in nine western states competing in crop and live stock projects, nineteen of which will be given to boys in Texas.

This is a splendid opportunity for some boy to win a trip to this great congress. Ben T. Brown at the First State Bank will explain the matter to anyone interested and will advise as to how get a start. See him.

Give the Boy a Heifer

Give the boy a heifer,
Start him on his way,
Make him feel he's starting in,
To be a man some day.
Let him know the value
Of a cow or two,
See him take a keener pride
In the farm for you.

Give the boy a heifer,
Tell him—"Take it, son,
May you have a dozen cows,
Soon, instead of one."
Let him know he's wanted
On the old farm, too,
And he'll stay and work his way
Side by side with you.

Entertains With Birthday Party

Little Miss Sidney G. French celebrated her seventh birthday with a party for her friends Monday afternoon. The home was beautifully decorated, carrying with it the air of the Easter season. After playing a number of games, the hostess's mother, assisted by Mesdames Busby, Boyd and Scrimshire, served delicious cream and cake. At each place there was a basket of Easter eggs and a chocolate rabbit. Those enjoying the afternoon were: Perry Cox, Jewel Horn, Wilford Gates, Pauline Davis, Lorene Beach, Anna Bell Estes, Normalu Clark, Margeret, W. B. and James Knight Hicks, Winnie Vaughn, Fay Tomlinson, Mildred and Mozell Homes, Annie Mae Frost, Francis Foster, Julian

Child Dies At T Bar

Nona, the seven-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Early, who live in the T Bar neighborhood, died Thursday of last week and was buried the day following, Rev. W. B. Hicks conducted the funeral services. The little girl had been ill for about a year and her parents had taken her to the best specialists in the country, but nothing could be done for her. She had been paralyzed for three months before her death. The sympathy of the entire community goes out to the bereaved parents in the loss of their little girl.

Pirtle, Mae Miles, Mildred Singleton, Earl Guye Alton and Jack Sikes, Ernestine Scrimshire, Alice Busby, Veda Shumake, Lois Littlepage, Mary Clarinda Sanders and Cecil Brown.

Protracted Meeting At Southside Baptist Church

Rev. F. A. Thorp of Lubbock, will begin a protracted meeting at the Southside Baptist church tonight and will continue for a week. Rev. Thorp is a forceful expounder of the gospel and the members are fortunate in securing his services for this meeting. A cordial invitation is extended everyone to attend this meeting.

Mrs. Eryan Gregery of Fort Worth, is the guest of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Moses.

Miss Alma Hyde is home from a visit to Knox City.

Easter Sunrise Services Well Attended

The Easter Sunrise service at the First Christian church was well attended last Sunday and a beautiful and impressive program carried out. All the ministers of the town were present and assisted in making the services one that will long be remembered. This was the first time that an sunrise service has been conducted in O'Donnell.

R. L. Wagner made a trip to Amherst Wednesday to look after his extensive land interests in that country.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Sanders and Mrs. Malcom Brown were visitors in Lubbock Thursday.

B. Y. P. U. Entertains With Unique Party

Young people of town were entertained by B. Y. P. U. of First Baptist Church last Friday night. The young folks began to arrive about 8 o'clock, as each person entered they were given a number, there were five groups of numbers. Rev. W. K. Horn then made the welcoming address after which the games were started.

The five groups were assigned a coach and played "It pays to advertise." One group represented the Uneda Biscuit and another Blue Jay corn salve while another Bon Ami, each group had lots of fun trying to guess what the other groups were trying to represent.

The next game was a relay race, there was six couples entered. The race was won by Professor Jones and Miss Hattie Wyatt, who received a large stick of candy for a prize. Everyone enjoyed this, especially Miss Oma Fairley and Miss Nancy Pennington trying to whistle after eating a cracker.

The next event was a hoop race, every one present participated. It was lot of fun watching the fat persons go through. In the neck-tie race, the boys chose the most capable looking girls to tie their ties for them. This was won by Harvey Lines and Miss Christine Miliwee with Clyde White and Mrs. Carrie Shook close seconds. Chester Horne and Miss Opal Patterson won first place but were ruled out because of Chester's bow tie.

All the boys turned solemn in the next game while the girls tried to win a smile from them. The girls proved mightier than man and won a smile from all the Boy's except J. V. Shook and Martin Lines who would not give in until Delbert Beaten appeared on the scene and then they laughed out loud. Chester Horne and Clyde White won the blind man's race in a walk.

Wade Christopher and Miss Oma Fairley won the stepping stone race with D. A Bagget and Miss Opal Patterson a close second. Altho a married man, Wade Christopher was said to be the sheikiest sheik present.

Matching slips of paper was the method used to choose partners, for refreshments. Chester Horne and Miss Nancy Pennington led the grand march. Every one enjoyed the ice cream and cakes altho a delay was caused by lack of spoons.

Every one present enjoyed the remarks made by the Rev. Dr. Hicks concerning the young folks and their work at this place, declaring that all had had a good time. We bid each other night.

The entertainment committee feels themselves indebted to the High School Orchestra for their splendid program which they rendered.

The ones responsible for the good time are: Misses Leta and Alta Rogers and Audrey Humphries, and Messrs Brown, Clements and Horne.

Clifton Barrier of Lubbock, a member of the firm of Barrier Bros. who recently purchased the J. B. Curtis & Son's store, came in first of the week to acquaint himself with conditions here and to superintend the putting on of a big stock reducing sale which will start tomorrow and continue for eight days.

Mr. Barrier expressed himself as well pleased with the business since purchasing it. He believes O'Donnell has a great future and may move here soon.

Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Towles and mother, Mrs. Tipton Towles, of Omaha, arrived Monday to visit Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Dickinson and Miss Towles. They will spend a week before continuing on to Chickasha, Okla., where Mr. Towles will engage in business.

The Success--- of the new Overland assumes the proportions of a great National welcome.

Dr. Lee De Forest, the "father" of radio; Glenn Curtiss, the airplane inventor; Franklin D. Roosevelt, formerly assistant secretary of the U. S. Navy and scores of other prominent Americans, after riding in the new Overland, have voiced their highest praise of this car's remarkable smoothness, its nimble get-away, its great sufficiency of sustained power. A ride will convince you.

A sound policy followed by a real guarantee is the slogan of our repair shop. When you spend money for repair work you want every reasonable assurance of value—we offer you such assurance. You can safely trust our judgment. Find out how little it takes to recondition your car so that it will give you real service and enjoyment this summer.

Ball Season Opens

The Texas baseball season opened Wednesday with a game in O'Donnell. The men of the north side of town challenged the men of the south side and they met in battle array at the ball park and the largest aggregation of fans ever to assemble locally were there to witness the game. The south side became tired in the sixth inning and sat down to rest when the yankees went home claiming a victory.

There were no chosen teams to represent the contestants, but everybody took a hand at the bat or in the field that chose to. The betting started when Dr. Tate went to bat. Having a good eye for pills he connected in fine shape, threw the bat away, fell down got up and made it to first and when the coach told him to run on to second he gave up and sat down to rest. Wade Christopher acted as umpire of balls and Rev. Hicks umpired the field. Chester Horn was special policeman and kept splendid order. One of his official acts, that of escorting a son of Ham from the north side to the south, brought forth loud cheering. C. T. Kibbe was responsible for bringing the players in the field.

It is planned to make this a weekly affair.

To Stimulate Trade

A contract was made by the merchants this week whereby aer-o-plane bonds will be given with each purchase of goods, the bonds to be used in bidding and buying any of the thirty-nine articles to be auctioned off on Monday, May 18.

The merchants of O'Donnell have always sold as cheaply as any of the Southplains towns and this liberal offer to obtain extra goods free will prove beneficial in inducing more buying and more people to come here to trade. The plan was adopted by the chamber of commerce and the company furnishing the plan will have a representative here all the time to attend to the details of the auction sales.

A two-page advertisement in this issue gives a full list of premiums to be auctioned and other details.

Come to O'Donnell to trade and get your bonds for the big auction day in May.

Boy Scout Meeting

Representatives from eleven counties met in Lubbock Thursday night of last week to organize the South Plains Council of the Boy Scouts of America. O'Donnell being represented by E. M. Wilder, Dr. C. P. Tate, W. J. Parker, C. T. Kibbe, and T. J. Kellis. A splendid banquet was provided for the visitors and the affair was a most enjoyable one. The banquet was prepared and served by the domestic science class of Lubbock high school and proved their ability as culinary artists.

Representatives of the several towns represented at the banquet were heard, making brief reports in regard to the Boy Scout movement. In speaking for O'Donnell, Dr. C. P. Tate said that we would raise our quota, which was placed at $600, the entire budget being $9,500.

E. M. Wilder, who is known all over Texas for his activities in Boy Scout work, was elected chairman of troop organization committee.

Ayers Henderson and wife are the guests of their parents, Rev. and Mrs. W. L. Henderson. They live in Austin and are on their way to Denver.

SENIOR CLASS

We are proud to report that Ethel Cabbiness is back in school again.

Harvey Hines and David Chandler have a bad case of blues this week.

Audra caught a D—Beaton Sunday night.

For some cause Alta appeared to be somewhat lonesome Sunday ???

The Seniors were very serious last week but have become jolly again, examinations? No.

Why does Mr. Brown always sing, "Bring Back My Bonnets Me," in Chapel? Surely some shiek swiped his bonnie.

JUNIOR CLASS

The Juniors are still working on the play and will stage it the 21th of this month.

Last week was test week. We have not heard the reports of our grades but we are sure that there will be no "Ds" among the Junior grades.

Every one should be encouraging our debaters. for Friday night is the time they will speak at Lubbock. We should be proud of these people and to show our appreciation of the work they have done, and of them, let us all go hear them speak. I am sure your time will not be wasted.

Oma Fairley was absent three days last week but is back in school this week. We always regret to have one absent in the Junior class for there are so few of us.

SOPHOMORE

Leon Veazey, one of the Sophomores gave a party last Thursday night at his home west of town. All who attended reported a nice time.

The Orchestra meets every Tuesday and Thursday nights for practice. We cordially invite those interested to attend.

FRESHMAN

The Freshmen, received a call from the Superintendent to raise money for the Library fund. Saturday, April 11, we had a booth in town, and sold sandwiches, candy and cold drinks. After paying all expenses we had only ten dollars, but we intend to make more. Part of the proceeds will go to the Freshman class, which we shall spend in having a good time.

We expect to sell sandwiches and drinks at school this week.

HIGH FIFTH GRADE

We the pupils in the High fifth grade are gradually decreasing in number. Two more have withdrawn from the class now leaving forty-one.

Even if we did not go on a picnic or Easter egg hunt Friday we had an interesting afternoon. Our Library society furnished a few numbers, then Miss Rodgers passed each pupil Easter eggs. Games were played, and pupils getting certain colored eggs had stunts to "pull" reading or songs. Each pupil seemed to enjoy himself.

We also elected new officers in the Literary society.

LOW FIFTH AND LOW SEVENTH

Two new pupils have enrolled in the Low fifth grade this week. They are Molaveen Miller and Haskell David.

We are glad to have Jewell and Louisa McCarty back after a week's absence on account of illness. Albert Debusk, missed the greater part of last week and we are glad he is back.

The Low seventh from this room and the Hi seventh of Miss Cathey's room were accompanied to the brakes on a picnic Friday after school by Misses Kennedy and Lowrie and Mrs. Smith. We all had a delightful time.

W. M. U. Meeting

The W. M. U. of the First Baptist church met in regular session Monday afternoon and after devotional the following program was carried out:

Song, "Foot Prints of Jesus." Scripture, 1st Psalms read by Mrs. W. K. Horn.

Prayer by Mrs. I. M. Wright. Lesson in the W. M. U. Manual, taught by Mrs. Sutton.

It was voted by the society to give a play on the night of May 1st.

Lesson for the meeting April 20th will be the last half of II Samuel and the first half of I Kings. Every Baptist lady is urgently requested to attend.

Those present at the meeting were: Mesdames Wright, Smith, Horn, Earles, Guye, Haney, Howard, Bailey, Manaell, Yandell, Hardberger and Sorrels.

Cramped and Suffered

"My back and head would ache, and I had to go to bed," says Mrs. W. L. Ennis, of Worthville, Ky. "I just could not stay up, for I would cramp and suffer so. I was very nervous. My children would 'get on my nerves.' It wasn't a pleasure for me to try to go anywhere, I felt so bad. "My mother had taken

M. E. Society Meets

The M. E. society met at the church Monday afternoon at 2:30 with a number of members present. The meeting was opened with Song No. 4 all and prayer by Mrs. Melton. The minutes were read by Mrs. Lines. Bible study, Acts 4 and 5 by Mrs. Randall. There were sixteen present.

Mrs. D. M. Estes was elected delegate to attend the conference. The meeting was closed by prayer by Mrs. Veazy.

Methodists To Build New Church

The Methodists are planning the construction of a brick church this fall. The attendance at the Sunday school has so increased that the present church building is crowded to capacity, their being about 260 in the classes last Sunday. The stewarts are now looking for a building to use for part of the classes until the new building is completed. Since taking charge of the pastorate five months ago Rev. W. B. Hicks states that there have been thirty-two additions to the membership. At this rate of increase, the present building will not seat the membership by the end of the year.

Baptist Ladies Aid Entertains Methodist Missionary Society

The Ladies Aid of the Baptist church entertained the Methodist Missionary Society at the home of Mrs. Jeff Musick Wednesday afternoon of last week from 3 to 5 o'clock. The gathering was opened with scripture reading by Mrs. Horn, Ps. 19, followed by prayer by Mrs. Estes. Mrs. C. S. Bailey gave an eloquent and beautiful interpretation of the first Easter. The little Misses Barnett's readings and solos were complimented by everyone present as being sweet and impressive. The songs by these little girls were quite beautiful.

After the program, Mary Jenice Hardberger, dressed to represent a quaint little rabbit, hopped into the room bearing a large basket fitted with smaller ones, each having a highly decorated Easter egg in it, inside of which were found slips of paper with twelve bible questions for the ladies to answer. Brother Horn claimed to have answered the most, but he was sitting next to Grandma Orson. Mesdames Quincy Haney and Grover Sutton answered all the questions put, which gave them the honors of the contest.

The refreshments were indeed suggestive of Easter, being a thin square of Angel Food cake covered with whipped cream with half an apricot inverted in the center and was served with delicious iced lemonade.

The Methodist ladies as one, feel that this enjoyable affair is one long to be remembered and there are not words to express the close bonds of fellowship, love and union that these afternoons spent together bring about. Those who registered were:

Mesdames J. N. Lines, W. B. Hicks, S. G. French, E. S. Scrimshire, B. J. Boyd, J. M. Jones, J. T. Middletoh, W. P. Howard, Don Edwards, Boyd Fortner, Roy Miles, Mother Horn, J. W. Gates, W. K. Horn, Grover L. Sutton, Quincy T. Haney, Robert Orson, D. W. Harris, M. C. Hamilton, J. P. Bowlin, T. J. Yandell, H. E. Gillespie, Harvey Everett, D. H. McDaniel, J. A. Melton, Ed Goddard, H. L. Jones, Horn, Perry Howard, Archie Haney, John Earles, Grady Brown, R. E. Hardberger, G. A. Haney, F. M. Vaughn, D. M. Estes, L. M. Williams, John Hardberger, C. H. Mansell, J. W. Smith, J. H. Barnett, W. E. Guye, R. J. Fisher, R. W. Gibson, C. S. Bailey, Misses Mary Jenice Hardberger, Mozelle and Christine Barnette.

Entertains With Bridge Party

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Gibbs entertained last Friday evening with a bridge party in honor of their guest Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Schooler. After many interesting games had been played it was found that Mrs. Schooler held high score. Delicious refreshments consisting of log cabin salad on lettuce leaves, cheese sandwiches, and coffee were served to the following: Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Waller, Mr. and Mrs. Ben T. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Schooler, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Schooler, Messrs Crunk and Wilder.

In Memory of Little Nona.

In memory of this Girlie A few words I will say, Of little Nona Iris Early Whom God hath called away.

She was loved by us all This dear little helpless Child, She was ready for her call She went to Jesus with a smile,

Her years with us wasn't long They were full of tender love, Jesus called and she has gone To her happy home above.

She lived a sweet little life Marked with seven years of space, She was named for my wife No one else can take her place.

Our hearts were broke with pain As this earth she ceased to tread, But we can see her face again If we keep our trust in God.

Sad news for the undertakers. Report of Babe Ruth's death proves to be false.

Babe Ruth will not be sick when he learns that you can't eat a steak smothered with pork chops.

Another reason advanced for his illness is that he overworked himself on his farm during the winter.

Perhaps that's right.

The J. B. CURTIS & SON STORE

Entertains Lucky Thirteen Club

The Lucky Thirteen Club never fully felt the significance of its name until Friday at 3 o'clock p. m. when they gathered at the pretty little home of Mrs. E. L. Sorrels on Tenth street. An hour was spent in needle work when ideas and suggestions were freely exchanged. When the hostess had informed the guests that they had worked enough and would now indulge in a bit of fooliness, the affair having been arranged in every detail for an "April Fool" party. The ladies were asked to tell the "silliest" thing they ever did, some of the things were foolish to the extreme, but Mrs. Ben T. Brown being judge, awarded the prize, a fool's cap, to Mrs. C. I. Kuykendall, it being unanimously agreed that a more foolish act than she related could not be imagined. A jolly little contest was enjoyed by all when pencils and papers were passed with the request that each one write as many quotations with the word fool in it as they knew. Mesdames C. M. Cox, M. H. Rodgers, C. I. Kuykendall and E. T. Wells failed to write any, so they drew straws to see who would receive the consolation, Mrs. Wells being the lucky one and was given a clown doll. The hostess assisted by Mrs. C. S. Bailoy served dainty, even though foolish, refreshments which consisted of angel food cake cut like sandwiches with cream filling, which fooled everyone for they began eating their cake with the tea, leaving the "nutty" looking little cookie to be eaten with the ice cream, which upon being sampled turned out to be a most delicious pimento cheese - nut sandwich. Original little clowns, the handiwork of the hostess, made from peanuts and dressed in colored crape paper, were the favors that graced each plate. The members and guests who enjoyed the very pleasant afternoon were: Mesdames John Schooler, John Hardberger, C. H. Mansell, C. S. Bailey, M. H. Rodgers, C. M. Cox, Morris Sanderson, J. R. Sanders, A. W.

Gibbs, Harvey Everett, B. F. Dye, C. I. Kuykendall, Albert Koeniger, B. T. Brown and E. T. Wells.

Prides Latest

Pride seems to be the only place in the world that is not changing. Things are ever the same with us. Even the sandstorms are regular and sure as eternity. A nice rain fell on part of Pride's good people on the 7th. Most of the fortunate ones are now planting. Curtis Hanes is erecting a nice bungalow on his place near the Pride school house. C. S. Dandridge of Portales, New Mexico, is visiting relatives here. Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Harris and Miss Eula Mae Harris have returned from a visit to Vernon. C. D. Record of McKinney, will begin a series of meetings at Pride Wednesday night, April 22. Brother Record is well known here and a great favorite in the Pride community. Have you heard him? If not, come out and he will interest you in the story of the cross. Mrs. Blanch McLaurin and her aunt, Mrs. Arnold, spent last Sunday with Mrs. M. L.

Cathey. Pete Cathey and a large party of lady friends motored to Lamasa Tuesday.

Oh, where is Barney Google? I need you; I want you. Spark Plug.
