To Curb Typhus

Austin, Texas.—Typhus fever or "14-Fever" continues to make its appearance in various counties in Texas. Like typhoid, most of the cases occur in the hot months of summer here, according to records of the State Health Department.

The symptoms of typhus fever are similar to those of typhoid fever, except the course of typhus fever is generally two weeks while typhoid fever extends over many weeks," said John W. Brown, State Health Officer.

Although there are two types of typhus fever, it is the endemic type, known as Brill's Disease which prevails in Texas.

The onset of typhus fever is usually accompanied by chills, fever, headache, and general body aches. Nausea and vomiting may be present and often persists to such a degree that it does not readily yield to local applications.

The fever rises rapidly, often reaching a maximum of 105 degrees in the eighth day, and generally debilitates the patient to such a degree that a reddish mottling of the skin appears, which may subside soon into rashes through the crisis. A hackneyed mode of transmission of typhus is known to be from the patient and the disease could be prevented by the eradication of rats and mice. A campaign to rid your community of rodents would also be of some value as rats and mice are worth of many dollars worth of year."

Wells Funeral Services Held At Tahoka Thursday

Scores of O'Donnell people attended the funeral of W. C. Wells, at Tahoka last Thursday, paying their last respects to one of the outstanding men of the county. Mr. Wells died at his residence in Tahoka at an early hour Wednesday morning after suffering a brief illness of acute indigestion.

He was at the post office in the post office Tuesday afternoon when his first became ill, and as he grew worse, finally went to the office of a physician for relief. Instead of improving, he grew still worse, and finally was taken home by a relative. Though he continued to suffer, his condition was not regarded as serious until about midnight, when the physician was called to attend him at home. He apparently gained some relief from the treatment, and urged members of the family at his bedside to retire and try to get a little rest. They yielded to his request, and left him apparently much better. About six o'clock Mrs. Wells and his sister, Mrs. J. H. McCoy, went to his room as soon as they awoke to find him dead in his bed, the end apparently having come soon after they had left him.

Funeral services were conducted from the Methodist church at Tahoka at 2:30 Thursday afternoon, with Rev. L. J. McCarthy of Hart, pastor of the Primitive Baptist church, in charge, assisted by Rev. C. C. Armstrong of the Methodist church. Mr. Wells had for many years been a loyal member of the Primitive Baptist church. Interment was made in the city cemetery at Tahoka.

The son of the late J. S. and Mrs. Wells of Tahoka, deceased was a member of one of the leading families of the county, having come to Tahoka when he was just past 21. A year later in 1904, he was married to Miss Bessie Hanna of Tahoka, and three children were born to this union. Mr. Wells was killed in an automobile accident in 1916, and more than a year later he married Miss Jewell Brown, who survives him. Only one child was born to them.

Also surviving him are his mother, Mrs. J. S. Wells, and the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. Nora Tomlinson of Paul Valley, Okla.; Mrs. J. H. McCoy of Tahoka; Thurman Wells of this place; Claude, Ruby, Jack, and Kay Roberts, Mrs. M. Edwards, Mrs. Oscar Roberts, Mrs. Jack Fenton, all of Tahoka.

Mr. Wells had long been connected with business interests of Tahoka and the county, having been on the staff of one of the first banks, with his father's general mercantile business, and more recently as postmaster at Tahoka. As a public spirited citizen and a friend and relative, his loss will be keenly felt by the entire county.

EMPLOYMENT SHOWS INCREASE

Employment and payrolls in Texas during June showed a slight gain over the preceding month, and a substantial increase over the corresponding month last year, the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research reports. The number of workers increased 5 per cent over June, 1935 and pay rolls rose nearly 15 per cent. The increase over May was about 1 per cent for both the number of employees and the total pay rolls.

Cities whose records for the month were better than the State average during the two comparable periods were Amarillo, Denison, Galveston, Houston, El Paso, San Antonio, Waco, and Wichita Falls.

Industries showing an increase above the average for the state were retail trade, petroleum refining, electric railway car shops, and hotels.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Whitsett spent the Fourth with relatives and friends at Munday.

Mandate Is Received In Murder Case

District Clerk W. S. Taylor states that he received the mandate from the court of criminal appeals in the Elmo Banks case on Monday last week. The appellate court affirmed the death sentence given the negro for the murder of deputy sheriff F. E. Redwine.

It may be necessary for Judge Gordon B. McGuire to call a special term of this district court to pronounce sentence and fix the date of electrocution, but it is generally believed that he will wait until the regular term court in September, as the special term would call for quite a bit of expenditures.

Court House Singing Annual Meet Sunday

One of the biggest affairs of the year here is the annual meeting of the Dawson County Court House Convention, the date for this year having been set for Sunday, July 12.

Bill White, president of the organization, announces that plans are completed for the best gathering they have held in several years. A card from Clyde Burleson of Lubbock, says the Lubbock quartet of which he is a member will attend, and word from singers and singing fans from over the territory indicate that most of the singers will be on hand when the morning session opens at 10:30 Sunday.

The sitting is an all day affair, participated in by singers from all parts of the county and adjoining counties. After the morning session basket lunches will be spread on the spacious court house lawn and a pleasant soiree will be enjoyed.

Everyone is invited to attend and all are requested to bring their song books and a well filled basket.

Santa Fe Will Observe National Railroad Week

June 13-18 is known and observed as National Railroad Week, and has been so proclaimed by the Mayor of Lubbock. In conjunction with that program F. J. Barkhurst, local Santa Fe agent will have an engine on the tracks near the depot on Saturday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock for exhibition and demonstration purposes, and has invited all school children and others interested to be present and witness the demonstration.

Perhaps no other factor has contributed so much to the development of our country as has our railroads. Even though the railroad may at times be criticised for some of its policies, the fact remains that it has, at certain times, should appreciate the big part the railroads have had in the spectacular growth of the country.—Dawson County Courier.

Negro Is Charged In Mexican's Death

Mose Caro, negro, was arrested on Monday last week by officers of Cooper, Delta County, and sheriff B. L. Parker now has his safety lodged in the county jail on a charge of murder in connection with the death of the Mexican whose remains were found some four weeks ago in a field in the Gordon community.

Caro is said to have occupied a shack with the Mexican last fall and winter, while the two were picking cotton in that section. He left several months ago, and the Mexican disappeared at the same time, but no one thought anything about the affair until the corpse of the Mexican was found in the field. The county has notified the officers in that county to be on the look-out for the negro.

The officer states that the Delta county men had quite a lot of trouble in apprehending the fugitive. They went out to a shack where they had reason to believe they would find him, and he ran when he saw them coming. They threw their guns on him, ordering him to halt. He did so, but when the officers approached him he seized one of them and attempted to wrest his gun away from him. In the scuffle which ensued, the officer discharged his gun, the bullet wounding the negro in the arm. He was placed in jail there pending Sheriff Parkers' arrival. He has been in jail at Tahoka since last Wednesday.

Southwestern Sewer Makes Contribution To Fire Boys Fund

Harry C. McDonald, vice-president of the Southwestern Sewer Company at Dallas, read in a recent issue of the Index that local business firms had purchased honorary membership cards in the Volunteer Fire department, and promptly sat down and sent in a check for $250 without being asked to do so.

The boys brought the check around by the office Wednesday morning, and asked that we extend their thanks to Mr. McDonald and the company for this unexpected but very welcome donation.

Southwestern Sewer has been quite a bit of help to O'Donnell, according to city contractors and members of the school board, as the company pays several hundred dollars in taxes each year and helps the school in every possible manner. Through the Index Mr. McDonald keeps up with most of our local news, and is always ready to talk over problems connected with civic improvement.

Allred Opens Race For Re-election

Paul B. Holcomb, editor of the El Campo News, discussing the governors race, said:

"Probably the keener political strategy that Texas has seen in a long time is being employed in the campaign of Jim Allred for re-election."

Letting his opponents get out in the open while serving his fire for a fast and furious campaign, the Centennial Governor really went to town in his opening speech at Waxahatchie Tuesday night when the fire flew in accepted Texas fashion.

Texas has never seen the equal of Allred in a campaign.

"The boys who have announced against him may as well have saved their own and their friends' money as far as getting anywhere is concerned. 'Jauntty Jimmie' is too jaunty and too fast for lumbering leathernecks of a fastidious political era."

"Old Age pension misinformation so glibly distributed by opponents begins to look rather foolish when exposed to the bright glare of the Allred explanation backed by facts."

In fact the whole house of cards built so audaciously and painstakingly by political snipers has already collapsed and the end is not in sight.

The people of Texas will again have the opportunity of seeing a winner—Allred—come down the stretch in a manner that appeals to the sporting blood of every true blooded son of the Lone Star commonwealth.

"Allred has opened his campaign."

FARM LAND LOANS RATE OF 3 1/2% EXTENDED A YEAR

The emergency 3 1/2 percent interest rate on Federal Land Bank loans will remain in effect for another year, according to Albert S. Coos, Land Bank Commissioner.

Mr. Coos said: "Action of Congress approved June 25 continues for one year the temporary Federal Land Bank interest rate of 3 1/2 percent which otherwise would have expired on June 30. The rate will be effective on interest payable in the year beginning July 1, 1936, on nearly $2,000,000 of Federal Land Bank loans made thru National Farm Loan Association."

"Farmers who obtain loans now at the 4 per cent contract rate will get the temporary Federal Land Bank interest installments payable in 1936 on year period ending June 30, 1937 and after that date will pay 4 per cent for the entire duration of their loan."

City Streets Are Receiving Much Needed Attention

To the great approval and convenience of our residents and the trade territory in general, many of the residential streets have received some much needed attention during the past week. The heavy grader has been used in most of the north-south streets and on several of the east-west as well.

The peculiar geographical situation of the town makes the street problem a serious one. O'Donnell lying as it does in the midst of a natural lake which has drainage from all directions. Old-timers can recall the days before there had been any attempt at all toward draining the town, when even a small shower would transform the streets into miniature versions of the canals of Venice, minus the romantic atmosphere of those famous arteries of traffic. We can ourselves remember several occasions when it was necessary to hire a "jitney", at five cents per ride, to transport one from one side of the street to the other. In fact, our first acquaintance with Assistant Postmaster Sam Singleton was on such an occasion. He had borrowed his father's automobile and was plying a lucrative business hauling passengers across the street. In those days Sam was frequently much humiliated, in moments of great excitement, by a decided stutter, and the first words we can remember hearing him say were when the wind spattered and died. This was before many cars were equipped with starters, and young Sam was perched under the wheel while a group on the sidewalk laughed and cheered him on, pleading with his brother in front of the store: "Dit it rist, Br'er Ed; dit it rist!"

Those days, fortunately, are about to become antiquated history, but the streets still need a great deal of attention at frequent intervals if they are to remain passable for cars. And the city council says that if more of us don't pay taxes and increase the street fund, this attention cannot be forthcoming. So unless we want some broken springs or broken necks, we'd better get it possible for the street to be graded.

Heavy Rains Break South Plains Drouth

Heavy rains over the greater part of the South Plains territory during the holidays has virtually insured a bumper crop for this year, according to estimates from those who should know what they are talking about.

In our own section, the rainfall has been estimated from three to five inches, all of it falling slowly so that every drop might be utilized by the fast-drying soil. The heaviest precipitation fell Monday night and early Tuesday morning, following light and scattered showers through Sunday and Monday.

On Sunday afternoon the rain was preceded by the customary sandstorm, coming in from the northeast with considerable violence. However, so far as we have heard, there was no particular damage and the rain which followed successfully laid the dust.

While our section is enjoying renewed hope from the rains, in other parts of the midwest the drouth situation is already serious. Temperatures have been soaring to 110 degrees and higher, while corn and wheat are being burned to a crisp. So it seems that this is one time that the South Plains is luckier than any other part of the country.

Let's Talk about Clothes

TEXAS STATE COLLEGE WOMEN (C.I.A.)

Denton, Texas—Some of the most fascinating party frocks fashioned for startit summer nights are of flowered chiffon. Typically party clothes, they are designed with clinging full skirts, tight bodices, ruffles, plaits and trimmings of velvet.

Clear white backgrounds are splashed with field flowers, roses, or cornflowers, and delightful deep blue back grounds with prints of crisp white daisies or quaint floral wreaths. This summer your party loot will be romantic, decorative, and the stuff you have dreamed about for years.

Long coats of the same flowered chiffon are as new as anything to be found. Coats with full, almost circular floor length skirts, short softly puffed sleeves, and tight bodice tops are a special delight to girls at Texas State College for Women (C.I.A.).

Cotton chalis prints, copied in the soft mellowed peasant designs against dainty ivory or pastel tinted backgrounds show small crimson rambler roses and bright green leaves for contrast. These clever cotton challis frocks are fashioned with full swirling skirts, a rib hugging bodice top, and a lovely old fashioned perky peplum to the fitted long or short sleeved separate jacket.

Exotic prints are effective against cool linen, with the full wide pictureque skirts, and tight bodice tops. Black and navy blue backgrounds have purple, cerise, jade green, and pale yellow patterns. Flowered shiftons with huge roses widely spaced against the white have simple skirts and tops. Over them you wear short velvet capes or tie a white velvet sash in contrasting color or around the waist.

After a period of games and light chatter the entire group entered into a sing-song contest closing with 'Showers of Blessings.' As this was being sung little Miss Mary Helen Lewis and Agnes Wheeler entered carrying the tray of gifts which were deposited on a card table in front of the honoree. After the packages were opened and the contents viewed, refreshments consisting of iced punch and cake were served by the hostess, who was assisted by Mrs. Jay W. #### ALRED SAYS HE'S A "MERE HUMAN BEING"

Sherman—(Spl.)—Four 'perfect men' and one 'mere human being' are competing for the governorship of Texas. Governor James V. Allred told a north Texas crowd here Monday night.

"So far as I can find out, there are only four perfect men in Texas," Allred grinned. "and unfortunately for me they are all running for governor."

"Personally, I can't claim to be perfect. I don't claim that I haven't made mistakes. I'm only a mere human being."

"No doubt there are many trifling matters about which my opponents can criticize me. But any mistakes I may have made don't qualify these gentlemen for the governorship."

In bringing to Sherman his campaign for election for a second term, Governor Allred came to the county where his great grandfather settled in 1817. In his speech here he deplored "the campaign of misinformation, ridicule and personal abuse" that is being waged against him.

"Just to illustrate how utterly silly, trivial and unfair they have been," the Governor continued, "I refer you to the record on ribbon cutting and bridge opening."

"My opponents have denounced me all over the state as a ribbon cutter and bridge opener. As a matter of fact, I have been to one ribbon cutting and one bridge opening. That's all! I submit to the public that men who will indulge in such tactics thereby demonstrate their own unfitness for the Governor's office."

"Vice President Garner went to a ribbon cutting and bridge opening at Laredo last week. He has been to one I have been to one. I am wondering whether my opponents will jump on to him and denounce him as a ribbon cutter and bridge opener."

"Forty years ago Governor Hogg said that the people were interested in issues, not men, in principles, not personalities. I am asking the people of Texas to permit me to carry on the program already begun, basing my claim for the second term upon my record. Let the record speak, and I am sure the people will render a righteous verdict."

ON TEXAS FARMS

A progress report on five poultry demonstration in Blanco county shows an average of 1081 hens, 12 percent culled five per cent mortality, 7284 eggs laid, approximately 15 eggs per hen per month, and a profit to date 31 25 cents per hen.

A hereford calf is reported to have gained 123 pounds during its first month on feed under the watchful care of James McElreath, a 4-H club boy living near Coleman.

Fifteen registered Jersey heifers are in the names of Eastland county 4-H club boys. Banks of Eastland county are assisting in financing the purchase of the calves which the boys will show at the Centennial.

GOVERNMENT HONORS
WITH MEMORIAL FOREST

The establishment of the Joyce Kilmer Memorial Forest as a living memorial to the author of the most beautiful tribute ever written to trees has been authorized by the United States Government acting through the Secretary of Agriculture. The action was sponsored by the Boeman Bulger Post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

A 4,000-acre tract of virgin forest in the primitive area of the Nantahala National Forest in western North Carolina was selected by the Kilmer Memorial Committee after a preliminary examination of available areas throughout the country.

Joseph C. Kircher of Atlanta, Georgia's United States, Southern Regional Forester who will be responsible for the administration and protection of the memorial forest, announced today that the area will be dedicated on July 30, the eighteenth anniversary of the day on which Sergeant Joyce Kilmer was killed in action in France. The dedication program is being arranged by Paul A. Williams of New York, chairman of the Kilmer Memorial Committee.

STAMFORD REUNION DRAWS RECORD CROWD

Stamford, Texas, July 8—The Texas Cowboy Reunion which closed its annual three day meet here Saturday night was the most successful from all standpoints in the seven years history of the organization, according to reunion officials who have just completed a check-up on the 1936 show.

Three semi-cloudy, cool days, ideal weather for a holiday crowd were awarded by the weather man for the event and added materially to the comfort of a capacity crowd that thronged the grandstands and bleachers at nearly every performance, and swelled the attendance by at least twenty per cent over any former year. The record heretofore stood at 55,000 persons for the three days.

Rodeo officials credit the increased attendance to improved facilities for taking care of visitors, to a better and faster performance by the contestants, and to the nation-wide publicity that has been given the Texas Centennial Celebrations, of which the reunion was a part. There were many guests here from far-away states, a glance at parked automobiles often revealed license plates from California, Oregon, Illinois, New York and other states just as far distant.

Three rodeo performances daily beginning at 8 o'clock a. m. and lasting until 10 o'clock or later at night, followed by a square dance at the bunkhouse and another dance at the Country Club, in addition to other special features, provided entertainment from early till late for everyone who wanted to put in a full day.

W. E. Hancock, of Chillicothe, visited his parents Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hancock a few days last week.
