Lubbock Speakers Are To Make NRA Addresses

Davis and Dupree To Speak Here Friday At H. S. Auditorium

A. B. Davis, manager of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce, and George Dupree of Lubbock are guest speakers here Friday morning when the National Recovery act is discussed and explained. The high school auditorium will be used for the occasion, no other audience in town being large enough to meet the expected attendance. The opening is scheduled to open promptly at 7:30, and every man, woman and child in the territory is urged to be and hear these speakers. Both Judge Dupree and Mr. Davis are well known throughout the South, and both have been outstanding leaders in the enthusiastic response given the President's plan for recovery of national prosperity. Never each speaker has to say so much in so little time. It will give me much pleasure to accept the invitation of May S. Cathey to address an audience of O'Donnell people, Mr. Davis said. It will give me much pleasure to speak at the NRA rally, and I hope to see many of my acquaintances and friends that evening. It has been a progressive and cooperative spirit in such towns as O'Donnell which has been of such material assistance in making a go of this gigantic recovery program."

Canning Unit Opens With Much Interest

The canning unit being operated through the RFC is receiving hearty cooperation of the entire community, said Mrs. W. A. Tredway. She has been appointed supervisor of work by Miss El Fleida Harrison. The home demonstration agent. The kitchen has been operated every day since Wednesday of last week. Mrs. Tredway said, though not on a few occasions. Yesterday's rain hindered the work at day and Friday, but even those delays, 329 cans have been filled Monday of this week, indicating that interest in the unit is increasing daily. Included in the vegetables are eleven cans of peas, put up by Mrs. Roy D. We understand that this is an unusual dish, but it should be delicious one. Mrs. Tredway placed a valuation of $60 on the goods canned.

Singing School Has Record Attendance

L. Echols of Lubbock, director of the fifteen-day singing school that Monday evening at the church Nazarene, stated Tuesday that the attendance at the local school surpasses ninety per cent of schools he has conducted. One hundred and twenty-five adults present Monday evening when the school opened the term. Children not included in the check as it was deemed necessary. Classes composed of scores of O'Donnell and numerous others surrounding communities. Schools is known to music throughout West Texas, and the school is attracting much attention in the section.

Rogers Injured By Angry Cow

Rogers, prominent farmer of Moore community, was the victim of a most unusual accident late afternoon when an angry cow him against a fence post. The cow was being bruised, Mr. Rogers was painfully injured when a ten penny nail gouged calf of his left leg, tearing flesh and muscle and dragging a tendon to make a dangerously wound. He was brought immediately to the local physician for first aid, and was also given an injection of his serum. Mr. Rogers joins with other friends in hoping that the injury may be nothing more serious.

McLendon Family Moves Here Tuesday

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. McLendon and daughter, Miss Agnes, moved their household furnishings from Lamesa Tuesday of this week, and are now at home in the Wiley Phillips house. Mr. McLendon is manager of Pratt's Food Store, O'Donnell's newest grocery store. Mr. Sharp, who is associated with Mr. McLendon in the store, has also recently moved his family to O'Donnell, and they are living in the residence formerly occupied by Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Veazey. O'Donnell is indeed glad to welcome these two splendid families, and the Index joins with the community in extending best wishes for a prosperous and happy life with us.

FRUIT STAND

C. Hart and son, Mr. Guy, this week opening a fruit stand next door to Dr. Shepard's. They are planning the addition of small items such as cold cream, chewing gum, etc., and may have a second hand clothing.

Road Work Begins Thursday Morning

Work on Highway No. 9 began Thursday morning of this week, with a crew of between twenty-five and thirty men on the first shift. O'Donnell was the starting point for operations, with the construction camp located here, the crew working toward Lamesa. Construction foreman Harville, in charge of this division of highway work, arrived with his wife and little daughter several days ago, and are now making their home at Mrs. I. M. Wright's. Though workmen will come wholly from Dawson county, this work will be of immense benefit to O'Donnell because a great part of our trade territory lies in our neighboring county.

Graduating Class Has Thirty-one Members

The 1934 graduating class of the O'Donnell high school bids fair to be the largest which has ever received diplomas here, according to announcements this week from the office of superintendent, E. E. Gilbreath. Thirty-one candidates for graduation had enrolled during the first two weeks of school, with prospects for one or two others. In the event these others enter school, this year's class will be as large as the 1932 class when thirty-three received diplomas. Lawrence Tredway was elected president of the class Monday afternoon, with Miss Lois Burdett vice-president. Miss Morene Huff is sponsor and Miss Lorene Beach is secretary-treasurer.

Roy Cathey Undergoes Operation Saturday

Roy Cathey, son of our good friends Mr. and Mrs. Matt Cathey, was taken to Lubbock Sanitarium on Friday of last week, and underwent appendectomy early Saturday morning.

Surgeon's reports received here this week state that he is doing well, while members of the family who have been with him also say that he is recovering nicely.

Garland Shepherd Is Operated Thursday

Garland Shepherd, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Shepherd of the OK community, and a nephew of Mrs. T. A. Wimberly, was taken to a Lubbock sanitarium Thursday of last week, and suffered the removal of his appendix. Reports received here this week are that he is doing very well indeed and will likely be able to be home by the last of the week.

County Tax Rate Set At 80 Cents

At a meeting of the commissioner's court last week, the county tax rate was set at 80 cents on the $100 valuation. The state rate is 77 cents. In spite of the fact that many property owners have failed to pay their taxes the past two or three years, there was no increase in the county rate. Waldo McLaurin, commissioner from this precinct, explained this by pointing out that an increase in the rate would in effect merely penalize those property owners who do pay taxes.

Ladies Auxiliary To Elect Officers

There will be a special meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the American Legion next Thursday afternoon at four o'clock for the purpose of electing officers for the coming year. The meeting is to be held at the Legion hall, and every member is urged to be present. Those who have left their membership drop during the last year or so are invited to come in and renew it, while if there are those ladies eligible who have never joined the organization, they are also cordially invited to come and take part. Mrs. L. E. Robinson, president, urges that every lady keep the date and hour in mind, and attend this important business meeting.

District Court Jury List Is Announced

When district court convenes here on Monday, September 25, it will be face a lighter criminal docket than it has had for the past several terms, according to District Clerk, Skip Taylor. There are only nineteen criminal cases pending on the docket, and in several instances two or more of these are charged against a single defendant. Of course this number will probably be increased considerably when the grand jury, which is to be empaneled on the first day of the term, brings in its report.

The divorce business seems to be growing in Lynn county, however. There are twelve divorce cases pending on the docket. Three of these come over from the last term of court and nine have been filed since. Quite a number of other civil cases have been filed also but it does not appear that the docket will be any heavier than the average.

There will be no petit jury for the first week. This week will be devoted to such matters as setting cases for trial, taking default judgments, and trying non-jury cases. The grand jury will also be in session the first week.

A venire of the following sixteen men has been drawn, from which the grand jury will be selected: E. M. Haymes, John Anderson, Joe Poindester, J. H. Smith, W. H. May, John Heck, Otto Thomas, F. E. Redwine, Lynn West, A. F. Pitts, James Greenwood, J. H. Newmon, I. M. Draper, W. P. Lester, Jack Applewhite, and D. J. Balch.

Good Roads Meeting Held Here Tuesday

J. C. Watson, representing the West Texas Division of the Texas Good Roads Association, addressed a meeting of business men and merchants here Tuesday afternoon, explaining in detail the plans now being worked out by the organization to secure more Federal aid for Texas.

Pointing out that Texas has 20,000 miles of designated highway, 9,000 unimproved, and 3,000 miles not even designated, Mr. Watson emphasized the need for concerted action on the part of Texans to secure an additional $75,000,000 Federal funds from the $3,300,000,000 fund appropriated for public works and relief.

A committee was appointed to solicit membership in the organization and begin active work with the state body.

Lois Bowlin Killed In Car Accident

Verification of details concerning the tragic death of Miss Lois Bowlin who was well-known here through visits to the family of her uncle, J. P. Bowlin, were given us Monday by Mr. Bowlin himself, and are substantially as follows:

Miss Bowlin was visiting relatives near Secorro, N. M., and had gone with some other young people on a pleasure trip to Magdalena. She was driving, and as the descent of a long and dangerous hill was begun, she evidently lost control of the car, which crashed from the road. Miss Bowlin was pinned under the wreckage, sustaining a fatal injury to her spine as well as other minor hurts. She lived only a short time.

Funeral services were conducted at her home in Wellington, Kansas.

Mr. Bowlin did not receive all details of the sad affair until last week so that the young lady's many friends here are largely still unaware of it. She spent several weeks here in the summer of 1931, and also spent a short time here last summer.

The Index joins with other friends in extending regrets for the tragedy and sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Bowlin and other members of her family.

Legion Auxiliary Offers Storm Relief

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Fern Allen Post of the American Legion has been asked to assist in securing clothing for families in the valley storm district, and active plans have been worked out this week.

Mrs. L. E. Robinson, president of the auxiliary, asks us to announce that the ladies are soliciting and collecting wearable cast-off clothing, and that Saturday has been set as the day for collecting these garments. Every family in town and in the surrounding territory is urged to look through trunks and closets for any shoes, suits, dresses, underclothing, any or all kinds of wearing apparel which can be used for these storm stricken people. Please see that the clothes are clean, tie your bundle and have it ready to be picked up by some member of the auxiliary who will call for it Saturday. In case you plan to be away from home that day, leave your bundle on the porch.

Mrs. Robinson also asks us to notify those who live outside the city limits to bring their bundles in and leave them at Mansell Bros. hardware store

Baldwin's Store Opens Here This Week

Baldwin's Store announces that an almost complete stock of goods has been unpacked here this week, and that the force will be ready to greet the public Saturday. This is the third drygoods store in O'Donnell.

The entire community, including every merchant, joins in extending a cordial welcome to Baldwin's Store, and especially to Mr. and Mrs. Caryl Baldwin, who are really homefoks coming back to us. Mr. Baldwin formerly managed Jones' Dry Goods store, and during that time became known throughout the territory as a fair and square merchant, ready and willing to cooperate in every way with other business men, in his own and in other lines of business.

Due to delay in shipping, he said Wednesday, the entire stock for the O'Donnell store may not be here by Saturday, but by the middle of next week he will be able to fill every need in ladies ready-to-wear, millinery, shoes and hose, in addition to a complete stock of mens' furnishing and children's clothing.

Minors Have Son

The 13th may be an unlucky date for some folks, but it was an exceedingly happy one for Mr. and Mrs. John A. Minor. They are the proud parents of a fine son born on September 13. The young man and his mother are doing well, and Mr. Minor is about to return to normal.

Lynn County Farmers Are Receiving Cotton Checks

Lynn County Wanting Cotton Pickers

In a telephone message received at the Lamesa R. F. C. office Wednesday from B. P. Maddox, head of the R. F. C. in Lynn county, Mr. Maddox stated that Lynn county needed many cotton pickers and maize headers, in the next week or ten days.

All families or single men desiring to pick cotton are asked to register at the Lamesa R. F. C. office in the old Panhandle Lumber Company office and their name will be sent to Mr. Maddox at Tahoka.

Lynn County Citizens Invited To Meet

"Realizing that what the farmer is compelled to buy is entirely out of proportion to that which he has to sell, a meeting to protest against this ruinous condition was held at New Moore school building Wednesday evening, September 13.

"We believe that a concerted effort on the part of all the farmers of the United States will do much to relieve this situation, or at least we realize that most every accomplishment worthwhile has been brought about through earnest and continued effort. We therefore desire that all the farmers and others of kindred mind join with us in a county wide petition to be sent our congressman and our senator, imploring their assistance. We are consequently highly desirous that all other communities of this county call like meetings and select two delegates to confer at a county-wide meeting to be held at Tahoka on Saturday, October 7, at 2:30 P. M. in the District Court room."

The above communication was submitted to the Index Friday by O. C. Cox, and was signed by 40 citizens of the New Moore community.

Through a queer coincidence, on that same date Congressman J. P. Buchanan of Brenham, chairman of the house appropriations committee, telegraphed to President Roosevelt an appeal for inflationary measures to raise the price of cotton and other farm products as a means of making the national recovery program more effective in the south.

Congressman Buchanan said that the price of cotton is now almost below the cost of production and this had given an acute situation in the 16 cotton states, affecting not only the cotton farmer alone, but the entire business structure of the south.

Also, on that same day Dr. Fred C. Howe, consumer's counsel for the administration, stated that average price of salable farm products is still far below the parity desired with industry.

And on Saturday Dallas wholesalers and retailers protested against undue increases in price of merchandise, especially in drygoods lines. The processing tax, higher wages, shorter hours, less competitive price cutting and other factors would cause a substantial rise in prices, they stated, but not to the extent the manufacturers are boosting them now. One wholesaler made a careful check of wholesale prices September 15 as compared with those of March 31. He found the following situation, using representative items:

Unbleached sheeting up 133 per cent, cotton socks up 100 per cent, blue chambray work shirts up 90 per cent, bleached sheeting up 92 per cent, children's ribbed hosiery up 94 per cent, cotton prints up 78 per cent, union suits up 78 per cent, towels up 87 per cent, men's work shoes up 52 per cent, oil cloth up 37 per cent, men's broadcloth shirts up 72 per cent.

The increased overhead in retail stores will mean further increases in prices on merchandise. A department store manager expressed great fear that any further increase in prices, or the addition of a State sales tax, would raise the price level to the point of diminishing returns and a situation just the reverse of the plan of President Roosevelt would be brought about.

Cattle Haulers Warned To Have Sale Bills

George W. Lightfoot, now a special agent, announces that cattle should not be hauled over the county in trucks without having in their possession bills of sale for such animals. The law forbids this practice so that owners may be protected against cattle thieves, Mr. Lightfoot said.

L. J. Hahn was in Lamesa on business Wednesday morning.

200 Arrive Tuesday; Balance Arriving Daily

Those cotton checks are here—believe it or not! Monday morning's mail brought formal notification to special agent Joe Williams that two hundred checks would arrive Tuesday to compensate Lynn county farmers for a part of the 71,000 acres of plowed-under cotton.

More than a half million dollars will flow into the county this week and in the immediate future, this sum being that due on cash and option contracts entered into between the farmers and the United States government. The cash value of the options is still an unknown factor, but at present prices, the farmers stand to make an additional $20 per bale.

At an early hour Tuesday morning the highway to the county seat was enjoying more traffic than it had in many days, as the lucky farmers and their friends drove up to get their checks, and by mid-afternoon the checks were being cashed and applied on debts or used to purchase necessities without which the family had struggled for years.

L. A. Land received the largest check in Tuesday's mail, his slip calling for $1050. There are several others due which will be larger than this. There were a number for $300, $400, and $500.

And was it good to watch them wave those checks! Christmas time in September is the only way such a situation can be described. "Have you got your check yet?" was the accepted greeting of the day, and the tide of optimism swept through the countryside in its wake.

As we go to press (Wednesday) we have not been able to secure definite figures as to the amount covered by the checks, but it is expected that a fair per cent of the half million dollars will be received by Lynn county farmers within the next two weeks.

Redwine Is Appointed Deputy Replacing J. H. Bulman

Commissioner's court in session at Tahoka last week confirmed the appointment of Ed Redwine as deputy sheriff, taking the position of J. H. Bulman, who resigned several days ago.

Mr. Redwine is a pioneer citizen of the county and has for many years been prominent in the political and business life of his community. He is known and respected by scores of friends and acquaintances in this section of the Southwest, and his appointment was met with much pleasure and approval.

Deputy Redwine has many friends in the O'Donnell territory who have expressed much gratification at his new honors.

Legion Post Elects Officers Thursday

At a special meeting of the Fern Allen Post of the American Legion at the Legion Hall Thursday evening officers for the 1933-34 year were elected. They are H. A. Lattimore, commander; R. O. Stark, adjutant; Rev. W. R. Burnett, chaplain; Grady Gant, sergeant-at-arms.

It was also decided to hold a chicken barbecue this afternoon (Thursday) and plans were worked out for that event, the first social affair the Legion has enjoyed in some time.

The post was re-organized here 3 years ago, after a period of inactivity and during the three years has been one of the outstanding social and civic organizations of the town. The annual sale of Buddy poppies, sponsored by the legion and the auxiliary together, active cooperation with the Red Cross and other relief bodies, and assistance in many other ways to needy families of the town and of their own organization, in addition to plays, social affairs and community programs have been only a few of the many splendid things done by the local post.

O'Donnell Hotel Is Getting Improvements

THE SCOPE AND PURPOSE OF THE PRESIDENT'S EMERGENCY
RE-EMPLOYMENT
CAMPAIGN

The President's Emergency Re-employment Campaign may be described briefly as a plan to add from 5,000,000 to 6,000,000 persons to the nation's payrolls within the next six weeks or so, through agreements made with the President of the United States by some 5,000,000 concerns or individuals, employing two or more persons each.

In order that this number of jobs may be made available, it will be necessary, of course, for employers in many cases to shorten working hours. The plan also provides for certain minimum wage scales which also in many cases will mean added labor costs for the employer.

The President's Agreement, however, includes a pledge of cooperation from the consuming public, and it is thus anticipated that the employer, while undertaking a larger expense as the direct result of his agreement with the President, will gain added patronage as the just reward of his public spirited attitude.

The fact also is to be borne in mind that where all employers act together to put people back on their payrolls or to raise wages, no employer, as the President himself has pointed out, "will suffer because the relative level of competitive cost will advance by the same amount for all."

It is to be understood that this plan is supplementary to the plan of code adoption by various industrial and trade groups which has for its purpose the elimination of unfair competition, the establishment of more equitable rewards for labor, the spread of employment and the control of production. This plan for speeding business recovery, launched under the provisions of the National Recovery Act passed by the last Congress, is rapidly being made effective, and there will be no set-back in the drive to make its adoption widespread.

The President's Emergency Re-employment plan will bridge time and bring the nation out of the depression more rapidly than if the code adoption plan were depended upon exclusively. The President's Agreement also covers many business groups that would not be amenable to any of the code arrangements.

And what is still more important, perhaps, the President's Emergency Re-employment campaign carries certain psychological values that are as priceless as patriotism at this juncture of our economic history. The President himself made this quite clear in his recent radio address to the nation when he said: "On the basis of this single principle of everybody doing things together, we are starting out on this nationwide attack on unemployment. It will succeed if our people understand it—in the big industries, in the little shops, in the great cities and in the small villages. There is nothing complicated about it and there is nothing particularly new in the principle. It goes back to the basic idea of society, and of the Nation itself, that people acting in a group can accomplish things which no individual acting alone could ever hope to bring about."

Thus we have all the power and potency of mass attack directed along sound lines of organization and system. Here briefly, is an outline of this organized attack on unemployment: In every community, organizations are formed along military lines, which is fitting enough, because the President's Emergency Re-employment campaign is Uncle Sam's war on unemployment and the nation is rallying to the colors just as loyally as though we were actually engaged in a war against a foreign foe.

The local committee is made up of the active heads of the leading business and civic organizations, and includes also the mayor. These committees in the thousands of cities and towns throughout the country were formed following telegrams and letters sent by General Johnson to the presidents of Chambers of Commerce or similar trade bodies in every section of the United States. These local committees elect a general to have charge of the city campaign and a lieutenant general who is a woman. The general selects three colonels, each of whom is to take charge of a certain part of the campaign work. For example, Colonel No. 1 has charge of the "man-power" or organization department. Under his direction block-to-block canvasses will be made to check up on compliance with the President's Agreement, and to make a survey of the unemployed, as to adaptability by experience as to trades and industries and thus be able more readily to help in the processes of assimilation of labor by expanding industries. Colonel No. 2, briefly, has charge of newspaper publicity and kindred activities; and Colonel No. 3 has the training and direction of public speakers under his charge.

Each of these three colonels has seven or more majors on his staff, and each major has about the same number of captains. Each captain has seven or more field workers. All of the local organizations are, of course, constantly supplied with educational and inspirational material of all kinds from the National Recovery Administration in Washington. Literally tons and tons of printed matter has been shipped to every nook and corner of the country.

The N.R.A. emblem, known popularly as the Blue Eagle, is one of the most interesting and vital features of the campaign. All employees who sign the President's Agreement are entitled to display the Blue Eagle with the initials N.R.A. and the words "We Do Our Part." Merchants, manufacturers and all others who have the right to display the insignia by reason of their having complied with the President's Agreement, are permitted to hang it on their walls, or in their windows, or on trucks and cars, and, if they so desire, to stamp it on their products or merchandise. It is, in fact, the desire of the Recovery Administration that all make liberal use of this badge of patriotism.

Any person in the United States who wishes to cooperate in the President's Emergency Re-employment Campaign and be considered as a member of the N.R.A. may go to the authorized establishment in his locality and sign a statement of cooperation as follows:

"I will cooperate in re-employment by supporting and patronizing employers and workers who are members of N.R.A."

Any such signer will then be given and may thereafter use the insignia of consumer membership in N.R.A.

Every phase of the progress of this mighty campaign will be flashed in the newspapers of the country and announced constantly over the radio. In this way everyone will be in a position to know just what the campaign is doing from day to day in actually putting people back on the payrolls and adding to the mass purchasing power of the country. While, as has been stated, it is desired that liberal use of the insignia be made by employer and consumer, it is to be remembered that the official N.R.A. emblem is the property of the United States Government and may not be used or reproduced without authority of the National Recovery Administration.

The lists of all employees who sign the President's Agreement are displayed in local post-offices and it is urged that all employees who have not yet signed the agreement do so immediately and deliver them to their local post-master.

With some minor exceptions, the terms of the President's Agreement with employers is, briefly, as follows: Any employer of a factory or mechanical workshop or artisan must not pay him less than 40 cents an hour or work him more than 35 hours a week, except that if the employer were paying less than 40 cents for that kind of work on July 15 the employer can pay that rate now, but not less than 30 cents an hour. As to all other employees—those on a weekly rate—the employer will pay not less than $15 a week in a city of over 500,000 population; or $14.50 a week in cities of between 250,000 and 500,000; or $13 a week in cities between 25,000 and 250,000 population; or $12.00 a week in cities of less than 25,000 population, and the employer agrees not to work this class of workers more than 40 hours a week. As to employees who were getting a higher wage, the employer must not reduce their wages because of a reduction in their hours and he should generally keep the usual pay differentials as between the lower and the higher paid employees. And after August 31, he must not work children under 16 years of age. There are, of course, some other rules which apply to special cases, but the terms of the agreement as here outlined cover the large bulk of cases.
