Citizens Of Lynn County

Delegates from Lynn County... made it possible for us... in Washington, D. C. ... we thank you from the bottom of our hearts.

First 1935 Cotton Rental Checks Are Received In County

Lynn county has received 1554 first payment 1935 cotton rental checks amounting to $70,771.00, according to V. F. Jones, county agent. Notices have been mailed to producers who have received checks and they are asked to call in person at the county agent's office for the check. When the producer calls for his check he will be expected to sign the Bankhead application for Certificates for 1935. It is planned to have most of the sign-up of the Bankhead applications at the county agent's office rather than in the various communities in the county.

Hubbers Defeat Tahoka In Game Here Sunday

One of the most nerve-racking games, at least for the local fans, of the entire baseball season was played here Sunday afternoon when the Hubbers met our traditional rivals, the Tahoka team.

At the beginning of the game it seemed that the hometown boys were due to take a drubbing. This statement is not to be construed as a criticism of the team, but it did really seem that Sunday was an off-day for the boys, for some of the errors pulled during the first five innings were unheard of on their diamond.

However, they staged a rally, in the last three innings, with the score at 4-0 and by a series of nicely executed plays, succeeded in pulling out of the hole. The psychological moment came in the beginning of the last half of the ninth, when Lefty Melton stroled to the plate and cracked a home run on the first ball offered him.

Cousins Are Reunited After 35 Years

A reunion of uncommon interest took place here last week when Mr. and Mrs. Steve Hallmark and Mrs. J. H. B. Kyle visited our good friend J. H. B. Kyle.

Other members of the family and friends enjoyed their reminiscences and stories of bygone years almost as much as did the two cousins, and informal open house was in progress at the Kyle home most of the time.

Miss Nell Kyle accompanied them on their return to Lorraine, and will spend a few days with them.

General Rains Cover Entire Territory

Farmers Jubilant Over Best Prospects In Many Years

Farmers of our territory and the whole South Plains are rejoicing this week as tractors and teams and men put seed in the soil after one of the most beneficial rains for more than two years.

Rainfall in our immediate territory from Wednesday night through Friday, is estimated at 5 inches. Most of this fell so slowly that none of it was waste water, soaking into the fields just as the farmers would have ordered it.

For the first time in many years, the streets of O'Donnell were young rivers Friday. From the front of the station, water was over the running bank building down to Hunt's filling boat of automobiles. The flood ran over sidewalks at several points and lapped at the edge of the curb thru-out the business district.

Two or three rising young business men borrowed Mr. Bill Sault's boat and did a land office business in beating most of the day.

Lakes are filled in every direction for the first time in a number of years, and even the east part of our section is thoroughly wet.

Fields were too wet for planting until Monday, but farmers devoted Saturday to getting tractors equipped with headlights, having middle bumpers sharpened, and otherwise preparing for night and day work all this week. Unless more rains prevent, the greater part of the South Plains farm lands will be seeded by the last of the week, and every indication is that this is the year when we all get well.

Boy, wasn't the depression awful?

St. Clair Manager for Cicero Smith at Tahoka

Home St. Clair, who has been in charge of the local Cicero Smith Lumber yard since the death of J. H. Powell, has been named as permanent local manager. His family will move to Tahoka as soon as school closes at Lamesa next week.

Mr. St. Clair and family residing here a long time, his wife being practically reared here. For many years he was with the Cicero Smith Lumber Company here and then at O'Donnell and Lamesa.

Many friends here will be glad to learn that this good family is coming back home—Lynn Co. News.

No Cash to Be Given to Clients on RRDO's

To all County Administrators and Field Personnel of the Rural Division Our attention has been called to an erroneous impression which apparently is becoming prevalent with regard to the issuance of RRDO's.

In order to eliminate misunderstanding this is to advise all concerned that in no instance shall a client be permitted to accept cash upon an RRDO when it is filled by the Vendor. This is a policy of long standing on regular disbursement orders and will prevail also on Rural Disbursement orders.

Those issuing RRDO's should take every precaution to make the amount of the RRDO as nearly as possible exactly equal to the cost of the goods itemized. Where such costs vary slightly from the merchants' total cost, the client shall be permitted to accept extra quantities of merchandise commodities itemized in the disbursing Order to make up the difference, and these quantities should be indicated on the RRDO.

We request: No cash is to be issued on an disbursement order, whether a regular Direct Relief Order or a Rural Disbursement order.

Very truly yours, Adam R. Johnson, Director. B. P. Maddox, Admin. Lynn Co.

Texas' Quota For CCC Is Increased

Texas' quota of the young men who may join the Civilian Conservation Corps has been nearly doubled that of last year, according to a press report from Austin. Texas will be allocated 26,880 this year as against 14,200 last year.

The quota will likewise be almost doubled. Enrollment will take place between June 15 and August 31. The age limits have been broadened also. Heretofore the limits have been 18 to 25. This year it will be 18 to 28.

Applications must be made to the county administrator, Judge B. P. Maddox.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Leave On Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Ray left Sunday morning for a short visit with relatives and friends at Emory before leaving on a vacation of some six weeks or two months duration. On the tour they expect to make Washington, D. C. the main objective, but will visit points of interest on the way and on the return trip.

Mr. Jordan Dead After Long Illness

In response to the message telling of the death of their father, A. O. Jordan at Crawford, Mmes. John Vermillion, Ed Goddard and John Andy Edwards left last Thursday to be present for funeral services. They were accompanied by their families, and also Rev. and Mrs. A. Loper.

Rev. Loper conducted the funeral services at Crawford Friday afternoon, and interment was made in the cemetery there.

Mr. Jordan had been seriously ill for several months, so that his death was not a surprise to family or friends. During the past few weeks however, he had seemed to be slightly improved and it had been hoped that he might be spared for a short time longer.

In addition to the ladies here, he is survived by five other children Mrs. Tom Brasher of Canyon, Mrs. Dan Stokes of Hillboro, Mrs. O. L. Merritt, O. K. Jordan and Vern Jordan, all of Crawford.

The Index joins with other friends in extending sympathy to the bereaved children and other members of the family.

Clean Up Campaign Favorably Concluded

On behalf of the city council, the Index is asked to extend an expression of appreciation to the citizens of the town for the enthusiastic response to every phase of the recently conducted clean up campaign.

Mayor Haynes reports that approximately 75 loads of trash and debris were hauled out of town as vacant lots and newly vacated lots were cleared away. Results of the drive are clearly apparent to even the most casual inspector.

The city council now urges that every family procure a container of some kind, such as an old oil barrel, box, or something of a similar nature, and use as a depository for cans, rubbish and trash. When such containers are kept in the alley, it is very little trouble to have the trash hauled away for a very small sum of money each month, and the bit of trouble of the improved appearance of the premises.

Eighteen Graduates Receive Diplomas

Commencement exercises, which were postponed from last Friday evening when electric light service was temporarily halted by lightning, were held in the high school auditorium Monday evening.

Because of the delay and also because many of the patrons were busy in the fields, attendance was considerably smaller than is customary, but the friends who were present were most interested and attentive. Members of the class and the speakers were seated on the stage. Rev. H. C. Smith of Tahoka addressed the class after Miss Opal Talley had delivered the salutatory address. The class song, "We'll Forget You" and Miss Margaret Vermillion's valedictory address were beautiful and appropriate.

T. J. Yandell, president of the board of education, presented the diplomas to the eighteen graduates. Awards were given Margaret Vermillion as honor student for the girls and to Robert Line as boy honor student.

Public Schools Closed Friday of Last Week

The 1935 school term was closed last Friday when report cards were given the students and books checked in. In many ways, this has been one of the most successful terms in the history of the school, with teachers, students, and patrons all working in harmony for the best interest of the school as a whole.

Members of the faculty are making varied plans for the summer. We will understand that most of them will be in school for a part of the summer but while several are planning short trips and visits.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Cahool made a business trip to Jal Sunday.

Royal Arch Masons To Meet In Lubbock

Royal Arch chapter and council Masons of Lubbock will be hosts on Thursday and Friday, May 23 and 24 to a dozen or 15 chapters and councils of this region and to high Masons of the state in the annual spring meeting. This is the ninth year that the meeting, the only one of its kind in its state, has been held, having been started in the spring of 1927.

Wednesday night, preceding the two-day meet, the list of 15 candidates up to the Royal Arch degree will be given their work. Lubbock chapter 248 will confer the mark master, past master, and most excellent master degrees, starting at 7:30 o'clock.

Degrees on the two nights will be conferred by teams from Littlefield, Floydada, O'Donnell, and Post, in addition to the local team.

Chapter and council masons from Amarillo, Canyon, Plainview, Hale Center, Lorenzo, Brownfield, Levelland, Lamesa, Tahoka, Lockney, and possibly Spur, are expected, in addition to the teams giving the work.

J. H. Moore, secretary-recorder of the Masonic Bodies in Lubbock, and also a deputy grand high priest of Royal Arch masons in Texas, is the originator of the meeting.

Funeral Services Held For Morris Baby

In the presence of only members of the family and intimate friends Rev. G. W. Montgomery conducted funeral rites Sunday afternoon for Carolyn Morris, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul G. Morris, who was born in West Texas hospital on Saturday night. Services were held at the graveside.

A group of friends sang softly a favorite hymn of the family, and the pastor spoke brief words of comfort and hope to the bereaved parents and relatives prior to interment.

Floral offerings were especially beautiful, making a bank of flowers to cover the tiny mound.

The Index joins with other friends in extending sympathy to the family.

Stark's Adding Rooms To Residence Here

Material is being taken today to the property of Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Stark and building operations will be started this week on an addition to their residence.

Mr. Stark's father, W. O. Stark, of Plainview, is in charge of the work. Material is being furnished by Cicero Smith Lumber Company.

A kitchen and bed room are to be added, and the pool G. Morris, who Stark residence one of the most attractive and convenient in town.

Mrs. J. D. Fisher of Sierra Blanca, who was the guest recently of her granddaughter, Mrs. Sam Singleton, has been ordered by her physician to spend several days at Mineral Wells for her health. She left Monday morning to begin the treatments.

FRIENDSHIP

FRIENDSHIP is one of the finest things in life. A good friend comes to us when we are in distress and unhappy, and without a good friend our life would be empty. But to make a friend we must first be a friend. A friendly, thoughtful deed is appreciated at all times. The bonds of friendship are far more comforting than coupons cut from bonds. Don't let old friends pass out of your life just because they do not live next door. Spare a few minutes now! Reach for your telephone! Extend your personality to the next block, the next town or another state without leaving your easy chair. Make your old friends a telephone visit while you are in the mood. O'Donnell Telephone Co.

A JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an Amendment to Article XVI of the Constitution of Texas by striking out Section 20a to Section 20e, both inclusive; prohibiting the open saloon and vesting in the Legislature the power to define and enact laws against such; vesting in the Legislature the power to regulate the manufacture, sale, transportation and possession of intoxicating liquors, including the power to provide for a State monopoly on the sale of distilled liquors; providing that intoxicating liquors shall not be manufactured, sold, bartered or exchanged in any county, justice's precinct or incorporated city or town wherein the sale of intoxicating liquors had been prohibited by local option election held under the laws in force at the date of the taking effect of Section 20, Article XVI of the Constitution of the State of Texas, until a majority of 65 per cent of voters of such county or political subdivision shall determine such to be lawful at an election held for that purpose; providing that such shall not prohibit the sale of alcoholic beverage containing less than 32 per cent alcohol by weight in cities, counties or political subdivisions in which the qualified voters have voted to legalize such sale under the provisions of Chapter 116, Acts of the Regular Session of the 43rd Legislature; providing for an election on the question of the adoption or rejection of such Amendment prescribing the form of ballot; providing for the proclamation and publication of such by the Governor and making an appropriation therefor.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS: Section 1. That Article XVI of the Constitution of Texas be amended by striking out Section 20a to Section 20e, both inclusive, and substitute in lieu thereof the following: "ARTICLE XVI Section 20. "(a) The open saloon shall be and is hereby prohibited. The Legislature shall have the power, and it shall be its duty to define the term 'open saloon' and enact laws against such. Subject to the foregoing, the Legislature shall have the power to regulate the manufacture, sale, possession and transportation of intoxicating liquors, including the power to establish a State monopoly on the sale of distilled liquors. "(b) The Legislature shall enact a law or laws whereby the qualified voters of any county, justice's precinct or incorporated town or city, may, by a majority vote of those voting, determine from time to time whether the sale of intoxicating liquors for beverage purposes shall be prohibited or legalized within the prescribed limits; and such law shall contain provision for voting on the sale of intoxicating liquors of various types and various alcoholic content. "(c) In all counties, justice's precincts or incorporated towns or cities wherein the sale of intoxicating liquors had been prohibited by local option elections held under the laws of the State of Texas and in force at the time of the taking effect of Section 20, Article XVI of the Constitution of Texas, it shall continue to be unlawful to manufacture, sell, barter or exchange in any such county, justice's precinct or incorporated town or city, any spirituous, vinous, or malt liquors or medicinal bitters or any other intoxicants whatsoever, for beverage purposes, unless and until a majority of the qualified voters in such county or political subdivision thereof voting in an election held for that purpose shall determine such to be lawful; provided that this subsection shall not prohibit the sale of alcoholic beverages containing not more than 32 per cent alcohol by weight in cities, counties, or political subdivisions thereof in which the qualified voters have voted to legalize such sale under the provisions of Chapter 116, Acts of the Regular Session of the 43rd Legislature. Sec. 2. Such proposed Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at a special election to be held throughout the State of Texas, on the fourth Saturday in August, 1935, at which election all voters favoring said proposed Amendment, shall write, or have printed on their ballots the words:

($8,000.00) Dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of the State Treasury to pay for the expenses of said publication and election. The above is a true and correct copy. GERALD C. MANN Secretary of State.

H. J. R. No. 19 HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an Amendment to Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas, by adopting a new Section to be known as Section 51-b, which shall provide that the Legislature shall have the power to provide under such limitations and restrictions as may be deemed by the Legislature expedient, for old-age assistance and for payment of same not to exceed Fifteen Dollars ($15) per month each to actual bona fide citizens of Texas over the age of sixty-five (65) years, who are not habitual criminals, nor habitual drunkards, nor inmates in any State supported institution; and providing that the requirements for length of time of actual residence in Texas shall not be less than five (5) years during the nine (9) years immediately preceding the application for old-age assistance and continuously for one (1) year immediately preceding such application; and providing that the Legislature shall have the authority to accept from the Government of the United States financial aid for old-age assistance; providing for the necessary proclamation and making an appropriation to defray the expenses of such proclamation, publication and election. BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS: Section 1. That Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended by adding thereto a Section to be known as Section 51-b, which shall read as follows: "Section 51-b. The Legislature shall have the power by general laws to provide, under such limitations and restrictions and regulations as may be deemed by the Legislature expedient, for old-age assistance and for the payment of same not to exceed Fifteen Dollars ($15) per month each to actual bona fide citizens of Texas who are over the age of sixty-five (65) years; provided that no habitual criminal, and no habitual drunkard while such habitual drunkard, and no inmate of any State supported institution, while such inmate, shall be eligible for such old-age assistance; provided further that the requirements for length of time of actual residence in Texas shall not be less than five (5) years during the nine (9) years immediately preceding the application for old-age assistance and continuously for one (1) year immediately preceding such application; and providing that the Legislature shall have the authority to accept from the Government of the United States such financial aid for old-age assistance as that Government may offer not inconsistent with the restrictions hereinbefore provided." Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to the electors of the State of Texas on the fourth Saturday of August, 1935, at which election there shall be printed on such ballot the following clause: "For the Amendment giving the Legislature the power to provide a System of Old-Age Assistance not to exceed Fifteen Dollars ($15) per month per person and to accept from the Government of the United States financial aid for old-age assistance." "Against the Amendment giving the Legislature the power to provide a System of Old-Age Assistance not to exceed Fifteen Dollars ($15) per person per month and to accept from the Government of the United States financial aid for old-age assistance." Sec. 3. The Governor of the State of Texas is hereby directed to issue the necessary proclamation for said election and have same printed as required by the Constitution and Laws of this State. Sec. 4. The sum of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000), or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of the funds in the Treasury of the State, not otherwise appropriated, to pay the expenses of said publication and election. The above is a true and correct copy. GERALD C. MANN Secretary of State.

H. J. R. No. 46 HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION Proposing an amendment to Article IV of the Constitution of the State of Texas so as to authorize Courts having original criminal jurisdiction to suspend imposition of execution of sentence and to place the defendant on probation and to reimpose such sentence, under such conditions as the Legislature may prescribe; providing for an election on the question of adoption or rejection of such Amendment and making an appropriation therefor; providing for the proclamation thereof; and prescribing the form of ballot. BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS: Section 1. That Article IV of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended by adding thereto, between Sections 11 and 12 a new section to be known as Section 11a, to read as follows: "Section 11a. The Courts of the State of Texas having original jurisdiction of criminal actions shall have the power, after conviction, to suspend the imposition or execution of sentence and to place the defendant upon probation and, under such conditions as the Legislature may prescribe." Sec. 2. Such proposed Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at a special election to be held throughout the State of Texas on the fourth Saturday in August, 1935, at which election all voters favoring said proposed Amendment, shall write, or have printed on their ballots the words: "FOR the Amendment to the State Constitution authorizing the Courts to place defendants on probation." "AGAINST the Amendment to the State Constitution authorizing the Courts to place defendants on probation." If it appears from the returns of said election that a majority of the votes cast are in favor of said Amendment, the same shall become a part of the State Constitution. Sec. 3. The Governor shall issue the necessary proclamation for such election, and shall have the same published and such election held as provided by the Constitution and Laws of this State. Sec. 4. The sum of Four Thousand Dollars ($4,000), or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of the State Treasury to pay for the expenses of said publication and election. The above is a true and correct copy. GERALD C. MANN Secretary of State.

PEARCE FAMILY REUNION HELD HERE SUNDAY

Mrs. M. E. Pearce was guest of honor Sunday when a reunion of her immediate family was held at her home. Eight of her nine children were present with their families. Clovis Pearce of San Antonio being the absent member.

An unusual feature of this reunion was the fact that there were present three sets of four generations. Mrs. Pearce being the great-grandmother to the three. In addition to the children here, out of town guests were Mrs. Ed Lanau, Mrs. Dan Selvidge and daughter of Happy, and Mrs. Sam Conroy and daughter of Sherwood.

MISS ELSIE WILLIAMS AND T. J. BURNETT MARRIED

Miss Elsie Frances Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Williams and T. J. Burnett of Lubbock were married in Lubbock Saturday evening, May 18th. The ceremony was sponsored by the Western States Shows and was a development program, and was a decidedly unusual event. While the strains of the wedding march were played, the principals advanced to the floral altar on the stage, and were married by justice of the peace J. T. Trigg. The bride's gown was of pleated celophane. Lubbock business men gave a number of useful gifts to the pair.

The bride is a graduate of the high school here, finishing with the class of '32. For the past several months she has been employed at the First National Bank, in which place she has made many friends throughout the territory.

F. L. Prater who lives about six miles east of town was here Monday and reported that he had 70 acres of cotton beginning to come up. Probably there are others, but this is the first we have heard of in this county.—Lynn County News.

Formal application for a canning plant as a relief work project in Floydada was made last week end by County Administrator Edwin Heald who said this week that, as a rule projects of this type take a little more time than for other types of projects to get approval from the state relief office.—Floydada Hesperian.

Sheepmen have been busy for the past two weeks in the shearing season, which has to some extent been more difficult this year by an increased amount of sand lodged or caked in the fleece.—Hockley Co. Herald, Levelland.

According to Paul F. Lewis, Superintendent of Schools, the Brownfield High School has been granted two additional half-units of affiliation with the State Department.

The two new credits are in Commercial Law and Commercial Arithmetic.—Terry Co. Herald, Brownfield.

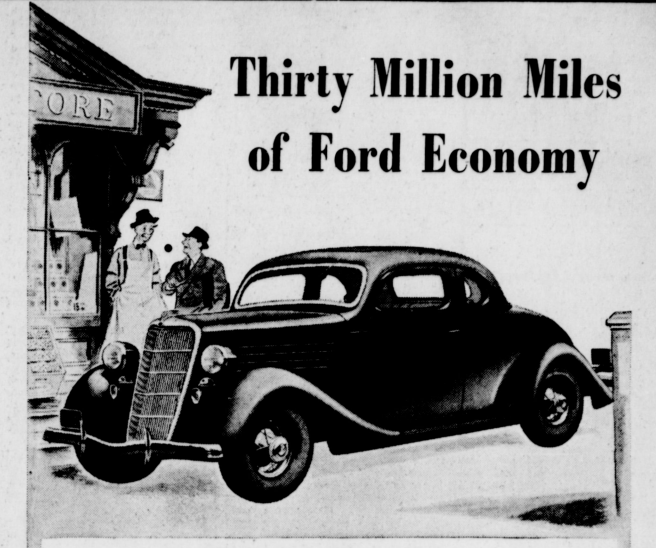

Gradually more farms in the Lockney shallower belt are being put under the irrigation ditch. The past ten days three more wells have been completed and are now pumping water. They are located within a few miles of Lockney.—Lockney Beacon.

COMMITTEE ANNOUNCES SHORT COURSE PLANS

College Station, May 22.—"Every phase of agricultural operations from house to field is included in the program for the twenty-sixth annual Farmers' Short Course to be held at A and M College from July 28 to August 2," says Roy W. Snyder, chairman of the Short Course committee.

"What's more, every subject is tied up definitely with the theme—'The Changing Country Life,'" he added. "The AAA, through its adjustment programs; the Federal Housing Administration, through its encouragement of building and improvement; the work in soil erosion control are all represented."

Several programs are arranged around the subject of housing. They will probably be one showing some of the details of building and repairing, a program on house planning

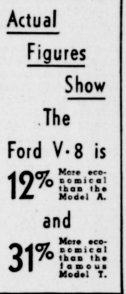

Thirty Million Miles of Ford Economy

MORE MILES. Faster miles. Greater economy . . . that is the story of the Ford V-8. There are conclusive figures from owners to show that it is the most economical Ford car ever built.

A particularly interesting and complete report of costs comes from a national fleet owner who has owned 854 Ford cars which have run more than thirty million miles in business use.

175 were Model T Fords which were run 5,017,075 miles. 539 were Model A Ford cars which were run 24,041,632 miles. 80 are Ford V-8 cars which have been run 2,982,886 miles.

This owner's cost records show that Ford V-8 cars cost 12% less to operate than the Model A Fords and 31% less than the Model T Fords. And they covered more miles per month! The monthly average for the Model T Fords was 1509 miles. . . . For the Model A Fords, 1866 miles. . . . And 2571 miles for the Ford V-8. Each year the Ford car gives you more in value and performance and costs you less to operate.

B & O Cash Store J. N. Line & Sons

from the artistic standpoint, and something on storage for the whole farm home. There will also be exhibits showing water systems.

For making the home more attractive, plans have been made for special programs on home beautification such as control of rose diseases and insects, and soil management. This follows the program on rose propagation given in 1934.

Special demonstration courses in syrup, fruit juice, cheese and mattress making, the putting of plants and the making of purses and moccasins have been planned in which individuals take an active part instead of listening to lectures.

A program on wild game conservation and the place of wild fowls on Texas farms and ranches has been scheduled. Poultry products come in for their share of attention with a demonstration on scoring poultry products to be given by Miss Zetha McInnis, home industries specialist.

According to the new plan being tried this year, each program has been assigned a certain day. On Monday, the day will be devoted to hogs; on Tuesday, sheep; Wednesday, beef cattle; Thursday, sheep stock; and on Friday, this special meeting on wild game preservation.

Since AAA discussions have been taking place all over the country, the Short Course committee has planned discussion groups on each commodity. These discussions will be given on the same days that the production program on a particular commodity is given.

Friday morning has been set for the wardrobe contest in which the women will model the dresses they have made by foundation patterns. One whole afternoon program will be devoted to the dyeing and cleaning of fine fabrics, and other programs will be given over to home improvement recreation and other subjects.

A banquet has been planned when the gold star winners in the bedroom improvement contest. At this banquet the State winners in bedroom improvement will be announced.

A special night program for the boys and girls has been planned when the gold star gins will be awarded to the 100 most outstanding club boys and the 100 most outstanding club girls of the State. These boys and girls will be honored Wednesday night, July 31, at a banquet in their honor. In addition to the regular Short Course programs planned by the Short Course committee, special conferences are being planned by the Texas Home Demonstration Association; the Rural Pastors' and Laymen's Conference; The Bee Keepers' Association; The Registered Certified Seed Breeders' Association of Texas; the Texas Agricultural Writer's Conference; the Agricultural Workers' Association; and the Superintendent of Rural Schools.

"The Old Time Chuck Wagon Cook"
 By W. F. Robinson, Lamesa, Texas

The chuck wagon, at first, was a crude affair, sometimes a two wheeled Mexican cart drawn by one or two yoke of oxen, but improved at time passed. During the early 80's of the close of the period it was generally a Mitchell or Studenaker wagon pulled by four horses. The chuck box in the rear of the wagon contained shelves, drawers and compartments for provisions, cutlery, etc. The lid hinged at the bottom and when let down made a serviceable table where every thing needed was convenient.

At the front end or either side was a water barrel, and under the wagon was the cooney or carry all, made of rawhide stretched to the running gear. The cook used Dutch ovens, pots and kettles and cooked on a fire made on the ground. During the early period there were no tents furnished for the cook or men, but later in the Northern range, the cook used a stove made specially for the purpose and a tent to cook in, while the men had a tent with a Sibley stove, and the cook was required to be an artist in his line. A bed wagon and night-wrangle was also part of the equipment. Texas out-fits were not so luxuriously furnished but they generally stayed in business longer. During the early Eighties one of these old time cooks, whose name, strange to say, was Smith, but he had picked it up since he had hurriedly left one of the Eastern States, but Smith, he held forth and rolled his dough along the Colorado river north of the San Angelo country, cooking for a range outfit. He was an unsympathetic autocrat hated by all the men, but was a good cook. On one occasion while working the range, he was directed to stop his wagon at a certain water hole near which stood a lone live oak tree making a magnificent shade. When he arrived at the gathering place the cattle were a few hundred yards away, in full view. He drove under the tree and halted, setting on the wagon smoking his pipe, he watched the men work the cattle, and after he had become convinced that the waddies were rejoicing over the prospects of spending the noon hour in such a pleasant place and their enmity toward him had somewhat relaxed, he deliberately drove from under the tree to an open space about three hundred yards away and stopped his wagon over a large bunch of prairiehay. He took out his team and prepared his meal in the hot broiling sun. When the cowboys saw what the cook had done, they were disappointed, and had it been within their power they would have voted unanimously to consign him to the hottest furnaces of the lower regions without a can-teen of water or a fan, but when they came in for dinner the matter was not mentioned, and the cook was in fine humor.

The handle became attached to Smith's name in the following manner: He was cooking for an outfit on its way to the shipping point with a herd of about 1200 head of Texas longhorn beef cattle and while camped one night with the herd bedded about two hundred yards from the wagon. It was a beautiful night and every thing was lovely, the full-faced moon looking down with a broad smile and all nature rejoicing. Smith had made his bed down near the rear of the wagon and was in the land of slumber, when about midnight he was suddenly aroused by an animal that he mistook for a badger, prowling among his pots and pans. He arose and hurried one of his boots and a double-gated profanity at the prowler. Instantly, if not a little sooner, Smith became wiser as to the identity of the intruder. A shower of gas that would have checked the advance of a German army momentarily rendering him insensible to the surroundings. He leaped back to his bed and brought forth his six-shooter and opened fire at close range. The marauder had in the meantime taken refuge in a bunch of weeds, but retaliated with vigor, spraying the infuriated cook and his bed with a reserve that made the pipe smell like anything except a perfume factory. Smith, realizing that his equipment for war was not sufficient for the occasion made a strategic retreat. He abandoned the field leaving his enemy in possession with colors flying. At Smith's first shot, pandemonium broke loose. Every man made a rush for his horse cursing the cook as he went. Ideas daylight before the frightened beasts were brought to a standstill. The stampede caused a depreciation of several thousand dollars in value of the cattle, a loss to the owner, and Smith was thereafter known as Polecat Smith.
