Rites Read For Mrs. Daisy Singleton

Mrs. Daisy Singleton, 82, long time resident of O'Donnell, died last Tuesday at the Medical Arts Hospital in Lamesa following a long illness.

Funeral services were conducted here at 2 p. m. Wednesday at the First Methodist Church with the Rev. Howard Marcom officiating. Assisting was Odie Prescott, Minister of the Church of Christ.

Burial followed in the Tahoka Cemetery under direction of Higginbotham Funeral Home.

Mrs. Singleton was born Dec. 28, 1879 in Hanibal, Mo. She moved to Ft. Worth with her parents as a small child living there until she was four and moving to Colorado City. Her father, Samuel F. Singleton founded the Slash L ranch (site of New Moore today) in 1892. His family lived on the ranch and in Colorado City. She finished high school in Jefferson where she met her late husband, Hal Singleton, Sr. They were wed March 1, 1898 in Colorado City. They moved immediately to Jefferson and lived there until 1914 where he was a postmaster and later U. S. Marshal.

They moved here in 1914 establishing a lumber yard, Mr. Singleton reserves here for 16 years in 29's, 30's, 40's. Mrs. Singleton was a long time Methodist, an Eastern Star and helped organized the first PTA here, and she was a member of 1939 Study Club. A stately, dignified pioneer, she lived during a most colorful period of history. Her father was lovingly known as "Uncle Sam" to the ranch workers.

Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Glenn Lee, Marlow, Okla., and Mrs. C. N. Hoffman of here, three sons, W. E. of Big Spring, Hal of here, and Sam of Lamesa, nine grandchildren and 14 great grandchildren.

Mrs. Singleton was greatly admired and loved by a wide circle of long time friends.

As clean and safe as electric light

Flameless Electric Clothes Drying

So clean... so safe... so modern... that's what electric dryer owners say they like about flameless electric clothes drying. Clean, flameless electric heat gentles your clothes—dries them fluffy-soft and sweet-smelling—never fades colors. And it's so precisely controlled that even your most delicate fabrics can be dried with complete safety.

An electric dryer brings wonderful ease and convenience, too. You can dry clothes any time of day or night in any kind of weather... with little more effort than setting the controls. See your favorite appliance dealer soon for a flameless electric clothes dryer that will save you time and work... help you live better... electrically.

It's The Law In Texas — YOUR LEGAL NAME

Most probably you are never quite sure whether your wife should use your first name, or her own, when signing an important paper. Perhaps you also wonder whether to put a "Mr." or a "Mrs." in front of a signature; and you can get all mixed up about a "Jr." or a "Sr." after it. Then what about your middle name or initial?

It seems that for centuries under common law a legal name has consisted of one Christian or given name and one surname or family name. The law presumes that every person has a given name and a surname which must be stated in full on any legal document.

The law pays little attention to a middle name or initial but it is wise to use either one or the other for exact identification. You must be consistent, too. For example, one real estate buyer was advised to sign all papers by his full name "William Alton Smith, Jr." to make it clear which of the Bill Smiths was buying the property.

If you are a "Jr." or a "Sr." such description should be used to help distinguish you from namesakes.

As for "Mr." in front of your name, that's not important at all. The same is true for "Mrs." because it is your wife's own given name that counts.

When a woman marries, she takes her husband's family name. Her maiden surname is absolutely lost. Many women incorrectly use their husband's full name, and sign "Mrs. William A. Smith", for example. The correct way is for her to sign her own given name and her husband's surname such as "Joan Marie Smith". A divorced woman who wants to resume the use of her maiden name may, under some circumstances, have it returned to her by court order.

LIVELINESS AND LUXURY
IN A FULL LINE OF
LOW-PRICED CARS
CHEVY II

Eleven new-size models make One-Stop Shopping easier than ever at your Chevrolet dealer's

Nothing fair to middling about the spacious and spunky new lineup of low-priced cars from Chevrolet! From the looks of these nifty top-of-the-line Novas (unmistakably new), you'd never guess they're so easy to own. Even some bigger cars wonder how we got so much full-size family room into such a parkable package—and such hustle out of a 6 that sips gas so sparingly. Your dealer will point out more reasons why luxury and a low price have never been more beautifully blended!

All general show rules will be about the same as in past years. The show barn will be open for receiving animals Thursday Feb. 22 after 4
 p. m. and again Friday afternoon.
 This is so arranged that students will not have to miss school to get animals in barn by Friday nite. The calves will not have to be in the barn until by 9 a. m. Saturday.

The drive for show premiums and expenses has been good and money is still coming in. If you were missed in the drive, you may give at the show next month.
