NEW FORD V-8

The Car Without Experiments

THERE'S never any doubt about value when you buy a Ford car. You know it's all right or Henry Ford wouldn't put it out. One thing that never changes is his policy of dependable transportation at low cost.

That's the biggest feature of the New Ford. The reliability and economy of its V-8 engine have been proved on the road by upwards of 1,400,000 motorists. Owner cost records show definitely that the Ford V-8 is the most economical Ford car ever built.

MISS HANCOCK ENTERTAINS PASTIME CLUB MONDAY

Members of the Pastime Sewing Club were guests Monday afternoon of Miss Iva Dimple Hancock at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hancock.

Crochet and embroidery were the work chosen for the afternoon, and at the close of several pleasant hours the hostess served delicious cookies and grapefruit punch.

Those present were Misses Edwyna Vermillion, Ruth Marie Howard, Frances Williams and Jewel Bean.

MISS GEORGIA MAE SMITH AND CLAUDE MCKEE WED

Coming as a complete surprise to their parents and friends, the marriage of Miss Georgia Mae Smith and Mr. Claude McKee has been announced this week. The ceremony was performed in Big Spring last Wednesday, February 13, at the Baptist parsonage there. The pastor, Rev.

BUFFET SUPPER CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY THURSDAY

Celebrating her thirteenth birthday, Miss Lois Howard was hostess Thursday evening of last week to a number of friends when she entertained with a buffet supper at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Howard.

Mrs. Howard and Miss Ruth Marie planned and arranged the supper and the informal party which followed. Delicious salad, pimento cheese and chicken sandwiches, potato chips and heart shaped mints were served buffet style, with cherry jello and the birthday cake as dessert.

Miss Lois was the recipient of many lovely and appropriate gifts, as well as the best wishes of her friends.

Those present were Misses Zeta Merle Koeninger, Mary Jane Goddard, and Ruth Williams; Messrs. A. C. Lambert, Dean Schooler, Max C. Bradley, Eldon Carroll and Oswald Balaw.

Day, read the rites.

Mrs. McKee is the charming and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy D. Smith and has grown to womanhood in this territory. She was a member of the 1934 graduating class of the local high school, and was numbered among the most popular students in school. For the last several months she has been in school in Tyler. Mr. McKee met her in Big Spring as she was returning home from Tyler.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank McKee, and has lived near O'Donnell for a number of years. He has scores of friends who admire him for his many sterling qualities and high principles.

They will be at home in the Randall community in about two weeks, but are at the home of his parents until that time.

The Index joins with other friends in extending best wishes and hearty congratulations.

MRS. McLAURIN HOSTESS TO BUSY BEE CLUB

The Busy Bee Quilting Club met last Thursday at the home of Mrs. John McLaurin, where members quilted one quilt.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. W. E. Simmons Thursday week.

Those present at Mrs. McLaurin's home were Mmes. T. M. Pearce, G. G. Vaughn, Carey Shook, Cecil Pearce, J. M. Vaughn, Felix Jones, Emma, Pearce W. E. Simmons, Miss Effie Vaughn and the hostess.

LOST: Between O'Donnell and Gail on January 30, ladies' black pigskin shoe in Tyler. Mr. McKee met her bag, containing money, personal effects, and a valuable dinner ring. Finder may keep purse and money if ring is returned. Please notify Mrs. Dallas Vaughn O'Donnell, or the Index office.

Miss Eva Dell Harris, who enrolled as a student at Tech some two weeks ago, writes home that she now has her course of study well worked out and is thoroughly enjoying the work.

D. W. Harris, who has suffered an unusually severe attack of flu, was able to be in town Saturday looking after business and greeting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Vaughn and Mr. and Mrs. Leon Davis returned the first of last week from an extended visit with relatives and friends in Dallas, Greenville, and other East Texas points. They report a very pleasant trip, except for the loss of Mr. Vaughn's bag containing a valuable dinner ring. The purse was lost at the very beginning of the journey on January 30, between here and Gail. Mrs. Vaughn is offering a reward for the return of the ring.

Mr. John Etter is one of our new subscribers, having placed his name on our list Saturday. Thank you, sir.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Caldwell were in Dallas on business part of last week.

Misses Fay and Effie Vaughn were guests in the Perry Clayton home last week end.

D. W. Harris has our thanks for his renewal to the Index for another year.

Mrs. C. H. Cabool spent the week end in Borger with her parents, Mr. and Ms. Joe Haidy.

Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Davis and Miss Nell Boyer were in Lubbock on business Tuesday.

Mrs. Ed Goddard returned day from Crawford, where she went for a visit with her mother, O. Jordan.

Messrs. J. L. Shoemaker, C. H. Cabool were in Dallas business Sunday.

Mrs. S. M. Clayton visited and friends in Tahoka Tuesday.
