Main street looks like a five year old with a front tooth missing fter the wrecking this week of the d frame building just south of hompson's Toggery.

Talking about Main street reminds us of the small towns we knew and loved as a child in deep East Texas. In many there was a ont street (or main street) and sually facing the railroad where he major business firms were locted, and the next street in the re is known as back street. And in very small town there was the 'right'' part of town and the 'wrong'' part of town. The two cial stratas did not mix even in God's house. Some time we'll tell true incident concerning this acet of the Old South.

Today the slow trend is away 'rom "blue-blooded" families and acial and religious prejudices . and a man's a man if he is round cuts much mustard with West Texan. Which is the way should be.

When the Highway 87 Freeway s built, the trend will be for the own to move to the new highway the next 25 years a visitor o O'Donnell may find an "Old Fown" and a "New Town". There's "Old old in tourist and commercial highway traffic . . . and the business will follow this gold. Likely the highway traffic beautiful new homes will be built up and down the highway in this immediate vicinity. At least three major oil companies are consider-ing locations at North Y area.

A modern 15 to 30 unit tourist court is a "must" here on this new highway.

I guess just about everybody has secret vice, and a few not so secret ... mine is listening to soap peras ... for four years I never nissed what hapened to Carolyn Gramer in "The Right to Happioperas Kramer in ness" on NBC and if that title isn't a misnomer I'll be the lifeguard at bird bath because let me tell you this poor Carolyn has about as much chance to be happy as a quart of whiskey on an Indian res-ervation. This kid Carolyn has had more knocks than a model T Ford on lemon crack gas ... in four short years Carolyn Kramer has fallen in love with a man named Bill many years older than herself, although she was just a school girl and although Bill was engaged o her widowed mother. Carolyn married him anyway; a few months later she fell in love with a Dwight Kramer, no relation, divorced Bill, narried Kramer, who was killed in in accident, was put on trial for his murder, had her baby in jail. vas acquitted of his murder, fell n love with one of the jurors, a Dr. Riehard Campbell, married him went to work for his brother Char-

Shepperd of Clovis, seated right is Willie Willie a granddaughter, Mrs. Lois Willis of Washington State, standing is a great grandson, Bobby Willis and children who are great, great grand sons of Mrs. Pearce.

Moved Here In 1907.

Mrs. Pearce and her late husband settled on a farm about 3 miles north of here in January of 1907. They farmed here until her husband passed away in 1924. When the family moved here the townsite of O'Donnell was pasture and the town was not "born" until the Santa Fe built into here a few years later. The Pearce home place few [is farmed by a son. Mrs. Pearce is 82 years of age. lives alone, does her housework and is as spry as a lady half her years. She has seen the remarkable growth of the South Plains from lonesome baldies to the best farming fand in the world during the past half century. She has seen the good and the bad years, sandies that turned the noon sun to blood and rain that flooded the town.

Given The Town Good Citizens

She has three fine sons, Clovis of Austin, Cecil and T. M. of here, and five fine daughters: Mrs. Ella Mc Laurin of Pecos. Mrs. Shepperd of Clovis, Mrs. Sam Covey of Mertzon, Mrs. Sam Selvidge of Amarillo and Mrs. Mattie Fluty of Lubbock.
