Salvation Army Drive Is In Progress Here

Goal Of $900 very unusual the crop should mature

The O'Donnell Chapter drive of the Salvation Army opened Tuesday. O'Donnell's quota is $900 — the same as last year. Weldon Martin is chairman of the local committee. One third of the money collected here remains at home. If the local fund is used up, the state headquar ers will send the needed money Donnell will also send two youths o the Army's summer camp. O'Don nell is among the few Army chapter's not operating in the "red".

The recession is especially severe in industrial part of the state and money is needed now. Membbers of the various commit-

Teacher Is Honored

The 1958 O'Donnell School Annual was dedicated in assembly last Wednesday afternoon to James Reed, long time agriculture teacher in the school system. Miss Peggy Burkett is editor of the Annual and she and her staff did a masterful job of the school book.

Mr. Reed began teaching here in February of 1947 under the then superintendent, S. F. Johnson, During his years here he has made place in the hearts of his students as well as everyone who knows him

James was born in Lampasas co unty and educated at Lometa. He attended John Tarleton College his first two years and graduated from Texas A. and M. in 1942. He served in World War 2 from July 1944 to June of 1946 and taught a year at Baird after coming out of service. He received a M. S. degree from Texas Tech, in 1952. He is prexy of local classroom teachers group. He is married and has a daughter, 10, and a son, Greg, 8. His wife, Mary Helen, is a tireless school worker.

At the ceremony Mr. Reed was presented with a six week old regstered pig. Aside from his teaching a well-based vocational course in agriculture, Mr. Reed's greatest contribution to "his boys' is a firm but loving hand in making the youth more manly, and nicely man-
