

If you have time on your hands drop by the Elementary school some morn about ten and watch the P. E. program. Westex is blessed with a wonderful climate. For most days of a school year the weather is so mild that exercise out of doors is more desirable.

If this Corner was a "king maker" I would put Dr. Martin Luther King in a vice-presidential slot. Wait and see that the Demos or GOP's will not put this "pinch hitter" into the slot. And life being what it is Dr. King may inherit the presidency.

King is slipping in popularity with the splinter groups. Watch for a big push to keep him in the running. Not later than ten years our Nation will have a Negro as veep or president. Block voting is the answer.

Today, if the polltax was outlawed, O'Donnell would have legal beer. It may surprise you that only 37 percent of our school population is Anglo. When I moved here in 1943 there were only three Latin families here. I am far from "anti-Latin" but this column is the fact. I do not make the news—I report it.

Voting Light

Lynn county voters approved six of the ten proposed Texas constitutional amendments in Tuesday's election, but only 610 voters, or less than a fifth of the county's strength, went to the polls.

Election returns from over the state Thursday morning showed that the following five were approved: 1, financing of college buildings; 3, changes in the laws for the needy; 5, changes in teacher retirement system; 6, loan fund for students; and 8, mandatory retirement for judges and disciplinary procedures.

Lynn voters approved these same amendments plus No. 2, authorizing more bonds to continue veterans' land fund.

Following is the Lynn county vote on each amendment proposal:

- College building program, 430 for, 150 against.
- Veterans' land program, 293 for, 284 against.
- Aid for needy, 411 for, 159 against.
- Four year terms for state officials, 242 for, 346 against.
- Teachers' retirement program, 383 for, 193 against.
- Loan fund for students, 393 for, 181 against.
- Tax exemption for hospital, 224 for, 341 against.
- Retirement for judges, 377 for, 199 against.
- Permitting legislature to set salaries for presiding officers, 252 for, 321 against.

JUNIORS WILL PRESENT

"THE PERFECT IDIOT"

Rehearsals will begin November 9 on the Junior Class play, "The Perfect Idiot", a three act play by Eunice and Grant Atkinson, to be presented in the high school auditorium on the night of December 11.

Members of the cast, as announced by Coach Jerry Brown, director, are:

Donna Moore as the mother; Dwight Crawford, father; Roland Berrera, youngest son; Steve Gary, young genius; Jerry Barton, high school principal; Tonia Beckham, the maid; Richard Mansell, soap manufacturer; Virginia Cook, school teacher; Linda Jones, principal's daughter; Terri Taylor, Roland's girl; Bud White, star athlete; Shiela Singleton, Bud's girl; Ken Vestal, a policeman; Greg Reed, a psychiatrist; Suzanne Morrison, newspaper reporter.

The merry mix-up that results as these characters entangle their lives presents a light clever play that hypnotizes students and parents alike.

The play is unusual, there is never a dull moment. Come see "the rabbit scene," it's a show stopper.

Railroad Taxes In Lynn $12,680

Austin (Sp.)—Current annual taxes paid to the various government agencies in Lynn County totaled $12,680, it is announced by the Texas Railroad Association.

The amount was the county's share of the nearly $10,000,000 the railroads paid in Texas on their own right of way and other property.

The biggest railroad contribution was to the school systems throughout the state. Large sums were also distributed to city, village and county governments and for road and bridge funds.

In addition, of course, was the large total in taxes the railroads' nearly 35,000 Texas employees contributed on their own property. The vast majority of rail workers, many of whom live in Lynn County, own their own homes.

"With the future of our country and state depending to a great extent upon the education of our youth, I am delighted that nearly half of the taxes paid by the railroads go to support the schools," said Walter Caven, general counsel of the Texas Railroad Association. "Recognizing this need for education, many of the railroads operating in Texas also make scholarships available to a large number of students every year."

Rural Aid On Water Offered

More than a million people in rural America may benefit from an expansion in financial support for rural community facilities and family farms authorized by recent legislation. L. J. Cappelman, Farmers Home Administration State Director for Texas said today.

Private investors will provide the bulk of the funds on an insured basis through USDA's Farmers Home Administration. The legislation signed into law by President Johnson on October 7:

Delayed Ginning For Better Fiber

College Station—Delayed, or deferred, ginning of cotton means higher quality fiber to mills, according to research data compiled by James M. Ward and James W. Graves, assistant professors, Department of Agricultural Economics and Sociology at Texas A&M University.

Moisture levels in machine picked cotton vary within each load due to moisture differences in seed, fiber, trash content and the maturity of the cotton. This variation causes some fibers to be overheated and overdried during ginning. The result is lower fiber values to mills due to greater fiber breakage and higher fiber length variation.

With this problem in mind, Texas A&M University scientists initiated a study of the effect of different harvest periods and ginning treatments on moisture content and selected fiber properties of machine-picked cotton. Morning and afternoon harvested cotton, followed by either immediate ginning, was studied over a three-year period.

No significant differences were noted between the fiber quality of cotton picked in the morning and that picked in the afternoon.

However, deferred ginning, or storing seed cotton for one day prior to ginning definitely had a favorable effect on fiber quality. The moisture level of the deferred-ginned cotton was more uniform due to a moisture transfer from the seed and trash to the fiber during the storage period. This increased uniformity allowed the cotton to be ginned with less drying and, as a result, less fiber damage. Fewer fibers shorter than 1/4 inch, less variation in fiber length, and less waste and delay in spinning operations all resulted from deferred ginning. The treatment had no ill effects on fiber color or nonlint content.

The true worth of cotton to mills is the value of their finished products less manufacturing cost. If significantly higher quality lint cotton with improved spinability can be obtained from deferred ginning, mills could well afford to pay premiums for such cotton. Deferred ginning may possibly strengthen the market for cotton in the future.

P. B. Uzzell, wildlife coordinator for the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, said a ninth county in that area — Kendall County—will open its archery season on deer, including antlerless deer, and turkey gobblers three days later on October 17.

The eight counties opening October 14 are Blanco, Burnet, Gillespie, Llano, Mason, McCulloch, San Saba and Travis. All nine counties will close their archery seasons before the regular gun harvest.

In these nine counties only, antlerless deer may be taken by special permit available from landowners. Also, buck deer in the nine counties are defined as those having a hardened antler protruding through the skin. Buck deer

Only One Rural Wreck In Month

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated one accident on rural highways in Lynn County during the month of September, according to Sergeant A. E. Roberts, Highway Patrol Supervisor of this area.

These wrecks accounted for an estimated property damage of $500.00.

The rural traffic accident summary for this county from January through September of 1965 shows a total of 42 crashes. As a result of these crashes there were two persons killed and 16 persons injured. The estimated property damage amounted to $18,458.00.

November 29, 1965 is the dead line for applications for the next Patrol Training School. "Applications for the position of patrolman should be made as soon as possible," the Sergeant stated. Those who are selected to fill these po-

O'Donnell Closing Game At Wink

With the firm determination the Eagles snap the pigskin for the last time in 1965, Friday night when they meet the Wink Wildcats in Wildcat territory.

Although the Eagles have not had a winning season, they have showed much improvement with each game.

With only three seniors, Harold Bessire, Jerry Haire and Tom Ed Vestal, the Eagles have gained much experience, and have shown real potent football during every game.

Coach Malcolm Kennedy's vigorous training revealed a merited ignition Friday night as the Eagles took a 7-0 lead over Seagraves in the first six minutes of the game.

However Seagraves bounced back and went on to win the game 43-7.

The Eagles felt the loss of their center, Randy Jackson, who received a foot injury in the Tahoka game.

We hope to see Randy in some Eagle-Wildcat action this Friday night.

With the Eagles determination, and the students school spirit, this could be the upset of the season.

TUTORIAL SYSTEM FOR HIGH SCHOOL

The National Honor Society met last Tuesday night, and established a tutorial system in which each student is assigned to a tutor, for the benefit of students from the seventh grade through high school who need assistance in one or more subjects.

There are approximately eighty students participating in the activity.

Under the direction of Mrs. Jerry Rowan, NHS sponsor, and Mr. Hallie Gee, high school principal, the students hope to improve the average grade of the school, and impress on students that clear thinking in the classroom is the purpose of education. Information is given to you; the application must be made by yourself.

With this record no doubt "McGruder's Mob" will be seen on the varsity starting line-up come 1966 football season.

SCOUT NEWS

7:30 p. m. is the time—Monday is the day—American Legion Hall is the place of the meetings of the O'Donnell Scouts for all boys of ages 11 through 17 years. A recent all day outing that all the O'Donnell Scouts seemed to enjoy and were all "pooped" at the end of the day except the Scoutmaster, is one of many things being planned for the Scouts.

Seton Castle, Santa Fe, New Mexico, has recently been opened to the public to be used to display the Seton Indian Museum of 69,000 books, 3,200 paintings, and 2,000 animal and bird skins that have been given to the Boy Scouts of America.

In December, the first Boy Scout of America units behind the Iron Curtain will celebrate its second anniversary in Prague, Czechoslovakia. Pack 23 is served by the Transatlantic Council with headquarters in Heidelberg, Germany.

O'Donnell is particularly proud of the recent Scout awards presented to Dennis Woolam, son of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Woolam, and Louie Birdwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Birdwell on Oct. 31 in Lubbock.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Dan Vaughn were home on the week end.

John Burkett returned home from Lamesa Hospital last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Adamson visited her mother, Mrs. J. D. Crawford, over the week end.

ROTARY NEWS

The O'Donnell Rotary Club met Tuesday with President Truett Hodnett presiding. Visiting Rotarians were Bo Adeock, Sam Richardson, Windy Beckham, Hulon Bolch, Dallas Woods, and Bob Wilton of Lamesa and Joe Price of Brownfield and Emil Prohl of Tahoka.

C. E. McMillian of Lubbock presented the program for the noon luncheon. Mr. McMillian demonstrated a method for Physical Fitness.

The next directors meeting will be Nov. 30 at the home of Truett Hodnett.

The date of the Christmas dinner has been tentatively set for Dec. 21.

A letter from the Manuepillai family of Ceylon written to O'Donnell states that their son, Cyril, will soon undergo cardiac surgery. Cyril is suffering from a hole in his heart.

From Woodland Hills, Calif., the Bernie Kliens write that their Rotary club is making preparations to entertain the Ambassador of South Africa and his wife. They will be the guests of the Woodland Hills Rotary Club.

Dress-Up Idea For Hearty Ribs And Baked Russet Potato Dinner

Tasty spare ribs and fluffy baked potatoes make an appetizing dinner that's chock full of hearty good eating and easy because it all cooks in the same oven. Add a "help yourself" assortment of toppings for the potatoes and let everyone feast. Right now is a good time to plan this menu because these popular Russet potatoes from Washington State are plentiful and you can rely on this choice variety for both finest texture and flavor. Washington growers say it's the mineral-rich lava soil which gives these all-purpose Russets their special flavor quality and meanness so you can enjoy them in all your favorite potato dishes.

EASY SPARERIB & BAKED POTATO DINNER

Spareribs Chopped green onions or chives
Large Washington State Russets Commercial sour cream
Crumbled, crisp bacon bits Salt and Pepper
Grated American cheese or crumbled blue cheese

To prepare spareribs place in shallow open pan. Roast in hot oven (425°F.) 30 to 40 mins. Pour off fat. Sprinkle generously with seasoned salt. Reduce heat to 350°F. and roast uncovered 45 to 60 mins. or until fork tender. Serve hot with baked potatoes. If desired, ribs may be spread lightly with orange marmalade during last 5 mins. of baking time.

Select Washington State Russets of nearly uniform size. Wash, dry and oil. Arrange on baking sheet or oven rack. Bake from 325°F. to 450°F., depending on oven area needs. Bake 45 to 60 mins. or until fork tender. Remove from oven and prick to let out steam. Cut 1/4 inch cross in top of each potato and press gently from bottom until snowy white potato bursts thru. Break up lightly with fork. Top with salt, pepper, butter and a tablespoon of commercial sour cream. Serve at once with help yourself toppings of crumbled, crisp bacon bits, chopped green onions or chives, grated American or crumbled blue cheese.

DEADLINE DATE FOR NROTC QUALIFYING EXAM NEARS

High School seniors and graduates have only until Nov. 19 to apply for the Navy's Reserve Officer Training Corps. Applicants will take the nationwide competitive examination as the first step toward appointment as Midshipmen.

Designed to supplement the officer output of the Naval Academy, the NROTC program makes it possible for a young man to earn a regular commission while studying at one of the 82 civilian colleges which has an NROTC unit. All tuition, fees and books are furnished by the Navy, and the student receives a subsistence allowance of $50.00 per month for not more than four years. During the summers the student goes on training cruises, and after completing a four year college course, he is commissioned in the Regular Navy or Marine Corps and goes on active duty as a career officer. He receives the same promotional opportunities, duty assignments, and benefits as Naval Academy graduates.

High school seniors 17 up to 21 years of age may apply by securing blanks at the local high school or Naval Recruiting Station or from Chief of Naval Personnel Department of the Navy, Washington, D. C., 20370.

25 AMENDMENTS FOR STUDENTS AGE 18-22

The Social Security Amendments of 1965 make an important change in the law as it applies to students age 18 to 22, which may enable many young people a chance to receive social security benefits while finishing their education. According to John P. Patton, District Manager of the Lubbock Social Security office: "The son or daughter of a deceased worker or retired or disabled worker may now receive child's benefits up to age 22 if he or she is unmarried and a full time student." This provision is effective January, 1966, and enables a student to receive these benefits for several months retroactively in early 1965 even if they are no longer in school or have married since January 1965.

George Mahon Is Back At Home

Congressman George Mahon returned to the District early this week following "a rugged and hectic session of Congress which set a modern record of 883 roll call votes in the House and the passage of 86 pieces of major legislation" Mahon, who was present for all of the roll call votes, said "The impact of the legislation enacted in this Congress will be felt for generations. I opposed some of it; I supported some."

Mahon, who played a key role during the session of Congress as Chairman of the House Appropriations Committee, which provides legislation for funds for all government programs, says he feels that the country needs to pause and undertake to digest the huge amount of legislation which has been passed. "We need to avoid negative indignation, as one who has too much too fast, and I am year, with a less amount of legislation. It is going to take some time to evaluate the legislation we have passed this session. Amendment and modification will be in order."

Mahon pointed out that the ultimate success or failure of much of the legislation, including the Farm bill, will depend on how well the programs are administered by the Executive Branch.

The Congressman expressed pleasure at being home again and indicated his intention to spend as much time as possible between now and the next session of Congress out among the people of the 20-county District. His staff will be in charge of his Lubbock and Washington offices pending the reconvening of Congress in January. The Lubbock office is in the Post Office Building.

Now! '66 Chevelle Malibu by Chevrolet

'66 Chevelle Malibu Sport Coupe (foreground) and new 4-door Malibu Sport Sedan.

Two racy new hardtops

A clean-sculptured new sport coupe with recessed rear window, and—for the first time—a 4-door Chevelle Sport Sedan. Pick from 12 racy-looking new Chevilles in all for '66.

Not only will you find more variety in the '66 Chevelle lineup, but even more of what makes a Chevelle a Chevelle.

Say you pick a new Malibu Sport Sedan and specify the new 220-hp V8. You've got yourself quite a machine.

Or pick a Malibu Sport Coupe, equip it with the new Strato-bucket front seats, and order the new 275-hp V8. You've got yourself even more machine.

Or maybe you'd like to pick a new black-grilled SS 396 Coupe or Convertible. (Standard engine is a Turbo-Jet 396 V8 with 325 hp. And there's also a 360-hp version you can specify.) Now you've got yourself the most.

Which '66 Chevelle for you? The answer to that covers a lot more ground than we can here. And that's where your Chevrolet dealer comes in.

See the new '66 Chevrolet, Chevelle, Chevy II, Corvair and Corvette at your dealer's

Dress-Up Idea For Hearty Ribs And Baked Russet Potato Dinner

Tasty spare ribs and fluffy baked potatoes make an appetizing dinner that's chock full of hearty good eating and easy because it all cooks in the same oven. Add a "help yourself" assortment of toppings for the potatoes and let everyone feast. Right now is a good time to plan this menu because these popular Russet potatoes from Washington State are plentiful and you can rely on this choice variety for both finest texture and flavor. Washington growers say it's the mineral-rich lava soil which gives these all-purpose Russets their special flavor quality and meanness so you can enjoy them in all your favorite potato dishes.

EASY SPARERIB & BAKED POTATO DINNER

Spareribs	Chopped green onions or chives
Large Washington State Russets	Commercial sour cream
Crumbled, crisp bacon bits	Salt and Pepper
Grated American cheese or crumbled blue cheese

To prepare spareribs place in shallow open pan. Roast in hot oven (425°F.) 30 to 40 mins. Pour off fat. Sprinkle generously with seasoned salt. Reduce heat to 350°F. and roast uncovered 45 to 60 mins. or until fork tender. Serve hot with baked potatoes. If desired, ribs may be spread lightly with orange marmalade during last 5 mins. of baking time.

Select Washington State Russets of nearly uniform size. Wash, dry and oil. Arrange on baking sheet or oven rack. Bake from 350°F. to 425°F. depending on other oven needs. Bake 45 to 60 mins. or until fork tender. Remove from oven and pat dry to hot, hot steam. Cut 1/4 inch cross in top of each potato and press gently down bottom until snowy white potato bursts thru. Break up lightly with fork. Top with salt, pepper, butter and a tablespoon of commercial sour cream. Serve at once with help yourself toppings of crumbled, crisp bacon bits, chopped green onions or chives, grated American or crumbled blue cheese.

DEADLINE DATE FOR NROTC QUALIFYING EXAM NEARS

High School seniors and graduates have only until Nov. 19 to apply for the Navy's Reserve Officer Training Corps. Applicants will take the nationwide competitive examination as the first step toward appointment as Midshipmen.

Designed to supplement the officer output of the Naval Academy, the NROTC program makes it possible for a young man to earn a regular commission while studying at one of the 82 civilian colleges which has an NROTC unit. All tuition, fees and books are furnished by the Navy, and the student receives a subsistence allowance of $50.00 per month for not more than four years. During the summers the student goes on training cruises, and after completing a four year college course, he is commissioned in the Regular Navy or Marine Corps and goes on active duty as a career officer. He receives the same promotional opportunities, duty assignments, and benefits as Naval Academy graduates.

High school seniors 17 up to 21 years of age may apply by securing blanks at the local high school or Naval Recruiting Station or from Chief of Naval Personnel, Department of the Navy, Washington, D. C., 20370.

AS AMENDMENTS FOR STUDENTS AGE 18-22

The Social Security Amendments of 1965 make an important change in the law as it applies to students age 18 to 22, which may enable many young people a pathway to receive social security benefits while finishing their education. According to John P. Patton, District Manager of the Lubbock Social Security office, "The son or daughter of a deceased worker or retired or disabled worker may now receive child's benefits up to age 22 if he or she is unmarried and a full time student." This provision is effective January, 1966, and enables a student to receive these benefits for several months retroactively in early 1965 even if they are no longer in school or have married since January 1965.
