EATS AND ORATORY

Signalized Installation Of 24-Hour Electric Service In Albany From Baird

Geo. W. McDaniel, Staff Correspondent of the Abilene Reporter, thus graphically describes the celebration at Albany last Friday of the official installation of the twenty-four-hour-a-day electric light service for Albany, made possible by the erection of a high power line from Baird to that city by the West Texas Utilities Company, a crowd estimated at about 800 to 1,000 people, gathered in the street adjoining the new fire proof sub-station that night and were entertained with a splendid program, interspersed with music, followed with refreshments served to all those present.

The visitors from Baird were: President Manager Earl Morley, of the Baird Ice, Light & Power Company, Mrs. Morley and little Miss Bernice Morley; Misses Hilda Albin and Eliska Gilliland; Mrs. Robert Estes and Haynie Gilliland. It was a gala day for Albany, there being other visitors there from every community served by the West Texas Utilities Company, which is a branch of the American Public Service Company, with West Texas headquarters at Abilene.

About seventy-five employees of the West Texas Utilities Company, including all of the local managers and heads of departments were present and acted as hosts to the people of Albany, entertaining them in a lavishly hospitable manner. The Albanians, not to be outdone, literally threw down the bars and turned the city over to the visitors during their stay and furnished some of the numbers on the program, including a number of selections by the excellent and well trained twenty-five piece Albany Brass Band.

Besides celebrating the turning on of the twenty-four hour a-day electric service, the occasion was also the Third Quarterly Safety Meeting of the West Texas Utilities Company, and the regular meeting of the managers of the various properties and heads of departments.

The business meeting, attended by some twenty of the company's officials, was the best in the history of the organization and the reports of all properties and departments were very flattering, indicating the thorough manner in which the West Texas Utilities Company is managed. The business meeting was held in the director's room of the Albany National Bank.

Following the business meeting all employees of the company and a number of the people of Albany met in the basement of the new Christian Church and held the "safety meeting", at which all matters pertaining to hazards and the prevention of accidents were discussed.

From four to six o'clock the visiting women, including several female employees of the company and the wives of employees, were entertained at the hospitable home of Mrs. F. R. Cloud, who was assisted by several Albany ladies in entertaining the ladies. Refreshments were served.

Class Historian.

We were first in the Primary,
Then to the Grammar;
There we put down the nails,
And picked up the hammer.

We drove and we drove,
'Till we reached the High School;
Where we had more teachers
And learned more rules.

At first we were "Freshmen"
And then we were "Sophs,"
But now we are "Juniors;"
We thank you, "By Gosh!"

SOME AUTO RECOVERER

Is Sheriff George Houston Corn Who Has Returned Nine Stolen Cars To Owners

Sheriff George Houston Corn is some "stolen auto recoverer." Fifteen motor cars have been stolen at various times in the past two years from Baird and other Callahan County people. Of that number Sheriff Corn has recovered nine of the stolen machines, and arrested fourteen of the auto thieves.

His latest exploit was the recovery of the car of Assistant Cashier Ford L. Driskill, of the First Guaranty State Bank, and the arrest of three men who are alleged to have stolen the auto on the night of June 13 last, this being the second car stolen from him.

After arresting two of the alleged thieves, Frank Hennigan and Luther Lancaster at Rotan, the Sheriff brought his two prisoners to Baird and registered the pair at his big brick hotel, where they will probably remain as the county's guests until the next term of the Callahan County District Court.

Locating the stolen car in Wewauka, Oklahoma, last Friday, after a week's search, Sheriff Corn succeeded in securing Mr. Driskill's car and caused the arrest of Roy Gambell, who is alleged to have been one of the car thieves. Gambell was left in the custody of the Oklahoma authorities.

"After my man was jailed," said Sheriff Corn, "I wired Governor Neff for a requisition, intending to bring the prisoner back with me. But I received no answer to my telegram and hopped in Ford's car and came back home. The car had received pretty rough usage, but it ran all right on the trip back."

The following are the cars that have been recovered by Sheriff Corn: Ford L. Driskill's, at Wewauka, Oklahoma, three men arrested; R. L. Clinton's of Putnam, at San Angelo, two men arrested; J. B. Brown's, at Cross Plains, two men arrested; W. E. Melton's, at Abilene, no arrests; Oil Man of Cross Plains, at Fort Worth, one man arrested; C. E. Peek's, of Clyde, at San Angelo, two men arrested; Mr. Wilson's, of Cross Plains, at San Angelo, two men arrested; Ed Hampton's, of Clyde, at Houston, no arrests; Ed Nunnerly's of Baird, at San Angelo, two men arrested.

The following cars have been stolen and not yet recovered: A Ford from Dentist V. E. Hill, a Ford from F. L. Driskill a Ford from Ernest Cooke and a Ford from Ben Sigal, all of Baird; a Ford from J. H. Surles, of Putnam.

THE SEED OF DISCORD SPROUTS SAYS CHRONICLE

The Ku Klux Klan, declares the Houston Chronicle, has taught every other institution how to divide; why not the Democratic party?

No anti-Klan movement would have developed within the Democratic party if the Klan hadn't tried to run away with it.

No independent Senatorial nominee would be appearing if a series of peculiar accidents hadn't foisted a Klan endorsed candidate on the Democratic party.

We are merely beholding a big chicken come home to roost—nothing more.

Six months ago George E. B. Peddy had no idea of standing before Texas as he does today.

It is but the inexorable law of logic that he should be riding the very issue that thrust him into prominence.

Whether he enters the campaign as a Republican endorsed by Independent Democrats, or as an Independent Democrat endorsed by Republicans, is an unimportant technicality.

Everybody knows why he is put forward and what he stands for.

Everybody recognizes the kind of reaction that made an ousted President of a Sunday School Class the anti-Klan nominee for United States Senator.

His treatment was too illustrative of just where the unreasonableness of intolerance leads to be misunderstood.

The very thing he is fighting raised him up, produced him, gave him a foothold as its fitting opponent.

A young, clean, Christian man, he was ostracized and humiliated because of his political opinions; to no greater extent than thousands of others, perhaps, but in such a way as enabled people to see clearly the false ideal back of it all.

What more appropriate champion could the anti-Klan force ask? George Peddy was almost made to order for them, and that, too, by the very preachments of the Klan.

What the outcome will be, we do not pretend to know, but it will probably be sufficient to give Texas Democrats, especially Klan Democrats, something to worry about during the next two months.

More than 265,000 votes were cast for James E. Ferguson in the recent primary. How many of them will Peddy get? How many will he get who voted for Earle Mayfield, not because they were for him, but because they found it impossible to support an impeached Governor?

Besides, the Republicans have 100,000 votes, if not more.

COME! COME! COME!

We cordially invite all Methodist young people and others that want to come, to attend the Epworth League meeting at the Methodist Church, at 6:30 o'clock, Sunday night. We will receive you either as an active member or as an associate member.

We are getting some lively interest stirred up in the League and are presenting some interesting programs. Next Sunday we will have a triangle program.

BALL GAMES FOR STRIKERS'

Benefit Draw Big Crowds And Net Handsome Sums for T. & P. R. R. Shopcrafts

Since Rawleigh Ray came back from his professional tour with the San Angelo Broncs, he has pitched three games for the Baird Coyotes, and at the finish of all three the Prairie Wolves have yelped victory. He will curve the pigskin for the Baird team next Sunday at T-P Park, in a second game with Albany, the first having been played on that club's grounds last Wednesday, when, in a sharply contested game, the Coyotes reached victory by a score of 11-9.

In the first game with Moran, on the latter's grounds, on Wednesday, the 13th inst., the score was 6 to 2 in favor of the Coyotes, and Rawleigh scored 11 strikeouts.

Last Sunday Moran came over for the return game, which was played in T-P Park. The visitors were confident of winning, as they had a particularly strong lineup, but the Coyotes outplayed them at all stages of the game. With neither team having scored, two Moran batters crossed the plate in the fourth innings, but in the five innings that followed they were goose-egged.

The Coyotes scored two in their half of the fourth, two in the sixth inning and two in the seventh, making the score 6-2 in Baird's favor. Ray pitched good ball, and although Moran players got eight hits off him he struck out fourteen of them. The Coyotes were struck only four times and they get ten hits off Moran's pitcher, Diller. F. E. Conlin was the umpire and he was a crackjack.

The receipts of the game, which was for the benefit of the striking shopcrafts, made a very handsome sum. It is estimated that upwards of three hundred persons witnessed the game, the largest crowd ever gathered in T-P Park.

Next Sunday's game with Albany, will also be for the benefit of the strikers, and it promises to be a most excitingly interesting one. The battery for Baird will be the old reliable Ray brothers, and the proceeds of the game will go to the shopcrafts strike fund.

UNCLE SAM'S SAVINGS SYSTEM

Director Dinsmore W. Hume, of the Eleventh Federal Reserve District Bank of Dallas, announces that the United States Treasury Department quotes the following new prices on Treasury Certificates, effective October 1:

Denomination	Price	Profit

AGREEMENT TO END SHOPMEN'S STRIKE

Head of Owners of Millions of Dollars of Rail Securities Responsible. Credit to Warfield.

Chicago, Ill.—An agreement to end the shopmen's strike on virtually one-fourth of the country's 262 class 1 railways was voted by the shopcrafts' general conference committee of ninety. The list of roads actually involved in the negotiations was not made public when the agreement was given out and so far as known none of them had yet signed the peace pact. It was said that the strike would be continued on those roads which do not sign up, although the hope was strongly expressed that they might join in the same settlement later.

With the announcement that partial peace had been voted, came the first definite statement from S. Davies Warfield, president of the Seaboard Air Line and representative of a railroad securities company, said to control $13,000,000,000 of stock, which showed he was responsible for negotiations that finally ended in the agreement.

Under the terms of the "memorandum of agreement," as given out by the union leaders immediately after the end of the three-day meeting of the policy committee, the strikers would return to work under the present rate of pay, which is that fixed by the United States Railroad Labor Board and which became effective on July 1, the day the men walked out. This wage reduction was one of the reasons given for the strike call. In all it amounted to approximately $50,000,000 a year in wages for 300,000 men involved.

Seniority, the one great issue which arose immediately after the strike went into effect, and which blocked all earlier efforts toward peace, was not mentioned in the agreement, although it was provided that the men return to work in "position of the class" they held before the strike began. Also it was provided that disputes over the relative standing of old and new men would be referred to a board of six rail officials and an equal number of representatives of the strikers.

THE FARM BUREAU TO ENFORCE CONTRACTS

Association Must Market Cotton Of Members, Says Directors.

Dallas, Texas.—Enforcement of the five-year contract signed by members of the Texas Farm Bureau Cotton Association will be insisted upon by the association, and all violators will face civil court action, according to a decision reached by the board of directors at the State headquarters in Dallas. Milton Chapiro, counsel for the association, will arrive in Dallas soon to take up cases, John T. Orr, president, said.

The association recently filed more than a dozen suits in North and Central Texas against members who were alleged to have broken their membership contracts by selling cotton on the street, and not letting the association handle it, and a number of injunctions were obtained, restraining contract members from disposing of their cotton except through the association.

Contracts specify that the member must market all of his cotton produced in the five years following signing of the contract through the association, Mr. Orr said.

"The future of the cotton association is at stake on this issue," Mr. Orr said. "The contracts must be enforced. It is only by virtue of the fact that the association has a legal claim on the cotton of its members that we obtained the $9,000,000 credit with the War Finance Corporation. Co-operative marketing depends on a binding contract."

The Texas association has a membership of more than 20,000 cotton growers. All of them signed the five-year contract, on becoming members, Mr. Orr said. The organization last year marketed cotton above the average price received by non-association growers and returned the farmer a net profit above that received by those who sold their cotton on the street, he declared.

FIRE RAGING IN SMYRNA, GREECE

Loss of Life Not Computed—City Contains 300,000 Refugees Besides Population.

Washington.—A fire, threatening to wipe out the entire city, is raging in Smyrna, Greece, according to a cablegram from Admiral Bristol, American High Commissioner at Constantinople.

The American Consulate has been burned to the ground, the European section of the city is practically demolished, and the city is filled with at least 300,000 refugees, fleeing from the onrushing Kemalist troops, the dispatch said.

Bristol's message to the State Department was a transcript of a wireless received from Captain Hepburn, chief of staff of the American fleet anchored off Smyrna.

All native Americans are accounted for, Bristol stated, but fourteen naturalized Americans are missing.

The fire started about 1 o'clock Wednesday afternoon in the Armenian quarter. While no cause of the blaze has been assigned, the fact that the Armenians are Christians and that the Turks have in the past massacred great numbers of Armenians officials here believe the fire may have been of Turkish incendiary origin.

The American Destroyer Simpson, one of the fleet dispatched to Smyrna waters when the Greco-Turkish hostilities became serious, sailed for Athens Thursday morning with a cargo of Americans.

All the men of war in the harbor—American, British and French—are loaded with refugees. The American destroyer Edsall sailed for Salonika Thursday morning with 600 refugees aboard.

Another destroyer, not named in the dispatches, sailed Thursday for Athens with 400 employes and officials of American and other relief organizations formerly stationed at Smyrna and driven from the city by the flames.

Loss of life has not yet been computed, for the fire, at a late hour Thursday, was still beyond control. The property loss is estimated in millions.

THE BONUS MEASURE GOES TO SENATE

Tariff Bill Out of Conference And House May Dispose Of It At Early Date.

Washington.—The tariff bill is out of conference again and sufficiently remodeled to make its final disposal by the House reasonably certain. Adoption of the bonus conference report by the House together with active efforts by the Senate in "mopping up" its legislative program, reflected the sentiment of both chambers that adjournment is in sight and that they want to keep it there.

Reconsideration of the tariff conference report by the House was made possible by a motion directing the conferees to make their report immediately. This has been accomplished. The dye embargo clause is stricken out, and potash has been placed on the free list. A series of compromise rates on intermediate rates on dyestuffs and finished products, based on the American valuation plan, has been substituted for the dye embargo, which was the provision that brought about the motion to recommit.

Chairman McCumber said he had assurances from the minority conferees that the House would accept the conference report. In fact, he forecast that the House would finish the tariff early enough to permit of its consideration by the Senate at once.

Once the tariff is out of the way, the House will consider the winnow-Cummins coal distribution bill report.

Neff To Visit Denison.

Austin, Texas.—It is said in Austin that Governor Neff intends making a personal visit to Denison within the near future and interview local officers there "with the possibility of removing some unless proper assurances are given of law enforcement."

Soviet Sends Note of Protest.

Moscow.—A note of protest against the allied action in Constantinople has been sent to Great Britain by the Soviet Government, which takes the stand the allies have acted entirely according to their own wishes and against the interests of Russia, Turkey, Ukraine and Georgia. The Soviet expresses sympathy for the Turks' struggle for independence and asserts responsibility for the Turco-Greek war rests on the European powers.

WHY AND HOW TO CULTIVATE SOIL

Of Much Importance That Roots of Various Plants Be Given Supply of Air.

MAKE PLANT FOOD AVAILABLE

Many Persons Make Mistake of Working Too Deeply and Cut Off Feeding Rootlets—Steel Rake Is Useful Tool.

Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.

Most people have an idea that gardens are cultivated solely for the purpose of killing weeds. As a matter of fact, the killing of weeds is just one object of garden cultivation, says the United States Department of Agriculture. The roots of plants require air just the same as do the tops, and if the ground is packed or hard or is sunbaked over the surface after a beating rain, the roots cannot get air, and for that reason the plants will suffer if not cultivated. The same thing is true where the land is poorly drained and waterlogged. The water keeps out the air and the roots cannot feed the plants.

Cultivation has another object, in that it breaks up the soil particles and makes plant food available for the feeding rootlets of the plants. Many persons, however, make the mistake of cultivating too deeply, and by so doing cut off or injure the feeding rootlets and deprive the plant of its source of nourishment and support. Frequent shallow cultivation during dry weather results in the formation of a layer of fine dust which serves as a mulch or blanket to retain moisture.

Cultivating After Rains.

The soil should always be cultivated just as soon as it is sufficiently dry to be safely worked after heavy rains. If it is not cultivated, a crust forms, the surface bakes, and the crops are injured. The same will apply where irrigation is used, and it has been found best to give the soil a thorough soaking, then cultivate as soon as it is dry enough, and apply no more water until absolutely necessary.

The hoe and the steel rake are the most important tools for cultivating the small garden. On a larger scale a wheel hoe or a horse cultivator may be used to advantage. The wheel-hoe outfits are provided with a number of different attachments adapted for the different types of work to be performed. These implements have the advantage that one can go over the garden very rapidly and break up the surface of the soil in a comparatively short time. It is generally necessary, however, to follow with the hoe and the fingers to remove any weeds that have not been destroyed by the wheel cultivator. Even where horse-drawn tools are occasionally used, the greater part of the work, especially during dry weather, may be performed by means of a common steel rake. It is not necessary to go very deeply into the soil, but merely to stir the surface.

A Tool That Helps.

A handy little tool for loosening the soil can be made from a piece of thin board 2 inches wide and 14 inches long, with one end whittled down to form a handle and the opposite end provided with three No. 6 or No. 7 wire nails. This little home-made implement can be used very soon after a rain to loosen the surface, so that any small seeds can break through.

It should be borne in mind that the time to kill weeds is when they are just coming through the ground. If allowed to become established, it is much more difficult to get rid of them than if they are taken in time. If the top 2 inches of soil is kept continuously and thoroughly loosened, there will be no serious difficulty in keeping out weeds.

A duty that should not be put off.

A duty sometimes long deferred is the selection of a fitting memorial for a loved one

AS IT usually requires quite a little time to select, carve and erect a suitable monument, this most important matter should be given first attention.

Care should be exercised, however, in securing a material possessing not only beauty, but ability to retain for all time its original beauty, as the appearance of this monument a score or more years from now is of as much importance as its appearance today.

"Slimy Taste"

"When I feel stupid, get constipated, or bilious, I take a good dose or two of Black-Draught and it sets me straight," writes Mr. George B. Haislep, of R. F. D. 2, Columbia, S. C. and the good medicine it was, I had been having a tired feeling when I'd get up in the morning. I would be stiff and sore, and had a slimy, bad taste in my mouth, but didn't think so much of it till I began to feel stupid and didn't feel like eating—then I knew I needed medicine. It was then I began Black-Draught, and I felt all made over, ready for any kind of work, ready to eat and sleep. So, for any return of this trouble, I take Black-Draught, and for 25 years it has been my medicine, and I wouldn't be without it at all. My work is constant. I am on my feet a lot. I am out of doors, and fresh air and Black-Draught are all the medicines I need. I recommend it to others for I know it is good."

Making 20 Years of Racing Serve Car Owners Today

IN the early days of automobile contests, Barney Oldfield—out to win every race—studied tires. His consistent success led other drivers to ask for tires constructed to his specifications.

Twenty years of road and track victories—with a steady and increasing demand for tires as he built them—convinced Barney Oldfield that these speed tests pointed the way to a better tire for everyday use.

The enthusiastic reception of Oldfield Cords by the public proved he was right. Scores of the most prominent dealers in the country—and many thousands of car owners, experienced in the use of tires—bear witness by their decided preference that Oldfield is doing a bigger and better job of tire making.

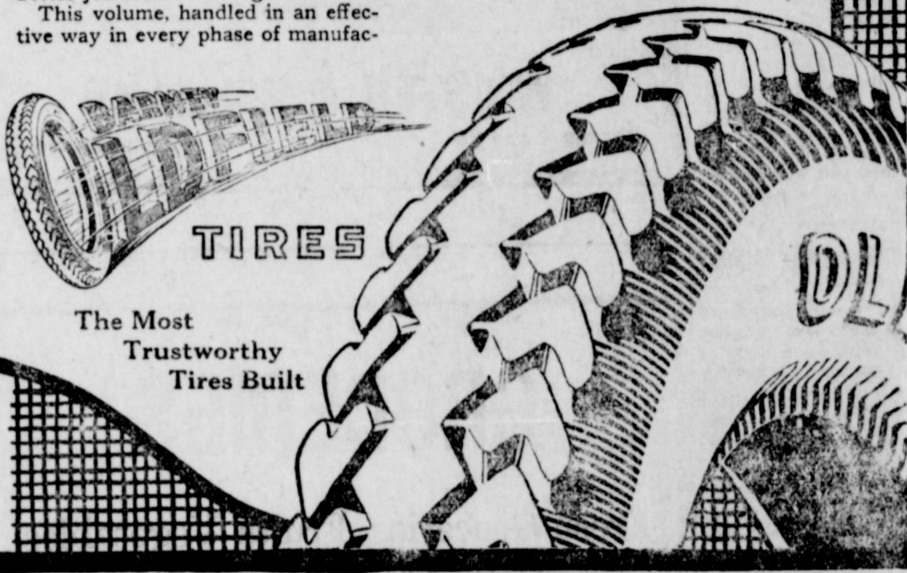

This volume, handled in an effective way in every phase of manufacture and distribution, has resulted in price quotations far below what you'd expect on tires known to be better built and more enduring.

Practically every important race event for three years has been won on Oldfields. The Wichita Test Run in which an entire set of Oldfield Cords covered 34,525 miles on rough roads proves the mettle of the Most Trustworthy Tires Built in everyday driving.

The Master Driver and Tire Builder has given the public a new standard of tire wear and tire cost—a true economy that every car owner should know about.

NO OPERATION ON MRS. HARDING AT PRESENT

Immediate Surgical Relief Averted As Kidneys Begin to Function. Crisis Not Yet Over.

Washington.—Immediate surgical relief for Mrs. Harding has been averted, according to her physicians, and the danger of absolute stoppage of the kidneys apparently has been eliminated.

"Mrs. Harding's condition has improved to the point," Dr. C. E. Sawyer, the family physician, announced, "where we do not feel we could consistently further endanger her by a surgical operation at the present time."

Dr. Mayo, however, will remain in Washington, at least until Tuesday, when a further consultation will determine whether he returns immediately thereafter to Rochester, Minn. But the crisis, it was emphasized, has not yet passed.

The change noted in the condition of the Nation's first lady was such as to greatly relax the tension prevailing about the White House over Sunday, and near despair was given way to a distinct hope for her recovery.

Perhaps no greater evidence of this change was shown than in the faces and manner of the attending physicians when they left the executive mansion in a group Monday afternoon and posed for photographers.

BRITISH FLEET TO BLOCK THE TRUKS

MOVEMENT OF KEMALIST SOLDIERS ACROSS STRAITS WILL BE PREVENTED

THE CABINET TAKES ACTION

England, France and Italy Will Oppose Violation of the Neutral Zone.

London.—Great Britain has intervened to block the threatened attempt of the Turks to regain Constantinople and re-establish their empire in Europe.

The Cabinet ordered the Mediterranean fleet to take whatever steps are necessary to prevent the Kemalists troops from concentrating and moving across the straits to the European side, where they could menace the city.

Five seaplanes and thirty flying officers are being sent from Malta for reconnoitering work.

The Cabinet's action was taken following a long session at which the whole Near Eastern situation and its countless complications were being thoroughly discussed. It followed closely upon dispatches quoting Mustafa Kemal as declaring that he intended to take Constantinople even if it meant fighting Great Britain. Reinforcements are being rushed by other nations as well as Britain.

The Cabinet also decided that a joint note should be drawn up with France and Italy, if those Nations are agreeable, notifying Kemal that they will not tolerate any violation of the neutral zone.

Meantime, the Cabinet proposed that all allied warships in the vicinity of the Dardanelles should be instructed to prevent any attempt by the Turks to cross the Straits or even to mobilize transports for such a crossing.

The main ships of the British Mediterranean fleet, including the Iron Duke, the Diligence and the Trinidad, have left Smyrna and are concentrating at Chanak on the entrance to the Dardanelles, opposite Gallipoli, indicating that the allies have learned of possible Kemal plans to cross the Straits there.

There is complete accord between Great Britain and France regarding steps to preserve the neutrality of the demilitarized zone around the Straits.

The British Cabinet is seeking measures that might avert a catastrophe. Some form of emergency action is anticipated. The French note just received may provide a solution, and it is understood to offer a basis for Anglo-French co-operation in dealing with the Turks.

PLAN REDUCTION OF THE ARMY AND NAVY BUDGETS

1913 Basis for European Nations is Sought By Disarmament Body.

Geneva.—The political committee of the League of Nations assembly voted unanimously to admit Hungary to membership in the league.

European nations would be asked to reduce their military and naval budgets to the basis of 1913 under the disarmament plan adopted by the disarmament commission of the League of Nations.

Only nations like Belgium, whose status was entirely changed by the war, and Greece and Spain, who are actually engaged in hostilities at present, are excepted from the plan, which was sponsored by France.

Brazil's withdrawal from the plan to extend the Washington naval limitations treaty to all nations is viewed as a serious check to this feature of the league's plans. A complete world-wide extension of the Washington agreement had been counted on by the league as the quickest means to general naval disarmament. But all efforts to compromise failed to move Brazil, and the commission was obliged to adjourn discussion of naval disarmament.

Allies Must Leave if Turks Advance.

London.—The allies must leave Constantinople at the first sign of a Turkish advance or be prepared to have a holy war on their hands, in the opinion of Sir Charles Townsend, who was the British General in command in the Near East for a time during the World War. "The allies must clear out of Constantinople," General Townsend said. "The first sign of a Kemal advance on the capital will bring all Islam under the Turkish flag and the result would be a holy war, which neither Great Britain nor France cares to face."

The Bonus bill passed congress but was vetoed by the President. This killed the bill as congress failed to pass it over the President's veto.

The T. & P. and shop employes are in conference and news may come at any moment that the strike is ended. We hope the strike ends speedily.

Suppose the United States had entered the League of Nations? Our country today would no doubt be mobilizing its fleet and calling for volunteers to enter the war against the Turks, as England is doing. We are out of it, and for one, we are glad of it.

One hundred thousand people are starving to death in Asia Minor. In the fall of Smyrna it is said that one hundred and fifty thousand people were murdered. This is probably an exaggeration, but no doubt untold misery, rapine and slaughter went with the Turkish army, as it always does when the Turks win.

Anyway, the fun did not all end this year with the primary nominations, as it usually does in Texas. The nomination of Captain George E. B. Petty by the Independents and his endorsement by the Republicans as a candidate for the Senate against Earle Mayfield, will bring out a full vote in November.

Both candidates for the Senate are members of the Methodist Church. Mayfield is a steward in the Methodist Church at Austin and Petty was President of the Men's Bible Class of the First Methodist Church at Houston, but was forced to resign because he supported Ferguson. He is a man clean in character, a lawyer by profession and was a captain in the 90th Division, but we will wager that he will be denounced by some preachers and laymen as a man unworthy of support. Texas politics has become so dirty and intolerant that, for one, we have had enough and will retire after we have complied with our party pledge at the general election.

Earle Mayfield was sure that Lindsey would be nominated against him that he had started against the New Yorker, but they fooled Earle one time by selecting the most dangerous man, politically, for him in the whole field, George E. B. Petty, a Christian gentleman and a prohibitionist who practices what he preaches.

We doubt if any candidate selected now could defeat Mayfield, but Petty will come nearer doing it than any man that could have been named. Anyway, they will make Earle hustle, and it is not so certain either that he will have a walkover, as he seems to think. The party lash has lost its terrors for most Democrats in Texas, and a few more campaigns like this one and a few more hidebound, intolerant conventions like the San Antonio Convention, will give the party what it has needed for years—a strong, active competition.

We do not want to see the party defeated, but if the majority was reduced to less than five thousand in November, it would be good for the party and good for the State.

Earle Mayfield is boosted as a 100 per cent American. When war was declared against Germany, Mr. Mayfield was 35 years old, in good health and with no physical complaints and holding the position he now holds as Railroad Commissioner, at a salary as large, if not larger, than the Governor of this State. Did he resign and enter the army? No! He continued to draw his salary into this day.

George E. B. Petty, nominated as Mr. Mayfield's opponent, was 25 years old and a student at the State University. While in the University his friends elected him to the Legislature. When the Government called for men to enter the officer's training camp, George Petty was among the first to enroll his name at Leon Springs. At this school he was given a commission as captain, resigned his seat in the Legislature and sailed for France in June, 1918, with the famous 90th Division and wound up on the Rhine, in Germany, after the war.

Here you have a short sketch of the two men who want to go to the U. S. Senate. As the late lamented "Mary Jane" Cox would say: "Without any reference to any illusions!" which do you consider the nearest 100 per cent American?

B. Y. P. U. PROGRAM NEXT SUNDAY

The B. Y. P. U. of the Baird Baptist Church met last Sunday evening at the usual hour, 6:30, in special session, with members of both the Senior and Intermediate Unions present, for the purpose of organizing and perfecting plans for another year's work.

Quite a lot of enthusiasm was evidenced in the talks that were made, and everyone present felt that this meeting was only the beginning of a long series of interesting and instructive programs, which will mean much in training young people to spiritual leadership.

A committee was appointed to prepare a program for the meeting at 6:30 p. m., Sunday, September 24th. At this time officers will be elected for the ensuing year, and it is particularly urged that every Baptist young person be present at this meeting. All other young people of the town, who are not affiliated with some other young peoples' organization, are cordially invited to attend. The following program will be rendered:

pronounced the most interesting in the history of the company, was conducted by P. W. Campbell, manager of the Cisco properties. Following are the subjects discussed and the speakers on the program:

High Line Switching and Patrol, Price Campbell, General Superintendent of West Texas Properties, G. W. Porter of Tuscola and W. S. Huss, Power Plant Chief, Fire Hazards, W. E. Huss and P. W. Campbell; Gas Fires, N. G. Robinson, of Abilene; Use of Dummy Fuses, Joe White of Abilene; Automobile Accidents, P. P. Shepard, Manager of Stamford Properties; Radio Hazards, Earl Morley, Manager of Baird Properties, Price Campbell of Abilene and D. O. Murphy of Chicago; Common Accidents in Pole Line Construction, Fred Majors of Abilene and G. W. Fry of Abilene, President of the West Texas Utilities Company; Prone Pressure Method of Resuscitation, J. W. Oliver of Abilene and D. O. Murphy; First Aid Kits, M. L. Cope of Anson and Mit Adams of Stamford; Reporting Accidents, P. W. Campbell of Cisco; Accidents Subsequent to Ice Delivery, Taylor Rowe Manager of the Ice Department of Abilene and O. J. Russell of Cisco; Public Relations, George Scales Manager of Haskell Properties and George W. Fry; General Remarks, Harold Austin General Secretary of the Safety Bureau.

Among the properties represented at the meeting were Abilene, Cisco, Stamford, Hamlin, Anson, Merkel, Baird, Haskell, Tuscola and Albany.

Complimentary to all visitors, an appetizing supper consisting of hot hamburgers, ham sandwiches, soda pop and Schlitz, was served by the Albany Branch of the West Texas Utilities Company, under the supervision of Local Manager E. E. Galloway, of the Albany station.

The feature attraction of the occasion was the turning on of the electric juice. The high power line to Albany and the new fireproof substation and office were erected at an approximate cost of $75,000 and the people of Albany now enjoy the same electrical service as the people in the largest cities in the United States.

The electric current was turned on in Albany for the first time August 30th and there are now one hundred and twenty business houses and residences tied on to the line. P. W. Campbell of Cisco acted as master of ceremonies. The speakers were Dempster O'Flannigan Murphy of Chicago, Editor R. D. McCarty of the Albany News and the Moran News and Judge R. D. Dyess of Albany, and the efforts of these eloquent spellbinders made the occasion a sure enough "feast of reason and flow of soul."

Other features of the program were a vocal quartet by E. F. Long, Glen Gooch, the Rev. J. A. Owen and Milburn Fincher; a reading, "Granny's Laddie," by Miss Mary Long, and several selections by the Albany Band.

Following the program every person present, including those in the cars, were served with individual brique ice cream, of which delectable there was sufficient to give all the kiddies a second helping. The cream was followed by a helping of delicious punch, the punch being served in individual paper containers.

Appropos of the tying on of the Albany unit to the high power line, President Manager Earl Morley, of the Baird Light, Power & Ice Company informs The Star that the Baird transmission station in the northeast part of town has been entirely rebuilt, and its rehabilitation was responsible for annoying shakings off of the current at intervals.

Anyway, they will make Earle hustle, and it is not so certain either that he will have a walkover, as he seems to think. The party lash has lost its terrors for most Democrats in Texas, and a few more campaigns like this one and a few more hidebound, intolerant conventions like the San Antonio Convention, will give the party what it has needed for years—a strong, active competition.

We do not want to see the party defeated, but if the majority was reduced to less than five thousand in November, it would be good for the party and good for the State.

Earle Mayfield is hoisted as a 100 per cent American. When war was declared against Germany, Mr. Mayfield was 35 years old, in good health and with no physical complaints and holding the position he now holds as Railroad Commissioner, at a salary as large, if not larger, than the Governor of this State. Did he resign and enter the army? No! He continued to draw his salary unto this day.

George E. B. Petty, nominated as Mr. Mayfield's opponent, was 25 years old and a student at the State University. While in the University his friends elected him to the Legislature. When the Government called for men to enter the officer's training camp, George Petty was among the first to enroll his name at Leon Springs. At this school he was given a commission as captain, resigned his seat in the Legislature and sailed for France in June, 1918, with the famous 90th Division and wound up on the Rhine, in Germany, after the war.

Here you have a short sketch of the two men who want to go to the U. S. Senate. As the late lamented "Mary Jane" Cox would say: "Without any reference to any illusions!" which do you consider the nearest 100 per cent American?

Capt. F. B. Ebbert, associate general counsel of the Anti Saloon League of America, will speak on "The Unfinished Battle," at the Baird Tabernacle, Tuesday, September 26, at 8 p. m. "All are welcome," but "red blooded American citizens—both men and women—are invited." The admission is free.

The B. Y. P. U. of the Baird Baptist Church met last Sunday evening at the usual hour, 6:30, in special session, with members of both the Senior and Intermediate Unions present, for the purpose of organizing and perfecting plans for another year's work.

Quite a lot of enthusiasm was evidenced in the talks that were made, and everyone present felt that this meeting was only the beginning of a long series of interesting and instructive programs, which will mean much in training young people to spiritual leadership.

A committee was appointed to prepare a program for the meeting at 6:30 p. m., Sunday, September 24th. At this time officers will be elected for the ensuing year, and it is particularly urged that every Baptist young person be present at this meeting. All other young people of the town, who are not affiliated with some other young peoples' organization, are cordially invited to attend. The following program will be rendered:

pronounced the most interesting in the history of the company, was conducted by P. W. Campbell, manager of the Cisco properties. Following are the subjects discussed and the speakers on the program:

High Line Switching and Patrol, Price Campbell, General Superintendent of West Texas Properties, G. W. Porter of Tuscola and W. S. Huss, Power Plant Chief; Fire Hazards, W. E. Huss and P. W. Campbell; Gas Fires, N. G. Robinson, of Abilene; Use of Dummy Fuses, Joe White of Abilene; Automobile Accidents, P. P. Shepard, Manager of Stamford Properties; Radio Hazards, Earl Morley, Manager of Baird Properties, Price Campbell of Abilene and D. O. Murphy of Chicago; Common Accidents in Pole Line Construction, Fred Majors of Abilene and G. W. Fry of Abilene, President of the West Texas Utilities Company; Prone Pressure Method of Resuscitation, J. W. Oliver of Abilene and D. O. Murphy; First Aid Kits, M. L. Cope of Anson and Mit Adams of Stamford; Reporting Accidents, P. W. Campbell of Cisco; Accidents Subsequent to Ice Delivery, Taylor Rowe Manager of the Ice Department of Abilene and O. J. Russell of Cisco; Public Relations, George Scales Manager of Haskell Properties and George W. Fry; General Remarks, Harold Austin General Secretary of the Safety Bureau.

Among the properties represented at the meeting were Abilene, Cisco, Stamford, Hamlin, Anson, Merkel, Baird, Haskell, Tuscola and Albany.

Complimentary to all visitors, an appetizing supper consisting of hot hamburgers, ham sandwiches, soda pop and Schlitz, was served by the Albany Branch of the West Texas Utilities Company, under the supervision of Local Manager E. E. Galloway, of the Albany station.

The feature attraction of the occasion was the turning on of the electric juice. The high power line to Albany and the new fireproof substation and office were erected at an approximate cost of $75,000 and the people of Albany now enjoy the same electrical service as the people in the largest cities in the United States.

The electric current was turned on in Albany for the first time August 30th and there are now one hundred and twenty business houses and residences tied on to the line. P. W. Campbell of Cisco acted as master of ceremonies. The speakers were Dempster O'Flannigan Murphy of Chicago, Editor R. H. McCarty of the Albany News and the Moran News and Judge R. D. Dyess of Albany, and the efforts of these eloquent spellbinders made the occasion a sure enough "feast of reason and flow of soul."

Other features of the program were a vocal quartet by E. F. Long, Glen Gooch, the Rev. J. A. Owen and Milburn Fincher; a reading, "Granny's Laddie," by Miss Mary Long, and several selections by the Albany Band.

Following the program every person present, including those in the cars, were served with individual brique ice cream, of which delectable there was sufficient to give all the kiddies a second helping. The cream was followed by a helping of delicious punch, the punch being served in individual paper containers.

Appropos of the tying on of the Albany unit to the high power line, President Manager Earl Morley, of the Baird Light, Power & Ice Company informs The Star that the Baird transmission station in the northeast part of town has been entirely rebuilt, and its rehabilitation was responsible for annoying shuttings off of the current at intervals.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION

The State of Texas
To the Sheriff or any Constable of Callahan County;—Greeting:

You are Hereby Commanded to summon F. D. Maddox by making publication of this Citation once in each week for four successive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your County, to appear at the next regular term of the County Court of Callahan County, to be holden at the Court House thereof, in Baird, on the 1st Monday in October, A. D. 1922, the same being the 2nd day of October A. D. 1922, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 8th day of July A. D. 1922, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said Court No. 539, wherein The First National Bank of Baird is Plaintiff, and F. D. Maddox is Defendant, and said petition alleging that heretofore to wit; On the 8th day of July 1921 the defendant made executed and delivered to J. U. Johnson his certain promissory note for the sum of Two Hundred and Seventy-five and 83-100 Dollars, bearing date on the day and year aforesaid, payable to the order of said J. U. Johnson, and due four months after the said date thereof, bearing interest at the rate of ten per cent per annum from date until paid and providing for 20 per cent additional on the amount of principal and interest then due as attorney's fees if not paid at maturity, whereby defendant became liable and promised to pay said J. U. Johnson the sum of money in said note specified together with all interest and attorney's fees due thereon according to the tenor and effect thereof, that thereafter said J. U. Johnson indorsed and delivered said note to plaintiff and plaintiff is now the legal owner and holder of said note, that the said note is now past due and unpaid, and defendant though often requested has hitherto failed and refused to pay the same or any part thereof, to plaintiffs damage in the sum of Nine Hundred Dollars. That afterwards to wit: On the 8th day of July 1921 defendant, to secure the payment of said note, made executed and delivered to the said J. U. Johnson a Chattel Mortgage on the following described personal property to wit: One Black Horse Mule, 9 years old, 15 hands high, no brand; One Bay Horse mule 9 years old, 15 hands high, no brand. "Mudder, I always wins the race when I carry home Kellogg's Corn Flakes. I can't hardly wait till I have some quick, mudder!"

It's great to see child-enthusiasm for Kellogg's; great to see every one in the family enjoy their crisp crunchiness and wonderful flavor! To sit down before a heaping bowlful of these joyous oven-browned "sweet-hearts-of-the-corn" and some milk or cream—and fresh fruit, if it's handy—is just about the very last word in appetizing appeal! And, your good taste will prove that!

Kellogg's Corn Flakes ought to be superior—they are the original Corn Flakes! Kellogg's are never tough or leathery; never hard to eat; never a disappointment!

Be certain to get Kellogg's—the delicious kind of Corn Flakes in the RED and GREEN package—because none are genuine without the signature of W. K. Kellogg, the originator of Toasted Corn Flakes.

METHODISTS URGED TO PAY TITHES TO CHURCH

An appeal to all Methodists to donate a tenth of their income to meet the crisis caused by the forces which were declared to threaten civilization, is made by the Board of Bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church, North, in an open letter to the ministry and membership, issued August 26.

The funds, it is explained, would be used by the Methodist centenary movement. The appeal says the demand is urgent and that "the destiny of the world hinges upon Christianity. The destiny of Christianity hinges largely upon Protestantism. The destiny of Protestantism will be largely influence by Methodism's failure or success at this time."

The letter, which is signed by Bishops J. F. Berry, of Philadelphia; W. F. McDowell, of Washington, D. C.; F. M. Bristol, Chattanooga, Tennessee; C. E. Locke, Manila, Philippine Islands, and W. F. Anderson, reads in part as follows:

"Our world is summoned to meet the issue of its moral destiny. The crisis this hour transcends immeasurably the military crisis of the period of the war. Then men feared those who had power to kill the body; now men stand awed and fearsome in the presence of forces which threaten to cast civilization body and soul, into hell.

"Humanity must make a new start. This time it must build upon the divine principles of justice and good will. It was a vision glorious. The church caught it and accepted the challenge, with what seemed a divine passion.

"Just as the movement had attracted the attention of the world, alas! the church cooled in its ardor and slackened in its enthusiasm. Now it is even suggested that the word 'centenary' is distasteful. Much has been made of the mistakes in policy and procedure; but men of experience know that mistakes always mark momentous movements. It has declared that the frequent appeals for funds has produced irritation in many quarters.

"Surely it would not be unreasonable in this hour of the extreme peril of our Lord's kingdom throughout the world to ask that the members of the Methodist Episcopal Church should meet the crisis by the gift of one-tenth of their income."

CONGRESSIONAL CONVENTION
STRONGLY ENDORSES BLANTON

The Seventeenth District Congressional Nominating Convention, which met at Abilene Saturday, the 2nd instant, after canvassing the vote and re electing Judge Fred Cockrell, of Abilene, chairman for the ensuing two years and E. N. Kirby, also of Abilene, secretary, adopted the following resolutions:

Whereas, Congressman Thomas L. Blanton defeated four opponents in the recent July primary by a plurality of 14,448 votes and also defeated Oscar Calloway in the late run-off election by a majority of 12,620 votes, each time carrying 18 out of the 19 counties in his district; and

Whereas, among the people who know him best and where he practiced law and served eight years on the district bench, his old home county of Shackelford gave Blanton 638 votes and Calloway only 205 votes, and his home county of Taylor gave Blanton a majority of 1,850 votes, carrying every voting precinct of both counties and the Rock Hill box by unanimous vote; while Congressman John N. Garner, who made an unjust attack upon him in Congress, lost his home county of Uvalde by the vote of 760 for Garner and 1,123 for his opponent Briscoe, and Garner losing 12 out of the voting precincts in his home county of Uvalde; and

Whereas, the Democrats of his district have again endorsed Congressman Blanton and his work in Congress and have thus fully vindicated him, not only upon the unjust attempt of Leader Mondell to expel, but also upon the unjust attempt made in and out of Congress to discredit him and his work; therefore, be it

Resolved, by the Democrats of the 17th Congressional District of Texas, in convention assembled:

First, That Congressman Blanton should be commended rather than censured for the earnest efforts he made to clean up the Government Printing Office and to stop waste and extravagance and graft.

Second, That posted citizens who read the Daily Congressional Record, know that the attacks made upon him in and out of Congress were not deserved, but were unjustly made in a jealous attempt to discredit him; and Third, That Congressman Blanton has ever proven himself to be the true friend of the masses, and has the confidence, esteem and commendation of the great majority of his opponents, who, with other good citizens throughout Texas and the Nation, will continue to stand behind him in his efforts to improve existing conditions.

This preamble and these resolutions were unanimously adopted.

DON'T DO IT

Are you depending upon your children to support you in your old age?

Don't do it. You may have the kindest, most loving and thoughtful children in the world, but by the time you get old they may be so full of anxieties and so burdened with young children and a sick wife or husband to support, that it would be a physical impossibility to help you.

True, children should not let their parents suffer for anything within their power to provide, but, while there may be a desire on the part of the child to provide for the parents, it may not be possible under certain circumstances.

It is poor policy for you to get into the mental attitude which feels and says: "I took care of my children when they were helpless and could not provide a living for themselves, and now they must provide for me, when I can not earn my own living any longer."

Another thing, do not turn over all your property and all your money to your children should you go to live with them—they should not ask it.

If you can afford to do so, pay your own board and lodging, and let it be known that your money will go to those who deserve it.—Houston Chronicle.

SOY BEANS FIT IN ROTATION

Take Place of Oats and Are More Profitable as Cash Crop—Of Benefit to Soil.

Soy beans fit perfectly in rotation in the place of oats, making a four year rotation corn, soy beans, wheat, clover, they being more profitable than oats as a cash crop, and leaving the soil in much better shape, both as to mechanical condition and fertility, as little or no preparation for wheat is needed on land from which a crop of well cultivated soys has been mowed.

Uncle Sam Will Get $270,000,000.

Washington.—Revenues receivable by the Government as the third installment of 1922 income and profits taxes will amount to about $270,000,000, it was estimated by the Treasury. Receipts from this source in March aggregated $393,000,000 and in June $295,000,000, while the collection for Dec. 15 are expected to reach $250,000,000, making the total revenues from income and profits taxes for 1922 about $1,195,000,000.

Ford To Close Detroit Plant.

Detroit.—Henry Ford is taking steps to close his Detroit automobile plants beginning at once, thereby throwing upward of 100,000 workmen in the Detroit district out of employment for an indefinite period. He asked officials of the Detroit Street Railway to rearrange its schedules to care for the night forces at his various factories, who will be dismissed at 11 o'clock, it was announced.

Grasshoppers Destroy Cotton Patch.

Paris, Texas.—J. W. Baxter, a farmer northwest of Paris in the Caviness community, declares that he had a patch of a few acres of cotton in Sanders Creek bottom that was ruined by grasshoppers. They appeared in it when it began to bloom and ate the blooms. They didn't attack any part of the plant except the blooms, according to Mr. Baxter, and were worse than boll weevils, he said.

Demand for Impeachment of Attorney General Daugherty for "high crimes and misdemeanors" was made in the House by Representative Keller (Rep.), Minnesota, who sought immediate action on a resolution for an investigation. By an overwhelming vote the House, however, referred the question to the judiciary committee, disposing of it finally.

General John J. Pershing celebrated his sixty-second birthday quietly. Four years ago when he was 58 it was not spent so quietly. The American Army had just pushed the Germans out of the St. Mihiel salient, recovering a stretch of ground, capturing thousands of Germans—all without serious loss to the Americans.

Airplane dusting as a means of control for cotton leaf worms is being given a thorough test by the United States Department of Agriculture, in co-operation with the War Department, which is loaning planes and pilots for experimentation. The work is going on at the Delta Laboratory of the Bureau of Entomology at Tallahassee, La., under the direction of E. R. Coad.

during the past few months. In this connection he said:

"Our customers have filed a great many complaints about 'breaks' in the service. Like Section Foreman Finnegan's famous train, the current was frequently 'off again! on again! gone again!' for several weeks. These intermittent breaks were the result of simple 'safety first' precautions on the part of our employees to guard against accidents that might result in swift and sudden death.

"Hereafter, unless a sudden and cataclysmic catastrophe occurs, there will be no interruptions in the steady, 24-hour flow of current

"This current," he continued, "comes from Abilene to the transmission station of a 33,000 volt power. At the sub-station this high power current is reduced to 2,300 volts for Baird and 13,000 volts are transmitted out of the sub-station to Clyde, Moran and Albany.

"The rehabilitation of the Baird sub-station cost the company upwards of $12,000. Three solid aluminum wires, connected with three solid copper 'busses,' make the plant one of the most down-to-now sub-stations in Texas. Employees at the station are protected by the best type of lightning arresters known.

"The tower is built of quarter-inch galvanized iron and is sunk to a depth of 21 feet in three wells, to insure perfect 'grounding' of the death-dealing current, and is the best lightning arrester yet devised.

"The wooden fence surrounding the sub-station will be removed and replaced by a modern steel 'protection fence,' which is so constructed that it can't be climbed.

"Interruptions in the flow of the 24-hour current, during the rebuilding of the sub-station, were necessary precautionary measures to safeguard the lives of the workmen. It would have been criminal on the part of the company to have done otherwise. To permit workmen to labor in that network of death where the slightest contact with a 33,000 voltage electric current would shrivel a human body into nothingness instantaneously, would be murder, pure and simple.

"Three blocks from the sub-station, on each side, are disconnecting switches on high poles, so that in case anything goes wrong at the power house in Abilene, we can cut off that current instantly and switch on the current from Cisco, which will supply both Baird and Clyde with light and power. So, as I said before, but for some unforeseen and highly improbable happening, Baird people will hereafter be supplied with a steady 24-hour current."
