NUMBER 28

Best Increasing In Railroad Activities; Prospects Are Good For Line Through O'Donnell

news seems to be breaking the past ten days and at the same time seems to be a move on the part of more than one line on the plains.

Kennedy of Houston and
P. Ward and J. W. Roach were the men who passed through last week going over the proposed route from Roswell via O'Donnell gathering tonnage information, returning to the city Tuesday night and Wednesday morning a meeting by the party composed of local committee and business men met at the City Hall and discussed over Capt. Kennedy's original proposition has been to some extent. Instead of right-of-way and depot through O'Donnell and Lynn is now asking for a bonus which was readily promised the railroad was built.
Kennedy and associates returned favorably after completing a survey and stated that there was doubt at the road being the O'Donnell route was the logical way to build it.

Kennedy stated that within a few days his engineers would begin a final survey and in all probability construction on the project will begin at an early date.

J. P. Aylor, C. H. Doak,
M. Wilder and Clyde Fair-bank accompanied the railroad party Wednesday afternoon at another meeting was held at the proposition of building the road from Fluvanna instead of the road through the city and all demands were met. So it seems now the new road will likely begin at Snyder, crossing at the terminus of the R. traveling due west to Roswell, according to latest plans Kennedy. The final route of the newly proposed road will be determined after the engineers complete their final survey which is expected to be completed within the next two weeks.

Lamesa have both been visited by the railroad party and it is similar to the one given at Lamesa. Each of the cities and we understand that have been met by the committees of each of the towns on the South west have accepted the proposition set forth by Capt. Kennedy for the east and west railroad in all probability the three lines through this section of the state will all intersect at some point near O'Donnell.

It is likely there might be a railroad in West Texas in the near future.

Cameron, manager of the Electric Service company at Lamesa in the city Wednesday evening rented the building required by the C. E. Ray Tailor shop will conduct a three-day school and demonstration of electric ranges, Monday and Wednesday of next week. An expert will be in charge of the cooking school and demonstrations. All ladies of O'Donnell and surrounding territory are cordially invited to attend.

Baseball Season Opens

BASE BALL TEAM GET NEW UNIFORMS

The O'Donnell Base Ball team is gayly sporting new uniforms of pretty gray flannel with lettering in red across the back, advertising the business firm which so generously donated the necessary amount to purchase the suit.

The team is to play their first game Tuesday. Let all the old time base ball fans wake up and go out to see these games and give them support by rooting for your home team as true sportsmen should do. A good base ball game is fine clean sport and nothing will cheer a person more quickly than a real live base ball game.

El Paso and Juarez, Mex.

Rev. D. B. Doak of Lubbock, will

Local Tailoring Establishment Moves Into New Shop Quarters

EASTER SERVICE IS PRETTY AND TOUCHING

The special program at the eleven o'clock services of the Methodist church Sunday was very lovely and appropriate, commemorating the resurrection of Christ.

Special songs were sung by the choir, the music being beautifully composed of piano, Mrs. H. E. Gillespie, coronet, Travis Everett, coronet Raymond Busby, and clarinet by Jack Veazey.

Miss Kitty Aylor rendered an exquisite violin solo.

The sermon preached by the pastor, Rev. Weems, was taken from the 28 chapter of Matt. and was delivered in a most appealing way.

The church was prettily decorated with Easter Lilies and other flowers and pot plants.

The C. E. Ray Tailor Shop is moving into the new quarters on south side of 6th street this week.

While the interior of the shop is not quite completed as it will be C. L. Clemmens has charge of the interior decoration and in his exclusive way is bringing out all the beauty and loveliness of which paints and varnishes are capable of portraying.

The new location is admirable in every way and Mr. Ray's business will in many ways be improved by the change.

BETTER HOME CAM- PAIGN IS MAKING GOOD PROGRESS

The latest returns in the 1928 campaign of Better Homes in America indicate an extraordinary increase since last year in the number of communities taking part. Chairmen of local committees are appointed anew each fall by Better Homes in America. A few weeks ago the appointments for the 1928 campaign were sent out. At this stage in last year's campaign the central office of this educational organization at Washington had received acceptances from local and county Better Homes chairmen in about 2100 communities. So far in the 1928 campaign the number has reached the neighborhood of three thousand. When we consider that last year the final number of local and county chairmen, at the time of Better Homes week in April, had grown to nearly four thousand, it is plain that this year the number of communities taking part may reach a large figure. The campaign has been given added impetus through the organization of state units. The states which have already perfected their committees under state chairmen are Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, Nevada, North Dakota, Rhode Island, South Carolina, Tennessee, Virginia and West Virginia.

Secretary Hoover, as president of Better Homes in America, made the appointments of local chairmen. The central office, at 1653 Pennsylvania avenue, Washington, D. C., is engaged in active supervision of the work of the various local committees.
The local committees have already begun to organize their communities for the Better Homes campaign.
Their purpose is to show their communities how to have more attractive, more comfortable homes at moderate expense.

In some parts of the country local committees report that they themselves have selected the designs for houses of from three to six rooms, at costs including lot, ranging from $3,000 to $10,000, and that they will build the houses and furnish them as an object lesson to their communities in achieving beauty and comfort with small expenditure. Committees in other communities report plans to borrow attractive houses recently completed, furnish them on a carefully prepared budget and demonstrate them to their committees during Better Homes Week this month.
Still other committees plan to remodel and to refurbish old houses.

Such demonstrations of complete houses are more likely to take place in cities than in rural regions. It is more difficult to organize an extensive campaign in country sections.
But the rural communities have a multitude of ideas on the subject of improving homes. Some of them are planning to exhibit an improved kitchen or improved living room to the farmwives of the community or of the whole country. Many committees will campaign to clean up yards and public places, making them generally more attractive. Home architecture and home-garden contests are an interesting feature in many communities. In some cases the local chairmen write of plans to organize automobile tours, sometimes county-wide, of homes which have been notably improved in some way during the past year. Through tours of this sort the whole community may get the benefit of the ingenuity which certain members of it have shown, in improving their homes at small expense.

The proportions already reached by the 1928 Better Homes campaign in the various sections of the country bear witness to the degree of importance that our citizens are beginning to attach to the building of attractive, comfortable, healthful homes within the reach of families of modest income.

Mr. H. L. Hohn was transacting business in Tahoka Wednesday.

Miss Dollie Crawford and Miss Ef-fic, Cox left today for Lubbock where they will enter the Lubbock Business College. Both are splendid young ladies and have many friends in their business courses which they are to take up.

Where Courtship Is Privilege of Women

Not only does the Cham maiden in some districts of Indo-China make the proposal, but with her also lies the initiative for divorce. Moreover, when divorce occurs, which it does often, the wife retains the home, the children, and one-third of the property.

Even more favored is the girl of the "maternal kinship" tribes of Assam. She proposes, and, if he accepts, the marriage takes place and the husband must then come and live with her people. And the wife may divorce her husband when she pleases. By so doing, indeed, she gains much, for she not only keeps the children and her own property, but all her divorced husband's property as well. If a husband divorces his wife he must still surrender his entire property and the children to her.

The maiden of Bonda Porjas in southern India resorts to a severe test when selecting a husband. The chosen man has to accompany her into the jungle, where she applies fire to his bare back. If the pain draws a yell from him, he is contemptuously rejected. She takes him for husband only if he suffers in silence.

In Borneo, among the Kalabit people, it is always the girl who conducts the courtship.—From the Continental Edition of the London Daily Mail.

Production of Honey Important in Quebec

In the "Jesuits' Relation" dated 1638, it states the Indians used to make a decoction containing alum and honey as a remedy for typhus. The Indians called the English bee the white man's fly. It is said that the first hive was imported into America in 1638.

The first agricultural statistics of Quebec hardly date as far back as 1870. The first census showed 41,285 hives, with a total yield of 648,000 pounds of honey. In 1880 the harvest had considerably decreased, and this year gave only 550,000 pounds. The 1890 census gave 48,418 hives, with a production of 759,000 pounds. The growth for the following years was nothing short of a wonder, 1,091,000 pounds being produced by 60,008 hives, the value of honey production and hives being over $500,000.

The annual production in the province of Quebec amounts to 4,000,000 pounds of extracted honey and 300,000 pounds of comb honey.

AVERY TWIN-JACK CULTIVATOR

Easy on both man and team

Avery engineers did a big job in eliminating strain on the operator and lightening the work of the team when they designed the famous Jack Rabbit Cultivator. In the Twin-Jack they have repeated their success, this time in a two-row cultivator that is simple to operate—and easy on both man and team.
The Twin-Jack is sturdy, durable, flexible, easy to handle and comfortable to ride. It has a strong, rigid main frame that will not twist or sag under the hardest conditions.
The frame is in perfect balance at all times, with the result that manipulation requires but minimum effort, the horses are spared sore shoulders, and more ground is covered per day with less fatigue.
Each pair of gangs is controlled by two independent levers, the inside lever raising or lowering the pair simultaneously, when desired. By means of an easy pressure on the stirrups the wheels may be angled to right or to left.
We will be glad to explain the many efficient, time-saving features of the Twin-Jack—or demonstrate at your convenience.
There is no obligation.

Entered as second class matter September 28, 1923, at the post office at O'Donnell, Texas, under the Act of March 3, 1897.

"All works and no play makes Jack a dull boy." An old, old adage, but true nevertheless.

Folks who live in O'Donnell are just humans and require a little play just the same as other folks, but is there a place for such? The question can be answered easily. There is not. Other places have their recreation clubs, parks, etc., where folks can go after a strenuous day behind the counter, at the desk or what not.

O'Donnell needs some kind of a recreation club and when a town needs a thing there is only way to get it and that is organize and build it. There is no better time to begin such an organization than right now for we believe the public will co-operate 100 per cent when the movement is once started. Why not act?

D. A. EDWARDS ELECTED SUPERINTENDENT SCHOOLS

At a meeting of the O'Donnell School Board Tuesday night, Mr. D. A. Edwards, who is the present principal of the High School was elected superintendent for the coming school term.

Mr. Edwards has been connected with the O'Donnell Schools for four years. He is a staunch member of the Methodist church and teacher of the young men's Sunday School class. Besides being principal of the High School, he has been math teacher, as well as athletic coach for four years and in this time has truly the way in which he has wrapped himself around the hearts of the boys who he has coached during these years, is one of the most evident facts of his sterling worth, not only as a teacher but as a man and pal. One high school boy who has been trained by Mr. Edwards in athletics for four years, expressed the sentiments of more than one boy when he said: "Mr. Edwards is the best man in the world, and I don't mean maybe."

LOCAL LUMBER COMPANY WILL SPONSOR CLEAN UP CAMPAIGN

O'Donnell is to have a "Clean Up and Paint UP" campaign during the next few weeks in a novel "Paint UP Scout Contest" being conducted by Sorrels Lumber Co in cooperation with the Cook Paint and Varnish Company and this newspaper.

Prizes of $10.00 will be awarded to boys and girls of this community who "scout around" for property in town and surrounding country that needs painting and report it on special blank forms furnished by the Sorrels Lumber Company. Any young person less than sixteen year of age may compete, for a first prize of five dollars, donated by Cook's and trade prizes of $3.00 and $2.00 offered by Sorrels Lumber Company.

Each "Paint Scout" who enters the contest will wear a distinctive button, and will give to property owners on whom he calls free merchandise good for ten cents in trade at the Sorrels Lumber Company. The Paint Scout will be awarded prizes for the best lists of property which needs painting.

"Everybody is proud of our 'old home town' says Mr. Sorrels. But we could all be a lot prouder if the stores and houses and houses and houses and garages and barn and sheds were all painted up spic and span! No use talking, dingy buildings makes a town look bad, regardless of how many trees there are or how pretty the streets. So we're starting a campaign to make town more beautiful, and invite girls and boy of the community, being "Paint Scouts." Judges of the contest will be pointed by Mr. Sorrels.

Millions of Model T Fords are still in active service

FOR nearly twenty years, the Model T Ford led the motor industry and it still is used by more people than any other automobile. More than eight million Model T Fords are in active service today—an indication of their sturdy worth, reliability and economy.

Because of the tremendous investment which people have in these cars and because so many of them will be driven for two, three, and even five more years, the Ford Motor Company will continue to make replacement parts until, as Henry Ford himself says, "the last Model T is off the road."

For the Ford Motor Company has always believed that its full duty consists not only in making a good automobile at a low price, but also in keeping it running efficiently for you as long as possible at a minimum of expense.

No matter where you live, therefore, you can still buy Model T Ford parts with the same assurance as formerly, knowing that they will give you the kind of service you have a right to expect, and at the same time protect the money you have invested in your car.

All Ford replacement parts, as you may know, are made of the same materials and in the same way as those from which your car was originally assembled, and are low in price because of the established Ford policy.

So that you may get the greatest use from your Model T Ford over the longest period of time, we suggest that you take the car to the nearest Ford dealer and have him estimate on the cost of any replacement parts which may be necessary. You may find that a very small expenditure will maintain the value of your car and will be the means of giving you thousands of miles of additional service.

Bring this complete automobile show into your own home

THE national automobile shows in New York and Chicago were too far away for most Americans to attend. But by clipping the coupon below, you can bring a representative automobile show into your home.

At the shows General Motors exhibited a complete line of automobiles—"a car for every purse and purpose."

They are the quality cars of their respective price classes. They range in price-at-the-factory from $495 to $5,500. They include 89 models of every type and kind. They embody improvements tested and proved at General Motors' Proving Ground, which, together with the Research Laboratories, is maintained to assure continuous progress.

"A car for every purse and purpose"

The General Motors cars are briefly described below. The new models offer more performance, more comfort, more beauty than ever before in automobile history. All have 4-wheel brakes. All closed bodies are by Fisher. All have Duco finish. All are built of quality materials. And for their convenient purchase, General Motors has provided the standard low-cost GMAC Plan.

CHEVROLET. 7 models, $495 to $715. Bigger and better than ever before. 4-wheel brakes. Longer wheel base. Still more powerful engine. Luxurious Fisher Bodies. Shock absorber springs. New hood. New Duco colors. New instrument panel and other improvements. ALSO truck chassis: 1/2-ton, $395. 1-ton, $495.

PONTIAC. 8 models, $745 to $875. The lowest-priced quality "six." Improved from radiator to tail-light. For example: 4-wheel brakes, new GM cylinder head, increased power, locking device, more luxurious Fisher Bodies. Finished in Duco in new colors.

OLDSMOBILE. 7 models, $925 to $1085. Entirely redesigned by General Motors, the new Oldsmobile has earned the title of "The Fine Car at Low Cost." Longer, roomier, more powerful—and the last word in styling. Fisher Bodies. 4-wheel brakes.

OAKLAND. 9 models, $1045 to $1375. The All-American Six. Advanced engineering and precision construction. Longer, lower and more beautiful. Bodies by Fisher. Every convenience. 4-wheel brakes. New Duco colors. Harmonic balancer.

BUICK. 16 models, $1195 to $1995. The largest value in Buick's famous history. Beautiful low bodies by Fisher. Getaway like an arrow from a bow. Vibrationless beyond belief. Famous 6-cylinder "Valve-in-head" engine. Sealed-in chassis.

LASALLE. 16 models, $2350 to $2975. This beautiful car was designed as companion car to Cadillac. Has V-type 90 degree 8-cylinder engine which has made Cadillac the standard fine car of the world. Built in Cadillac factory. Continental in appearance.

(All prices F. O. B. at the factories)

CADILLAC. 26 models, $3295 to $5500. "What," General Motors asked last year, "can possibly be done to improve Cadillac?" The result is embodied in the new models now on display, representing the high-water mark of Cadillac's long history. Sumptuous bodies by Fisher and Fleetwood. 500 color combinations to choose from.

FRIGIDAIRE—The Electric Refrigerator. General Motors has applied the processes which have made the automobile available to every family, to the production of electric refrigerators. Frigidaire is the refrigerator made by General Motors and it is now the world's largest selling product in its field.

DELCO-LIGHT Electric Plants. Provide the conveniences and labor-saving devices of the city for the farm. Electric light and power plants, water pumps, etc. Used in more than a quarter-million homes.

CLIP THE COUPON

Mark on the coupon below the General Motors product or products that you would like to see. Check all of them, if you wish, for the illustrated catalogues are so detailed as to form a show in themselves. In your own home you may examine the whole General Motors line, point by point, at your leisure. With the catalogues will be sent free a little book entitled "Principles & Policies." You will find it unusual reading, for it takes you behind the scenes and shows just what General Motors is and what it is doing to continue to merit public goodwill.

Plans Under Way For Club Home

Home Demonstration Club Will Furnish House In Tahoka; Committees Will Have Charge of Securing Articles

This memorandum may be placed in the hands of the committee on equipment and furnishing. It is important however, that the demonstration home committee confer with the furnishing committee, since the equipment and furnishings should be taken into consideration in the plan of the house.

COST OF FURNISHINGS:
The total cost of furnishings for the demonstration house should not exceed 25 per cent of the cost of house and lot. For a well balanced demonstration home is one in which both the type and cost of furnishings are kept in proper relation to the cost of the house. Elaborate furnishings would be out of place in a simple modest home.

A careful budget should be prepared before the selection is begun and an appropriate amount allotted to each room. The committee should then keep within this allotment. In preparing the furnishing budget it is well to furnish the house as if for occupancy and not merely for a week's demonstration.

SELECTION OF FURNISHINGS
Best results are obtained if the selection of furnishings is not left to a single furniture store in the community, but is put in the hands of a committee, headed, if possible, by an experienced person, such as a home economics specialist, interior decorator, home demonstration agent, or persons who have proven in their own homes their skill and good taste in furnishing. The selection and arrangement of the furnishings of the house may be turned over to the home economics class of a local college or school, under the direction of their class teacher.

Simplicity, comfort, convenience, beauty and durability are chief considerations.

The selection is best made with reference to the space and layout of each room. Three-piece suites are wisely avoided in the living room, for much more beautiful effects can be secured with individual pieces carefully chosen.

Over-elaborate lamp shades or draperies and superfluous pillows or rugs should of course be avoided.

Best artistic effects are secured if pictures are selected carefully, first for their interest, and second for their relation to the available wall space. They should be few in number. Excessive ornamentation and elaborate pieces reduce the educational value of the demonstration.

Wall paper should if possible be plain or simple in design, or walls may be tinted to make an attractive background. (For details see our pamphlet "How to Furnish the Small Home.") One color scheme for all the living portion is often preferable.

Bedrooms should not be overloaded with fancy pillows, and nurseries should not be overcrowded with toys. Children's bedrooms should have adequate room, shelves, drawers and closets, for storage of toys. Clothes-hangers placed low enough for children to reach will help to train them in orderliness and assist the house-keeper. If there is no nursery, play corners are almost indispensable for younger children. All bedrooms should have adequate storage space for the needs of occupants.

WHERE TO OBTAIN FURNISHINGS:

Local merchants, after the educational purpose of the movement is explained to them, will be willing to loan furnishings as their contribution to this civic educational movement. They will see the reason for having the selection of furnishings left in the hands of a committee. If there are several dealers in the community the furnishings should not all be selected from the stock of one, but every merchant in the community should be given this opportunity to contribute to the success of the movement.

If a remodeled or reconditioned house is being used for demonstration, it is often desirable to use "done-over" furniture. This may be salvaged from homes in the community, or purchased from second-hand shops. Furniture may also be bought in an unfinished state and finished. The finishing or refinishing can be done as a class project by home economics classes, or by club members, as their contribution to the local campaign. The furnishing of different rooms may be given to clubs or other groups, each group being responsible for one room, and charged with keeping the budget allotted to that room.

Boys in manual-training and vocational-education classes may make some of the furnishings, while the making of curtains and draperies may be done by home economics students or club members. The latter also offers an excellent opportunity for Girl Scouts and Camp Fire Girls to participate in the campaign.

Avoid Commercialism
There should be no advertising on the premises or price tags on the furniture. It is entirely proper, however, to distribute or to have accessible in each room of the house a list of the furnishings of that room with the cost of each article and to name on that list the firm which loaned the article for the demonstration.

NOTE: For guidance in selection and arrangement of furnishings and equipment, see Better Homes pamphlet, "How to Furnish the Small Home."

MOONLIGHT PICNIC ENJOYED BY O'DONNELL'S ELITE SET

Messrs Eugene Cook and Gordon King were the charming hosts to a number of their friends last week, when they entertained with a moonlight picnic about seven miles out of O'Donnell.

A roaring fire built with cedar wood soon won the gloomiest guest to the happiest frame of mind, which was the further increased by the picnic supper which was prepared over the open fire, consisting of broiled bacon, toasted marshmallows, roasted eggs and potatoes and black coffee.

After the eats were disposed of the guests gathered around the camp fire and told stories and listened to music provided by the portable which was brought by the thoughtful hosts.

The invited guests were Misses: Thelma Palmer, Alta Rogers, Francis Chandler, Wynema Sorrels, Edna House, Jessie Sargent, Christine Milwee and Mrs. Modesta Green, Messrs Fred Henderson, Lester Burdine, Harvey Lines, Homer Deakins, Mack Noble, Gordon King and Eugene Cook.

eggs were hid by Mrs. Everett before the children arrived and all the wild exciting times the forty children in this grade certainly had it.

So by the kindness of the teachers and mothers about three hundred of O'Donnell's school children were again made happy and each one will be just as thrilled when the same date and occasion arrives next year for it seems that ranking with all other holidays Eatser runs Christmas a close second in the hearts of the children.

Debt-Paying in China Has Humorous Side

Many amusing tales are told of difficulties arising in China from the ancient custom which decrees that each man must pay his debts before the sun rises on New Year's morning. Practically every person in China owes some one else, all transactions being conducted on the basis that one may evade paying one's debts until the new year, and it is not a Chinese trait to pay a bill until payment has been requested at least twice. This accounts for the frantic haste in which the men rush here and there trying at once to collect debts and avoid creditors.

If one cannot meet his financial obligations he must secure a new loan from another person, and as there is no law, he may be forced to pay as high as 50 per cent or more interest. To dun a debtor on New Year's day is not considered good form; hence it is not uncommon to see an anxious creditor carrying a lantern in broad daylight, seeking to find his debtor, on the assumption that, because of his carrying a light, it is still the night before.

Happy is the man who can outwit his creditors during the last precious hours of the old year, for he may then sail along in peaceful, undisturbed waters for another year.—Inez Marke Lowdermilk, in the Dearborn Independent.

Dog Formally Tried for Stealing Chicken

Today the satirists have plenty to wear themselves out on, but one thing that does not annoy them is the trial of dogs for committing the crime of stealing chickens. Racine, the great French poet and dramatist, whom we loosely think of today as a placid soul living in a placid age, satirized such a trial in his day.

He portrayed the case of a dog accused of stealing and eating a capon which had been scheduled to adorn somebody's dinner table. Racine paints a ludicrous picture in his play, "Les Plaigneurs," which means the attorneys, literally "plenders," of the dog before the court. The lawyers are as windy as ever they should be in such a case, the judge as doggedly intent on impartiality. The dog is condemned to the galleys, although what he would do in the galleys is a subject of wonder. Perhaps he was sentenced to be a mascot. But the lawyer for the dog hits upon the idea of bringing before the court the dog's sons and daughters, a litter of puppies, "poor children that would be rendered orphans." The judge is touched by this scene, for he also has children. The outcome of the case is not related. Probably the dog was "simply knocked on the head."—Kansas City Star.

Ring Fingers

For many centuries wedding rings were worn on the thumb, and even as late as the reign of George I it was the rule for brides, although the wedding ring was placed on the finger now customary, to remove it, after the ceremony to the thumb. Ecclesiastical admonitions, however, had the effect of bringing that somewhat queer custom to an end.

It is a pretty belief, but incorrect, that the fourth finger of the left hand was chosen for the ring finger because from that a vein ran directly to the heart. The choice was for practical reasons—to save the ring from unnecessary usage. That also is the reason for the ring being worn on the left hand.

Harvesting Almonds

But few people realize the trouble taken in the cultivation of almonds. They are the most important crop of the island of Majorca, where many varieties are cultivated, and the industry is so prosperous that as old olive trees die they are replaced by almonds.

When the almonds are almost ripe they are knocked off the branches by long bamboo poles and then picked up by women and children. The nuts are separated from the husks after drying, and the shells are then broken by hand or machinery and the kernels extracted.

Real Womanhood Admired

I know a woman who is naturally thoroughly feminine, and has many of those gentle qualities which make men marvel. Suffrage has changed her somewhat; she has heard about her wrongs until she believes she has some. In addition, she is a spinster, and somehow holds the men responsible for that. Still, she has frequent flashes of beautiful natural womanhood, and the men love to hang around and admire her. There is nothing the men admire so much as real womanhood; nothing they so much dislike as the new flapper type.—E. W. Howe's Monthly.

Insects in Disguise

There are beetles that pretend to be wasps, and plenty of flies that try to palm themselves off as unsavory ants. There is even a spider that assumes the appearance of an ant. At first sight it would seem that the possession of eight legs would be a bar to the disguise, but, when occasion requires, up go the front pair of legs as counterfeited antennae. Instances might be multiplied. One South American fly which happens to be first-class eating goes about under a shield fashioned in the appearance of a highly indigestible ant.

GOOD THINGS TO EAT

WHILE the fresh maple sugar is still toothsome, try using it and the syrup in various ways. Here are two:

Nut Sandwiches.

Brown walnuts in a little butter, season with salt and add to grated maple sugar. Chop the nuts and use on buttered whole wheat bread.

A most delicious omelet may be prepared by placing a half-cupful or less of blanched almonds in a buttered omelet pan, and stir until hot, but not brown; then pour in the omelet and cook. Fold as usual and serve with a hot maple sauce poured around the omelet. This makes a delicious dessert.

Hessians in Revolution

"Hessians" is a term in American history for the German conscripts who were hired and sent over by England to help subdue the revolting Colonists. They came from six of the small states of Germany, but as over half of them were from Hesse-Cassel and Hesse-Darmstadt, the name "Hessians" was generally applied to them. They were first commanded by Lieut. Gen. Philipp von Heister, but he was succeeded by Wilhelm von Knyphausen in 1777. They took a prominent part in the battles of Long Island, White Plains, Trenton, Bennington, Brandywine, Germantown, Guilford courthouse, York town and several other smaller engagements. Of the approximate 30,000 who came over to America, only 17,000 returned to Germany. About 2,200 were killed outright or died of their wounds.

Ten Plagues of Egypt

Contrary to the popular notion, there were ten plagues of Egypt. It is a common error to speak of the "seven plagues of Egypt." The ten plagues, according to the Bible, were as follows: The turning of the Nile into blood, covering the land with frogs, turning the dust into lice, sending swarms of flies, killing of the cattle by a murrain, afflicting the Egyptians with boils, raining fire and hail, covering the land with locusts, covering the land with a thick darkness for three days, and the destruction of the first born man and beast.—Exchange.

Work for the Blind

Among many remarkable pictures in the annual report of the British National Institute for the Blind, perhaps the most striking are those showing the blind engaged in world industries. A blind man is ringing coins at the royal mint; a blind woman is assembling parts of electric motors; blind workers are assembling toys; a blind girl is employed in photographic envelope folding; while blind girls wrap sweets and fold cardboard boxes.

THE BANKER-FARMER MOVEMENT GROWING

There are several reasons for the growth of the banker-farmer movement in Pennsylvania. William S. Mc Kay, Chairman of the Agricultural Committee, Pennsylvania Bankers Association, has reported to the Agricultural Commission of the American Bankers Association. The cooperation and leadership of the county agents in the several counties of the state; the appointment and functioning of county chairmen of agriculture known as Key Bankers, one of whom there is in each county of the state; and the organization of county bankers associations, whereby agriculture is given consideration by all the banks are responsible for this interest. The following table shows the activities for the year:

Project	Number of Counties
Sent young farmers to state college for special course	5
Encouraged farm shows	16
Field agricultural tours	6
Sponsored various club activities	38
Ave illustrated lectures on poultry, cow testing, and improved farm methods	1
Distributed purebred livestock, chicks, and disease-free potatoes	13

Tredway Items

The Mesquite baseball team redeemed itself from the game at Gail two weeks' ago, by vanquishing the Berry Flat team on their home grounds last Thursday. We are wondering why we ever let them win from us at Gail, but on second thought, if we didn't let them win a game once in a while they would get discouraged and quit furnishing us practice. The game progressed well in spite of a high wind. A hot liner hit the Berry Flat pitcher on the hand and made it almost impossible for him to pitch. In spite of the torturing agony he bore up well, displaying amazing courage and fortitude. Not every team has a pitcher be in a position to knock home runs like Berry Flat. We are proud to play so formidable an antagonist. We won the game, which lasted only six innings, by a score of 6 to 3. We are very sorry that two of the opposing team got hit by batted balls but little boys shouldn't try to play baseball until they learn to stay out of the way of the batted ball until it stops rolling.

There was a party at Mr. Barrett's last Friday night, which was greatly enjoyed by those present.

There was no preaching at Mesquite Saturday and Sunday.

The school trustee election at Mesquite was uncommonly quiet this year. Only 12 votes were cast. C. A. Bearden received 11 votes and was elected. Mr. Pepper received 1 vote.

Messrs. T. E. Martin and Jno. L. Fisher and A. L. Williamson made a business trip to Gail Monday.

It is only proper that we mention the weather during the past week. It has rained, sleeted, snowed, misted, been clear, cold and hot, besides furnishing us a good sandstorm often enough to give us variety.

Before you put this paper down, read the Berry Flat items. I am told they will be very interesting this week.

KEEPING FIT

IN THE field of science Doctor Steimetz died at the age of fifty-eight. In the world of music Mozart died at thirty-five. Caruso was a comparatively young man when he passed away. In the columns of daily papers announcement is made of the sudden death of prominent business men whose ages are under fifty.

Why this? The answer is usually, overwork, overstrain, too heavy a load. A more subtle question may be asked: why was the load too heavy and the strain too great? Work itself never killed anybody. Worry has slain its thousands.

The next explanation is hardened arteries, high blood pressure, softened muscles and impaired nerves; the result of not keeping fit, of not living right. Diet is responsible more than anything else. Lack of sleep, toxic poisons and the absence of adequate exercise are also responsible.

Realizing the dangers suggested by these symptoms, men in middle life seek refuge in golf or other diversions. Better this than nothing. The time, however, to build up a physical constitution capable of standing the strain is when one is young.

If every young man and woman at the age of twenty would determine to keep fit and carry out those resolutions throughout the years, a breakdown in middle life would be a rare occurrence.

Volume 1 April 13, 1928 No. 2

Published in the interest of the people of O'Donnell by Cicero Smith Lumber Co. Don Edwards Editor

Every once in awhile we have a chance to join in some sort of "trade at home" campaign and we will admit that such campaigns have a lot to recommend them, but it has also been our observation that people do not mind buying goods from home stores, and paying for them, providing they get their money's worth
