DEATH CLAIMS PART OWNER OF LOCAL STORE

Funeral services for H. R. Phillips, 55, co-owner of the Corner store here, were held in Rotan Tuesday afternoon at 4 p. m. Death occurred the previous day as a result of illness of several months.

B. J. Boyd, local manager; W. E. Vermillion and Happy Howery, employees; J. L. Shoemaker, banker; and E. J. Tredway attended the services from O'Donnell.

Survivors are the widow and four daughters.

Mr. Phillips purchased the store here in 1925, installing Mr. Boyd, then in the Rotan store, as manager. In 1937 an interest in the store was sold by Phillips to Boyd, a relationship which existed until the Rotan man's death.

In 1907, Mr. Phillips entered the drug business at Rotan, and later helped organize the West Texas druggists association. He was a member of the Masonic lodge, which was in charge of the funeral services.

Lyntegar Absorbs Gaines-Terry Line

At a meeting of the board of directors of the Lyntegar Electric Cooperative Association held here Wednesday, a resolution was adopted to take over and absorb the lines of the Gaines-Terry Cooperative Association, being about 125 miles of line situated in Gaines and Terry counties, according to Edward P. Price, engineer for the Lyntegar.

There were no changes in or additions to the board of directors of the Lyntegar Cooperative Association. The present board will continue to function as heretofore for the expanded properties.

Furthermore, about 100 miles of extensions of the lines of the Lyntegar in Lynn, Garza, Terry, Hockley, Borden, Dawson, and Martin counties are to be made, these extensions to be known as Section C. Mr. Price was elected by the board of directors as consulting engineer in the construction of this section. It is hoped that all necessary papers will have been filed in Washington by the first of September and the work will progress just as rapidly as possible.

On Wednesday night Mr. Price was also elected by the board of directors of the South Plains Electric Cooperative, of Lubbock, to do the engineering work for that Cooperative on extensions of its lines, designated as section F. The lines of the South Plains Cooperative lie in Lubbock, Hale, Crosby, Hockley, and Lynn counties.

Burl's Auto Parts Rearranges Entire Front Display Room

In order to insure even better service, and to permit a greater display of merchandise, the showroom of Burl's Auto Parts was changed this last week.

Display of parts in addition to refrigerators, radios and tires has been made possible by the rearrangement. Additional showcases have been placed against the wall and a large counter placed where the showcases were formerly assigned.

The rearrangement permits a large section of the floor space to be used for the display of the refrigerators, Zenith radios and tires.

Lyntegar Builds Additional Lines

The Lyntegar Electric Cooperative, Inc. has requested permission from the Rural Electrification Administration to add two hundred miles of electric lines to serve farms and rural communities in their territory that are not already receiving electric service. This permission was granted and the Cooperative is now in the process of accepting new members and determining the locations of these new lines.

The Cooperative wishes to notify everyone living in the territory being served by its lines so that they can take advantage of this opportunity to obtain electrical energy for their homes and places of business.

The Rural Electrification Administration has available one hundred million dollars for granting loans to cooperatives throughout the United States and its possessions to build rural electric lines during the fiscal year 1940-41, and as over seventy million dollars of this fund has already been set aside for other cooperatives the Lyntegar Electric Cooperative, Inc. wishes to stress the importance of quick action on the part of all those who want electric service so that the pre-arrangement work can be completed as quickly as possible and a request for the necessary funds be sent to Washington while there is money still available.

Due to the uncertainty of world conditions and the necessity for the United States Government to spend large sums of money for armaments we consider it advisable for all those who plan to have electricity in their homes to act now before it is too late.

Tax payments, estimated at $6,000 yearly, will be saved tax payers of Lynn county during the coming year as a result of a decision made by the Commissioners Court Monday.

Faced with a mounting surplus in both the general fund and courthouse and jail fund due to economical handling, and not desirous of seeing the surplus totals mounting at the expense of Lynn taxpayers, the Commissioners Court members swung the axe to the oft repeated statement that "taxes are never reduced" by slashing the county tax rate 12 1/2 per cent yearly.

"We saw no reason for increasing surplus in the funds just so that ever increasing amounts could be placed in banks and then loaned out to the people, therefore we decided that the rate could be cut and the money left with those who might need it, so Judge P. W. Good said when the court announced the proposed reduction.

Where the saving of $6,000 in taxes is to be made, and an explanation in detail of the proposed county budget is to be made Saturday afternoon at the courthouse in Tahoka by Judge P. W. Good.

Taxpayers and all citizens interested in good government are urged to be present by the Commissioners Court for the hearing.

That taxpayers should be present at budget hearings in the interest of better government has been urged repeatedly by Gov. Lee O'Daniel. The meeting will start at 2:30 o'clock.

Few counties in the entire state are a like financial condition to permit such a move. Most Texas counties, many on the South Plains, are in the "red" so one commissioner claimed.

State Tax Rate Reduced 8 Cents County Taxes Also Reduced

Tax Assessor-Collector Aubra M. Cade received notice from Austin last week that the state tax rate has been reduced from 77 cents, the rate last year, to 69 cents for the current year.

This cut of eight cents on the $100 property valuation was made on the school taxes, Mr. Cade says. The school tax rate last year was 35 cents on the $100 whereas it has been fixed for this year at only 27 cents.

With the 10 cent cut on county taxes which the county judge and commissioners court had decided upon, the total state and county reduction for the current year will be 18 cents on the $100 property valuation, which will amount to a considerable sum on an ordinary farm or business.

Modern Weapons Being Provided For Cotton Army

To break through a blockade of diminishing markets, the American raw cotton industry on August 1st, adopted a streamlined mobilization plan to support armored columns of advertising, publicity, and research. A nickel on every bale of lint and three cents on every ton of seed of the 1940 crop moving through regular channels of commerce will be the ammunition for an "all-out" thrust against the tightening economic spread of competitors in markets once considered exclusively cotton's own.

"A nickel a bale contributed by the raw cotton producers to the industry's common promotional fund can strike the most effective blow for freedom cotton men have yet seen," says National Cotton Council President Oscar Johnston in announcing his organization's plans for mobilizing such a fund from the coming crop.

"We have come to realize that we must fight for the freedom we once took for granted—the freedom that is the natural accompaniment of expanding consumption," says Johnston, "and our fight to be effective must use the potent and modern economic weapons of advertising, publicity and research."

Under the council's mobilization plan, nearly 25,000 cotton merchants and mills will work as volunteer field agents for the Council in a vast collection machinery performing the enormous contact and bookkeeping work necessary to pool the contributions of more than two million cotton farms and firms.

"For fifty years," says President Johnston, "we cotton farmers have been talking about an organization like the National Cotton Council to defend our markets and find new ones through judicious advertising, intelligent research, and organized opposition to restrictive legislation. At last we have it, and in two years, equipped with modern weapons, it has accomplished more than any of us thought was possible in so short a period."

"Domestic consumption has been brought back virtually to the all-time high, with every indication that a new record can be set in 1941. Plans are ready for a vigorous attack on the acute problem of foreign trade. Council scientists are on the trail of new uses. A united cotton industry has gone to war."

TEXAS AGED TO RECEIVE $10.86 THIS MONTH

Texas' old age pensioners will receive an average of $10.86 for August which is an increase of 24 cents over the average July payment. Rolls carry 118,052 pensioners.

A liberal increase in pension payments for September or October is expected with settlement of indebtedness that has kept down available pension disbursements.

A $200,000 installment on the debt will be paid this month leaving $100,000 to be paid off in September to retire the debt which was originally $2,200,000. A special session of the State Welfare Board will be held in September to consider the situation.

LAND OF COTTON AND OF LIVESTOCK

BY A. L. WARD

National Cottonseed Products Ass'n Cotton, the nation's leading source of protein concentrates essential for livestock, was stressed as an important factor in a balanced farming program at the organization meeting of the Southern Livestock Association in Memphis, Tennessee.

Nearly 200 livestock raisers, extension service, college and vocational agriculture workers, businessmen and representatives of civic organizations from Tennessee, Mississippi, Arkansas and other states attended the meeting to map plans for the Association's program to encourage livestock production on a sound permanent basis throughout the Mid-South region.

A wise blending of cotton and livestock, it is pointed out, will continue the South's cotton supremacy and, at the same time, enable the region to attain livestock production equaling that of regions now claiming leadership in livestock.

In working toward the objectives of the Southern Association for the general improvement of livestock breeding, feeding and management and for home-rum feed production, cotton is an ideal crop to raise with livestock. This is because cottonseed provides two major feed crops, cottonseed meal and hulls, whose production gives the Southern farmer a home source of feed to supplement grains and grasses necessary in all livestock production. Feed in balanced rations, cottonseed products increase the efficiency of every other of grain and ton of hay produced in the South.

Strong evidence of understanding of sound objectives for a permanent livestock program in the South has been furnished by leaders who have drafted plans for the Southern Association. This understanding combined with the enthusiasm demonstrated at the Memphis meeting promises to result in a valuable livestock program based on efficient utilization of Southern resources, of which cottonseed products are among the most important.

Faithful Service Should Be Approved

We denounce the rumors and false reports that have gone out over Lynn County that P. W. Goad has failed to cooperate with the Farm Program when in truth and fact, he has cooperated in every possible way and we, his friends, refer you to your own County Committee and urge you to consult them and get first hand information. We also quote herein in full a letter from the Agricultural Adjustment Administration:

College Station, Texas
July 30, 1940

Mr. P. W. Goad
Judge, Lynn County
Tahoka, Texas

Dear Judge Goad:

The State Agricultural Conservation Committee has recently observed the fine cooperation of the County Commissioners' Court in providing office space for the Agricultural Adjustment Administration.

We want to take this means of expressing our very great appreciation for your cooperation and help in making possible a more adequate office for the county committee. We have observed the fine way in which the county agent, home demonstration agent, and the A. A. A. have cooperated and wish to express our appreciation.

Yours very truly,
E. N. Golmgreen
Executive Secretary

We feel that this should and will right a great injustice that has been done Judge Goad.

We most heartily endorse him for re-election to the office of County Judge for the following reasons:

First, he is a man of strong convictions and absolutely free from all outside influences and special interests. Second, he has given a fair and square deal to everyone without fear or favor. Third, he has given an undivided service, having no other occupation or business to absorb his time while holding this office. Fourth, he has positively refused to neglect his duties as a public official to promote his own personal interest and political ambitions. Fifth, he has given to the people of Lynn County a progressive and conservative program. Under his leadership, the expenses of the county have been reduced approximately $3,000 per year. It is now proposed by the Commissioners' Court of Lynn County, Texas, that the county tax rate be reduced 10 cents on the $100 valuation which will be the first reduction on tax rate in Lynn County in many years, and said reduction will constitute a saving to the tax payers amounting to approximately $6,000 per year. Sixth, during his administration, there has been secured 40 miles of highway construction, two new state highway designations and is at this time negotiating with the State and Federal Government for construction work to begin on them in the near future. Seventh, he is recognized by state and federal authorities as being one of the outstanding County Judges in Texas. He is well and favorably known by both State and Federal officials which makes it easier for the county to secure State and Federal aid, for highway construction and various relief projects.

Therefore, we feel that with the record he has made and the knowledge he has of the needs of Lynn County and the experience he has had in handling the affairs of the County, it would be a tragedy should we fail to re-elect him to this most responsible office at this most crucial hour.

The third annual Dawson County Fair to be held in Lamesa in October, promises to be the greatest yet held, if advance indications are any barometer.

There has never been more interest shown this far in advance of the opening. It was stated this week.

With the rains of last week, agricultural exhibits should be on a par if not above previous years. The livestock exhibit, which was started only last year, proves fair to be the biggest event at this year's exhibition.

Participation of Texas in the industrial mobilization for national defense will receive the first attention of everyone with the Texas Industrialization Program. Governor W. Lee O'Daniel told chairmen of 227 local industrialization committees in a bulletin just released.

The Governor transmitted to the local committees a list containing hundreds of items which the Army and Navy departments require, and gave the names and addresses of the procurement offices for the various branches of the federal service which will provide specifications requested by Texas concerns.
