Fatalty Soon Due On All Taxes

County tax collector A. M. Cade has attention to the fact that all cars must be registered by April 1 or pay a penalty of 20 per cent of the regular license fee. This in compliance with an act passed by the second session of the 43rd Legislature, House Bill No. 6, which provides for the expiration date of registrations to be on April 1st rather than on February 1st as has been the law heretofore. Cade also points out that a penalty of from 4 to 6 per cent will be due after April 1st on ad valorem taxes, under the provisions of Senate Bill No. 262, which applies until July 1st. All taxes delinquent at that time will carry a penalty of ten per cent interest at the rate of six per cent from the beginning of the delinquency.

Senior Play Date Is Announced

April 20 has been set for the production of the Senior class play, "Cade's Moment," announced Miss Irene Huff, sponsor, Monday of this week. It has been the custom for several years, proceeds from this play to be used for the benefit of the class as a whole, and plans are changed, a trip to the famous Carlsbad Cavern is to be the highlight of the year. Attempts for the various roles are being held this week, and the complete cast of characters will be announced later.

Kelley's Slayings Given Life Sentences

So many of our readers have asked the outcome of the trial of the Slayings of Mateo and Ybarra, Mexico, for the hatchet murder of C. Kelley, that we are glad to publish the verdict, life sentences for the slaying, which occurred five years ago at Weslaco, in the home of C. Couch, father-in-law of Mr. Kelley, is believed to have been the political feud in the county, and that it was intended to murder Couch himself. The many friends of the Kelley family here will be glad to know that the perpetrators of the cowardly slaying are beginning to pay part of their penalty.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Tucker on March 26, a six pound son and baby are doing well. Tucker is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Jordan of the Wells community.

Davis is delegate to the Laymen's meeting. Mrs. A. W. Gibbs as a district officer is also planning to attend the entire session. Miss June Gary is to take part on the program Friday evening, while both she and her sister, Miss Florence, are to be on the young people's program Sunday.

1666 Farmers Sign Cotton Reduction

Sixteen hundred and sixty-six farmers of Lynn county have signed cotton acreage reduction contracts to reduce the cotton acres planted in 1934 by 72,784 acres, according to V. F. Jones, county agent, who has just completed final tabulation of the contracts. The tabulation summary has been sent to the District Review Board at Lubbock for analysis, and no further work can be done on the contracts until a hearing is received from the review board.

"Incense"

By Ethel Jackson Vance
Dawned the first sweet day of Easter
Women went at break of day
To the tomb without the city;
There, where hate had had its way.

Woman's heart by God created
For her work, a heart with room;
Last to leave the fold of Calvary,
First to hasten to the tomb.

She, whom Birth has crowned its usher,
Braving death each life to bring,
First received the wondrous message
That from Death removed the sting.

Flowers in that holy garden,
Mingled sweetness breathed above,
And the yearning hearts of women
Poured the fragrance of their love.

We of God are truly honored,
Ours of life a sacred part;
Let us on our knees accord Him
Incense of a grateful heart.

Final Cotton Report Filed At Washington

A confirmation of the final ginning report to the Bureau of the Census shows that there were 66,478 bales of cotton, counting round as half bales, ginned and to be ginned in Lynn county from the crop of 1933, according to an official report this week from E. W. Holloway special agent for the county.

Mrs. Kirkpatrick Is Much Improved

We are indeed happy to report that Mrs. J. W. Kirkpatrick, who has been gravely ill for the past ten days seems to be much improved this week. Mrs. Smith, widely known through a difficult stomach disorder has been unconscious for a considerable period, and unable to take any nourishment. This week however, she is able to eat and is able to eat certain food.

The Index joins with other friends in the sincere hope that this improvement may be permanent.

Special Easter Services At OK

We are asked to announce that special Easter services are to be held Sunday morning at eleven o'clock at the OK school building, under the auspices of the Primitive Baptist folks of that community. Bro. Smith, widely known through out this part of the country, will deliver the sermon. The general public is cordially invited to come and hear him.

Mrs. Milton Simmons of Dallas was the guest Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Whitsett.

New Candidates Follow Custom

Public officials and candidates for those offices apparently try to stay somewhere in the same pattern, is the opinion that an interested and observant citizen has formed here. As proof of this fact, he cites that Charlie Morrison was evidently impressed with the looks of Judge Grider's walking-cane, so much so that he is now using one to assist himself in his campaign for commissioner. Aubra Cade announced early in the week that he was seriously considering buying a pair of roller skates — so he can leave the Court House more gracefully.

But perhaps the most striking example is that G. C. McPherson, modest and unassuming candidate for sheriff whose forte is NOT public speaking, is this week usefully and happily in the fenders of his new car. Mr. Mac hastened to explain, however, that they were not bullet holes, but were put there when another car backed into his. He also says that he is not making speeches, he would never have had the courage to make the race, but since it's just making arrests or dodging bullets, it isn't such a bad job.

True Speedway Drama For Big Radio Party

A thrilling, true story from the Indianapolis Speedway — the voices of Dan Moran, president of Continental Oil Company, and John B. Kennedy, nationally known author and radio announcer — as well as music by the Stancliers quartet and Irving Talbot's 22-piece orchestra, will be blended into a coast-to-coast Conoco radio party Wednesday night April 4, over 27 N. B. C. stations.

The all-star program, known as the "Conoco family" broadcast, will dramatize a recent major event, hitherto kept secret, but now making history in the automobile world. Special guests for the evening will be 25,000 Conoco dealers, jobbers and employees in all parts of the country. Since the facts to be presented are endorsed by the American Automobile Association, however, and will prove valuable to motorists everywhere, a cordial invitation to listen in is also being extended to the general public.

Local radio owners who wish to listen in may do so by dialing their nearest N. B. C. Blue network station, Wednesday night at 9:30 Central time.

Material Being Collected For Use Of Debaters

Material on both sides of the question concerning the government cotton acreage reduction program to be used in the Future Farmers of Texas debate contest, in which approximately 300 schools of the state will participate, is being collected and compiled by the University of Texas Extension Service Library, according to Miss LeNol Dimmitt, chief. This future is being sponsored by the Future Farmer organization among the high schools of the state, in which vocational agriculture work is being offered, the club being comprised of students in the vocational agriculture classes. The debate tournament will be conducted on approximately the same lines as the Inter-scholastic League debate tournament, sponsored by the University Bureau of Public School Interests, with county and district elimination tournaments preceding the State contest, which will be held in Austin in July. Subject for the debate is "Resolved, that the Government Acreage Reduction and Agricultural Production Control Pro-

Public Program Is Planned At Mesquite

The good people of the Mesquite school have invited the public to attend a free program at the school building Friday evening at eight o'clock. A one-act play entitled "Good Medicine" will be the feature of the evening. Sterling Bearden, Almarins Nunnally, and Danphne Lamb will play the parts of Dr. Graves, Vera Graves and Mrs. Hettie Sage. A quartet of O'Donnell people will also take part in the program, and Miss Una Merrick and the Musical Entertainers have been asked to assist. In addition to these numbers, all the candidates for the county, to the senatorial and the congressional districts have been invited to come and speak. Judge Clark M. Mullican, Senator Arthur P. Duggan, and George Mahon have accepted, and unless something happens, will be there to speak briefly.

Warning on Typhoid Fever Is Issued

Austin, Texas, March 27.—"If you have not been vaccinated against typhoid fever within the last two or three years, go to your doctor and get the disease against it," Dr. John W. Brown, State Health Officer, advises prospective campers, Boy and Girl Scouts, summer vacationists, and all other users of the open road. Another for business or pleasure, as the out-of-doors season approaches, "Typhoid fever," he continued, "is unnecessary and preventable. Every case is due either to community negligence or to the ignorance or carelessness of some individual."

"A carrier is a person who has had typhoid at some time and who even after recovery carries the germs of the disease in the urine and the discharges from the bowels. Carriers who are careless in their personal habits are likely to infect any food they handle with unwashed hands, and far reaching outbreaks of the disease have been caused by drinking milk or eating foods that have been handled by carriers. Persons may be carriers without knowing it."

"Typhoid germs are hitch hikers. They are picked up and spread from person to person by water, milk, flies, fingers, food. Every case of typhoid is contracted by the use of the mouth and the digestive system. The State Department of Health and the local health departments can be depended upon to continue their fight on the disease, but there will still be sources of infection that can be warded off only through the protection afforded by vaccination against the disease."

District Singers To Meet At Wells

We are asked to announce that the district singing convention will meet with the Wells class Sunday afternoon at 2:30, and that everyone is cordially invited to come and take part. W. Alpha of Tahoka will be present and will bring several singers from that place, and other visitors are expected.

Miss Iva Dimple Hancock is expected home from Denton for the Easter holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Townsen left Tuesday for their old home in Oregon, expecting to spend this year there. They will have a candy shop, we understand. They ordered the Index sent to them so that they can keep up with happenings in the old home town.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Sorrels were in Lubbock on business Wednesday.

Lynn Farmers Make Plans For Bumper Crop Year

Daniels Infant Is Buried Monday

The entire community was shocked and grieved when news was brought from Lamesa Sunday night that the two-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Daniels had passed away in a sanitarium there, pneumonia being the immediate cause of his death.

Funeral services were conducted at the home Monday afternoon, with Rev. G. W. Montgomery, pastor of the Methodist church, in charge. Scores of friends of the family were present to offer sympathy to the grief stricken parents and relatives. Interment was made in the city cemetery. Higginbotham Funeral Home had charge of arrangements.

The baby contracted pneumonia following measles, and this in turn was complicated by a severe case of laryngitis. He was taken to the sanitarium Sunday for emergency treatment, and a tube was placed in his throat. However, his long illness and the virulent nature of the disease rendered all effort to save his life useless and the little fellow was gone some three hours after being received at the hospital.

He is survived by his parents and two sisters, his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Daniels and Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Moore, and by his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Moore.

His smaller sister is also quite ill with measles, and his mother is so worn by her constant attendance in the sick room and by her grief that she is prostrated.

The Index joins with other friends in extending sympathy to the bereaved parents and other relatives.

The girls will also sell pop corn and candy, so bring along a few extra nickles.

Nazarenes To Attend Group Meeting

Mrs. Pearl Keeton, pastor of the local church, will preach at one of the worship periods. A full report of the business of the meeting will appear next week.

Snow and Rain a Help to Farmers

South Plains counties have this week end enjoyed practically every kind of weather in the weatherman's repertoire of tricks, from Friday's clear warmth to the blizzard of Saturday evening. A sharp decline in temperature Friday night ushered in the annual March cold spell. A light fall of sleet shortly before daylight gave a wintry look to the country. Scattering snowflakes fell during the day Saturday, and the thermometer continued to fall, with stinging winds driving and sleet impartially. Further oddity was lightning and thunder which, though not frequent, would have done credit to a summer thunderstorm.

The wind calmed during the night however, and the ground was covered with snow in the morning, the fall continuing until almost noon.

The value of this moisture at this particular time can hardly be over-estimated. Fully 95 per cent of the land was listed, so that every drop of moisture was utilized. The extreme cold weather is also said to have done credit to the farmer's crop of assistance in killing insect life.

Taken as a whole, Lynn county farmers are in better shape than they have been for years. Reduction contracts with the Federal government have been made, and the money just at the time funds are needed for the 1934 crop, old debts were paid up last fall, the barns are full of feed, and everybody is ready to go.

Three New Names Added To Ticket

Interest in the trustee election which is to be held on Saturday, April 7 seems to be growing. During the past ten days the names of W. E. Simmons, John Stokes, B. D. Ballew have been added to the list of candidates, with prospects that others will be filed before election.

Friends had already filed the names of the out-going trustees, A. H. Koeninger, Carey Shook, and Perry Hester, but they have not yet already out school politics will be hot.

The out-going board members need no recommendation to residents of the school district, and their past record speaks for themselves. Each of the three new candidates is well-known throughout the district, and the race is expected to be a warm one. Mr. Ballew is, we believe, the only new candidate who has never held a board of the board from 1927 to 1930.

The present board will leave the school district in much better shape than it has been for several years. Taxes have been reduced more than forty per cent from the level of three years ago, and a program of the most stringent economy has resulted in the payment of hundreds of dollars worth of old indebtedness. A carefully mapped out budget for this year has precluded the making of new bills. At the same time, a strict adherence to revenue budgeting has resulted in the payment of the bonded indebtedness of the district and payment of interest still due on other bonds.

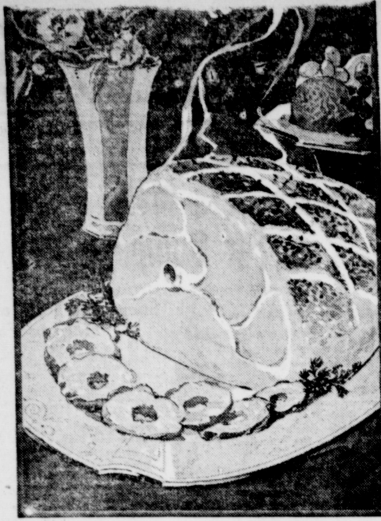

It is hoped that this same system will be followed in the present year, so that next spring will see the district in an even better condition.

335 Sign Corn-Hog Contracts In County

Three hundred and thirty-five Corn-Hog reduction contracts have been received in the county agent's office up to the present time, according to V. F. Jones, county agent.

These contracts are now being checked for completeness and errors that Mr. Jones states that many of the contracts are incomplete. One serious error that has been found, is the producer has written out a contract for hogs, but has not included the payment of hundreds of dollars of old indebtedness. A carefully mapped out budget for this year has precluded the making of new bills. At the same time, a strict adherence to revenue budgeting has resulted in the payment of the bonded indebtedness of the district and payment of interest still due on other bonds.

Master Charles Cathey McLaughlin is quite ill this week with the measles.

A Typical Easter Menu
 Iced Tomato Juice
 Radishes Spring Onions
 Baked Ham
 Mashed Potatoes
 Spinach Ring with Hard-boiled Eggs
 Buttered New Peas
 Clover Leaf Rolls
 Orange Flower Salad
 Frozen Fruit Delight
 Coffee

The iced tomato juice is a piquant way to start any meal and as tomatoes seem to have a special affinity for ham it is a good way to start the Easter dinner. A whole baked ham studded with cloves is an ideal Easter meat course and for the best results should be prepared the following way:

BAKED HAM
 Soak a ham over night in water. In the morning place in a deep pan and cover with water and boil slowly for about four hours. Remove the ham and save the water as it gives a delicious flavor to greens or vegetables when used as the liquid to boil them in. Remove the rind from the ham and score in squares. Rub brown sugar into the fat and stick a clove into the center of each square. Bake in a moderate oven until brown, basting frequently with grape or pineapple juice.

SPINACH RING WITH EGGS
 Cook the spinach and drain. Chop very fine and blend with a thick white sauce. Place in a ring mold and heat by immersing the mold in a pan of water, remove the spinach from the ring and decorate with slices of hard-boiled eggs.

ORANGE FLOWER SALAD
 For each individual salad take seven or eight orange sections and remove the skin from each. Arrange on a bed of lettuce to simulate the petals of a flower. Garnish with tiny strips of maraschino cherry, and fill the center with mayonnaise dressing pressed through a tube.

FROZEN FRUIT DELIGHT
 Bring one-half cup of water and one-eighth teaspoon of salt to boiling, add two tablespoons of minute tapioca and cook in a double boiler until clear and thick. Add one third cup of sugar and one-fourth cup of mint jelly. Continue cooking until the jelly is melted. Cool. Add the contents, both syrup and fruit of an 8-ounce can of crushed pineapple.

and the well mashed contents of an 8-ounce can of peaches, including the syrup and one-half teaspoon of almond flavoring. Freeze in a suitable refrigerator trays or in ice and salt. Stir occasionally. Fold in a cup of beaten cream and continue freezing. This recipe serves eight.

An Easter Night Supper
 Had you thought of the possibilities of a delicious Sunday night supper? Here is one that should appeal to you and your guests. It's substantial enough to appeal to those who do not go in for traditional Sunday mid-day dinners and yet it is not too heavy.

Houston, March 27.—All but approximately $5,000,000 of the present $25,000,000 NRA road building program for Texas is now under contract, and unless Congress sets aside funds for highways in the new public works appropriation, tens of thousands of Texans will be thrown out of work this autumn and the state's hope for adequate main roads for its Centennial will be blighted.

This was the warning issued by the Texas Good Roads Association
 today through its president, Judge
 W. O. Huggins of Houston, who appealed to all influential Texans to impress upon members of Congress their wishes regarding provision of funds for roads.

Col. Ike Ashburn, manager of the Association, has been in Washington for two weeks urging the case of road construction upon congressmen, senators and administration leaders.
 In company with officials of other under-improved states, he has been pleading for an added $400,000,000 especially for highways.

This would provide Texas with another $24,000,000, duplicating the present program which spreads over every one of the state's 254 counties on a minimum basis of $4 per capita.

The present program will reach its peak in June or July and begin dropping off thereafter at the rate of $2,000,000 to $4,000,000 per month, throwing thousands out of work unless the supplemented appropriation is made, the statement said.

Hope of closing the gaps in Texas' main roads for her centennial and in order to boost the tourists begins in Mexico, hangs on getting this federal money, it added.

Col Ashburn wired his office this week that congressional leaders have promised early consideration of the $400,000,000 fund, which was reported favorably by the House Committee on Roads last Wednesday, and asked all interested motorists to let their opinions be known to their representatives.

Setting Tempting APRIL Tables!

THE EASTER FEAST IS AN IMPORTANT OCCASION

Even if you are not a stickler for the rigid observance of Lent there's a gay, happy feeling about the Easter celebration that impels you to plan a particularly appetizing and attractive dinner for that day. The menu and the table decorations should convey a lightness of spring-time feeling, and the clever home maker will have no difficulty in creating the effect she desires.

Set your table with some of your finest linen and most colorful china. Decorate it with gay spring flowers. Try to create a novel and distinctive effect in your floral arrangements. Twin bowls filled with jonquils and freesia would be lovely. Or one large bowl flanked on each side with small crystal vases filled with flowers would serve as a welcome departure from the conventional center bouquet.

Table linens have never before offered such wide scope for individual choice. There are lovely damask cloths in pale pastel shades—peasant linen cloths in the same delicate colors. There are clever peasant cloths of coarse linen patterned in brilliant stripes in graduated sizes. For the strictly formal table white or tinted damask in satin smooth finish is most appropriate. Or if you like you may use runners and plate dollies of coarse Italian lace.

Be sure that your dishes harmonize with your cloth and decorations. There are Italian potteries to go with the peasant cloths and exquisite chinas to accompany the more formal table service. Glassware, too, presents a varied selection. Crystal-ware, colored glassware, reproductions of early American glass—all afford the woman who seeks to set an individual table an ample opportunity to gratify her desires.

When you are making a tour of the china and glassware departments of your favorite store don't neglect to look at the many novel new table ornaments that have lately come into vogue. You will find ornamental birds of colored glass or silvered glass, swans of china, designed to hold small bouquets of flowers, and quaint figures of animals, dolls, and birds. Any one of these will give your table that distinctive appearance that will serve to make your dinners more attractive and enjoyable.

A Typical Easter Menu

- Iced Tomato Juice
- Radishes
- Spring Onions
- Baked Ham
- Mashed Potatoes
- Spinach Ring with Hard Boiled Eggs
- Buttered New Peas
- Sweet Pickle Relish
- Clover Leaf Rolls
- Orange Flower Salad
- Frozen Fruit Delight
- Coffee

The iced tomato juice is a piquant way to start any meal and as tomatoes seem to have a special affinity for ham it is a good way to start the Easter dinner. A whole baked ham studded with cloves is an ideal Easter meat course and for best results should be prepared the following way:

BAKED HAM

Soak a ham over night in water. In the morning place in a deep pan and cover with water and boil slowly for about four hours. Remove the ham and save the water as it gives a delicious flavor to greens or vegetables when used as the liquid to boil them in. Remove the rind from the ham and score in squares. Rub brown sugar into the fat and stick a clove into the center of each square. Bake in a moderate oven until brown, basting frequently with grape or pineapple juice.

SPINACH RING WITH EGGS

Cook the spinach and drain. Chop very fine and blend with a thick white sauce. Place in a ring mold and heat by immersing the mold in a pan of water, remove the spinach from the ring and decorate with slices of hard-boiled eggs.

ORANGE FLOWER SALAD

For each individual salad take seven or eight orange sections and remove the skin from each. Arrange on a bed of lettuce to simulate the petals of a flower. Garnish with tiny strips of maraschino cherry, and fill the center with mayonnaise dressing pressed through a tube.

FROZEN FRUIT DELIGHT

Bring one-half cup of water and one-eighth teaspoon of salt to boiling, add two tablespoons of minute tapioca and cook in a double boiler until clear and thick. Add one third cup of sugar and one-fourth cup of mint jelly. Continue cooking until the jelly is melted. Cool. Add the contents, both syrup and fruit of an 8-ounce can of crushed pineapple and the well washed contents of an 8-ounce can of peaches, including the syrup and one-half teaspoon of almond flavoring. Freeze to a mush in refrigerator trays or in ice and salt. Stir occasionally. Fold in one cup of beaten cream and continue freezing. This recipe serves eight.

An Easter Night Supper

Had you thought of the possibilities of a delicious Sunday night supper. Here is one that should appeal to you and your guests. It's substantial enough to appeal to those who do not go in for traditional Sunday mid-day dinners and yet it is not too heavy.

Baked Ham Slice with Vegetables. Tomatoes stuffed with Avocado. Fresh Baking Powder Biscuits. Strawberry Ice Cream. Coffee

* Kropf and Manuel Shaffer and named the Future Farmers Class is creating quite a project along with the regular class work. The class has divided space on a large sand table and have planted a miniature farm. The crops planted are corn, oats and maize. Each boy is trying to out-point the other in his methods of cultivation. The purpose of the project is to provide material for study and also to note the changes plants

Editors Note
due to misunderstandings and late-ness of our paper to the press the two weeks The Purple Comet was not published but it is hoped such occurrences will not happen again.

Editorial
Recent government statistics show that only about sixty per cent of the children entering first grade of our schools enter high school or complete their grammar school education. About half of those entering school finish the eleventh grade and still a smaller number carry their education farther than the second schools.

Why is it that a boy or girl will drop out of school at the age when he would be most interested in his school work? Is it because conditions are different for the truant than for the child in regular attendance? Is it because the teacher makes exceptions among her pupils? No, though the teacher has often been accused of being partial, it is very rare and then may be easily explained by the strong merits of a particularly bright student who has it seem that the teacher is partial. The real trouble is in the home of the student. A child will go to school as long as going to school is interesting and he is encouraged by his parents. That is where the part-teacher any child ever had was father and mother, and if he loses confidence in every one else he always trust and believe in his parents. For this reason the parents should be very careful about how they find fault with the teachers in the presence of their children. If a parent talks against a teacher in the presence of her children, her attitude is reflected in the disposition of the child. A wise parent will not let her child to speak against his teacher but will uphold the teacher and show him where the teacher is wrong. Then if she feels the teacher is wrong, she should speak to the principal about the matter and thus solve the problem in a constructive way without poisoning the child's mind against his teacher.

Can a child be expected to be obedient and trust a teacher whom he does not see and who he does not know his own father and mother are against. In order for a pupil to progress normally in school, he must be heartily in accord with his teacher and if this does not exist between teacher and pupil, sooner or later the student will begin to show signs of interest. Parents should be on guard at all times for signs of school weariness on the part of their children and at such times engage them to keep working. Do not wait until the child has begun to drop out of school before offering advice or counsel but at the first sign of any desire to stay away from school. Unless this is done such boys and girls are sure to quit before they have completed their education and thus swell the ranks of the poorly educated which makes it so utterly impossible for our government to support such a varied class of society. We must cooperate with your schools and promote the greatest industry gained by your state—that of education. If you have been a critic of the school and see if the returns are greater.

Student Library Club Organized
By Elsie Williams
A very interesting and entertaining organization has originated in the Berry Flat school. It is known as the Berry Flat Student Library Club and the members are composed of pupils of the fifth to the tenth grade. Two very interesting meetings have been held and all the members working hard. The purpose of the club is to provide a better library for our school and create an incentive among our pupils to read more books. At each meeting the member of the club announces the roll call by stating the title of some book or the name of the author he has read during the week. Each pupil reports on the number of books read and gives his opinion concerning them. The one making the best report is awarded a prize. The officers of this club are: Dorothy Nell McMurtrey, President; Elsie Williams, Secretary; Clarence Simpson, Librarian; Robert Simpson, sergeant at arms.

Sports On Parade
By Clarence Simpson
Volley ball has taken the center of the stage in the way of entertainment at our school and every recess and noon the boys and girls are busily engaged in this sport. Occasionally a loud shout will tell the passer that some unusual play has been completed and give evidence of the fun that is being had by both teachers and pupils. When the weather is too bad to play out side we have fixed it so we can play inside under restricted ground rules. As soon as the weather warms up we are going to play some match games with other teams.

It seems that marbles is the rage with the smaller boys and many is the knee of trousers that will have to be patched as a result of this ancient pastime.

DEFINES BANKERS' PART IN RECOVERY

Head of American Bankers Association Assures the President of Confidence and Desire to Cooperate Among Bankers

WASHINGTON, D. C. — President Roosevelt in his address before the NRA conference here on March 5 announced that he had received the following telegram from Francis M. Law, President of the American Bankers Association:

"On this your first anniversary please allow me in behalf of the country's banks to express our full confidence and our sincere desire to cooperate in your courageous efforts to bring about recovery. The banking structure of the country is sound and liquid and banks have never been in stronger position to function effectively. Conditions have improved to the point where it is no longer necessary for banks to be supervised. There is a definite call now for banks, not to extend loose credits or to make improper loans, but for a most sympathetic attitude toward legitimate credit needs and for a recognition of responsibility for their proper and vital part in the program of recovery."

The Soundness of Banking

In an address before a recent conference of the association's Trust Division in New York, Mr. Law said: "A depression cannot long survive a sound banking structure if the banking structure is responsive to legitimate needs and functions in a way that is vital and alive. The most cheering fact of the present situation is the knowledge that banks are in strong position. Recovery, even to the most pessimistic, is no longer a myth or a rumor, but is being demonstrated by abundant evidence and proof lie on every hand—tangible proof. With a return of confidence the wheels have begun to go round and a great many well managed businesses may look for a profit during this calendar year with fair assurance at least. For what has been achieved let us thank the President, who has labored with courage and patience and vision. Let us thank the Congress, whose members during the emergency have put the public welfare above partisanship. Let us thank one hundred twenty-five million of our own citizens who have refused to be stampeded, but rather who have kept alive the divine spark of faith and hope."

Cause for Confidence

"We may reasonably expect that the recent action of the government in stabilizing the dollar will have a marked tendency to encourage industrial and other business operations. Business men need not be so exclusively engaged in taking counsel of their fears nor that uncertainty does not haunt them. Much has been said about the looting of credit by banks. During the acute period of the depression banks for the most part have not been lending normally, nor should they be blamed. With public confidence shattered the banker was properly concerned in liquidating, having in mind his primary obligation to pay off deposits. The situation has improved to the point where super-liquidity no longer seems necessary. Conditions have materially changed. Banks will desire, for every reason, to return to a more normal lending policy. This means a sympathetic attitude and a recognition of responsibility for his proper part in the program of recovery by the banker as he passes upon and meets sound credit requirements of business as it swings into and continues on the upward turn."

Public Confidence Returns

Direct information indicates conclusively that the banking situation is showing definite and steady improvement. J. F. T. O'Connor, Comptroller of the Currency of the United States, said in a recent address. He pointed out that the decline in deposits has occurred, and money in circulation shows the public has largely ceased hoarding.

On March 1, 1934, the Federal Reserve Board reported that the volume of money in circulation amounted to $5,355,000,000, which was a decline of $1,077,000,000 since March 1, 1933. It was a drop of $2,228,000,000, or over 29 per cent, from the all-time peak of $7,583,000,000 reached on March 12, 1933. About one-half the decrease, it was pointed out, reflected the return of currency from the public.

Money in circulation declined rapidly after the reopening of the banks in March, 1933, and has continued since to decline from week to week, "notwithstanding the increase in the demand for currency arising from enlargement of pay rolls and increase in the volume of retail trade," the Comptroller said, which, he added, "indicates a continued return of money from hoards as banking facilities were reestablished."

About Bank Loans

"As for the charge that the banks will not extend credit, the first and obvious reply is that the banks themselves are made up of the very bone and sinew of the industrial, commercial and agricultural interests of the country. Bank directors, and to a large extent, bank officers, are drawn from the business and farming population. If they do not feel at any given moment that it is wise to make a particular loan, it is more than probable that there are sound reasons for not making it," says an editorial in the Saturday Evening Post.

BANKING RETURNS TOWARD NORMAL

Reconstruction Finance Corporation Loan Repayments Show Banks Lead Process in Recovery Movement

Indicating a rapid return on the part of the banks to a normal self-sustaining basis, 54 per cent of the loans which they made from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation to tide them over the difficulties of the past two years have been repaid by them. It is shown in a recent official report.

The R. F. C. report, issued on March 6, says that the Corporation since it began operations in February, 1932, had made aggregate cash advances to railroads, agricultural and home loan agencies, insurance companies and various other institutions in the amount of $4,786,410,000. Of this sum banks and trust companies, to the number of 6,783, received actual cash advances of $1,250,540,000, but have already paid back $825,250,000, or 65 per cent. These figures are exclusive of $376,290,000 in loans authorized but withdrawn or not availed of by the banks.

Non-banking borrowers received R. F. C. advances in the amount of $3,265,870,000, and made repayments of $177,820,000, or less than 12 per cent. Among other classes of financial institutions reported as making high ratios of repayments are building and loan associations which had received $114,920,000 and have repaid $52,880,000, or over 47 per cent, and insurance companies, whose borrowings totalled $88,590,000 and repayments $43,000,000, or nearly 39 per cent. None of the major non-governmental financial groups showed so high a ratio of repayments as the banks and trust companies as a group.

BANK LOANS AND BUSINESS RECOVERY

Official Describes Efforts of Reserve Banks to Bring Out Deserving Borrowers—Present Situation Typical

Appropos of the part that an expansion of business loans by banks occupies in the early stages of the business recovery which is now gaining headway, a Federal Reserve Bank official recently gave an interesting review of the experiences of his institution in this connection. In 1932 the Federal Reserve Banks were empowered by law to make direct loans to individuals in unusual circumstances when they had been unable to obtain loans from a commercial bank, he pointed out.

From the middle of 1932 to the end of 1933 there were 1,252 applications for loans at the New York Federal Reserve Bank under this law. The great majority of these applications proved on examination to be for funds for capital purposes, which are properly supplied as an investment in the business, or else were mortgage loans or others unclassifiable as commercial.

Only Fourteen Qualify

Only 350, or less than 26 per cent, were of the type which merited detailed investigation. The amount involved was $9,525,000. After further study of these, the Federal Reserve Bank was forced to turn down the applications of 236, finally offering credit in the sum of $1,417,000 to 14 prospective borrowers. Of this amount only $806,000 was actually loaned, more than one-half of which was still outstanding many months later. Two of the borrowers went into receivership.

"Since it was the special endeavor of the Federal Reserve Bank to make every possible loan under the emergency provisions of the amendment, and since their best efforts resulted in the extension of so small a sum as to have no effect on the total volume of commercial loans, it is a reasonable assumption that eligible borrowers entitled to bank credit are being provided for by the commercial banks," says the American Bankers Association Journal in commenting on this episode.

It is characteristic, as shown by studies of past business cycles, for changes in the volume of commercial bank credit to follow behind either contraction or expansion of business activity, says a financial writer in the New York Times. This was manifest recently in England's recent recovery where there was a lag between increased business and increased commercial loans.

County Key Bankers

Describing the activities of the Agricultural Commission of the American Bankers Association, the Director, D. H. Otis, says: "With 2,500 agricultural-minded bankers designated as county key bankers, there is enlisted a tremendous force for the improvement of agriculture. These key bankers bring organized assistance to progressive bankers, who are led to see the possibilities of agricultural work in their communities. Banker-farmers are emphasized as a means of acquainting bankers, farmers and other business men with first-hand knowledge of how agricultural improvement methods are working out in practice. These give an opportunity for the key bankers to contact country bankers and work out new ideas."
