Local Collectors Are Interested in Campaign

City and school officials alike are interested in this state-wide campaign under way this week under the auspices of the Junior Chamber of Commerce for the payment of delinquent taxes.

A recent check-up of state finances revealed the fact that Texas as a state is 120 million dollars in arrears in taxes, this amount being stretched over the past four years of the depression. This situation is so alarming and so serious that business men of the state have united in an earnest effort this week, urging that every effort be made to clear up at least the greater part of this indebtedness.

Cooperating with this move, Mayor W. S. Cathey is this week issuing a proclamation calling upon the residents of the city of O'Donnell to assist in the campaign in every possible manner, and superintendent E. E. Gilbreath and J. H. ...

Figures furnished us Tuesday by Miss Claire Ruth Nichols, tax collector for the city, show that city taxes are delinquent for the following amounts: 1929, $6,455.34; 1930, $6,759.22; 1931, $5,253.46; 1932, $6,616.03; 1933, $2,837.33. Total $25,021.38.

According to the records of Mrs. Ferrell Farrington, tax collector for O'Donnell Independent School District is delinquent in the following amounts: 1929, $15,244.12; 1930, $10,490.40; 1931, $10,150.40; 1932, $8,577.00; 1933, $10,450.00; 1934, $9,231.63; 1935, $8,456 (report as of six weeks ago). Total $43,256.54.

Scores of property owners are endeavoring to secure loans through the Federal Home Owners' Corporation. It is believed that within the next few months this delinquent tax money will be available. Miss Nichols reports that many houses are being put into this loan which Mrs. Farrington reports that an even greater number of farms in the school district will be paid on soon.

The "Blue Darter" boys and girls of Joe Bailey School are getting ready to go to the county meet but will be hindered in our practice by the exams this week. Everyone is expected to do his part in the county meet.

Joe Bailey student body as a whole is doing excellent work, as most every is making a passing grade. Jack Warren, is on the absent list from school today.

Sports
By Juanita Williams
The Blue Darter boys and girls have been ranking around the top in sports this year. We are preparing for the county meet Friday and Saturday.

The Blue Darter boys played three games of play ground ball last week. They won two and lost one by a small margin. The Blue Darter girls played two games of playground ball winning one and losing the other.

We are hoping to win some honors at the county meet.

WANTED: Can use one or two men with cars on salary and commission basis. About $30.00 per week to start. If interested call at office of this paper for appointment. Will interview all interested parties. In O'Donnell for this week and next.—John Morean.

Everyone is welcome to attend and take part.

C. C. Caldwell went to Dolba the first of the week for a short visit with Mrs. Caldwell and Betty Blev.

IF YOU GET UP NIGHTS LAX THE BLADDER WITH JUNIPER OIL, BUCHU, ETC.

Drive out the irritancies and excess acids that cause irritation, burning and frequent desire. Juniper oil is pleasant to take in the form of BUKETS, the bladder laxative, also containing Buchu leaves, etc. Works on the bladder similar to castor oil on the bowels. Get a 25c box from any drug store. After four days if not relieved of "getting up nights" go back and get your money. If you are bothered with backache or leg pains caused from bladder disorders you are bound to feel better after this cleansing as you get your regular sleep.

Whitsett Drug says Bukets is a best seller.

COLORED FOLKS BEGIN REVIVAL THIS WEEK

We are asked to announce that the colored folks have this week opened a revival meeting at the Macedonia Baptist church, services to be held in the barn, owned by Mrs. I. M. Wright and located across the street from the City Hall.

Rev. Sam Wilson, assistant pastor, will have charge of the services, and the meeting is to continue through the first Monday night in April. He asks us to say that the praise service will begin each evening at 8:30, and preaching services at 9:15, to close at 10:00.

Everyone is welcome to attend and take part.

A GAS WATER HEATER MUST PASS RIGID TESTS To Earn The Testing Laboratory Blue Star Seal!

In the photograph above a testing expert in A. G. A. testing laboratory is testing a new automatic water heater to see if it meets the Thermal Efficiency requirements. The automatic gas water heater does its work so quietly and well that its very existence is forgotten days at a time by the entire family. Its principle is, of course, a regular cycle of water temperatures. When the maximum temperature of the water is reached, the thermostat turns off the gas, and automatically turns it on again when the temperature drops to the correct minimum. The very fact that it is automatic, silent, and hidden makes it particularly important when you purchase a new one, that it meets the exacting requirements of the American Gas Association testing laboratories for construction, performance and safety. These requirements, though, do not necessarily add to the manufacturing and selling cost of the water heater you buy; and hence you can find a wide selection of models possessing the BLUE SEAL, at popular prices. This is likewise true of all other gas appliances... so that you do not need to feel that because you are buying a low priced appliance, you cannot expect to have a model with the BLUE SEAL affixed to the side or back of it.

Sift Out The FACTS

Prove which is the BEST Poultry Feed!

Compare RED CHAIN Egg Mash with other egg mashes in feeding tests, and by this Actual Sifting Test: Sift one pound of RED CHAIN Egg Mash, and a few particles of easily-assimilated corn gluten feed and charcoal are all that's left. No "filler" or waste in the RED CHAIN bag!

After sifting one pound of an ordinary Egg Mash in the same sifter, the bottom will probably be covered with a thick layer of Alfalfa stems and bran. It is more expensive to feed such "filler" Egg Mashes, even at much lower first cost.

Wells Weekly Splash

The seventh and eighth grades elected an editor-in-chief who was Sylvia Aldridge. Arne Tedd was elected sports editor, Georgia Lee Barrett, society editor; and Mary Smith, school news editor to send news to the paper.

Miss Irma D. Palmer offered 35 cents or a show ticket to the pupils who could write the best article for the news that was sent in from Wells. Mary Smith of the seventh grade named the paper, "Wells Weekly Splash" and now owns the 35 cents.

The fifth and sixth grade room is planning to beautify their room for spring.

Wells had their try-outs in spelling, arithmetic and declamation last week. Sylvia Aldridge represents our school in Junior girls declamation; Audine Jordan, high school; Mary Smith and Alta Maye Simpson won out in spelling; and Sylvia Aldridge and Leota Jones in Artistic.

SWEET CLOVER SEEDING
PERMITTED BY CONTRACT

New seedlings of sweet clover may be made on acres retired from corn production under the terms of the corn and hog adjustment contracts now being signed by farmers according to an announcement by the corn hog section of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration.

These seedlings may not be used for pasturing during the period of the contracts, but may be used without restriction after December 1, 1934, when the contracted acres are released from the terms of the contract.

Confusion as to possible seeding and use of sweet clover has been cleared up by a number of states following an administrative ruling by the corn-hog section removing the sweet clover from the list of crops which would be seeded on retired acres for pasturing during the term of the contract. Officials point out, however, that the ruling does not prevent the establishment of new seedlings of the crop this year, for use after the December 1 release date.

Sweet clover was removed from the pasture list because of the fact that Hubam or common sweet clover planted early under favorable conditions would produce a large volume of feed for hogs and cattle. The use of this large feed supply from retired acres during the contract period would be contrary to the purpose of the reduction program.

"Most farmers will be satisfied in establishing new seedlings of sweet clover, alfalfa, and adapted grasses for future pasture and hay purposes, and as a general rule, it is not advisable to pasture new seedlings, and if sown until late in the fall," explains J. F. Cox, chief of the replacement crop section of the Adjustment Administration.

JOURNALISM CONGRESS TO MEET AT LUBBOCK

Lubbock, Texas, March 22.—Sixty students comprising 12 committees met in a luncheon at a downtown hotel this week and organized work for the seventh annual meeting of the Southwestern Journalism Congress which meets in Lubbock at Texas Technological College, April 20 and 21. A partial list of the speakers on the two-day program was announced at the luncheon by Prof. Cecil Home, director of journalism and publicity at Tech.

Among those to appear on the program are: Dean Frank I. Martin of the school of Journalism, University of Missouri; Prof. Ralph L. Croaman, head of the department of Journalism, University of Colorado; John M. Maginnis, editor of the Dallas News book page; Harry Montgomery, Associated Press feature service; Dr. Chas. D. Johnson, founder of the Journalism Congress; Sam P. Ben, secretary of the Texas Association; Lowry Martin, executive of the Texas Press Association. Other speakers will be announced soon.

Among entertainment features will be a student luncheon, a fair luncheon, tea for visitors, a wagon barbecue, and a Mexican fiesta the last night.

ON TEXAS FARMS

By W. H. Darrow
Extension Service Editor

The first terraces built in Cochran county were put up late in January with the help of the county agent. Terraces will furnish a certain amount of drought insurance there, he says.

Helping two neighbors make hot beds for early plants is the way Hazel McVay, a Wharton county 4-H club girl is making home demonstration work mean more to her community.

Thirty thousand poison baits have been put out for coyotes in Midland county in an eradication campaign urged by the county agent and U. S. Bureau of Biological Survey. Preliminary reports indicate a large kill.

In Delta county 260 home demonstration club women are making a study of clothing and are keeping clothing accounts in order to dress well for a year at small sums.

Cooperative hog and cattle selling in Goliad county bunched out to include turkeys last fall. Ordinarily a few markets for turkeys, Goliad became one of the best markets in South Texas last fall.

The pit or trench silos that the county agent has introduced into Upshur county would pay his entire salary for many years, according to Louis F. Boyle, supervising principal of Kelsey-Enoch high school.

Records on 28 baby beavers on feed at 4-H club boys in Menard county show average daily gains of 2.4 pounds in 213 days—the best record in three years of feeding, the county agent says.
