

"What a Man Does For Himself Dies With Him--What He Does For His Community Lives On and On"

O'Donnell Press

ADVANCING INTO THE FUTURE—BOOSTING, BUILDING, BENEFITTING

INDEPENDENT
NEWSPAPER
Supported By No Clique or
Selfish Faction

ADVANCING INTO THE FUTURE—BOOSTING, BUILDING, BENEFITTING

O'DONNELL, TEXAS, FRIDAY, MAY 2, 1941

For the Best Interests of O'Donnell and Lynn County

25 Inches Of Rain Falls Here

Proving that "it can't rain too much in West Texas," so far as the people are concerned, additional rainfall amounting to 2.25 inches was welcomed here Sunday and Monday.

The totals registered here, 1.15 for the initial downpour and 1.10 for the second, were tabulated by Ben Moore, local government observer. Cloudy skies have obscured the sun most of the week, with showers falling in various localities adjacent to O'Donnell.

The rains were general over West Texas, and the entire South Plains area is considered in "good shape" for as season is concerned.

Operetta Planned For Pupils Of Mrs. Delores Burks

An Operetta, featuring the pupils of Mrs. Delores Burks, music teacher, will be held at the High school auditorium tonight, it was announced Thursday. No admission will be charge.

The program will embrace a variety of type of entertainment.

SHACK BLOCKER IS ENDING RAPIDLY

Mrs. "Shack" Blocker was in Lubbock Wednesday to accompany Mr. Blocker home.

Following a complete "check up" Blocker is in a much improved condition.

PURCHASES HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Applewhite have purchased the Carey Shook home and will later make it their home.

REX

Evening Shows at 7:45

Fri. nite - Sat. Mat.

May 2 - 3

GENE AUTRY
-IN-

"Back In The Saddle"

ALSO

COMEDY - Junior G-MEN

Sat. nite only

May 3

PHIL REGAN
CONSTANCE MOORE
TOMMY DORSEY
and
ORCHESTRA
IN

"Las Vegas Nights"

ALSO

THREE STOOGES COMEDY

Sunday - Monday

May 4 - 5

MARTHA SCOTT
WILLIAM GARGAN
-IN-

"Cheers For Miss Bishop"

-: NOTE :-

We endorse this picture as a gem, and recommended it as a picture that will long live in your memory.—The Rex Management.

-: ALSO :-
COMEDY - NEWS

Tuesday

May 6

VIRGINIA BRUCE as
"The Invisible
Woman"

-WITH-

JOHN BARRYMORE
JOHN HOWARD

DOWN STATE FAIR WAY

Wed. - Thurs.

May 7 - 8

No rules... No mercy!
One whose love was like a tiger,
... wild and ruthless!
The other fiercely defending the man
she loved.

EDWARD BERGMAN
WARNER BAKTER
-IN-

"Adam Had Four Sons"

-: ALSO :-
SELECTED SHORTS —:—
-NEWS-

Writer Finds O'Donnell Veritable Flower Spot In Trip Over City

(By V. R. F.)

For the past few weeks, since the spring rains began—O'Donnell yards have been converted into veritable flower gardens.

It was once said that certain flowers could not be grown on the South Plains, but a pilgrimage through the city would prove otherwise now.

Those who have not been fortunate to go to South Texas in blue bonnet time have the privilege of seeing those lovely flowers in bloom at Cicero-Smith Lumber yard. Don Edwards, Mgr. has given them a prominent place in the yard on the west side of the office.

The W. L. Palmer home has been another beauty spot with quantities of Tulips in every color, these are interspersed with other colorful flowers, California poppies, blue bonnets and several varieties of iris. On Easter Sunday, a cherry tree on the East side of the house was in full blossom.

Mrs. C. H. Doak may be found each morning working in her flower garden, one of the old fashioned kind filled with phlox, roses and this year an immense bed of brilliantly colored poppies, the Doak's spent the winter months in Gulfport, Miss., but arrived home in time for Mrs. Doak to work in her garden.

As usual, the C. L. (Chris) Hafer at the local gas office will have an attractive yard. Every one will remember the canna beds interspersed with cock's combs in a riot of color last summer. Mrs. Hafer has several varieties of snap dragon in bloom now.

In Dawson Heights, the lawns of Stansell Jones, Earl Howard and George Oates have been landscaped. These are new homes and they have made rapid progress in beautifying their yards. Another unusual flower spot is the pansy bed at the W. J. Shook home on East Sixth street, with every conceivable color of these lovely little flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Higginbotham have some of the prettiest tulips at their home. Before her illness last summer, Mrs. Higginbotham could be seen daily working in her flowers. We think Mr. Higginbotham is carrying on nicely.

Two beds of crimon verbenae have been of especial interest at the home of Postmaster and Mrs. J. Mack Noble, these bright little flowers have blossomed all winter.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Ray on East Sixth are two huge yuccas in full bloom, these are called "Candles of the Lord," by Mexicans.

Mrs. J. T. Middleton Sr., has had a variety of iris, (one, the Dutch iris) in bloom as well as other spring flowers.

A few weeks ago a huge Forsythia bush was in full blossom in the Blocker yard. Mrs. Blocker has a lovely rose garden that will be a thing of beauty in a few weeks.

Those who missed seeing the "red bud" tree in "Granddaddy" Miles' yard missed a beautiful sight, the Miles' have one of the loveliest vines, "queens wreath" which blossoms in late fall.

In the Fred Henderson yard are peonies, iris, tulips, lilac red bud and an abundance of roses.

Just across the street from the Henderson home is the attractive home of Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Campbell, who are now in Rockport, (if they could see their lovely yard they might wish they were home).

Mrs. Campbell is certainly a flower lover. Only last fall they had a green house built for their own use. She is modest to a marked degree, her assertion that her ability, her garden, her home and all else be commonplace and simple, she very generously shares her blossoms for all occasions.

Just now several varieties of columbine and many other flowers in the Campbell yard are beautiful.

The B. M. Haymes home is another colorful spot in the city at this time, huge spirea bordering the porch have been especially lovely.

Mrs. Guy Bradley recently had three huge lilac bushes in full bloom, they were of the old fashioned variety and so heavily laden and odoriferous.

Some of the largest and perhaps oldest apple trees in the city are at the home of Mrs. Burks. They have been in full blossom too. This is one of the few springs when a freeze has not killed everything.

There are many other attractive spots in the city. Take a drive about and see for yourself how O'Donnell has on her best dress this spring. We think much good could be derived, both from the stand point of enjoyment by flower lovers and also in beautifying the homes, if a garden club could be one of the goals for the city.

Jim Ward New Farmall Mechanic

Jim Ward, widely known throughout this section as an experienced mechanic on all types of garage work, is now in the employ of the O'Donnell Implement company, so James Applewhite, firm manager, announces.

Ward, who has been at work for a Tahoka motor firm is well known here, having worked here and his work has given general satisfaction.

Miss Alta White New Bookkeeper At Local Motor Parts

Miss Alta White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. White, has accepted a position as bookkeeper with the O'Donnell Motor Parts. She entered upon her new duties Thursday.

ACE-HI CLUB MET WITH MRS. MIDDLETON

Entertaining in the home of her mother, Mrs. Waldo McLaurin, members of the Ace-Hi Bridge Club met Wednesday with Mrs. J. T. Middleton Jr.

In games, Mrs. George Oates won high, Mrs. McLaurin low, and Mrs. Earl Howard bingo.

A salad course was served to the above mentioned and Mesdames Jimmie Applewhite, J. M. Alderson, Bedford Caldwell, Sterling Bearden and Roy W. Gibson.

Mrs. Bedford Caldwell, outgoing president, was presented a gift.

New officers elected were Mrs. J. T. Middleton Jr. president, and Mrs. George Oates, secretary and treasurer.

Mrs. Alderson will be hostess next week.

S. M. Minton Buys First Bond

The first of the new National Defense Bonds went on sale here Thursday morning with S. M. Minton, mail carrier, being the first purchaser.

Following quickly on the heels of Minton were Don Edwards, lumberman, and W. E. Suddarth, also mail carrier.

Bonds for sale are for the following donations, with both issue and maturity amounts: $18.75 increases in 10 years to $25.00; $37.50 to $50.00; $75.00 to $100.00; $375.00 to $500.00; $750.00 to $1000.00.

Elephant Fails To Output Tractor; Grunts Disgust

A stunt which pitted an elephant against a small Farmall tractor at the circus Wednesday proved anything but happy for the elephant.

What was billed as a contest proved no contest, due to the fact that the tractor idled along and had no trouble going forward when the gasoline was generated. Observers quickly saw that another animal or two could be hitched on and still prove no match for the punny power of modern day machinery.

JOLLY DOZEN CLUB TO MEET MAY 6

Members of the Jolly Dozen Sewing Club will meet Tuesday May 6, with Mrs. J. T. Yandell.

Everyone is asked to bring birthday gifts.

FROM MIDLAND

Guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Hafer last weekend were Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Pratt of Midland.

Glamor Girls Have Sox Appeal

Here's a hint for National Cotton Week. While practicing for strenuous dance routines, floor show entertainers in George White's new night club in New York follow the trend set by college girls and don knee length cotton socks. Styled by the home economics bureau of the Department of Agriculture these new knee length socks are being worn in such bright colors as red, blue, tan and green.

New Secretary Of City Named

Miss Juandine Childers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Childers, was selected Monday as the new city secretary, so the council has announced.

Miss Childers is a graduate of the O'Donnell High school, and began immediately upon her duties, succeeding Miss Treva Payne, who is now secretary of the school board. Office of the secretary will be in the office of B. M. Haymes, and all water bills next month should be paid at that office.

Mrs. W. L. Palmer has returned from Hamlin where she visited her mother Mrs. N. M. Poe last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gooch were business visitors in Lamesa Thursday.

Mrs. John Earles was in Amarillo this week attending the Federation of Women's Clubs.

Mrs. J. W. Morris, mother of Mrs. Delores Burks was taken to a Lamesa hospital Wednesday. She has been quite ill.

Mrs. Otto Sudik of Sentinel, Okla. visited her sister, Mrs. Stansell Jones, Mr. Jones and Jane last weekend.

New Pastor Here For Sunday Week

No services will be held at the First Baptist church by the Rev. C. C. McDonald, new pastor, until Sunday, May 11, so he informed members Wednesday.

The Rev. Mr. McDonald, who comes here from Brady, has found that it will be impossible to make the move and attend to other necessary arrangements for the coming Sunday, and it was deemed more suitable to postpone the first service until the above named date.

W. M. U. DID NOT MEET

Owing to illness of several members and inclement weather, the W. M. U. of the Baptist Church did not meet Monday.

A box was to have been packed and sent to Buckner's Orphanage, this will be done next week.

IN DALLAS

Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Bubany spent the weekend in Dallas where they attended grand opera.

Mrs. Howard Lee and son, David of Dallas visited the home of her sister, Mrs. B. J. Boyd and Mr. Boyd Sunday.

FOR RENT—To couple only. Three room apartment with bath, hot and cold water furnished.—Mrs. W. L. Palmer.

Trade Day Crowd Grows Weekly

One of the largest crowds yet to attend the recently inaugurated Trade Day in O'Donnell was present Wednesday, and despite many having to make the trip over muddy roads, expressed themselves as pleased over the bargains offered by the merchants.

Other bargains are to be offered next Wednesday, with practically all firms participating. No advertisements of the various bargains are offered in this week's issue of the Press, but if you wish (for the sake of your own pocketbook) for merchants to advertise special Wednesday bargains, it will pay you to tell them so. They want to know if you can use these special bargains.

In addition to bargains, the merchants will have an interesting program, which will bring together good local talent.

THANK YOU

A subscription for Mrs. O. J. Kincaid, Azle, Texas, was ordered by C. Boales, father of the new reader of the Press.

Mr. Boales makes it a point to keep the Press paid up and coming regularly, for which he has our thanks.

Anyone else wishing to subscribe or renew (and it's time many did so) may do so next Saturday in the office next door to the O'Donnell Motor Parts, otherwise known as the Ben Moore building. Someone will be in the office throughout the day to handle all subscription. Just look for the sign of the O'Donnell Press or Trade Day Association. Right now you may secure the Press for only 50 cents a year.

AT THE METHODIST CHURCH

Church School at ten o'clock. Classes in all departments: Warren Smith Gen. Supt.

Worship service at eleven a. m. and 8 p. m.

The pastor will be in the pulpit, both morning and evening. All who have no church home are cordially invited to worship with us.

Parents with infants they wish to dedicate to God, in Holy Baptism, will please come early to the morning service.—O. M. Addison, pastor.

FROM ARIZONA

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Bradford and daughter Barbara Rae of Clifton, Arizona arrived Sunday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill De Busk.

Miss Geneva De Busk and her father Mr. Bill De Busk accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Bradford to Mineral Wells for a short visit returning Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Bowdson of Sanger will arrive Friday to visit Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Huffines.

Mr. and Mrs. Major Rodgers and Charles of Levelland visited here Sunday.

Entirely New—Inside and Out! Frigidaire COLD-WALL Now at Lowest Price Ever!

6 2/10 Cu. Ft. Food
Storage Space

$188.75

A FULLY-FITTED Marvel

- New Super-Powered Motor-Mixer
- Super-Moist Glass-topped Hydrator
- New De Luxe Meat Tender
- New, Larger Frozen Storage Compartment
- Double-Easy Quickube Ice Trays
- New Facts Label (You know what you get before you buy)
- You don't have to cover foods!

Lowest Price Ever for a Frigidaire "C" with famous Quickube Trays... It's 1941 Standard Model R-6 and costs

$121.75

Burl's Auto Parts

THE SUNNY SIDE OF LIFE

Clean Comics That Will Amuse Both Old and Young

BIG TOP

By ED WHEELAN

LALA PALOOZA A Practical Idea

By RUBE GOLDBERG

S'MATTER POP—The Blitzkrieg Seesaw!

By C. M. PAYNE

MESCAL IKE By S. L. HUNTLEY

Time to Act

POP—Modern Technique in Camouflage

By J. MILLAR WATT

THE SPORTING THING

By LANG ARMSTRONG

Suburban Heights

By GLUYAS WILLIAMS

CLASSIFIED DEPARTMENT

REMEDY

Files removed or cost you nothing. New home treatment. You smoke them. Write, BENTON JONES, Cross Plains, Texas.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

Cream cheese mixed with a little chili sauce or catsup makes a piquant filling for sandwiches. They are especially appealing with a hot beverage.

Never allow cold water to run into an aluminum pan while it is hot. If done repeatedly, this rapid contraction of metal will cause pan to warp.

A large banana and two ounces of cream cheese mashed and mixed together makes a delicious spread for crackers.

If you do not have a special board for pressing sleeves there is a convenient substitute. Slip up a large magazine, fasten with rubber bands and tuck it in the sleeve.

A scrubbing brush with stiff bristles is invaluable when washing badly soiled collar bands, mud-splashed hems or other stains on white clothes. Lay the cloth smoothly on the washboard, wet the brush, rub it across a bar of soap, then scrub the garment with strokes of the brush.

Remove seeds from dates with a sharp-bladed paring knife. Keep your fingers moistened with cold water to prevent dates from sticking. Store dates in covered jar in a cupboard.

To remove dandelion stains from washable materials, rub lard well into the spots, roll the material and let it stand half an hour or so, then wash with mild soap and warm water. Rinse well and repeat if the stains remain.

2 DROPS GIVE THE AIR TO SNIFFLES PENETRO

Just Wars The only just wars are those against poverty, disease, and crime.—Anonymous.

KILL ALL FLIES DAISY FLY KILLER

Due to Fall Those who plot the destruction of others often fall themselves.—Phaedrus.

Black Leaf 40 KILLS APHIS

We Can All Be EXPERT BUYERS

● In bringing us buying information, as to prices that are being asked for what we intend to buy, and as to the quality we can expect, the advertising columns of this newspaper perform a worth while service which saves us many dollars a year.

● It is a good habit to form, the habit of consulting the advertisements every time we make a purchase, though we have already decided just what we want and where we are going to buy it. It gives us the most priceless feeling in the world: the feeling of being adequately prepared.

● When we go into a store, prepared beforehand with knowledge of what is offered and at what price, we go as an expert buyer, filled with self-confidence. It is a pleasant feeling to have, the feeling of adequacy. Most of the unhappiness in the world can be traced to a lack of this feeling. Thus advertising shows another of its manifold facets—shows itself as an aid toward making all our business relationships more secure and pleasant.

DAY, MAY 2, 1941

Published

Entered at the post office at O'Donnell, Texas, as second class matter, under Post Office No. 100, dated May 2, 1941.

Devoted to the

SUBSCRIPTION per annum; or for single copies, 10 cents.

In case of error, hold them

Any erroneous of any person, upon being bro

NICE GAY HONORED ON

Little Janice G more for a d sty last Friday anniversary of her mother, Mr. Her grandmother, pertained the l pe home. Pictures were ta presentation y, the guests v

LAMESA DRU Dr. and Mrs. Licensed G team Batha Vito mather's office Phone 474 Dal-Paso H Lamesa

Dr. C. C. Osteopathic Phy PROCT HE LAMESA

TOP PR FOR 185-P

LEE BIL

WHEN Y EYE TH Dr. J. M. Lamesa

TOW Floc Phone 12-M

Years With NO

O'DONNELL

THE O'DONNELL PRESS

Published Every Thursday—Forms Close Wednesday Night

Entered at the postoffice at O'Donnell, Texas, as second-class mail matter, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

WILLIAM G. FORGY, Editor and Owner

Devoted to the Best Interests of O'Donnell and Lynn County—One of the best agricultural sections of Texas.

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE—In Lynn and Adjoining Counties $1.00 per annum; elsewhere $1.50 per annum. Payable in advance.

In case of error or omission in advertisements the publishers do not hold themselves liable for damages further than the amount received by them for such advertising.

Any erroneous reflection upon the character, standing or reputation of any person, firm or corporation will be gladly and fully corrected upon being brought to the publishers' attention.

JANICE GAY HUNT HONORED ON BIRTHDAY

Little Janice Gay Hunt was the heroine for a delightful children's party last Friday April 25th on the anniversary of her second birthday. Her mother, Mrs. Hollis Hunt and her grandmother, Mrs. J. N. Line, entertained the little guests in the home.

Pictures were taken and following presentation of gifts to Janice by the guests were given balloons

LAMESA DRUGLESS CLINIC
Dr. and Mrs. Hall W. Cutler
Licensed Chiropractors
Steam Baths • Corrective Diets
Vitamin and Mineral
Sulphur, Physine, Colonic x-ray
Office Phone 474 - Res. Phone 255
Dal-Paso Hotel Building
Lamesa, Texas

Dr. C. C. CARTER
Osteopathic Physician & Surgeon
PROCTOLOGY
HERNIA
LAMESA, TEXAS

TOP PRICES PAID FOR HOGS
155—Phone—238

LEE BILLINGSLEY

WHEN YOU HAVE EYE TROUBLE!

See—
Dr. J. M. Harrington
Lamesa, Texas

TOWNSEND'S
Flowers for all occasions
Phone 12-M Lamesa

for favors. The birthday cake was cut and served with ice cream.

The little guests were Carol Ann Thompson, Cynthia Rae Forgy, Nancy Gail Everett, Roddey Jene Pelts, Carolyn and Travis Pearce, Gary Kent Sherrill, Frankie Jo Young, David Allen Gary, Edmond and Donnie Hobby and the honoree.

TUESDAY CLUB WITH MRS. ROBINSON

For a prettily appointed party, Mrs. L. E. Robinson was hostess to club members this week.

A profusion of colorful flowers which included Texas blue bonnets, lilac, roses and other flowers decorated the suite where bridge was played.

Mrs. Marshall Whitsett won high score prize and Mrs. C. L. Hafer and Mrs. J. Mack Noble won slam prizes.

Apple pie with coffee was served to the guests at tables centered with dainty bouquets.

Others playing were Mesdames, Hughes, Boyd, Bradley Forgy, Hoffman, Wells, Jordan, Henderson and Cabool.

Mrs. Wells will be hostess next Tuesday.

W. S. OF C. S. MET AT CHURCH

Because of inclement weather, W. S. of C. S. met at the Methodist Church Monday instead of the home of Mrs. C. C. Coffee as was scheduled.

Mrs. Irvin Jones directed a program on "Investing Our Heritage for Christian Education".

Taking part were Mesdames Ben Moore Jr., Curtis, Stark, and Everett.

Others present were Mesdames Addison, Koeninger, Sherrill, Ben Moore Sr., and Bearden.

(Photo by Ben Moore)

(Picture Courtesy Star-Telegram)

This large pecan tree is located 5 miles east of Gall, on Bull Creek and will be the center of attraction in a state park which is being created there alongside the new highway. This highway (15) will be a very important travel artery within a very short time, forming an almost air-line from Dallas to Carlsbad Caverns.

Perhaps Jim Weatherford, of Tahoka has enjoyed a longer acquaintance with this tree than anyone, having first seen it about 1886. He states that there is no material difference in its size now and at the time when he first saw it. (The tree has a spread of 96 feet, girth of 18 feet at shoulder height and is approximately 95 feet in height.)

G. A. MET MONDAY

For the regular meeting, the G. A. met at the Baptist Church Monday.

Scriptures were read and songs sung.

Julia and Joyce Edwards were hostesses for a delightful social.

Refreshments were served to Ruth Yandell, Billy Jane Johnson, Jean Hodges, Peggy Sue Cummins, Glenda Fay Mires, Virginia Shaw, Pat Burns, Edna Edwards, John Ellen, Ina Merle and Peggy Beach, La Moyne Line and Mrs. Harvey Line. —Reporter.

MRS. LIDDELL WAS NEEDLE CLUB HOSTESS

In her home on East Eighth street Mrs. Frank Liddell was hostess to members of the Sew and Chatter Needle Club last Thursday.

The afternoon was pleasantly spent with needle work the diversion.

A dainty refreshment plate was served at the tea hour.

Those attending were Mesdames Line, Cheairs, Miles, Jones, Fritz, Johnson Tredway Vaughn, Prazier.

"Stopped Eating"

things I liked because of gas, sour stomach and heartburn. ADLERIKA relieves me. Now I eat anything I like." (J. M. Ark) IF spells of constipation upset YOU, try quick-acting ADLERIKA today.

CORNER DRUG STORE

THANKS . . .

Our thanks to Homer Hancock, City and John W. Zedlitz, Rt. 2 for their recent subscriptions to the PRESS.

SELECTIVE SERVICE

General J. Watt Page, State Selective Service Director, today announced the quotas of men that each of Texas 351 local boards will furnish to fill a U. S. Army requisition for 1,000 trainees under the Selective Service Act.

The trainees—all white—will be inducted May 5th, 6th, 7th, and 8th.

This is the Army's twelfth call on Texas to supply men for military training. The first trainees were inducted last November, and the total number already inducted is 23,585. According to War Department plans, approximately 8,600 additional men will be inducted before July 1 to complete the State's quota for the first of the program.

We Appreciate Your Business

WE HAVE A SERVICE FOR EVERY NEED AT A PRICE FOR EVERY PURSE

PICK-UP—
Mondays and Thursdays

—in O'DONNELL
MODERN CLEANERS
Leave Laundry at Modern Cleaners for pick up

LAMESA STEAM LAUNDRY

Government Inspected

For Deliveries
PHONE
WILLIAMS DAIRY

MILK

that is sanitary

Plenty of Parking Space at—

LINE-LAMBERT

And You'll Save on Purchases
SPECIALS FOR FRIDAY—SATURDAY

We Deliver — May 2 - 3 — We Deliver

Blackberries, fresh pt. 7½c

CUCUMBERS Each 4½c

ALL BUNCH VEGETABLES 1½c

SPUDS 10 Lb. 10c

PEANUT BUTTER Quart 23c

CORN FLAKES - Red & White 3 For 25c

Grape-Nuts, pkg. 15c

TOILET TISSUE 3 For 10c

ENGLISH PEAS 303 Size 3 For 27c

PRUNE JUICE, Red & White 3 For 25c

COFFEE, SHILLING LB. 25c

KLEENEX TISSUE 9c

FLOUR 48-Lbs. $1.10
Guaranteed

FISH Good Grade 2 lb. 25c

BOSTON BUTTS (HAM) lb. 22c

OLEO lb. 10c

Years Ahead In Performance and Economy . . .

NORGE ROLLATOR REFRIGERATION

With Exclusive Night-Watch Automatic Defroster . . .

NORGE HAS IT... Exclusively

"NIGHT WATCH"

provides the refrigerator you never have to defrost.

OTHER MODELS
$122.50
AND UP

The Most Beautiful Refrigerator in the World

AND full width Hydrovoir . . . 6 zones of Food Storage.

SEE NORGE BEFORE YOU BUY!

CICERO-SMITH LUMBER COMPANY

O'DONNELL

DON EDWARDS, Mgr.

TEXAS

Automatic Night-Watch defrosting is by far the most sensational new refrigeration feature in many years. But it is by no means the only great feature of the new Norge Rollator Refrigerator. Such as:

- ✦
- ✦
- ✦
- EXCLUSIVE—
- Quiet-Flo Coldmaker
- Motor Cooler
- Coldpack Meat Drawer
- Handfroster
- Cellaret

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS

By Edward C. Wayne

Germans, Greeks, British, All Suffer Losses in Fierce Balkan Fighting; U. S. Citizens Face Increased Taxes To Aid Paying National Defense Bill

(EDITOR'S NOTE—When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of the news analyst and not necessarily of this newspaper.)

Like all large government undertakings when there are vast expenditures of public funds, the U. S. defense program is being given an investigation by congressional committees. Pictured here are Sen. Harry Truman of Missouri, senate investigation chairman, and members of his group as they visited the army camp at Fort Meade, Maryland. This was the first of six such camps inspected by this committee.

Hearing on 3 1/2 Billion Tax Bill

Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau Jr. (indicated by arrow) appearing before the house ways and means committee regarding the treasury's $3,500,000,000 revenue program, said: "We face a greater challenge than at any time in the history of the republic." He warned that all classes "shall bear their fair share of the burden."

Warriors Meet

Gen. Sir Archibald Wavell (left), commander of the British expeditionary force in North Africa, pictured with Gen. Jan Smuts, premier of the Union of South Africa, in Cairo, Egypt. In South Africa, every European resident-citizen between 17 and 60 is eligible for military duty.

My Week by Eleanor Roosevelt

Rural Electrification I have been doing so many things the last few days, that I keep remembering happenings which I forgot to tell you.

One recent afternoon, in Washington, there was a meeting of the workers in the rural electrification program from all over the country. I had the pleasure of being with them for a few minutes and I mention it here because, from the beginning, this program has seemed to me to be of such general importance to the rural people of our nation.

Every time electricity is taken to some remote spot, it brings new opportunity to the farmer to lighten his labors. It allows him to accomplish more and, therefore, increases his buying power.

To the woman of the house it brings relief from back-breaking toil, a better standard in home life, more time to spend with the children, and less weariness at the end of the day. The men and women working in this program are fundamentally changing our life for the better.

'COVERING GROUND'

It seems as though I were covering a good deal of ground these days. One day I had the pleasure of meeting for a few minutes Mr. Darrell Brown, the young artist who won a prize offered by Mr. Isaac Liberman, president of Arnold Constable company, for painting a portrait of me in the dress I wore on Inauguration night. I thought I had never seen him and, since I am not particularly interested in portraits myself, I think I must have seemed a rather unsatisfactory subject. This, however, is a portrait of the dress. I was interested to learn that I had met Mr. Brown some years ago in Iowa, and was glad to be able to show him the Lincoln portrait in the State dining room, which he liked as much as we do.

We had a number of friends with us for lunch in the afternoon. I received Senora Najera, wife of the Mexican ambassador, and Senora Avila Camacho, whose husband is brother of the president of Mexico. After that, I received the high school senior class from Staatsburgh, N. Y. which is the village next to Hyde Park. They have been very fortunate in having such good weather and I am sure enjoyed their trip.

The crowds in Washington are great. I do not remember seeing so much traffic. I am particularly glad that the cherry blossoms are out, so that no one who came hoping to see them will go away disappointed.

The White House has been filled to capacity with sight-seers during the visiting hours, and I am sure this is so with all the public buildings. Our own young people went out to Mt. Vernon one day and could not even get inside the house.

SPRINGTIME

Starting for a speaking engagement in Charlotte, N. C., we arrived in Greensboro, N. C., on time. A plane sent over by the Charlotte News Publishing company, which was sponsoring my lecture, was waiting on the field. The College for Women at Greensboro had sent a few representatives to greet me with a box of flowers, and the local radio man was also there with a microphone so I could say a few words of greeting before starting on the other plane for Charlotte.

All this was done very rapidly, and then we climbed into the smaller plane with a delightful young pilot and reporter from the News, who acted as one of our hostesses during the day. We were soon looking down on the fields and woods of North Carolina.

It seemed more like summer than spring. The flowers were all out and the dogwood was in full bloom. Somehow or other, this "little" trip to southern California and then to North Carolina, seems to have robbed me of that first feeling of spring creeping over the landscape. There was no sign of spring the last time I was in Hyde Park in Washington, everything was out—magnolias, forsythias, daffodils; everything seemed in full bloom overnight! Perhaps, when I get back to Hyde Park in early May, I shall get that first sense of life awakening again in the trees, fields and marshes.

As we came through Virginia in the morning, one hillside seemed to me particularly beautiful. The leaves on the trees were pale green and a soft reddish brown. In between, some kind of white blossom glistened and the purple of the Judas tree was everywhere in sight.

CURRENT READING

In the past few days I have had so much time on planes and trains that I actually finished reading everything I took with me. I may have mentioned to you before "War By Revolution," by a young Englishman, Francis Williams, who has been in politics for a number of years. I was much interested in it because I feel that his contention is correct, that really to win the fight against Hitlerism, the people in all the countries under Hitler's control must want freedom and a better life brought by their own action.

Nazi Prisoners Recaptured After Break

Under guard of Constable T. J. Johnston (left) of the Royal Canadian mounted police and Lance Corporal Henderson of the Canadian army, two of the 28 German prisoners of war who fled from an internment camp at Peninsula, Ontario, are shown on the railroad car in which they were returned. Twenty of the fugitives have been rounded up.

Makes Report

Brig. Gen. Brehon Somervell, army construction division chief, before Truman senate committee. He said that almost over night his division was required to produce living facilities for a population half again as big as the city of St. Louis.

Making Sparks Fly at Tank Plant

This picture is typical of the way the national defense program is progressing. Here two hooded welders at the plant of the American Car and Foundry company in Berwick, Pa., are shown at work on some of the armor plate that goes on the fighting tanks being turned out by the hundred. Tanks roll off the assembly line at a rapid rate.

Visits F. D. R.

Premier W. L. Mackenzie King, of Canada, stepping out of his car to confer with the President at the White House. Aid for Canada on a lend-lease basis was said to have been the chief topic of discussion at the meeting.

Still Holds Floor

Wendell Willkie addressing the "Americans of Polish Origin" at their dinner in New York. At left is Gen. W. Sikorski, premier of the Polish government in London.

Panzer Parade in Captured Belgrade

Radiophoto of German panzer units parading down one of the main thoroughfares in Belgrade in review before General Von Kleist, after the occupation of the Yugoslav capital. Part of Parliament square is shown in background. After 11 days of fighting the Yugoslavs capitulated.

GREECE:

Nazi Power

The Germans, it was apparent, were able to do in about three or four weeks what Italy had been unable to do in any length of time—beat the embattled Greeks.

The battle of Jugoslavia, which lasted nine days, being over, the Italians contented themselves with pursuing the Greek army of Epirus, only a shell, it is true, of the forces the Greeks had there originally, and which had to withdraw because of the onslaught of the Panzer divisions in the eastern part of the country.

When this army surrendered, it was certain that the end of Greek resistance was in sight. King George II, announcing that he had not been informed of the impending surrender of the western army, fled with his government to Crete, announcing he would continue to direct the offense from there.

But it was apparent that the Greek campaign must be abandoned, and the British must face another Dunquerque or lose their entire manpower on the mainland. The debarkation from Piraeus promised to be even a more difficult task than the flight from France, as German claims of sinking 59,000 tons of transports in one day showed.

Just as the British lost all their artillery and mobile units and the rest of their supplies in the retreat from the low countries, so it also appeared the vastly smaller army in Greece would, nevertheless, suffer the same loss, if, indeed, they were able to get away at all.

Military observers believed, when totaled up, the British disaster in Greece would amount to more from the standpoint of casualties than did the entire British campaign in France. And this they believed in spite of constant reports from London that "lines were holding firm" and that "new defensive positions were being consolidated"—reports circulated even at the moment when the king and government of Greece were in flight, and thousands of Greek soldiers were laying down their arms.

That this was a censorship "smoke screen" to attempt to cover a trial at withdrawal similar to the Dunquerque pattern seemed fairly obvious to most observers.

Central battle in the final debacle occurred at historic Thermopylae Pass, where in ancient times the Greeks had successfully withstood precarious threats to her independence. In fact, most military observers had always maintained that in order to conquer Greece Thermopylae Pass must first be threaded.

However, in ancient times, the pass was narrow indeed—now it was wider, the attackers had fast mobile units to pour into the fray, and the Greek and British rear guard, said the Germans, were totally unable to withstand the advance.

The cloud of censorship hid the facts about the British withdrawal, whether it would be entirely tried through Piraeus, or whether the British forces would retreat through Athens to the Peloponnesus, and attempt to fight or debark there.

But certain it was that Greece was doomed, after three to four weeks of furious warfare, warfare in which the Germans suffered their heaviest losses of the war.

Economic Result

Whether it was "whistling going through a churchyard," or a well-considered opinion, "informed experts" at Washington seemed to feel that the Nazi conquest of Greece might be more economically costly than worthwhile.

They said the latest German triumph, on the contrary, might prove costly to the Nazis, for the devastation and physical upset of the population in the Balkans might seriously curtail the flow of supplies Germany had been receiving.

TAXES:

Defense Finance

A "practically unanimous vote" of the house committee considering President Roosevelt's $3,500,000,000 tax plan to finance a portion of the national defense cost, seemed to grease the ways for the launching of a bill.

But almost immediately there were some signs that opposition would rise against the bill when, as and if it was brought out.

One of the basic ideas in the tax layout is a plan to levy higher surtaxes on everyone who now pays income tax. Another was to invade the lower brackets and make those pay taxes who are not now doing so.

For instance, it was pointed out in opposition quarters, the new proposed surtax schedule would make a childless couple now earning $2,500 net earned income, a couple now paying $11 income tax, hike their tax to $72.

All income taxes now include the tax on a tax, or the 10 per cent income tax supertax for defense purposes.

Despite the appearance of opposition, the President told a press conference he thought the nation will be able to absorb a $3,500,000,000 hike in taxes. He said it would mean that people would have to buy a little less, and pay a little bit more for the sake of the defense and future of the nation.

'Little Man'

Most of the early opposition appeared to be against a plan which would place a heavy load on the already heavily taxed "little man" in the form of income tax where he would feel it the most.

Also the surtax would hit heavily insurance companies and banks who are heavy holders of government bonds. At top and at bottom seemed the chief opposition to the tax.

For instance, a single person with an income of $1,000 (net earned) would pay $29 tax under the proposed schedule instead of $4 as at present. A married couple with two children with an earned net income of $3,500 who would now be paying $15 income tax, would find their levy boosted to $100.

Under the plan, the 4 per cent tax would be retained, and the surtaxes would start with $2,000, (11 per cent) which would be a total of 15 per cent. To this would be added the defense supertax, or 10 per cent of the total tax, added to the bill.

The effective rate, therefore, on the bottom bracket, would be 16.5 per cent.

The treasury estimated that these changes, if put into effect, would raise a billion dollars a year, or a little less. The estate tax exemption, under another plan, would be reduced from $40,000 to $25,000, and rates in the lower and middle brackets would be raised.

This, the treasury experts said, would yield about a third of a billion. As a sample of this tax, if one inherited $20,000, over and above the exemption limit of $25,000, one would pay $1,800 to the treasury instead of $600 as at present.

If a person inherited $125,000, or $100,000 more than the proposed exemption, the tax would be hiked from the present $9,600 to $21,000.

STRIKES:

And Prices

There was little doubt that prices, Leon Henderson or no Leon Henderson, were taking a generally upward trend, and that the strike situation, while somewhat improved, was not yet what it should be.

President Roosevelt's personal appeal to the southern coal operators to renegotiate with the northern operators and workers brought fruit, but whether this would end the strike speedily was dubious.

Things to do

Pattern 6396.

A BRIGHT decoration in any room, this rug crocheted in four strands of string, candlewick or rags looks like a large chrysanthemum. Use two shades of a color, with white, gray, tan or three colors.

Pattern 6396 contains instructions for making rug; illustrations of it and stitches; materials needed; color schemes. Send order to:

Sewing Circle Needlecraft Dept.
32 Eighth Ave. New York
Enclose 15 cents in coins for Pattern No.
Name

MOROLINE HAIR TONIC

Without Thinking Many a man fails to become a thinker for the sole reason that his memory is too good.—Nietzche.

RAZOR BLADES

ASK YOUR DEALER FOR THE OUTSTANDING BLADE VALUE
KENT BLADES
Double Edge 10 for 10c Single Edge 7 for 10c
BLADES Single Edge 7 for 10c
"TAKING THE COUNTRY BY STORM"
KNOWN FROM COAST TO COAST
CUPPLES COMPANY - ST. LOUIS, MO.

Cling to Certainty
He is no wise man that will quit a certainty for an uncertainty.—Samuel Johnson.

IS THERE A MILD
ROLL-YOUR-OWN
TOBACCO THAT ROLLS
QUICK, EASY WITHOUT WASTE?

(By Arthur Clark BELOW)

MY REGARDS TO PRINCE ALBERT'S CRIMP CUT FOR FAST, SMOOTH ROLLING WITHOUT BUNCHING, KINKING, SPILLING OUT. AND THAT'S MILD SMOKIN', TOO. NOT A BIT OF TASTE IN PRINCE'S RICH TASTE

70 fine roll-your-own cigarettes in every handy tin of Prince Albert

PRINCE ALBERT
THE NATIONAL JOY SMOKE
L. T. Reynolds Tobacco Co., Winston-Salem, N. C.

NEW IDEAS

ADVERTISEMENTS are your guide to modern living. They bring you today's NEWS about the food you eat and the clothes you wear, the stores you visit and the home you live in. Factories everywhere are turning out new and interesting products. And the place to find out about these new things is right here in this newspaper. Its columns are filled with important messages which you should read.

Household News
by Lynn Chambers

THRIFT CUTS—MORE MEAT FOR YOUR MONEY

MEATS FOR BUDGET MEALS

If you're meat-wise, then you're budget-wise! For the less expensive cuts of meat have a way of making food dollars really s-t-r-e-t-c-h.

What's more, the thrift cuts of meat are equally as chock full of flavor, health-giving vitamins, body-build- ing proteins and minerals as the more expensive ones. When you buy a chuck roast instead of chops; hamburger instead of steak; or baby beef liver instead of calves liver, your economy isn't depriving your family or guests of even a teeny, weeny bit of food value. That's the verdict of nutrition experts. And they know.

Economy in purchasing meat comes from knowing the wide variety of different meat cuts available, and from purchasing some of the cuts which are not in greatest demand. For example, a pot roast of beef, delicious as it is and as much as it is enjoyed by everyone, sells for considerably less per pound than a rib roast of beef. The reason, of course, is that there is a greater demand for rib roast. You'll surely be pleased, and surprised, too, at the way you can save money on your food budget, at the same time adding variety to both your family and company meals, by following to- day's penny-pincher recipes.

Stuffed Shoulder of Lamb.
How to Buy: Good quality lamb is pinkish and well-marbled with fat. Outside fat is smooth, hard, glossy and cream-white. Look for both government inspection stamp and packer's private grade stamp. Find the grade that suits you, then always buy it. Ask your meat man to bone the shoulder, leaving a cavity to fill with stuffing. (You can use the bones for broth, soup or gravy stock.)
How to Cook: Prepare a well-seasoned stuffing; fill cavity, then sew up edges or skewer in place. Weigh meat after stuffing to compute cooking time. Place fat side up on rack in open pan, rub with salt and pepper. Cook in slow oven (325 degrees F.), allowing about 35 minutes per pound. Garnish with mint leaves and a vegetable; serve. Delicious!

Dressing for Lamb.
2 slices bacon
2 cups bread crumbs
1 cup sour apples, chopped
1 cup raisins
1/2 cup celery, chopped
Fry bacon until crisp and add to bread crumbs, raisins, diced apples and celery. Season with salt and pepper and pile lightly into cavity in lamb shoulder.

Eye-of-Round Roast.
How to Buy: The lean of beef should be well-marbled with fat, firm, smooth, glossy; soon after the meat is cut, the surface should turn bright red. The outer fat should be fairly thick, firm, flaky, cream-white. In lower grades fat is softer, yellower. Though price per pound will perhaps exceed that of rib roast, it is all solid meat—no bones, no fat, no waste of any kind.

LYNN SAYS:
Spread apple or crabapple jelly over the top of roasting ham, veal or pork for the last 30 minutes. The jelly gives an appetizing flavor and a glossy brown top. Crumbled bacon adds a wonderful new flavor to cooked green beans, yellow or white squash, browned navy beans or spinach. Add the bacon in the last 5 minutes.
Long, slow cooking at a low heat is the general rule for cooking the thrifty cuts of meat.
Ranking low on the butcher's price list but high in nutrition are such meats as kidney, brains, heart and liver. They make delicious dishes when properly cooked.

THIS WEEK'S MENU

Cream of Pea Soup
Stuffed Shoulder of Lamb
Parsley Buttered Potatoes
Buttered Carrot Strips
Peppered Cabbage Relish
Peppermint Ice Cream
Chocolate Cup Cakes
Recipe Given*

Swedish Meat Balls. (Serves 6)
2 pounds finely ground beef
1 cup mashed potato
1/2 cup apple sauce
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1/4 teaspoon nutmeg
Shortening
1 can vegetable soup
1/2 cup milk
Combine beef, potato, apple sauce and seasonings. Roll into small balls the size of a walnut. Brown well in hot shortening, in baking dish. Pour on soup and milk and bake in moderate oven (375 degrees F.). Thicken gravy; serve.

Cubed Steak With Vegetables.
Cube 1 pound of thrifty cut of steak, such as round or chuck. Brown it in hot fat. Add 1 cup boiling water and 1 teaspoon cornstarch, mixed with a little cold water, and salt and pepper to taste. Stir until mixture is boiling. Add 1 large green pepper cut into squares, and 2 large sweet onions cut into eighths. Cover and simmer until steak is tender. Add 2 large tomatoes cut in eighths and cook 2 minutes longer. The gravy may be seasoned with a few drops of seasoning sauce. Serve at once. Boiled rice is an excellent accompaniment.

Stuffed Flank Steak. (Serves 6)
1 flank steak (about 1 1/2 to 2 lbs.)
4 cups dry bread
1/2 cup milk
1/2 cup boiling water
1/2 cup butter
1/2 cup finely chopped onion
1/4 cup finely chopped parsley
1 egg
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
Pepper
Have your butcher score the steak and cut a pocket in it. Break the bread into small pieces. Mix milk and boiling water. Pour over bread and let soak until soft. Melt the butter, add onion and cook without browning, about 5 minutes. Add to bread-milk mixture the parsley, beaten egg, salt and pepper. Press this stuffing into the pocket of the steak. Bake in a shallow pan, uncovered, in a moderate oven (350 degrees) two hours. Slice it generously and garnish with sprigs of crisp parsley.

There's plenty of good, substantial eating in stuffed flank steak, so the rest of the meal can be simple. A vegetable (stewed tomatoes, beans or cauliflower, perhaps); dessert and beverage would round out a satisfying, appealing menu.

Veal Birds With Mushroom Sauce.
2 pounds veal round
bread stuffing
3 tablespoons flour
3 tablespoons lard
salt and pepper
1 small can mushroom soup
Have veal round cut into one-half inch slices. Cut into pieces for individual servings as nearly 2 by 4 inches in size as possible. Place a spoonful of stuffing on each piece, roll and fasten edge with toothpicks. Dredge with flour and brown on all sides in hot lard. Season. Pour mushroom soup over veal birds, cover and cook very slowly until done, about 45 minutes.

For variety, instead of using a bread stuffing, spread finely chopped onion over the meat, place a partially cooked carrot in the center, roll and fasten.

(Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By HAROLD L. LUNDQUIST, D. D.
Dean of The Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.
(Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

S. S. Lesson for May 4

Lesson subjects and Scripture texts selected and copyrighted by International Council of Religious Education; used by permission.
THE CHURCH ENLARGING ITS FELLOWSHIP

LESSON TEXT—Acts 8:1-8, 14-17, 25. GOLDEN TEXT—Therefore they that were scattered abroad went everywhere preaching the word.—Acts 8:4.
In a time characterized by materialism and commercialism, it is refreshing to consider the manner in which the early church spread the gospel far and wide. They did this without thought of personal gain or advantage, and with a sacrificial devotion to Christ which caused men and women to be willing to die for Him, and what many sometimes believe even harder, to live for Him in the face of persecution. Here was loyalty that puts expediency to shame, and sacrifice of self for Christian principle which needs emphasis in this "soft" age.

The enlarging of the church is revealed by our lesson as being I. By Death or by Life (vv. 1-4). Stephen, one of the deacons, "a man full of faith and of the Holy Ghost" (8:5), was stoned because of his testimony for Christ. He became the first martyr of the church, leading the line of those noble men and women who down to our own day have been ready to die rather than to deny Christ. The day may not be too far distant when some of us may face that decision. Are we ready?

To every one of us who is a Christian comes the necessity of living for Christ. Some in Jerusalem died (v. 2), some were imprisoned (v. 3), but notice that the others were scattered abroad, like brands from a fire, carrying the message of God's Word. They were not afraid, did not go into hiding, nor did they "adjust" their message to meet the circumstances. They went "everywhere preaching the word."
While persecution may sometimes hinder the spread of the gospel, it also frequently stirs the zeal of God's people to preach and teach. Just now in the midst of the havoc of war and persecution the good news of salvation is spreading in lands which hitherto knew it not. Are you and I doing our part?

II. By Preaching That Brought Joy (vv. 5-8). Philip, a layman (the first of many great evangelists) and a Jew, went to the despised Samaria with the gospel, and God so signally blessed his ministry that a great revival broke out and "there was much joy in the city."
What we need is more gospel preaching and teaching. You laymen, please note that you are not to wait for the preacher to do it. Spread the good news yourself. And note too that it is to be preached to all people, even to those whom we might (humanly speaking) be tempted to despise, either by reason of race or position in life. It was a glorious thing that happened to Philip in Samaria. It can happen again, and "it can happen here."

III. By Fellowship That Brought Blessing (vv. 14-17). When the church at Jerusalem heard what had happened in Samaria, they were overjoyed, and sent two of their leaders, Peter and John, to encourage and counsel with the new converts.
Such fellowship always brings blessing, and in this case it was unusual blessing; namely, the gift of the Holy Spirit. On this occasion, God thus gave these new Samaritan believers the blessing and power of the Holy Spirit in such a way as to bind them in fellowship to the church in Jerusalem. Jew and Gentile believers in Christ thus were joined in one communion of love and faith.

IV. By Broadened Vision That Brought Action (v. 25). Peter and John had completed their work in Samaria and were on their way home to Jerusalem, but what they had seen had given them a new vision. They acted on that vision, and as they passed through the villages of Samaria they "preached the gospel" with joyful hearts. What an interest and stir they must have created!
It is one thing to see an opportunity and a need; it is quite another to do something about it. For that, one needs determination of purpose. As Lloyd George put it, "You cannot fight a winning battle with a retreating mind." These apostles were reaching out for God, and under His leadership and blessing, into the villages of Samaria.

The Christian church needs more real consecrated action; that is, in the name of Christ and for His glory. The business man who conducts his secular affairs with enthusiasm and dispatch, often forgets all that in his church duties. He advertises and seeks new markets for his goods, but is not interested in the outreach of the church. He can get excited about the Rotary Club or the Lions or what not, but never develops the slightest enthusiasm about the Lord's work. It goes without saying that such a "picture" is all out of focus. Let's make it right. Vision? Yes, by all means. But also action for God.

PATTERNS SEWING CIRCLE

line cut to smart new depth, and the other is turned back in narrow revers. Make the dress in household cottons, trimming with braid and adding a couple of pockets, and it will be one of your most comfortable work-a-day styles. Make it of light, inconspicuous prints, flat crepe or spun rayon for street wear, with plain neckline, softened by a narrow touch of contrast.

The detailing is perfectly planned to create the high-busted, slim-hipped line most becoming to large figures. The skirt has a gradual flare. It's one of those utterly simple dresses that has loads of distinction.
Pattern No. 1333-B is designed for sizes 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46, 48, 50 and 52. Size 36 requires 1 1/2 yards of 36-inch material without nap; long sleeves, 5 1/4 yards, 1 1/4 yards braid or yard contrast for neck binding. Detailed new chart included. Send order to:

SEWING CIRCLE PATTERN DEPT.
Room 1324
211 W. Wacker Dr. Chicago
Enclose 15 cents in coins for Pattern No. Size
Name
Address

Restaurateur Believed Himself Well Supplied

The couple had enjoyed a meal in the restaurant. When the bill was presented the husband was horrified to discover he had come out without money.
Calling the proprietor, he explained the situation, ending up with:

FREE! FREE!
Your selection of many premiums shown in our premium list for $2.11 in 40 packages of chewing gum and remitting to us the $2.00. Easy to sell. We trust you. Address—
THE WILLIAMS CO., P. O. Box 459, San Angelo, Texas.

Ask Me Another

A General Quiz

- The Questions
1. What are obiter dicta?
 2. In Roman numerals, what is the meaning of "M" with a line over it?
 3. Where are the sunniest spots in the United States?
 4. Is the ghost shrimp transparent?
 5. Are all roses fragrant?
 6. Could Mount Everest be submerged in the Pacific ocean?
 7. What is the highest church in the world?

- The Answers
1. Incidental remarks.
 2. One million.
 3. The sunniest spots in the United States are in southwestern Arizona and southeastern California.
 4. The ghost shrimp is so transparent that the beating of its heart may be seen through its shell.
 5. Of the thousands of varieties of wild and cultivated roses growing throughout the world, not more than 50 are fragrant.
 6. If Mount Everest (29,002 feet) were located on the Pacific ocean floor in the Philippines, its summit would be submerged 6,000 feet.
 7. The highest church in the world is the Protestant cathedral in Ulm, Germany. The spire extends 528 feet above the street, or a height equivalent to that of a 44-story building.

WE FOUND A BETTER WAY

CTESIBIUS, GREEK PHYSICIAN,
DETERMINED TO FIND A BETTER WAY TO LIFT WATER. HE INVENTED THE PUMP AROUND 250 B.C.

THE BETTER WAY TO TREAT CONSTIPATION DUE TO LACK OF PROPER "BULK" IN THE DIET IS TO CORRECT THE CAUSE OF THE TROUBLE WITH A DELICIOUS CEREAL, KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN... EAT IT EVERY DAY AND DRINK PLENTY OF WATER.

Misused Necessity
Necessity is the plea for every infringement of human freedom. It is the argument of tyrants; it is the creed of slaves.—Pitt, the Elder.

SPECIAL - BIG 11-OUNCE BOTTLE OF HINDS HONEY & ALMOND CREAM
Regular $1 size limited time only — 49¢

Benefits to Our Readers

THE PUBLIC nature of advertising benefits everyone it touches. It benefits the public by describing exactly the products that are offered. It benefits employees, because the advertiser must be more fair and just than the employer who has no obligation to the public. These benefits of advertising are quite apart from the obvious benefits which advertising confers—the lower prices, the higher quality, the better service that go with advertised goods and firms.

The results of the senatorial elections will be taken more seriously in Washington than in the country. At the capital they are preoccupied with the tactics of the political game more than the substantive questions with which the country is interested at the present time. At the present time the senate can be organized as seems likely, they will cooperate with the House for the committee on the qualifications of the major reliable support.

Survey: The senate's view has been expected. It has been badly broken up and is not consistent with that of the House. The House has raised passes than between the government and the legislature. The legislature will continue to do so.

However, the House in Massachusetts was powerful. It was a leader in the House of Representatives. The House of Representatives has a plan to do so.

NOW

UN
 ...her do that more
 A—Yes. Four or five
 ...time did she leave
 ...ing to the study of
 ...the pastor's desk.
 ...7 o'clock.

vicaragua; 25 Kebel
 [Chicago Tribune Press
 EL AJARACO, on the order, Nov. 3.—
 whose father is an was found
 last night
 ed with rifle carrying d gover
 wer

Welcome news to all Tractor and Automobile owners in this section of South Plains.

A Complete Garage Service! For All Tractors For All Cars

Mister Farmer!

"A Stitch In Time Will Save Nine" and replacing a worn part before it breaks saves many valuable hours of time in a busy planting season.

Our bins are well-stocked with genuine IHC parts. Check your tractor and tillage tools for any worn parts — and then take no chances. Replace them NOW.

Establishing a complete service such as this demands, of course, the proper tools for the work and skilled mechanics to use these tools. As our business has grown we have continued to add to our equipment and will add more and more in the future. In soliciting repair work on your tractor or car we do not ask you to entrust your engine to unskilled workers who have only good intentions. Instead, we have good men and tools for them to use and we guarantee their work to be exactly as represented to you. We stand ready at all times to make service calls to your tractor for such minor repairs or adjustments that may be properly done in the field. Remember too that we make no charge for picking up your tractor for overhaul nor for returning it to you after the job is completed regardless of make - model.

Service Dept.
 Jim Ward Mack Presley

TO ALL OF YOU ...

We take great pleasure in announcing that we have secured the services of

JIM WARD
 AS OUR SHOP FOREMAN

To those of you who know him, and are familiar with his work it is "enuf sed!", but others never having had the opportunity of observing his work, we say that a trial will convince you that all type of garage work can be DONE RIGHT IN OUR SHOP — AND WILL ALWAYS BE DONE RIGHT! We invite you to come in TODAY and inspect our shop and equipment and get acquainted with our mechanics.

Farmall Farming Marches On!

They're Good Used Tractors

We still have several good used tractors left—and they are priced right for you. They're in good shape and will do good work.

O'Donnell Implement Co.

JAMES APPLEWHITE, Manager

New Yorkers Are Talking About:

The former Minister to Austria, who teaches Foreign Relations at Georgetown Univ. He is still on the Nazi payroll at $200 a week "pension" . . . Vincent Cullen, N. Y. insurance exec and former business associate of FDR, who may head the Stock Exchange . . . Alex King's new mag. It'll have a page (for obnoxious people) called The Bore of the Month Club. Nothing personal, I hope.

Gertrude Lawrence's "laryngitis" which is really heartache and nerves over news from abroad. Bert Lytell of the cast had to shake her before an eve's performance to stop her from crying so hard . . . Grand Duchess Marie's withdrawal from the Paderewski Fund Party Committee, after he heard she was on it and hit the ceiling . . . The frosty glances these nights between Noel Coward and John Buckmaster Sets. Each believes the other should be in the British army instead of staging benefits over here.

The truth about Tommy Corcoran's magnesium fee. He received no coin, merely an offer of stock . . . Quentin Reynolds returning to England with 5,500 sulfanilamide tablets which are marketed "Made in Germany" . . . The Communist leaders who last week voted to start an anti-Semitic campaign in an effort to get the public's mind off Communists.

Charlie Chaplin's newest and most torrid romance: The way he dunks hamburger sandwiches into coffee . . . Senator Wagner's recovery, which is everybody's idea of swell news . . . The new music mag, "Baton"—which is so superstitious it has no page 13 . . . The Brits placed in the swank spots by the British Gov't at swell pay to watch and listen . . . Pod'n the proofreading: Wm. C. Bullitt's smarticle in Life is called "What Next?"

Jimmy Cromwell and Luise Rainer being glug-glug . . . Gen. Hugh Johnson being miffed at his publishers, Bobbs-Merrill, who are also publishing Ralph Ingersoll's "America Is Worth Fighting For" in 10 days. It contradicts almost everything Johnson says in his book . . . Dorothy Thompson's yip that she has nothing to do with collaborating on a new play. Why doesn't Dorothy get the drama eds who said it to deny it? . . . The description of a White House press conference, where the reporters are pretty blunt, "It's like having an entire audience heckle the m. c." . . . The rumor that Senator Burton Wheeler will win a Pulitzer Prize for Fiction.

Last Time I Saw London:

(By Reagan McCreary, chief editorial writer of The New York Mirror. He was the first American to cross the Atlantic ocean to Britain in a bomber.)

London Memories that Won't Erase: The young Scotch boy, member of the Pioneer Corps that cleans up smashed cities right after an air raid . . . tears were sluicing through the bomb-dust caked on his face . . . he carried a child's glove . . . "There was a little 'and in it, a kiddie's 'and but I can't find the kiddie" . . . and the veteran sergeant who kicked the boy in the pants because he was shattering morale . . . and how the Scotch boy said: "Thanks." . . . The big picture of Roosevelt, torn from a magazine, flapping on the stump of a wall in the slums back of Mile End Road.

London's No. 1 Glamour Girl, whose first fiancé was killed in a crash, whose second fiancé is in a Nazi prison camp, whose only thought now is how to avoid being conscripted in Ernie Bevin's drive for women munitions workers.

Lord Perry Brownlow describing the little Caspar Milquetoast of a man who came to remove a 3,000 pound unexploded bomb from his air cannon factory after a night raid: "A strong wind would have whisked him away . . . he hugged the bomb, fondly, and listened . . . then he asked for a cup of coffee, then he went for a half hour's walk . . . to think . . . then he came back and took the fuse out of the bomb, carried it off in his pocket . . . and we breathed again . . ." Lord Brownlow prophesied: "After this war, there will be no House of Lords . . . nothing without function will survive."

This Raced My Pulse: Watching a flight of Grumann American-made Martlets from the Fleet Air Arm, swooshing down through fog onto the field at an RAF station while Hurricane pilots watched goggle-eyed . . . then watching the Martlets tangle with the Hurricanes in challenge aerobatics . . . The Martlets won at intermediate altitudes. The combat pilots from the American Air Force landed in Britain as observers last week will soon prove the value of the American made P-40 Tomahawks at ANY altitude.

THE SMOKY YEARS

By ALAN LE MAY

W. N. U. Release

INSTALLMENT 2 THE STORY SO FAR:

Dusty King and Lew Gordon were joint owners of the vast King-Gordon range which stretched from Texas to Montana. When building up this string of ranches, they continually had to fight the unscrupulous Ben Thorpe. Thorpe rivaled King-Gordon in power and wealth, but he had gained his position through wholesale cattle rustling and gunplay. Their opposing interests came to a showdown when the Government announced the auctioning of the Crying Wolf land in Montana. Bill Roper, King's adopted son,

CHAPTER II

An hour spent in the Wells Fargo office with the deputy commissioner, filling out forms, signing papers, ended as Dusty King and Bill Roper stood with Lew Gordon on the board walk. It was the first time the three had had a word alone since the Crying Wolf had passed into the hands of King-Gordon.

"Well," said Dusty King, "we got her."
"Maybe," Gordon said, "this is our chance. Maybe now we can get the cow business on a sound basis, here in the north, and have some order, and decent law."
"You'll never get a 'sound basis' until Ben Thorpe is bust," Dusty said. "What law enforcement we got in the West is rotten through and through with office holders that Thorpe owns."
"Some day," Gordon said slowly, "Ben Thorpe has got to go."
"Some day? Lew, we've got him beat!"

King's exuberant mood of victory was not to be dampened. "You want law and order?" he chortled. "We'll show 'em law and order!"
"That puts me in mind," said Gordon. "A feller passed me this here to give to you." He handed Dusty King a little twisted scrap of paper, torn off the corner of something else. Dusty untangled it, looked at it a moment, showed it to the others. Five words were penciled on it in sprawling black letters:

IN GOD'S NAME LOOK OUT

"Who's this from, Lew?"
Gordon's lips moved almost soundlessly. "Dry Camp Pierce."
Roper knew that name, without knowing what lengths of outlawry had brought Dry Camp Pierce to where he was today. Rewards backed by Ben Thorpe were on Dry Camp's scalp over half the West; probably it was as much as his life was worth to show himself in Ogallala now.

"This note—" Dusty King tossed it off with a shrug. "Oh—I suppose Thorpe is getting drunk some place and spouting off about what all he's going to do to me when he catches up." Dusty's teeth showed in his infectious grin. "I suppose Dry Camp thought I ought to know about it."

"He's right Dusty," Lew Gordon said. "We do want to look out, all of us, all the time."
"We always had to look out," Dusty scoffed.

"It'll be the more so now. There isn't anything in the world Ben Thorpe's people will stop at, Dusty."
"Let 'em come on."
"We want to look out," Gordon said again.

"If you feel that way about it," said Dusty, "what was the idea of your working through that law we can't wear guns in town?"

Bill Roper said, "We could have brought it to an open shoot-out, five years ago—ten years ago. Better if we had."

Gordon shook his head. "Nothing ever gets fixed up with guns."
Dusty King pulled his hat a little more on one side so that he could wink at Bill Roper unobserved. But he said, "He's partly right, Bill. Ben Thorpe isn't just one man any more. Walk Lasham—Cleve Tanner—any one of a dozen others could step into his shoes. It's a whole rotten organization has to be busted up."

"Ben Thorpe downed, and they'll quit," Bill Roper thought.

"Ben Thorpe down and it's only begun," Dusty countered. "Get it out of your head that you can fix anything up by downing Ben Thorpe. Not while this organization stands in one piece. Might be a good idea for you to remember that, Bill, in case anything happens."

"Dusty," Bill said, "if ever they get you, by God, I'll get Ben Thorpe if it's the last—"

"No," said Dusty. "You hear me? No. If they get me—you'll remember what I said. You remember you're fighting a thing, and a big one; not just one man." His face crinkled in that familiar, contagious grin. "Forget it! Dry Camp's spooky, that's all."

He hooked an arm through his partner's, and went swaggering off. Ten paces down the walk he stopped, turned, and came back. He leaned close to Roper. "If anything should happen, kid—remember what I said."

CHAPTER III

That Lew Gordon had a daughter was not so surprising as that he had only one. Single-minded, he clung all his life to the memory of the wife he had lost when their first child was born.

Jody Gordon was twenty now. She didn't exactly run Lew Gordon; nobody did that. But it was fairly apparent that his stubborn bid for supremacy in western cattle was intended in her behalf, and without her would have been meaningless to him.

Because Gordon hadn't wanted his girl filtering around through the er and wealth, but he had gained his position through wholesale cattle rustling and gunplay. Their opposing interests came to a showdown when the Government announced the auctioning of the Crying Wolf land in Montana. Bill Roper, King's adopted son, press of Ben Thorpe's ruffians at the auction, getting his own boys into fights, Jody Gordon was waiting here for news of what had happened to the Crying Wolf. Bill Roper vaulted the foolish little picket gate, scuffed the mud off his boots on the high front steps, and let himself in. He sent a Comanche war gobbie ringing through the house, but Jody was already flying into the room.

"Did you get it? Did you get it?" "All of it!"
Jody flung herself at him, and kissed him; so sweet, so vital, so completely feminine that he wanted to keep her close to him. But she broke away again as he tried to hold her.

"How much did it cost?" "Seventy cents—gold."
Jody's breath caught. "Can we come out on it?" "Sure we can come out on it. Not a cent less would've turned the trick. Dusty—"

Jody sat at a walnut table that had come all the way from St. Louis, and swung her feet. The story seemed to tickle her in more ways than one. "I can just see you all,"

But she broke away as he tried to hold her.

she said, "standing around making an impression on each other."
He turned from the window, and she was laughing at him as he had thought, her mouth smothered with her fingers.

"Come here a minute," he said, going toward her.

She twisted from the edge of the table, as if to put it between them, but she was too late. His rope-hard fingers caught her wrist, and held her as easily as if he had dallied a calf to the horn.

"Listen," he begged her. "Listen—" He caught her up, clamped an arm behind her head, and kissed her hard. Hard, and for a long time.

So long as she was rigid in his arms, fighting him, he held her; but when she stood limp, neither yielding nor resisting, his arms relaxed, and Jody tore herself free. She lashed out at him like a little mustang, striking him across the mouth. Her face was white, all that quick, irrepresible laughter gone, as for a moment she looked at him. A trickle of blood ran from Bill Roper's lips, and made a crooked mark on his chin. Then she turned and fled.

When she was gone Bill Roper stood still, sucking his cut lips. After a little while he went to the window, instinctively turning to open space for his answers.

He could remember Jody Gordon as a little tow-headed kid, before her hair had darkened into the elusive misty brown that it was now. Or as a cold-legged girl with scratches on her shins from riding bare-legged through the sage. Or as a peculiarly tempestuous, uncertain thing, neither child nor woman. But this latest phase he couldn't understand at all.

He picked up his hat, and for a little while stood turning it in his hands. Then he threw it in the corner, and went searching through the house.

Jody was in the tallest of the four foolish towers. From here you could see the town, and the slim, glittering line of the railroad, connecting these far plainsmen with a world hungry for beef.

Jody said matter-of-factly, "We've got to have more leading pens, Bill." "Bill's face broke into a slow grin. Abruptly he laid hard hands on disused sashes, and broke them open.

had inspected this territory and found it to contain an almost unbelievable wealth of grass. Bidding went high at the auction, but King beat out Thorpe to gain control of the land. This was a heavy blow to Thorpe who needed the pasture for his herds.

Into their little cubicle flowed the sweet air of the open prairie sweep, inspiring with the fresh smell of the new grass.

She said, "Tell me about your new job."

"It isn't new."
"They said that you'd be the new boss of the Crying Wolf, if we got it," Jody said.

"For more years than he could remember, he had been working toward this opportunity—the chance to take two years, or three, with such-and-such cattle, on such-and-such land, and show that he could pay out on market deliveries in pounds of beef. But now—a million horns and hoofs didn't seem to mean so much.

Something was here—something that wasn't any place else—not on the long trail, not in the wild terminal towns. He knew now he had to tell her that, and he dreaded it, because she probably would think it was funny. He wouldn't look at her as he spoke, because he didn't want to see her laughing at him.

"I don't know as I'm so much interested as I was," he said.

"Why, Billy—not interested in the Crying Wolf—nearly five hundred square miles of feeder land! What's come over you?"

"I guess maybe I'm tired of riding alone," Bill said.

"Alone? With all the outfit you'll have—I wouldn't call it alone."
"I would. Grass country is lonely country," he said now, "as lonely as the dry plains. You get to wondering what the everlasting cattle add up to, in the course of a life. Then some night you know you don't care what they add up to; and you think, 'Damn fat beef!'"

"Why, Billy—why, Billy—" "None of it means a damn, without you're there," he told her. "Working cattle doesn't mean anything, because you'll always have all the cattle you need anyway; and no long trail means anything, without you're at the end of it. I'm sick of long drive-trails, empty of you at the end."

There was a long, motionless silence; he kept his eyes on the far sand hills as presently she leaned forward to look up into his face.

"You really mean it, don't you?" Jody said.

Jody's words came very faint, and a little breathless.

"Why didn't you say so before?" He looked at her then, and she wasn't laughing. In her eyes was a new, grave light, such as he had never seen; a warm light, a beloved light, better than sunset to a weary day-rider who has worked leather since before dawn. Timorously, but very willingly, she came into his arms; and he held her as if she were not only a very precious but a very fragile thing. For a little while it seemed that one trail, a trail longer than the Long Trail itself, had come to its end.

"Can't believe," he said at last, his lips in her hair, "you're sure enough mine."

"All yours—all, all!"

They had one hour, there in the prairie lookout tower, discovering each other, getting acquainted as if for the first time. The sun went down in a gorgeous welter of color.

Jody shivered a little. "I wish Dad and Dusty would come. Especially Dusty."

"Why?"

"He has so many enemies. Some of them are dangerous as diamond-backs. It worries me when he's due and doesn't get back."

"Dusty'll take care of himself." Bill Roper chuckled, and held her closer.

One half hour more . . .

Up from the town came a crazily ridden horse, splashing mud eaves-high under the urge of spur and quiet.

"He'll lame his pony if he goes down in that slick," Bill commented. "Now what do you suppose—"

The rider tried to pull up in front of the house, and the frantic pony swerved and slid, mouth wide open to the sky. Its shoulder crashed the fence, taking down a dozen feet of pickets. The rider tumbled off, ran up the steps to hammer on the door.

Roper went clattering down the stairs, pulled open the door. "Now listen, you—"

"Bill—Dusty—Mr. King—he—" Bill Roper froze, and there was a long moment of paralyzed silence. "Spit it out, man!" Roper shouted at him.

"Bill—he's daid!" "Who—who—" "Dusty King's daid! Bill, they gunned him—they gunned him down!"

"Who did?" "Tain't known. Mr. Gordon's there; he—" Bill Roper walked out past the cowboy stiffly, like a man gone blind. Without knowing what he did he walked down to the gate, and stood gripping the pickets with his two hands.

(TO BE CONTINUED)

A NEW STORY ON CAL COOLIDGE

FROM CHILDHOOD Gen. Newton E. Turgeon of Buffalo had been a close personal friend of Calvin Coolidge. They were born in adjoining homes in Vermont, had played together as children, attended school and college together and remained close friends while they lived.

When the Peace bridge across the Niagara river, between Buffalo and Black Rock, Ont., was to be opened, people of Buffalo wanted the President to attend the opening ceremonies. General Turgeon was sent to Washington to get him.

"Cal, you simply must come. The people of Buffalo will be terribly disappointed if you do not," said the general.

"Who is going to be there?" asked the President.

"The lieutenant-governor of Ontario," replied Newt.

"Who else?" asked Cal.

"The governor-general of all Canada," said Newt.

"Anyone else?" queried Cal.

"The prime minister of England," said Newt.

"Will the king be there?" asked Cal.

"No, but the prince of Wales will," answered Newt.

"Then I will send John," said Cal—and he did.

General Turgeon told me the story just after the Peace bridge was opened as illustrative of the Coolidge taciturnity, and insisted that was the full extent of their conversation on the subject.

It is a Coolidge story which has never before been printed.

COLONEL HOUSE'S STORY OF BREAK WITH WILSON

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT sent Harry Hopkins to Europe, presumably in the same capacity—that of personal representative—as President Wilson sent Col. Edward M. House during the first World war.

I knew Colonel House and frequently called on him at his home, a small six-room apartment on East Fifty-second street in New York city. My last call there was shortly after his return from the peace conference, and I learned from Colonel House the reason for his break with President Wilson.

On the way to Europe, the President announced to other members of the American delegation that he would do the talking when anything was to be said to heads of any of the other four delegations. When the peace treaty had been completed, the day for Germany to sign designated, and the delegations arranging to leave France, Lloyd George asked Colonel and Mrs. House to pay him a visit before returning to America. The Colonel and Mrs. House accepted that invitation.

The day before the treaty was signed, Colonel House dropped into Lloyd George's apartment to ascertain what train they were to take and to make final arrangements for the visit. While he was there, President Wilson called at Lloyd George's apartments and finding Colonel House present, at once turned and walked out. He did not speak to the Colonel after that incident.

Colonel House believed Mr. Wilson imagined he was talking to Lloyd George on some forbidden subject, but he was never given an opportunity to explain.

"On my return to the United States," said the Colonel. "I advised the President of my arrival and told him I would be glad to serve him in any way he might wish, but I did not receive any acknowledgment of that note."

So ended one of the most unusual friendships in history.

Mrs. Wilson has claimed that it was her efforts which turned the President against Colonel House, but the above is the finale of the Wilson and House association.

MAGIC IN PANTS

A PARAGRAPH for men only. Ever really sick, flat on your back for weeks that seemed like years, clad in only a short-tailed night shirt and with no opportunity to help yourself? Then came the time when you were permitted to sit up for a few minutes at a time, still clad in that night shirt and a blanket wrapped about you. Later you were told you could get dressed in real clothes—a shirt and pants, socks and shoes and a necktie. You pushed your wobbly legs inside a pair of trousers and, oh boy! How good it did feel. You were a man again. You stood on your hind legs, looked the whole world in the face and dared it to do its worst.

What curative magic there is in a pair of pants. . . .

FRIENDLY SMILES

CLASS DISTINCTION can be prevented by friendly smiles and cheery good-mornings from one to another, strangers or friends. Smiles and cheery good-mornings are the rule, not the exception, in rural America, and class distinctions are unknown among rural people.

A bit of cheerful (?) news for the citrus growers: Brazil asks the United States to take 800,000 cases of Brazilian oranges in exchange for American apples.

U. S. Civil Service Jobs Offer Chances for Many

HAVE you been thinking about the United States Civil Service, wondering if there's a spot you can fill, an opportunity for you?

There may be, for Uncle Sam needs clerks, typists, nurses, doctors, border patrolmen, machinists, guards and many others to carry on his work all over the country.

How to apply for a job, what rules you must follow are explained in our new 32-page booklet. Lists many U. S. Civil Service positions, stating requirements and salaries. Explains different types of examinations and how to apply. Send order for booklet to:

READER-HOME SERVICE
635 Sixth Ave. New York City
Enclose 10 cents in coin for your copy of GETTING A JOB WITH THE U. S. GOVERNMENT.

Nice Attire
"Now, miss, what gear were you in at the time of the accident?"
"Oh, I had on a blue woollen sports coat, fur cap, gauntlet gloves and tan shoes."

Absent-minded man, after being fished half-drowned out of the water: "And the worst of it is that I've just remembered that I can swim!"

Up to Specifications
Wimpus—You sure made a poor job of painting this door.
Mrs. Wimpus—Well, you declared this morning that it needed painting badly.

"The bride's mother gave a deception after the ceremony."—Local paper. Were the guests taken in?
Good Reason
"Why is the bell ringing?"
"Because I'm pulling the rope."

Best Administered
For forms of government let fools contest, whatever is best administered, is best.—Pope.

That Nagging Backache
May Warn of Disordered Kidney Action
Modern life with its hurry and worry, irregular habits, improper eating and drinking—its risk of exposure and infection—throws heavy strain on the work of the kidneys. They are apt to become over-taxed and fail to filter excess acid and other impurities from the life-giving blood.

You may suffer nagging backache, headache, dizziness, getting up nights, leg pains, swelling—feel constantly tired, nervous, all worn out. Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder are sometimes burning, scanty or too frequent urination.
Try Doan's Pills. Doan's help the kidneys to pass off harmful excess body waste. They have had more than half a century of public approval. Are recommended by grateful users everywhere. Ask your neighbor!

ADVERTISING represents the leadership of a nation. It points the way. We merely follow—follow to new heights of comfort, of convenience, of happiness.
As time goes on advertising is used more and more, and as it is used more we all profit more. It's the way advertising has—of bringing a profit to everybody concerned, the consumer included.

And then!

...he went to

Dr. J. M. HARRINGTON
O.D.
FOR GLASSES
PALACE THEATRE BLDG. LAMESA
O.P.S. PHONE 108-J. RES. PHONE 455-J

ate had failed to confirm the appointment of Rev. W. D. Bradfield of Dallas, who had been serving a year or more.

Five Registrants Offer Services

TAHOKA, Tex., May 1. (Spl.)—A call for three men from Lynn county under the selective service act to be inducted into the service on Wednesday, May 7, has been made, according to Mrs. Lois McMahon, clerk for the local draft board, and five volunteers are waiting to fill the call.

These five are: Thurman Muri Kilgore, a youth under 21 years of age residing with his uncle, C. E. Kilgore, out west of O'Donnell; Willard Wood, also under 21 years of age, residing near O'Donnell, his mother being a resident of New Mexico; Herbert Gail Smith, son of H. C. Smith and brother of Postmaster Happy Smith, whose order number is 284; Henry Arviel Collins, son of Mrs. Adeline Collins of O'Donnell, order No. 796; and D. S. Reno, Tahoka, Rt. 1, order No. 1270.

All of these have passed the medical examination and have been approved.

The board has also received a call for one colored man to be inducted into the service on Monday, May 19. Thus far there are no volunteers to fill this call.

LYNDON JOHNSON IN RACE FOR SENATOR

Congressman Lyndon Johnson will open his campaign for the United States Senate Saturday night, May 3, at San Marcos, where he worked his way through the State Teachers college and which is in the heart of the congressional district he now represents.

His opening campaign speech will be carried over the major radio networks of the state at 8 p. m., and a huge statewide rally will be held.

Following the opening of his campaign in San Marcos Saturday night, Johnson will conduct an active speaking campaign, his itinerary calling for more than 200 speeches in every part of the state.

Johnson's record as a member of Congress and his close affiliation with the president and the administration in Washington make him a leading contender for the Senate seat left vacant by the death of the late Morris Sheppard.

Since his election to Congress from the Austin district in 1937, Lyndon B. Johnson's record has been an unbroken one of keen insight into the domestic problems of the American people and as the international crisis verged nearer to the nation's shores, he was constantly a stalwart among the country's leaders who foresaw danger to this land and made steps to prepare the country to meet that danger, as numerous editorials in the nation's press have pointed out.

West Texas campaign headquarters have been opened for him in Lubbock, and he is the first senatorial candidate to open a West Texas headquarters. Lloyd Croslin, Lubbock attorney, will be in charge of the Lubbock office.

Mrs. B. G. Platt has returned to Ontario, California after a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Williams.

Mrs. J. Andy Edwards was reported as being ill at her home this week.

HARRIS
Funeral Home
Day Phone Tahoka Night Phone
233 and 42 233 and 15
Funeral Chapel
NIGHT & DAY
Ambulance Service

Service Registrants Warned of Swindlers

TAHOKA, Tex., May 1. (Spl.)—Mrs. Lois McMahon of the local draft board has submitted to the News for publication a warning issued by General J. Watt Page, state selective service director, advising that swindlers are operating in Texas selling policies to registrants which purport to insure them against military training.

Negroes especially were being made the victims of these swindlers, it was stated.

Some of these swindlers are impersonating army officers. Of course there can be no such insurance. Any violation of the selective service act is a federal offense and will be prosecuted by the United States Department of Justice whenever an offender can be apprehended, it is warned.

Mrs. W. L. Rodgers has returned home after an extended visit in Houston and other Texas cities.

Postmaster and Mrs. J. Mack Noble and sons visited Mr. and Mrs. Levi Noble in Tahoka Sunday.

PLAY AT WELLS MONDAY

A play entitled "Sitting Pretty" will be presented by the Wells High School in the school auditorium Monday night, May 5, beginning at 8:15. This is a farce in three acts. Everybody is invited. There will be no admission charge.

We Pay Up To
$7.00 TON
FOR IRON

Lubbock Iron & Metal Co.

1817 Ave. H Lubbock, Texas

For
'ROOSEVELT and UNITY'

LYNDON JOHNSON

Candidate for U.S. SENATE

LYNDON JOHNSON

HEAR
Campaign
Opening

AT
San Marcos
Sat., May 3

BROADCAST 8 to 9 P. M.
Over
Texas Quality Network
and Texas State Network

(Ed. Adv.)

T-Bar School Has Closing Program

TAHOKA, Tex., May 1. (Spl.)—The T-Bar school closed last Friday, according to County Superintendent Lenore M. Tunnell, the first in the county to come to the close of the term. T-Bar maintains a school of only eight months. All the other schools in the county have nine months sessions, Mrs. Tunnell says.

Diplomas were awarded to a number of graduates on Thursday night. District Attorney Rollin McCord made the address to the class.

The regular closing exercises were held on Friday night.

With three teachers, eleven grades are taught in the T-Bar school. The teachers are: V. P. Carter, principal; Mrs. Carter, intermediate grades; Miss Faye Anderson, primary grades.

Tom Love Refuses Liquor Board Place

Governor W. Lee O'Daniel announced this week the appointment of Thomas B. Love of Dallas as chairman of the State Liquor Board.

Almost immediately Mr. Love announced that he could not accept, declaring that he could not give the time and attention to the office that its importance requires.

Love is an able lawyer, a man of unquestionable integrity, and is fitted in every way for the job. It is regrettable that he could not accept. He was appointed after the Sen-

EARLY BREAKFAST

We are now serving those good breakfasts from 6 a. m. 'til Specialty—those good hot cakes by Chef Mack Maxwell.

TRY 'EM
EAGLE CAFE

Monty Montgomery.

For
Mother

PLACE YOUR ORDERS NOW FOR MOTHER'S DAY CAKES

We bake any style . . . any size, and they'll be eagerly welcomed by all. And Mother, whether she be old or young, will appreciate the gift.

CITY BAKERY
Walter Foster, Owner

BLOCKER'S We Lead . . . Others Follow

TRADE WHERE MA SAVES MONEY FOR PA!
STARTING FRIDAY, MAY 2, ----- RUNS TO ???

Oxydol Giant Size 53c

WE DONT MEET PRICES-----WE MAKE PRICES

MILK Carnation 3 LARGE or 20c
Armour's or 6 SMALL

RIPPLED WHEAT 3 For 25c

PORK & BEANS, Armour's Star - 1-lb. Can Ea. 4 1/2c

LARD Armour's 8-lb. Carton 75c
Vegetole 4-lb. Carton 38c

Snowdrift 3-lb-Pail 49c

KRAFT'S ALL-PURPOSE PARKAY (Oleomargarine) lb. 15

GRAPEFRUIT JUICE 46 oz. Can 17c

NATIONAL 100% BRAN 3 Pkg's. For 25c

PAY CASH - PAY LESS - DONT PAY the OTHER MANS Bills
NOTHING SOLD TO MERCHANTS TO BE RESOLD

Flour 135
48-lb. Dress Print
Extra High Patent
Guaranteed

CHERRIES Chocolate Covered 1-lb. Box 15c

KRAFT DINNER 3 For 25c

TOBACCO

CIGARETTES All Popular Brands 15c

DUKES 3 For 10c

R. J. R. 10c sack 2 For 15c

PRINCE ALBERT 3 Cans 29c

Coffee .17
Our Best Lb. 1 2c

JELLO, ALL FLAVORS Package 3 1/2c

We Reserve the Right to Limit Quantities!

When you pay cash, you know just what you are paying for and you are not paying the other man's bills.