GOLD STAR GIRL OF LYNN COUNTY NAMED

Sarah Dean Archer, poultry demonstrator in the O'Donnell Club, has been named Lynn County Gold Star 4-H Club Girl for 1940, which will entitle her to wear a Gold Star Pin and to be designated a Gold Star 4-H Club Girl for the rest of her life.

The pin is an emblem of achievements and of the confidence that the fellow club members have in her, since the selection was made on the basis of work accomplished and on the leadership ability they have recognized in her.

A girl may be considered for the award when she is completing at least her third year of club work; if she has conducted a successful demonstration, and if she has not previously been awarded a gold star pin.

Each girls' club having a member eligible for consideration may select a candidate for the award.

A county committee composed of council members and club girls select the one Gold Star winner from these candidates.

The pin will be presented by Miss Maurine McNatt, County Home Demonstration Agent in August.

The other contestants for the award were: Beth Shepherd, Grassland; Wilma Doris Crews, New Home; Wanda Jean Tyler, Wells; Dorothy Lackey, New Lynn.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Harris are parents of another fine son, who was born Saturday night in a Lubbock hospital. The young man weighed seven pounds, and was named Rodney Vance.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED AT TEA FRIDAY

The engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Beverly Wells to Billy McKnight of Corpus Christi was announced last Friday afternoon to approximately one hundred friends when Mrs. E. T. Wells and Mrs. J. L. Adams entertained at the Wells home.

A valentine theme was carried in decorations and appointments. In the house party were Mrs. Fay Westmoreland, Mrs. Harvey Jordan, Mrs. Burley Brewer; Miss Toyole McClinton, James and Misses Thelma Palmer and Claire Ruth Nichols.

Miss Palmer, wearing blue net and black lace, greeted guests at the door. In the receiving line were Mrs. Wells in peach lace, Miss Wells wearing red net, and Mrs. Adams, in black lace. The tea table was beautifully spread with Queen's lace over pink satin. The centerpiece was a gigantic heart formed of pink carnations, on either side of which were pink eucalyptus leaves in crystal candleabra. Mmes. Jordan and Westmoreland and Misses Nichols and McClinton served canapés, wafers, mints, and tea.

Plate favors were tiny valentines in pink and white, with the words "Beverly and Billy, February 27" written in silver ink.

During the tea hours Mrs. A. W. Gibbs played piano numbers and Mrs. Pauline Campbell sang "A Precious Little Thing Called Love" and "Wedding Bells."

Mrs. Brewer presided at the bride's box where guests registered.

Wedding February 27th. The wedding will be held Thursday evening, February 27th, at the Methodist church here. The Rev. J. H. Crawford, former pastor of the church here, will read the ceremony.

The bride-elect is the grand-daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Wells of Tahoka, South Plains pioneers and of J. B. Burleson of Hope, N. M. Both families have been prominent in this section ever before Lynn county was organized.

A graduate of the O'Donnell Public schools and a student at Texas State College for Women, Miss Wells has for the past four years been secretary of the Board of Education here.

WMS CONDUCTING UNIQUE MOONEY-RAISING DRIVE

Ladies of the Methodist church have recently started something new in the way of raising funds for their budget and for necessary improvements at the parsonage. In an effort to avoid the burden and confusion of sales dinners, etc., the Missionary Society hit upon the plan of setting aside a penny a day this year to care for their expenses.

Twelve chairmen, one for each month, will work with committees of four, one for each week and all women of the church are being asked to work with these committees. Mrs. Earl Curtis is general chairman of the project, and her committees are already at work.

Daredevil Skier Makes Night Trip Down Loftiest Mountain in U. S.

A Whitney trip on skis down Mt. Whitney, highest peak in the United States, has set a world record that all but cost the life of Hans Georg, internationally famed winter sports star.

Daring mountain skiers have long wanted to attempt the great California peak, which rises 14,493 feet above sea level. But ice, snow slides, falling rock, and sudden storm conditions have deterred too small a chance of survival.

Prepared for his attempt by weeks of study of the mountain, Georg made the upward climb in something over twelve hours. With only a brief pause, he started the downward trip. Even so, two hours later found him in darkness, picking his way along ice ridges and across snow crevasses by flashlight.

Faunting under a rock wall to break the ice on his gloves, he leaned his ski poles against a boulder. He reached for them again—and missed. The poles slipped away and clattered down out of sight in the darkness.

In that moment, Georg knew he was probably done for. Without the poles his skis were useless. He could not balance himself, check his speed, or avoid huge boulders which loomed up unexpectedly in the beam of his flashlight. Crevasses and ice ridges would block his way. He would freeze to death on the mountain.

Using his light, Georg worked over to the edge of the trail. Ten feet below him were the poles. But only their tips were caught in the frozen crust—the least movement might dislodge them. Georg worked his way down, inch by inch, and grabbed them.

"Hanging on to my light, which I had secured by a strap attached to my belt, I made the rest of the trip," Georg said. "Without that light the climb was impossible. I doubted that the batteries could stand up in that severe cold, but they were fresh when I put them in and they kept a bright beam shining. That, and lots of luck, got me through."

Georg, although almost exhausted when he reached the foothills, came through the experience unscathed. He is known to sports enthusiasts the world over, and was the first to introduce the new St. Moritz ski method in the United States.

"LENA RIVERS" CHOSEN AS JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

There has been a great deal of speculation as to what play would be chosen by the Junior Class as the class play. This week it is announced that by special arrangement with Samuel French of New York City, permission has been secured to present that greatest of all plays, "Lena Rivers".

It will be presented at the high school auditorium on March 7th, and rehearsals have been started this week under the able direction of Mrs. Charles Cuthby, class sponsor. Rehearsals are being held Monday through Thursday evenings from seven until ten o'clock.

Cast of characters include Margaret Sue Goddard as Lena Rivers; Ladell Frazier as Granny Nichols; Homer Fannon as Lena's uncle; John Livingstone, Billie Maxwell as Mrs. Livingstone; Marcille Lambert as Caroline Livingstone; Frettie Jo Eubanks, Anna Livingstone; Steve art Scholer as John Livingstone, Jr.; Raymond Curtis, Frank Graham; Billy Joe Burnett as Durward Belmont; Truett Tyler as Malcolm Everett; Willadeen Ballew as Aunt Milly; and Gwynn Liddell as Old Caesar.

Mrs. M. E. Pearce has been quite ill for several days at her home here but is reported somewhat improved today.

Lawrence Tredway arrived from Madisonville Sunday to spend a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Tredway.

LACE-EDGED CORN CAKES

On many of the fine old plantations of the Southland fried ham is a more or less standard breakfast dish. Served with piping hot corn cakes, it's a dish which will stir even the most jaded of appetites.

Southern Lace-Edged Corn Cakes
 2 eggs
 2 cups sweet milk
 1 cup corn meal
 1 scant teaspoon salt
 3 tablespoons melted margarine

Beat the eggs well; add the milk and beat with a rotary egg beater; add the corn meal in which has been sifted the salt; lastly add the melted margarine. Stir well each time you bake a cake, and be sure to bake each cake on a well-greased, hot griddle, using a spoonful of batter to a small cake. Serve with broiled or fried ham and gravy. These corn cakes are also delicious with a vegetable dinner. Yields about 40 cakes.

Other favorite Southern recipes are presented in a large, full-color, 100-page free cook book, "100 Southern Recipes." Send to National Cotton Council, Box 18, Memphis, Tenn.

COUNTY OFFICIALS STRESS FARM-TO-MARKET ROADS FOR DEFENSE
