Marker Designated As Historical Marker

The James H. Callahan private marker, on the southeast part of the Callahan County courthouse lawn, has been designated as an Official Texas Historical Marker.

The marker is constructed of native rock, and stands approximately four feet, bears the name of Mr. Callahan, from whom Callahan County received its name.

tiss name.

The application for the marker to be placed on the list as an Official Texas Historical Marker was requested by B. C. Chrisman chairman of the Callahan County Historical Survey Committee.

The marker will now be listed in the next edition of the Guide to Official Texas Historical Markers in this county.

Year's Rainfall Short;
Totals 12.19 Inches
The first eight months of 1967 and first 8 days of September, rainfall in Baird has totalled 12.19 inches, which is somewhat below our normal.
There was no measurable mostiure in January, and only 61 of an inch in Pebruary.
In March, we received 1.21;
April. 1.54; May, 2.18; June 2.39;
July, 1.94; August, .89 and so far in September 1.43, making a total of 12.19 for the year.
Ground moisture is fairly good in most of this area, but ranchers are badly in need of some running to fill tanks and stock ponds.

of Texas.

A marker honoring Mrs. Carpenter was placed at the front of the 115 year old house in which she was born. The house, known as the Robertson Plantation Complex, was built by Col. E. Sterling C. Robertson in 1852, and has been occupied by his descendents continuously since that time. Mrs. Carpenter is a great-granddaughter.

During the program, an official marker designating the Robertson house as a Texas historic landmark, was unveiled. The ceremonies were arranged jointly by the Texas State Historical Society and the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs. Mrs. B. F. Seay of Andrews, president of the latter group, was one of the speakers. Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson, a surprise guest, spoke briefly. Mrs. John Connally was also present.

The Callahan County ladies also visited the famous old Stage Coach Inn, and other A marker honoring Mrs. Car-
