The Eagle Screams Brief School News

Attention to all classes! Be sure to elect your snapshot editor. There will be a meeting for them Wednesday morning at 9:45 in room 3. Harold Hahn is snapshot editor for the seniors and Bobbie Barnes for the Juniors.

Shirley Gass, representing the Senior class and Fern Barrington, representing the F H A were the local contestants in the Farm Bureau Queen's contest held at Tahoka last Friday morning. We are proud to say that Shirley brought home the honor of winning 3rd place. Congrats!

Eagles To Meet Wellman Here Friday Nite

Coach Ed Robinson was pleased at the close of the game last Friday nite. For the first time the Eagles have won a game since conference play began. His main task has been to develop manpower and to devise a defensive formation to win balance. The Eagles have had power from tackle to tackle and have stopped opponents consistently, but the defense on wide plays was poor. The opposition always used them to get necessary yardage for a first down.

Supt. Johnson Explains Chil Labor Law As It Applies Here

Three additional teachers have been added to the Elementary school staff in an effort to take care of the increased enrollment caused by the influx of Mexican children to pick cotton. This necessitated moving the music teacher out of her room and letting her go from room to room for music. This gives one room and we converted the storage room into a classroom and then a week later converted the East end of the band hall into a classroom, thus making room for the 3 additional teachers.

Two Shifts of School

The school is operating two different shifts of school. One begins at 8 a.m. and ends at 1 p.m. and those attending that shift must transport their children to and from school. The other shift is the regular school which operates as it always has.

No Limit on Hours Worked

If none go to school, then all may go to work at 1 p.m. It is not necessary that they attend school until Dec. 1st under the school law. Parents may keep them all at home and then let them go to work at 1 p.m. There is no regulation about how many hours they may work a week; they can work as many hours as they can get in.

GOOD NEIGHBORS MEET

The Good Neighbor Club met in the home of Mrs Van McKee. There were 10 members present and 2 visitors; several members were ill.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to take this opportunity to express my sincere appreciation for the kindness, sympathy, also for the financial help given me during the illness of my baby. I especially want to thank Mrs James Reed, John Ellis, The Lions Club, and Rev and Mrs Peek.

14 Drunks And Break-In Features Week End

Dep. Sheriff Cleve Brunette and Judge Horace Brunette reported 14 drunks over the week end of which 2 were Anglos. They paid a total fine of $210 or $15 a head. Saturday nite the cafe of Mrs Pete McMillan was entered and robbed of about $25. Entrance was from the rear thru an air conditioner. Dep. Chester Roan nabbed a DWI Saturday nite just north of town. Monday nite Singleton Apartment was entered thru the rest room and about $150 or more taken as well as two new guns. The same nite Higginbotham Lumber Co. was tapped for $7 or so. Entrance was thru a rear window.

Busy Week End Reported

The cotton harvest is rolling into high gear with local gins running day and night. A round up of local ginnings to 9 a.m. Tuesday showed 450 bales of 1950 cotton ginned. The crop over the grade area is estimated at from 20 to 25 per cent complete. Seed is bringing $90 a ton and cotton from 29 to 33 cents which is an average drop of $15 a bale over the season's opening.

As we go to press Tuesday we learn the heart breaking news that little Rusty Jackson, age about 4, son of Mr and Mrs Wm. Jackson of here, has lost his brave fight of more than a year, for life. His parents had rushed him to Dallas Saturday and he died there in a hospital early Tuesday. Funeral services have not been set Tuesday but will probably be here Thursday at ternoon. A more fitting tribute to Rusty will appear next issue. Words fall to express the deep sorrow of us at this deep loss.

We welcome Sam Singleton and Don Platt back to school after being absent for several days.

Mr and Mrs Frank Norton, Miss Sufall, Miss Stokes and Mr Carr attended the game in Dallas Saturday in which Texas O. fell to Oklahoma U.

This is "Howdy Week" on the campus; the week during which students are supposed to be even more friendly than usual and give a cheerful greeting to all they meet on the campus.

Daphne Telchik was honored with a surprise birthday party Wednesday nite at her home with 34 attending. She received many beautiful gifts.

All the classes are working for their carnival queen. The community party sponsored by the Senior Class was held last Thursday nite in the gym. The Juniors will have a talent show Oct. 26th for their queen. The Freshmen class will have a box supper Tuesday Oct 17 in the auditorium at 7:30.

Approximately 50 people enjoyed the community party held last Thursday nite in the gym. The event came to a profitable climax when Roger Linn auctioned cakes and pies to the guests. The amount of money taken in is not for public attention but it is rumored that something less than $2,000 was taken in. Catherine Holub of Srawn visited school last Friday with Daphne and Frances Telchik.

The O'Donnell Cowboys played the Lamesa Breezes last Thursday; the score was a 0 to 0 tie.

Come one, Come all! More fun! The Freshman Class is sponsoring a box supper to be held in the school lunch room Thursday Oct 19th at 7 p.m. Bring a box lunch and your best friend.

JUST

Her Bother

Young Nancy was told not to ask her grandmother a lot of questions when she came for a visit because they were annoying to her. "But it's not the questions that annoy her," explained Nancy. "It's the answers that bother her."

He'll Make Good

Her Mother — "My daughter sings, plays the piano, paints, understands botany, zoology, French, Italian—in fact is accomplished in every way. And you, sir?"

Prospective Son-in-Law—"Well, in an emergency I suppose I could cook a little and mend the socks."

'Sno Use!

Eskimo Lover — "What would you say if I told you I had come a hundred miles through ice and snow with my dog team, just to tell you I love you?"

Eskimo Sweetie — "I'd say that was a lot of mush."

Behind Time

Little Freddie's mother was in the hospital, and he was paying a visit to see his new brother. He wandered into an adjoining room which was occupied by a woman with a broken leg.

"Hello," he said. "How long have you been here?"

"Oh, about a month?"

"Let me see your baby," he then asked.

"Why, I haven't a baby," the woman replied.

"Gee, you're slow," said Freddie. "My mama's been here just two days and she's got one."

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

You can brush out the cuffs on men's trousers easily if you take out the stitches holding the cuff and replace them with metal snaps. From then on, unsnap the cuffs, brush, then snap the cuffs.

Idle riding boots need boot trees—or a reasonably accurate facsimile—to keep the calf of the boot from getting out of shape. Make your own facsimile by rolling up three or four sections of newspaper; then jam the roll down into the boot leg. Shoe trees in the foot of the boot should be used, too.

Instead of tying the two ends of a broken shoelace together to make it do until you can get a new one, take a little extra time to lap the broken ends over each other and sew them together. A "fix" like that will last longer and look better than a knot.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS

Korean Unification Big Question In General Assembly Discussions; Defense Gets Resources Priority

(EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysis and not necessarily of this newspaper.)

After three months and two weeks the war in South Korea was virtually over, with only small pockets of resisting Communists to be eliminated. The above map shows how United Nations forces broke out of the Pusan beachhead and linked up with troops landed at Inchon. Communists not trapped in the quick advance fled north of the 38th parallel.

KOREA:

What's the Next Move?

Three months and two weeks after Communist forces from North Korea plunged south of the 38th parallel in an attempt to conquer the republic of South Korea, United Nations forces won a victory in the south, destroyed a large part of the invading army, and advanced to that imaginary line dividing north and south Korea.

And although South Korean troops crossed the 38th parallel, U. N. forces sat on their heels awaiting word from the general assembly of what to do next. The assembly was faced with a question it was reluctant to answer: Should U. N. forces go beyond the 38th parallel?

Those who favored crossing the parallel argued that failure to do so would mean a hollow victory for the U. N. The enemy would be saved from the knockout punch. He would be able to regroup his forces, await the time for another invasion attempt. At the very least, the Communists, safe behind their parallel, would be able to keep the country divided. Thus, occupation of North Korea is necessary if the assembly is ever to fulfill its aim—unification of the country under a democratically chosen government.

Those against the crossing argued that a U. N. military campaign to take North Korea might be regarded by Moscow and Peiking as a provocation—a reason for marching south. That might mean the war. Even if the dreaded intervention did not materialize, military operations by General MacArthur in North Korea would have a bad effect in the Orient. It would be interpreted by many Asians, with deep-rooted suspicions of western intentions, as another example of white imperialism. Added to the confusion was the roar of Red China, threatening to send troops into North Korea if U. N. forces advanced north of the 38th parallel. Many observers pointed out, however, that Red invasion of Korea would offer the Nationalist the opportunity to invade south China.

Headliners

"... I am certain that with time and patience, and with devotion and sacrifice on the part of the free nations, the United Nations will steadily grow in strength and capacity to fulfill its central function, the preservation of international peace and security," former Secretary of State Cordell Hull said in a statement released on his 79th birthday.

"The roots of Communist aggression cannot be left to grow again into a poisonous tree," a voice of America program beamed to North Korea said.

"... The aggressor's forces should not be permitted to have refuge behind an imaginary line because that would recreate the threat to the peace of Korea and of the world," Warren R. Austin, U. S. delegate to the United Nations, said in a speech before the general assembly.

DEFENSE:

Military Gets First Call

In the first sweeping priorities regulation issued by the national production administration, the government gave the atomic energy commission and the military first call on the nation's factories and raw materials to assure success of the rearmament program.

The order required producers to put military orders ahead of everything else—even if civilian production such as automobiles and refrigerators must be shunted aside.

Effective immediately, the order covers most of the goods and materials the military will need for rearmament. It does not, however, cover electric power, farm equipment, fuels, gas, petroleum, and transportation.

In executing the order, the defense department, or the atomic energy commission, will put a D. O. (defense order) priority rating on war contracts with a business firm. This means the company must give first attention to fulfilling the contract, whether or not it wants to.

The firm with the priority contract has the right to extend its priority to other concerns from which it must get parts or materials to fulfill its contract. This puts the war contractor in the position of requisitioning anything he needs, with the government back of his authority.

The automobile industry was the first to comment on the order. A spokesman for General Motors said a cut of 10 to 15 per cent in truck and car production may take place within the next 12 months.

Already hampered by a shortage of certain materials, the spokesman said "now that much scarce materials will be diverted to the rearmament program, there's nothing we can do but plan ahead for a drastic cut in production of civilian goods."

"We'll feel the worst of it in about a year," he said.

MACARTHUR:

Well and Nobly Done

In the name of the people of the United States, President Truman sent Gen. Douglas MacArthur congratulations on the victory in Korea.

The President said in his message:

"I know that I speak for the entire American people when I send you my warmest congratulations on the victory which has been achieved under your leadership in Korea. Few operations in military history can match either the delaying action, where you traded space for time in which to build up your forces, or the brilliant maneuver which has now resulted in the liberation of Seoul.

"I am particularly impressed by the splendid cooperation of our army, navy and air force, and I wish you would extend my thanks and congratulations to the commanders of those services—Lieut. Gen. Walton H. Walker, Vice Admiral Charles T. Joy and Lieut. George E. Stratemeyer.

"The unification of our arms established by you and by them has set a shining example. My thanks and the thanks of the people of all the free nations go out to your gallant forces—soldiers, sailors, marines and airmen—from the United States and the other countries fighting for freedom under the United Nations banner. I salute you all, and say to all of you from all of us at home, 'Well and nobly done.'"

DRAFT:

Yets May Be Called

Maj. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, director of selective service, proposed that the draft take veterans and men with dependents and that the length of service for inductees be stretched from 21 months to 30.

For that large group of Americans who felt that victory in Korea would mean a slacking-off of U. S. armed services' need, it was a rude awakening.

Hershey said the pool of men under 26 years of age, and eligible for the draft under present regulations, is down to 1,500,000 and that the rejection rate runs about 50 per cent.

He recommended:

1. Extending the period of draft service, with six months to be spent in training and 24 months in service.
2. Changing the rule: for deferment because of dependency so that collateral dependents wouldn't count.
3. Changing the law to permit induction of veterans under 26 years of age.

Hershey also criticized draft qualifications established by the armed services. He contended they are too tight.

Ambassador

Walter S. Gifford, former head of the American Telephone & Telegraph company, was named by President Truman to succeed Lewis Douglas as ambassador to Britain.

FARM PRICES:

Up 9 Per Cent

The agriculture department reported farm prices rose about 2 per cent in September, pushing the level to 9 per cent above that prevailing before fighting started in Korea.

The sharpest gains were reported in cotton, cottonseed and citrus. Other gains of many farm products aided in pushing the farm price level upward.

Prices of commodities and materials and labor used in farm production also increased during the period, but less than half as much as the increase in prices received by farmers.

Also in the farm news, officials reported the government may have to spend nearly as much on potato supports as last year's $90 million outlay.

This year's potato crop is considerably larger than last year's and there is no indication of any change in the long downward trend in consumption.

Price supports on potatoes will be withdrawn altogether on next year's crop unless the law is changed.

Casualties

The defense department announced U. S. casualties in the Korean war as of October 1 totaled 17,200. The total included 2,211 dead, 11,050 wounded and 3,959 missing in action.

Of the dead 2,211 were killed in action and 230 died of wounds, the department said.

Fifty prisoners of war and 167 other men were included in the missing list.

Growing in Prayer

Lesson for October 22, 1950

LIFE MAGAZINE, which does not set up as an authority on religion some years ago carried a story about a little girl who was going to be confirmed in the Episcopal church. In describing the requirements for confirmation, the reporter said she had "graduated from 'Now I Lay Me' to the Lord's Prayer."

Most Christian ministers, including those of the denomination in which she was confirmed, would agree that (1) if that is as far as she had "graduated," she still had a very long way to go in learning about prayer, but (2) the little girl had got about as far as thousands of "Christians" ever go. They learn the Lord's Prayer when they are children and that's that. When they grow up they don't actually pray, themselves; they leave it up to Grandma or the preacher—or the tiny tots who "sound so cute" saying "Now I Lay Me."

Dr. Foreman

The Lord's Prayer

THIS is not meant to say anything against the Lord's Prayer, or to imply that we are wrong every time we use it. But our Lord did not mean that prayer to be used as a magic formula, he did not intend it as a substitute for our own free prayers. We know this is so, because in the first place he himself never used that prayer again, and in the second place, although dozens of prayers by Apostles and others are recorded in the New Testament, the Lord's Prayer, as such, is never used. Then what is the Lord's Prayer?

It is his suggestion as to the lines along which, and the spirit in which, we ought to pray. (See the book by William Douglas Chamberlain on the Lord's Prayer, "The Manner of Prayer.")

One truth suggested by the Lord's Prayer is that we are not alone in the world. Every verb, every pronoun referring to the one who prays, is in the plural—OUR Father... We have to remember that God is Father of others, not of ourselves alone; that we dare not be selfish in asking special favors of him for ourselves.

Maturing in Prayer

PRAYER at its lowest level is nothing much more than "Gimme." The untaught pray-er may even talk to God as if he were a personal servant, a kind of celestial bell-boy on call whenever we ring for him.

The growing Christian will grow in prayer as in all things; he will grow to the point where, even when he prays as an individual, he will be remembering how many ties bind him to other individuals; he will pray less and less for his own necessities and more and more for what he may share with others.

The beginning Christian, the childish Christian, will pray as a child prays. If his prayers were all arrows they would all point toward himself. As for the mature Christian, if his prayers were visible arrows they could be seen pointing into all the world; he will have those in every land for whom he prays, for his heart bears their names in love and faith.

Learning God's Will

A GOOD deal of worrisome argument has gone on over the question: Can prayer change the will of God? We shall be less bothered by that question when we discover two truths.

One is that in the Lord's Prayer, and in the Bible generally, we have already revealed to us the lines along which God's will moves; and the other is that prayer itself is a means of learning God's will.

If we know that God's will is against something, then, if we have any sense, we know there is no use in praying for that thing. If we know God's will desires something, then we can be confident that our prayers in that direction will be heard with favor.

A study of the Lord's prayer, from this angle, will teach a Christian how to pray in accordance with God's will. Paul knew this. When he prayed that his Philippian friends "love may abound more and more," he knew very well that this was precisely in line with the will of the Father who is eternal Love.

Premature Pasturing May Ruin New Alfalfa Stand

A little premature pasturing can ruin what is now a fine stand of new alfalfa, Michigan State college extension authorities report. Seedlings with spring grain crops have brought good stands.

But with good growth, some farmers may be eager to use the crop for pasture late this fall. This, the crops authority says, will weaken the plants so they may be killed during the winter.

'Aim' Pullets for Top Fall Egg Production

Will your pullets be in top production this fall when egg prices are best? They should if you "aim them" by practicing good management, using careful sanitation measures and feeding sufficient amounts of a balanced ration, poultry experts report.

Too many good poultrymen are still inclined to allow their growing pullets to coast along on range or a poor growing ration. Since growing pullets are not producing income, some producers are willing to grow them at the lowest immediate out-of-the-pocket cost. What they should realize is that they are building the production machines that will pay off during the fall and winter months.

It must be remembered that pullets must consume sufficient feed for body growth and sexual maturity before laying any eggs. It is just a question of whether to grow out pullets during the growing period or at the time they should be producing eggs.

To get pullets in production early, poultry experts recommend getting them on clean range, feed them ample quantities of the best ration.

Trucks Now Hauling Majority of Stock

Chicago Yard Conducts Truck Safety Program

The livestock truck is Number One around the Chicago stock yards these days.

Frank Flynn, general superintendent, says trucks now haul around 70 per cent of livestock received at the world's largest livestock market. Twenty years ago it was only 3 per cent.

The livestock trucker will play the major part in a new phase of the Chicago safety program begun at

W. J. O'Connor, general manager of the Chicago stock yards, shakes hands with William Book, Andover, Iowa, driver of the first truck through the old stone gate at the yard in the yard's truckers' safety contest.

The yards last year to reduce livestock losses through bruising.

The yards will keep seven-month records on every livestock trucker bringing livestock to the yards. They will check arriving loads for dead, crippled or obvious bruising.

At the end of the program, drivers with the best records will be rewarded at a truckers' jamboree which contest officials will hold April 6 in the international amphitheatre, home of the International Livestock Exposition.

Livestock farmers will benefit most from the campaign since they share a large part of the cost of this annual loss.

Produce Clean Eggs For Larger Profits

Buyers Will Pay Top Prices for Clean Eggs

Produce clean eggs. Thousands of dollars are lost by poultry raisers every year due to dirty eggs and the resulting deterioration takes place before they are marketed. The prevention of dirty eggs will not only increase the flockowner's income but will build a better market for eggs.

Dirty eggs offer a poor appearance, they cannot be stored successfully and it takes time and money to clean them. Consequently, buyers are willing to pay more for clean eggs which means more profit to the flockowner.

The production of clean eggs and handling them to maintain quality is not difficult. Deep, dry litter, good ventilation and nests well littered with shaving, excelsior, straw, or other nesting material, will keep the birds from getting dirt and stains on the eggs from their feet. Always keep hens in the house on wet, muddy days.

Immediately after gathering, eggs should be stored in the cleanest, coolest and most moist place on the farm. A cellar with a temperature of 45 to 60 degrees is very good.

Congress Overrides Truman Veto Of Tough Communist Control Bill; United Nations Forces Take Seoul

EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysis and not necessarily of this newspaper.

The race of U.N. forces from the Inchon and Pusan areas to cut South Korea into two sections and isolate thousands of Communist troops in the south went forward at such a clip correspondents were unable to keep up with the advance. The two spearheads made a junction north of Taejon, trapping about 100,000 Communist troops in southwestern Korea. Arrows indicate the directions the converging advances took.

KOREA: Three Bloody Months

After three bloody months the war in Korea appeared near the end with the capture of Seoul, 500-year-old Korean capital, and the junction of U. N. troops from the Inchon and Pusan beachheads.

The second was that period when U. N. forces maintained their beachhead while troops and weapons for an offensive were being built up in Japan and near Pusan.

The breakout from the Pusan beachhead came suddenly and in force. Troops landed at Inchon captured Seoul and headed south. The two forces were within a few miles of each other at last reports and thousands of Communists were doomed to isolation and destruction in the final phase of stage three.

Military commanders were quick to report that bloody fighting would go on for some time as mopping up operations continued. They expected guerilla warfare in the mountains for a long time since many Communist units were expected to resist to the death.

One important question remained unanswered. Will U.N. troops cross the 38th parallel into North Korea?

NOBEL PRIZE: To American Negro

Dr. Ralph Bunche, U.N. mediator who brought an end to conflict in the Holy Land, was awarded the Nobel peace prize for 1950. Dr. Bunche, grandson of an American Negro slave, is the first of his race to receive the peace prize. It will be presented to him December 10. He will receive $23,000 and a gold medal.

A member of the U.S. state department, Dr. Bunche was loaned to the United Nations in 1946. He succeeded Count Folke Bernadotte of Sweden as the U.N. mediator in Palestine after Bernadotte was assassinated in 1948, effected an armistice and ended the bitter clash between Jews and Arabs. When informed of the award, he paid tribute to his predecessor for laying the essential foundations of the Palestine agreements.

UNITED NATIONS. Vote Down Red Move

Again the Soviet Union's campaign to seat Communist China in the United Nations met defeat. The defeat was significant in that a vote was taken within four hours of the opening of the fifth session of the general assembly and was the first time the assembly ever tackled a major issue before disposing of routine organizational problems.

The motion to seat the Communist government of China was introduced by India and led to an immediate clash between Russia's delegate Andrei Y. Vishinsky and the U.S. delegate Dean Acheson.

The U.S. secretary of state said in his speech, "Vote on it now and vote it down." He reminded the assembly that 43 of the U.N.'s 59 members recognized the Nationalists as the true government of China. The vote was 33-16, with 10 abstentions.

Political observers speculated that the Soviet foreign minister might walk out after the vote. He contented himself, however, with declaring the assembly's action "illegal and incorrect."

A Canadian proposal to set up a seven-nation committee to study the question of Chinese representation and report back to the assembly when its recommendations were adopted.

Whatever the report, observers believed Russia would continue its campaign to seat Red China. It was only a matter of time until the question was brought up again.

RUSSIA: What New Game?

World diplomats are wondering what new game the Russians are playing.

The first clue of a new Soviet attitude was evident with the opening of the U. N. general assembly. Andrei Y. Vishinsky, the Russian foreign minister, and his colleagues on the Soviet delegation were affable. Their speeches were almost soothing, in comparison to what they used to be. They were making a deliberate show of reasonableness.

Later, Jacob A. Malik declared he favored a meeting of top leaders of the U. S. and Russia to negotiate for peace. He said also his government would pledge not to be the first to use the atomic bomb. He also favored general disarmament.

Malik made his views known in answer to questions submitted to him by a Maryland committee for peace. The Russians are always careful in answering questions and never do so unless the questions have been cleared and approved.

With this thought in mind diplomats were wondering could it be possible the Soviet realizes what a narrow escape the world has had from a general war? Could it be possible the Russians finally desired peace or was this a propaganda move?

The state department was inclined to believe the latter. After a hurried conference the department declared Malik's statements were only propaganda.

WAR-TAX BILL: Congress Approves

Congress approved the $4.7 billion emergency war-tax bill that boosted taxes from 12 to 20 percent on individual incomes. It was significant that the senate shouted its approval of the bill without a roll call and the house passed it 328 to seven. And even while the vote was still ringing in the two chambers, the house ways and means committee called a meeting to begin drafting a second tax increase bill.

MUMPS: A Commercial Vaccine

Development of a commercial vaccine against mumps has been perfected. Dr. Karl Habel of the National Institute of Health said that limited human trials showed the vaccine, while "not 100 per cent protective," appears to give a three-fold reduction of mumps cases among vaccinated people, as compared with those who were not vaccinated.

Using Your Bible

Lesson for October 15, 1950

THE BIBLE must be approached in three ways: with the head, with the heart and with the will. With the head for understanding, the heart for appreciation and reverence, and the will for obedience.

That was the first question Philip asked the Ethiopian: Do you understand what you are reading? Not, do you enjoy it, or do you believe it, but do you understand it? If not, then the reader can neither fully believe nor rightly enjoy it.

Dr. Foreman

The King James Version

THE BEST and simplest help in understanding the Bible is to read it in the language we speak. Now unfortunately it was not written in that tongue, but in Hebrew and Greek. We have to read it in translations. There are scores of translations in English alone.

The most widely sold of these is the one known by various names: the King James, or the Authorized, or the 1611, version. This was first published in 1611, being essentially a revision of the Bishop's Bible, a still earlier translation. The name "authorized" is misleading, however, for it never was authorized by church or state. It is a noble example of 17th century English and has had a wide influence wherever English-speaking people have gone.

The fact is, however, that people today do not speak 17th-century English any more, and very few of us even read it. Consequently the Bible in this King James version, has a quaint Shakespearean sound, and the difficulty of the language is one of the main reasons why the average American today finds it hard to read.

Furthermore, the King James is inaccurate in many places. At the time it was published, the translators were working from Greek manuscripts which are now known not to be either the earliest or the best available. For these reasons, fresh translations of the Bible were greatly needed.

20th Century Translations

THESE modern-English translations of the Bible haven't changed the Book; they are simply helping the reader to get back to the ideas of the original apostles and prophets; they are putting the Bible again into the language people actually speak.

Some of the more important versions may be noted here. Practically all the churches of Protestant North America have been co-operating through the International Council of Religious Education, in producing what is called the "Revised Standard Version" of which the New Testament is already out, and very popular too. The whole Bible in this version is due to be off the press by September 1952.

This is an excellent version for church or liturgical use, as it keeps close to the King James rhythm wherever it can; for the King James version, whatever its fault, has a rhythm about parts of it (notably the Psalms) which has never been surpassed.

Two other translations have been before the public, and have won many friends, for a score of years now: Moffatt's, and the American Translation by Goodspeed, J.M.P. Smith and others. (This latter includes the Apocrypha, to which most Protestants are strangers).

Treat the Family to Yeast Rolls (See Recipes Below)

Bake with Yeast
NO MATTER HOW simple a meal, its appeal can be enhanced greatly with freshly baked, yeast-leavened bread or rolls. There's a certain home-like charm about baking with yeast and the wonderful fragrance that fills the kitchen with baking of this kind which most homemakers enjoy.
 With a good basic recipe that you have learned to perfection, you can turn out many different styles and varieties of rolls. They're fun to make, and it's nice to serve them fresh and sweet-smelling right from the oven.

HERE'S A GOOD recipe for bread type rolls which is easy to follow:

- *Rolls
 3/4 cup milk
 1/4 cup sugar
 2 1/2 teaspoons salt
 4 1/2 tablespoons shortening
 3/4 cup lukewarm water
 1 package yeast, compressed or dry granular
 4 1/2 cups sifted all-purpose flour

Scald milk, add sugar, salt and shortening; stir until dissolved. Cool to lukewarm. Place lukewarm water into a large bowl and sprinkle or crumble in yeast. Let stand until dissolved, about 5 to 10 minutes. Add lukewarm milk mixture. Stir in 2 1/4 cups flour and beat until smooth. Add remaining 2 1/4 cups flour and mix thoroughly. Turn dough out on lightly floured board and knead until dough is tightly stretched and shiny, feels springy and elastic and does not stick to the board. Place in a lightly greased bowl and brush top with melted shortening. Cover with towel, let rise in a warm place, free from draft, until double in bulk, about one hour and 25 minutes.
 When doubled in bulk, punch down and turn out on lightly floured board. Shape rolls as desired.
 Cover with a towel and let rise in a warm place until double in bulk. Bake in a hot (425°) oven for 20 minutes.

DAD AND THE youngsters will love these little doughnuts, and they're no chore to make since you simply have to drop spoonfuls of the batter into frying fat, thus saving the fuss and bother of rolling and cutting. They are made from a yeast-leavened batter that will keep nicely in the refrigerator for a day or two, so you can have nice, fresh doughnuts for several days.
 Glaze them, if you want to be fancy, or toss them in plain or cinnamon or orange sugar.

- Kitchenette Doughnuts (Makes about 3 dozen)
 1 package yeast, compressed or dry granular
 3/4 cup lukewarm water
 1 cup milk
 3/4 cup sugar
 1/2 cup melted shortening
 1 teaspoon salt
 2 eggs
 3 1/4 cups sifted flour (about)

LYNN SAYS:
Use These Success Tips When Baking with Yeast
 A yeast dough is rather sticky when you first begin to knead it, but this does not mean that too little flour has been used. As kneading continues, the dough becomes smooth and satiny.
 Moderately soft doughs make the best breads, so do not use too much flour during kneading.
 If you like crusty rolls after baking, place the rolls in a pan about one inch apart.

Arthur, reading the evening paper: "Dad, I thought that medical assistance was given to cure people."

 Arthur: "It says here that a woman fell and struck her head on the sidewalk and died without medical assistance. That certainly sounds contradictory to me."

WHEN SLEEP WON'T COME AND YOU FEEL GLUM

Use Chewing-Gum Laxative—REMOVES WASTE...NOT GOOD FOOD
 • When you can't sleep—feel just awful because you need a laxative—do as MILLIONS do—chew FEEN-A-MINT.
 FEEN-A-MINT is wonderfully different! Doctors say many other laxatives start their "flushing" action too soon...right in the stomach. Large doses of such laxatives upset digestion, flush away nourishing food you need for health and energy—you feel weak, worn out.
 But gentle FEEN-A-MINT, taken as recommended, works chiefly in the lower bowel where it removes only waste, not good food! You avoid that weak, tired feeling. Use FEEN-A-MINT and feel fine, full of life! 25c, 50c, or only 10¢

VAUGHN MONROE

SINGING BAND LEADER

My voice is my living. So it's only natural that I smoke the cigarette that agrees with my throat—CAMEL!

CAMELS ARE SO MILD that in a coast-to-coast test of hundreds of men and women who smoked Camels—and only Camels—for 30 days, noted throat specialists, making weekly examinations, reported
Not one single case of throat irritation due to smoking CAMELS
