Political Speaking, And Talent Show And Picnicker On Square

Tonite (Wednesday) is the time for O'Donnell's political rally, supper and musical show. The speaker will be in charge and the master of Ceremonies assisted by G. C. Greenlee of Tahoka and Houston Glasson of Lamesa. Candidates from Lynn, Dawson and Borden Counties have indicated that they would be present either for a 15 minute talk or introduction. The rally will be on the square at the corner of the Chevrolet and get houses and 8th st. will be opened at 7 p. m. for that purpose. The speaking will start at 8 p. m. with the home talent show starting after if possible. Ladies of a Methodist church, group here will give refreshments and furnish the string hands will play as well as vocal numbers, readings, and a top notch clown living in our community. No effort will be made toward a formal program but the evening will develop as the spirit moves the crowd. This is PLAY NITE and the index's only motive for the crowd and our guests to have fun. It's free and O'Donnell is the welcome mat out for you. SEEKING YOU TONITE

M. CHRISTOPHER MAKES STATEMENT TO VOTERS

During the past months I have made every effort to see the voters in behalf of my candidacy for Peace. In the event I have missed seeing you, I take this time of personally soliciting your vote. Respectfully, M. M. "Jim" CHRISTOPHER

Section Party Will Be Held Here Sat'y Night

Plans are in the making for O'Donnell's usual election party to be held Saturday night on 7th street in the vicinity of the Bank. The street will be cut off at least half way up to the east so there will be plenty of room. Funds are being made up this week for the telephone bill. Guy Bradley will be in charge of the bulletin board.

WORLD WAR II VETERAN SEEKING SECOND TERM

We are for Roland "Slick" Clem for sheriff because: In his first term of office he has proven himself to be honest, fair, and an impartial sheriff, treating everyone alike. He is a combat veteran of World War II having served 28 months as a marine in the South Pacific campaign. He is a hard-working family man, and will make you a hand the next two years as he has the past 2 years. Because of the above facts, we earnestly solicit your support for Roland "Slick" Clem for his second term as Sheriff of Lynn county.

Why Judge Maddox Deserves Re-election

We, the qualified voters of Lynn County, Texas, and friends of B P Maddox, candidate for re-election for the office of County Attorney of Lynn County, Texas, beg to call the attention of the voters of Lynn Co. to the many civic activities of this quiet, unassuming man. He landed in Lynn County in 1916, 34 years ago just as the drouth was beginning in this county, and when it became impossible for the banks to make further loans to the farmers to buy seed to raise another crop, he was sent to the Legislature of Texas to get passed a law permitting the County to make loans to the farmers to plant their crops. During this time World War I broke out, and Judge Maddox immediately organized the Red Cross in Lynn County, and went to every school house in the county to make stronger the Red Cross of Lynn County and he was made its first chairman and served in that capacity during the duration of the War, and long after that until all soldiers of that War were demobilized and took his own time to see about getting soldiers, killed and buried in foreign fields, back to their native land for final burial. Also during that time he was made chairman of, and before the war ended he was made chairman of the United War Effort and also food administrator, which took much time and patience, and for all of which he received not one dime of pay, then came the depression of 1933 and he was made relief administrator of Lynn County and served in that capacity until the Depression was over and in that undertaking he did a hard painstaking job without the slightest breath of wrongful use of his position and did it with distinction.

When he first came to Lynn County, he was appointed by the Commissioners Court as County Attorney and he made a record for wholesome law enforcement and his last holding of this office found him going outside of his duties as County Attorney to help juveniles who get into trouble to help them and their families in checking them becoming criminals and this has been done by this man in a quiet and effective way.

Then he became interested in men who had become chronic drunkards and gone to the bottom of the ditch and has started a number of husbands back on the road to sobriety and there is many a happy mother and wife and children caused by the efforts of this kindly man at the same time he has seen that our laws are enforced and he wants to round out his work for the juveniles and the poor fellow that is in the ditch because of liquor.

Hog Breeders Resume Pelletized Feedings Post-War Availability Of Dairy Products Helps

Many hog breeders have reluctantly dropped skim milk and dairy by-products from their hog rations in the past few years.

Although farmers for generations have recognized the values of milk products in hog feeding, several factors have frequently influenced them to forget or ignore those values.

But now that dairy by-products can be adapted to self-feeder and labor-saving feeding programs through pelletizing of the products, they are again returning to their traditional place in more and more hog rations.

Rations which include pelletized dairy products produce champions such as this one. This Hampshire, shown by James Henderson, Coia, Iowa, was grand champion over all breeds at the 1949 Iowa State Fair.

This is indicated in a summary of 1949 state fair results across the midwest hog belt, which seems to re-emphasize the feeding value of milk by-products and points up the fact that they can be fitted into self-feeder programs.

The summary, prepared by Kraft foods company, shows a total of 72 championship prizes and 70 first prizes won at six big state fairs and the national barrow show by hogs fed a pelletized dairy product in their rations.

Rats Blamed for Spread Of Mesquite in Arizona

Desert rats that gather reserve feed, store it in shallow caches, and leave many of these undisturbed, are practically planters of the stored seed. This is one of the important causes of the rapid invasion of grassy range lands by mesquite shrub.

Mesquite, says the U.S. department of agriculture, displaces forage grasses and reduces the beef and wool production. In areas in Arizona the number of mesquite shrubs to the acre have increased about 50 per cent in the past 15 years, according to a U.S. forest service report.

The Merriam Kangaroo rat is a small rodent that lives in the arid areas of the southwest. The mesquite is one of its favorite foods.

Highest Scorer

Shirley Mae Cooper, 18, of Baton Rouge, La., was highest scorer in individual judging at the invitational interstate 4-H poultry judging contest at the National Farm Show in Chicago. Miss Cooper, who had a total of 1,100 points, is shown with the prize-winning cockerel awarded her as first prize.

Undulant Fever Must Be Wiped Out in Animals

The only known way to eliminate undulant fever in man is to eradicate the disease in domestic animals, according to W. W. Spink, professor of veterinary medicine at the University of Minnesota. Prevention of undulant fever, or brucellosis, in man requires the pasteurization of all milk used for human consumption, Spink says. There is no way, he says, of prevention by immunizing.

BOYD SMITH, OWNER

FROM - Your Sheriff

Now, this Sheriff's job is a curious one: Like the housewives work, it is never done. Calls come by night and come by day; They may be car, or miles away. Do hurry right up, says the voice of the caller; You're badly needed in Possum Holler. Paw's on a rampage; he's got a gun; Been looking for Maw since half-past one. And drive like a steam liner carrying the mail. Our only hope and all we can figger. Is to be on hand before Paw pulls the trigger. We finally arrive amid confusion. We learn the affair was a simple delusion. Paw with his gun was just hunting squirrels. Maw had gone to school with the two oldest girls. Next day we're refree a nice family row. That day we're court and the lawyers rave; The defendant sits there in need of a shave. Where were you on the first of September? The defendant replies, "I Don't Remember." They argue around till half past three; Then the jury goes out and fails to agree. The Judge sends them back until their duty is done; But 8 1/2 hours later they are still 11 to 1. Now, that is just a sample of what we do; An endless variety of the old and the new. It may be a prowler, a burglar or a drunk; He may steal your billfold, your watch, or your trunk. We set out to catch him, and we do our best; We catch our percentage and lose the rest. They don't leave their cards like the candidates do. Sometimes they plead guilty, and the Judge will scold. Then half the County will want them paroled. They blame the depression, the New Deal, the tariff -- But most folks put the blame on the Sheriff. So, it's quite a game if you stay right in -- You'll get a pat on the back, and a sock on the chin. But I like it, and I'm shedding no tears. And I would like to be your Sheriff for another two years. Faithfully yours, ROLAND W. "Slick" CLEM (Political adv. paid for by Friends)

KATHLEEN NORRIS
Marital Agency

TWO SCHOOL teacher sisters, Grace and Goldie Brooks, wrote me some years ago from their home in a small town near Duluth, to consult me about marriages that are made through matrimonial agencies. Their parents had recently died, and their lives, they felt, had become narrow, dull and monotonous.

"We love cooking and gardening," wrote Grace, "we keep a nice home, and have friends. But neither one of us has ever had a sweetheart, and we wonder why. Just of late it occurred to us that many an arranged marriage has terminated happily, and that as we are too shy to let the men of our own town know that we would like to be married, yet we would not feel so self-conscious with men who are deliberately seeking good, loving wives. We certainly would not take any man, and we understand that we would be free to decline any proposal that did not appeal. But we both long for companionship, for the interest of talking over our households, husbands and perhaps someday children with each other, and we feel that a wider life would give us more chance for development, and eventually for service."

Matrimonial Candidates

In answer to this letter I wrote reminding these sisters that, being adults, they were quite able to judge for themselves the merits and appeal of any matrimonial candidates, and that it might not be a mistake to investigate a responsible bureau in their neighborhood.

But I also said that this line of business is a notoriously unreliable one, open to the unscrupulous and dishonest, and especially patronized by fortune hunters, men to whom even the Brooks girls' modest comfort would be worth plundering. Several happy wives wrote me that theirs had been matrimonial bureau marriages when I wrote of this subject some years ago, and many European marriages are arranged this way.

One of my close old friends in New York was an Irish woman who had married a man on the very day set for his marriage to her cousin. The cousin drew out at the last moment, and my friend, then a saucy 18, volunteered to marry Dan and go with him to America the next day. Seven fine children, two priests, a silver and golden wedding were the happy results of this venture.

But it has to be remembered that in these European marriages the religion, background and environment are all familiar to the arranging mothers and fathers, whereas in Matrimonial-agency marriages a far greater chance is taken.

Quiet Wedding

Well, to get back to the Brooks sisters. They went into Duluth, and consulted a Mrs. Oliver, a middle-aged, motherly sort of woman who never openly advertises, but has a good reputation as Cupid's agent. After some negotiating she sent them some letters, and the sister I have called Goldie became deeply attracted to a man from Milwaukee. A quiet wedding followed, Kent being introduced to friends and neighbors as "a man our friend Mrs. Oliver knows."

Immediately a man who had known both sisters for years announced himself as extremely resentful, as he said, he had loved Goldie for a long time, but had been waiting until her obligations to her mother and his to an old father, were somewhat less pressing. Goldie only could accept this with the complacency of a bride, and the disappointed admirer elected himself to comfort Grace, afterward finding that she was the one he loved, after all. On their wedding trip they could act as godparents for Goldie's baby son; the sisters between them now have five children, and the whole venture ended happily and successfully for everyone.

Which is only to say, perhaps, that there is no harm in breaking out of the rut into which our days sometimes sink. This adventure usually belongs to girls and boys in their teens.

Some find congenial companions and open little bachelor-maid establishments, sometimes not far from the home nest, but independent, anyway.

Grace and Goldie were not young, as love affairs go. They were sensible women, already experienced in guiding the young, and they knew they needn't have any dealings with charlatans and crooks and gay deceivers generally. The real danger of these matrimonial agencies is that to the young, curious, adolescent mind they present enormous fascinations.

Don't Be Satisfied With Only Temporary Relief—Now It Is Possible To TREAT THE CAUSE OF ANY SICKNESS

DUE TO DEFICIENCIES OF VITAMINS B₁, B₂, NIACIN AND IRON.

Mr. John McClendon, P. O. Box 2191, Los Angeles, California. "My age is 44. My trouble is stomach distress. Can't eat and when I do, it makes me sick. But HADACOL has done me more good than anything I have tried. My mother lives in Mobile, Alabama, and sent it to me. I don't think there's anything better than HADACOL, and if there is you can have it." (A very thoughtful mother to send her son HADACOL. Why don't you send a bottle to a relative with this trouble?)

Mr. Ophelia Jefferson of Gulfport, Mississippi. "I'd been suffering from neuritis pains and aches and was advised to have my teeth extracted, but received no relief. I'm now on my seventh bottle of HADACOL and it's given me entire relief from the aches and pains. I'm able now to do a full day's work. The makers of such a marvelous remedy should certainly be praised."

Mrs. Virgie Finley, Route No. 1, Monterey, Tennessee. "I was weak and run-down so that I could hardly sleep any, and was so nervous, that I could hardly do my housework. My stomach had so much gas on it that everything I ate seemed to hurt me. I had tried all kinds of medicine and nothing seemed to help me. I started taking HADACOL a few weeks ago and believe me it surely has helped me. Now I can eat anything and am sleeping well at night. I cannot praise HADACOL enough, and I have taken only 4 bottles." (Mrs. Finley is a wise woman. She knows just what HADACOL prevents such distress from returning.)

Mrs. George F. Tuff of Poplar Bluff, Missouri. "I am 57 years old and I have started on the third bottle of HADACOL. I never have taken a medicine that helped me like HADACOL. I don't have neuritis aches or pains since I took the first bottle. I was so nervous, I had pains in my back, legs and arms till I couldn't work. Now I feel good and go all the time to work." (HADACOL gives such wonderful results because it treats the cause of such deficiencies.)

Mrs. Harry W. Smith, 10 North Water Street, Harrisburg, Illinois. "I am 41 years old, and work at a Strip Mine. I have been bothered with aches and pains of neuritis and feel sleepy all the time, but my wife heard your broadcast on the radio about HADACOL. So I bought a trial size and it has helped me so wonderfully that I buy the large family size now. I can't begin to describe how I would feel if I couldn't buy it at all. I want everybody who feels bad to know about it."

Alex J. Anderson, Route No. 1, Caryville, Florida. "A very bright youngster. I am ten years old. I've always been puny. I never have eaten or played like my brothers. I've been taking HADACOL for a while, now feel better, play more and like to go to school. HADACOL is really a good medicine." (Just leave it to the youngsters to find out what's good for them!)

Mr. Robert C. Stuart, Baister Inn, Abingdon, Virginia. "I am working in the capacity of Health Inspector for the State of Virginia and have for the past two years suffered heartburn and a form of stomach distress. I have had no appetite and have tried various medicines spending many hundreds of dollars for treatment and aid. I have not found any relief in anything or any treatment until I tried your remarkable HADACOL, which I praise with the highest regard. Now I eat three large meals a day without any pains or discomfort. I have gained 15 lbs. since the 15th of December—never felt better in all my life. I am now taking an active part in civic and extra-curricular activities which I had to ignore since last December. I have worked zealously. Thanks to your remarkable HADACOL."

Mrs. John R. Gristle, Jr., 4903 B. Chaparral, Dallas, Texas. "I'm writing you to let you know just what HADACOL has done for me. I was feeling bad—nervous, had headaches, lost my appetite—so my mother advised me to get HADACOL, and try it. My baby is only 2 1/2 months old and it sure has helped me. I've taken only one bottle and it has done wonders. My husband is taking it now too, and he surely feels better, and not so tired after a day's work. I recommend HADACOL to everyone who needs a toner, and it surely will make you feel better. I hope this will help someone to feel better by reading or hearing this information."

Mrs. Helen Barron of Meadvale, Georgia. "My little boy had been sick for quite some time. Until I heard about HADACOL over the radio, he was weak, run-down, and apt to catch anything—he couldn't run and play like other boys did, and he wouldn't eat anything. So I can't praise HADACOL enough. He has taken 4 bottles and eats anything, and sleeps good, isn't tired when he gets up, runs and plays as much as anyone, has gained weight, and feels good. I have taken some myself. He is 11 years old now. I don't think I could tell about what HADACOL has done for my son. He even looks better. I want all my friends to try HADACOL."

Mrs. L. L. Martin, 4207 Woodhead Street, Houston 6, Texas. "I am sixty years old. For the past few months have been suffering from almost constant heartburn and a heavy feeling in my chest. I had read about HADACOL in the papers but as I take care of all the expenses at home, I just couldn't buy any. Three weeks ago, my son in Kansas sent me $5, telling me it was not for groceries but to please buy something for myself with it. I bought four bottles of HADACOL at $1.25 a bottle. After the first few doses of HADACOL I was free of heartburn and also of the heavy tired feeling I had been experiencing."

Mr. Clifton Crum, 511 West Commerce Street, Greenville, Alabama. "I am taking the third bottle of HADACOL and it has done more for me than any other medicine. I was awfully weak and nervous and run-down. I would have weak nervous spells and I had no appetite for food. So I heard different people praising HADACOL over the radio. My wife wanted me to give it a trial and I sure am glad I did. My back would hurt me so with neuritis pains till I couldn't sleep at night but that is all in the past. My backache is gone now and I am feeling good so I am going to continue taking HADACOL. I am 35 years old, employed by Greenville Ice and Coal Co., Greenville, Ala. I hope everybody that needs medicine will try HADACOL. I just can't praise it enough as it seems to be just the medicine I needed."

Mr. Aldore Kramer of Marrero, Louisiana. "I want you to know how your wonderful HADACOL helped me. I suffered so from neuritis pains and aches, I hurt so, and I could hardly use my right hand. I even had my teeth out but got no help. I started to get HADACOL. Now I sing while I plow my fields. I'm so happy. I'll never be without HADACOL. I take it every day. (That's the spirit—let's all try to get that wonderful HADACOL feeling! Why don't you try it?)"

Mr. John Krumpelman, 127 Warren St., Lexington, Kentucky. "Four months ago I was suffering from lack of energy, no get up and go at all. I also had a lack of appetite and great irritability. Then my friends recommended HADACOL, and in a very short time my appetite began to go back to normal and it seemed as though a miracle had happened because everything was once again very bright."

Mrs. Tom Kennedy, 1302 Rector Street, Hot Springs, Arkansas. "My trouble was terrible pain right after I ate my meals. I have tried pills but they didn't do any good, so I thought I would try HADACOL. After the first bottle of HADACOL I got relief, so I wouldn't be without HADACOL. I have already told all my neighbors about HADACOL, how good it is. They are also taking it. I am 49 years old and I sure do feel a lot better, thanks to HADACOL." (What a wise woman Mrs. Kennedy is. She realizes continued use of HADACOL helps prevent such stomach misery from returning.)

Beatrice Starks of 303 Millard Street, Honola Path, South Carolina. "I just had to write you a few words to try to tell you how much HADACOL has helped me. I had an operation in February. Then I started washing too soon, took neuritis in my hands and arms and after that couldn't do anything. I heard about HADACOL, decided to try it and I'm sure glad I did. My indignation was so bad I couldn't eat anything I liked but now I can eat what I want. My hands don't hurt or my hips ache they did before I started using HADACOL. Please keep holding it out so others will hear about it."

Nebraska Farm Families To Have Less Income

Nebraska farm families will have about 10 per cent less net income in 1950 than they did in 1949, according to L. F. Snipes, extension farm management specialist at the University of Nebraska. He says these are the reasons: The total cost of farm production this year will be about as high as in 1949. Items needed by the farm family will be as high or higher than in 1949.

4-H Club 'Fencer' Foils Post Decay Creosote Treated Posts Will Last Thirty Years

Terry Liston, 17-year-old president of South Carolina Four-H Clubs, has "snowballed" one well-known conservation practice into triple savings—savings of timber, money, and his own time and energy.

Thinning a woodlot on his father's farm near Smoaks to allow healthier growth of the trees, Terry ended up with 700 fine fence posts. But he had noticed that pine fence posts rotted out in the ground faster than he could grow new ones.

Presenting his problem to the local county agricultural agent, Terry learned that pressure-treating the posts with creosote would give them a life expectancy of more than 30 years.

Although he realized that he was making an unusual request that normally could not be filled, Terry contacted a nearby Charleston, S. C., wood treating plant and asked to have his posts pressure treated with creosote, along with ties and poles which Koppers treats for railroads and utilities.

Word of Terry's attack on the farm fencing problem spread among the community with the result that other farmers have turned to use of the specially treated posts as a better farming method.

GOOD CITIZEN

American's Right to Vote Often Abused, Corrupted, Neglected

This is the second of a series of 10 articles from the booklet "Good Citizen" published by The American Heritage Foundation concerning the rights and duties of an American.

Of the nine promises of a good citizen the first is: I will vote at all elections. I will inform myself on candidates and issues and will use my greatest influence to see that honest and capable officials are elected. I will accept public office when I can serve my community or my country thereby.

The right to vote — to vote in secret and to have your votes counted — is a great right.

It is grounded in the faith that the average judgment of all of us together — that "you can't fool all the people all the time." It has many flaws. It has been corrupted, abused and neglected, but by means of it the American people over more than a century and a half have done pretty well for themselves.

Through agents chosen by you and others like you all laws are made. No man, regardless of his station in life, wields more power than you in the voting booth.

You can also vote by not voting. By staying away from the polls you can help a self-seeking minority make the wrong decision.

Don't be afraid to "lose your vote." The vote that doesn't elect a man still influences what he does.

STAGE SCREEN RADIO

By INEZ GERHARD

BETTY HUTTON, bright star of "Annie Get Your Gun" and "Let's Dance," has worked hard for every bit of her success, but the career closest to her heart is being the mother of her two little girls — and she could give lessons to a lot of mothers! "They're going to grow up knowing everybody doesn't have a house and back yard like theirs," she told me. "They're going to know that some people don't have enough to eat, as I didn't when I was little." As for her future — "I'm really an entertainer, not an actress; if the time comes when I can't make pictures, I'll sing in night clubs. Show business is wonderful!"

Crooner Alan Dale has given up leaving his weekly radio show by the stage door, now departs by crossing the rooftops to the third building away. Mobbing bobby soxers have stained his new suits with lipstick smears, inkspots, streaks of eyebrow pencil (which they use for autographs). But popularity pays; he was king of four New York college proms in June.

Margaret O'Brien's scheduled starring vehicle, "City Girl," for Columbia, was abandoned by mutual consent of the actress and the company. She still has a one-picture commitment with them, and a new story is being prepared.

Let's Show World There's Life in the Old Liberties Yet

By BILLY ROSE

Hon. Harry S. Truman
The White House
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. President:

I see by the papers that the Freedom Fair which was scheduled to open in Washington in 1951 has been called off. I respectfully suggest that you press a few buttons and call it back on again, and with your patience and permission I'd like to tell you why.

As this lopsided eight-ball of a planet currently shapes up, about the only thing worth talking about is freedom, or the lack of it, and as you yourself have repeatedly pointed out in your speeches, our people ought to know what they're talking about when the subject comes up.

Well, what's the best way to demonstrate that there's still plenty of life in the old liberties? Fastidious facts and figures? Cliche' - studded press releases? Rah-rah-rah editorials? No, Mr. President, not in this day and age.

As I see it, the best way to stand off the sugar-coated being handed out by the kids in the Kremlin is to hand out a few lollipops of our own, and I can't think of a better place to do it than a 200-acre fairground within eyeshot of the Lincoln Memorial.

Impact-wise, what would such a shining actually accomplish? Not much, Sir, if it were just a run-of-the-flushing-meadows type of fair. But it would do a potent plenty if it were a mammoth, hit-'em-in-all-fivesenses whoopdoo in which everything from spectacle to sideshow were built around one simple theme: The Freer the Enterprise, the More Enterprising the Freeman.

ONCE AND FOR ALL, let's con-

A candidate who just squeaks through knows that you and others like you can repudiate him next time.

In this atom-splitting age you are voting on the gravest issues in the history of mankind.

WHEN YOU REACH voting age you become a member of the "ruling class"—the one and only ruling class of this country.

Use this power to vote. Vote during the big year elections, of course—and at state elections.

Vote at your party primary.

Vote also for your city's mayor or village president.

Vote for members of the school board.

Vote on policies and officers of your union.

Vote as a stockholder of any company you have invested in.

Vote on civic improvements and bond issues.

Vote on officers of your club, your lodge, your grange.

In general, all citizens over 21 years of age have the right to vote, but the various states have different laws as to how long you must live in the same place, when to register, etc. In certain states literacy tests or poll taxes are required. In no state is property ownership a requirement.

But don't consider you have done your duty merely by voting in national elections every four years. There are also congressional elections, state elections, city elections, and local elections of various kinds.

THERE ARE three ways to vote. You can vote for (1) party, (2) issues, (3) people.

If the total party program, as expressed in its platform, appeals to you as being best for the country, it is sound to vote a straight ticket for the people pledged to put that program into effect.

If a single issue seems to you more important than anything else, it is sound to vote for persons who support your view of that issue, regardless of party.

If the ability of an individual to judge each issue fairly and to keep the interests of the people uppermost appeals to you, it is sound to vote for that individual, regardless of party or any particular issue.

But even if you spent your life at it, you couldn't be fully informed on all the candidates and issues.

The answer is to do the best you can. It is better to vote on the basis of party allegiance and your own "sense of things" than not to vote at all. Your own knowledge and convictions, whatever they are, will be combined with the knowledge and convictions of a lot of other people. As a group we are usually wiser than we think we are.

This article is Chapter 3 of the booklet "Good Citizen," produced by the American Heritage Foundation, sponsors of the Freedom Train. A complete book may be obtained by sending 25 cents to the American Heritage Foundation, 17 East 40th Street, New York, N.Y.

THE FICTION CORNER

REPUTATION AT STAKE

By Richard H. Wilkinson

MIKE DIDN'T INTEND to be unreasonable about it. He had a reputation for fairness, and he meant to live up to it. There wasn't a person alive who didn't have faults. And knowing this to be a fact, Mike could understand why such a gorgeous creature as Serena Wood felt short of being a paragon. Not that Serena's faults were anything to worry about. If they had been Mike would never have asked her to marry him.

3-Minute Fiction

Serena's greatest fault, he thought, was her inability to get ready to go any place on time.

Mike adopted a unique method in order to cure this deficiency. For a time he decided to fall in with Serena's habits. Thus, he would dispel any possible doubt in her mind regarding his purpose. Presently he would begin to get himself ready on time and sit around waiting. Serena couldn't help noticing and take heed.

During the next half year Mike noted with some satisfaction that Serena had already begun to feel his stronger personality. She was allowing herself a bit more time to get dressed for parties, and once or twice suggested to Mike that he hurry up.

By the time the six months was up, Serena had improved greatly. He decided to forego his tapering off, letting well enough alone. Three months passed and the situation had taken on quite a new aspect. Serena, unconsciously, was doing a lot of walking from one room to another switching off lights that Mike had left burning.

THINGS REACHED a point at the end of a year that called for some sort of undertaking. Oddly, it was Serena who brought matters to a head.

"I realize," she told Mike crossly, "that everyone has their faults. But it does seem to me that you could attach a little more importance to things around the house. I've done my best to make you change your ways. I've even resorted to artifice."

"Artifice?"
"I mean, like telling you we have to be at a party 15 minutes before hand in the hopes that you'll get ready on time. I've deliberately gone into the bedroom to switch off the lights after you come out, hoping that you would notice. I've got out of bed and padded way to the kitchen to shut off a dripping faucet."

"I didn't mean that you were weakminded or anything like that. We all have our faults."

that you've left running. I declare, Mike, you can't have a very strong personality."

"Now wait a minute, Serena. Something's wrong here. We've got to have an understanding."
"We certainly have. From now on if you leave the lights burning they stay burning and you can pay the bill. If you're late for parties I'll go on ahead and you can make your own excuses."

"But about this personality business. Now—"
"I didn't mean that you were weakminded or anything like that. We all have our faults. Why, even I have some. I suppose I've tried to help you overcome yours. But from now on you'll have to shift for yourself, unless you can give me some co-operation."
"Co-operation! Why, hang it, I did those things deliberately to break you of them, and now I find myself doing them automatically—and—liking it!"

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Graham stared at each other. "It's my fault that you have faults and I have faults because of your faults. Oh, darling, Mike, don't you see what's happened? We made the mistake of thinking ourselves perfect. Let's start all over again—now that we have an understanding, and work the other way."
"O. K.," said Mike. "O. K.," He grinned, remembering he had a reputation for fairness.

MIRROR Of Your MIND

How Selfish Is City Life?

By Lawrence Gould

Does city life make people "selfish"?

Answer: I do not believe so. Obviously, the more neighbors you have, the less interest you can take in them as individuals, and in a metropolis like New York, you cannot have the same kind of intimacy, even with your best friends that you might have in the country or a small town—you see them too seldom. But "neighborly interest" can be just as selfish as the city-dweller's ignorance of his next-door neighbor's name—at least, the New Yorker does not pry into your personal affairs or try to dictate how you shall live.

Should you fool with "amateur hypnosis"?

Answer: No, warns Dr. Irving S. Dribben in The Military Surgeon. He reports the case of a 17-year-old "rookie" who became acutely insane after being hypnotized by a group of soldiers in camp. Psychiatrists brought him back to normal, but he had periods of amnesia for days afterwards. The hypnosis had released buried emotional disturbances which had given him no previous trouble. Allowing an amateur to hypnotize you is nearly as dangerous as letting someone amuse himself by trying to remove your appendix.

Can anyone predict the future?

Answer: Most certainly not. For even if what tomorrow holds in store is "predetermined" by what happens today, the conditions that may influence it are so complex that no single mind could grasp them. You might say, for instance, that a given marriage appears "destined" to be happy, yet an accident or illness no one could foresee may wreck it. And while the much-maligned U. S. Weather Bureau has a better record than most people realize, to say with absolute certainty that it will not rain tonight, you would have to know more than a dozen Einsteins.

LOOKING AT RELIGION

"BABEL" MEANS "GATE OF GOD." THE TOWER OF BABEL WAS BUILT ON THE PLAIN OF SHINAR BY MEN WHO VAINLY HOPED TO ASCEND TO GOD BY MEANS OF THIS STRUCTURE. GOD, HOWEVER, CONFOUNDED THEIR LANGUAGE, REDUCING IT TO MEANINGLESS SOUNDS, AND SCATTERED THEM OVER THE EARTH. GEN. 10:10; 11:4, 9.

KEEPING HEALTHY

Treatment of the Tired Patient of 50

By Dr. James W. Barton

When a man or woman past 50 who has always lead an active life begins to feel tired all the time it is not because he is growing old; but because there is some underlying condition present, slight or severe. Perhaps the commonest cause of tiredness in a man or woman past 50 is infection, although his family and he himself may think it due to overwork.

An examination should be made by the family physician and dentist to try to find infection of teeth, tonsils, gums, sinuses, gall bladder or large intestine. The regular processes and the fighting forces of the body keep working away as best they can despite infection, but finally the infection begins to win the fight and tiredness and sleepiness is the result.

While infection is the commonest cause of tiredness in the patient of 50, the thyroid gland in the neck may become less active which also causes a "slowing up" of the individual physically and mentally. In "Clinical Medicine," Dr. W. B. Kountz of St. Louis (Washington university school of medicine), states that a basal metabolism test, which is used to test the rate at which the body processes of the body are working under control of thyroid gland, should be made. A persistent fall in metabolic rate may be first sign of body degeneration with symptoms of tiredness, nervousness and inability to keep up physically. The pulse is fast (at first) and abdomen distended. "Lack of physical and mental vigor is noted; the blood pressure may rise without organic disease."

The treatment for underactivity of the thyroid glands is: thyroid extract in doses of one-half to one grain daily, with organic iodine, which stimulates metabolism (building up and breaking down of body tissue) and delays degeneration.

As infection is commonest cause of tiredness in patient of 50, the family physician and dentist should first be consulted. If no infection present then a metabolism test is made which may show that the thyroid gland is underactive. The metabolism test is not expensive.

HEALTH NOTES

Any fresh or canned juice may be consumed by the patient with high blood pressure if it contains no artificial flavor, color or preservative.

Shingles will run its complete course despite any and all known forms of treatment, and all that can be done is to try to relieve the pain and itching.

The little cushions between the bones forming the spine are called disks.

All children should be tested for allergy and the allergy treated before tonsils and adenoids are removed.

Penicillin is of great value in treating acute middle ear infection.

Good Farm Practices
Make 'Good' Soils

"Somewhat the notion gets around that originally our farm soils were highly productive. That is, productive when first plowed. Many of them were like the black lands in our middle west and in central Eurasia, for example, and in some of the great deltas and alluvial valleys," says Dr. Charles E. Kellogg of the U. S. department of agriculture. However, he adds: "But most soils are not. It is through liming and fertilization, drainage, irrigation, the introduction of legumes, and a host of other practices, that farmers have made their soils productive."

Kitchen Table Stool

Many a farm wife would sit while working at the kitchen table if there was a stool or chair handy. A stool hinged to a table leg so it could easily be pushed under the table when not in use would meet the requirement. The one shown above is a simple stool with one leg. A short arm of wood about eighteen inches long, an inch thick and three inches wide, has one end nailed or screwed to the stool leg and the other end attached to a table leg by a hinge.

Agricultural Stations
Gradually Restaffing

Gradual restaffing of the agricultural experiment stations with scientific personnel which was not available during the war period is noted in the current report on the agricultural experiment stations. New staff members are young men who have been able to complete their advance training since the war. Closer integration of research and extension work is also reported.

Farm Safety Week
Observance in July
Fifteen Simple Rules
Of Safety Outlined

National Farm Safety Week will be observed in the United States during the week of July 23-29. The annual losses represented by farm accidents and fires are estimated around one billion. To reduce this enormous loss, 15 simple rules are outlined for Farm Safety Week:
1. Keep walkways and steps in good repair, unobstructed and well lighted; 2. Keep ladders in good repair and easily accessible in case of emergency; 3. Always stop a machine before unclogging, oiling, or adjusting. Keep all machine guards and safety devices in place; 4. Don't wear loose and floppy clothes around machinery; 5. Start tractors smoothly and turn corners slowly—avoid ditch banks and soft ground—always hitch to the drawbar; 6. Speak to animals when approaching them. Keep them calm by acting with calm self assurance yourself; 7. Always keep bulls in safe bull pens. Never handle bulls unless they are properly restrained; 8. Know and obey all traffic laws; 9. Keep your back straight and lift heavy loads with your leg muscles; 10. Use the right tools for the job—make sure they are in good condition—keep them in a safe place; 11. Give prompt attention to even minor injuries; 12. Keep guns unloaded except when actually using them; 13. Don't use kerosene to start fires; 14. Don't smoke around the barn; 15. Never swim alone. Never dive into water without first determining the depth.

Watch This Skin Disease

When a state health authority says there is no such thing as a natural resistance to impetigo, parents of small children know exactly what he means. Those parents know, perhaps from bitter experience, that the same individual can suffer repeated attacks from this offensive, annoying skin infection.

Although children are unusually susceptible, impetigo can be found in any age group. It is most prevalent during the summer months but has been known to occur at any month.

Impetigo is a purulent skin infection. It isn't serious except in newborn babies. An invasion of a hospital nursery ward calls for extreme attention to keep uninfected babies from getting it for it spreads like fire in dry grass.

Impetigo is caused by a pus forming bacteria called straphylococcus; the same sort of germ found in boils and sores where pus is present. Usually it forms an unsightly crust over wide areas of the body. The pus underneath the crust is highly infectious if allowed to get on any other skin surface.

The infection is easily transmitted when a non infected person uses the towel of someone infected, since the towel moisture permits the germ to survive. Children living in the most hygienic homes frequently get impetigo, although it is perhaps more common among children living in homes where personal sanitation isn't considered too important.

According to the B. F. Goodrich farm service department, farmers observing these tips will not only protect their tires and make them last longer, but will obtain maximum efficiency from their equipment.

1. Check air pressure twice a month, taking reading first thing in the morning when tires are cool. Never release air from tires after running tractor for long periods in hot sun. This will result in under-inflation and possible tire damage when casing cools off.

Regular examination of farm tires and prompt repairs to cuts, bruises or other damage may prevent most costly repairs. Gaywood Wagner, Freehold, N. J., is shown inspecting a sidewall cut in one of the multi-ring front tires on his tractor.

2. Do not permit grease or oil to remain on tires. This shortens the life of rubber. Wash off chemicals which accumulate after spraying with tractor.

3. When using liquid weight in rear tractor tires, do not fill tire more than three-quarters full of liquid. Maintain correct air pressure, because a slight leak under this condition will cause a much greater decrease in pressure than if the tire were 100 per cent air-filled.

4. When tractor is not in use for long periods, jack it up and cover it. Inflate tires to recommended pressure before putting tractor back in service.

5. Always use valve caps to keep out dirt and moisture and to prevent possible trouble from leaky valves.

6. Examine tires regularly for signs of damage and remove stones and other foreign objects from treads. Have cuts, bruises or other tire damage repaired as soon as they are discovered.

7. Choose correct size when purchasing tires, keeping in mind the load they must carry and the particular job for which the tractor is used.

8. Drive carefully at all times—especially on the highway—to obtain longer life from tires and to extend your own.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS

United States Ground Forces Sent Into Korea; Uneasy World Fears Crisis May Lead to New World War

(EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysts and not necessarily of this newspaper.)

KOREA WAR: U. S. Fights

Eight days after the Communists of North Korea invaded United States sponsored South Korea the people of the democratic nations were breathing a little easier, with only an occasional shiver of fear sweeping down their spines.

Developments in the crisis, which could yet plunge the world into World War III, came quickly after the initial invasion.

Using tanks and planes which the southern forces lacked, the Communists swept through Seoul and within 12 miles of Suwon, important air base of South Korea.

The army of South Korea made stand after stand, but could not halt the Russian made tanks and planes used by the Communists. Within 48 hours after the opening attack South Korea was in a difficult position and for a time it appeared the invaders would sweep south with less and less opposition.

Then came the historical order of President Truman sending United States navy and air force units to the aid of South Korea. It was followed two days later with an order sending U. S. troops to the battle line.

Military operations developed quickly and with surprising efficiency. Observers throughout the world were astonished at the speed with which the United States got fighting forces into the field.

Following the President's first order, the air force in Japan and naval units in that area, were put under command of General MacArthur. The planes immediately attacked Communist troop concentrations, tanks and planes. The navy blockaded the Korean coast.

Within 24 hours after the second order, troops had landed in South Korea and were well on their way to the front.

Meanwhile, the South Korea army had rallied and established a temporary line along the Hon river. The Communist army crossed the river at one point and advanced toward Suwon.

General MacArthur has at his disposal in Japan four U. S. infantry divisions, consisting of 15,000 men each, a number of tanks and heavy guns. Whether or not he will use all of them depends upon developments within the next week or two, observers reported.

The military picture in Korea remains confused and the future depends almost entirely upon what the Russians decide to do in the way of aid to the North Korea army.

Responsible sources report American and South Korea forces, using tanks, planes and heavy guns which the United States will provide, should check and then drive out the Communists. Experience and material throws the advantage to the democracies—that is, if the Soviet Union decides not to take an active part in the affair.

MURDER: Admits Arson

Newspaper readers throughout the country forgot the Korean crisis long enough to express horror over the confession of a 20-year-old Circleville, O., youth who admitted setting the Ringling Brothers circus fire in Hartford, Conn., in 1944 that killed 168 persons and injured 412 others.

The youth, Robert Dale Segree, also admitted that he was personally responsible for the slaying of four persons.

The youth admitted setting between 25 and 30 major fires in Portland, Me., between 1939 and 1946 and other fires in New Hampshire and Ohio.

He confessed killing a watchman who caught him setting a fire in a warehouse in Portland, Me., March 16, 1943; a 12-year-old boy, strangled to death on the beach at Cape Cottage, Me., in 1943; a 9-year-old girl, beaten to death with a stone during a fit of anger, and a Japanese boy, killed in Japan in 1949 while Segree was in the United States army of occupation.

Segree gave this explanation of the fires: A flaming red Indian horseman awakens him at night and tells him to set the fires. Then his mind goes blank and the next thing he remembers is that the fires have been started. The red Indian then is off his horse. He drives Segree away with taunts and sneers.

RAILROADS: Strike Goes On

The government asked striking A.F.L. switchmen to end their walk-out against five midwest and western railroads because of the "current critical developments" arising from the Korean war, but the railroaders refused.

They offered to help the railroad move any material the government deemed essential. The union said the reference to patriotism "borders on insult."

Red Amazons

These poker-faced girls, held at a South Korea guardhouse, were members of a Communist guerrilla band that crossed the border and which was finally driven back. The girls said they were conscripted as guerrilla fighters when they proved too weak to help pull plows.

EUROPE: A Case of Shakes

Europe suffered a severe case of "shakes" following the outbreak of the Korean conflict. Europeans saw the horrors of World War II as it progressed across that continent from east to west, and what they saw will not soon be forgotten.

With this memory and a strong belief that Russia had finally come from behind the iron curtain to fight World War III, the nerves of Europeans were at the breaking point for the first week of the crisis.

As the situation developed, however, the tension eased, but by no means vanished. In many areas, Berlin for instance, the majority felt World War III had begun. In other sections the thought persisted that it was a dangerous situation, but with hopes it would not set the world afire with war.

Some of the reactions: Vienna—Austrians were beginning to breathe easier after the first week of war jitters, but there remained widespread fear of war. There was a notable surge of growing confidence in the United Nations and the United States.

Frankfurt—The Germans, both east and west, were plainly scared at the possibility of the Korean struggle drawing Europe into a shooting war.

Berlin—War fears in Berlin apparently were worse than at the start of the Soviet blockade of Berlin two years ago.

London—Extremely disturbed over the possibility of war, but approved the action of the United States. The thought persisted that the Russians are not ready for a full scale war.

UNITED STATES: A United Front

More than anywhere else in the world, the Korean incident was uppermost in the minds of Americans. There was a great fear of war in all sections of the country. But most surprising reaction was the united front presented to the rest of the world.

Americans in every walk of life approved of President Truman's action. One and all approved the decision that told communism that the United States would stand by its commitments and the point had been reached where democracy would make a stand against totalitarianism.

Even congress, which has presented a confusing picture of inconsistencies during the Truman administration, approved of the chief executive's action.

Senator Taft of Ohio, apparently unwilling to rise above the political view took the opportunity to demand the resignation of Secretary of State Acheson. Many observers found his senate speech untimely. He demanded the resignation of Acheson on the grounds his policy in the Far East had been reversed completely by President Truman and he had, therefore, been operating under the wrong policy. For that reason he insisted Mr. Acheson had outlived his usefulness.

Rep. Vito Marcantonio, noted for his Communist leanings, added his voice of protest, but most people were inclined to consider the source and let it go at that.

Politics

A new movement was seen in the Republican party following a meeting in Philadelphia of representatives from 10 states and issuance of a "declaration of principles."

Henry V. Poor, former president of the New York Young Republicans, said the group drafted the "declaration of principles" as a basis of "revitalizing the Republican party."

TAXES: House Votes Cut

The 1950 tax bill, much to the amazement of Washington observers, won the approval of the house of representatives with a top-heavy vote of 375 to 14. As the measure went to the senate, observers were not making any predictions.

The bill calls for $1,010,000,000 of reductions in the excise taxes annually paid on furs, jewelry, luggage, toilet articles, admissions, communications, transportation and many other items.

The revenue loss, however, is offset by provisions to increase corporation taxes $433,000,000 annually and close loopholes in other tax laws.

Observers were making no predictions about senate action because of complexities stemming from the Korean war. Many senators would be much different and any relief might be ruled out if the situation developed demanding increases in this country's military budget.

The Republicans have been fighting the measure because of the proposed increase in corporation taxes.

Also in the tax news, federal revenue in May soared nearly half a billion dollars above that of the same month a year ago.

But the total for the first 11 months in the fiscal year ending July 1 was still more than a billion below that of the corresponding period of the preceding fiscal year, the internal revenue bureau reported.

The revenue in May from individual and corporation income taxes and from employment taxes was well up last year. For example, the individual income taxes collected in May were $1,878,357,644, as compared with $1,604,794,824 in May 1949.

DRAFT LAW: Boys Must Register

President Truman signed the draft bill into law. It gives him unrestricted authority to order inductions resumed at any time and empowers him to put the National Guard and the reserves on active duty any time he sees fit to do so.

The law runs until July 9, 1951, and males from 19 to 26 are subject to induction.

Observers were not much surprised at the extension of the selective service law after the Korean incident hit the headlines. Before that, however, congress was in a knock down drag out battle over the bill.

When first considered last spring there was considerable doubt that the lawmakers would grant a continuation. At the minimum, they wanted to limit the President's power to start inductions going again. The Korean situation, however, brought about quick agreement.

GAMBLING: Blow to Bookmakers

A senate subcommittee investigating gambling throughout the country have released the names of more than 2,000 subscribers to racing news wire services.

The move was newsworthy in that it should prove "useful" to local law enforcement officials in combating gambling.

Senator Ernest W. McFarland, chairman of the committee, said his group had no proof that any particular individual on the list was a bookmaker. He pointed out that some listings—for newspapers, radio stations and the like—obviously fall outside the gambling realm.

But he added: "I believe the majority of those listed are bookmakers."

The committee has announced plans to hold hearings this month in Miami, St. Louis, Kansas City and Chicago.

Nominated

Willis Smith and Mrs. Smith cast their votes in the North Carolina run-off primary. Smith defeated Sen. Frank Graham, one of President Truman's southern supporters. The Democratic nomination is tantamount to election in North Carolina.

EMPLOYMENT: Near Record

Employment in the United States in June soared to the highest levels reached since the record month of July, 1948, statistics from the bureau of the census revealed.

Agricultural employment rose to 99,046,000 compared with 8,062,000 in May. Nonagricultural employment rose by 750,000 to a total of 52,436,000 between May and June.

For five straight months the employment has increased.

MIRROR Of Your MIND.

'What Dreams May Come...'

By Lawrence Gould

Can you make yourself dream what you want to?

Answer: I've never known anybody who could do this—in fact, I've heard homesick soldiers say they would give anything to dream themselves back home, but found that they could not. This is because dreaming is a mental state in which your conscious will has lost control of your imagination and the situations pleasant or unpleasant, which you create for yourself are determined by your repressed and unconscious fears and wishes. While you're half asleep you may start a dream that will make you happy, but you cannot tell where it will take you.

tion, it seems likely that a person's basic feeling of emotional security depends at least in part on being adequately nourished, and that the prolonged sense of insecurity which would result from partial starvation might well bring on the reactions the students experienced.

Are delinquents apt to become criminals?

Answer: That depends upon how they are treated, says a judge, a psychiatrist, and a psychologist in the Northwestern University Reviewing Stand. A juvenile delinquent is a child with a problem, not a "problem child," and if he is treated as an enemy by the community, his finding the answer to his problem will be made just so much harder. If there were sufficient mental hygiene clinics to permit all juvenile delinquents to be shown a better way of getting satisfaction out of life, the danger of their turning to crime might be avoided.

Can diet deficiency change your character?

Answer: Experiments seem to show that it can. In one case, a group of normal college students who submitted for months to a diet lacking in important vitamins became not only lazy and lethargic, but quarrelsome and dishonest. Besides the direct effect of malnutrition,

LOOKING AT RELIGION

THE JEWS OF THE OLD TESTAMENT GAVE MUCH ATTENTION TO THE BEARD, REGARDING IT, WHEN LONG AND FULL, AS THE NOBLEST ORNAMENT OF MAN. TO NEGLECT, TEAR OUT OR CUT OFF A BEARD WERE SIGNS OF DEEP MOURNING, TO BE DEPRIVED OF HIS BEARD WAS A MARK OF INFAMY FOR A MAN.

KEEPING HEALTHY

Emotional Causes Start 'Heartburn'

By Dr. James W. Barton

WHILE THE TERM heartburn is frequently heard, many who suffer with it believe it has something to do with the heart. They worry unnecessarily. It is called heartburn because it is close to the heart region but it is not caused in any way by the heart.

Heartburn, sometimes called cardiospasm (heart spasm) is due to an obstruction of the lower end of the tube (oesophagus) which carries food from the throat to the stomach. The obstruction is not due to food or other substance but to a partial closure (spasm) of this muscular tube.

Just what causes this tube to close partly and appear to cause a real mechanical obstruction is unknown. In my own experience a close relative was sure she had a growth in the tube because she could feel the food "sticking" in the tube just near the stomach. In order to convince her that no real obstruction was present, I had her watch, by means of the fluoroscope (X-ray) the food (barium) going down to the stomach. While this was a number of years ago, I believed that nervousness was causing the symptoms.

In Gastroenterology, Drs. S. Wolf and T. P. Almy report that they made repeated observations of swallowed barium sulfate in 14 patients with well-established cardiospasm. They found that the obstruction in the oesophagus was often associated with a decided amount of movement of the lower two-thirds of the oesophagus.

Even when the oesophagus was widened to some extent, the cardiospasm was present; it was only when it was greatly widened that this extra amount of movement disappeared. These two physicians found that these spasms bore a direct relation to stresses and strains or freedom from stress and strain in the emotional life of these patients.

In short-term experimental observations, it was noted that when emotional topics were discussed, there was an increase in the obstructive symptoms.

HEALTH NOTES

There is a trend now to make state mental hospitals centers of prevention, early diagnosis and early treatment of mental ailments.

There are many causes of arthritis—infection, diet, injury, cold, moisture and emotional disturbance—and no single successful method of treatment.

Blood removed from a patient just recovering from the flu, when injected into the veins of a patient suffering with the malady, seems to bring fever down and help in the patient's speedier recovery.

There are more than 200 causes of headache, most of them due to remote causes.

Bruising Causes Great Meat Waste

Packing Industry Loss $25,000,000 Last Year

America's livestock industry lost $31,914,877 in dead, bruised and crippled animals in 1949.

Meat waste due solely to bruising, much of which could be prevented by greater care in handling of livestock on the farm and in transit, was more than $25,000,000.

These figures were disclosed by the National Live Stock Loss Prevention Board, an organization founded to promote better care and handling of livestock.

In 1949 the animals dead on arrival at the nation's stock yards would have filled a train 10 1/2 miles long. Meat waste from dead animals amounted to 14,310,468 pounds, with a value of $4,472,871. Losses resulting from bruises and crippled animals accounted for the remainder.

American livestock producers lost more than $25,000 in 1949 because of waste meat resulting from bruised animals. Pictured above is the carcass of a hog which was condemned because of bruises.

In order to combat this loss, educational programs have been inaugurated by the government, agricultural colleges and meat packers, pointing to the bruise and injury losses which are revealed when animals are dressed in the packing plants.

Many terminal markets have developed comprehensive livestock safety programs. These programs urge greater care in the handling of livestock from the time they leave the farm until they are marketed.

Learn, Obey Farm Safety Rules, NFSW Theme

The background for National Farm Safety Week, to be observed July 23 to 29, is a picture blacker than it need be. It includes an annual 17,500 fatalities from accidents, and 1,500,000 disabling injuries. Also about 35,000 buildings are destroyed by fire. The annual loss, much of it preventable, is estimated at about one billion dollars. "Learn and Obey Farm Safety Rules" is the theme.

Sale of Farm Churned Butter at New Low

The U. S. department of agriculture reports the dairy farmer and his wife who used to take pride in the fine quality of the butter they churned and retailed to a favored list of discriminating buyers in town -- often at a good premium above the price of "store butter" -- are vanishing.

In 1947, farm butter produced for sale had dropped below the 50 million pound mark, and for 1949 it had dropped still further to about 41 1/2 million pounds. This is less than one quarter of the 175 million pounds marketed in 1924.

In only eight states in 1949 was the total of farm butter marketed greater than 2 million pounds.

Old Half Dollar Commemorates Trip

The Old Spanish Trail half dollar of 1935 commemorated the 400th anniversary of the first overland trek on land that now is part of the U. S.

The expedition, heading westward through the gulf states and ending in what is now El Paso, was organized by Cabeza de Vaca, a Spaniard, in 1535 in St. Augustine, Fla.

The 10,008 halves of this special series were struck at the Philadelphia mint in September, 1935, and they were distributed at $2 each by the El Paso Museum committee, with the profit furthering the museum.

L. W. Hoffecker, El Paso coin collector and later president of the American Numismatic association designed the coin. Edmund J. Senn prepared the models. No portrait of de Vaca is known so, as the explorer's name means "head of a cow," this device was chosen for the obverse (heads) of the coin. The words include Liberty/Alvar Nunez Cabeza de Vaca/United States of America/E Pluribus Unum/Half Dollar.

On the other side is a yucca tree in full bloom superimposed upon a map showing the expedition's route through Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana and Texas, the dates 1535-1935 and the words El Paso/Old Spanish Trail/In God We Trust.

Novelty of the design attracted wide comment at the time. Dealers charge up to $12 for the coin today.

Once-Over Seedbed Preparation Cuts Cost
Extra Tillage Steps

Preparing the soil a "once-over" seedbed preparation can help cut crop production costs by eliminating extra tillage steps while still maintaining high yields, according to Michigan State College agronomists.

The agronomists found that plowing, packing and planting in one operation produced as high yields of all grains, sugar beets and corn as did good tillage, as did conventional seedbed preparation that included double disking and spike-harrowing.

The "once-over" method permitted quicker planting, because less

Illustrated above is the "once-over" method of plowing, packing and planting that can save many farmers high production costs.

It was needed to get seed into the ground. It means a saving in labor and tractor fuel. Two plowing and two harrowing operations were eliminated. Another advantage was that the soil had greater storage capacity, for the soil was not broken down by excessive tillage.

Maintaining tilth is vital in crop production, these agronomists say. Loose, grainy soils give a poor contact between the soil and seed. That makes it easier for water to reach plant nutrients, air and water.

Disease Appears among Illinois Cattle

A comparatively new disease, x-disease, has been recognized in 37 or more counties, the journal of American Veterinary Medical Association reports.

Reports indicate that, in some sections, herds have been decimated and dispersed because of the effects of the disease. This has happened in few instances in Illinois, but in the southern states the disease apparently has assumed a more malignant form and constitutes a more serious problem than elsewhere.

The morbidity, while unpredictable, may be high. Young cattle appear to be more susceptible than older ones and the death rate among them is higher. While in the U. S. bureau of animal industry reports, beef cattle were more frequently involved than dairy animals, the disease has been seen most equally among the two types in Illinois.

The cause, as indicated by the name "x-disease", is unknown.

The U. S. department of agriculture reports a decrease in farm population from 1910 to 1950 of over 40 million. From 1916 to 1930, the number of persons living on farms decreased each year except during the recession years of the early 1920's and during 1925.

In the depression of the early 30's farm population rose rapidly, totaling 32.0 million in 1933. The principal reason for this increase was a slowing down of migration away from farms. After 1933, the number of persons on farms decreased steadily through 1945.

During World War II the rate of increase grew as large numbers of people left farms for the cities or went into the armed forces. By 1945 only 25.2 million persons lived on farms.

After the war, farm population increased substantially for two years, but since then, the changes have been slight. Farm population appears to have leveled off about halfway between its prewar size and the wartime low.

Electric Water Pump Saves Many Pump Pains

The Rural Electrification Administration reports that next to lighting, water pumping is possibly the most valuable farm use of electricity. On many farms, five cents worth of electricity will pump and deliver 100 gallons of water to its place of use.

More and more farm families are realizing how much time is spent pumping water and are converting to the use of electricity.

A Statement From Judge Reed

It has not been possible for me to personally visit with many of you during my campaign for reelection as District Judge. The unusually heavy work in the courts of the District have deprived me of that privilege. Therefore, I am taking this means of asking you for your support for reelection as District Judge on the basis of the record I have made.

I am a Veteran of both World Wars having served overseas with the 90th Division. While I was in the army during the last World War I gladly rendered every assistance within my power to every young man in the 106th District who was in military service and let me know that I could be of assistance to him.

I take definite pride in having served my country in both peace and in two World Wars, a distinction not enjoyed by many men.

I was reared on a farm and spent a large part of my early life in farming and teaching school in order to help support an invalid father and brother, and at the same time acquire an education.

I have been a church member since a boy of twelve, an officer in the church for over 25 years and have taught a Sunday School class ever since I moved to the South Plains.

While I became your District Judge a little over 13 years ago, over 3 years of that time was spent in the armed forces, so actually I have served as your District Judge for only slightly more than 10 years. The experience I have gained during this time has given an insight into the problems which arise in the district courts that is impossible to gain elsewhere.

I believe that you will select a District Judge on substantially the same basis as you would select a doctor, a tractor driver, a mechanic, clerk, or any other person with responsibilities—that is, select one who has had the proper training and successful experience in the position which he seeks. I believe that you will select as your District Judge a man who has the strength, the health, the vigor and the energy to quickly and efficiently perform his duties. I refer you to the jurors who have served in court as to whether I am such a person. I am old enough to be thoroughly experienced and am young enough and have the health and strength to continue to efficiently perform the duties of the office.

Of the many hundreds of cases that I have tried since my return in 1945, only 33 have been appealed. Of this number the higher courts have ruled that I made errors in less than one fourth of the cases. This is a much better record than the average for the State of Texas.

I have sought, made and enjoyed close personal friendships throughout this district. I have shown to the best of my ability the same zeal to quickly perform my duties in each county. I have tried to do my exact duty regardless of

Ohio State university's "Playboy," 250-pound Berkshire, was acclaimed grand champion barrow (market hog) at the Chicago International Livestock Exposition. "Playboy" defeated more than 900 other hogs to win top honors. Arthur Jordan, OSU swine herdsman, is shown with the champion.

Egg Is Never Any Better Than When It Is Laid

Many farmers apparently don't think about the fact, but an egg is just as good as it will ever be when the hen lays it.

Boyd Ellis, poultry specialist of the Wyoming agricultural extension service, points out that it's up to the consumer to keep the quality of eggs good. To do this, eggs should be gathered soon after they're laid; should be cooled in a wire basket.

Announcing...the Beautiful

CHRYSLER IMPERIAL 4-DOOR SEDAN with Clearbac rear window

Chrysler Imperial a new car of unrivaled distinction

This is the Chrysler Imperial...new running mate of America's finest car...the great Chrysler Crown Imperial. With the same luxurious interiors—unmatched in automotive history! With built-in value all the way through unrivaled today! With the quality of materials, the workmanship, and engineering that put every Chrysler in a class by itself! From new Clearbac rear window to the soft, satiny butter-finished chrome of interior appointments...this car is excitingly new! Deliberately built as a challenge to all former standards of what a fine car should be...and should do for you! Come take the wheel. Then carefully compare the built-in value with what the others offer.

There's built-in value all the way through without equal... Waterproof Ignition System... High Compression Spitfire Engine... Fluid Drive... Full Flow Oil Filter... foam rubber seat backs... a Booster Brake... Chrome Wheel Covers—White Sidewall Tires... many other features that, when available at all, are extra-cost on other cars.

Here is distinction in interior decor unsurpassed in any other car, regardless of price. Aristocratic color harmonies combine exquisite wool broadcloth fabrics, top-grain leathers. Chrome is tasteful butter-finished. Window lifts are electrically operated... arm rests, front and rear, are double-width throughout.

BERRY FLAT NEWS

The Berry Flat Stitch and Clatter Club met with Mrs Menie Stubblefield Tuesday afternoon. Cookies and ice cream were served to 16 ladies and 14 children. Out of town guests were Mrs J H Parker of Amarillo, Mrs Horace Cook of New Home and Mrs Ray Mouldin of Draw. An enjoyable evening was had by all.

Mr and Mrs Noland Jones are the proud parents of a fine baby daughter born Sunday at a Lamesa hospital.

Church was well attended Sunday at Berry Flat; we also a Japanese girl to speak Sunday night.

Those visiting in the Dick Simpson home Sunday were Mr and Mrs J W Tucker and Terry Simpson of Amarillo, Mr and Mrs Jim Tucker, Mrs Lidia Tate of Lubbock and Mrs Holland Simpson and Wayne.

We have received p good showers this week, which was needed very much; crops look good now.

Mr and Mrs Wright and daughter visited Mr and Mrs L B Jones Sunday.

A STATEMENT FROM WILL EDD TREDWAY FOR COMMISSIONER PCT. 3 LYNN CO.

I am taking this opportunity of reaching the voters whom I may have missed in my rounds to solicit their vote and influence in the primary election Saturday for the position of Commissioner Pct. 3.
